Subd. 4. [REFERRAL FOR CASE MANAGEMENT.] Each provider of emergency services, day treatment services, outpatient treatment, community support services, residential treatment, acute care hospital inpatient treatment, or regional treatment center inpatient treatment must inform each of its clients with serious and persistent mental illness of the availability and potential benefits to the client of case management. If the client consents, the provider must refer the client by notifying the county employee designated by the county board to coordinate case management activities of the client's name and address and by informing the client of whom to contact to request case management. The provider must document compliance with this subdivision in the client's record.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.467, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [INFORMATION FOR BILLING.] Each provider of outpatient treatment, community support services, day treatment services, emergency services, residential treatment, or acute care hospital inpatient treatment must include the name and home address of each client for whom services are included on a bill submitted to a county, if the client has consented to the release of that information and if the county requests the information. Each provider shall attempt to obtain each client's consent and must explain to the client that the information can only be released with the client's consent and may be used only for purposes of payment and maintaining provider accountability. The provider shall document the attempt in the client's record.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.468, is amended to read:

245.468 [EDUCATION AND PREVENTION SERVICES.]

By July 1, 1988, county boards must provide or contract for education and prevention services to ~~persons~~ adults residing in the county. Education and prevention services must be designed to:

(1) convey information regarding mental illness and treatment resources to the general public ~~or~~ and special high-risk target groups;

(2) increase understanding and acceptance of problems associated with mental illness;

(3) improve people's skills in dealing with high-risk situations known to have an impact on ~~people's~~ adults' mental health functioning; and

(4) prevent development or deepening of mental illness; and

(5) refer adults with additional mental health needs to appropriate mental health services.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.469, is amended to read:

245.469 [EMERGENCY SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF EMERGENCY SERVICES.]
By July 1, 1988, county boards must provide or contract for enough emergency services within the county to meet the needs of ~~persons~~ adults in the county who are experiencing an emotional crisis or mental illness. Clients may be required to pay a fee ~~based on their ability to pay according to section 245.481.~~ Emergency services must include assessment, intervention, and appropriate case disposition. Emergency services must:

(1) promote the safety and emotional stability of ~~people~~ adults with mental illness or emotional crises;

(2) minimize further deterioration of ~~people~~ adults with mental illness or emotional crises;

(3) help ~~people~~ adults with mental illness or emotional crises to obtain ongoing care and treatment; and

(4) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet client needs.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS.] The county board shall require that all service providers of emergency services to adults with mental illness provide immediate direct access to a mental health professional during regular business hours. For evenings, weekends, and holidays, the service may be by direct toll free telephone access to a mental health professional, a mental health practitioner, or until January 1, 1991, a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional. Whenever emergency service during nonbusiness hours is provided by anyone other than a mental health professional, a mental health professional must be available for at least telephone consultation within 30 minutes.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.470, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF OUTPATIENT SERVICES.]

(a) By July 1, 1988, county boards must provide or contract for enough outpatient services within the county to meet the needs of persons adults with mental illness residing in the county. Clients may be required to pay a fee based on their ability to pay according to section 245.481. Outpatient services include:

- (1) conducting diagnostic assessments;
 - (2) conducting psychological testing;
 - (3) developing or modifying individual treatment plans;
 - (4) making referrals and recommending placements as appropriate;
 - (5) treating a person's an adult's mental health needs through therapy;
 - (6) prescribing and managing medication and evaluating the effectiveness of prescribed medication; and
 - (7) preventing placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet client needs.
- (b) County boards may request a waiver allowing outpatient services to be provided in a nearby trade area if it is determined that the client can best be served outside the county.

Sec. 17. [245.4711] [CASE MANAGEMENT AND COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) By January 1, 1989, the county board shall provide case management activities for all adults with serious and persistent mental illness residing in the county who request or consent to the services and to each adult for whom the court appoints a case manager. Staffing ratios must be sufficient to serve the needs of the clients. The case manager must meet the requirements in section 245.462, subdivision 4.

(b) Case management services provided to adults with serious and persistent mental illness eligible for medical assistance must be billed to the medical assistance program under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625.

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION OF CASE MANAGEMENT ELIGIBILITY.] The county board shall notify the client of the person's potential eligibility for case management services within five working days after receiving a request from an individual or a referral from a provider under section 245.467, subdivision 4.

The county board shall send a written notice to the client and the client's representative, if any, that identifies the designated case management providers.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF CASE MANAGER.] (a) The case manager shall promptly arrange for a diagnostic assessment of the applicant when one is not available as described in section 245.467, subdivision 2, to determine the applicant's eligibility as an adult with serious and persistent mental illness for community support services. The county board shall notify the applicant and the applicant's representative, if any, in writing, if the applicant is determined ineligible for community support services.

(b) Upon a determination of eligibility for community support services, the case manager shall develop an individual community support plan for an adult according to subdivision 4, paragraph (a), review the client's progress, and monitor the provision of services. If services are to be provided in a host county that is not the county of financial responsibility, the case manager shall consult with the host county and obtain a letter demonstrating the concurrence of the host county regarding the provision of services.

Subd. 4. [INDIVIDUAL COMMUNITY SUPPORT PLAN.] (a) The case manager must develop an individual community support plan for each adult that incorporates the client's individual treatment plan. The individual treatment plan may not be a substitute for the development of an individual community support plan. The individual community support plan must be developed within 30 days of client intake and reviewed every 90 days after it is developed. The case manager is responsible for developing the individual community support plan based on a diagnostic assessment and a functional assessment and for implementing and monitoring the delivery of services according to the individual community support plan. To the extent possible, the adult with serious and persistent mental illness, the person's family, advocates, service providers, and significant others must be involved in all phases of development and implementation of the individual or family community support plan.

(b) The client's individual community support plan must state:

(1) the goals of each service;

(2) the activities for accomplishing each goal;

(3) a schedule for each activity; and

(4) the frequency of face-to-face contacts by the case manager, as appropriate to client need and the implementation of the individual community support plan.

Subd. 5. [COORDINATION BETWEEN CASE MANAGER AND COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.] The county board must establish procedures that ensure ongoing contact and coordination between the case manager and the community support services program as well as other mental health services.

Subd. 6. [AVAILABILITY OF COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.] County boards must provide or contract for sufficient community support services within the county to meet the needs of adults with serious and persistent mental illness residing in the county. Clients may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. The community support services program must be designed to improve the ability of adults with serious and persistent mental illness to:

(1) work in a regular or supported work environment;

(2) handle basic activities of daily living;

(3) participate in leisure time activities;

(4) set goals and plans;

(5) obtain and maintain appropriate living arrangements; and

(6) reduce the use of more intensive, costly, or restrictive placements both in number of admissions and lengths of stay as determined by client need.

Subd. 7. [DAY TREATMENT SERVICES PROVIDED.] (a) By July 1, 1989, day treatment services must be developed as a part of the community support services available to adults with serious and persistent mental illness residing in the county. Clients may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Day treatment services must be designed to:

- (1) provide a structured environment for treatment;
- (2) provide community support;
- (3) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet client need;
- (4) coordinate with or be offered in conjunction with a local education agency's special education program; and
- (5) operate on a continuous basis throughout the year.

(b) County boards may request a waiver from including day treatment services if they can document that:

- (1) an alternative plan of care exists through the county's community support services for clients who would otherwise need day treatment services;
- (2) day treatment, if included, would be duplicative of other components of the community support services; and
- (3) county demographics and geography make the provision of day treatment services cost ineffective and infeasible.

Subd. 8. [BENEFITS ASSISTANCE.] The county board must offer help to adults with serious and persistent mental illness in applying for federal benefits, including supplemental security income, medical assistance, and Medicare. The help must be offered as a part of the community support program available to adults with serious and persistent mental illness for whom the county is financially responsible and who may qualify for these benefits.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.472, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT SERVICES.] By July 1, 1988, county boards must provide or contract for enough residential treatment services to meet the needs of all persons adults with mental illness residing in the county and needing this level of care. Residential treatment services include both intensive and structured residential treatment with length of stay based on client residential treatment need. Services must be as close to the county as possible. Residential treatment must be designed to:

- (1) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet client needs;
- (2) help clients achieve the highest level of independent living;
- (3) help clients gain the necessary skills to be referred to a community support services program or outpatient services function in a less structured setting; and
- (4) stabilize crisis admissions.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.472, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [TRANSITION TO COMMUNITY.] Residential treatment programs must plan for and assist clients in making a transition from residential treatment facilities to other community-based services. In coordination with the client's case manager, if any, residential treatment facilities must also arrange for appropriate follow-up care in the community during the transition period. Before a client is discharged, the residential treatment facility must notify the client's case manager, so that the case manager can monitor and coordinate the transition and arrangements for the client's appropriate follow-up care in the community.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.473, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF ACUTE CARE INPATIENT SERVICES.] By July 1, 1988, county boards must make available through contract or direct provision enough acute care hospital inpatient treatment services as close to the county as possible to meet the needs of persons for adults with mental illness residing in the county. Acute care hospital inpatient treatment services must be designed to:

- (1) stabilize the medical and mental health condition of people with acute or serious and persistent mental illness for which admission is required;
- (2) improve functioning to the point where discharge to residential treatment or community-based mental health services is possible; and
- (3) facilitate appropriate referrals, for follow-up, and placements mental health care in the community.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.474, is amended to read:

245.474 [REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER INPATIENT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER INPATIENT SERVICES.] By July 1, 1987, the commissioner shall make sufficient regional treatment center inpatient services available to people adults with mental illness throughout the state who need this level of care. Regional treatment centers are responsible to:

- (1) stabilize the medical and mental health condition of the person with mental illness adult requiring the admission;
- (2) improve functioning to the point where discharge to community-based mental health services is possible;
- (3) strengthen family and community support; and
- (4) facilitate appropriate discharge, aftercare, and referrals for follow-up placements mental health care in the community.

Subd. 2. [QUALITY OF SERVICE.] The commissioner shall biennially determine the needs of all mentally ill patients adults with mental illness who are served by regional treatment centers by administering a client-based evaluation system. The client-based evaluation system must include at least the following independent measurements: behavioral development assessment; habilitation program assessment; medical needs assessment; maladaptive behavioral assessment; and vocational behavior assessment. The commissioner shall propose staff ratios to the legislature for the mental health and support units in regional treatment centers as indicated by the results of the client-based evaluation system. The proposed staffing ratios shall include professional, nursing, direct care, medical, clerical, and support staff based on the client-based evaluation system. The commissioner shall recompute staffing ratios and recommendations on a biennial basis.

Subd. 3. [TRANSITION TO COMMUNITY.] Regional treatment centers must plan for and assist clients in making a transition from regional treatment centers to other community-based services. In coordination with the client's case manager, if any, regional treatment centers must also arrange for appropriate follow-up care in the community during the transition period. Before a client is discharged, the regional treatment center must notify the client's case manager, so that the case manager can monitor and coordinate the transition and arrangements for the client's appropriate follow-up care in the community.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.476, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCREENING REQUIRED.] No later than January 1, ~~1991~~ 1992, the county board shall screen all ~~persons~~ adults before they may be admitted for treatment of mental illness to a residential treatment facility, an acute care hospital, or informally admitted to a regional treatment center if public funds are used to pay for the services. Screening prior to admission must occur within ten days. If a ~~person~~ an adult is admitted for treatment of mental illness on an emergency basis to a residential facility or acute care hospital or held for emergency care by a regional treatment center under section 253B.05, subdivision 1, screening must occur within five days of the admission. ~~Persons~~ Adults must be screened within ten days before or within five days after admission to ensure that:

- (1) an admission is necessary,
- (2) the length of stay is as short as possible consistent with individual client need, and
- (3) the case manager, if assigned, is developing an individual community support plan.

The screening process and placement decision must be documented in the client's record.

An alternate review process may be approved by the commissioner if the county board demonstrates that an alternate review process has been established by the county board and the times of review, persons responsible for the review, and review criteria are comparable to the standards specified in clauses (1) to (3).

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.476, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INDIVIDUAL PLACEMENT AGREEMENT.] The county board shall enter into an individual placement agreement with a provider of residential treatment services to a ~~person~~ an adult eligible for services under this section. The agreement must specify the payment rate and terms and conditions of county payment for the placement.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.476, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [TASK FORCE ON RESIDENTIAL AND INPATIENT TREATMENT SERVICES FOR ADULTS.] The commissioner of human services shall appoint a task force on residential and inpatient treatment services for adults. The task force must include representatives from each of the mental health professional categories defined in section 245.462, subdivision 18, the Minnesota mental health association, the Minnesota alliance for the mentally ill, the Minnesota mental health law project, the Minnesota association of mental health residential facilities, the Minnesota hospital association, department of human services staff, the department of education, the department of corrections, the ombudsman for mental health and mental retardation, and counties. The task force shall examine and evaluate existing mechanisms that have as their purpose review of appropriate admission and need for continued care for clients admitted to residential treatment, acute care hospital inpatient treatment, and regional treatment center inpatient treatment. These mechanisms shall include at least the following: precommitment screening, licensure and reimbursement rules, county monitoring, technical assistance, nursing home preadmission screening, hospital preadmission certification, and hospital retrospective reviews. The task force shall report to the legislature by February 15, 1990, on how existing mechanisms may be changed to accomplish the goals of screening as described in subdivision 1.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.477, is amended to read:

245.477 [APPEALS.]

Any person adult who requests mental health services under sections 245.461 to 245.486 must be advised of services available and the right to appeal at the time of the request and each time the individual community service support plan or individual treatment plan is reviewed. Any person adult whose request for mental health services under sections 245.461 to 245.486 is denied, not acted upon with reasonable promptness, or whose services are suspended, reduced, or terminated by action or inaction for which the county board is responsible under sections 245.461 to 245.486 may contest that action or inaction before the state agency as specified in section 256.045. The commissioner shall monitor the nature and frequency of administrative appeals under this section.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.478, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROPOSAL CONTENT.] The local adult mental health proposal must include:

- (1) the local adult mental health advisory council's or adult mental health subcommittee of an existing advisory council's report on unmet needs of adults and any other needs assessment used by the county board in preparing the local adult mental health proposal;
- (2) a description of the local adult mental health advisory council's or the adult mental health subcommittee of an existing advisory council's involvement in preparing the local adult mental health proposal and methods used by the county board to obtain ensure adequate and timely participation of citizens, mental health professionals, and providers in development of the local mental health proposal;

(ii) a description of each service provider, including county agencies, contractors, and subcontractors, that is expected to either be the sole provider of one of the adult mental health services described in sections 245.468 245.461 to 245.476 245.486 or to provide over $10,000 of adult mental health services per year, including a listing of the professional qualifications of the staff involved in service delivery for the county;

(iii) a description of how the adult mental health services in the county will be unified and coordinated;

(iv) the estimated number of clients who will receive each adult mental health service; and

(v) estimated expenditures for each adult mental health service and revenues for the entire proposal.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.478, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROPOSAL FORMAT.] The local adult mental health proposal must be made in a format prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.479, is amended to read:

245.479 [COUNTY OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY.]

For purposes of sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887, the county of financial responsibility is determined under section 256G.02, subdivision 4. Disputes between counties regarding financial responsibility must be resolved by the commissioner in accordance with section 256G.09.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.48, is amended to read:

245.48 [MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT.]

Counties must continue to spend for mental health services specified in sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887, according to generally accepted budgeting and accounting principles, an amount equal to the total expenditures shown in the county's approved 1987 Community Social Services Act plan under "State CSSA, Title XX and County Tax" for services to persons with mental illness plus the comparable figure for Rule 5 facilities under target populations other than mental illness in the approved 1987 CSSA plan.

Sec. 30. [245.481] [FEES FOR MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES.]

A client or, in the case of a child, the child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee for mental health services provided under sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887. The fee must be based on the person's ability to pay according to the fee schedule adopted by the county board. In adopting the fee schedule for mental health services, the county board may adopt the fee schedule provided by the commissioner or adopt a fee schedule recommended by the county board and approved by the commissioner. Agencies or individuals under contract with a county board to provide mental health services under sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887 must not charge clients whose mental health services are paid wholly or in part from public funds fees which exceed the county board's adopted fee schedule. This section does not apply to regional treatment center fees, which are governed by sections 246.50 to 246.55.

Sec. 31. [245.4815] [EMPLOYABILITY PILOT PROJECTS.]

The commissioner of human services, in cooperation with the commissioner of jobs and training, shall provide grants to county boards for employability pilot projects. The pilot project program shall be a collaborative effort of the division of mental health of the department of human services and the division of rehabilitative services of the department of jobs and training. Pilot projects should:

- (1) be innovative in design and have the potential for replication;
- (2) be coordinated with community support programs and not duplicative of existing programs of division of rehabilitative services;
- (3) be community based and have as their focus the provision of real work opportunities based on client choice and self-determination;
- (4) be capable of serving persons with different functional levels;
- (5) take into consideration individual tolerances; and
- (6) provide a range of work opportunities, from several hours of work to full-time employment.

Pilot projects proposed by counties may include, but are not limited to: world of work and volunteer opportunities, consumer run businesses, cottage industries, enhancement of educational and training experiences, creative job placements, and support tailored to individual choice and need.

At least one pilot project shall be located in rural Minnesota, and at least one pilot project in the Twin Cities metropolitan area.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.482, is amended to read:

245.482 [REPORTING AND EVALUATION.]

Subdivision 1. [FISCAL REPORTS.] The commissioner shall develop a unified format for quarterly fiscal reports that will include information that the commissioner determines necessary to carry out sections 245.461 to 245.486, 245.487 to 245.4887, and section 256E.08. The county board shall submit a completed fiscal report in the required format no later than 15 30 days after the end of each quarter.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM REPORTS.] The commissioner shall develop a unified format formats for an annual program report that reporting, which will include information that the commissioner determines necessary to carry out sections 245.461 to 245.486, 245.487 to 245.4887, and section 256E.10. The county board shall submit a completed program report reports in the required format by March 15 of each year according to the reporting schedule developed by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [PROVIDER REPORTS.] The commissioner may develop a format formats and procedures for direct reporting from providers to the commissioner to include information that the commissioner determines necessary to carry out sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887. In particular, the provider reports must include aggregate information by county of residence about mental health services paid for by funding sources other than counties.

Subd. 4. [COMMISSIONER'S CONSOLIDATED REPORTING RECOMMENDATIONS.] The commissioner's reports of February 15, 1990, required under sections 245.461, subdivision 3, and 245.487, subdivision 4, shall include recommended measures to provide coordinated, interdepartmental efforts to ensure early identification and intervention for children with, or at risk of developing, emotional disturbance, to improve the efficiency of the mental health funding mechanisms, and to standardize and consolidate fiscal and program reporting. The recommended measures must provide that client needs are met in an effective and accountable manner and that state and county resources are used as efficiently as possible. The commissioner shall consider the advice of the state advisory council and the children's subcommittee in developing these recommendations.

Subd. 4 5. [INACCURATE OR INCOMPLETE REPORTS.] The commissioner shall promptly notify a county or provider if a required report is clearly inaccurate or incomplete. The commissioner may delay all or part of a mental health fund payment if an appropriately completed report is not received as required by this section.

Subd. 5 6. [STATEWIDE EVALUATION.] The commissioner shall use the county and provider reports required by this section to complete the statewide report required in section sections 245.461 and 245.487.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.483, is amended to read:

245.483 [TERMINATION OR RETURN OF AN ALLOCATION.]

Subdivision 1. [FUNDS NOT PROPERLY USED.] If the commissioner determines that a county is not meeting the requirements of sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887, or that funds are not being used according to the approved local proposal, all or part of the mental health and community social service act funds may be terminated upon 30 days notice to the county board. The commissioner may require repayment of any funds not used according to the approved local proposal. If the commissioner receives a written appeal from the county board within the 30-day period, opportunity for a hearing under the Minnesota administrative procedure act, chapter 14, must be provided before the allocation is terminated or is required to be repaid. The 30-day period begins when the county board receives the commissioner's notice by certified mail.

Subd. 2. [USE OF RETURNED FUNDS.] The commissioner may reallocate the funds returned.

Subd. 3. [DELAYED PAYMENTS.] If the commissioner finds that a county board or its contractors are not in compliance with the approved local proposal or sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887, the commissioner may delay payment of all or part of the quarterly mental health and community social service act funds until the county board and its contractors meet the requirements. The commissioner shall not delay a payment longer than three months without first issuing a notice under subdivision 2 that all or part of the allocation will be terminated or required to be repaid. After this notice is issued, the commissioner may continue to delay the payment until completion of the hearing in subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [STATE ASSUMPTION OF RESPONSIBILITY.] If the commissioner determines that services required by sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887 will not be provided by the county board in the manner or to the extent required by sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887, the commissioner shall contract directly with providers to ensure that clients receive appropriate services. In this case, the commissioner shall use the county's community social service act and mental health funds to the extent necessary to carry out the county's responsibilities under sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887. The commissioner shall work with the county board to allow for a return of authority and responsibility to the county board as soon as compliance with sections 245.461 to 245.486 and 245.487 to 245.4887 can be assured.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.484, is amended to read:

245.484 [RULES.]

The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules as necessary to carry out Laws 1987, chapter 403 sections 245.461 to 245.486 and sections 1 to 54.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.485, is amended to read:

245.485 [NO RIGHT OF ACTION.]

Sections 245.461 to 245.484 and 245.487 to 245.4887 do not independently establish a right of action on behalf of recipients of services or service providers against a county board or the commissioner. A claim for monetary damages must be brought under section 3.736 or 3.751.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.486, is amended to read:

245.486 [LIMITED APPROPRIATIONS.]

Nothing in sections 245.461 to 245.485 and 245.487 to 245.4887 shall be construed to require the commissioner or county boards to fund services beyond the limits of legislative appropriations.

Sec. 37. [245.4861] [PUBLIC/ACADEMIC LIAISON INITIATIVE.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF LIAISON INITIATIVE.] The commissioner of human services, in consultation with the appropriate post-secondary institutions, shall establish a public/academic liaison initiative to coordinate and develop brain research and education and training opportunities for mental health professionals in order to improve the quality of staffing and provide state-of-the-art services to residents in regional treatment centers and other state facilities.

Subd. 2. [CONSULTATION.] The commissioner of human services shall consult with the Minnesota department of health, the regional treatment centers, the post-secondary educational system, mental health professionals, and citizen and advisory groups.

Subd. 3. [LIAISON INITIATIVE PROGRAMS.] The liaison initiative shall plan, implement, and administer programs which accomplish the objectives of subdivision 1. These shall include but are not limited to:

(1) encourage and coordinate joint research efforts between academic research institutions throughout the state and regional treatment centers, community mental health centers, and other

organizations conducting research on mental illness or working with individuals who are mentally ill;

(2) sponsor and conduct basic research on mental illness and applied research on existing treatment models and community support programs;

(3) seek to obtain grants for research on mental illness from the National Institute of Mental Health and other funding sources;

(4) develop and provide grants for training, internship, scholarship, and fellowship programs for mental health professionals, in an effort to combine academic education with practical experience obtained at regional treatment centers and other state facilities, and to increase the number of mental health professionals working in the state.

Subd. 4. [PRIVATE AND FEDERAL FUNDING.] The liaison initiative shall seek private and federal funds to supplement the appropriation provided by the state. Individuals, businesses, and other organizations may contribute to the liaison initiative. All money received shall be administered by the commissioner of human services to implement and administer the programs listed in subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] By January 15 of each year, the commissioner of human services shall submit to the legislature a liaison initiative report. The annual report shall also contain a financial report for the preceding year, including all receipts and expenditures of the liaison initiative.

Sec. 38. [245.487] [CITATION; DECLARATION OF POLICY; MISSION.]

Subdivision 1. [CITATION.] Sections 245.487 to 245.4887 may be cited as the "Minnesota comprehensive children's mental health act."

Subd. 2. [FINDINGS.] The legislature finds there is a need for further development of existing clinical services for emotionally disturbed children and their families and the creation of new services for this population. Although the services specified in sections 245.487 to 245.4887 are mental health services, sections 245.487 to 245.4887 emphasize the need for a child-oriented and family-oriented approach of therapeutic programming and the need for continuity of care with other community agencies. At the same time, sections 245.487 to 245.4887 emphasize the importance of specialized mental health expertise in children's mental health services because of the unique needs of this population.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to abridge the authority of the court to make dispositions under chapter 260.

Subd. 3. [MISSION OF CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE SYSTEM.] As part of the comprehensive children's mental health system established under sections 245.487 to 245.4887, the commissioner of human services shall create and ensure a unified, accountable, comprehensive children's mental health service system that is consistent with the provision of public social services for children as specified in section 256F.01 and that:

- (1) identifies children who are eligible for mental health services;
- (2) makes preventive services available to all children;
- (3) assures access to a continuum of services that:
 - (i) educate the community about the mental health needs of children;
 - (ii) address the unique physical, emotional, social, and educational needs of children;
 - (iii) are coordinated with the range of social and human services provided to children and their families by the departments of education, human services, health, and corrections;
 - (iv) are appropriate to the developmental needs of children; and
 - (v) are sensitive to cultural differences and special needs;
- (4) includes early screening and prompt intervention to:
 - (i) identify and treat the mental health needs of children in the least restrictive setting appropriate to their needs; and
 - (ii) prevent further deterioration;
- (5) provides mental health services to children and their families in the context in which the children live and go to school;
- (6) addresses the unique problems of paying for mental health services for children, including:
 - (i) access to private insurance coverage; and
 - (ii) public funding;

(7) includes the child and the child's family in planning the child's program of mental health services, unless clinically inappropriate to the child's needs; and

(8) when necessary, assures a smooth transition from mental health services appropriate for a child to mental health services needed by a person who is at least 18 years of age.

Subd. 4. [IMPLEMENTATION.] (a) The commissioner shall begin implementing sections 245.487 to 245.4887 by February 15, 1990, and shall fully implement sections 245.487 to 245.4887 by January 1, 1992.

(b) Annually until February 15, 1992, the commissioner shall report to the legislature on all steps taken and recommendations for full implementation of sections 245.487 to 245.4887 and on additional resources needed to further implement those sections.

Subd. 5. [CONTINUATION OF EXISTING MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR CHILDREN.] Counties shall make available case management, community support services, and day treatment to children eligible to receive these services under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.471. No later than August 1, 1989, the county board shall notify providers in the local system of care of their obligations to refer children eligible for case management and community support services as of January 1, 1989. The notice shall indicate which children are eligible, a description of the services, and the name of the county employee designated to coordinate case management activities.

Sec. 39. [245.4871] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 245.487 to 245.4887.

Subd. 2. [ACUTE CARE HOSPITAL INPATIENT TREATMENT.] "Acute care hospital inpatient treatment" means short-term medical, nursing, and psychosocial services provided in an acute care hospital licensed under chapter 144.

Subd. 3. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] "Case management services" means activities designed to help the child with severe emotional disturbance and the child's family obtain needed mental health services, social services, educational services, health services, vocational services, recreational services, and related services in the areas of volunteer services, advocacy, transportation, and legal services. Case management services include obtaining a comprehensive diagnostic assessment, developing a functional assessment, developing an individual family community support plan, and assisting the child and the child's family in obtaining needed services by coordination with other agencies and assuring continuity of care. Case managers must assess and reassess the delivery, appropriateness, and effectiveness of these services over time.

Subd. 4. [CASE MANAGER.] (a) "Case manager" means an individual employed by the county or other entity authorized by the county board to provide case management services specified in subdivision 3 for the child with severe emotional disturbance and the child's family. A case manager must have experience and training in working with children.

(b) A case manager must:

(1) have at least a bachelor's degree in one of the behavioral sciences or a related field from an accredited college or university;

(2) have at least 2,000 hours of supervised experience in the delivery of mental health services to children;

(3) have experience and training in identifying and assessing a wide range of children's needs; and

(4) be knowledgeable about local community resources and how to use those resources for the benefit of children and their families.

(c) The case manager may be a member of any professional discipline that is part of the local system of care for children established by the county board.

(d) The case manager must meet in person with a mental health professional at least once each month to obtain clinical supervision.

(e) Case managers with a bachelor's degree but without 2,000 hours of supervised experience in the delivery of mental health services to children with emotional disturbance must:

(1) begin 40 hours of training approved by the commissioner of human services in case management skills and in the characteristics and needs of children with severe emotional disturbance before beginning to provide case management services; and

(2) receive clinical supervision regarding individual service delivery from a mental health professional at least once each week until the requirement of 2,000 hours of experience is met.

(f) Clinical supervision must be documented in the child's record. When the case manager is not a mental health professional, the county board must provide or contract for needed clinical supervision.

(g) The county board must ensure that the case manager has the freedom to access and coordinate the services within the local system of care that are needed by the child.

(h) Until June 30, 1991, a refugee who does not have the qualifications specified in this subdivision may provide case management services to child refugees with severe emotional disturbance of the same ethnic group as the refugee if the person:

(1) is actively pursuing credits toward the completion of a bachelor's degree in one of the behavioral sciences or related fields at an accredited college or university;

(2) completes 40 hours of training as specified in this subdivision; and

(3) receives clinical supervision at least once a week until the requirements of obtaining a bachelor's degree and 2,000 hours of supervised experience are met.

Subd. 5. [CHILD.] "Child" means a person under 18 years of age.

Subd. 6. [CHILD WITH SEVERE EMOTIONAL DISTURBANCE.] For purposes of eligibility for case management and family community support services, "child with severe emotional disturbance" means a child who has an emotional disturbance and who meets one of the following criteria:

(1) the child has been admitted within the last three years or is at risk of being admitted to inpatient treatment or residential treatment for an emotional disturbance; or

(2) the child is a Minnesota resident and is receiving inpatient treatment or residential treatment for an emotional disturbance through the interstate compact; or

(3) the child has one of the following as determined by a mental health professional:

(i) psychosis or a clinical depression; or

(ii) risk of harming self or others as a result of an emotional disturbance; or

(iii) psychopathological symptoms as a result of being a victim of physical or sexual abuse or of psychic trauma within the past year; or

(4) the child, as a result of an emotional disturbance, has significantly impaired home, school, or community functioning that has lasted at least one year or that, in the written opinion of a mental health professional, presents substantial risk of lasting at least one year.

The term "child with severe emotional disturbance" shall be used only for purposes of county eligibility determinations. In all other written and oral communications, case managers, mental health professionals, mental health practitioners, and all other providers of mental health services shall use the term "child eligible for mental health case management" in place of "child with severe emotional disturbance."

Subd. 7. [CLINICAL SUPERVISION.] "Clinical supervision" means the oversight responsibility for individual treatment plans and individual mental health service delivery, including that provided by the case manager. Clinical supervision does not include authority to make or terminate court-ordered placements of the child. Clinical supervision must be accomplished by full-time or part-time employment of or contracts with mental health professionals. The mental health professional must document the clinical supervision by cosigning individual treatment plans and by making entries in the client's record on supervisory activities.

Subd. 8. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 9. [COUNTY BOARD.] "County board" means the county board of commissioners or board established under the joint powers act, section 471.59, or the human services board act, sections 402.01 to 402.10.

Subd. 10. [DAY TREATMENT SERVICES.] "Day treatment," "day treatment services," or "day treatment program" means a structured program of treatment and care provided to a child in:

(1) an outpatient hospital accredited by the joint commission on accreditation of health organizations and licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.55;

(2) a community mental health center under section 245.62;

(3) an entity that is under contract with the county board to operate a program that meets the requirements of section 245.4881, subdivision 7, and Minnesota Rules, parts 9505.0170 to 9505.0475; or

(4) an entity that operates a program that meets the requirements of section 245.4881, subdivision 7, and Minnesota Rules, parts 9505.0170 to 9505.0475, that is under contract with an entity that is under contract with a county board.

Day treatment consists of group psychotherapy and other intensive therapeutic services that are provided for a minimum three-hour time block by a multidisciplinary staff under the clinical supervision of a mental health professional. The services are aimed at stabilizing the child's mental health status, and developing and improving the child's daily independent living and socialization skills. Day treatment services are distinguished from day care by their structured therapeutic program of psychotherapy services. Day treatment services are not a part of inpatient hospital or residential treatment services. Day treatment services for a child are an integrated set of education, therapy, and family interventions.

A day treatment service must be available to a child at least five days a week throughout the year and must be coordinated with, integrated with, or part of an education program offered by the child's school.

Subd. 11. [DIAGNOSTIC ASSESSMENT.] "Diagnostic assessment" means a written evaluation by a mental health professional of:

(1) a child's current life situation and sources of stress, including reasons for referral;

(2) the history of the child's current mental health problem or problems, including important developmental incidents, strengths, and vulnerabilities;

(3) the child's current functioning and symptoms;

(4) the child's diagnosis including a determination of whether the child meets the criteria of severely emotionally disturbed as specified in subdivision 6; and

(5) the mental health services needed by the child.

Subd. 12. [EARLY IDENTIFICATION AND INTERVENTION SERVICES.] "Early identification and intervention services" means services that are designed to identify children who are at risk of needing or who need mental health services and that arrange for intervention and treatment.

Subd. 13. [EDUCATION AND PREVENTION SERVICES.] (a) "Education and prevention services" means services designed to:

(1) educate the general public and groups identified as at risk of developing emotional disturbance under section 245.4872, subdivision 3;

(2) increase the understanding and acceptance of problems associated with emotional disturbances;

(3) improve people's skills in dealing with high-risk situations known to affect children's mental health and functioning; and

(4) refer specific children or their families with mental health needs to mental health services.

(b) The services include distribution to individuals and agencies identified by the county board and the local children's mental health advisory council of information on predictors and symptoms of emotional disturbances, where mental health services are available in the county, and how to access the services.

Subd. 14. [EMERGENCY SERVICES.] "Emergency services" means an immediate response service available on a 24-hour, seven-day-a-week basis for each child having a psychiatric crisis, a mental health crisis, or a mental health emergency.

Subd. 15. [EMOTIONAL DISTURBANCE.] "Emotional disturbance" means an organic disorder of the brain or a clinically significant disorder of thought, mood, perception, orientation, memory, or behavior that:

(1) is listed in the clinical manual of the International Classification of Diseases (ICD-9-CM), current edition, code range 290.0 to 302.99 or 306.0 to 316.0 or the corresponding code in the American Psychiatric Association's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM-MD), current edition, Axes I, II, or III; and

(2) seriously limits a child's capacity to function in primary aspects of daily living such as personal relations, living arrangements, work, school, and recreation.

"Emotional disturbance" is a generic term and is intended to reflect all categories of disorder described in DSM-MD, current edition, as "usually first evident in childhood or adolescence."

Subd. 16. [FAMILY.] "Family" means a child and one or more of the following persons whose participation is necessary to accomplish the child's treatment goals: (1) a person related to the child by blood, marriage, or adoption; (2) a person who is the child's foster parent or significant other; (3) a person who is the child's legal representative.

Subd. 17. [FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.] "Family community support services" means services provided under the clinical supervision of a mental health professional and designed to help each child with severe emotional disturbance to function and remain with the child's family in the community.

Family community support services do not include acute care hospital inpatient treatment, residential treatment services, or regional treatment center services. Family community support services include:

(1) client outreach to each child with severe emotional disturbance and the child's family;

(2) medication monitoring where necessary;

(3) assistance in developing independent living skills;

(4) assistance in developing parenting skills necessary to address the needs of the child with severe emotional disturbance;

(5) assistance with leisure and recreational activities;

(6) crisis assistance, including crisis placement and respite care;

(7) professional home-based family treatment;

(8) foster care with therapeutic supports;

(9) day treatment;

(10) assistance in locating respite care and special needs day care; and

(11) assistance in obtaining potential financial resources, including those benefits listed in section 245.4881, subdivision 10.

Subd. 18. [FUNCTIONAL ASSESSMENT.] "Functional assessment" means an assessment by the case manager of the child's:

(1) mental health symptoms as presented in the child's diagnostic assessment;

(2) mental health needs as presented in the child's diagnostic assessment;

(3) use of drugs and alcohol;

(4) vocational and educational functioning;

(5) social functioning, including the use of leisure time;

(6) interpersonal functioning, including relationships with the child's family;

- (7) self-care and independent living capacity;
- (8) medical and dental health;
- (9) financial assistance needs;
- (10) housing and transportation needs; and
- (11) other needs and problems.

Subd. 19. [INDIVIDUAL FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT PLAN.] "Individual family community support plan" means a written plan developed by a case manager in conjunction with the family and the child with severe emotional disturbance on the basis of a diagnostic assessment and a functional assessment. The plan identifies specific services needed by a child and the child's family to:

- (1) treat the symptoms and dysfunctions determined in the diagnostic assessment;
- (2) relieve conditions leading to emotional disturbance and improve the personal well-being of the child;
- (3) improve family functioning;
- (4) enhance daily living skills;
- (5) improve functioning in education and recreation settings;
- (6) improve interpersonal and family relationships;
- (7) enhance vocational development; and
- (8) assist in obtaining transportation, housing, health services, and employment.

Subd. 20. [INDIVIDUAL PLACEMENT AGREEMENT.] "Individual placement agreement" means a written agreement or supplement to a service contract entered into between the county board and a service provider on behalf of a child to provide residential treatment services.

Subd. 21. [INDIVIDUAL TREATMENT PLAN.] "Individual treatment plan" means a written plan of intervention, treatment, and services for a child with an emotional disturbance that is developed by a service provider under the clinical supervision of a mental health professional on the basis of a diagnostic assessment. An individual treatment plan for a child must be developed in conjunction with the family unless clinically inappropriate. The plan identifies goals and objectives of treatment, treatment strategy, a schedule for accomplishing treatment goals and objectives, and the individuals responsible for providing treatment to the child with an emotional disturbance.

Subd. 22. [LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE.] "Legal representative" means a guardian, conservator, or guardian ad litem of a child with an emotional disturbance authorized by the court to make decisions about mental health services for the child.

Subd. 23. [LOCAL MENTAL HEALTH PROPOSAL.] "Local mental health proposal" means the proposal developed by the county board, reviewed by the commissioner, and described in section 245.4872.

Subd. 24. [LOCAL SYSTEM OF CARE.] "Local system of care" means services that are locally available to the child and the child's family. The services are mental health, social services, correctional services, education services, health services, and vocational services.

Subd. 25. [MENTAL HEALTH FUNDS.] "Mental health funds" are funds expended under sections 245.73 and 256E.12, federal mental health block grant funds, and funds expended under sections 256D.06 and 256D.37 to facilities licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690.

Subd. 26. [MENTAL HEALTH PRACTITIONER.] "Mental health practitioner" means a person providing services to children with emotional disturbances. A mental health practitioner must have training and experience in working with children. A mental health practitioner must be qualified in at least one of the following ways:

(1) holds a bachelor's degree in one of the behavioral sciences or related fields from an accredited college or university and has at least 2,000 hours of supervised experience in the delivery of mental health services to children with emotional disturbances;

(2) has at least 6,000 hours of supervised experience in the delivery of mental health services to children with emotional disturbances;

(3) is a graduate student in one of the behavioral sciences or related fields and is formally assigned by an accredited college or university to an agency or facility for clinical training; or

(4) holds a master's or other graduate degree in one of the behavioral sciences or related fields from an accredited college or university and has less than 4,000 hours post-master's experience in the treatment of emotional disturbance.

Subd. 27. [MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL.] "Mental health professional" means a person providing clinical services in the diagnosis and treatment of children's emotional disorders. A mental health professional must have training and experience in working with children consistent with the age group to which the mental health professional is assigned. A mental health professional must be qualified in at least one of the following ways:

(1) in psychiatric nursing, the mental health professional must be a registered nurse who is licensed under sections 148.171 to 148.285 and who is certified as a clinical specialist in psychiatric or mental health nursing by the American nurses association;

(2) in clinical social work, the mental health professional must be a person licensed as an independent clinical social worker under section 148B.21, subdivision 6, or a person with a master's degree in social work from an accredited college or university, with at least 4,000 hours of post-master's supervised experience in the delivery of clinical services in the treatment of mental disorders;

(3) in psychology, the mental health professional must be a psychologist licensed under sections 148.88 to 148.98 who has stated to the board of psychology competencies in the diagnosis and treatment of mental disorders;

(4) in psychiatry, the mental health professional must be a physician licensed under chapter 147 and certified by the American board of psychiatry and neurology or eligible for board certification in psychiatry; or

(5) in allied fields, the mental health professional must be a person with a master's degree from an accredited college or university in one of the behavioral sciences or related fields, with at least 4,000 hours of post-master's supervised experience in the delivery of clinical services in the treatment of emotional disturbances.

Subd. 28. [MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES.] "Mental health services" means at least all of the treatment services and case management activities that are provided to children with emotional disturbances and are described in sections 245.487 to 245.4887.

Subd. 29. [OUTPATIENT SERVICES.] "Outpatient services" means mental health services, excluding day treatment and community support services programs, provided by or under the clinical supervision of a mental health professional to children with emotional disturbances who live outside a hospital. Outpatient services include clinical activities such as individual, group, and family therapy; individual treatment planning; diagnostic assessments; medication management; and psychological testing.

Subd. 30. [PARENT.] "Parent" means the birth or adoptive mother or father of a child. This definition does not apply to a person whose parental rights have been terminated in relation to the child.

Subd. 31. [PROFESSIONAL HOME-BASED FAMILY TREATMENT.] "Professional home-based family treatment" means intensive mental health services provided to children (1) who are at risk of out-of-home placement; (2) who are in out-of-home placement; or (3) who are returning from out-of-home placement because of an emotional disturbance. Services are provided to the child and the child's family primarily in the child's home environment or other location appropriate to the child. Examples of appropriate locations include, but are not limited to, the child's school, day care center, home, and any other living arrangement of the child. Services must be provided on an individual family basis, must be child-oriented and family-oriented, and must be designed to meet the specific mental health needs of the child and the child's family. Services include family and individual therapy and family living skills training and must be coordinated with other service providers.

Subd. 32. [RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT.] "Residential treatment" means a 24-hour-a-day program under the clinical supervision of a mental health professional, in a community residential setting other than an acute care hospital or regional treatment center inpatient unit, that must be licensed as a residential treatment program for children with emotional disturbances under Minnesota Rules, parts 9545.0900 to 9545.1090, or other rules adopted by the commissioner.

Subd. 33. [SERVICE PROVIDER.] "Service provider" means either a county board or an individual or agency including a regional treatment center under contract with the county board that provides children's mental health services funded under sections 245.487 to 245.4887.

Subd. 34. [THERAPEUTIC SUPPORT OF FOSTER CARE.] "Therapeutic support of foster care" means the mental health training and mental health support services and clinical supervision provided by a mental health professional to foster families caring for children with severe emotional disturbance to provide a therapeutic family environment and support for the child's improved functioning.

Sec. 40. [245.4872] [PLANNING FOR A CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [PLANNING EFFORT.] Starting on the effective date of sections 245.487 to 245.4887 and ending January 1, 1992, the commissioner and the county agencies shall plan for the development of a unified, accountable, and comprehensive statewide children's mental health system. The system must be planned and developed by stages until it is operating at full capacity.

Subd. 2. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] The commissioner shall provide ongoing technical assistance to county boards to develop local mental health proposals as specified in section 245.4887, to improve system capacity and quality. The commissioner and county boards shall exchange information as needed about the numbers of children with emotional disturbances residing in the county and the extent of existing treatment components locally available to serve the needs of those persons. County boards shall cooperate with the commissioner in obtaining necessary planning information upon request.

Subd. 3. [INFORMATION TO COUNTIES.] By January 1, 1990, the commissioner shall provide each county with information about the predictors and symptoms of children's emotional disturbances and information about groups identified as at risk of developing emotional disturbance.

Sec. 41. [245.4873] [COORDINATION OF CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE AND LOCAL COORDINATION.] Coordination of the development and delivery of mental health services for children shall occur on the state and local levels to assure the availability of services to meet the mental health needs of children in a cost-effective manner.

Subd. 2. [STATE LEVEL; COORDINATION.] The commissioners or designees of commissioners of the departments of human services, health, education, state planning, and corrections, and a representative of the Minnesota district judges association juvenile committee, in conjunction with the commissioner of commerce or a designee of the commissioner shall meet at least quarterly through 1992 to:

(1) educate each agency about the policies, procedures, funding, and services for children with emotional disturbances of all agencies represented;

(2) develop mechanisms for interagency coordination on behalf of children with emotional disturbances;

(3) identify barriers including policies and procedures within all agencies represented that interfere with delivery of mental health services for children;

(4) recommend policy and procedural changes needed to improve development and delivery of mental health services for children in the agency or agencies they represent;

(5) identify mechanisms for better use of federal and state funding in the delivery of mental health services for children; and

(6) prepare an annual report on the policy and procedural changes needed to implement a coordinated, effective, and cost-efficient children's mental health delivery system.

This report shall be submitted to the legislature and the state mental health advisory council annually until February 15, 1992, as part of the report required under section 245.487, subdivision 4. The report shall include information from each department represented on:

(1) the number of children in each department's system who require mental health services;

(2) the number of children in each system who receive mental health services;

(3) how mental health services for children are funded within each system;

(4) how mental health services for children could be coordinated to provide more effectively appropriate mental health services for children; and

(5) recommendations for the provision of early screening and identification of mental illness in each system.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL LEVEL COORDINATION.] (a) Each agency represented in the local system of care coordinating council, including mental health, social services, education, health, corrections, and vocational services as specified in section 245.4875, subdivision 6, is responsible for local coordination and delivery of mental health services for children. The county board shall establish a coordinating council that provides at least:

(1) written interagency agreements with the providers of the local system of care to coordinate the delivery of services to children; and

(2) an annual report of the council to the local county board and the children's mental health advisory council about the unmet children's needs and service priorities.

(b) Each coordinating council shall collect information about the local system of care and report annually to the commissioner of human services on forms and in the manner provided by the commissioner. The report must include a description of the services provided through each of the service systems represented on the council, the various sources of funding for services and the amounts actually expended, a description of the numbers and characteristics of the children and families served during the previous year, and an estimate of unmet needs. Each service system represented on the council shall provide information to the council as necessary to compile the report.

Subd. 4. [INDIVIDUAL CASE COORDINATION.] The case manager designated under section 245.4881 is responsible for ongoing coordination with any other person responsible for planning, development, and delivery of social services, education, corrections, health, or vocational services for the individual child. The family community support plan developed by the case manager shall reflect the coordination among the local service system providers.

Subd. 5. [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall supervise the development and coordination of locally available children's mental health services by the county boards in a manner consistent with sections 245.487 to 245.4887. The commissioner shall review local mental health service proposals developed by county boards as specified in section 245.4872 and provide technical assistance to county boards in developing and maintaining locally available and coordinated children's mental health services. The commissioner shall monitor the county board's progress in developing its full system capacity and quality through ongoing review of the county board's children's mental health proposals and other information as required by sections 245.487 to 245.4887.

Subd. 6. [PRIORITIES.] By January 1, 1992, the commissioner shall require that each of the treatment services and management activities described in sections 245.487 to 245.4887 be developed for children with emotional disturbances within available resources based on the following ranked priorities:

(1) the provision of locally available mental health emergency services;

(2) the provision of locally available mental health services to all children with severe emotional disturbance;

(3) the provision of early identification and intervention services to children who are at risk of needing or who need mental health services;

(4) the provision of specialized mental health services regionally available to meet the special needs of all children with severe emotional disturbance, and all children with emotional disturbances;

(5) the provision of locally available services to children with emotional disturbances; and

(6) the provision of education and preventive mental health services.

Sec. 42. [245.4874] [DUTIES OF COUNTY BOARD.]

The county board in each county shall use its share of mental health and community social service act funds allocated by the commissioner according to a biennial local children's mental health service proposal required under section 245.4887, and approved by the commissioner. The county board must:

(1) develop a system of affordable and locally available children's mental health services according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(2) coordinate the delivery of children's mental health services with services provided by social services, education, corrections, health, and vocational agencies to improve the availability of mental health services to children and the cost effectiveness of their delivery;

(3) assure that mental health services delivered according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887 are appropriate to the child's diagnostic assessment and individual treatment plan;

(4) provide the community with information about predictors and symptoms of emotional disturbances and how to access children's mental health services according to sections 245.4877 and 245.4878;

(5) provide for case management services to each child with severe emotional disturbance according to sections 245.486; 245.4871, subdivisions 3 and 4; and 245.4881, subdivisions 1, 3, and 5;

(6) provide for screening of each child under section 245.4885 upon admission to a residential treatment facility, acute care hospital inpatient treatment, or informal admission to a regional treatment center;

(7) prudently administer grants and purchase-of-service contracts that the county board determines are necessary to fulfill its responsibilities under sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(8) assure that mental health professionals, mental health practitioners, and case managers employed by or under contract to the county to provide mental health services are qualified under section 245.4871; and

(9) assure that children's mental health services are coordinated with adult mental health services specified in sections 245.461 to 245.486 so that a continuum of mental health services is available to serve persons with mental illness, regardless of the person's age.

Sec. 43. [245.4875] [LOCAL SERVICE DELIVERY SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [DEVELOPMENT OF CHILDREN'S SERVICES.] The county board in each county is responsible for using all available resources to develop and coordinate a system of locally available and affordable children's mental health services. The county board may provide some or all of the children's mental health services and activities specified in subdivision 2 directly through a county agency or under contracts with other individuals or agencies. A county or counties may enter into an agreement with a regional treatment center under section 246.57 to enable the county or counties to provide the treatment services in subdivision 2. Services provided through an agreement between a county and a regional treatment center must meet the same requirements as services from other service providers. County boards shall demonstrate their continuous progress toward fully implementing sections 245.487 to 245.4887 during the period July 1, 1989, to January 1, 1992. County boards must develop fully each of the treatment services prescribed by sections 245.487 to 245.4887 by January 1, 1992, according to the priorities established in section 245.4873 and the local children's mental health services proposal approved by the commissioner under section 245.4887.

Subd. 2. [CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES.] The children's mental health service system developed by each county board must include the following services:

- (1) education and prevention services according to section 245.4877;
- (2) early identification and intervention services according to section 245.4878;
- (3) emergency services according to section 245.4879;
- (4) outpatient services according to section 245.488;
- (5) family community support services according to section 245.4881;
- (6) day treatment services according to section 245.4881, subdivision 7;
- (7) residential treatment services according to section 245.4882;

(8) acute care hospital inpatient treatment services according to section 245.4883;

(9) screening according to section 245.4885;

(10) case management according to section 245.4881;

(11) therapeutic support of foster care according to section 245.4881, subdivision 9; and

(12) professional home-based family treatment according to section 245.4881, subdivision 9.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL CONTRACTS.] The county board shall review all proposed county agreements, grants, or other contracts related to children's mental health services from any local, state, or federal governmental sources. Contracts with service providers must:

(1) name the commissioner as a third party beneficiary;

(2) identify monitoring and evaluation procedures not in violation of the Minnesota government data practices act, chapter 13, which are necessary to ensure effective delivery of quality services;

(3) include a provision that makes payments conditional on compliance by the contractor and all subcontractors with sections 245.487 to 245.4887 and all other applicable laws, rules, and standards; and

(4) require financial controls and auditing procedures.

Subd. 4. [JOINT COUNTY MENTAL HEALTH AGREEMENTS.] To efficiently provide the children's mental health services required by sections 245.487 to 245.4887, counties are encouraged to join with one or more county boards to establish a multicounty local children's mental health authority under the joint powers act, section 471.59, the human service board act, sections 402.01 to 402.10, community mental health center provisions, section 245.62, or enter into multicounty mental health agreements. Participating county boards shall establish acceptable ways of apportioning the cost of the services.

Subd. 5. [LOCAL CHILDREN'S ADVISORY COUNCIL.] (a) By October 1, 1989, the county board, individually or in conjunction with other county boards, shall establish a local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council or shall include persons on its existing mental health advisory council who are representatives of children's mental health interests. The following individuals must serve on the local children's mental health advisory council:

sory council, the children's mental health subcommittee of an existing local mental health advisory council, or be included on an existing mental health advisory council: (1) at least one person who was in a mental health program as a child or adolescent; (2) at least one parent of a child or adolescent with severe emotional disturbance; (3) one children's mental health professional; (4) representatives of minority populations of significant size residing in the county; (5) a representative of the children's mental health local coordinating council; and (6) one family community support services program representative.

(b) The local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of an existing advisory council shall meet at least quarterly to review, evaluate, and make recommendations regarding the local children's mental health system. Annually, the local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council shall:

(1) arrange for input from the local system of care providers regarding coordination of care between the services; and

(2) identify for the county board the individuals, providers, agencies, and associations as specified in section 245.4877, clause (2).

(c) The county board shall consider the advice of its local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council in carrying out its authorities and responsibilities.

Subd. 6. [LOCAL SYSTEM OF CARE; COORDINATING COUNCIL.] The county board shall establish, by January 1, 1990, a council representing all members of the local system of care including mental health services, social services, correctional services, educational services, health services, and vocational services. The council shall include a representative of an Indian reservation authority where a reservation exists within the county. The council must also include a representative of juvenile court or the court responsible for juvenile issues and law enforcement. The members of the coordinating council shall meet at least quarterly to develop recommendations to improve coordination and funding of services to children with severe emotional disturbances. A county may use an existing child-focused interagency task force to fulfill the requirements of this subdivision if the representatives and duties of the existing task force are expanded to include those specified in this subdivision and section 245.4873, subdivision 3.

Subd. 7. [OTHER LOCAL AUTHORITY.] The county board may establish procedures and policies that are not contrary to those of the commissioner or sections 245.487 to 245.4887 regarding local children's mental health services and facilities. The county board shall perform other acts necessary to carry out sections 245.487 to 245.4887.

Sec. 44. [245.4876] [QUALITY OF SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [CRITERIA.] Children's mental health services required by sections 245.487 to 245.4887 must be:

- (1) based, when feasible, on research findings;
- (2) based on individual clinical, cultural, and ethnic needs, and other special needs of the children being served;
- (3) delivered in a manner that improves family functioning when clinically appropriate;
- (4) provided in the most appropriate, least restrictive setting available to the county board to meet the child's treatment needs;
- (5) accessible to all age groups of children;
- (6) appropriate to the developmental age of the child being served;
- (7) delivered in a manner that provides accountability to the child for the quality of service delivered and continuity of services to the child during the years the child needs services from the local system of care;
- (8) provided by qualified individuals as required in sections 245.487 to 245.4887;
- (9) coordinated with children's mental health services offered by other providers;
- (10) provided under conditions that protect the rights and dignity of the individuals being served; and
- (11) provided in a manner and setting most likely to facilitate progress toward treatment goals.

Subd. 2. [DIAGNOSTIC ASSESSMENT.] All residential treatment facilities and acute care hospital inpatient treatment services that provide mental health services for children must complete a diagnostic assessment for each of their child clients within five working days of admission. Providers of outpatient and day treatment services for children must complete a diagnostic assessment within ten working days of admission. In cases where a diagnostic assessment is available and has been completed within 90 days preceding admission, only updating is necessary.

Subd. 3. [INDIVIDUAL TREATMENT PLANS.] All outpatient services, day treatment services, family community support services, professional home-based family treatment, residential treatment facilities, acute care hospital inpatient treatment facilities, and regional treatment centers that provide mental health facilities for children must develop an individual treatment plan for each child client. The individual treatment plan must be based on a diagnostic assessment. To the extent appropriate, the child shall be involved in all phases of developing and implementing the individual treatment plan. The individual treatment plan must be developed within ten working days of client intake or admission and reviewed every 90 days after that date, except that the administrative review of the treatment plan of a child placed in a residential facility shall be as specified in section 257.071, subdivisions 2 and 4.

Subd. 4. [REFERRAL FOR CASE MANAGEMENT.] Each provider of emergency services, outpatient treatment, community support services, family community support services, day treatment services, professional home-based family treatment services, residential treatment facilities, acute care hospital inpatient treatment facilities, or regional treatment center services must inform each child with severe emotional disturbance, and the child's parent or legal representative, of the availability and potential benefits to the child of case management. The information shall be provided as specified in subdivision 5. If consent is obtained according to subdivision 5, the provider must refer the child by notifying the county employee designated by the county board to coordinate case management activities of the child's name and address and by informing the child's family of whom to contact to request case management. The provider must document compliance with this subdivision in the child's record.

Subd. 5. [CONSENT FOR SERVICES OR FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION.] (a) Although sections 245.487 to 245.4887 require each county board, within the limits of available resources, to make the mental health services listed in those sections available to each child residing in the county who needs them, the county board shall not provide any services, either directly or by contract, unless consent to the services is obtained under this subdivision. The case manager assigned to a child with a severe emotional disturbance shall not disclose to any person other than the case manager's immediate supervisor and the mental health professional providing clinical supervision of the case manager information on the child, the child's family, or services provided to the child or the child's family without informed written consent unless required to do so by statute or under the Minnesota government data practices act. Informed written consent must comply with section 13.05, subdivision 4, paragraph (d), and specify the purpose and use for which the case manager may disclose the information.

(b) The consent or authorization must be obtained from the child's parent unless: (1) the parental rights are terminated; or (2) consent is otherwise provided under sections 144.341 to 144.347; 253B.04, subdivision 1; 260.133; 260.135; and 260.191, subdivision 1, the terms of appointment of a court-appointed guardian or conservator, or federal regulations governing chemical dependency services.

Subd. 6. [INFORMATION FOR BILLING.] Each provider of outpatient treatment, family community support services, day treatment services, emergency services, professional home-based family treatment services, residential treatment, or acute care hospital inpatient treatment must include the name and home address of each child for whom services are included on a bill submitted to a county, if the release of that information under subdivision 5 has been obtained and if the county requests the information. Each provider must try to obtain the consent of the child's family. Each provider must explain to the child's family that the information can only be released with the consent of the child's family and may be used only for purposes of payment and maintaining provider accountability. The provider shall document the attempt in the child's record.

Subd. 7. [RESTRICTED ACCESS TO DATA.] The county board shall establish procedures to ensure that the names and addresses of children receiving mental health services and their families are disclosed only to:

(1) county employees who are specifically responsible for determining county of financial responsibility or making payments to providers; and

(2) staff who provide treatment services or case management and their clinical supervisors.

Release of mental health data on individuals submitted under subdivisions 5 and 6, to persons other than those specified in this subdivision, or use of this data for purposes other than those stated in subdivisions 5 and 6, results in civil or criminal liability under section 13.08 or 13.09.

Sec. 45. [245.4877] [EDUCATION AND PREVENTION SERVICES.]

Education and prevention services must be available to all children residing in the county. Education and prevention services must be designed to:

(1) convey information regarding emotional disturbances, mental health needs, and treatment resources to the general public and groups identified as at high risk of developing emotional disturbance under section 245.4872, subdivision 3;

(2) at least annually, distribute to individuals and agencies identified by the county board and the local children's mental health advisory council information on predictors and symptoms of emotional disturbances, where mental health services are available in the county, and how to access the services;

(3) increase understanding and acceptance of problems associated with emotional disturbances;

(4) improve people's skills in dealing with high-risk situations known to affect children's mental health and functioning;

(5) prevent development or deepening of emotional disturbances; and

(6) refer each child with emotional disturbance or the child's family with additional mental health needs to appropriate mental health services.

Sec. 46. [245.4878] [EARLY IDENTIFICATION AND INTERVENTION.]

Early identification and intervention services must be available to meet the needs of all children and their families residing in the county, consistent with section 245.4873. Early identification and intervention services must be designed to identify children who are at risk of needing or who need mental health services. The county board must provide intervention and offer treatment services to each child who is identified as needing mental health services. The county board must offer intervention services to each child who is identified as being at risk of needing mental health services.

Sec. 47. [245.4879] [EMERGENCY SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF EMERGENCY SERVICES.] County boards must provide or contract for enough mental health emergency services within the county to meet the needs of children in the county who are experiencing an emotional crisis or emotional disturbance. A child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Emergency service providers shall not delay the timely provision of emergency service because of delays in determining this fee or because of the unwillingness or inability of the parent to pay the fee. Emergency services must include assessment, intervention, and appropriate case disposition. Emergency services must:

(1) promote the safety and emotional stability of children with emotional disturbances or emotional crises;

(2) minimize further deterioration of the child with emotional disturbance or emotional crisis;

(3) help each child with an emotional disturbance or emotional crisis to obtain ongoing care and treatment; and

(4) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet the child's needs.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS.] The county board shall require that all service providers of emergency services to the child with an emotional disturbance provide immediate direct access to a mental health professional during regular business hours. For evenings, weekends, and holidays, the service may be by direct toll-free telephone access to a mental health professional, a mental health practitioner, or until January 1, 1991, a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional. When emergency service during nonbusiness hours is provided by anyone other than a mental health professional, a mental health professional must be available for at least telephone consultation within 30 minutes.

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF OUTPATIENT SERVICES.]

(a) County boards must provide or contract for enough outpatient services within the county to meet the needs of each child with emotional disturbance residing in the county and the child's family. A child or a child's parent may be required to pay a fee based in accordance with section 245.481. Outpatient services include:

(1) conducting diagnostic assessments;

(2) conducting psychological testing;

(3) developing or modifying individual treatment plans;

(4) making referrals and recommending placements as appropriate;

(5) treating the child's mental health needs through therapy; and

(6) prescribing and managing medication and evaluating the effectiveness of prescribed medication.

(b) County boards may request a waiver allowing outpatient services to be provided in a nearby trade area if it is determined that the child requires necessary and appropriate services that are only available outside the county.

(c) Outpatient services offered by the county board to prevent placement must be at the level of treatment appropriate to the child's diagnostic assessment.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS.] The county board shall require that a service provider of outpatient services to children:

(1) meets the professional qualifications contained in sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(2) uses a multidisciplinary mental health professional staff including, at a minimum, arrangements for psychiatric consultation, licensed consulting psychologist consultation, and other necessary multidisciplinary mental health professionals;

(3) develops individual treatment plans; and

(4) provides initial appointments within three weeks, except in emergencies where there must be immediate access as described in section 245.4879.

Sec. 49. [245.4881] [CASE MANAGEMENT AND FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) By January 1, 1991, the county board shall provide case management activities for each child with severe emotional disturbance residing in the county and the child's family who request or consent to the services. Staffing ratios must be sufficient to serve the needs of the clients. The case manager must meet the requirements in section 245.4871, subdivision 4.

(b) Case management services provided to children with severe emotional disturbance eligible for medical assistance must be billed to the medical assistance program under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625.

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION OF CASE MANAGEMENT ELIGIBILITY.] The county board shall notify, as appropriate, the child, child's parent, or legal representative of the child's potential eligibility for case management services within five working days after receiving a request from an individual or a referral from a provider under section 245.4876, subdivision 4.

The county board shall send a written notice that identifies the designated case management providers. The county board shall send the notice, as appropriate, to the child, the child's parent, or the child's legal representative, if any.

shall promptly arrange for a diagnostic assessment of the child when one is not available as described in section 245.4876, subdivision 2, to determine the child's eligibility as a child with severe emotional disturbance for family community support services. The county board shall notify in writing, as appropriate, the child, the child's parent, or the child's legal representative, if any, if the child is determined ineligible for family community support services.

(b) Upon a determination of eligibility for family support services, the case manager shall develop an individual family community support plan for a child as specified in subdivision 4, review the child's progress, and monitor the provision of services. If services are to be provided in a host county that is not the county of financial responsibility, the case manager shall consult with the host county and obtain a letter demonstrating the concurrence of the host county regarding the provision of services.

The case manager shall perform a functional assessment and note in the client's record the services needed by the child and the child's family, the services requested by the family, services that are not available, and the child and family's unmet needs. The information required under section 245.4886 shall be provided in writing to the child and the child's family. The case manager shall note this provision in the client record.

Subd. 4. [INDIVIDUAL FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT PLAN.] (a) For each child, the case manager must develop an individual family community support plan that incorporates the child's individual treatment plan. The individual treatment plan may not be a substitute for the development of an individual family community support plan. The case manager is responsible for developing the individual family community support plan within 30 days of intake based on a diagnostic assessment and a functional assessment and for implementing and monitoring the delivery of services according to the individual family community support plan. The case manager must review the plan every 90 calendar days after it is developed. To the extent appropriate, the child with severe emotional disturbance, the child's family, advocates, service providers, and significant others must be involved in all phases of development and implementation of the individual family community support plan. Notwithstanding the lack of a community support plan, the case manager shall assist the child and family in accessing the needed services listed in subdivision 6.

(b) The child's individual family community support plan must state:

(1) the goals and expected outcomes of each service and criteria for evaluating the effectiveness and appropriateness of the service;

(2) the activities for accomplishing each goal;

- (3) a schedule for each activity; and
- (4) the frequency of face-to-face contacts by the case manager, as appropriate to client need and the implementation of the individual family community support plan.

Subd. 5. [COORDINATION BETWEEN CASE MANAGER AND FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.] The county board must establish procedures that ensure ongoing contact and coordination between the case manager and the family community support services as well as other mental health services for each child.

Subd. 6. [AVAILABILITY OF FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.] By July 1, 1990, county boards must provide or contract for sufficient family community support services within the county to meet the needs of each child with severe emotional disturbance who resides in the county and the child's family. Children or their parents may be required to pay a fee in accordance with section 245.481.

Family community support services must be designed to improve the ability of children with severe emotional disturbance to:

- (1) handle basic activities of daily living;
- (2) improve functioning in school settings;
- (3) participate in leisure time or community youth activities;
- (4) set goals and plans;
- (5) reside with the family in the community;
- (6) participate in after school and summer activities;
- (7) make a smooth transition between mental health services provided to children; and
- (8) make a smooth transition into the adult mental health system as appropriate.

In addition, family community support services must be designed to improve overall family functioning if clinically appropriate to the child's needs, and to reduce the use of placements more intensive, costly, or restrictive both in number of admissions and lengths of stay than indicated by the child's diagnostic assessment.

Subd. 7. [DAY TREATMENT SERVICES PROVIDED.] (a) Day treatment services must be part of the family community support services available to each child with severe emotional disturbance residing in the county. A child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Day treatment services must be designed to:

(1) provide a structured environment for treatment;

(2) provide family and community support;

(3) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet the child's need;

(4) coordinate with or be offered in conjunction with the school's education program;

(5) provide therapy and family intervention for children that are coordinated with education services provided and funded by schools; and

(6) operate during all 12 months of the year.

(b) County boards may request a waiver from including day treatment services if they can document that:

(1) alternative services exist through the county's family community support services for each child who would otherwise need day treatment services; and

(2) county demographics and geography make the provision of day treatment services cost ineffective and unfeasible.

Subd. 8. [PROFESSIONAL HOME-BASED FAMILY TREATMENT PROVIDED.] (a) By January 1, 1991, county boards must provide or contract for sufficient professional home-based family treatment within the county to meet the needs of each child with severe emotional disturbance who is at risk of out-of-home placement due to the child's emotional disturbance or who is returning to the home from out-of-home placement. The child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. The county board shall require that all service providers of professional home-based family treatment set fee schedules approved by the county board that are based on the child's or family's ability to pay. The professional home-based family treatment must be designed to assist each child with severe emotional disturbance who is at risk of or who is returning from out-of-home placement and the child's family to:

(1) improve overall family functioning in all areas of life;

(2) treat the child's symptoms of emotional disturbance that contribute to a risk of out-of-home placement;

(3) provide a positive change in the emotional, behavioral, and mental well-being of children and their families; and

(4) reduce risk of out-of-home placement for the identified child with severe emotional disturbance and other siblings or successfully reunify and reintegrate into the family a child returning from out-of-home placement due to emotional disturbance.

(b) Professional home-based family treatment must be provided by a team consisting of a mental health professional and others who are skilled in the delivery of mental health services to children and families in conjunction with other human service providers. The professional home-based family treatment team must maintain flexible hours of service availability and must provide or arrange for crisis services for each family, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Case loads for each professional home-based family treatment team must be small enough to permit the delivery of intensive services and to meet the needs of the family. Professional home-based family treatment providers shall coordinate services and service needs with case managers assigned to children and their families. Individual treatment plans must be developed that identify the specific treatment objectives for both the child and the family.

Subd. 9. [THERAPEUTIC SUPPORT OF FOSTER CARE.] By January 1, 1992, county boards must provide or contract for foster care with therapeutic support as defined in section 245.4871, subdivision 34. Foster families caring for children with severe emotional disturbance must receive training and supportive services, as necessary, at no cost to the foster families within the limits of available resources.

Subd. 10. [BENEFITS ASSISTANCE.] The county board must offer help to a child with severe emotional disturbance and the child's family in applying for federal benefits, including supplemental security income, medical assistance, and Medicare.

Sec. 50. [245.4882] [RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT SERVICES.] County boards must provide or contract for enough residential treatment services to meet the needs of each child with emotional disturbance residing in the county and needing this level of care. Length of stay is based on the child's residential treatment need and shall be subject to the six-month review process established in section 257.071, subdivisions 2 and 4. Services must be made available as close to the county as possible. Residential treatment must be designed to:

(1) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet the child's needs;

(2) help the child improve family living and social interaction skills;

(3) help the child gain the necessary skills to return to the community;

(4) stabilize crisis admissions; and

(5) work with families throughout the placement to improve the ability of the families to care for children with emotional disturbance in the home.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS.] A provider of residential services to children must be licensed under applicable rules adopted by the commissioner and must be clinically supervised by a mental health professional.

Subd. 3. [TRANSITION TO COMMUNITY.] Residential treatment facilities and regional treatment centers serving children must plan for and assist those children and their families in making a transition to less restrictive community-based services. Residential treatment facilities must also arrange for appropriate follow-up care in the community. Before a child is discharged, the residential treatment facility or regional treatment center shall provide notification to the child's case manager, if any, so that the case manager can monitor and coordinate the transition and make timely arrangements for the child's appropriate follow-up care in the community.

Sec. 51. [245.4883] [ACUTE CARE HOSPITAL INPATIENT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF ACUTE CARE INPATIENT SERVICES.] County boards must make available through contract or direct provision enough acute care hospital inpatient treatment services as close to the county as possible for children with emotional disturbances residing in the county needing this level of care. Acute care hospital inpatient treatment services must be designed to:

(1) stabilize the medical and mental health condition for which admission is required;

(2) improve functioning to the point where discharge to residential treatment or community-based mental health services is possible;

(3) facilitate appropriate referrals for follow-up mental health care in the community;

(4) work with families to improve the ability of the families to care for those children with emotional disturbances at home; and

(5) assist families and children in the transition from inpatient services to community-based services or home setting, and provide notification to the child's case manager, if any, so that the case manager can monitor the transition and make timely arrangements for the child's appropriate follow-up care in the community.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS.] Providers of acute care hospital inpatient services for children must meet applicable standards established by the commissioners of health and human services.

Sec. 52. [245.4885] [SCREENING FOR INPATIENT AND RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [SCREENING REQUIRED.] The county board shall ensure that all children are screened according to section 256F.07 or 257.071, whichever applies, upon admission for treatment of emotional disturbance to a residential treatment facility, an acute care hospital, or informally admitted to a regional treatment center if public funds are used to pay for the services. If a child is admitted to a residential treatment facility or acute care hospital for emergency treatment of emotional disturbance or held for emergency care by a regional treatment center under section 253.05, subdivision 1, screening must occur within five working days of admission. Screening shall determine whether:

(1) an admission is necessary;

(2) the length of stay is as short as possible consistent with the individual child's need; and

(3) the case manager, if assigned, is developing an individual family community support plan.

The screening process and placement decision must be documented in the child's record.

An alternate review process may be approved by the commissioner if the county board demonstrates that an alternate review process has been established by the county board and the times of review, persons responsible for the review, and review criteria are comparable to the standards in clauses (1) to (3).

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] No later than January 1, 1992, screening of children for residential and inpatient services shall include participation of a mental health professional. Mental health professionals providing screening for inpatient and residential services must not be financially affiliated with any acute care inpatient hospital, residential treatment facility, or regional treatment center. The commissioner may waive this requirement for mental health professional participation in sparsely populated areas.

Subd. 3. [INDIVIDUAL PLACEMENT AGREEMENT.] The county board shall enter into an individual placement agreement with a provider of residential treatment services to a child eligible for county-paid services under this section. The agreement must specify the payment rate and terms and conditions of county payment for the placement.

Subd. 4. [TASK FORCE ON RESIDENTIAL AND INPATIENT TREATMENT SERVICES FOR CHILDREN.] The commissioner of human services shall appoint a task force on residential and inpatient treatment services for children that includes representatives from each of the mental health professional categories defined in section 245.4871, subdivision 27, the Minnesota mental health association, the Minnesota alliance for the mentally ill, the children's mental health initiative, the Minnesota mental health law project, the Minnesota district judges association juvenile committee, department of human services staff, the department of education, local community-based corrections, the department of corrections, the ombudsman for mental health and mental retardation, residential treatment facilities for children, inpatient hospital facilities for children, and counties. The task force shall examine and evaluate existing mechanisms that have as their purpose review of appropriate admission and need for continued care for all children with emotional disturbances who are admitted to residential treatment facilities or acute care hospital inpatient treatment. These mechanisms shall include at least the following: precommitment screening, preplacement screening for children, licensure and reimbursement rules, county monitoring, technical assistance, hospital preadmission certification, and hospital retrospective reviews. The task force shall report to the legislature by February 15, 1990, on how existing mechanisms may be changed to accomplish the goals of screening as described in section 245.4885, subdivision 1.

A child or a child's family, as appropriate, who requests mental health services under sections 245.487 to 245.4887 must be advised of services available and the right to appeal as described in this section at the time of the request and each time the individual family community support plan or individual treatment plan is reviewed. A child whose request for mental health services under sections 245.487 to 245.4887 is denied, not acted upon with reasonable promptness, or whose services are suspended, reduced, or terminated by action or inaction for which the county board is responsible under sections 245.487 to 245.4887 may contest that action or inaction before the state agency according to section 256.045. The commissioner shall monitor the nature and frequency of administrative appeals under this section.

Sec. 54. [245.4887] [CHILDREN'S SECTION OF LOCAL MENTAL HEALTH PROPOSAL.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME PERIOD.] The county board shall submit its first complete children's section of its local mental health proposal to the commissioner by November 15, 1989. Subsequent proposals must be on the same two-year cycle as community social service plans. If a proposal complies with sections 245.487 to 245.4887, it satisfies the requirement of the community social service plan for the emotionally disturbed target population as required by section 256E.09. The proposal must be made available upon request to all residents of the county at the same time it is submitted to the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [PROPOSAL CONTENT.] The children's section of the local mental health proposal must include:

(1) a report of the local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council on unmet needs of children and any other needs assessment used by the county board in preparing the local mental health proposal, including the report of the local coordinating council or local interagency task force specified in section 245.4875, subdivision 6;

(2) a description of the involvement of the local children's mental health advisory council or the children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council in preparing the local mental health proposal and methods used by the county board to ensure adequate and timely participation of citizens, mental health professionals, and providers in development of the local mental health proposal;

(3) information for the preceding year, including the actual number of children who received each of the mental health services listed in sections 245.487 to 245.4887, and actual expenditures for each mental health service and service waiting lists; and

(4) the following information describing how the county board intends to meet the requirements of sections 245.487 to 245.4887 during the proposal period:

(i) specific objectives and outcome goals for each mental health service listed in sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(ii) a description of each service provider, including county agencies, contractors, and subcontractors, that is expected to either be the sole provider of one of the mental health services described in sections 245.487 to 245.4887 or to provide over $10,000 of mental health services per year, including a listing of the professional qualifications of the staff involved in service delivery for the county;

(iii) a description of how the mental health services in the county will be unified and coordinated, including the mechanism established by the county board providing for interagency coordination as specified in section 245.4875, subdivision 6;

(iv) the estimated number of children who will receive each mental health service; and

(v) estimated expenditures for each mental health service and revenues for the entire proposal.

Subd. 3. [PROPOSAL FORMAT.] The children's section of the local mental health proposal must be made in a format prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [PROVIDER APPROVAL.] The commissioner's review of the children's section of the local mental health proposal must include a review of the qualifications of each service provider required to be identified in the children's section of the local mental health proposal under subdivision 2. The commissioner may reject a county board's proposal for a particular provider if:

(1) the provider does not meet the professional qualifications contained in sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(2) the provider does not have adequate fiscal stability or controls to provide the proposed services as determined by the commissioner;
or

(3) the provider is not in compliance with other applicable state laws or rules.

Subd. 5. [SERVICE APPROVAL.] The commissioner's review of the children's section of the local mental health proposal must include a review of the appropriateness of the amounts and types of children's mental health services in the children's section of the local mental health proposal. The commissioner may reject the county board's proposal if the commissioner determines that the amount and types of services proposed are not cost effective, do not meet the child's needs, or do not comply with sections 245.487 to 245.4887.

Subd. 6. [PROPOSAL APPROVAL.] The commissioner shall review each children's section of the local mental health proposal within 90 days and work with the county board to make any necessary modifications to comply with sections 245.487 to 245.4887. After the commissioner has approved the proposal, the county board is eligible to receive an allocation of mental health and community social service act funds.

Subd. 7. [PARTIAL OR CONDITIONAL APPROVAL.] If the children's section of the local mental health proposal is in substantial compliance, but not in full compliance with sections 245.487 to 245.4887, and necessary modifications cannot be made before the proposal period begins, the commissioner may grant partial or conditional approval and withhold a proportional share of the county board's mental health and community social service act funds until full compliance is achieved.

Subd. 8. [AWARD NOTICE.] Upon approval of the county board proposal, the commissioner shall send a notice of approval for funding. The notice must specify any conditions of funding and is binding on the county board. Failure of the county board to comply with the approved proposal and funding conditions may result in withholding or repayment of funds according to section 245.483.

Subd. 9. [PLAN AMENDMENT.] If the county board finds it necessary to make significant changes in the approved children's section of the local mental health proposal, it must present the proposed changes to the commissioner for approval at least 30 days before the changes take effect. "Significant changes" means:

(1) the county board proposes to provide a children's mental health service through a provider other than the provider listed for that service in the approved local proposal;

(2) the county board expects the total annual expenditures for any single children's mental health service to vary more than ten percent or $5,000, whichever is greater, from the amount in the approved local proposal;

(3) the county board expects a combination of changes in expenditures per children's mental health service to exceed more than ten percent of the total children's mental health services expenditures;
or

(4) the county board proposes a major change in the specific objectives and outcome goals listed in the approved local children's mental health proposal.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.62, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [~~CLINICAL DIRECTOR SUPERVISOR.~~] All community mental health center services shall be provided under the clinical ~~direction~~ supervision of a licensed consulting psychologist licensed under sections 148.88 to 148.98, or a physician who is board certified or eligible for board certification in psychiatry, and who is licensed under section 147.02.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.696, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC DUTIES.] In addition to the powers and duties already conferred by law, the commissioner of human services shall:

(1) review and evaluate local programs and the performance of administrative and mental health personnel and make recommendations to county boards and program administrators;

(2) provide consultative staff service to communities and advocacy groups to assist in ascertaining local needs and in planning and establishing community mental health programs;

(3) employ qualified personnel to implement this chapter;

(4) ~~as part of the biennial budget process, report to the legislature on staff use and staff performance, including in the report a description of duties performed by each person in the mental health division;~~

(5) adopt rules for minimum standards in community mental health services as directed by the legislature;

(6) (5) cooperate with the commissioners of health and jobs and training to coordinate services and programs for people with mental illness;

(7) (6) convene meetings with the commissioners of corrections, health, education, and commerce at least four times each year for the purpose of coordinating services and programs for ~~children with mental illness and~~ children with emotional or behavioral disorders;

(8) (7) evaluate the needs of people with mental illness as they relate to assistance payments, medical benefits, nursing home care, and other state and federally funded services;

(9) (8) provide data and other information, as requested, to the advisory council on mental health;

~~(10)~~ (9) develop and maintain a data collection system to provide information on the prevalence of mental illness, the need for specific mental health services and other services needed by people with mental illness, funding sources for those services, and the extent to which state and local areas are meeting the need for services;

~~(11)~~ (10) apply for grants and develop pilot programs to test and demonstrate new methods of assessing mental health needs and delivering mental health services;

~~(12)~~ (11) study alternative reimbursement systems and make waiver requests that are deemed necessary by the commissioner;

~~(13)~~ (12) provide technical assistance to county boards to improve fiscal management and accountability and quality of mental health services, and consult regularly with county boards, public and private mental health agencies, and client advocacy organizations for purposes of implementing this chapter;

~~(14)~~ (13) promote coordination between the mental health system and other human service systems in the planning, funding, and delivery of services; entering into cooperative agreements with other state and local agencies for that purpose as deemed necessary by the commissioner;

~~(15)~~ (14) conduct research regarding the relative effectiveness of mental health treatment methods as the commissioner deems appropriate, and for this purpose, enter treatment facilities, observe clients, and review records in a manner consistent with the Minnesota government data practices act, chapter 13; and ~~(16)~~ (15) enter into contracts and promulgate rules the commissioner deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.697, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] A state advisory council on mental health is created. The council must have ~~25~~ 30 members appointed by the governor in accordance with federal requirements. The council must be composed of:

(1) the assistant commissioner of mental health for the department of human services;

(2) a representative of the department of human services responsible for the medical assistance program;

(3) one member of each of the four core mental health professional disciplines (psychiatry, psychology, social work, nursing);

(4) one representative from each of the following advocacy groups: mental health association of Minnesota, Minnesota alliance for the mentally ill, and Minnesota mental health law project;

(5) providers of mental health services;

(6) consumers of mental health services;

(7) family members of persons with mental illnesses;

(8) legislators;

(9) social service agency directors;

(10) county commissioners; and

(11) other members reflecting a broad range of community interests, as the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services may prescribe by regulation or as may be selected by the governor.

Terms, compensation, and removal of members and filling of vacancies are governed by section 15.059, ~~except that members shall not receive a per diem.~~ The council ~~expires~~ does not expire as provided in section 15.059.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.697, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The state advisory council on mental health shall:

(1) advise the governor, the legislature, and heads of state departments and agencies about policy, programs, and services affecting people with mental illness;

(2) advise the commissioner of human services on all phases of the development of mental health aspects of the biennial budget;

(3) advise the governor and the legislature about the development of innovative mechanisms for providing and financing services to people with mental illness;

(4) encourage state departments and other agencies to conduct needed research in the field of mental health;

(5) review recommendations of the subcommittee on children's mental health;

(6) educate the public about mental illness and the needs and potential of people with mental illness; and

(7) review and comment on all grants dealing with mental health and on the development and implementation of state and local mental health plans; and

(8) coordinate the work of local children's and adult mental health advisory councils and subcommittees.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.697, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SUBCOMMITTEE ON CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH.] The state advisory council on mental health (the "advisory council") must have a subcommittee on children's mental health. The subcommittee must make recommendations to the advisory council on policies, laws, regulations, and services relating to children's mental health. Members of the subcommittee must include:

(1) the commissioners or designees of the commissioners of the departments of human services, health, education, state planning, and corrections;

(2) the commissioner of commerce or a designee of the commissioner who is knowledgeable about medical insurance issues;

(3) at least one representative of an advocacy group for children with ~~mental illness~~ emotional disturbances;

(4) providers of children's mental health services, including at least one provider of services to preadolescent children, one provider of services to adolescents, and one hospital-based provider;

(5) parents of children who have ~~mental illness or emotional or behavioral disorders~~ disturbances;

(6) a present or former consumer of adolescent mental health services;

(7) ~~educators experienced in~~ currently working with emotionally disturbed children;

(8) people knowledgeable about the needs of emotionally disturbed children of minority races and cultures;

(9) people experienced in working with emotionally disturbed children who have committed status offenses;

(10) members of the advisory council; and

(11) one person from the local corrections department and one representative of the Minnesota district judges association juvenile committee; and

(12) county commissioners and social services agency representatives.

The chair of the advisory council shall appoint subcommittee members described in clauses (3) to (11) through the process established in section 15.0597. The chair shall appoint members to ensure a geographical balance on the subcommittee. Terms, compensation, removal, and filling of vacancies are governed by subdivision 1, except that terms of subcommittee members who are also members of the advisory council are coterminous with their terms on the advisory council. The subcommittee shall meet at the call of the subcommittee chair who is elected by the subcommittee from among its members. The subcommittee expires with the expiration of the advisory council.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.713, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TOTAL FUNDS AVAILABLE; ALLOCATION.] Funds granted to the state by the federal government under United States Code, title 42, sections 300X to 300X-9 each federal fiscal year for mental health services must be allocated as follows:

(a) Any amount set aside by the commissioner of human services for American Indian organizations within the state, which funds shall not duplicate any direct federal funding of American Indian organizations and which funds shall be at least 25 percent of the total federal allocation to the state for mental health services; provided that sufficient applications for funding are received by the commissioner which meet the specifications contained in requests for proposals. Money from this source may be used for special committees to advise the commissioner on mental health programs and services for American Indians and other minorities or underserved groups. For purposes of this subdivision, "American Indian organization" means an American Indian tribe or band or an organization providing mental health services that is legally incorporated as a nonprofit organization registered with the secretary of state and governed by a board of directors having at least a majority of American Indian directors.

(b) An amount not to exceed ~~ten~~ five percent of the federal block grant allocation for mental health services to be retained by the commissioner for administration.

(c) Any amount permitted under federal law which the commissioner approves for demonstration or research projects for severely disturbed children and adolescents, the underserved, special populations or multiply disabled mentally ill persons. The groups to be served, the extent and nature of services to be provided, the amount and duration of any grant awards are to be based on criteria set forth in the Alcohol, Drug Abuse and Mental Health Block Grant Law, United States Code, title 42, sections 300X to 300X-9, and on state policies and procedures determined necessary by the commissioner. Grant recipients must comply with applicable state and federal requirements and demonstrate fiscal and program management capabilities that will result in provision of quality, cost-effective services.

(d) The amount required under federal law, for federally mandated expenditures.

(e) An amount not to exceed ~~ten~~ 15 percent of the federal block grant allocation for mental health services to be retained by the commissioner for planning and evaluation.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.73, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RULES; REPORTS.] The commissioner shall promulgate an emergency and permanent rule to govern grant applications, approval of applications, allocation of grants, and maintenance of service and financial records by grant recipients. The commissioner shall require collection of data for compliance, monitoring and evaluation purposes and shall require periodic reports to demonstrate the effectiveness of the services in helping adult mentally ill persons remain and function in their own communities. As a part of the report required by section 245.461, the commissioner shall report to the legislature no later than December 31 of each even-numbered year as to the effectiveness of this program and recommendations regarding continued funding.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245A.095, is amended to read:

245A.095 [REVIEW OF RULES FOR PROGRAMS SERVING PERSONS WITH MENTAL ILLNESSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] Residential programs for five or more persons with a mental illness must be licensed under sections 245A.01 to 245A.16. To assure that this requirement is met, the commissioner of health, in cooperation with the commissioner of human services, shall monitor licensed boarding care homes, board and lodging houses, and supervised living facilities.

By January 1, 1989, the commissioner of health shall recommend to the legislature an appropriate method for enforcing this requirement.

Subd. 1a. [RULES.] In developing rules for serving persons with mental illness, the commissioner of human services shall assure that persons with mental illness are provided with needed treatment or support in the least restrictive, most appropriate environment, that supportive residential care in small homelike settings is available for persons needing that care, and that a mechanism is developed to ensure that no person is placed in a care or treatment setting inappropriate for meeting the person's needs. To the maximum extent possible, the rule shall assure that length of stay is governed solely by client need and shall allow for a variety of innovative and flexible approaches in meeting residential and support needs of persons with mental illness.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REVIEW OF RULES.] The commissioner shall:

(1) provide in rule for various levels of care additional types of programs and services, including but not limited to supportive small group residential care, semi-independent and apartment living services, and crisis and respite services, to address the residential treatment and support needs of persons with mental illness;

(2) review category I and II programs established in Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690 to ensure that the categories of programs provide a continuum of residential service programs for persons with mental illness, including but not limited to programs meeting needs for intensive treatment, crisis and respite care, and rehabilitation and training;

(3) provide in rule for a definition of the term "treatment" as used in relation to persons with mental illness;

(4) adjust funding mechanisms by rule as needed to reflect the requirements established by rule for services being provided;

(5) review and recommend staff educational requirements and staff training as needed; and

(6) review and make changes in rules relating to residential care and service programs for persons with mental illness as the commissioner may determine necessary; and

(7) the commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1990, on the status of rulemaking with respect to clauses (1) to (6).

Subd. 3. [HOUSING SERVICES FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL

ILLNESS.] The commissioner of human services shall study the housing needs of people with mental illness and shall articulate a continuum of services from residential treatment as the most intensive service through housing programs as the least intensive. The commissioner shall develop recommendations for implementing the continuum of services and shall present the recommendations to the legislature by January 31, 1988.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 246.015, is amended to read:

246.015 [CONSULTATIVE SERVICES; AFTERCARE OF PATIENTS; PUBLIC INFORMATION; RECRUITMENT OF PSYCHIATRISTS; FUNDS.]

Subd. 3. Within the limits of the appropriations available, the commissioner of human services may provide consultative services for courts, and state welfare agencies, supervise the placement and aftercare of patients provisionally or otherwise discharged from a state hospital or institution, and may promote and conduct programs of education for the people of the state relating to the problem of mental health and mental hygiene. The commissioner shall administer, expend and distribute federal funds which may be made available to the state and funds other than those appropriated by the legislature, which may be made available to the state for mental health and mental hygiene purposes.

Subd. 4. The commissioner of human services shall recruit and hire psychiatrists, psychologists, psychiatric nurses, and other mental health professionals to work at the regional treatment centers.

Sec. 64. [246.0175] [OFFICE OF MEDICAL DIRECTOR.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHED.] The office of medical director within the department of human services is established.

Subd. 2. [MEDICAL DIRECTOR.] The commissioner of human services shall appoint a medical director. The medical director must be a psychiatrist certified by the board of psychiatry.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES.] The medical director shall:

(1) oversee the clinical provision of inpatient mental health services provided in the state's regional treatment centers;

(2) recruit and retain psychiatrists to serve on the state medical staff established in subdivision 4;

(3) consult with the commissioner of human services, the assistant commissioner of mental health, community mental health center directors, and the regional treatment center governing bodies to develop standards for treatment and care of patients in regional treatment centers and outpatient programs;

(4) develop and oversee a continuing education program for members of the regional treatment center medical staff;

(5) consult with the commissioner on the appointment of the chief executive officers for regional treatment centers; and

(6) participate and cooperate in the development and maintenance of a quality assurance program for regional treatment centers that assures that residents receive quality inpatient care and continuous quality care once they are discharged or transferred to an outpatient setting.

Subd. 4. [REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER MEDICAL STAFF] (a) The commissioner of human services shall establish a regional treatment center medical staff which shall be administered by the office of medical director.

(b) The regional treatment center medical staff shall consist of all physicians who are employed by or under contract with regional treatment centers and who spend at least 50 percent of their professional time providing care to patients in a regional treatment center.

(c) The medical director, in conjunction with the regional treatment center medical staff, shall:

(1) establish standards and define qualifications for physicians who care for residents in regional treatment centers;

(2) monitor the performance of physicians who care for residents in regional treatment centers; and

(3) recommend to the commissioner changes in procedures for operating regional treatment centers that are needed to improve the provision of medical care in those facilities.

Sec. 65. [APPROPRIATION.]

(a) $ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991. Of this appropriation, $5,000 is to be provided to each county board to fund educational activities of the local adult and children's mental health advisory councils, or the adult and children's subcommittees of an existing advisory council. Up to $1,500 of the $5,000 may be used to hire an intern to assist in these educational activities.

(b) $ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the division of mental health. This appropriation shall be used to:

(1) provide staff support for the state advisory council on mental health;

(2) coordinate the mental health activities of the state advisory council on mental health and the local mental health advisory councils; and

(3) provide coordination between the department of human services and the public/academic liaison initiative.

(c) $ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the division of mental health to:

(1) direct the development and implementation of divisional programs, services, and policies to meet the goals of the housing mission statement;

(2) assume responsibility for interdivision and interagency cooperation required to effectively implement the housing mission statement; and

(3) provide technical assistance to counties, providers, developers, state and federal housing agencies, and persons with mental illness on actions required to meet the goals of the housing mission statement.

(d) $ is provided from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the employability pilot projects required by section 31. Of this amount, $ shall be appropriated to the division of mental health to administer section 31.

(e) $ is appropriated to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the public/academic liaison initiative established in section 37.

(f) $ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of sections 62 and 63. The staff complement of the department of human services is increased by three persons.

Sec. 66. [USE OF GRANT MONEY FOR DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS FOR THERAPEUTIC FOSTER CARE.]

If money is appropriated to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for demonstration projects for therapeutic foster care programs, one grant must be awarded to Olmsted county for an existing program.

Sec. 67. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 245.462, subdivision 25; 245.471; 245.475; 245.64; 245.698; and 245A.095, subdivision 3, are repealed.

Sec. 68. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 246.64, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall credit all receipts from billings for rates set in subdivision 1, except those credited according to subdivision 2, to the chemical dependency fund. This money must not be used for a regional treatment center activity that is not a chemical dependency service or an allocation of expenditures that are included in the base for computation of the rates under subdivision 1. The commissioner may expand chemical dependency services so long as expenditures are recovered by patient fees, transfer of funds, or supplementary appropriations. The commissioner may expand ~~or reduce~~ chemical dependency staff complement as long as expenditures are recovered by patient fees, transfer of funds, or supplementary appropriations. ~~An increase or decrease in and shall reduce chemical dependency staff shall not result in an increase or decrease in staff in any facility or unit not providing chemical dependency services complement to the extent that such funds are not available. Notwithstanding chapters 176 and 268, the commissioner shall provide for the self-insurance of regional treatment center chemical dependency programs for the costs of unemployment compensation and workers' compensation claims. The commissioner shall provide a biennial report to the chairs of the senate finance subcommittee on health and human services, the house of representatives human services division of appropriations, and the senate and house of representatives health and human services committees."~~

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 254B.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LOCAL AGENCY DUTIES.] (a) Every local agency shall provide chemical dependency services to persons residing within its jurisdiction who meet criteria established by the commissioner for placement in a chemical dependency residential or non-residential treatment service. Chemical dependency money must be administered by the local agencies according to law and rules adopted by the commissioner under sections 14.01 to 14.69.

(b) In order to contain costs, the county board shall, with the approval of the commissioner of human services, select eligible vendors of chemical dependency services who can provide economical and appropriate treatment. Unless the local agency is a social services department directly administered by a county or human services board, the local agency shall not be an eligible vendor under section 254B.05. The commissioner may approve proposals from county boards to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. If a county implements a demonstration or experimental medical services funding plan, the commissioner shall transfer the money as appropriate. If a county selects a vendor located in another state, the county shall ensure that the vendor is in compliance with the rules governing licensure of programs located in the state.

(c) A culturally specific vendor that provides assessments under a variance under Minnesota Rules, part 9530.6610, shall be allowed to provide assessment services to persons not covered by the variance.

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.482, is amended to read:

245.482 [REPORTING AND EVALUATION.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS.] The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17).

Subd. 2. [FISCAL REPORTS.] The commissioner shall develop a unified format for quarterly fiscal reports that will include information that the commissioner determines necessary to carry out sections 245.461 to 245.486 and section 256E.08. The county board shall submit a completed fiscal report in the required format no later than 15 days after the end of each quarter.

Subd. 2 3. [PROGRAM REPORTS.] The commissioner shall develop a unified format for an annual program report that will include information that the commissioner determines necessary to carry out sections 245.461 to 245.486 and section 256E.10. The county board shall submit a completed program report in the required format by March 15 of each year.

Subd. 3 4. [PROVIDER REPORTS.] The commissioner may develop a format and procedures for direct reporting from providers to the commissioner to include information that the commissioner determines necessary to carry out sections 245.461 to 245.486. In particular, the provider reports must include aggregate information by county of residence about mental health services paid for by funding sources other than counties.

Subd. 4 5. [INACCURATE OR INCOMPLETE REPORTS.] The commissioner shall promptly notify a county or provider if a required report is clearly inaccurate or incomplete. The commissioner may delay all or part of a mental health fund payment if an appropriately completed report is not received as required by this section.

Subd. 5 6. [STATEWIDE EVALUATION.] The commissioner shall use the county and provider reports required by this section to complete the statewide report required in section 245.461.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.716, is amended to read:

245.716 [REPORTS; DATA COLLECTION.]

Subdivision 1. [PERIODIC REPORTS.] The commissioner shall require collection of data for compliance, monitoring, and evaluation purposes and shall require periodic reports from the counties on the use of funds under the federal block grant by counties for qualified community mental health centers. The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17).

Subd. 2. [QUARTERLY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS.] Beginning in calendar year 1982; each county shall include in its quarterly financial accounting report to the commissioner of the county's community social services fund a separate statement identifying the use of funds, including those received under the federal block grant for qualified community mental health centers as specified in section 256E.08, subdivision 3, clauses (a) and (b). The initial quarterly statement shall be submitted not later than 15 days after the end of the first calendar quarter in which funds are allocated to the counties in accordance with section 245.713, subdivisions 1 and 2.

Subd. 3. [SOCIAL SERVICES REPORT.] Beginning in calendar year 1983, each county shall include in the report required by section 256E.10 a part or subpart which addresses the items specified in section 256E.10, subdivision 1, clauses (a) and (b), as they pertain to the use of funds available from the federal government for services of qualified community mental health centers.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.73, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RULES; REPORTS.] The commissioner shall promulgate an emergency and permanent rule to govern grant applications, approval of applications, allocation of grants, and maintenance of service and financial records by grant recipients. The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). The commissioner shall require collection of data for compliance, monitoring and evaluation purposes and shall require periodic reports to demonstrate the effectiveness of the services in helping adult mentally ill persons remain and function in their own communities. The commissioner shall report to the legislature no later than December 31 of each even-numbered year as to the effectiveness of this program and recommendations regarding continued funding.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 252.275, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REPORTS.] ~~The commissioner shall require collection of data and periodic reports necessary to demonstrate the effectiveness of semi-independent living services in helping persons with mental retardation or related conditions achieve self-sufficiency and independence. The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17).~~

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC POWERS.] Subject to the provisions of section 241.021, subdivision 2, the commissioner of human services shall:

(1) Administer and supervise all forms of public assistance provided for by state law and other welfare activities or services as are vested in the commissioner. Administration and supervision of human services activities or services includes, but is not limited to, assuring timely and accurate distribution of benefits, completeness of service, and quality program management. In addition to administering and supervising human services activities vested by law in the department, the commissioner shall have the authority to:

(a) require local agency participation in training and technical assistance programs to promote compliance with statutes, rules, federal laws, regulations, and policies governing human services;

(b) monitor, on an ongoing basis, the performance of local agencies in the operation and administration of human services, enforce compliance with statutes, rules, federal laws, regulations, and policies governing welfare services and promote excellence of administration and program operation;

(c) develop a quality control program or other monitoring program to review county performance and accuracy of benefit determinations;

(d) require local agencies to make an adjustment to the public assistance benefits issued to any individual consistent with federal law and regulation and state law and rule and to issue or recover benefits as appropriate;

(e) delay or deny payment of all or part of the state and federal share of benefits and administrative reimbursement according to the procedures set forth in section 256.017; and

(f) make contracts with and grants to public and private agencies and organizations, both profit and nonprofit, and individuals, using appropriated funds.

(2) Inform local agencies, on a timely basis, of changes in statute, rule, federal law, regulation, and policy necessary to local agency administration of the programs.

(3) Administer and supervise all child welfare activities; promote the enforcement of laws protecting handicapped, dependent, neglected and delinquent children, and children born to mothers who were not married to the children's fathers at the times of the conception nor at the births of the children; license and supervise child-caring and child-placing agencies and institutions; supervise the care of children in boarding and foster homes or in private institutions; and generally perform all functions relating to the field of child welfare now vested in the state board of control.

(4) Administer and supervise all noninstitutional service to handicapped persons, including those who are visually impaired, hearing impaired, or physically impaired or otherwise handicapped. The commissioner may provide and contract for the care and treatment of qualified indigent children in facilities other than those located and available at state hospitals when it is not feasible to provide the service in state hospitals.

(5) Assist and actively cooperate with other departments, agencies and institutions, local, state, and federal, by performing services in conformity with the purposes of Laws 1939, chapter 431.

(6) Act as the agent of and cooperate with the federal government in matters of mutual concern relative to and in conformity with the provisions of Laws 1939, chapter 431, including the administration of any federal funds granted to the state to aid in the performance of any functions of the commissioner as specified in Laws 1939, chapter 431, and including the promulgation of rules making uniformly available medical care benefits to all recipients of public assistance, at such times as the federal government increases its participation in assistance expenditures for medical care to recipients of public assistance, the cost thereof to be borne in the same proportion as are grants of aid to said recipients.

(7) Establish and maintain any administrative units reasonably necessary for the performance of administrative functions common to all divisions of the department.

(8) The commissioner is designated as guardian of both the estate and the person of all the wards of the state of Minnesota, whether by operation of law or by an order of court, without any further act or proceeding whatever, except as to persons committed as mentally retarded.

(9) Act as coordinating referral and informational center on requests for service for newly arrived immigrants coming to Minnesota.

(10) The specific enumeration of powers and duties as hereinabove set forth shall in no way be construed to be a limitation upon the general transfer of powers herein contained.

(11) Establish county, regional, or statewide schedules of maximum fees and charges which may be paid by local agencies for medical, dental, surgical, hospital, nursing and nursing home care and medicine and medical supplies under all programs of medical care provided by the state and for congregate living care under the income maintenance programs.

