10. There shall be a one-vote majority for the caucuses chairing the full committee and the two divisions of the Committee on Taxes.

RULES COMMITTEE

I. The Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration shall be chaired by a member of the DFL caucus. It shall be composed of 23 members, 12 of whom are DFL caucus members and 11 of whom are I-R caucus members.

II. There shall be a regularly-scheduled weekly meeting of the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration. In addition, either the Rules Committee Chairman or caucus leader opposite the chairman may call a committee meeting upon notice to each member of the committee, provided there is no conflict with a regularly-scheduled standing committee or subcommittee meeting. If not occurring during a day on which the House meets, ample opportunity must be given to all members to attend. Either the chairman or caucus leader opposite the chairman may place an item on the agenda for the next meeting.

III. All duties of the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration as presently provided in the rules remain the same with the following modifications:

- A. Reference of bills to committee. The Speaker shall make the initial reference. However, the chief author or either caucus leader may object to the reference on the same day as the bill is referred. In this case, the bill will be referred to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration for referral to a committee. The Rules Committee report on the referral is not subject to objection on the floor. If the Rules Committee does not make such a reference within five (5) legislative days, the referral of the Speaker shall stand.

- B. Before action by the full House, all constitutional amendments shall be referred or re-referred to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration.
- C. No amendment to the report of the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration on the Rules of the House shall be allowed on the floor of the House.
- D. The Speaker's power to supervise the Chief Clerk under Rule 7.3 shall be subject to review by the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration.

IV. The Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration shall create a standing subcommittee on Rules composed of 10 members evenly divided between the DFL and IR caucuses which members shall be designated by the appropriate caucus leader. No amendment to the Rules of the House or this document shall be considered by the full House without approval of this subcommittee. The full committee may consider but not amend or defeat any proposed amendment to the Rules of the House reported by the subcommittee. Proposed amendments or disputes as to the interpretation of the Rules or this document shall be automatically referred to this subcommittee.

V. Appointments

- A. The Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration shall continue to fill vacancies in those commissions and boards provided by statute (Refer to Sec. 4 of House Research Report) in such a way as to assure proportional representation between the two caucuses. In making appointments of members of the opposite caucus, the Chairman shall follow the recommendations of that particular caucus leader.
- B. The Rules Committee shall devise a method to determine the proportionality of appointments to those commissions and boards listed in Section 1 of the House Research memorandum dated December 6, 1978. Upon devising such a method, each caucus shall select members for those commissions and boards in any manner it chooses.

SPEAKER

I. An I-R caucus member shall serve as Speaker.

II. Powers and Responsibilities—All present powers and responsibilities are retained with the following modifications:

A. Statutory Commissions, Special Committees and Boards. (Refer to Sec. 1 of House Research Memo dated December 5, 1978 as amended by memo of Dec. 6, 1978).

1. The Speaker will make all appointments to statutory commissions, special committees, and boards as provided by law. In those cases where statutory provisions refer to "minority leader", the Speaker shall make the appointments to assure proportional representation of the two caucuses.
2. In making appointments of members of the opposite caucus, the Speaker shall follow the recommendations of that particular caucus.
3. Where regular appointments are combined with automatic ex-officio appointments on a commission, special committee, or board, those regular appointments will be made so that all appointees, including those ex-officio, will be in a proportional balance between the two caucuses.
4. Where an odd number of appointments is to be made to a particular commission, special committee, or board, balancing appointments will be made to another commission in order to assure overall proportionality.

5. In filling vacancies occurring after the initial appointments, the Speaker shall follow the guidelines set forth above.

Section

Powers and Responsibilities of the Speaker as Established by Legislation, Related to Commissions, Special Committees, and Boards

Legislative Commission to Review Administrative Rules

Speaker appoints five house members who serve on commission. Commission has power to review and temporarily suspend administrative rules. Minn. Stat. §3.965.

Term: No length of term specified. Members of the commission must be state representatives or senators.

Legislative Advisory Commission

Chairmen of the Appropriations and Taxes Committee serve, but if a vacancy occurs when the Legislature is not in session the Speaker shall fill the vacancy. LAC is to be consulted by the Governor before transfers in excess of $10,000 are made from the contingent appropriation. Minn. Stat. §3.30.

Legislative Audit Commission

Speaker serves as a member of the Legislative Audit Commission. (Minority leader appoints three house members to the commission.) The Audit Commission, through the legislative auditor and its staff, conducts financial audits of state departments, boards, commissions, and agencies and evaluates programs funded by the state. The commission is authorized to prescribe additional duties or powers to be exercised or performed by the legislative auditor. Minn. Stat. §§3.97-3.98.

