"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.324, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Whoever solicits or accepts a solicitation to engage for hire in sexual penetration or sexual contact while in a public place may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000 or both. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 4, a person who is convicted of violating this subdivision while acting as a patron must, at a minimum, be sentenced to pay a fine of at least $1,500.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.324, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Whoever intentionally does any of the following may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a fine of not more than $700, or both:

(1) Engages in prostitution with an individual 18 years of age or above; or

(2) Hires or offers or agrees to hire an individual 18 years of age or above to engage in sexual penetration or sexual contact. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 4, a person who is convicted of violating clause (1) or (2) while acting as a patron must, at a minimum, be sentenced to pay a fine of at least $500.

Whoever violates the provisions of this subdivision within ~~two~~ five years of a previous conviction may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 4, a person who is convicted of a gross misdemeanor violation of this subdivision while acting as a patron, must, at a minimum, be sentenced to pay a fine of at least $1,500 and, in those counties where section 609.3241 applies, ordered to pay an assessment of $500.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.324, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [COMMUNITY SERVICE IN LIEU OF MINIMUM FINE.] The court may order a person convicted of violating subdivision 2 or 3 to perform community work service in lieu of all or a portion of the minimum fine required under those subdivisions if the court makes specific, written findings that the convicted person is indigent or that payment of the fine would create undue hardship for the convicted person or that person's immediate family.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.324, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [USE OF MOTOR VEHICLE TO PATRONIZE PROSTITUTES; DRIVING RECORD NOTATION.] When a court sentences a person convicted of violating this section while acting as a patron, the court shall determine whether the person used a motor vehicle during the commission of the offense. If the court finds that the person used a motor vehicle during the commission of the offense, it shall forward its finding to the commissioner of public safety who shall record the finding on the person's driving record. The finding is classified as private data on individuals, as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.3241, is amended to read:

609.3241 [PENALTY ASSESSMENT AUTHORIZED.]

In any county that has established a multidisciplinary child protection team pursuant to section 626.558, when a court sentences an adult convicted of violating section 609.322, 609.323, or 609.324, while acting other than as a prostitute, the court shall impose an assessment of $250 to be used for the purposes described in section 626.558, subdivision 2a; provided that the court shall impose an assessment of $500 on an adult patron convicted of a gross misdemeanor violation of section 609.324, subdivision 3. This assessment is in addition to the assessment or surcharge required by section 609.101.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date."

H. F. No. 1887, A bill for an act relating to health; providing limited prescription privileges for physician assistants; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 151.37, by adding a subdivision.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 151.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. A supervising physician, as defined in Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2600, may delegate to a physician assistant, who is registered with the board of medical examiners, certified by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants, and who is under the supervising physician's supervision, the authority to prescribe and administer legend drugs and medical devices, subject to a process of retrospective review by the supervising physician, as established in rule.

Sec. 2. [RULES.]

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall amend Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2635, to require the agreement between the physician assistant and supervising physician and any alternate supervising physicians to include a statement by the supervising physician regarding delegation or nondelegation of the functions of prescribing and administering of legend drugs and medical devices to the physician assistant. This statement shall include a protocol indicating categories of drugs for which the supervising physician delegates prescriptive authority. This delegation shall be appropriate to the physician assistant's practice and within the scope of the physician assistant's training.

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall amend Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2615, subpart 2, to include, as an allowed service, the prescription and administration of legend drugs and medical devices as delegated by the supervising physician, subject to retrospective review and the limitations in the supervisory agreement. The commissioner of health shall review whether there are certain categories of drugs for which delegated prescribing is inappropriate.

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall amend Minnesota Rules, parts 5600.2630 and 5600.2645, to require physician assistants who have been delegated the authority to prescribe and administer legend drugs and medical devices to provide evidence of current certification by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants, when registering or reregistering as physician assistants.

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall adopt rules to require supervising physicians to retrospectively review, on a daily basis, the prescribing and administering of legend drugs and medical devices by physician assistants, when this authority has been delegated to the physician assistant as part of the agreement required by Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2635. During each on-site visit, the supervising physician shall document by signature and date that the prescriptive practice of the physician assistant has been reviewed.

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall adopt rules to develop:

(1) a system of identifying physician assistants eligible to prescribe drugs and therapeutic devices;

(2) a method of determining the categories of prescription drugs and therapeutic devices that each physician assistant is allowed to prescribe; and

(3) a system of transmitting to pharmacists a listing of physician assistants eligible to prescribe prescription drugs and therapeutic devices and the types of drugs and therapeutic devices they are allowed to prescribe."