(12) Have the authority to conduct and administer experimental projects to test methods and procedures of administering assistance and services to recipients or potential recipients of public welfare. To carry out such experimental projects, it is further provided that the commissioner of human services is authorized to waive the enforcement of existing specific statutory program requirements, rules, and standards in one or more counties. The order establishing the waiver shall provide alternative methods and procedures of administration, shall not be in conflict with the basic purposes, coverage, or benefits provided by law, and in no event shall the duration of a project exceed four years. It is further provided that no order establishing an experimental project as authorized by the provisions of this section shall become effective until the following conditions have been met:

(a) The proposed comprehensive plan including estimated project costs and the proposed order establishing the waiver shall be filed with the secretary of the senate and chief clerk of the house of representatives at least 60 days prior to its effective date.

(b) The secretary of health, education, and welfare of the United States has agreed, for the same project, to waive state plan requirements relative to statewide uniformity.

(c) A comprehensive plan, including estimated project costs, shall be approved by the legislative advisory commission and filed with the commissioner of administration.

(13) In accordance with federal requirements establish procedures to be followed by local welfare boards in creating citizen advisory committees, including procedures for selection of committee members.

(14) Allocate federal fiscal disallowances or sanctions which are based on quality control error rates for the aid to families with dependent children, medical assistance, or food stamp program in the following manner:

(a) One-half of the total amount of the disallowance shall be borne by the county boards responsible for administering the programs. For the medical assistance and AFDC programs, disallowances shall be shared by each county board in the same proportion as that county's expenditures for the sanctioned program are to the total of all counties' expenditures for the AFDC and medical assistance programs. For the food stamp program, sanctions shall be shared by each county board, with 50 percent of the sanction being distributed to each county in the same proportion as that county's administrative costs for food stamps are to the total of all food stamp administrative costs for all counties, and 50 percent of the sanctions being distributed to each county in the same proportion as that county's value of food stamp benefits issued are to the total of all benefits issued for all counties. Each county shall pay its share of the disallowance to the state of Minnesota. When a county fails to pay the amount due hereunder, the commissioner may deduct the amount from reimbursement otherwise due the county, or the attorney general, upon the request of the commissioner, may institute civil action to recover the amount due.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), if the disallowance results from knowing noncompliance by one or more counties with a specific program instruction, and that knowing noncompliance is a matter of official county board record, the commissioner may require payment or recover from the county or counties, in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a), an amount equal to the portion of the total disallowance which resulted from the noncompliance, and may distribute the balance of the disallowance according to paragraph (a).

(15) Develop and implement special projects that maximize reimbursements and result in the recovery of money to the state. For the purpose of recovering state money, the commissioner may enter into contracts with third parties. Any recoveries that result from projects or contracts entered into under this paragraph shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a special account until the balance in the account reaches $400,000. When the balance in the account exceeds $400,000, the excess shall be transferred and credited to the general fund. All money in the account is appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes of this paragraph.

(16) Have the authority to make direct payments to facilities providing shelter to women and their children pursuant to section 256D.05, subdivision 3. Upon the written request of a shelter facility that has been denied payments under section 256.05, subdivision 3, the commissioner shall review all relevant evidence and make a determination within 30 days of the request for review regarding issuance of direct payments to the shelter facility. Failure to act within 30 days shall be considered a determination not to issue direct payments.

(17) Have the authority to establish and enforce the following county reporting requirements:

(a) The commissioner shall establish fiscal and statistical reporting requirements necessary to account for the expenditure of funds allocated to counties for human services programs. When establishing financial and statistical reporting requirements, the commissioner shall evaluate all reports, in consultation with the counties, to determine if the reports can be simplified or the number of reports can be reduced.

(b) The county board shall submit monthly or quarterly reports to the department as required by the commissioner. Monthly reports are due no later than 15 working days after the end of the month. Quarterly reports are due no later than 30 calendar days after the end of the quarter, unless the commissioner determines that the deadline must be shortened to 20 calendar days to avoid jeopardizing compliance with federal deadlines or risking a loss of federal funding. Only reports that are complete, legible, and in the required format shall be accepted by the commissioner.

(c) If the required reports are not received by the deadlines established in clause (b), the commissioner may delay payments and withhold funds from the county board until the next reporting period. When the report is needed to account for the use of federal funds and the late report results in a reduction or delay in federal funding, the funding for the county board with the late report shall be reduced by an amount equal to the reduction in federal funding until full federal funding is received. In no case shall the reduction in funding exceed the amount to which the county would otherwise have been entitled.

(d) A county board that submits reports that are late, illegible, incomplete, or not in the required format for two out of three consecutive reporting periods is considered noncompliant. When a county board is found to be noncompliant, the commissioner shall notify the county board of the reason the county board is considered noncompliant and request that the county board develop a corrective action plan stating how the county board plans to correct the problem. The corrective action plan must be submitted to the commissioner within 45 days after the date the county board received notice of noncompliance.

(e) The final deadline for fiscal reports or amendments to fiscal reports is one year after the date the report was originally due. If the commissioner does not receive a report by the final deadline, the county board forfeits the funding associated with the report for that reporting period and the county board must repay any funds associated with the report received for that reporting period.

(f) The commissioner may not delay payments, withhold funds, or require repayment under paragraph (c) or (e) if the county demonstrates that the commissioner failed to provide appropriate forms, guidelines, and training on completion of the reporting forms. If the county board disagrees with an action taken by the commissioner under paragraph (c) or (e), the county board may appeal the action according to sections 14.57 to 14.69.

(g) Counties subject to withholding of funds under paragraph (c) or forfeiture or repayment of funds under paragraph (e) shall not reduce or withhold benefits or services to clients to cover costs incurred due to actions taken by the commissioner under paragraph (c) or (e).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.72, is amended to read:

256.72 [DUTIES OF COUNTY AGENCIES.]

The county agencies shall:

(1) Administer the provisions of sections 256.72 to 256.87 in the respective counties subject to the rules prescribed by the state agency pursuant to the provisions of those sections and to the supervision of the commissioner of human services specified in section 256.01;

(2) Report to the state agency at such times and in such manner and form as the state agency may from time to time direct; and required under section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17).

(3) Submit quarterly and annually to the county board of commissioners a budget containing an estimate and supporting data setting forth the amount of money needed to carry out the provisions of those sections.

(4) In addition to providing financial assistance, provide such services as will help to maintain and strengthen family life and promote the support and personal independence of parents and relatives insofar as such help is consistent with continuing parental care and protection.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.736, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [REPORTING.] The commissioner of human services, in cooperation with the commissioner of jobs and training shall develop reporting requirements for local agencies and employment and training service providers according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). Reporting requirements must, to the extent possible, use existing client tracking systems and must be within the limits of funds available. The requirements must include summary information necessary for state agencies and the legislature to evaluate the effectiveness of the services.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.871, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REPORTS OF ESTIMATED EXPENDITURES; PAYMENTS.] The county agency shall submit to the state agency an estimate of reports required under section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). Fiscal reports shall estimate expenditures for each succeeding month in such form as required by the state agency. For the period from January 1 to June 30, payment shall be made monthly in advance by the state agency to the counties, of federal funds available for that purpose for each succeeding month, together with an amount of state funds equal to ten percent of the difference between the total estimated cost and the federal funds so available, except as provided for in section 256.017. Subsequent to July 1 of each year the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period, except as provided for in section 256.017. For the period from July 1 to December 31, payment shall be made monthly in advance by the state agency to the counties, of all state and federal funds available for that purpose for the succeeding month, except as provided for in section 256.017. Payment shall be made on the basis of federal and state participation rates described in this subdivision. Effective January 1, 1989, the state rate of participation shall be determined as a percentage that equals the difference between 100 percent and the percentage rate of federal financial participation. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate made by any county shall be made upon the direction of the state agency in any succeeding month.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.935, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. On the death of any person receiving public assistance through aid to dependent children, the county agency shall pay an amount for funeral expenses not exceeding $370 and actual cemetery charges. No funeral expenses shall be paid if the estate of the deceased is sufficient to pay such expenses or if the children, or spouse, who were legally responsible for the support of the deceased while living, are able to pay such expenses; provided, that the additional payment or donation of the cost of cemetery lot, interment, religious service, or for the transportation of the body into or out of the community in which the deceased resided, shall not limit payment by the county agency as herein authorized. Freedom of choice in the selection of a funeral director shall be granted to persons lawfully authorized to make arrangements for the burial of any such deceased recipient. In determining the sufficiency of such estate, due regard shall be had for the nature and marketability of the assets of the estate. The county agency may grant funeral expenses where the sale would cause undue loss to the estate. Any amount paid for funeral expenses shall be a prior claim against the estate, as provided in section 524.3-805, and any amount recovered shall be reimbursed to the agency which paid the expenses. The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). For the period from January 1 to June 30, the state shall reimburse the county for 50 percent of any payments made for funeral expenses except as provided for in section 256.017. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period. For the period from July 1 to December 31, the state shall reimburse the county for 100 percent of any payments made for funeral expenses except as provided for in section 256.017.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The county agencies shall administer medical assistance in their respective counties under the supervision of the state agency and the commissioner of human services as specified in section 256.01, and shall make such reports, prepare such statistics, and keep such records and accounts in relation to medical assistance as the state agency may require under section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17).

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.20, is amended to read:

256B.20 [COUNTY APPROPRIATIONS.]

The providing of funds necessary to carry out the provisions hereof on the part of the counties and the manner of administering the funds of the counties and the state shall be as follows:

(1) The board of county commissioners of each county shall annually set up in its budget an item designated as the county medical assistance fund and levy taxes and fix a rate therefor sufficient to produce the full amount of such item, in addition to all other tax levies and tax rate, however fixed or determined, sufficient to carry out the provisions hereof and sufficient to pay in full the county share of assistance and administrative expense for the ensuing year; and annually on or before October 10 shall certify the same to the county auditor to be entered by the auditor on the tax rolls. Such tax levy and tax rate shall make proper allowance and provision for shortage in tax collections.

(2) Any county may transfer surplus funds from any county fund, except the sinking or ditch fund, to the general fund or to the county medical assistance fund in order to provide money necessary to pay medical assistance awarded hereunder. The money so transferred shall be used for no other purpose, but any portion thereof no longer needed for such purpose shall be transferred back to the fund from which taken.

(3) Upon the order of the county agency the county auditor shall draw a warrant on the proper fund in accordance with the order, and the county treasurer shall pay out the amounts ordered to be paid out as medical assistance hereunder. When necessary by reason of failure to levy sufficient taxes for the payment of the medical assistance in the county, the county auditor shall carry any such payments as an overdraft on the medical assistance funds of the county until sufficient tax funds shall be provided for such assistance payments. The board of county commissioners shall include in the tax levy and tax rate in the year following the year in which such overdraft occurred, an amount sufficient to liquidate such overdraft in full.

(4) Claims for reimbursement and reports shall be presented to the state agency by the respective counties in such manner as the state agency shall prescribe, not later than ten days after the close of the month in which the expenditures were made as required under section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). The state agency shall audit such claims and certify to the commissioner of finance the amounts due the respective counties without delay. The amounts so certified shall be paid within ten days after such certification, from the state treasury upon warrant of the commissioner of finance from any money available therefor. The money available to the state agency to carry out the provisions hereof, including all federal funds available to the state, shall be kept and deposited by the state treasurer in the revenue fund and disbursed upon warrants in the same manner as other state funds.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.04, is amended to read:

256D.04 [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.]

In addition to any other duties imposed by law, the commissioner shall:

(1) Supervise according to section 256.01 the administration of general assistance and general assistance medical care by local agencies as provided in sections 256D.01 to 256D.21;

(2) Promulgate uniform rules consistent with law for carrying out and enforcing the provisions of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 to the end that general assistance may be administered as uniformly as possible throughout the state; rules shall be furnished immediately to all local agencies and other interested persons; in promulgating rules, the provisions of sections 14.01 to 14.69, shall apply;

(3) Allocate money appropriated for general assistance and general assistance medical care to local agencies as provided in section 256D.03, subdivisions 2 and 3;

(4) Accept and supervise the disbursement of any funds that may be provided by the federal government or from other sources for use in this state for general assistance and general assistance medical care;

(5) Cooperate with other agencies including any agency of the United States or of another state in all matters concerning the powers and duties of the commissioner under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21;

(6) Cooperate to the fullest extent with other public agencies empowered by law to provide vocational training, rehabilitation, or similar services; and

(7) Gather and study current information and report at least annually to the governor and legislature on the nature and need for general assistance and general assistance medical care, the amounts expended under the supervision of each local agency, and the activities of each local agency and publish such reports for the information of the public.

(8) Specify requirements for general assistance and general assistance medical care reports, including fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17).

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.39, is amended to read:

256D.39 [FISCAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES.]

The commissioner of human services shall supervise county administration of supplemental aid, and shall, by rule, establish necessary administrative and fiscal procedures. The procedures may include, but not be limited to:

(a) Procedures for processing claims of the counties for reimbursement by the state for expenditures made by the counties that include requirements for reports, including fiscal reports, required under section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17);

(b) Procedures by which county liability for supplemental aid may be deducted from state liability to the county under any other public assistance program authorized by law;

(c) Procedures by which the local agencies may contract with the commissioner of human services for state administration of supplemental aid.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256E.05, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL DUTIES.] The commissioner shall also:

(a) Provide necessary forms and instructions to the counties for plan format and information;

(b) Identify and then amend or repeal the portions of all applicable department rules which mandate counties to provide specific community social services or programs, unless state or federal law requires the commissioner to mandate a service or program. The commissioner shall be exempt from the rulemaking provisions of chapter 14 in amending or repealing rules pursuant to this clause. However, when the commissioner proposes to amend or repeal any rule under the authority granted by this clause, notice shall be provided by publication in the State Register. When the commissioner proposes to amend a rule, the notice shall include that portion of the existing rule necessary to provide adequate notice of the nature of the proposed change. On proposing to repeal an entire rule, the commissioner need only publish that fact, giving the exact citation to the rule to be repealed. In all cases, the notice shall contain a statement indicating that interested persons may submit comment on the proposed repeal or amendment for a period of 30 days after publication of the notice. The commissioner shall take no final action until after the close of the comment period. The commissioner's actions shall not be effective until five days after the commissioner publishes notice of adoption in the State Register. If the final action is the same as the action originally proposed, publication may be made by notice in the State Register that the amendment and repeals have been adopted as proposed, and by citing the prior publication. If the final action differs from the action as previously proposed in the State Register, the text which differs from the original proposal shall be included in the notice of adoption together with a citation to the prior State Register publication. The commissioner shall provide to all county boards separate notice of all final actions which become effective under this clause, advising the boards with respect to services or programs which have now become optional, to be provided at county discretion;

(c) Provide to the chair of each county board, in addition to notice required pursuant to sections 14.05 to 14.36, timely advance notice and a written summary of the fiscal impact of any proposed new rule or changes in existing rule which will have the effect of increasing county costs for community social services;

(d) (c) Provide training, technical assistance, and other support services to county boards to assist in needs assessment, planning, implementing, and monitoring social services programs in the counties;

(e) (d) Design and implement a method of monitoring and evaluating social services, including site visits that utilize quality control audits to assure county compliance with applicable standards, guidelines, and the county and state social services plans;

(f) (e) Design and implement a system that uses corrective action procedures as established in subdivision 5 and a schedule of fines to ensure county compliance with statutes, rules, federal laws, and federal regulations governing community social services. In determining the amount of the fine, the commissioner may consider the number of community social services clients or applicants affected by the county's failure to comply with the law or rule, the severity of the noncompliance, and the duration of the noncompliance as determined by the commissioner. Fines levied against a county under this subdivision must not exceed ten percent of the county's community social services allocation for the year in which the fines are levied;

(f) Design and implement an incentive program for the benefit of counties that perform at a level that consistently meets or exceeds the minimum standards in law and rule. Fines collected under paragraph (e) may be placed in an incentive fund and used for the benefit of counties that meet and exceed the minimum standards;

(g) Specify requirements for reports, including fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17), to account for aids distributed under section 256E.06, funds from Title XX of the Social Security Act distributed under Minnesota Statutes, section 256E.07, claims under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, mental health funding, and other social service expenditures and activities;

(h) Annually publish a report on community social services which shall reflect the contents of the individual county reports. The report shall be submitted to the governor and the legislature with an evaluation of community social services and recommendations for changes needed to fully implement state social service policies; and

(g) (i) Request waivers from federal programs as necessary to implement sections 256E.01 to 256E.12.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256E.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [REDUCTION OF FEDERAL FISCAL SANCTIONS.] The commissioner shall establish and maintain a monitoring program designed to reduce the possibility of noncompliance with federal laws and federal regulations that may result in federal fiscal sanctions. If a county is not complying with federal law or federal regulation and the noncompliance may result in federal fiscal sanctions, the commissioner may withhold a portion of the county's share of state and federal funds for that program. The amount withheld must be equal to the percentage difference between the level of compliance maintained by the county and the level of compliance required by the federal regulations, multiplied by the county's share of state and federal funds for the program. The state and federal funds may be withheld until the county is found to be in compliance with all federal laws or federal regulations applicable to the program. If a county remains out of compliance for more than six consecutive months, the commissioner may reallocate the funds withheld to counties that are in compliance with the federal regulations.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256E.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [CORRECTIVE ACTION PROCEDURE.] The commissioner must comply with the following procedures when imposing fines under subdivision 3, paragraph (e), or reducing county funds under subdivision 4.

(a) The commissioner shall notify the county, by certified mail, of the statute, rule, federal law, or federal regulation with which the county has not complied.

(b) The commissioner shall give the county 30 days to demonstrate to the commissioner that the county is in compliance with the statute, rule, federal law, or federal regulation cited in the notice or to develop a corrective action plan to address the problem. Upon request from the county, the commissioner shall provide technical assistance to the county in developing a corrective action plan. The county shall have 30 days from the date the technical assistance is provided to develop the corrective action plan.

(c) The commissioner shall take no further action if the county demonstrates compliance.

(d) The commissioner shall review and approve or disapprove the corrective action plan within 30 days after the commissioner receives the corrective action plan.

(e) If the commissioner approves the corrective action plan submitted by the county, the county has 90 days after the date of approval to implement the corrective action plan.

(f) If the county fails to demonstrate compliance or fails to implement the corrective action plan approved by the commissioner, the commissioner may fine the county according to subdivision 3, paragraph (e), or may reduce the county's share of state or federal funds according to subdivision 4.

(g) The commissioner may not impose a fine or reduce funds under this subdivision if the county demonstrates that the commissioner failed to provide the technical assistance identified in the corrective action plan as needed to enable the county to comply with the requirements.

(h) The county may appeal the fine or the reduction in funds under section 256E.06, subdivision 10.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256E.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [COUNTY OBLIGATION TO FUND COMMUNITY SOCIAL SERVICES.] Counties subject to a fine or reduction of funds under subdivision 5, paragraph (f), shall not reduce the level of funding of community social services to cover the cost of the fine or reduction of funds.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256E.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESPONSIBILITIES.] The county board of each county shall be responsible for administration, planning and funding of community social services. Each county board shall singly or in combination with other county boards as provided in section 256E.09 prepare a social services plan and shall update the plan biennially. Upon final approval of the plan by the county board or boards, the plan shall be submitted to the commissioner. The county board shall distribute money available pursuant to sections 256E.06 and 256E.07 for community social services.

The authority and responsibilities of county boards for social services for groups of persons identified in section 256E.03, subdivision 2, shall include contracting for or directly providing:

(1) information about the symptoms and characteristics of specific problems of the identified groups to increase understanding and acceptance by the general public, to help alleviate fears of seeking help, and to enable access to appropriate assistance;

(2) an assessment of the needs of each person applying for assistance which estimates the nature and extent of the problem to be addressed and identifies the means available to meet the person's needs. These diagnostic and evaluation activities shall evaluate the functioning of each person with regard to an illness or disability, screen for placement, and determine the need for services;

(3) protection aimed at alleviating urgent needs of each person by determining urgent need, shielding persons in hazardous conditions when they are unable to care for themselves, and providing urgently needed assistance;

(4) supportive and rehabilitative activities that assist each person to function at the highest level of independence possible for the person, preferably without removing the person from home. These activities include both increasing the client's level of functioning and maintaining current levels of functioning;

(5) a means of facilitating access of physically handicapped or impaired persons to activities appropriate to their needs; and

(6) administrative activities to coordinate and facilitate the effective use of formal and informal helping systems to best address client needs and goals. This includes assisting the client in making informed decisions about opportunities and services, assuring timely access to needed assistance, providing opportunities and encouragement for self-help activities, and coordinating all services to meet the client's needs and goals. County case management shall be responsible for determining appropriate care and activities.

If, after appropriate notice, a county does not fulfill its responsibilities or is not in compliance with the applicable department rule, the commissioner shall certify a reduction of up to 20 percent of the county's annual community social services act funding, or an equivalent amount from state administrative aids, and the state shall assume the responsibilities in this subdivision. When a county is notified of this action, it may appeal according to the provisions in section 256E.06, subdivision 10.

A county board may delegate to a county welfare board established under chapter 393 authority to provide or approve contracts for the purchase of the kinds of community social services that were provided or contracted for by the county welfare boards before the enactment of Laws 1979, chapter 324. The county board must determine how citizens will participate in the planning process, give final approval to the community social services plan, and distribute community social services money.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256E.08, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [FINANCIAL REPORTING BY COUNTIES.] Beginning in calendar year 1980 each county shall submit to the commissioner of human services a financial accounting of the county's community social services fund. A quarterly statement shall be submitted no later than 15 days after the end of the calendar quarter, and, and other data required by the commissioner under section 256E.05, subdivision 3, paragraph (g), shall include:

(a) A detailed statement of income and expenses attributable to the fund in the preceding quarter; and

(b) A statement of the source and application of all money used for social services programs by the county during the preceding quarter, including the number of clients served and expenditures for each service provided, as required by the commissioner of human services.

In addition, each county shall submit to the commissioner of human services no later than February 15 of each year, a detailed balance sheet of the community social development fund for the preceding calendar year.

If county boards have joined or designated human service boards for purposes of providing community social services programs, the county boards may submit a joint statement or the human service board shall submit the statement, as applicable.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256E.12, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner shall allocate grants under this section to finance up to 90 percent of each county's costs for services to persons with serious and persistent mental illness. The commissioner shall promulgate permanent rules to govern grant applications, approval of applications, allocation of grants, and maintenance of financial statements by grant recipients. The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). The commissioner shall require collection of data and periodic reports as the commissioner deems necessary to demonstrate the effectiveness of the services in helping persons with serious and persistent mental illness remain and function in their own communities.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256F.06, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL STATEMENT BY COUNTIES REPORTING.] A county receiving a permanency planning grant shall submit to the commissioner an accounting of the county's expenditures of grant money. A quarterly statement must be submitted no later than 15 days after the end of the calendar quarter and The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). The reports must include:

(1) a detailed statement of expenses attributable to the grant during the preceding quarter; and

(2) a statement of the expenditure of money for placement prevention and family reunification services by the county during the preceding quarter, including the number of clients served and the expenditures, by client, for each service provided.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [QUARTERLY REPORTS.] The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). Counties and post-secondary educational systems shall submit on forms prescribed by the commissioner a quarterly financial and program activity report which is due 20 calendar days after the end of each quarter. The financial and program activity report must include:

(1) a detailed accounting of the expenditures and revenues for the program during the preceding quarter by funding source and by eligibility group;

(2) a description of activities and concomitant expenditures that are federally reimbursable under the AFDC employment special needs program;

(3) a description of activities and concomitant expenditures of set-aside money;

(4) information on money encumbered at the quarter's end but not yet reimbursable, for use in adjusting allocations as provided in section 256H.05, subdivision 4; 256H.06, subdivision 3; and 256H.07, subdivision 3; and

(5) other data the commissioner considers necessary to account for the program or to evaluate its effectiveness in preventing and reducing participants' dependence on public assistance and in providing other benefits, including improvement in the care provided to children.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 257.3575, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [QUARTERLY REPORT.] The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). Each quarter, an approved program receiving an Indian child welfare grant shall submit a report to the commissioner that includes:

(1) a detailed accounting of grant money expended during the preceding quarter, specifying expenditures by line item and year to date; and

(2) a description of Indian child welfare activities conducted during the preceding quarter, including the number of clients served and the type of services provided.

The quarterly reports must be submitted no later than 15 30 days after the end of each quarter of the state fiscal year.”

"Section 1. [WALKER BROOK LAKE IMPROVEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION.] $2,000,000 is appropriated from the state building fund to the commissioner of natural resources to make a loan to the Red Lake watershed district to construct an improved and enlarged lake on Walker Brook, Clearwater county. Loan money may be used to engineer the project, acquire land, construct utilities, and relocate housing. Loan money must not be used for normal operation of the district or for any other project.

Subd. 2. [CONDITIONS.] (a) Before any actual construction, the Red Lake watershed district and Clearwater county shall prepare an official land use plan covering all lands lying within 2,000 feet of the future ordinary high water mark of the lake. The land use plan must be approved by the board of managers of Red Lake watershed district, the board of commissioners of Clearwater county, the commissioner of natural resources, the pollution control agency, and the board of water and soil resources. No change or variance in the plan may be made without the approval of these entities.

(b) Before any actual construction, the Red Lake watershed district shall get all necessary permits from all regulating agencies including Clearwater county, the Red Lake watershed district, the department of natural resources, the Minnesota pollution control agency, the Minnesota health department, and the United States Army Corps of Engineers.

(c) This loan is subject to review by the attorney general and audit by the legislative auditor and state auditor.

Subd. 3. [ASSESSMENT.] (a) The Red Lake watershed district shall assess the project costs for which Clearwater county is liable under this section to lands benefited by the project. The Red Lake watershed district by resolution of the board of managers may defer the collection of the levy for the assessment on any portion of the benefited lands until it is developed, sold, or subdivided, whichever occurs first.

(b) The Red Lake watershed district shall, in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 112, appoint appraisers who will view the project and assign appropriate benefits. The Red Lake watershed district shall then prepare a deferred assessment roll reflecting what the benefits will be when the deferred assessments are paid. The assessments, when paid to Clearwater county, must be forwarded to the commissioner of natural resources, who shall deposit them in the state treasury and credit them to the state bond fund, unless otherwise directed by law.

Subd. 4. [BOND AUTHORIZATION.] To provide the money appropriated in this act from the state building fund the commissioner of finance on request of the governor shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $2,000,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.631 to 16A.675, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 82A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION CONTENTS.] The application for registration shall include:

(1) an irrevocable appointment of the commissioner to receive service of any lawful process as required by section 82A.22, subdivision 1;

(2) the name of the campground, the membership camping operator's name and the address of its principal place of business, the form, date of organization, and jurisdiction of its organization; and the name and address of each of its offices in this state;

(3) a copy of the membership camping operator's articles of incorporation, partnership agreement, or joint venture agreement as contemplated or currently in effect;

(4) the name, address, and principal occupation for the past five years of the membership camping operator and of each controlling person of the membership camping operator, and the extent and nature of each such person's interest in the membership camping operator as of a specified date within 30 days prior to the filing of the application;

(5) a statement indicating whether or not the membership camping operator, or any of the persons identified in clause (4), within the past ten years has been:

(i) convicted of a felony; or

(ii) enjoined or received any adverse administrative order relating to the sale of securities, land, or campgrounds or based on violations of any consumer protection statutes. If any of the above has occurred, the name of the person involved, the jurisdiction, offense, and date of the offense shall be listed;

(6) a legal description of each campground owned or operated in this state by the membership camping operator which is represented to be available for use by purchasers, and a map or maps showing the location of all campgrounds, wherever located, which are owned or operated by the membership camping operator and represented to be available for use by purchasers, and a statement identifying the existing amenities at each such campground and the planned amenities represented as to be available for use by purchasers in the future at each such campground;

(7) the states or jurisdictions in which an application for registration or similar document has been filed by the membership camping operator pursuant to any statute similar to this chapter regulating membership camping contracts and any adverse order, judgment, or decree entered against the operator in connection with membership camping contracts by any regulatory authority in any jurisdiction or by any court;

(8) a statement of the condition of the title to the campground owned or operated in this state by the membership camping operator and represented to be available for use by purchasers, including all encumbrances, deed restrictions, and covenants applicable thereto with data as to recording, as of a specified date within 30 days prior to the date of application, by a title opinion of a licensed attorney or by a title insurance policy, naming the operator or lender as beneficiaries and issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in this state, or by any evidence of title acceptable to the commissioner;

(9) copies of the instruments by which the membership camping operator's interest in the campgrounds in this state was acquired;

(10) copies of all recorded or unrecorded instruments, known to the membership campground operator, that evidence blanket encum-brances that materially adversely affect the campgrounds in this state;

(11) if there is a blanket encumbrance which materially adversely affects the campgrounds located in this state, a legal description of the encumbrance, and a description of the steps taken to protect purchasers, in accordance with section 82A.14, clause (1), in case of failure to discharge the lien or encumbrance;

(12) evidence showing compliance with the zoning and other applicable environmental or land use laws, ordinances, and rules affecting the use of the campgrounds located in this state;

(13) a statement of the existing and planned provisions for the following with respect to campgrounds located in this state:

(i) purchasers' access to the campgrounds;

(ii) the availability of sewage disposal facilities and other public utilities, including but not limited to water, electricity, gas, and telephone facilities in the campgrounds;

(iii) the proximity of community fire and police protection;

(iv) a statement of the amenities which will be represented to purchasers as guaranteed to be constructed or installed, whether the operator will be responsible for their cost, installation and maintenance and an estimated cost of and schedule for completion of the same; provided that the estimated completion dates need not be more precise than the year in which completion is estimated to occur, and may be extended for the period of any delays caused by or deferred due to the occurrence of events such as acts of God, strikes, and other causes outside the reasonable control of the membership camping operator; and assurance that such amenities will be completed by filing a bond or irrevocable letter of credit, depositing funds in an escrow account, or such other provision as the commissioner may by order allow. The amount of the bond or escrow account shall be reduced monthly in proportion to the amount paid for completion of the amenities during such period. The bond, letter of credit, or escrow account shall be issued or held by a bank or insurance or surety company authorized to do business in this state;

(v) a statement of the amenities to be represented to purchasers as planned for construction and installation, but not guaranteed, whether the operator will be responsible for their costs, installation, and maintenance, and an estimated cost of and schedule for completion of the same; provided that the estimated completion dates need not be more precise than the year in which completion is estimated to occur and may be extended for the period of any delays caused by or deferred due to the occurrence of events such as acts of God, strikes, and other causes outside the reasonable control of the membership camping operator;

(14) the proposed disclosure statement as required by section 82A.05, subdivision 1, and the proposed separate disclosure, if applicable, as required by section 82A.05, subdivision 6;

(15) a financial statement of the membership camping operator as of the end of the membership camping operator's most recent fiscal year, prepared by an independent public accountant and certified by the camping operator; and, if the fiscal year end of the membership camping operator is in excess of 180 days prior to the date of filing the application, a financial statement, which may be unaudited, as of a date within 180 days of the date of application;

(16) a statement of the applicable material permits, other than building permits, not yet obtained but required to be obtained from various federal, state, and local agencies to operate the membership campground in this state, stating which have been applied for. If any permit has been refused, the reasons for the refusal and the effect the refusal will have on subsequent development of the campgrounds must be disclosed;

(17) a copy of each type of membership camping contract to be sold in this state, the purchase price of each type and, if the price varies, the reason for the variance;

(18) the number of membership camping contracts proposed to be sold at each campground located in this state and a statement describing the method used to determine the number;

(19) rules of general applicability governing use and occupancy of the campgrounds; but not including any temporary or emergency rules, or any rules adopted in response to unique local or immediate needs;

(20) copies of applications for and contracts with any reciprocal program entity in which the membership camping operator is to participate and represents as available for use by purchasers;

(21) information concerning purchase or lease costs, rules, forms, and any fees, other than the initial membership fee and annual dues, which are required for purchaser usage of in-park trailers, recreational vehicles, tents, or other overnight accommodations, provided by or through the membership camping operator, for purchasers as an alternative to using the purchaser's own mobile accommodations; and

(22) any additional information the commissioner reasonably deems appropriate to administer the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 82A.13, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FRAUD.] No person shall, in connection with the offer or sale of any membership camping contract, directly or indirectly:

- (1) employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;
- (2) make any untrue statement of a material fact, or omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading; or
- (3) engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person; or
- (4) accept an advance payment for services rendered by an agent in connection with the resale of a membership camping contract.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 83.20, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. "Advance payment" means any money paid in advance regardless of its descriptive nomenclature, including but not limited to, management fee, listing, security, or advance fee or payment in connection with the resale of a timeshare interest.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 83.30, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FORM; DUE DATE.] During the period a registration is effective, the subdivider shall file an annual report in a format the commissioner may by rule prescribe. The report must include a financial statement of the subdivider's most recent fiscal year, prepared by an accountant and certified by the subdivider. An audited financial statement shall not be required. Every annual report shall be due by the 120th day following the end of the subdivider's fiscal year, unless extended in writing by the commissioner for good cause.

The rulemaking authority in this subdivision does not include emergency rulemaking authority pursuant to chapter 14.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 5 is effective retroactive to January 1, 1989, and applies to any report due on or after that date."

"Sec. 4. [COMBINED HEARINGS.]

The Minneapolis city council may conduct the hearing on the improvement required by Minnesota Statutes, section 429.031, and the hearing on the assessments required by Minnesota Statutes, section 429.061, at the same time pursuant to notices which include all of the information required by both sections. If the council proceeds in this manner, the proposed assessments shall be calculated on the basis of the engineer's estimate and other estimates of the council. If the actual cost of the improvement is less than the estimated cost adopted by the council or portion of it determined to be paid from special assessments, the council must provide for the cancellation and annulment or refunding of assessments in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 430.07, subdivision 5, or section 435.203.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 430.07, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [MISTAKEN ESTIMATES.] If, in proceedings under this chapter, the actual cost of the improvement of a street, park, or parkway is less than the estimated cost adopted by the city council, the council shall cancel and annul the assessments made in the proceedings to a total amount that does not exceed the fractional part of the total amount of the excess of estimated cost over the actual cost equivalent to the fraction obtained by dividing the total amount of the assessments by the total amount of the estimated cost.

If the assessments in a proceeding have not been entirely collected, or if the city council considers that assessments cannot be fully collected, the council may direct the city comptroller to keep in the fund in the proceeding an amount the city council thinks will cover the deficiencies in the collection of the assessments. The city council shall direct that the rest of the excess of estimated cost must be disposed of in the following manner. The city council shall direct the city comptroller to certify the amount of this balance to the county auditor. The auditor shall deduct the amount from the first installment of the assessment to be collected after the receipt of the certificate. This deduction must be made from the assessment against each piece or parcel of property in the proportion that the excess, as certified by the city comptroller, bears to the total of the installment of the assessment. If the balance as certified exceeds one installment, it must be deducted from succeeding installments until it is fully deducted. Alternatively, the city council may direct that the city comptroller's certification of the excess be accompanied by a request that the excess be applied to reduce all unpaid installments in proportion to the amount of such unpaid installments. In that case, the assessment rolls shall be recomputed by reducing the amount of the original assessment against each piece or parcel of property in the proportion that the excess, as certified by the city comptroller, bears to the total original assessment. The balance for each piece or parcel of property, after deduction of principal installments previously paid or in the process of collection, shall then be divided into equal annual installments of principal or equal annual installments of principal and interest, whichever method was used for the original assessments. The same rate of interest and collection period shall apply to the new installments as was provided for the original assessment.

If the assessment against a piece or parcel of property has been paid in full, and the amount to be refunded does not exceed $1, the city council may deposit the amount of the potential refund in the city's permanent improvement fund or bond redemption fund.

If the amount to be refunded exceeds $1, but does not exceed $20, the city comptroller shall mail to the current owner of the property a notice stating that the refund is available. The notice must be mailed within 60 days after the city council determines the actual cost of the improvement.

If the amount to be refunded exceeds $20 the following notice procedure must be followed. The city comptroller shall mail to the person who owned the property when the assessment was paid, at the person's last known address, a notice stating that the refund is available. The notice must be mailed within 60 days after the city council determines the actual cost of the improvement. If a response is not received from the owner within ten days of the date of mailing, a second notice must be mailed. If the refund is not claimed by the person who owned the property when the assessment was paid within 30 days of the date of mailing the last required notice, the city council may deposit the amount of the potential refund in the city's permanent improvement fund or bond redemption fund."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 97B.031, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION THAT MAY BE USED TO TAKE BIG GAME.] (a) A person may take big game with a firearm only if:

(1) the rifle, shotgun, and handgun used is a caliber of at least .23 inches;

(2) the firearm is loaded only with single projectile ammunition;

(3) a projectile used is a caliber of at least .23 inches and has a soft point or is an expanding bullet type;

(4) the ammunition has a case length of at least 1.285 inches;

(5) the muzzle-loader used is incapable of being loaded at the breech;

(6) the smooth-bore muzzle-loader used is a caliber of at least .45 inches; and

(7) the rifled muzzle-loader used is a caliber of at least .40 inches.

(b) A person may not take big game with a .30 caliber M-1 carbine cartridge.

(c) A person may take big game with a ten millimeter cartridge.

Sec. 2. [97B.603] [SMALL GAME PARTY HUNTING.]

While two or more persons are hunting small game as a party and maintaining unaided visual and vocal contact, a member of the party may take and possess more than one limit of small game, but the total number of small game taken and possessed by the party may not exceed the limit of the number of persons in the party that may take and possess small game.

Sec. 3. [97C.317] [FISHING AS A PARTY.]

While two or more persons are taking fish by angling as a party, the total number of fish taken and the total number of fish possessed by the party may not exceed the limit of the number of persons in the party that may take and possess fish by angling. For the purpose of this section a party means, for persons who are not on the water that the persons are maintaining unaided visual and vocal contact, and for persons who are on the water that the persons are angling from a single watercraft.

Kalis from the Committee on Transportation to which was referred:

S. F. No. 388, A resolution memorializing the President and Congress to enact legislation to allow the use of flexible highway design standards in the interstate highway 35W corridor, to make federal money available for a light rail transit system, and to make funds available for the completion and repair of federal aid highways.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the title and insert:

“Whereas, activities have been undertaken, including the preparation of a draft environmental impact statement, which may eventually lead to a major highway construction project in the corridor of interstate highway 35W in the cities of Minneapolis, Richfield, Bloomington, and Burnsville; and

Whereas, these activities have generated apprehensiveness in established residential neighborhoods concerning the potential disruption which a major construction project would produce; and

Whereas, the interstate highway 35W corridor presents an opportunity to deal with urban freeway traffic congestion in a creative manner by examining alternatives which could avoid the necessity of adding new freeway lanes north of the intersection of interstate highway 35W and interstate highway 494; and

Whereas, the use of intensive traffic management techniques, accident reduction and mitigation strategies, and increased transit use through existing and new modes hold the potential of substantially expanding the corridor’s capacity for moving traffic without disrupting neighborhoods with extensive new construction; and

Whereas, the Congress of the United States has once before recognized a unique transportation situation in the Twin Cities metropolitan area by authorizing federal funding in a “high density urban highway intermodal transportation connection” demonstration project in the trunk highway 55 corridor in the city of Minneapolis; and

Whereas, the Congress of the United States can again recognize a unique transportation situation by authorizing greater flexibility for the state of Minnesota in using federal funds made available for improvements on interstate highway 35W and more flexible design standards in making such improvements; and

Whereas, greater flexibility in the use of federal funds and the use of flexible highway design standards in the interstate highway 35W corridor would test whether a combination of new and enhanced transit and new and intensive traffic management techniques can reduce the need for increased highway capacity; and

Whereas, greater flexibility in fund use and design standards would encourage the implementation of transit and shared ride facilities such as high occupancy vehicle lanes and bypasses of freeway meters, and allow for flexibility in implementing the stages of the project; and

Whereas, greater flexibility in fund use and design standards could result in substantial cost savings for both the state and federal governments as well as limiting the potential adverse impact caused by new urban freeway construction; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota that the Congress of the United States is urged to enact, and the President of the United States is urged to approve, legislation authorizing greater flexibility in the use by the state of Minnesota of federal funds made available for improvements on interstate highway 35W than is now allowed under the federal 4-R program, including the use of flexible design standards and the use of these federal funds for transportation system management techniques and transit promotion.

Be It Further Resolved that the Congress of the United States make sufficient highway funds available to the states so that Minnesota and other states can proceed to timely completion of the interstate system and needed reconstruction and repair of federal aid highways.

Be It Further Resolved that since light rail transit has great potential in the metropolitan area to alleviate freeway congestion and increase the capacity to efficiently move people, the Legislature of the State of Minnesota urges Congress and the President to make federal grant money available to the regional rail authorities for design, construction, and capital costs of a light rail transit system.

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota is directed to prepare certified copies of this resolution and to transmit them to the President of the United States, the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker and Chief Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, and to Minnesota's Senators and Representatives in Congress."

"(d) The joint board shall complete the first part of the management plan by January 1, 1990. The first part consists of a system-wide capital development and financial plan, which must include the following elements:

(1) a statement of objectives for capital development for a prospective ten-year period, describing priorities and needs based on capacity requirements and ridership projections for the various segments of the system, the total capital costs, and a general plan and recommendations for long-term capital financing;

(2) a five-year capital improvements plan, setting forth a schedule of specific capital improvements and acquisitions for a five-year period following the commencement of construction of facilities;

(3) a five-year financial plan showing, for the improvements and acquisitions scheduled in the capital improvements plan: (i) the anticipated capital expenditures, (ii) total annual debt service requirements, (iii) anticipated annual operating costs, (iv) anticipated annual operating revenues based on ridership projections, both for total riders and for new riders attributable to the light rail facilities, (v) annual operating subsidy levels, and (vi) policies and recommendations on the source of funds for capital expenditures, debt service, and the operating subsidy, including the share of the subsidy to be paid by regional railroad authorities; and

(4) a general plan for organizing and coordinating acquisition, construction, ownership, and operation of the system, including in particular, coordination of vehicle specifications, provisions for a single light rail transit operator for the system, and the organization and coordination method required if a turn-key approach to facility acquisition is used by a regional railroad authority.

For any segments of rail line that may be constructed below the surface elevation, the financial plan must estimate the additional capital costs, debt service, and subsidy level that are attributable to the below grade construction.

(e) The joint board shall complete the second part of the management plan by July 1, 1990. The second part consists of a system-wide implementation plan, which must include the following elements:"

No. 1532, A bill for an act relating to utilities; low-income energy needs; designating the department of public service as the agency responsible for coordinating energy policy for low-income Minnesotans; requiring the department to gather certain information on low-income energy programs; prescribing certain uses for oil overcharge money; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 216B.241, subdivisions 1 and 2; 216C.02, subdivision 1; 216C.10; 216C.11; 216C.27, by adding a subdivision; and 504.185, by adding a subdivision; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 216B.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [216B.095] [DISCONNECTION DURING COLD WEATHER.]

The commission shall amend its rules governing disconnection of residential utility customers who are unable to pay for utility service during cold weather to include the following:

(1) coverage of customers whose household income is less than 185 percent of the federal poverty level;

(2) a requirement that a customer who pays the utility at least ten percent of the customer's income or the full amount of the utility bill, whichever is less, in a cold weather month cannot be disconnected during that month;

(3) that the ten percent figure in clause (2) must be prorated between energy providers where the customer receives service from more than one provider;

(4) that a customer's household income does not include any amount received for energy assistance;

(5) verification of income by the local energy assistance provider, unless the customer is automatically eligible as a recipient of any form of public assistance, including energy assistance, that uses income eligibility in an amount at or below the income eligibility in clause (1); and

(6) a requirement that the customer receive, from the local energy assistance provider or other entity, budget counseling and referral to weatherization, conservation, or other programs likely to reduce the customer's consumption of energy.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.241, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision shall have the meanings given them:

(a) "Commission" means the public utilities commission, department of public service;

(b) "Department" means the department of public service;

(c) "Energy conservation improvement" means the purchase or installation of any device, method or material that increases the efficiency in the use of electricity or natural gas including, but not limited to:

(1) insulation and ventilation;

(2) storm or thermal doors or windows;

(3) caulking and weatherstripping;

(4) furnace efficiency modifications;

(5) thermostat or lighting controls;

(6) awnings; or

(7) systems to turn off or vary the delivery of energy. The term "energy conservation improvement" includes any device or method which creates, converts or actively uses energy from renewable sources such as solar, wind and biomass providing such device or method conforms with national or state performance and quality standards whenever applicable.

(e) (d) "Investments and expenses of a public utility" includes the investments and expenses incurred by a public utility in connection with an energy conservation improvement including, but not limited to:

(1) the differential in interest cost between the market rate and the rate charged on a no interest or below market interest loan made by a public utility to a customer for the purchase or installation of an energy conservation improvement;

(2) the difference between the utility's cost of purchase or installation of energy conservation improvements and any price charged by a public utility to a customer for such improvements.

(d) (e) "Public utility" has the same meaning as given that term in section 216B.02, subdivision 4. For the purposes of this section, "public utility" shall not include cooperative electric associations that become subject to rate regulation after April 16, 1980.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.241, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROGRAMS.] The ~~commission~~ department may order by rule require public utilities to make investments and expenditures in energy conservation improvements, explicitly setting forth the interest rates, prices, and terms under which the improvements shall be offered to the customers. The required programs must cover a two-year period. The ~~commission~~ department shall order require at least one public utility to establish a pilot program to make investments in and expenditures for energy from renewable resources such as solar, wind, or biomass. The ~~commission~~ department shall evaluate the program on the basis of cost-effectiveness and the reliability of technologies employed. The order rules of the ~~commission~~ shall department must provide to the extent practicable for a free choice, by consumers participating in the program, of the device, method, or material constituting the energy conservation improvement and for a free choice of the seller, installer, or contractor of the energy conservation improvement, provided that the device, method, material, seller, installer, or contractor is duly licensed, certified, approved, or qualified, including under the residential conservation services program, where applicable. The ~~commission~~ department may order require a utility to make an energy conservation improvement investment or expenditure whenever the ~~commission~~ department finds that the improvement will result in energy savings at a total cost to the utility less than the cost to the utility to produce or purchase an equivalent amount of new supply of energy. The commission department shall nevertheless insure that every public utility with operating revenues in excess of $50,000,000 operate one or more programs, under periodic review by the commission department, which that make significant investments in and expenditures for energy conservation improvements. The department shall consider and may require a utility to undertake a program suggested by an outside source, including a political subdivision or a nonprofit or community organization. The commission department shall give special consideration to ensure that at least half the money spent on residential programs is devoted to programs that directly address the needs of renters and low income families and individuals. Provisions of the previous sentences shall expire on January 1, 1993. For purposes of this section, "low income" means an income less than 185 percent of the federal poverty level. Investments and expenditures made pursuant to an order shall under this subdivision must be treated for ratemaking purposes in the manner prescribed in section 216B.16, subdivision 6b. No utility shall make an energy conservation improvement pursuant to this section to a building envelope unless it is the primary supplier of energy used for either space heating or cooling in the building. A utility, a political subdivision, or a nonprofit or community organization that has suggested a program, or the attorney general acting on behalf of consumers and small business interests, may petition the commission to modify or revoke a department decision to require a program under this subdivision, and the commission may do so if it determines that the program is ineffective, does not adequately address the needs of renters and low-income families and individuals, or is otherwise not in the public interest. The person petitioning for commission review has the burden of proof. The commission shall reject a petition that, on its face, fails to make a reasonable argument that a program is not in the public interest.

The commission shall allow a utility to recover expenses resulting from a conservation improvement program required by the department.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216C.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POWERS.] (a) The commissioner may:

(1) apply for, receive, and spend money received from federal, municipal, county, regional, and other government agencies and private sources;

(2) apply for, accept, and disburse grants and other aids from public and private sources;

(3) contract for professional services if work or services required or authorized to be carried out by the commissioner cannot be satisfactorily performed by employees of the department or by another state agency;

(4) enter into interstate compacts to carry out research and planning jointly with other states or the federal government when appropriate;

(5) upon reasonable request, distribute informational material at no cost to the public; and

(6) enter into contracts for the performance of the commissioner's duties with federal, state, regional, metropolitan, local, and other agencies or units of government and educational institutions, including the University of Minnesota, without regard to the competitive bidding requirements of chapters 16A and 16B.

(b) The commissioner shall collect information on conservation and other energy-related programs carried on by other agencies, by public utilities, by cooperative electric associations, by municipal power agencies, by other fuel suppliers, by political subdivisions, and by private organizations. Other agencies and political subdivisions shall cooperate with the commissioner by providing information requested by the commissioner. The commissioner may by rule require the submission of information by other program operators. The commissioner shall make the information available to other agencies and to the public and, as necessary, shall recommend to the legislature changes in the laws governing conservation and other energy-related programs to ensure that:

(1) expenditures on the programs are adequate to meet identified needs;

(2) the needs of low-income energy users are being adequately addressed;

(3) duplication of effort is avoided or eliminated;

(4) a program that is ineffective is improved or eliminated; and

(5) voluntary efforts are encouraged through incentives for their operators. The commissioner shall appoint an advisory task force to help evaluate the information collected and formulate recommendations to the legislature. The task force must include low-income energy users as defined in section 216B.241, subdivision 2.

(c) By January 15 of each year, the commissioner shall report to the legislature on the projected amount of federal money likely to be available to the state during the next fiscal year, including grant money and money received by the state as a result of litigation or settlements of alleged violations of federal petroleum pricing regulations. The report must also estimate the amount of money projected as needed during the next fiscal year to finance a level of conservation and other energy-related programs adequate to meet projected needs, particularly the needs of low-income persons and households, and must recommend the amount of state appropriations needed to cover the difference between the projected availability of federal money and the projected needs.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216C.10, is amended to read:

216C.10 [POWERS.]

The commissioner may:

(a) (1) adopt rules pursuant to under chapter 14 as necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 216C.05 to 216C.30 and, when necessary for the purposes of section 216C.15, adopt emergency rules pursuant to under sections 14.29 to 14.36;

(b) (2) make all contracts pursuant to under sections 216C.05 to 216C.30 and do all things necessary to cooperate with the United States government, and to qualify for, accept, and disburse any grant intended for the administration of sections 216C.05 to 216C.30. Notwithstanding any other law the commissioner is designated the state agent to apply for, receive and accept federal or other funds made available to the state for the purposes of sections 216C.05 to 216C.30;

(c) (3) provide on-site technical assistance to units of local government in order to enhance local capabilities for dealing with energy problems;

(d) (4) administer for the state, energy programs pursuant to under federal law, regulations, or guidelines, except for the ~~crisis fuel~~ low-income home energy assistance program and low income low-income weatherization programs administered by the department of jobs and training, and coordinate the programs and activities with other state agencies, units of local government, and educational institutions;

(e) design and administer a statewide program for the energy and economic development authority and actively involve major organizations and community leaders in its work and shall solicit funds from all sources;

(f) (5) develop a state energy investment plan with yearly energy conservation and alternative energy development goals, investment targets, and marketing strategies;

(g) (6) perform market analysis studies relating to conservation, alternative and renewable energy resources, and energy recovery;

(h) (7) assist with the preparation of proposals for innovative conservation, renewable, alternative, or energy recovery projects;

(i) (8) manage and disburse funds made available for the purpose of research studies or demonstration projects related to energy conservation or other activities deemed appropriate by the commissioner;

(j) (9) intervene in certificate of need proceedings before the public utilities commission; and

(k) (10) collect fees from recipients of loans, grants, or other financial aid from money received from litigation or settlement of alleged violations of federal petroleum pricing regulations, which fees shall must be used to pay the department's costs in administering those financial aids.

Notwithstanding any other law, the commissioner is designated the state agent to apply for, receive, and accept federal or other funds made available to the state for the purposes of sections 216C.05 to 216C.30.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216C.11, is amended to read:

216C.11 [ENERGY CONSERVATION INFORMATION CENTER.]

The commissioner shall establish an energy information center in the department's offices in St. Paul. The information center shall maintain a toll-free telephone information service and disseminate printed materials on energy conservation topics, including but not limited to, availability of loans and other public and private financing methods for energy conservation physical improvements, the techniques and materials used to conserve energy in buildings, including retrofitting or upgrading insulation and installing weatherstripping, the projected prices and availability of different sources of energy, and alternative sources of energy.

The energy information center shall serve as the official Minnesota alcohol fuels information center and shall disseminate information, printed, by the toll-free telephone information service, or otherwise on the applicability and technology of alcohol fuels.

The information center shall include information on the potential hazards of energy conservation techniques and improvements in the printed materials disseminated. The commissioner shall not be liable for damages arising from the installation or operation of equipment or materials recommended by the information center.

The information center shall use the information collected under section 216C.02, subdivision 1, to maintain a central source of information on conservation and other energy-related programs, including both programs required by law or rule and programs developed and carried on voluntarily. In particular, the information center shall compile and maintain information on policies covering disconnections or denials of fuel during cold weather adopted by public utilities and other fuel suppliers not governed by Minnesota Rules, parts 7820.1500 to 7820.2300, including the number of households disconnected or denied fuel and the duration of the disconnections or denials.

Sec. 7. [OIL OVERCHARGE MONEY.]

Money received by the state after the effective date of this section as a result of the settlement of the parties and order of the United States District Court for the District of Kansas in the case of In Re Department of Energy Stripper-Well Exemption Litigation, 578 F. Supp. 586 (D. Kan. 1983), and other money received after the effective date of this section as a result of litigation or settlements of alleged violations of federal petroleum pricing regulations that is not otherwise dedicated by court order, as well as money previously received but not yet allocated by the effective date of this section, must be allocated one-half to energy conservation projects operated by the department of jobs and training that directly serve low-income Minnesotans for weatherization.

Sec. 8. [STUDY, CONSERVATION IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMS; GRANTS.]

The department of public service shall study the feasibility of requiring heating fuel suppliers, including fuel oil distributors and retailers and propane dealers, to undertake conservation improvement programs. In addition, the department shall study the feasibility of basing grants to low-income energy users on their total energy costs. The department shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 15, 1990.

Sec. 9. [CONSERVATION IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMS.]

Notwithstanding section 3, the department of public service may permit utilities governed by that section to carry on programs currently approved by the public utilities commission and the commission may continue to approve programs until the department has adopted rules and approved new programs to cover a two-year program beginning in 1990.

Sec. 10. [APPROPRIATION.]

$ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of jobs and training to be available until June 30, 1991. $ is to be used for purposes of the low-income weatherization assistance program, and $ is to be used for purposes of the energy assistance program.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 10 are effective July 1, 1989."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to utilities; low-income energy needs; designating the department of public service as the agency responsible for coordinating energy policy for low-income Minnesotans; requiring the department to gather certain information on low-income energy programs; prescribing certain uses for oil overcharge money; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 216B.241, subdivisions 1 and 2; 216C.02, subdivision 1; 216C.10; and 216C.11; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 216B."

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations.

The report was adopted.

H. F. No. 222, A bill for an act relating to health, human services, and corrections; establishing requirements to prevent overconcentration of residential facilities; requiring county plans for the dispersal and downsizing of facilities in overconcentrated areas; limiting municipal zoning restrictions on certain residential facilities; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 245A and 462; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 245A.11; and 462.357, subdivisions 6a, 7, and 8.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [245A.111] [OVERCONCENTRATION AND DISPERSAL OF RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) [STATE-LICENSED RESIDENTIAL FACILITY.] "State-licensed residential facility" means a program or facility licensed by the commissioner of health, the commissioner of human services, or the commissioner of corrections to provide lodging in conjunction with monitoring, supervision, treatment, rehabilitation, habilitation, education, or training of the residents in the facility. State-licensed residential facility does not include:

(1) a foster care program operated in the permanent residence of the license holder, or in which a client or the client's guardian owns, rents, or leases the home;

(2) a motel, hotel, or board and lodging facility licensed by the commissioner of health, unless the facility receives more than 50 percent of its residents under a contract or other arrangement with the state or a local government human services agency to provide lodging for people who are mentally ill or chemically dependent, or who have other human services needs;

(3) a hospital or nursing home licensed only by the commissioner of health;

(4) a regional treatment center as defined in section 246.50, subdivision 3, operated by the commissioner of human services;

(5) a municipal, county, or regional jail, workhouse, work release center, or juvenile detention facility, or a state correctional program operated by the commissioner of corrections;

(6) semi-independent living services for persons with mental retardation or related conditions or mental illness, if the license holder has no financial or ownership interest in the housing used by persons receiving the semi-independent living services;

(7) a residential school operated by the commissioner of education;
or

(8) a facility described in section 256B.431, subdivision 4, paragraph (c).

(b) [FREESTANDING FOSTER CARE PROGRAM.] "Free-standing foster care program" means a foster care program that is licensed by the commissioner of human services and that is not operated in the permanent residence of the license holder.

(c) [OVERCONCENTRATED AREA.] "Overconcentrated area" means a municipality or planning district with more than one percent of its population residing in state-licensed residential facilities. If a municipality has planning districts, the concentration percentage is determined for each district and not for the municipality as a whole. Municipal population is determined using the figures reported annually by the state demographer.

(d) [NURSING HOME.] "Nursing home" has the meaning given in section 256B.421, subdivision 7.

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS FOR SITING OF RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.] (a) To protect residents of state-licensed residential facilities from the potential detrimental impact of an overconcentration of facilities and to preserve the character of residential neighborhoods, the following requirements apply to the locations of state-licensed residential facilities:

(1) for facilities other than freestanding foster care programs, the facility must not be located within 450 feet of an existing freestanding foster care program or within 1,320 feet of another state-licensed residential facility or a facility described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (8);

(2) for freestanding foster care programs, the program must not be located within 450 feet of an existing state-licensed residential facility, including another freestanding foster care program, or a facility described in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (8);

(3) the facility must not be located within an overconcentrated area; and

(4) if the facility will be located in a multiple-family dwelling and does not have exclusive use of the dwelling, a total of no more than 25 percent of the units or the floor area in the building may be used by the facility. In the case of two- to four-family dwellings, if the facility does not have exclusive use of the dwelling, no more than one-half of the units may be used by the facility.

(b) At the request of a facility, county, city, or town, the licensing commissioner may waive one or more of the requirements of paragraph (a) if the commissioner is satisfied that the waiver will not be detrimental to the residents of affected facilities. A city or town may not submit a request for a waiver under this paragraph unless the local governing body has approved the request using the procedures for granting conditional use permits.

Subd. 3. [INITIAL LICENSES.] The commissioner of human services, the commissioner of health, and the commissioner of corrections shall not issue an initial license to an applicant for licensure as a state-licensed residential facility unless the licensing commissioner has granted a waiver for the facility or the facility satisfies the requirements of subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [DISPERSAL OF OVERCONCENTRATED PROGRAMS.] (a) By July 1, 1990, every county shall report to the commissioner of human services on the number, location, and type of state-licensed residential facilities located in the county and the extent to which the existing locations of the facilities satisfy the requirements of subdivision 2. If the existing locations of facilities do not satisfy the requirements of subdivision 2, the county shall submit with the report a plan for the dispersal, downsizing, and future siting of state-licensed residential facilities. A county may prepare a joint plan with other contiguous counties. In developing the plan, the counties shall solicit the participation of license holders, local zoning and land use planning authorities, consumers, advocacy groups, and the general public. The plan must be designed to achieve the objectives of this section and must include:

(1) specific target neighborhoods, data describing the extent to which each of the target neighborhoods is overconcentrated, and the addresses and licensed capacity of facilities in the target neighborhoods;

(2) a description of the specific actions the county will take to bring the county's state-licensed residential facilities into full compliance with subdivision 2 by January 1, 1996, including changes in client placement policies and procedures, the levels of concentration that will be achieved, timelines for achieving target levels of concentration, and the agency or agencies that will be responsible for carrying out each action;

(3) identification of priority areas for the siting of new facilities, including a description of the existing level of concentration in priority areas and the level of concentration that will exist after full implementation of the plan;

(4) specific plans for community and neighborhood education and public relations efforts to ease siting of facilities;

(5) a mechanism for soliciting and recording information about state-licensed residential facilities to be used in making decisions about dispersal, downsizing, and the awarding of county contracts, including samples of forms that will be used, methods for collecting information, and the objective criteria that will be used in decision making;

(6) plans for the coordinated development of related services, including projections of services that will be needed, a description of existing services in the priority areas for siting new facilities, timelines for developing needed services, a description of the methods that will be used to develop services, and the agency or agencies that will be responsible for developing needed services;

(7) the annualized, detailed costs of implementing the plan on forms provided by the commissioner;

(8) a statement of the standards and criteria that will be used to monitor and evaluate the implementation of the dispersal plan;

(9) provisions to ensure that no person in a state-licensed residential facility will be displaced as a result of the plan until a relocation plan has been implemented that provides for an acceptable alternative placement; and

(10) for counties required to submit plans, an annual report on the county's progress toward substantial compliance with the plan which is due on July 1 of each year following July 1, 1990.

(b) By September 1, 1989, the commissioner must provide counties with planning guidelines for preparing the plans and reports. The commissioner shall approve plans and reports required under paragraph (a) if they conform with the requirements of paragraph (a), they are prepared using forms and in a manner prescribed by the commissioner, and the commissioner determines that the plan will achieve the objectives of this section. The guidelines must be developed in consultation with the commissioners of health and corrections. The commissioner of human services shall provide copies of all plans and reports received under this subdivision to the commissioners of health and corrections. The commissioner of human services may not approve a county plan unless the plan has been approved by the commissioners of health and corrections. Within 90 days after receiving a plan or report, the commissioner shall certify whether the plan or report satisfies the requirements of this section.

(c) The commissioner may order a county that has not submitted a plan or report required under paragraph (a) to pay a fine. The commissioner shall notify the affected county of the order to pay the fine. The notice must be in writing and delivered by certified mail or personal service to the chair of the county board of commissioners or county human service board. The notice must state the reasons for ordering the fine. The notice must inform the county of the right to a contested case hearing under chapter 14. The county may appeal the commissioner's order by notifying the commissioner, by certified mail, within ten calendar days after receiving the commissioner's order.

(d) After January 1, 1991, the commissioner may order a county to pay a fine if the county does not have an approved plan. The notice and appeal provisions of paragraph (c) apply to orders issued under this paragraph.

(e) After July 1, 1991, the commissioner may order a county to pay a fine if the commissioner determines that the county has failed to make good faith efforts to implement the plan. The notice requirements of paragraph (c) apply to fines ordered under this paragraph. The notice must state the reasons for the commissioner's determination and must identify the specific actions the county must take to implement the plan. The notice must also include a timetable that sets deadlines for each required action that must be taken by the county to implement the plan. If the county fails to meet a deadline set in the commissioner's notice, the commissioner may order the county to pay an additional fine. The appeal provisions of paragraph (c) apply to fines ordered under this paragraph.

(f) The amount of the fine to be imposed by the commissioner under this section for each day of noncompliance is 20 percent of the county's annual allocation under chapter 256E, the community social services act, or $10,000, whichever is less.

(g) After January 1, 1991, the commissioner may develop or arrange for the development of a plan for any county that does not have an approved plan, and may impose the plan upon the county. The commissioner shall calculate the actual cost of the development of the plan and withhold an equivalent amount from the community social services act funding or state administrative aids for any county affected by the plan.

(h) After January 1, 1992, the commissioner of human services, the commissioner of health, and the commissioner of corrections shall not issue or renew a residential facility license unless the licensing commissioner has granted a waiver for the facility or the county has certified that issuing or renewing the license is consistent with the county's plan developed under this subdivision. If the county is not required to have a plan, it must certify that the facility meets the standards outlined in subdivision 2. The county shall respond to a commissioner's request for certification within 15 calendar days after receiving the request.

(i) The commissioner may not order a county to pay a fine under paragraph (e) for failure to implement a plan unless the legislature has taken action regarding the costs of implementing the plan. Beginning January 1, 1991, the commissioner shall provide an annual report to the legislature on the estimated costs to the state, counties, and providers of implementing county plans, including recommendations regarding appropriations of money and other legislative action that will be needed for full implementation of the plans by the deadlines established in this section.

Subd. 5. [RELOCATION PLANS FOR DISPLACED RESIDENTS.] No person in a state-licensed residential facility may be displaced as a result of this section until a relocation plan has been implemented that provides for an acceptable alternative placement.

Subd. 6. [INITIAL LICENSES ISSUED BEFORE REPORTS AND PLANS ARE SUBMITTED.] For the period beginning on the effective date of this section and ending June 30, 1990, if the licensing commissioner notifies a municipality under section 2, subdivision 3, of a pending application for an initial license for a residential program proposed to be located in the municipality and the municipality does not provide the commissioner with information that shows that the facility would violate the requirements of subdivision 2, the commissioner may issue an initial license without further verification that the requirements of subdivision 2 are satisfied.

Sec. 2. [462.3575] [REQUIREMENTS FOR HUMAN SERVICES, HEALTH, AND CORRECTIONAL RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [HUMAN SERVICES PROGRAMS.] (a) It is the policy of this state that persons in need of residential services from programs licensed by the commissioner of human services should not be excluded from the benefits of normal residential surroundings by municipal zoning ordinances, comprehensive municipal plans, regional development plans, or other land use plans or regulations.

(b) A residential program licensed by the commissioner of human services with a licensed capacity of six or fewer persons is a permitted use of property in districts where one- and two-family dwellings are allowed. The program must not be subjected to conditional or special use requirements for the purposes of zoning and other land use plans or regulations. A town, municipality, or other local government authority may only impose conditions or requirements on the property that apply to all one- or two-family properties in that zoning district.

(c) A residential program licensed by the commissioner of human services with a licensed capacity of 16 or fewer persons is a permitted use of property in districts where multiple family dwellings are allowed. The program must not be subjected to conditional or special use requirements for the purposes of zoning and other land use plans or regulations. A town, municipality, or other local government authority may only impose conditions or requirements on the property that apply to all multiple-family properties of similar size in that zoning district.

(d) Nothing in this section requires local governments to allow one-family or two-family dwellings in multiple-family districts.

Subd. 2. [CORRECTIONS PROGRAMS.] A residential program licensed by the commissioner of corrections with a licensed capacity of 50 or fewer residents is a permitted use of property in commercial or light industrial zones and is not subject to conditional or special use requirements for the purposes of zoning and other land use plans or regulations, provided the program is not located within 650 feet of any residential zone or district. A town, municipality, or other local government authority must not impose conditions or requirements on the program that do not apply to all multifamily dwellings in the zone that are of similar size. A residential program licensed by the commissioner of corrections is not a permitted use of property in a heavy industrial zone.

Subd. 3. [NOTIFICATION OF MUNICIPALITIES.] The commissioner of human services, the commissioner of health, and the commissioner of corrections shall notify a municipality of a pending application for an initial license or license renewal for a residential program located within the municipality. The notice must be provided at least 60 days before the license is issued or renewed and must solicit the written comments of the municipality regarding the appropriateness of the zoning district, distance or concentration issues arising under section 1, and other matters of concern to the municipality. This subdivision does not limit the authority of the commissioner to issue or renew a license if at least 60 days notice was provided.

Subd. 4. [CONCILIATION CONFERENCE.] An applicant or license holder who has been denied a conditional or special use permit to operate a residential program licensed by the commissioner of health, the commissioner of human services, or the commissioner of corrections, or who believes that the zoning or land use planning authority or other local government authority has imposed conditions on the use of property in violation of this section, may request a review of the decision by submitting a written request for review to the local government authority within ten days after the date of receiving notice of the authority's action to require or to deny a permit or to impose conditions on the use of property. Upon receipt of the request for review, the local government authority shall notify the appropriate licensing commissioner of the request and schedule a conciliation conference. The local government authority shall notify the applicant or license holder, the county, and the commissioner of the time, date, and location of the conciliation conference. The conference must occur within 30 days after receipt of the request for review. The commissioner shall assign a trained conciliator to be present at the conciliation conference and assist in the resolution of the dispute without judicial review. Within five days after the conciliation conference, the local government authority must give the applicant or license holder, the county, and the commissioner written notice, by certified mail, of the final action it will take, when the action will be taken, and the applicant or license holder's right to appeal the final action.

Sec. 3. [STUDY; REPORT.]

By August 1, 1989, the commissioner of corrections shall prepare and submit to the task force established under section 4, a report which details both the present site of all community correction group homes and the department's plans for placement of such group homes in communities, through the year 2000. The report shall include information on the projected number and type of residents to be housed at each of the current and proposed sites. The report shall be submitted to the speaker of the house and the president of the senate.

Sec. 4. [TASK FORCE.]

There is established a legislative task force composed of five members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house and five members of the senate appointed by the president of the senate. The task force shall study issues related to the siting of community residential facilities licensed by the commissioner of corrections. The task force shall solicit input from community groups, persons in the corrections field, and city planning professionals to determine methods for involving community groups in the siting of community residential facilities licensed by the commissioner of corrections. The commissioner of corrections shall designate one or more agency staff members to serve on the task force. The task force shall consider methods for allowing affected communities to object to the proposed siting of a community corrections facility, including, but not limited to, an agency conciliation process or a complaint process through the office of the ombudsman for corrections established under sections 241.41 to 241.45.

Sec. 5. [APPLICABILITY.]

Sections 1 and 2 shall not apply to any single state-licensed multiple dwelling residential facility licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, before January 1, 1989.

Sec. 6. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 245A.11; and 462.357, subdivisions 6a, 7, and 8, are repealed.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 are effective the day after final enactment, except that the effective date of section 2, subdivision 2, shall be delayed until July 1, 1990."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 41A.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(a) "Ethanol" means agriculturally derived fermentation ethyl alcohol of a purity of at least 99 percent, determined without regard to any added denaturants, denatured in conformity with one of the approved methods set forth by the United States Department of Treasury, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, and derived from the following agricultural products: potatoes, cereal, grains, cheese whey, or sugar beets.

(b) "Wet alcohol" means agriculturally derived fermentation ethyl alcohol having a purity of at least 50 percent but less than 99 percent.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 41A.09, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS FROM FUND.] The commissioner of revenue shall make cash payments from the development fund to producers of ethanol or agricultural grade wet alcohol, for use as a motor fuel, located in the state. These payments must be made only for ethanol or wet alcohol fermented in Minnesota. The amount of the payment for each producer's annual production shall be as follows:

(a) For each gallon of ethanol produced:

(1) For the period beginning July 1, 1986, and ending June 30, 1987, 15 cents per gallon;

(2) For the period beginning July 1, 1987, and ending June 30, 2000, 20 cents per gallon.

(b) For each gallon produced of agricultural grade alcohol of a purity of at least 50 percent but not more than 90 percent and designed to be used in conjunction with diesel fuel in an engine's internal combustion process, for the period beginning July 1, 1987, and ending June 30, 2000, 11 cents per gallon. For each gallon produced of wet alcohol during the period beginning July 1, 1989, and ending June 30, 2000, a payment in cents per gallon calculated by the formula "alcohol purity in percent divided by five," and rounded to the nearest cent per gallon. The producer payment for wet alcohol under this section may be paid to either the original producer of wet alcohol or the secondary processor, at the option of the original producer, but not to both.

(c) The total payments from the fund to all producers may not exceed $200,000 during the period beginning July 1, 1986, and ending June 30, 1987, and may not exceed $10,000,000 in any fiscal year during the period beginning July 1, 1987, and ending June 30, 2000. Total payments to any producer from the fund in any fiscal year may not exceed $3,000,000.

By the last day of October, January, April, and July, each producer shall file a claim for payment for production during the preceding three calendar months. The volume of production must be verified by a certified financial audit performed by an independent certified public accountant using generally accepted accounting procedures.

Payments shall be made November 15, February 15, May 15, and August 15.

Ogren from the Committee on Health and Human Services to which was referred:

H. F. No. 901, A bill for an act relating to human services; establishing a resource center on caregiver support; creating a grant program of respite care services; appropriating money; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 256.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [256.992] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For purposes of sections 1 to 3, the following terms have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [CAREGIVER.] "Caregiver" means a person who resides with and has primary responsibility for the care of a person with a disability, including a licensed, full-time foster care provider.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 4. [COUNTY BOARD.] "County board" means the board of county commissioners in each county.

Subd. 5. [PERSON WITH A DISABILITY.] "Person with a disability" means a person who, because of physical disability, degenerative disease, mental illness, chronic illness, frailty associated with aging, or mental retardation or a related condition, requires substantial continuous care and supervision and who would require institutionalization in the absence of a caregiver.

Subd. 6. [RESPITE CARE.] "Respite care" means the temporary or periodic care and supervision of a person with a disability, in or out of the home, on a planned or emergency basis to provide relief to the caregiver. Respite care includes adult day care.

Sec. 2. [256.993] [RESOURCE CENTER ON CAREGIVER SUPPORT AND RESPITE CARE SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [RESOURCE CENTER.] The commissioner shall establish a statewide resource center on caregiver support and respite care services.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE OF RESOURCE CENTER.] The resource center shall:

(1) provide leadership and visibility on the need for caregiver support and respite care programs;

(2) develop a mechanism to address issues and system changes needed to increase caregiver support and respite care services;

(3) provide information statewide on identified direct service models of existing caregiver support and respite care;

(4) analyze and evaluate funding sources for respite care;

(5) identify and address concerns and gaps in statewide service delivery;

(6) provide technical assistance and training to foster the development of in-home respite care services;

(7) educate caregivers on the availability and use of respite care services;

(8) promote and expand caregiver support coordination by using existing networks when possible; and

(9) manage and oversee a respite care grant program to develop model county coordinated generic respite care services.

Subd. 3. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] An advisory committee of not more than 12 people appointed by the commissioner shall make recommendations on resource center direction and oversee its activities. The advisory committee includes caregivers, people with disabilities, and advocates, representing all areas of the state. The advisory committee shall review administrative procedures and make recommendations to the commissioner relating to the grant program.

Sec. 3. [256.994] [RESPITE CARE GRANT PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [GRANT PROGRAM.] The commissioner shall establish a respite care grant program. The commissioner may adopt rules as necessary to administer the program, but the commissioner may implement the program without adopting rules to the extent allowed under chapter 14.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE OF GRANT.] A grant program must establish a coordinated system of generic respite care to:

(1) enable caregivers to continue to provide care at home by providing relief and support;

(2) assist caregivers in securing affordable respite care, particularly for those individuals who are not eligible for Medicaid;

(3) foster the development of in-home care; and

(4) educate caregivers, professionals, and the general public on the availability, need for, and use of caregiver support services, particularly respite care.

Subd. 3. [USE OF GRANT MONEY.] (a) Grant money may be used to:

(1) plan and implement a coordinated array of respite care services;

(2) establish or expand subsidized respite care services;

(3) recruit and train paid or volunteer providers; or

(4) establish an educational program for caregivers that may include support groups.

(b) Grant funds may not be used to supplant existing funds and existing volunteer efforts or to purchase equipment.

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBILITY.] A county board may, alone or in combination with other county boards, apply for a respite care grant. A public or nonprofit agency may apply for a grant if there is a letter of agreement with the county or counties in which services will be developed stating the intention of the county or counties to work with and coordinate with the agency requesting a grant.

Subd. 5. [GRANT APPLICATIONS.] (a) The commissioner shall request proposals for grants and shall specify the information and criteria required.

(b) Grant applications must address the issues under subdivisions 2 and 3 and provide a description of:

(1) any new services to be provided and of existing services;

(2) the estimated number of persons to be served;

(3) how services would be coordinated;

(4) limitations on services;

(5) methods of generating additional funds including sliding fee schedules;

- (6) use of volunteers;
- (7) contracts with outside agencies; and
- (8) training needs.

(c) The proposed budget shall indicate how grant funds will be used and the amount and sources of other funds.

(d) All grant applications must include a written performance plan that addresses the criteria contained in subdivision 3. The performance plan must include written performance objectives, specific measurable outcomes, time-lines, and the procedure the grantee will use to document and measure success in meeting the objectives.

Subd. 6. [GRANT AWARDS.] (a) The advisory committee shall review administrative procedures relating to the grant program including but not limited to forms, instructions, and the request for proposal. The advisory committee shall review grant applications and make recommendations to the commissioner. Grants must be awarded by the commissioner to programs that:

- (1) meet the purpose of the grant program;
- (2) have the ability to continue the project at the end of the funding period; and
- (3) demonstrate cost-effective administration.

(b) Preference must be given to proposals that seek to address underserved populations or that come from areas where limited services are available. Grants must be awarded to achieve a geographic distribution. No grant award may exceed 20 percent of the total appropriation.

Subd. 7. [FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS.] The commissioner shall provide necessary forms and instructions to eligible applicants upon request. Grant recipients shall submit financial reports and program and evaluation reports on forms prescribed by the commissioner according to instructions specified by the commissioner. The reports must include, but are not limited to, information on income, expenditures, number of caregivers served, the disabilities of the care receivers, and how grant money was used. The commissioner of human services may delay or revoke grant money if the commissioner determines that the grantee is not meeting the reporting requirements or other terms of the grant.

Subd. 8. [FINANCIAL RECORDS.] The county board, and its contractors and subcontractors, shall maintain financial records, using generally accepted accounting principles, in a way so that expenditures can be easily compared with the approved budget.

Subd. 9. [ACCESS TO PROGRAMS AND RECORDS.] At the request of the commissioner, the grantee and its contractors and subcontractors shall make available for audit and inspection all program and fiscal records related to the requirements of this section and the grant contract.

Subd. 10. [DISTRIBUTION OF GRANTS.] The commissioner may award grants to continue until June 30, 1991, as long as the grantee demonstrates continuing compliance with the terms of the grant.

Sec. 4. [256.995] [START-UP GRANTS FOR FOSTER CARE PROVIDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GRANTS AUTHORIZED.] The commissioner of human services may award grants to individuals or families who seek to begin providing foster care services licensed under chapter 245A. The grants may be used by the individual or family for structural changes, additions, and purchases of safety devices needed to make the home physically accessible to persons served by the foster care home, and to comply with fire, safety, health, and other licensing requirements for foster care homes.

Subd. 2. [REPAYMENT.] A family or individual who receives a grant under this subdivision and who makes the home available for foster care for four years after the date the grant is awarded is not required to repay the grant. A family or individual who makes the home available for foster care for less than four years after the grant is awarded shall repay a portion of the grant on a prorated basis according to the circumstances, terms, and conditions the commissioner establishes in rule for repayment. The commissioner shall determine appropriate security for repayment.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] A family or individual seeking a grant under this subdivision shall apply to the commissioner of human services. A grant application must describe:

- (1) a need for the grant that meets the specifications of subdivision 1;
- (2) the services to be provided in the foster care home;
- (3) the number of persons who will be served in the foster care home;
- (4) how grant money will be used;

(5) the amount and source of other funds available to the applicant to meet the need stated in the grant application; and

(6) the methods of generating additional funds.

Subd. 4. [GRANT AWARDS.] (a) The commissioner shall award a grant to an applicant if the applicant's proposal:

(1) meets the purpose of the grant program;

(2) increases access to foster care services; and

(3) shows that the applicant has the ability to continue foster care services after the grant is spent.

(b) A person who qualifies for the grant may receive up to:

(1) $10,000 for modifications needed to make the home physically accessible to persons served by the foster care home;

(2) $5,000 for modifications needed to meet fire code, safety, health, and other licensing requirements for foster care homes;

(3) $5,000 to add additional space in the home for privacy of the persons served by the foster care provider; and

(4) $500 for training to become a foster care provider.

Subd. 5. [HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY.] After determining eligibility, the commissioner may contract with the housing finance agency to administer grants involving complex accessibility modifications or extensive structural changes to meet fire code standards.

Sec. 5. [REPORT ON RESPITE CARE RESOURCE CENTER AND GRANTS.]

By January 1, 1991, the commissioner shall submit a report to the legislature containing an analysis of the activities of the resource center, information on the need for respite care services, a projection of the need for respite care services, and a summary of the projects funded under the respite care grant program.

Sec. 6. [APPROPRIATION.]

increase the approved complement of the department by 2.5 full-time equivalent positions to carry out the activities and objectives of the resource center. The commissioner may use part of this appropriation for administrative costs. Any unexpended balance remaining in the first year does not cancel and is available for the second year.

(b) $785,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the respite care grant program established under section 3. This appropriation is available for distribution on or after October 1, 1989. Any unexpended balance remaining in the first year does not cancel and is available for the second year.

(c) $345,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for purposes of start-up grants for foster care providers under section 4."

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.012, is amended to read:

260.012 [DUTY OF JUVENILE COURT TO ENSURE PLACEMENT PREVENTION AND FAMILY REUNIFICATION; REASONABLE EFFORTS.]

(a) If a child in need of protection or services is under the court's dependency or neglect jurisdiction, the court shall ensure that reasonable efforts including culturally appropriate services by the social service agency are made to prevent placement or to eliminate the need for removal and to reunite the child with the child's family at the earliest possible time, consistent with the best interests, safety, and protection of the child. In the case of an Indian child, in proceedings under sections 260.172, 260.191, and 260.221 the juvenile court must make findings and conclusions consistent with the Indian Child Welfare Act, United States Code, title 25, section 1901 et. seq., as to the provision of active efforts. If a child is under the court's delinquency jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the court to ensure that reasonable efforts are made to reunite the child with the child's family at the earliest possible time, consistent with the best interests of the child and the safety of the public.

(b) “Reasonable efforts” means the exercise of due diligence by the responsible social service agency to use appropriate and available services to meet the needs of the child and the child's family in order to prevent removal of the child from the child's family; or upon removal, services to eliminate the need for removal and reunite the family. Services may include those listed under section 256F.07, subdivision 3, and other appropriate services available in the community. The social service agency has the burden of demonstrating that it has made reasonable efforts.

Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to prevent out of home placement for treatment of a child with a mental disability when the child's diagnostic assessment or individual treatment plan indicates that appropriate and necessary treatment cannot be effectively provided outside of a residential or inpatient treatment program.

(c) The juvenile court, in proceedings under sections 260.172, 260.191, and 260.221 shall make findings and conclusions as to the provision of reasonable efforts. When determining whether reasonable efforts have been made, the court shall consider whether services to the child and family were:

- (1) relevant to the safety and protection of the child;
- (2) adequate to meet the needs of the child and family;
- (3) culturally appropriate;
- (4) available and accessible;
- (5) consistent and timely; and
- (6) realistic under the circumstances.

(d) Nothing in this section prevents, delays, or limits out-of-home placement for treatment of a child with an emotional disturbance or mental disability when the child's diagnostic assessment or individual treatment plan indicates the placement is clinically appropriate.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.015, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. "Agency" means the local social service agency or a licensed child placing agency.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.015, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. "Parent" means the natural or adoptive parent of a minor. For an Indian child, parent includes any Indian person who has adopted a child by tribal law or custom, as provided in section 257.351, subdivision 11.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.015, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. "Relative" means a parent, stepparent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, or aunt of the minor. This relationship may be by blood or marriage. For an Indian child, relative includes members of the extended family that shall be defined by the law or custom of the Indian child's tribe or, in the absence of laws or custom, nieces, nephews, or first or second cousins, as provided in the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1903. For purposes of dispositions, relative shall be defined consistent with section 260.181, subdivision 3.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.015, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. "Custodian" means any person who is under a legal obligation to provide care and support for a minor or who is in fact providing care and support for a minor. For an Indian child, custodian means any Indian person who has legal custody of an Indian child under tribal law or custom or under state law or to whom temporary physical care, custody, and control has been transferred by the parent of the child, as provided in section 257.351, subdivision 8.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.015, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 26. [INDIAN.] "Indian," consistent with section 257.351, subdivision 5, means a person who is a member of an Indian tribe or an Alaskan native and a member of a regional corporation as defined in section 7 of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, United States Code, title 43, section 1606.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.015, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 27. [INDIAN CHILD.] "Indian child," consistent with section 257.351, subdivision 6, means an unmarried person who is under age 18 and is:

- (1) a member of an Indian tribe; or
- (2) eligible for membership in an Indian tribe.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [JURISDICTION OVER INDIAN CHILDREN.] In a child in need of protection or services proceeding, when an Indian child is a ward of a tribal court with federally recognized child welfare jurisdiction, the Indian tribe retains exclusive jurisdiction notwithstanding the residence or domicile of an Indian child, as provided in the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1911.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.135, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The court shall have notice of the pendency of the case and of the time and place of the hearing served upon a parent, guardian, or spouse of the child, who has not been summoned as provided in subdivision 1. For an Indian child, notice of all proceedings must comply with the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1901, et. seq., and section 257.353.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.141, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. In any proceeding regarding a child in need of protection or services in a state court, where the court knows or has reason to know that an Indian child is involved, the prosecuting authority seeking the foster care placement of, or termination of parental rights to an Indian child, shall notify the parent or Indian custodian and the Indian child's tribe of the pending proceedings and of their right of intervention. The notice must be provided by registered mail with return receipt requested unless personal service is accomplished. If the identity or location of the parent or Indian custodian and the tribe cannot be determined, the notice shall be given to the Secretary of the Interior of the United States in like manner, according to the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1912. No foster care placement proceeding or termination of parental rights proceeding shall be held until at least ten days after receipt of notice by the parent or Indian custodian and the tribe or the Secretary. However, the parent or Indian custodian or the tribe shall, upon request, be granted up to 20 additional days to prepare for the proceeding.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.155, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GUARDIAN AD LITEM.] (a) The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to protect the interests of the minor when it appears, at any stage of the proceedings, that the minor is without a parent or guardian, or that the minor's parent is a minor or incompetent, or that the parent or guardian is indifferent or hostile to the minor's interests, and in every proceeding alleging a child's need for protection or services under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clauses (1) to (10). In any other case the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to protect the interests of the minor when the court feels that such an appointment is desirable. The court shall appoint the guardian ad litem on its own motion or in the manner provided for the appointment of a guardian ad litem in the district court.

(b) The court may waive the appointment of a guardian ad litem pursuant to clause (a), whenever counsel has been appointed pursuant to subdivision 2 or is retained otherwise, and the court is satisfied that the interests of the minor are protected.

(c) In appointing a guardian ad litem pursuant to clause (a), the court shall not appoint the party, or any agent or employee thereof, filing a petition pursuant to section 260.131.

(d) The following factors shall be considered when appointing a guardian ad litem in a case involving an Indian or minority child: (1) whether the person is the same racial or ethnic heritage as the child, or if that is not possible, (2) whether the person knows and appreciates the child's racial or ethnic heritage.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.155, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FACTORS IN DETERMINING NEGLECT.] In determining whether a child is neglected and in foster care, the court shall consider, among other factors, the following:

(1) the length of time the child has been in foster care;

(2) the effort the parent has made to adjust circumstances, conduct, or condition that necessitates the removal of the child to make it in the child's best interest to be returned to the parent's home in the foreseeable future, including the use of rehabilitative services offered to the parent;

(3) whether the parent has visited the child within the three months preceding the filing of the petition, unless extreme financial or physical hardship or treatment for mental disability or chemical dependency or other good cause prevented the parent from visiting the child or it was not in the best interests of the child to be visited by the parent;

(4) the maintenance of regular contact or communication with the agency or person temporarily responsible for the child;

(5) the appropriateness and adequacy of services provided or offered to the parent to facilitate a reunion;

(6) whether additional services would be likely to bring about lasting parental adjustment enabling a return of the child to the parent within an ascertainable period of time, whether the services have been offered to the parent, or, if services were not offered, the reasons they were not offered; and

(7) the nature of the effort efforts made by the responsible social service agency to rehabilitate and reunite the family, and whether the efforts were reasonable.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.165, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. No child may be taken into immediate custody except:

(a) With an order issued by the court in accordance with the provisions of section 260.135, subdivision 5, or by a warrant issued in accordance with the provisions of section 260.145; or

(b) In accordance with the laws relating to arrests; or

(c) By a peace officer

(1) when a child has run away from a parent, guardian, or custodian, or when the peace officer reasonably believes such the child has run away from a parent, guardian, or custodian; or

(2) when a child is found in surroundings or conditions which endanger the child's health or welfare or which such peace officer reasonably believes will endanger such child's health or welfare. If an Indian child is a resident of a reservation or is domiciled on a reservation but temporarily located off the reservation, the taking of the child under this clause shall be consistent with the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1922; or

(d) By a peace officer or probation or parole officer when it is reasonably believed that the child has violated the terms of probation, parole, or other field supervision.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.171, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If a child is taken into custody as provided in section 260.165, the parent, guardian, or custodian of the child shall be notified as soon as possible. Unless there is reason to believe that the child would endanger self or others, not return for a court hearing, run away from the child's parent, guardian, or custodian or otherwise not remain in the care or control of the person to whose lawful custody the child is released, or that the child's health or welfare would be immediately endangered, the child shall be released to the custody of a parent, guardian, custodian, or other suitable person. When a child is taken into custody by a peace officer under section 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (c)(2), release from detention may be authorized by the detaining officer, the detaining officer's supervisor, or the county attorney. If the social service agency has determined that the child's health or welfare will not be endangered and the provision of appropriate and available services will eliminate the need for placement, the agency shall request authorization for the child's release from detention. That The person to whom the child is released shall promise to bring the child to the court, if necessary, at the time the court may direct. If the person taking the child into custody believes it desirable, that person may request the parent, guardian, custodian, or other person designated by the court to sign a written promise to bring the child to court as provided above. The intentional violation of such a promise, whether given orally or in writing, shall be punishable as contempt of court.

The court may require the parent, guardian, custodian, or other person to whom the child is released, to post any reasonable bail or bond required by the court which shall be forfeited to the court if the child does not appear as directed. The court may also release the child on the child's own promise to appear in juvenile court.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.172, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except a child taken into custody pursuant to section 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (a) or (c)(2), a hearing shall be held within 36 hours of a child's being taken into custody, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, to determine whether the child should continue in detention. Within 72 hours of a child being taken into custody pursuant to section 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (a) or (c)(2), excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, a hearing shall be held to determine whether the child should continue in custody. Unless there is reason to believe that the child would endanger self or others, not return for a court hearing, run away from the child's parent, guardian, or custodian or otherwise not remain in the care or control of the person to whose lawful custody the child is released, or that the child's health or welfare would be immediately endangered, the child shall be released to the custody of a parent, guardian, custodian, or other suitable person. In a proceeding regarding a child in need of protection or services, the court, before determining whether a child should continue in custody, shall also make a determination, consistent with section 260.012 as to whether reasonable efforts, or in the case of an Indian child, active efforts, according to the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1912(d), were made to prevent placement or to reunite the child with the child's family, or that reasonable efforts were not possible. The court shall also determine whether there are available services that would prevent the need for further detention.

If the court finds the social services agency's preventive or reunification efforts have not been reasonable but further preventive or reunification efforts could not permit the child to safely remain at home, the court may nevertheless authorize or continue the removal of the child.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.172, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If a child held in detention under a court order issued under subdivision 2 has not been released prior to expiration of the order, the court or referee shall informally review the child's case file to determine, under the standards provided by subdivision 1, whether detention should be continued. If detention is continued thereafter, informal reviews such as these shall be held within every eight days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, of the child's detention.

A hearing, rather than an informal review of the child's case file, shall be held at the request of any one of the parties notified pursuant to subdivision 3, if that party notifies the court of a wish to present to the court new evidence concerning whether the child should be continued in detention or notifies the court of a wish to present an alternate placement arrangement to provide for the safety and protection of the child.

In addition, if a child was taken into detention under section 260.135, subdivision 5, or 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (c)(2), and is held in detention under a court order issued under subdivision 2, the court shall schedule and hold an adjudicatory hearing on the petition within 60 days of the detention hearing upon the request of any party to the proceeding unless. However, if good cause is shown by a party to the proceeding why the hearing should not be held within that time period, the hearing shall be held within 90 days, unless the parties agree otherwise and the court so orders.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.173, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, if the child had been taken into custody pursuant to section 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (a) or clause (c)(2), or had been found in surroundings or conditions reasonably believed to endanger the child's health or welfare, and is not alleged to be delinquent, the child may shall be detained only in the least restrictive setting consistent with the child's health and welfare and in closest proximity to the child's family as possible. Placement may be with a child's relative, or in a shelter care facility.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.181, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONSIDERATION OF REPORTS.] Before making a disposition in a case, or terminating parental rights, or appointing a guardian for a child the court may consider any report or recommendation made by the county welfare board, probation officer, or licensed child placing agency, foster parent, guardian ad litem, tribal representative, or other authorized advocate for the child or child's family, or any other information deemed material by the court.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.191, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [WRITTEN FINDINGS.] Any order for a disposition authorized under this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

(a) Why the best interests of the child are served by the disposition ordered;

(b) What alternative dispositions were considered by the court and why such dispositions were not appropriate in the instant case; and

(c) In the case of a child of minority racial or minority ethnic heritage, how the court's disposition complies with the requirements of section 260.181, subdivision 3; and

(d) Whether reasonable efforts consistent with section 260.012 were made to prevent or eliminate the necessity of the child's removal and to reunify the family after removal. The court's findings must include a brief description of what preventive and reunification efforts were made and why further efforts could not have prevented or eliminated the necessity of removal.

If the court finds that the social services agency's preventive or reunification efforts have not been reasonable but that further preventive or reunification efforts could not permit the child to safely remain at home, the court may nevertheless authorize or continue the removal of the child.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.191, subdivision 1e, is amended to read:

Subd. 1e. [CASE PLAN.] For each disposition ordered, the court shall order the appropriate agency to prepare a written case plan developed after consultation with any foster parents, and consultation with and participation by the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian, guardian ad litem, and tribal representative if the tribe has intervened. The case plan shall comply with the requirements of section 257.071, where applicable. The case plan shall, among other matters, specify the actions to be taken by the child and the child's parent, guardian, foster parent, or custodian to comply with the court's disposition order, and the services to be offered and provided by the agency to the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian. The court shall review the case plan and, upon approving it; incorporate the plan into its disposition order. The court may review and modify the terms of the case plan in the manner provided in subdivision 2. For each disposition ordered, the written case plan shall specify what reasonable efforts shall be provided to the family. The case plan must include a discussion of:

(1) the availability of appropriate prevention and reunification services for the family to prevent the removal of the child from the home or to reunify the child with the family after removal;

(2) any services or resources that were requested by the child or the child's parent, guardian, foster parent, or custodian since the date of initial adjudication, and whether those services or resources were provided or the basis for denial of the services or resources;

(3) the inappropriateness of other requested services that may be available;

(4) the need of the child and family for care, treatment, or rehabilitation;

(5) the need for participation by the parent, guardian, or custodian in the plan of care for the child; and

(6) a description of any services that could prevent placement or reunify the family if such services were available.

A party has a right to request a court review of the reasonableness of the case plan upon a showing of a substantial change of circumstances."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 62D.02, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. "Comprehensive health maintenance services" means a set of comprehensive health services which the enrollees might reasonably require to be maintained in good health including as a minimum, but not limited to, emergency care, inpatient hospital and medical physician care, chiropractic care, outpatient health services, and preventive health services. Elective, induced abortion, except as medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, whether performed in a hospital, other abortion facility or the office of a physician, shall not be mandatory for any health maintenance organization.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 62D.102, is amended to read:

62D.102 [MINIMUM BENEFITS.]

(a) Subdivision 1. [MENTAL AND NERVOUS DISORDER TREATMENT.] In addition to minimum requirements established in other sections, all group health maintenance contracts providing benefits for mental or nervous disorder treatments in a hospital shall also provide coverage for at least ten hours of treatment over a 12-month period with a copayment not to exceed the greater of $10 or 20 percent of the applicable usual and customary charge for mental or nervous disorder consultation, diagnosis and treatment services delivered while the enrollee is not a bed patient in a hospital and at least 75 percent of the cost of the usual and customary charges for any additional hours of ambulatory mental health treatment during the same 12-month benefit period for serious or persistent mental or nervous disorders. Prior authorization may be required for an extension of coverage beyond ten hours of treatment. This prior authorization must be based upon the severity of the disorder, the patient's risk of deterioration without ongoing treatment and maintenance, degree of functional impairment, and a concise treatment plan. Authorization for extended treatment may be limited to a maximum of 30 visit hours during any 12-month benefit period.

(b) For purposes of this ~~section~~ subdivision, covered treatment for a minor includes treatment for the family if family therapy is recommended by a health maintenance organization provider. For purposes of determining benefits under this ~~section~~ subdivision, "hours of treatment" means treatment rendered on an individual or single-family basis. If treatment is rendered on a group basis, the hours of covered group treatment must be provided at a ratio of no less than two group treatment sessions to one individual treatment hour. For a health maintenance contract that is offered as a companion to a health insurance subscriber contract, the benefits for mental or nervous disorders must be calculated in aggregate for the health maintenance contract and the health insurance subscriber contract.

Subd. 2. [CHIROPRACTIC CARE.] A plan or contract that limits participation to providers selected by the plan, but that does not employ a licensed chiropractor, shall select one or more licensed chiropractors according to section 3 and shall permit a subscriber to receive chiropractic care according to section 62D.12, subdivision 14. A plan that does not limit participation to providers selected by the plan shall permit a subscriber to receive chiropractic care according to section 62D.12, subdivision 14, from licensed chiropractors who have agreed to participate in the plan and agree to its terms.

Health maintenance organizations and limited service health organizations, in complying with section 62D.12, subdivision 14, shall make every attempt to include as participating providers licensed chiropractors in number equal to the ratio of licensed chiropractors to licensed medical doctors in Minnesota. Participating providers shall be located in areas that will allow reasonable access for all enrollees of the health plan.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 62D.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. No plan or contract may exclude or limit coverage for diagnosis and treatment to cure or relieve a condition or complaint by a licensed chiropractor within the scope of the chiropractor's professional license, if the plan or contract covers diagnosis and treatment of the condition or complaint by a licensed medical doctor or osteopath, even if different nomenclature is used to describe the condition or complaint. Examination by or referral from a medical doctor shall not be a precondition for receipt of chiropractic care under this subdivision. This subdivision does not:

(1) prohibit the application of deductibles or coinsurance provisions to chiropractic and medical doctor charges on an equal basis;

(2) prohibit the application of cost containment or quality assurance measures generally applicable to chiropractic and medical doctor services in a similar manner and consistent with this section;

(3) require the plan to cover any service by a chiropractor if the plan's coverage is limited to surgical benefits; and

(4) require the plan to cover any service by a chiropractor to a person who is not a registered bed patient in a hospital if the plan does not cover any service by a medical doctor to a person who is not a registered bed patient in a hospital."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 31.50, is amended to read:

31.50 [LIABILITY OF FOOD DONORS.]

Subdivision 1. For the purposes of this section, "distressed food" means, in addition to the definition in section 31.495, certain perishable foods, as defined in section 28A.03, which may not be readily marketable due to appearance, freshness, grade, surplus or other considerations and are not suspect of having been rendered unsafe or unsuitable for food use and are adequately labeled.

For purposes of this section, "prepared food" means food that is: (1) prepared by a restaurant as defined in section 157.01 and licensed under chapter 157; (2) prepared according to rules regulating preparation of food by licensed restaurants, under Minnesota Rules, chapter 4625; and (3) fit for consumption at the time of donation.

Subd. 2. A food manufacturer, distributor, processor or person who donates or collects distressed food or a restaurant that donates or collects prepared food to or for a charitable organization as defined in section 309.50, subdivision 4, for distribution at no charge to the elderly or needy, or who directly distributes distressed food or prepared food to the elderly or needy at no charge, shall not be liable for any injury, including but not limited to injury resulting from the ingesting of the distressed food or prepared food, unless the injury is caused by the gross negligence, recklessness or intentional misconduct of the food manufacturer, processor, distributor or, person, or restaurant.

Subd. 3. A charitable organization as defined in section 309.50, subdivision 4, which in good faith collects or receives distressed food and prepared food and distributes it at no charge to the elderly or needy shall not be liable for any injury, including but not limited to injury resulting from the ingesting of the distressed food or prepared food, unless the injury is caused by the gross negligence, recklessness or intentional misconduct of the charitable organization.

Subd. 4. The provisions of this section shall not restrict the authority of the commissioner to regulate or ban the use or consumption of distressed or prepared food donated, collected or received for charitable purposes.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION FOR STORE-TO-DOOR DELIVERY GRANT.]

The legislature recognizes and endorses the store-to-door grocery delivery program as an important service that promotes nutrition and independence of elderly persons and persons with a disability who are capable of preparing their own meals, but physically unable to walk to the store or carry groceries. By allowing elderly persons and persons with a disability to order their groceries and prepare their own food, the store-to-door program provides these persons with the ability to care for themselves. The store-to-door program also complements other meal programs available to elderly persons and persons with a disability, such as congregate dining and home delivered meal programs.

$40,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for each year of the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for a grant to the store-to-door grocery delivery program to allow it to expand its grocery delivery services to elderly persons and persons with a disability."

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 80D.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [WAIVERS OF LIABILITY PROHIBITED.] (a) A contract between a facility and resident or resident's representative must not include a waiver of facility liability for the health and safety or personal property of a resident while the resident is under the facility's supervision. A contract must not contain a provision that the facility knows or should know to be deceptive, unlawful, or unenforceable under state or federal law, nor any provision that requires or implies a lesser standard of care or responsibility than is required by law.

