

SEN. THUET

20th District—Dakota county

Diligence in committee work and intense legislative curiosity won Paul A. Thuet, Jr., attention in his freshman session two years ago.

The South St. Paul lawyer, a liberal, helped carry the DFL administration's program in committee and on the floor and took part particularly in the unsuccessful try for the ethics-in-government bill.

Thuet

He expects to sponsor it again in 1961, with some modifications from the original proposal. (1961)

Thuet, 44, was born in South St. Paul. After graduating from University of Minnesota law school he returned there to practice. He served as city attorney and enforcement director for the office of price stabilization and was a member of the Korean bonus appeal board.

He's been president of the first district bar association and on the board of governors for the state bar association. Mpls. Star

He's also been an officer and board member of the South St. Paul Chamber of Commerce, president of the Lions club, and on the board of Wisconsin Life Insurance Co.

He is a trustee of the First Presbyterian church, member of the VFW and American Legion. He and his wife are the parents of Stephen, 18, and William, 13.