

HISTORISKA SKILDNINGAR

L. J. Ahlstrom

L. J. Ahlstrom
1854-1945

Fifty-Five Years in Western Wisconsin

By L. J. Ahlstrom

Translated by Inger Berggren and Carolyn Wedin

Historical Writings

Some well-known men and women of Swedish descent in United States' national history

Origin of Swedish Baptist work in Western Wisconsin: June 5, 1869 to 5 June, 1924

Pioneer Life

Printed 1924

Minneapolis, Minnesota, U. S. A.
(Larson Printing Company)

In grateful memory of and devotion to Pastor John Ring and the group of men and women who helped him lay the ground work for a Swedish Church and mission field in Western Wisconsin, these historical memories are dedicated by the Author

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: The main reasons for the publishing of this book and some of the author's childhood memories, pp. 7-19 in original

Chapter 2: Some Swedish names in the history of the U. S. from its beginnings to 1807, pp. 22-47 in the original

Chapter 3: The State of Wisconsin and the appearance of Swedes here between 1820 and 1852, pp. 58-69 in the original

Chapter 4: The first Protestant mission activities in the Valley of the St. Croix, 1830-1860, pp. 58-69

Chapter 5: The first Swedish Baptist Preacher in Wisconsin, John Ring, pp. 70-94

Chapter 6: The first Swedish Baptist Congregations in Burnett County: Trade Lake, Wood River, pp. 95-146

Chapter 7: Wood River and Trade Lake Missionary Associations, pp. 147-159

Chapter 8: The First American Baptist preacher in this Missionary field: Asa B. Green, pp. 160-167

Chapter 9: Three more congregations founded: Prairie, Stockholm, Grantsburg, pp. 168-187

Chapter 10: The Northwest Wisconsin Missionary Association founded, 21 December 1890, pp. 188-207

Chapter 11: Northwest Wisconsin Missionary Association missionary, F. O. Carlson, pp. 205-222

Chapter 12: The last seven congregations: Mudhen Lake, Trimbell, Lund, El Salem, Webster, Bunyan, Falun, pp. 223-255

Chapter 13: The 50th Anniversary of Trade Lake and Wood River Congregations, 1-8 June, 1919, pp. 256-276

Chapter 14: Swedish and American Baptists' first cooperation; Some reflections, pp. 277-285

Chapter 15: Pioneer Life in Western Wisconsin. The first Europeans; the original inhabitants; Allouez and Perrot; Red Bird; Black Hawk; Hundred Years' War; The Indians in Burnett County; How we came into the woods, found our land, and built our first houses; Our first roads; How we maintained ourselves; Animal pests and birds; Our first fields and harvests; Commerce and industry; Deaths and funerals; Accidents; Weddings; How we became Americans; Brief look back and reflections, pp. 286-366

Chapter 16: The 40th anniversary in Ogema of the Wisconsin Conference, 29 June 1924, pp. 367-380