

SEN. HANSON

Sixth District—Freeborn County
County and township government—and ways to improve them—are legislative favorites of studious Sen. Rudolph Hanson of Albert Lea.

Two years ago he co-authored the township and county zoning bills and measures broadening responsibilities of municipal courts. He also has been interested in constitutional revision by a m e n d -

Hanson

ment, this session expects to continue his work on reapportionment and modernization of the constitution's debt limit provisions. Mpls. Star

A lawyer, Hanson was born on a farm near Albert Lea. He taught school and operated a co-operative creamery to finance his law study. After World War II navy duty, he ran for county attorney. He held the post until his senate election in 1954.

Hanson is active in community work and belongs to the Lions club, the Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Toastmasters club, various bar associations and the Great Books club.

He has been a member of the interim commissions studying the lower courts system and capitol improvements.

Hanson is unmarried. 1961