REP. EDMOND F. CONN

Sixth district—Freeborn county

Representing the incoming house freshmen on the unofficial committee on committees with Speaker A. I. Johnson is Rep. Edmond F. Conn of Alden and Albert Lea.

The committee is representative of all congressional districts, picked by Johnson to advise him on committee assignments.

Conn, active in the DFL party, will caucus with the house liberals after having defeated the Freeborn county incumbent of six terms, Irvin Talle. Mpls. Star

He was born in Alden township and now resides in the village, 10 miles west of Albert Lea, where he maintains an office for his farm loan and insurance and real estate business. He also is a farm operator and is a breeder and exhibitor of pure-bred livestock.

He is a member of various Masonic orders, the Elks club, Kiwanis club and Albert Lea Chamber of Commerce.

He was secretary of the Freeborn county DFL party in 1954.

He and his wife, Shirley, belong to the Methodist church. They have four children, Virginia Lee, 18; Judith Merlene, 15; Linda Shirley, eight, and James Robert, six.

Between Nov. 1956 - Jan. 1957