(b) This subdivision applies to new admissions to facilities on and after October 1, 1989. This subdivision does not require the execution of a new admission contract for a resident who was residing in a facility before the enactment of this subdivision. However, provisions of the admission contract that are inconsistent with or in conflict with this subdivision are voidable at the sole option of the resident. Residents must be given notice of the changes in admission contracts according to this subdivision and must be given the opportunity to execute a new contract that conforms to this subdivision.

Sec. 2. [144.6501] [NURSING HOME ADMISSION CONTRACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Facility" means a nursing home licensed under chapter 144A or a boarding care facility licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.58.

(b) "Contract of admission," "admission contract," or "admission agreement," includes, but is not limited to, all documents that a resident or resident's representative must sign at the time of, or as a condition of, admission to the facility. Oral representations and statements between the facility and the resident or resident's representative are not part of the contract of admission unless expressly contained in writing in those documents.

(c) "Legal representative" means an attorney-in-fact under a valid power of attorney executed by the prospective resident, or a conservator or guardian of the person or of the estate, or a representative payee appointed for the prospective resident, or other agent of limited powers.

Subd. 2. [WAIVERS OF LIABILITY PROHIBITED.] An admission contract must not include a waiver of facility liability for the health and safety or personal property of a resident while the resident is under the facility's supervision. An admission contract must not include a provision that the facility knows or should know to be deceptive, unlawful, or unenforceable under state or federal law, nor any provision that requires or implies a lesser standard of care or responsibility than is required by law.

Subd. 3. [CONTRACTS OF ADMISSION.] (a) A facility shall make complete unsigned copies of its admission contract available to potential applicants and to the state or local long-term care ombudsman immediately upon request.

(b) A facility shall post conspicuously within the facility, in a location accessible to public view, either a complete copy of its admission contract or notice of its availability from the facility.

(c) An admission contract must be printed in black type of at least ten-point type size. The facility shall give a complete copy of the admission contract to the resident or the resident's legal representative promptly after it has been signed by the resident or legal representative.

(d) An admission contract is a consumer contract under sections 325G.29 to 325G.37.

(e) All admission contracts must state in bold capital letters the following notice to applicants for admission: "NOTICE TO APPLICANTS FOR ADMISSION. READ YOUR ADMISSION CONTRACT. ORAL STATEMENTS OR COMMENTS MADE BY THE FACILITY OR YOU OR YOUR REPRESENTATIVE ARE NOT PART OF YOUR ADMISSION CONTRACT UNLESS THEY ARE ALSO IN WRITING. DO NOT RELY ON ORAL STATEMENTS OR COMMENTS THAT ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THE WRITTEN ADMISSION CONTRACT."

Subd. 4. [RESIDENTS' SIGNATURES.] (a) Before or at the time of admission, the facility shall make reasonable efforts to communicate the content of the admission contract to, and obtain on the admission contract the signature of, the person who is to be admitted to the facility. The admission contract must be signed by the prospective resident unless the resident is legally incompetent or cannot understand or sign the admission contract because of the resident's medical condition.

(b) If the resident cannot sign the admission contract, the reason must be documented in the resident's medical record by the admitting physician.

(c) If the determination under paragraph (b) has been made, the facility may request the signature of another person on behalf of the applicant, subject to the provisions of paragraph (d). The facility must not require the person to disclose any information regarding the person's personal financial assets, liabilities, or income, unless the person voluntarily chooses to become financially responsible for the resident's care.

(d) A person other than the resident or a spouse who is financially responsible for the resident who signs an admission contract must not be required by the facility to assume financial responsibility for the resident's care. A person who desires to assume financial responsibility for the resident's care may contract with the facility to do so.

(e) The admission contract must include written notice, in bold capital letters, that a person other than the resident or financially responsible spouse may not be required by the facility to assume financial responsibility for the resident's care.

(f) This subdivision does not preclude the facility from obtaining the signature of a legal representative, if applicable.

Subd. 5. [PUBLIC BENEFITS ELIGIBILITY.] An admission contract must clearly and explicitly state whether the facility participates in the Medicare, medical assistance, or Veterans Administration programs. If the facility's participation in any of those programs is limited for any reason, the admission contract must clearly state the limitation and whether the facility is eligible to receive payment from the program for the person who is considering admission or who has been admitted to the facility.

Subd. 6. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PAYMENT.] (a) An admission contract for a facility that is certified for participation in the medical assistance program must state that neither the prospective resident, nor anyone on the resident's behalf, is required to pay privately any amount for which the resident's care at the facility has been approved for payment by medical assistance or to make any kind of donation, voluntary or otherwise. An admission contract must state that the facility does not require as a condition of admission, either in its admission contract or by oral promise before signing the admission contract, that residents remain in private pay status for any period of time.

(b) The admission contract must state that upon presentation of proof of eligibility, the facility will submit a medical assistance claim for reimbursement and will return any and all payments made by the resident, or by any person on the resident's behalf, for services covered by medical assistance, upon receipt of medical assistance payment.

(c) A facility that participates in the medical assistance program shall not charge for the day of the resident's discharge from the facility or subsequent days.

(d) If a facility's charges incurred by the resident are delinquent for 30 days, and no person has agreed to apply for medical assistance for the resident, the facility may petition the court under chapter 525 to appoint a representative for the resident in order to apply for medical assistance for the resident.

(e) The remedy provided in this subdivision does not preclude a facility from seeking any other remedy available under other laws of this state.

Subd. 7. [CONSENT TO TREATMENT.] An admission contract must not include a clause requiring a resident to sign a consent to all treatment ordered by any physician. An admission contract may require consent only for routine nursing care or emergency care. An admission contract must contain a clause that informs the resident of the right to refuse treatment.

Subd. 8. [WRITTEN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.] An admission contract must contain a written acknowledgment that the resident has been informed of the patient's bill of rights, as required in section 144.652.

Subd. 9. [VIOLATIONS; PENALTIES.] (a) Violation of this section is grounds for issuance of a correction order, and if uncorrected, a penalty assessment issued by the commissioner of health, under section 144A.10. The civil fine for noncompliance with a correction order issued under this section is $250 per day.

(b) Unless otherwise expressly provided, the remedies or penalties provided by this subdivision do not preclude a resident from seeking any other remedy and penalty available under other laws of this state.

Subd. 10. [APPLICABILITY.] This section applies to new admissions to facilities on and after October 1, 1989. This section does not require the execution of a new admission contract for a resident who was residing in a facility before the enactment of this section. However, provisions of the admission contract that are inconsistent with or in conflict with this section are voidable at the sole option of the resident. Residents must be given notice of the changes in admission contracts according to this section and must be given the opportunity to execute a new admission contract that conforms to this section.

Sec. 3. [256B.32] [FACILITY FEE FOR OUTPATIENT HOSPITAL EMERGENCY ROOM AND CLINIC VISITS.]

The commissioner shall establish a facility fee payment mechanism that will pay a facility fee to all enrolled outpatient hospitals for each emergency room or outpatient clinic visit provided on or after July 1, 1989. This payment mechanism shall not result in an overall increase in outpatient payment rates. This section shall not apply to federally mandated maximum payment limits, department-approved program packages, or services billed using a non-outpatient hospital provider number."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, lines 9 and 10, delete "medical assistance" and insert "public benefits"

Page 1, line 13, after the second semicolon insert "requiring a facility fee payment to enrolled hospitals for certain emergency room or clinic visits;"

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

The report was adopted.

"ARTICLE 1

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DISCLOSING COMMUNICATIONS.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), a person or entity providing an electronic communications service to the public must not intentionally divulge the contents of any communication other than one to the person or entity, or an agent of the person or entity, while in transmission on that service to a person or entity other than an addressee or intended recipient of the communication or an agent of the addressee or intended recipient.

(b) A person or entity providing electronic communication service to the public may divulge the contents of a communication:

(1) as otherwise authorized in subdivision 2, paragraph (a), and section 626A.09;

(2) with the lawful consent of the originator or any addressee or intended recipient of the communication;

(3) to a person employed or authorized, or whose facilities are used, to forward the communication to its destination; or

(4) that were inadvertently obtained by the service provider ~~and that appear to pertain in the normal course of business if there is reason to believe that the communication pertains to the commission of a crime, if divulgence is made to a law enforcement agency.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.04, is amended to read:

626A.04 [PROHIBITION OF USE AS EVIDENCE OF INTERCEPTED WIRE ~~OR~~, ORAL, OR ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS.]

Whenever any wire ~~or~~, oral, or electronic communication has been intercepted, no part of the contents of such communication and no evidence derived therefrom may be received in evidence in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in or before any court or grand jury if the disclosure of that information would be in violation of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.06, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [PERSONNEL USED.] An interception under sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 may be conducted in whole or in part by ~~employees an employee of the state or any subdivision of the state, or by an individual operating under a contract with the state or one of its subdivisions, acting under the supervision of who is an~~ investigative or law enforcement officer authorized to conduct the investigation.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ILLEGALLY OBTAINED EVIDENCE INADMISSIBLE.] Evidence obtained by any act of intercepting wire ~~or~~, oral, or electronic communications, in violation of section 626A.02, and all evidence obtained through or resulting from information obtained by any such act, shall be inadmissible for any purpose in any action, proceeding, or hearing; provided, however, that any such evidence shall be admissible in any civil or criminal action, proceeding, or hearing against the person who has, or is alleged to have, violated sections 626A.01 to 626A.23.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OFFICIAL AVAILABLE AS A WITNESS.] No evidence obtained as a result of intercepting wire or, oral, or electronic communications pursuant to a warrant issued under section 626A.06 shall be admissible in any proceeding unless the person or persons overhearing or recording such communication, conversation, or discussion be called or made available as witnesses subject to cross examination by the party against whom such intercepted evidence is being offered. The provisions of this clause shall not apply if the trial court finds that such person is dead; or is out of the state; or is unable to attend or testify because of age, sickness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting such persons in open court, to allow the evidence to be received.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [THE MOTION.] Any aggrieved person may move to suppress the contents of any intercepted wire or, oral, or electronic communication, or evidence derived therefrom on the grounds that:

(i) the wire or, oral, or electronic communication was unlawfully intercepted;

(ii) the order of authorization or approval under which it was intercepted is insufficient on its face;

(iii) the interception was not made in conformity with the order of authorization or approval;

(iv) there was not probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds on which the warrant was issued; or

(v) the evidence was otherwise illegally obtained.

The court shall hear evidence upon any issue of fact necessary to a determination of the motion.

If the motion is granted, the contents of the intercepted wire or, oral, or electronic communication, or evidence derived therefrom, shall be treated as having been obtained in violation of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23.

If the motion is denied, the order denying such may be reviewed on appeal from a judgment of conviction notwithstanding the fact that such judgment of conviction is predicated upon a plea of guilty.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.17, is amended to read:

626A.17 [REPORT, CONCERNING INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS AND TRANSMITTAL OF DOCUMENTS TO STATE COURT ADMINISTRATOR.] Within 30 days after the expiration of an order granting or denying an application under this chapter, or each extension thereof, or the denial of an order approving an interception or the use of a pen register, trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device, the issuing or denying judge shall report to the state court administrator:

- (a) the fact that an order or extension was applied for;
- (b) the kind of order or extension applied for;
- (c) the fact that the order or extension was granted as applied for, was modified, or was denied;
- (d) the period of interceptions or use of a pen register, trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device authorized by the order, and the number and duration of any extensions of the order;
- (e) the offense specified in the order or application, or extension of an order;
- (f) the identity of the applying investigative or law enforcement officer and agency making the application and the person authorizing the application; and
- (g) the nature of the facilities from which or the place where communications were to be intercepted or activity under the order was to be carried out.

Subd. 2. [REPORT BY COUNTY ATTORNEY.] No later than January 15 of each year each county attorney shall report to the state court administrator:

- (a) with respect to each application for an order or extension made during the preceding year:

- (1) the fact that an order or extension was applied for;
- (2) the kind of order or extension applied for;
- (3) the fact that the order or extension was granted as applied for, was modified, or was denied;
- (4) the period of interceptions or use of a pen register, trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device authorized by the order, and the number and duration of any extensions of the order;
- (5) the offense specified in the order or application, or extension of an order;
- (6) the identity of the applying investigative or law enforcement officer and agency making the application and the person authorizing the application; and
- (7) the nature of the facilities from which or the place where communications were to be intercepted; or activity under the order was to be carried out;
 - (b) a general description of the interceptions made or information obtained under such order or extension, including (i) the approximate nature and frequency of incriminating communications intercepted or evidence obtained, (ii) the approximate nature and frequency of other communications intercepted, (iii) the approximate number of persons whose communications were intercepted or whose activities were monitored, and (iv) the approximate nature, amount, and cost of the personnel and other resources used in the interceptions or the use of the pen register, trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device;
 - (c) the number of arrests resulting from interceptions made or activity conducted under such order or extension, and the offenses for which arrests were made;
 - (d) the number of trials resulting from such interceptions or activity;
 - (e) the number of motions to suppress made with respect to such interceptions or activity, and the number granted or denied;
 - (f) the number of convictions resulting from such interceptions or activity and the offenses for which the convictions were obtained and a general assessment of the importance of the interceptions or activity; and
 - (g) the information required by paragraphs (b) through (f) of this subdivision with respect to orders or extensions obtained in a preceding calendar year.

Subd. 3. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE BY STATE COURT ADMINISTRATOR.] On or before November 15 of each even numbered year, the state court administrator shall transmit to the legislature a report concerning (a) all warrants and orders authorizing the interception of communications and the use of a pen register, trap and trace device, mobile tracking device, or other electronic or mechanical device during the two previous calendar years and (b) all applications that were denied during the two previous calendar years. Each such report shall include a summary and analysis of the data required to be filed under this section. The report is public and must be available for public inspection at the legislative reference library and the state court administrator's office.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.35, is amended to read:

626A.35 [GENERAL PROHIBITION ON PEN REGISTER AND, TRAP AND TRACE DEVICE, AND MOBILE TRACKING DEVICE USE; EXCEPTION.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] Except as provided in this section, no person may install or use a pen register or a trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device without first obtaining a court order under section 626A.37.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] The prohibition of subdivision 1 does not apply with respect to the use of a pen register or a trap and trace device by a provider of electronic or wire communication service:

(1) relating to the operation, maintenance, and testing of a wire or electronic communication service or to the protection of the rights or property of the provider, or to the protection of users of that service from abuse of service or unlawful use of service; or

(2) to record the fact that a wire or electronic communication was initiated or completed in order to protect the provider, another provider furnishing service toward the completion of the wire communication, or a user of that service, from fraudulent, unlawful, or abusive use of service; or

(3) where the consent of the user of that service has been obtained.

Subd. 2a. [EXCEPTION.] The prohibition of subdivision 1 does not apply to the use of a mobile tracking device where the consent of the owner of the object to which the mobile tracking device is to be attached has been obtained.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] Whoever knowingly violates subdivision 1 shall be fined not more than $3,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.36, is amended to read:

626A.36 [APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER FOR A PEN REGISTER OR A TRAP AND TRACE DEVICE, OR MOBILE TRACKING DEVICE.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] An investigative or law enforcement officer with responsibility for an ongoing criminal investigation may make application for an order or an extension of an order under section 626A.37 authorizing or approving the installation and use of a pen register or a trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device under sections 626A.35 to 626A.39, in writing under oath or equivalent affirmation, to a district court.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF APPLICATION.] An application under subdivision 1 must include:

(1) the identity of the law enforcement or investigative officer making the application, the identity of any other officer or employee authorizing or directing the application, and the identity of the law enforcement agency conducting the investigation; and

(2) a certification by the applicant that the information likely to be obtained is relevant to an ongoing criminal investigation being conducted by that agency.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.37, is amended to read:

626A.37 [ISSUANCE OF AN ORDER FOR A PEN REGISTER OR A TRAP AND TRACE DEVICE, OR MOBILE TRACKING DEVICE.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] Upon an application made under section 626A.36, the court shall enter an ex parte order authorizing the installation and use of a pen register or a trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device within the jurisdiction of the court if the court finds that the law enforcement or investigative officer has certified to the court that the information likely to be obtained by the installation and use is relevant to an ongoing criminal investigation.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF ORDER.] (a) An order issued under this section must specify:

(1) the identity, if known, of the person to whom is leased or in whose name is listed the telephone line to which the pen register or trap and trace device is to be attached or of the person to be traced by the mobile tracking device;

(2) the identity, if known, of the person who is the subject of the criminal investigation;

(3) the number and, if known, physical location of the telephone line to which the pen register or trap and trace device is to be attached or the identity or nature of the object or objects to which the mobile tracking device is to be attached, and, in the case of a trap and trace device, the geographic limits of the trap and trace order; and

(4) a statement of the offense to which the information likely to be obtained by the pen register or trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device relates;

(5) the identity of the law enforcement or investigative officer responsible for installation and use of the pen register, trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device; and

(6) the period during which the use of the pen register, trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device is authorized.

(b) An order issued under this section must direct, upon the request of the applicant, the furnishing of information, facilities, and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the installation of the pen register or trap and trace device, or mobile tracking device under section 626A.38.

Subd. 3. [TIME PERIOD AND EXTENSIONS.] (a) An order issued under this section must authorize the installation and use of a pen register or a trap and trace device, or a mobile tracking device for a period not to exceed 60 days, or the period necessary to achieve the objective of the authorization, whichever is less.

(b) Extensions of an order may be granted, but only upon an application for an order under section 626A.36 and upon the judicial finding required by subdivision 1. The extension must include a statement of any changes in the information required in subdivision 2. The period of extension must be for a period not to exceed 60 days, or the period necessary to achieve the objective for which it is granted, whichever is less.

Subd. 4. [NONDISCLOSURE OF EXISTENCE OF PEN REGISTER OR A TRAP AND TRACE DEVICE, OR MOBILE TRACKING DEVICE.] An order authorizing or approving the installation and use of a pen register or a trap and trace device, or a mobile tracking device must direct that:

(1) the order be sealed until otherwise ordered by the court; and

(2) the person owning or leasing the line to which the pen register or a trap and trace device is attached, or who has been ordered by the court to provide assistance to the applicant, not disclose the existence of the pen register or trap and trace device, mobile tracking device, or the existence of the investigation to the listed subscriber, or to any other person, unless or until otherwise ordered by the court.

Subd. 5. [JURISDICTION.] A warrant or other order for a mobile tracking device issued under this section or other authority may authorize the use of a mobile tracking device within the jurisdiction of the court and outside of that jurisdiction as long as the device is installed in the jurisdiction.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.38, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PEN REGISTERS OR MOBILE TRACKING DEVICES.] Upon the request of an officer of a law enforcement agency authorized to install and use a pen register or mobile tracking device under sections 626A.35 to 626A.39, a provider of wire or electronic communication service, landlord, custodian, or other person shall furnish the investigative or law enforcement officer immediately with all information, facilities, and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the installation of the pen register or mobile tracking device unobtrusively and with a minimum of interference with the services that the person so ordered by the court accords the party with respect to whom the installation and use is to take place, if the assistance is directed by a court order as provided in section 626A.37, subdivision 2, paragraph (b).

Sec. 12. [626A.381] [SERVICE OF NOTICE; INVENTORY.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE REQUIRED.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, within a reasonable time not later than 90 days after the filing of an application under section 626A.36, if the application is denied, or of the termination of an order, as extended under section 626A.37, the issuing or denying judge shall have served on the persons named in the order or application an inventory that includes notice of:

(1) the fact of the entry of the order or the application;

(2) the date of the entry and the period of authorized, approved, or disapproved activity under the order, or the denial of the application; and

(3) the fact that during the period, activity did or did not take place under the order.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] On an ex parte showing of good cause, a judge may postpone or dispense with service of the inventory required by this section.

Subd. 3. [INSPECTION.] The judge, upon the filing of a motion, may make available to a person or the person's counsel portions of the results of activity under the order or referred to in the application, or the order or application as the judge determines is in the interest of justice.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.39, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [MOBILE TRACKING DEVICE.] "Mobile tracking device" means an electronic or mechanical device that permits the tracking of the movement of a person or object.

Sec. 14. [626A.391] [CIVIL ACTION; DAMAGES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] A person who is harmed by a violation of sections 626A.35 to 626A.39 may bring a civil action against the person who violated these sections for damages and other appropriate relief, including:

- (1) preliminary and equitable or declaratory relief; and
- (2) reasonable costs and attorneys fees.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION.] An action under this section must be commenced within two years after:

- (1) the occurrence of the violation; or
- (2) the date upon which the claimant first had a reasonable opportunity to discover the violation.

Subd. 3. [DEFENSES.]

- (1) A good faith reliance on a court warrant or order, a grand jury subpoena, or a statutory authorization; or
- (2) A good faith reliance on a request of an investigative or law enforcement officer under United States Code, title 18, section 2518(7) is a complete defense against any civil or criminal action brought under sections 626A.35 to 626A.39.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.40, is amended to read:

626A.40 [SUBJECT TO OTHER LAWS.]

Nothing in sections 626A.24 to 626A.39 must be considered to authorize this chapter authorizes conduct constituting a violation of any law of the United States.

Sec. 16. [626A.41] [CITATION.]

This chapter may be cited as the privacy of communications act.

Sec. 17. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 626A.12, subdivision 1a; 626A.22; 626A.23; 626A.24; and 626A.38, subdivision 5, are repealed.

Section 1. [8.16] [ATTORNEY GENERAL; ADMINISTRATIVE SUBPOENAS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The attorney general, or any deputy, assistant, or special assistant attorney general whom the attorney general authorizes in writing, has the authority in any county of the state to subpoena and require the production of any records of telephone companies, electric companies, gas companies, water utilities, chemical suppliers, hotels and motels, airlines, buses, taxis, and other entities engaged in the business of transporting people, and freight companies, warehousing companies, package delivery companies, and other entities engaged in the businesses of transport, storage, or delivery. Subpoenas may only be issued for records that are relevant to an ongoing legitimate law enforcement investigation.

Subd. 2. [ENFORCEMENT.] The subpoena shall be enforceable through the district court.

Subd. 3. [EXPENSES.] The person directed to produce the records must be paid reasonable expenses incurred in producing the records.

Subd. 4. [DISCLOSURE PROHIBITED.] The subpoena must state that the person to whom the subpoena is directed may not disclose the fact that the subpoena was issued or the fact that the requested records have been produced except:

(1) insofar as the disclosure is necessary to find and disclose the records; or

(2) pursuant to court order.

Subd. 5. [PENALTY.] The willful failure to produce the documents required by the subpoena is a misdemeanor.

Subd. 6. [EX PARTE ORDER.] Upon the ex parte request of the attorney issuing the subpoena, the district court may issue an order directing the production of the records. It is not necessary for either the request or the order to be filed with the court administrator. Failure to comply with the court order subjects the person who fails to comply to civil or criminal contempt of court, or both.

Sec. 2. [388.23] [COUNTY ATTORNEY; ADMINISTRATIVE SUBPOENAS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The county attorney, or any deputy or assistant county attorney whom the county attorney authorizes in writing, has the authority in that county to subpoena and require the production of any records of telephone companies, electric companies, gas companies, water utilities, chemical suppliers, hotels and motels, airlines, buses, taxis, and other entities engaged in the business of transporting people, and freight companies, warehousing companies, package delivery companies, and other entities engaged in the businesses of transport, storage, or delivery. Subpoenas may only be issued for records that are relevant to an ongoing legitimate law enforcement investigation.

Subd. 2. [ENFORCEMENT.] The subpoena shall be enforceable through the district court.

Subd. 3. [EXPENSES.] The person directed to produce the records shall be paid reasonable expenses incurred in producing the records.

Subd. 4. [DISCLOSURE PROHIBITED.] The subpoena must state that the person to whom the subpoena is directed may not disclose the fact that the subpoena was issued or the fact that the requested records have been given to law enforcement personnel except:

(1) insofar as the disclosure is necessary to find and disclose the records; or

(2) pursuant to court order.

Subd. 5. [PENALTY.] The willful failure to produce the documents required by the subpoena is a misdemeanor.

Subd. 6. [EX PARTE ORDER.] Upon the ex parte request of the attorney issuing the subpoena, the district court may issue an order directing the production of the records. It is not necessary for either the request or the order to be filed with the court administrator. Failure to comply with the court order subjects the person who fails to comply to civil or criminal contempt of court, or both.

Sec. 3. [609.497] [WARNING SUBJECT OF SURVEILLANCE OR SEARCH.]

Subdivision 1. [ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION.] Whoever, having knowledge that an investigative or law enforcement officer has been authorized or has applied for authorization under sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 to intercept a wire, oral, or electronic communication, and with intent to obstruct, impede, or prevent interception, gives notice or attempts to give notice of the possible interception to a person, may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

Subd. 2. [PEN REGISTER.] Whoever, having knowledge that an investigative or law enforcement officer has been authorized or has applied for authorization under sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 to install and use a pen register or a trap and trace device, and with intent to obstruct, impede, or prevent the purposes for which the installation and use is being made, gives notice or attempts to give notice of the installation or use to any person, may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

Subd. 3. [SEARCH WARRANT.] Whoever, having knowledge that a peace officer has been issued or has applied for the issuance of a search warrant, and with intent to obstruct, impede, or prevent the search, gives notice or attempts to give notice of the search or search warrant to any person, may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

Sec. 4. [609.4971] [WARNING SUBJECT OF INVESTIGATION.]

Whoever, having knowledge that a subpoena has been issued under sections 1 and 2, and with intent to obstruct, impede, or prevent the investigation for which the subpoena was issued, gives notice or attempts to give notice of the issuance of the subpoena or the production of the documents to a person, may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626A.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [THE APPLICATIONS.] Each application for a warrant authorizing or approving the interception of a wire, electronic, or oral communication shall be made in writing upon oath or affirmation to a judge of the district court, of the court of appeals, or of the supreme court and shall state the applicant's authority to make such application. Each application shall include the following information:

(a) the identity of the investigative or law enforcement officer making the application, and the officer authorizing the application;

(b) a full and complete statement of the facts and circumstances relied upon by the applicant, to justify the applicant's belief that an order should be issued, including (i) details as to the particular offense that has been, is being, or is about to be committed, (ii) except as provided in subdivision 11, a particular description of the nature and location of the facilities from which or the place where the communication is to be intercepted, (iii) a particular description of the type of communications sought to be intercepted, (iv) the identity of the person, if known, committing the offense and whose communications are to be intercepted;

(c) a full and complete statement as to whether or not other investigative procedures have been tried and failed or why they reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed if tried or to be too dangerous;

(d) a statement of the period of time for which the interception is required to be maintained. If the nature of the investigation is such that the authorization for interception should not automatically terminate when the described type of communication has been first obtained, a particular description of facts establishing probable cause to believe that additional communications of the same type will occur thereafter;

(e) a full and complete statement of the facts concerning all previous applications known to the individual authorizing and making the application, made to any judge for authorization to intercept, or for approval of interceptions of, wire, electronic, or oral communications involving any of the same persons, facilities, or places specified in the application, and the action taken by the judge on each such application;

(f) where statements in the application are solely upon the information or belief of the applicant, the grounds for the belief must be given; and

(g) the names of persons submitting affidavits in support of the application.

Sec. 6. [626A.065] [EMERGENCY INTERCEPTION.]

Notwithstanding any other provision in sections 626A.01 to 626A.23, any investigative or law enforcement officer, specially designated by the attorney general or a county attorney, who:

(1) reasonably determines that:

(i) an emergency situation exists that involves immediate danger of death or serious physical injury to any person that requires a wire, oral, or electronic communication to be intercepted before a warrant authorizing such interception can, with due diligence, be obtained; and

(ii) there are grounds upon which a warrant could be issued under section 626A.01 to 626A.23 to authorize the interception; and

(2) obtains approval from a judge of the district court, of the court of appeals; or of the supreme court, may intercept the wire, oral, or electronic communication. The judge's approval may be given orally and may be given in person or by using any medium of communication. The judge shall do one of the following: make written notes summarizing the conversation, tape record the conversation, or have a court reporter record the conversation. An application for a warrant approving the interception must be made in accordance with section 626A.06 within 36 hours after the interception has occurred, or begins to occur. In the absence of a warrant, the interception must immediately end when the communication sought is obtained or when the application for the warrant is denied, whichever is earlier. If application for approval is denied, or in any other case where the interception is ended without a warrant having been issued, the contents of a wire, oral, or electronic communication intercepted must be treated as having been obtained in violation of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 and an inventory shall be served as provided for in section 626A.10 on the person named in the application.

Sec. 7. Laws 1988, chapter 577, section 63, is amended to read:

Sec. 63. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 61 are effective August 1, 1988, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date. Section 62 is effective August 1, 1989.

Sec. 8. [REPEALER.]

Laws 1988, chapter 577, section 62, is repealed.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 7 and 8 are effective the day following final enactment."

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [157.031] [ADDITIONAL LICENSE REQUIRED FOR BOARD AND LODGING ESTABLISHMENTS; SPECIAL SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Supportive services" means the provision of supervision and minimal assistance with independent living skills such as social and recreational opportunities, assistance with transportation, arranging for meetings and appointments, arranging for medical and social services, and dressing, grooming, or bathing. Supportive services also include providing reminders to residents to take medications that are self administered or providing storage for medications if requested.

(b) "Health supervision services" means the provision of assistance in the preparation and administration of medications other than injectables, the provision of therapeutic diets, taking vital signs, or providing assistance in bathing or with walking devices.

Subd. 2. [REGISTRATION.] A board and lodging establishment that provides supportive services or health supervision services must register with the commissioner by September 1, 1989. The registration must include the name, address, and telephone number of the establishment, the types of services that are being provided, a description of the residents being served, the type and qualifications of staff in the facility, and other information that is necessary to identify the needs of the residents and the types of services that are being provided. The commissioner shall develop and furnish to the board and lodging establishment the necessary form for submitting the registration. The requirement for registration is effective until the special license rules required by subdivision 5 are effective.

Subd. 3. [RESTRICTION ON THE PROVISION OF SERVICES.] Effective September 1, 1989, and until the rules required under subdivision 5 are adopted, a board and lodging establishment may provide health supervision services only if a licensed nurse is on site in the facility for at least four hours a week to provide supervision and health monitoring of the residents. A board and lodging facility that admits or retains residents using wheelchairs or walkers must have the necessary clearances from the office of the state fire marshal.

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL LICENSE REQUIRED.] Upon adoption of the rules required by subdivision 5, a board and lodging establishment that provides either supportive care or health supervision services must obtain a special license from the commissioner. The special license is required until rules resulting from the recommendations made in accordance with section 2 are implemented.

Subd. 5. [RULES.] By July 1, 1990, the commissioner of health shall adopt rules necessary to implement the special license provisions. The rules may address the type of services that can be provided, staffing requirements, and the training and qualifications of staff. The rules must set a fee for the issuance of the special service license. The special license fee is in addition to the license fee prescribed in section 157.03.

Subd. 6. [SERVICES THAT MAY NOT BE PROVIDED IN A BOARD AND LODGING ESTABLISHMENT.] A board and lodging establishment may not admit or retain individuals who:

(1) would require assistance from facility staff because of the following needs: incontinence, catheter care, use of injectable or parenteral medications, wound care, or dressing changes or irrigations of any kind; or

(2) require a level of care and supervision beyond supportive services or health supervision services.

Subd. 7. [CERTAIN INDIVIDUALS MAY PROVIDE SERVICES.] This section does not prohibit the provision of health care services to residents of a board and lodging establishment by family members of the resident or by a registered or licensed home care agency employed by the resident.

Subd. 8. [EXEMPTION FOR ESTABLISHMENTS WITH A HUMAN SERVICES LICENSE.] This section does not apply to a board and lodging establishment that is licensed by the commissioner of human services under chapter 245A.

Subd. 9. [VIOLATIONS.] The commissioner may revoke both the special service license, when issued, and the establishment license, if the establishment is found to be in violation of this section. Violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.06, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. When a general assistance grant is used to pay a negotiated rate for a recipient living in a room and board arrangement or congregate living care, or when a recipient is living in a state hospital or nursing home, the recipient shall receive an allowance for clothing and personal needs and the allowance shall not be less than that authorized for a medical assistance recipient pursuant to section 256B.35.

When a general assistance grant is used to pay a negotiated rate for a recipient living in a facility not certified to participate in the medical assistance program that is licensed as a boarding care facility, or which provides chemical dependency service to clients, the following provisions apply. The negotiated rate must be adjusted by the annual percentage change in the consumer price index (CPI-U United States city average), as published by the bureau of labor statistics between the previous two Septembers, new series index (1967-100) or 2.5 percent. If the negotiated rate is adjusted by the annual percentage change in the consumer price index, and this percentage is greater than 2.5, the county shall require a written affidavit from the facility. This affidavit must include assurances that the amount of increased reimbursement to the facility attributable to that portion of the percentage adjustment increase constituting the difference between the consumer price index percentage change and 2.5 percent shall be used for equitable increases for employee salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits.

Sec. 3. [SUPPORTIVE RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS REPORT.]

Subdivision 1. [SUPPORTIVE RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM REGULATION RECOMMENDATION.] By February 1, 1990, the commissioners of health and human services shall jointly make a recommendation to the legislature on the regulation and licensure of facilities and programs that provide housing services and provide or coordinate supportive services or health supervision services to residents. The recommendations must address:

(1) the existing use of residential arrangements with a lodging, hotel, or food service license under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 157;

(2) existing county board and local human service agency administrative or certification standards for board and lodging houses or supportive living residences;

(3) county referral and placement practices for persons who, in addition to food or lodging services, need assistance with health or supportive services;

(4) the status of persons in these facilities with respect to the vulnerable adults abuse reporting act and their need for referral to protective services or social services for assessment prior to placement by the county or referral to the residence by the county;

(5) the applicability of laws governing the rights of patients and residents specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 144.651, and the rights of tenants in housing;

(6) a determination as to the need for and degree of regulation of these services;

(7) recommendations for repeal or revision of existing facility and program statutes and regulations; and

(8) a fiscal analysis of the current costs associated with the provision of supportive programs and facilities, recommendations for methods for maximizing all funding sources used for these services, and an analysis of the costs for licensure and regulation.

Subd. 2. [CONSULTATION WITH AFFECTED PARTIES.] In developing the recommendations, the commissioners may consult other state departments and agencies, the interagency board for quality assurance established under Minnesota Statutes, section 144A.31, counties and other affected political subdivisions, advocacy groups, representatives or owners of facilities and programs, lodging houses and assisted or supportive living services, and service consumers.

Subd. 3. [COUNTY REPORTING.] No later than September 1, 1989, and annually after that date, the county board or human services board in each county shall report to the commissioner of human services the names and addresses of the owners and operators of all facilities and programs with which the county has a negotiated rate agreement and which are not licensed under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 144, 144A, or 245A. The report must identify the amount of the negotiated rate for each facility or program, services other than the provision of lodging that the owner or operator is responsible for coordinating or providing, the number of persons receiving services, and the per unit cost for the services. No later than September 1, 1989, the county board or human services agency in each county shall also provide the commissioner of human services with a copy of any administrative standards or certification standards adopted by or used by the county for board and lodging facilities and supervised living residences that are in addition to or different from those contained in Minnesota Rules, chapter 4625, or that are for facilities and programs not licensed under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 144, 144A, or 245A.

Sec. 4. [LICENSURE EXCLUSIONS.]

Until July 1, 1990, Minnesota Statutes, sections 245A.01 to 245A.16, do not apply to board and lodging establishments licensed by the commissioner of health that provide services for five or more persons whose primary diagnosis is mental illness and who have refused an appropriate residential program offered by a county agency."

H. F. No. 1339 was reported to the House.

Anderson, R.; Simoneau; Skoglund and Bishop moved to amend H. F. No. 1339, the first engrossment, as follows:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 38.013, is amended to read:

38.013 [TORT LIABILITY.]

The provisions of chapter 466, regarding tort liability apply to county agricultural societies organized under this chapter, except that no person who serves without compensation as a member of the board of a county agricultural society created or organized under chapter 38 shall be held civilly liable for an act or omission by that person if the act or omission was in good faith, was within the scope of the person's responsibilities as a member of the board and did not constitute willful or reckless misconduct.

This subdivision does not apply to:

(1) an action or proceeding brought by the attorney general for a breach of a fiduciary duty as a director;

(2) a cause of action to the extent it is based on federal law; or

(3) a cause of action based on the board member's express contractual obligation.

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the liability of a member of the board for physical injury to the person of another or for wrongful death which is personally and directly caused by the board member.

For purposes of this subdivision the term "compensation" means any thing of value received for services rendered, except:

(1) reimbursement for expenses actually incurred;

(2) a per diem in an amount not to exceed the per diem authorized for state advisory councils and committees pursuant to section 15.059, subdivision 3; or

(3) payment by the county agricultural society of insurance premiums on behalf of a member of the board."

Amend the title accordingly.

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Anderson, G.; Girard; Munger; Olson, K.; Cooper; Uphus and McDonald moved to amend H. F. No. 1113, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 239.79, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GASOLINE-ALCOHOL BLENDS; IDENTIFICATION PRODUCT INFORMATION AVAILABLE.] When gasoline blended with alcohol is sold, offered for sale, or dispensed for use in motor vehicles, the dispenser shall be clearly marked to identify the type of alcohol, if more than one percent by volume, blended with the gasoline. The marking must consist of a white or yellow adhesive decal at least two inches by six inches with clearly printed black lettering at least one-half inch high and one-eighth inch in stroke. The marking shall be conspicuously displayed on both sides of the dispenser and state that the gasoline "CONTAINS ETHANOL" or "CONTAINS METHANOL" or has been "ETHANOL ENRICHED." This subdivision does not prohibit the posting of other alcohol or additive information. A sign stating "INFORMATION ON THE CONTENTS AND PROPERTIES OF MOTOR FUELS SOLD HERE IS AVAILABLE FROM THE SALES ATTENDANT" shall be displayed conspicuously on the premises.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 239.79, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [MOTOR FUEL INFORMATION SHEET.]

A materials safety data sheet fulfills the information requirements of subdivision 2."

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Begich from the Committee on Labor-Management Relations to which was referred:

H. F. No. 30, A bill for an act relating to employment; requiring breaks during the work day; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 177.32, subdivision 1; and 177.33; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 177.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [177.254] [MANDATORY MEAL BREAK.]

Subdivision 1. [MEAL BREAK.] An employer must permit each employee who is working for six or more consecutive hours sufficient time to eat a meal.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT NOT REQUIRED.] Nothing in this section requires the employer to pay the employee during the meal break.

Subd. 3. [COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT.] Nothing in this section prohibits employers and employees from establishing meal periods different from those provided in this section pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement.”

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, lines 3 and 4, delete “amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 177.32, subdivision 1; and 177.33;”

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

The report was adopted.

Sarna from the Committee on Commerce to which was referred:

H. F. No. 186, A bill for an act relating to employment; protective agents; prohibiting employers to hire as a protective agent a person convicted of certain crimes; disqualifying persons convicted of criminal sexual conduct from holding a license to operate a private detective or protective agent service; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 326.336, subdivision 1; 326.3381, subdivision 3, and by adding a subdivision; and 364.09.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.32, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10c. "Proprietary employer" means an individual, partnership, or corporation that is not engaged in the business of providing protective agents but employs individuals to serve as security guards solely on the employer's property and its curtilage.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.32, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. (a) "Security guard" means a person who wears or carries any insignia that identifies the person to the public as security, who is paid a fee, wage, or salary to do one or more of the following:

(1) prevent or detect intrusion, unauthorized entry or activity, vandalism, or trespass on private property;

(2) prevent or detect theft, loss, embezzlement, misappropriation, or concealment of merchandise, money, bonds, stocks, notes, or other valuable documents or papers;

(3) control, regulate, or direct the flow or movements of the public, whether by vehicle or otherwise, to assure protection of private property;

(4) protect individuals from bodily harm; or

(5) enforce policies and rules of the security guard's employer related to crime reduction to the extent that the enforcement falls within the scope of the security guard's duties.

(b) The term "security guard" does not include:

(1) an auditor, accountant, or accounting clerk performing audits or accounting functions;

(2) an employee of a firm licensed under section 326.3381 whose duties are primarily administrative or clerical in nature;

(3) a person employed by a proprietary company to conduct plain-clothes surveillance or investigation;

(4) a person temporarily employed under statute or ordinance by political subdivisions to provide protective services at social functions;

(5) an employee of an air or rail carrier;

(6) a customer service representative or sales clerk employed in a retail establishment; or

(7) a person employed to perform primarily maintenance or custodial functions.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.336, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A license holder may employ, in connection with the business of private detective or protective agent, as many unlicensed persons as may be necessary; provided that every license holder is at all times accountable for the good conduct of every person employed. When a license holder hires a person to perform services as a private detective or protective agent, the employer shall submit to the bureau of criminal apprehension a full set of fingerprints of each employee and the written consent of the employee or prospective employee for to enable the bureau to determine whether that person has a criminal record. The employee is a conditional employee until the employer receives a report from the bureau that, based on a check of the criminal records maintained by the bureau, the prospective employee has not been convicted in Minnesota of a felony or any offense listed in section 326.3381, subdivision 3, other than a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor assault. During the period of conditional employment, the person may not serve as a private detective or protective agent, but may be trained by the employer. The bureau shall immediately request the Federal Bureau of Investigation to conduct a check of each conditional employee's criminal record, and the bureau of criminal apprehension shall immediately forward the results to the employer when they are received. If the bureau report or Federal Bureau of Investigation report indicates that the employee was convicted of a disqualifying offense, the employer shall immediately dismiss the employee.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.3381, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [PROPRIETARY EMPLOYERS.] A proprietary employer is not required to obtain a license, but must comply with section 326.336, subdivision 1, with respect to the hiring of security guards.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.3381, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DISQUALIFICATION.] No person is qualified to hold a license who has:

(1) been convicted of (i) a felony by the courts of this or any other state or of the United States; (ii) acts which, if done in Minnesota, would be criminal sexual conduct; assault; theft; larceny; burglary; robbery; unlawful entry; extortion; defamation; buying or receiving stolen property; using, possessing, manufacturing, or carrying weapons unlawfully; using, possessing, or carrying burglary tools unlawfully; escape; possession, production, sale, or distribution of narcotics unlawfully; or (iii) in any other country of acts which, if done in Minnesota, would be a felony or would be any of the other offenses provided in this clause and for which a full pardon or similar relief has not been granted;

(2) made any false statement in an application for a license or any document required to be submitted to the board; or

(3) failed to demonstrate to the board good character, honesty, and integrity.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 364.09, is amended to read:

364.09 [EXCEPTIONS.]

This chapter shall not apply to the practice of law enforcement, to eligibility for a private detective or protective agent license, to eligibility for a family day care license, a family foster care license, a home care provider license, or to eligibility for school bus driver endorsements. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the Minnesota police and peace officers training board from recommending policies set forth in this chapter to the attorney general for adoption in the attorney general's discretion to apply to law enforcement.

Sec. 7. [EFFECT ON CURRENT EMPLOYEES.]

Sections 1 to 4 do not apply to persons hired before the effective date of those sections.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective the day following final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to employment; protective agents; prohibiting employers to hire as a protective agent a person convicted of certain crimes; disqualifying persons convicted of criminal sexual conduct from holding a license to operate a private detective or protective agent service; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 326.32, by adding subdivisions; 326.336, subdivision 1; 326.3381, subdivision 3, and by adding a subdivision; and 364.09."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 202A.13, is amended to read:

202A.13 [COMMITTEES, CONVENTIONS.]

The rules of each major political party shall provide that for each congressional district and each county or legislative district a convention shall be held at least once every state general election year. Each major political party shall also provide for each congressional district and each county or legislative district an executive committee consisting of a chair and such other officers as may be necessary. The party rules may provide for only one executive committee and one convention where any county and congressional district have the same territorial limits.

A communicatively impaired delegate or alternate who needs interpreter services at a county, legislative district, state, or congressional district convention shall so notify the executive committee of the major political party unit whose convention the delegate or alternate plans to attend. Written notice must be given by certified mail to the executive committee at least 30 days before the convention date. The major political party, not later than 14 days before the convention date, shall secure the services of one or more interpreters if available and shall submit a request for reimbursement for the cost of the services to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall adopt a schedule of reimbursement fees by rule.

A visually impaired delegate or alternate to a county, legislative district, state, or congressional district convention may notify the executive committee of the major political party unit that the delegate or alternate requires convention materials in audio tape, Braille, or large print format. Upon receiving the request, the executive committee shall provide all official written convention materials as soon as they are available, so that the visually impaired individual may have them converted to audio tape, Braille, or large print format, prior to the convention.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 202A.15, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The precinct caucuses shall be held at the regular polling places for each precinct or other suitable places designated in the call, and no caucus may be adjourned to any other place or time.

In the event that there is only one suitable meeting place in the precinct polling place and the major political parties cannot agree as to its use, the county auditor shall decide by lot prior to January 15, 1970, the party which is to receive the use of the meeting place in years evenly divisible by four and which party shall receive the use of the meeting place in other years in which a state general election is held. The report of such selections by lot in the county shall be filed by the auditor with the county board which shall publish the same as a part of the minutes of the board meeting at which the report is filed.

A precinct caucus must be held at a place that meets the accessibility standards for precinct polling places specified in section 204B.16, subdivision 5. In addition, the place where a precinct caucus is held must contain restrooms that conform to the standards in the state building code for accessibility by handicapped persons. If a precinct caucus is held on a floor of a building that is either above or below the entrance level for the building, an elevator must be available. Any elevators used for access to the room where the precinct caucus is held must conform to the standards in the state building code for accessibility by handicapped persons.

If there are not enough places within a precinct that are or can be made accessible as provided by this subdivision and section 204B.16, subdivision 5, for each major party to hold its precinct caucus, a major party may hold its caucus at a place outside one of the boundaries of the precinct in order to comply with accessibility requirements.

If only one place satisfies the accessibility and location requirements of this subdivision, the major parties shall alternate use of the place. Prior to January 1, 1990, the county auditor shall decide by lot which party is to use the accessible place in years evenly divisible by four and which party is to use the place in other years when a state general election is held.

Sec. 3. [202A.155] [INTERPRETER SERVICES; CAUCUS MATERIALS.]

A communicatively impaired individual who needs interpreter services at a precinct caucus shall so notify the major political party whose caucus the individual plans to attend, and shall provide written notice by certified mail to the county or legislative district committee of the political party at least 30 days before the precinct caucus date. The major political party, not later than 14 days before the precinct caucus date, shall secure the services of one or more interpreters if available and shall submit a request for reimbursement for the cost of the services to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall adopt a schedule of reimbursement fees by rule.

A visually impaired individual may notify the county or legislative district committee of the major political party whose precinct caucus the individual plans to attend, that the individual requires caucus materials in audio tape, Braille, or large type format. Upon receiving the request, the county or legislative district committee shall provide all official written caucus materials as soon as they are available, so that the visually impaired individual may have them converted to audio tape, Braille, or large print format prior to the precinct caucus.

Sec. 4. [202A.156] [INTERPRETER SERVICES AND ACCESSIBLE PRECINCT CAUCUS EXEMPTIONS.]

A major political party is not required to:

(1) provide an interpreter for a convention or precinct caucus if it has made documented good faith efforts to locate and assign an interpreter, including contacting an interpreter referral center or regional service center for the hearing impaired, and no interpreters are available; or

(2) hold a precinct caucus at a place that meets the accessibility standards for precinct polling places specified in section 2, if it has made documented good faith efforts to locate and secure an available accessible site within a reasonable distance of the precinct, and no accessible site is available.

Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATION.]

§ is appropriated from the general fund to the secretary of state to reimburse major political parties for the costs of providing interpreter services to communicatively impaired persons."

H. F. No. 357, A bill for an act relating to commerce; requiring businesses offering check cashing services to be licensed; establishing a maximum fee to be charged for check cashing services; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 55A.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [53A.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [CURRENCY EXCHANGE.] "Currency exchange" means any person, except a bank, trust company, savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or industrial loan and thrift company, engaged in the business of cashing checks and drafts or selling money orders or travelers' checks for a fee. "Currency exchange" does not include a person who provides these services incidental to the person's primary business if the charge for cashing a check or draft does not exceed $1.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of commerce.

Sec. 2. [53A.02] [LICENSE.]

A person may not engage in the business of a currency exchange without first obtaining a license from the commissioner.

Sec. 3. [53A.03] [APPLICATION FOR LICENSE; FEES.]

(a) An application for a license must be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed and furnished by the commissioner and must contain the following:

(1) the full name and address (both of residence and place of business) of the applicant, and if the applicant is a partnership or association, of every member, and the name and business address if the applicant is a corporation;

(2) the county and municipality, with street and number, if any, of all currency exchange locations operated by the applicant; and

(3) the applicant's occupation or profession, for the ten years immediately preceding the application; present or previous connection with any other currency exchange in this or any other state; whether the applicant has ever been convicted of any crime; and the nature of the applicant's occupancy of the premises to be licensed; and if the applicant is a partnership or a corporation, the information specified in this paragraph must be supplied for each partner and each officer and director of the corporation. If the applicant is a partnership or a nonpublicly held corporation, the information specified in this paragraph must be required of each partner and each officer, director, and stockholders owing in excess of ten percent of the corporate stock of the corporation.

(b) The application shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of $250 for the review of the initial application. Upon approval by the commissioner, an additional license fee of $50 must be paid by the applicant as an annual license fee for the remainder of the calendar year. An annual license fee of $50 is due for each subsequent calendar year of operation upon submission of a license renewal application on or before December 1. Upon payment of the required annual license fee, the commissioner shall issue a license for the year beginning January 1.

Sec. 4. [53A.04] [APPROVAL OR DENIAL OF AN APPLICATION.]

The commissioner shall approve or deny an application within 30 days from the completed filing of it. If the application is denied, the commissioner shall send by mail notice of the denial and the reason for the denial to the applicant at the address contained in the application. If an application is denied, the applicant may, within 30 days of receiving the notice of a denial, request a contested case hearing pursuant to chapter 14.

Sec. 5. [53A.05] [CHANGE OF NAME OR LOCATION.]

If a licensee proposes to change the name or location of any or all of its currency exchanges, or adds a new currency exchange location, the licensee shall file an application for approval of the change with the commissioner. If the change is approved by the commissioner, the commissioner shall issue an amended license in the licensee's new name or location. A $50 fee must be paid for the amended license.

Sec. 6. [53A.06] [FINE, SUSPENSION, OR REVOCATION OF LICENSE.]

(a) The commissioner may suspend or revoke any license under section 45.027 if the commissioner finds that:

(1) the licensee has failed to pay the annual license fee or to maintain in effect the required bond or to comply with any order, decision, or finding of the commissioner under this act;

(2) the licensee, or any officer or director of a corporate licensee, has violated any provision of this act or any rule or order of the commissioner under this chapter or chapter 45;

(3) the licensee, or any officer or director of a corporate licensee, has violated any other law which would indicate that the person is untrustworthy or not qualified to operate a currency exchange; or

(4) any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original or renewal application for the license, would have warranted the commissioner refusing the issuance of the license.

(b) A license may not be revoked until the licensee has had notice of a hearing pursuant to the provisions of chapter 14.

(c) A licensee may surrender any license by delivery to the commissioner. The surrender does not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed before the surrender, or affect the liability on the bond required by this act or entitle the licensee to a return of any part of any license fee.

(d) Before suspension or revocation of the license, the commissioner may fine a licensee for violations of this act as authorized under chapter 45.

Sec. 7. [53A.07] [FILING OF FEES; UNREASONABLE FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROVAL OF FEES.] Fees charged at each location for check cashing services must be filed with and approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [AMENDMENT OF FEES.] A licensee may amend its fees at any time by filing the proposed amendments with the commissioner. The application for amendment shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the commissioner. A fee of $50 shall accompany the application. The commissioner shall approve or deny the application 60 days after the filing of a complete application to amend its fees.

Subd. 3. [STANDARDS; UNREASONABLE FEES PROHIBITED.] The commissioner may disapprove the fees filed by a currency exchange if they are not fair and reasonable. In determining whether a fee is fair and reasonable, the commissioner shall take into consideration:

(1) rates charged in the past for cashing of checks by those persons and organizations providing check cashing services in the state of Minnesota;

(2) the income, cost, and experience of the operations of currency exchanges existing prior to this enactment or in other states under similar conditions or regulations;

(3) the amount of risk involved in the type of check to be cashed and the location where the currency exchange operates;

(4) the general cost of doing business, insurance costs, security costs, banking fees, and other costs associated with the operations of the particular currency exchange;

(5) a reasonable profit for a currency exchange operation; and

(6) any other matter the commissioner deems appropriate. The commissioner shall set a separate rate, consistent with the above standards, for checks issued by a government entity in an amount up to $500 to be cashed by a currency exchange.

Sec. 8. [53A.08] [BOND.]

Any currency exchange that engages in the sale of money orders or travelers' checks shall comply with bonding requirements pursuant to section 48.151.

Sec. 9. [53A.09] [POWERS; LIMITATIONS; PROHIBITIONS.]

A currency exchange may not accept money or currency for deposit, or act as bailee or agent for persons, firms, partnerships, associations, or corporations to hold money or currency in escrow for others for any purpose.

Sec. 10. [53A.10] [VIOLATIONS.]

Any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation that violates this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 11. [53A.11] [BOOKS OF ACCOUNT; ANNUAL REPORT.]

The licensee shall keep and use in the licensee's business the books, accounts, and records that will enable the commissioner to determine whether the licensee is complying with the provisions of this act and with the rules adopted by the commissioner. A licensee shall preserve the books, accounts, and records for at least two years after making the final entry.

Sec. 12. [53A.12] [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt rules under chapter 14 as may be necessary to administer and enforce this chapter.

Sec. 13. [53A.13] [FEE NOTICE; FALSE ADVERTISING; PENALTY.]

Subdivision 1. [FEE NOTICE.] The fees charged by currency exchanges for rendering any service authorized by this act must be prominently displayed on the premises of the currency exchange in the fashion required by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [FALSE ADVERTISING.] A licensee may not advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast any statement or representation that is false, misleading, or deceptive, or that omits material information.

Subd. 3. [CIVIL LIABILITY; PENALTY.] A person who violates any subdivision of this chapter is liable to the person damaged by the violation for actual damages. The court may award reasonable attorney fees and costs.

Sec. 14. [53A.14] [EFFECT ON LOCAL LAW.]

Local law requirements that are inconsistent with the requirements in this chapter are preempted to the extent of the inconsistency.

Sec. 15. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 14 are effective August 1, 1989. Existing currency exchanges must submit applications in compliance with this chapter by October 1, 1989. No currency exchange shall operate without a license after December 31, 1989."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POLICY.] The objectives of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 are to provide a sound administrative structure for public assistance programs; to maximize the use of federal money for public assistance purposes; and to provide an integrated public assistance program for all persons in the state without adequate income or resources to maintain a subsistence reasonably compatible with decency and health; and to provide work readiness services to help employable and potentially employable persons prepare for and attain self-sufficiency and obtain permanent work.

It is declared to be the policy of this state that persons unable to provide for themselves and not otherwise provided for by law and who meet the eligibility requirements of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 are entitled to receive grants of general assistance necessary to maintain a subsistence reasonably compatible with decency and health. Providing this assistance is a matter of public concern and a necessity in promoting the public health and welfare.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [STANDARDS.] (1) (a) A principal objective in providing general assistance is to provide for persons ineligible for federal programs who are unable to provide for themselves. The minimum standard of assistance determines the total amount of the general assistance grant without separate standards for shelter, utilities, or other needs.

(2) (b) The commissioner shall set the standard of assistance for an assistance unit consisting of an adult recipient who is childless and unmarried or living apart from children and spouse and who does not live with a parent or parents or a legal custodian. When the other standards specified in this subdivision increase, this standard shall must also be increased by the same percentage.

(3) (c) For an assistance unit consisting of a single adult who lives with a parent or parents, the general assistance standard of assistance ~~shall be equal to~~ is the amount that the aid to families with dependent children standard of assistance would increase if the recipient were added as an additional minor child to an assistance unit consisting of the recipient's parent and all of that parent's family members, provided except that the standard shall may not exceed the standard for a general assistance recipient living alone.

Benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the supplemental security income program, a workers' compensation program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, or any other program based on the responsible relative's disability, and any benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the social security retirement program, shall may not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit. Except as provided below, the assistance unit is ineligible for general assistance if the available resources or the countable income of the assistance unit and the parent or parents with whom the assistance unit lives are such that a family consisting of the assistance unit's parent or parents, the parent or parents' other family members and the assistance unit as the only or additional minor child would be financially ineligible for general assistance. For the purposes of calculating the countable income of the assistance unit's parent or parents, use the calculation methods, income deductions, exclusions, and disregards used when calculating the countable income for a single adult or childless couple must be used.

(4) (d) For an assistance unit consisting of a childless couple, the standards of assistance shall be equal to are the same as the first and second adult standards of the aid to families with dependent children program. If one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant, then the standard of assistance for the other shall be equal to is the second adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program; except that, when one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant because that member is not categorically eligible for general assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, and has exhausted work readiness eligibility under section 256D.051, subdivision 4 or 5, for the period of time covered by the general assistance grant, then the standard of assistance for the remaining member of the couple shall be equal to the first adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program.

(5) (e) For an assistance unit consisting of all members of a family, the standards of assistance shall be are the same as the standards of assistance applicable that apply to a family under the aid to families with dependent children program if that family had the same number of parents and children as the assistance unit under general assistance and if all members of that family were eligible for the aid to families with dependent children program. If one or more members of the family are not included in the assistance unit for general assistance, the standards of assistance for the remaining members shall be equal to are the same as the standards of assistance applicable that apply to an assistance unit composed of the entire family, less the standards of assistance applicable to for a family of the same number of parents and children as those members of the family who are not in the assistance unit for general assistance. Notwithstanding the foregoing However, if an assistance unit consists solely of the minor children because their parent or parents have been sanctioned from receiving benefits from the aid to families with dependent children program, the standard for the assistance unit shall be equal to is the same as the special child standard of the aid to families with dependent children program. A child shall may not be excluded from the assistance unit unless income intended for its benefit is received from a federally aided categorical assistance program or supplemental security income. The income of a child who is excluded from the assistance unit shall may not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.01, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt emergency rules and shall adopt permanent rules to set standards of assistance and methods of calculating payment to conform with subdivision 1a this section. The minimum standards of assistance shall authorize the payment of rates negotiated by local agencies for recipients living in a room and board arrangement. Except for payments made to a secure crisis shelter under section 256D.05, subdivision 3, monthly general assistance payments for rates negotiated by a local agency on behalf of recipients living in a room and board, boarding care, supervised living, or adult foster care arrangement must not exceed the limits established under the Minnesota supplemental aid program. In order to maximize the use of federal funds, the commissioner shall adopt rules, to the extent permitted by federal law for eligibility for the emergency assistance program under aid to families with dependent children, and under the terms of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 for general assistance, to require use of the emergency program under aid to families with dependent children as the primary financial resource when available. The commissioner shall provide by rule for eligibility for general assistance of persons with seasonal income, and may attribute seasonal income to other periods not in excess of one year from receipt by an applicant or recipient.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.01, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS TO FACILITIES.] (a) The commissioner shall make authorize the payment of rates negotiated by local agencies for recipients living in a room and board arrangement. Except for payments made to a secure crisis shelter under section 256D.05, subdivision 3, monthly general assistance payments for rates negotiated by a local agency on behalf of recipients living in a room and board, boarding care, supervised living, or adult foster care arrangement may not exceed the limits established under the Minnesota supplemental aid program. No payments under subdivision 1b this paragraph may be made to facilities a facility licensed after August 1, 1987, which have that has more than four residents with a diagnosis of mental illness except for facilities unless the facility is specifically licensed to serve persons with mental illness. The commissioner of health shall monitor newly-licensed facilities and shall report to the commissioner of human services facilities that are not in compliance with this section.

(b) In order to maximize the use of federal funds, the commissioner shall adopt rules, to the extent permitted by federal law, for eligibility for the emergency assistance program under aid to families with dependent children, and under the terms of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 for general assistance, to require use of the emergency program under aid to families with dependent children as the primary financial resource when available.

(c) The commissioner shall adopt rules for eligibility for general assistance of persons with seasonal income, and may attribute seasonal income to other periods not in excess of one year from receipt by an applicant or recipient.

(d) General assistance payments may not be made for foster care, child welfare services, or other social services.

(e) Vendor payments and vouchers may be issued only as authorized in sections 256D.05, subdivision 6, and 256D.09.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For purposes of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings given them unless otherwise provided or indicated by the context.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE.] "General assistance" means cash payments to persons unable to provide themselves with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health and who are not otherwise provided for under the laws of this state or the United States. General assistance shall not include payments for foster care, child welfare services, or other social services. Vendor payments and vouchers may be issued only as provided for in section 256D.09.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For the period from January 1 to June 30, state aid shall be paid to local agencies for 75 percent of all general assistance and work readiness grants up to the standards of sections 256D.01, subdivision 1a, and 256D.051, and according to procedures established by the commissioner, except as provided for under section 256.017. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period, except as provided for in section 256.017.

For the period from July 1 to December 31, state aid shall be paid to local agencies for 100 percent of all general assistance and work readiness grants up to the standards of sections 256D.01, subdivision 1a, and 256D.051, and according to procedures established by the commissioner, except as provided for under section 256.017 and except that, after December 31, 1988, state aid is reduced to 65 percent of all ~~general assistance grants~~ work readiness assistance if the local agency does not make occupational or vocational literacy training available and accessible to recipients who are eligible for assistance under section ~~256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (15)~~ 256D.051.

After December 31, 1988, state aid must be paid to local agencies for 65 percent of work readiness assistance paid under section 256D.051 if the county does not have an approved and operating community investment program.

Any local agency may, from its own resources, make payments of general assistance and work readiness assistance: (a) at a standard higher than that established by the commissioner without reference to the standards of section 256D.01, subdivision 1; or, (b) to persons not meeting the eligibility standards set forth in section 256D.05, subdivision 1, or 256D.051 but for whom the aid would further the purposes established in the general assistance or work readiness program in accordance with rules ~~promulgated~~ adopted by the commissioner pursuant to the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Each person or family whose income and resources are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner shall be eligible for and entitled to general assistance if the person or family is:

(1) a person who is suffering from a medically certified permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is ~~medically certified~~ expected to continue for more than 30 days and which prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;

(2) a person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the medically certified illness, injury, incapacity, or the age of another member of the household;

(3) a person who has been placed in, and is residing in, a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilitation, or in an approved chemical dependency domiciliary facility, if the placement is based on illness or incapacity and is pursuant to a plan developed or approved by the local agency through its director or designated representative;

(4) a person who resides in a shelter facility described in subdivision 3;

(5) a person who is or may be eligible for displaced homemaker services, programs, or assistance under section 268.96, but only if that person is enrolled as a full-time student;

(6) a person who is unable to secure suitable employment due to inability to communicate in the English language, provided that the person is not an illegal alien, and who, if assigned to a language skills program by the local agency, is participating in that program;

(7) a person not described in clause (1) or (3) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician or, licensed consulting psychologist, or other qualified professional, as mentally retarded or mentally ill, and that condition prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;

(8) (6) a person who has an application pending for the social security disability program or the program of supplemental security income for the aged, blind, and disabled, provided that within 60 days of the initial denial of the application by the social security administration, the person produces medical evidence in support of his or her application; or a person who has been terminated from either program and has an appeal from that termination pending. A person whose benefits are terminated for failure to produce any medical evidence within 60 days of the denial of the application, is eligible as soon as medical evidence in support of the application for the social security disability program or the program of supplemental security income for the aged, blind, and disabled is produced. Except for a person whose application is based in whole or in part on mental illness or chemical dependency, a person whose application for either program is denied and who does not pursue an appeal is eligible under this paragraph based on a new application only if the new application concerns a different disability or alleges new or aggravated symptoms of the original disability;

(9) (7) a person who is unable to obtain or retain employment because advanced age significantly affects the person's ability to seek or engage in substantial work;

(10) a person completing a secondary education program;

(11) a family with one or more minor children; provided that, if all the children are six years of age or older, all the adult members of the family register for and cooperate in the work readiness program under section 256D.051; and provided further that, if one or more of the children are under the age of six and if the family contains more than one adult member, all the adult members except one adult member register for and cooperate in the work readiness program under section 256D.051. The adult members required to register for and cooperate with the work readiness program are not eligible for financial assistance under section 256D.051, except as provided in section 256D.051, subdivision 6, and shall be included in the general assistance grant. If an adult member fails to cooperate with requirements of section 256D.051, the local agency shall not take that member's needs into account in making the grant determination. The time limits of section 256D.051, subdivisions 4 and 5, do not apply to people eligible under this clause;

(12) a person who has substantial barriers to employment, including but not limited to factors relating to work or training history, as determined by the local agency in accordance with permanent or emergency rules adopted by the commissioner after consultation with the commissioner of jobs and training;

(13) a person who is certified by the commissioner of jobs and training before August 1, 1985, as lacking work skills or training or as being unable to obtain work skills or training necessary to secure employment, as defined in a permanent or emergency rule adopted by the commissioner of jobs and training in consultation with the commissioner;

(8) a person who has been assessed by a qualified professional or a vocational specialist as not being likely to obtain permanent employment. The assessment must consider the recipient's age, physical and mental health, education, trainability, prior work experience, and the local labor market;

(14) (9) a person who is determined by the local agency, in accordance with emergency and permanent rules adopted by the commissioner, to be learning disabled;

(15) a person who is determined by the local agency, in accordance with emergency and permanent rules adopted by the commissioner, to be functionally illiterate, provided that the person complies with literacy training requirements set by the local agency under section 256D.052. A person who is terminated for failure to comply with literacy training requirements may not reapply for assistance under this clause for 60 days. The local agency must provide an oral explanation to the person of the person's responsibilities under this clause, the penalties for failure to comply, the agency's duties under section 256D.0505, subdivision 2, and the person's right to appeal (1) at the time an application is approved based on this clause, and (2) at the time the person is referred to literacy training; or

(16) (10) a child under the age of 18 who is not living with a parent, stepparent, or legal custodian, but only if: the child is legally emancipated or living with an adult with the consent of an agency acting as a legal custodian; the child is at least 16 years of age and the general assistance grant is approved by the director of the local agency or a designated representative as a component of a social services case plan for the child; or the child is living with an adult with the consent of the child's legal custodian and the local agency;

(b) The following persons or families with income and resources that are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner are eligible for and entitled to a maximum of six months of general assistance during any consecutive 12-month period, after registering with and completing six months in a work readiness program under section 256D.051:

(1) a person who has borderline mental retardation; and

(2) a person who exhibits perceptible symptoms of mental illness as certified by a qualified professional but who is not eligible for general assistance under paragraph (a), because the mental illness interferes with the medical certification process; provided that the person cooperates with social services, treatment, or other plans developed by the local agency to address the illness.

In order to retain eligibility under this paragraph, a recipient must continue to cooperate with work and training requirements as determined by the local agency.

(11) a woman in the last trimester of pregnancy who does not qualify for aid to families with dependent children. A woman who is in the last trimester of pregnancy who is currently receiving aid to families with dependent children may be granted emergency general assistance to meet emergency needs;

(12) a person whose need for general assistance will not exceed 30 days;

(13) a person who lives more than two hours round-trip traveling time from any potential suitable employment; and

(14) a person who is involved with protective or court-ordered services that prevent the applicant or recipient from working at least four hours per day.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [ASSISTANCE FOR PERSONS WITHOUT A VERIFIED RESIDENCE.] (a) For applicants or recipients of general assistance, emergency general assistance, or work readiness assistance who do not have a verified residence address, the local agency may provide assistance using one or more of the following methods:

(1) the local agency may provide assistance in the form of vouchers or vendor payments and provide separate vouchers or vendor payments for food, shelter, and other needs;

(2) the local agency may divide the monthly assistance standard into weekly payments, whether in cash or by voucher or vendor payment; or, if actual need is greater than the standards of assistance established under section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, issue assistance based on actual need. Nothing in this clause prevents the local agency from issuing voucher or vendor payments for emergency general assistance in an amount less than the standards of assistance; and

(3) the local agency may determine eligibility and provide assistance on a weekly basis. Weekly assistance can be issued in cash or by voucher or vendor payment and can be determined either on the basis of actual need or by prorating the monthly assistance standard.

(b) An individual may verify a residence address by providing a driver's license; a state identification card; a statement by the landlord, apartment manager, or homeowner verifying that the individual is residing at the address; or other written documentation approved by the commissioner.

(c) If the local agency elects to provide assistance on a weekly basis, the agency may not provide assistance for a period during which no need is claimed by the individual. The individual must be notified, each time weekly assistance is provided, that subsequent weekly assistance will not be issued unless the individual claims need. The advance notice required under section 256D.10 does not apply to weekly assistance issued under this paragraph.

(d) The local agency may not issue assistance on a weekly basis to an applicant or recipient who has medically certified mental illness or mental retardation or a related condition, or to an assistance unit that includes minor children, unless requested by the assistance unit.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WORK REGISTRATION READINESS ELIGIBILITY.] A person, family, or married couple whose income and resources are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner, but who are not eligible to receive general assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, are eligible for a the work readiness program. Upon registration, a registrant is eligible to receive assistance in an amount equal to general assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, for a maximum of six months during any consecutive 12-month period, subject to subdivision 3. The local agency shall pay work readiness assistance in monthly payments beginning at the time of registration.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [WORK READINESS PAYMENTS.] Grants of work readiness shall be determined using the standards of assistance, exclusions, disregards, and procedures which are used in the general assistance program. Work readiness shall be granted in an amount that, when added to the nonexempt income actually available to the assistance unit, the total amount equals the applicable standard of assistance.

Work readiness payments must be provided to persons determined eligible for the work readiness program as provided in this subdivision except when the special payment provisions in subdivision 1b are utilized. The initial payment must be prorated to provide assistance for the period beginning with the date the completed application is received by the county agency or the date the assistance unit meets all work readiness eligibility factors, whichever is later, and ending on the final day of that month. The amount of the first payment must be determined by dividing the number of days to be covered under the payment by the number of days in the month, to determine the percentage of days in the month that are covered by the payment, and multiplying the monthly payment amount by this percentage. Subsequent payments must be paid monthly on the first day of each month.

There shall be an initial certification period which shall begin on the date the completed application is received by the county agency or the date that the assistance unit meets all work readiness eligibility factors, whichever is later, and ending on the date that mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must attend a work readiness orientation. This initial certification period may not cover a period in excess of 30 calendar days. All mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must be informed of the period of certification, the requirement to attend orientation, and that work readiness eligibility will end at the end of the certification period unless the registrants attend orientation. A registrant who fails to comply with requirements during the certification period, including attendance at orientation, will lose work readiness eligibility without notice under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b).

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [SPECIAL PAYMENT PROVISIONS.] A county agency may, at its option, provide work readiness payments as provided under section 256D.05, subdivision 6, during the initial certification period. The initial certification period shall cover the time from the date the completed application is received by the county agency or the date that the assistance unit meets all work readiness eligibility factors, whichever is later, and ending on the date that mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must attend a work readiness orientation. This initial certification period may not cover a period in excess of 30 calendar days. All mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must be informed of the period of certification, the requirement to attend orientation, and that work readiness eligibility will end at the end of the certification period unless the registrants attend orientation. A registrant who fails to comply with requirements during the certification period, including attendance at orientation, will lose work readiness eligibility without notice under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b). If all mandatory registrants attend orientation, an additional grant of work readiness assistance must be issued to cover the period beginning the day after the scheduled orientation and ending on the final day of that month. Subsequent payments of work readiness shall be governed by subdivision 1a or section 256D.05, subdivision 6. If one or more mandatory registrants from the assistance unit fail to attend the orientation, those who failed to attend orientation will be removed from the assistance unit without further notice and shall be ineligible for additional assistance. Subsequent assistance to such persons shall be dependent upon the person completing application for assistance and being determined eligible.

A local agency that utilizes the provisions in this subdivision must implement the provisions consistently for all applicants or recipients in the county. A local agency must pay emergency general assistance to a registrant whose prorated work readiness payment does not meet emergency needs. A local agency which elects to pay work readiness assistance on a prorated basis under this subdivision may not provide payments under section 256D.05, subdivision 6, for the same time period.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOCAL AGENCY DUTIES.] (a) The local agency shall provide to registrants under subdivision 1 a work readiness program. The work readiness program must include:

(1) orientation to the work readiness program;

(2) an individualized employability assessment and development plan in which the local agency that includes assessment of literacy, ability to communicate in the English language, eligibility for displaced homemaker services under section 268.96, educational history, and that estimates the length of time it will take the registrant to obtain employment. The employability assessment and development plan must assess the registrant's assets, barriers, and strengths, and must identify steps necessary to overcome barriers to employment;

(3) referral to available accredited remedial or skills training programs designed to address registrant's barriers to employment;

~~(2)~~ (4) referral to available employment assistance programs including the Minnesota employment and economic development program;

~~(3)~~ (5) a job search program, including job seeking skills training; and

(4) (6) other activities, including public employment experience programs to the extent of available resources designed by the local agency to prepare the registrant for permanent employment.

In order to allow time for job search, the local agency shall may not require an individual to participate in the work readiness program for more than 32 hours a week. The local agency shall require an individual to spend at least eight hours a week in job search or other work readiness program activities.

(b) The local agency may provide a work readiness program to recipients under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (b) and shall provide a work readiness program to recipients referred under section 256D.052, subdivision 5, paragraph (b). The local agency shall prepare an annual plan for the operation of its work readiness program. The plan must be submitted to and approved by the commissioner of jobs and training. The plan must include:

(1) a description of the services to be offered by the local agency;

(2) a plan to coordinate the activities of all public entities providing employment-related services in order to avoid duplication of effort and to provide services more efficiently;

(3) a description of the factors that will be taken into account when determining a client's employability development plan; and

(4) provisions to assure that applicants and recipients are evaluated for eligibility for general assistance prior to termination from the work readiness program.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REGISTRANT DUTIES.] In order to receive work readiness assistance, a registrant shall: (1) cooperate with the local agency in all aspects of the work readiness program and shall; (2) accept any suitable employment, including employment offered through the job training partnership act, Minnesota employment and economic development act, and other employment and training options; and (3) participate in work readiness activities assigned by the local agency. The local agency may terminate assistance to a registrant who fails to cooperate in the work readiness program, as provided in subdivision 3b. A registrant who is terminated for failure to cooperate is not eligible, for a period of two months, for any remaining or additional work readiness assistance for which the registrant would otherwise be eligible.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [PERSONS REQUIRED TO REGISTER FOR AND PARTICIPATE IN THE WORK READINESS PROGRAM.] Each person in a work readiness assistance unit who is 18 years old or older must register for and participate in the work readiness program. A child in the assistance unit who is at least 16 years old but less than 19 years old and who is not a full-time secondary school student is required to register and participate. A student who was enrolled as a full-time student during the last school term must be considered a full-time student during summers and school holidays. If an assistance unit includes children under age six and suitable child care is not available at no cost to the family, one adult member of the assistance unit is exempt from registration for and participation in the work readiness program. The local agency shall designate the adult who must register. The registrant must be the adult who is the principal wage earner, having earned the greater of the incomes, except for income received in-kind, during the 24 months immediately preceding the month of application for assistance. When there are no earnings or when earnings are identical for each parent, the applicant must designate the principal wage earner, and that designation must not be transferred after program eligibility is determined as long as assistance continues without interruption.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [WORK READINESS PARTICIPATION REQUIRE-

MENTS.] A work readiness registrant meets the work readiness participation requirements if the registrant:

(1) completes the specific tasks or assigned duties that were identified by the county agency in the notice required under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (a); and

(2) meets the requirements in subdivisions 3 and 8.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [WORK READINESS DISQUALIFICATION PERIOD.] Mandatory registrants who fail without good cause to meet the work readiness participation requirements will be terminated and disqualified from work readiness. If the county agency determines that a registrant has failed without good cause to meet the work readiness participation requirements, the agency will notify the registrant of its determination according to section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b). For the first time in a six-month period that the registrant has failed without good cause to comply with program requirements, the notification shall inform the registrant of the particular actions that must be taken by the registrant by a date certain to achieve compliance. Failure to take the required action by the specified date will result in termination and disqualification from work readiness. Failure to comply a second or subsequent time during a six-month period shall result in termination and disqualification without opportunity for corrective action. The first time in a six-month period that a registrant is terminated from work readiness for failure to comply with participation requirements, that person is disqualified from receiving work readiness for one month. If less than six months have passed since the end of a disqualification period and the registrant is terminated from work readiness for failure to comply with participation requirements, the person is disqualified from receiving work readiness for two months. If an assistance unit includes more than one mandatory work readiness participant and it is determined that one or more, but not all, of the mandatory participants have failed to comply with work readiness requirements, those who failed to comply shall be removed from the assistance unit for the appropriate time period, subject to the notice and appeal rights in section 256D.101. If an assistance unit includes persons who are exempt from participation in work readiness activities and all of the mandatory registrants have been terminated for failure to participate, the county agency shall remove the terminated registrants from the assistance unit after notice and an opportunity to be heard, and provide assistance to the remaining persons using vendor or protective payments.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LOCAL AGENCY OPTIONS.] The local agency may, ~~at its option, provide~~ receive up to $200 $300 each year for each registrant who has completed an employment development plan for direct expenses incurred by the registrant for transportation, clothes, and tools necessary for employment. After paying direct expenses as needed by individual registrants, the local agency may use any remaining money to provide additional services as needed by any registrant including education, orientation, placement, other work experience, on-the-job training, and other appropriate activities. The local agency may also receive up to $500 per year per client as an emergency work grant in assistance to work readiness recipients for expenses of transportation, clothing, tools, and other costs necessary to accept a bona fide offer of employment.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [COUNTY MATCH AND USE OF FUNDS.] ~~Each county shall provide a 25 percent match for direct participation expenses and administrative costs of providing work readiness services.~~ Funds may be used for the following direct participation expenses: transportation, clothes, tools, and other necessary work-related expenses. Funds may be used for administrative costs incurred providing the following services: employability assessments and employability development plans, employment search assistance, education, orientation, placement, on-the-job training, and other appropriate activities.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [VOLUNTARY QUIT.] A person is not eligible for work readiness payments or services if, without good cause, the person refuses a legitimate offer of suitable employment within 60 days before the date of application. A person who, without good cause, voluntarily quits suitable employment or refuses a legitimate offer of suitable employment while receiving work readiness payments or services shall be terminated from the work readiness program and disqualified for two months according to rules adopted by the commissioner.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [RIGHT TO NOTICE AND HEARING.] (a) The local agency shall provide notice and opportunity for hearings for adverse actions under this section according to ~~sections 256D.10 and section 256D.101,~~ for adverse actions based on a determination that a recipient has failed to participate in work readiness activities, or 256D.10 for all other adverse actions. A determination made under subdivision 1, that a person is not eligible for general assistance is a denial of general assistance for purposes of notice, appeal, and hearing requirements. The local agency must notify the person that this determination will result in a limit on the number of months of assistance for which the person will be eligible requirement that the person participate in the work readiness program as a condition of receiving assistance.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.051, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE REQUIREMENTS APPLY.] The laws and rules that apply to general assistance also apply to the work readiness program, unless superseded by a specific inconsistent provision in this section or section 256D.101.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.052, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OCCUPATIONAL AND VOCATIONAL PROGRAMS.] The local agency must work with local educational institutions and job training programs in the identification, development, and utilization of occupational and vocational literacy programs for general assistance recipients work readiness registrants who are functionally illiterate. Occupational and vocational literacy programs are programs which provide literacy training to adults who lack formal education or job skills. The programs emphasize particular language and reading skills needed for successful job performance.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.052, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ASSESSMENT AND ASSIGNMENT.] The local agency must:

(1) assess existing reading level, learning disabilities, reading potential, and vocational or occupational interests of people eligible under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (15) work readiness registrants who are functionally illiterate;

(2) assign suitable recipients to openings in occupational and vocational literacy programs;

(3) if no openings are available in accessible occupational or vocational literacy programs, assign suitable recipients to openings in other accessible literacy training programs; and

(4) reassign to another accessible literacy program any recipient who does not complete an assigned program and who wishes to try another program; and

(5) within the limits of funds available contract with technical institutes or other groups who have literacy instructors trained in occupational literacy methods, to provide literacy training sessions so that county registrants eligible for literacy training will have the opportunity to attend training.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.052, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SERVICES PROVIDED.] The local agency must provide child care and transportation to enable people to participate in literacy training under this section. The state shall reimburse local agencies for the costs of providing transportation under this section. Counties must make every effort to ensure that child care is available as needed by recipients who are pursuing literacy training.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.052, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT OF GENERAL ASSISTANCE WORK READINESS.] The local agency must provide assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (15) 256D.051 to people persons who:

(1) participate in a literacy program assigned under subdivision 2. To "participate" means to attend regular classes, complete assignments, and make progress toward literacy goals; or

(2) ~~despite participation for a period of six months or more, fail to progress in assigned literacy programs;~~

(3) are not assigned to literacy training because there is no program available or accessible to them; or

(4) ~~have failed for good cause to complete an assigned literacy program.~~

Work readiness payments may be terminated for persons who fail to attend the orientation and participate in the assessment and development of the employment development plan.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.101, is amended to read:

256D.101 [FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH WORK REQUIREMENTS; NOTICE.]

readiness program, and at least every 30 days after that, the local agency shall provide, in advance, a clear, written description of the specific tasks and assigned duties the registrant must complete to receive work readiness pay. The notice must explain that the registrant will be terminated from the work readiness program unless the registrant has completed the specific tasks and assigned duties. The notice must inform the registrant that if the registrant fails without good cause to comply with work readiness requirements more than once every six months, the registrant will be terminated from the work readiness program and disqualified from receiving assistance for one month if it is the registrant's first disqualification within the preceding six months, or for two months if the registrant has been previously disqualified within the preceding six months.

(b) If the local agency determines that a registrant has failed to comply with the work readiness requirements of section 256D-051, the local agency shall notify the registrant of the determination. Notice must be hand delivered or mailed to the registrant within three days after the agency makes the determination but no later than the date work readiness pay was scheduled to be paid. For a recipient who has failed to provide the local agency with a mailing address, the recipient must be assigned a schedule by which a recipient is to visit the agency to pick up any notices. For a recipient without a mailing address, notices must be deemed delivered on the date of the registrant's next scheduled visit with the local agency. The notification shall be in writing and shall state the facts that support the local agency's determination. For the first two times time in a six-month period that the registrant has failed without good cause to comply with program requirements, the notification shall inform the registrant that the registrant may lose eligibility for work readiness pay and must specify the particular actions that must be taken by the registrant to achieve compliance; shall and reinstate work readiness payments. The notice must state that the recipient must take the specified actions by a date certain, which must be at least ten five working days following the date the notification is mailed or delivered to the registrant; shall must explain the ramifications of the registrant's failure to take the required actions by the specified date; and shall must advise the registrant that the registrant may request and have a conference with the local agency to discuss the notification. A registrant who fails without good cause to comply with requirements of the program more than two times once in a six-month period must be notified of termination.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF GRANT REDUCTION, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION.] The notice of grant reduction, suspension, or termination on the ground that a registrant has failed to comply with section 256D-051 work readiness requirements shall be mailed or hand delivered by the local agency concurrently with the notification required by subdivision 1, paragraph (b). Prior to giving the notification, the local agency must assess the registrant's eligibility for general assistance under section 256D.05 to the extent possible using information contained in the case file, and determine that the registrant is not eligible under that section. The determination that the registrant is not eligible ~~shall~~ must be stated in the notice of ~~grant reduction, suspension, or termination~~. The notice of termination shall indicate the applicable disqualification period.

Subd. 3. [BENEFITS AFTER NOTIFICATION.] Assistance payments otherwise due to the registrant under section 256D.051 ~~shall~~ may not be paid after the notification required in subdivision 1 has been provided to the registrant unless, before the date stated in the notification, the registrant takes the specified action necessary to achieve compliance or, within five days after the effective date stated in the notice, files an appeal of the grant reduction, suspension, or termination. If, by the required date, the registrant does take the specified action necessary to achieve compliance, both the notification required by subdivision 1 and the notice required by subdivision 2 shall be canceled and all benefits due to the registrant shall be paid promptly. If, by the required date, the registrant files an appeal of the grant reduction, suspension, or termination, benefits otherwise due to the registrant shall be continued pending the outcome of the appeal. An appeal of a proposed termination shall be brought under section 256.045, except that the timelines specified in this section shall apply, notwithstanding the requirements of section 256.045, subdivision 3. Appeals of proposed terminations from the work readiness program shall be heard within 30 days of the date that the appeal was filed.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.111, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RULEMAKING.] The commissioner shall adopt rules and is authorized to adopt emergency rules:

(a) providing for the disqualification from the receipt of ~~general assistance or work readiness assistance~~ for a recipient who has been ~~finally~~ determined to have failed to comply with work requirements or the requirements of the work readiness program;

(b) providing for the use of vouchers or vendor payments with respect to the family of a ~~recipient described in clause (a) or section 256D.09, subdivision 4 disqualified recipient~~; and

(c) providing that at the time of the approval of an application for assistance, the local agency gives to the recipient a written notice in plain and easily understood language describing the recipient's job registration, search, and acceptance obligations, and the disqualification that will be imposed for a failure to comply with those obligations.

Sec. 29. [MIGRANT ISSUES TASK FORCE.]

The department of human services, in coordination with the Minnesota housing finance agency, shall convene a task force to consider issues relating to public assistance and housing for migrant farm workers. The task force shall include migrant workers, representatives of communities in which migrant workers reside, employers of migrant workers, particularly agricultural employers, representatives of housing agencies, and representatives of advocacy groups. The task force shall report back to the legislature by February 1, 1990, with recommendations.

Sec. 30. Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 3, section 98, is amended to read:

Sec. 98. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 257.34, subdivision 2; and section 268.86, subdivisions 1, 3, 4, and 5, are repealed. Section 95 is repealed effective June 30, 1989 1990.

Sec. 31. [APPROPRIATION.]

$ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services, for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, to fund county literacy programs required under section 24. Available funds will be distributed to counties in proportion to the county general assistance or work readiness caseload of persons determined to be illiterate in the previous state fiscal year.

Sec. 32. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.052, subdivisions 5, 6, and 7, are repealed.

Sec. 33. [REVISOR'S INSTRUCTION.]

Begin from the Committee on Labor-Management Relations to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1641, A bill for an act relating to employment; prohibiting termination of sales representative agreements under certain circumstances; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 325E.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [325E.34] [TERMINATION OF SALES REPRESENTATIVES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) As used in this section, the following terms have the meaning given them.

(b) “Good cause” means failure by the sales representative to substantially comply with the material and reasonable requirements imposed by the manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer, including, but not limited to:

(1) the bankruptcy or insolvency of the sales representative;

(2) assignment for the benefit of creditors or similar disposition of the assets of the sales representative’s business;

(3) voluntary abandonment of the business by the sales representative;

(4) conviction or a plea of guilty or no contest to a charge of violating any law relating to the sales representative’s business; or

(5) any act by or conduct of the sales representative which materially impairs the good will associated with the manufacturer’s, wholesaler’s, assembler’s, or importer’s trademark, trade name, service mark, logotype, or other commercial symbol.

(c) “Sales representative” is a person who is operating under a sales representative agreement with a manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer, but is not an employee of the manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer.

(d) “Sales representative agreement” means a contract or agreement, either express or implied, whether oral or written, for a definite or indefinite period, between two or more persons, whereby a person is granted the right to distribute, represent, sell, or offer for sale a manufacturer’s, wholesaler’s, assembler’s, or importer’s goods or services by use of the latter’s trade name, trademark, service mark, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol or related characteristics, and in which there exists a community of interest between the parties in the marketing of the goods or services at wholesale, retail, by lease, agreement, or otherwise.

Subd. 2. [TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT.] A manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer may not terminate a sales representative agreement except for good cause. The sales representative agreement cannot be terminated unless the conditions of paragraph (a) or (b) are met.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) a sales representative agreement cannot be terminated unless the representative:

(1) has been given written notice setting forth all the reasons for the termination at least 90 days in advance of termination; and

(2) fails to correct the reasons stated for termination in the notice within 60 days of receipt of the notice.

(b) A notice of termination is effective immediately upon receipt where the alleged grounds for termination are:

(1) voluntary abandonment of the relationship by the sales representative;

(2) the conviction of the sales representative of an offense directly related to the business conducted pursuant to the sales representative agreement; or

(3) failure to cure a default under the sales representative agreement which materially impairs the good will associated with the manufacturer’s, wholesaler’s, assembler’s, or importer’s trade name, trademark, service mark, logotype, or other commercial symbol after the sales representative has received written notice to cure at least 24 hours in advance thereof.

Subd. 3. [RENEWAL OF AGREEMENTS.] (a) Unless the failure to renew a sales representative agreement is for good cause, and the sales representative is given notices and has failed to correct reasons for termination as required by subdivision 2, paragraph (a) or (b), no manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer may fail to renew a sales representative agreement unless:

(1) the sales representative has been given written notice of the intention not to renew at least 180 days in advance of the expiration of the agreement; and

(2) the sales representative has been given an opportunity to operate the business over a sufficient period of time to enable the sales representative to recover the fair market value of the business as a going concern, as determined and measured from the date of the failure to renew.

(b) No manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer may refuse to renew a sales representative agreement if the refusal is for the purpose of converting the sales representative's business premises to an operation that will be owned by the manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer for its own account.

Subd. 4. [RIGHTS UPON TERMINATION.] If a sales representative is paid by commission under a sales representative agreement and the agreement is terminated, the representative is entitled to be paid for all sales made and orders to creditworthy customers made in the representative's territory prior to the date of termination of the agreement or the end of the notification period, whichever is later, regardless of whether the goods or services have actually been delivered to the purchaser. The payments of commissions are due when the goods or services are delivered.

Subd. 5. [ARBITRATION.] (a) The sole remedy for a sales representative against a manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer who has allegedly violated any provision of this section is to submit the matter to arbitration, if the manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer agrees to be bound by the arbitration. The cost of an arbitration hearing must be borne equally by both parties. The arbitration proceeding is to be governed by the uniform arbitration act, sections 572.08 to 572.30.

(b) The arbitrator may provide any of the following remedies:

(1) sustinment of the termination of the sales representative agreement;

(2) reinstatement of the sales representative agreement;

(3) payment of commissions due under subdivision 4;

(4) reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to a prevailing sales representative;

(5) reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to a prevailing manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer, if the arbitrator finds the complaint was frivolous, unreasonable, or without foundation; or

(6) the full amount of the arbitrator's fees and expenses if the arbitrator finds that the sales representative's resort to arbitration or the manufacturer's, wholesaler's, assembler's, or importer's defense in arbitration was vexatious and lacking in good faith.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of the uniform arbitration act, the decision of any arbitration hearing under this subdivision is final and binding on the sales representative and the manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer.

(d) If the manufacturer, wholesaler, assembler, or importer does not consent to arbitration under paragraph (a), the sales representative may bring a civil action to recover any and all damages recoverable at law for a violation of this section. The court may, in its discretion, grant any equitable relief it considers appropriate.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective August 1, 1989, and applies to any sales representative agreements entered into or renewed on or after that date."

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

H. F. No. 1648, A bill for an act relating to gambling; video games of chance; prohibiting cash awards; requiring notice to the public and to employees of the consequences of participating in cash awards; prescribing a penalty; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 349.51, subdivision 2; 349.53; and 349.56; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 349.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [349.501] [REQUIRED NOTICE.]

Subdivision 1. [TO THE PUBLIC.] An operator must prominently post in the owner's business premises a brief description of the legal consequences of awarding cash instead of game credits or replays on video games of chance in violation of section 2.

The information is prominently posted if it can be readily seen by a player immediately before the player participates in the video game of chance.

Subd. 2. [TO EMPLOYEES.] An owner shall require all employees to sign a statement that they understand the legal consequences of awarding cash instead of game credits or replays on video games of chance located in the owner's business premises. The statement must contain a full and accurate description of those legal consequences.

Sec. 2. [349.502] [CASH AWARDS PROHIBITED.]

Subdivision 1. [MISDEMEANOR.] A person who awards or receives cash instead of game credits or replays on a video game of chance is guilty of a misdemeanor. An owner who directs an employee to violate this section is also considered to have violated this section. For purposes of this subdivision "cash" includes checks.

Subd. 2. [MANDATORY PENALTY.] Upon conviction of a person for the crime established in subdivision 1, the court shall impose a fine of $700.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.51, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION; REQUIREMENTS.] (a) Every application for a license must be made on a form prescribed by the department and must state the name and address of the applicant. If the applicant is a firm, partnership, or association, the application must state the name and address of each of its members. If the applicant is a corporation, the application must state the name and address of each of its officers; the date of incorporation, the address of its principle place of business, the place where the business is to be licensed and business conducted, and information concerning whether or not any officer, director, resident manager, or direct salesperson of the applicant has been convicted of a felony or convicted for a gambling offense within the past five years. The application may contain other information the department requires for licensing purposes.

(b) Every applicant for a license shall be a legal resident or be incorporated within the state of Minnesota prior to the date of application for a distributor or operator license.

(c) Every applicant shall disclose under oath to the commissioner whether or not the applicant has any financial, legal, or other interests in a licensed wholesale liquor or alcoholic beverage distributorship or video game of chance distributorship in another state.

(d) No distributor may also be a wholesale distributor of liquor or alcoholic beverages.

(e) No distributor in this state may also be a distributor in another state, unless the distributor adequately demonstrates that the distributor does not manufacture video games of chance outside of this state for use, sale, or distribution within this state.

(f) An operator who has been convicted of a violation of section 2, subdivision 1, is not eligible to obtain or hold a license under this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.53, is amended to read:

349.53 [RECORD-KEEPING DUTIES OF DISTRIBUTORS.]

A distributor shall keep at each licensed place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including the signed statements required by section 1, invoices of video games of chance held, purchased, manufactured, brought in or caused to be brought in from outside the state, or shipped or transported to operators in this state, and of all sales of video games of chance made. The distributor must also keep adequate records of the names, addresses, and license numbers of operators to whom video games of chance are sold. All books, records, and other papers and documents required by this section to be kept must be preserved for a period of at least one year after the date of the documents, or the date of their entries as they appear in the records, unless the department, in writing, authorizes their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours, the commissioner or designated representatives may enter any place of business of a distributor without a search warrant and inspect the premises and the records required to be kept under this section, to determine whether or not all the provisions of this chapter are being fully complied with. If the commissioner or any representative is denied free access or is hindered or interfered with in making an examination, the license of the distributor at the premises is subject to revocation.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.56, is amended to read:

349.56 [LOCATION AGREEMENTS.]

An operator is required to have a location agreement with the owner where the game is placed for use by the public. The location agreement must show that the game is to be placed only in locations permitted by law. The location agreement must also include the notice required by section 1. The location agreements, together with the other records of the operator, must be accessible to the commissioner and designated representatives. The operator is required to certify under oath to the department annually the name and address of the location in which each game has been placed and that the games have been placed only in locations permitted by law. Placing a game in an illegal location is grounds for suspension or revocation of the operator's license.

Sec. 6. [INDIAN COMPACTS.]

Section 2 may not be construed as prohibiting the state from entering into a tribal-state compact under the provisions of the Federal Gaming Regulatory Act, Public Law No. 100-497, as it relates to video poker or video blackjack games of chance currently operated by Indian tribes in this state.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective August 1, 1989, and applies to crimes committed on or after that date."

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [169.041] [TOWING AUTHORIZED.]

Subdivision 1. [TOWING AUTHORITY.] For purposes of this section, “towing authority” means:

(1) with respect to towing a motor vehicle from a public street, any local authority authorized by section 169.04 to enforce the traffic laws with respect to that public street; and

(2) with respect to towing a motor vehicle from a restricted parking area that is on privately owned nonresidential land, the owner or operator of the parking area or, if the parking area is adjacent to a commercial establishment, the owner or operator of that establishment.

Subd. 2. [WAITING PERIOD.] In enforcing state and local parking and traffic laws, a towing authority may not allow or require the towing of a motor vehicle for a parking or traffic violation until four hours after issuance of the traffic ticket or citation, except as provided in this section. A towing authority may not allow or require the towing of a motor vehicle from a restricted parking area on private land until the vehicle has been in violation of the parking restriction for at least one-half hour.

Subd. 3. [TOWING ALLOWED.] A towing authority may tow a motor vehicle without regard to the four-hour waiting period if:

(1) the vehicle is parked in violation of snow emergency regulations;

(2) the vehicle is parked in a rush-hour restricted parking area between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. or 4:15 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. on a weekday;

(3) the vehicle is blocking a driveway, alley, or fire hydrant;

(4) the vehicle is parked in a bus lane where parking is prohibited;

(5) the vehicle is parked within 30 feet of a stop sign and visually blocking the stop sign;

(6) the vehicle is parked in a handicap transfer zone or handicapped parking space without a handicapped parking certificate or handicapped license plates;

(7) the vehicle is parked in an area that has been posted for temporary restricted parking at least 24 hours in advance;

(8) the vehicle is parked within the right-of-way of a controlled access highway or within the traveled portion of a public street when travel is allowed there;

(9) the vehicle is parked in a parking area adjacent to a residential building that is posted as restricted to parking by residents of that building;

(10) the vehicle is unlawfully parked more than one-half hour during business hours in a parking area reserved and posted for patrons of the business;

(11) a law enforcement official has probable cause to believe that the vehicle is stolen, or that the vehicle constitutes or contains evidence of a crime and impoundment is reasonably necessary to obtain or preserve the evidence;

(12) the driver, operator, or person in physical control of the vehicle is taken into custody and the vehicle is impounded for safekeeping;

(13) a law enforcement official has probable cause to believe that the owner, operator, or person in physical control of the vehicle has failed to respond to five or more citations for parking or traffic offenses; or

(14) the vehicle is illegally parked in a zone that is restricted by posted signs to use by fire, police, public safety, or emergency vehicles.

Subd. 4. [TOWING PROHIBITED.] Unless the vehicle is described in subdivision 3, a towing authority may not tow a motor vehicle because:

(1) the vehicle has expired registration tabs; or

(2) the vehicle is at a parking meter on which the time has expired and the vehicle has less than five outstanding, unpaid parking violation tickets.

Subd. 5. [PRIVATE PROPERTY.] This section does not restrict the authority of the owner of private residential property to authorize the towing at any time of a motor vehicle unlawfully parked on the private residential property.

Subd. 6. [DAMAGES.] The owner or driver of a motor vehicle towed in violation of this section is entitled to recover from the towing authority two times the actual damages sustained as a result of the violation. Damages recoverable under this subdivision include but are not limited to costs of recovering the vehicle, including time spent and transportation costs.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 514.18, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [TOWED MOTOR VEHICLES.] A person who tows and stores a motor vehicle at the request of a law enforcement officer shall have a lien on the motor vehicle for the value of the storage and the right to retain possession of the motor vehicle until the lien is lawfully discharged."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 125.12, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [IMMEDIATE DISCHARGE.] A school board may discharge a continuing-contract teacher, effective immediately, upon any of the following grounds:

- (a) Immoral conduct, insubordination, or conviction of a felony;
- (b) Conduct unbecoming a teacher which requires the immediate removal of the teacher from classroom or other duties;
- (c) Failure without justifiable cause to teach without first securing the written release of the school board;
- (d) Gross inefficiency which the teacher has failed to correct after reasonable written notice;
- (e) Willful neglect of duty; or
- (f) Continuing physical or mental disability subsequent to a 12 months leave of absence and inability to qualify for reinstatement in accordance with subdivision 7.

For purposes of this subdivision, conduct unbecoming a teacher includes an unfair discriminatory practice described in section 363.03, subdivision 5.

Prior to discharging a teacher the board shall notify the teacher in writing and state its ground for the proposed discharge in reasonable detail. Within ten days after receipt of this notification the teacher may make a written request for a hearing before the board and it shall be granted before final action is taken. The board may, however, suspend a teacher with pay pending the conclusion of such hearing and determination of the issues raised therein after charges have been filed which constitute ground for discharge.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 125.17, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GROUNDS FOR DISCHARGE OR DEMOTION.] Causes for the discharge or demotion of a teacher either during or after the probationary period shall be:

- (1) Immoral character, conduct unbecoming a teacher, or insubordination;
- (2) Failure without justifiable cause to teach without first securing the written release of the school board having the care, management, or control of the school in which the teacher is employed;
- (3) Inefficiency in teaching or in the management of a school;

(4) Affliction with active tuberculosis or other communicable disease shall be considered as cause for removal or suspension while the teacher is suffering from such disability; or

(5) Discontinuance of position or lack of pupils.

For purposes of this subdivision, conduct unbecoming a teacher includes an unfair discriminatory practice described in section 363.03, subdivision 5."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to education; providing that discrimination against a pupil by a teacher may be grounds for discharge or demotion; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 125.12, subdivision 8; and 125.17, subdivision 4."

S. F. No. 206 was reported to the House.

Sviggum, Jennings, Dauner, Girard and Lynch moved to amend S. F. No. 206, the unofficial engrossment, as follows:

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a rule adopted by an agency after the effective date of this section has the force and effect of law only until the end of the first regular legislative session after the rule first becomes effective, unless a law is enacted extending the force and effect of the rule. However, if a rule first becomes effective within 30 calendar days before the adjournment of a regular legislative session, the rule may remain in force and effect until the end of the next regular legislative session. This section does not extend the force and effect of a rule that would otherwise expire before the periods specified in this section.”

