"Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 9.031, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [TRANSFER OF POWERS FROM STATE TREASURER.] (a) Deposit of state funds in depositories by the treasurer under section 9.031 is subject to regulation by the commissioner of finance. He may determine the amount of funds to deposit in a depository and any other matter which he deems in the public interest. The treasurer shall comply with such regulations.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision in section 9.031 to the contrary the commissioner of finance may agree to pay a depository a reasonable charge or keep appropriate compensation balances for handling state funds, for cashing state warrants, vouchers and the like. Such moneys as may be necessary for such purpose are hereby appropriated annually to the commissioner of finance.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 11.10, is amended to read:

11.10 [INVESTMENT OF MONEY IN STATE TREASURY NOT CURRENTLY NEEDED.] Subdivision 1. [INVESTMENT OF TREASURY FUND.] The state treasurer shall report to the commissioner of finance daily or at such other times as the commissioner of finance shall determine of the moneys in the state treasury together with such other information which the commissioner may prescribe. When there (SHALL BE ANY) is money in the state treasury (THAT) over and above the amount that the commissioner of finance has advised the treasurer is not currently needed, the state treasurer shall certify to the state board of investment the amount thereof. The board of investment may then invest said amount, or any part thereof, in the following:

(a) Treasury bonds, certificates of indebtedness, bonds or notes of the United States of America or bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness of the state of Minnesota, all of which must mature not later than three years from date of purchase.

(b) Bonds, notes, debentures or other obligations issued by any agency or instrumentality of the United States or any securities guaranteed by the United States government, or for which the credit of the United States is pledged for the payment of the principal and interest thereof, all of which must mature not later than three years from date of purchase.

(c) Commercial paper of prime quality, or rated among the top third of the quality categories, not applicable to defaulted paper, as defined by a nationally recognized organization which rates such securities as eligible for investment in the state employees retirement fund except that any non-banking issuing corporation, or parent company in the case of paper issued by operating utility or finance subsidiaries, must have total assets exceeding $500,000,000. Such commercial paper may constitute no more than 30 percent of the book value of the fund at the time of purchase, and the commercial paper of any one corporation shall not constitute more than four percent of the book value of the fund at the time of such investment.

(d) Any securities eligible under the preceding provisions, purchased with simultaneous repurchase agreement under which the securities will be sold to the particular dealer on a specified date at a predetermined price. In such instances, all maturities of United States government securities, or securities issued or guaranteed by the United States government or an agency thereof, may be purchased so long as any such securities which mature later than three years from the date of purchase have a current market value exceeding the purchase price by at least five percent on the date of purchase, and so long as such repurchase agreement involving securities extending beyond three years in maturity be limited to a period not exceeding 45 days.

Subd. 2. [STATE AUDITOR TO CERTIFY.] When it shall appear to the (STATE AUDITOR) commissioner of finance that any invested funds are needed for current purposes before the maturity dates of the securities held, he shall so certify and it shall then be the duty of the board of investment to order the sale or conversion into cash of securities of the amount so certified.

Subd. 3. [INTEREST AND PROFIT CREDITED TO GENERAL FUND.] All interest and profit accruing from said investments shall be credited to and be a part of the general fund, except as otherwise provided by law; and any loss incurred in the principal of said investments shall be borne by the general fund."

Page 9, line 9, strike "and".

Page 9, line 11, after "authorizes," insert "and a confidential secretary,".

"Sec. 11. [AUDIT POLICY.] Subdivision 1. Continuous legislative review of the effect of grant-in-aid programs, the spending of public funds and their financing at all levels of government is required in the public interest to enable the enactment of appropriate legislation.

Subd. 2. [LEGISLATIVE AUDIT COMMISSION CREATION.] A legislative commission to be known as the legislative audit commission, designated herein as "the commission" is hereby created. The commission shall consist of the chairman of the senate finance committee or his designee, who shall be a member of the senate finance committee; a member of the senate appointed by the leader of the majority; a member of the senate appointed by the leader of the minority; the chairman of the house appropriations committee or his designee, who shall be a member of the house appropriations committee; a member of the house appointed by the speaker; and a member of the house appointed by the minority leader. The appointed members of the commission shall serve for a term commencing upon appointment and expiring at the opening of the next regular session of the legislature or until a successor is appointed. A vacancy in the membership of the commission from among the senate members shall be filled for the unexpired term by the committee on committees; a vacancy among the members from the house of representatives shall be filled for the unexpired term by the speaker.

The commission shall elect its chairman and such other officers as it may determine necessary. It shall meet at the call of the chairman or at the call of its executive secretary. The members of the commission shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses as members of the legislature.

Subd. 3. The public examiner as an officer in the executive branch is transferred from the executive to the legislative branch.

Subd. 4. Until the expiration of his term the incumbent public examiner upon the effective date of this section shall continue in the legislative branch but as the legislative auditor. Thereafter, the commission shall appoint a legislative auditor. The legislative auditor is the executive secretary of the commission. The appointment is for a six year term and until his successor is appointed and qualifies. He shall serve in the unclassified service of the Minnesota civil service and may only be removed for cause after a public hearing. He shall be a skilled accountant and shall not at any time while in office hold any other public office or have any interest in any corporation, partnership, property, or business which is subject to supervision or examination by this department.

Subd. 5. The legislative auditor may appoint a deputy legislative auditor and a confidential secretary each of whom shall serve at his pleasure in the unclassified service. Except as may be otherwise provided for by law the legislative auditor shall fix their salaries. The deputy may perform and exercise the powers, duties and responsibilities imposed by law on the legislative auditor and is authorized so to do by the legislative auditor. All other officers and employees of the legislative auditor shall continue to be in the classified civil service.

Subd. 6. All the powers, duties and responsibilities of the public examiner relating to the state of Minnesota, its departments and agencies as described in Minnesota Statutes 1971, Sections 215.03, 215.04, 215.05, 251.06, 215.07, and any other law shall continue as his powers, duties and responsibilities but as the legislative auditor. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to supersede the powers conferred upon the commissioner of finance under Minnesota Statutes, Section 6.21.

Subd. 7. In addition to the legislative auditing duties concerning state financial matters, the legislative auditor shall also exercise and perform such duties as may be prescribed by rule or regulation of the legislature or either body thereof or by the commission.

Subd. 8. The legislature may provide by rule or regulation such testimonial powers as are conferred by law on legislative standing commissions or committees on the legislative auditor."

Page 10, lines 2 and 3, strike "the state treasurer" and in lines 9 and 10, strike "the state treasurer" and in line 20, strike "the state treasurer".

Page 12, strike Subd. 6., renumber Subd. 7. to Subd. 6. and after line 22, add the following subdivisions:

"Subd. 7. The state auditor is the successor of the public examiner as to such powers, duties, and responsibilities as have been transferred to him from the public examiner and not a new authority. The legislative auditor is the public examiner as to such powers, duties, and responsibilities which the public examiner will continue to perform but as the legislative auditor.

Subd. 8. All persons in the classified service of the state and employed by the public examiner in performing the duties transferred to the state auditor are transferred to the state auditor without loss of any right or privilege. All persons in the classified service of the state and employed by the public examiner in performing duties which will be performed by the public examiner as legislative auditor will continue in the classified service without loss of right or privilege.

Subd. 9. All unexpended funds appropriated to the public examiner shall be allocated by the governor between the state auditor and the legislative auditor to carry out the divisions of authority prescribed by this act governing such officers and such reallocated funds are appropriated accordingly."
