

April 26, 1937

The Minneapolis Star

LENNON, CIVIC LEADER, DEAD

Church Services Set for Ex-County, State Official

Ambrose L. Lennon, 76, 2221 Second street N.E., civic leader, died at Abbott hospital Sunday. Services will be at St. Anthony of Padua church at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

The body will lie in state at the J. Emmet Sullivan mortuary.

A resident of Minneapolis 52

A. L. Lennon years, he was Hennepin county commissioner from 1886 to 1888, was a member of the house of representatives from 1915 to 1923 and of the senate from 1923 to 1935. He is the author of the public defender and conciliation and small debtors' court acts now in force in Minneapolis. From 1905 to 1909 he was state oil inspector.

He took an active part in philanthropic work in Minneapolis.

Surviving are the widow, Mary; two daughters, Mary and Esther, and a son, William A.