Subd. 1a. [MANDATORY REPORTING.] A school board shall report to the board of teaching, the state board of education, or the state board of vocational technical education, whichever has jurisdiction over the teacher's license, when its teacher is discharged or resigns from employment after a charge is filed with the school board under section 125.17, subdivisions 4, clauses (1), (2), and (3), and 5, or after charges are filed that are ground for discharge under section 125.12, subdivision 8, clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), or when a teacher is suspended or resigns while an investigation is pending under section 125.12, subdivision 8, clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e); 125.17, subdivisions 4, clauses (1), (2), and (3), and 5; or 626.556. The report must be made to the board within ten days after the discharge, suspension, or resignation has occurred. The board to which the report is made shall investigate the report for violation of subdivision 1 and the reporting school board shall cooperate in the investigation. Any data transmitted to any board under this section shall be private data under section 13.02, subdivision 12, notwithstanding any other classification of the data when it was in the possession of any other agency.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 125.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] A school board, its members in their official capacity, and employees of the school district run by the board are immune from civil or criminal liability for reporting or cooperating as required under section 1, if their actions required under section 1 are done in good faith and with due care.”

“Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 13.46, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ACCESS FOR AUDITING.] To the extent required by state or federal law, representatives of federal, state, or local agencies shall have access to data maintained by public or private community mental health centers, mental health divisions of counties, and other providers under contract to deliver mental health services which is necessary to achieve the purpose of auditing. Public or private community mental health centers, mental health divisions of counties, and other providers under contract to deliver mental health services shall not permit this data to identify any particular patient or client by name or contain any other unique personal identifier, except data provided to the legislative auditor. Notwithstanding other provisions in statute or rule, and solely for the purposes of conducting an audit approved by the legislative audit commission in 1988, the legislative auditor shall be given access to all data, records, and files classified as not public. The legislative auditor shall maintain all such data collected in keeping with the provisions of chapter 13 and shall not disclose any data that identifies a patient or client by name or contains any other personal identifier.”

Welle moved to amend H. F. No. 1150, the first engrossment, as amended, as follows:

"Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 144.581, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [CLOSED MEETINGS; RECORDING.] (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 4 or section 471.705, a public hospital or an organization established under this section may hold a closed meeting to discuss specific marketing activity and contracts that might be entered into pursuant to the marketing activity in cases where the hospital or organization is in competition with health care providers that offer similar goods or services, and where disclosure of information pertaining to those matters would cause harm to the competitive position of the hospital or organization, provided that the goods or services do not require a tax levy. No contracts referred to in this paragraph may be entered into earlier than 15 days after the proposed contract has been described at a public meeting and the description entered in the minutes, except for contracts for consulting services or with individuals for personal services.

(b) A meeting may not be closed under paragraph (a) except by a majority vote of the board of directors in a public meeting. The time and place of the closed meeting must be announced at the public meeting. A written roll of members present at the closed meeting must be available to the public after the closed meeting. The proceedings of a closed meeting must be tape recorded and preserved by the board of directors for two years. The data on the tape are nonpublic data under section 13.02, subdivision 9. However, the data become public data under section 13.02, subdivision 14, two years after the meeting, or when the hospital or organization takes action on matters referred to in paragraph (a) except for contracts for consulting services. In the case of personal service contracts, the data become public when the contract is signed. For entities subject to section 471.345, a contract entered into by the board is subject to the requirements of section 471.345.

(c) The board of directors may not discuss a tax levy at a closed meeting.

ARTICLE IV: ELECTION OF REGENTS

4.01 Joint Committee

4.02 Joint Convention

ARTICLE I: JOINT CONVENTIONS

HOW GOVERNED

Rule 1.01. The Speaker of the House shall preside at all Conventions of the two houses of the Legislature and shall call the members to order. The Chief Clerk of the House shall be the Secretary and the Sergeant at Arms of the House shall be the Sergeant at Arms of the Convention.

PRESIDENT'S DUTIES

Rule 1.02. The President of the Convention shall preserve order and decorum. He may speak on all points of order in preference to other members and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Convention by any member. He shall rise to put a question but may state it while seated.

PRESIDENT'S RIGHT TO VOTE

Rule 1.03. The President shall have the right to vote in all cases except appeals from his decisions. He shall vote last on all questions.

STATING QUESTIONS

Rule 1.04. Questions shall be put to the Convention in the following form: "As many as are of the opinion that (the question) shall pass, say 'Aye.'" After an affirmative vote is expressed the nays shall be called as follows: "As many as are of the contrary opinion, say 'No.'" If the President is in doubt or a division is called, those in the affirmative shall rise first and those in the negative afterward.

ORDER OF DEBATE

Rule 1.05. When any member wishes to speak to the Convention on any matter, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, and not speak further until recognized. He shall confine himself to the question under debate and avoid personal remarks. When two or more members rise at the same time, the President shall designate the member to speak first. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without permission of the Convention.

CALLING MEMBER TO ORDER

Rule 1.06. If any member of the Joint Convention is called to order for offensive words in debate, the member calling him to order shall report the words to which exception is taken and the Secretary shall record them. No member may be called to order for any language used in debate if exception is not taken before any other member has spoken or any other business has taken place. A member called to order shall immediately sit down unless another member moves to permit him to explain. In any case, the Joint Convention, if appealed to, shall decide without debate. Only if the decision is in favor of the member called to order shall he be at liberty to proceed.

CALL OF THE CONVENTION

Rule 1.07. Five members may demand a call of the Convention at any time except after voting has commenced. When such a call is demanded, the doors shall be closed, the roll shall be called, the absent members shall be sent for, and no member may be permitted to leave the Chamber, unless excused by the President, until the call is lifted. Proceedings under the roll call may be suspended by a majority vote of all the members of the Convention. A call of the Convention may be lifted by a majority vote of all the members of the Convention.

ELECTIONS

Rule 1.08. In all elections by the Joint Convention, members shall vote viva voce and the roll of Senate members shall be called first. Whenever there is an election of any officer in Joint Convention, the result shall be certified by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House and announced by them to their respective houses. The result shall be entered on the Journal of each house and communicated to the Governor by the Secretary of the Convention.

NO SMOKING

Rule 1.09. No person is permitted to smoke in the Chamber or in the gallery during a Joint Convention.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Rule 1.10. The rules of the House shall be the Rules of the Joint Convention of both houses in all cases in which the foregoing rules are not applicable.

ARTICLE II: BILLS

FORM

Rule 2.01. The title of each bill shall clearly state its subject and briefly state its purpose. When a bill amends or repeals an existing act, the title shall refer to the chapter, section or subdivision.

Reference shall be made to Minnesota Statutes for the provisions appearing therein unless reference to previous session laws is required for some special reason.

Bills shall refer to Minnesota Statutes as follows:

“Minnesota Statutes, section”

Bills shall refer to the session laws as follows:

“Laws, chapter, section”

A bill for the amendment of a statute shall contain the full text of the section or subdivision to be amended as it appears in the latest edition of Minnesota Statutes unless it has been amended, in which event it shall contain the full text as amended.

The words and characters constituting the amending matter shall be inserted in the proper place in the text and underscored. The words and characters to be eliminated by the amendment shall be stricken by drawing a line through them. The text of a new section or subdivision shall also be underscored when a bill amends an existing chapter or section by adding a new section or subdivision. In the omnibus appropriation bills required by Joint Rule 2.02, sections making an appropriation or transfer and not amending a statute or session law need not have new material underscored. Before a committee favorably reports upon a bill, the chairman of the committee shall see that the bill conforms to this rule. When a bill is printed in the Journal, the new matter shall be in italics or underscored and the matter to be eliminated shall be capitalized and in parentheses or stricken by drawing a line through it. A bill drafted by the Revisor of Statutes for the purposes of correcting errors in Minnesota Statutes need not comply with the provisions of this paragraph if the bill is labeled "REVISOR'S BILL" immediately below the title, and if there is attached thereto a memorandum of information explaining the reasons for the bill.

If the bill is for an original law and not for an amendment of an existing law, the sections and subdivisions shall be arranged, subdivided, and numbered in like manner as Minnesota Statutes. If such a bill assigns to the sections thereof headnotes or identification by the decimal system of numbering used in Minnesota Statutes, such headnotes and decimal identification may be submitted by standing committee chairmen to the Revisor of Statutes for examination. Any such headnotes shall be capital letters enclosed in brackets, and shall be subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 648.36.

All numbers in titles shall be expressed in figures. All numbers of section or chapter of law shall be in figures. In the body of a bill numbers in excess of ten shall be in figures, except for a special reason they may be written, but when written they shall not be followed by numbers or parentheses.

APPROPRIATING MONEY

Rule 2.02. The same bill shall not appropriate public money or property to more than one local or private purpose.

No clause appropriating money for a local or private purpose shall be contained in a bill appropriating money for the State government or public institutions. All resolutions authorizing the issuing of abstracts by the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the House for the payment of money shall be upon the call of "yeas" and "nays."

In odd-numbered years, at least twenty calendar days prior to the last day the Legislature can meet in regular session [Tuesday, May 2, 1989], the Committee on Finance of the Senate and the Committee on Appropriations of the House shall report to their respective houses, unless directed by concurrent resolution to report different appropriation bills, eight five separate appropriation bills as follows:

(a) A bill appropriating money for the general administrative and judicial expenses of the State government for the succeeding two fiscal years including salaries, office expenses and supplies and other necessary expenses connected therewith;

(b) A bill covering all appropriations relating to public welfare, health and corrections for the support and maintenance of all State penal and charitable institutions, and other institutions of the State except educational for the two succeeding fiscal years;

(c) A bill appropriating money for the support and maintenance of all State educational institutions for the two succeeding fiscal years;

(d) A bill covering all appropriations providing for the payment of claims against the State of Minnesota which may have been allowed by the Finance Committee of the Senate or the Appropriations Committee of the House;

(e) A bill covering all appropriations made for agriculture, transportation, and semi-state activities;

(f) A bill covering all appropriations for construction and major rehabilitation of public buildings to be financed by issuance of bonds;

(g) A bill covering all appropriations for maintenance, repair, and minor rehabilitation and construction of public buildings; and

(h) A bill covering appropriations for the department of transportation.

No other appropriations shall be contained in any of said bills but all other appropriations shall be contained in separate bills.

DEADLINES

Rule 2.03. (a) In odd-numbered years, committee reports on bills favorably acted upon by a committee in the house of origin after ~~April 10, 1987~~ April 14, 1989, and committee reports on bills originating in the other house favorably acted upon by a committee after ~~April 28, 1987~~ April 26, 1989, shall be referred in the Senate to the Committee on Rules and Administration, and in the House of Representatives to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration for disposition. Referral is not required when a committee after the earlier date and by the later date set by this paragraph acts on a bill that is a companion to a bill that has met the earlier deadline in the other house. This rule does not apply to the Senate Committees on Finance and on Taxes and Tax Laws, and the House Committees on Appropriations and on Taxes.

Conference committees on the major appropriation bills specified in Joint Rule 2.02 shall have their reports on the members' desks by the last Thursday on which the Legislature can meet in regular session [May 18, 1989]. After the last Friday on which the Legislature can meet in regular session [May 19, 1989], neither house shall act on bills other than those contained in:

- (1) Reports of Conference Committees;
- (2) Messages from the other house;
- (3) Reports of the Committee on Rules and Administration in the Senate or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration in the House; or
- (4) Messages from the Governor.

(b) In even-numbered years the Legislature shall establish by concurrent resolution deadlines based on the date intended to be the date of adjournment sine die.

AMENDING BILLS ORIGINATING IN OTHER HOUSE

Rule 2.04. Either house shall have the power to amend any bill, memorial, or resolution passed by the other house.

RECEDING FROM POSITION

Rule 2.05. Prior to a Conference Committee on any matter, either house may recede from its position on any difference existing between the two houses. In order to recede, and if the matter is not in the possession of a house, that house shall request return of the matter from the other house. To recede, a majority of a house shall govern, except in cases otherwise provided in the Constitution. If the question is put and lost, it shall not be put again on the same day. A reconsideration of the question shall in all respects be regulated by the rules of that house.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Rule 2.06. In all cases of disagreement between the Senate and House on amendments adopted by either house to a bill, memorial or resolution passed by the other house, a Conference Committee consisting of not less than three members nor more than five members from each house may be requested by either house. The other house shall appoint a similar committee.

The manner of procedure shall be as follows: The house of origin passes a bill and transmits it to the other body. If the other body adopts an amendment to the bill and passes it as amended, it shall return the bill with a record of its actions to the house of origin. If the house of origin refuses to concur in the amendment, it shall ask for a Conference Committee, appoint such a committee on its part, and transmit the bill with a record of its action to the other house.

If the other house adheres to its amendment, it shall appoint a like committee and return the bill to the house of origin.

All Conference Committees shall be open to the public. As much as practical, meetings of Conference Committees shall be announced as far in advance as possible and actions taken shall be agreed upon in an open meeting. At an agreed upon hour the Conference Committee shall meet. The members from each house shall state to the members from the other house, orally or in writing, the reason for their respective positions. The members shall confer thereon and shall report to their respective houses the agreement they have reached, or, if none, the fact of a disagreement.

If an agreement is reported, the house of origin shall act first upon the report. A Conference Committee report must be limited to provisions that are germane to the bill and ~~amendment~~ amendments that were referred to the Conference Committee. A provision is not germane if it relates to a substantially different subject or is intended to accomplish a substantially different purpose from that of the bill and amendment that were referred to the Conference Committee. If the report is adopted and re-passed as amended by the Conference Committee by the house of origin, the report, the bill and a record of its action shall be transmitted to the other house.

~~All Conference Committees shall be open to the public. Meetings of Conference Committees shall be announced as far in advance as practical.~~

Except after the last Thursday on which the Legislature can meet in regular session in odd-numbered years [May 18, 1989], and after the last Thursday on which the Legislature intended, when it adopted the concurrent resolution required by Rule 2.03, paragraph (b), to meet in regular session in even-numbered years, a written copy of a report of a Conference Committee shall be placed on the desk of each member of a house twelve hours before action on the report by that house. If the report has been reprinted in the Journal of either house for a preceding day and is available to the members, the Journal copy shall serve as the written report. The member presenting the Conference Committee report to the body shall disclose, either in writing or orally, the substantial changes from the bill or the amendment as they were last before the body.

ENROLLMENT AND SIGNATURE

Rule 2.07. After a bill or memorial has been passed by both houses, it shall be carefully and properly enrolled by the Revisor of Statutes under the direction of the Secretary of the Senate for a matter originating in the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the House for a matter originating in the House. The Revisor of Statutes shall obtain the signatures and certificates of the proper officers to the enrolled copy of the bill or memorial and present it to the Governor for his approval.

A bill or memorial may be prepared for presentation to the Governor on good quality paper approximately 8 1/2" x 14" in size and may be produced by means of a copying machine. An enrolled bill shall be labeled "An Act" and it shall be identical to the bill passed by the Legislature. An enrolled bill which is amendatory of any existing law or constitutional provision shall indicate deletions and additions in the manner provided in Rule 2.01 for printed bills.

ARTICLE III: GENERAL PROVISIONS

SUSPENSION OF JOINT RULES

Rule 3.01. Either house may suspend the Joint Rules of the Senate and House by a vote of two-thirds of its members.

ODD YEAR SESSION ADJOURNMENT

Rule 3.02. Adjournment of the regular session in any odd-numbered year to a date certain in the following year shall be equivalent to daily adjournment, except that upon adjournment in any odd-numbered year to a date certain in the following year:

(a) Any bill being considered by a Conference Committee shall be returned to the house of origin, laid on the table, and the Conference Committee shall be discharged;

(b) Any bill referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration in the Senate or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration in the House pursuant to Joint Rule 2.03 shall be returned to the standing committee to which it was last previously referred; and

(c) Any bill returned by the Governor to the house of origin with his objections following such adjournment shall be laid on the table.

INTERIM COMMITTEE AND COMMISSION REPORTS

Rule 3.03. Except as otherwise provided by law, the report of any interim committee or commission to the Legislature shall be submitted on paper 8 1/2" x 11" in size, spiral bound, stapled, or punched on the left edge to fit a standard size three ring binder intended for that size paper. A brief summary of the recommendations of the commission or committee shall appear first and be clearly separated from its findings, discussions, and exhibits. If the report contains legislative recommendations, a copy of any proposed legislation, particularly if extensive in character, shall if possible be attached as an exhibit at the end of the report.

ARTICLE IV: ELECTION OF REGENTS

JOINT COMMITTEE

Rule 4.01. By May 7 of each odd-numbered year, a joint committee shall meet to recommend nominees for regent of the University of Minnesota to be presented to a Joint Convention of the legislature. The members of the joint committee are the members of the senate and house committees on education and the members of the education division of the senate committee on finance and the education division of the house committee on appropriations. A majority of the members of the committee from each house is a quorum of the joint committee.

The joint committee shall determine the number of persons, and the person or persons to be recommended for each open seat.

Each person recommended by the regent candidate advisory council is considered to be nominated. Other persons may be nominated by a member of the committee at the meeting. Nominations may be made by committee members only. Nominations must be made for a specified congressional or student seat, or for any at-large seat.

Voting must be by public ballot. Each member has one vote for each recommendation to be made. A majority vote of the members of the committee from each house is required for a candidate to be recommended.

JOINT CONVENTION

Rule 4.02. At the Joint Convention of the senate and house of representatives called to elect regents, the joint committee shall report the name of the person or persons recommended for each seat. These persons are considered to be nominated. Any member of the legislature may submit additional nominations. If there is more than one at-large seat to be filled, all candidates for an at-large seat run for any of the at-large seats.

The roll shall be called viva voce on the election of regents. The roll must be called first on congressional district seats until they are filled, then on the student seat, and then on the at-large seats. The candidate for each seat receiving a majority of the votes cast must be declared elected. If no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast for a seat, on each succeeding ballot the candidate with the fewest votes must be dropped from consideration and the votes cast again until a majority vote is achieved. Any candidate with fewer than 20 votes on any ballot shall also be dropped on succeeding ballots.

Wynia moved that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8 relating to Permanent Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives be now adopted.

Wynia moved to amend Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8, as follows:

Page 11, line 19, delete "of the committee"

Page 11, delete lines 29 to 32 and insert:

"The roll shall be called viva voce on the recommendation of regents. A majority vote of the members of the joint committee is required for a candidate to be recommended."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Gutknecht, Lynch, Dille, Weaver, Scheid and Runbeck moved to amend Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8, as amended, as follows:

"FUND-RAISERS

Rule 3.04. No member of the Senate or House of Representatives may conduct a political fund-raiser during a regular session of the legislature. This rule does not apply to a political fund-raiser conducted by a political party or a caucus of members of the Senate or House of Representatives."

A roll call was requested and properly seconded.

Wynia moved to refer the Gutknecht et al amendment to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8, as amended, to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration.

A roll call was requested and properly seconded.

POINT OF ORDER

Schreiber raised a point of order pursuant to section 399 of "Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure". The Speaker ruled the point of order not well taken and the Wynia motion in order.

The question recurred on the Wynia motion and the roll was called. There were 68 yeas and 54 nays as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were:

Battaglia	Jacobs	McEachern	Otis	Solberg

ARTICLE IV: ELECTION OF REGENTS

4.01 Joint Committee

4.02 Joint Convention

ARTICLE I: JOINT CONVENTIONS

HOW GOVERNED

Rule 1.01. The Speaker of the House shall preside at all Conventions of the two houses of the Legislature and shall call the members to order. The Chief Clerk of the House shall be the Secretary and the Sergeant at Arms of the House shall be the Sergeant at Arms of the Convention.

PRESIDENT'S DUTIES

Rule 1.02. The President of the Convention shall preserve order and decorum. He may speak on all points of order in preference to other members and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Convention by any member. He shall rise to put a question but may state it while seated.

PRESIDENT'S RIGHT TO VOTE

Rule 1.03. The President shall have the right to vote in all cases except appeals from his decisions. He shall vote last on all questions.

STATING QUESTIONS

Rule 1.04. Questions shall be put to the Convention in the following form: "As many as are of the opinion that (the question) shall pass, say 'Aye.'" After an affirmative vote is expressed the nays shall be called as follows: "As many as are of the contrary opinion, say 'No.' ” If the President is in doubt or a division is called, those in the affirmative shall rise first and those in the negative afterward.

ORDER OF DEBATE

Rule 1.05. When any member wishes to speak to the Convention on any matter, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, and not speak further until recognized. He shall confine himself to the question under debate and avoid personal remarks. When two or more members rise at the same time, the President shall designate the member to speak first. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without permission of the Convention.

CALLING MEMBER TO ORDER

Rule 1.06. If any member of the Joint Convention is called to order for offensive words in debate, the member calling him to order shall report the words to which exception is taken and the Secretary shall record them. No member may be called to order for any language used in debate if exception is not taken before any other member has spoken or any other business has taken place. A member called to order shall immediately sit down unless another member moves to permit him to explain. In any case, the Joint Convention, if appealed to, shall decide without debate. Only if the decision is in favor of the member called to order shall he be at liberty to proceed.

CALL OF THE CONVENTION

Rule 1.07. Five members may demand a call of the Convention at any time except after voting has commenced. When such a call is demanded, the doors shall be closed, the roll shall be called, the absent members shall be sent for, and no member may be permitted to leave the Chamber, unless excused by the President, until the call is lifted. Proceedings under the roll call may be suspended by a majority vote of all the members of the Convention. A call of the Convention may be lifted by a majority vote of all the members of the Convention.

ELECTIONS

Rule 1.08. In all elections by the Joint Convention, members shall vote viva voce and the roll of Senate members shall be called first. Whenever there is an election of any officer in Joint Convention, the result shall be certified by the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House and announced by them to their respective houses. The result shall be entered on the Journal of each house and communicated to the Governor by the Secretary of the Convention.

NO SMOKING

Rule 1.09. No person is permitted to smoke in the Chamber or in the gallery during a Joint Convention.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Rule 1.10. The rules of the House shall be the Rules of the Joint Convention of both houses in all cases in which the foregoing rules are not applicable.

ARTICLE II: BILLS

FORM

Rule 2.01. The title of each bill shall clearly state its subject and briefly state its purpose. When a bill amends or repeals an existing act, the title shall refer to the chapter, section or subdivision.

Reference shall be made to Minnesota Statutes for the provisions appearing therein unless reference to previous session laws is required for some special reason.

Bills shall refer to Minnesota Statutes as follows:

“Minnesota Statutes, section”

Bills shall refer to the session laws as follows:

“Laws, chapter, section”

A bill for the amendment of a statute shall contain the full text of the section or subdivision to be amended as it appears in the latest edition of Minnesota Statutes unless it has been amended, in which event it shall contain the full text as amended.

The words and characters constituting the amending matter shall be inserted in the proper place in the text and underscored. The words and characters to be eliminated by the amendment shall be stricken by drawing a line through them. The text of a new section or subdivision shall also be underscored when a bill amends an existing chapter or section by adding a new section or subdivision. In the omnibus appropriation bills required by Joint Rule 2.02, sections making an appropriation or transfer and not amending a statute or session law need not have new material underscored. Before a committee favorably reports upon a bill, the chairman of the committee shall see that the bill conforms to this rule. When a bill is printed in the Journal, the new matter shall be in italics or underscored and the matter to be eliminated shall be capitalized and in parentheses or stricken by drawing a line through it. A bill drafted by the Revisor of Statutes for the purposes of correcting errors in Minnesota Statutes need not comply with the provisions of this paragraph if the bill is labeled "REVISOR'S BILL" immediately below the title, and if there is attached thereto a memorandum of information explaining the reasons for the bill.

If the bill is for an original law and not for an amendment of an existing law, the sections and subdivisions shall be arranged, subdivided, and numbered in like manner as Minnesota Statutes. If such a bill assigns to the sections thereof headnotes or identification by the decimal system of numbering used in Minnesota Statutes, such headnotes and decimal identification may be submitted by standing committee chairmen to the Revisor of Statutes for examination. Any such headnotes shall be capital letters enclosed in brackets, and shall be subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 648.36.

All numbers in titles shall be expressed in figures. All numbers of section or chapter of law shall be in figures. In the body of a bill numbers in excess of ten shall be in figures, except for a special reason they may be written, but when written they shall not be followed by numbers or parentheses.

APPROPRIATING MONEY

Rule 2.02. The same bill shall not appropriate public money or property to more than one local or private purpose.

No clause appropriating money for a local or private purpose shall be contained in a bill appropriating money for the State government or public institutions. All resolutions authorizing the issuing of abstracts by the Secretary of the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the House for the payment of money shall be upon the call of "yeas" and "nays."

In odd-numbered years, at least twenty calendar days prior to the last day the Legislature can meet in regular session [Tuesday, May 2, 1989], the Committee on Finance of the Senate and the Committee on Appropriations of the House shall report to their respective houses, unless directed by concurrent resolution to report different appropriation bills, eight five separate appropriation bills as follows:

(a) A bill appropriating money for the general administrative and judicial expenses of the State government for the succeeding two fiscal years including salaries, office expenses and supplies and other necessary expenses connected therewith;

(b) A bill covering all appropriations relating to public welfare, health and corrections for the support and maintenance of all State penal and charitable institutions, and other institutions of the State except educational for the two succeeding fiscal years;

(c) A bill appropriating money for the support and maintenance of all State educational institutions for the two succeeding fiscal years;

(d) A bill covering all appropriations providing for the payment of claims against the State of Minnesota which may have been allowed by the Finance Committee of the Senate or the Appropriations Committee of the House;

(e) A bill covering all appropriations made for agriculture, transportation, and semi-state activities;

(f) A bill covering all appropriations for construction and major rehabilitation of public buildings to be financed by issuance of bonds;

(g) A bill covering all appropriations for maintenance, repair, and minor rehabilitation and construction of public buildings; and

(h) A bill covering appropriations for the department of transportation.

No other appropriations shall be contained in any of said bills but all other appropriations shall be contained in separate bills.

DEADLINES

Rule 2.03. (a) In odd-numbered years, committee reports on bills favorably acted upon by a committee in the house of origin after April 10, 1987 April 14, 1989, and committee reports on bills originating in the other house favorably acted upon by a committee after April 28, 1987 April 26, 1989, shall be referred in the Senate to the Committee on Rules and Administration, and in the House of Representatives to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration for disposition. Referral is not required when a committee after the earlier date and by the later date set by this paragraph acts on a bill that is a companion to a bill that has met the earlier deadline in the other house. This rule does not apply to the Senate Committees on Finance and on Taxes and Tax Laws, and the House Committees on Appropriations and on Taxes.

Conference committees on the major appropriation bills specified in Joint Rule 2.02 shall have their reports on the members' desks by the last Thursday on which the Legislature can meet in regular session [May 18, 1989]. After the last Friday on which the Legislature can meet in regular session [May 19, 1989], neither house shall act on bills other than those contained in:

- (1) Reports of Conference Committees;
- (2) Messages from the other house;
- (3) Reports of the Committee on Rules and Administration in the Senate or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration in the House; or
- (4) Messages from the Governor.

(b) In even-numbered years the Legislature shall establish by concurrent resolution deadlines based on the date intended to be the date of adjournment sine die.

AMENDING BILLS ORIGINATING IN OTHER HOUSE

Rule 2.04. Either house shall have the power to amend any bill, memorial, or resolution passed by the other house.

RECEDING FROM POSITION

Rule 2.05. Prior to a Conference Committee on any matter, either house may recede from its position on any difference existing between the two houses. In order to recede, and if the matter is not in the possession of a house, that house shall request return of the matter from the other house. To recede, a majority of a house shall govern, except in cases otherwise provided in the Constitution. If the question is put and lost, it shall not be put again on the same day. A reconsideration of the question shall in all respects be regulated by the rules of that house.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Rule 2.06. In all cases of disagreement between the Senate and House on amendments adopted by either house to a bill, memorial or resolution passed by the other house, a Conference Committee consisting of not less than three members nor more than five members from each house may be requested by either house. The other house shall appoint a similar committee.

The manner of procedure shall be as follows: The house of origin passes a bill and transmits it to the other body. If the other body adopts an amendment to the bill and passes it as amended, it shall return the bill with a record of its actions to the house of origin. If the house of origin refuses to concur in the amendment, it shall ask for a Conference Committee, appoint such a committee on its part, and transmit the bill with a record of its action to the other house.

If the other house adheres to its amendment, it shall appoint a like committee and return the bill to the house of origin.

All Conference Committees shall be open to the public. As much as practical, meetings of Conference Committees shall be announced as far in advance as possible and actions taken shall be agreed upon in an open meeting. At an agreed upon hour the Conference Committee shall meet. The members from each house shall state to the members from the other house, orally or in writing, the reason for their respective positions. The members shall confer thereon and shall report to their respective houses the agreement they have reached, or, if none, the fact of a disagreement.

If an agreement is reported, the house of origin shall act first upon the report. A Conference Committee report must be limited to provisions that are germane to the bill and amendment amendments that were referred to the Conference Committee. A provision is not germane if it relates to a substantially different subject or is intended to accomplish a substantially different purpose from that of the bill and amendment that were referred to the Conference Committee. If the report is adopted and repassed as amended by the Conference Committee by the house of origin, the report, the bill and a record of its action shall be transmitted to the other house.

All Conference Committees shall be open to the public. Meetings of Conference Committees shall be announced as far in advance as practical.

Except after the last Thursday on which the Legislature can meet in regular session in odd-numbered years [May 18, 1989], and after the last Thursday on which the Legislature intended, when it adopted the concurrent resolution required by Rule 2.03, paragraph (b), to meet in regular session in even-numbered years, a written copy of a report of a Conference Committee shall be placed on the desk of each member of a house twelve hours before action on the report by that house. If the report has been reprinted in the Journal of either house for a preceding day and is available to the members, the Journal copy shall serve as the written report. The member presenting the Conference Committee report to the body shall disclose, either in writing or orally, the substantial changes from the bill or the amendment as they were last before the body.

ENROLLMENT AND SIGNATURE

Rule 2.07. After a bill or memorial has been passed by both houses, it shall be carefully and properly enrolled by the Revisor of Statutes under the direction of the Secretary of the Senate for a matter originating in the Senate or the Chief Clerk of the House for a matter originating in the House. The Revisor of Statutes shall obtain the signatures and certificates of the proper officers to the enrolled copy of the bill or memorial and present it to the Governor for his approval.

A bill or memorial may be prepared for presentation to the Governor on good quality paper approximately 8 1/2" x 14" in size and may be produced by means of a copying machine. An enrolled bill shall be labeled "An Act" and it shall be identical to the bill passed by the Legislature. An enrolled bill which is amendatory of any existing law or constitutional provision shall indicate deletions and additions in the manner provided in Rule 2.01 for printed bills.

ARTICLE III: GENERAL PROVISIONS

SUSPENSION OF JOINT RULES

Rule 3.01. Either house may suspend the Joint Rules of the Senate and House by a vote of two-thirds of its members.

ODD YEAR SESSION ADJOURNMENT

Rule 3.02. Adjournment of the regular session in any odd-numbered year to a date certain in the following year shall be equivalent to daily adjournment, except that upon adjournment in any odd-numbered year to a date certain in the following year:

(a) Any bill being considered by a Conference Committee shall be returned to the house of origin, laid on the table, and the Conference Committee shall be discharged;

(b) Any bill referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration in the Senate or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration in the House pursuant to Joint Rule 2.03 shall be returned to the standing committee to which it was last previously referred; and

(c) Any bill returned by the Governor to the house of origin with his objections following such adjournment shall be laid on the table.

INTERIM COMMITTEE AND COMMISSION REPORTS

Rule 3.03. Except as otherwise provided by law, the report of any interim committee or commission to the Legislature shall be submitted on paper 8 1/2" x 11" in size, spiral bound, stapled, or punched on the left edge to fit a standard size three ring binder intended for that size paper. A brief summary of the recommendations of the commission or committee shall appear first and be clearly separated from its findings, discussions, and exhibits. If the report contains legislative recommendations, a copy of any proposed legislation, particularly if extensive in character, shall if possible be attached as an exhibit at the end of the report.

ARTICLE IV: ELECTION OF REGENTS

JOINT COMMITTEE

Rule 4.01. By May 7 of each odd-numbered year, a joint committee shall meet to recommend nominees for regent of the University of Minnesota to be presented to a Joint Convention of the legislature. The members of the joint committee are the members of the senate and house committees on education and the members of the education division of the senate committee on finance and the education division of the house committee on appropriations. A majority of the members from each house is a quorum of the joint committee.

The joint committee shall determine the number of persons, and the person or persons to be recommended for each open seat.

Each person recommended by the regent candidate advisory council is considered to be nominated. Other persons may be nominated by a member of the committee at the meeting. Nominations may be made by committee members only. Nominations must be made for a specified congressional or student seat, or for any at-large seat.

The roll shall be called viva voce on the recommendation of regents. A majority vote of the members of the joint committee is required for a candidate to be recommended.

JOINT CONVENTION

Rule 4.02. At the Joint Convention of the senate and house of representatives called to elect regents, the joint committee shall report the name of the person or persons recommended for each seat. These persons are considered to be nominated. Any member of the legislature may submit additional nominations. If there is more than one at-large seat to be filled, all candidates for an at-large seat run for any of the at-large seats.

The roll shall be called viva voce on the election of regents. The roll must be called first on congressional district seats until they are filled, then on the student seat, and then on the at-large seats. The candidate for each seat receiving a majority of the votes cast must be declared elected. If no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast for a seat, on each succeeding ballot the candidate with the fewest votes must be dropped from consideration and the votes cast again until a majority vote is achieved. Any candidate with fewer than 20 votes on any ballot shall also be dropped on succeeding ballots.

Wynia moved that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 7 be now adopted.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 7

A senate concurrent resolution commending retiring University of Minnesota Regents: the Honorable Wally Hilke, the Honorable David M. Lebedoff, the Honorable Charles F. McGuiggan, and the Honorable Wenda W. Moore.

Whereas, providing quality education on all levels to citizens of the United States of America is perhaps the most important challenge facing our country; and

Whereas, the University of Minnesota Board of Regents has the responsibility of ensuring that the University of Minnesota maintains its reputation as one of the finest academic institutions in the United States; and

Whereas, service on the Board of Regents requires a thorough understanding of both the University and the people of the State of Minnesota, a willingness to work to resolve complex problems, and a deep devotion to public service; and

Whereas, the present regents have served at a time of extraordinary difficulty; and

Whereas, four members of the University of Minnesota Board of Regents have recently announced their retirement after years of service to the University of Minnesota, its educators, staff, and students; and

Whereas, these retiring Regents are: the Honorable Wally Hilke, the Honorable David M. Lebedoff, the Honorable Charles F. McGuiggan, and the Honorable Wenda W. Moore; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Minnesota, the House of Representatives concurring, that the Senate and House of Representatives commend these retiring Regents for their years of dedicated service to the University of Minnesota and to quality education.

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate is directed to prepare enrolled copies of this resolution, to be authenticated by his signature and those of the Chairman of the Senate Rules and Administration Committee, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, and present them to Wally Hilke, David M. Lebedoff, Charles F. McGuigan, and Wenda W. Moore.

The motion prevailed and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 7 was adopted.

Section 1. [317A.001] [CITATION.]

This chapter may be cited as the Minnesota nonprofit corporation act.

DEFINITIONS

Sec. 2. [317A.011] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For purposes of this chapter, the terms in this section have the meanings given them, unless the language or context clearly shows that a different meaning is intended.

Subd. 2. [ADDRESS.] "Address" means mailing address, including a zip code, except that in the case of a registered office, address means the mailing address and the actual office location, which may not be a post office box.

Subd. 3. [ARTICLES.] "Articles" means, in the case of a corporation incorporated under or governed by this chapter, articles of incorporation, articles of amendment, a resolution of election to become governed by this chapter, a statement of change of registered office, registered agent, or name of registered agent, articles of merger, articles of consolidation, articles of abandonment, and articles of dissolution. In the case of a foreign corporation, the term includes documents serving a similar function required to be filed with the secretary of state or other officer of the corporation's state of incorporation.

Subd. 4. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] "Board of directors" or "board" means the group of persons vested with the general management of the internal affairs of a corporation, regardless of how they are identified.

Subd. 5. [BYLAWS.] "Bylaws" means the code adopted for the regulation or management of the internal affairs of a corporation, regardless of how designated.

Subd. 6. [CLASS.] "Class" means a group of memberships that have the same rights with respect to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer. Rights are the same if they are determined by a formula applied uniformly.

Subd. 7. [CORPORATION.] "Corporation" means a corporation that is governed by this chapter. A corporation may not:

(1) be formed for a purpose involving pecuniary gain to its members, other than to members that are nonprofit organizations; and

(2) pay dividends or other pecuniary remuneration, directly or indirectly, to its members, other than to members that are nonprofit organizations.

Subd. 8. [DIRECTOR.] "Director" means a member of the board.

Subd. 9. [FILED WITH THE SECRETARY OF STATE.] "Filed with the secretary of state" means that an original of a document meeting the requirements of this chapter, signed, and accompanied by a filing fee of $25, has been delivered to the secretary of state of this state. The secretary of state shall endorse on the original the word "Filed" and the month, day, year, and time of filing, record the document in the office of the secretary of state, and return the document to the person who delivered it for filing.

Subd. 10. [FOREIGN CORPORATION.] "Foreign corporation" means a corporation that is formed under laws other than the laws of this state.

Subd. 11. [GOOD FAITH.] "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct of an act or transaction.

Subd. 12. [LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE.] "Legal representative" means a person empowered to act for another person, including, but not limited to, an agent, officer, partner, or associate of an organization; a trustee of a trust; a personal representative; a trustee in bankruptcy; or a receiver, guardian, custodian, or conservator.

Subd. 13. [MEMBER.] "Member" means a person with membership rights in a corporation under its articles or bylaws, regardless of how the person is identified.

Subd. 14. [MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.] "Members with voting rights" or "voting members" means members or a class of members that has voting rights with respect to the purpose or matter involved.

Subd. 15. [NOTICE.] (a) "Notice" is given by a member of a corporation to the corporation or an officer of the corporation when in writing and mailed or delivered to the corporation or the officer at the registered office of the corporation.

(b) Notice is given by the corporation to an officer, member, or other person:

(1) when mailed to the person at an address designated by the person, at the last known address of the person, or, in the case of an officer or member, at the address of the person in the corporate records;

(2) when communicated to the person orally;

(3) when handed to the person;

(4) when left at the office of the person with a clerk or other person in charge of the office, or if there is no one in charge, when left in a conspicuous place in the office;

(5) if the person's office is closed or the person to be notified has no office, when left at the dwelling or usual place of abode of the person with a person of suitable age and discretion residing in the house; or

(6) when the method is fair and reasonable when all the circumstances are considered.

(c) Notice by mail is given when deposited in the United States mail with sufficient postage. Notice is considered received when it is given.

Subd. 16. [OFFICER.] "Officer" means a person elected, appointed, or otherwise designated as an officer by the board, and a person considered elected an officer under section 51.

Subd. 17. [ORGANIZATION.] "Organization" means a domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation, partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, association, trust, estate, enterprise, or other legal or commercial entity.

Subd. 18. [REGISTERED OFFICE.] "Registered office" means the place in this state designated in the articles of a corporation as the registered office of the corporation.

Subd. 19. [RELATED ORGANIZATION.] "Related organization" means an organization that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, another corporation. Control exists if an organization:

(1) owns, directly or indirectly, at least 50 percent of the stock ownership or membership interests of another organization;

(2) has the right, directly or indirectly, to elect, appoint, or remove 50 percent or more of the voting members of the governing body of another organization; or

(3) has the power, directly or indirectly, to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of another organization, whether through the ownership of voting interests, by contract, or otherwise.

Subd. 20. [SIGNED.] (a) "Signed" means that the signature of a person is written on a document, as provided in section 645.44, subdivision 14. A document required by this chapter to be filed with the secretary of state must be signed by a person authorized to do so by this chapter, the articles or bylaws, or a resolution approved by the affirmative vote of the required proportion or number of the directors, or the required proportion or number of members with voting rights, if any.

(b) A signature on a document not required by this chapter to be filed with the secretary of state may be a facsimile affixed, engraved, printed, placed, stamped with indelible ink, or in any other manner reproduced on the document.

Subd. 21. [WRITTEN ACTION.] "Written action" means a written document signed by all of the persons required to take the action. The term also means the counterparts of a written document signed by any of the persons taking the action. A counterpart is the action of the persons signing it, and all the counterparts are one written action by all of the persons signing them.

APPLICATION

Sec. 3. [317A.021] [APPLICATION AND ELECTION.]

Subdivision 1. [ELECTION BY CHAPTER 300, 309, OR 315 CORPORATIONS.] A corporation incorporated under chapter 300, 309, or 315 that has not later become governed by chapter 317 may elect to be governed by this chapter.

Subd. 2. [ELECTION BY CHAPTER 317 CORPORATIONS.] On or after August 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1991, a corporation incorporated under chapter 317 may elect to become governed by this chapter.

Subd. 3. [CONFORMING ARTICLES OF ELECTING CORPORATIONS.] If the articles of an electing corporation include a provision prohibited by this chapter, omit a provision required by this chapter, or are inconsistent with this chapter, the electing corporation shall amend its articles to conform to the requirements of this chapter. The appropriate provisions of the corporation's articles or bylaws or the law by which it was governed before the effective date of the election made under this section control the manner of adoption of the amendment.

Subd. 4. [METHOD OF ELECTION.] An election by a corporation to become governed by this chapter must be made by resolution approved by the affirmative vote of the members with voting rights of the same proportion that is required for amendment of the articles of the corporation before the election. If there are no members with voting rights, the corporation must elect to be governed by this chapter by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the directors entitled to vote at a special meeting of the board, with proper notice given. The resolution, articles of amendment, if required, and a certified copy of corporate documents previously filed with the county recorder that would be filed with the secretary of state under this chapter, must be filed with the secretary of state and are effective upon filing. If an amendment of the articles is required, the resolution must state that the articles of the corporation conform to the requirements of this chapter.

Subd. 5. [EFFECT OF ELECTION UPON BYLAWS.] Upon filing an election under subdivision 4, provisions of the bylaws that are consistent with this chapter remain or become effective and provisions of the bylaws that are inconsistent with this chapter are not effective.

Subd. 6. [CHOICE OF INCORPORATION UNTIL JANUARY 1, 1990.] From August 1, 1989, to December 31, 1990, a corporation may be incorporated under this chapter or under chapter 317.

Subd. 7. [NONELECTING NONPROFIT CORPORATIONS SUBJECT TO THIS CHAPTER AS OF JANUARY 1, 1991.] A corporation in existence on January 1, 1991, that is within the scope of this chapter and incorporated under another statute of this state, other than a corporation incorporated under chapter 300, 309, or 315 that has not later become governed by chapter 317, is governed by this chapter as of January 1, 1991, as though the corporation had been incorporated under this chapter. The provisions of the articles and bylaws of the corporation that may be included in the articles or bylaws under this chapter remain in effect. The provisions of the articles and bylaws of the corporation that are inconsistent with this chapter are not effective as of January 1, 1991. Provisions required by this chapter to be contained in the articles that do not appear in the articles are read into them as a matter of law.

Subd. 8. [INCORPORATION AFTER JANUARY 1, 1991.] On and after January 1, 1991, a corporation that is within the scope of this chapter may be incorporated only under this chapter.

Subd. 9. [APPLICABILITY OF OTHER LAWS.] (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c), chapters 300, 316, 317, and 556 do not apply to corporations.

(b) Sections 300.60, 300.61, and 300.63 apply to corporations.

(c) This subdivision does not affect the applicability of chapter 300 to a corporation that elected to reject Laws 1951, chapter 500, sections 1 to 25.

Sec. 4. [317A.031] [TRANSITION; CONTINUATION OF LEGAL ACTS.]

The continuation or completion of an act by a corporation that is not incorporated under, but has become governed by, this chapter, and the continuation or performance of an executed or wholly or partially executory contract, conveyance, or transfer to or by the corporation, is valid if otherwise lawful before the corporation became governed by this chapter. The act may be continued, completed, enforced, or ended as required or permitted by a statute applicable before the date on which the corporation became governed by this chapter.

Sec. 5. [317A.041] [RESERVATION OF RIGHT.]

The state reserves the right to amend or repeal this chapter. A corporation governed by this chapter is subject to this reserved right.

Sec. 6. [317A.051] [SCOPE OF CHAPTER.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] This chapter does not apply to cooperative associations, public cemetery corporations and associations, and private cemeteries.

Subd. 2. [RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.] This chapter does not apply to a religious corporation authorized by chapter 315 unless it is formed under this chapter or elects to be governed by this chapter as provided in section 3. Regardless of whether it is formed or elects to be governed by this chapter, a religious corporation may elect to be governed by sections 84 to 93 without electing to come under the entire chapter. If a religious corporation elects to be governed by sections 84 to 93, it shall file its documents with the county recorder of the county where its registered office is located instead of the secretary of state.

Sec. 7. [317A:061] [FOREIGN NONPROFIT CORPORATIONS; SECTIONS APPLICABLE.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Except for this section and section 91 concerning merger or consolidation, this chapter does not apply to foreign nonprofit corporations.

Subd. 2. [SECTIONS APPLICABLE.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), a foreign nonprofit corporation is subject to chapter 303. Unless it complies with chapter 303, a foreign corporation may not transact business in this state.

(b) Sections 303.02, subdivision 2, 303.07, 303.14, 303.16, subdivision 2, clauses (6) and (7), and 303.22, do not apply to foreign nonprofit corporations.

INCORPORATION; ARTICLES

Sec. 8. [317A.101] [PURPOSES.]

A corporation may be incorporated under this chapter for any lawful purpose, unless another statute requires incorporation for a purpose under a different law. Unless otherwise limited in its articles, a corporation has a general purpose of engaging in any lawful activity. A corporation engaging in conduct that is regulated by another statute is subject to the limitations of the other statute.

Sec. 9. [317A.105] [INCORPORATORS.]

One or more adult natural persons may act as incorporators of a corporation by filing articles of incorporation for the corporation with the secretary of state.

Sec. 10. [317A.111] [ARTICLES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED PROVISIONS.] The articles of incorporation must contain:

- (1) the name of the corporation;
- (2) the address of the registered office of the corporation and the name of its registered agent, if any, at that address;
- (3) the name and address of each incorporator; and
- (4) a statement that the corporation is organized under this chapter.

Subd. 2. [STATUTORY PROVISIONS THAT MAY BE MODIFIED ONLY IN ARTICLES.] The following provisions govern a corporation unless modified in the articles:

- (1) a corporation has a general purpose of engaging in any lawful activity (section 8);
- (2) the power to initially adopt, amend, or repeal the bylaws is vested in the board (section 26);
- (3) cumulative voting for directors is prohibited (section 34);
- (4) a written action by the board taken without a meeting must be signed by all directors (section 42); and
- (5) members are of one class (section 56).

Subd. 3. [STATUTORY PROVISIONS THAT MAY BE MODIFIED IN ARTICLES OR BYLAWS.] The following provisions govern a corporation unless modified in the articles or bylaws:

- (1) a certain method must be used for amending the articles (section 17);
- (2) a corporation has perpetual duration and certain powers (section 22);
- (3) a certain method must be used for the members to adopt, amend, or repeal existing bylaws (section 26);
- (4) a director holds office until expiration of the director's term and election of a successor (section 30);
- (5) the term of a director filling a vacancy expires at the end of the term the director is filling (section 30);

- (6) the compensation of directors is fixed by the board (section 32);
- (7) a certain method must be used for removal of directors (section 36);
- (8) a certain method must be used for filling board vacancies (section 38);
- (9) board meetings must be held at least once per year and if the board fails to select a place for a board meeting, it must be held at the registered office (section 39);
- (10) a director may call a board meeting, and the notice of the meeting need not state the purpose of the meeting (section 39);
- (11) a majority of the board is a quorum (section 40);
- (12) the affirmative vote of the majority of directors present is required for board action (section 41);
- (13) a committee consists of one or more persons, who need not be directors, appointed by the board (section 43);
- (14) the president and treasurer have certain duties, until the board determines otherwise (section 48);
- (15) officers may delegate some or all of their duties and powers, if not prohibited by the board from doing so (section 54);
- (16) a corporation does not have members (section 56);
- (17) the board may determine the consideration required to admit members (section 56);
- (18) all members are entitled to vote and have equal rights and preferences in matters not otherwise provided for by the board or members (section 56);
- (19) memberships may not be transferred (section 58);
- (20) a corporation with voting members must hold a regular meeting of voting members annually (section 64);
- (21) if a specific minimum notice period has not been fixed by law, at least five days' notice is required for a meeting of members (section 67);
- (22) the board may fix a date up to 60 days before the date of a members meeting as the date for determination of the members entitled to notice of and entitled to vote at the meeting (section 68);

(23) each member has one vote (section 70);

(24) the affirmative vote of the majority of members with voting rights present and entitled to vote is required for action of the members, unless this chapter or the articles or bylaws require a greater vote or voting by class (section 71);

(25) members may take action at a meeting by voice or ballot, by unanimous action without a meeting, by mailed ballot, or by electronic communication (section 71);

(26) the number of members required for a quorum is ten percent of the members entitled to vote (section 75);

(27) certain procedures govern acceptance of member acts (section 77); and

(28) indemnification of certain persons is required (section 83).

Subd. 4. [OPTIONAL PROVISIONS; SPECIFIC SUBJECTS.] The following provisions relating to the management or regulation of the affairs of a corporation may be included in the articles or, except for naming members of the first board or fixing a greater than majority director or member vote, in the bylaws:

(1) the first board of directors may be named in the articles (section 25);

(2) additional qualifications for directors may be imposed (section 29);

(3) terms of directors may be staggered (section 30);

(4) the day or date, time, and place of board meetings may be fixed (section 39);

(5) in addition to the president, authority to sign and deliver certain documents may be delegated to an officer or agent of the corporation (section 48);

(6) additional officers may be designated (section 49);

(7) additional powers, rights, duties, and responsibilities may be given to officers (section 49);

(8) a method for filling vacant offices may be specified (section 53);

(9) membership criteria and procedures for admission may be established (section 56);

(10) membership terms may be fixed (section 56);

(11) a corporation may levy dues, assessments, or fees on members (section 59);

(12) a corporation may buy memberships (section 62);

(13) a corporation may have delegates with some or all the authority of members (section 63);

(14) the day or date, time, and place of regular member meetings or the place of special meetings may be fixed (section 64);

(15) certain persons may be authorized to call special meetings of members (section 65);

(16) notices of special member meetings may be required to contain certain information (section 65);

(17) a larger than majority vote may be required for member action (section 71);

(18) members may vote by proxy (section 76); and

(19) members may enter into voting agreements (section 78).

Subd. 5. [OPTIONAL PROVISIONS; GENERALLY.] The articles may contain other provisions consistent with law relating to the management or regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

Subd. 6. [POWERS NEED NOT BE STATED.] It is not necessary to state the corporate powers granted by this chapter in the articles.

Subd. 7. [SUBSTANTIVE LAW CONTROLS.] If there is a conflict between subdivision 2, 3, or 4 and another section of this chapter, the other section controls.

Sec. 11. [317A.113] [PRIVATE FOUNDATIONS; PROVISIONS CONSIDERED CONTAINED IN ARTICLES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROVISIONS REQUIRED.] The articles of incorporation of a corporation that is a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and an instrument governing the use, retention, or disposition by the corporation of its income or property must contain the provisions contained in this section. If the articles and instrument do not contain these provisions, they are considered to have incorporated the language in clauses (1) to (5) with the same effect as though the language was set forth verbatim. Except as provided in subdivision 2, these provisions govern the corporation as to the use, retention, and disposition of its income and property regardless of provisions of the articles or instrument or other law of this state to the contrary:

(1) the corporation shall distribute for each of its taxable years amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for the tax imposed by section 4942(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;

(2) the corporation may not engage in an act of "self-dealing" as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that would give rise to liability for the tax imposed by section 4941(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;

(3) the corporation may not retain "excess business holdings" as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that would give rise to liability for the tax imposed by section 4943(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;

(4) the corporation may not make investments that would jeopardize the carrying out of the exempt purposes of the corporation, within the meaning of section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, so as to give rise to liability for the tax imposed by section 4944(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; and

(5) the corporation may not make a "taxable expenditure" as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 that would give rise to liability for the tax imposed by section 4945(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] Subdivision 1 does not apply to a corporation if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the application would be contrary to the terms of an instrument described in subdivision 1 and that the instrument may not properly be changed to conform to subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [FUTURE REFERENCES.] A reference in subdivision 1 to a particular section of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 includes the corresponding provision of a future United States Internal Revenue law.

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION.] This section applies to all corporations that could be governed by this chapter, notwithstanding sections 3 and 6.

Subd. 5. [RIGHTS RESERVED.] This section does not impair the rights and powers of the attorney general or the courts of this state with respect to a corporation.

Sec. 12. [317A.115] [CORPORATE NAME.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] (a) The corporate name must be in the English language or in another language expressed in English letters or characters.

(b) A corporate name may not contain a word or phrase that shows or implies that it may not be incorporated under this chapter.

(c) A corporate name need not contain the word "corporation," "incorporated," "company," or "limited," or an abbreviation of one of these words.

Subd. 2. [USE OF DECEPTIVELY SIMILAR NAME.] (a) A corporate name may not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of a domestic corporation or limited partnership, a foreign corporation or limited partnership authorized or registered to do business in this state, whether profit or nonprofit, or a name the right to which is, at the time of incorporation, reserved, registered, or provided for in section 13, 302A.117, 322A.03, or sections 333.001 to 333.54, unless one of the following is filed with the articles:

(1) the written consent of the organization having the same or a deceptively similar name;

(2) a certified copy of a final decree of a court in this state establishing the prior right of the applicant to use its corporate name in this state; or

(3) an affidavit of nonuse of the kind required by section 302A.115, subdivision 1, paragraph (d), clause (3).

(b) The secretary of state shall determine whether a name is deceptively similar for purposes of this section and section 13.

(c) This subdivision does not affect the right of a corporation existing on January 1, 1991, or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state on that date, to use its corporate name.

Subd. 3. [OTHER LAWS AFFECTING USE OF NAMES.] This section and sections 13 and 121, subdivision 2, do not abrogate or limit the law of unfair competition or unfair practices, sections 333.001 to 333.54, the laws of the United States with respect to the right to acquire and protect copyrights, trade names, trademarks, service names, service marks, or other rights to the exclusive use of names or symbols, nor derogate the common law or the principles of equity.

Subd. 4. [USE OF NAME BY SUCCESSOR CORPORATION.] A corporation that is merged with another domestic or foreign corporation, that is incorporated by the reorganization of one or more domestic or foreign corporations, or that acquires by sale, lease, or other disposition to or exchange with a domestic corporation all or substantially all of the assets of another domestic or foreign corporation, including its name, may have the same name as that used in this state by any of the other corporations, if the other corporation was incorporated under the laws of, or is authorized to transact business in, this state.

Subd. 5. [EFFECT OF WRONGFUL USE; INJUNCTION.] The use of a name by a corporation in violation of this section does not affect or impair its corporate existence, but a court in this state may, upon application of the state or of an interested or affected person, enjoin the corporation from doing business under a name assumed in violation of this section, although its articles may have been filed with the secretary of state and a certificate of incorporation issued.

Sec. 13. [317A.117] [RESERVED NAME.]

Subdivision 1. [WHO MAY RESERVE.] A corporate name permitted by section 12 may be reserved in the records of the secretary of state by:

(1) a person doing business in this state under that name or a name deceptively similar to that name;

(2) a person intending to incorporate under this chapter;

(3) a domestic corporation intending to change its name;

(4) a foreign corporation intending to make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state;

(5) a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state and intending to change its name;

(6) a person intending to incorporate a foreign corporation and intending to have the foreign corporation make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state; or

(7) a foreign corporation doing business under that name or a name deceptively similar to that name in a state other than this state and not described in clauses (4) to (6).

Subd. 2. [METHOD OF RESERVATION.] The reservation must be made by filing with the secretary of state a request that the name be reserved. If the name is available for reservation by the applicant, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the applicant for 12 months. The reservation may be renewed for successive 12-month periods.

Subd. 3. [TRANSFER OF RESERVATION.] The right to a corporate name reserved under this section may be transferred to another person by or on behalf of the applicant for whom the name was reserved by filing with the secretary of state a notice of the transfer and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

Sec. 14. [317A.121] [REGISTERED OFFICE; REGISTERED AGENT.]

Subdivision 1. [REGISTERED OFFICE.] A corporation shall continuously maintain a registered office in this state. A registered office need not be the same as the principal place of business of the corporation.

Subd. 2. [REGISTERED AGENT.] A corporation may designate in its articles a registered agent. The registered agent may be a natural person residing in this state, a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state. The registered agent must maintain an office that is identical with the registered office.

Sec. 15. [317A.123] [CHANGE OF REGISTERED OFFICE OR REGISTERED AGENT; CHANGE OF NAME OF REGISTERED AGENT.]

Subdivision 1. [STATEMENT.] A corporation may change its registered office, designate or change its registered agent, or state a change in the name of its registered agent, by filing with the secretary of state a statement containing:

- (1) the name of the corporation;
- (2) if the address of its registered office is to be changed, the new address of its registered office;
- (3) if its registered agent is to be designated or changed, the name of its new registered agent;
- (4) if the name of its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its registered agent as changed;
- (5) a statement that the address of its registered office and the address of the office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical; and
- (6) a statement that the change of registered office or registered agent was authorized by resolution approved by the board.

Subd. 2. [RESIGNATION OF AGENT.] A registered agent of a corporation may resign by filing with the secretary of state a signed written notice of resignation, including a statement that a signed copy of the notice has been given to the corporation at its registered office. The appointment of the agent ends 30 days after the notice is filed with the secretary of state.

Subd. 3. [CHANGE OF ADDRESS OR NAME OF AGENT.] If the address or name of a registered agent changes, the agent shall change the address of the registered office or the name of the registered agent of a corporation represented by that agent by filing with the secretary of state the statement required in subdivision 1, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent, need not be responsive to subdivision 1, clause (3) or (6), and must state that a copy of the statement has been mailed to the corporation.

Sec. 16. [317A.131] [AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES.]

The articles of a corporation may be amended to include or modify a provision that is required or permitted to appear in the articles or to omit a provision not required to be included in the articles. When articles are amended to restate them, the name and address of each incorporator may be omitted. Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, the articles may be amended or modified only under sections 17 and 18.

Sec. 17. [317A.133] [PROCEDURE FOR AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROVAL BY INCORPORATORS OR BOARD.] A majority of incorporators may amend the articles by written action if no directors are named in the original articles, if no directors have been elected, and if there are no members with voting rights. A majority of directors may amend the articles if there are no members with voting rights, if members with voting rights have authorized the board to amend the articles under subdivision 3, or if the amendment merely restates the existing articles, as amended. An amendment restating the existing articles may, but need not, be submitted to and approved by the members as provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL BY BOARD AND MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.] Amendments to the articles must be approved by a majority of the directors and a majority of the members with voting rights. If an amendment is initiated by the directors, proper notice of the proposed amendment must precede a member meeting at which the amendment will be considered and must include the substance of the proposed amendment. If an amendment is proposed and approved by the members, the members may demand a special board meeting within 60 days for consideration of the proposed amendment if a regular board meeting would not occur within 60 days.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL BY BOARD WHERE MEMBERS HAVE VOTING RIGHTS.] (a) A majority of members with voting rights may authorize the board of directors, subject to paragraph (c), to exercise from time to time the power of amendment of the articles without member approval.

(b) When the members have authorized the board of directors to amend the articles, the board of directors, by a majority vote, unless the articles, bylaws, or the members' resolution authorizing the board action require a greater vote, may amend the articles at a meeting of the board. Notice of the meeting and of the proposed amendment must be given.

(c) A majority of members with voting rights voting at a meeting duly called for the purpose, may prospectively revoke the authority of the board to exercise the power of the members to amend the articles.

Subd. 4. [RESTRICTION OF APPROVAL METHODS.] Articles or bylaws may require greater than majority approval by either the board or voting members for an action under this section and may limit or prohibit the use of mail ballots by voting members.

Subd. 5. [APPROVAL OF CLASS.] The articles or bylaws may provide that an amendment also must be approved by the members of a class.

Sec. 18. [317A.139] [ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT.]

When an amendment has been adopted, articles of amendment must be prepared that contain:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the amendment adopted;

(3) with respect to an amendment restating the articles, a statement that the amendment correctly sets forth without change the corresponding provisions of the articles as previously amended, if the amendment was approved only by the board; and

(4) a statement that the amendment has been adopted under this chapter.

Sec. 19. [317A.141] [EFFECT OF AMENDMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [EFFECT ON CAUSE OF ACTION.] An amendment does not affect an existing cause of action in favor of or against the corporation, a pending suit to which the corporation is a party, nor the existing rights of persons other than members.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT OF CHANGE OF NAME.] If the corporate name is changed by the amendment, a suit brought by or against the corporation under its former name does not abate for that reason.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF AMENDMENTS RESTATING ARTICLES.] When effective under section 20, an amendment restating the articles in their entirety supersedes the original articles and amendments to the original articles.

Sec. 20. [317A.151] [FILING; EFFECTIVE DATE OF ARTICLES.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING REQUIRED.] Articles of incorporation and articles of amendment must be filed with the secretary of state.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] Articles of incorporation are effective and corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed with the secretary of state accompanied by a payment of $60, which includes a $35 incorporation fee in addition to the $25 filing fee required by section 2, subdivision 9. Articles of amendment are effective when filed with the secretary of state or at another time within 31 days after filing if the articles of amendment so provide.

Sec. 21. [317A.155] [PRESUMPTION; CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.]

When the articles of incorporation have been filed with the secretary of state and the required fee has been paid to the secretary of state, it is presumed that conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated, and the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of incorporation to the corporation. This presumption does not apply against this state in a proceeding to cancel or revoke the certificate of incorporation or to compel the involuntary dissolution of the corporation.

POWERS

Sec. 22. [317A.161] [POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY; LIMITATIONS.] A corporation has the powers in this section, subject to limitations provided in applicable federal or state law or in its articles or bylaws.

Subd. 2. [DURATION.] A corporation has perpetual duration.

Subd. 3. [LEGAL CAPACITY.] A corporation may sue and be sued, and participate in a legal, administrative, or arbitration proceeding, in its corporate name.

Subd. 4. [PROPERTY OWNERSHIP.] A corporation may buy, lease, acquire, own, hold, improve, use, and deal in and with, real or personal property, or an interest in property, wherever located.

Subd. 5. [PROPERTY DISPOSITION.] A corporation may sell, convey, mortgage, create a security interest in, lease, exchange, transfer, or dispose of all or a part of its real or personal property, or an interest in property, wherever located.

Subd. 6. [TRADING IN SECURITIES; OBLIGATIONS.] A corporation may buy, subscribe for, acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, exchange, mortgage, lend, create a security interest in, dispose of, use, and deal in and with, securities or other interests in, or obligations of, a person or direct or indirect obligations of a domestic or foreign government or instrumentality.

Subd. 7. [CONTRACTS; MORTGAGES.] A corporation may make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its securities, and secure its obligations by mortgage of or creation of a security interest in its property, franchises, and income.

Subd. 8. [INVESTMENT.] A corporation may invest and reinvest its funds.

Subd. 9. [HOLDING PROPERTY AS SECURITY.] A corporation may take and hold real and personal property, whether or not of a kind sold or otherwise dealt in by the corporation, as security for the payment of money loaned, advanced, or invested.

Subd. 10. [LOCATION.] A corporation may conduct its business, carry on its operations, have offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter anywhere in the universe.

Subd. 11. [DONATIONS.] A corporation may make donations for religious, scientific, educational, or charitable purposes, and for other purposes consistent with law, that further the corporate interest.

Subd. 12. [PENSIONS; BENEFITS.] A corporation may pay pensions, retirement allowances, and compensation for past services and establish employee or incentive benefit plans, trusts, and provisions for the benefit of its officers, directors, employees, and agents and their families, dependents, and beneficiaries. It may indemnify and buy insurance for a fiduciary of an employee benefit and incentive plan, trust, or provision.

Subd. 13. [PARTICIPATIONS.] (a) A corporation may participate in the promotion, organization, management, and operation of an organization or in a transaction, undertaking, or arrangement that the participating corporation would have power to conduct by itself, whether or not the participation involves sharing or delegation of control.

(b) A corporation may participate with others in a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, trust, or other association of any kind that the participating corporation would have power to conduct by itself, whether or not the participation involves sharing or delegation of control.

Subd. 14. [INSURANCE.] A corporation may provide for its benefit life insurance and other insurance with respect to the services of its officers, directors, employees, and agents.

Subd. 15. [CORPORATE SEAL.] A corporation may have, alter at pleasure, and use a corporate seal as provided in section 23.

Subd. 16. [BYLAWS.] A corporation may adopt, amend, and repeal bylaws relating to the management of the business or the regulation of the affairs of the corporation as provided in section 26.

Subd. 17. [COMMITTEES.] A corporation may establish committees of the board of directors, elect or appoint persons to the committees, define their duties, and fix their compensation as provided in section 43.

Subd. 18. [OFFICERS; EMPLOYEES; AGENTS.] A corporation may elect or appoint officers, employees, and agents of the corporation, define their duties, and fix their compensation as provided in sections 47 to 55.

Subd. 19. [LOANS; GUARANTIES; SURETIES.] A corporation may lend money to, guarantee an obligation of, become a surety for, or otherwise financially assist persons as provided in section 81.

Subd. 20. [ADVANCES.] A corporation may make advances to its directors, officers, and employees and those of its subsidiaries as provided in section 82.

Subd. 21. [INDEMNIFICATION.] A corporation shall indemnify those persons identified in section 83 against certain expenses and liabilities only as provided in section 83 and may indemnify other persons.

Subd. 22. [ASSUMED NAMES.] A corporation may conduct all or part of its business under one or more assumed names as provided in sections 333.001 to 333.06.

Subd. 23. [MAY TAKE AND HOLD TRUST PROPERTY.] A corporation may take, receive, and hold real and personal property, including the principal and interest of money or other fund, that is given, conveyed, bequeathed, devised to, or vested in the corporation in trust where the corporation or a related organization has a vested or contingent interest in the trust.

Subd. 24. [MAY INVEST TRUST PROPERTY.] Except where the trust instrument prescribes otherwise, a corporation may invest trust property or its proceeds in accordance with section 501.125.

Subd. 25. [MEMBERSHIP.] A corporation may be a member of another foreign or domestic nonprofit corporation.

Subd. 26. [DISSOLUTION.] A corporation may dissolve and wind up.

Subd. 27. [MERGER AND CONSOLIDATION.] A corporation may merge and consolidate with other domestic or foreign nonprofit corporations organized for related purposes.

Subd. 28. [OTHER POWERS.] A corporation has other powers necessary or convenient to effect a lawful purpose for which the corporation is incorporated.

Sec. 23. [317A.163] [CORPORATE SEAL.]

Subdivision 1. [SEAL NOT REQUIRED.] A corporation may, but need not, have a corporate seal. The use or nonuse of a corporate seal does not affect the validity, recordability, or enforceability of a document or act. If a corporation has a corporate seal, the use of the seal by the corporation on a document is not necessary.

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED WORDS; USE.] If a corporation has a corporate seal, the seal may consist of a mechanical imprinting device, or a rubber stamp with a facsimile of the seal affixed on it, or a facsimile or reproduction of either. The seal may include a part or all of the name of the corporation and a combination, derivation, or abbreviation of either or both of the phrases "a Minnesota Nonprofit Corporation" and "Corporate Seal." If a corporation has a corporate seal, it or a facsimile of it may be affixed, engraved, printed, placed, stamped with indelible ink, or in any other manner reproduced on any document.

Sec. 24. [317A.165] [EFFECT OF LACK OF POWER; ULTRA VIRES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Except as provided in this section, the doing, continuing, or performing by a corporation of an act, or an executed or wholly or partially executory contract, conveyance, or transfer to or by the corporation, if otherwise lawful, is not invalid because the corporation was without the power under this chapter or its articles or bylaws to do, continue, or perform the act, contract, conveyance, or transfer.

Subd. 2. [ACTION BY MEMBER.] At least 50 members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, may bring an action against the corporation to enjoin the doing, continuing, or performing of an unauthorized act, contract, conveyance, or transfer. If the unauthorized act, continuation, or performance sought to be enjoined is being, or to be, performed or made pursuant to a contract to which the corporation is a party, the court may, if just and reasonable in the circumstances, set aside and enjoin the performance of the contract and allow to the corporation or to the other parties to the contract compensation for the loss or damage sustained as a result of the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of the contract.

Subd. 3. [ACTION BY CORPORATION.] The corporation may bring an action, directly or through a director or member with voting rights in a representative or derivative suit, against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation for exceeding or violating their authority.

ORGANIZATION; BYLAWS

Sec. 25. [317A.171] [ORGANIZATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ROLE OF INCORPORATORS.] If the first board is not named in the articles, the incorporators may elect the first board or may act as directors with the powers, rights, duties, and liabilities of directors, until directors are elected.

Subd. 2. [MEETING.] After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the incorporators or the directors named in the articles shall, within a reasonable time, hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators or of the directors named in the articles, or take written action, for the purposes of transacting business and taking actions necessary or appropriate to complete the organization of the corporation. If a meeting is held, the persons calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice of the meeting to each incorporator or director named, stating the date, time, and place of the meeting.

Sec. 26. [317A.181] [BYLAWS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] A corporation may, but need not, have bylaws. Bylaws may contain any provision relating to the management or regulation of the affairs of the corporation consistent with law or the articles including, but not limited to:

- (1) the number of directors, and the qualifications, manner of election, powers, duties, and compensation, if any, of directors;
- (2) the qualifications of members;
- (3) different classes of membership;
- (4) the manner of admission, withdrawal, suspension, and expulsion of members;
- (5) property, voting, and other rights and privileges of members;
- (6) the appointment and authority of committees;
- (7) the appointment or election, duties, compensation, and tenure of officers;
- (8) the time, place, and manner of calling, conducting, and giving notice of member, board, and committee meetings, or of conducting mail ballots;
- (9) the making of reports and financial statements to members; or
- (10) the number establishing a quorum for meetings of members and the board.

Subd. 2. [ADOPTION; AMENDMENTS.] (a) Initial bylaws may be adopted under section 25 by the incorporators or by the first board. Unless reserved by the articles to the members, the power to adopt, amend, or repeal the bylaws is vested in the board. The power of the board is subject to the power of the members with voting rights under paragraph (b) to adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws adopted, amended, or repealed by the board. After the adoption of the initial bylaws, the board may not adopt, amend, or repeal a bylaw fixing a quorum for meetings of members, prescribing procedures for removing directors or filling vacancies in the board, or fixing the number of directors or their classifications, qualifications, or terms of office, but may adopt or amend a bylaw to increase the number of directors.

(b) If at least 50 members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, propose a resolution for action by the members to adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws adopted, amended, or repealed by the board and the resolution sets forth the provisions proposed for adoption, amendment, or repeal, the limitations and procedures for submitting, considering, and adopting the resolution are the same as provided in section 17, for amendment of the articles, except that board approval is not required. The articles or bylaws may impose additional requirements for the members to adopt, amend, or repeal the bylaws.

BOARD

Sec. 27. [317A.201] [BOARD.]

The business and affairs of a corporation must be managed by or under the direction of a board of directors. The members of the first board may be named in the articles, designated or appointed pursuant to the articles, or elected by the incorporators under section 25.

Sec. 28. [317A.203] [NUMBER.]

A board of directors must consist of three or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws, except that if the corporation has either one or two members with voting rights, the number of directors may be less than three but not less than the number of members with voting rights.

Sec. 29. [317A.205] [QUALIFICATIONS; ELECTION.]

The qualifications and method of election, designation, or appointment of directors may be imposed by or in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws, provided that directors must be natural persons and a majority of the directors must be adults.

Sec. 30. [317A.207] [TERMS.]

Subdivision 1. [LENGTH.] (a) Directors are elected, designated, or appointed and hold office for fixed terms provided for in the articles or bylaws. A term of a director, other than an ex officio director, may not exceed ten years. If the articles or bylaws do not provide for a fixed term, the term is one year.

(b) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a director holds office until expiration of the term for which the director was elected and until a successor is elected and qualified, or until the earlier death, resignation, removal, or disqualification of the director.

(c) A decrease in the number of directors or term of office does not shorten an incumbent director's term.

(d) Except as provided in the articles or bylaws, the term of a director filling a vacancy expires at the end of the unexpired term that the director is filling.

Subd. 2. [STAGGERED TERMS.] The articles or bylaws may provide for staggering the terms of directors by dividing the total number of directors into groups. The terms of office of the groups need not be uniform.

Sec. 31. [317A.209] [ACTS NOT VOID OR VOIDABLE.]

The expiration of a director's term with or without the election of a qualified successor does not make prior or later acts of the officers or the board void or voidable.

Sec. 32. [317A.211] [COMPENSATION.]

Subject to a limitation in the articles or bylaws, the board may fix the compensation of directors.

Sec. 33. [317A.213] [CLASSIFICATION OF DIRECTORS.]

Directors of a corporation described in section 118, subdivision 1, may be divided into classes for purposes of voting by the board, but may not vote by class except where the articles or bylaws provide that only one class of directors may vote on a particular matter.

Sec. 34. [317A.215] [CUMULATIVE VOTING FOR DIRECTORS.]

Unless the articles provide otherwise, there is no cumulative voting.

Sec. 35. [317A.221] [RESIGNATION.]

(a) A director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the corporation, unless a later effective time is specified in the notice.

(b) If a resignation is made effective at a later date, the board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

Sec. 36. [317A.223] [REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS.]

Subdivision 1. [MODIFICATION.] The provisions of this section apply unless a different method of removal is provided for in the articles or bylaws.

Subd. 2. [REMOVAL BY DIRECTORS WHEN THERE ARE MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.] If there are members with voting rights, a director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, if:

(1) the director was named by the board to fill a vacancy;

(2) the members with voting rights have not elected directors in the interval between the time of the appointment to fill the vacancy and the time of the removal; and

(3) a majority of the remaining directors present affirmatively vote to remove the director.

Subd. 3. [REMOVAL BY DIRECTORS WHEN THERE ARE NO MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.] If there are no members with voting rights, a director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by those directors eligible to elect the director.

Subd. 4. [REMOVAL BY MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.] A director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by those members eligible to elect the director.

Sec. 37. [317A.225] [REMOVAL OF DESIGNATED OR APPOINTED DIRECTORS.]

Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a designated or appointed director may be removed without cause by the person designating or appointing the director. The person removing the director shall do so by giving written notice of the removal to the director and either the presiding officer of the board or the corporation's president or secretary. A removal is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice states a future effective date.

Sec. 38. [317A.227] [VACANCIES.]

(a) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, and except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d), if a vacancy occurs on the board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:

(1) the members with voting rights, if any, may fill the vacancy;
or

(2) the remaining members of the board, though less than a quorum, may fill the vacancy.

(b) If a vacant office was held by a director elected by a class, chapter, or other organizational unit or by region or other geographic grouping, only members of the class, chapter, unit, or grouping are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy.

(c) If a vacant office was held by an appointed director, only the person who appointed the director may fill the vacancy.

(d) If a vacant office was held by a designated director, the vacancy must be filled as provided in the articles or bylaws. The vacancy may not be filled by the board unless authorized by the articles or bylaws.

(e) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

Sec. 39. [317A.231] [BOARD MEETINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME; PLACE.] Meetings of the board may be held as provided in the articles or bylaws in or out of this state. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a meeting of the board must be held at least once per year. If the articles or bylaws or the board fail to select a place for a meeting, the meeting must be held at the registered office.

Subd. 2. [ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS.] (a) A conference among directors by a means of communication through which the directors may simultaneously hear each other during the conference is a board meeting, if the same notice is given of the conference as would be required for a meeting, and if the number of directors participating in the conference is a quorum. Participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting.

(b) A director may participate in a board meeting by any means of communication through which the director, other directors participating, and all directors physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting.

Subd. 3. [CALLING MEETINGS; NOTICE.] (a) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a director may call a board meeting by giving five days' notice to all directors of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting unless the articles or bylaws require it.

(b) If the day or date, time, and place of a board meeting have been provided in the articles or bylaws, or announced at a previous meeting of the board, notice is not required. Notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which adjournment is taken.

Subd. 4. [WAIVER OF NOTICE.] A director may waive notice of a meeting of the board. A waiver of notice by a director entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in writing, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a director at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, unless the director objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting.

Sec. 40. [317A.235] [QUORUM.]

A majority, or a larger or smaller proportion or number provided in the articles or bylaws but not less than one-third, of the directors currently holding office is a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present may adjourn a meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held meeting is convened, the directors present may continue to transact business until adjournment, even though the withdrawal of directors originally present leaves less than the proportion or number otherwise required for a quorum.

Sec. 41. [317A.237] [ACT OF THE BOARD.]

The board shall take action by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present at a duly held meeting, unless this chapter or the articles or bylaws require the affirmative vote of a larger proportion or number.

Sec. 42. [317A.239] [ACTION WITHOUT MEETING.]

Subdivision 1. [METHOD.] An action required or permitted to be taken at a board meeting may be taken by written action signed by all of the directors. If the articles so provide, an action, other than an action requiring member approval, may be taken by written action signed by the number of directors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the board at which all directors were present.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE TIME.] The written action is effective when signed by the required number of directors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE; LIABILITY.] When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all directors, all directors must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A director who does not sign or consent to the written action is not liable for the action.

Sec. 43. [317A.241] [COMMITTEES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] A resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board may establish committees having the authority of the board in the management of the business of the corporation to the extent provided in the resolution.

Committees are subject at all times to the direction and control of the board.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP.] Committee members must be natural persons. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a committee must consist of one or more persons, who need not be directors, appointed by the board.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURE.] Sections 39 to 42 apply to committees and members of committees to the same extent as those sections apply to the board.

Subd. 4. [MINUTES.] Minutes, if any, of committee meetings must be made available upon request to members of the committee and to a director.

Subd. 5. [STANDARD OF CONDUCT.] The establishment of, delegation of authority to, and action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standard of conduct set forth in section 44.

Subd. 6. [COMMITTEE MEMBERS CONSIDERED DIRECTORS.] Committee members are considered to be directors for purposes of sections 44, 45, and 83.

Sec. 44. [317A.251] [STANDARD OF CONDUCT.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARD; LIABILITY.] A director shall discharge the duties of the position of director in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. A person who so performs those duties is not liable by reason of being or having been a director of the corporation.

Subd. 2. [RELIANCE.] (a) A director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(1) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(2) counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters that the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(3) a committee of the board upon which the director does not serve, duly established under section 43, as to matters within its designated authority, if the director reasonably believes the committee to merit confidence.

(b) Paragraph (a) does not apply to a director who has actual knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes the reliance otherwise permitted by paragraph (a) unwarranted.

Subd. 3. [PRESUMPTION OF ASSENT; DISSENT.] A director who is present at a meeting of the board when an action is approved by the board is presumed to have assented to the action approved, unless the director:

(1) objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting, in which case the director is not considered to be present at the meeting for purposes of this chapter;

(2) votes against the action at the meeting; or

(3) is prohibited by section 45 from voting on the action.

Subd. 4. [NOT CONSIDERED TRUSTEE.] A director, regardless of how identified, is not considered to be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to property held or administered by the corporation, including without limit, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of the property.

Sec. 45. [317A.255] [DIRECTOR CONFLICTS OF INTEREST.]

Subdivision 1. [CONFLICT; PROCEDURE WHEN CONFLICT ARISES.] A contract or other transaction between a corporation and its director, or between its director and a related organization, or between a corporation and an organization in or of which its director is a director, officer, or legal representative or has a material financial interest, is not void or voidable because the director or the other organization are parties or because the director is present at the meeting of the members or the board or a committee at which the contract or transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified if:

(1) the contract or transaction was, and the person asserting the validity of the contract or transaction has the burden of establishing that the contract or transaction was, fair and reasonable as to the corporation when it was authorized, approved, or ratified;

(2) the material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director's interest are fully disclosed or known to the members and the contract or transaction is approved in good faith by two-thirds of the members entitled to vote, other than the interested director or directors, or the unanimous affirmative vote of all members, whether or not entitled to vote;

(3) the material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director's interest are fully disclosed or known to the board or a committee, and the board or committee authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by a majority of the board or committee, but the interested director may not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum and may not vote; or

(4) the contract or transaction is a merger or consolidation described in section 84.

Subd. 2. [MATERIAL FINANCIAL INTEREST.] For purposes of this section:

(1) a director does not have a material financial interest in a resolution fixing the compensation of the director or fixing the compensation of another director as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, even though the first director is also receiving compensation from the corporation; and

(2) a director has a material financial interest in an organization in which the director, or the spouse, parents, children and spouses of children, brothers and sisters or spouses of brothers and sisters of the director, have a material financial interest.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTION.] The procedures described under subdivision 1, clauses (1) to (3), are not required if the contract or other transaction is between related organizations.

Sec. 46. [317A.257] [UNPAID DIRECTORS; LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, a person who serves without compensation as a director, officer, trustee, member, or agent of an organization exempt from state income taxation under section 290.05, subdivision 2, or who serves without compensation as a fire chief of a nonprofit firefighting corporation or municipal volunteer fire department, or of a public corporation established by law but not considered a municipality, is not civilly liable for an act or omission by that person if the act or omission was in good faith, was within the scope of the person's responsibilities as a director, officer, trustee, member, agent, or fire chief of the organization, and did not constitute willful or reckless misconduct.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) Subdivision 1 does not apply to:

(1) an action or proceeding brought by the attorney general for a breach of a fiduciary duty as a director;

(2) a cause of action to the extent it is based on federal law;

(3) a cause of action based on the person's express contractual obligation; or

(4) an action or proceeding based on a breach of public pension plan fiduciary responsibility.

(b) Subdivision 1 does not limit an individual's liability for physical injury to the person of another or for wrongful death that is personally and directly caused by the individual, nor the liability of a municipality arising out of the performance of firefighting or related activities.

Subd. 3. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, the term "compensation" means any thing of value received for services rendered, except:

(1) reimbursement for expenses actually incurred;

(2) a per diem in an amount not more than the per diem authorized for state advisory councils and committees under section 15.059, subdivision 3; or

(3) payment by an organization of insurance premiums on behalf of a person who is or was a director, officer, trustee, member, or agent of an organization, or who, while a director, officer, trustee, member, or agent of the organization, is or was serving at the request of the organization as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization or employee benefit plan against liability asserted against and incurred by the person in or arising from that capacity.

OFFICERS

Sec. 47. [317A.301] [OFFICERS REQUIRED.]

A corporation must have one or more natural persons exercising the functions of the offices of president and treasurer, however designated.

Sec. 48. [317A.305] [DUTIES OF REQUIRED OFFICERS.]

Subdivision 1. [PRESUMPTION; MODIFICATION.] Unless the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution adopted by the board and consistent with the articles or bylaws, provide otherwise, the president and treasurer have the duties in this section.

Subd. 2. [PRESIDENT.] The president shall:

(1) have general active management of the business of the corporation;

(2) when present, preside at meetings of the board and of the members;

(3) see that orders and resolutions of the board are carried into effect;

(4) sign and deliver in the name of the corporation deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments pertaining to the business of the corporation, except in cases in which the authority to sign and deliver is required by law to be exercised by another person or is expressly delegated by the articles or bylaws or by the board to another officer or agent of the corporation;

(5) maintain records of and, when necessary, certify proceedings of the board and the members; and

(6) perform other duties prescribed by the board.

Subd. 3. [TREASURER.] The treasurer shall:

(1) keep accurate financial records for the corporation;

(2) deposit money, drafts, and checks in the name of and to the credit of the corporation in the banks and depositories designated by the board;

(3) endorse for deposit notes, checks, and drafts received by the corporation as ordered by the board, making proper vouchers for the deposit;

(4) disburse corporate funds and issue checks and drafts in the name of the corporation, as ordered by the board;

(5) upon request, provide the president and the board an account of transactions by the treasurer and of the financial condition of the corporation; and

(6) perform other duties prescribed by the board or by the president.

Sec. 49. [317A.311] [OTHER OFFICERS.]

The board may elect or appoint, in a manner set forth in the articles or bylaws or in a resolution adopted by the board, other officers or agents the board considers necessary for the operation and management of the corporation, each of whom has the powers, rights, duties, responsibilities, and terms in office provided for in the articles or bylaws or determined by the board.

Sec. 50. [317A.315] [MULTIPLE OFFICES.]

Any number of offices or functions of those offices may be held or exercised by the same person. If a document must be signed by persons holding different offices or functions and a person holds or exercises more than one of those offices or functions, that person may sign the document in more than one capacity, but only if the document indicates each capacity in which the person signs.

Sec. 51. [317A.321] [OFFICERS CONSIDERED ELECTED.]

In the absence of an election or appointment of officers by the board, the person exercising the principal functions of the president or the treasurer is considered to have been elected to the office.

Sec. 52. [317A.331] [CONTRACT RIGHTS.]

The election or appointment of a person as an officer or agent does not, of itself, create contract rights. A corporation may enter into a contract with an officer or agent for a period if, in the board's judgment, the contract would be in the best interests of the corporation. The fact that the contract may be for a term longer than the terms of the directors who authorized or approved the contract does not make the contract void or voidable.

Sec. 53. [317A.341] [RESIGNATION; REMOVAL; VACANCIES.]

Subdivision 1. [RESIGNATION.] An officer may resign by giving written notice to the corporation. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the corporation, unless a later effective date is named in the notice.

Subd. 2. [REMOVAL.] An officer may be removed, with or without cause, by a resolution adopted by the board. The removal is without prejudice to contractual rights of the officer.

Subd. 3. [VACANCY.] A vacancy in an office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or other cause may, or in the case of a vacancy in the office of president or treasurer must, be filled for the unexpired part of the term in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws, or as determined by the board or under section 51.

Sec. 54. [317A.351] [DELEGATION.]

Unless prohibited by the articles or bylaws or by a resolution adopted by the board, an officer may, without the approval of the board, delegate some or all the duties and powers of an office to other persons. An officer who delegates the duties or powers of an office remains subject to the standard of conduct for an officer with respect to the discharge of the delegated duties and powers.

Sec. 55. [317A.361] [STANDARD OF CONDUCT.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARD; LIABILITY.] An officer shall discharge the duties of an office in good faith, in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. A person exercising the principal functions of an office or to whom some or all of the duties and powers of an office are delegated under section 54 is considered an officer for purposes of this section and sections 80 and 83.

Subd. 2. [NOT CONSIDERED TRUSTEE.] An officer is not considered to be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to property held or administered by the corporation, including without limit, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of the property.

MEMBERS

Sec. 56. [317A.401] [MEMBERS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXISTENCE.] (a) A corporation may have one or more classes of members or may have no members. In the absence of a provision in its articles or bylaws providing for members, a corporation has no members.

(b) If a corporation has no members, an action for which there is no specific provision of this chapter applicable to a corporation without members and that would otherwise require approval of the members requires only the approval of the board.

(c) A reference in this chapter to a corporation that has no members includes a corporation in which the directors are the only members.

Subd. 2. [ADMISSION.] A corporation may admit any person as a member. The articles or bylaws may establish criteria or procedures for admission. A person may not be admitted as a member without the person's express or implied consent. For purposes of this subdivision, consent includes, but is not limited to, acceptance of membership benefits knowing that the benefits are available only to members, or taking some other affirmative action that confers membership benefits. If the articles or bylaws provide that a person who contributes to the corporation is a member, a contribution is consent.

Subd. 3. [CONSIDERATION.] Except as provided in its articles or bylaws, a corporation may admit members for no consideration or for consideration as is determined by the board.

Subd. 4. [RIGHTS.] Members are of one class unless the articles establish, or authorize the board or members to establish, more than one class. Members are entitled to vote and have equal rights and preferences in matters not otherwise provided for by the board or members, unless and to the extent that the articles or bylaws have fixed or limited the rights and preferences of members or different classes of members or provide for nonvoting members. The articles or bylaws may fix the term of membership.

Sec. 57. [317A.403] [MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATES.]

A corporation may issue certificates showing membership in the corporation.

Sec. 58. [317A.405] [TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP.]

(a) Except as provided in the articles or bylaws, a member of a corporation may not transfer a membership or a right arising from it.

(b) Where transfer rights have been provided, a restriction on them is not binding with respect to a member holding a membership issued before the adoption of the restriction unless the restriction is approved by the members and the affected member.

Sec. 59. [317A.407] [LIABILITY OF MEMBERS.]

Subdivision 1. [THIRD PARTIES.] A member of a corporation is not, as such, personally liable for the acts, debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

Subd. 2. [DUES, ASSESSMENTS, OR FEES.] (a) When authority to do so is conferred by the articles or bylaws and subject to any limitations, a corporation may levy dues, assessments, or fees upon its members. The dues, assessments, or fees may be imposed upon all classes of members alike or differently upon different classes of members. Members of one or more classes may be exempted.

(b) Articles or bylaws may:

(1) fix the amount of the levy and the method of collection of dues, assessments, or fees; or

(2) authorize the directors to fix the amount from time to time and determine the methods of collection.

(c) Articles or bylaws may provide for:

(1) enforcement or collection of dues, assessments, or fees;

(2) cancellation of membership, on reasonable notice, for nonpayment of dues, assessments, or fees; or

(3) reinstatement of membership.

Sec. 60. [317A.409] [RESIGNATION.]

A member may resign at any time. The resignation of a member does not relieve the member from any obligations the member may have to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees or charges for goods or services.

Sec. 61. [317A.411] [TERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [FAIR AND REASONABLE PROCEDURE REQUIRED.] A member may not be expelled or suspended, and a membership may not be terminated or suspended prior to the expiration of the member's term except pursuant to a procedure that is fair and reasonable and is carried out in good faith.

Subd. 2. [STANDARDS.] A procedure is fair and reasonable when it is fair and reasonable taking into consideration all of the relevant facts and circumstances. In addition, a procedure is fair and reasonable if it provides:

(1) not less than 15 days' prior written notice of the expulsion, suspension, or termination, and the reasons for it; and

(2) an opportunity for the member to be heard, orally or in writing, not less than five days before the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination by a person authorized to decide that the proposed expulsion, termination, or suspension not take place.

Subd. 3. [TIME LIMIT TO CHALLENGE.] A proceeding challenging an expulsion, suspension, or termination, including a proceeding in which defective notice is alleged, must be begun within one year after the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination.

Subd. 4. [MEMBER LIABILITY.] The expulsion, suspension, or termination of a member does not relieve the member from obligations the member may have to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees or charges for goods or services.

Sec. 62. [317A.413] [PURCHASE OF MEMBERSHIPS.]

If authorized in its articles or bylaws, a corporation may buy the membership of a member who resigns or whose membership is terminated for the amount and pursuant to the conditions in the articles or bylaws.

Sec. 63. [317A.415] [DELEGATES.]

A corporation may provide in its articles or bylaws for delegates having some or all the authority of members. The articles or bylaws may set forth provisions relating to:

(1) the characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations of the delegates, including their selection and removal;

(2) calling, noticing, holding, and conducting meetings of delegates; and

(3) carrying on corporate activities during and between meetings of delegates.

Sec. 64. [317A.431] [REGULAR MEETINGS OF VOTING MEMBERS.]

Subdivision 1. [FREQUENCY.] Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a corporation with voting members shall hold a regular meeting of voting members annually.

Subd. 2. [DEMAND BY MEMBERS.] If a regular meeting of voting members has not been held during the preceding 15 months, at least 50 members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, may demand a regular meeting of members by written notice of demand given to the president or the treasurer of the corporation. Within 30 days after receipt of the demand, the board shall cause a regular meeting of members to be called and held on notice no later than 90 days after receipt of the demand at the expense of the corporation. If the board fails to cause a regular meeting to be called and held as required by this subdivision, the members making the demand may call the regular meeting by giving notice as required by section 67 at the expense of the corporation.

Subd. 3. [TIME; PLACE.] A regular meeting of members must be held at the time and place stated in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws. If a place is not stated or if a demand for a meeting is made under subdivision 2, the meeting must be held in the county where the corporation's registered office is located.

Subd. 4. [ELECTIONS; BUSINESS.] At a regular meeting of members:

(1) there must be an election of successors for directors elected by members who serve for an indefinite term or whose terms have expired or will expire before the next regular meeting of the members;

(2) the president and treasurer shall report on the activities and financial condition of the corporation; and

(3) the members shall consider and act upon other matters as may be raised consistent with the notice of meeting requirements.

Subd. 5. [EFFECT OF FAILURE TO HOLD MEETING.] The failure to hold a meeting in accordance with a corporation's articles or bylaws does not affect the validity of a corporate action.

Sec. 65. [317A.433] [SPECIAL MEETINGS OF VOTING MEMBERS.]

Subdivision 1. [WHO MAY CALL.] A corporation with voting members shall hold a special meeting of members:

(1) on call of its board or persons authorized to do so by the articles or bylaws; or

(2) if at least 50 members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, sign, date, and deliver to the president or the treasurer one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose for which it is to be held.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE.] Within 30 days after receipt of a demand for a special meeting from voting members, the board shall cause a special meeting to be called and held on notice no later than 90 days after receipt of the demand at the expense of the corporation. If the board fails to cause a special meeting to be called and held as required by this subdivision, a voting member making the demand may call the meeting by giving notice under section 67 at the expense of the corporation.

Subd. 3. [TIME; PLACE.] Special meetings of members may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the articles, bylaws, or by the president or the board. If a special meeting is demanded by the members, the meeting must be held in the county where the corporation's registered office is located.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE REQUIREMENTS; BUSINESS LIMITED.] The notice of a special meeting must contain a statement of the purposes of the meeting. The notice may also contain other information required by the articles or bylaws or considered necessary or desirable by the board or by another person calling the meeting. The business transacted at a special meeting is limited to the purposes stated within the notice of the meeting. Business transacted at a special meeting that is not included in those stated purposes is voidable by or on behalf of the corporation, unless all of the members with voting rights have waived notice of the meeting under section 67.

Sec. 66. [317A.434] [COURT-ORDERED MEETING OF VOTING MEMBERS.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN AUTHORIZED.] The district court of the county where a corporation's registered office is located may order a meeting to be held:

(1) on application of at least 50 members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, or of another person entitled to participate in the annual meeting, if a meeting was not held within the earlier of six months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or 15 months after its last meeting; or

(2) on application of a voting member who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under section 65 or a person entitled to call a special meeting if:

(i) notice of the special meeting was not given within 30 days after the date the demand was delivered to a corporate officer; or

(ii) the special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

Subd. 2. [SCOPE OF ORDER.] The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, specify a record date for determining members entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting, or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purposes of the meeting.

Subd. 3. [COSTS AND ATTORNEYS FEES.] If the court orders a meeting, it may also order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorneys fees, incurred to obtain the order.

Sec. 67. [317A.435] [NOTICE REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [TO WHOM GIVEN.] Notice of meetings of members must be given to every voting member as of the record date determined under section 68. If the meeting is an adjourned meeting and the date, time, and place of the meeting were announced at the time of adjournment, notice is not required unless a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under section 68.

Subd. 2. [WHEN GIVEN; CONTENTS.] In all cases where a specific minimum notice period has not been fixed by law, the notice must be given at least five days before the date of the meeting, or a shorter time provided in the articles or bylaws, and not more than 30 days before the date of the meeting. The notice must contain the date, time, and place of the meeting, and other information required by this chapter. If proxies are permitted at the meeting, the notice must so inform members and state the procedure for appointing proxies.

Subd. 3. [WAIVER OF NOTICE; OBJECTIONS.] A member may waive notice of a meeting of members. A waiver of notice by a member entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in writing, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a member at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, unless the member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, or objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be considered at that meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

Sec. 68. [317A.437] [RECORD DATE; DETERMINING MEMBERS ENTITLED TO NOTICE AND VOTE.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATION.] The board may fix a date not more than 60 days, or a shorter time period provided in the articles or bylaws, before the date of a meeting of members as the date for the determination of the members entitled to notice of and entitled to vote at the meeting. When a date is so fixed, only voting members on that date are entitled to notice of and permitted to vote at that meeting of members.

Subd. 2. [ADJOURNED MEETING.] (a) A determination of members entitled to notice and to vote at a membership meeting is effective for an adjournment of the meeting unless the board fixes a new date for determining the right to notice and to vote, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 60 days after the record date for determining members entitled to notice of the original meeting.

(b) If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date for notice and voting continues in effect or it may fix a new record date for notice and voting.

Sec. 69. [317A.439] [MEMBERS' LIST FOR MEETING.]

Subdivision 1. [PREPARATION.] After fixing a record date for notice of and voting at a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of its members who are entitled to notice and to vote. The list must show the address and number of votes each member is entitled to vote at the meeting.

Subd. 2. [INSPECTION.] The list of members must be available for inspection by a member with voting rights for the purpose of communication with other members concerning the meeting, beginning two business days after the meeting notice is given and continuing through the meeting, at the corporation's registered office or at a reasonable place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. The list also must be available at the meeting. A member, a member's agent, or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and to copy the list, at a reasonable time and at the member's expense, during the period it is available for inspection and at any time during the meeting or an adjournment.

Subd. 3. [ENFORCEMENT.] If the corporation refuses to allow a member with voting rights, the member's agent, or attorney to inspect the list of members before or at the meeting, the district court of the county where a corporation's registered office is located, on application of the member, may:

- (1) order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense;
- (2) postpone the meeting until the inspection or copying is complete; or
- (3) order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorneys fees, incurred to obtain the order.

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF FAILURE TO COMPLY.] Unless a written demand to inspect and copy a membership list has been made under subdivision 2 before the membership meeting and a corporation improperly refuses to comply with the demand, refusal, or failure to comply with this section does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

Subd. 5. [IMPROPER USE PROHIBITED.] A member, agent, or attorney who gains access to a membership list under this section may not use or give to another for use the membership list for any purpose other than a proper purpose. Upon application of the corporation, the district court may issue a protective order or order other relief necessary to enforce this subdivision.

Sec. 70. [317A.441] [RIGHT TO VOTE.]

Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, each member with voting rights is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on by the members. If a membership stands of record in the names of two or more persons, their acts with respect to voting have the following effect:

(1) if only one votes, the act binds all; and

(2) if more than one votes, the vote must be divided on a pro rata basis.

Sec. 71. [317A.443] [ACT OF THE MEMBERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Unless this chapter or the articles or bylaws require a greater vote or voting by class, if a quorum is present, or if a quorum has been present at a meeting, the affirmative vote of the majority of the members with voting rights present and entitled to vote, which must also be a majority of the required quorum, is the act of the members. A bylaw amendment to increase or decrease the vote required for a member action must be approved by the members.

Subd. 2. [METHODS.] Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, members may take action at a meeting by voice or ballot, by unanimous action without a meeting under section 72, by written ballot under section 73, or by electronic communication under section 74.

Sec. 72. [317A.445] [UNANIMOUS ACTION WITHOUT A MEETING.]

An action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting by written action signed by all of the members entitled to vote on that action. The written action is effective when it has been signed by all of those members, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action. When this chapter requires a certificate concerning an action to be filed with the secretary of state, the officers signing the certificate must indicate that the action was taken under this section.

Sec. 73. [317A.447] [ACTION BY WRITTEN BALLOT.]

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (e) and unless prohibited or limited by the articles or bylaws, an action that may be taken at a regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation mails or delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter.

(b) A written ballot must:

(1) set forth each proposed action; and

(2) provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action.

(c) Approval by written ballot under this section is valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(d) Solicitations for votes by written ballot must:

(1) indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements;

(2) state the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors; and

(3) specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the corporation in order to be counted.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

Sec. 74. [317A.449] [ACTION BY ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION.]

(a) A conference among members by a means of communication through which the participants may simultaneously hear each other during the conference is a meeting of the members, if the same notice is given of the conference as would be required for a meeting and if the number of persons participating in the conference is a quorum. Participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting.

(b) A member may participate in a meeting of the membership by a means of communication through which the member, other persons participating, and all persons physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting.

Sec. 75. [317A.451] [QUORUM.]

Subdivision 1. [NUMBER REQUIRED.] Unless otherwise provided by the articles or bylaws, a quorum for a meeting of members is ten percent of the members entitled to vote at the meeting.

Subd. 2. [ACTION.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), a quorum is necessary for the transaction of business at a meeting of members. If a quorum is not present, a meeting may be adjourned from time to time for that reason.

(b) If a quorum has been present at a meeting and members have withdrawn from the meeting so that less than a quorum remains, the members still present may continue to transact business until adjournment.

Sec. 76. [317A.453] [PROXIES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] If the articles or bylaws permit proxy voting, a member may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointment form either personally or by an attorney-in-fact.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE PERIOD.] An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form provided, however, that a proxy is not valid for more than three years from its date of execution.

Subd. 3. [REVOCACTION.] An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the member. Appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy by:

(1) attending a meeting and voting in person; or

(2) signing and delivering to the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a writing stating that the appointment of the proxy is revoked or a later appointment form.

