DEFENDANT VIOLATES OR IS LIKELY TO VIOLATE SAID ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY STANDARD, LIMITATION, REGULATION, RULE, ORDER, LICENSE, STIPULATION AGREEMENT, OR PERMIT, THE DEFENDANT MAY REBUT THE PRIMA FACIE SHOWING BY THE SUBMISSION OF EVIDENCE TO THE CONTRARY; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT WHERE THE ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY STANDARDS, LIMITATION, REGULATIONS, RULES, ORDERS, LICENSES, STIPULATION AGREEMENTS, OR PERMITS OF TWO OR MORE OF THE AFOREMENTIONED AGENCIES ARE INCONSISTENT, THE MOST STRINGENT SHALL CONTROL.

Except as provided in section 116B.10, in any action maintained under this chapter, whenever the plaintiff shall have made a prima facie showing that the activity of the defendant has, is, or is about to pollute, impair or destroy the air, water, land or other natural resources located within the state, the defendant shall have the burden of proving that its conduct has not, is not or is not about to pollute, impair or destroy the air, water, land or other natural resources located within the state.

Where the defendant's conduct does not violate any environmental quality standard limitation, rule, order, license, stipulation, agreement or permit of the state or any instrumentality, agency or political subdivision, thereof, the defendant may also show, by way of an affirmative defense, that there is no feasible and prudent alternative and the conduct at issue is consistent with and reasonably required for promotion of the public health, safety, and welfare in light of the state's paramount concern for the protection of its air, water, land and other natural resources from pollution, impairment, or destruction. Economic considerations alone shall not constitute a defense hereunder.

Provided, however, that the burden of proof shall shift to the defendant under this section, only if, in the case of a private defendant, the defendant or any of its corporate or partnership owners, earned a gross yearly income of more than $250,000 during any of the five years preceding commencement of the action; or, in the case of a governmental entity, only if the defendant had a population of more than 10,000 people or locally collected tax income of more than $250,000.

[116B.125] [DISPOSITION OF ACTION.] Subdivision 1. [JUDICIAL DETERMINATION.] The court shall determine whether it should remit the action pursuant to section 116B.08. If it does not remit, the court shall determine whether the defendant has, is, or is about to engage in pollution, impairment or destruction of the air, water, land or other natural resources located within the state.

Subd. 2. [INJUNCTION.] Where a finding is made against the defendant, the court shall either (a) immediately issue its order for an injunction restraining the polluting activities of defendant and imposing such conditions upon the defendant as are necessary for the protection of the air, water, land or other natural resources located within the state from pollution, impairment or destruction, or; (b) hold a postadjudicatory hearing for the purpose of formulating a definite plan of action for the prevention or abatement of the pollution; or both (a) and (b) above.

Subd. 3. [PLAN FOR NONPOLLUTION; CONSIDERATIONS AND EFFECTUATION.] The court shall within 30 days after the postadjudicatory hearing formulate and put into effect a plan providing for a specific deadline at which time the activities of the defendant shall be brought to a standard of non-pollution. In arriving at its plan, the court shall take into consideration the following:

(a) Any and all plans submitted by plaintiffs, defendants, intervenors or amicus curiae.

(b) Any expert evidence presented by any party, amicus curiae, or upon motion of the court.

(c) The financial condition of the defendant.

When necessary to formulate its plan, the court shall have the power to subpoena the books, records, profit and loss statements, and any other relevant information from the defendant and any parent corporation or partial owning or controlling interest. The information so obtained by the court may be made available to the plaintiff or intervenors. If any person does not provide information subpoenaed which is later found to be in his possession, and the information is such that he had knowledge or ought to have had knowledge of its existence, he shall be responsible for the costs expended by the court, plaintiffs, or intervenors in securing the information.

Subd. 4. [NONPOLLUTION PLAN; APPEALABILITY AND CONTINUATION IN EFFECT.] The formulation and effectuation of the plan shall constitute an appealable order. Any appeal shall be heard and decided within six months of the time the appeal is filed. The court shall retain jurisdiction and supervision over the defendant until full compliance is achieved.

Subd. 5. [VIOLATIONS; MONETARY PENALTIES.] Where the court finds that any defendant has violated any statute, agency order, ruling, regulation, permit or license by polluting, impairing or destroying the air, water, land or other natural resources or that the defendant has violated any injunction, compliance plan, or mandamus order issued or approved by a court under this chapter or any other section of Minnesota Statutes pertaining to the protection of the environment, a civil penalty of not more than $10,000 shall be levied against the defendant for each day the defendant is found to be in violation. Civil penalties shall not be levied if the defendant is a state, county, municipality or political subdivision of the state or any other governmental unit. These penalties shall be paid to the general fund in the state treasury but may be sued for on behalf of the state by any person permitted to bring an action pursuant to this chapter.

Subd. 6. [AWARD TO PLAINTIFF.] Upon a finding against the defendant in any action maintained under this section, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable attorney's fees, cost, and damages as proved.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 116B.08, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

116B.08 [REMITTITUR.] Subdivision 1.
