"Section 1. [504.012] [WRITTEN LEASE REQUIRED.]

An owner of a multiunit building, with 12 or more residential units, shall have a written lease for each unit rented to a residential tenant. The definitions of "owner," "tenant," and "building" in section 566.18 apply to this section.

Sec. 2. [504.015] [TENANT TO BE GIVEN COPY OF LEASE.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions of "owner" and "tenant" in section 566.18 apply to this section.

Subd. 2. [COPY OF WRITTEN LEASE TO TENANT.] An owner shall give a tenant a copy of a written lease. An owner may obtain a signed and dated receipt, either as a separate document or an acknowledgment included in the lease agreement itself, from the tenant acknowledging that the tenant has received a copy of the lease. This signed receipt or acknowledgment is prima facie evidence that the tenant has received a copy of the lease.

Subd. 3. [LEGAL ACTION TO ENFORCE LEASE.] An owner shall not begin any legal action to enforce the lease, except for nonpayment of rent, malicious destruction of property, or a violation of section 504.181, unless the tenant has received a copy of the lease before the date of the alleged violation of the lease.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 504.22, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) There shall be disclosed to the tenant either in the rental agreement or otherwise in writing prior to commencement of the tenancy the name and address of:

(1) the person authorized to manage the premises; and

(2) an owner of the premises or an agent authorized by the owner to accept service of process and receive and give receipt for notices and demands.

(b) When an owner of a building receives notice of a contract for deed cancellation under section 559.21 or notice of a mortgage foreclosure sale under chapter 580 or 582, the owner must disclose the notice to a tenant or a person prior to starting a new tenancy. Disclosure must be made before the owner signs a lease or accepts rent or a security deposit from a tenant or a prospective tenant. The notice must specify:

(1) the name of the mortgagor and the mortgagee, and an assignee of the mortgagee;

(2) the name of the person who holds the contract for deed;

(3) the date of the foreclosure sale or contract for deed cancellation;

(4) the time allowed for redemption by the mortgagor's personal representatives or assigns in the case of a foreclosure; and

(5) the date by which the tenant must vacate the premises. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "building" does not include "manufactured home park" as defined in section 327C.01, subdivision 5.

(c) An owner of a building is not required to disclose notice of a mortgage foreclosure or contract for deed cancellation under paragraph (b) if the mortgagee or contract holder notifies the owner in writing that:

(1) leases existing at the end of the cancellation period or owner's period of redemption will be honored for the term of the lease. The mortgagee's or contract holder's notification to the owner may establish minimum rental rates, length of tenancy, or other terms and conditions for honoring leases that are new or renewed after the date of the notification; and

(2) tenancies on a month-to-month basis will not be terminated at the end of the cancellation period or owner's period of redemption provided the terms of the tenancy meet the minimum rental rates and other terms and conditions established in the mortgagee's or contract holder's notification to the owner.

(d) If an owner fails to abide by the terms and conditions established by the mortgagee or contract holder under paragraph (c), the owner must disclose notice of the foreclosure or contract for deed cancellation to the tenant or person prior to starting a new tenancy as required under paragraph (b).

(e) An owner's requirement to disclose under paragraph (b) does not apply if there is a receiver appointed under chapters 559 and 576.

(f) Except as provided in paragraphs (c) and (e), if an owner, agent, or other person acting under the owner's direction or control has failed to disclose notice of the mortgage foreclosure or contract for deed cancellation, as required under paragraph (b), the tenant is entitled to remedies provided by section 8.31, subdivision 3a, and other equitable relief as determined by the court.