Subd. 4. [DEATH.] The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

Subd. 5. [ACCEPTANCE OF VOTE; LIABILITY.] (a) Subject to section 77 and an express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the member making the appointment.

(b) The vote of a proxy is final, binding, and not subject to challenge, but the proxy is liable to the member for damages resulting from a failure to exercise the proxy or from an exercise of the proxy in violation of the authority granted in the appointment.

Subd. 6. [MULTIPLE PROXIES.] Unless the appointment specifically provides otherwise, if two or more persons are appointed as proxies for a member:

(1) any one of them may vote on each item of business in accordance with specific instructions contained in the appointment; or

(2) if no specific instructions are contained in the appointment with respect to voting on a particular item of business, a majority of the proxies have the authority conferred by the instrument. If the proxies are equally divided, they share the vote equally.

Sec. 77. [317A.455] [CORPORATION'S ACCEPTANCE OF MEMBER ACT.]

Subdivision 1. [NAME OF MEMBER.] If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the record name of a member, the corporation if acting in good faith may accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member.

Subd. 2. [NAME OTHER THAN MEMBER.] Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the record name of a member, the corporation if acting in good faith may accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member if:

(1) the member is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity;

(2) the name signed purports to be that of an administrator, guardian, or conservator representing the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(3) the name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the member, and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(4) the name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the member and if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the member has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or

(5) two or more persons hold the membership as cotenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the coholders and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the coholders.

Subd. 3. [REJECTION OF VOTE.] The corporation may reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the member.

Subd. 4. [LIABILITY.] The corporation or its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section is not liable in damages to the member for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

Subd. 5. [VALIDITY OF CORPORATE ACTION.] Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

Sec. 78. [317A.457] [VOTING AGREEMENTS.]

(a) To the extent permitted in the articles or bylaws, two or more members may provide for how they will vote by signing an agreement for that purpose. An agreement may be valid for a period of up to ten years. The agreement must have a reasonable purpose consistent with the corporation's purposes.

(b) A voting agreement created under this section is specifically enforceable.

(c) A voting agreement is not effective until it is filed with the corporation.

Sec. 79. [317A.461] [BOOKS AND RECORDS; FINANCIAL STATEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ARTICLES AND BYLAWS; MINUTES.] A corporation shall keep at its registered office correct and complete copies of its articles and bylaws, accounting records, and minutes of meetings of members, board of directors, and committees having any of the authority of the board of directors.

Subd. 2. [INSPECTION.] A member, or the agent or attorney of a member, may inspect all books and records and voting agreements for any proper purpose at any reasonable time.

Subd. 3. [FINANCIAL STATEMENT.] Upon request, a corporation shall give the member a statement showing the financial result of all operations and transactions affecting income and surplus during its last annual accounting period and a balance sheet containing a summary of its assets and liabilities as of the closing date of the accounting period.

Sec. 80. [317A.467] [EQUITABLE REMEDIES.]

If a corporation or an officer or director of the corporation violates this chapter, a court in this state, in an action brought by at least 50 members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, or by the attorney general, may grant equitable relief it considers just and reasonable in the circumstances and award expenses, including attorney fees and disbursements, to the members.

LOANS; OBLIGATIONS

Sec. 81. [317A.501] [LOANS; GUARANTEES; SURETYSHIP.]

Subdivision 1. [PREREQUISITES.] A corporation may lend money to, guarantee or pledge its assets as security for an obligation of, become a surety for, or otherwise financially assist a person, if the transaction, or a class of transactions to which the transaction belongs, is approved by the board and:

(1) is in the usual and regular course of activities of the corporation;

(2) is with, or for the benefit of, a related organization, an organization in which the corporation has a financial interest, a person with whom the corporation has a relationship in the course of its activities, or an organization to which the corporation has the power to make donations;

(3) is with, or for the benefit of, an officer, director, or employee of the corporation or a related organization, and is authorized under subdivision 2; or

(4) subject to subdivision 2, has been approved by two-thirds of the members with voting rights or, if there are no members with voting rights, by two-thirds of the board.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION ON LOANS AND GUARANTEES FOR OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AND EMPLOYEES.] A corporation may not lend money to or guarantee the obligation of a director, officer, or employee of the corporation or a related organization, or of the spouse, parents, children and spouses of children, brothers and sisters or spouses of brothers and sisters of the director, officer, or employee, unless the loan or guarantee may reasonably be expected, in the judgment of the board, to benefit the corporation. If a loan or guarantee is made in violation of this subdivision, the borrower's liability on the loan is not affected. The officers and directors who make a loan in violation of this subdivision or assent to it are jointly and severally liable for its repayment. This subdivision does not prohibit an advance of money for expenses authorized by section 82.

Subd. 3. [INTEREST; SECURITY.] A loan, guaranty, surety contract, or other financial assistance under subdivision 1 or 2 may be with or without interest and may be unsecured or secured.

Subd. 4. [BANKING AUTHORITY NOT GRANTED.] This section does not grant authority to act as a bank or to carry on the business of banking.

Sec. 82. [317A.505] [ADVANCES.]

A corporation may, without a vote of the directors, advance money to its directors, officers, employees, or agents to cover expenses that can reasonably be anticipated to be incurred by them in the performance of their duties and for which they would be entitled to reimbursement in the absence of an advance.

Sec. 83. [317A.521] [INDEMNIFICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Corporation" includes a domestic or foreign corporation that was the predecessor of the corporation referred to in this section in a merger, consolidation, or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ended upon completion of the transaction.

(c) "Official capacity" means:

(1) with respect to a director, the position of director in a corporation;

(2) with respect to a person other than a director, the elective or appointive office or position held by an officer, member of a committee of the board, or the employment relationship undertaken by an employee of the corporation; and

(3) with respect to a director, officer, or employee of the corporation who, while a director, officer, or employee of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation or whose duties in that position involve or involved service as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization or employee benefit plan, the position of that person as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent, as the case may be, of the other organization or employee benefit plan.

(d) "Proceeding" means a threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding, including a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation.

(e) "Special legal counsel" means counsel who has not represented the corporation or a related organization, or a director, officer, member of a committee of the board, or employee whose indemnification is in issue.

Subd. 2. [INDEMNIFICATION MANDATORY; STANDARD.] (a) Subject to subdivision 4, a corporation shall indemnify a person made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of the former or present official capacity of the person against judgments, penalties, fines, including, without limitation, excise taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorneys fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding, if, with respect to the acts or omissions of the person complained of in the proceeding, the person:

(1) has not been indemnified by another organization or employee benefit plan for the same liability described in the preceding paragraph with respect to the same acts or omissions;

(2) acted in good faith;

(3) received no improper personal benefit and section 46, if applicable, has been satisfied;

(4) in the case of a criminal proceeding, did not have reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful; and

(5) in the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (1) or (2), reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the corporation, or in the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (3), reasonably believed that the conduct was not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. If the person's acts or omissions complained of in the proceeding relate to conduct as a director, officer, trustee, employee, or agent of an employee benefit plan, the conduct is not considered to be opposed to the best interests of the corporation if the person reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of the employee benefit plan.

(b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not, of itself, establish that the person did not meet the criteria in this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [ADVANCES.] Subject to subdivision 4, if a person is made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding, the person is entitled, upon written request to the corporation, to payment or reimbursement by the corporation of reasonable expenses, including attorneys fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding:

(1) upon receipt by the corporation of a written affirmation by the person of a good faith belief that the criteria for indemnification in subdivision 2 have been satisfied and a written undertaking by the person to repay the amounts paid or reimbursed by the corporation, if it is determined that the criteria for indemnification have not been satisfied; and

(2) after a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this section.

The written undertaking required by clause (1) is an unlimited general obligation of the person making it, but need not be secured and must be accepted without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION OR LIMIT ON INDEMNIFICATION OR ADVANCES.] The articles or bylaws may prohibit indemnification or advances of expenses required by this section or may impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the conditions contained in subdivisions 2 and 3 including, without limitation, monetary limits on indemnification or advances of expenses, if the conditions apply equally to all persons or to all persons within a given class. A prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances may not apply to or affect the right of a person to indemnification or advances of expenses with respect to acts or omissions of the person occurring before the effective date of a provision in the articles or the date of adoption of a provision in the bylaws establishing the prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances.

Subd. 5. [REIMBURSEMENT TO WITNESSES.] This section does not require, or limit the ability of, a corporation to reimburse expenses, including attorneys fees and disbursements, incurred by a person in connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the person has not been made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding.

Subd. 6. [DETERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Determinations as to whether indemnification of a person is required because the criteria set forth in subdivision 2 have been satisfied and whether a person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding under subdivision 3 must be made:

(1) by the board by a majority of a quorum; directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding are not counted for determining a majority or the presence of a quorum;

(2) if a quorum under clause (1) cannot be obtained, by a majority of a committee of the board, consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding, duly designated to act in the matter by a majority of the full board including directors who are parties;

(3) if a determination is not made under clause (1) or (2), by special legal counsel, selected either by a majority of the board or a committee by vote under clause (1) or (2) or, if the requisite quorum of the full board cannot be obtained and the committee cannot be established, by a majority of the full board including directors who are parties;

(4) if a determination is not made under clauses (1) to (3), by the members with voting rights, other than members who are parties to the proceeding; or

(5) if an adverse determination is made under clauses (1) to (4) or under paragraph (b), or if no determination is made under clauses (1) to (4) or under paragraph (b) within 60 days after the termination of a proceeding or after a request for an advance of expenses, by a court in this state, which may be the court in which the proceeding involving the person's liability took place, upon application of the person and notice the court requires.

(b) With respect to a person who is not, and was not at the time of the acts or omissions complained of in the proceedings, a director, officer, or person having, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of the corporation, the determination whether indemnification of this person is required because the criteria in subdivision 2 have been satisfied and whether this person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding under subdivision 3 may be made by an annually appointed committee of the board, having at least one member who is a director. The committee shall report at least annually to the board concerning its actions.

Subd. 7. [INSURANCE.] A corporation may buy and maintain insurance on behalf of a person in that person's official capacity against liability asserted against and incurred by the person in or arising from that capacity, whether or not the corporation would have been required to indemnify the person against the liability under this section.

Subd. 8. [DISCLOSURE.] A corporation with members with voting rights that indemnifies or advances expenses to a person under this section in connection with a proceeding by or on behalf of the corporation shall report to the members in writing the amount of the indemnification or advance and to whom and on whose behalf it was paid not later than the next meeting of members.

Subd. 9. [INDEMNIFICATION OF OTHER PERSONS.] This section does not limit the power of a corporation to indemnify other persons.

MERGER; CONSOLIDATION; TRANSFER

Sec. 84. [317A.601] [MERGER, CONSOLIDATION, OR TRANSFER.]

Subdivision 1. [MERGER OR CONSOLIDATION.] Two or more corporations may merge or consolidate, resulting in a single corporation subject to this chapter. A merger or consolidation must be made as provided in sections 85 to 91.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER.] A corporation may sell, lease, transfer, or dispose of all or substantially all of its property and assets under section 92.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO ATTORNEY GENERAL.] If applicable, a corporation shall comply with section 118 before it may merge or consolidate or transfer all or substantially all of its assets.

Sec. 85. [317A.611] [PLAN OF MERGER OR CONSOLIDATION.]

A plan of merger or consolidation must contain:

(1) the names of the corporations proposing to merge or consolidate;

(2) the name of the surviving or new corporation;

(3) the terms and conditions of the proposed merger or consolidation;

(4) in the case of a merger, the manner and basis of converting the memberships of the constituent corporations into memberships of the surviving corporation or of any other corporation;

(5) in the case of a merger, a statement of amendments to the articles of the surviving corporation proposed as part of the merger;

(6) in the case of a consolidation, the provisions required by section 10 to be set out in the articles of the new corporation; and

(7) other provisions with respect to the proposed merger or consolidation that are considered necessary or desirable.

Sec. 86. [317A.613] [PLAN APPROVAL.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROVAL REQUIRED.] A plan of merger or consolidation must be approved and adopted by each constituent corporation as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL BY BOARD AND MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.] When a constituent corporation has members with voting rights, the board of directors of the corporation shall adopt a resolution by a majority vote of all directors approving a proposed plan of merger or consolidation and directing that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members with voting rights. Notice of the meeting must be given, accompanied by a copy or summary of the proposed plan. Unless the articles or bylaws require a greater vote, the plan of merger or consolidation is adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the members who vote upon the proposed plan.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL BY BOARD.] When a constituent corporation does not have members with voting rights, and unless the articles or bylaws require a greater vote, a plan of merger or consolidation is adopted at a meeting of the board of directors of the corporation upon receiving the affirmative votes of a majority of all directors. Notice of the meeting must be given accompanied by a copy of the proposed plan of merger or consolidation.

Sec. 87. [317A.615] [ARTICLES OF MERGER OR CONSOLIDATION; CERTIFICATE.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS OF ARTICLES.] Upon receiving the approval required by section 86 and after compliance with section 118, if applicable, articles of merger or consolidation must be prepared that contain:

(1) the plan of merger or consolidation;

(2) a statement that the plan has been approved by each corporation under this chapter; and

(3) if applicable, a statement that the notice to the attorney general required by section 118 has been given and the waiting period has expired or has been waived by the attorney general.

Subd. 2. [ARTICLES SIGNED, FILED.] The articles of merger or consolidation must be signed on behalf of each constituent corporation and filed with the secretary of state.

Subd. 3. [CERTIFICATE.] The secretary of state shall issue a certificate of merger to the surviving corporation or a certificate of consolidation and incorporation to the new corporation.

Sec. 88. [317A.631] [ABANDONMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [BY MEMBERS OR BOARD OF EACH CORPORATION; UNDER TERMS OF PLAN.] After a plan of merger or consolidation has been approved by each constituent corporation under section 86 and before the effective date of the plan, it may be abandoned:

(1) if each constituent corporation has approved the abandonment at a meeting by a majority of the members with voting rights voting on the issue, or if the corporation does not have voting members, by a majority of all directors; or

(2) if the plan itself provides for abandonment and the conditions for abandonment in the plan are met.

Subd. 2. [BY BOARD OF ONE CORPORATION.] A plan of merger or consolidation may be abandoned after it has been approved by each constituent corporation and before the effective date of the plan, by a resolution approved by a majority of all directors of the constituent corporation abandoning the plan of merger or consolidation, subject to the contract rights of any other person under the plan.

Subd. 3. [FILING OF ARTICLES.] If articles of merger or consolidation have been filed with the secretary of state, but have not yet become effective, the constituent corporations, in the case of abandonment under subdivision 1, clause (1), the constituent corporations or any one of them, in the case of abandonment under subdivision 1, clause (2), or the abandoning corporation in the case of abandonment under subdivision 2, shall file with the secretary of state articles of abandonment that contain:

(1) the names of the constituent corporations;

(2) the provision of this section under which the plan is abandoned; and

(3) if the plan is abandoned under subdivision 2, the text of the resolution approved by the directors abandoning the plan.

Sec. 89. [317A.641] [EFFECTIVE DATE OF MERGER OR CONSOLIDATION; EFFECT.]

Subdivision 1. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] A merger or consolidation is effective when the articles of merger or consolidation are filed with the secretary of state or on a later date named in the articles.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT ON CORPORATION; GENERAL.] When a merger or consolidation becomes effective:

(1) the constituent corporations become a single corporation, which in case of merger is a surviving corporation, or in case of consolidation is a new corporation;

(2) subject to clause (3) and section 90, the separate existence of the constituent corporations except the surviving corporation ends;

(3) when the agreement of merger or consolidation expressly provides for the continuance of the corporate existence of a constituent corporation and expressly declares the purpose for the continuance, the corporate existence of the constituent corporation continues in the single corporation for the purpose declared in the agreement;

(4) the single corporation has the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers, and is subject to the duties and liabilities, of a corporation formed under this chapter;

(5) the single corporation has the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and franchises, public and private, of each constituent corporation;

(6) all real or personal property, debts, including debts arising from a subscription for membership, and interests belonging to each constituent corporation are transferred to the single corporation without further act or deed;

(7) interest in real estate possessed by a constituent corporation does not revert to the grantor, or otherwise, nor is it in any way impaired by reason of the merger or consolidation; and the personal property of a constituent corporation does not revert by reason of the merger or consolidation;

(8) except where the will or other instrument provides otherwise, and subject to section 93, a devise, bequest, gift, or grant contained in a will or other instrument, in trust or otherwise, made before or after the merger or consolidation has become effective, to or for any of the constituent corporations, inures to the single corporation;

(9) debts, liabilities, and obligations of each constituent corporation become the debts, liabilities, and obligations of the single corporation, just as if the debts, liabilities, and obligations had been incurred or contracted by the single corporation;

(10) existing claims or a pending action or proceeding by or against a constituent corporation may be prosecuted to judgment as though the merger or consolidation had not been effected, or the single corporation may be substituted for the constituent corporation;

(11) the liabilities of the members, officers, directors, or similar groups or persons, however denominated, of a constituent corporation are not affected by the merger or consolidation of a constituent corporation;

(12) the rights of creditors or liens upon the property of a constituent corporation are not impaired by the merger or consolidation, but the liens are limited to the property upon which they were liens immediately before the merger or consolidation;

(13) the articles of the surviving corporation are considered to be amended to the extent that changes in its articles are contained in a plan of merger; and

(14) in the case of a consolidation, the plan of consolidation constitutes the articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT ON FIDUCIARY CAPACITY.] (a) For purposes of this subdivision, "fiduciary capacity" means the capacities of trustee, executor, administrator, personal representative, guardian, conservator, receiver, escrow agent, agent for the investment of money, attorney-in-fact, or a similar capacity.

(b) Except where the will, declaration of trust, or other instrument provides otherwise, the single corporation is, without further act or deed, the successor of the constituent corporations in fiduciary capacities in which a constituent corporation was acting at the time of the merger or consolidation and is liable to the beneficiaries as fully as if the constituent corporation had continued its separate corporate existence.

(c) If a constituent corporation is nominated and appointed, or has been nominated and appointed, in a fiduciary capacity in a will, declaration of trust, or other instrument, order, or judgment before or after the merger or consolidation, then even if the will or other instrument, order, or judgment does not become operative or effective until after the merger or consolidation becomes effective, every fiduciary capacity and the rights, powers, privileges, duties, discretions, and responsibilities provided for in the nomination or appointment fully vest in and are to be exercised by the single corporation, whether there are one or more successive mergers or consolidations.

Sec. 90. [317A.643] [CONTINUANCE OF CORPORATE AUTHORITY.]

When an act or instrument is considered necessary or appropriate to evidence the vesting of property or other rights in the single corporation, the persons with authority to do so under the articles or bylaws of each constituent corporation shall do the act or execute and deliver the instrument and for this purpose, the existence of the constituent corporations and the authority of those persons is continued.

Sec. 91. [317A.651] [MERGER OR CONSOLIDATION WITH FOREIGN CORPORATION.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN PERMITTED.] A corporation may merge or consolidate with a foreign corporation by following the procedures set forth in this section, if the merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the state under which the foreign corporation is incorporated.

Subd. 2. [LAWS APPLICABLE BEFORE TRANSACTION.] Each corporation shall comply with sections 84 to 90 with respect to the merger or consolidation of corporations and each foreign corporation shall comply with the laws under which it was incorporated or by which it is governed.

Subd. 3. [SURVIVING CORPORATION.] If the single corporation will be incorporated under this chapter, it shall comply with this chapter.

Subd. 4. [FOREIGN SURVIVING CORPORATION.] If the single corporation will be a foreign corporation and will transact business in this state, it shall comply with the provisions of chapter 303 with respect to foreign corporations. In every case the single corporation shall file with the secretary of state:

(1) an agreement that it may be served with process in this state in a proceeding for the enforcement of an obligation of a constituent corporation; and

(2) an irrevocable appointment of the secretary of state as its agent to accept service of process in any proceeding and an address to which process may be forwarded.

Sec. 92. [317A.661] [TRANSFER OF ASSETS; WHEN PERMITTED.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBER APPROVAL; WHEN NOT REQUIRED.] Unless otherwise provided in its articles or bylaws, a corporation, by affirmative vote of the board of directors, may sell, lease, transfer, or dispose of all or substantially all of its property and assets in the usual and regular course of its activities and, subject to section 81, subdivision 1, grant a security interest in all or substantially all of its property and assets whether or not in the usual and regular course of its activities, upon those terms and conditions and for those considerations, which may be money, securities, or other instruments for the payment of money or other property, as the board considers expedient, in which case no member approval is required.

Subd. 2. [VOTING MEMBER APPROVAL; WHEN REQUIRED.] A corporation, by affirmative vote of the board of directors, may sell, lease, transfer, or dispose of all or substantially all of its property and assets, including its good will, not in the usual and regular course of its activities, upon those terms and conditions and for those considerations, which may be money, securities, or other instruments for the payment of money or other property, as the board considers expedient, when approved at a regular or special meeting of the members by the affirmative vote of the majority of the members with voting rights. If there are no members with voting rights, member approval is not required. Notice of the meeting must be given to the members with voting rights. The notice must state that a purpose of the meeting is to consider the sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO ATTORNEY GENERAL.] If applicable, a corporation shall comply with section 118 before transferring all or substantially all of its assets under this section.

Subd. 4. [SIGNING OF DOCUMENTS.] Confirmatory deeds, assignments, or similar instruments to evidence a sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition may be signed and delivered at any time in the name of the transferor by its current officers or, if the corporation no longer exists, by its last officers.

Subd. 5. [TRANSFEREE LIABILITY.] The transferee is liable for the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the transferor only to the extent provided in the contract or agreement between the transferee and the transferor or to the extent provided by this chapter or other statutes of this state.

Sec. 93. [317A.671] [CERTAIN ASSETS NOT TO BE DIVERTED.]

Except as provided in section 501.12, when a corporation dissolves, merges or consolidates, transfers its assets, or grants a mortgage or other security interest in its assets, assets of the corporation or a constituent corporation, and assets subsequently received by a single corporation after a merger or consolidation, may not be diverted from the uses and purposes for which the assets have been received and held, or from the uses and purposes expressed or intended by the original donor.

DISSOLUTION

Sec. 94. [317A.701] [METHODS OF DISSOLUTION.]

(a) Subject to section 118, a corporation may be dissolved:

(1) by the incorporators under section 95;

(2) by the board and members with voting rights under sections 96 to 103; or

(3) by order of a court under sections 105 to 111.

(b) A corporation also may be dissolved by the secretary of state under section 123.

Sec. 95. [317A.711] [VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION BY INCORPORATORS.]

Subdivision 1. [MANNER.] If the first board of directors has not been named in the articles, designated or appointed pursuant to the articles, or elected under section 25, a corporation may be dissolved by the incorporators as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [ARTICLES OF DISSOLUTION.] (a) A majority of the incorporators shall sign articles of dissolution containing:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the date of incorporation;

(3) a statement that the first board of directors has not been named in the articles, designated or appointed pursuant to the articles, or elected at an organizational meeting;

(4) a statement that no debts remain unpaid; and

(5) if applicable, a statement that notice to the attorney general required by section 118 has been given and the waiting period has expired or has been waived by the attorney general.

(b) The articles of dissolution must be filed with the secretary of state.

Subd. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] When the articles of dissolution have been filed with the secretary of state, the corporation is dissolved.

Subd. 4. [CERTIFICATE.] The secretary of state shall issue to the dissolved corporation a certificate of dissolution that contains:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the date and time the articles of dissolution were filed with the secretary of state; and

(3) a statement that the corporation is dissolved.

Sec. 96. [317A.721] [VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION BY BOARD AND MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [MANNER.] A corporation may be dissolved by the board and members with voting rights as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL BY BOARD; PLAN OF DISSOLUTION.] The board shall adopt a resolution proposing dissolution of the corporation by the affirmative vote of a majority of all directors. The resolution must include a plan of dissolution that states to whom the assets owned or held by the corporation will be distributed after creditors are paid. The plan must comply with the requirements of section 104. If the board will have discretion in distributing assets, the plan must state that the assets will be distributed to persons the board subsequently identifies. If there are members with voting rights, the resolution and plan of dissolution must be submitted to the members under subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL BY MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.] (a) Written notice must be given to each member with voting rights, within the time and in the manner provided in section 67 for notice of meetings of members and, whether the meeting is a regular or a special meeting, must state that a purpose of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation.

(b) The proposed dissolution must be submitted for approval at a meeting of members. If the proposed dissolution is approved by the members, the dissolution must be started.

Sec. 97. [317A.723] [FILING NOTICE OF INTENT TO DISSOLVE; EFFECT.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS.] If dissolution of the corporation is approved under section 96, the corporation shall file with the secretary of state a notice of intent to dissolve. The notice must contain:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the date and place of the meeting at which the resolution was approved by the board under section 96, subdivision 2, and by the members under section 96, subdivision 3, if applicable; and

(3) a statement that the requisite approval of the directors and members was received.

If applicable, the corporation also shall notify the attorney general under section 118.

Subd. 2. [WINDING UP.] When the notice of intent to dissolve has been filed with the secretary of state and subject to section 102, the corporation may not carry on its activities, except to the extent necessary for the winding up of the corporation. The board and members with voting rights have the right to revoke the dissolution proceedings under section 102 and the members with voting rights have the right to remove directors or fill vacancies on the board. The corporate existence continues to the extent necessary to wind up the affairs of the corporation until the dissolution proceedings are revoked or articles of dissolution are filed with the secretary of state.

Subd. 3. [REMEDIES CONTINUED.] The filing with the secretary of state of a notice of intent to dissolve does not affect a remedy in favor of the corporation or a remedy against it or its directors, officers, or members in those capacities, except as provided in section 113.

Sec. 98. [317A.725] [PROCEDURE IN DISSOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [COLLECTION; PAYMENT.] When a notice of intent to dissolve has been filed with the secretary of state, the board, or the officers acting under the direction of the board, shall proceed as soon as possible:

(1) to collect or make provision for the collection of debts due or owing to the corporation; and

(2) to pay or make provision for the payment of debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation according to their priorities.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER OF ASSETS.] Notwithstanding section 92, when a notice of intent to dissolve has been filed with the secretary of state, the directors may sell, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the property and assets of a dissolving corporation without a vote of the members, subject to sections 93 and 118.

Subd. 3. [DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS.] Tangible or intangible property, including money, remaining after the discharge of the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation must be distributed under section 104.

Sec. 99. [317A.727] [NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND CLAIMANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN PERMITTED; HOW GIVEN.] When a notice of intent to dissolve has been filed with the secretary of state and the attorney general, if applicable, the corporation may give notice of the filing to each creditor of and claimant against the corporation known or unknown, present or future, and contingent or noncontingent. If notice to creditors and claimants is given, it must be given by publishing the notice once each week for four successive weeks in a legal newspaper in the county where the registered office of the corporation is located and by giving written notice to known creditors and claimants under section 2, subdivision 14.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS.] The notice to creditors and claimants must contain:

- (1) a statement that the corporation is in the process of dissolving;
- (2) a statement that the corporation has filed a notice of intent to dissolve with the secretary of state;
- (3) the date of filing the notice of intent to dissolve;
- (4) the address of the office to which written claims against the corporation must be presented; and
- (5) the date by which the claims must be received, which is the later of 90 days after published notice or, with respect to a particular known creditor or claimant, 90 days after the date on which written notice is given to that creditor or claimant. Published notice is considered given on the date of first publication for determining this date.

Sec. 100. [317A.729] [CLAIMS IN DISSOLUTION.]

If the corporation gives notice to creditors and claimants under section 99:

(1) the corporation has 30 days from the receipt of each claim filed according to the procedures set forth by the corporation on or before the date set forth in the notice to accept or reject the claim by giving written notice to the person submitting it, a claim not expressly rejected in this manner is considered accepted; and

(2) a creditor or claimant to whom notice is given and whose claim is rejected by the corporation has 60 days from the date of rejection, or 180 days from the date the corporation filed the notice of intent to dissolve with the secretary of state, or 90 days after the date on which notice was given to the creditor or claimant, whichever is longer, to pursue other remedies with respect to the claim.

Sec. 101. [317A.730] [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [CORPORATIONS THAT GIVE NOTICE.] If the corporation gives notice to creditors and claimants under section 99:

(1) the claim of a creditor or claimant to whom notice is given who fails to file a claim according to the procedures set forth by the corporation on or before the date set forth in the notice is subject to section 113; and

(2) the claim of a creditor or claimant that is rejected by the corporation under section 100 is subject to section 113 if the creditor or claimant does not begin legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings with respect to the claim during the period set forth in section 100, clause 2.

Subd. 2. [OTHER CORPORATIONS.] If the corporation does not give notice to creditors and claimants under section 99, the claim of a creditor or claimant who does not begin legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings concerning the claim within two years after the date of filing the notice of intent to dissolve is subject to section 113.

Sec. 102. [317A.731] [REVOCAION OF DISSOLUTION PROCEEDINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Dissolution proceedings begun under section 96 may be revoked before the articles of dissolution are filed as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [REVOCAION BY BOARD.] The board may adopt a resolution revoking the proposed dissolution by the affirmative vote of a majority of all directors. If there are members with voting rights, the resolution must be submitted to the members under subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL BY MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.]

Written notice must be given to the members with voting rights within the time and in the manner provided in section 67 for notice of meetings of members and must state that a purpose of the meeting is to consider the advisability of revoking the dissolution proceedings. The proposed revocation must be submitted to the members at the meeting. If the proposed revocation is approved by the members with voting rights, the dissolution proceedings are revoked.

Subd. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE; EFFECT.] Revocation of dissolution proceedings is effective when a notice of revocation is filed with the secretary of state. After the notice is filed, the corporation may resume business. If notice to the attorney general has been given under section 118, the notice of revocation also must be given to the attorney general on or before the time that it is filed with the secretary of state.

Sec. 103. [317A.733] [ARTICLES OF DISSOLUTION; CERTIFICATE OF DISSOLUTION; EFFECT.]

Subdivision 1. [ARTICLES; WHEN FILED.] Articles of dissolution for a corporation dissolving under section 96 must be filed with the secretary of state after compliance with section 118, if applicable, and:

(1) the payment of claims of known creditors and claimants has been made or provided for;

(2) if the corporation has given notice to creditors and claimants in the manner provided in section 99: (i) the 90-day period in section 99, subdivision 2, clause (4), has expired and the payment of claims of the creditors and claimants filing a claim within that period has been made or provided for; or (ii) the longer of the periods described in section 100, clause (2), has expired; or, in all other cases;

(3) the two-year period described in section 101 has expired.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF ARTICLES.] The articles of dissolution must state:

(a)(1) whether notice has been given to the creditors and claimants of the corporation in the manner provided in section 99 and, if notice has been given, the last date on which the notice was given and: (i) that the payment of the creditors and claimants filing a claim within the 90-day period set forth in section 99, subdivision 2, clause (4), has been made or provided for; or (ii) the date on which the longer of the periods described in section 100, clause (2), expired; or

(2) if notice was not given and articles of dissolution are being filed under subdivision 1, clause (1), that the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation have been paid and discharged or that adequate provisions have been made for them;

(b) that the remaining assets of the corporation have been distributed under section 104 or that adequate provision has been made for the distribution;

(c) that there are no pending legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings by or against the corporation, or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of a judgment, order, or decree that may be entered against it in a pending proceeding; and

(d) if applicable, that notice to the attorney general required by section 118 has been given and the waiting period has expired or has been waived by the attorney general.

Subd. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] When the articles of dissolution have been filed with the secretary of state, the corporation is dissolved.

Subd. 4. [CERTIFICATE.] The secretary of state shall issue to the dissolved corporation a certificate of dissolution that contains:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the date and time the articles of dissolution were filed with the secretary of state; and

(3) a statement that the corporation is dissolved.

Sec. 104. [317A.735] [DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] In performing their duties under section 98, the board, or the officers acting under the direction of the board, shall distribute the assets of the corporation in the following order of priority:

(1) distribution of assets held under a special condition or limit under subdivision 2;

(2) payment of costs and expenses of the dissolution proceedings, including attorney fees and disbursements;

(3) payment of debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation;

(4) distribution of assets pursuant to articles or bylaws of the dissolving corporation or the rules or canons of another organization under subdivision 3; and

(5) distribution of remaining assets under subdivision 4.

Subd. 2. [SPECIAL CONDITIONS.] Assets held by the corporation upon condition or subject to an executory or special limitation, if the condition or limitation occurs by reason of the dissolution of the corporation, must revert, be returned, transferred, or conveyed in accordance with the condition or limitation.

Subd. 3. [ARTICLES, BYLAWS, OR ANOTHER ORGANIZATION.] Where the articles or bylaws of the dissolving corporation, or the rules or canons of another organization by which the dissolving corporation is bound, provide for a particular distribution of the assets of the dissolving corporation, the assets must be distributed accordingly.

Subd. 4. [REMAINDER.] The distribution of assets held for or devoted to a charitable or public use or purpose is subject to section 501.12.

Sec. 105. [317A.741] [SUPERVISED VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION.]

After the notice of intent to dissolve has been filed with the secretary of state and before a certificate of dissolution has been issued, the corporation, the attorney general, or, for good cause, a creditor or at least 50 members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, may apply to a court within the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located to have the dissolution conducted or continued under the supervision of the court under sections 106 to 111.

Sec. 106. [317A.751] [JUDICIAL INTERVENTION; EQUITABLE REMEDIES OR DISSOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL; WHEN PERMITTED.] A court may grant equitable relief it considers just and reasonable in the circumstances or may dissolve a corporation and liquidate its assets and business as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [SUPERVISED VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION.] A court may grant equitable relief in a supervised voluntary dissolution under section 105.

Subd. 3. [ACTION BY MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.] A court may grant equitable relief in an action by at least 50 members with voting rights or ten percent of the members with voting rights, whichever is less, when it is established that:

(1) the directors or the persons having the authority otherwise vested in the board are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the members cannot break the deadlock, and the corporation or the parties have not provided for a procedure to resolve the dispute;

(2) the directors or those in control of the corporation have acted fraudulently, illegally, or in a manner unfairly prejudicial toward one or more members in their capacities as members, directors, or officers;

(3) the members of the corporation are so divided in voting power that, for a period that includes the time when two consecutive regular meetings were held, they have failed to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired or would have expired upon the election and qualification of their successors;

(4) the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted; or

(5) the period of duration as provided in the articles has expired and has not been extended as provided in section 116.

Subd. 4. [ACTION BY CREDITOR.] A court may grant equitable relief in an action by a creditor when:

(1) the claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment and an execution on it has been returned unsatisfied; or

(2) the corporation has admitted in writing that the claim of the creditor is due and owing and it is established that the corporation cannot pay its debts in the ordinary course of its activities.

Subd. 5. [ACTION BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.] A court may grant equitable relief in an action by the attorney general when it is established that:

(1) the articles and certificate of incorporation were obtained through fraud;

(2) the corporation should not have been formed under this chapter;

(3) the corporation failed to comply with the requirements of sections 3 to 21 essential to incorporation under or election to become governed by this chapter;

(4) the corporation has flagrantly violated a provision of this chapter, has violated a provision of this chapter more than once, or has violated more than one provision of this chapter;

(5) the corporation has engaged in an unauthorized act, contract, conveyance, or transfer or has exceeded its powers;

(6) the corporation has acted, or failed to act, in a manner that constitutes surrender or abandonment of the corporate purpose, franchise, privileges, or enterprise;

(7) the corporation has liabilities and obligations exceeding the corporate assets;

(8) the period of corporate existence has ended without extension;

(9) the corporation has failed for a period of 90 days to pay fees, charges, or penalties required by this chapter;

(10) the corporation has failed for a period of 30 days after changing its registered office to file with the secretary of state a statement of the change;

(11) the corporation has answered falsely or failed to answer a reasonable written interrogatory from the secretary of state, the attorney general, the commissioner of human services, commissioner of commerce, or commissioner of revenue, to the corporation, its officers, or directors;

(12) the corporation has solicited property and has failed to use it for the purpose solicited; or

(13) the corporation has fraudulently used or solicited property.

Subd. 6. [CONDITION OF CORPORATION.] In determining whether to order equitable relief or dissolution under this section, the court shall consider the financial condition of the corporation but may not refuse to order equitable relief or dissolution solely on the ground that the corporation is solvent.

Subd. 7. [DISSOLUTION AS REMEDY.] In deciding whether to order dissolution, the court shall consider whether lesser relief suggested by one or more parties, such as any form of equitable relief or a partial liquidation, would be adequate to permanently relieve the circumstances established under subdivision 3, 4, or 5. Lesser relief may be ordered if it would be appropriate under the facts and circumstances of the case.

Subd. 8. [EXPENSES.] If the court finds that a party to a proceeding brought under this section has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or otherwise not in good faith, it may award reasonable expenses, including attorneys fees and disbursements, to any of the other parties.

Subd. 9. [VENUE; PARTIES.] Proceedings under this section must be brought in a court within the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located. It is not necessary to make members parties to the action or proceeding unless relief is sought against them personally.

Sec. 107. [317A.753] [PROCEDURE IN INVOLUNTARY OR SUPERVISED VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTION BEFORE HEARING.] In dissolution proceedings the court may issue injunctions, appoint receivers with powers and duties the court directs, take other actions required to preserve the corporate assets wherever located, and carry on the business of the corporation until a full hearing can be held.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE TO ATTORNEY GENERAL; INTERVENTION.] When a proceeding involving a corporation described in section 118, subdivision 1, is begun, the court shall order that a copy of the petition be served on the attorney general. In all proceedings under this section, the attorney general has a right to participate as a party.

Subd. 3. [ACTION AFTER HEARING.] After a full hearing has been held, upon whatever notice the court directs to be given to the parties to the proceedings and to other parties in interest designated by the court, the court may appoint a receiver to collect the corporate assets. A receiver has authority, subject to the order of the court, to continue the business of the corporation and to sell, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or any of the assets of the corporation at a public or private sale.

Subd. 4. [DISCHARGE OF OBLIGATIONS.] The assets of the corporation or the proceeds resulting from a sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition must be applied in the following order of priority to the payment and discharge of:

(1) the costs and expenses of the dissolution proceedings, including attorneys fees and disbursements;

(2) debts, taxes, and assessments due the United States, the state of Minnesota and their subdivisions, and other states and their subdivisions, in that order;

(3) claims duly proved and allowed to employees under the workers' compensation act, provided that claims under this clause are not allowed if the corporation carried workers' compensation insurance, as provided by law, at the time the injury was sustained;

(4) claims, including the value of compensation paid in a medium other than money, duly proved and allowed to employees for services performed within three months preceding the appointment of the receiver, if any; and

(5) other claims duly proved and allowed.

Subd. 5. [REMAINDER.] After payment of the expenses of receivership and claims of creditors duly proved, the remaining assets, if any, must be distributed as provided in section 104.

Sec. 108. [317A.755] [QUALIFICATIONS OF RECEIVERS; POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A receiver must be a natural person or a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state. A receiver shall give bond as directed by the court with the sureties required by the court.

Subd. 2. [POWERS.] A receiver may sue and defend in courts as receiver of the corporation. The court appointing the receiver has exclusive jurisdiction of the corporation and its property.

Sec. 109. [317A.759] [FILING CLAIMS IN PROCEEDINGS TO DISSOLVE.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING MAY BE REQUIRED.] In a proceeding under section 106 to dissolve a corporation, the court may require creditors and claimants of the corporation to file their claims under oath with the court administrator or with the receiver in a form prescribed by the court.

Subd. 2. [DATE; CLAIMS BARRED.] If the court requires the filing of claims, it shall fix a date, which may not be less than 120 days from the date of the order, as the last day for the filing of claims, and shall prescribe the notice of the fixed date that must be given to creditors and claimants. Before the fixed date, the court may extend the time for filing claims. Creditors and claimants failing to file claims on or before the fixed date may be barred, by order of court, from claiming an interest in or receiving payment out of the assets of the corporation.

Sec. 110. [317A.763] [DECREE OF DISSOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE; WHEN ENTERED.] In an involuntary or supervised voluntary dissolution, the court shall provide for the discharge of obligations and the distribution of the assets as set forth in section 107, subdivision 4, and shall enter a decree dissolving the corporation.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] When the decree dissolving the corporation has been entered, the corporation is dissolved.

Sec. 111. [317A.765] [FILING DECREE.]

After the court enters a decree dissolving a corporation, the court administrator shall cause a certified copy of the decree to be filed with the secretary of state. The secretary of state may not charge a fee for filing the decree.

Sec. 112. [317A.771] [DEPOSIT WITH STATE TREASURER OF AMOUNT DUE CERTAIN PERSONS.]

Upon dissolution of a corporation, the part of the assets distributable to a person who is unknown or cannot be found, or who is under disability, if there is no person legally competent to receive it, must be reduced to money and deposited with the state treasurer. The amount deposited is appropriated to the state treasurer and must be paid over to the person, upon proof satisfactory to the state treasurer of a right to payment.

Sec. 113. [317A.781] [CLAIMS BARRED; EXCEPTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [CLAIMS BARRED.] A person who is or becomes a creditor or claimant at any time before, during, or following the conclusion of dissolution proceedings, who does not file a claim or pursue a remedy in a legal, administrative, or arbitration proceeding within the time provided in section 101, 105, 106, or 109, or has not begun a legal, administrative, or arbitration proceeding before the beginning of the dissolution proceedings, and a person claiming through or under the creditor or claimant, is barred from suing on that claim or otherwise realizing upon or enforcing it, except as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [CLAIMS REOPENED.] Within one year after articles of dissolution have been filed with the secretary of state under section 103, subdivision 1, clause (1) or (2), or a decree of dissolution has been entered, a creditor or claimant who shows good cause for not having previously filed the claim may apply to a court in this state to allow a claim against the corporation to the extent of undistributed assets.

Subd. 3. [CLAIMS PERMITTED.] Debts, obligations, and liabilities incurred during dissolution proceedings must be paid or provided for by the corporation before the distribution of assets under section 104. A person to whom this kind of debt, obligation, or liability is owed but not paid may pursue any remedy against the officers or directors of the corporation before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. This subdivision does not apply to dissolution under the supervision or order of a court.

Sec. 114. [317A.783] [RIGHT TO SUE OR DEFEND AFTER DISSOLUTION.]

After a corporation has been dissolved, its former officers, directors, or members with voting rights may assert or defend, in the name of the corporation, a claim by or against the corporation.

Sec. 115. [317A.791] [OMITTED ASSETS.]

Title to assets remaining after payment of the debts, obligations, or liabilities and after distributions may be transferred by a court in this state.

EXTENSION

Sec. 116. [317A.801] [EXTENSION AFTER DURATION EXPIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [EXTENSION BY AMENDMENT.] A corporation whose period of duration provided in the articles has expired and that has continued to operate despite that expiration may reinstate its articles and extend the period of corporate duration, including making the duration perpetual, after the date of expiration by filing an amendment to the articles as set forth in this section.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF AMENDMENT.] An amendment to the articles must be approved by the board of directors and must include:

(1) the date the period of duration expired under the articles;

(2) a statement that the period of duration will be perpetual or, if a shorter period is to be provided, the date to which the period of duration is extended; and

(3) a statement that the corporation has been in continuous operation since before the date of expiration of its original period of duration.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL BY MEMBERS WITH VOTING RIGHTS.] If the corporation has members with voting rights, the amendment to the articles must be presented, after notice, to a meeting of those members. The amendment is adopted when approved by the members with voting rights under section 17.

Subd. 4. [FILING.] Articles of amendment conforming to section 10 must be filed with the secretary of state.

Sec. 117. [317A.805] [EFFECT OF EXTENSION.]

Filing with the secretary of state of articles of amendment extending the period of duration of a corporation:

(1) relates back to the date of expiration of the original period of duration of the corporation as provided in the articles;

(2) validates contracts or other acts within the authority of the articles, and the corporation is liable for those contracts or acts; and

(3) restores to the corporation the assets and rights of the corporation to the extent they were held by the corporation before expiration of its original period of duration, except those sold or otherwise distributed after that time.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Sec. 118. [317A.811] [NOTICE TO ATTORNEY GENERAL; WAITING PERIOD.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN REQUIRED.] Except as provided in subdivision 6, the following corporations shall notify the attorney general of their intent to dissolve, merge, or consolidate, or to transfer all or substantially all of their assets:

(1) a corporation that holds assets for a public or charitable purpose; or

(2) a corporation that is recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or any successor section.

The notice must include the plan of dissolution, merger or consolidation, or, in the case of a transfer of assets under section 92, a list of the persons to whom the assets will be transferred and the terms and conditions of the transfer.

Subd. 2. [RESTRICTION ON TRANSFERS.] Subject to subdivision 3, a corporation described in subdivision 1 may not transfer or convey assets as part of a dissolution, merger or consolidation, or transfer of assets under section 92 until 45 days after it has given written notice to the attorney general, unless the attorney general waives all or part of the waiting period.

Subd. 3. [EXTENSION OF WAITING PERIOD.] The attorney general may extend the waiting period under subdivision 2 for one additional 30-day period by notifying the corporation in writing of the extension. The attorney general shall notify the secretary of state if the waiting period is extended.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE AFTER TRANSFER.] When all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation described in subdivision 1 have been transferred or conveyed following approval by the attorney general, the board shall deliver to the attorney general a list of persons to whom the assets were transferred or conveyed. The list must include the addresses of each person who received assets and show what assets the person received.

Subd. 5. [EFFECT.] Failure of the attorney general to take an action with respect to a transaction under this section does not constitute approval of the transaction and does not prevent the attorney general from taking other action.

Subd. 6. [EXCEPTION.] Subdivisions 1 to 4 do not apply to a merger with, consolidation into, or transfer of assets to a corporation described in subdivision 1, clause (2), or to a transfer of assets to an organization recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or any successor section. A corporation that is exempt under this subdivision shall send a copy of the certificate of merger or certificate of consolidation and incorporation to the attorney general.

Sec. 119. [317A.813] [REMEDIAL POWERS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL.]

The attorney general has the powers in sections 8.31, 501.78, and 501.79 to supervise and investigate corporations under this chapter and to bring proceedings to secure compliance.

CORPORATE REGISTRATION

Sec. 120. [317A.821] [INITIAL CORPORATE REGISTRATION WITH SECRETARY OF STATE.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE FROM SECRETARY OF STATE; REGISTRATION REQUIRED.] (a) Before February 1, 1990, the secretary of state shall mail a corporate registration form by first-class mail to each corporation at its last registered office address listed in the records of the secretary of state. The form must include the exact legal corporate name and registered office address currently on file with the secretary of state.

(b) A corporation that is subject to chapter 317 shall file an initial corporate registration with the secretary of state between January 1, 1990, and December 31, 1990. The registration must include the exact legal corporate name and registered office address of the corporation and must be signed by an authorized person. If the current registered office address listed in the records of the secretary of state is not in compliance with section 2, subdivision 2, or if the corporation has changed its registered office address to an address other than that listed with the secretary of state, the corporation shall list a new registered office address that complies with section 2, subdivision 2, on the registration form. A fee of $ must be paid for filing the registered office address change. The new registered office address must have been approved by the board.

Subd. 2. [LOSS OF GOOD STANDING; CORPORATE NAME.] A corporation that does not file the initial corporate registration required under subdivision 1 with the secretary of state on or before December 31, 1990, loses its good standing. To regain its good standing, the corporation must file the initial corporate registration. If a corporation loses its good standing under this subdivision, its corporate name or a deceptively similar name may be registered after January 1, 1992, by another person before the corporation regains its good standing. If the name or a deceptively similar name has been registered by another person, the corporation may not file its initial corporate registration and regain its good standing unless it obtains the consent of the other person as provided in section 12, subdivision 2, or adopts a new corporate name that complies with section 12.

Subd. 3. [DISSOLUTION; EXTENSION.] If a corporation fails to regain its good standing under subdivision 2 on or before December 31, 2000, the corporation is dissolved under section 123. After December 31, 2000, the corporate existence of a corporation dissolved under this subdivision may be extended by filing the initial corporate registration with the secretary of state and payment of a $1,000 fee. The extension relates back to December 31, 2000.

Subd. 4. [IMMEDIATE DISSOLUTION.] As part of the initial registration process under this section, a corporation may elect to dissolve immediately if the corporation has assets valued at $1,000 or less. The corporation must state that it wishes to be dissolved on the initial registration form and must state that it has assets valued at $1,000 or less and that any assets will be disposed of in accordance with section 104. Section 118 does not apply to dissolutions under this subdivision.

Sec. 121. [317A.823] [ANNUAL CORPORATE REGISTRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE FROM SECRETARY OF STATE; REGISTRATION REQUIRED.] (a) Before February 1 of each year, the secretary of state shall mail a corporate registration form by first-class mail to each corporation that incorporated or filed a corporate registration during either of the previous two calendar years at its last registered office address listed on the records of the secretary of state. The form must include the exact legal corporate name and registered office address currently on file with the secretary of state.

(b) A corporation shall file a corporate registration with the secretary of state once each calendar year. The registration must include the exact legal corporate name and registered office address of the corporation and must be signed by an authorized person. If the corporation has changed its registered office address to an address other than that listed on the records of the secretary of state, the corporation shall list the new registered office address on the registration form. A fee of $ must be paid for filing the registered office address change. The new address must comply with section 2, subdivision 2, and must have been approved by the board.

Subd. 2. [LOSS OF GOOD STANDING; CORPORATE NAME.] A corporation that files an initial corporate registration under section 120 or that is incorporated on or after January 1, 1990, and that does not file a corporate registration during a calendar year loses its good standing after December 31 of that year. To regain its good standing, the corporation must file the annual corporate registration and pay a $25 fee. If a corporation loses its good standing under this subdivision, its corporate name or a deceptively similar name may be registered by another person before the corporation regains its good standing. If the name or a deceptively similar name has been registered by another person, the corporation may not file its corporate registration and regain its good standing unless it obtains the consent of the other person as provided in section 12, subdivision 2, or adopts a new corporate name that complies with section 12.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE; DISSOLUTION.] If a corporation fails to file a report required under this section for two consecutive calendar years, the secretary of state shall give notice to the corporation by first-class mail at its registered office that it has violated this section and is subject to dissolution under section 123 if the delinquent registrations are not filed with a $ fee within 60 days after the mailing of the notice. A corporation that fails to file the delinquent annual registrations within the 60 days is dissolved under section 123.

Sec. 122. [317A.825] [ACCEPTANCE OF REGISTRATION BY SECRETARY OF STATE.]

The secretary of state may accept a registration under section 120 or 121 if the information on the registration is in substantial compliance with these sections, even if the information on the registration is not identical to equivalent information in the records of the secretary of state.

Sec. 123. [317A.827] [ADMINISTRATIVE DISSOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] If a corporation requests dissolution as part of the initial registration under section 120, if it fails to file the initial registration by December 31, 2000, or if it fails to file the delinquent registrations before expiration of the 60-day period in section 121, subdivision 3, the secretary of state shall immediately issue a certificate of dissolution and file a copy in the office of the secretary of state. If the corporation is dissolved for failure to file a registration, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of involuntary dissolution. The secretary of state shall send the original certificate and a notice that the corporation has been dissolved to the registered office of the corporation. The secretary of state shall annually inform the attorney general of the names of corporations dissolved under this section during the previous year and indicate whether the dissolution was voluntary or involuntary. A corporation dissolved under this section is not entitled to the benefits of section 113, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [ATTORNEY GENERAL POWERS CONTINUED.] A corporation dissolved under this section continues for three years after the dissolution date for the sole purpose of supervision, investigation, and other actions by the attorney general under sections 8.31, 501.78, and 501.79.

ACTIONS AGAINST CORPORATIONS

Sec. 124. [317A.901] [SERVICE OF PROCESS ON CORPORATION.]

Subdivision 1. [WHO MAY BE SERVED.] A process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation may be served upon the registered agent, if any, of the corporation named in the articles, upon an officer of the corporation, or upon the secretary of state as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [SERVICE ON SECRETARY OF STATE; WHEN PERMITTED.] If a corporation has appointed and maintained a registered agent in this state but its registered agent or an officer of the corporation cannot be found at the registered office, or if a corporation fails to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state and an officer of the corporation cannot be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state is the agent of the corporation upon whom the process, notice, or demand may be served. The return of the sheriff, or the affidavit of a person not a party, that no registered agent or officer can be found at the registered office in a county is conclusive evidence that the corporation has no registered agent or officer at its registered office. Service on the secretary of state of a process, notice, or demand is personal service upon the corporation and must be made by filing with the secretary of state duplicate copies of the process, notice, or demand. The secretary of state shall immediately forward, by certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office, a copy of the process, notice, or demand. Service on the secretary of state is returnable in not less than 30 days notwithstanding a shorter period named in the process, notice, or demand.

Subd. 3. [RECORD OF SERVICE.] The secretary of state shall maintain at its office a record of processes, notices, and demands served upon the secretary of state under this section, including the date and time of service and the action taken with reference to it.

Subd. 4. [OTHER METHODS OF SERVICE.] This section does not limit the right of a person to serve a process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in another manner permitted by law.

Sec. 125. [317A.903] [STATE INTERESTED; PROCEEDINGS.]

If it appears at any stage of a proceeding in a court in this state that the state is, or is likely to be, interested in the proceeding, or that it is a matter of general public interest, the court shall order that a copy of the complaint or petition be served upon the attorney general in the manner prescribed for serving a summons in a civil action. The attorney general shall intervene in a proceeding when the attorney general determines that the public interest requires it, whether or not the attorney general has been served.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 126. [317A.905] [CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE, BOARDS OF TRADE, EXCHANGES.]

Subdivision 1. [SPECIAL PURPOSES:] A corporation may be formed under this chapter to:

- (1) acquire and disseminate useful business information;
- (2) promote equitable principles of trade; or
- (3) establish, maintain, and enforce uniformity in the commercial usages, business transactions, and trade relations in the municipality in which it is located.

Subd. 2. [ARBITRATION OF DIFFERENCES.] A corporation, formed for a purpose in subdivision 1, may, through its articles or bylaws, arbitrate and adjust differences between:

- (1) the corporation and its members;
- (2) the members; or
- (3) a member and a third person who has given written consent.

The corporation may take testimony, make awards, and enforce an award by a fine or by a forfeiture of the membership of a person or of the person's other rights or privileges.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC MARKETS.] A corporation that is a chamber of commerce, board of trade, or exchange, and that maintains or operates a regular place of business or trading room for members only, in which the members buy, sell, or exchange grain, livestock, or other farm products for themselves or for others, is a public market.

Subd. 4. [ASSOCIATION OR CORPORATION DEFINED.] As used in subdivisions 5 and 6, the words "association or corporation" include a cooperative corporation or association authorized to do business in this state.

Subd. 5. [MEMBERSHIP IN PUBLIC MARKET.] Membership in a public market is open to a person, association, or corporation:

(1) having a method of business operation or plan of organization that does not conflict with a reasonable rule of the public market; and

(2) desiring to deal or trade in the commodities usually dealt in on the public market.

Application for membership must be made in the manner provided in the articles or bylaws of the public market.

Subd. 6. [RULES AND BYLAWS OF PUBLIC MARKETS.] A public market may make reasonable rules, regulations, and bylaws, including provisions for membership fees and uniform reasonable assessments. A rule, regulation, or bylaw of a public market is unreasonable when it modifies a provision in the articles, constitution, or bylaws of an association or corporation, governing the distribution of profits to the shareholders or members of the association or corporation. Members of a public market shall comply with reasonable rules, regulations, and bylaws established by the market.

Subd. 7. [MONOPOLY IN RESTRAINT OF TRADE.] A public market is a monopoly in restraint of trade when it:

(1) wrongfully or unreasonably refuses to admit or delays the admission of an applicant for membership;

(2) discriminates, or causes another to discriminate, among members; or

(3) violates this section.

Subd. 8. [PROSECUTION BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.] When a public market is a monopoly in restraint of trade under subdivision 7, trading or dealing in it is prohibited, and the attorney general shall bring an action to terminate the existence of the corporation under section 106, or sue to enjoin further operation of the market or further violations of this chapter.

Sec. 127. [317A.907] [CORPORATIONS TO SECURE OR MAINTAIN HOMES FOR DEPENDENT CHILDREN.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSES.] A corporation may be formed for the following purposes:

(1) securing homes for orphaned, homeless, abandoned, neglected, or mistreated children; or

(2) establishing and maintaining homes for those children.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATE OF TRUSTWORTHINESS.] When it files its articles with the secretary of state, the corporation shall file an accompanying certificate of the commissioner of human services declaring that the corporation has complied with applicable rules of the commissioner of human services governing the operation of child caring agencies or child caring institutions and is reputable and trustworthy.

Subd. 3. [COMPLY WITH RULES; OPEN BOOKS TO PUBLIC INSPECTION.] A corporation formed under subdivision 1 shall:

(1) comply with rules established by the commissioner of human services to govern its operation; and

(2) maintain the financial records of the corporation open to public inspection.

Subd. 4. [VISITORIAL POWERS OF COURT.] Upon its own motion, or upon application, a court of equity has visitorial powers over the corporation, its affairs, and officers.

Subd. 5. [LEGAL GUARDIAN.] If the commissioner of human services currently certifies that a corporation formed for the purpose set out in subdivision 1, clause (1), is a licensed child caring agency complying with the rules established by the commissioner of human services to govern its operation, the corporation has the power to become the guardian of a child in the manner prescribed for securing the guardianship of children in need of protection or services under chapter 260.

Subd. 6. [EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT.] (a) An organization, association, or society licensed by the commissioner of human services may receive payment for expenses related to adoption services in an amount that fairly reflects the agency's reasonable and necessary expenses of:

(1) adoptive counseling, whether or not legal adoption is completed;

(2) provision of services to children before adoptive placement; or

(3) the supervision of children in the home until legal adoption is completed.

Only that part of the expenses may be requested that the person seeking to adopt is financially able to meet. No person may be barred from receiving a child for adoption because of inability to pay part of the expenses referred to in this subdivision. In addition to other reports as may be required, a licensed agency shall file annually with the commissioner of human services a full accounting of expense reimbursement received under this subdivision, together with the record of the services given for which the reimbursement was made. If the person returns the child to the corporation, the person may not receive compensation for the care, clothing, or medical expenses of the child. This paragraph does not preclude voluntary contributions by an individual or organization. A pledge by an adoption applicant to make a voluntary contribution is voidable at the option of the person pledging.

(b) No organization, association, or society is eligible to receive an expense reimbursement from a person who takes a child into the person's home or who adopts a child during the first 12 months that the organization, association, or society is licensed by the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 7. [EXEMPTION OF PROPERTY FROM TAXATION.] A corporation formed for one or both of the purposes set out in subdivision 1 and personal and real property owned by it are exempt from taxation.

Sec. 128. [317A.909] [CORPORATIONS FOR RELIGIOUS PURPOSES.]

Subdivision 1. [BENEFITS FOR MEMBERS.] When authorized by its members or otherwise, a corporation formed for a religious purpose may provide directly or through a church benefits board for:

(1) support and payment of benefits to its ministers, teachers, employees, or functionaries and to the ministers, teachers, employees, or functionaries of a nonprofit organization affiliated with it or under its jurisdiction;

(2) payment of benefits to the surviving spouses, children, dependents, or other beneficiaries of the persons named in clause (1);

(3) collection of contributions and other payments; or

(4) creation, maintenance, investment, management, and disbursement of necessary endowment, reserve, and other funds for these purposes, including a trust fund or corporation that funds a "church plan" as defined in section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988.

Subd. 2. [INSURANCE LAWS NOT APPLICABLE.] The insurance laws of this state do not apply to the operations of a corporation under subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY EXEMPT FROM TAXATION.] Except for property leased or used for profit, personal and real property that a religious corporation necessarily uses for a religious purpose is exempt from taxation.

Subd. 4. [PEACE OFFICER POWERS.] The governing board of a religious corporation may appoint peace officers to keep order on its grounds. The peace officers shall be paid by the corporation. When on duty, these officers have the authority of constables.

Subd. 5. [CHURCH BENEFITS BOARD.] A "church benefits board" is an organization described in section 414(e)(3)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988, whether a civil law corporation or otherwise, the principal purpose or function of which is the administration or funding of a plan or program for the provision of retirement benefits or welfare benefits for the employees of a church or a convention or association of churches, if the organization is controlled by or associated with a church or a convention or association of churches.

MISCELLANEOUS SECTIONS

Sec. 129. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 8.31, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INVESTIGATE OFFENSES AGAINST THE PROVISIONS OF CERTAIN DESIGNATED SECTIONS; ASSIST IN ENFORCEMENT.] The attorney general shall investigate violations of the law of this state respecting unfair, discriminatory, and other unlawful practices in business, commerce, or trade, and specifically, but not exclusively, the nonprofit corporation act (sections 1 to 128), the act against unfair discrimination and competition (sections 325D.01 to 325D.08), the unlawful trade practices act (sections 325D.09 to 325D.16), the antitrust act (sections 325D.49 to 325D.66), section 325F.67 and other laws against false or fraudulent advertising, the antidiscrimination acts contained in section 325D.67, the act against monopolization of food products (section 325D.68), and the prevention of consumer fraud act (sections 325F.68 to 325F.70) and assist in the enforcement of those laws as in this section provided.

Sec. 130. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 79A.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The self-insurers' security fund is established as a nonprofit corporation pursuant to the Minnesota nonprofit corporation act, sections ~~317.01 to 317.69~~ 1 to 128. If any provision of the Minnesota nonprofit corporation act conflicts with any provision of this chapter, the provisions of this chapter apply. Each private self-insurer who is self-insured on July 1, 1988, or who becomes self-insured thereafter, shall participate as a member in the security fund. This participation shall be a condition of maintaining its certificate to self-insure.

Sec. 131. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 257.03, is amended to read:

257.03 [NOTICE TO COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.]

Any person receiving a child in the person's home with intent to adopt the child or keep the child permanently, except a person receiving a child from an authorized agency, must notify the commissioner of human services in writing within 30 days after the child is received. Notice shall state the true name of the child; the child's last previous address; the name and address of the child's parents or legal guardian and of persons with whom the child last resided; and the names and addresses of persons who placed the child in the home, arranged for, or assisted with arrangements for the child's placement there; and such other facts about the child or the home as the commissioner may require. It is the duty of the commissioner or a designated agent to investigate the circumstances surrounding the child's entry into the home and to take appropriate action to assure for the child, the biological parents, and the foster parents the full protection of all laws of Minnesota relating to custody and foster care of children. Except as provided by section ~~317.65~~ 127, no person shall solicit, receive, or accept any payment, promise of payment, or compensation, for placing a child in foster care or for assisting to place a child in foster care. Nor shall any person pay or promise to pay or in any way compensate any person, for placing or for assisting to place a child in foster care.

Sec. 132. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 309.67, is amended to read:

309.67 [STANDARD OF CONDUCT.]

In the administration of the powers to appropriate appreciation, to make and retain investments, and to delegate investment management of institutional funds, members of a governing board shall exercise ordinary business care and prudence under the facts and circumstances prevailing at the time of the action or decision discharge their duties in the manner provided in section 44. In so doing they shall consider long and short term needs of the institution in carrying out its educational, religious, charitable, or other eleemosynary purposes, its present and anticipated financial requirements, expected total return on its investments, price level trends, and general economic conditions.

Sec. 133. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 319A.20, is amended to read:

319A.20 [SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION.]

The corporate charter of a professional corporation or the certificate of authority of a foreign professional corporation may be suspended or revoked pursuant to section 301.57, 302A.757, or ~~317.62~~ 106 for the reasons enumerated therein or for failure to comply with the provisions of sections 319A.01 to 319A.22 or the rules of any board. A board through the attorney general may institute such suspension or revocation proceedings.

Sec. 134. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.021, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ORGANIZATION.] Each teachers retirement fund association shall be organized and governed pursuant to this chapter and chapter ~~317~~ 317A, except that ~~no association shall be required to amend its articles of incorporation or bylaws to conform with section 317.08, subdivision 2, clause (3), and that each association shall be deemed to be a nonprofit corporation without coming within the application of definition in section 317.02, subdivision 5 2, subdivision 7.~~ Any corporate action of any teachers retirement fund association taken prior to April 9, 1976 shall be deemed to be valid if it conformed with Minnesota Statutes 1976, chapter 317 or 354A, or Revised Laws 1905, chapter 58, as amended through April 9, 1976.

Sec. 135. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.144, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] Any county or combination of counties by resolution of the county board or boards may establish a rural development financing authority as a public nonprofit corporation. An authority has the powers and duties conferred and imposed on a private nonprofit corporation by chapter ~~317~~ 317A, except as otherwise or additionally provided herein. No such authority shall transact any business or exercise any powers until a certified copy of the resolutions of each participating county board has been submitted to the secretary of state and a certificate of incorporation issued pursuant to section ~~317.10~~ 21. Each resolution shall include all of the provisions required by section ~~317.08, subdivision 2 10,~~ subdivision 1. Alternatively, a county may determine by resolution of the county board to exercise the powers granted in this chapter to a rural development finance authority; no filing is required.

Sec. 136. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes shall change the phrase "chapter 317" to "chapter 317A" wherever it appears in Minnesota Statutes.

Sec. 137. [APPROPRIATION.]

(a) $ is appropriated from the general fund to the secretary of state to carry out the additional duties imposed by this act.

(b) $ is appropriated from the general fund to the attorney general to carry out the additional duties imposed by this act.

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

The report was adopted.

Osthoff from the Committee on Financial Institutions and Housing to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1548, A bill for an act relating to financial institutions; regulating charges and fees on loans and extensions of credit by financial institutions and others; making various internal reference changes; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 47.20, subdivision 2; 51A.02, subdivision 14; 51A.38, subdivision 3; 51A.385, subdivisions 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 12, and 13; 51A.50; 51A.51, subdivision 4; 51A.53; 51A.55, subdivisions 1 and 2; 51A.56; 51A.57; 56.131, subdivision 1; 168.72, subdivision 1; 168.73; and 507.45, subdivision 2; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 47.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.01, is amended to read:

51A.01 [CITATION.]

Sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 may be cited as the "savings association act."

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.02, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [CONDITIONAL SALE CONTRACT] "Conditional sale contract" or "credit sale contract" means a contract evidencing a credit sale on credit.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.38, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS.] Payments on real estate loans shall be applied first to other charges, ~~then to~~ and the payment of interest on the unpaid balance of the loan, in the manner determined by the association, and the remainder on the reduction of principal. All loans may be prepaid in part or in full, at any time. An association may charge a borrower a prepayment fee on any loan that is not a consumer loan. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, any prepayment of principal on any loan may, at the option of the association, be applied on the final installment of the note or other obligation until fully paid, and thereafter on the installments in the inverse order of their maturity, or, at the option of the association, the payments may be applied from time to time wholly or partially to offset payments which subsequently accrue under the loan contract.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.385, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL AUTHORITY.] Extensions of credit, and purchases of extensions of credit, authorized by sections 47.20, subdivision 1, 3, or 4a; 47.204; 47.21; 48.153; 48.185; 48.195; 59A.01 to 59A.15; 168.66 to 168.77; ~~or~~; 334.01, subdivision 2; ~~and~~ 334.011; ~~and~~ 334.012 may, but need not, be made pursuant to those sections in lieu of the authority set forth in subdivisions 1 to 3, and if so, are subject to the provisions of those sections, and not the provisions of this section, except this subdivision. An association may also charge an organization any rate of interest and any charges agreed to by the organization, and may calculate and collect finance and other charges in any manner agreed to by that organization. Except for extensions of credit the association elects to make under section 334.01, subdivision 2; ~~or~~ 334.011; ~~or~~ 334.012, the provisions of chapter 334 do not apply to extensions of credit made pursuant to this section or the sections mentioned in this subdivision.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.385, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL CHARGES.] (a) In addition to the finance charges permitted by this section, an association, or a person described in subdivision 2, to the extent not otherwise prohibited by law, may contract for and receive the following additional charges which may be included in the amount financed:

(1) official fees and taxes;

(2) charges for insurance as described in paragraph (b);

(3) with respect to a loan or credit sale contract secured by real estate, including a real estate loan, the following "closing costs," if they are bona fide, reasonable in amount, and not for the purpose of circumvention or evasion of this section:

(i) fees or premiums for title examination, abstract of title, title insurance, surveys, or similar purposes;

(ii) fees for preparation of a deed, mortgage, settlement statement, or other documents, if not paid to the association;

(iii) escrows for future payments of taxes, including assessments for improvements, insurance, and water, sewer, and land rents;

(iv) fees for notarizing deeds and other documents; and

(v) appraisal and credit report fees;

(4) a delinquency charge on any installment payment, including the minimum payment due in connection with the open-end credit, not paid in full on or before the tenth day after its due date in an amount not to exceed five percent of the amount of the installment payment;

(5) for any returned check or returned automatic payment withdrawal request, an amount not in excess of the service charge limitation in section 332.50; and

(6) charges for other benefits, including insurance, conferred on the borrower that are of a type that is not for credit.

(b) An additional charge may be made for insurance written in connection with the loan or credit sale contract, which may be included in the amount financed:

(1) with respect to insurance against loss of or damage to property, or against liability arising out of the ownership or use of property, if the association furnishes a clear, conspicuous, and specific statement in writing to the borrower setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the association and stating that the borrower may choose the person through whom the insurance is to be obtained;

(2) with respect to credit insurance providing life, accident, health, or unemployment coverage, if the insurance coverage is not required by the association, and this fact is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in writing to the borrower, and the borrower gives specific, dated, and separately signed affirmative written indication of the borrower's desire to do so after written disclosure to the borrower of the cost of the insurance; and

(3) with respect to vendor's single interest insurance, but only (i) to the extent that the insurer has no right of subrogation against the borrower, and (ii) to the extent that the insurance does not duplicate the coverage of other insurance under which loss is payable to the association as its interest may appear, against loss of or damage to property for which a separate charge is made to the borrower pursuant to paragraph (b), clause (1), and (iii) if a clear, conspicuous, and specific statement in writing is furnished by the association to the borrower setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the association and stating that the borrower may choose the person through whom the insurance is to be obtained.

(c) In addition to the finance charges and other additional charges permitted by this section, an association may contract for and receive the following additional charges in connection with open-end credit, which may be included in the amount financed or balance upon which the finance charge is computed:

(1) annual charges, not to exceed $50 per annum, payable in advance, for the privilege of opening and maintaining open-end credit;

(2) charges for the use of an automated teller machine;

(3) charges for any monthly or other periodic payment period in which the borrower has exceeded or, except for the association's dishonor would have exceeded, the maximum approved credit limit, in an amount not in excess of the service charge permitted in section 332.50;

(4) charges for obtaining a cash advance in an amount not to exceed the service charge permitted in section 332.50; and

(5) charges for check and draft copies and for the replacement of lost or stolen credit cards.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.385, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ADVANCES TO PERFORM COVENANTS OF BORROWER OR PURCHASER.] (a) If the agreement with respect to a loan or credit sale contract contains covenants by the borrower or purchaser to perform certain duties pertaining to insuring or preserving collateral and the association pursuant to the agreement pays for performance of the duties on behalf of the borrower or purchaser, the association may add to the debt or contract balance the amounts so advanced. Before or within a reasonable time after advancing any sums, the association shall state to the borrower or purchaser in writing the amount of sums advanced or to be advanced, any charges with respect to this amount, and any revised payment schedule and, if the duties of the borrower or purchaser performed by the association pertain to insurance, a brief description of the insurance paid for or to be paid for by the association including the type and amount of coverages. Further information need not be given.

(b) A finance charge equal to that specified in the loan agreement or credit sale contract may be made for sums advanced under paragraph (a).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.385, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ATTORNEY'S FEES.] With respect to a loan or credit sale, the agreement may provide for payment by the borrower of the attorney's fees and court costs incurred in connection with collection or foreclosure. This subdivision is not a limitation on attorney's fees that may be charged to an organization.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.385, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RIGHT TO PREPAY.] The borrower or purchaser may prepay in full the unpaid balance of a consumer loan or credit sale contract, at any time without penalty.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.385, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [CREDIT INSURANCE.] (a) The sale of credit insurance is subject to the provisions of chapter 62B and the rules adopted under that chapter, but the term of the insurance may exceed 60 months if the loan or credit sale contract exceeds 60 months and the insurance will nevertheless be subject to chapter 62B and the rules adopted under that chapter. In case there are multiple consumers obligated under a transaction subject to this chapter, no policy or certificate or insurance providing credit life insurance may be procured by or through an association or person described in subdivision 2 upon more than two of the consumers, in which case they may be insured jointly.

(b) An association which provides credit insurance in relation to open-end credit may calculate the charge to the borrower in each billing cycle by applying the current premium rate to the balance in the manner permitted with respect to finance charges by the provisions on finance charge in this section.

(c) Upon prepayment in full of a consumer loan or credit sale contract by the proceeds of credit insurance, the consumer or the consumer's estate is entitled to a refund of any portion of a separate charge for insurance which by reason of prepayment is retained by the association or returned to it by the insurer, unless the charge was computed from time to time on the basis of the balances of the consumer's loan or credit sale contract.

(d) This section does not require an association to grant a refund to the consumer if all refunds due to the consumer under paragraph (c) amount to less than $1 and, except as provided in paragraph (c), does not require the association to account to the consumer for any portion of a separate charge for insurance because:

(1) the insurance is terminated by performance of the insurer's obligation;

(2) the association pays or accounts for premiums to the insurer in amounts and at times determined by the agreement between them; or

(3) the association receives directly or indirectly under any policy of insurance a gain or advantage not prohibited by law.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (d), the association shall promptly make or cause to be made an appropriate refund to the consumer with respect to any separate charge made to the consumer for insurance if:

(1) the insurance is not provided or is provided for a shorter term than for which the charge to the borrower for insurance was computed; or

(2) the insurance terminates before the end of the term for which it was written because of prepayment in full or otherwise.

(f) If an association requires insurance, upon notice to the borrower, the borrower has the option of providing the required insurance through an existing policy of insurance owned or controlled by the borrower, or through a policy to be obtained and paid for by the borrower, but the association for reasonable cause may decline the insurance provided by the borrower.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.385, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CONSUMER PROTECTIONS.] (a) Associations shall comply with the requirements of the Federal Truth in Lending Act, United States Code, title 15, section 1601 to 1693, in connection with a consumer loan or credit sale for a consumer purpose where the federal Truth in Lending Act is applicable.

(b) Associations shall comply with the following consumer protection provisions in connection with a consumer loan or credit sale for a consumer purpose: sections 325G.02 to 325G.05; 325G.06 to 325G.11; 325G.15 to 325G.22; and 325G.29 to 325G.36, and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, part 535, where those statutes or regulations are applicable.

(c) An assignment of a consumer's earnings by the consumer to an association as payment or as security for payment of a debt arising out of a consumer loan or consumer credit sale is unenforceable by the association and revocable by the consumer.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.385, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [LOANS AND CONTRACTS OTHER THAN CONSUMER LOANS AND CONTRACTS.] Loans and credit sale contracts other than consumer loans and consumer credit sale contracts are not subject to the provisions and limitations of subdivisions 8, 9, 10, paragraph (b), and 11.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.385, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [EFFECT OF VIOLATIONS ON RIGHTS OF PARTIES.] (a) If an association has violated any provision of this section applying to collection of finance or other charges, the borrower or purchaser under a credit sale contract has a cause of action to recover damages and also a right in an action other than a class action, to recover from the association violating this section a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than $100 nor more than $1,000. With respect to violations arising from other than open-end credit transactions, no action may be brought pursuant to this paragraph and no set-off or recoupment may be asserted pursuant to this paragraph, more than one year after the making of the debt.

(b) A borrower or purchaser under a credit sale contract is not obligated to pay a charge in excess of that allowed by this section and has a right of refund of any excess charge paid. A refund may not be made by reducing the borrower's or purchaser's obligation by the amount of the excess charge, unless the association has notified the borrower or purchaser that the borrower or purchaser may request a refund and the borrower or purchaser has not so requested within 30 days thereafter. If the ~~debtor~~ borrower or purchaser has paid an amount in excess of the lawful obligation under the agreement, the borrower or purchaser may recover the excess amount from the association who made the excess charge or from an assignee of the association's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against borrowers or purchasers arising from the debt.

(c) If an association has contracted for or received a charge in excess of that allowed by this section, or if a borrower or purchaser under a credit sale contract is entitled to a refund and a person liable to the borrower or purchaser refuses to make a refund within a reasonable time after demand, the borrower or purchaser may recover from the association or the person liable in an action other than a class action a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than $100 nor more than $1,000. With respect to excess charges arising from other than open-end credit transactions, no action pursuant to this paragraph may be brought more than one year after the making of the debt. For purposes of this paragraph, a reasonable time is presumed to be 30 days.

(d) A violation of this section does not impair rights on a debt.

(e) An association is not liable for a penalty under paragraph (a) or (c) if it notifies the borrower or purchaser under a credit sale contract of a violation before the association receives from the borrower or purchaser written notice of the violation or the borrower or purchaser has brought an action under this section, and the association corrects the violation within 45 days after notifying the borrower or purchaser. If the violation consists of a prohibited agreement, giving the borrower or purchaser a corrected copy of the writing containing the violation is sufficient notification and correction. If the violation consists of an excess charge, correction must be made by an adjustment or refund.

(f) An association may not be held liable in an action brought under this section for a violation of this section if the association shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error.

(g) In an action in which it is found that an association has violated this section, the court shall award to the borrower or the purchaser under a credit sale contract the costs of the action and to the borrower's or purchaser's attorneys their reasonable fees.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.51, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SUPERVISION AND EXAMINATION FEE.] At the time of filing its annual report each association shall pay to the commissioner as a fee for supervision and examination an annual assessment as determined by the commissioner pursuant to the provisions of section 46.131. Such assessment shall be in lieu of all other license fees and charges of any kind whatsoever to any other state department or office, municipality, county, or other political subdivision; provided that the commissioner may assess against any such association the actual and necessary per diem expenses of and incidental to any additional examinations, or to supervision, or to any appraisal or special audit made pursuant to an order of the commissioner acting under authority of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.53, is amended to read:

51A.53 [POWERS OF FEDERAL ASSOCIATIONS; APPROVAL.]

Subject to the approval of the commissioner, any savings and loan association organized under sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 is vested with all powers conferred upon a federal association organized under the laws and regulations of the United States or its agencies, as amended, as fully and completely as if the powers were specifically enumerated and described herein, provided that the same are not specifically prohibited by state law.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.55, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~[ALL THRIFT AND HOME FINANCING ORGANIZATIONS, TO BE SUBJECT TO PROVISIONS OF SECTIONS 51A.01 TO 51A.57.]~~ All persons accepting moneys from the public and engaged in home financing, whether or not incorporated, and every corporation heretofore incorporated under the statutes of this state which has for its purpose the promotion of thrift and the financing of homes, except those regulated under other Minnesota Statutes or federal laws, by whatever name known, shall at the time sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 become effective be subject to the provisions of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 and shall be deemed to exist hereunder.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.55, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. ~~[ALL SUCH EXISTING CORPORATIONS HERETOFORE INCORPORATED CONFORMED TO PROVISIONS OF SECTIONS 51A.01 TO 51A.57.]~~ The name, rights, powers, privileges, and immunities of every such corporation heretofore incorporated in this state shall be governed, controlled, construed, extended, limited, and determined by the provisions of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 to the same extent and effect as if such corporation had been incorporated pursuant hereto, and the articles of association, certificate of incorporation, or charter, however entitled, bylaws and constitution, or other rules of every such corporation heretofore made or existing are hereby modified, altered, and amended to conform to the provisions of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58, with or without the issuance or approval by the commissioner of conformed copies of such documents, and the same are declared void to the extent that the same are inconsistent with the provisions of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58; except that the obligations of any such existing corporation, whether between such corporation and its members, or any of them, or any other person or persons, or any valid contract between the members of any such corporation, or between such corporation and any other person or persons, existing on July 1, 1969, shall not be in any way impaired by the provisions of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58, and, with such exceptions, every such corporation shall possess the rights, powers, privileges, and immunities and shall be subject to the duties, liabilities, disabilities, and restrictions conferred and imposed by sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in its certificate of incorporation, bylaws, constitution, or rules.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.56, is amended to read:

51A.56 [ACT CONTROLLING.]

Insofar as the provisions of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law affecting associations, the provisions of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 shall control.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 51A.57, is amended to read:

51A.57 [SEPARABILITY.]

If any provision, clause, or phrase of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of sections 51A.01 to ~~51A.57~~ 51A.58 are declared to be separable.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 56.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST RATES AND CHARGES.] (a) On any loan in a principal amount not exceeding $35,000 or ~~ten~~ 15 percent of a corporate licensee's contributed capital and appropriated reserves as defined in section 53.015, if greater, a licensee may contract for and receive interest, calculated according to the actuarial method, not exceeding the equivalent of the greater of any of the following:

(1) the total of: (i) 33 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount not exceeding $350; and (ii) 19 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount exceeding $350; or

(2) 21.75 percent per year on the unpaid balance of the principal amount.

(b) On any loan where interest has been calculated according to the method provided for in paragraph (a), clause (1), interest must be contracted for and earned as provided in that provision or at the single annual percentage rate computed to the nearest 1/100 of one percent that would earn the same total interest at maturity of the contract as would be earned by the application of the graduated rates provided in paragraph (a), clause (1), when the debt is paid according to the agreed terms and the calculations are made according to the actuarial method.

(c) Loans may be interest-bearing or precomputed.

(d) To compute time on interest-bearing and precomputed loans, including, but not limited to the calculation of interest, a day is considered 1/30 of a month when calculation is made for a fraction of a calendar month. A year is 12 calendar months. A calendar month is that period from a given date in one month to the same numbered date in the following month, and if there is no same numbered date, to the last day of the following month. When a period of time includes a whole month and a fraction of a month, the fraction of a month is considered to follow the whole month.

In the alternative, for interest-bearing loans, a licensee may charge interest at the rate of 1/365 of the agreed annual rate for each actual day elapsed.

(e) With respect to interest-bearing loans:

(1) Interest must be computed on unpaid principal balances outstanding from time to time, for the time outstanding. Each payment must be applied first to the accumulated interest and the remainder of the payment applied to the unpaid principal balance; provided however, that if the amount of the payment is insufficient to pay the accumulated interest, the unpaid interest continues to accumulate to be paid from the proceeds of subsequent payments and is not added to the principal balance.

(2) Interest must not be payable in advance or compounded. However, if part or all of the consideration for a new loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan, then the principal amount payable under the new loan contract may include any unpaid interest which has accrued. The unpaid principal balance of a precomputed loan is the balance due after refund or credit of unearned interest as provided in paragraph (f), clause (3). The resulting loan contract is deemed a new and separate loan transaction for all purposes.

(f) With respect to precomputed loans:

(1) Loans must be repayable in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and interest combined, except that the first installment period may be more or less than one month by not more than 15 days, and the first installment payment amount may be larger than the remaining payments by the amount of interest charged for the extra days and must be reduced by the amount of interest for the number of days less than one month to the first installment payment; and monthly installment payment dates may be omitted to accommodate borrowers with seasonal income.

(2) Payments may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed interest until the loan is fully paid. Payments must be applied in the order in which they become due.

(3) When any loan contract is paid in full by cash, renewal or refinancing, or a new loan, one month or more before the final installment due date, a licensee shall refund or credit the borrower with the total of the applicable charges for all fully unexpired installment periods, as originally scheduled or as deferred, which follow the day of prepayment; if the prepayment is made other than on a scheduled payment date, the nearest scheduled installment payment date must be used in the computation; provided further, if the prepayment occurs prior to the first installment due date, the licensee may retain 1/30 of the applicable charge for a first installment period of one month for each day from the date of the loan to the date of prepayment, and shall refund or credit the borrower with the balance of the total interest contracted for. If the maturity of the loan is accelerated for any reason and judgment is entered, the licensee shall credit the borrower with the same refund as if prepayment in full had been made on the date the judgment is entered.

(4) If an installment, other than the final installment, is not paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, a licensee may contract for and receive a default charge not exceeding five percent of the amount of the installment, but not less than $4.

A default charge under this subdivision may not be collected on an installment paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, or deferred installment due date with respect to deferred installments, even though a default or deferral charge on an earlier installment has not been paid in full. A default charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter.

(5) If the parties agree in writing, either in the loan contract or in a subsequent agreement, to a deferment of wholly unpaid installments, a licensee may grant a deferment and may collect a deferment charge as provided in this section. A deferment postpones the scheduled due date of the earliest unpaid installment and all subsequent installments as originally scheduled, or as previously deferred, for a period equal to the deferment period. The deferment period is that period during which no installment is scheduled to be paid by reason of the deferment. The deferment charge for a one-month period may not exceed the applicable charge for the installment period immediately following the due date of the last undeferred payment. A proportionate charge may be made for deferment for periods of more or less than one month. A deferment charge is earned pro rata during the deferment period and is fully earned on the last day of the deferment period. Should a loan be prepaid in full during a deferment period, the licensee shall make or credit to the borrower a refund of the unearned deferment charge in addition to any other refund or credit made for prepayment of the loan in full.

(6) If two or more installments are delinquent one full month or more on any due date, and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the unpaid balance by the refund credit which would be required for prepayment in full on the due date of the most recent maturing installment in default. Thereafter, and in lieu of any other default or deferment charges, the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision may be charged on the unpaid balance until fully paid.

(7) Following the final installment as originally scheduled or deferred, the licensee, for any loan contract which has not previously been converted to interest-bearing under paragraph (f), clause (6), may charge interest on any balance remaining unpaid, including unpaid default or deferment charges, at the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision until fully paid.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 168.72, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) The finance charge authorized by sections 168.66 to 168.77 in a retail installment sale may not exceed the following simple interest annual percentage rates:

Class 1. Any motor vehicle designated by the manufacturer by a year model of the same or not more than one year prior to the year in which the sale is made - 18 percent per year.

Class 2. Any motor vehicle designated by the manufacturer by a year model of two or three years prior to the year in which the sale is made - 19.75 percent per year.

Class 3. Any motor vehicle not in Class 1 or Class 2 - 23.25 percent per year.

(b) The finance charge must be computed on the principal balance outstanding from time to time as originally determined under section 168.71, clause (b). The beginning principal balance must be as originally determined under section 168.71.

Retail installment contracts may be interest-bearing or precomputed, and fixed-rate or variable rate. For precomputed retail installment contracts, the finance charge may be calculated in advance on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due and the effect of prepayment in full is governed by section 168.73. To compute time for the purpose of calculating interest under this section and section 168.73, a day may be considered 1/30 of a month when calculation is made for a fraction of a calendar month. A year is 12 calendar months. A calendar month is that period from a given date in one month to the same numbered date in the following month, and if there is no same-numbered date, to the last day of the following month. When a period of time includes a whole month and a fraction of a month, the fraction of a month is considered to follow the whole month. In the alternative, for interest-bearing retail installment contracts, a retail seller may charge finance charges not to exceed 1/365th of the simple interest annual percentage rate permitted in this section for each actual day elapsed from the date of the retail installment contract through and including the date of payment in full.

(c) The finance charge is inclusive of all charges incident to investigating and making the contract, and for the extension of the credit provided for in the contract and no fee, commission, expense or other charge whatsoever may be taken, received, reserved, or contracted for except taxes, fees, and charges that actually are or will be paid to public officials or government agencies for determining the existence of or for perfecting, releasing, or satisfying a security interest, and except as provided in sections 168.66 to 168.77.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 168.73, is amended to read:

168.73 [PREPAYMENT IN FULL, REFUND CREDITS, ALLOWANCE.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of any retail installment contract to the contrary, any retail buyer may pay in full at any time before maturity the debt of any retail installment contract without penalty. In paying a precomputed retail installment contract in full, the retail buyer shall receive a refund credit thereon for such anticipation of payments. For contracts with substantially equal scheduled monthly payments remaining after the date of prepayment in full, the refund must be calculated for all fully unexpired monthly payment periods following the date of payment in full. For all other contracts, the refund must be calculated as of the date in the month following prepayment which corresponds to the original contract date. The refund shall be calculated according to the actuarial method, less an acquisition cost of $15 after the date prepayment is made which may be deducted from the refund so calculated.

Where the amount of the credit for anticipation of payment is less than $1, no refund need be made.

The actuarial method means the method of allocating payments on a contract between the principal amount and finance charge at the contract rate charged under section 168.72, whereby a payment is applied first to the accumulated finance charge and then to the unpaid principal balance based on the original terms of the contract and based on the assumption that all payments are made on the due date as originally scheduled or deferred.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 507.45, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. No charge for closing services, except a charge required to be disclosed by under Regulation Z, Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, section 226, or for which an estimate has been given pursuant to the Federal Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, may be made by a closing agent unless the party to be charged is informed of the charge in writing at least five business days before the closing by or on behalf of the party charging for the closing services."

"ARTICLE 1
CORPORATE TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 60A.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN COMPANIES.] (a) On or before April 15, June 15, and December 15 of each year, every domestic and foreign company, including town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and domestic mutual insurance companies, shall pay to the commissioner of revenue installments equal to one-third of the insurer's total estimated tax for the current year. For insurers other than town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and mutual property and casualty insurance companies other than those (i) principally writing workers' compensation insurance, (ii) writing life insurance, or (iii) (ii) whose total assets at the end of the preceding calendar year exceed $1,600,000,000, installments must be based on a sum equal to two percent of the premiums described in paragraph (b). For town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and mutual property and casualty insurance companies other than those (i) principally writing workers' compensation insurance, (ii) writing life insurance, or (iii) (ii) whose total assets at the end of the preceding calendar year exceed $1,600,000,000, the installments must be based on an amount equal to the following percentages of the premiums described in paragraph (b):

(1) for premiums paid after December 31, 1987, and before January 1, 1989, 1.5 percent;

(2) for premiums paid after December 31, 1988, and before January 1, 1992, one percent; and

(3) (2) for premiums paid after December 31, 1991, one-half of one percent.

(b) Installments under paragraph (a) are percentages of gross premiums less return premiums on all direct business received by the insurer in this state, or by its agents for it, in cash or otherwise, during such year, excepting premiums written for marine insurance as specified in subdivision 6.

(c) Failure of a company to make payments of at least one-third of either (1) the total tax paid during the previous calendar year or (2) 80 percent of the actual tax for the current calendar year shall subject the company to the penalty and interest provided in this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.015, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) A person is not subject to tax under this chapter if the person is engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property and taxation of that person under this chapter is precluded by Public Law Number 86-272, United States Code, title 15, sections 381 to 384 or would be so precluded except for the fact that the person stored tangible personal property in a state licensed facility under chapter 231.

(b) Ownership of an interest in the following types of property (including those contacts with this state reasonably required to evaluate and complete the acquisition or disposition of the property, the servicing of the property or the income from it, the collection of income from the property, or the acquisition or liquidation of collateral relating to the property) shall not be a factor in determining whether the owner is subject to tax under this chapter:

(1) an interest in a real estate mortgage investment conduit, a real estate investment trust, or a regulated investment company or a fund of a regulated investment company, as those terms are defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987;

(2) an interest in money market instruments or securities as defined in section 290.191, subdivision 6, paragraphs (c) and (d);

(3) an interest in a loan-backed, mortgage-backed, or receivable-backed security representing either: (i) ownership in a pool of promissory notes, mortgages, or receivables or certificates of interest or participation in such notes, mortgages, or receivables, or (ii) debt obligations or equity interests which provide for payments in relation to payments or reasonable projections of payments on the notes, mortgages, or receivables; and which are issued by a financial institution or by an entity substantially all of whose assets consist of promissory notes, mortgages, receivables, or interests in them;

(3) (4) an interest acquired from a person in any assets described in section 290.191, subdivision 11, paragraphs (e) to (l), and in which the payment obligations embodied in such assets were solicited and entered into by persons independent and not acting on behalf of the owner subject to the provisions of clause (c)(2)(A);

(4) (5) an interest acquired from a person in the right to service, or collect income from any assets described in section 290.191, subdivision 11, paragraphs (e) to (l), and in which the payment obligations embodied in such assets were solicited and entered into by persons independent and not acting on behalf of the owner subject to the provisions of clause (c)(2)(A);

(6) an interest acquired from a person in a funded or unfunded agreement to extend or guarantee credit whether conditional, mandatory, temporary, standby, secured or otherwise, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(2)(A);

(5) (7) an interest of a person other than an individual, estate, or trust, in any intangible, tangible, real, or personal property acquired in satisfaction, whether in whole or in part, of any asset embodying a payment obligation which is in default, whether secured or unsecured, the ownership of an interest in which would be exempt under the preceding provisions of this subdivision, provided the property is disposed of within a reasonable period of time; or

(6) (8) amounts held in escrow or trust accounts, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of property described in this subdivision.

If the person is a member of the unitary group, paragraph (b) does not apply to an interest acquired from another member of the unitary group.

(c)(1) For purposes of paragraph (b), clauses (4) to (6), an interest in the type of assets or credit agreements described is deemed to exist at the time the owner becomes legally obligated (conditionally or unconditionally) to fund, acquire, renew, extend, amend, or otherwise enter into the credit arrangement.

(2)(A) An owner has acquired an interest from a person in paragraph (b), clauses (4) to (6) assets if:

(i) the owner, at the time of the acquisition of the asset, does not own, directly or indirectly, 15 percent or more of the outstanding stock or, in the case of a partnership, 15 percent or more of the capital or profit interests of the person from whom it acquired the asset;

(ii) the person from whom the owner acquired the asset regularly sells, assigns, or transfers interests in paragraph (b), clauses (4) to (6) assets during the 12 calendar months immediately preceding the month of acquisition to three or more persons; and

(iii) the person from whom the owner acquired the asset does not sell, assign, or transfer 75 percent or more of its paragraph (b), clauses (4) to (6) assets during the 12 calendar months immediately preceding the month of acquisition to the owner.

For purposes of determining indirect ownership under clause (i), the owner is deemed to own all stock, capital, or profit interests owned by another person if the owner directly owns 15 percent or more of the stock, capital, or profit interests in the other person. The owner is also deemed to own, through any intermediary parties, all stock, capital, and profit interests directly owned by a person to the extent there exists a 15 percent or more chain of ownership of stock, capital, or profit interests between the owner, intermediary parties, and the person.

(B) If the owner of the asset is a member of the unitary group, paragraph (b), clauses (4) to (8), do not apply to an interest acquired from another member of the unitary group. If the interest in the asset was originally acquired from a nonunitary member and at that time qualified as a section 290.015, subdivision (3), paragraph (b) asset, the foregoing limitation does not apply.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.015, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) This section does not subject a trade or business to any regulation, including any tax, of any local unit of government or subdivision of this state if the trade or business does not own or lease tangible or real property located within this state and has no employees or independent contractors present in this state to assist in the carrying on of the business.

(b) The purchase of tangible personal property or intangible property or services by a person that conducts a trade or business with the principal place of business outside of Minnesota (the "non-Minnesota person") from a person within Minnesota shall not be taken into account in determining whether the non-Minnesota person is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter, except for services involving either the direct solicitation of Minnesota customers or relationships with Minnesota customers after sales are made. This paragraph is subject to the limitations contained in subdivision 3, paragraph (b), clauses (4) to (6).

(c) No contact with any Minnesota financial institution by any financial institution with its principal place of business outside Minnesota with respect to transactions described in subdivision 3, or with respect to deposits received from or by a Minnesota financial institution, shall be taken into account in determining whether such a financial institution is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter. The fact of participation by a Minnesota financial institution in a transaction which also involves a borrower and a financial institution that conducts a trade or business with its principal place of business outside of Minnesota shall not be a factor in determining whether such financial institution is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter. This paragraph does not apply to transactions between or among members of the same unitary group.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.05, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. (a) An organization exempt from taxation under subdivision 2 shall, nevertheless, be subject to tax under this chapter to the extent provided in the following provisions of the Internal Revenue Code:

(i) Section 527 (dealing with political organizations) ~~and~~;

(ii) section 528 (dealing with certain homeowners associations); and

(iii) Sections 511 to 515 (dealing with unrelated business income);

but notwithstanding this subdivision, shall be considered an organization exempt from income tax for the purposes of any law which refers to organizations exempt from income taxes.

(b) The tax shall be imposed on the taxable income of political organizations or homeowner associations or the unrelated business taxable income, as defined in section 512 of the Internal Revenue

Code, of organizations defined in section 511 of the Internal Revenue Code. The tax shall be at the corporate rates. The tax shall only be imposed on income and deductions assignable to this state under sections 290.17 to 290.20. To the extent deducted in computing federal taxable income, the deductions contained in sections 290.09 and section 290.21 shall not be allowed in computing Minnesota taxable net income.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION, CORPORATIONS.] (a) The franchise tax imposed by this chapter upon corporations shall be computed by applying to their taxable income the rate of 9.5 percent adjusted as provided in paragraph (b) or (c).

(b) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989, the commissioner of revenue must adjust the rate provided in paragraph (a) as provided in this paragraph. By December 15, 1989 May 31, 1990, the commissioner shall prepare a forecast of revenues predicted to be raised for taxable years beginning in 1990 by the franchise tax on corporations under this chapter for taxable years beginning in 1990, including the tax under section 290.092, computed as if the tax were imposed under section 290.092, subdivisions 1 to 4, and the rate in effect in this subdivision were 9.5 percent. The commissioner shall adjust the rate provided in paragraph (a) so that the amount forecast to be raised by the franchise tax on corporations under this chapter, including the tax under section 290.092, subdivision 5, is equal to the amount of the forecast computed as if the tax under section 290.092, subdivisions 1 to 4, were in effect. The adjustment of the tax rate by the commissioner under this subdivision shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedure act contained in chapter 14.

(c) If the rate as adjusted under paragraph (b) is held invalid, the rate in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989, is 10.6 percent.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.06, subdivision 21, is amended to read:

Subd. 21. [ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX; FACTORS TAX.] (a) A corporation is allowed a credit for alternative minimum tax previously paid for any taxable year in which the corporation has no tax liability under section 290.092, subdivision 1, and has an alternative minimum tax credit carryover from a previous year. The credit allowable in any taxable year shall be equal to equals the lesser of (1) the excess of the tax under this section for the taxable year over the amount computed under section 290.092, subdivision 1, clause (1), for the taxable year, or (2) the alternative minimum tax credit carryover to the taxable year.

(b) The tax imposed under section 290.092, subdivision 1, for any taxable year is an alternative minimum tax credit carryover to each of the five taxable years succeeding the taxable year. The entire amount of the alternative minimum tax credit must be carried to the earliest taxable year to which such the amount may be carried. Any The unused portion of the credit must be carried to the following taxable year. No credit may be carried to a taxable year more than five years after the taxable year in which the alternative minimum tax under section 290.092, subdivision 1, was paid.

(c) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989, qualification for a credit and computation of the amount of the credit for alternative minimum tax under paragraph (a) must be determined by computing the alternative minimum tax that would apply if section 290.092 were in effect for the taxable year.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [ALLOCATION AND APPORTIONMENT OF CERTAIN FARM INCOME BY C CORPORATIONS.] (a) Notwithstanding any other subdivision, income to a taxpayer from the operation of a farm by a C corporation is assigned to this state and other states and countries under subdivision 3, the unitary business principle in subdivision 4, and the allocation provisions of sections 290.191 and 290.20 if:

(1) the farm operation provides material value added to an agricultural product by processing, packaging, grading, promotion, or distribution;

(2) the farm operation is classified by the United States Department of Commerce Standard Industrial Classification as industrial, manufacturing, or distribution;

(3) a material part of the income is attributable directly or indirectly to testing, research, genetic, or biological selection, genetic engineering, or creation or licensing of patents, copyrights, trademarks, or other intellectual property; or

(4) a material part of the income is derived from an activity that would not in itself be income from farming if performed by another person not otherwise engaged in farming.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.21, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) Eighty percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, in which the recipient owns 20 percent or more of the stock, by vote and value, not including stock described in section 1504(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom.

The remaining 20 percent of dividends if the dividends received are the stock in an affiliated company transferred in an overall plan of reorganization and the dividend is eliminated in consolidation under Treasury Department Regulation 1.1502-14(a), as amended through December 31, 1988.

(b) Seventy percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation in which the recipient owns less than 20 percent of the stock, by vote or value, not including stock described in section 1504(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended through December 31, 1987, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of income and gain therefrom.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision does not apply to a dividend from a corporation which, for the taxable year of the corporation in which the distribution is made or for the next preceding taxable year of the corporation, is a corporation exempt from tax under section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision applies to the amount of regulated investment company dividends only to the extent determined under section 854(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed with respect to any dividend for which a deduction is not allowed under the provisions of section 246(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

(d) If dividends received by a corporation that does not have nexus with Minnesota under the provisions of Public Law Number 86-272 are included as income on the return of an affiliated corporation permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, then for purposes of this subdivision the determination as to whether the trade or business of the corporation consists principally of the holding of stocks and the collection of income and gains therefrom shall be made with reference to the trade or business of the affiliated corporation having a nexus with Minnesota.

