Upon receipt of the suspension notice or the notice of the continuation of suspension, the credit union shall immediately cease or continue cessation of all operations except those operations specifically authorized by the commissioner of banks. If the notice is given pursuant to determination by the commissioner of banks after a hearing, the board of directors shall have 60 days from the receipt of said notice in which to file with the commissioner of banks a proposed plan of corrective actions or to request that a receiver be appointed for the credit union. The commissioner of banks shall have 30 days from the receipt of the proposed plan of corrective actions to determine if the proposed corrective actions are sufficient to correct the deficiencies which formed the basis for the suspension. If the commissioner of banks determines that the proposed corrective actions are sufficient, the suspension shall be lifted and the credit union returned to normal operations under its board of directors. If the commissioner of banks believes the proposed corrective actions insufficient, or if the board has failed to answer the suspension notice, or has requested that a receiver be appointed, then the commissioner of banks shall apply to the district court for appointment of a receiver. The credit union shall have the right, within six months of the receipt of any notice of suspension or continuation of suspension pursuant to a determination by the commissioner of banks after hearing, to appeal to the (DISTRICT) court of appeals as provided in chapter 14 for a ruling as to the validity of such notice."

Sec. 27. [EFFECTIVE DATE; TRANSITION.]

Sections 3 to 25 shall become effective only upon ratification of the amendment proposed in section 1 of this act as provided in the Minnesota Constitution. If the constitutional amendment proposed by section 1 is adopted by the people,

(a) sections 3 to 7 and section 24 of this act are effective July 1, 1983, and

(b) sections 8 to 23 and 25 and 26 are effective August 1, 1983. The court of appeals shall have jurisdiction over cases in which the notice of appeal, petition for review, or writ, is filed on or after August 1, 1983. In all cases in which the notice, petition or writ was filed on or before July 31, 1983, the court to which such appeal, petition, or writ was taken shall continue to exercise jurisdiction, notwithstanding any change introduced by this act. In any such case in which a district or county court retains jurisdiction and appeal is taken against its decision on or after August 1, 1983, appeal shall be taken to the court of appeals as provided herein.

Sec. 188. [REVISOR'S INSTRUCTION.]

On or before February 1, 1984 the revisor of statutes shall present to the chairmen of the committees on the judiciary in the house and senate a report summarizing all provisions of Laws 1983 which are inconsistent with section 480A.02 or the applicable sections of this act. The report shall identify provisions effective on or after August 1, 1983 for

a) direct appeal from the district court to the supreme court;

b) appeals from the county or county municipal courts to the district court; and

c) appeals pursuant to chapter 14 which provide for appeal to district court.

The report shall be in the form of a bill amending the identified sections to provide for appeal to the court of appeals in a manner consistent with section 480A.06 and the applicable sections of this act."
