The Senate has repassed said bill, in accordance with the recommendation and report of the Conference Committee. Said House File is herewith returned to the House.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

PROTEST AND DISSENT

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 16 of the Minnesota State Constitution, the undersigned request that the following protest and dissent be entered in the Journal of the House:

The entire 1973 Session of the Minnesota Legislature has been characterized by an alarming disregard for rules and procedures and an enthusiastic willingness to violate these rules whenever expediency was desired.

The Rules of the House were intended to protect the rights of the minority and to provide open and thoughtful consideration of important public matters. However, this session we have seen the rights of the minority ignored and the right of every member of this body to be free to express the feelings of their own conscience and constituents obfuscated. We protest this action.

Members of this body have been blatantly coerced by members of the Governor's staff, who were continuously permitted access to the floor of this chamber in violation of Rule 62. The illegal lobbying activity of these individuals was embraced by the silence of the presiding officer of this body. We protest this inaction.

We protest the obvious violations of Rules 18 and 23 which not only prohibit discussion of the question while the yeas and nays are being taken, but prohibit members from remaining at the desk while a vote is in process.

The general decorum of this body has been reduced to perhaps the lowest level in the history of this state. We protest this.

The weak sometimes need the crutch of illegality to survive; however, the strong and fair need no such tool.

We, the undersigned, hereby give notice to the majority party of this body and the people of this state that any future measure passed by this body, during a time when overt acts of illegal lobbying by the Executive branch and others have taken place, will be contested in every possible way.
