(1) Rule 1.16 is amended to read:

1.16 TIME LIMIT FOR CONSIDERATION OF BILLS. If 20 legislative days after a bill has been referred to committee or division (other than a bill in Appropriations) no report has been made upon it by the committee or division, its chief author may request that it be returned to the House and the request shall be entered in the Journal for the day. The committee or division shall have ten calendar days thereafter in which to vote upon the bill requested. If the committee or division fails to vote upon it within the ten days, the chief author may, at any time within five calendar days thereafter, present a written demand to the Speaker for its immediate return to the House. The demand shall be entered in the Journal for that day and shall constitute the demand of the House. The bill shall then be considered to be in the possession of the House, given its second reading and placed at the end of General Orders.

Such bill is subject to re-reference by a majority vote of the whole House. If the motion to re-refer is made on the day of the demand or within one legislative day thereafter, the motion shall take precedence over all other motions except privileged motions and shall be in order at any time.

After ~~Friday, May 12, 1989~~ Monday, March 26, 1990, the House shall not act on bills other than those recommended by conference committee reports or the Committee on Rules and Legislative

Administration, and those bills contained in messages from the Senate or from the Governor.

(2) Rule 3.4 is amended to read:

3.4 MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION. When a question has been decided either in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move its reconsideration, provided that such motion is made either on the same day the vote was taken or within the following two days of actual session of the House. A motion for reconsideration can be made at any time in the Order of Business and shall take precedence over all other questions except the motion to adjourn and the notice of intention to move reconsideration. Such motion or notice shall not be in order if the document, bill, resolution, message, report or other official action on which the vote was taken shall have left the possession of the House.

When a member gives notice of intention to move reconsideration of the final action of the House on any bill, resolution, message, report or other official action, the Chief Clerk shall retain the same until after the matter is disposed of or the time has expired during which the motion for reconsideration can be made.

On the last day allowed for the motion to reconsider, it shall be in order for any member who voted on the prevailing side to make the motion, unless the matter has been already disposed of.

A motion for reconsideration having been voted upon and lost shall not be renewed.

In an odd-numbered year, notice of intention to move reconsideration shall not be in order after Monday, April 24, 1989.

In an even-numbered year, notice of intention to move reconsideration shall not be in order after Thursday, March 22, 1990.

The budget resolution shall take the form of a House resolution that sets the maximum limitation on expenditures and taxes for the coming fiscal biennium for the general fund and an amount to be set aside as a budget reserve. The limitation is effective, if adopted, unless the House adopts a different limitation in a subsequent budget resolution that accounts for increases or decreases in general fund revenues and expenditures anticipated for the current fiscal biennium.

No bill described in Rule 5.7 or 5.9 shall be given its second reading until the House has received a statement from the Committee on Ways and Means certifying that the major expenditure and tax bills are reconciled and do not exceed the limitation specified in the budget resolution for the general fund. Major expenditure and tax bills are: the education appropriation bill; the health and human services appropriation bill; the state departments appropriation bill; the agriculture, transportation and semi-state appropriation bill; the education finance bill; and the omnibus tax bill. After the House has received a reconciliation statement from the Committee on Ways and Means, the House shall not give a second reading to any bill described in Rule 5.7 or 5.9 other than the major expenditure and tax bills. However, a bill may be given its second reading after the House has received from the Committee on Ways
