Section 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are repealed."

Which motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Brophey moved to amend H. F. No. 323 by adding a new Section to read as follows:

Section 2. This act shall be in force and take effect from and after the expiration of the terms to which the Representatives and Senators now serving were elected.

Which motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Brophey moved that H. F. No. 323 be placed at the head of the Calendar, subject to amendment and that the subject matter be referred to the Committee on General Legislation.

Which motion prevailed and it was so ordered.

Mr. Peterson offered the following resolution:

Whereas, on the 30th day of March, 1855, there was born in the village of Salisbury, New Hampshire, an honored member of the House of Representatives, who attended the schools of that section, and as a young man heeded the advice of Horace Greeley and went west into the State of Minnesota; and

Whereas, for a quarter of century our distinguished colleague has pioneered in the forests of northern Minnesota, and for a number of years served as Surveyor General of Logs and Lumber of the State of Minnesota; and

Whereas, for many years he has been one of the leading citizens of the city of Duluth, has taken a deep interest in its civic problems and has had a large share in its development as one of the leading municipalities of the State and one of the largest ports in the World;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that we extend to our colleague, Frank G. Scribner, our felicitations and congratulations upon this his seventy-second birthday and express the hope that he may be spared for useful service and sage advice for many years to come.

Which resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.
