171.27 [EXPIRATION OF LICENSES.] The expiration date for each driver's license, other than provisional licenses is the birthday of the driver in the fourth year following the date of issuance of the license. The birthday of the driver shall be as indicated on his application for a driver's license. A license may be renewed on or before expiration or within one year after expiration upon application, payment of the required fee, and passing the examination required of all drivers for renewal. Driving privileges shall be extended or renewed on or preceding the expiration date of an existing driver's license unless the commissioner believes that the licensee is no longer qualified as a driver.

The expiration date for each provisional license shall be the (21ST) 18th birthday of the licensee. Upon the provisional licensee attaining the age of (21) 18 and upon the application, payment of the required fee, and passing of the examination required of all drivers for renewal, a driver's license shall be issued if the commissioner deems the record of the provisional licensee to be satisfactory.

Any valid driver's license issued to a person then or subsequently on active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States shall continue in full force and effect without requirement for renewal until 90 days after the date of his discharge from such service.

This act shall apply to every application for a driver's license or renewal driver's license, submitted on or after January 1, 1972, and to every license issued upon the basis of such application.

All provisional licenses issued prior to the effective date of this act will remain in effect until the licensee's 21st birthday."

Renumber Sec. 6 to Sec. 8.

Further amend the title on page 1, line 6, by inserting before "171.13" the following "171.07, Subdivision;" and in line 7 before "repealing" insert "171.27;".

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill do pass.
