Mabeth Paige Hall bought

The Twin Cities Housing Development Corp., a St. Paul-based private nonprofit developer, has bought the Mabeth Paige Hall at 727 5th Av. S. in downtown Minneapolis and plans to turn it into more than 80 efficiency apartments. The building had been owned by the Woman's Christian Association, which used it to provide dormitory housing for young women until the fall of 1986, when it was closed.

Twin Cities Housing, which specializes in developing low- to moderate-priced housing, paid about $1.4 million for the building. Work on the renovation has started and the first apartments are expected to be available before the end of the year.
