

SEN. HOLMQUIST

26th District—Meeker County

Thanksgiving time is reunion time in the family of Sen. Stanley Holmquist and this year the Holmquists were hosts. Included at get-togethers were the state's new first lady and Gov.-elect Andersen.

Edith Johnson Holmquist and Eleanor Johnson Andersen are sisters.

Holmquist occupies the same senate desk as Andersen did. Now in his second senate term, Holmquist did a four-term house apprenticeship. He is a promoter of constitutional revision, improved education facilities at all levels and stabilized unemployment compensation scales.

Mpls. Star
A graduate of the University of Minnesota, he directed the school system of Grove City, his home town, for 10 years; then entered the lumber business. He now has yards at Litchfield, Darwin and Grove City.

He's a member of the Augustana Lutheran church board of Christian service and the board of St. Paul's Bethesda hospital as well as the social service board of his church. A Conservative, he headed the GOP sixth district committee in 1956-1957.

Holmquist and his wife are the parents of Stanley, 18; Mary, 16, and Charles, 8.

1961