Sec. 4. [504.246]. [DISCLOSURE REQUIRED FOR OUTSTANDING INSPECTION AND CONDEMNATION ORDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISCLOSURE TO TENANT.] (a) A landlord, agent, or person acting under the landlord's direction or control shall provide, except as provided in subdivision 3, a copy of all outstanding inspection orders specifying code violations issued under section 566.19, and all outstanding condemnation orders and declarations that the premises are unfit for human habitation to:

(1) a tenant, as defined in section 566.18, either by delivery or by United States mail, postage prepaid, within 72 hours of the receipt of the order or declaration by the landlord;

(b) A landlord, agent, or person acting under the landlord's direction or control shall disclose as required under paragraph (a) in the following manner:

(2) to the tenants or persons prior to starting a new tenancy in the unit or units for which the inspection or condemnation orders or declarations were issued.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] If the landlord, agent, or person acting under the landlord's direction or control violates this section, the tenant is entitled to remedies provided by section 8.31, subdivision 3a, and other equitable relief as determined by the court.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTION.] A landlord, agent, or person acting under the landlord's direction or control will not be determined to have violated this section if:

(2) the time allowed to complete the repairs, including any extension of the deadline, has not yet expired; and

The tenant screening service must notify the tenant of the amount of the charge before furnishing the information. The charge may not exceed the amount that the tenant screening service would impose on each designated recipient of a tenant report, except that no charge may be made for notifying persons of the deletion of information which is found to be inaccurate or which can no longer be verified.

(b) Files maintained on a tenant must be disclosed promptly as established in clauses (1) to (4).

510.08 [SELECTION AFTER LEVY.]

(a) If the premises so owned and occupied by the debtor or claimed under the debtor by another as exempt shall exceed the area herein prescribed, and the homestead shall not have been set apart as such and its boundaries defined, an attachment or execution may be levied upon the whole. Thereupon the person entitled to the benefits of such exemption shall deliver to the officer making the levy a description of the part claimed as exempt, and the remainder only shall be subject to the levy so made.

(b) If the premises so owned and occupied by the debtor or claimed under the debtor by another as exempt exceeds the value herein prescribed, an attachment or execution may be levied upon the whole.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 550.175, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DESIGNATION OF HOMESTEAD PROPERTY.] The debtor must designate the legal description of the homestead property to be sold separately and the debtor's estimate of the value of the property. The homestead property designated may include any amount of the property. The designation must conform to local zoning, include the dwelling occupied by the debtor, and be compact so that it does not unreasonably affect the value of the remaining property. The debtor must serve a copy of the designation on the executing creditor, the sheriff, and the county recorder by ten business days before the sale is scheduled.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 550.175, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SALE OF PROPERTY.] If the sheriff receives a homestead property designation under subdivision 3, the sheriff must offer and sell the designated homestead property, and the remaining property, separately, unless the executing creditor denies the right to the exemption, objects to the property designated, or claims the value exceeds the exemption. If dissatisfied with the homestead property designation or the debtor's valuation of the property, upon proper motion to the district court of the county in which any part of the property is located, the executing creditor is entitled to a court approved designation of the homestead and a court determination of value. The court shall either approve the debtor's designation or cause the property to be surveyed and order a homestead designation consistent with the standards of subdivision 3 and require an appraisal of fair market value, as applicable. The court's designation of the homestead property shall conform to the debtor's request to the extent not inconsistent with the standards of subdivision 3. The court, in determining appraised value, shall review any appraisals provided by the debtor and executing creditor and may require a court appointed independent appraisal. The appraisals shall evaluate the property's fair market value, net of reasonable costs of sale. If the court determines that the property claimed as a homestead exceeds in value the amount of the homestead exemption or if the court determines that the property cannot be divided without material injury, the court shall order the sale of the entire property, including the designated homestead. Out of the proceeds of the sale, the court shall pay the debtor the amount of the homestead exemption and apply the balance of the proceeds of the sale on the execution. At the sale, no bid shall be accepted unless it exceeds the amount of the homestead exemption and, in that case, the homestead shall be exempt. The cost of any court ordered survey or appraisal and of the sale shall be collected on the execution, if the debtor designated as the debtor's homestead a greater quantity of property, property of greater value than the debtor was entitled to, or designated a parcel that does not meet the standards of subdivision 3. In all other cases, the costs shall be borne by the executing creditor.
