

Messrs. Day, J. L., Johnstone and Coughlin introduced the following resolution:

Whereas, Honorable Thomas E. Cashman, a former member of the Senate, departed this life at Owatonna, Minnesota on the 15th day of December, 1933, and

Whereas, the people of his District and the State of Minnesota called him to many positions of great importance, all of which he filled with single ability and distinction; and his capable, intelligent and untiring efforts in behalf of the farmers of Minnesota and the Northwest justly earned for him a national reputation, and

Whereas, he enjoyed the warm personal respect of all who knew him and set an example of ideal public service, of conscientious Christian devotion to his family and gentle tolerance and courteous good will to all;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the House of Representatives of Minnesota that it hereby express its regret at his untimely death and extend its deep sympathy to his bereaved family; and that the Chief Clerk be and he is hereby authorized to have an engrossed copy of this resolution sent to the family of the deceased.

Mr. Day, J. L., moved the adoption of the foregoing resolution.

Which motion prevailed and the foregoing resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

Mr. Finstuen, from the Committee on Emergency Relief, to which was referred—

H. F. No. 75, A bill for an act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes for 1927, Section 2867, relating to the sale of bonds by the board of education of unorganized school territory in certain counties, as amended by Chapter 431, Laws of Minnesota 1933.

Reports the same back with the following amendments:

Amend House File 75, Section 1, by adding the following at the end thereof:

Provided that no bonds shall be authorized or sold under the provisions of this act, unless notice shall have first been given to the electors of such unorganized school district setting forth the proposal to issue such bonds, the amount thereof, the rate of interest, the maturity dates thereof, and the purpose for which the proceeds of such bonds will be used; and also a description of the project or projects to be undertaken and completed, the estimated cost of each and the estimated total cost, which notice shall be in writing, and signed by the members of the County Board of Education, and addressed to the electors of such district, and shall specify the date, time, and place of meeting of the County Board of Education when such proposal shall be considered, and shall be posted in three conspicuous places in each township of said district, and published in one issue of three legal newspapers of general circulation in said district. Said notice shall require any electors having objections, to appear and show cause, if any, why such bonds should not be authorized and sold. The County Board of Education at the time and place mentioned in said notice shall hear all objections and thereafter shall decide whether such bonds shall be authorized and sold.

Amend Section 2, at the end thereof, by striking out the period after the word "Act" inserting a semicolon; and adding the following language:

"Providing however, that nothing in this act shall be construed to permit the issuance and sale of bonds for any purpose whatsoever without a prior vote of the electors except upon the projects for which application has been made in writing to the Public Works Administration or to any other agency of the United States Government, and which application shall have been filed with such agency on or before January 1, 1934.

And when so amended that the bill do pass, under suspension of rules of the House.
