No. 588, A bill for an act relating to trade regulations; hazardous toys and other substances; restricting the manufacture, sale, and other traffic of such articles in this state; requiring labeling; granting regulatory, investigatory, and enforcement powers to the director of the consumer services section of the department of commerce; providing for the testing of such articles; providing penalties; appropriating money.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof:

"Section 1. No person, firm, corporation, association or agent or employee thereof shall import, manufacture, sell, hold for sale or distribute a toy or other article intended for use by a child which presents an electrical, mechanical or thermal hazard or presents a hazard due to toxic, or flammable properties or properties able to produce asphyxiation or suffocation.

Sec. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Child" means any person less than 14 years of age;

(b) A toy presents an electrical hazard if, in normal use or when subjected to reasonably foreseeable damage or abuse, its design or manufacture may cause personal injury or illness by electrical shock or electrocution;

(c) A toy presents a mechanical hazard if, in normal use or when subjected to reasonably foreseeable damage or abuse, its design or manufacture presents an unreasonable risk of personal injury or illness:

(1) from fracture, fragmentation or disassembly of the article;

(2) from propulsion of the article or any part or accessory thereof;

(3) from points or other protrusions, surfaces, edges, openings or closures;

(4) from moving parts;

(5) from lack or insufficiency of controls to reduce or stop motion;

(6) as a result of self-adhering characteristics of the article;

(7) because the article or any part of accessory thereof may be aspirated or ingested;

(8) because of instability;

(9) from stuffing material which is not free of dangerous or harmful substances; or

(10) because of any other aspect of the article's design or manufacture.

(d) A toy presents a thermal hazard if, in normal use or when subjected to reasonably foreseeable damage or abuse, its design or manufacture presents an unreasonable risk of personal injury or illness because of heat as from heated parts, substances or surfaces.

(e) "Toxic" means able to produce personal injury or illness to a person through ingestion, inhalation or absorption through any body surface and can apply to any substance other than a radioactive substance.

(f) "Flammable" means having a flash point up to 80 degrees Fahrenheit as determined by the Tagliabue Open Cup Tester. The flammability of solids and of the contents of self-pressurized containers shall be determined by methods generally recognized as applicable to the materials or containers and established by regulations issued by the director.

(g) A toy presents a hazard of asphyxiation or suffocation if, in normal use or when subject to reasonable foreseeable damage or abuse, its design, manufacture or storage presents a risk of personal injury or illness from interference with normal breathing.

(h) "Director" means the director of the consumer services section of the department of commerce.

(i) "Inspector" means an inspector of the consumer services section of the department of commerce.

Sec. 3. The director shall ban from sale or distribution any toy or other article intended for use by children that presents any of the hazards set out in section 1.

The director shall adopt the regulations necessary to carry out the intent of this act. Regulations shall insofar as practicable conform to the regulations relating to this subject found as Part 191 in the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 21.

Sec. 4. [TESTING OF ARTICLES TO DETERMINE AND INSURE COMPLIANCE.] The director or an authorized and qualified employee or inspector, may undertake or provide for testing of toys and other articles as he deems necessary to determine their safety and fitness for commerce in this state in compliance with the provisions of this act. The director may contract or otherwise arrange with any testing facility, public or private, for testing and reporting the results. The director may, by regulation, require that any toy or other article within the provisions of this act be adequately tested by the consumer services section, a reputable testing facility, or the manufacturer or distributor of the article, and that the certified results of the test be filed with the director before the sale, distribution or other movement in commerce within this state of the toys or articles. The director may by regulation provide for penalties for the failure to provide test results.

Sec. 5. [REPURCHASE OF ARTICLES BANNED UNDER THIS ACT.] Subdivision 1. In the case of any article sold by its manufacturer, distributor, or dealer which has been banned, whether or not it was banned at the time of its sale, the article shall, in accordance with regulations of the director, be repurchased as follows:

(a) The manufacturer of the article shall repurchase it from the person to whom he sold it, and shall refund that person the purchase price paid for the article. If the manufacturer requires the return of the article in connection with the repurchase of it, the manufacturer shall also reimburse the person for any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in returning it to the manufacturer.

(b) The distributor of any banned article shall repurchase it from the person to whom he sold it, and shall refund that person the purchase price paid for the article. If the distributor requires the return of the article in connection with his repurchase of it in accordance with this clause, the distributor shall reimburse that person for any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in returning it to the distributor.

(c) In the case of any banned article sold at retail by a dealer, if the person who purchased it from the dealer returns it to him, the dealer shall refund the purchase price paid for it and reimburse him for any reasonable and necessary transportation charges incurred in its return.

Sec. 6. [BANNED HAZARDOUS TOYS; PROHIBITIONS.] No person shall sell, expose for sale, deliver, give away, have in his possession, or introduce or deliver for introduction into commerce any hazardous toy or article intended to be used by a child or banned hazardous toy or article intended to be used by a child.

Sec. 7. [SEIZURES.] The director shall apply to the district court to seize toys presenting hazards when no other practical method to control the hazard exists. The attorney general shall represent the director in the district court.

