

P. J. HOLLAND

District 5

Dodge, Mower Counties

Class 1955

Majority Group

Congressional District 1

To say there'll be a new face in the state senate in place of Philip Duff, Jr., is technically accurate. However, P. J. Holland of Austin is no newcomer to St. Paul--particularly in farm circles.

Holland has been a member of the Minnesota State fair board seven years. He's a member of St. Paul's Osman Temple of the Shrine.

Born in 1905 in McKinley, Minn., Holland raised hogs many years, is director of the National Barrow show and Minnesota-Iowa Swine Institute. He's secretary of the Austin Area Swine Improvement association.

For 19 years Holland has been director of the adult agricultural program in Austin public schools. He's secretary of the Mower county fair and of the Midwest Livestock show. Holland also does freelance writing, for the past two years has operated Austin Printing Inc.

A 1927 graduate of the University of Minnesota, he attends the Presbyterian Church in Austin, is a Rotarian.

He and his wife, Margaret, have a daughter, Elizabeth Ann, student at the University of Denver and former member of the Hormel Caravan. Holland will caucus with the senate conservatives.