(e) The deduction provided by this subdivision does not apply if the dividends are paid by a FSC as defined in section 922 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

(f) If one or more of the members of the unitary group whose income is included on the combined report received a dividend, the deduction under this subdivision for each member of the unitary business required to file a return under this chapter is the product of: (1) 100 percent of the dividends received by members of the group; (2) ~~80 percent or 70 percent~~, the percentage allowed pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b); and (3) the percentage of the taxpayer's business income apportionable to this state for the taxable year under section 290.191 or 290.20.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.37, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS MAKING RETURNS.] (a) A taxpayer shall file a return for each taxable year the taxpayer is required to file a return under section 6012 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, except that an individual who is not a Minnesota resident for any part of the year is not required to file a Minnesota income tax return if the individual's gross income derived from Minnesota sources under sections 290.081, paragraph (a), and 290.17, is less than the filing requirements for a single individual who is a full year resident of Minnesota.

The decedent's final income tax return, and all other income tax returns for prior years where the decedent had gross income in excess of the minimum amount at which an individual is required to file and did not file, shall be filed by the decedent's personal representative, if any. If there is no personal representative, the return or returns shall be filed by the transferees as defined in section 290.29, subdivision 3, who receive any property of the decedent.

The trustee or other fiduciary of property held in trust shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such trust if that exceeds an amount determined by the commissioner if such trust belongs to the class of taxable persons.

Every corporation shall file a return, if the corporation is subject to the state's jurisdiction to tax under section 290.014, subdivision 5, except that a foreign operating corporation as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 6b, is not required to file a return. The return in the case of a corporation must be signed by a person designated by the corporation. The commissioner may adopt rules for the filing of one return on behalf of the members of an affiliated group of corporations that are required to file a combined report if the affiliated group includes a bank subject to tax under this chapter. Members of an affiliated group that elect to file one return on behalf of the members of the group under rules adopted by the commissioner may modify or rescind the election by filing the form required by the commissioner.

The receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees operating the business or property of a taxpayer shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such taxpayer if a return is required.

(b) Such return shall (1) contain a written declaration that it is correct and complete, and (2) shall contain language prescribed by the commissioner providing a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid.

(c) An exempt organization that is subject to tax on unrelated business income under section 290.05, subdivision 3, must file a return for each taxable year in which the organization is required to file a return under section 6012 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988, because of the receipt of unrelated business income. If an organization is required to file a return under federal law but has no federal tax liability for the taxable year, the commissioner may provide that the filing requirement under this paragraph is satisfied by filing a copy of the taxpayer's federal return.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.934, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [REQUIRED INSTALLMENTS.] (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the amount of a required installment is 25 percent of the required annual payment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the term "required annual payment" means the lesser of:

(a) 90 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year, or if no return is filed 90 percent of the tax for such year; or

(b) 100 percent of the tax shown on the return of the corporation for the preceding taxable year providing such return was for a full

12-month period, did show a liability, and was filed by the corporation.

(3) Except for determining the first required installment for any taxable year, paragraph (2), clause (b), does not apply in the case of a large corporation. The term "large corporation" means a corporation or any predecessor corporation that had taxable net income of $1,000,000 or more for any taxable year during the testing period. The term "testing period" means the three taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year involved. A reduction allowed to a large corporation for the first installment that is allowed by applying paragraph (2), clause (b), must be recaptured by increasing the next required installment by the amount of the reduction.

(4) In the case of a required installment, if the corporation establishes that the annualized income installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (1), the amount of the required installment is the annualized income installment and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing subsequent required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered. A reduction shall be treated as recaptured for purposes of this paragraph if 90 percent of the reduction is recaptured.

(5) The "annualized income installment" is the excess, if any, of:

(a) an amount equal to the applicable percentage of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) for the first two months of the taxable year, in the case of the first required installment;

(ii) for the first two months or for the first five months of the taxable year, in the case of the second required installment;

(iii) for the first six months or for the first eight months of the taxable year, in the case of the third required installment; and

(iv) for the first nine months or for the first 11 months of the taxable year, in the case of the fourth required installment, over;

(b) the aggregate amount of any prior required installments for the taxable year.

(c) For the purpose of this paragraph, the annualized income shall be computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income for the year up to the end of the month preceding the due date for the quarterly payment multiplied by 12 and dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (2, 5, 6, 8, 9, or 11 as the case may be) referred to in clause (a).

(d) The "applicable percentage" used in clause (a) is:

In the case of the following required installments:	The applicable percentage is:
1st	22.5
2nd	45
3rd	67.5
4th	90

(6)(a) If this paragraph applies, the amount determined for any installment must be determined in the following manner:

(i) take the taxable income for all months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(ii) divide that amount by the base period percentage for all months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(iii) determine the tax on the amount determined under item (ii); and

(iv) multiply the tax computed under item (iii) by the base period percentage for the filing month and all months during the taxable year preceding the filing month.

(b) For purposes of this paragraph:

(i) the "base period percentage" for any period of months is the average percent which the taxable income for the corresponding months in each of the three preceding taxable years bears to the taxable income for the three preceding taxable years;

(ii) the term "filing month" means the month in which the installment is required to be paid;

(iii) this paragraph shall only apply if the base period percentage for any six consecutive months of the taxable year equals or exceeds 70 percent; and

(iv) the commissioner may provide by rule for the determination of the base period percentage in the case of reorganizations, new corporations, and other similar circumstances.

(c) In the case of a required installment, determined under this paragraph, if the corporation determines that the installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (1), the amount of the required installment is the amount determined under this paragraph and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing subsequent required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered. A reduction shall be treated as recaptured for purposes of this paragraph if 90 percent of the reduction is recaptured.

Sec. 11. [REPEALER.]

Laws 1989, chapter 27, article 2, sections 2 and 3 are repealed.

Sec. 12. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for premiums paid after December 31, 1988. Sections 2, 3, 4, 8, and 9 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1988. Sections 5 and 6 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989. Section 7 is effective for taxable years ending after December 31, 1990; and, for corporations that filed returns apportioning farm income, also for tax years ending in 1984, 1985, 1986, and 1987. Section 10 is effective for payments due after May 31, 1989.

ARTICLE 2

SALES TAX

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. A "sale" and a "purchase" includes, but is not limited to, each of the following transactions:

(a) Any transfer of title or possession, or both, of tangible personal property, whether absolutely or conditionally, and the leasing of or the granting of a license to use or consume tangible personal property other than manufactured homes used for residential purposes for a continuous period of 30 days or more, for a consideration in money or by exchange or barter;

(b) The production, fabrication, printing or processing of tangible personal property for a consideration for consumers who furnish either directly or indirectly the materials used in the production, fabrication, printing, or processing;

(c) The furnishing, preparing, or serving for a consideration of food, meals or drinks, not including meals or drinks served to patients, inmates, or persons residing at hospitals, sanitariums, nursing homes, senior citizens homes, and correctional, detention, and detoxification facilities, meals or drinks purchased for and served exclusively to individuals who are 60 years of age or over and their spouses or to the handicapped and their spouses by governmental agencies, nonprofit organizations, agencies, or churches or pursuant to any program funded in whole or part through 42 USCA sections 3001 through 3045, wherever delivered, prepared or served, meals and lunches served at public and private schools, universities or colleges. "Sales" also includes meals furnished by employers to employees at less than fair market value, except meals furnished at no charge to employees of restaurants, resorts, and hotels, and except meals furnished to employees of hospitals, nursing homes, boarding care homes, sanitariums, group homes, and correctional, detention, and detoxification facilities, who are required to eat with the patients, residents, or inmates residing in them. Notwithstanding section 297A.25, subdivision 2, taxable food or meals include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (i) heated food or drinks;
 - (ii) sandwiches prepared by the retailer;
 - (iii) single sales of prepackaged ice cream or ice milk novelties prepared by the retailer;
 - (iv) hand-prepared or dispensed ice cream or ice milk products including cones, sundaes, and snow cones;
 - (v) soft drinks and other beverages prepared or served by the retailer;
 - (vi) gum;
 - (vii) ice;
 - (viii) all food sold in vending machines;
 - (ix) party trays prepared by the retailers; and
 - (x) all meals and single servings of packaged snack food, single cans or bottles of pop, sold in restaurants and bars;
- (d) The granting of the privilege of admission to places of amusement, recreational areas, or athletic events and the privilege of having access to and the use of amusement devices, tanning facilities, reducing salons, steam baths, turkish baths, massage parlors, health clubs, and spas or athletic facilities;
- (e) The furnishing for a consideration of lodging and related services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel or trailer camp and of the granting of any similar license to use real property other than the renting or leasing thereof for a continuous period of 30 days or more;

(f) The furnishing for a consideration of electricity, gas, water, or steam for use or consumption within this state, or local exchange telephone service, intrastate toll service, and interstate toll service, if that service originates from and is charged to a telephone located in this state; the tax imposed on amounts paid for telephone services is the liability of and shall be paid by the person paying for the services. Sales by municipal corporations in a proprietary capacity are included in the provisions of this clause. The furnishing of water and sewer services for residential use shall not be considered a sale;

(g) The furnishing for a consideration of cable television services, including charges for basic monthly service, charges for monthly premium service, and charges for any other similar television services;

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision 4, and section 297A.25, subdivision 9, the sales of horses including claiming sales and fees paid for breeding a stallion to a mare. This clause applies to sales and fees with respect to a horse to be used for racing whose birth has been recorded by the Jockey Club or the United States Trotting Association or the American Quarter Horse Association;

(i) The furnishing for a consideration of parking services, whether on a contractual, hourly, or other periodic basis, except for parking at a meter;

(j) The furnishing for a consideration of services listed in this paragraph:

(i) laundry and dry cleaning services including cleaning, pressing, repairing, altering, and storing clothes, linen services and supply, cleaning and blocking hats, and carpet, drapery, upholstery, and industrial cleaning. Laundry and dry cleaning services do not include services provided by coin operated facilities operated by the customer;

(ii) motor vehicle washing, waxing, and cleaning services, including services provided by coin-operated facilities operated by the customer, and rustproofing, undercoating, and towing of motor vehicles;

(iii) building and residential cleaning, maintenance, and disinfecting and exterminating services;

(iv) services provided by detective agencies, security services, burglar, fire alarm, and armored car services not including services performed within the jurisdiction they serve by off-duty licensed peace officers as defined in section 626.84, subdivision 1;

(v) pet grooming services; and

(vi) lawn care, fertilizing, mowing, spraying and sprigging services; garden planting and maintenance; arborist services; tree, bush, and shrub planting, pruning, bracing, spraying, and surgery; and tree trimming for public utility lines.

The services listed in this paragraph are taxable under section 297A.02 if the service is performed wholly within Minnesota or if the service is performed partly within and partly without Minnesota and the greater proportion of the service is performed in Minnesota, based on the cost of performance. In applying the provisions of this chapter, the terms "tangible personal property" and "sales at retail" include taxable services and the provision of taxable services, unless specifically provided otherwise. Services performed by an employee for an employer are not taxable under this paragraph. Services performed by a partnership or association for another partnership or association are not taxable under this paragraph if one of the entities owns or controls more than 80 percent of the voting power of the equity interest in the other entity. Services performed between members of an affiliated group of corporations are not taxable. For purposes of this section, "affiliated group of corporations" includes those entities that would be classified as a member of an affiliated group under United States Code, title 26, section 1504, and who are eligible to file a consolidated tax return for federal income tax purposes;

(k) A "sale" and a "purchase" includes the transfer of computer software, meaning information and directions that dictate the function performed by data processing equipment. A "sale" and a "purchase" does not include the design, development, writing, translation, fabrication, lease, or transfer for a consideration of title or possession of a custom computer program; and

(l) The granting of membership in a club, association, or other organization if:

(1) the club, association, or other organization makes available for the use of its members sports and athletic facilities (without regard to whether a separate charge is assessed for use of the facilities); and

(2) use of the sports and athletic facilities is not made available to the general public on the same basis as it is made available to members.

Granting of membership includes both one-time initiation fees and periodic membership dues. Sports and athletic facilities include golf courses, tennis, racquetball, handball and squash courts, basketball and volleyball facilities, running tracks, exercise equipment, swimming pools, and other similar athletic or sports facilities. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to camps or other recreation facilities owned and operated by an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, for educational and social activities for young people primarily age 18 and under.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.15, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [REFUND; APPROPRIATION.] The tax on the gross receipts from the sale of items exempt under section 297A.25 subdivision 42, must be imposed and collected as if the sale were taxable and the rate under section 297A.02, subdivision 1, applied.

Upon application by the owner of the homestead property on forms prescribed by the commissioner, a refund equal to the tax paid on the gross receipts of the building materials and equipment must be paid to the homeowner. In the case of building materials in which the tax was paid by a contractor, application must be made by the homeowner for the sales tax paid by the contractor. The application must include sufficient information to permit the commissioner to verify the sales tax paid for the project. The contractor must furnish to the homeowner a statement of the cost of building materials and the sales taxes paid on the materials. The amount required to make the refunds is annually appropriated to the commissioner. Interest must be paid on the refund at the rate in section 270.76 from 60 days after the date the refund claim is filed with the commissioner.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.25, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MEDICINES; MEDICAL DEVICES.] The gross receipts from the sale of prescribed drugs, prescribed medicine and insulin, intended for use, internal or external, in the cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of illness or disease in human beings are exempt, together with prescription glasses, therapeutic, and prosthetic devices. "Prescribed drugs" or "prescribed medicine" includes over-the-counter drugs or medicine prescribed by a licensed physician. "Therapeutic devices" includes reusable finger pricking devices for the extraction of blood and blood glucose monitoring machines used in the treatment of diabetes. Nonprescription analgesics consisting principally (determined by the weight of all ingredients) of acetaminophen, acetylsalicylic acid, ibuprofen, or a combination thereof are exempt.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 42. [CHAIR LIFTS, RAMPS, ELEVATORS.] The gross receipts from the sale of chair lifts, ramps, and elevators and building materials used to install or construct them are exempt, if they are authorized by a physician and installed in or attached to the owner's homestead.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 43. [PUBLIC LIBRARIES.] Gross receipts from the sale or use of library materials, equipment, services, or facilities by a public library operating under chapter 134 are exempt.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.257, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [CONTINUED EXEMPTION.] The exemptions provided under subdivisions 2 and 2a apply to capital equipment and construction materials and supplies purchased by a person, partnership, or corporation in connection with the expansion of a major manufacturing facility in any county that was designated as a distressed county under subdivision 1 for any year from 1985 through 1989. For the purposes of this subdivision, "expansion of a major manufacturing facility" means an expansion of an existing manufacturing facility requiring at least $100,000,000 of capital investment over a three-year period. To qualify for the exemption under this subdivision, contracts for purchase of the capital equipment and the construction materials and supplies must be executed by June 30, 1992.

Sec. 7. [297A.259] [LOTTERY TICKETS; IN LIEU TAX.]

Sales of state lottery tickets are exempt from the tax imposed under section 297A.02. The state agency responsible for operating a state lottery must on or before the 20th day of each month transmit to the commissioner of revenue an amount equal to the gross receipts from the sale of lottery tickets for the previous month multiplied by the tax rate under section 297A.02, subdivision 1. The resulting payment is in lieu of the sales tax that otherwise would be imposed by this chapter. The commissioner shall deposit the moneys transmitted in the general fund as provided by section 297A.44 and the moneys must be treated as other proceeds of the sales tax. Gross receipts for purposes of this section mean the proceeds of the sale of tickets before deduction of a commission or other compensation paid to the vendor or retailer for selling tickets.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297B.03, is amended to read:

297B.03 [EXEMPTIONS.]

There is specifically exempted from the provisions of this chapter and from computation of the amount of tax imposed by it the following:

(1) Purchase or use, including use under a lease purchase agreement or installment sales contract made pursuant to section 465.71, of any motor vehicle by the United States and its agencies and instrumentalities and by any person described in and subject to the conditions provided in section 297A.25, subdivision 18.

(2) Purchase or use of any motor vehicle by any person who was a resident of another state at the time of the purchase and who subsequently becomes a resident of Minnesota, provided the purchase occurred more than 60 days prior to the date such person began residing in the state of Minnesota.

(3) Purchase or use of any motor vehicle by any person making a valid election to be taxed under the provisions of section 297A.211.

(4) Purchase or use of any motor vehicle previously registered in the state of Minnesota by any corporation or partnership when such transfer constitutes a transfer within the meaning of section 351 or 721 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1974.

(5) Purchase or use of any vehicle owned by a resident of another state and leased to a Minnesota based private or for hire carrier for regular use in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce provided the vehicle is titled in the state of the owner or secured party, and that state does not impose a sales or motor vehicle excise tax on motor vehicles used in interstate commerce.

(6) Purchase or use of a motor vehicle by a private nonprofit or public educational institution for use as an instructional aid in automotive training programs operated by the institution.

(7) Purchase or use of a motor vehicle by a public library operating under chapter 134 for use as a bookmobile.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 2 and 4 are effective for sales tax paid after June 30, 1989. Sections 1, 3, 5, and 6 are effective for sales made after June 30, 1989. Section 8 is effective for the purchase or use of motor vehicles as bookmobiles after June 30, 1989.

ARTICLE 3
SPECIAL TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.01, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. "Stamp" means the adhesive stamp supplied by the revenue commissioner or the imprint made by a tax meter machine authorized by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. "Licensing period" means a two-year period during which licenses are issued. A licensing period begins on January 1 of each even-numbered year and ends on December 31 of the following odd-numbered year.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TAX METER MACHINES; STAMPING MACHINES.]
(a) Before January July 1, 1990, the commissioner may authorize any person licensed as a distributor to stamp packages with a tax meter machine, approved by the commissioner, which shall be provided by the distributor. The commissioner may provide for the use of such a machine by the distributor, supervise and check its operation, provide for the payment of the tax on any package so stamped, subject to the discount provided in subdivision 5. ~~Except as provided in paragraph (d), the commissioner may require the furnishing of a corporate surety bond, check guarantee bond, or certified check in a suitable amount to guarantee the payment of the tax.~~

(b) ~~Before January 1, 1990, the commissioner may authorize, and After December 31, 1989~~ June 30, 1990, the commissioner shall require any person licensed as a distributor whose stamp meter machine is no longer operational to stamp packages with a heat-applied tax stamping machine, approved by the commissioner, which shall be provided by the distributor. The commissioner shall supervise and check the operation of the machines and shall provide for the payment of the tax on any package so stamped, subject to the discount provided in subdivision 5. The commissioner may sell heat-applied stamps on a credit basis under conditions prescribed by the commissioner. ~~Except as provided in paragraph (d), the commissioner may require the furnishing of a corporate surety bond, check guarantee bond, or certified check in an amount suitable to guarantee payment of the tax stamps so purchased by a distributor. The stamps shall be sold by the commissioner at a price which includes the tax after giving effect to the discount provided in subdivision 5.~~

The commissioner shall recover the actual costs of the stamps from the distributor.

(c) If the commissioner finds that a stamping machine is not printing or affixing a legible stamp on the package, the commissioner may order the distributor to immediately cease the stamping process until the machine is functioning properly.

(d) Every prior continuous compliance taxpayer is exempt from all requirements under this chapter concerning the furnishing of a bond. This exemption continues for the taxpayer until the commissioner determines that the taxpayer (1) is delinquent in the filing of any return, or (2) is delinquent or deficient in the payment of any uncontested tax liability under this chapter. At that time that taxpayer is subject to the bond requirements of this chapter and, as a condition of being allowed to continue to engage in the business licensed under this chapter, is required to furnish bond to the commissioner as provided in this chapter. The taxpayer shall furnish the bond for a period of two years, after which, if the taxpayer has not been delinquent in the filing of any returns, or delinquent or deficient in the paying of any tax under this chapter, the commissioner may reinstate the person as a prior continuous compliance taxpayer. A taxpayer who fails to pay an uncontested tax liability under this chapter may be required to post bond or other acceptable security with the commissioner guaranteeing the payment of the uncontested tax liability. The commissioner shall annually establish the maximum amount of heat applied stamps or meter units that may be purchased each month. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the tax due on the return will be based upon actual heat applied stamps or meter units purchased during the reporting period.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.04, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISTRIBUTOR'S APPLICATION; FEE; BOND; CERTIFIED CHECK; SUBJOBBER'S LICENSE.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), Each application for a distributor's license shall be accompanied by a fee of $150 and a corporate surety bond issued by a surety licensed to do business in this state in the sum of $1,000, conditioned upon the true and faithful compliance by the licensee with all of the provisions of this act. This bond, or a reissue thereof, or a substitute therefor, shall be kept in full force and effect during the entire period covered by the license $300. A separate application for license shall be made for each place of business at which a distributor proposes to engage in business as such under sections 297.01 to 297.13, provided that a separate application for a subjobber's license may be made by a licensed distributor for each place of business (other than that licensed in the distributor's license) to which the distributor delivers and from which the distributor sells or distributes stamped cigarettes.

Each application for a subjobber's license shall be accompanied by a fee of $12 ~~$24~~.

A distributor or subjobber applying for a license ~~between July 1 and December 31 during the second year of any year~~ a two-year licensing period shall be required to pay only one-half of the license fee provided for herein.

~~(b) In lieu of the bond required in paragraph (a), a certified check made payable to the commissioner may be filed with the commissioner. The department of revenue shall not pay interest on funds encumbered by the check.~~

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.04, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ISSUANCE.] The commissioner, upon receipt of the application and bond in proper form, and payment of the license fee required by subdivision 4, shall, unless otherwise provided by sections 297.01 to 297.13, issue the applicant a license in form as prescribed by the commissioner, which said license shall permit the applicant to whom it is issued to engage in business as a distributor or subjobber at the place of business shown in the application.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.04, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [EXPIRATION.] Each license issued shall expire on December 31 following its date of issue the second year of the licensing period unless sooner revoked by the commissioner or unless the business with respect to which the license was issued is transferred. In either case the holder of the license shall immediately surrender it to the commissioner.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.041, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WHOLESALEERS.] Any wholesaler who furnishes a surety bond in a sum satisfactory to the commissioner shall be permitted to set aside, without affixing the stamps required by this chapter, that part of the wholesaler's stock necessary for the conduct of business in making sales to the established governing body of any Indian tribe recognized by the United States Department of Interior. The unstamped stock shall be kept separate and apart from stamped stock. Every wholesaler shall, at the time of shipping or delivering any of the unstamped stock to an Indian tribal organization, make a true duplicate invoice which shall show the complete details of the sale or delivery and shall transmit the duplicate to the commissioner not later than the 18th day of the following calendar month. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall cause the commissioner to revoke the permission granted to the wholesaler to maintain a stock of goods which may be unstamped.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONTRABAND DEFINED.] The following are declared to be contraband:

(1) All packages which do not have stamps affixed to them as provided in sections 297.01 to 297.13 and all devices for the vending of cigarettes in which such unstamped packages are found, including all contents contained within the devices.

(2) Any device for the vending of cigarettes and all packages of cigarettes contained therein, where the device does not afford at least partial visibility of contents. Where any package exposed to view does not carry the stamp or imprint required by sections 297.01 to 297.13, it shall be presumed that all packages contained in the device are unstamped and contraband.

(3) Any device for the vending of cigarettes to which the commissioner or authorized agents have been denied access for the inspection of contents. In lieu of seizure, the commissioner or an agent may seal the device to prevent its use until inspection of contents is permitted.

(4) Any device for the vending of cigarettes which does not carry the name and address of the owner, plainly marked and visible from the front of the machine.

(5) Any device including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, trailers, snowmobiles, airplanes, and boats used with the knowledge of the owner or of a person operating with the consent of the owner for the storage or transportation of more than 5,000 cigarettes which are contraband under this subdivision. When cigarettes are being transported in the course of interstate commerce, or are in movement from either a public warehouse to a distributor upon orders from a manufacturer or distributor, or from one distributor to another, the cigarettes are not contraband, notwithstanding the provisions of clause (1).

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. "Licensing period" means a two-year period during which licenses are issued. A licensing period begins on January 1 of each even-numbered year and ends on December 31 of the following odd-numbered year.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.33, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), Each application for a distributor's license shall be accompanied by a fee of ~~$37.50~~ $75. The application shall also be accompanied by a corporate surety bond issued by a surety licensed to do business in this state, in the sum of $1,000, conditioned upon the true and faithful compliance by the distributor with all the provisions of sections 297.31 to 297.39 and the payment when due of all taxes, penalties, and accrued interest arising in the ordinary course of business or by reason of any delinquent money which may be due the state of Minnesota. This bond shall be in a form to be fixed by the commissioner and approved by the attorney general. Whenever it is the opinion of the commissioner that the bond given by a licensee is inadequate in amount to fully protect the state, the commissioner shall require either an increase in the amount of said bond or additional bond, in such amount as the commissioner deems sufficient. Any bond required by this subdivision, or a reissue thereof, or a substitute therefor, shall be kept in full force and effect during the entire period covered by the license.

A separate application for license shall be made for each place of business at which a distributor proposes to engage in business as such under sections 297.31 to 297.39. A separate application for a subjobber's license may be made by a licensed distributor for each place of business, other than that licensed in the distributor's license, to which the distributor sells or distributes tobacco products upon which the tax imposed by this chapter has been imposed to other than the ultimate consumer.

(b) In lieu of the bond required in paragraph (a), a certified check may be filed with the commissioner. The check must be made payable to the commissioner and in an amount to be established by the commissioner or the commissioner's designee but not less than twice the average monthly liability of the taxpayer. The department of revenue shall pay no interest on funds encumbered by the check.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.33, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. (a) Each application for a subjobber's license shall be accompanied by a fee of $10 ~~$20~~.

(b) All licenses expire on December 31 of the second year of the licensing period in which they were issued.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.33, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. A distributor or subjobber applying for a license between ~~July 1 and December 31 of any~~ during the second year of a licensing period shall be required to pay only one-half of the license fee provided for herein.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.33, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The commissioner, upon receipt of the application (~~and bond, in the case of the distributor~~) in proper form, and payment of the license fee required by subdivision 4 or subdivision 5, shall, unless otherwise provided by sections 297.31 to 297.39, issue the applicant a license in form as prescribed by the commissioner, which license shall permit the applicant to whom it is issued to engage in business as a distributor or subjobber at the place of business shown in the application. The commissioner shall assign a permit number to each person licensed as a distributor at the time of issuance of the first license, which shall be inscribed upon all licenses issued to that distributor.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.33, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. Each license issued for any period subsequent to ~~June 30, 1974~~ shall expire on December 31 following its date of issue the second year of the licensing period unless sooner revoked by the commissioner or unless the business with respect to which the license was issued is transferred. In either case the holder of the license shall immediately surrender it to the commissioner.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297C.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MANNER AND TIME OF PAYMENT; PENALTIES; DEPOSIT OF TAX PROCEEDS.] The tax on wines and distilled spirits on which the excise tax has not been previously paid must be paid to the commissioner by persons having on file with the commissioner a sufficient bond as provided in subdivision 4 liable for the tax on or before the 18th day of the month following the month in which the first sale is made in this state by a licensed manufacturer or wholesaler. Every person liable for the tax on wines or distilled spirits imposed by section 297C.02 must file with the commissioner on or before the 18th day of the month following first sale in this state by a licensed manufacturer or wholesaler a return in the form prescribed by the commissioner, and must keep records and render reports required by the commissioner. ~~A person liable for any tax on wines or distilled spirits not having on file a sufficient bond must pay the tax within 24 hours after first sale in this state.~~ The commissioner may certify to the commissioner of public safety any failure to pay taxes when due as a violation of a statute relating to the sale of intoxicating liquor for possible revocation or suspension of license.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297C.09, is amended to read:

297C.09 [IMPORTATION BY INDIVIDUALS.]

A person, other than a person under the age of 21 years, entering Minnesota from another state may have in possession one liter of intoxicating liquor or 288 ounces of malt liquor and a person entering Minnesota from a foreign country may have in possession four liters of intoxicating liquor or ten quarts (320 ounces) of malt liquor without the required payment of the Minnesota excise tax. Amounts in excess of these quantities may be imported only by a licensee holding the appropriate license as manufacturer, wholesaler, or importer under section 340A.301 or 340A.302. A collector of commemorative bottles, other than a person under the age of 21 years, entering Minnesota from another state may have in possession 12 or fewer commemorative bottles without the required payment of the Minnesota excise tax. A person who imports or has in possession untaxed intoxicating liquor or malt liquor in excess of the quantities provided for in this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. This section does not apply to the consignments of alcoholic beverages shipped into this state by holders of Minnesota import licenses or Minnesota manufacturers and wholesalers when licensed by the commissioner of public safety or to common carriers with licenses to sell intoxicating liquor in more than one state. A peace officer, the commissioner, or their authorized agents, may seize untaxed liquor.

Sec. 17. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 297.01, subdivision 15; 297.03, subdivision 12; 297.04, subdivision 10; 297.33, subdivision 13; and 297C.03, subdivisions 4 and 4a, are repealed.

Sec. 18. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 8 are effective July 1, 1990. Sections 2, 4, 6, 9 to 12, and 14 are effective for license applications for the year 1990 and thereafter, except that sections 4 and 10 are effective for bonding periods beginning after December 31, 1989, for provisions applying to bonding requirements. Any bonds for periods before December 31, 1989, must be kept in full force and effect until the statute of limitations for those periods has expired.

Sections 3, 5, 7, 13, 15, and 17 are effective for bonding periods beginning after December 31, 1989, with the following exceptions: (1) any bonds for periods before December 31, 1989, must be kept in full force and effect until the statute of limitations for those periods has expired, (2) section 17 is effective July 1, 1990, for provisions applying to stamps and tax meter machines, (3) section 3 is effective July 1, 1989, for provisions applying to tax meter machines, and (4) section 3 is effective July 1, 1990, for provisions applying to meter units.

27,000 to 27,999	3.7 percent	48 percent	$1,000
28,000 to 28,999	3.8 percent	50 percent	$ 900
29,000 to 29,999	3.9 percent	50 percent	$ 800
30,000 to 30,999	4.0 percent	50 percent	$ 700
31,000 to 31,999	4.0 percent	50 percent	$ 600
32,000 to 32,999	4.0 percent	50 percent	$ 500
33,000 to 33,999	4.0 percent	50 percent	$ 300
34,000 to 34,999	4.0 percent	50 percent	$ 100

The payment made to a claimant is the amount of the state refund calculated under this subdivision. No payment is allowed if the claimant's household income is $35,000 or more.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, is amended to read:

Subd. 2h. If the net property taxes payable in 1989 on a homestead increase more than ten percent over the net property taxes payable in 1988 the prior year on the same property, and the amount of that increase is $40 or more, a claimant who is a homeowner shall be allowed an additional refund equal to 75 percent of the amount by which the increase exceeds ten percent. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the net property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead.

A refund under this subdivision shall not exceed $250.

For purposes of this subdivision, "net property taxes payable" means property taxes payable after reductions made pursuant to under sections 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23; 273.132; 273.135; 273.1391; and 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits and after the deduction of tax refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivision 2.

In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.

The provisions of this subdivision apply to the increase in property taxes over the prior year for property taxes payable in 1989 and 1990 only. In computing the refund for increases in taxes payable in 1990 over 1989, net property taxes payable for 1989 must be reduced by the refund paid under this subdivision.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective beginning for property taxes paid in 1990. Section 2 is effective beginning for refunds based on rent paid in 1990. Section 3 is effective only for property taxes paid in 1989 and 1990.

ARTICLE 5

PROPERTY TAX POLICY

Section 1. [INTERGOVERNMENTAL FINANCE REFORM.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY STATEMENT.] Under state and federal law, the responsibility for determining the public services to be provided is divided between the federal, state, and local governments. The responsibility for raising the revenues necessary to pay for these services also is divided between the federal, state, and local governments.

The complexity of the intergovernmental finance system creates confusion and diminishes the accountability of federal, state, and local public officials for decisions affecting service levels and property taxes.

The legislature finds that this circumstance, and the decline in federal aid to the states and local units of government, make it necessary to reexamine intergovernmental fiscal relations.

Subd. 2. [STUDY AND REPORT.] The legislature directs the legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy to collect and analyze information on:

(1) the distribution of responsibility among the various local units of government and the state government for determining the services that must be provided and the financing of those services;

(2) the current and appropriate levels of property tax funding for those programs required by state law; and

(3) the extent to which the state is funding both those programs and services required by state law and those within the discretion of local public officials.

The commission shall make recommendations for more effective mechanisms of state and local finance that take into account both the distribution of need and the resources available within the various local taxing jurisdictions. The commission shall make preliminary recommendations to the 1990 legislature and a final report to the 1991 legislature. With respect to those programs required by federal or state law, the study and report shall:

(1) examine the program requirements;

(2) evaluate the current and alternative funding sources for the program;

(3) evaluate the current and alternative mechanisms for limiting the property tax affects of these programs;

(4) develop a system of reporting any property tax consequences of the program, including separate levy reporting of the property tax proportion of the local program costs; and

(5) develop methods for more accurately estimating any property tax consequences of programs or policies.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. For purposes of equalization only, public utility personal property shall be treated as a separate class of property notwithstanding the fact that its tax capacity percentage is the same as commercial-industrial property.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.485, is amended to read:

270.485 [SENIOR ACCREDITATION.]

The legislature finds that the property tax system would be enhanced by requiring that every county assessor and senior appraiser in the department of revenue's local government services division obtain senior accreditation from the state board of assessors. By January 1, 1990, or in the case of a county assessor within one year two years of the first appointment under section 273.061, whichever is later, every county assessor and senior appraiser, including the department's regional representatives, must obtain senior accreditation from the state board of assessors. The board shall provide the necessary courses or training. If a department senior appraiser or regional representative fails to obtain senior accreditation by January 1, 1990, the failure shall be grounds for dismissal, disciplinary action, or corrective action. Except as provided in section 273.061, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), after December 30, 1989, the commissioner must not approve the appointment of a county assessor who is not senior accredited by the state board of assessors. No employee hired by the commissioner as a senior appraiser or regional representative after June 30, 1987, shall attain permanent status until the employee obtains senior accreditation.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.80, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The following words and phrases when used in Laws 1979, chapter 303, article 7, sections 1 to 13 270.80 to 270.92, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 272.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) When any real or personal property which for any reason is exempt from ad valorem taxes, and taxes in lieu thereof, is leased, loaned, or otherwise made available and used by a private individual, association, or corporation in connection with a business conducted for profit, there shall be imposed a tax, for the privilege of so using or possessing such real or personal property, in the same amount and to the same extent as though the lessee or user was the owner of such property.

(b) The tax imposed by this subdivision shall not apply to (1) property leased or used by way of a concession in or relative to the use in whole or part of a public park, market, fairgrounds, port authority, housing and redevelopment authority, economic development authority established under chapter 458C, municipal auditorium, municipal automobile parking facility, airport owned by a city, town, county, or group thereof but not the airports owned or operated by the metropolitan airports commission or a city of over 50,000 population or an airport authority therein, municipal museum or municipal stadium or (2) property constituting or used as a public pedestrian ramp or concourse in connection with a public airport or (3) property constituting or used as a passenger check-in area or ticket sale counter, boarding area, or luggage claim area in connection with a public airport but not the airports owned or operated by the metropolitan airports commission or cities of over 50,000 population or an airport authority therein. Real estate owned by a municipality in connection with the operation of a public airport and leased or used for agricultural purposes shall not be exempt.

(c) Taxes imposed by this subdivision shall be due and payable as in the case of personal property taxes and such taxes shall be assessed to such lessees or users of real or personal property in the same manner as taxes assessed to owners of real or personal property, except that such taxes shall not become a lien against the property. When due, the taxes shall constitute a debt due from the lessee or user to the state, township, city, county and school district for which the taxes were assessed and shall be collected in the same manner as personal property taxes. If property subject to the tax imposed by this subdivision is leased or used jointly by two or more persons, each lessee or user shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of the tax.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.061, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OFFICE CREATED; APPOINTMENT, QUALIFICATIONS.] Every county in this state shall have a county assessor. The county assessor shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners and shall be a resident of this state. The assessor shall be selected and appointed because of knowledge and training in the field of property taxation and appointment shall be approved by the commissioner of revenue before the same shall become effective. Upon receipt by the county commissioners of the commissioner of revenue's refusal to approve an appointment, the term of the appointee shall terminate at the end of that day. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a county assessor must have senior accreditation from the state board of assessors by January 1, 1990, or within ~~one year~~ two years of the assessor's first appointment under this section, whichever is later.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.061, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TERM; VACANCY.] (a) The terms of county assessors appointed under this section shall be four years. A new term shall begin on January 1 of every fourth year after 1973. When any vacancy in the office occurs, the board of county commissioners, within 30 days thereafter, shall fill the same by appointment for the remainder of the term, following the procedure prescribed in subdivision 1. The term of the county assessor may be terminated by the board of county commissioners at any time, on charges of inefficiency or neglect of duty by the commissioner of revenue. If the board of county commissioners does not intend to reappoint a county assessor who has been certified by the state board of assessors, the board shall present written notice to the county assessor not later than 90 days prior to the termination of the assessor's term, that it does not intend to reappoint the assessor. If written notice is not timely made, the county assessor will automatically be reappointed by the board of county commissioners.

The commissioner of revenue may recommend to the state board of assessors the nonrenewal, suspension, or revocation of an assessor's license as provided in sections 270.41 to 270.53.

(b) In the event of a vacancy in the office of county assessor, through death, resignation or other reasons, the deputy (or chief deputy, if more than one) shall perform the functions of the office. If there is no deputy, the county auditor shall designate a person to perform the duties of the office until an appointment is made as provided in clause (a). Such person shall perform the duties of the office for a period not exceeding 30 days during which the county board must appoint a county assessor. Such 30-day period may, however, be extended by written approval of the commissioner of revenue.

(c) In the case of the first appointment under paragraph (a) of a county assessor who is accredited but who does not have senior accreditation, an approval of the appointment by the commissioner shall be for a term of ~~one year~~ provisional, provided that a county assessor appointed to a ~~one-year~~ provisional term under this paragraph must reapply to the commissioner at the end of the ~~one-year~~ provisional term. A provisional term may not exceed two years. The commissioner shall not approve the appointment for the remainder of the four-year term unless the assessor has obtained senior accreditation.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [LIMITED MARKET VALUE.] (a) After determining the value of class 1 property, the assessor shall compare the market value with that determined for the preceding year. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the amount of the increase entered in the current assessment, excluding any amount resulting from a state board of equalization order, must not exceed the greater of: (1) ten percent of the market value in the preceding assessment; or (2) $10,000. The sum of the market value for the preceding year and the limited increase is the limited market value of the property. The amount of the excess must be entered in a subsequent year, subject to the limits of this subdivision.

(b) The limit under paragraph (a) does not apply to an increase in value attributable to additions or new improvements. The limited market value of new improvements and additions must be determined by multiplying their market value by a fraction, the numerator of which is limited market value and the denominator of which is market value for class 1 property in the assessment district. The computation in the preceding sentence applies only if the total value of class 1 property in the assessment district exceeds by ten percent the limited market value of the property.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.111, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Real estate consisting of ten acres or more shall be entitled to valuation and tax deferment under this section only if it is actively and exclusively devoted to agricultural use as defined in subdivision 6 and either:

(1) is the homestead of the owner, or of a surviving spouse, child, or sibling of the owner or is real estate which is farmed with the real estate which contains the homestead property; or

(2) has been in possession of the applicant, the applicant's spouse, parent, or sibling, or any combination thereof, for a period of at least seven years prior to application for benefits under the provisions of Laws 1969, chapter 1039, or is real estate which is farmed with the real estate which qualifies under this clause and is within two townships or cities or combination thereof from the qualifying real estate; or

(3) is the homestead of a shareholder in a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, notwithstanding the fact that legal title to the real estate may be held in the name of the family farm corporation.

Valuation of real estate under this section is limited to parcels the ownership of which is in noncorporate entities except for family farm corporations organized pursuant to section 500.24. Corporate entities who previously qualified for tax deferment pursuant to this section and who continue to otherwise qualify under subdivisions 3 and 6 for a period of at least three years following the effective date of this section will not be required to make payment of the previously deferred taxes, notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 9. Sale of the land prior to the expiration of the three-year period shall result in payment of deferred taxes as follows: sale within the first year requires payment of payable 1980, 1981, and 1982 deferred taxes; sale during the second year requires payment of payable 1981 and 1982 taxes deferred; and sale at any time during the third year will require payment of payable 1983 taxes deferred. Deferred taxes shall be paid even if the land qualifies pursuant to subdivision 11a.

Special assessments are payable at the end of the three-year period or at time of sale, whichever comes first.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.112, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Real estate shall be entitled to valuation and tax deferral under this section only if it is:

(a) actively and exclusively devoted to golf, skiing or archery or firearms range recreational use or uses and other recreational uses carried on at the establishment;

(b) five acres in size or more, except in the case of an archery or firearms range;

(c)(1) operated by private individuals and open to the public; or

(2) operated by firms or corporations for the benefit of employees or guests; or

(3) operated by private clubs having a membership of 50 or more, provided that the club does not discriminate in membership requirements or selection on the basis of sex; and

(d) made available, in the case of real estate devoted to golf, for use without discrimination on the basis of sex during the time when the facility is open to use by the public or by members, except that use for golf may be restricted on the basis of sex no more frequently than one, or part of one, weekend each calendar month for each sex and no more than two, or part of two, weekdays each week for each sex.

If a golf club membership allows use of golf course facilities by more than one adult per membership, the use must be equally available to all adults entitled to use of the golf course under the membership, except that use may be restricted on the basis of sex as permitted in this section. Memberships that permit play during restricted times may be allowed only if the restricted times apply to all adults using the membership. A golf club may not offer a membership or golfing privileges to a spouse of a member that provides greater or less access to the golf course than is provided to that person's spouse under the same or a separate membership in that club, except that the terms of a membership may provide that one spouse may have no right to use the golf course at any time while the other spouse may have either limited or unlimited access to the golf course.

A golf club may have or create an individual membership category which entitles a member for a reduced rate to play during restricted hours as established by the club. The club must have on record a written request by the member for such membership.

For purposes of this subdivision and subdivision 7a, discrimination means a pattern or course of conduct and not linked to an isolated incident.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.112, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. The commissioner of revenue shall develop and issue guidelines for qualification by private golf clubs under this section covering the access to and use of the golf course by members and other adults so as to be consistent with the purposes and terms of this section. The guidelines shall be mailed to the county attorney and assessor of each county not later than 60 days following the date of enactment of this act. Within 15 days of receipt of the guidelines from the commissioner, the assessor shall mail a copy of the guidelines to each golf club in the county. The guidelines issued under this subdivision are not subject to the administrative procedure act under chapter 14.

Sec. 12. [273.1196] [STATE COMMERCIAL-INDUSTRIAL EFFECTIVE TAX RATE REDUCTION.]

For property taxes payable in 1990 only, class 3a commercial industrial property is eligible for a state commercial-industrial effective tax rate reduction if the payable 1990 property taxes on the first $200,000 of market value of the property exceed four percent of the January 2, 1989, market value. The state reduction is equal to 75 percent of the property tax amount that is in excess of four percent of market value. Only the first $200,000 of market value of a qualifying parcel and the taxes attributable to the first $200,000 of market value are eligible for the computation of this reduction. Only a parcel that qualifies for the 3.1 percent tax capacity percentage contained in section 273.13, subdivision 24, paragraph (a), qualifies for the reduction provided in this section. Only the market value and property tax attributable to the part of the parcel that is class 3a must be used in computing the reduction provided in this section.

The amount of the reduction must be reported to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29.

There is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioners of revenue and education the amount necessary to replace the revenue lost to local units of government and school districts as a result of the reduction in property taxes provided in this section. The payment amounts must be determined and the installments paid under the provisions of sections 273.1392 and 477A.015.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [HOMESTEAD ESTABLISHED AFTER ASSESSMENT DATE.] Any property that was not used for the purpose of a homestead on the assessment date, but which was used for the purpose of a homestead on June 1 of a year, constitutes class 1 or class 2a to the extent of one-half of the valuation that would have been includable in class 1 or class 2a.

Any taxpayer meeting the requirements of this subdivision must notify the county assessor, or the assessor who has the powers of the county assessor pursuant to section 273.063, in writing, prior to June 15 of the year of occupancy in order to qualify under this subdivision.

The county assessor and the county auditor may make the necessary changes on their assessment and tax records to provide for proper homestead classification as provided in this subdivision.

The owner of any property qualifying under this subdivision, which has not been accorded the benefits of this subdivision, regardless of whether or not the notification has been timely filed, may be entitled to receive homestead classification by proper application as provided in section 270.07 or 375.192.

The county assessor shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation within the county no later than June 1 of each year a notice informing the public of the requirement to file an application for homestead prior to June 15.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [HOMESTEAD OF MEMBER OF UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES; PEACE CORPS; VISTA.] Real estate actually occupied and used for the purpose of a homestead by a member of the armed forces of the United States, or by a member of that person's immediate family shall, notwithstanding the absence of the person, while on active duty with the armed forces of the United States or the family under such conditions, be classified as a homestead provided that absence of the owner is solely by reason of service in the armed forces, and that even though the person or family is absent if (1) the person or the person's family is absent solely because the person is on active duty with the armed forces of the United States, or is serving as a volunteer under the VISTA or Peace Corps program; (2) the owner intends to return as soon as discharged or relieved from service; and (3) the owner claims it as a homestead. Every A person who, for the purpose of obtaining or aiding another in obtaining any benefit under this subdivision, shall knowingly make makes or submit submits to any an assessor any an affidavit or other statement which that is false in any material matter shall be to obtain or aid another in obtaining a benefit under this subdivision is guilty of a felony.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [AGRICULTURAL HOMESTEADS; SPECIAL PROVISIONS.] (a) Real estate of less than ten acres that is the homestead of its owner must be classified as class 2a under section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (a), if:

(1) the parcel on which the house is located is adjacent to agricultural land on at least two sides;

(2) its owner also owns a noncontiguous parcel of agricultural land that is at least 20 acres;

(3) the noncontiguous land is located not further than two townships or cities, or a combination of townships or cities from the homestead; and

(4) the agricultural use value of the noncontiguous land and farm buildings is equal to at least 50 percent of the market value of the house, garage, and one acre of land.

Homesteads initially classified as class 2a under the provisions of this subdivision shall remain classified as class 2a, irrespective of subsequent changes in the use of adjoining properties, so long as the homestead remains under the same ownership and the owner owns a noncontiguous parcel of agricultural land that is at least 20 acres.

(b) Noncontiguous land shall be included as part of a homestead under section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (a), only if the homestead is classified as class 2a and the detached land is located in the same township or city, or not farther than two townships or cities or combination thereof from the homestead.

(c) Agricultural land used for purposes of a homestead and actively farmed by a person holding a vested remainder interest in it must be classified as a homestead under section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (a). If agricultural land is classified class 2a, any other dwellings on the land used for purposes of a homestead by persons holding vested remainder interests who are actively engaged in farming the property, and up to one acre of the land surrounding each homestead and reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, must also be assessed class 2a.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivision 22, is amended to read:

Subd. 22. [CLASS 1.] (a) Except as provided in subdivision 23, real estate which is residential and used for homestead purposes is class 1. The market value of class 1a property must be determined based upon the value of the house, garage, and land.

The first $68,000 of market value of class 1a property has a net tax capacity of one .95 percent of its market value and a gross tax capacity of 2.17 percent of its market value. The market value of class 1a property that exceeds $68,000 but does not exceed $100,000 $110,000 has a tax capacity of 2.5 1.9 percent of its market value. The market value of class 1a property that exceeds $100,000 $110,000 has a tax capacity of 3.3 3.0 percent of its market value.

(b) Class 1b property includes real estate or manufactured homes used for the purposes of a homestead by

(1) any blind person, if the blind person is the owner thereof or if the blind person and the blind person's spouse are the sole owners thereof; or

(2) any person, hereinafter referred to as "veteran," who:

(i) served in the active military or naval service of the United States; and

(ii) is entitled to compensation under the laws and regulations of the United States for permanent and total service-connected disability due to the loss, or loss of use, by reason of amputation, ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis, of both lower extremities, such as to preclude motion without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair; and

(iii) with assistance by the administration of veterans affairs has acquired a special housing unit with special fixtures or movable facilities made necessary by the nature of the veteran's disability, or the surviving spouse of the deceased veteran for as long as the surviving spouse retains the special housing unit as a homestead; or

(3) any person who:

(i) is permanently and totally disabled and

(ii) receives 90 85 percent or more of total income from

(A) aid from any state as a result of that disability; or

(B) supplemental security income for the disabled; or

(C) workers' compensation based on a finding of total and permanent disability; or

(D) social security disability, including the amount of a disability insurance benefit which is converted to an old age insurance benefit and any subsequent cost of living increases; or

(E) aid under the Federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, United States Code Annotated, title 45, section 228b(a)5; or

(F) a pension from any local government retirement fund located in the state of Minnesota as a result of that disability; or

(iii) whose household income as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 5, is 150 percent or less of the federal poverty level.

Property is classified and assessed pursuant to clause (1) only if the commissioner of jobs and training certifies to the assessor that the owner of the property satisfies the requirements of this subdivision. The commissioner of jobs and training shall provide a copy of the certification to the commissioner of revenue.

Permanently and totally disabled for the purpose of this subdivision means a condition which is permanent in nature and totally incapacitates the person from working at an occupation which brings the person an income. The first $32,000 market value of class 1b property has a net tax capacity of .4 percent of its market value and a gross tax capacity of .87 percent of its market value. The remaining market value of class 1b property has a gross or net tax capacity using the rates for class 1 or class 2a property, whichever is appropriate, of similar market value.

(c) Class 1c property is commercial use real property that abuts a lakeshore line and is devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes but not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 200 days in the year preceding the year of assessment, and that includes a portion used as a homestead by the owner. Class 1c property has a tax capacity of .9 .8 percent of market value with the following limitation: the area of the property must not exceed 100 feet of lakeshore footage for each cabin or campsite located on the property up to a total of 800 feet and 500 feet in depth, measured away from the lakeshore. For purposes of this paragraph, class 1c property may be owned by a corporation or partnership and occupied as a homestead by one or more of its shareholders or partners who are actively engaged in the business on behalf of the corporation or partnership. Homestead treatment applies even if legal title to the property is in the name of the corporation or partnership and not in the name of the person residing on it.

(d) For taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989 only, the tax to be paid on class 1a or class 1b property shall be reduced by 54 percent of the tax imposed on the first $68,000 of market value. The amount of the reduction shall not exceed $725.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [CLASS 2.] (a) Class 2a property is agricultural land including any improvements that is homesteaded. The market value of the house and garage and immediately surrounding one acre of land that does not exceed $65,000 has a net tax capacity of .805 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 1.75 percent of market value. The excess market value over $65,000 has a tax capacity of 2.2 percent shall have the same tax capacity as if it were class 1a property under subdivision 22. If the market value of the house, garage, and surrounding one acre of land is less than $65,000 $100,000, the value of the remaining land including improvements equal to the difference between $65,000 $100,000 and the market value of the house, garage, and surrounding one acre of land has a net tax capacity of 1.12 .3 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 1.75 percent of market value for the first 320 acres of land and the remaining value over 320 acres has a net tax capacity of 1.295 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 1.75 percent of market value. The remaining value of class 2a property over the $65,000 $100,000 market value that does not exceed 320 acres has a net tax capacity of 1.44 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 2.25 percent of market value. The remaining property over the $65,000 $100,000 market value in excess of 320 acres has a net tax capacity of 1.665 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 2.25 percent of market value.

Noncontiguous land shall constitute class 2a only if the homestead is classified as class 2a and the detached land is located in the same township or city or not farther than two townships or cities or combination thereof from the homestead.

Agricultural land used for purposes of a homestead and actively farmed by a person holding a vested remainder interest in it must be classified class 2a. If agricultural land is classified class 2a, any other dwellings on the land used for purposes of a homestead by persons holding vested remainder interests who are actively engaged in farming the property, and up to one acre of the land surrounding each homestead and reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, must also be assessed class 2a and is entitled to the homestead credit.

For taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989 only, the tax to be paid on class 2a property and class 1b property under section 273.13, subdivision 22, paragraph (b), used for agricultural purposes shall be reduced by 54 percent of the tax. The amount of the reduction shall not exceed $725.

(b) Class 2b property is (1) real estate, rural in character and used exclusively for growing trees for timber, lumber, and wood and wood products; and (2) real estate that is nonhomestead agricultural land. Class 2b property has a net tax capacity of 1.665 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 2.25 percent of market value.

Agricultural land as used in this section means contiguous acreage of ten acres or more, primarily used during the preceding year for agricultural purposes. Agricultural use may include pasture, timber, waste, unusable wild land, and land included in federal farm programs.

Real estate of less than ten acres used principally for raising poultry, livestock, fruit, vegetables or other agricultural products, including the breeding of fish for sale and consumption provided that it is located on land zoned for agricultural use, shall be considered as agricultural land, if it is not used primarily for residential purposes.

The assessor shall determine and list separately on the records the market value of the homestead dwelling and the one acre of land on which that dwelling is located. If any farm buildings or structures are located on this homesteaded acre of land, their market value shall not be included in this separate determination.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. [CLASS 3.] (a) Commercial, and industrial, property and utility real and personal property, except for class 5a property as identified in subdivision 31, is class 3a. It has a tax capacity of 3.3 3.1 percent of the first ~~$100,000~~ $125,000 of market value and 5.25 percent of the market value over ~~$100,000~~ $125,000. For taxes payable in 1991, the 5.25 percent rate shall be 5.2 percent and for taxes payable in 1992 and subsequent years the rate shall be 5.15 percent. In the case of state-assessed commercial, industrial, and utility property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel has a tax capacity ~~3.3~~ 3.1 percent. In the case of other commercial, industrial, and utility property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel in each county has a tax capacity of ~~3.3~~ 3.1 percent.

(b) Employment property defined in section 469.166, during the period provided in section 469.170, shall constitute class 3b and has a tax capacity of 2.5 percent of the first $50,000 of market value and 3.5 percent of the remainder, except that for employment property located in a border city enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 469.168, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), the tax capacity of the first $100,000 of market value is 3.3 percent and the tax capacity of the remainder is 4.8 percent, unless the governing body of the city designated as an enterprise zone determines that a specific parcel shall be assessed pursuant to the first clause of this sentence. The governing body may provide for assessment under the first clause of the preceding sentence only for property which is located in an area which has been designated by the governing body for the receipt of tax reductions authorized by section 469.171, subdivision 1.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [CLASS 4.] (a) Class 4a is residential real estate containing four or more units and used or held for use by the owner or by the tenants or lessees of the owner as a residence for rental periods of 30 days or more. Class 4a also includes hospitals licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56, other than hospitals exempt under section 272.02, and contiguous property used for hospital purposes, without regard to whether the property has been platted or subdivided. Class 4a property has a tax capacity of ~~4.1~~ 3.7 percent of market value.

(b) Class 4b includes:

(1) residential real estate containing less than four units, other than seasonal recreational residential; ~~recreational~~, and a structure having ~~five or more stories~~ that is constructed with materials meeting the requirements for type I or II construction as defined in the state building code, 90 percent or more of which is used or is to be used as apartment housing for a period of 40 years from the date of completion of original construction, or the date of initial though partial use, whichever is the earlier date;

(2) post-secondary student housing not to exceed one acre of land which is owned by a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317 and is used exclusively by a sorority or fraternity organization for housing;

(3) manufactured homes not classified under any other provision;

(4) a dwelling, garage, and surrounding one acre of property on a nonhomestead farm classified under subdivision 23, paragraph (b), which has a tax capacity of 2.7 percent of market value.

Class 4b property has a tax capacity of ~~3.5~~ 3.1 percent of market value, except as provided in clause (4).

(c) Class 4c property includes:

(1) a structure that is situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low and moderate income families as defined by Title II of the National Housing Act or the Minnesota housing finance agency law of 1971 or rules promulgated by the agency pursuant thereto and financed by a direct federal loan or federally insured loan or a loan made by the Minnesota housing finance agency pursuant to the provisions of either of those acts and acts amendatory thereof. This clause applies only to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or substantial rehabilitation, or for the original term of the loan;

(2) a structure that is:

(i) situated upon real property that is used for housing lower income families or elderly or handicapped persons, as defined in section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended; and

(ii) owned by an entity which has entered into a housing assistance payments contract under section 8 which provides assistance for 100 percent of the dwelling units in the structure, other than dwelling units intended for management or maintenance personnel. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for the term of the housing assistance payments contract, including all renewals, or for the term of its permanent financing, whichever is shorter; and

(3) a qualified low-income building that (i) receives a low-income housing credit under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987; or (ii) meets the requirements of that section. Classification pursuant to this clause is limited to buildings the construction or rehabilitation of which began after May 1, 1988, and to a term of 15 years.

For all properties described in clauses (1), (2), and (3) and in paragraph (d), the market value determined by the assessor must be based on the normal approach to value using normal unrestricted rents. The land on which these structures are situated has a tax capacity of ~~3.5~~ 3.1 percent of market value if the structure contains fewer than four units, and ~~4.1~~ 3.7 percent of market value if the structure contains four or more units.

(4) a parcel of land, not to exceed one acre, and its improvements or a parcel of unimproved land, not to exceed one acre, if it is owned by a neighborhood real estate trust and at least 60 percent of the dwelling units, if any, on all land owned by the trust are leased to or occupied by lower income families or individuals. This clause does not apply to any portion of the land or improvements used for nonresidential purposes. For purposes of this clause, a lower income family is a family with an income that does not exceed 65 percent of the median family income for the area, and a lower income individual is an individual whose income does not exceed 65 percent of the median individual income for the area, as determined by the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development. For purposes of this clause, "neighborhood real estate trust" means an entity which is certified by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located to have the following characteristics: (a) it is a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317; (b) it has as its principal purpose providing housing for lower income families in a specific geographic community designated in its articles or bylaws; (c) it limits membership with voting rights to residents of the designated community; and (d) it has a board of directors consisting of at least seven directors, 60 percent of whom are members with voting rights and, to the extent feasible, 25 percent of whom are elected by resident members of buildings owned by the trust; and

(5) except as provided in subdivision 22, paragraph (c), real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes, including real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes and not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 200 days in the year preceding the year of assessment. For this purpose, property is devoted to commercial use on a specific day if it is used, or offered for use, and a fee is charged for the use. Class 4c also includes commercial use real property used exclusively for recreational purposes in conjunction with class 4c property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, up to a total of two acres, provided the property is not devoted to commercial recreational use for more than 200 days in the year preceding the year of assessment and is located within two miles of the class 4c property with which it is used. Class 4c property classified in clauses (5) and (6) also includes the remainder of class 1c resorts and has a tax capacity of ~~2.6~~ 2.4 percent of market value, except that noncommercial seasonal recreational property has a tax capacity of 2.3 percent of market value; and

(6) real property up to a maximum of one acre of land owned by a nonprofit community service oriented organization; provided that the property is not used for a revenue-producing activity for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment and the property is not used for residential purposes on either a temporary or permanent basis. For purposes of this clause, a "nonprofit community service oriented organization" means any corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, fraternal, civic, or educational purposes; and which is exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to section 501(c)(3), (10), or (19) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986. For purposes of this clause, "revenue-producing activities" shall include but not be limited to property or that portion of the property that is used as an on-sale intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating malt liquor establishment licensed under chapter 340A, a restaurant open to the public, bowling alley, a retail store, gambling conducted by organizations licensed under chapter 349, an insurance business, or office or other space leased or rented to a lessee who conducts a for-profit enterprise on the premises. Any portion of the property which is used for revenue-producing activities for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment shall be assessed as class 3a. The use of the property for social events open exclusively to members and their guests for periods of less than 24 hours, when an admission is not charged nor any revenues are received by the organization shall not be considered a revenue-producing activity; and.

Class 4c property classified under clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4) has a tax capacity of 2.5 percent of market value.

(d) Class 4d property includes any structure:

(i) situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low and moderate income families as defined by the farmers home administration;

(ii) located in a municipality of less than 10,000 population; and

(iii) financed by a direct loan or insured loan from the farmers home administration. Property is classified under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or for the original term of the loan.

The 1.5 percent and 2.5 percent tax capacity assignments apply to the properties described in paragraph (c), clauses (1), (2), and (3) and this clause, only in proportion to occupancy of the structure by elderly or handicapped persons or low and moderate income families as defined in the applicable laws unless construction of the structure had been commenced prior to January 1, 1984; or the project had been approved by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located prior to June 30, 1983; or financing of the project had been approved by a federal or state agency prior to June 30, 1983. Classification under this clause is only available to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity.

Class 4d property has a tax capacity of 1.5 percent of market value.

(e) Class 4e property includes any structure having five or more stories that is constructed with materials meeting the requirements for type I or II construction as defined in the state building code, 90 percent or more of which is used or is to be used as apartment housing for a period of 40 years from the date of completion of original construction, or the date of initial though partial use, whichever is the earlier date.

Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (a); paragraph (b), clause (1); paragraph (c), clauses (1), (2), (3), or (4); or paragraph (d), is assessed as class 5 property under subdivision 31, paragraph (d), if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316.

Class 4e property has a tax capacity of 3.5 percent of market value.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivision 31, is amended to read:

Subd. 31. [CLASS 5.] All property not included in any other class is class 5 property.

(a) Tools, implements, and machinery of an electric generating, transmission, or distribution system or a pipeline system transporting or distributing water, gas, crude oil, or petroleum products or mains and pipes used in the distribution of steam or hot or chilled water for heating or cooling buildings, which are fixtures, have a tax capacity of 4.6 percent of market value.

(b) Unmined iron ore and low-grade iron-bearing formations as defined in section 273.14 have a tax capacity of 5.25 percent of market value.

(c) Vacant land has a tax capacity of 5.25 percent of market value.

(d) All other property not otherwise classified has a tax capacity of 5.25 percent of market value.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 32. [VACANT LAND.] Real property that is not improved with a structure and that is not used as part of a commercial or industrial activity shall be classified and assessed according to its highest and best use permitted under the local zoning ordinance. If the ordinance permits more than one use, the land must be classified and assessed according to the highest and best use permitted under the ordinance. If no such ordinance exists, the assessor shall consider the most likely potential use of the vacant land based upon the use made of surrounding land or land in proximity to the vacant land.

Sec. 22. [273.1316] [CLASSIFICATION OF SUBSTANDARD RESIDENTIAL RENTAL PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [DENIAL OF RENTAL CLASSIFICATION.] No

substandard building shall be classified as residential rental property under section 273.13, subdivision 25.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] “Substandard building” means a building that:

(1) has been determined by a state, county, or city agency that is charged by the governing body of the appropriate political subdivision with the responsibility for enforcing health, housing, building, fire prevention, or housing maintenance codes:

(i) to materially endanger the health and safety of the occupants;
or

(ii) if unoccupied, to be a hazardous building within the meaning of section 463.15, subdivision 3; or

(iii) to be substantially out of compliance with the housing and maintenance code of that county or city, to the extent that the reasonably anticipated cost of repairs necessary to achieve compliance would be at least $1,000; and

(2) has not been repaired or brought to a condition of compliance within three months after the date of the violation notice to the owner as provided in subdivision 3 or within the time prescribed by the agency in the notice in accordance with applicable state law or local ordinance, whichever period is shortest.

A building is not substandard under this subdivision if it was rendered substandard solely by reason of a tornado, flood, or other natural disaster.

Subd. 3. [VIOLATION NOTICE.] The initial notice of violation by the agency to the owner must be written and must contain:

(1) the details of the violation;

(2) the date by which repairs must be completed or compliance with other requirements must be achieved;

(3) a general description of the tax consequences if the violations are not corrected; and

(4) information on where and how an appeal may be filed.

The agency may, if authorized by law or ordinance, extend the compliance date prescribed in the violation notice, for good cause shown or may determine that good faith efforts at compliance are sufficient to prevent designation as a substandard building.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE OF NONCOMPLIANCE.] When the period specified in subdivision 3 has expired without compliance, the agency shall mail to the owner a notice of noncompliance. The notice of noncompliance must be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the owner of the property at the owner's last known address. The notice must contain:

- (1) the details of the noncompliances;
- (2) a statement that the local assessor has been notified of the noncompliance and that the property will be reclassified;
- (3) a general description of the tax consequences resulting from the denial of a residential rental property tax classification; and
- (4) information on where and how an appeal may be filed.

Subd. 5. [APPEALS TO BOARD.] Appeals shall be made to the board created under this subdivision. Each county and city, prior to issuance of a violation notice under subdivision 3, must establish a board to hear appeals under this subdivision. The board shall have five members appointed by the governing body. A decision of the appeal board may be appealed to the district court of the county in which the building is located, concerning the violation and determination of material endangerment or hazard made under subdivision 2 and concerning a determination of noncompliance under subdivision 4. An appeal must be made no later than 30 days after receipt of the notice of the action or determination being appealed. If the board determines that the substandard building has been brought to a condition of compliance, the board shall require the agency to mail to the taxpayer a notice of compliance, which notice shall be in the form and include the information prescribed by the local assessor.

Subd. 6. [TIMING OF PROCESS.] If a notice of noncompliance is mailed before July 1 of any year, and the property owner has not successfully appealed the determination by October 15 of that year, the property will be disqualified from residential rental classification for taxes levied in that year and all subsequent years until the agency determines that the property is no longer a substandard building, or the property owner prevails on an appeal of the matter. If a notice of noncompliance is mailed after June 30 of any year, the disqualification would initially be effective for taxes levied in the following year.

Subd. 7. [REFUND UPON APPEAL.] If the property owner prevails on an appeal at any time after taxes have been paid based on assessment of the property as class 5 property, the agency shall notify the property owner concerning the procedures for the filing of a refund. The notice shall be in the form and include the information prescribed by the local tax assessor. The taxpayer may then file for a refund of the difference between the amount of the tax paid and the tax that would have been payable if the property had not been incorrectly assessed under this section, and each governmental subdivision that levied the tax on the property shall refund to the property owner its proportionate share of the refund.

Subd. 8. [SPECIFICATION OF VIOLATIONS.] A notice of non-compliance shall not be mailed by the agency to the taxpayer until the state or the governing body of the appropriate political subdivision has prescribed by statute or ordinance the nature and types of violations of codes referred to in subdivision 2, that would constitute a nuisance or material endangerment to the health and safety of occupants of buildings, or that would constitute a hazardous building within the meaning of section 463.15, subdivision 3.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) In this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Unique taxing jurisdiction" means the geographic area subject to the same set of tax capacity rates.

(c) "Gross tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as gross tax capacities in section 273.13 and equalized market values. "Total gross tax capacity" means the gross tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total gross tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's gross tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located and (2) the gross tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2. For purposes of determining the gross tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2) for disparity reduction aid payable in 1989, the gross tax capacity before equalization shall equal the property's 1987 assessed value multiplied by 12 percent. Gross tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(d) "Net tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as net tax capacities in section 273.13 and equalized market values. "Total net tax capacity" means the net tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total net tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's net tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located and (2) the net tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2. For purposes of determining the net tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2), the net tax capacity before equalization shall equal the property's 1987 assessed value multiplied by 12 percent. Net tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(e) "Equalized market values" are market values that have been equalized by dividing the assessor's estimated market value for the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable by the assessment sales ratios determined by class in the assessment sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue pursuant to section 124.2131 in the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable. For computation of aids payable in 1989 only, if the aggregate assessment sales ratio is less than or equal to 92 percent, the assessment sales ratios by class shall be adjusted proportionally so that the aggregate ratio of the unequalized market values to the equalized market values equals 92 percent; otherwise the equalized market values shall equal the unequalized market values divided by the assessment sales ratio.

(f) "Homestead effective Adjusted gross tax capacity rate" means the product of (i) 46 percent; (ii) 2.17 percent; and (iii) the total gross taxes divided by the total gross tax capacity rate for taxes payable in 1989 within a unique taxing jurisdiction multiplied by the 1988 aggregate assessment sales ratio. A sales ratio of .92 is used if the actual sales ratio is less than .92.

(g) For purposes of calculating the transition homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2, the "subtraction factor" is the product 1.03 times the sum of (i) a unique taxing jurisdiction's homestead effective adjusted gross tax capacity rate; (ii) times its net tax capacity based on payable 1989 market values and net tax capacity percentages in effect for taxes payable in 1990; and (iii) 103 (ii) its fiscal disparities distribution levy for taxes payable in 1989.

(h) For purposes of calculating and allocating transition aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2 and the disparity reduction aid authorized in subdivision 3, "Gross taxes levied on all properties" or "gross taxes" means the amount of disparity aid received plus the total gross taxes levied on all properties except that levied on the captured value of tax increment districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and that levied on the portion of commercial industrial properties' assessed value or gross tax capacity, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, subject to the areawide tax as provided in section 473F.08, subdivision 6, in a unique taxing jurisdiction before reduction by any credits for taxes payable in the year prior to that in which the aids are payable. For purposes of disparity reduction aid only, total gross taxes shall be reduced by the taxes levied for any school district referendum levies authorized pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, and any school district debt levies authorized pursuant to section 475.61. Gross taxes levied cannot be less than zero but including the amount received from the distribution of the areawide tax as provided in section 473F.08, subdivision 3, clause (a).

(i) "Income maintenance aids" means:

(1) medical assistance under sections 256B.041, subdivision 5, and 256B.19, subdivision 1;

(2) preadmission screening and alternative care grants under section 256B.091, subdivision 8;

(3) general assistance, and work readiness under section 256D.03, subdivision 2;

(4) general assistance medical care under section 256D.03, subdivision 6;

(5) aid to families with dependent children under section 256.82, subdivision 1, including emergency assistance under section 256.871, subdivision 6; and funeral expense payments under section 256.935, subdivision 1; and

(6) supplemental aid under section 256D.36, subdivision 1.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TRANSITION HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL CREDIT AID.] (a) Transition Homestead and agricultural credit aid for each unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1990 equals the total gross taxes levied on all properties for taxes payable in 1989, minus the unique taxing jurisdiction's subtraction factor. Transition Homestead and agricultural credit aid cannot be less than zero. The transition homestead and agricultural credit aid so determined for school districts for purposes of general education and transportation levies shall be multiplied by the ratio of the adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1988 adjusted gross tax capacity to the estimated 1987 adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1987 adjusted assessed value. Each county assessor and the city assessors of Minneapolis, Duluth, and St. Cloud shall furnish the commissioner of revenue with the 1988 market values for taxes payable in 1989 for any new classes of property established in this article. The commissioner shall use those values, and estimate values where needed, in developing the 1988 tax capacity for each unique taxing jurisdiction under this section.

(b)(1) The transition homestead and agricultural credit aid is allocated to each local government levying taxes in the unique taxing jurisdiction in the proportion that the local government's gross taxes bears to the total gross taxes levied within the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(2) The homestead and agricultural credit aid determined for each county government shall be increased by a percentage equal to the percentage increase in population, if any, for the most recent 12-month period for which data is available.

(3) If a local government's total tax capacity rate for all funds for taxes payable in 1989 varies within the area in which it exercises taxing authority, the local government's allocated transition homestead and agricultural credit aid must be further allocated between the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate is constant throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority and the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate varies throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority.

(c) In 1991 and subsequent years, a local government shall receive transition homestead and agricultural credit aid equal to that it received in 1990 subject to the requirement of the last sentence of subdivision 6.

(d) The difference between (1) the income maintenance aids payable to a county and (2) the income maintenance aids that would be payable to the county pursuant to the rates in effect for calendar year 1989 shall be reduced by the sum of the amount of transition aid a county receives under this subdivision for all unique taxing jurisdictions located within its borders. The reduction must not reduce the difference to less than zero. The reduction shall be prorated among all payments of the increased income maintenance aids so that each payment is reduced by an equal percentage amount. The commissioner of revenue shall certify each county's transition aid to the commissioner of human services for purposes of this adjustment.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DISPARITY REDUCTION AID.] (a) For taxes payable in 1989, a disparity reduction aid shall be calculated for each unique taxing jurisdiction. The aid is the greater of:

(1) the difference between (i) the total 1988 gross tax payable on all taxable property within the unique taxing jurisdiction, and (ii) the gross tax capacity of the unique taxing jurisdiction; or

(2) 20 percent of the difference between (i) the 1988 gross tax of the city or township, and (ii) 23 percent of the city's or township's gross tax capacity.

In no case can the aid be less than $0. For taxes payable in 1990, the amount of disparity aid originally certified for each unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989 shall be multiplied by (1) 1.03, and (2) the ratio of the jurisdiction's net tax capacity to its gross tax capacity, based upon market values for taxes payable in 1989.

(b) The disparity reduction aid is allocated to each local government levying taxes in the unique taxing jurisdiction in the proportion that the local government's payable gross taxes bears to the total payable gross taxes levied within the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(c) In ~~1990~~ 1991 and subsequent years, a local government shall receive disparity reduction aid equal to that it received in ~~1989~~ 1990.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.08, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. After the tax capacity rate of a local government has been determined pursuant to subdivision 1b, the auditor shall adjust the local government's tax capacity rate within each unique taxing jurisdiction as defined in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, in which the local government exercises taxing authority. The adjustment shall equal the unique taxing jurisdiction's disparity reduction aids allocated to the local government pursuant to section 273.1398, subdivision 3, and tax base equalization aid under section 477A.013, subdivision 4, divided by the total tax capacity of all taxable property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The adjustment shall reduce the tax capacity rate of the local government within the unique taxing jurisdiction for which the adjustment was calculated.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 276.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF TAX STATEMENTS.] (a) ~~The treasurer shall, whether or not directed by the county board, cause to be printed on all tax statements, or on an attachment, The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the property tax statement and its contents. The statement must contain a tabulated statement of the dollar amount due to each taxing authority from the parcel of real property for which a particular tax statement is prepared. The dollar amounts due the county, township or municipality and school district must be separately stated. The amounts due other taxing districts, if any, may be aggregated. The dollar amounts, including the dollar amount of any special assessments, may be rounded to the nearest even whole dollar. For purposes of this section whole odd-numbered dollars may be adjusted to the next higher even-numbered dollar. The statement shall include the~~ following sentence, printed in upper case letters in boldface print: "THE STATE OF MINNESOTA DOES NOT RECEIVE ANY PROPERTY TAX REVENUES. THE STATE OF MINNESOTA REDUCES YOUR PROPERTY TAX BY PAYING CREDITS AND REIMBURSEMENTS TO LOCAL UNITS OF GOVERNMENT."

(b) The property tax statements for manufactured homes and sectional structures taxed as personal property shall contain the same information that is required on the tax statements for real property.

(c) For taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter, real and personal property tax statements must contain (1) the property's market value, as defined in section 272.03, subdivision 8, (2) the net tax capacity rate applicable to the property's classification under section 273.13, and the product of (1) and (2), the property's initial tax. The statement must show the difference between a property's gross tax capacity and net tax capacity multiplied by the tax capacity rate as "state paid homestead and agricultural credit." The statement must also show the decrease in tax attributable to that portion of the sum of the following aids attributable to the property as "state paid tax relief": (i) education aids payable under chapters 124 and 124A, (ii) local government aid for cities, towns, and counties under chapter 477A, (iii) disparity reduction aid paid under section 273.1398, and (iv) income maintenance aids as defined in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i). The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the county auditor the actual or estimated aids local governments will receive in the following year.

(d) For taxes payable in 1989 only, the statement must show the property's market value, as defined in section 272.03, subdivision 8, and the amount attributable to section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, as "state paid homestead credit" and the amount attributable to section 273.132 as "state paid agricultural credit." The statement must also show the decrease in tax attributable to that portion of the sum of the following aids attributable to the property as "state paid tax relief": (i) education aids under chapters 124 and 124A, (ii) local government aid for cities, towns, and counties under chapter 477A, and (iii) disparity reduction aid under section 273.1398. The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the county auditor the actual or estimated aids local governments will receive in the following year.

Sec. 28. [365B.01] [TOWNS; SUBORDINATE SERVICE DISTRICTS; PURPOSE.]

It is the purpose of this chapter to provide a means by which a town as a unit of general local government can effectively provide and finance various governmental services for its residents.

Sec. 29. [365B.02] [DEFINITION.]

“Subordinate service district” means a defined area within the town in which one or more governmental services or additions to townwide services are provided by the town specially for the area and financed from revenues from the area. The boundaries of a single subordinate service district may not embrace an entire town.

Sec. 30. [365B.03] [ESTABLISHMENT OF SERVICE DISTRICT.]

Notwithstanding any provision of law requiring uniform property tax rates on real or personal property within the town, a town may establish subordinate service districts to provide and finance a governmental service or function that it is otherwise authorized to undertake. A function or service to be provided may include a function or service that the town ordinarily provides throughout the town only to the extent that there is an increase in the level of the function or service provided in the service district over that provided throughout the town.

Sec. 31. [365B.04] [CREATION BY PETITION.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] A petition signed by 50 percent of the property owners in the part of the town proposed for the subordinate service district may be submitted to the town board requesting the establishment of a subordinate service district to provide a service that the town is otherwise authorized by law to provide. The petition must include the territorial boundaries of the proposed district and specify the kinds of services to be provided within the district.

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC HEARING.] Upon receipt of the petition, and the verification of the signatures by the town clerk, the town board shall, within 30 days following verification, hold a public hearing on the question of whether or not the requested district shall be established.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL; DISAPPROVAL.] Within 30 days after the public hearing, the town board by resolution shall approve or disapprove the establishment of the requested district. A resolution approving the establishment of the district may contain amendments or modifications of the district's boundaries or functions as set forth in the petition.

Sec. 32. [365B.05] [PUBLICATION AND EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Within 20 days after passage of a resolution authorizing the establishment of a subordinate service district, the town board shall have the resolution published once in a qualified newspaper of general circulation within the town. The resolution must include a general description of the territory to be included within the district, the kind of service to be provided, and a statement of how the service will be financed. A notice must also be mailed to the owner of each parcel within the area proposed to be included in the district. The notice shall be sent to the same address as on the property tax statement. The district shall begin 60 days after publication or at a later date specified in the resolution.

Sec. 33. [365B.06] [REVERSE REFERENDUM.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Upon receipt of a petition signed by 25 percent of the property owners within the territory of the proposed district, before the effective date of its establishment as specified in section 32, the establishment shall be in abeyance pending referendum vote within the boundaries of the proposed district.

Subd. 2. [ELECTION.] The town board shall hold a special election within the boundaries of the proposed district not less than 30 nor more than 90 days after receipt of the petition. The question submitted and voted upon by the property owners within the territory of the proposed district must be phrased substantially as follows:

"Shall a subordinate service district be established to provide (service or services to be provided) financed by (revenue sources)?"

If a majority of those voting on the question favor creation of the district, the district shall begin upon certification of the vote by the town clerk. The town clerk shall administer the election.

Sec. 34. [365B.07] [EXPANSION OF BOUNDARIES OF A DISTRICT.]

The town board, upon petition, may enlarge any existing subordinate service district under the procedures specified in sections 31 to 34. Only property owners residing in territory to be added to the district shall be eligible to participate in an election, unless 25 percent of the property owners residing in the existing district petition to participate, in which case all property owners residing in the proposed enlarged district shall be eligible.

Sec. 35. [365B.08] [FINANCING.]

Upon adoption of the next annual budget following the creation of a subordinate service district the town board shall include in the budget appropriate provisions for the operation of the district including either a property tax levied only on property of the users of the service within the boundaries of the district or a levy of a service charge against the users of the service within the district, or a combination of a property tax and a service charge on the users of the service.

A tax or service charge or a combination of them may be imposed to finance a function or service in the district that the town ordinarily provides throughout the town only to the extent that there is an increase in the level of the function or service provided in the service district over that provided throughout the town. In that case, in addition to the townwide tax levy, an amount necessary to pay for the increase in the level of the function or service may be imposed in the district.

Sec. 36. [365B.09] [WITHDRAWAL; ELECTION.]

Upon receipt of a petition signed by 50 percent of the property owners in the territory of the subordinate service district requesting the removal of the district, the town board shall hold a special election within the service district not less than 30 nor more than 90 days after the resolution or receipt of the petition. The question to be submitted and voted upon by the property owners in the district shall be phrased substantially as follows:

"Shall the subordinate service district presently established be removed and the service or services of the town as provided for the service district be discontinued?"

If a majority of those voting on the question favor the removal and discontinuance of the services, the service district shall be removed and the services shall be discontinued upon certification of the vote by the town clerk. The town clerk shall administer the election.

Sec. 37. [365B.10] [COORDINATION OF DISTRICTS.]

If a county establishes a subordinate service district in part of a town under enabling law for counties, a town may not establish a subordinate service district to provide the same service in the part of the town served by the county. If a town establishes a subordinate service district in part of the town under this chapter or other law, a county may not establish a subordinate service district to provide the same service in the part of the town served by the town.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 459.14, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [PROPERTY EXEMPT FROM TAXATION.] Any property, real or personal, owned, leased, maintained, or operated as a municipal parking facility under this section is owned, leased, maintained, or operated for essential public and governmental purposes, and is exempt from all ad valorem taxes levied by the state or a political subdivision of the state.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.012, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [PARKING FACILITIES.] An authority may operate and maintain public parking facilities in connection with any of its projects.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.040, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LEASED PROPERTY, EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, any property other than property to be operated as a parking or other public facility that the authority leases to private individuals or corporations for development in connection with a redevelopment project shall have the same tax status as if the leased property were owned by the private individuals or corporations.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473F.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. On or before October 15 of 1976 and each subsequent year, the county auditor shall apportion the levy of each governmental unit in the auditor's county in the manner prescribed by this subdivision. The auditor shall:

(a) Determine the areawide portion of the levy for each governmental unit by multiplying the tax capacity rate of the governmental unit for the preceding levy year times the distribution value set forth in subdivision 2, clause (b); and

(b) Determine the local portion of the current year's levy by subtracting the resulting amount from clause (a) from the governmental unit's current year's levy. For taxes payable in 1990 only, the amount determined under paragraph (a) shall be increased by three percent for all taxing jurisdictions.

Sec. 42. [SPECIAL SERVICES DEFINED.]

For purposes of sections 42 and 43, "special services" means all services rendered or contracted for by the city of Mankato, including but not limited to:

(1) the repair, maintenance, operation, and construction of any improvement authorized by Minnesota Statutes, section 429.021;

(2) parking services rendered or contracted for by the city; and

(3) any other service provided to the public by the city that is authorized by law or charter.

Sec. 43. [ESTABLISHMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICES DISTRICT; ORDINANCE.]

The governing body of the city of Mankato may adopt an ordinance establishing a special service district. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 428A govern the establishment and operation of special service districts in the city.

Sec. 44. [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

Sections 42 and 43 are effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Mankato.

Sec. 45. [SPECIAL SERVICES DEFINED.]

For purposes of sections 45 to 47, "special services" means all services rendered or contracted for by the city of Hopkins, including, but not limited to:

(1) the repair, maintenance, operation, and construction of any improvement authorized by Minnesota Statutes, section 429.021;

(2) parking services rendered or contracted for by the city; and

(3) any other service provided to the public by the city that is authorized by law or charter.

Sec. 46. [ESTABLISHMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDINANCE.] The governing body of the city may adopt an ordinance establishing a special service district. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 428A, govern the establishment and operation of special service districts in the city.

Sec. 47. [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

Sections 45 and 46 are effective the day following compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Hopkins.

Sec. 48. Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 7, section 9, is amended to read:

Sec. 9. [COUNTY ASSESSORS; SENIOR ACCREDITATION.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 273.061, the commissioner of revenue's approval on January 1, 1989, of appointments of assessors who are not senior accredited on January 1, 1989, shall be for a term of ~~one year~~ two years. A county assessor appointed for a ~~one-year~~ two-year term must reapply to the commissioner by January 1, ~~1990~~ 1991, to obtain the approval of the commissioner for the remainder of the four-year term.

Sec. 49. [INSTRUCTION TO THE REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall delete the phrase "transition aid" wherever it appears in Minnesota Statutes, sections 124.155, 124.2139, 273.1398, 275.07, and 477A.011, and insert "homestead and agricultural credit aid."

Sec. 50. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective the day following final enactment and is intended to confirm and clarify the original intent of the legislature in the taxation and equalization of state-assessed public utility property.

Sections 5, 14 to 27, and 38 to 40 are effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter.

Section 8 is effective for the 1989 assessment, taxes payable in 1990, and thereafter.

Notwithstanding the May 1 application date in section 273.111, subdivision 8, section 9 is effective for the 1989 assessment payable in 1990, and thereafter.

Section 10 is effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 273.112, subdivision 6, in order to qualify for valuation under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.112, for the 1989 assessment, the taxpayer of the property operated by private clubs under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.112, subdivision 3, clause (c)(3), must submit an affidavit or other written verification to the assessor by July 1, 1989, showing that the bylaws in rules and regulations of the private club meet the eligibility requirements of section 10 by July 1, 1989.

Section 11 is effective the day following final enactment.

Section 13 is effective for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991, and thereafter.

ARTICLE 6

LEVY LIMITS AND INCOME MAINTENANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [INCOME MAINTENANCE AIDS REDUCTION.] The income maintenance aids payable to a county in 1990 and thereafter under Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 8 must be reduced by the lesser of the amount the county levied in 1988 payable in 1989 for programs included in income maintenance aids or the amount of homestead and agricultural credit aid, but not below zero. The reduction must be prorated among the payments so that each payment is reduced proportionally. The amount payable by a county for programs included in income maintenance aids for calendar year 1989 must be estimated by the county and certified to the department of revenue by July 15, 1989. If the amount paid by a county for programs included in income maintenance aids is less than or greater than the amount certified to the department of revenue, the amount of difference shall be adjusted accordingly. The commissioner of revenue shall certify the amount of the reduction for each county to the department of human services.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.50, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION.] (a) "Governmental subdivision" means a county, a home rule charter city, or a statutory city, except a home rule charter or statutory city that has a population of less than 2,500 according to the most recent federal census.

(b) "Governmental subdivision" also includes any home rule charter or statutory city or town that receives a distribution from the taconite municipal aid account in the levy year.

(c) "Governmental subdivision" also includes a regional rail authority.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in 1988 1989 payable in 1989 1990 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to pay the costs enumerated in subdivision 5a and to:

(a) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. Except for the costs of general assistance as defined in section 256D.02, subdivision 4, general assistance medical care under section 256D.03 and the costs of hospital care pursuant to section 261.21, the aggregate amounts levied pursuant to this clause are subject to a maximum increase of 18 percent over the amount levied for these purposes in the previous year. Effective with taxes levied in 1989, the portion of this special levy for income maintenance programs identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), is eliminated;

(b) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness except on bonded indebtedness issued under section 471.981, subdivisions 4 to 4c or to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(c) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency; and to pay the cost for certificates of indebtedness issued pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282;

(d) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(e) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(f) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(g) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(h) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(i) ~~to~~ compensate the state for the cost of a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16; and

(j) pay the debt service on tax increment financing revenue bonds to the extent that revenue to pay the bonds or to maintain reserves for the bonds is insufficient as a result of the provisions of Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 5-;

(k) pay the unreimbursed costs incurred in the previous year to satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, provided that an appeal for the unreimbursed costs under this clause was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 7;

(l) pay the expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred in preventing, preparing for, or repairing the effects of natural disaster including the occurrence or threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from natural causes such as earthquake, fire, flood, wind storm, wave action, oil spill, water contamination, air contamination, or drought in accordance with standards formulated by the emergency services division of the state department of public safety, provided that an appeal for the expenses incurred under this clause were approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 7;

(m) pay a portion of the losses in tax receipts to a city due to tax abatements or court actions in the year preceding the current levy year, provided that an appeal for the tax losses was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 7. This special levy is limited to the amount of the losses times the ratio of the nonspecial levies to total levies for taxes payable in the year the abatements were granted. County governments are not authorized to claim this special levy;

(n) pay the operating cost of regional library services authorized under section 134.34. If a county or city also operates its own county or city library, and if the levy for that purpose was included under the payable 1989 levy limit base it shall remain under the levy limit base for subsequent years and is not a special levy under this clause;

(o) pay the amount of the county building fund levy permitted under section 373.40, subdivision 6; and

(p) pay the county's share of the costs levied in 1989, 1990, and 1991 for the Minnesota cooperative soil survey under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 40.07, subdivision 15.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [LOCAL SPECIAL LEVIES.] (a) "Special levies" includes ad valorem taxes levied by the following governmental subdivision for the following purpose:

The amount levied by Goodhue county for the county historical society if enacted under sections 5 and 6.

(b) If either the payable 1988 or the payable 1989 levy limit base for a governmental subdivision included an amount for a purpose specified in paragraph (a) and that amount had been claimed as a special levy in the year previous to 1988 or 1989, the department of revenue shall reduce the governmental subdivision's levy limit base for the current year by the lesser of the amount of the special levy included in the 1988 or 1989 base, or the amount levied under paragraph (a).

Sec. 5. [GOODHUE COUNTY; HISTORICAL SOCIETY LEVY.]

Goodhue county may levy a tax of up to $360,000 per year on property in the county and use the proceeds of the levy for the county historical society. The levy shall be a special levy as provided in section 275.50, subdivision 5a.

Sec. 6. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.]

If the Goodhue county board intends to exercise the authority provided by section 5 in subsequent years, it shall pass a resolution stating the fact before January 1, 1990. The resolution must be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the county or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing must be held at least two weeks but not more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the county may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution must also be published in the official newspaper of the county or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. If within 30 days after publication of the resolution a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the county in the last general election requesting a vote on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution is not effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a special or general election before December 1, 1990.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 3f, is amended to read:

Subd. 3f. [LEVY LIMIT BASE.] (a) The property tax levy limit base for governmental subdivisions for taxes levied in 1988 shall be equal to the total actual levy for taxes payable in 1988 plus with additions and subtractions as specified in paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) The amounts to be added to the actual levy are (1) the amount of any payments local government aid the governmental subdivision was certified to receive in 1988 under sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 and minus, (2) its 1988 taconite aids under sections 298.28 and 298.282, and (3) its 1988 wetlands and native prairie reimbursements under Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 273.115, subdivision 3, and 273.116, subdivision 3.

(c) The amounts to be subtracted from the actual 1988 levy are:

(1) any special levies claimed for taxes payable in 1988 pursuant to Laws 1987, chapter 268, article 5, section 12, subdivision 4, clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4); and

(2) for a governmental subdivision participating in a regional library system receiving grants from the department of education under section 134.34, the amount levied for taxes payable in 1988 for the operating costs of a public library service. A county's levy limit base will be increased by the amount of any increase in its levy under section 134.07 over that levied under section 134.07 for taxes payable in 1988 which is required under section 134.341; and

(3) for a governmental subdivision which begins participation on January 1, 1990, in a regional library system receiving grants from the department of education under section 134.34, the amount levied for taxes payable in 1989 for the operating costs of public library service.

(d) For governmental subdivisions located in the seven-county metropolitan area, the total actual levy for taxes payable in 1988 shall include the fiscal disparities distribution levy pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473F.08, subdivision 7a.

(b) (e) For taxes levied in 1989 and subsequent years, a governmental subdivision's levy limit base is equal to its adjusted levy limit base for the preceding year not including the adjustment made under subdivision 3h, paragraph (e), plus for taxes levied in 1989 the administrative reimbursement aid received in 1988.

If a governmental subdivision received an adjustment to its levy limit base for taxes levied in 1988 under section 275.51, subdivision 3j, its levy limit base for taxes levied in 1989 must be reduced by the lesser of (1) the adjustment under section 275.51, subdivision 3j, or (2) the difference between its (i) levy limit for taxes levied in 1988 and its (ii) total actual levy for taxes levied in 1988 minus any special levies claimed for taxes levied in 1988 under section 275.50, subdivision 5.

In the case of a county, its levy limit base for taxes levied in 1989 must be reduced by the amount by which its income maintenance aid reduction under section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, exceeds the portion of its special levy for taxes levied in 1988 under section 275.50, subdivision 5, paragraph (a), that was levied for income maintenance programs identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1. If the income maintenance aid reduction under section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, exceeds the total amount that a county levied for income maintenance programs identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, the county can apply to the commissioner of revenue to have the amount of reduction adjusted. Applications shall be in the form and accompanied by the data required by the commissioner.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 3g, is amended to read:

Subd. 3g. [ALTERNATIVE LEVY LIMIT BASE ADJUSTMENTS.] Any governmental subdivision which reduced any of its unreserved, undesignated fund balances because of spending for non-special levy purposes in calendar year 1981 may apply to the commissioner of revenue to have its levy limit base increased for the taxes payable year 1984 by no more than the amount of the reduction in the fund balances.

Applications shall be in the form and accompanied by the data required by the commissioner. If approved by the commissioner, the subdivision may then pass a resolution stating the amount by which the levy limit base is proposed to be increased. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the proposed increase. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the governing body may determine to take no further action or, in the alternative, adopt a resolution authorizing the increase as originally proposed or approving an increase in the lesser amount it determines. The resolution authorizing an increase shall be published in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the governmental subdivision in the last general election or 2,000 voters, whichever is less, requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision if the governmental subdivision is a city or town, or with the county auditor if the governmental subdivision is a county, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. The referendum must be held at a special or general election prior to October 1, 1988. For taxes levied in 1989, compute an alternative levy limit base for each governmental subdivision which was granted an appeal for the use of reserve funds under section 275.51, subdivision 3j, for taxes levied in 1988 or was granted on appeal for the use of reserve funds pursuant to Laws 1987, chapter 268, article 5, section 12, subdivision 5. The "alternative levy limit base" is equal to the governmental subdivisions adjusted levy limit base for taxes levied in 1986 increased by any base adjustments claimed for taxes levied in 1987 under Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 275.51, subdivision 3h, plus any adjustments made to the 1987 levy limit base under Laws 1987, chapter 268, article 5, section 12, subdivision 5, for all purposes except for the expenditure of reserve funds. For taxes levied in 1989 the adjusted alternative levy limit base is equal to the alternative levy limit base increased by the adjustment factors under section 275.51, subdivision 3h, in effect for taxes levied in 1988 and in 1989. For taxes levied in 1990 and subsequent years, the adjusted alternative levy limit base is equal to the adjusted alternative levy limit base from the previous year increased by the adjustment factors in section 275.51, subdivision 3h.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 3h, is amended to read:

Subd. 3h. [ADJUSTED LEVY LIMIT BASE.] For taxes levied in 1988 1989 and thereafter, the adjusted levy limit base is equal to the levy limit base computed pursuant to subdivision 3f, increased by:

(a) a percentage equal to four percent for taxes levied in 1988 and three percent for taxes levied in 1989 and subsequent years; and

(b) a percentage equal to the greater of the percentage increases increase in population or in number of households, if any, for the most recent 12-month period for which data is available, using figures derived pursuant to subdivision 6; and

(c) the amount of a permanent increase in the levy limit base approved at a general or special election held during the 12-month period ending September 30 of the levy year under section 275.58, subdivisions 1 and 2.

For taxes levied in 1989 and subsequent years, to the resulting product must be added the estimated reduction in a county's income maintenance aids as defined in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, pursuant to section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d). The department of human services shall annually estimate the increase in income maintenance aids referred to in section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), and certify it by county to the department of revenue by July 15 of the levy year preceding that in which the aids are payable. If the actual increase in a county's income maintenance aid referred to in section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), is less than or greater than the amount added to a county's adjusted levy limit base in the prior year, its adjusted levy limit base for the subsequent year will be increased or decreased by the appropriate amount.

The adjusted levy limit base for governmental subdivisions that received an appeal for expenditures from reserve funds for taxes levied in 1987 or in 1988 is equal to the levy limit base computed under subdivision 3f increased by the amount in paragraph (c).

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 3i, is amended to read:

Subd. 3i. [LEVY LIMITATION.] The levy limitation for a governmental subdivision shall be equal to the greater of the adjusted alternative levy limit base determined under subdivision 3g or the adjusted levy limit base determined pursuant to under subdivision 3h, reduced by

(1) the local government aid that the governmental subdivision has been certified to receive pursuant to under sections 477A.011 to 477A.014, except for tax base equalization aid under section 477A.013, subdivision 4; and (2) taconite aids under sections 298.28 and 298.282 including any aid received in the levy year that was required to be placed in a special fund for expenditure in the next succeeding year; and in the case of a county, increased by the amount of the income maintenance aid reduction under section 273.1398, subdivision 2a.

As provided in section 298.28, one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under section 298.28, subdivision 5, paragraph (d), must not be deducted from the levy limit base of a county that receives the aid.

This amount is the amount of property taxes which a governmental subdivision may levy for all purposes other than those for which special levies and special assessments are made.

For taxes levied in 1989 and later years, the levy limit for a county calculated under clause (2) must be decreased by an additional amount equal to the difference between what would have been a county's production year 1986 payable 1987 distribution under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.28, based on 1986 production and its actual distribution for production year 1986, payable 1987.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 3j, is amended to read:

Subd. 3j. [APPEALS.] A governmental subdivision subject to the limitations in this section may appeal to the commissioner of revenue for an adjustment in its levy limit base under this section authorization to levy for the special levies as contained in section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (k), (l), and (m). If the governmental subdivision can provide evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that its levy for taxes payable in 1988 had been reduced because it had made expenditures from reserve funds it incurred costs for the specified purposes of those levies, the commissioner may permit allow the governmental subdivision to increase its levy limit base under this section under section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (k), (l), or (m) by the amount determined by the commissioner. The commissioner's decision is final.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the levy made by a governmental subdivision exceeds the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56, except when such excess levy is due to the rounding of the tax capacity rates of the governmental subdivision in accordance with section 275.28, subsequent distributions required to be made by the commissioner of finance from any formula aids pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 or homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, shall be reduced 33 cents for each full dollar the levy exceeds the limitation.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POPULATION AND HOUSEHOLD ESTIMATES.] For the purpose of determining the amount of tax that a governmental subdivision may levy in accordance with limitation established by this chapter, the population or the number of households of the governmental subdivision shall be that established by the last federal census, by a census taken pursuant to section 275.14, or by an estimate made by the metropolitan council, or by the state demographer made pursuant to section 116K.04, subdivision 4, whichever is the most recent as to the stated date of count or estimate, up to and including July 1 of for the calendar year preceding the current levy year.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.58, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~Notwithstanding Subject to the provisions of sections 275.50 to 275.56, but subject and to other law or charter provisions establishing per capita, mill or other limitations on the amount of taxes that may be levied, the levy of a governmental subdivision, as defined by section 275.50, subdivision 1, may be increased above the limitation imposed by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in any per capita or dollar amount which is approved by the majority of voters of the governmental subdivision voting on the question at a general or special election. When the governing body of the governmental subdivision resolves to increase the levy of the governmental subdivision pursuant to this section, it shall provide for submission of the proposition of an increase in the levy limit base per capita or the proposition of an additional levy, as the case may be, at a general or special election. Notice of such election shall be given in the manner required by law. If the proposition is for an adjustment to the governmental subdivision's levy limit base per capita, increasing the levy limit base per capita over the per capita amount established pursuant to section 275.51, subdivision 3, such notice shall state the purpose of such per capita adjustment and the per capita amount of such adjustment. If the proposition is for an additional levy, such notice shall state the purpose and maximum yearly amount of such additional levy.~~

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.167, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX.] The council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, to provide funds for loans made pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 2a. This tax for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund shall be certified by the council, levied, and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13. The tax shall be in addition to that authorized by section 473.249 and any other law and shall not affect the amount or rate of taxes which may be levied by the council or any metropolitan agency or local governmental unit. The amount of the levy shall be as determined and certified by the council, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan council for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

- (a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of 5/100 of one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, except as provided in section 473.249, subdivision 3, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990, an amount not to exceed $2,300,000; and

(d) for taxes payable in 1990 1991 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the previous year taxes payable in 1988 determined pursuant to this subdivision under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the previous 1987 assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

The property tax levied under this subdivision for taxes payable in 1988 and subsequent years shall not be levied at a rate higher than that determined by the metropolitan council to be sufficient, considering the other anticipated revenues of and disbursements from the right-of-way acquisition loan fund, to produce a balance in the loan fund at the end of the next calendar year equal to twice the amount of the property tax levy limitation for taxes payable in the next calendar year determined under this section.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.167, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LEVY INCREASE.] For the purpose of determining the levy limitation for taxes payable in 1989 under subdivision 3, the levy limitation for taxes payable in 1988 shall be multiplied by two. The levy limitation so determined for taxes payable in 1989 shall be the basis for determining levy limitations for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years under subdivision 3.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.249, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The metropolitan council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area defined in section 473.121 to provide funds for the purposes of sections 473.121 to 473.249 and for the purpose of carrying out other responsibilities of the council as provided by law. This tax for general purposes shall be levied and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan council for general purposes shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of $8/30$ of one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (2) the lesser of

(i) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the previous assessment year; or

(ii) an index equal to the implicit price deflator for state and local government purchases of goods and services for the most recent month for which data is available divided by the implicit price deflator for state and local government purchases of goods and services for the same month of the previous year.

For the purpose of determining the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

Sec. 18. [ITASCA COUNTY; LEVY LIMIT PENALTY EXEMPTION.]

The amount of any tax levied by Itasca county under Laws 1988, chapter 517, is not subject to a penalty imposed under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.51, subdivision 4, for exceeding levy limits under Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 19. [APPLICATION.]

Sections 15 to 17 apply in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Sec. 20. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.249, subdivision 3, is repealed.

