

nesota hereby declares its sense of loss because of his death, and we extend our deepest sympathy to his bereaved family, and that a copy of this Resolution, as engrossed by the Chief Clerk, be sent to his family as a means of our esteem and as a token of our affection for our departed comrade and friend.

Mr. Lundeen moved that the foregoing Resolution be adopted.

Which motion prevailed and the Resolution was unanimously adopted.

Messrs. Johnson, J. A., and Burnap offered the following Resolution:

Whereas, Honorable Martin W. Williams, a member of the House during the sessions of 1913 and 1931, was called by Almighty God to his eternal reward on April 7, 1943, and

Whereas, His life was an example and inspiration for the present and succeeding generations of citizens of this state; and

Whereas, In his contacts with his fellowmen he was earnest, sincere, congenial and kindly, and in his public life wholeheartedly devoted to the service of the best interests of the State; and

Whereas, During his long and distinguished public service he also occupied the position of president of the State school board association, mayor of Lanesboro, assessor, president of the board of education, justice of the peace, member of the park board, and other important public offices; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, hereby declare our sense of loss because of his death, and extend our deepest sympathy to his bereaved family, and that a copy of this Resolution be sent to his family as a mark of our esteem, and as a token of our affection for our departed comrade and friend.

Mr. Burnap moved that the foregoing Resolution be adopted.

Which motion prevailed and the Resolution was unanimously adopted.

Messrs. Dunn and Memmer offered the following Resolution:

Whereas, By report of the Committee on Rules, adopted January 27, 1943, the offer of certain students of the Law School of the University of Minnesota to assist without payment therefor with the work of the Legal Bureau of the House of Representatives was accepted and, pursuant thereto, Sidney Lorberbaum, Hamilton Luther, Stuart Rider, Irvin Schermer, and Frederick Thorson of Minneapolis, Robert Carlson of Granite Falls, and Jacob Schway of St. Paul, all of whom are students under Professor Horace E. Reed of the University of Minnesota, rendered services in association with the Legal Bureau of the 53rd Session of the Legislature of the State of Minnesota; and

Whereas, The voluntary services of these young men, under the helpful supervision and counsel of their instructor, often involved considerable research, study and helpful consultation with many of the members of the House of Representatives, and the lawyers employed by it, resulting in the orderly and practical preparation of proposed legislation throughout this Session;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives do hereby officially express to Professor Horace E.
