

Fred K. Gage Rites to Be Held on Wednesday

Services for Fred K. Gage, 49, Minneapolis lawyer who was killed Sunday in an automobile accident, will be 2 p.m. Wednesday in Como Avenue Congregational church with burial in Sunset Memorial Park cemetery.

Mr. Gage, who lived at 2000 Penn avenue S., was a member of the law firm of Gage and McQueen. He was a former state senator.

He was a Mason and a member of Zuhrah temple of the Shrine, American Legion, St. Anthony Commercial club, Minnesota and Hennepin County Bar association, and the Golden Valley Country club.

He is survived by his wife, Vivian; a daughter, Mrs. Earl Campbell; three sons, K. Felton of Mankato, Minn., Jack and James of Minneapolis; his mother, Mrs. Ellen Gage, St. Paul, three sisters, Mrs. Eunice Bjorson, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. Harriet Sculley, Hamilton, Mont., and Mrs. Frank Scott, St. Paul, and a brother, Phil, Ellsworth, Wis.