Sec. 8. [DIRECTORS RIGHT OF ACCESS TO PREMISES, RECORDS.] For the purpose of administering the provisions of this act, the director and inspectors shall have access and entry at reasonable times to any premises in which toys or other articles within the provisions of this act are held and shall have access to all records pertinent to the enforcement of this act.

Sec. 9. [PENALTIES.] Any person who violates any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 10. [SHORT TITLE.] Sections 1 to 9 of this act may be cited as the "Safe Toys Act".

Further, amend the title as follows: In line 3, delete "substances" and insert in lieu thereof "articles". In line 6, delete "requiring labeling;". In line 11, after "penalties" delete the ";". In line 12, delete "appropriating money".

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill do pass.

H. F. No. 918, A bill for an act relating to food; requiring open dating of perishable food; directing the commissioner of agriculture to promulgate rules and regulations governing the dating, handling and labeling of perishable food.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. It is unlawful for any person to manufacture, process, sell, offer to sell, or display at retail any perishable food unless the package or other container in which the food is contained is labeled, stamped or otherwise marked with the information required thereon by the rules and regulations of the commissioner of agriculture promulgated pursuant to section

2 of this act. For the purposes of this act, "perishable food" means any food, including but not limited to, dairy products, eggs, baked goods, vegetables, fruits, fresh or frozen meat, poultry or fish, or other item which may, by spoilage, wiltage, drying or any other foreseeable and normal natural phenomenon, become unsafe for human consumption or otherwise lose its palatability or its desired or nutritive properties.

Sec. 2. The commissioner of agriculture, in accordance with the administrative procedures act, shall promulgate and enforce rules and regulations governing the dating, labeling and handling of perishable food. The rules and regulations may require one or more of the following:

(a) Open dating by the manufacturer or processor on each unit package of perishable food. The rules and regulations shall prescribe any markings that may be used in connection therewith;

(b) Stamping, labeling or otherwise affixing to each unit package the date before which the product should be used;

(c) Shelf display dating by retailers, requiring either a label affixed to the package or a sign posted at the place of display indicating the date the product was first displayed;

(d) Adequate dating and storage information on the exterior of each shipping case, carton or overwrap by the manufacturer, processor or wholesaler;

(e) Home storage recommendations and information on each consumer package unit; and

(f) Adequate methods and practices for the handling of frozen food during transport and in warehouses and retail stores.

Sec. 3. On or about January 8, 1974, the commissioner of agriculture shall report to the legislature concerning the action taken by him pursuant to the provisions of this act.

Sec. 4. [ENFORCEMENT.] In enforcing the provisions of this act, the commissioner may receive complaints and investigate possible violations. The commissioner and his employees shall have access to all places wherein any item of perishable food regulated pursuant to this act is sold or held or offered for sale, and may take samples of perishable food for analysis. The attorney general acting for the commissioner, or any municipal or county official responsible for the enforcement of rules or ordinances, may bring an action to restrain violations of this act.

Sec. 5. [PENALTIES.] Any person injured by a violation of this act may bring a civil action and recover damages, together with costs and disbursements, including reasonable attorney's fees, and receive other equitable relief as determined by the court. Any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other business entity violating any provision of this section or rule or regulation promulgated by the director pursuant hereto is guilty of a misdemeanor.”.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 20

A house resolution congratulating the Richfield High School Debate Team on winning the 1973 Minnesota State Championship.

Whereas, public debating is an exciting and constructive part of the extracurricular activities of Minnesota schools with almost unique testing of verbal and mental skills and abilities; and

Whereas, this supremely competitive activity is practised with special skill by the debating teams of Minnesota schools; and

Whereas, the Richfield High School Debate Team has won the 1973 Minnesota State Debate Championship; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, that its congratulations and best wishes for success in the 1973 National Debate Tournament be extended the Richfield High School Debate Team, Paul Carpenter, Kurt Guthe, Bob Moeller, Paul Nelson, John Baago and its coach, Lee Turner.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 21

A house resolution congratulating the Anoka and Chisholm basketball teams for winning the Class AA and Class A Minnesota State High School Basketball Tournaments.

Whereas, the Minnesota State High School Basketball tournament has for many years been recognized as a classic unsurpassed in all respects by any other tournament of its kind in the country; and

Whereas, the privileges to compete in this tournament can only be achieved by those teams and coaches who have throughout the year maintained an unusual degree of dedication and discipline in playing the game of basketball; and

Whereas, the degree of excellence achieved by the State tournament teams as a result of said dedication and discipline reflect honorably upon the State of Minnesota, the individual players and coaches, and the cheerleaders, bands, parents, students and members of the communities who have supported their teams consistently throughout their victorious 1972-73 season; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, that it extends its hearty congratulations to the 1973 Class A Champions of Chisholm High School, and to the individual "Blue Streak" coaches and players as follows:

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 22

A house resolution commending the participants and sponsors of "Minnesotans to Uruguay".