Sec. 21. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3, 7 to 17, 19, and 20 are effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 and subsequent years except as otherwise provided. Sections 4 to 6 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 18 is effective upon approval by the Itasca county board for taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989 only.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT AIDS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.011, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [CITY.] City means a statutory or home rule charter city. City also means a town having a population of 5,000 or more.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.013, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TOWNS.] In calendar year 1988, each town which had levied for taxes payable in the previous year at least one mill on the dollar of the assessed value of the town shall receive a distribution equal to the greater of: (a) 60 percent of the amount received in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 273.138, 273.139, and 477A.011 to 477A.03; or (b) the amount certified in 1987 pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.03. In calendar year 1989; each town that had levied for taxes payable in 1988 at least one mill on the dollar of the assessed value of the town shall receive a distribution equal to 106 percent of the distribution received under Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 477A.013, subdivision 1, in 1988. In calendar year 1990 and subsequent years, each town that had levied for taxes payable in the prior year a tax capacity rate of at least .0125 shall receive a distribution equal to 106 percent of the amount received in 1989 under this subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.013, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CITY AID DISTRIBUTION.] In 1989, a city whose initial aid is greater than $0 will receive the following aid increases in addition to an amount equal to the local government aid it received in 1988 under Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 477A.013:

(1) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.5, two percent of city revenue;

(2) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.4 but less than 1.5, 2.5 percent of city revenue;

(3) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.3 but less than 1.4, three percent of city revenue;

(4) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.2 but less than 1.3, four percent of city revenue;

(5) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.1 but less than 1.2, five percent of city revenue;

(6) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.05 but less than 1.1, six percent of city revenue;

(7) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.0 but less than 1.05, seven percent of city revenue;

(8) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least .95 but less than 1.0, 7.5 percent of city revenue;

(9) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least .75 but less than .95, 8.5 percent of city revenue; and

(10) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is less than .75, nine percent of city revenue.

In 1990 and subsequent years, a city whose initial aid is greater than $0 will receive an amount equal to the aid it received under this subdivision and subdivision 4 in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated plus an aid increase equal to 50 percent of the rates listed in clauses (1) to (10) multiplied by city revenue.

A city's aid increase under this subdivision is limited to the lesser of (1) 20 percent of its levy for taxes payable in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated after the adjustments provided in section 273.1398, subdivision 2, or (2) its initial aid amount, or (3) 15 percent of its total local government aid for aids payable in the previous year, provided that no city will receive an increase that is less than two percent of its 1988 local government aid for aids payable in 1989.

A city whose initial aid is $0 will receive in 1989 an amount equal to 102 percent of the local government aid it received in 1988 under Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 477A.013. A city whose initial aid is $0 will receive in 1990 and subsequent years an amount equal to the aid it received in the previous year under this subdivision and subdivision 4.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.013, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL DISTRIBUTION TAX BASE EQUALIZATION AID IN 1990.] A city with a population over 2500 is eligible for additional aid in 1989 only. The amount of additional aid is equal to (1) the product of (i) the lesser of 50 percent of a city's "city revenue guarantee" or 50 percent of a city's "city revenue" and (ii) one minus the ratio of the city's tax capacity per household to 435; less (2) the sum of (i) the disparity reduction aid payable to all unique taxing jurisdictions within a city and (ii) the local government aid increase for the city. The additional aid under this section cannot be less than zero. A city is eligible for tax base equalization aid in 1990 if it is not a city of the first class and is not a city eligible for aid under sections 298.28 and 298.282. The amount of the tax base equalization aid is equal to (1) the product of (i) 30 percent of its average levy for the three immediately preceding years and (ii) one minus the ratio of the city's tax capacity per capita to 230; less (2) the local government aid increase for the city under subdivision 3. The aid under this section is limited to 15 percent of the total local government aid the city received in 1989. The aid under this section cannot be less than zero. For the purposes of this subdivision "levy" includes a city's levy on fiscal disparities distribution under section 473F.08, subdivision 3, paragraph (a).

Sec. 5. [LOCAL GOVERNMENTAL EXPENDITURES FOR LOBBYISTS.]

On or before July 1, 1989, all counties, school districts, metropolitan agencies, and cities shall report to the state auditor, on forms prescribed by the auditor, their estimated expenditures paid for the previous calendar year to a lobbyist as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 11, and to any staff person not registered as a lobbyist but who spends over 25 percent of his or her time during the legislative session on legislative matters.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective for local government aid paid in 1990.

ARTICLE 8

TRUTH-IN-TAXATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM LEVY.] (1) The levy authorized by section 124A.23, subdivision 2, may be increased in any amount that is approved by the voters of the district at a referendum called for the purpose. The referendum may be called by the school board or shall be called by the school board upon written petition of qualified voters of the district. The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board. Only two elections may be held to approve a levy increase that will commence in a specific school year. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy in mills, the amount that will be raised by that tax capacity rate in the first year it is to be levied, and that the tax capacity rate shall be used to finance school operations. The ballot ~~may~~ shall designate a specific number of years for which the referendum authorization shall apply. No referendum authorized under this subdivision after June 1, shall be in effect for more than three years. The ballot may contain a textual portion with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the levy proposed by (petition to) the board of, School District No. . ., be approved?"

If approved, the amount provided by the approved tax capacity rate applied to each year's gross tax capacity shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

(2) The school board shall prepare and deliver by first class mail at least 30 days but no more than 60 days prior to the day of the election to each taxpayer at the address listed on the school district's current year's assessment roll, a notice of the referendum and the proposed levy increase. The notice must project the anticipated amount of increase in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments and commercial-industrial property within the school district.

(3) A referendum on the question of revoking or reducing the increased levy amount authorized pursuant to clause (1) may be called by the school board and shall be called by the school board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the district. A levy approved by the voters of the district pursuant to clause (1) must be made at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation or reduction for subsequent years. Only one such revocation or reduction election may be held to revoke or reduce a levy for any specific year and for years thereafter.

(3) (4) A petition authorized by clause (1) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent, or ten percent if the school board election is held in conjunction with a general election, of the average number of voters at the two most recent district wide school elections. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.

(4) (5) A petition authorized by clause (2) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of five percent of the residents of the school district as determined by the most recent census. A revocation or reduction referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.

(5) (6) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum.

(6) (7) Within 30 days after the district holds a referendum pursuant to this clause, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.119, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REIMBURSEMENT FOR LOST REVENUE.] The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the cost of the property tax credit. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1 of each year the amount of tax lost to the county from the property tax credit under subdivision 1 and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. On or before July 15 of each year, The commissioner shall reimburse the county each taxing district, other than school districts, from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 for the taxes lost in excess of the county account. The payments must be made at the times provided in section 477A.015 for payment of local government aid to taxing jurisdictions in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.123, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] The county auditor shall calculate the tax on the property described in subdivision 2 based on the assessment made on January 2 of the year in which the disaster or emergency occurred. The difference between the tax determined on the January 2 gross tax capacity and the tax actually payable based on the reassessed gross tax capacity determined under subdivision 2 shall be reimbursed to each taxing jurisdiction in which the damaged property is located. The amount shall be certified by the county auditor and reported to the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall make the payments to the taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, containing the property at the time distributions are made pursuant to section 273.13 for taxes payable in 1989, and pursuant to section 273.1398 for taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter under section 477A.015, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.123, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMPUTATION OF CREDITS.] The amounts of any credits or tax relief which reduce the gross tax shall be computed upon the reassessed gross tax capacity determined under subdivision 2. Payment shall be made pursuant to section 273.13 for taxes payable in 1989, and pursuant to section 273.1398 for taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter. For purposes of the property tax refund, property taxes payable, as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 13, and net property taxes payable, as defined in section 290A.04, subdivision 2d, shall be computed upon the reassessed gross tax capacity determined under subdivision 2.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1392, is amended to read:

273.1392 [PAYMENT; AIDS TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS.]

The amounts of conservation tax credits under section 273.119; disaster or emergency reimbursement under section 273.123; attached machinery aid under section 273.138; homestead credit under section 273.13; agricultural credit under section 273.132; aids and credits under section 273.1398; enterprise zone property credit payments under section 469.171; state commercial-industrial effective tax rate reduction under article 5, section 12, of this act; and metropolitan agricultural preserve reduction under section 473H.10, shall be certified to the department of education by the department of revenue. The amounts so certified shall be paid according to section 124.195, subdivisions 6 and 10.

Sec. 6. [275.063] [PURPOSE AND GOALS FOR TRUTH IN TAXATION.]

The legislature finds that Minnesota's property tax system is very complex and hard for taxpayers to comprehend. In an effort to increase taxpayer understanding while encouraging them to participate in the process and increase local accountability, the following goals are desirable.

(a) Simplify property tax statements by having separate statements for each taxing authority.

(b) Increase accountability by requiring that taxpayers pay each separate taxing authority for the property taxes it levies.

(c) Provide "Truth in Taxation" by requiring any taxing authority which proposes to increase its tax levy beyond a "normal growth" factor must notify taxpayers of the proposed tax increase and conduct a public hearing.

Sec. 7. [275.064] [PROPOSED PROPERTY TAXES; REQUIRED NOTICE FOR CERTAIN TAXING AUTHORITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROPOSED LEVY.] On or before September 15, each taxing authority shall adopt a proposed budget and certify to the county auditor the proposed property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year. For purposes of this section, "taxing authority" includes home rule and statutory cities with a population of over 2,500 and counties. If the taxing authority's proposed levy and estimated local government aid under chapter 477A payable in the following year have a total increase of more than "normal growth" over the taxing authority's current year's levy plus local government aid, the taxing authority shall be required to comply with the provisions contained in this section. The county auditor shall notify those taxing authorities which exceed the limit of "normal growth." For purposes of this section, "normal growth" is defined as the sum of 5.0 percent and the taxing authority's annual percent increase, if any, in population, based on the most recent available estimates.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF PROPOSED PROPERTY TAXES.] (a) All taxing authorities for which a notice is required under subdivision 1, shall, on or before October 1, prepare and deliver by first class mail to each taxpayer within the boundaries of the taxing authority at the address listed on its current year's assessment roll, a notice of its proposed property tax levy.

(b) The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the notice. The notice must be easy to read and understand.

(c) The notice must inform taxpayers that it contains the amount of property taxes the taxing authority proposes to collect for the following year. It must clearly state that the taxing authority will hold a public meeting to receive public testimony on the proposed budget. It must clearly state the time and place of the taxing authority's meeting and an address where comments will be received by mail.

The notice must show for the taxing authority the following proposed amounts for taxes payable in the current year compared to actual amounts for taxes payable in the previous year, and expressed as a percentage increase or decrease:

(1) the amount of property taxes before reduction for state aid described in clause (2);

(2) the amount of aid paid by the state to reduce property taxes;

(3) the amount of property tax to be collected; and

(4) the amount of property tax per person.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC HEARING; ADOPTION OF BUDGET AND LEVY.] Between October 1 and November 1, the governing body of the taxing authority shall hold a public hearing to adopt its final budget and property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year.

At the hearing the taxing authority may amend the proposed budget and property tax levy and must adopt a final budget and property tax levy. The adopted property tax levy must not exceed the proposed levy stated in the notice under subdivision 2, paragraph (c), clause (3).

At the hearing the percentage increase in property taxes proposed by the taxing authority, if any, and the specific purposes for which property tax revenues are being increased must be discussed. During the discussion, the governing body shall hear comments regarding the proposed increase and explain the reasons for the proposed increase. The public shall be allowed to speak and to ask questions prior to adoption of any measures by the governing body. The governing body shall adopt its final property tax levy prior to adopting its final budget.

The hearing must be held after 5:00 p.m. if scheduled on a day other than Saturday. No hearing may be held on a Sunday. The city council shall not schedule public meetings on the day scheduled for the hearing by the county board.

If the hearing is recessed, the taxing authority shall publish a notice in a qualified newspaper of general paid circulation in the city. The notice must state the time and place for the continuation of the hearing and must be published at least two days but not more than five days prior to the date the hearing will be continued.

Subd. 4. [CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE.] At the time the taxing authority certifies its tax levy under section 275.07, it shall certify to the commissioner of revenue its compliance with this section. The certification must contain copies of the resolution adopting the final property tax levy under subdivision 3 and any other information required by the commissioner of revenue. If the commissioner determines that the taxing authority has failed to substantially comply with the requirements of this section, the commissioner of revenue shall notify the taxing authority and the county auditor. When fixing rates under section 275.08 for a taxing authority that has not complied with this section, the county auditor must use the taxing authority's previous year's tax capacity rate.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The taxes voted by cities, towns, counties, school districts, and special districts shall be certified by the proper authorities to the county auditor on or before October 25 in each year five working days after the hearing under section 275.064, subdivision 3. The taxes certified shall not be adjusted by the aid received under section 273.1398, subdivisions 2 and 3. If a city, town, county, school district, or special district fails to certify its levy by that date, its levy shall be the amount levied by it for the preceding year. If the local unit notifies the commissioner of revenue before October 25 of its inability to certify its levy by that date, and the commissioner is satisfied that the delay is unavoidable and is not due to the negligence of the local unit's officials or staff, the commissioner shall extend the time within which the local unit shall certify its levy up to 15 calendar days beyond the date of request for extension.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.28, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUDITOR TO MAKE.] The county auditor shall make out the tax lists according to the prescribed form, and to correspond with the assessment districts. The rate percent necessary to raise the required amount of the various taxes shall be calculated on the gross tax capacity of property as determined by the state board of equalization, but, in calculating such rates, no rate shall be used resulting in a fraction other than a decimal fraction, or less than one-tenth of a mill; and, in extending any tax, whenever it amounts to the fractional part of a cent, it shall be made one cent. The tax lists shall also be made out to correspond with the assessment books in reference to ownership and description of property, with columns for the valuation and for the various items of tax included in the total amount of all taxes set down opposite each description; and opposite each description which has been sold for taxes, and which is subject to redemption, but not redeemed, shall be placed the words "sold for taxes." The amount of all special taxes shall be entered in the proper columns, but the general taxes may be shown by entering the rate percent of each tax at the head of the proper columns, without extending the same, in which case a schedule of the rates percent of such taxes shall be made on the first page of each tax list. If the auditor shall fail to enter on any such list before its delivery to the treasurer any tax levied, such tax may be subsequently entered. The tax lists shall be deemed completed, and all taxes extended thereon, as of ~~October 16~~ November 15 annually.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 276.04, is amended to read:

276.04 [NOTICE OF RATES; PROPERTY TAX STATEMENTS NOTICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUDITOR TO PUBLISH RATES.] On receiving the tax lists from the county auditor, the county treasurer shall, if directed by the county board, give three weeks' published notice in a newspaper specifying the rates of taxation for all general purposes and the amounts raised for each specific purpose.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF TAX STATEMENTS NOTICES TO HOMESTEAD PROPERTIES.] (a) This notice shall be provided to taxpayers of homestead property. It shall constitute the statement required in filing for the property tax refund under chapter 290A. The treasurer shall, whether or not directed by the county board, cause to be printed on all tax statements, or on an attachment, commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the property tax notice and its contents. The notice must contain a tabulated statement of the dollar amount due to each taxing authority from the parcel of real property for which a particular tax statement notice is prepared mailed under this subdivision. The dollar amounts due the county, township or municipality and school district must be separately stated. The amounts due other taxing districts, if any, may be aggregated. The dollar amounts, including the dollar amount of any special assessments, may be rounded to the nearest even whole dollar. For purposes of this section whole odd-numbered dollars may be adjusted to the next higher even-numbered dollar. The statement notice shall include the following sentence, printed in upper case letters in boldface print: "THE STATE OF MINNESOTA DOES NOT RECEIVE ANY PROPERTY TAX REVENUES. THE STATE OF MINNESOTA REDUCES YOUR PROPERTY TAX BY PAYING CREDITS AND REIMBURSEMENTS TO LOCAL UNITS OF GOVERNMENT."

(b) The property tax statements notices for manufactured homes and sectional structures taxed as personal property shall contain the same information that is required on the tax statements notices for real property.

(c) For taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter, real and personal property tax statements notices must contain (1) the property's market value, as defined in section 272.03, subdivision 8, (2) the net tax capacity rate applicable to the property's classification under section 273.13, and the product of (1) and (2), the property's initial tax. The statement notice must show the difference between a property's gross tax capacity and net tax capacity multiplied by the tax capacity rate as "state paid homestead and agricultural credit." The statement notice must also show the decrease in tax attributable to that portion of the sum of the following aids attributable to the property as "state paid tax relief": (i) education aids payable under chapters 124 and 124A, (ii) local government aid for cities, towns, and counties under chapter 477A, (iii) disparity reduction aid paid under section 273.1398, and (iv) income maintenance aids as defined in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i). The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the county auditor the actual or estimated aids local governments will receive in the following year.

(d) For taxes payable in 1989 only, the statement must show the property's market value, as defined in section 272.03, subdivision 8, and the amount attributable to section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, as "state paid homestead credit" and the amount attributable to section 273.132 as "state paid agricultural credit." The statement must also show the decrease in tax attributable to that portion of the sum of the following aids attributable to the property as "state paid tax relief": (i) education aids under chapters 124 and 124A, (ii) local government aid for cities, towns, and counties under chapter 477A, and (iii) disparity reduction aid under section 273.1398. The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the county auditor the actual or estimated aids local governments will receive in the following year.

Subd. 3. [MAILING OF TAX STATEMENTS.] (a) The county treasurer shall mail to taxpayers statements of their personal property taxes due not later than February 15, except in the case of manufactured homes and sectional structures taxed as personal property. Statements of the real property taxes due shall be mailed not later than January 31 as provided in paragraph (b). The validity of the tax shall not be affected by failure of the treasurer to mail the statement. The taxpayer is defined as the owner who is responsible for the payment of the tax.

(b) On or before January 31, 1991, and each year thereafter, and on or before July 15, 1991, and each year thereafter, the treasurer shall mail to the owner of each parcel of real property located in the county, three separate statements of the real property taxes due, each for one-half of the current year amount due. One statement shall contain the taxes due to the county, a second statement shall contain the taxes due to the city or township, and a third statement shall contain the taxes due to the school district. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of tax levied by a special taxing district shall be included, but aggregated as one separate amount, on the county statement. For 1991 only, the statement for the county taxes which are due shall be mailed five days prior to the statements for the city, township, and school district. An insert shall be included in the county tax envelope stating:

“This is the first of three separate tax bills you will be receiving. Your property taxes will be paid directly to each taxing jurisdiction which levies taxes.

Your county tax will be mailed to your county.

Your city/township taxes will be mailed to your city/township.

Your school taxes will be mailed to your school district.”

Each statement shall be mailed in a separate envelope and the statement, along with a return address envelope, shall be color coded so that the taxpayer can easily identify the three separate taxing jurisdiction statements from each other. The contents of the statement shall be in substantially the following form. If any special assessments are due on the property, the dollar amount of the special assessments shall be itemized clearly and separately on the statement to which the assessments are due.

Property Description

The property taxes you owe this year on the property described above go directly to the taxing authority listed at the top of this bill. You will be receiving a separate property tax bill on this parcel from the county, city/township, and school district.

The state does not receive any property tax revenues. The state of Minnesota does, however, pay "property tax relief" to the above taxing jurisdiction. The relief is paid by the state in various forms, such as education aid for schools, local government aid to counties and cities, homestead credit, etc. The state uses money collected primarily from individual income, corporate, and sales taxes to provide you with relief to reduce your property tax.

The name on each of the return envelopes shall be the name of the taxing jurisdiction to which the tax is due. Unless an agreement has been made under subdivision 5, the address on each return envelope shall be to a uniform post office box within the county.

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION SITE.] Except as provided in subdivision 5, if so directed by the county board, the treasurer shall visit places in the county as the treasurer deems expedient for the purpose of receiving taxes and the county board is authorized to pay the expenses of such visits and of preparing duplicate tax lists. Failure to mail the tax statement shall not be deemed a material defect to affect the validity of any judgment and sale for delinquent taxes.

Subd. 5. [DIRECT PAYMENTS.] A school district or city which decides to require that the real property tax payments be mailed directly to it shall notify the county treasurer, in writing, by January 15 of the year in which the taxes are due. In those instances, the address on the return envelope, which will be mailed with the tax statement, shall be the school district or city's address, as provided by the school or city official making the request. The county treasurer shall furnish the taxing authority with a list containing the owner of each parcel of real property located within the district, its property identification number, and the amount of real property taxes due for each installment. On or before January 1 of the year following the year the tax is due, the finance officer of the school district or city shall provide the county auditor with a list identifying the unpaid tax amounts. The unpaid amounts shall be treated in the same manner as provided in section 279.02.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.171, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. [PROPERTY TAX CREDIT; APPROPRIATION.] There is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue the amounts required to reimburse taxing jurisdictions for the revenue lost due to the property tax credit provided in subdivision 1, clause (4). Payment shall be made to taxing jurisdictions in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed. Payment shall be made to taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, at the times provided in section 477A.015.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473H.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF TAX; STATE REIMBURSEMENT.]

(a) After having determined the market value of all land valued according to subdivision 2, the assessor shall compute the gross tax capacity of those properties by applying the appropriate classification percentages. When computing the rate of tax pursuant to section 275.08, the county auditor shall include the gross tax capacity of land as provided in this clause.

(b) The county auditor shall compute the tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the gross tax capacity times the total rate of tax for all purposes as provided in clause (a).

(c) The county auditor shall then compute the maximum ad valorem property tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the gross tax capacity times 105 percent of the previous year's statewide average tax capacity rate levied on property located within townships for all purposes.

(d) The tax due and payable by the owner of preserve land valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings will be the amount determined in clause (b) or (c), whichever is less. If the gross tax in clause (c) is less than the gross tax in clause (b), the state shall reimburse the taxing jurisdictions for the amount of difference. Residential buildings shall continue to be valued and classified according to the provisions of sections 273.11 and 273.13, as they would be in the absence of this section, and the tax on those buildings shall not be subject to the limitation contained in this clause.

The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the tax lost as a result of this subdivision or to pay taxing jurisdictions within the county for the tax lost. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1 the total amount of tax lost to the county and taxing jurisdictions located within the county as a result of this subdivision and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. Payments shall be made by the state as provided in section 273.13, subdivision 15a, at the times provided in section 477A.015 to each of the affected taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed if the county conservation account is insufficient to make the reimbursement. There is annually appropriated from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 to the commissioner of revenue an amount sufficient to make the reimbursement provided in this subdivision. If the amount available in the Minnesota conservation fund is insufficient, the balance that is needed is appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 13. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.065, is repealed.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 12 are effective for taxes levied in 1990 payable in 1991 and subsequent years, except where otherwise provided.

Section 13 is effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter.

ARTICLE 9

PROPERTY TAX TECHNICAL

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 38.27, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAX LEVY; POWERS.] ~~In All counties, in addition to all other powers now or hereafter by law conferred upon county boards, authority hereby is given may annually to levy a tax upon all property subject to taxation and, from time to time, to appropriate and pay over the proceeds of this tax, when collected, to any county agricultural society of its county which is a member of the state agricultural society, to assist the society in paying its financial~~ obligations now or hereafter incurred, and for the construction, reconstruction, alteration, repairs and improvements of necessary buildings.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 93.55, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. After the mineral interest has forfeited to the state pursuant to this section, a person claiming an ownership interest before the forfeiture may recover the fair market value of the interest, either: (1) as an alternative claim raised in the hearing on the order to show cause why the mineral interest should not forfeit absolutely, with fair market value to be determined and paid as provided in this subdivision, or (2) in a separate action brought as follows. An action may be commenced within six years after the forfeiture entry of judgment under this section to determine the ownership and the fair market value of the mineral interests in the property both at the time of forfeiture and at the time of bringing the action. The action shall be brought in the manner provided in chapter 559, for an action to determine adverse claims, to the extent applicable. The person bringing the action shall serve notice of the action on the commissioner of natural resources in the same manner as is provided for service of notice of the action on a defendant. The commissioner may appear and contest the allegations of ownership and value in the same manner as a defendant in such actions. Persons determined by the court to be owners of the interests at the time of forfeiture to the state under this section may present to the commissioner of finance a verified claim for refund of the fair market value of the interest. A copy of the court's decree shall be attached to the claim. Thereupon the commissioner of finance shall refund to the claimant the fair market value at the time of forfeiture, which is the expiration of the period within which tax forfeiture would not have been possible had the mineral interest been properly and timely filed for record under section 93.52, or at the time of bringing the action, whichever is lesser, less any taxes, penalties, costs, and interest which could have been collected during the period following the forfeiture under this section, had the interest in minerals been valued and assessed for tax purposes at the time of forfeiture under this section. There is appropriated from the general fund to the persons entitled to a refund an amount sufficient to pay the refund.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.018, is amended to read:

256.018 [COUNTY PUBLIC ASSISTANCE INCENTIVE FUND.]

Beginning in ~~1990~~ fiscal year 1991, $1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the department in each fiscal year for awards to counties: (1) that have not been assessed an administrative penalty under section 256.017 in the corresponding fiscal year; and (2) that perform satisfactorily according to indicators established by the commissioner.

After consultation with local agencies, the commissioner shall inform local agencies in writing of the performance indicators that govern the awarding of the incentive fund for each fiscal year by April of the preceding fiscal year.

The commissioner may set performance indicators to govern the awarding of the total fund, may allocate portions of the fund to be awarded by unique indicators, or may set a sole indicator to govern the awarding of funds.

The funds shall be awarded to qualifying local agencies according to their share of benefits for the programs related to the performance indicators governing the distribution of the fund or part of it as compared to the total benefits of all qualifying local agencies for the programs related to the performance indicators governing the distribution of the fund or part of it.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.82, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MONTHLY PAYMENTS.] For the period from January 1 to June 30, based upon estimates submitted by the county agency to the state agency, which shall state the estimated required expenditures for the succeeding month, upon the direction of the state agency payment shall be made monthly in advance by the state to the counties of all federal funds available for that purpose for such succeeding month, together with an amount of state funds equal to 85 percent of the difference between the total estimated cost and the federal funds so available for payments made except as provided for in section 256.017. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate made by any county shall be made upon the direction of the state agency in any succeeding month. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period except as provided for in section 256.017. For the period from July 1 to December 31 based upon the estimates submitted by the county agency to the state agency, which shall state the estimated required expenditures for the succeeding month, upon the direction of the state agency, payment shall be made monthly in advance by the state to the counties of all state and federal funds available for that purpose for the succeeding month except as provided for in section 256.017. Payment shall be made on the basis of federal and state participation rates described in this subdivision. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate made by any county shall be made upon the direction of the state agency in any succeeding month. Effective January 1, ~~1989~~ 1990, the state rate of participation shall be determined as a percentage that equals the difference between 100 percent and the percentage rate of federal financial participation.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.871, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ESTIMATED EXPENDITURES; PAYMENTS.] The county agency shall submit to the state agency an estimate of expenditures for each succeeding month in such form as required by the state agency. For the period from January 1 to June 30, payment shall be made monthly in advance by the state agency to the counties, of federal funds available for that purpose for each succeeding month, together with an amount of state funds equal to ten percent of the difference between the total estimated cost and the federal funds so available, except as provided for in section 256.017. Subsequent to July 1 of each year the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period, except as provided for in section 256.017. For the period from July 1 to December 31, payment shall be made monthly in advance by the state agency to the counties, of all state and federal funds available for that purpose for the succeeding month, except as provided for in section 256.017. Payment shall be made on the basis of federal and state participation rates described in this subdivision. Effective January 1, 1989 1990, the state rate of participation shall be determined as a percentage that equals the difference between 100 percent and the percentage rate of federal financial participation. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate made by any county shall be made upon the direction of the state agency in any succeeding month.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.041, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT BY COUNTY TO STATE TREASURER.] If required by federal law or rules promulgated thereunder, or by authorized rule of the state agency, each county shall pay to the state treasurer the portion of medical assistance paid by the state for which it is responsible. Effective January 1, 1989 1990, the state rate of participation shall be determined as a percentage that equals the difference between 100 percent and the percentage rate of federal financial participation.

For the period from January 1 to June 30, the county shall advance ten percent of that portion of medical assistance costs not met by federal funds, based upon estimates submitted by the state agency to the county agency, stating the estimated expenditures for the succeeding month. Upon the direction of the county agency, payment shall be made monthly by the county to the state for the estimated expenditures for each month. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate based on actual expenditures shall be made by the state agency by adjusting the estimate for any succeeding month. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period, except as provided for in section 256.017. For the period from July 1 to December 31, payments will be made by the state agency, except as provided for in section 256.017, and the county agency will be advised of the amounts paid monthly.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.071, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. (a) "Air commerce" means the transportation by aircraft of persons or property for hire in interstate, intrastate, or international transportation on regularly scheduled flights or on intermittent or irregularly timed flights by airline companies operating under authorization from the United States Civil Aeronautics Board Department of Transportation.

(b) "Air commerce" also includes but is not limited to an intermittent or irregularly timed flight, a flight arranged at the convenience of an airline and the person contracting for the transportation, or a charter flight. It includes an airline company making three or more flights in or out of Minnesota during a calendar year.

(c) "Air commerce" does not include casual transportation for hire by aircraft commonly owned and used for private airflight purposes if the person furnishing the transportation does not hold out to be engaged regularly in transportation for hire.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.072, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ASSESSMENT OF FLIGHT PROPERTY.] The flight property of all air carriers operating in Minnesota under a certificate of public convenience and necessity or under authorization from the United States Civil Aeronautics Board Department of Transportation shall be assessed annually by the commissioner in the manner prescribed by sections 270.071 to 270.079. Aircraft with a gross weight of less than 30,000 pounds and used on intermittent or irregularly timed flights shall be excluded from the provisions of sections 270.071 to 270.079.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.072, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REPORT BY AIRLINE COMPANY.] Every airline company engaged in air commerce in this state shall file with the commissioner on or before the time fixed by the commissioner a report under oath setting forth specifically the information prescribed by the commissioner to enable the commissioner to make the assessment required in sections 270.071 to 270.079, unless the commissioner determines that the airline company or person should be excluded from filing because its activities do not constitute air commerce as defined herein. A penalty of five percent of the tax being assessed is imposed on a late filing of the annual report. If the report is not filed within 30 days, an additional penalty of five percent of the assessed tax is imposed for each additional 30 days or fraction of 30 days until the return is filed. The penalty imposed under this section must not exceed 25 percent of the assessed tax.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.075, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. As soon as practicable and not later than December 1 next following the levy of the tax, the commissioner shall give actual notice to the airline company of the gross tax capacity and of the tax. The taxes imposed under sections 270.071 to 270.079 shall become due and payable on January 1 following the levy thereof. If any tax is not paid on the due date or, if an appeal is made pursuant to section 270.076, within 60 days after notice of an increased tax, a late payment penalty of ~~ten~~ five percent of the unpaid tax shall be assessed. If the tax remains unpaid for more than 30 days, an additional penalty of five percent of the unpaid tax is imposed for each additional 30 days or fraction of 30 days that the tax remains unpaid. The penalty imposed under this section must not exceed 25 percent of the unpaid tax. The unpaid tax and penalty shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid until paid. All interest and penalties shall be added to the tax and collected as a part thereof.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The board shall meet annually between July 15 and October 1 at the office of the commissioner of revenue and examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property in the several counties, and equalize the same so that all the taxable property in the state shall be assessed at its market value, subject to the following rules:

(1) The board shall add to the aggregate valuation of the real property of every county, which the board believes to be valued below its market value in money, such percent as will bring the same to its market value in money;

(2) The board shall deduct from the aggregate valuation of the real property of every county, which the board believes to be valued above its market value in money, such percent as will reduce the same to its market value in money;

(3) If the board believes the valuation for a class or classes of the real property of any town or district in any county, or the valuation for a class or classes of the real property of any county not in towns or cities, should be raised or reduced, without raising or reducing the other real property of such county, or without raising or reducing it in the same ratio, the board may add to, or take from, the valuation of a class or classes in any one or more of such towns or cities, or of the property not in towns or cities, such percent as the board believes will raise or reduce the same to its market value in money;

(4) The board shall add to the aggregate valuation of any class of personal property of any county, town, or city, which the board believes to be valued below the market value thereof, such percent as will raise the same to its market value in money;

(5) The board shall take from the aggregate valuation of any class of personal property in any county, town or city, which the board believes to be valued above the market value thereof, such percent as will reduce the same to its market value in money;

(6) The board shall not reduce the aggregate valuation of all the property of the state, as returned by the several county auditors, more than one percent on the whole valuation thereof;

(7) When it would be of assistance in equalizing values the board may require any county auditor to furnish statements showing assessments of real and personal property of any individuals, firms, or corporations within the county. The board shall consider and equalize such assessments and may increase the assessment of individuals, firms, or corporations above the amount returned by the county board of equalization when it shall appear to be undervalued, first giving notice to such persons of the intention of the board so to do, which notice shall fix a time and place of hearing. The board shall not decrease any such assessment below the valuation placed by the county board of equalization; and

(8) In equalizing values pursuant to this section, the board shall utilize a 12-month assessment/sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue containing only sales that occurred between October 1 of the year immediately preceding the previous year to September 30 of the previous year. The sales prices used in the study must be discounted for terms of financing. The board shall use the median ratio as the statistical measure of the level of assessment for any particular category of property.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 272.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) When any real or personal property which for any reason is exempt from ad valorem taxes, and taxes in lieu thereof, is leased, loaned, or otherwise made available and used by a private individual, association, or corporation in connection with a business conducted for profit, there shall be imposed a tax, for the privilege of so using or possessing such real or personal property, in the same amount and to the same extent as though the lessee or user was the owner of such property.

(b) The tax imposed by this subdivision shall not apply to (1) property leased or used by way of a concession in or relative to the use in whole or part of a public park, market, fairgrounds, port authority, economic development authority established under chapter 458C, municipal auditorium, airport owned by a city, town, county, or group thereof but not the airports owned or operated by the metropolitan airports commission or a city of over 50,000 population or an airport authority therein, municipal museum or municipal stadium or (2) property constituting or used as a public pedestrian ramp or concourse in connection with a public airport or (3) property constituting or used as a passenger check-in area or ticket sale counter, boarding area, or luggage claim area in connection with a public airport but not the airports owned or operated by the metropolitan airports commission or cities of over 50,000 population or an airport authority therein. Real estate owned by a municipality in connection with the operation of a public airport and leased or used for agricultural purposes shall not be exempt.

(c) Taxes imposed by this subdivision shall be due and payable as in the case of personal property taxes and such taxes shall be assessed to such lessees or users of real or personal property in the same manner as taxes assessed to owners of real or personal property, except that such taxes shall not become a lien against the property. When due, the taxes shall constitute a debt due from the lessee or user to the state, township, city, county and school district for which the taxes were assessed and shall be collected in the same manner as personal property taxes. If property subject to the tax imposed by this subdivision is leased or used jointly by two or more persons, each lessee or user shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of the tax.

(d) Real property of the state or any of its political subdivisions that is leased by a private individual, association, or corporation and becomes taxable under this subdivision or other provision of law must be assessed and collected as a personal property assessment. The taxes do not become a lien against the real property.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 272.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. All property described in this section to the extent herein limited shall be exempt from taxation:

- (1) all public burying grounds;
- (2) all public schoolhouses;

(3) all public hospitals;

(4) all academies, colleges, and universities, and all seminaries of learning;

(5) all churches, church property, and houses of worship;

(6) institutions of purely public charity except parcels of property containing structures and the structures described in section 273.13, subdivision 25, paragraph (c), ~~clause~~ clauses (1) or (2), and (3), or paragraph (d); ~~clause~~ (2);

(7) all public property exclusively used for any public purpose;

(8) except for the taxable personal property enumerated below, all personal property and the property described in section 272.03, subdivision 1, paragraphs (c) and (d), shall be exempt.

The following personal property shall be taxable:

(a) personal property which is part of an electric generating, transmission, or distribution system or a pipeline system transporting or distributing water, gas, crude oil, or petroleum products or mains and pipes used in the distribution of steam or hot or chilled water for heating or cooling buildings and structures;

(b) railroad docks and wharves which are part of the operating property of a railroad company as defined in section 270.80;

(c) personal property defined in section 272.03, subdivision 2, clause (3);

(d) leasehold or other personal property interests which are taxed pursuant to section 272.01, subdivision 2; 273.124, subdivision 7; or 273.19, subdivision 1; or any other law providing the property is taxable as if the lessee or user were the fee owner;

(e) manufactured homes and sectional structures; and

(f) flight property as defined in section 270.071.

(9) ~~Real and~~ personal property used primarily for the abatement and control of air, water, or land pollution to the extent that it is so used; ~~other than real property used primarily as a solid waste disposal site, and real property which is used primarily for abatement and control of air, water, or land pollution as part of an agricultural operation, or the part of the post-consumer recycling operation that does not resell its products at retail to consumers, or is part of an electric generation system and is used primarily for the abatement and control of air, water, or land pollution.~~ For purposes of this clause, personal property includes ponderous machinery and equipment used in a business or production activity that at common law would be considered real property. Real property used primarily as a solid waste disposal site is taxable.

Any taxpayer requesting exemption of all or a portion of any equipment or device, or part thereof, operated primarily for the control or abatement of air or water pollution shall file an application with the commissioner of revenue. The equipment or device shall meet standards, rules, or criteria prescribed by the Minnesota pollution control agency, and must be installed or operated in accordance with a permit or order issued by that agency. The Minnesota pollution control agency shall upon request of the commissioner furnish information or advice to the commissioner. On determining that property qualifies for exemption, the commissioner shall issue an order exempting the property from taxation. The equipment or device shall continue to be exempt from taxation as long as the permit issued by the Minnesota pollution control agency remains in effect.

(10) Wetlands. For purposes of this subdivision, "wetlands" means (1) land described in section 105.37, subdivision 15, or (2) land which is mostly under water, produces little if any income, and has no use except for wildlife or water conservation purposes, provided it is preserved in its natural condition and drainage of it would be legal, feasible, and economically practical for the production of livestock, dairy animals, poultry, fruit, vegetables, forage and grains, except wild rice. "Wetlands" shall include adjacent land which is not suitable for agricultural purposes due to the presence of the wetlands. "Wetlands" shall not include woody swamps containing shrubs or trees, wet meadows, meandered water, streams, rivers, and floodplains or river bottoms. Exemption of wetlands from taxation pursuant to this section shall not grant the public any additional or greater right of access to the wetlands or diminish any right of ownership to the wetlands.

(11) Native prairie. The commissioner of the department of natural resources shall determine lands in the state which are native prairie and shall notify the county assessor of each county in which the lands are located. Pasture land used for livestock grazing purposes shall not be considered native prairie for the purposes of this clause and section 273.116. Upon receipt of an application for the exemption and credit provided in this clause and section 273.116 for lands for which the assessor has no determination from the commissioner of natural resources, the assessor shall refer the application to the commissioner of natural resources who shall determine within 30 days whether the land is native prairie and notify the county assessor of the decision. Exemption of native prairie pursuant to this clause shall not grant the public any additional or greater right of access to the native prairie or diminish any right of ownership to it.

(12) Property used in a continuous program to provide emergency shelter for victims of domestic abuse, provided the organization that owns and sponsors the shelter is exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, notwithstanding the fact that the sponsoring organization receives funding under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended.

(13) If approved by the governing body of the municipality in which the property is located, property not exceeding one acre which is owned and operated by any senior citizen group or association of groups that in general limits membership to persons age 55 or older and is organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation, and other nonprofit purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholders; provided the property is used primarily as a clubhouse, meeting facility, or recreational facility by the group or association and the property is not used for residential purposes on either a temporary or permanent basis.

(14) To the extent provided by section 295.44, real and personal property used or to be used primarily for the production of hydroelectric or hydromechanical power on a site owned by the state or a local governmental unit which is developed and operated pursuant to the provisions of section 105.482, subdivisions 1, 8, and 9.

(15) If approved by the governing body of the municipality in which the property is located, and if construction is commenced after June 30, 1983:

(a) a "direct satellite broadcasting facility" operated by a corporation licensed by the federal communications commission to provide direct satellite broadcasting services using direct broadcast satellites operating in the 12-ghz. band; and

(b) a "fixed satellite regional or national program service facility" operated by a corporation licensed by the federal communications commission to provide fixed satellite-transmitted regularly scheduled broadcasting services using satellites operating in the 6-ghz. band.

An exemption provided by paragraph (15) shall apply for a period not to exceed five years. When the facility no longer qualifies for exemption, it shall be placed on the assessment rolls as provided in subdivision 4. Before approving a tax exemption pursuant to this paragraph, the governing body of the municipality shall provide an opportunity to the members of the county board of commissioners of the county in which the facility is proposed to be located and the members of the school board of the school district in which the facility is proposed to be located to meet with the governing body. The governing body shall present to the members of those boards its estimate of the fiscal impact of the proposed property tax exemption. The tax exemption shall not be approved by the governing body until the county board of commissioners has presented its written comment on the proposal to the governing body, or 30 days has passed from the date of the transmittal by the governing body to the board of the information on the fiscal impact, whichever occurs first.

(16) Real and personal property owned and operated by a private, nonprofit corporation exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to United States Code, title 26, section 501(c)(3), primarily used in the generation and distribution of hot water for heating buildings and structures.

(17) Notwithstanding section 273.19, state lands that are leased from the department of natural resources under section 92.46.

(18) Electric power distribution lines and their attachments and appurtenances, that are used primarily for supplying electricity to farmers at retail.

(19) Transitional housing facilities. "Transitional housing facility" means a facility that meets the following requirements: (i) It provides temporary housing to parents and children who are receiving AFDC or parents of children who are temporarily in foster care. (ii) It has the purpose of reuniting families and enabling parents to advance their education, get job training, or become employed in jobs that provide a living wage. (iii) It provides support services such as child care, work readiness training, and career development counseling; and a self-sufficiency program with periodic monitoring of each resident's progress in completing the program's goals. (iv) It provides services to a resident of the facility for at least six months but no longer than one year, except residents enrolled in an educational or vocational institution or job training program. These residents may receive services during the time they are enrolled but in no event longer than four years. (v) It is sponsored by an organization that has received a grant under section 256.7365 for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, for the purposes of providing the services in items (i) to (iv). (vi) It is sponsored by an organization that is exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987. This exemption applies notwithstanding the fact that the sponsoring organization receives financing by a direct federal loan or federally insured loan or a loan made by the Minnesota housing finance agency under the provisions of either Title II of the National Housing Act or the Minnesota housing finance agency law of 1971 or rules promulgated by the agency pursuant to it, and notwithstanding the fact that the sponsoring organization receives funding under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 272.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. Property, including real property, qualifies as exempt pollution abatement property under subdivision 1, clause (9), if the following conditions are satisfied.

(a) The property consists of

(1) boiler modifications necessary to efficient handling and burning of refuse derived fuel and transfer of the heat produced by combustion of the fuel;

(2) ash handling and storage systems, such as vacuum-pneumatic equipment, conveyors, crushers, and storage buildings to remove, convey, process, and temporarily store bottom and fly ash from the burning of refuse derived fuel;

(3) control systems, such as computers, to control the operation of equipment described in clauses (1) to (3) and other pollution abatement equipment;

(4) equipment to monitor emissions into the air and combustion efficiency; and

(5) solid waste resource recovery mass burn facility.

(b) The property was placed into service on or before January 1, 1990.

(c) The facility was constructed and will be operated under a contractual arrangement providing for payment, in whole or part, of the property tax on the property by a political subdivision of the state.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.01, is amended to read:

273.01 [LISTING AND ASSESSMENT, TIME.]

All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and at least one-fourth of the parcels listed shall be appraised each year with reference to their value on January 2 preceding the assessment so that each parcel shall be reappraised at maximum intervals of four years. All real property becoming taxable in any year shall be listed with reference to its value on January 2 of that year. Except as provided in section 274.01, subdivision 1, all real property assessments shall be completed two weeks prior to the date scheduled for the local board of review or equalization ~~and no valuations entered thereafter shall be of any force and effect.~~ Any changes made by the assessor after this time but before October 31 of that year must be fully documented and maintained in a file in the assessor's office and shall be available for review by any person. A copy of any changes made during this period shall be sent to the county board. In the event a valuation and classification is not placed on any real property by the dates scheduled for the local board of review or equalization the valuation and classification determined in the preceding assessment shall be continued in effect and the provisions of section 273.13 shall, in such case, not be applicable, except with respect to real estate which has been constructed since the previous assessment. Real property containing iron ore, the fee to which is owned by the state of Minnesota, shall, if leased by the state after January 2 in any year, be subject to assessment for that year on the value of any iron ore removed under said lease prior to January 2 of the following year. Personal property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on January 2; and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LEASEHOLD COOPERATIVES.] When one or more dwellings or one or more buildings which each contain several dwelling units is owned by a nonprofit corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 317 and qualifying under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988, or a limited partnership which corporation or partnership operates the property in conjunction with a cooperative association, homestead treatment may be claimed by the cooperative association on behalf of the members of the cooperative for each dwelling unit occupied by a member of the cooperative. The cooperative association must provide the assessor with the social security numbers of those members. To qualify for the treatment provided by this subdivision, the following conditions must be met:

(a) the cooperative association must be organized under sections 308.05 to 308.18 and all voting members of the board of directors must be resident tenants of the cooperative and must be elected by the resident tenants of the cooperative;

(b) the cooperative association must have a lease for occupancy of the property for a term of at least 20 years, which permits the cooperative association, while not in default on the lease, to participate materially in the management of the property, including material participation in establishing budgets, setting rent levels, and hiring and supervising a management agent;

(c) to the extent permitted under state or federal law, the cooperative association must have a right under a written agreement with the owner to purchase the property if the owner proposes to sell it; if the cooperative association does not purchase the property when it is offered for sale, the owner may not subsequently sell the property to another purchaser at a price lower than the price at which it was offered for sale to the cooperative association unless the cooperative association approves the sale; and

(d) the cooperative must meet one of the following criteria with respect to the income of its members: (1) a minimum of 75 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 80 percent of area median income, (2) a minimum of 40 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 60 percent of area median income, or (3) a minimum of 20 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 50 percent of area median income. For purposes of this clause, "member income" means the income of a member when the member acquires cooperative membership, and "median income" means the Saint Paul-Minneapolis metropolitan area median income as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development;

(e) if a limited partnership owns the property, it must include as the managing general partner either the cooperative association or a nonprofit organization operating under the provisions of chapter 317- and qualifying under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988, and the limited partnership agreement must provide that the managing general partner have sufficient powers so that it materially participates in the management and control of the limited partnership. A nonprofit organization shall be treated as qualifying under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4), if it has applied to the Internal Revenue Service for a determination letter under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4), a certified copy of the application is filed with the assessor, and the Internal Revenue Service has not rejected the application or refused to issue a determination letter;

(f) prior to becoming a member of a leasehold cooperative described in this subdivision, a person must have received notice that (1) describes leasehold cooperative property in plain language, including but not limited to the effects of classification under this subdivision on rents, property taxes and tax credits or refunds, and operating expenses, and (2) states that copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the cooperative association, the lease between the owner and the cooperative association, a sample sublease between the cooperative association and a tenant, and, if the owner is a partnership, a copy of the limited partnership agreement, can be obtained upon written request at no charge from the owner, and the owner must send or deliver the materials within seven days after receiving any request; and

(g) if a dwelling unit of a building was occupied on the 60th day prior to the date on which the unit become leasehold cooperative property described in this subdivision, then (1) the notice described in paragraph (f) must have been sent by first class mail to the occupant of the unit at least 60 days prior to the date on which the unit became leasehold cooperative property, and (2) prior to the mailing of the notice, copies of the documents identified in the notice must have been filed with the secretary of state.

Homestead treatment must be afforded to units occupied by members of the cooperative association and the units must be assessed as provided in subdivision 3, provided that any unit not so occupied shall be classified and assessed pursuant to the appropriate class. No more than three acres of land may, for assessment purposes, be included with each dwelling unit that qualifies for homestead treatment under this subdivision. The county assessor shall refer questions regarding qualification for assessment under this subdivision to the county attorney for advice and opinion under section 388.051, subdivision 1. Upon request of the county attorney, the taxpayer must furnish information that the county attorney considers necessary to determine eligibility under this subdivision.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER REQUIRED FOR HOMESTEAD APPLICATION.] Every property owner applying for homestead classification must furnish to the county assessor that owner's social security or taxpayer identification number. If the social security or taxpayer identification number is not provided, the county assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead. The social security numbers of the property owners are private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but, notwithstanding that section, the private data may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue.

At the request of the commissioner, each county must give the commissioner a list that includes the name and social security or taxpayer identification number of each property owner applying for homestead classification.

If, in comparing the lists supplied by the counties, the commissioner finds that a property owner is claiming more than one homestead, the commissioner shall notify the appropriate counties. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was properly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that had been improperly allowed. For the purpose of this section, "homestead benefits" means the tax reduction resulting from the classification as a homestead under section 273.13, the homestead credit under section 273.13 for taxes payable in 1989 and under section 273.1398 for taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter, the taconite homestead credit, and the supplemental homestead credit, and the tax reduction resulting from the agricultural credit under section 273.132 for taxes payable in 1989 and under section 273.1398 for taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter. The county auditor shall send a notice to the owners of the affected property, demanding reimbursement of the homestead benefits plus a penalty equal to 25 percent of the homestead benefits. The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county.

If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes.

Any amount of homestead benefits recovered from the property owner must be transmitted to the commissioner by the end of each calendar quarter. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

The commissioner will provide suggested homestead applications to each county. If a property owner has applied for more than one homestead and the county assessors cannot determine which property should be classified as homestead, the county assessors will refer the information to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the determination and notify the counties within 60 days.

In addition to lists of homestead properties, the commissioner may ask the counties to furnish lists of all properties and the record owners.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivision 22, is amended to read:

Subd. 22. [CLASS 1.] (a) Except as provided in subdivision 23, real estate which is residential and used for homestead purposes is class 1. The market value of class 1a property must be determined based upon the value of the house, garage, and land.

The first $68,000 of market value of class 1a property has a net tax capacity of one percent of its market value and a gross tax capacity of 2.17 percent of its market value. The market value of class 1a property that exceeds $68,000 but does not exceed $100,000 has a tax capacity of 2.5 percent of its market value. The market value of class 1a property that exceeds $100,000 has a tax capacity of 3.3 percent of its market value.

(b) Class 1b property includes real estate or manufactured homes used for the purposes of a homestead by

(1) any blind person, if the blind person is the owner thereof or if the blind person and the blind person's spouse are the sole owners thereof; or

(2) any person, hereinafter referred to as "veteran," who:

(i) served in the active military or naval service of the United States; and

(ii) is entitled to compensation under the laws and regulations of the United States for permanent and total service-connected disability due to the loss, or loss of use, by reason of amputation, ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis, of both lower extremities, such as to preclude motion without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair; and

(iii) with assistance by the administration of veterans affairs has acquired a special housing unit with special fixtures or movable facilities made necessary by the nature of the veteran's disability, or the surviving spouse of the deceased veteran for as long as the surviving spouse retains the special housing unit as a homestead; or

(3) any person who:

(i) is permanently and totally disabled and

(ii) receives 90 percent or more of total income from

(A) aid from any state as a result of that disability; or

(B) supplemental security income for the disabled; or

(C) workers' compensation based on a finding of total and permanent disability; or

(D) social security disability, including the amount of a disability insurance benefit which is converted to an old age insurance benefit and any subsequent cost of living increases; or

(E) aid under the Federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, United States Code Annotated, title 45, section 228b(a)5; or

(F) a pension from any local government retirement fund located in the state of Minnesota as a result of that disability; or

(iii) whose household income as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 5, is 150 percent or less of the federal poverty level.

Property is classified and assessed pursuant to clause (1) only if the commissioner of jobs and training certifies to the assessor that the owner of the property satisfies the requirements of this subdivision. ~~The commissioner of jobs and training shall provide a copy of the certification to the commissioner of revenue.~~

Permanently and totally disabled for the purpose of this subdivision means a condition which is permanent in nature and totally incapacitates the person from working at an occupation which brings the person an income. The first $32,000 market value of class 1b property has a net tax capacity of .4 percent of its market value and a gross tax capacity of .87 percent of its market value. The remaining market value of class 1b property has a gross or net tax capacity using the rates for class 1 or class 2a property, whichever is appropriate, of similar market value.

(c) Class 1c property is commercial use real property that abuts a lakeshore line and is devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes but not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 200 days in the year preceding the year of assessment, and that includes a portion used as a homestead by the owner. Class 1c property has a tax capacity of .9 percent of market value with the following limitation: the area of the property must not exceed 100 feet of lakeshore footage for each cabin or campsite located on the property up to a total of 800 feet and 500 feet in depth, measured away from the lakeshore.

(d) For taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989 only, the tax to be paid on class 1a or class 1b property shall be reduced by 54 percent of the tax imposed on the first $68,000 of market value. The amount of the reduction shall not exceed $725.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.135, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For taxes payable in 1989 only, the amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 66 percent of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint plus a percentage equal to the homestead credit equivalency percentage of the net tax in excess of the taconite breakpoint, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(b) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a school district which qualifies as a tax relief area but which is outside the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 57 percent of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint plus a percentage equal to the homestead credit equivalency percentage of the net tax in excess of the taconite breakpoint, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c)(1) The maximum reduction of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint is $225.40 on property described in clause (a) and $200.10 on property described in clause (b), for taxes payable in 1985. These maximum amounts shall increase by $15 times the quantity one minus the homestead credit equivalency percentage per year for taxes payable in 1986 and subsequent years.

(2) The total maximum reduction of the net tax on property described in clause (a) is $490 for taxes payable in 1985. The total maximum reduction for the net tax on property described in clause (b) is $435 for taxes payable in 1985. These maximum amounts shall increase by $15 per year for taxes payable in 1986 and thereafter.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "net tax" means the tax on the property after deduction of any credit under section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23, "taconite breakpoint" means the lowest possible net tax for a homestead qualifying for the maximum reduction pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 22, rounded to the nearest whole dollar, "homestead credit equivalency percentage" means a percentage equal to the percentage reduction authorized in section 273.13, subdivision 22, "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of the property, and the "base year effective tax rate" means the tax on the property after the application of the credits payable under section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section for taxes payable in 1988, divided by the market value of the property. A new parcel of property or a parcel with a current year classification that is different from its base year classification has the same base year effective tax rate as an equivalent homesteaded parcel.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.135, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. For taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter, the amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 66 percent of the tax, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c) and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(b) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a school district which qualifies as a tax relief area but which is outside the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 57 percent of the tax, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c) and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c) The total maximum reduction of the net tax on property described in clause (a) is $490 for taxes payable in 1985. The total maximum reduction for the net tax on property described in clause (b) is $435 for taxes payable in 1985. These maximum amounts shall increase by $15 per year for taxes payable in 1986 and thereafter.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "tax" means the tax on the property before application of the credit payable under this section and "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of the property, and "base year effective tax rate" means the tax on the property after the application of the credits payable under section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section for taxes payable in 1988, divided by the market value of the property. A new parcel of property or a parcel with a current year classification that is different from its base year classification has the same base year effective tax rate as an equivalent homesteaded parcel.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1391, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For taxes payable in 1989 only, the amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a county with a population of less than 100,000 in which taconite is mined or quarried and wherein a school district is located which does meet the qualifications of a tax relief area, and provided that at least 90 percent of the area of the school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 lies within such county, 57 percent of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint plus a percentage equal to the homestead credit equivalency percentage of the net tax in excess of the taconite breakpoint on qualified property located in the school district that does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134, provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10. The reduction provided by this clause shall only be applicable to property located within the boundaries of the county described therein.

(b) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a school district in a county containing a city of the first class and a qualifying municipality, but not in a school district containing a city of the first class or adjacent to a school district containing a city of the first class unless the school district so adjacent contains a qualifying municipality, 57 percent of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint plus a percentage equal to the homestead credit equivalency percentage of the net tax in excess of the taconite breakpoint, but not to exceed the maximums specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c)(1) The maximum reduction of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint is $200.10 for taxes payable in 1985. This maximum amount shall increase by $15 multiplied by the quantity one minus the homestead credit equivalency percentage per year for taxes payable in 1986 and subsequent years.

(2) The total maximum reduction of the net tax is $435 for taxes payable in 1985. This total maximum amount shall increase by $15 per year for taxes payable in 1986 and thereafter.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "net tax" means the tax on the property after deduction of any credit under section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23, "taconite breakpoint" means the lowest possible net tax for a homestead qualifying for the maximum reduction pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 22, rounded to the nearest whole dollar, "homestead credit equivalency percentage" means a percentage equal to the percentage reduction authorized in section 273.13, subdivision 22, and "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of the property, and the "base year effective tax rate" means the tax on the property after application of the credits payable under section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section for taxes payable in 1988, divided by the market value of the property. A new parcel with a current year classification that is different from its base year classification has the same base year effective tax rate as an equivalent homesteaded parcel.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1391, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. For taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter, the amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a county with a population of less than 100,000 in which taconite is mined or quarried and wherein a school district is located which does meet the qualifications of a tax relief area, and provided that at least 90 percent of the area of the school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 lies within such county, 57 percent of the tax, provided that the amount of the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c) and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10. The reduction provided by this clause shall only be applicable to property located within the boundaries of the county described therein.

(b) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a school district in a county containing a city of the first class and a qualifying municipality, but not in a school district containing a city of the first class or adjacent to a school district containing a city of the first class unless the school district so adjacent contains a qualifying municipality, 57 percent of the tax, but not to exceed the maximums specified in clause (c) and not to exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c) The total maximum reduction of the tax is $435 for taxes payable in 1985. This total maximum amount shall increase by $15 per year for taxes payable in 1986 and thereafter.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "tax" means the tax on the property before application of the credit under this section, "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of the property, and "base year effective tax rate" means the tax on the property after the application of the credits payable under section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section for taxes payable in 1988, divided by the market value of the property. A new parcel of property or a parcel with a current year classification that is different from its base year classification has the same base year effective tax rate as an equivalent homesteaded parcel.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1393, is amended to read:

273.1393 [COMPUTATION OF NET PROPERTY TAXES.]

Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary, "net" property taxes are determined by subtracting the credits in the order listed from the gross tax:

- (1) disaster credit as provided in section 273.123;
- (2) powerline credit as provided in section 273.42;
- (3) agricultural preserves credit as provided in section 473H.10;
- (4) enterprise zone credit as provided in section 469.171;
- (5) state agricultural credit as provided in section 273.132 disparity reduction credit as provided in section 273.1398;
- (6) conservation tax credit as provided in section 273.119;
- (7) state paid homestead credit as provided in section 273.13;
- ~~(7)~~ (8) taconite homestead credit as provided in section 273.135;
- ~~(8)~~ (9) supplemental homestead credit as provided in section 273.1391.

The combination of all property tax credits must not exceed the gross tax amount.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) In this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Unique taxing jurisdiction" means the geographic area subject to the same set of tax capacity rates.

(c) "Gross tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as gross tax capacities in section 273.13 and equalized market values. "Total gross tax capacity" means the gross tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total gross tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's gross tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located and, (2) the gross tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the gross tax capacity of transmission lines deducted from a local government's total gross tax capacity under section 273.425. For purposes of determining the gross tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2) for disparity reduction aid payable in 1989, the gross tax capacity before equalization shall equal the property's 1987 assessed value multiplied by 12 percent. Gross tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(d) "Net tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as net tax capacities in section 273.13 and equalized market values. "Total net tax capacity" means the net tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total net tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's net tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located and (2) the net tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the net tax capacity of transmission lines deducted from a local government's total net tax capacity under section 273.425. For purposes of determining the net tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2), the net tax capacity before equalization shall equal the property's 1987 assessed value multiplied by 12 percent. Net tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(e) "Equalized market values" are market values that have been equalized by dividing the assessor's estimated market value for the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable by the assessment sales ratios determined by class in the assessment sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue pursuant to section 124.2131 in the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable. For computation of aids payable in 1989 only, if the aggregate assessment sales ratio is less than or equal to 92 percent, the assessment sales ratios by class shall be adjusted proportionally so that the aggregate ratio of the unequalized market values to the equalized market values equals 92 percent; otherwise the equalized market values shall equal the unequalized market values divided by the assessment sales ratio.

(f) "Homestead effective rate" means the product of (i) 46 percent; (ii) 2.17 percent; and (iii) the total tax capacity rate for taxes payable in 1989 within a unique taxing jurisdiction multiplied by the 1988 aggregate assessment sales ratio. A sales ratio of .92 is used if the actual sales ratio is less than .92.

(g) For purposes of calculating the transition homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2, the "subtraction factor" is the product of (i) a unique taxing jurisdiction's homestead effective rate; (ii) its net tax capacity; and (iii) 103.

(h) For purposes of calculating and allocating transition homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2 and the disparity reduction aid authorized in subdivision 3, "gross taxes levied on all properties" or "gross taxes" means the total gross taxes levied on all properties except that levied on the captured value of tax increment districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and that levied on the portion of commercial industrial properties' assessed value or gross tax capacity, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, subject to the areawide tax as provided in section 473F.08, subdivision 6, in a unique taxing jurisdiction before reduction by any credits for taxes payable in the year prior to that in which the aids are payable. For purposes of disparity reduction aid only, total gross taxes shall be reduced by the taxes levied for any school district referendum levies authorized pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, and any school district debt levies authorized pursuant to section 475.61. Gross taxes levied cannot be less than zero.

(i) "Income maintenance aids" means:

(1) medical assistance under sections 256B.041, subdivision 5, and 256B.19, subdivision 1;

(2) preadmission screening and alternative care grants under section 256B.091, subdivision 8;

(3) general assistance, and work readiness under section 256D.03, subdivision 2;

(4) general assistance medical care under section 256D.03, subdivision 6;

(5) aid to families with dependent children under section 256.82, subdivision 1, including emergency assistance under section 256.871, subdivision 6; and funeral expense payments under section 256.935, subdivision 1; and

(6) supplemental aid under section 256D.36, subdivision 1.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISPARITY REDUCTION CREDIT.] (a) Beginning with taxes payable in 1989, class 4a, class 3a, and class 3b property qualifies for a disparity reduction credit if: (1) the property is located in a border city that has an enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 469.168, subdivision 4; (2) the property is located in cities a city with a population greater than 2,500 and less than 35,000 according to the 1980 decennial census which are; (3) the city is adjacent to cities a city in another state or immediately adjacent to a city adjacent to a city in another state qualify for disparity reduction credits, if; and (4) the adjacent city in the other state has a population of greater than 5,000 and less than 75,000.

(b) The credit is an amount sufficient to reduce (i) the taxes levied on class 4a property to three percent of the property's market value and (ii) the tax on class 3a and class 3b property to 3.3 percent of market value.

(b) (c) The county auditor shall annually certify the costs of the credits to the department of revenue. The department shall reimburse local governments for the property taxes foregone as the result of the credits in proportion to their total levies.

Sec. 26. [276.131] [DISTRIBUTION OF PENALTIES, INTEREST, AND COSTS.]

The penalties, interest, and costs collected on special assessments and real and personal property taxes must be distributed as follows:

(1) all penalties and interest collected on special assessments against real or personal property must be distributed to the taxing jurisdiction that levied the assessment;

(2) 50 percent of all penalties and interest collected on real and personal property taxes must be distributed to the county in which the property is located, and the other 50 percent must be distributed to the school district in which the property is located. The distribution to the school district must be in accordance with the provisions of section 124.10; and

(3) all costs collected by the county on special assessments and on delinquent real and personal property taxes must be distributed to the county in which the property is located.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 278.03, is amended to read:

278.03 [PAYMENT OF TAX.]

If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed before the 16th day of May next following the filing, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the tax levied for such year against the property involved, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without such payment is obtained as herein provided. If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed by the next October 16, or, in the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead, and class 2e 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, November 16, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the unpaid balance of the taxes levied for the year against the property involved if the unpaid balance is $2,000 or less and 80 percent of the unpaid balance if the unpaid balance is over $2,000, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as herein provided. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the county attorney and to the county auditor, given at least ten days prior to the 16th day of May or the 16th day of October, or, in the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead, and class 2e 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, the 16th day of November, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

- (1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;
- (2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and
- (3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay the taxes due, the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment. The county treasurer shall, upon request of the petitioner, issue duplicate receipts for the tax payment, one of which shall be filed by the petitioner in the proceeding.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 278.05, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SALES RATIO STUDIES AS EVIDENCE.] The sales ratio studies published by the department of revenue, or any part of the studies, or any copy of the studies or records accumulated to prepare the studies which is prepared by the commissioner of revenue for use in determining school aids shall be admissible in evidence as a public record without the laying of a foundation if the sales prices used in the study are adjusted for the terms of the sale to reflect market value and are adjusted to reflect the difference in the date of sale compared to the assessment date. The department of revenue sales ratio study shall be prima facie evidence of the level of assessment. Additional evidence relevant to the sales ratio study is also admissible. No sales ratio study received into evidence shall be conclusive or binding on the court and evidence of its reliability or unreliability may be introduced by any party including, but not limited to, evidence of inadequate adjustment of sale prices for terms of financing, inadequate adjustment of sales prices to reflect the difference in the date of sale compared to the assessment date, and inadequate sample size.

No reduction in value on the grounds of discrimination shall be granted on the basis of a sales ratio study published by the department of revenue unless

(a) the sales prices are adjusted for the terms of the sale to reflect market value,

(b) the sales prices are adjusted to reflect the difference in the date of sale compared to the assessment date, and

(c) there is an adequate sample size, and

(d) the median ratio of the same classification of property in the same county, city, or town as the subject property is lower than 90 percent.

If a reduction in value on the grounds of discrimination is granted based on clauses (a) to (d), the reduction shall equal the difference between 90 percent and the court determined median ratio.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 278.05, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Any time after the filing of the petition and before the trial of the issues raised thereby, when the defense or claim presented is that the property has been partially, unfairly, or unequally assessed, or that the parcel has been assessed at a valuation greater than its real or actual value, or that a parcel which is classified as homestead under the provisions of section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23, has been assessed at a valuation which exceeds by ten percent or more the valuation which the parcel would have if it were valued at the average assessment/sales ratio for real property in the same class in that portion of the county in which the parcel is located, for which the commissioner is able to establish and publish a sales ratio study, the attorney representing the state, county, city or town in the proceedings may serve on the petitioner, or the petitioner's attorney, and file with the court administrator of the district court, an offer to reduce the valuation of any tract or tracts to a valuation set forth in the offer. If, within ten days thereafter, the petitioner, or the attorney, gives notice in writing to the county attorney, or the attorney for the city or town, that the offer is accepted, the official notified may file the offer with proof of notice, and the court administrator shall enter judgment accordingly. Otherwise, the offer shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof shall not be given; and, unless a lower valuation than specified in the offer is found by the court, no costs or disbursements shall be allowed to the petitioner, but the costs and disbursements of the state, county, city or town, including interest at six percent on the tax based on the amount of the offer from and after the 16th day of October, or, in the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead, and class 2e 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, the 16th day of November, of the year the taxes are payable, shall be taxed in its favor and included in the judgment and when collected shall be credited to the county revenue fund, unless the taxes were paid in full before the 16th day of October, or, in the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead, and class 2e 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, the 16th day of November, of the year in which the taxes were payable, in which event interest shall not be taxable.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3, on May 16, of each year, with respect to property actually occupied and used as a homestead by the owner of the property, a penalty of three percent shall accrue and thereafter be charged upon all unpaid taxes on real estate on the current lists in the hands of the county treasurer, and a penalty of seven percent on nonhomestead property, except that this penalty shall not accrue until June 1 of each year on commercial use real property used for seasonal residential recreational purposes and classified as class 4d 1c or 4c, and on other commercial use real property classified as class 3a, provided that over 60 percent of the gross income earned by the enterprise on the class 3a property is earned during the months of May, June, July, and August. Any property owner of such class 3a property who pays the first half of the tax due on the property after May 15 and before June 1 shall attach an affidavit to the payment attesting to compliance with the income provision of this subdivision. Thereafter, for both homestead and nonhomestead property, on the first day of each month, up to and including October 1 following, an additional penalty of one percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $50, one-half thereof may be paid prior to May 16; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to October 16 following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of four percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on nonhomestead property. Thereafter, for homestead property, on the first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of two percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter, for nonhomestead property, on the first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of four percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. If one-half of such taxes shall not be paid prior to May 16, the same may be paid at any time prior to October 16, with accrued penalties to the date of payment added, and thereupon no penalty shall attach to the remaining one-half until October 16 following.

A county may provide by resolution that in the case of a property owner that has multiple tracts or parcels with aggregate taxes exceeding $50, payments may be made in installments as provided in this subdivision.

The county treasurer may accept payments of more or less than the exact amount of a tax installment due. If the accepted payment is less than the amount due, payments must be applied first to the penalty accrued for the year the payment is made. Acceptance of partial payment of tax does not constitute a waiver of the minimum payment required as a condition for filing an appeal under section 278.03 or any other law, nor does it affect the order of payment of delinquent taxes under section 280.39.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. In the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead property, and class 2e 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, no penalties shall attach to the second one-half property tax payment as provided in this section if paid by November 15. Thereafter for class 1b agricultural homestead and class 2a homestead property, on November 16 following, a penalty of six percent shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes and on December 1 following, an additional two percent shall be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter for class 2e 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, on November 16 following, a penalty of eight percent shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes and on December 1 following, an additional four percent shall be charged on all such unpaid taxes.

If the owner of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a, or class 2e 2b(2) agricultural property receives a consolidated property tax statement that shows only an aggregate of the taxes and special assessments due on that property and on other property not classified as class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a, or class 2e 2b(2) agricultural property, the aggregate tax and special assessments shown due on the property by the consolidated statement will be due on November 15 provided that at least 50 percent of the property's market value is classified class 1b agricultural, class 2a, or class 2e 2b(2) agricultural.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.37, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The county auditor's statement and county treasurer's receipt issued for payment of a deferred installment, as herein provided for, shall not read for any specific year's taxes, but shall read for partial or full release of judgment, as the case may be, and shall show the year that such judgment was entered. In distributing the taxes collected in this manner, the county auditor shall apply the same in the inverse order to that in which such taxes were levied. All penalties and interest collected under the provisions of this section shall be apportioned by the county auditor in accordance with Minnesota Statutes 1941, sections 276.13 and 276.14 section 276.131. A duplicate treasurer's receipt for payment of a deferred installment, as hereinafter provided, shall be delivered to the court administrator of the district court, and the court administrator of the district court shall credit the amount so paid upon the judgment entered.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.03, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [GROSS RENT.] "Gross rent" means rental paid for the right of occupancy, at arms-length, of a homestead, exclusive of charges for any medical services furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement, whether expressly set out in the rental agreement or not. If the landlord and tenant have not dealt with each other at arms-length and the commissioner determines that the gross rent charged was excessive, the commissioner may adjust the gross rent to a reasonable amount for purposes of this chapter.

Any amount paid by a claimant residing in property assessed pursuant to section ~~273.13~~ 273.124, subdivision 3, 4, 5, or 6 for occupancy in that property shall be excluded from gross rent for purposes of this chapter. However, property taxes imputed to the homestead of the claimant or the dwelling unit occupied by the claimant that qualifies for homestead treatment pursuant to section ~~273.13~~ 273.124, subdivision 3, 4, 5, or 6 shall be included within the term "property taxes payable" as defined in subdivision 13, notwithstanding the fact that ownership is not in the name of the claimant.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 375.192, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding section 270.07, upon written application by the owner of the property, if the application seeks a reduction in estimated market value not in excess of ~~$2,000~~ $10,000, the county board may grant the reduction or abatement of estimated market valuation or taxes and of any costs, penalties or interest on them as the board deems just and equitable and order the refund in whole or part of any taxes, costs, penalties or interest which have been erroneously or unjustly paid. The application must be approved by the county assessor, or, if the property is located in a city of the first or second class having a city assessor, by the city assessor, and by the county auditor before consideration by the county board. The methods of obtaining a reduction or abatement of ad valorem values contained in subdivisions 1 and 2 are in addition to the method provided in section 270.07.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.176, subdivision 4c, is amended to read:

Subd. 4c. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DISTRICTS.] Revenue derived from tax increment from an economic development district may not be used to provide improvements, loans, subsidies, grants, interest rate subsidies, or assistance in any form to developments consisting of buildings and ancillary facilities, if at least 25 percent of the buildings and facilities (determined on the basis of square footage) are used for the purposes listed in section 144(a)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (determined without regard to the 25 percent restriction in subparagraph (A)). The restrictions under this paragraph apply only to districts located in development regions, as defined in section 462.384, with populations in excess of 1,000,000. Population must be determined under the provisions of section 477A.011.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.011, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [CITY REVENUE.] "City revenue" equals the sum of (i) the city's aid payable under section 477A.013, in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated, and (ii) its levy for taxes payable in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated, and (iii) ~~for aids payable in 1991 and subsequent years, the city's transition aid payable under section 273.1398, subdivision 2, in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated.~~

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.013, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TOWNS.] In calendar year 1988, each town which had levied for taxes payable in the previous year at least one mill on the dollar of the assessed value of the town shall receive a distribution equal to the greater of: (a) 60 percent of the amount received in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 273.138, 273.139, and 477A.011 to 477A.03; or (b) the amount certified in 1987 pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.03. In calendar year 1989, each town that had levied for taxes payable in 1988 at least one mill on the dollar of the assessed value of the town shall receive a distribution equal to 106 percent of the distribution received under Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 477A.013, subdivision 1, in 1988. In calendar year 1990 and subsequent years, each town that had levied for taxes payable in the prior year a tax capacity rate of at least ~~.0125~~ .008 shall receive a distribution equal to the amount received in 1989 under this subdivision.

Sec. 38. Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 8, section 37, is amended to read:

Sec. 37. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The part of section 31 that strikes a part of paragraph (c) is effective June 1, 1990. Section 32 is, and the part of section 36 that provides approval of 25 additional positions in the department of human services for food stamp quality control, are effective June 1, 1989. Except as provided in section 34, the rest of this article is effective January 1, 1990.

Sec. 39. [REPEALER.]

(a) Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 38.17; 38.27, subdivision 3; and 38.28 are repealed.

(b) Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 276.13 and 276.14, are repealed.

(c) Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 8, section 35, is repealed.

(d) Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 275.57 and 275.58, subdivision 4, are repealed.

Sec. 40. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 24, 25, 27, 29 to 31, and 38, paragraphs (a) and (d), are effective for taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989, and thereafter, except as provided in those sections. Section 3 is effective January 1, 1990. Sections 4 to 6 are effective January 1, 1989. Sections 7 to 10 are effective January 1, 1989, for property assessed in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter. Sections 11, 18, 26, 32, and 38, paragraph (b), are effective the day following final enactment. Section 38, paragraph (c), is effective for fiscal year 1989. Sections 12, 17, 20, and 22 are effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter. Section 14 is effective for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991, and thereafter. Section 16 is effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter, provided that cooperatives that qualified under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.124, subdivision 6, on January 1, 1989, shall meet the board membership requirements of paragraph (a) by September 1, 1989, and shall meet the requirements of 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) status by January 1, 1990, and that the notice and filing requirements of paragraphs (f) and (g) shall apply only to leasehold cooperatives created later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this act. Sections 19 and 21 are effective for taxes payable in 1989 only. Section 34 is effective July 1, 1989. Section 13 is effective the day following final enactment except the pollution exemption modifications in clause (9) are effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter. Section 35 is effective as provided in Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 12, section 30. Section 37 is effective for distributions in calendar year 1990 and thereafter. Section 38 is effective June 1, 1989.

ARTICLE 10

TAX INCREMENT FINANCING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.] (a) "Redevelopment district" means a type of tax increment financing district consisting of a project, or portions of a project, within which the authority finds by resolution that one of the following conditions, reasonably distributed throughout the district, exists:

(1) parcels consisting of 70 percent of the parcels in area of the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and more than 50 percent of the buildings, not including outbuildings, are structurally substandard to a degree requiring substantial renovation or clearance; or

(2) parcels consisting of 70 percent of the parcels in area of the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and 20 percent of the buildings are structurally substandard and an additional 30 percent of the buildings are found to require substantial renovation or clearance in order to remove such existing conditions as: inadequate street layout, incompatible uses or land use relationships, overcrowding of buildings on the land, excessive dwelling unit density, obsolete buildings not suitable for improvement or conversion, or other identified hazards to the health, safety, and general well-being of the community; or

(3) the property consists of underutilized air rights existing over a public street, highway, or right-of-way; or

(4) the property consists of vacant, unused, underused, inappropriately used, or infrequently used railyards, rail storage facilities, or excessive or vacated railroad rights-of-way; or

(5) the district consists of an existing or proposed industrial park no greater in size than 250 acres, which contains a sewage lagoon contaminated with polychlorinated biphenyls.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "structurally substandard" shall mean containing defects in structural elements or a combination of deficiencies in essential utilities and facilities, light and ventilation, fire protection including adequate egress, layout and condition of interior partitions, or similar factors, which defects or deficiencies are of sufficient total significance to justify substantial renovation or clearance.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, a parcel is not occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements unless 15 percent of the area of the parcel contains improvements.

(d) For districts consisting of two or more noncontiguous areas, each area must qualify as a redevelopment district under paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3), to be included in the district, and the entire area of the district must satisfy paragraph (a).

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20. [INTERNAL REVENUE CODE.] "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.175, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY APPROVAL.] A county auditor shall not certify the original gross tax capacity of a tax increment financing district until the tax increment financing plan proposed for that district has been approved by the municipality in which the district is located. If an authority that proposes to establish a tax increment financing district and the municipality are not the same, the authority shall apply to the municipality in which the district is proposed to be located and shall obtain the approval of its tax increment financing plan by the municipality before the authority may use tax increment financing. The municipality shall approve the tax increment financing plan only after a public hearing thereon after published notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality at least once not less than ten days nor more than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. ~~This~~ The published notice must include a map of the area of the district from which increments may be collected and, if the project area includes additional area, a map of the project area in which the increments may be expended. The hearing may be held before or after the approval or creation of the project or it may be held in conjunction with a hearing to approve the project. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the following findings, and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each determination:

(1) that the proposed tax increment financing district is a redevelopment district, a mined underground space development district, a housing district, a soils condition district, or an economic development district; if the proposed district is a redevelopment district, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (5), must be retained and made available to the public by the authority until the district has been terminated.

(2) that the proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment within the reasonably foreseeable future and therefore the use of tax increment financing is deemed necessary.

(3) that the tax increment financing plan conforms to the general plan for the development or redevelopment of the municipality as a whole.

(4) that the tax increment financing plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the municipality as a whole, for the development or redevelopment of the project by private enterprise.

(5) that the municipality elects the method of tax increment computation set forth in section 469.177, subdivision 3, clause (b), if applicable.

When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality shall approve or disapprove the tax increment financing plan within 60 days of submission by the authority, or the plan shall be deemed approved. When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality may not amend or modify a tax increment financing plan except as proposed by the authority pursuant to subdivision 4. Once approved, the determination of the authority to undertake the project through the use of tax increment financing and the resolution of the governing body shall be conclusive of the findings therein and of the public need for the financing.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.175, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] (a) The municipality must annually report to the commissioner of revenue the following amounts for the entire municipality:

(1) the total principal amount of nondefeased tax increment financing bonds that are outstanding at the end of the previous calendar year; and

(2) the total annual amount of principal and interest payments that are due for the current calendar year on (i) general obligation tax increment financing bonds, and (ii) other tax increment financing bonds.

(b) The municipality must annually report to the commissioner of revenue the following amounts for each tax increment financing district located in the municipality:

(1) the type of district, whether economic development, redevelopment, housing, soils condition, mined underground space, or hazardous substance site;

(2) the date on which the district is required to be decertified;

(3) the captured tax capacity of the district, by property class as specified by the commissioner of revenue, for taxes payable in the current calendar year;

(4) the tax increment revenues for taxes payable in the current calendar year; and

(5) whether the tax increment financing plan or other governing document permits increment revenues to be expended (i) to pay bonds, the proceeds of which were or may be expended on activities located outside of the district, (ii) for deposit into a common fund from which money may be expended on activities located outside of the district, or (iii) to otherwise finance activities located outside of the tax increment financing district.

(c) The report required by this subdivision must be filed with the commissioner of revenue on or before March 1 of each year.

(d) This section applies to districts certified before and after August 1, 1979.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.175, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CREATION OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SUBDISTRICT; RESPONSE ACTIONS.] (a) A municipality or authority which is creating or has created a tax increment financing district may establish within the district a hazardous substance subdistrict upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing, and findings required for approval of the original plan. The geographic area of the subdistrict is made up of any parcels in the district designated for inclusion by the municipality or authority that are designated hazardous substance sites, and any additional parcels in the district designated for inclusion that are contiguous to the hazardous substances sites except for the interposition of a right-of-way. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality must make the findings under paragraphs (b) to (d), and set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each.

(b) Development or redevelopment of the site, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment and tax increment otherwise available, and therefore the hazardous substance district is deemed necessary.

(c) Other parcels that are not designated hazardous substance sites are expected to be developed together with a designated hazardous substance site.

(d) The subdistrict is not larger than, and the period of time during which increments are elected to be received is not longer than, that which is necessary in the opinion of the municipality to provide for the additional costs due to the designated hazardous substance site.

(e) Upon request by a municipality or authority that has incurred expenses for removal or remedial actions to implement a development response action plan, the attorney general may:

(1) bring a civil action on behalf of the municipality or authority to recover the expenses, including administrative costs and litigation expenses, under section 115B.04 or other law; or

(2) assist the municipality or agency in bringing an action as described in clause (1), by providing legal and technical advice, intervening in the action, or other appropriate assistance.

The decision to participate in any action to recover expenses is at the discretion of the attorney general.

(f) If the attorney general brings an action as provided in paragraph (e), clause (1), the municipality or authority shall certify its reasonable and necessary expenses incurred to implement the development response action plan and shall cooperate with the attorney general as required to effectively pursue the action. The certification by the municipality or authority is prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. The attorney general may deduct litigation expenses incurred by the attorney general from any amounts recovered in an action brought under paragraph (e), clause (1). The municipality or authority shall reimburse the attorney general for litigation expenses not recovered in an action under paragraph (e), clause (1), and for litigation expenses incurred to assist in bringing an action under paragraph (e), clause ~~(1)~~ (2). All money recovered or paid to the attorney general for litigation expenses under this paragraph shall be paid to the general fund of the state for deposit to the account of the attorney general. For the purposes of this section, "litigation expenses" means attorney fees and costs of discovery and other preparation for litigation.

(g) The municipality or authority shall reimburse the pollution control agency for its administrative expenses incurred to review and approve a development action response plan and associated activities, and for expenses incurred for any services rendered to the attorney general to support the attorney general in actions brought or assistance provided under paragraph (e). All money paid to the pollution control agency under this paragraph shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund.

(h) Actions taken by a municipality or authority consistent with a development response action plan are deemed to be authorized response actions for the purpose of section 115B.17, subdivision 12. A municipality or agency that takes actions consistent with a development response action plan qualifies for the defenses available under sections 115B.04, subdivision 11, and 115B.05, subdivision 9.

(i) All money recovered by a municipality or authority in an action brought under paragraph (e) in excess of the amounts paid to the attorney general and the pollution control agency must be treated as excess increments and be distributed as provided in section 469.176, subdivision 2, clause (4), to the extent the removal and remedial actions were initially financed with increment revenues.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.176, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DURATION OF TAX INCREMENT FINANCING DISTRICTS.] (a) Subject to the limitations contained in paragraphs (b) to (f), any tax increment financing district as to which bonds are outstanding, payment for which the tax increment and other revenues have been pledged, shall remain in existence at least as long as the bonds continue to be outstanding. The municipality may, at the time of approval of the initial tax increment financing plan, provide for a shorter maximum duration limit than specified in paragraphs (b) to (f). The specified limit applies in place of the otherwise applicable limit.

(b) The tax increment pledged to the payment of the bonds and interest thereon may be discharged and the tax increment financing district may be terminated if sufficient funds have been irrevocably deposited in the debt service fund or other escrow account held in trust for all outstanding bonds to provide for the payment of the bonds at maturity or date of redemption and interest thereon to the maturity or redemption date.

(c) For bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178, subdivisions 2 and 3, the full faith and credit and any taxing powers of the municipality or authority shall continue to be pledged to the payment of the bonds until the principal of and interest on the bonds has been paid in full.

(d) No tax increment shall be paid to an authority for a tax increment financing district after three years from the date of certification of the original gross tax capacity of the taxable real property in the district by the county auditor or after August 1, 1982, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, unless within the three-year period (1) bonds have been issued pursuant to section 469.178, or in aid of a project pursuant to any other law, except revenue bonds issued pursuant to sections 469.152 to 469.165, prior to August 1, 1979, or (2) the authority has acquired property within the district, or (3) the authority has constructed or caused to be constructed public improvements within the district.

(e) No tax increment shall in any event be paid to the authority from a redevelopment district after ~~25~~ 20 years from date of receipt by the authority of the first tax increment, after ~~25~~ 20 years from the date of the receipt for a housing district, after ~~25~~ 20 years from the date of the receipt for a mined underground space development district, after 12 years from approval of the tax increment financing plan for a soils condition district, and after eight years from the date of the receipt, or ten years from approval of the tax increment financing plan, whichever is less, for an economic development district.

For tax increment financing districts created prior to August 1, 1979, no tax increment shall be paid to the authority after April 1, 2001, or the term of a nondefeased bond or obligation outstanding on April 1, 1990, secured by increments from the district or project area, whichever time is greater, provided that in no case will a tax increment be paid to an authority after August 1, 2009, from such a district. If a district's termination date is extended beyond April 1, 2001, because bonds were outstanding on April 1, 1990, with maturities extending beyond April 1, 2001, the following restrictions apply. No increment collected from the district may be expended after April 1, 2001, except to pay or defease (i) bonds issued before April 1, 1990, or (ii) bonds issued to refund the principal of the outstanding bonds and pay associated issuance costs, provided the average maturity of the refunding bonds does not exceed the bonds refunded.

(f) Modification of a tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, shall not extend the durational limitations of this subdivision.

(g) If a parcel of a district is part of a designated hazardous substance site or a hazardous substance subdistrict, tax increment may be paid to the authority from the parcel for longer than the period otherwise provided by this subdivision. The extended period for collection of tax increment begins on the date of receipt of the first tax increment from the parcel that is more than any tax increment received from the parcel before the date of the certification under section 469.175, subdivision 7, paragraph (b), and received after the date of certification to the county auditor described in section 469.175, subdivision 7, paragraph (b). The extended period for collection of tax increment is the lesser of: (1) ~~25~~ 20 years from the date of commencement of the extended period; or (2) the period necessary to recover the costs of removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.176, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4j. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICTS.] At least 95 percent of the revenue derived from a redevelopment district must be used to finance the cost of correcting conditions that allow designation of redevelopment districts under section 469.174, subdivision 10. These costs include acquiring properties containing structurally substandard buildings or improvements, acquiring adjacent parcels necessary to provide a site of sufficient size to permit development, demolition of structures, clearing of the land, and installation of utilities, roads, and parking facilities for the site. The allocated administrative expenses of the authority may be included in the qualifying costs.

Sec. 8. [469.1765] [DEVELOPER PAYMENTS.]

If the development agreement or other agreement or arrangement provides for the developer to repay all or a portion of the assistance provided that was financed directly or indirectly from revenues derived from tax increments, the developer payments are excess increments and must be distributed as provided under section 469.176, subdivision 2, clause (4). A developer includes a beneficiary of assistance financed with revenues derived from tax increments. Assistance includes sale of property at less than the cost of acquisition or fair market value, grants, ground or other leases at less than fair market rent, interest rate subsidies, utility service or connections, roads, or other similar subsidies.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.176, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ACTION REQUIRED.] If, after four years from the date of certification of the original gross tax capacity of the tax increment financing district pursuant to section 469.177, no demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation of property or other site preparation, including excluding improvement of a street adjacent to a parcel but ~~not~~ and installation of utility service including sewer or water systems, has been commenced on a parcel located within a tax increment financing district by the authority or by the owner of the parcel in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, no additional tax increment may be taken from that parcel, and the original gross tax capacity of that parcel shall be excluded from the original gross tax capacity of the tax increment financing district. If the authority or the owner of the parcel subsequently commences demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation or other site preparation on that parcel including improvement of a street adjacent to that parcel, in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall certify to the county auditor that the activity has commenced, and the county auditor shall certify the gross tax capacity thereof as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue and add it to the original gross tax capacity of the tax increment financing district. The county auditor must enforce the provisions of this subdivision. The authority must submit to the county auditor evidence that the required activity has taken place for each parcel in the district. The evidence for a parcel must be submitted by February 1 of the fifth year following the year in which the parcel was certified as included in the district.

Sec. 10. [469.1761] [INCOME REQUIREMENTS; HOUSING PROJECTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT IMPOSED.] In order for a tax increment financing district to qualify as a housing district, the income limitations provided in this section must be satisfied. The requirements imposed by this section apply to residential property receiving assistance financed with tax increments, including interest reduction, land transfers at less than the authority's cost of acquisition, utility service or connections, roads, or other subsidies. The provisions of this section do not apply to interest reduction programs, provided that the duration of the district is limited to 12 years from the collection of the first increment.

Subd. 2. [OWNER OCCUPIED HOUSING.] For owner occupied residential property, 95 percent of the housing units must be occupied by individuals whose family income is less than or equal to the income requirements for qualified mortgage bond projects under section 143(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 3. [RENTAL PROPERTY.] For residential rental property, the property must satisfy the income requirements for a qualified residential rental project as defined in section 142(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 4. [TIME OF APPLICATION.] The requirements of this section apply for the duration of the tax increment financing district.

Subd. 5. [NONCOMPLIANCE; ENFORCEMENT.] Failure to comply with the requirements of this section results in application of the duration limits for economic development districts to the district. If at the time of the noncompliance it is determined the district has exceeded the duration limits for an economic development district, the district must be decertified effective for taxes assessed in the next calendar year. The commissioner of revenue shall enforce the provisions of this section. The commissioner may waive insubstantial violations. Appeal of the commissioner's orders of noncompliance must be made to the tax court in the manner provided in section 271.06.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.177, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [PAYMENT TO SCHOOL FOR REFERENDUM LEVY.] The provisions of this subdivision apply to tax increment financing districts and projects for which certification was requested before May 1, 1988, that are located in a school district in which the voters have approved new tax capacity rates or an increase in tax capacity rates after the tax increment financing district was certified (1) if there are no outstanding bonds on May 1, 1988, to which increment from the district is pledged, or (2) if the referendum is approved after May 1, 1988, and there are no bonds outstanding at the time the referendum is approved, that were issued before May 1, 1988, or (3) if the referendum increasing the tax capacity rate was approved after the most recent issue of bonds to which increment from the district is pledged. If clause (1) or (2) applies, the authority must annually pay to the school district an amount of increment equal to the increment that is attributable to the increase in the tax capacity rate under the referendum. If clause (3) applies, upon approval by a majority vote of the governing body of the municipality and the school board, the authority must pay to the school district an amount of increment equal to the increment that is attributable to the increase in the tax capacity rate under the referendum. The amounts of these increments may be expended and must be treated by the school district in the same manner as provided for the revenues derived from the referendum levy approved by the voters. The provisions of this subdivision apply to projects for which certification was requested before August 1, 1979.

Sec. 12. Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 12, section 29, is amended to read:

Sec. 29. [TRANSITION RULES.]

(a) The provisions of sections 3, 6, 10, and 14 16 do not apply to proposed tax increment financing districts for which the authority called for a public hearing in a resolution dated March 23, 1987, and for which a public hearing was held on April 28, 1987. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, subdivision 10, and 469.176, subdivision 4, apply to such districts.

(b) The provisions of sections 3, 6, 10, and 14 16 do not apply to candidate sites in the old highway 8 corridor tax increment project area, identified in the old highway 8 corridor plan as approved by an authority on October 14, 1986, if the requests for certification of the districts are filed with the county before January 1, 1998. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, sections 469.174, subdivision 10, and 469.176, subdivision 4, apply to such districts.

(c) The provisions of section 14 16, subdivision 4c, do not apply to an economic development district located in a development district approved on November 9, 1987, provided the request for certification of the tax increment district is submitted to the county by September 30, 1988.

Sec. 13. Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 12, section 30, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 1, section 11, is amended to read:

Sec. 30. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 2, 5, 6, 7, 14, 16, subdivision 4e, 17, and the provisions of section 15 relating to the duration of hazardous substance sites and subdistricts are effective for hazardous substance sites and subdistricts designated and created after the day following final enactment. Except as otherwise specifically provided, sections 1, 3, 4, 8 to 12, 16, and 20 to 23, and the provisions of section 15 applying to soils condition districts are effective for districts and amendments adding geographic area to an existing district for which the request for certification was filed with the county auditor after May 1, 1988. Sections 13, 15, 16, subdivision 4g, 18, 24, and 25, and the provisions of section 21 allowing a change in the fiscal disparities election are effective May 1, 1988, except as otherwise specifically provided. Section 16, subdivision 4h, is effective beginning with administrative costs incurred on January 1, 1989. Section 16, subdivision 4i, is effective for districts for which the request for certification is filed with the county after May 1, 1988, and to all increment collected after January 1, 1990. Sections 26 to 28 are effective upon approval by the city council of the city of Virginia and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021. Section 29 is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 14. [HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL CREDIT AID; TIF DISTRICTS; FALCON HEIGHTS AND LAUDERDALE.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT OF AID.] The commissioner of revenue shall pay the cities of Falcon Heights and Lauderdale homestead and agricultural credit aid as provided by this section. The payments must be made at the times provided by Minnesota Statutes, section 273.1398.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, (1) the definitions contained in Minnesota Statutes, section 273.1398 apply, and (2) qualified tax increment financing district means a tax increment financing district comprised exclusively of class 1 and class 4 property with 75 percent of the market value of the district consisting of class 1 property.

Subd. 3. [CALCULATION OF AID AMOUNT.] (a) Homestead and agricultural credit aid for a qualified tax increment financing district for taxes payable in 1990 equals the lesser of the following:

(1) total tax increment revenues for the district for taxes payable in 1989, minus the product of (i) the qualified tax increment financing district's gross tax capacity rate; (ii) its net tax capacity based on payable 1989 market values and net tax capacity percentages in effect for taxes payable in 1990, and (iii) 1.03; or

(2) 105 percent of the principal and interest, due during the calendar year, on bonds that were issued before January 1, 1989, and to which the qualified district's increment revenues are pledged, less the total tax capacity rate year multiplied by the captured tax capacity of the tax increment financing district.

(b) For 1991 and later years, the district must receive aid equal to the amount it received in 1990 or the amount under paragraph (a), clause (2), for the year, whichever is less.

Subd. 4. [APPROPRIATION.] The amount necessary to make the payments required by this section is annually appropriated to the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 5. [CITY INFORMATION.] The cities of Falcon Heights and Lauderdale must provide the commissioner of revenue with the information necessary to make the calculations required under subdivision 3, clause (2).

Sec. 15. [MOORHEAD TAX INCREMENT FINANCING.]

In the case of a tax increment financing district in the city of Moorhead created prior to August 1, 1979, and used to finance a hotel, parking facility, and conference project, the date "April 1, 1992" must be substituted for "April 1, 1990" in Minnesota Statutes, section 469.176, subdivision 1, paragraph (e), each place it occurs.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 3, 6, 7, 9, and 10 are effective for districts certified after June 30, 1989. Sections 2, 5, and 11 to 13 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 8 is effective for developer payments received after June 30, 1989. Section 15 is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Moorhead.

ARTICLE 11

LAWFUL GAMBLING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [LAWFUL PURPOSE.] "Lawful purpose" means one or more of the following: (a) benefiting persons by enhancing their opportunity for religious or educational advancement, by relieving or protecting them from disease, suffering or distress, by contributing to their physical well-being, by assisting them in establishing themselves in life as worthy and useful citizens, or by increasing their comprehension of and devotion to the principles upon which this nation was founded; (b) initiating, performing, or fostering worthy public works or enabling or furthering the erection or maintenance of public structures; (c) lessening the burdens borne by government or voluntarily supporting, augmenting or supplementing services which government would normally render to the people; ~~or~~ (d) construction, improvement, expansion, maintenance, and repair of athletic fields and ice rinks and their appurtenances, owned by the organization or a public agency; or (e) payment of taxes imposed under this chapter, and other taxes section 349.212, subdivisions 1, 4, and 5, or imposed by the state or the United States on receipts from lawful gambling.

"Lawful purpose" does not include the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of any real property owned or leased by the organization, unless the board specifically authorizes the expenditures after finding that the property will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in clauses (a) to (c). The board may by rule adopt procedures and standards to administer this subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. "Gross profit" means the gross receipts collected from lawful gambling, less reasonable sums necessarily and actually expended for prizes, less the taxes imposed under section 349.212 except local gambling taxes.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 25. [GROSS RECEIPTS.] "Gross receipts" means all receipts derived from lawful gambling activity including, but not limited to, the following items:

(1) gross sales of bingo cards and sheets before reduction for prizes, expenses, or any other charges or offsets;

(2) gross sales of pull-tab and tipboard tickets or cards before reduction for prizes, expenses, or any other charges or offsets;

(3) gross sales of raffle tickets before reduction for prizes, expenses, or any other charges or offsets;

(4) admission, commission, cover, or other charges imposed on participants in lawful gambling activity as a condition for or cost of participation; and

(5) interest, dividends, annuities, profit from transactions, or other income derived from the accumulation or use of gambling proceeds.

Gross receipts does not include proceeds from rental under section 349.164 or 349.18, subdivision 3, for duly licensed bingo hall lessors.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 26. [PROPERTY EXPENSES.] "Property expenses" means expenditures by an organization for the replacement, expansion, improvement, maintenance, and repair of real property the organization owns or leases, except that "property expenses" does not include any expenditure for these purposes in any year in excess of the amount the organization pays in that year in taxes imposed under section 7.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.15, is amended to read:

349.15 [USE OF PROFITS.]

Profits from lawful gambling may be expended only for lawful purposes ~~or~~ and allowable and property expenses as authorized at a regular meeting of the conducting organization. Provided that no more than 55 percent of profits the gross profits from bingo, and no more than 45 percent for other forms of lawful gambling, may be expended for necessary allowable expenses related to lawful gambling.

The board shall provide by rule for the administration of this section, including specifying allowable expenses. The rules must specify that no more than one-third of the annual premium on a policy of liability insurance procured by the organization may be taken as an allowable expense from the gross receipts from lawful gambling. This expense shall be allowed by the board only to the extent that it relates directly to the conduct of lawful gambling and is verified in the manner the board prescribes by rule. The rules may provide a maximum percentage of gross receipts which may be expended for certain expenses.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.16, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [RESTRICTIONS ON LICENSE ISSUANCE.] On and after July 1, 1989, the board shall not issue an initial license to any organization if the board determines that the organization is seeking licensing for the primary purpose of evading the tax imposed by section 7.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.212, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [GROSS RECEIPTS TAX.] (a) A tax is imposed on the gross receipts from lawful gambling, except the gross receipts from bingo. This tax is in addition to other taxes imposed on lawful gambling. The tax equals the organization's gross receipts for the fiscal year multiplied by the applicable rate under the following schedule. The fiscal year is July 1 through the succeeding June 30. The rate applies to the total gross receipts for the calendar year:

Gross Receipts	Tax Rate
less than or equal to $500,000	0%
over $500,000 but less than or equal to $700,000	2%
over $700,000 but less than or equal to $900,000	4%
over $900,000	6%

(b) The taxes imposed by this subdivision are payable to the commissioner of revenue on or before the 20th day of the month following the month in which the taxable event occurred. The applicable tax rate for monthly payments must be based on the annualized gross receipts for the fiscal year.

(c) On or before January 20 of each year, the organization must file an annual reconciliation of the gross receipts and tax for the preceding calendar year. The reconciliation must include the total gross receipts for the calendar year, the total gross receipts tax paid for the calendar year, and additional tax due or overpayment. Any additional tax due must be paid with the reconciliation return.

(d) The tax must be computed and reported on a form and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner of revenue.

(e) If the organization fails to file a report or pay the tax as required by paragraph (b), a penalty of ten percent of the underpayment is imposed.

(f) Unpaid tax and penalties bear interest at the rate prescribed in section 270.75 from the due date of the return. Refunds bear interest at the rate prescribed in section 270.76 from the later of 60 days after (1) the due date or (2) the date the reconciliation return is filed.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective July 1, 1989.

ARTICLE 12

INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.067, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATIONS.] The credit for expenses incurred for the care of each dependent shall not exceed $720 in any taxable year, and the total credit for all dependents of a claimant shall not exceed $1,440 in a taxable year. The maximum total credit shall be reduced according to the amount of the income of the claimant and a spouse, if any, as follows:

income up to ~~$12,200~~ $13,350, $720 maximum for one dependent, $1,440 for all dependents; income over ~~$12,200~~ $13,350, the maximum credit for one dependent shall be reduced by ~~$12~~ $18 for every ~~$200~~ $350 of additional income, ~~$24~~ $36 for all dependents;

~~for income of $24,001 and over, no credit shall be received.~~

The commissioner shall construct and make available to taxpayers tables showing the amount of the credit at various levels of income and expenses. The tables shall follow the schedule contained in this subdivision, except that the commissioner may graduate the transitions between expenses and income brackets.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.067, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [INFLATION ADJUSTMENT.] The dollar amount of the income threshold at which the maximum credit begins to be reduced under subdivision 2 must be adjusted for inflation. The commissioner shall adjust the threshold amount by the percentage determined under section 290.06, subdivision 2d, for the taxable year.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.0802, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Adjusted gross income" means federal adjusted gross income as used in section 22(d) of the Internal Revenue Code for the taxable year plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 407(e) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) "Disability income" means disability income as defined in section 22(c)(2)(B)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

(d) "Nontaxable retirement and disability benefits" means the amount of pension, annuity, or disability benefits that would be included in the reduction under section 22(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, but excluding tier one railroad retirement benefits.

