Overview

In 2013, the legislature established a director for child sex trafficking prevention and required the director to submit an evaluation of the statewide program for safe harbor for sexually exploited youth to the commissioner of health every two years. This bill requires the director to also submit the evaluation to the legislature.

Summary

Section Description

1 Program evaluation.

Requires the director of child sex trafficking prevention to submit the evaluation of the statewide program for safe harbor for sexually exploited youth to the legislature and the commissioner of health. Current law requires the director to conduct the evaluation every two years and submit it to the commissioner of health.