Whereas, the pursuit and establishment of lasting bonds of friendship between the citizens of all nations and the free international exposition of and acquaintance with diverse cultural interests, traditions and social concerns foster the peace and mutual understanding which are so vital to the unification of mankind and to our continued collective service to the highest and best human ideals; and

Whereas, "Minnesotans to Uruguay", an affiliated program of "Partners of the Americas", a nonprofit national organization, is intended to provide a unique, memorable and broadening two-week experience, in August of 1973, for the people of the host country, Uruguay, and for the following youthful ambassadors of goodwill from the State of Minnesota:

160 students and recent graduates of various high schools of this State who are not only accomplished musical instrumentalists and vocalists, but are also skilled entertainers and performers of "The Music Man" and other musical shows; and

Whereas, the basketball team of Augsburg College in Minneapolis, whose planned clinics and exhibitions of basketball skills are designed to further the interest and enhance the basketball skills of Uruguayan young people who are less familiar than we are with this fine sport but who are eager to learn and participate in it; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, that the sponsors and participants in this program of "Minnesotans to Uruguay" be commended and their interest encouraged in this enthusiastic expression and person-to-person exchange of international goodwill to their "Partners" in South America.

Be It Further Resolved, that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives forthwith prepare and present a formal copy of this resolution to the directors of the program, "Minnesotans to Uruguay".

Boland, Pieper, and Kempe moved that House Resolution No. 22 be now adopted.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. NO. 399

April 5, 1973

Honorable Martin O. Sabo
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Honorable Alec G. Olson
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees on the part of the House and the Senate, upon the disagreeing votes as to H. F. No. 399, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House accede to the Senate amendments and the bill be further amended as follows:

On page 12, after line 22, in the new subdivision, as added by the amendment, strike the figure "1,000.00" and insert "750.00".

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill in accordance therewith.

House Conferees: RAY W. FARICY, WILLARD M. MUNGER, and ARLAN I. STANGELAND.

Senate Conferees: CLARENCE M. PURFEERST, JOSEPH T. O'NEILL, and ED SCHROM.

Faricy moved that the report of the Conference Committee on H. F. No. 399 be adopted and that the bill be repassed as amended by the Conference Committee.

Swanson moved that the House refuse to adopt the Conference Committee report on H. F. No. 399, and that the bill be returned to the Conference Committee for further consideration. The motion prevailed.

PROVIDED FURTHER THAT TWO VEHICLES IN TRANSIT BY THE DRIVE-AWAY METHOD IN SADDLE). Mount combinations may be drawn but such combinations may not exceed 55 feet in length. The state, as to state trunk highways, and any city, village, borough or town, as to roads or streets located therein, may issue permits authorizing the transportation of combinations of vehicles exceeding the limitations herein contained over highways, roads or streets within their boundaries.

(b) No single semitrailer or trailer shall have an overall length, inclusive of rear bumper, in excess of 40 feet, provided by any semitrailer or trailer especially constructed and used to transport livestock or any unenclosed semitrailer or trailer especially constructed and used to transport boats or motor vehicles may exceed the length limitation set forth in this paragraph by not more than five feet. Any single semitrailer or trailer registered in this state which exceeded the length limitations set forth in this paragraph as of April 1, 1967, shall be entitled to a permit authorizing its operation within this state provided application therefor is made within 120 days from April 22, 1967. The state, as to state trunk highways, and any city, village, borough, or town, as to roads or streets located therein may issue such permits for highways, roads or streets within their jurisdictions.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Chapter 169, is amended by adding a section to read:

[169.861] [PERMITS FOR CERTAIN COMBINATIONS.]
Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The commissioner shall issue an annual permit to enable a combination of vehicles between 55 and 65 feet in length to operate on the public highways. The permit shall entitle the combination of vehicles to operate only on divided highways having four or more lanes of travel, and on such other highways as may be designated by the commissioner of highways subject to Minnesota Statutes, Section 169.87, Subdivision 1, after holding a public hearing thereon, pursuant to the administrative procedures act, for the purpose of providing access between such divided highways of four or more lanes of travel and truck terminals and marshalling yards or for the purpose of providing continuity of route. All vehicles operated under the provisions of this section shall conform to the standards for such vehicles as prescribed by the United State Department of Transportation, Federal Highway Administration, Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety, and as may be amended.

Subd. 2. [DISPLAY.] The permit issued under this section shall be displayed on the left side of the truck-tractor of the combination of vehicles, in the immediate vicinity of the painted, printed, stenciled, or decalcomanic, numbering showing the gross registered weight of the combination of vehicles.

Subd. 3. [FEES.] To cover administrative costs in issuing such permits, the commissioner is authorized to charge a fee of $100 for an annual permit for each combination exceeding 55 but not more than 60 feet in length; and $200 for each combination exceeding 60 but not more than 65 feet in length. All such fees for permits issued by the commissioner shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund. This fee may be prorated in the same manner as registration fees are prorated pursuant to section 168.187 and for those vehicles not covered by section 168.187, a trip fee of $10 for combinations exceeding 55 but not more than 60 feet in length and $20 for combinations exceeding 60 but not more than 65 feet in length.

Sec. 6. This act is effective July 1, 1973."
