

DIED IN CALIFORNIA

George H. Fletcher, Formerly of Minneapolis, Sought Health in West.

George H. Fletcher, formerly of Minneapolis, died at his home, 2318 Ocean View avenue, Los Angeles, Cal., last night. Mr. Fletcher is well known in Minneapolis, where he has many friends. In the winter of 1901-02 he left Minneapolis for his health and went to Cannon City, Col. Later he moved to Los Angeles.

He practiced law in Minneapolis many years and was at one time quite active in politics. He was a member of the legislature, and was also a candidate for the district bench in 1900. He lectured in the law school at the university for a time.