

Reprinted by permission of the Star Tribune (Minneapolis, MN).

Death elsewhere

Dr. Vernon K. Jensen

Dr. Vernon K. Jensen, 70, a former state senator, died Saturday at his home in Maplewood.

Jensen, a native of Montevideo, Minn., and a veterinarian there for many years, served in the Minnesota Senate from 1965 until 1973. He was appointed to the state Ethical Practices Board in 1978 and served until this year. He had lived in Maplewood for seven years.

Surviving are his wife, Irene; two daughters, Becky Engelke, Belgrade, Minn., and Patty Mjos, Limestone, Maine, and six grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

12-17-74
S/T