

Reprinted by permission of the Star Tribune (Minneapolis, MN).

REF. SALLY LUTHER
Minneapolis' 30th district

Rep. Sally Luther has established herself as one of the main gears in the DFL-liberal majority of the Minnesota house of representatives.

Re-elected to a fourth term, Mrs. Luther goes into the 1957 session with 1955 experience as chairman of the

Mrs. Luther house welfare committee, vice chairman of education and duty on the key appropriations, civil administration, university and election committees. Mpls. Star

A former newspaper reporter, she is the wife of C. H. Luther, Minneapolis attorney. Their children are Charles Hamilton Luther, Jr., 14; Mark, 5, and Sara Lee, born last January.

She is a member of Westminster Presbyterian church, the American Association of University Women and the League of Women Voters. Her activities also include a variety of civic participation.

She is a board member of Family and Children's service, Urban League, Northeast Neighborhood House and Senior Citizens' Council house.

Since the 1955 session she has served on the legislative interim commissions on school aids and public welfare and on the governor's self-survey "task force" for governmental organization. She also was a delegate to the federal-state conference on aging.

*Between
Nov. 1956 - Jan. 1957*