REP. VICTOR N. JUDE

27th district—Wright county

An active DFL worker making his legislative debut in the 1957 session is Rep. Victor N. Jude.

Jude, 33, is Wright county DFL chairman, treasurer of the party's state central committee, and credited with stirring up party interest in the mid-state sixth congressional district.

Jude

A graduate of schools in his hometown of Maple Lake, Jude received a degree in business administration at St. Thomas college and post-graduate credits from the University of Minnesota.

He served 33 months in World War II and is adjutant and board member of his American Legion post.

Jude is past president, secretary-treasurer and deputy district governor of the Lions club and presently chairman of its constitution and by-laws committee; a member of the United Nations association and vice-chairman of the Minnesota statehood centennial committee.

He is an active golfer and skier.

Jude and his wife Ruth have three children, Thaddeus, five; Marian, two, and Jacinta, born last April.