Term: Terms expire at the opening of the next regular legislative session.

Legislative Coordinating Commission

Speaker serves as a member of the LCC and appoints two additional house members. The Speaker serves as chairman of the commission in alternate years. LCC may establish and control office of legislative research which may include the office of revisor of statute and legislative reference library. LCC also has budgetary review authority over statutory commissions the majority of whose members are legislators. Minn. Stat. §§3.303-3.305.

Term: Members serve until a successor is appointed at the next regular legislative session.

Education Commission

Speaker appoints the house member serving on the Education Commission, created by the Interstate Compact for Education. Minn. Stat. §121.82. The purpose of this commission is to facilitate interstate cooperation, discussion, and improvement of education. Minn.Stat. §121.81.

Term: Terms are for two years, coinciding with the member's term in the house.

Midwestern Education Board

Speaker appoints the house member serving on the Midwestern Education Board, created by the Midwestern Education Compact. Minn. Stat. §121.844. The purposes of this interstate compact are similar to those of the interstate compact for education, except that it is limited to several midwestern states. Minn. Stat. §121.843.

Term: Terms are for two years, coinciding with the member's term in the house.

Great Lakes Basin Commission

Speaker appoints the two house members of the Great Lakes Basin Commission, created by the Great Lakes Basin Compact. This compact has the purpose of promoting and planning orderly development, use, and conservation of the water resources of the Great Lakes Basin through the implementation of an interstate compact of the states bordering on the great lakes. Minn. Stat. §1.22.

Term: No term specified in state; however, four of the commissioners must be members of the legislature.

Indian Affairs Intertribal Board*

The Speaker appoints three house members to serve as non-voting members on the Indian Affairs Intertribal Board. This board acts as a liaison between state government and the Indian tribes and is to assist the tribes in various matters in their relationships with private agencies and government. Minn. Stat. §3.922.

Term: Office is vacant when legislative member appointed is no longer a member of the legislature.

Commission on Interstate Cooperation

The Speaker serves as an ex officio, honorary member of the commission and appoints the five members of the commission from the house of representatives, so long as he retains the power to appoint members of standing committees of the house. (The law creates a five member standing committee of both the senate and house. Together the members of these standing committees, along with governor's committee, constitute the commission.) The purpose of the commission is to further the participation of the state in the council of state governments and to advance cooperation in developing proposals for interstate compacts, uniform statutes, reciprocal statutes, and informal cooperation among the states. Minn. Stat. §3.29.

Term: Term is for duration of the legislative session—membership is the same as that of any other standing committee of the House.

Iron Range Resources and Rehabilitation Board

The Speaker appoints the five house members on the Iron Range Resources and Rehabilitation Board. All expenditures and projects made by the commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation must be submitted to the board for a recommendation of approval, disapproval or modification. The board must approve or disapprove all disbursements. Minn. Stat. §298.22, subd. 2.

Joint Legislative Committee on Solid and Hazardous Waste

Speaker appoints seven members of the house to serve on the committee. This committee is to assist and advise the State Planning Agency in designing research and work programs regarding solid and hazardous waste and is to review the research in progress. (Expires 7-1-79) L.1978, C.728 §2.

Term: No term specified. Members are to be members of the legislature.

Legislative Commission on Minnesota Resources*

Speaker appoints seven house members to the commission. The commission is charged with making various studies relative to the use of the natural resources of the state. Minn. Stat. §§86.06-86.12.

Term: Members of the house are appointed at the close of the regular legislative session and are "to serve until successors are chosen." Vacancies are to be filled in the same manner as the original positions.

Legislative Advisory Committee to the Minnesota-Wisconsin Boundary Area Commission

Speaker appoints the five house members of the committee. The committee is charged with assisting the commission in the performance of its duties. Minn. Stat. §1.34.

Term: New members are to be selected by January 31st of odd numbered years.

Mississippi River Parkway Commission

Speaker appoints the three house members of the commission. The commission is charged with working toward planning and development of the great river road or the Mississippi River Parkway and to aid in securing the location of federal parks within Minnesota. Minn. Stat. §161.1419.

Term: Terms are coterminous with the regular legislative session.

Legislative Commission on Pensions and Retirement

Speaker appoints the five house members of the commission. The commission is charged with studying and investigating public retirement systems. Minn. Stat. §3.85.

Term: Terms are for two years commencing January 16th in odd numbered years.

Steering Committee of the MTC Directing the Feasibility Study of the Downtown People Mover*

Speaker appoints one house member to serve as a nonvoting member of the steering committee which is studying the feasibility of the downtown people mover project in St. Paul. L. 1977, C. 454, §45.
