REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON RULES AND LEGISLATIVE ADMINISTRATION

Long, for the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, offered the following report and moved its adoption:

Resolved that the Permanent Rules of the House of Representatives for the 77th Session be amended to read as follows:

(1) Rule 1.16 is amended to read:

1.16 TIME LIMIT FOR CONSIDERATION OF BILLS. If 20 legislative days after a bill has been referred to committee or division (other than a bill in Appropriations) no report has been made upon it by the committee or division, its chief author may request that it be returned to the House and the request shall be entered in the Journal for the day. The committee or division shall have ten calendar days thereafter in which to vote upon the bill requested. If the committee or division fails to vote upon it within the ten days, the chief author may, at any time within five calendar days thereafter, present a written demand to the Speaker for its immediate return to the House. The demand shall be entered in the Journal for that day and shall constitute the demand of the House. The bill shall then be considered to be in the possession of the House, given its second reading and placed at the end of General Orders.

Such bill is subject to re-reference by a majority vote of the whole House. If the motion to re-refer is made on the day of the demand or within one legislative day thereafter, the motion shall take precedence over all other motions except privileged motions and shall be in order at any time.

In regular session in the odd-numbered year after Friday, May 10, 1991, and in the even-numbered year after ....., the House shall not act on bills other than those recommended by conference committee reports or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, and those bills contained in messages from the Senate or from the Governor.

(2) Rule 3.04 is amended to read:

3.04 MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION. When a question has been decided either in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move its reconsideration, provided that such motion is made either on the same day the vote was taken or within the following two days of actual session of the House. A motion for reconsideration can be made at any time in the Order of Business and shall take precedence over all other questions except the motion to adjourn and the notice of intention to move reconsideration. Such motion or notice shall not be in order if the document, bill, resolution, message, report or other official action on which the vote was taken shall have left the possession of the House.

When a member gives notice of intention to move reconsideration of the final action of the House on any bill, resolution, message, report or other official action, the Chief Clerk shall retain the same until after the matter is disposed of or the time has expired during which the motion for reconsideration can be made.

On the last day allowed for the motion to reconsider, it shall be in order for any member who voted on the prevailing side to make the motion, unless the matter has been already disposed of.

A motion for reconsideration having been voted upon and lost shall not be renewed.

In regular session in an odd-numbered year, notice of intention to move reconsideration shall not be in order after ..... Monday, April 22, 1991.

In regular session in an even-numbered year, notice of intention to move reconsideration shall not be in order after .....

(3) Rule 6.11 is amended to read:

6.11 CONFERENCE COMMITTEES. A conference committee may report at any time. No committee except a conference committee or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration shall sit during any daily session of the House without leave.

A conference committee report shall include only subject matter contained in the House or Senate versions of the bill for which that conference committee was appointed, or like subject matter contained in a bill passed by the House. The member presenting the conference committee report to the House shall disclose all substantive changes from the House version of the bill.

In regular session in an odd-numbered year except after ..... Monday, May 13, 1991, and in an even-numbered year except after ....., a written copy of a report of a conference committee shall be placed on the desk of each member of the House 24 hours before action on the report by the House. If the report has been reprinted in the Journal of the House for a preceding day and is available to the members, the Journal copy shall serve as the written report.

(4) Rule 9.03 is amended to read:

9.03 DEADLINES. In regular session in odd-numbered years, committee reports on bills favorably acted upon by a committee in the house of origin after ..... Friday, April 12, 1991, and committee reports on bills originating in the other house favorably acted upon by a committee after ..... Wednesday, April 24, 1991, shall be referred in the House of Representatives to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration for disposition. In even-numbered years, committee reports on bills favorably acted upon by a committee of the house of origin after ....., and committee reports on bills originating in the other house favorably acted upon by a committee after ....., shall be referred in the House of Representatives to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration for disposition. However, referral is not required after the first deadline when, by the second deadline, a committee acts on a bill that is a companion to a bill that has then been acted upon by the first deadline in the Senate.

Bills in the House Committees on Appropriations and on Taxes, and the education finance bill in the Committee on Education, are exempt from this rule and need not be re-referred, except as follows: a bill other than an omnibus tax or appropriation bill that includes provisions that create or reestablish a commission, board, task force, advisory committee or council, or other entity, shall be re-referred to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration if it remains in committee after the deadlines set by this rule.

The motion prevailed and the report amending the Permanent Rules of the House for the 77th Session was adopted.
