

for the 1945, 1947 and 1949 Sessions, was called by Divine Providence on March 31, 1951; and

Whereas, he was a man of high integrity and purpose, representing the people of his district and the State of Minnesota in an able, loyal and progressive manner; and

Whereas, he was a kind and devoted husband and father, a sincere and helpful friend, and greatly respected by his neighbors and associates;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, grieved by the loss of our friend and former co-worker, hereby extend to his bereaved family our deepest sympathy in the loss of their husband and father, in this our mutual sorrow; and

Be It Further Resolved, that an engrossed copy of this Resolution be sent to his family in token of our esteem and friendship for our sincere and respected friend.

Mr. Day moved that the foregoing resolution be adopted.

Mr. Day and Mrs. Knutson paid a tribute to the memory of the late Mr. McReynolds.

The question recurred on the motion of Mr. Day to adopt the resolution.

Which motion prevailed and the resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Messrs. Beck and Ryan offered:

→ HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 29

HOUSE RESOLUTION IN MEMORIAM FOR THE
HON. HENRY RINES

Whereas, the Honorable Henry Rines, of Kenebec County, member of the House of Representatives from the 55th District during the Sessions of 1907, 1909, 1911, the Special Session of 1912, and the Regular Session of 1913, during which he served as the Speaker, and again as a member during the Regular Sessions of 1943 and 1945, was called by Divine Providence on October 5, 1950; and

Whereas, he was born in Orsa, Sweden, on June 9, 1872, coming to Minnesota at an early age, as many of our hardest and finest pioneers have done, who have contributed so much in the development of this State, and he commenced a long and distinguished career of public service at the age of 35 years as a member of this House. Always vitally interested in community affairs, he became a publisher and directed his personal efforts and resources to keeping the people of our State well informed upon public affairs; and

Whereas, he was a man of high integrity, with unflinching loyalty to his friends, which with his pleasing personality has been the admiration of all who knew him. He served as Treasurer of the State of Minnesota from 1917 until 1925 and as State Comptroller and Chairman of the Commission of Administration and Finance until 1931. He was Secretary and a member of the Commission created to erect the State Office Building from 1929 until 1933;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, grieved by the loss of our friend and former co-worker, we hereby extend to his bereaved family our deepest sympathy in the loss of their father in this our mutual sorrow; and

Be It Further Resolved, that an engrossed copy of this Resolution be sent to his children as a token of our esteem and friendship for our sincere and respected friend.

Mr. Beck moved that the foregoing resolution be adopted.

Messrs. Beck and Ryan paid a tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Rines.

The question recurred on the motion of Mr. Beck to adopt the resolution.

Which motion prevailed and the resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. Duxbury offered:
