

A. J. SAMEC OF ST. PAUL DIES

Albert J. Samec, 51, a St. Paul member of the state house of representatives since 1921, died suddenly at his home early Friday. He was a member of the Farmer-Labor group and in the special session last year headed the house committee that prepared the state liquor control law. Samec was born in Lumice, Bohemia, and came to St. Paul when a year old. After receiving a public school education he went to work as a cigarmaker and subsequently was an official of the cigarmakers' union. He was a member of the Elks, Moose, Bohemian Workmen lodges, West End Commercial club and the St. Francis Casino. Surviving him are three brothers, George and Frank of St. Paul and Edward of St. Petersburg, Fla.

A. J. Samec.