Senate Resolution No. 11:

Whereas, Homer M. Carr and Dwight A. Swanstrom were candidates for the office of State Senator from the 59th Senatorial District of the State of Minnesota at the general election held November, 1942; and

Whereas, The County Canvassing Board of the County of St. Louis declared the said Homer M. Carr elected by a majority of 37 votes cast in said district, and issued a certificate of election; and

Whereas, As provided by statute, an election contest was instituted and conducted wherein Dwight A. Swanstrom was contestant and Homer M. Carr was contestee; and

Whereas, As provided by such statute, a recount and recanvass of all ballots cast in the voting precincts outside the City of Duluth within said 59th Senatorial District was had by referee inspectors appointed by the court; and

Whereas, After and upon said recounting and recanvassing of said votes, Homer M. Carr, in accordance with the report of said referee inspectors, was shown to have received 46 votes more than said Dwight A. Swanstrom; and

Whereas, It was necessary for said Homer M. Carr, the contestee, to expend the sum of $350.00 for attorney fees, and the sum of $90.00 for personal expenses, and loss of income from wages;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate of the State of Minnesota be and he is hereby authorized and instructed to draw a voucher in favor of said Homer M. Carr in the sum of $440.00, in payment of the money spent and contracted to be spent by said Homer M. Carr.

Which Resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Expense.

Messrs. Dahlquist, Dougherty and Johanson introduced—
Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10:

A Resolution authorizing the creation of an Interim Committee to study the State's problem of providing for the needs of its citizens following their discharge from the armed forces and to make recommendations relating thereto to the Governor and the Senate and the House of Representatives at the next regular session of the Legislature and providing for an appropriation for such purpose.

Whereas, The large number of citizens of the State of Minnesota now serving in the armed forces of the United States will be confronted with difficult problems of readjustment following their discharge from such services; and

Whereas, While the problem of caring for the needs of members of the armed forces following their return to civilian life is primarily the obligation of the Federal Government, the State of Minnesota does recognize its responsibility to its own citizens and wishes to give all necessary assistance in the alleviation of distress, providing for rehabilitation and re-employment and adopting measures for the orderly readjustment to normal civilian activities within the State; and

Whereas, It will be helpful to the Legislature of the State of Minnesota, which will be called upon to provide such supplemental assistance to its citizens as is not made available by the Federal Government, that a study be made of these problems and of the acts of Congress of the United States dealing with them and with the plans and purposes of other states in giving such supplemental assistance;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, By the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring, that an Interim Committee be created, to study the problem of providing for the needs of men and women returning from the service in the armed forces of the United States and to make recommendations to the Governor, which Committee shall consist of three Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and three Senators to be appointed by the Committee on Committees of the Senate. Each of said members shall serve without compensation.

Be It Further Resolved, That said Interim Committee shall have power to hold hearings, issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of such books, papers and documents as it deems advisable, and to do all things that may be necessary to secure pertinent information dealing with these problems, to administer oaths, take testimony and make expenditures not exceeding the amount hereinafter specified.

Be It Further Resolved, That said Interim Committee shall meet
