Rites Planned for Legislator From Halstad

Special to The Minneapolis Star

HALSTAD, Minn. — Funeral services for Rep. Marvin E. Christianson, 41, Halstad DFLer, who died at University Hospitals in Minneapolis Saturday, will be held here Friday.

Mr. Christianson Mr. Christianson, a native of Halstad, was a farmer. He was elected to the Minnesota Legislature in 1964 and re-elected in 1966 and 1968. He represented Norman County and part of Polk County.

He was a past chairman of the Norman County DFL organization.

In St. Paul, where the Legislature is in session, Rep. Lloyd L. Duxbury, speaker of the House, said that out of respect to Mr. Christianson the House would adjourn immediately after convening today. It also will not meet Friday, he said.

Survivors include his widow, Donna; a son, Marvin Jr., and a daughter, Lori Ann.

Services are being arranged by the Frederickson mortuary at Ada, Minn.
