

House of Representatives

27th Day]

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1945.

245

Whereas, the present streetcar fare and bus rate is more than 5 cents per person irrespective of age, and

Whereas, it appears that a majority of the children of school age would be benefitted by a reduction in the streetcar fare and bus rate, and

Whereas, the Railroad and Warehouse Commission of the State of Minnesota is vested with authority to effect any change in rate wherever applicable

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the House of Representatives that the Railroad and Warehouse Commission of the State of Minnesota be, and it is hereby requested to take such action as may be requisite in the premises to establish a 5 cent streetcar fare and bus rate for all children attending school up to and including the twelfth grade.

Be It Further Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Railroad and Warehouse Commission of the State of Minnesota.

Mr. McNulty moved that the foregoing resolution be laid over for one day and be printed in the Journal.

Which motion prevailed.

Messrs. Widstrand, Day, McNulty, Oberg and McReynolds offered the following resolution:

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 8.

→ Whereas, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom has taken from our midst John O. Melby, who passed away at Oklee on October 30th, 1944, and

Whereas, John O. Melby had served as a member of the House of Representatives for many years, and who has been considered as one of the outstanding Legislators, a man who was honest, sincere, and impartial in all his deliberations; whose sincerity of purpose was never questioned; a true humanitarian who was held in the highest respect not only by the people of his district but by the people of the State of Minnesota as a whole. He always had a word of cheer for everyone and could always be relied upon to extend a helping hand to those less fortunate than himself.

Therefore Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Minnesota Legislature that this Resolution be adopted and printed in the Journal and a copy sent to the relatives of the deceased.

Mr. Widstrand moved that the foregoing resolution be adopted.

Which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.
