

Chris Rosenmeier State Solon, Dies

CHRIS ROSENMEIER

Little Falls, Minn., June 3.—(U.P.)—Christ Rosenmeier, state senator from Little Falls in the past five sessions of the Minnesota legislature, died last night. He had been ill for several months from complications of heart, kidney and blood ailments.

His wife, two sons and daughters were with him when he died. His eldest son, Gordon, who was graduated from Leland Stanford university and admitted to the bar in California recently, has been home for some time. Another son, Donald, is in high school.

Rosenmeier was graduated from the law school of the University of Minnesota and was county attorney of Morrison county for six years before being elected to the legislature.
