

Reprinted by permission of the Star Tribune (Minneapolis, MN).

REP. HAROLD J. ANDERSON

Minneapolis' 33rd district

Beginning his fourth term as one of two 33rd district representatives will be Harold J. Anderson, Minneapolis lawyer.

Anderson is a former FBI agent who left whatever glamor that had to settle down as a family man, civic wheelhorse and government student.

Anderson

He got his political training in the sometimes rough ranks of the Young Republican league, became chairman of the Hennepin county YRL in 1947 and of the state organization a year later.

He was active in the Minneapolis Aquatennial organization, in 1954 was its chairman and now serves on its board of directors.

Anderson is a member of the Elks and the Chamber of Commerce and on the speakers committee for the Community Chest. He is a graduate of the Minneapolis College of Law and was admitted to the bar in 1936. Mpls. Star

In the past two years he has served on the interim committee studying juvenile delinquency and its subcommittee studying the state's criminal code, as well as on the Minnesota Centennial commission.

He and his wife, Eleanor, live at 4919 Colfax avenue S. with Sons Gary, 2, and Danny, 4 months.

Between Nov. 1956 - Jan. 1957