So the bill was passed and its title agreed to.

Messrs. Lundeen, Volstad, Peterson, G. C., and Halsted, offered the following Resolution:

Whereas, Honorable Sylvannas A. Stockwell, a member of the House of Representatives during the sessions of 1891, 1893 and 1897, a member of the Senate of 1898 to 1902, and again a member of the House of Representatives during the sessions of 1923 and 1925, and 1929 to 1939, was called by the Ruler of the Universe to his eternal reward on April 17, 1943, and

Whereas, He was a territorial pioneer of the State of Minnesota, and was a resident of the City of Minneapolis continuously from 1878, and his life was unselfishly devoted to the service of his fellowmen, and he was a valiant champion of Indian relief, the Negro race, co-operatives, public ownership, the single tax philosophy, the initiative referendum and civil liberties, and he was a distinguished leader of the Farmer-Labor party, and

Whereas, In his advocacy of measures which he believed to be right, he was untiring, was a master of presentation and brilliant in debate, and undoubtedly was the peer of his contemporaries in his chosen field of service, and

Whereas, His life was an example of inspiration for the present and succeeding generations of citizens, and

Whereas, His contacts with his fellowmen was earnest and sincere, congenial and kind, now therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota hereby declares its sense of loss because of his death, and we extend our deepest sympathy to his bereaved family, and that a copy of this Resolution, as engrossed by the Chief Clerk, be sent to his family as a means of our esteem and as a token of our affection for our departed comrade and friend.

Mr. Lundeen moved that the foregoing Resolution be adopted.

Which motion prevailed and the Resolution was unanimously adopted.

Messrs. Johnson, J. A., and Burnap offered the following Resolution:

Whereas, Honorable Martin W. Williams, a member of the House during the sessions of 1913 and 1931, was called by Almighty God to his eternal reward on April 7, 1943, and

Whereas, His life was an example and inspiration for the present and succeeding generations of citizens of this state; and

Whereas, In his contacts with his fellowmen he was earnest, sincere, congenial and kindly, and in his public life wholeheartedly devoted to the service of the best interests of the State; and

Whereas, During his long and distinguished public service he also occupied the position of president of the State school board association, mayor of Lanesboro, assessor, president of the board of education, justice of the peace, member of the park board, and other important public offices; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, hereby declare our sense of loss because of his death, and extend our deepest sympathy to his bereaved family, and that a copy of this Resolution be sent to his family as a mark of our esteem, and as a token of our affection for our departed comrade and friend.

Mr. Burnap moved that the foregoing Resolution be adopted.

Which motion prevailed and the Resolution was unanimously adopted.

Messrs. Dunn and Memmer offered the following Resolution:

Whereas, By report of the Committee on Rules, adopted January 27, 1943, the offer of certain students of the Law School of the University of Minnesota to assist without payment therefor with the work of the Legal Bureau of the House of Representatives was accepted and, pursuant thereto, Sidney Lorberbaum, Hamilton Luther, Stuart Rider, Irvin Schermer, and Frederick Thorson of Minneapolis, Robert Carlson of Granite Falls, and Jacob Schway of St. Paul, all of whom are students under Professor Horace E. Reed of the University of Minnesota, rendered services in association with the Legal Bureau of the 53rd Session of the Legislature of the State of Minnesota; and

Whereas, The voluntary services of these young men, under the helpful supervision and counsel of their instructor, often involved considerable research, study and helpful consultation with many of the members of the House of Representatives, and the lawyers employed by it, resulting in the orderly and practical preparation of proposed legislation throughout this Session;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives do hereby officially express to Professor Horace E.
