Deaths elsewhere

Val Imm, who represented the Mankato area in the Minnesota Legislature for 34 years, died in Dallas at the age of 88. Imm had published a weekly newspaper, the Mankato News, for many years, starting in 1926. He was elected to the Minnesota House in 1932 and served a single term before beginning a 32-year tenure in the Senate. He served as chairman of the Senate Finance Committee in the 1960s. Imm had lived in the Dallas area for the past two years to be near his children. He is survived by his wife, Gertrude, four daughters and a son.
