[356.451] [PROVISIONAL MEMBERSHIP FOR CERTAIN PERSONS IN VARIOUS RETIREMENT FUNDS OR PLANS.] Subdivision 1. [RESERVE ACCOUNT FOR PROVISIONAL MEMBERS; AUTHORIZATION.] Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary of the laws governing the funds enumerated in subdivision 2, any person who is employed in subsidized on-the-job training, work experience or public service employment as an enrollee under the federal comprehensive employment and training act, who does not have as of the later of the effective date of this act or the date of employment sufficient service credit in the retirement fund to meet the minimum vesting requirements for a deferred annuity, who otherwise meets all of the applicable eligibility requirements of the fund and who is designated as such by the city council of the city of Minneapolis shall be considered a provisional member of the fund. There shall be established a subsidiary reserve account for provisional members which shall be managed by the board of trustees of the fund as a separate account and which shall not be considered as an asset or a liability of the fund. To this account shall be credited all employee and required employer contributions made by or on account of provisional members. A separate record for each provisional member shall be maintained showing the length of service completed, the accrued employee and required employer contributions made by or on account of each provisional member, and the actual rate of interest earned on the assets of the account. The assets of the separate account shall be invested in the same manner as and subject to the same limitations which are applicable to the general assets of the retirement fund. The board of trustees shall remit back to the prime sponsor of the federal comprehensive employment and training act program quarterly an amount equal to the total required employer contributions made on account of provisional members who terminate or who are terminated from subsidized on-the-job training, work experience or public service employment without obtaining unsubsidized employment with an employer who employs members who regularly have retirement coverage provided by that retirement fund or without obtaining sufficient service credit to become entitled to a deferred retirement annuity had they been regular members of that retirement fund during the period of their provisional membership, plus interest at the rate or rates actually earned and in addition any amounts which exceed the funds required to cover current provisional members as projected by the board of trustees. Any provisional member who terminates or is terminated from subsidized on-the-

If the provisional member obtains unsubsidized employment with an employer who employs members who regularly have retirement coverage provided by that retirement fund or obtains sufficient service to become entitled to a deferred retirement annuity had the period of provisional membership been as a regular member, the board of trustees shall transfer the total employee and required employer contributions and any interest attributable to those contributions to the regular retirement fund and shall credit the period of service as a provisional member as allowable or formula service. Unless the provisional member becomes a regular member of the same retirement fund prior to the quarterly reprogramming next following the person's termination of provisional status, no period of provisional membership shall be considered allowable service for purposes of the combined service annuity pursuant to section 356.30 or any service in more than one retirement fund provision. If any provisional member obtains service in an amount sufficient to entitle the provisional member to a disability benefit or the provisional member's survivor to a survivor's benefit had the provisional member been a regular member for that period of service, then the provisional member or the provisional member's survivor shall be entitled to a benefit when otherwise qualified notwithstanding the fact that the person was a provisional member. Upon the commencement of such benefit, an amount equal to the contributions and interest credited to the provisional member shall be transferred from the reserve account for provisional members to the regular fund. In any actuarial valuation made by the fund pursuant to chapter 356, the results of the subsidiary reserve account for provisional members shall be contained in a separate calculation or tabulation. The separate calculation or tabulation shall use the actuarial assumptions used by the fund which are appropriate to the experience of the subsidiary reserve account for provisional members, and shall include the items contained in section 356.215, subdivision 4, clauses (1), (2), (6) (a), and (11).

(10) (8) The amount of any distribution from a qualified pension or profit sharing plan included in federal adjusted gross income in the year of receipt to the extent of any contribution not previously allowed as a deduction by reason of a change in federal law which was not adopted by Minnesota law for a taxable year beginning in 1974 or later.

(c) Modifications affecting shareholders of electing small business corporations under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or section 290.972 of this chapter.

(1) Shareholders in a small business corporation, which has elected to be so taxed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not made an election under section 290.972 of this chapter, shall deduct from federal adjusted gross income the amount of any imputed income from such corporation and shall add to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any loss claimed as a result of such stock ownership. Also there shall be added to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any distributions in cash or property made by said corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year.

(2) In cases where the small business corporation has made an election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not elected under section 290.972 of this chapter and said corporation is liquidated or the individual shareholder disposes of his stock and there is no capital loss reflected in federal adjusted gross income because of the fact that corporate losses have exhausted the shareholders basis for federal purposes, such shareholders shall be entitled, nevertheless, to a capital loss commensurate to their Minnesota basis for the stock.

(3) In cases where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under section 290.972 of this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under section 290.972 the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that such reserve is distributed to shareholders such distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this act.

Items of gross income includible within these definitions shall be deemed such regardless of the form in which received. Items of gross income shall be included in gross income of the taxable year in which received by a taxpayer unless properly to be accounted for as of a different taxable year under methods of accounting permitted by section 290.07, except that (1) amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that such amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act, and (2) amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act.

(d) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1(2) in computing Minnesota inheritance tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction in computing the taxable income of the estate unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have such amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.
