MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS—CONTINUED.

Mr. Mangan offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE RAY G. FARRINGTON.

Whereas, death has called a former member of the Minnesota State Senate, Honorable Ray G. Farrington, and

Whereas, in his death at Ortonville, Minnesota, on January 11th, 1927, the state and nation lost a faithful servant, true to his trust, eager to help perfect the mechanism of government so that it would be responsive to the will of the people, and

Whereas, Senator Farrington has served the interests of the state and nation, honorably and creditably in private practice as a lawyer, in public office as a city attorney, county attorney of Big Stone

County, State Senator from the then 56th District, and as delegate to the National Convention of one of our great political parties, and

Whereas, in all these capacities he gave himself, unsparingly, to the duties entailed by the positions he held, and

Whereas, throughout his very active and useful life, to those who knew him best, he was a gentleman of marked kindness, genial disposition and great friendship, with unswerving devotion to the cause of righteousness and the best interests of the state.

Therefore, Be It Resolved By The Senate of the State of Minnesota, that it hereby officially declares its sense of loss in the death of Honorable Ray G. Farrington, expresses its deep appreciation of his many good qualities and that it extends to his mother, its sincere sympathy in the personal bereavement suffered by her in the loss of a beloved son, and

Be It Further Resolved, that this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the Senate and that the Secretary be, and he hereby is, authorized and instructed to have an engrossed copy of this resolution prepared and sent to the deceased's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth P. Farrington.

Which resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote of the Senate.

Mr. Rockne moved that the Senate do now adjourn until 10:45 o'clock A. M. tomorrow.

Which motion prevailed.

GEO. W. PEACHEY,
Secretary of the Senate.
