Whereas, the Household Eco Team Program complements the state's efforts to reduce reliance on the automobile by helping individuals make more environmentally sound transportation decisions; and

Whereas, the Household Eco Team Program helps build community by facilitating cooperation, communication, and team building at the neighborhood level; and

Whereas, the results of the program's 653 Eco Teams in 12 countries which have completed the six-month program are as follows for the average household:

35 percent less garbage to the landfill

30 percent less water use

13 percent less fuel for transportation

16 percent reduction in CO₂ emissions

$404 in savings; and

Whereas, the Household Eco Team Program has launched a statewide campaign entitled, "Minnesota Puts Its House in Order" on Earth Day 1993 to create 1,000 Eco Teams within three years; and
