HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 26

A house resolution relating to extending appreciation and thanks to the people and Government of Canada for the assistance given to American diplomats in Iran.

Whereas, on November 4, 1979, in violation of international law and custom, the American embassy in Tehran, Iran, was seized by a mob and the embassy staff has since been held hostage by that mob; and,

Whereas, the seizure was carried out with the consent, if not active assistance, of the Government of Iran; and,

Whereas, during the seizure of the United States embassy in Tehran, Iran, a group of six American diplomats managed to escape from the premises of the embassy; and,

Whereas, these diplomats found refuge in the Canadian embassy in Tehran; and,

Whereas, for almost three months the Canadian embassy officials hid our diplomats from their pursuers and then successfully evacuated them from Iran by concealing them among departing Canadian diplomats; and,

Whereas, the actions of the Canadian officials were performed under great personal pressure and at the risk of their own liberty and possibly their lives; and,

Whereas, the actions of the Canadian officials both in Iran and in Canada show great courage, skill and compassion; and,

Whereas, the people of Minnesota believe that their appreciation and thanks should be publicly and formally extended to the Government of Canada and the particular Canadian officials who carried out the assistance to our diplomats; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, on behalf of all of the people of Minnesota, that appreciation and thanks are extended to the people of Canada, the Government of Canada and to the diplomats of Canada who are responsible, in any way, for the granting of a safe haven and carrying out a safe evacuation of the American citizens in Iran.

Be It Further Resolved, that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to prepare enrolled copies of this resolution, which shall be authenticated by the signature of the Speaker, and to transmit them to the Governor General of Canada, the Prime Minister of Canada, the Secretary of State for External Affairs of Canada, the Speaker of the House of Commons of Canada, the Speaker of the Senate of Canada, and to the Canadian ambassador in Iran during the recent crisis.

Rothenberg moved that House Resolution No. 26 be now adopted.

The motion prevailed and House Resolution No. 26 was adopted.

EDWARD A. BURDICK, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

The first of these is the fact that the Government has a large surplus of money. This surplus is the result of the Government's policy of maintaining a low rate of interest on its bonds. This policy has resulted in a large amount of money being borrowed by the Government. This money is then used to pay for the Government's expenses.

The second of these is the fact that the Government has a large amount of money in the Treasury. This money is the result of the Government's policy of maintaining a high rate of interest on its bonds. This policy has resulted in a large amount of
 money being borrowed by the
 used to pay for the Government's
 expenses.

The third of these is the fact that the Government has a large amount of
 is the result of the Government's
 policy of maintaining a high rate of interest on its bonds. This policy
 has resulted in a large amount of
 money being borrowed by the
 used to pay for the Government's
 expenses.

The fourth of these is the fact that the Government has a large amount of
 policy of maintaining a high rate of interest on its bonds. This policy
 has resulted in a large amount of
 money being borrowed by the
 used to pay for the Government's
 expenses.

The fifth of these is the fact that the Government has a large amount of
 policy of maintaining a high rate of interest on its bonds. This policy
 has resulted in a large amount of
 money being borrowed by the
 used to pay for the Government's
 expenses.

The sixth of these is the fact that the Government has a large amount of
 policy of maintaining a high rate of interest on its bonds. This policy
 has resulted in a large amount of
 money being borrowed by the
 used to pay for the Government's
 expenses.
