REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON RULES AND LEGISLATIVE ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Anderson, I., for the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, offered the following report on the proposed Joint Rules of the Senate and House:

JOINT RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE

JOINT CONVENTIONS—HOW GOVERNED

Rule 1. The Speaker of the House shall preside at all Conventions of the two branches of the Legislature, and shall call the members to order. The Chief Clerk of the House shall be the Secretary, and the Sergeant at Arms of the House shall be the Sergeant at Arms at the Convention.

DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT

Rule 2. The President of the Convention shall preserve order and decorum, may speak on all points of order in preference to other members; shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Convention by any member. He shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

QUESTIONS—HOW STATED

Rule 3. Questions shall be distinctly put in this form, to-wit: "As many as are of the opinion that (as the question may be), say 'Aye' ", and after an affirmative vote is expressed, "As many as are of the contrary opinion, say 'No' ". If the President doubts, or a division be called, the Convention shall decide—those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise and afterwards those in the negative.

PRESIDENT'S RIGHT TO VOTE

Rule 4. The President shall have the right of voting in all cases except on an appeal from the decisions, and on all questions he shall vote last.

ORDER OF DEBATE

Rule 5. When any member is about to speak or deliver any matter to the Convention, he shall rise and respectfully address himself to "Mr. President," and confine himself to the question under debate and avoid personalities.

Rule 6. Whenever any member is called to order, he shall be seated until the point of order is determined; and if called to order for words spoken in debate the exceptional words shall be reduced to writing immediately.

Rule 7. When two or more members rise at the same time, the President shall name the member who is in order.

Rule 8. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question, without permission of the Convention.

CALL OF THE CONVENTION

Rule 9. Any five members may move a call of the Convention, and require absent members to be sent for, but a call cannot be made after voting is commenced; and a call being ordered and the absentees noted, the door shall be closed and no member permitted to leave the hall until the report of the Sergeant at Arms be received and acted upon, or further proceedings under the call are suspended by a vote of the majority of all the members of the Convention.

EITHER HOUSE MAY AMEND, ETC.

Rule 10. It shall be in the power of either House to amend any amendment made by the other to any bill or resolution.

BILLS—HOW ENROLLED AND SIGNED

Rule 11. After a bill, memorial, or resolution shall have passed both Houses, it shall be duly and carefully enrolled by the enrolling clerk of the House in which it originated. The enrolling clerk of that House shall then obtain the signatures and certificates of the proper officers to the enrolled copies, present the same to the Governor for his approval, and report the date of such presentation to the respective Houses.

ELECTIONS BY JOINT CONVENTIONS

Rule 12. Whenever there shall be an election of any officer in Joint Convention, the result shall be certified by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House, and by them announced to their respective Houses, and shall be entered on the Journal of each and communicated to the Governor by the Secretary of the Convention.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

The manner of procedure shall be as follows: The Senate, for instance, passes a bill and it is duly transmitted to the House, which body adopts an amendment to the bill and passes the bill as amended, returning the same with the record of the actions of the House, to the Senate; the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment, asks for a Conference Committee, appoints such a committee on the part of the Senate, and with a record of the action of the Senate, returns the bill to the House; if the House adheres to its amendment, a like committee is appointed on the part of the House. The joint committee shall, at a convenient hour agreed upon, meet and state to each other, verbally or in writing, the reason of their respective Houses for or against the disagreement, and confer thereon, and shall report to both Houses such agreement as they may arrive at, if any—and if not, the fact of a disagreement. Within seven calendar days after the appointment of such committee and every seven calendar days thereafter until such time as such committee is discharged, the committee shall report its progress to both Houses. The House last having possession of the bill before the conference commences shall first act upon such report, if an agreement is reported, and duly transmit the same with the record of its action thereon to the other House together with the bill. All Conference Committees shall be open to the public. Meetings of Conference Committees shall be announced as far in advance as practicable. Except on the last day during which a bill may be passed in any year, a copy of a report of a Conference Committee shall be placed on the desk of each member of a House in written form twelve hours in advance of action on the report by that House unless the report has been reprinted in the Journal of either House for a preceding day and is available to the members.

EITHER HOUSE MAY REcede, ETC.

Rule 14. It shall be in order for either House to recede from any subject or matter of difference existing between the two Houses at any time previous to a conference, whether the papers upon which the difference has arisen are before it or not, and a majority shall govern, except in cases otherwise provided in the Constitution; and the question having been put and lost, shall not be again put upon the same day, and a reconsideration thereof shall in all respects be regulated by the rules of the respective Houses.

Rule 16. The Rules of the House shall be the Rules of the Joint Convention of both Houses in all cases where the foregoing rules are not applicable.

TITLE OF BILLS SHALL EXPRESS THEIR SUBJECT

PROTEST AND DISSENT

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 4, Section 16, of the Minnesota Constitution, the undersigned request that the following dissent and protest be entered in the Journal of the House.

The undersigned members of the House, dissent and protest the action of the House on H. F. No. 307, for the following reasons:

H. F. No. 307 is an unwarranted interference in the constitutionally-tested right of citizens to secure privately-owned premises from uninvited callers.

Owners and occupants of condominiums, cooperatives, hospitals, apartments, religious residences and other community dwellings should be free to regulate the admittance of the uninvited, be they proselytizers, peddlers or politicians. As the Court said in Watchtower Bible and Tract Society v. Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, "there is no invitation either expressed or implied, to the public to enter into the common hallways of an apartment house for the purpose of using them as a forum in which to air one's views on any subject, be it religious, political or anything else" (69 NYS<sub>2</sub>385,393, affirmed 75 NYS<sub>2</sub>81, 272 App. Div. 103, appeal denied 297 NY805, certiorari denied 69 D Ct. 232, rehearing denied 69 S. Ct. 479).

Also, governmental agencies (such as state colleges and universities) should be free to adopt reasonable rules and regulations regarding visits to campus living quarters by campaigning politicians.
