

Ex-state senator

D.S. Feidt dies

Minneapolis Star 1-20-73

Daniel S. Feidt, lawyer, former Minnesota legislator and former head of the city's public transportation system, died last night in Doctor's Hospital, Coral Gables, Fla., at age 65.

Since 1972 the family

had been living at Key Biscayne, Fla.

Services are tentatively scheduled for Tuesday in Minneapolis. Feidt was born in Bellefonte, Pa., and grew up in Minneapolis.

He was elected to the Minnesota House of Representatives in 1936. In 1938 he was elected to the state Senate. For a time he headed the Hennepin County Senate delegation. He was a senator until 1961. Among his major interests while in the Legislature was juvenile delinquency.

He became head of Twin City Lines, Inc., in 1959, the company that took over the Twin City Lines, Inc., in 1959, the company that took over the Twin City Rapid Transit Co. He later became president of Minnesota Enterprises, Inc., which owned other companies beside the transit company.

He was a former president of the Minneapolis Jaycees and of the Hennepin County Mental Board. He also had been executive secretary of the Minnesota Bar Association.

Survivors include his widow, Jean, two sons, Joseph, Colorado Springs, Colo., and Daniel H., Minneapolis, and a daughter, Mary, also of Minneapolis.

Reprinted by permission of the Star Tribune (Minneapolis, MN).

Ex-state senator Mpls. Star 1-20-73 D.S. Feidt dies

Daniel S. Feidt, lawyer, former Minnesota legislator and former head of the city's public transportation system, died last night in Doctor's Hospital, Coral Gables, Fla., at age 65.

Since 1972 the family

had been living at Key Biscayne, Fla.

Services are tentatively scheduled for Tuesday in Minneapolis. Feidt was born in Bellefonte, Pa., and grew up in Minneapolis.

He was elected to the Minnesota House of Representatives in 1936. In 1938 he was elected to the state Senate. For a time he headed the Hennepin County Senate delegation. He was a senator until 1961. Among his major interests while in the Legislature was juvenile delinquency.

He became head of Twin City Lines, Inc., in 1959, the company that took over the Twin City Lines, Inc., in 1959, the company that took over the Twin City Rapid Transit Co. He later became president of Minnesota Enterprises, Inc., which owned other companies beside the transit company.

He was a former president of the Minneapolis Jaycees and of the Hennepin County Mental Board. He also had been executive secretary of the Minnesota Bar Association.

Survivors include his widow, Jean, two sons, Joseph, Colorado Springs, Colo., and Daniel H., Minneapolis, and a daughter, Mary, also of Minneapolis.