Every licensed organization must file with the commissioner an application for a tax identification number and a lawful gambling permit. Sec. 5. [297C.05] [REVOCATION OF PERMITS.]

Whenever a licensed organization fails to comply with any provision of sections 297C.01 to 297C.13 or any rule of the commissioner adopted under sections 297C.01 to 297C.13, the commissioner, upon hearing, after giving the organization 30 days' notice in writing specifying the time and place of hearing and the reason for the proposed revocation and requiring the organization to show cause why the permit or permits should not be revoked, may for reasonable cause, revoke, or suspend any one or more of the permits held by the organization. The notice may be served personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a deficiency. The commissioner may not issue a new permit after revocation except upon application accompanied by reasonable evidence of the intention of the applicant to comply with the aforementioned provisions and rules. The commissioner may condition the issuance of a new permit to the applicant on the supplying of security in addition to that authorized by section 297C.09 as is reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with the aforementioned provisions and rules.

The amount of security may be increased or decreased by the commissioner, subject to the limitations herein provided. The commissioner may sell property deposited as security at public auction if necessary in order to recover any tax or any amount required to be collected, including interest and penalties, if any. Notice of the sale must be served upon the organization that deposited the security by mail. After any sale, any surplus above the amount due not required as security under this section must be returned to the organization that deposited the security. Nothing herein may be construed to prohibit the commissioner from publishing statistics so classified as not to disclose the identity of particular returns or reports and their contents. Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the commissioner may furnish information on a reciprocal basis to the taxing officials of another state, the lawful gambling board, or to the officials of any local unit of government of the state of Minnesota in order to implement the purposes of this chapter, chapter 349, and section 270.72.

In order to facilitate processing of returns and payments of taxes required by this chapter, the commissioner may contract with outside vendors and may disclose private and nonpublic data