(e) "Qualified individual" means a qualified individual as defined in section 22(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that "age 62" must be substituted for "age 65".

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.091, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of the tax imposed by this section, the following terms have the meanings given:

(a) "Alternative minimum taxable income" means the sum of the following for the taxable year:

(1) the taxpayer's federal alternative minimum taxable income as defined in section 55(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(2) the taxpayer's itemized deductions allowed in computing federal alternative minimum taxable income, but excluding the portion of the charitable contribution deduction that constitutes an item of tax preference under section 57(a)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(3) to the extent not included in federal alternative minimum taxable income, the amount of interest income as provided by section 290.01, subdivision 19a, clause (1); less the sum of

(i) interest income as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 19b, clause (1);

(ii) an overpayment of state income tax as provided by section 290.01, subdivision 19b, clause (2); and

(iii) the amount of investment interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness to the extent that the amount does not exceed net investment income, as defined in section 163(d)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. Interest does not include amounts deducted in computing federal adjusted gross income.

In the case of an estate or trust, alternative minimum taxable income must be computed as provided in section 59(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

(c) "Investment interest" means investment interest as defined in section 163(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) "Tentative minimum tax" equals six percent of alternative minimum taxable income after subtracting the exemption amount determined under subdivision 3.

(e) "Regular tax" means the tax that would be imposed under this chapter (without regard to this section and section 290.032), reduced by the sum of the nonrefundable credits allowed under this chapter.

(f) "Net minimum tax" means the minimum tax imposed by this section.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.091, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [CREDIT FOR PRIOR YEARS' LIABILITY.] (a) A credit is allowed against the tax imposed by this chapter on individuals, trusts, and estates equal to the minimum tax credit for the taxable year. The minimum tax credit equals the adjusted net minimum tax for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1988, reduced by the minimum tax credits allowed in a prior taxable year. The credit may not exceed the excess, (if any), for the taxable year of

(1) the regular tax, over

(2) the greater of (i) the tentative alternative minimum tax, or (ii) zero.

(b) The adjusted net minimum tax for a taxable year equals the lesser of the net minimum tax or the excess, (if any), of

(1) the tentative minimum tax, over

(2) six percent of the sum of (i) adjusted gross income as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code, (ii) interest income as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 19a, clause (1), (iii) interest on specified private activity bonds, as defined in section 57(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent not included under clause (ii), (iv) depletion as defined in section 57(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, less (v) the deductions provided in clauses (3)(i), (3)(ii), and (3)(iii) of subdivision 2, paragraph (a), and (vi) the exemption amount determined under subdivision 3.

In the case of an individual who is not a Minnesota resident for the entire year, adjusted minimum tax must be multiplied by the fraction defined in section 290.06, subdivision 2c, paragraph (e). In the case of a trust or estate, adjusted minimum tax must be multiplied by the fraction defined under subdivision 4, paragraph (b).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.38, is amended to read:

290.38 [RETURNS OF MARRIED PERSONS.]

(a) A husband and wife must file a joint Minnesota income tax return if they filed a joint federal income tax return. If a joint return is made the tax shall be computed on the aggregate income and the liability with respect to the tax shall be joint and several; provided that a spouse who is relieved of a liability attributable to a substantial underpayment under section 6013(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, shall also be relieved of the state tax liability on the substantial underpayment.

(b) In the case of a husband and wife or individuals who were a husband and wife prior to the dissolution of their marriage, for tax liabilities reported on a joint return, the liability of each spouse is limited to the tax due on the spouse's income including 50 percent of the joint income. This paragraph is effective only if the commissioner receives written notice of the marriage dissolution from the taxpayer.

(c) If the husband and wife have elected to file separate federal income tax returns they must file separate Minnesota income tax returns. This election to file a joint or separate returns must be changed if they change their election for federal purposes. In the event taxpayers desire to change their election, such change shall be done in the manner and on such form as the commissioner shall prescribe by rule.

(d) The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made under provisions of section 7703 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

Sec. 7. Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 1, section 22, is amended to read:

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Except as otherwise provided, sections 1 to 3 and 16 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1986. Sections 5, 7 to 12, 14, 15, 17, and 21 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1987. The deduction allowed under section 4, clause (4) and the ability of surviving spouses to use the married filing joint rates in section 7 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1986. The rest of sections 4 and 7 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1987. Section 13 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1984 1973. Section 18 is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 3 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1988.

Section 2 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1990.

Sections 4 and 5 are effective for alternative minimum tax paid in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1988.

Section 6 is effective the day following final enactment for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1973.

Section 7 is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 13

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.052, is amended to read:

270.052 [AGREEMENT WITH INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE.]

Notwithstanding sections 290.61 and 290A.17, the commissioner may enter into an agreement with the Internal Revenue Service to identify taxpayers who have refunds due from the department of revenue and liabilities owing to the Internal Revenue Service, if the Internal Revenue Service agrees to identify taxpayers who have refunds due from the Internal Revenue Service and liabilities owing to the department of revenue. In accordance with the procedures established in the agreement, the Internal Revenue Service may levy against the refunds to be paid by the department of revenue, and the department of revenue may levy against refunds to be paid by the Internal Revenue Service.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.067, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.] State governmental policy objectives are sought to be achieved both by direct expenditure of governmental funds and by the granting of special and selective tax relief or tax expenditures. Both direct expenditures of governmental funds and tax expenditures have an effect on the ability of the state and local governments to lower tax rates or to increase expenditures. As a result, tax expenditures should receive a regular and comprehensive review by the legislature as to (a) their total cost, (b) their effectiveness in achieving their objectives, (c) their effect on the fairness and equity of the distribution of the tax burden, and (d) the public and private cost of administering tax expenditure financed programs. This section is intended to facilitate a regular review of the state and local tax expenditure budget by the legislature by providing for the preparation of a regular biennial tax expenditure budget.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.067, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PREPARATION; SUBMISSION.] The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a tax expenditure budget for the state every four years. The tax expenditure budget report shall be submitted to the legislature as a supplement to the governor's budget and at the same time as provided for submission of the budget pursuant to section 16A.11, subdivision 1, except that the next such report shall be submitted in 1993, and every four years thereafter.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.92, subdivision 4b, as added by Laws 1989, chapter 28, section 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 4b. [WITHHOLDING BY PARTNERSHIPS.] (a) A partnership shall deduct and withhold a tax as provided in paragraph (b) when the partnership pays or credits amounts to any of its nonresident individual partners on account of their distributive shares of partnership income for a taxable year of the partnership.

(b) The amount of tax withheld is determined by multiplying the partner's distributive share allocable to Minnesota under section 290.17, paid or credited during the taxable year by the highest rate used to determine the income tax liability for an individual under section 290.06, subdivision 2c, except that the amount of tax withheld may be determined based on tables provided by the commissioner if the partner submits a withholding exemption certificate under subdivision 5.

(c) A partnership required to deduct and withhold tax under this subdivision shall file a return with the commissioner. The tax required to be deducted and withheld during that year must be paid with the return. The return and payment is due on or before the due date specified for filing the partnership return under section 290.42.

(d) A partnership required to withhold and remit tax under this subdivision is liable for payment of the tax to the commissioner, and a person having control of or responsibility for the withholding of the tax or the filing of returns due under this subdivision is personally liable for the tax due. The commissioner may reduce or abate the tax withheld under this subdivision if the partnership had reasonable cause to believe that no tax was due under this section.

(e) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), a partnership is not required to deduct and withhold tax for a nonresident partner if:

(1) the partner elects to have the tax due paid as part of the partnership's composite return under section 290.39, subdivision 5;

(2) the partner has Minnesota assignable federal adjusted gross income from the partnership of less than $1,000; or

(3) the partnership is liquidated or terminated, the income was generated by a transaction related to the termination or liquidation, and no cash or other property was distributed in the current or prior taxable year; or

(4) the distributive shares of partnership income are attributable to:

(i) income required to be recognized because of discharge of indebtedness;

(ii) income recognized because of a sale, exchange, or other disposition of real estate, depreciable property, or property described in section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988; or

(iii) income recognized on the sale, exchange, or other disposition of any property that has been the subject of a basis reduction pursuant to sections 108, 734, 743, 754, or 1017 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988, to the extent that the income does not include cash received or receivable or if there is cash received or receivable, to the extent that the cash is required to be used to pay indebtedness by the partnership or a secured debt on partnership property.

(f) For purposes of subdivisions 6, paragraph (1)(c), 6a, 7, 11, and 15, a partnership is considered an employer.

(g) To the extent that income is exempt from withholding under paragraph (e)(4), the commissioner has a lien in an amount up to the amount that would be required to be withheld with respect to the income of the partner attributable to the partnership interest, but for the application of paragraph (e)(4). The lien arises under section 270.69 from the date of assessment of the tax against the partner, and attaches to that partner's share of the profits and any other money due or to become due to that partner in respect of the partnership. Notice of the lien may be sent by mail to the partnership, without the necessity for recording the lien. The notice has the force and effect of a levy under section 270.70, and is enforceable against the partnership in the manner provided by that section. Upon payment in full of the liability subsequent to the notice of lien, the partnership must be notified that the lien has been satisfied.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 295.34, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 2, every telephone company shall file a return with the commissioner of revenue on or before April 15 of each year, and submit payment therewith, of the following percentages of its gross earnings, including long distance access charges, of the preceding calendar year derived from business within this state:

(a) for gross earnings from service to rural subscribers and from exchange business of all cities of the fourth class and statutory cities having a population of 10,000 or less for calendar years beginning before December 31, 1988, four percent, for calendar year 1989, three percent, provided that the estimated tax payments made on March 15 and June 15, 1989, pursuant to section 295.365, must be made as if the tax were imposed at a rate of four percent, for calendar year 1990, 1.5 percent, for calendar year 1991, one percent, and for calendar years beginning after December 31, 1991, exempt;

and

(b) for gross earnings derived from all other business for calendar years beginning before December 31, 1988, seven percent, for calendar year 1989, 5.5 percent, provided that the estimated tax payments made on March 15 and June 15, 1989, pursuant to section 295.365, must be made as if the tax were imposed at a rate of seven percent, for calendar year 1990, three percent, for calendar year 1991, 2.5 percent, and for calendar years beginning after December 31, 1991, exempt.

A tax shall not be imposed on the gross earnings of a telephone company from business originating or terminating outside of Minnesota, except that the gross earnings tax is imposed on all long distance access charges allocated to interstate service received in payment from a telephone company before December 31, 1989, and on customer access charges. Customer access charges include the flat rate monthly charges received by a telephone company from its customers, that are authorized by the Federal Communications Commission and that compensate a telephone company for the cost of a local telephone plant to the extent attributable to interstate service.

The tax imposed is in lieu of all other taxes, except the taxes imposed by chapter 290, property taxes assessed beginning in 1989, payable in 1990, and sales and use taxes imposed as a result of chapter 297A. All money paid by a company for connecting fees and switching charges to any other company shall be reported as earnings by the company to which they are paid. For the purposes of this section, the population of any statutory city shall be considered as that stated in the latest federal census.

(c) For the period January 1, 1984 through December 31, 1986, all money paid by a company for connecting fees and switching charges, including carriers access charges except that portion paid for directory assistance and billing and collection services, to any other company must be reported as earnings by the company to which they are paid, but are not deemed to be earnings of the collecting and paying company.

Sec. 6. [STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.]

The purpose of section 5 is to confirm and clarify the original intent of the legislature in enacting the exemption for gross earnings from business originating or terminating outside of Minnesota in Minnesota Statutes, section 295.34. Section 5 does not create a new category of earnings subject to the gross earnings tax. It ratifies existing state interpretation of the telephone gross earnings tax and Minnesota Statutes, section 295.34.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 373.40, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Bonds" means an obligation as defined under section 475.51.

(b) "Capital improvement" means acquisition or betterment of public lands, buildings, or other improvements within the county for the purpose of a county courthouse, administrative building, health or social service facility, correctional facility, jail, law enforcement center, hospital, morgue, library, park, and roads and bridges. An improvement must have an expected useful life of five years or more to qualify. "Capital improvement" does not include light rail transit or any activity related to it or a recreation or sports facility building (such as, but not limited to, a gymnasium, ice arena, racquet sports facility, swimming pool, exercise room or health spa), unless the building is part of an outdoor park facility and is incidental to the primary purpose of outdoor recreation.

(c) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of trade and economic development.

(d) "Metropolitan county" means a county located in the seven-county metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121 or a county with a population of 90,000 or more.

(e) "Population" means the population established by the most recent of the following (determined as of the date the resolution authorizing the bonds was adopted):

(1) the federal decennial census,

(2) a special census conducted under contract by the United States Bureau of the Census, or

(3) a population estimate made either by the metropolitan council or by the state demographer under section 116K.04, subdivision 4, clause (10).

(f) "Taxable gross Tax capacity" means total taxable gross tax capacity, but does not include captured gross tax capacity.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 373.40, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION OF ELECTION REQUIREMENT.] (a) Bonds issued by a county to finance capital improvements under an approved capital improvement plan are not subject to the election requirements of section 375.18 or 475.58. The bonds must be approved by vote of at least three-fifths of the members of the county board. In the case of a metropolitan county, the bonds must be approved by vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the county board.

(b) Before each issuance of bonds qualifying under this section, the county must publish a notice of its intention to issue the bonds and the date and time of a hearing to obtain public comment on the matter. The notice must be published in the official newspaper of the county or in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The notice must be published at least 14, but not more than 28, days before the date of the hearing.

(c) A county may issue the bonds only upon obtaining the approval of a majority of the voters voting on the question of issuing the obligations, if a petition requesting a vote on the issuance is signed by voters equal to five percent of the votes cast in the county in the last general election and is filed with the county auditor within 30 days after the public hearing. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of the question to be presented at the election.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 373.40, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATIONS ON AMOUNT.] (a) A county, other than Hennepin or Ramsey, may not issue bonds under this section if the maximum amount of principal and interest to become due in any year on all the outstanding bonds issued pursuant to this section (including the bonds to be issued) will equal or exceed one mill multiplied by 1.82 percent of the taxable gross tax capacity of property in the county or 2.27 percent of net tax capacity. Ramsey county may not issue bonds under this section if the maximum amount of principal and interest to become due in any year on all the outstanding bonds issued pursuant to this section (including the bonds to be issued) will equal or exceed 1.2 mills multiplied by 2.19 percent of the taxable gross tax capacity of property in the county or 2.72 percent of net tax capacity. Hennepin county may not issue bonds under this section if the maximum amount of principal and interest to become due in any year on all the outstanding bonds issued pursuant to this section together with the bonds proposed to be issued, will equal or exceed ~~one-half mill multiplied by 0.81 percent of the taxable gross tax capacity of the property in the county or 1.13 percent of net tax capacity.~~

(b) Calculation of the limit must be made using the taxable gross tax capacity for the taxes payable year in which the obligations are issued and sold. This section does not limit the authority to issue bonds under any other special or general law. In applying the limits under this section, gross tax capacity must be used for bonds issued before January 1, 1990 and net tax capacity for bonds issued after December 31, 1989 and for building fund levies payable beginning with 1990.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 373.40, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [BUILDING FUND LEVY.] (a) If a county other than Hennepin or Ramsey has an approved capital improvement plan, the county board may annually levy an amount equal to one mill 2.27 percent of net tax capacity, less the amount levied to pay principal and interest on bonds issued under this section. If the Hennepin county board has an approved capital improvement plan, the county board may annually levy an amount equal to one-half mill 1.13 percent of net tax capacity, less the amount levied to pay principal and interest on bonds issued under this section. If the Ramsey county board has approved a capital improvement plan, the county board may annually levy an amount equal to 2.72 percent of net tax capacity, less the amount levied to pay principal and interest on bonds issued under this section. The proceeds of this the building fund levy must be deposited in the county building fund under section 373.25 and may only be expended for capital improvements as provided in the approved capital improvement plan.

(b) The maximum amount of the levy, when added to the unexpended balance in the building fund, must not exceed the projected cost of the remaining improvements in the capital improvement plan. A levy made under this section is not subject to any other levy limitation, nor may the levy be included in the computation of any other levy limitation.

(c) This subdivision and the exercise of levy authority under it does not supersede or preempt the authority to levy under section 373.25 or any other law.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 444.075, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the term "municipality" means a home rule charter or statutory city, wherever located, except a city of the first class, or a town located in a metropolitan county as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 4.

The term "governing body" means the town board of supervisors with respect to towns.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 444.16, is amended to read:

444.16 [STORM SEWER IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS; MUNICIPALITY DEFINED.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of Laws 1974, chapter 206 "municipality" means any city, however organized sections 444.16 to 444.21 the terms in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [MUNICIPALITY.] "Municipality" means a home rule charter or statutory city or town.

Subd. 3. [GOVERNING BODY.] "Governing body" means the city council for a city and the town board for a town.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 444.17, is amended to read:

444.17 [ESTABLISHMENT OF DISTRICT.]

The council governing body of a municipality may by ordinance adopted by a two-thirds vote of all of its members, establish within its corporate territorial limits a storm sewer improvement tax district. The ordinance shall describe with particularity the territory or area within the municipality to be included within the district. No such ordinance shall be adopted until after a public hearing has been held on the question. A notice of the time, place and purpose of the hearing shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the municipality or in a qualified newspaper of general circulation in the municipality and the last notice shall be at least seven days prior to the day of the hearing. The ordinance when adopted shall be filed with the county auditor and county recorder.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 444.18, is amended to read:

444.18 [AUTHORITY OF COUNCIL GOVERNING BODY; RECOVERY OF COST; IMPROVEMENT PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. Following the adoption of an ordinance pursuant to Laws 1974, chapter 206 under sections 444.16 to 444.21, the council governing body may acquire, construct, reconstruct, extend, maintain, and otherwise improve storm sewer systems and related facilities within the district. Storm water holding areas and ponds within and without the ~~corporate~~ limits municipality may also be acquired, constructed, maintained, and improved for the benefit of any such district. The cost of the systems and facilities described in this subdivision may be recovered by the tax authorized in section 444.20.

Subd. 2. The procedures of sections 429.031 to 429.081 shall apply when the ~~council~~ governing body of a municipality determines to make an improvement pursuant to this section.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 444.19, is amended to read:

444.19 [BONDS.]

At any time after a contract for the construction of all or part of an improvement has been entered into or the work has been ordered done by day labor, the ~~council~~ governing body may issue obligations in ~~such an~~ amount as it deems necessary to defray in whole or in part the expense incurred and estimated to be incurred in making the improvement, including every item of cost from inception to completion and all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the improvement or the financing thereof. The obligations shall be payable primarily out of the proceeds of the tax levied pursuant to section 444.20. The ~~council~~ governing body may by resolution adopted prior to the sale of obligations pledge the full faith, credit and taxing power of the municipality to assure payment of the principal and interest in the event the proceeds of the tax levy in the district are insufficient to pay ~~such~~ the principal and interest. Obligations shall be issued in accordance with chapter 475, except that an election is not required, and the amount of ~~any such~~ the obligations is not included in determining the net indebtedness of the municipality under the provisions of any law or charter limiting such indebtedness.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 444.20, is amended to read:

444.20 [TAXES.]

The ~~council~~ governing body of a municipality may levy a tax on all taxable property within the district ~~such taxes as are in an amount~~ necessary to finance the cost of the improvement, including maintenance and to pay the principal and interest on obligations issued pursuant to section 444.19. ~~Such taxes~~ The tax shall be collected and paid over as other taxes, but shall be spread only upon the property described in the ordinance. ~~Such taxes~~ The tax shall be disbursed by the ~~council~~ governing body only for the benefit of district as established by the ordinance.

Sec. 17. [KANDIYOHI COUNTY RURAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The Kandiyohi county board may, by adopting a written enabling resolution, establish a county rural development finance authority that, subject to subdivision 2, has the following powers: powers of an economic development authority under Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.090 to 469.107, except for the authority to issue general obligation bonds under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.102; and powers of a rural development financing authority under sections 469.142 to 469.151.

Subd. 2. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY POWERS.] If the county rural development finance authority exercises the powers of an economic development authority, the county may exercise all of the powers relating to an economic development authority granted to a city under Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.090 to 469.108. The county rural development finance authority may create and define the boundaries of economic development districts at any place or places within the county. Minnesota Statutes, section 469.174, subdivision 10, and the contiguity requirement specified under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.101, subdivision 1, do not apply to the county economic development districts.

Subd. 3. [LIMIT OF POWERS.] (a) The enabling resolution may impose the following limits on the actions of the authority:

(1) that the authority may not exercise any of the powers contained in subdivision 1 unless those powers are specifically authorized in the enabling resolution; and

(2) any other limitation or control established by the county board by the enabling resolution.

(b) The enabling resolution may be modified at any time, but may not be applied in a manner that impairs contracts executed before the modification is made. All modifications to the enabling resolution must be by written resolution.

(c) Before the commencement of a project by the authority, the governing body of the municipality in which the project is to be located or the Kandiyohi county board, if the project is outside municipal corporate limits, shall by majority vote approve the project as recommended by the authority.

Subd. 4. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] (a) The authority consists of a board of seven directors. The directors shall be appointed by the Kandiyohi county board. Each director shall be appointed to serve for three years or until a successor is appointed and qualified. No director may serve more than two consecutive terms. The initial appointment of directors must be made so that no more than one-third of the directors' positions will require appointment in any one year due to fulfillment of their three-year appointment. The appointment of directors must be made to reflect representation of the entire county by population, appointing one director to represent each of the five county commissioner districts. The other two directors must be representatives of various county-based economic development organizations or be directors at-large. No more than two directors may reside in any one county commissioner district.

(b) Two of the directors initially appointed shall serve for terms of one year, two for two years, and three for three years. Each vacancy must be filled for the unexpired term in the manner in which the original appointment was made. A vacancy occurs if a director no longer resides in the county. No director shall be an officer, employee, director, shareholder, or member of any corporation, firm, or association with which the authority has entered into any operating lease, or other agreement. The directors may be removed by the county for the reasons and in the manner provided under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.010, and shall receive no compensation other than reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Directors shall have no personal liability for obligations of the authority or the methods of enforcement and collection of the obligations.

Sec. 18. [TOWN OF OTSEGO; ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY.] The town of Otsego may establish an economic development authority. The town may establish the authority in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.091 to 469.101, and may impose the limits on the authority enumerated in Minnesota Statutes, section 469.092. An authority established under this subdivision has all the powers and duties granted to or imposed upon economic development authorities under Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.090 to 469.106 and 469.174 to 469.178.

Subd. 2. [POWERS OF A CITY OR MUNICIPALITY.] The town of Otsego and its governing body have all the powers and duties granted to or imposed upon (1) a city and the governing body of a city under Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.090 to 469.107, including the power to levy a tax subject to referendum under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.107; and (2) a municipality and the governing body of a municipality under Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.174 to 469.178 with respect to a project undertaken by an economic development authority under subdivision 1.

Sec. 19. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1989, sections 60A.151 and 271.061, are repealed.

Sec. 20. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 4 is effective after December 31, 1989. Section 5 is effective retroactive to January 1, 1986. Sections 7 to 9 are effective July 1, 1989, and for bonds issued after June 30, 1989. Section 10 is effective beginning for taxes payable in 1990. Section 17 is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the county board of Kandiyohi county. Section 18 is effective the day following compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the town board of the town of Otsego. Section 19 is effective for appeals filed after the day following final enactment."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 144.651, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [PARTICIPATION IN PLANNING TREATMENT; NOTIFICATION OF FAMILY MEMBERS.] (a) Patients and residents shall have the right to participate in the planning of their health care. This right includes the opportunity to discuss treatment and alternatives with individual caregivers, the opportunity to request and participate in formal care conferences, and the right to include a family member or other chosen representative. In the event that the patient or resident cannot be present, a family member or other representative chosen by the patient or resident may be included in such conferences.

(b) If a patient or resident who enters a facility is unconscious or comatose or is unable to communicate, the facility shall make reasonable efforts as required under paragraph (c) to notify either a family member or a person designated in writing by the patient as the person to contact in an emergency that the patient or resident has been admitted to the facility. The facility shall allow the family member to participate in treatment planning, unless the facility knows or has reason to believe the patient or resident has an effective advance directive to the contrary or knows the patient or resident has specified in writing that they do not want a family member included in treatment planning. After notifying a family member but prior to allowing a family member to participate in treatment planning, the facility must make reasonable efforts, consistent with reasonable medical practice, to determine if the patient or resident has executed an advance directive relative to the patient or resident's health care decisions. For purposes of this paragraph, "reasonable efforts" include:

(1) examining the personal effects of the patient or resident;

(2) examining the medical records of the patient or resident in the possession of the facility;

(3) inquiring of any emergency contact or family member contacted under this section whether the patient or resident has executed an advance directive and whether the patient or resident has a physician to whom the patient or resident normally goes for care; and

(4) inquiring of the physician to whom the patient or resident normally goes for care, if known, whether the patient or resident has executed an advance directive. If a facility notifies a family member or designated emergency contact or allows a family member to participate in treatment planning in accordance with this paragraph, the facility is not liable to the patient or resident for damages on the grounds that the notification of the family member or emergency contact or the participation of the family member was improper or violated the patient's privacy rights.

(c) In making reasonable efforts to notify a family member or designated emergency contact, the facility shall attempt to identify family members or a designated emergency contact by examining the personal effects of the patient or resident and the medical records of the patient or resident in the possession of the facility. If the facility is unable to notify a family member or designated emergency contact within 24 hours after the admission, the facility shall notify the county social service agency or local law enforcement agency that the patient or resident has been admitted and the facility has been unable to notify a family member or designated emergency contact. The county social service agency and local law enforcement agency shall assist the facility in identifying and notifying a family member or designated emergency contact. A county social service agency or local law enforcement agency that assists a facility in implementing this subdivision is not liable to the patient or resident for damages on the grounds that the notification of the family member or emergency contact or the participation of the family member was improper or violated the patient's privacy rights."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 336.2-725, is amended to read:

336.2-725 [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS IN CONTRACTS FOR SALE.]

(1) An action for breach of any contract for sale must be commenced within four years after the cause of action has accrued. By the original agreement the parties may reduce the period of limitation to not less than one year but may not extend it.

(2) A cause of action accrues when the breach occurs, regardless of the aggrieved party's lack of knowledge of the breach. A breach of warranty occurs when tender of delivery is made, except that where a warranty explicitly extends to future performance of the goods and discovery of the breach must await the time of such performance the cause of action accrues when the breach is or should have been discovered.

(3) Where an action commenced within the time limited by subsection (1) is so terminated as to leave available a remedy by another action for the same breach such other action may be commenced after the expiration of the time limited and within six months after the termination of the first action unless the termination resulted from voluntary discontinuance or from dismissal for failure or neglect to prosecute.

(4) This section does not alter the law on tolling of the statute of limitations, nor does it apply to causes of action which have accrued before this chapter becomes effective. Nor does this section apply to actions for the breach of any contract for sale of a grain storage structure that is an improvement to real property, which actions shall be subject only to the statute of limitations set forth in section 541.051.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [124.90] [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] A school district may enroll as a provider in the medical assistance program and receive medical assistance payments for covered special education services provided to persons eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B. To receive medical assistance payments, the school district must comply with relevant provisions of state and federal statutes and regulations governing the medical assistance program.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING.] A school district that provides a covered service to an eligible person and complies with relevant requirements of the medical assistance program shall be entitled to receive payment for the service provided, including that portion of the payment that will subsequently be reimbursed by the federal government, in the same manner as other medical assistance providers. The school district is not required to provide matching funds or pay part of the costs of the service, as long as the rate charged for the service does not exceed medical assistance limits that apply to all medical assistance providers.

Subd. 3. [CONTRACT FOR SERVICES.] A school district may contract for the provision of medical assistance-covered services, and may contract with a third party agency to assist in administering and billing for these services.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective July 1, 1989."

Delete the title and insert:

S. F. No. 1039, A bill for an act relating to charitable gambling; permitting organizations to treat legal expenses as an allowable expense; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.15.

The bill was read for the first time.

Jacobs moved that S. F. No. 1039 and H. F. No. 1358, now on General Orders, be referred to the Chief Clerk for comparison. The motion prevailed.

CONSIDERATION UNDER RULE 1.10

Pursuant to rule 1.10, Long requested immediate consideration of H. F. No. 1734.

H. F. No. 1734 was reported to the House.

Waltman moved to amend H. F. No. 1734, the first engrossment, as follows:

Page 40, after line 4, insert:

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.16, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~When it shall be made to appear to~~ The commissioner of revenue, ~~by shall examine any complaint or by the any finding of a court or of the legislature, or either body of the legislature, or any committee of the legislature, or any city council or county board, that any considerable amount of property has been improperly omitted from the tax list or assessment roll of any~~ district or county for any year, or, if assessed, that ~~the same~~ it has been undervalued or overvalued, as compared with like property in the same county or in the state so that the assessment for such year in such district or county is grossly unfair and inequitable. A complaint or finding may be made whether or not the same property has been equalized by the county board of equalization or the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner of revenue shall examine into the facts in the matter ~~and~~. If satisfied ~~therefrom~~ that it would be for the best interests of the state that a reassessment of such the property be made, the commissioner shall appoint a special assessor and ~~such~~ deputy assessors as ~~may~~ be necessary and cause a reassessment to be made of all or any of the real and personal property, or either, ~~in any such district or county as the commissioner may deem best~~, to the end that all property in ~~such~~ the district or county shall be assessed equitably as compared with ~~like~~ property in ~~such~~ the district or county. At the request of the governing body of the district or county, a contested case hearing shall be held under chapter 14 to determine whether there is a need for a reassessment under this subdivision.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.18, is amended to read:

270.18 [REASSESSMENT; COMPENSATION; REIMBURSEMENT BY COUNTIES.]

The compensation of each special assessor and deputies, appointed under the provisions of sections 270.11, subdivision 3, and 270.16, and ~~the~~ their expenses as such, shall be fixed by the commissioner of revenue and paid out of money appropriated for operation of the department of revenue. The commissioner of revenue on ~~October~~ June 1 shall notify the auditor of each affected county of the amount thereof paid on behalf of such county since October 1, 1988, or in years subsequent to 1989, since June 1 of the preceding year, ~~whereupon~~. At the request of the governing body of the assessment district, a contested case hearing shall be held under chapter 14 to determine whether the amount charged by the commissioner of revenue is fair and equitable. The county auditor shall levy a tax upon the taxable property in the assessment district or districts ~~wherein~~ such in which the reassessment was made sufficient to pay the ~~same~~ amount due. One-half of ~~such~~ the tax shall be levied in the year in which the commissioner of revenue so notifies the county auditor and the remaining one-half shall be levied in the following year. The respective counties shall reimburse the state by paying one-half of the tax so assessed on or before July 1 and the remaining one-half on or before December 1 in the year in which the tax is payable by owner, whether or not the tax was collected by the county. The reimbursement shall be credited to the general fund. If any county fails to reimburse the state within the time specified ~~herein~~ in this section, the commissioner of revenue is ~~empowered to~~ may order withholding of state aids or distributions to such the county equal to the amount delinquent.”

“Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivisions 6, 8, and 9 or section 273.17, subdivision 1, all property shall be valued at its market value. The market value as determined pursuant to this section shall be stated such that any amount under $100 is rounded up to $100 and any amount exceeding $100 shall be rounded to the nearest $100. In estimating and determining such value, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall the assessor adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but the assessor shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such sum or price as the assessor believes the same to be fairly worth in money. In assessing any tract or lot of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures and improvements, shall be determined, and also the value of all structures and improvements thereon, and the aggregate value of the property, including all structures and improvements, excluding the value of crops growing upon cultivated land. In valuing real property upon which there is a mine or quarry, it shall be valued at such price as such property, including the mine or quarry, would sell for a fair, voluntary sale, for cash. In valuing real property which is vacant, the fact that such property is platted shall not be taken into account. An individual lot of such platted property shall not be assessed in excess of the assessment of the land as if it were unplatted until the lot is improved with a permanent improvement all or a portion of which is located upon the lot, ~~or for~~ a period of three years after final approval of said plat whichever is shorter. When a lot is sold or construction begun, the gross tax capacity of that lot or any single contiguous lot fronting on the same street shall be eligible for reassessment. All property, or the use thereof, which is taxable under section 272.01, subdivision 2, or 273.19, shall be valued at the market value of such property and not at the value of a leasehold estate in such property, or at some lesser value than its market value.”

Page 48, after line 4, insert:

“Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.12, is amended to read:

273.12 [ASSESSMENT OF REAL PROPERTY.]

It shall be the duty of every assessor and board, in estimating and determining the value of lands for the purpose of taxation, to consider and give due weight to every element and factor affecting the market value thereof, including its location with reference to roads and streets and the location of roads and streets thereon or over the same, and to take into consideration a reduction in the acreage of each tract or lot sufficient to cover the amount of land actually used for any improved public highway and the reduction in area of land caused thereby, provided, that in determining the market value of vacant land, the fact that such land is platted shall not be taken into account. An individual lot of such platted property shall not be assessed in excess of the assessment of the land as if it were unplatted until the lot is improved with a permanent improvement all or a portion of which is located upon the lot, or for a period of three years after final approval of said plat whichever is shorter. When a lot is sold or construction begun, the gross tax capacity of that lot or any single contiguous lot fronting on the same street shall be eligible for reassessment. It shall be the duty of every assessor and board, in estimating and determining the value of lands for the purpose of taxation, to consider and give due weight to lands which are comparable in character, quality, and location, to the end that all lands similarly located and improved will be assessed upon a uniform basis and without discrimination and, for agricultural lands, to consider and give recognition to its earning potential as measured by its free market rental rate.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this or any other section, no additional value shall be assessed for unmined mineral value except for iron ore or taconite."

POINT OF ORDER

Long raised a point of order pursuant to rule 3.10 that the Waltman amendment was not in order. The Speaker ruled the point of order not well taken and the amendment in order.

The question recurred on the Waltman amendment to H. F. No. 1734, the first engrossment. The motion did not prevail and the amendment was not adopted.

Dempsey moved to amend H. F. No. 1734, the first engrossment, as follows:

Page 24, after line 9, insert:

“Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.275, is amended to read:

297A.275 [ACCELERATED PAYMENT OF JUNE LIABILITY.]

(a) Every vendor having a liability of $1,500 or more in May 1988 or 1989, in May of each subsequent year 1990, or in May 1991, shall remit the June liability in the manner required by this section paragraph.

On or before June 20, 1988 1989, or June 20 of each subsequent year, 1990, or June 20, 1991, the vendor shall remit the actual May liability and one-half of the estimated June liability to the commissioner and file the return on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

(b) Every vendor having a liability of $5,000 or more in May 1992 and May 1993, shall remit the June liability in the manner required by this paragraph.

On or before June 20, 1992, and June 20, 1993, the vendor shall remit the actual May liability and one-half of the estimated June liability to the commissioner and file the return on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

(c) Every vendor having a liability of $15,000 or more in May 1994 and May 1995, shall remit the June liability in the manner required by this paragraph.

On or before June 20, 1994, and June 20, 1995, the vendor shall remit the actual May liability and one-half of the estimated June liability to the commissioner and file the return on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

(d) Every vendor having a liability of $50,000 or more in May 1996 and May 1997, shall remit the June liability in the manner required by this paragraph.

On or before June 20, 1996, and June 20, 1997, the vendor shall remit the actual May liability and one-half of the estimated June liability to the commissioner and file the return on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

(e) On or before August 20, 1988 1989, or August 20 of each subsequent year, the vendor shall submit a return showing the actual June liability and paying any additional amount of tax not remitted in June. A penalty is hereby imposed equal to ten percent of the amount of June liability required to be paid in June less the amount remitted in June. However, the penalty shall not be imposed if the amount remitted in June equals the lesser of (a) 45 percent of the actual June liability, or (b) 50 percent of the preceding May's liability."

"Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.212, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD TAX.] (a) There is imposed a tax on the sale of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a licensed distributor to a licensed organization, or to an organization holding an exemption identification number. The rate of the tax is ten percent of the ideal net of the pull-tab and tipboard deal. The tax is payable to the commissioner of revenue in the manner prescribed in section 349.2121 and the rules of the commissioner. The commissioner shall pay the proceeds of the tax to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund. The sales tax imposed by chapter 297A on the sale of the pull-tabs and tipboards by the licensed distributor to an organization is imposed on the retail sales price less the tax imposed by this subdivision. The retail sale of pull-tabs or tipboards by the organization is exempt from taxes imposed by chapter 297A if the tax imposed by this subdivision has been paid and is exempt from all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4.

(b) The liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the pull-tabs and tipboards are delivered by the distributor to the licensed or exempt organization, to a common or contract carrier for delivery to the organization, or when received by the organization's authorized representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

(c) The exemptions contained in section 349.214, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), do not apply to the tax imposed in this subdivision. A distributor must require an exempt organization purchasing pull-tabs and tipboards to show proof of its exempt status, including its exemption identification number, before making a tax-exempt sale to the organization. Each distributor must identify each such tax-exempt sale on reports required under section 349.2121, subdivision 4."

Page 48, after line 4, insert:

"Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [HOMESTEAD OWNED BY FAMILY FARM CORPORATION OR PARTNERSHIP.] (a) Each family farm corporation and each partnership operating a family farm is entitled to class 1b under section 273.13, subdivision 22, paragraph (b), or class 2a assessment for one homestead occupied by a shareholder or partner thereof who is residing on the land and actively engaged in farming of the land owned by the corporation or partnership. Homestead treatment applies even if legal title to the property is in the name of the corporation or partnership and not in the name of the person residing on it. "Family farm corporation" and "family farm" have the meanings given in section 500.24, except that the number of allowable shareholders or partners under this subdivision shall not exceed 12.

(b) In addition to property specified in paragraph (a), any other residences owned by corporations or partnerships described in paragraph (a) which are located on agricultural land and occupied as homesteads by shareholders or partners who are actively engaged in farming on behalf of the corporation or partnership must also be assessed as class 2a property or as class 1b property under section 273.13, subdivision 22, paragraph (b), but the property eligible is limited to the residence itself and as much of the land surrounding the homestead, not exceeding one acre, as is reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, and does not include any other structures that may be located on it."

engrossment, as amended, as follows:

Pages 47 and 48, delete section 12 and insert:

"Sec. 12. [273.1196] [STATE COMMERCIAL-INDUSTRIAL EFFECTIVE TAX RATE CREDIT.]

For property taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter, class 3a commercial-industrial property is eligible for a state commercial-industrial effective tax rate credit if taxes exceed the following percentages of market value:

- (1) for taxes payable in 1990, 4.95 percent;
- (2) for taxes payable in 1991, 4.65 percent;
- (3) for taxes payable in 1992, 4.35 percent;
- (4) for taxes payable in 1993, 4.05 percent; and
- (5) for taxes payable in 1994 and subsequent years, 3.75 percent.

The state reduction is equal to 100 percent of the property tax amount that is in excess of the percent of market value applicable for that year's credit. Only the market value and property tax attributable to the part of the parcel that is class 3a must be used in computing the reduction provided in this section.

The amount of the reduction must be reported to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29.

There is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioners of revenue and education the amount necessary to replace the revenue lost to local units of government and school districts as a result of the reduction in property taxes provided in this section. The payment amounts must be determined and the installments paid under the provisions of sections 477A.015 and 273.1392."

Subd. 19b. [SUBTRACTIONS FROM FEDERAL TAXABLE INCOME.] For individuals, estates, and trusts, there shall be subtracted from federal taxable income:

(1) interest income on obligations of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includable in taxable income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

(2) if included in federal taxable income, the amount of any overpayment of income tax to Minnesota or to any other state, for any previous taxable year, whether the amount is received as a refund or as a credit to another taxable year's income tax liability;

(3) the amount paid to others not to exceed $650 for each dependent in grades kindergarten to 6 and $1,000 for each dependent in grades 7 to 12, for tuition, textbooks, and transportation of each dependent in attending an elementary or secondary school situated in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, or Wisconsin, wherein a resident of this state may legally fulfill the state's compulsory attendance laws, which is not operated for profit, and which adheres to the provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and chapter 363. As used in this clause, "textbooks" includes books and other instructional materials and equipment used in elementary and secondary schools in teaching only those subjects legally and commonly taught in public elementary and secondary schools in this state. "Textbooks" does not include instructional books and materials used in the teaching of religious tenets, doctrines, or worship, the purpose of which is to instill such tenets, doctrines, or worship, nor does it include books or materials for, or transportation to, extracurricular activities including sporting events, musical or dramatic events, speech activities, driver's education, or similar programs. ~~In order to qualify for the subtraction under this clause the taxpayer must elect to itemize deductions under section 63(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987;~~

(4) to the extent included in federal taxable income, distributions from a qualified governmental pension plan, an individual retirement account, simplified employee pension, or qualified plan covering a self-employed person that represent a return of contributions that were included in Minnesota gross income in the taxable year for which the contributions were made but were deducted or were not included in the computation of federal adjusted gross income. The distribution shall be allocated first to return of contributions until the contributions included in Minnesota gross income have been exhausted. This subtraction applies only to contributions made in a taxable year prior to 1985;

(5) income as provided under section 290.0802; and

(6) the amount of unrecovered accelerated cost recovery system deductions allowed under subdivision 19g."

“Sec. 13. [273.1197] [STATE APARTMENT EFFECTIVE TAX RATE CREDIT.]

For property taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter, class 4a apartment property is eligible for a state apartment effective tax rate credit if taxes exceed the following percentages of market value:

(1) for taxes payable in 1990, 3.7 percent;

(2) for taxes payable in 1991, 3.35 percent;

(3) for taxes payable in 1992 and subsequent years, 3.0 percent.

The state reduction is equal to 100 percent of the property tax amount that is in excess of the percent of market value applicable for that year's credit. Only the market value and property tax attributable to the part of the parcel that is class 4a must be used in computing the reduction provided in this section.

The amount of the reduction must be reported to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29.

There is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioners of revenue and education the amount necessary to replace the revenue lost to local units of government and school districts as a result of the reduction in property taxes provided in this section. The payment amounts must be determined and the installments paid under the provisions of sections 273.1398, subdivision 6, and 273.1392."

"ARTICLE 1 APPROPRIATIONS

Section 1. [BOND SALE; APPROPRIATION FOR CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION; BOND SALE.] $10,755,000 is appropriated from the state building fund to the department of administration to convert portions of the regional treatment center at Faribault for use as a medium security correctional facility for adult males.

To provide the money appropriated by this section from the state building fund, the commissioner of finance on request of the governor shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $10,755,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.631 to 16A.675, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

Subd. 2. [DEBT SERVICE.] The commissioner of finance shall schedule the sale of state general obligation bonds authorized to be issued under this section so that, during the biennium ending June 30, 1991, no more than $1,753,000 will need to be transferred from the general fund to the state bond fund to pay principal and interest due and to become due on them, in addition to limits in other law placed on debt service on state general obligation bonds for the biennium or either fiscal year of it. The commissioner shall adjust the amount of bonds scheduled to be sold so as to remain within the limit set by this section. The amount needed to make the debt service payments is appropriated from the general fund as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 16A.641.

Sec. 2. [CRIME AND CORRECTIONS; APPROPRIATIONS.]

The sums shown in the columns marked "APPROPRIATIONS" are appropriated from the general fund, or any other fund named, to the agencies and for the purposes specified in the following sections of this act, to be available for the fiscal years indicated for each purpose. The figures "1990" and "1991," where used in this act, mean that the appropriation or appropriations listed under them are available for the year ending June 30, 1990 or June 30, 1991, respectively.

The amounts that may be spent from the appropriations for each program and activity are more specifically described in the following subdivisions.

Subd. 2. Correctional Institutions	15,580,000	17,682,000

Of this amount $6,213,000 in fiscal year 1990 and $9,837,000 in fiscal year 1991 are to pay operating costs of the facility at Faribault. The department's complement is increased by up to 245 positions in both years of the biennium.

Of this amount $1,957,000 is to pay start-up costs associated with conversion of portions of the regional treatment center at Faribault to a medium-security correctional facility.

Of this amount, $63,000 in fiscal year 1990 and $332,000 in fiscal year 1991 are to establish and operate two additional sex offender programs within state correctional facilities. The department's complement is increased by one position in 1990 and up to eight positions in 1991.

Of this amount, $115,000 in each year of the biennium is to pay costs associated with assessing sex offenders for amenability to treatment, monitoring the progress of inmates in sex offender programs, and making court appearances to report on inmates' progress in sex offender programs. The department's complement is increased by up to three positions in both years.

Any unexpended money in the fiscal year 1990 appropriation for conversion and operation of the facility at Faribault is available in fiscal year 1991.

During the biennium ending June 30, 1991, the commissioner shall give preference in recruiting, training and hiring to employees of the department of human services whose positions are eliminated by implementation of the regional treatment center restructuring plan when filling correctional facil-

Agreements between the commissioner of corrections and the commissioner of human services concerning operation of a correctional facility on a campus of a regional treatment center shall include provisions for operation of the kitchen and laundry facilities by the commissioner of human services. The department of human services shall operate such kitchen and laundry facilities until the department of human services has completed its restructuring plan at the regional treatment center.

Employees of the St. Paul-Ramsey medical center who perform the functions of psychologist and director of the mental health unit at the Minnesota correctional facility-Oak Park Heights and psychiatric social worker at Minnesota correctional facility-Stillwater shall be transferred to the classified service without competitive or qualifying examination and shall be placed by the commissioner of employee relations, with no loss in salary, in the proper classifications. These employees shall begin on the date of transfer to serve a probationary period appropriate to the classification to which each is assigned, according to a collective bargaining agreement or plans pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.16.

The commissioner may enter into agreements with the appropriate officials of any state, political subdivision, or the United States, for housing prisoners in Minnesota correctional facilities. Money received under the agreement is appropriated to the commissioner for correctional purposes.

This is a one-time appropriation to conduct a study of the child protection system at the state and county levels and ways in which it can be improved.

ARTICLE 2

CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES PROVISIONS

Section 1. [116K.14] [COMMUNITY CRIME REDUCTION PROGRAMS; GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAMS.] The commissioner shall administer a grant program to fund community-based programs that are designed to enhance the community's sense of personal security and to assist the community in its crime control efforts. Examples of qualifying programs include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) programs to provide security systems for residential buildings serving low-income persons, elderly persons, and persons who have physical or mental disabilities;

(2) community-based programs designed to discourage young people from involvement in unlawful drug or street gang activities;

(3) neighborhood block clubs and innovative community-based crime watch programs; and

(4) other community-based crime prevention programs that are innovative and encourage substantial involvement by members of the community served by the program.

Subd. 2. [GRANT PROCEDURE.] A local unit of government may apply for a grant by submitting an application with the commissioner. The applicant shall specify the following in its application:

- (1) a description of each program for which funding is sought;
- (2) the amount of funding to be provided to the program;
- (3) the geographical area to be served by the program; and

(4) statistical information as to the number of arrests in the geographical area for violent crimes and for crimes involving schedule I and II controlled substances. "Violent crime" includes a violation of or an attempt or conspiracy to violate any of the following laws: sections 609.185; 609.19; 609.195; 609.20; 609.205; 609.21; 609.221; 609.222; 609.223; 609.228; 609.235; 609.24; 609.245; 609.25; 609.255; 609.2661; 609.2662; 609.2663; 609.2664; 609.2665; 609.267; 609.2671; 609.268; 609.342; 609.343; 609.344; 609.345; 609.498, subdivision 1; 609.561; 609.562; 609.582, subdivision 1; 609.687; and any provision of chapter 152 that is punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment greater than ten years.

The commissioner shall give priority to funding programs in the geographical areas that have the highest crime rates, as measured by the data supplied under clause (4), and that demonstrate substantial involvement by members of the community served by the program. The maximum amount that may be awarded to an applicant is $25,000.

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] An applicant that receives a grant under this section shall provide the commissioner with a summary of how the grant funds were spent and the extent to which the objectives of the program were achieved. The commissioner shall submit a written report with the legislature based on the information provided by applicants under this subdivision.

Sec. 2. [121.162] [COOPERATION WITH DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION RESOURCE COUNCIL.]

The commissioner shall cooperate with and assist the drug abuse prevention resource council in fulfilling its responsibilities under sections 27 and 28.

Sec. 3. [121.883] [PROGRAM FOR PUBLIC EDUCATION REGARDING THE EFFECTS OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE AND ALCOHOL USE DURING PREGNANCY.]

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC EDUCATION REGARDING THE EFFECTS OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE AND ALCOHOL USE DURING PREGNANCY.] The commissioner of education, in consultation with the commissioner of health, shall assist school districts in developing and implementing programs to prevent and reduce the risk of harm to unborn children exposed to controlled substance and alcohol use by their mother during pregnancy. Each district program must, at a minimum:

(1) use planning materials, guidelines, and other technically accurate and updated information;

(2) maintain a comprehensive, technically accurate, and updated curriculum;

(3) be directed at adolescents, especially those who may be at high risk of pregnancy coupled with controlled substance or alcohol use;

(4) provide in-service training for appropriate district staff; and

(5) collaborate with appropriate state and local agencies and organizations.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING SOURCES.] Districts may accept funds for the program from public and private sources.

Sec. 4. [144.066] [COOPERATION WITH DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION RESOURCE COUNCIL.]

The commissioner shall cooperate with and assist the drug abuse prevention resource council in fulfilling its responsibilities under sections 27 and 28.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.01, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [~~MANUFACTURING~~ MANUFACTURE.] "~~Manufacturing~~ Manufacture", in places other than a pharmacy, means and includes the production, cultivation, quality control, and standardization by mechanical, physical, chemical, or pharmaceutical means, packing, repacking, tableting, encapsulating, labeling, relabeling, filling, or by other process, of drugs.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 19. [SELL.] "Sell" means to sell, give away, barter, deliver, exchange, distribute or dispose of to another; or to offer or agree to do the same; or to manufacture.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20. [MIXTURE.] "Mixture" means a preparation, compound, mixture, or substance containing a controlled substance, regardless of purity.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 21. [PERSON.] "Person" means a person, firm, or corporation.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 22. [PREVIOUS CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CONVICTION.] "Previous controlled substance conviction" means a conviction in Minnesota of a felony violation of this chapter or a felony-level attempt or conspiracy to violate this chapter, or a conviction elsewhere for conduct that would have been a felony under this chapter if committed in Minnesota. The term includes any conviction that occurred before the present offense of conviction. The term does not include a conviction if ten years have elapsed since the person was restored to civil rights, or the sentence has expired, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 23. [HALLUCINOGEN.] For purposes of sections 11 to 14, "hallucinogen" means any hallucinogen listed in section 152.02, subdivision 2, clause (3), or Minnesota Rules, part 6800.4210, item C, except marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols.

Sec. 11. [152.021] [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CRIME IN THE FIRST DEGREE.]

Subdivision 1. [SALE CRIMES.] A person is guilty of controlled substance crime in the first degree if:

(1) on one or more occasions within a 90-day period the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing ten grams or more of cocaine base;

(2) on one or more occasions within a 90-day period the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures of a total weight of 50 grams or more containing a narcotic drug;

(3) on one or more occasions within a 90-day period the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures of a total weight of ten grams or more containing methamphetamine, amphetamine, phencyclidine, or hallucinogen or, if the controlled substance is packaged in dosage units, equaling 50 or more dosage units;

(4) on one or more occasions within a 90-day period the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures of a total weight of 50 kilograms or more containing marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols;

(5) the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing a narcotic drug to a person under the age of 18; or

(6) the person conspires with or employs a person under the age of 18 to unlawfully sell one or more mixtures containing a narcotic drug.

Subd. 2. [POSSESSION CRIMES.] A person is guilty of controlled substance crime in the second degree if:

(1) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures containing six grams or more of cocaine base;

(2) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures of a total weight of 50 grams or more containing a narcotic drug;

(3) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures of a total weight of 50 grams or more containing methamphetamine, amphetamine, phencyclidine, or hallucinogen or, if the controlled substance is packaged in dosage units, equaling 100 or more dosage units; or

(4) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures of a total weight of 50 kilograms or more containing marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] (a) A person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 25 years or to payment of a fine of not more than $500,000, or both.

(b) A person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 who has a previous controlled substance conviction shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not less than three years nor more than 40 years or to a fine of not more than $500,000, or both.

Sec. 13. [152.023] [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CRIME IN THE THIRD DEGREE.]

Subdivision 1. [SALE CRIMES.] A person is guilty of controlled substance crime in the third degree if:

(1) the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing a narcotic drug;

(2) the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing phencyclidine or hallucinogen, it is packaged in dosage units, and equals ten or more dosage units;

(3) the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing a controlled substance classified in schedule I, II, or III, except marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols, to a person under the age of 18; or

(4) the person conspires with or employs a person under the age of 18 to unlawfully sell one or more mixtures containing a controlled substance listed in schedule I, II, or III, except marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols.

Subd. 2. [POSSESSION CRIMES.] A person is guilty of controlled substance crime in the third degree if:

(1) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures containing three grams or more of cocaine base;

(2) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures of a total weight of ten grams or more containing a narcotic drug;

(4) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures containing a narcotic drug, it is packaged in dosage units, and equals 50 or more dosage units.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] (a) A person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 20 years or to a payment of a fine of not more than $250,000, or both.

(b) A person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 who has a previous controlled substance conviction shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not less than two years nor more than 30 years or to a fine of not more than $250,000, or both.

Sec. 14. [152.024] [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CRIME IN THE FOURTH DEGREE.]

Subdivision 1. [SALE CRIMES.] A person is guilty of controlled substance crime in the fourth degree if:

(1) the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing a controlled substance classified in schedule I, II, or III, except marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols;

(2) the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols to a person under the age of 18;

(3) the person conspires with or employs a person under the age of 18 to unlawfully sell one or more mixtures containing marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols;

(4) the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing a controlled substance classified in schedule IV or V to a person under the age of 18; or

(5) the person conspires with or employs a person under the age of 18 to unlawfully sell a controlled substance classified in schedule IV or V.

Subd. 2. [POSSESSION CRIMES.] A person is guilty of controlled substance crime in the fourth degree if:

(1) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures containing phencyclidine or hallucinogen, it is packaged in dosage units, and equals ten or more dosage units; or

(2) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures containing a controlled substance classified in schedule I, II, or III, except marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols, with the intent to sell it.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] (a) A person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 15 years or to payment of a fine of not more than $100,000, or both.

(b) A person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 who has a previous controlled substance conviction shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than 30 years or to a fine of not more than $100,000, or both.

Sec. 15. [152.025] [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CRIME IN THE FIFTH DEGREE.]

Subdivision 1. [SALE CRIMES.] A person is guilty of controlled substance crime in the fifth degree if:

(1) the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing marijuana or tetrahydrocannabinols, except a small amount of marijuana for no remuneration; or

(2) the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing a controlled substance classified in schedule IV.

Subd. 2. [POSSESSION AND OTHER CRIMES.] A person is guilty of controlled substance crime in the fifth degree if:

(1) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures containing a controlled substance classified in schedule I, II, III, or IV, except a small amount of marijuana; or

(2) the person procures, attempts to procure, possesses, or has control over a controlled substance by any of the following means:

(i) fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, or subterfuge;

(ii) using a false name or giving false credit; or

(iii) falsely assuming the title of, or falsely representing any person to be, a manufacturer, wholesaler, pharmacist, physician, doctor of osteopathy licensed to practice medicine, dentist, podiatrist, veterinarian, or other authorized person for the purpose of obtaining a controlled substance.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] (a) A person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

(b) A person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 who has a previous controlled substance conviction shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both.

Sec. 16. [152.026] [MANDATORY MINIMUM SENTENCES.]

A defendant convicted and sentenced to a mandatory minimum sentence under sections 11 to 15 is not eligible for probation, parole, discharge, or supervised release until that person has served the full mandatory minimum term of imprisonment as provided by law, notwithstanding sections 242.19, 243.05, 244.04, 609.12, and 609.135.

Sec. 17. [152.027] [OTHER CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE OFFENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [SALE OF SCHEDULE V CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.] A person who unlawfully sells one or more mixtures containing a controlled substance classified in schedule V may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both.

Subd. 2. [POSSESSION OF SCHEDULE V CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.] A person who unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures containing a controlled substance classified in schedule V may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both. The court may order that a person who is convicted under this subdivision and placed on probation be required to take part in a drug education program as specified by the court.

Subd. 3. [POSSESSION OF LARGER AMOUNTS OF MARIJUANA IN A MOTOR VEHICLE.] A person is guilty of a misdemeanor if the person is the owner of a private motor vehicle, or is the driver of the motor vehicle if the owner is not present, and possesses on the person, or knowingly keeps or allows to be kept within the area of the vehicle normally occupied by the driver or passengers, more than 1.4 grams of marijuana. This area of the vehicle does not include the trunk of the motor vehicle if the vehicle is equipped with a trunk, or another area of the vehicle not normally occupied by the driver or passengers if the vehicle is not equipped with a trunk. A utility or glove compartment is deemed to be within the area occupied by the driver and passengers.

Subd. 4. [POSSESSION OR SALE OF SMALL AMOUNTS OF MARIJUANA.] (a) A person who unlawfully sells a small amount of marijuana for no remuneration, or who unlawfully possesses a small amount of marijuana is guilty of a petty misdemeanor punishable by a fine of up to $200 and participation in a drug education program unless the court enters a written finding that a drug education program is inappropriate. The program must be approved by an area mental health board with a curriculum approved by the state alcohol and drug abuse authority.

(b) A person convicted of an unlawful sale under paragraph (a) who is subsequently convicted of an unlawful sale under paragraph (a) within two years is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be required to participate in a chemical dependency evaluation and treatment if so indicated by the evaluation.

(c) A person who is convicted of a petty misdemeanor under paragraph (a) who willfully and intentionally fails to comply with the sentence imposed, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Compliance with the terms of the sentence imposed before conviction under this paragraph is an absolute defense.

Sec. 18. [152.028] [PERMISSIVE INFERENCE OF KNOWING POSSESSION; RESIDENCES.] The presence of a controlled substance in open view in a room, other than a public place, under circumstances evincing an intent by one or more of the persons present to unlawfully mix, compound, package, or otherwise prepare for sale the controlled substance permits the factfinder to infer knowing possession of the controlled substance by each person in close proximity to the controlled substance when the controlled substance was found. The permissive inference does not apply to any person if:

(1) one of them legally possesses the controlled substance; or

(2) the controlled substance is on the person of one of the occupants.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.096, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED ACTS; PENALTIES.] Any person who conspires to commit any act prohibited by ~~section 152.09~~ this chapter, except possession or distribution for no remuneration of a small amount of marijuana as defined in section 152.01, subdivision 16, is guilty of a felony and upon conviction may be imprisoned, fined, or both, up to the maximum amount authorized by law for the act the person conspired to commit.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.097, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [PENALTY.] A person who violates this section may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than three years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both. Sentencing for a conviction for attempting to sell, transfer, or deliver a noncontrolled substance in violation of this section is governed by section 609.17, subdivision 4.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.15, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. Any A person 18 years of age or over who violates section 152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2), this chapter by possessing on school premises a controlled substance listed on Schedules I or II which is a narcotic drug is punishable by a fine of up to twice that authorized by subdivision 2, clause (4) this chapter, by a term of imprisonment up to twice that authorized by subdivision 2, clause (4) this chapter, or both. Any person 18 years of age or over who violates section 152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2), this chapter by possessing on school premises any other controlled substance listed on schedule I, II, III, IV or V, except a small amount of marijuana, is punishable by a fine of up to twice that authorized by subdivision 2, clause (2), (3), or (4) this chapter, by a term of imprisonment up to twice that authorized by subdivision 2, clause (2), (3), or (4) this chapter, or both.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "school premises" means any property owned, leased or controlled by a school district or an organization operating a nonpublic school, as defined in section 123.932, subdivision 3, where an elementary, middle, secondary school, secondary vocational center or other school providing educational services in grade 1 through grade 12 is located, or used for educational purposes, or where extracurricular or cocurricular activities are regularly provided.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.151, is amended to read:

152.151 [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.]

The state alcohol and drug authority shall ~~build into~~ evaluate the drug education program required by section ~~152.15, subdivision 2, proper evaluation 17~~ and report directly each legislative session to the legislative standing committees having jurisdiction over the subject matter.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If any person is found guilty of a violation of section ~~152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2) unlawful possession of a controlled substance under section 14, 15, or 17, after trial or upon a plea of guilty~~, the court may, without entering a judgment of guilty and with the consent of such person, defer further proceedings and place the person on probation upon such reasonable conditions as it may require and for a period, not to exceed the maximum term of imprisonment provided for such violation. The court may give the person the opportunity to attend and participate in an appropriate program of education regarding the nature and effects of alcohol and drug abuse as a stipulation of probation. Upon violation of a condition of the probation, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. The court may, in its discretion, dismiss the proceedings against such person and discharge the person from probation before the expiration of the maximum period prescribed for such person's probation. If during the period of probation such person does not violate any of the conditions of the probation, then upon expiration of such period the court shall discharge such person and dismiss the proceedings against that person. Discharge and dismissal hereunder shall be without court adjudication of guilt, but a nonpublic record thereof shall be retained by the department of public safety solely for the purpose of use by the courts in determining the merits of subsequent proceedings against such person. The court shall forward a record of any discharge and dismissal hereunder to the department of public safety who shall make and maintain the nonpublic record thereof as hereinbefore provided. Such discharge or dismissal shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime or for any other purpose.

Sec. 24. [152.152] [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE TRANSACTIONS IN PUBLIC PARKS AND DRUG FREE SCHOOL ZONES; DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section:

(1) "Drug free school zone" includes the following locations: (a) school premises, as defined in clause (3); (b) the area within a school bus; and (c) property within 300 feet or one city block, whichever distance is greater, of a designated school bus stop when one or more students are awaiting the bus, or after one or more students have exited the bus if the bus is still within 300 feet or one city block, whichever distance is greater, of the designated school bus stop.

(2) "Public park" means an area designated as a public park by the federal government, the state, a local unit of government, a park district board, or a park and recreation board in a city of the first class. "Public park" includes the area within 300 feet or one city block, whichever distance is greater, of the park boundary.

(3) "School premises" means any property owned, leased, or controlled by a school district or an organization operating a nonpublic school, as defined in section 123.932, subdivision 3, and the area within 300 feet or one city block, whichever distance is greater, of the property, where an elementary, middle, secondary school, secondary vocational center, or other school providing educational services in grade 1 through grade 12 is located, or used for educational purposes, or where extracurricular or cocurricular activities are regularly provided.

Subd. 2. [ATTORNEY GENERAL DUTIES.] The attorney general shall disseminate information relating to the provisions of sections 30 and 32 to the public. In conjunction with the informational promotion of sections 30 and 32, the attorney general shall draft a plain language version of sections 30 and 32 that describes in a clear and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meanings the contents of these sections. The attorney general shall publicize and disseminate the plain language version as widely as practicable, including distributing the version to school boards and local governments.

Subd. 3. [SCHOOL BOARDS, LOCAL GOVERNMENTS, AND PARK AGENCIES.] Every school board shall post the plain language version of sections 30 and 32 in conspicuous locations in school buildings and school buses. Every local government shall post the plain language version of sections 30 and 32 conspicuously at appropriate locations in public buildings. Every government agency responsible for administration of a public park shall post the plain language version of sections 30 and 32 conspicuously at appropriate locations within the park.

Subd. 4. [DRUG FREE SCHOOL ZONES.] Every school board is strongly encouraged to post signs at conspicuous locations on and near school premises stating that the school premises, the area within 300 feet or one city block, whichever distance is greater, of the school property, school buses, and designated school bus stops are within a drug free school zone. Local governments are strongly encouraged to cooperate with school boards in placing the signs.

Subd. 5. [DRUG FREE PARK ZONES.] The government agency responsible for administration of a public park is strongly encouraged to post signs at conspicuous locations in the park stating that the park and the area within 300 feet or one city block, whichever distance is greater, of the park boundary are within a drug free park zone.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.20, is amended to read:

152.20 [PENALTIES UNDER OTHER LAWS.]

Any penalty imposed for violation of Laws 1971, chapter 937 ~~this chapter~~ is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any civil or administrative penalty or sanction otherwise authorized by law.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 152.21, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [EXEMPTION FROM CRIMINAL SANCTIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following are not violations listed in ~~section 152.09 or 152.15~~ under this chapter:

(1) use or possession of THC, or both, by a patient in the research program;

(2) possession, prescribing use of, administering, or dispensing THC, or any combination of these actions, by the principal investigator or by any clinical investigator; and

(3) possession or distribution of THC, or both, by a pharmacy registered to handle schedule I substances which stores THC on behalf of the principal investigator or a clinical investigator.

THC obtained and distributed pursuant to this section is not subject to forfeiture under sections 609.531 to 609.5316.

For the purposes of this section, THC is removed from schedule I contained in section 152.02, subdivision 2, and inserted in schedule II contained in section 152.02, subdivision 3.

Sec. 27. [152.30] [DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION RESOURCE COUNCIL; ESTABLISHMENT; MEMBERSHIP]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT; MEMBERSHIP.] A drug abuse prevention resource council consisting of 16 members is established. The council shall expire on June 30, 1993. The commissioners of education, health, human services, and the state planning agency shall each appoint one member from among their employees. The speaker of the house of representatives and the subcommittee on committees of the senate shall each appoint a legislative member. The governor shall appoint an additional ten members who shall demonstrate knowledge in the area of drug abuse prevention, shall represent the demographic and geographic composition of the state and, to the extent possible, shall represent the following groups: parents, educators, clergy, local government, racial and ethnic minority communities, professional providers of drug abuse prevention services, volunteers in private, nonprofit drug prevention programs, and the business community. The members shall designate one of the governor's appointees as chair of the council. Compensation and removal of members are governed by section 15.059. The members shall serve until June 30, 1993.

Subd. 2. [EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR.] The council shall select and employ an executive director and other staff who shall serve in the unclassified service at the pleasure of the council and shall assist the council in performing its duties under section 28.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL STAFF; ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT.] The appointing commissioners may, at the request of the council, provide the council with necessary office space, equipment, supplies, and administrative staff. The council shall reimburse the donating agencies for these services from the amount appropriated to the council.

Subd. 4. [CONTRACTING AUTHORITY.] The council has the authority to contract for the purchase of necessary goods and services.

Subd. 5. [ACCEPTANCE OF FUNDS AND DONATIONS.] The council may accept federal money, gifts, donations, and bequests for the purpose of performing the duties set forth in this section and section 28. The council shall use its best efforts to solicit funds from private individuals and organizations to match state appropriations.

Sec. 28. [152.31] [RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COUNCIL.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE OF THE COUNCIL.] The general purpose of the council is to foster the coordination and development of a statewide drug abuse prevention policy.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES.] In furtherance of the general purpose specified in subdivision 1, the council has the duties and responsibilities in clauses (1) to (7):

(1) it shall develop a coordinated, statewide drug abuse prevention policy;

(2) it shall develop a mission statement that defines the roles and relationships of agencies operating within the continuum of chemical health care;

(3) it shall develop guidelines for drug abuse prevention program development and operation based on its research and program evaluation activities;

(4) it shall assist local governments and groups in planning, organizing, and establishing comprehensive, community-based drug abuse prevention programs and services;

(5) it shall coordinate and provide technical assistance to organizations and individuals seeking public or private funding for drug abuse prevention programs, and to government and private agencies seeking to grant funds for these purposes;

(6) it shall assist providers of drug abuse prevention services in implementing, monitoring, and evaluating new and existing programs and services;

(7) it shall provide information on and analysis of the relative public and private costs of drug abuse prevention, enforcement, intervention, and treatment efforts.

Subd. 3. [ANNUAL REPORT.] On or before February 1, 1991, and each year thereafter, the council shall submit a written report to the legislature describing its activities during the preceding year, describing efforts that have been made to enhance and improve utilization of existing resources and to identify deficits in prevention efforts, and recommending appropriate changes, including any legislative changes that it considers necessary or advisable in the area of drug abuse prevention policy, programs, or services.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.09, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The commission shall, on or before January 1, 1980, promulgate sentencing guidelines for the district court. The guidelines shall be based on reasonable offense and offender characteristics. The guidelines promulgated by the commission shall be advisory to the district court and shall establish:

(1) The circumstances under which imprisonment of an offender is proper; and

(2) A presumptive, fixed sentence for offenders for whom imprisonment is proper, based on each appropriate combination of reasonable offense and offender characteristics. The guidelines may provide for an increase or decrease of up to 15 percent in the presumptive, fixed sentence.

The sentencing guidelines promulgated by the commission may also establish appropriate sanctions for offenders for whom imprisonment is not proper. Any guidelines promulgated by the commission establishing sanctions for offenders for whom imprisonment is not proper shall make specific reference to noninstitutional sanctions, including but not limited to the following: payment of fines, day fines, restitution, community work orders, work release programs in local facilities, community based residential and nonresidential programs, incarceration in a local correctional facility, and probation and the conditions thereof.

In establishing and modifying the sentencing guidelines, the commission shall take into substantial consideration public safety, current sentencing and release practices, and correctional resources, including but not limited to the capacities of local and state correctional facilities.

The provisions of sections 14.01 to 14.69 do not apply to the promulgation of the sentencing guidelines, and the sentencing guidelines, including severity levels and criminal history scores, are not subject to review by the legislative commission to review administrative rules. However, on or before January 1, 1986, the commission shall adopt rules pursuant to sections 14.01 to 14.69 which establish procedures for the promulgation of the sentencing guidelines, including procedures for the promulgation of severity levels and criminal history scores, and these rules shall be subject to review by the legislative commission to review administrative rules.

Sec. 30. [244.095] [SENTENCING GUIDELINES MODIFICATION; UPWARD DEPARTURE FOR CERTAIN DRUG OFFENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, "public park" and "drug free school zone" have the meanings given them in section 24, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [AGGRAVATING FACTOR FOR DRUG OFFENSES COMMITTED IN PUBLIC PARKS AND IN DRUG FREE SCHOOL ZONES.] The commission shall modify the list of aggravating factors contained in the sentencing guidelines so as to authorize the sentencing judge to depart from the presumptive sentence with respect to either disposition or duration when the following circumstances are present:

(1) the defendant was convicted of unlawfully selling or possessing controlled substances in violation of chapter 152; and

(2) the crime was committed in a public park or in a drug free school zone.

This aggravating factor shall not apply to a person convicted of unlawfully possessing controlled substances in a private residence located within a drug free school zone or located within 300 feet or one city block, whichever distance is greater, of a public park boundary if no person under the age of 18 was present in the residence when the offense was committed.

Subd. 3. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] The commission shall collect data on the number and types of cases involving a sentencing departure based on the aggravating factor created in subdivision 2, and shall report its findings to the legislature on or before February 1, 1991.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. [COOPERATION WITH DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION RESOURCE COUNCIL.] The commissioner shall cooperate with and assist the drug abuse prevention resource council in fulfilling its responsibilities under sections 27 and 28.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.125, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. A prima facie case that the public safety is not served or that the child is not suitable for treatment shall have been established if the child was at least 16 years of age at the time of the alleged offense and:

(1) Is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed an aggravated felony against the person and (a) in committing the offense, the child acted with particular cruelty or disregard for the life or safety of another; or (b) the offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning by the juvenile; or

(2) Is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed murder in the first degree; or

(3) Is alleged by delinquency petition (a) to have committed the delinquent act of escape from confinement to a state juvenile correctional facility and (b) to have committed an offense as part of, or subsequent to, escape from custody that would be a felony listed in section 609.11, subdivision 9, if committed by an adult; or

(4) Has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed an offense within the preceding 24 months which would be a felony if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed murder in the second or third degree, manslaughter in the first degree, criminal sexual conduct in the first degree or assault in the first degree; or

(5) Has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed two offenses, not in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months which would be felonies if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed manslaughter in the second degree, kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct in the second degree, arson in the first degree, aggravated robbery, or assault in the second degree; or

(6) Has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed two offenses, not in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months, one or both of which would be the felony of burglary of a dwelling if committed by an adult, and the child is alleged by the delinquency petition to have committed another burglary of a dwelling. For purposes of this subdivision, "dwelling" means a building which is, in whole or in part, usually occupied by one or more persons living there at night; or

(7) Has previously been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed three offenses, none in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months which would be felonies if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed any felony other than those described in clause (2), (4), or (5); or

(8) Is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed an aggravated felony against the person, other than a violation of section 609.713, in furtherance of criminal activity by an organized gang; or

(9) Has previously been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed a felony-level violation of chapter 152 involving the unlawful sale or possession of a schedule I or II controlled substance, while in a public park or a drug free school zone as defined in section 24, subdivision 1. This clause does not apply to a juvenile alleged to have unlawfully possessed a controlled substance in a private residence located within the drug free school zone or located within 300 feet or one city block, whichever distance is greater, of a public park boundary.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "aggravated felony against the person" means a violation of any of the following provisions: section 609.185; 609.19; 609.195; 609.20, subdivision 1 or 2; 609.221; 609.222; 609.223; 609.245; 609.25; 609.342; 609.343; 609.344, subdivision 1, clause (c) or (d); 609.345, subdivision 1, clause (c) or (d); 609.561; 609.582, subdivision 1, clause (b) or (c); or 609.713.

For the purposes of this subdivision, an "organized gang" means an association of five or more persons, with an established hierarchy, formed to encourage members of the association to perpetrate crimes or to provide support to members of the association who do commit crimes.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.11, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [APPLICABLE OFFENSES.] The crimes for which mandatory minimum sentences shall be served before eligibility for probation, parole, or supervised release as provided in this section are: murder in the first, second, or third degree; assault in the first, second, or third degree; burglary; kidnapping; false imprisonment; manslaughter in the first or second degree; aggravated robbery; simple robbery; criminal sexual conduct under the circumstances described in sections 609.342, subdivision 1, clauses (a) to (f); 609.343, subdivision 1, clauses (a) to (f); and 609.344, subdivision 1, clauses (a) to (e) and (h) to (j); escape from custody; arson in the first, second, or third degree; a felony violation of chapter 152; or any attempt to commit any of these offenses.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.5311, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITATIONS ON FORFEITURE OF CERTAIN PROPERTY ASSOCIATED WITH CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES.] (a) A conveyance device is subject to forfeiture under this section only if the retail value of the controlled substance is $500 or more the conveyance device is associated with a felony-level controlled substance crime.

(b) Real property is subject to forfeiture under this section only if the retail value of the controlled substance is ~~$5,000~~ $1,000 or more.

(c) Property used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this section only if the owner of the property is a consenting party to, or is privy to, the use or intended use of the property as described in subdivision 2.

(d) Property is subject to forfeiture under this section only if its owner was privy to the use or intended use described in subdivision 2, or the unlawful use or intended use of the property otherwise occurred with the owner's knowledge or consent.

(e) Forfeiture under this section of a conveyance device or real property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party unless the secured party had knowledge of or consented to the act or omission upon which the forfeiture is based. A person claiming a security interest bears the burden of establishing that interest by clear and convincing evidence.

(f) Notwithstanding paragraphs (d) and (e), property is not subject to forfeiture based solely on the owner's or secured party's knowledge of the unlawful use or intended use of the property if the owner or secured party took reasonable steps to terminate use of the property by the offender.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.5314, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROPERTY SUBJECT TO ADMINISTRATIVE FORFEITURE; PRESUMPTION.] (a) The following are presumed to be subject to administrative forfeiture under this section:

(1) all money, precious metals, and precious stones found in proximity to:

(i) controlled substances;

(ii) forfeitable drug manufacturing or distributing equipment or devices; or

(iii) forfeitable records of manufacture or distribution of controlled substances; and

(2) all conveyance devices containing an amount of controlled substances with a retail value of $500 or more substance the possession or sale of which would be a felony under chapter 152.

(b) A claimant of the property bears the burden to rebut this presumption.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.5315, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISPOSITION.] If the court finds under section 609.5313 or 609.5314 that the property is subject to forfeiture, it may shall order the appropriate agency to:

(1) sell property that is not required to be destroyed by law and is not harmful to the public and distribute the proceeds under subdivision 5;

(2) take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law;

(3) forward the property to the federal drug enforcement administration;

- (4) disburse money as provided under subdivision 5; or
- (5) keep property other than money for official use by the agency and the prosecuting agency.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.556, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given them unless the specific content indicates otherwise:

(a) "Sexual abuse" means the subjection by a person responsible for the child's care, or by a person in a position of authority, as defined in section 609.341, subdivision 10, to any act which constitutes a violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345. Sexual abuse also includes any act which involves a minor which constitutes a violation of sections 609.321 to 609.324 or 617.246.

(b) "Person responsible for the child's care" means (1) an individual functioning within the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a parent, guardian, or other person having similar care responsibilities, or (2) an individual functioning outside the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a teacher, school administrator, or other lawful custodian of a child having either full-time or short-term care responsibilities including, but not limited to, day care, babysitting whether paid or unpaid, counseling, teaching, and coaching.

(c) "Neglect" means failure by a person responsible for a child's care to supply a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical care when reasonably able to do so or failure to protect a child from conditions or actions which imminently and seriously endanger the child's physical or mental health when reasonably able to do so. Nothing in this section shall be construed to (1) mean that a child is neglected solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child, or (2) impose upon persons, not otherwise legally responsible for providing a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical care, a duty to provide that care. "Neglect" includes prenatal exposure to a controlled substance used by the mother for a nonmedical purpose, as evidenced by withdrawal symptoms in the child at birth, results of a toxicology test performed on the child at birth, or medical effects or developmental delays during the child's first month of life that medically indicate prenatal exposure to a controlled substance. Neglect also means "medical neglect" as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 10 2a, clause (e) (5).

(d) "Physical abuse" means any physical injury inflicted by a person responsible for the child's care on a child other than by accidental means, or any physical injury that cannot reasonably be explained by the child's history of injuries, or any aversive and deprivation procedures that have not been authorized under section 245.825.

(e) "Report" means any report received by the local welfare agency, police department, or county sheriff pursuant to this section.

(f) "Facility" means a day care facility, residential facility, agency, hospital, sanitarium, or other facility or institution required to be licensed pursuant to sections 144.50 to 144.58, 241.021, or 245.781 to 245.812.

(g) "Operator" means an operator or agency as defined in section 245A.02.

(h) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(i) "Assessment" includes authority to interview the child, the person or persons responsible for the child's care, the alleged perpetrator, and any other person with knowledge of the abuse or neglect for the purpose of gathering the facts, assessing the risk to the child, and formulating a plan.

(j) "Practice of social services," for the purposes of subdivision 3, includes but is not limited to employee assistance counseling and the provision of guardian ad litem services.

Sec. 38. [626.5561] [TOXICOLOGY TESTS REQUIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [NEWBORNS.] A physician shall administer to each newborn infant born under the physician's care a toxicology test to determine whether there is evidence of prenatal exposure to a controlled substance, if the physician has reason to believe based on a medical assessment of the mother or the infant that the mother used a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose prior to the birth. If the test results are positive, the physician shall report the results as neglect under section 626.556. A negative test result does not eliminate the obligation to report under section 626.556 if other medical evidence of prenatal exposure to a controlled substance is present.

Subd. 2. [DURING PRENATAL VISITS.] During the time between 24 weeks after conception and delivery of the infant, a physician shall administer a toxicology test to a pregnant woman under the physician's care to determine whether there is evidence that she has ingested a controlled substance, if the woman has obstetrical complications that are a medical indication of possible use of a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose.

Subd. 3. [REPORT TO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH.] Physicians shall report to the department of health the results of tests performed under this section. A report shall be made on February 1 and August 1 of each year, beginning February 1, 1990. The reports are medical data under section 13.42.

Subd. 4. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] Any physician or other medical personnel administering a toxicology test to determine the presence of a controlled substance in a pregnant woman or in a child at birth or during the first month of life is immune from civil or criminal liability, if the physician ordering the test believes in good faith that the test is required under this section and the test is administered in accordance with an established protocol and reasonable medical practice.

Sec. 39. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 152.09; and 152.15, subdivisions 1, 2, 2a, 2b, 3, and 5, are repealed. Sections 2, 4, 27, 28, and 31 are repealed effective June 30, 1993.

Sec. 40. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 5 to 23, 25, 26, 30, 32 to 36, and 39 are effective August 1, 1989, and apply to crimes and violations occurring on or after that date. Sections 3, 24, 29, 37, and 38 are effective August 1, 1989.

ARTICLE 3

OTHER SENTENCING PROVISIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.09, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [PENALTIES.] (a) The driver of any vehicle who violates subdivision 1 or 6 and who caused the accident is punishable as follows:

(1) if the accident results in the death of any person, the driver is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ten years, or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both;

(2) if the accident results in great bodily harm to any person, as defined in section 609.02, subdivision 8, the driver is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years, or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both; or

(3) if the accident results in substantial bodily harm to any person, as defined in section 609.02, subdivision 7a, the driver is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than three years, or to payment of a fine of not more than $5,000, or both.

(b) The driver of any vehicle who violates subdivision 1 or 6 and who did not cause the accident is punishable as follows:

(1) if the accident results in the death of any person, the driver is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than three years, or to payment of a fine of not more than $5,000, or both;

(2) if the accident results in great bodily harm to any person, as defined in section 609.02, subdivision 8, the driver is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year and one day two years, or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$3,000~~ $4,000, or both; or

(3) if the accident results in substantial bodily harm to any person, as defined in section 609.02, subdivision 7a, the driver may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year, or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both.

(c) The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident not resulting in substantial bodily harm or death who violates subdivision 1 or 6 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year, or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both.

(d) Any person who violates subdivision 3, clause (b) is guilty of a petty misdemeanor.

(e) Any person who violates subdivision 2, 3, clause (a), 4, 5, 7, 8, 10, 11, or 12 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

The attorney in the jurisdiction in which the violation occurred who is responsible for prosecution of misdemeanor violations of this section shall also be responsible for prosecution of gross misdemeanor violations of this section.

Sec. 2. [241.75] [SEX OFFENDER TREATMENT; PROGRAMS; STANDARDS; DATA.]

Subdivision 1. [PRISON TREATMENT PROGRAMS.] The commissioner shall establish and operate an intensive sex offender treatment program for eligible inmates who desire to participate voluntarily in the program. This section does not require the commissioner to accept or retain an offender in a treatment program.

Subd. 2. [TREATMENT PROGRAMS; STANDARDS.] On or before January 1, 1991, the commissioner shall adopt rules establishing standards for sex offender treatment programs operated in adult and juvenile correctional facilities. In developing these standards the commissioner shall consult with the commissioner of human services and with representatives of the following groups: psychiatrists, social workers, psychologists, chemical dependency counselors, probation officers, correctional agents, sex offenders, families of sex offenders, law enforcement officers, and judges. The standards shall require that sex offender treatment programs be at least four months in duration and shall also address (1) program content, (2) professional staff qualifications, (3) admission, participation, and completion criteria, and (4) criteria for discharging program participants who fail to meet participation requirements. No correctional facility may operate a sex offender treatment program after January 1, 1991, unless the program meets the standards established under this subdivision. As used in this subdivision, "correctional facility" has the meaning given it in section 241.021, subdivision 1, clause (5).

Subd. 3. [SPECIALIZED CORRECTIONS AGENTS AND PROBATION OFFICERS; SEX OFFENDER SUPERVISION.] By January 1, 1990, the commissioner of corrections shall develop in-service training for state and local corrections agents and probation officers who supervise adult and juvenile sex offenders on probation or supervised release. The commissioner shall make the training available to all current and future corrections agents and probation officers who supervise or will supervise sex offenders on probation or supervised release.

After January 1, 1991, a state or local corrections agent or probation officer may not supervise adult or juvenile sex offenders on probation or supervised release unless the agent or officer has completed the in-service sex offender supervision training. The commissioner may waive this requirement if the corrections agent or probation officer has completed equivalent training as part of a post-secondary educational curriculum.

After January 1, 1991, when an adult sex offender is placed on supervised release or is sentenced to probationary supervision, and when a juvenile offender is found delinquent by the juvenile court for a sex offense and placed on probation or is paroled from a juvenile correctional facility, a corrections agent or probation officer may not be assigned to the offender unless the agent or officer has completed the in-service sex offender supervision training.

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION OF DATA ON CONVICTED SEX OFFENDERS.] The commissioner shall collect and maintain the following data on offenders convicted of felony sex offenses and committed to the custody of the commissioner:

- (1) the type of sex offense committed by the offender;

- (2) the sentence received by the offender;
- (3) whether the offender was assessed as amenable to sex offender treatment;
- (4) whether the offender was admitted to a sex offender treatment program, and if so, what program;
- (5) whether the offender successfully completed the treatment program; and
- (6) whether the offender committed a subsequent sex offense while on supervised release or within ten years after release from prison.

The commissioner shall, every odd-numbered year or at the request of the legislature, publish summary data on the treatment experience and recidivism rates of sex offenders based on the information collected under this subdivision.

Sec. 3. [242.205] [JUVENILE SEX OFFENDER TREATMENT.]

The commissioner shall provide an intensive sex offender treatment program for adjudicated juvenile sex offenders within a juvenile correctional facility.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 243.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONDITIONAL RELEASE.] The commissioner of corrections may parole any person sentenced to confinement in any state correctional facility for adults under the control of the commissioner of corrections, provided that:

(a) no inmate serving a life sentence for committing murder before May 1, 1980, other than murder committed in violation of clause (1) of section 609.185 who has not been previously convicted of a felony shall be paroled without having served 20 years, less the diminution that would have been allowed for good conduct had the sentence been for 20 years;

(b) no inmate serving a life sentence for committing murder before May 1, 1980, who has been previously convicted of a felony or though not previously convicted of a felony is serving a life sentence for murder in the first degree committed in violation of clause (1) of section 609.185 shall be paroled without having served 25 years, less the diminution which would have been allowed for good conduct had the sentence been for 25 years;

(c) any inmate sentenced prior to September 1, 1963 who would be eligible for parole had the inmate been sentenced after September 1, 1963, shall be eligible for parole; and

(d) any new rule or policy or change of rule or policy adopted by the commissioner of corrections which has the effect of postponing eligibility for parole has prospective effect only and applies only with respect to persons committing offenses after the effective date of the new rule or policy or change. Upon being paroled and released, an inmate is and remains in the legal custody and under the control of the commissioner, subject at any time to be returned to a facility of the department of corrections established by law for the confinement or treatment of convicted persons and the parole rescinded by the commissioner. The written order of the commissioner of corrections, is sufficient authority for any peace officer or state parole and probation agent to retake and place in actual custody any person on parole or supervised release, but any state parole and probation agent may, without order of warrant, when it appears necessary in order to prevent escape or enforce discipline, take and detain a parolee or person on supervised release or work release to the commissioner for action. The written order of the commissioner of corrections is sufficient authority for any peace officer or state parole and probation agent to retake and place in actual custody any person on probation under the supervision of the commissioner pursuant to section 609.135; but any state parole and probation agent may, without an order, when it appears necessary in order to prevent escape or enforce discipline, retake and detain a probationer and bring the probationer before the court for further proceedings under section 609.14. Persons conditionally released, and those on probation under the supervision of the commissioner of corrections pursuant to section 609.135 may be placed within or outside the boundaries of the state at the discretion of the commissioner of corrections or the court, and the limits fixed for these persons may be enlarged or reduced according to their conduct.

In considering applications for conditional release or discharge, the commissioner is not required to hear oral argument from any attorney or other person not connected with an adult correctional facility of the department of corrections in favor of or against the parole or release of any inmates, but the commissioner may institute inquiries by correspondence, taking testimony or otherwise, as to the previous history, physical or mental condition, and character of the inmate, and to that end shall have authority to require the attendance of the chief executive officer of any state adult correctional facility and the production of the records of these facilities, and to compel the attendance of witnesses. The commissioner is authorized to administer oaths to witnesses for these purposes.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SUPERVISED RELEASE REQUIRED.] Except as provided in subdivisions 4 and 5, every inmate shall serve a supervised release term upon completion of the inmate's term of imprisonment as reduced by any good time earned by the inmate or extended by confinement in punitive segregation pursuant to section 244.04, subdivision 2. Except as otherwise provided in section 6, the supervised release term shall be equal to the period of good time the inmate has earned, and shall not exceed the length of time remaining in the inmate's sentence.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [CERTAIN INMATES TO BE CREDITED TIME.] Any inmate convicted of violating or attempting to violate section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345 who enters into and completes a sex offender treatment program of at least 12 months' duration is eligible to receive an adjustment to the supervised release date. Inmates may be credited three days per month of their sentence up to a maximum of six months if the treatment program has been approved by the commissioner and if the inmate successfully completes the program.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.05, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MINIMUM IMPRISONMENT, LIFE SENTENCE.] An inmate serving a mandatory life sentence under section 38 for a third conviction of criminal sexual conduct must not be given supervised release under this section. An inmate serving a mandatory life sentence for conviction of murder in the first degree under section 609.185 must not be given supervised release under this section unless otherwise authorized by the board of pardons under section 57. An inmate serving a mandatory life sentence shall under section 609.385 must not be given supervised release under this section without having served a minimum term of imprisonment of 17 years.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.05, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SUPERVISED RELEASE, LIFE SENTENCE.] The commissioner of corrections may, under rules promulgated by the commissioner, give supervised release to an inmate serving a mandatory life sentence under section 609.385 after the inmate has served the minimum term of imprisonment specified in subdivision 4. The commissioner may, under rules promulgated by the commissioner, give supervised release to an inmate serving a mandatory life sentence for conviction of murder in the first degree under section 609.185 if the board of pardons authorizes the granting of supervised release under section 57.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.161, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The juvenile court judge shall keep such minutes and in such manner as the court deems necessary and proper. The court shall keep and maintain records pertaining to delinquent adjudications until the person reaches the age of 23 years and shall release the records on an individual to a requesting adult court for purposes of sentencing, or to an adult court or juvenile court as required by the right of confrontation of either the United States Constitution or the Minnesota Constitution. The juvenile court shall provide, upon the request of any other juvenile court, copies of the records concerning adjudications involving the particular child. The court shall also keep an index in which files pertaining to juvenile matters shall be indexed under the name of the child. After the name of each file shall be shown the file number and, if ordered by the court, the book and page of the register in which the documents pertaining to such file are listed. The court shall also keep a register properly indexed in which shall be listed under the name of the child all documents filed pertaining to the child and in the order filed. The list shall show the name of the document and the date of filing thereof. The juvenile court legal records shall be deposited in files and shall include the petition, summons, notice, findings, orders, decrees, judgments, and motions and such other matters as the court deems necessary and proper. The legal records maintained in this file shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of any child to whom the records relate, and to the child's parent and guardian.

In addition, the juvenile court shall forward to the bureau of criminal apprehension the following information pertaining to juveniles adjudicated delinquent for having violated section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345:

- (1) the name and birthdate of the juvenile;
- (2) the type of act for which the juvenile was adjudicated delinquent; and
- (3) the date of the adjudication.

The juvenile court shall also notify the bureau whenever it destroys juvenile court records of these juveniles.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.185, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If the court finds that the child is delinquent, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case which are deemed necessary to the rehabilitation of the child:

(a) Counsel the child or the parents, guardian, or custodian;

(b) Place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court including reasonable rules for conduct and the conduct of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental, and moral well-being and behavior of the child; or with the consent of the commissioner of corrections, in a group foster care facility which is under the management and supervision of said commissioner;

(c) Subject to the supervision of the court, transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

(1) A child placing agency; or

(2) The county welfare board; or

(3) A reputable individual of good moral character. No person may receive custody of two or more unrelated children unless licensed as a residential facility pursuant to sections 245.781 to 245.812; or

(4) ~~Except for children found to be delinquent as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, clauses (e) and (d),~~ A county home school, if the county maintains a home school or enters into an agreement with a county home school; or

(5) A county probation officer for placement in a group foster home established under the direction of the juvenile court and licensed pursuant to section 241.021;

(d) ~~Except for children found to be delinquent as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, clauses (e) and (d),~~ Transfer legal custody by commitment to the commissioner of corrections;

(e) If the child is found to have violated a state or local law or ordinance which has resulted in damage to the property of another, the court may order the child to make reasonable restitution for such damage;

(f) Require the child to pay a fine of up to $700; the court shall order payment of the fine in accordance with a time payment schedule which shall not impose an undue financial hardship on the child;

(g) If the child is in need of special treatment and care for reasons of physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided;

(h) If the court believes that it is in the best interests of the child and of public safety that the driver's license of the child be canceled until the child's 18th birthday, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety the cancellation of the child's license for any period up to the child's 18th birthday, and the commissioner is hereby authorized to cancel such license without a hearing. At any time before the termination of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child be authorized to apply for a new license, and the commissioner may so authorize.

If the child is petitioned and proved to be delinquent for having violated section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, the court shall order an independent professional assessment of the child's need for sex offender treatment. If the evaluation indicates that the child is in need of and amenable to sex offender treatment, the court shall include in its disposition order a requirement that the child undergo treatment.

Any order for a disposition authorized under this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

(a) Why the best interests of the child are served by the disposition ordered; and

(b) What alternative dispositions were considered by the court and why such dispositions were not appropriate in the instant case.

This subdivision applies to dispositions of juveniles found to be delinquent as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, clause (c) or (d) made prior to, on, or after January 1, 1978.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297D.09, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [CRIMINAL PENALTY; SALE WITHOUT AFFIXED STAMPS.] In addition to the tax penalty imposed, a dealer distributing or possessing marijuana or controlled substances without affixing the appropriate stamps, labels, or other indicia is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~five~~ seven years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$10,000~~ $14,000, or both.

Sec. 12. [299A.29] [SOFT BODY ARMOR REIMBURSEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section:

(a) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of public safety.

(b) "Peace officer" means a person who is licensed under section 626.84, subdivision 1, paragraph (c).

(c) "Vest" means bullet-resistant soft body armor that is flexible, concealable, and custom fitted to the peace officer to provide ballistic and trauma protection.

Subd. 2. [STATE AND LOCAL REIMBURSEMENT.] Peace officers and heads of local law enforcement agencies who buy vests for the use of peace officer employees may apply to the commissioner for reimbursement of funds spent to buy vests. On approving an application for reimbursement, the commissioner shall pay the applicant an amount equal to the lesser of one-third of the vest's purchase price or $165. The political subdivision that employs the peace officer shall pay at least the lesser of one-third of the vest's purchase price or $165.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS.] (a) Only vests that either meet or exceed the requirements of standards of the National Institute of Justice in effect on December 30, 1986, or that meet or exceed the requirements of those standards, except wet armor conditioning, are eligible for reimbursement.

(b) Eligibility for reimbursement is limited to vests bought after December 31, 1986, by or for peace officers (1) who did not own a vest meeting the requirements of paragraph (a) before the purchase, or (2) who owned a vest that was at least six years old.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt rules under chapter 14 to administer this section.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] A state agency, political subdivision of the state, or state or local government employee is not liable to a peace officer or the peace officer's heirs for the death of or injury to the peace officer resulting from a defect or deficiency in a vest for which reimbursement has been made under this section.

Subd. 6. [RIGHT TO BENEFITS UNAFFECTED.] A peace officer who suffers injury or death because that officer failed to wear a vest for which reimbursement was made under this section may not lose or be denied a benefit or right to which the officer, or the officer's heirs, is otherwise entitled.

Sec. 13. [299C.095] [CENTRALIZED SYSTEM FOR IDENTIFICATION OF ADJUDICATED JUVENILE SEX OFFENDERS.]

The bureau shall establish a centralized system for recording the names, birthdates, and offenses of all juveniles adjudicated delinquent in this state for having violated section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345. All information pertaining to adjudicated juveniles received from the juvenile courts under section 260.161, subdivision 1, must be maintained in the records system and must be made available, on request, to the individual subject of the record and to any law enforcement agency or prosecuting authority. Upon receiving a notice from a juvenile court that the court has destroyed a person's juvenile court records, the bureau shall remove from the system all records about the person and destroy them.

Sec. 14. [299C.155] [STANDARDIZED EVIDENCE COLLECTION; DNA ANALYSIS, DATA, AND RECORDS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] As used in this section, "DNA analysis" means the process through which deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) in a human biological specimen is analyzed and compared with DNA from another human biological specimen for identification purposes.

Subd. 2. [UNIFORM EVIDENCE COLLECTION.] The bureau shall develop uniform procedures and protocols for collecting evidence in cases of alleged or suspected criminal sexual conduct, including procedures and protocols for the collection and preservation of human biological specimens for DNA analysis. The bureau shall encourage law enforcement agencies and medical personnel who conduct evidentiary exams to use the uniform procedures and protocols in their investigation of criminal sexual conduct offenses.

Subd. 3. [DNA ANALYSIS AND DATA BANK.] The bureau shall adopt uniform procedures and protocols to maintain, preserve, and analyze human biological specimens for DNA. The bureau shall establish a centralized system to cross-reference data obtained from DNA analysis.

Subd. 4. [RECORDS.] The bureau shall perform DNA analysis and make the data obtained available to law enforcement officials in connection with criminal investigations in which human biological specimens have been recovered. Upon request, the bureau shall also make the data available to the prosecutor and the subject of the data in any subsequent criminal prosecution of the subject.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 299F.80, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 2, whoever possesses explosives without a valid license or permit may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~three~~ five years.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 325D.56, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Any person who is found to have willfully committed any of the acts enumerated in section 325D.53 shall be guilty of a felony and subject to a fine of not more than $50,000 or imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than five seven years, or both.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.701, is amended to read:

340A.701 [FELONIES.]

Subdivision 1. [UNLAWFUL ACTS.] It is a felony:

- (1) to manufacture alcoholic beverages in violation of this chapter;
- (2) to transport or import alcoholic beverages into the state in violation of this chapter for purposes of resale; or
- (3) to sell or give away for beverage purposes poisonous alcohol, methyl alcohol, denatured alcohol, denaturing material, or any other alcoholic substance capable of causing serious physical or mental injuries to a person consuming it; or
- (4) for a person other than a licensed retailer of alcoholic beverages, a bottle club permit holder, a municipal liquor store, or an employee or agent of any of these who is acting within the scope of employment, to violate the provisions of section 340A.503, subdivision 2, clause (1), if the underage recipient of the alcoholic beverage becomes intoxicated and causes or suffers death or great bodily harm as a result of the intoxication.

Subd. 2. [PRESUMPTIVE SENTENCE.] In determining an appropriate disposition for a violation of subdivision 1, clause (4), the court shall presume that a stay of execution with a 90-day period of incarceration as a condition of probation shall be imposed unless the defendant's criminal history score determined according to the sentencing guidelines indicates a presumptive executed sentence, in which case the presumptive executed sentence shall be imposed unless the court departs from the sentencing guidelines under section 244.10. A stay of imposition of sentence may be granted only if accompanied by a statement on the record of the reasons for it.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.702, is amended to read:

340A.702 [GROSS MISDEMEANORS.]

It is a gross misdemeanor:

- (1) to sell an alcoholic beverage without a license authorizing the sale;

(2) for a licensee to refuse or neglect to obey a lawful direction or order of the commissioner or the commissioner's agent, withhold information or a document the commissioner calls for examination, obstruct or mislead the commissioner in the execution of the commissioner's duties or swear falsely under oath;

(3) to violate the provisions of sections 340A.301 to 340A.313;

(4) to violate the provisions of section 340A.508;

(5) for any person, partnership, or corporation to knowingly have or possess direct or indirect interest in more than one off-sale intoxicating liquor license in a municipality in violation of section 340A.412, subdivision 3;

(6) to sell or otherwise dispose of intoxicating liquor within 1,000 feet of a state hospital, training school, reformatory, prison, or other institution under the supervision and control, in whole or in part, of the commissioner of human services or the commissioner of corrections;

(7) to violate the provisions of section 340A.502;

(8) except as otherwise provided in section 340A.701, to violate the provisions of section 340A.503, subdivision 2, clause (1) or (3);

(9) to withhold any information, book, paper, or other thing called for by the commissioner for the purpose of an examination;

(10) to obstruct or mislead the commissioner in the execution of the commissioner's duties; or

(11) to swear falsely concerning any matter stated under oath.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 526.10, is amended to read:

526.10 [LAWS RELATING TO MENTALLY ILL PERSONS DANGEROUS TO THE PUBLIC TO APPLY TO PSYCHOPATHIC PERSONALITIES; TRANSFER TO CORRECTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] Except as otherwise provided ~~herein in this section~~ or in chapter 253B, the provisions of chapter 253B, pertaining to persons mentally ill and dangerous to the public shall apply with like force and effect to persons having a psychopathic personality, to persons alleged to have such personality, and to persons found to have such personality, respectively. Before such proceedings are instituted, the facts shall first be submitted to the county attorney, who, if satisfied that good cause exists therefor, shall prepare the petition to be executed by a person having knowledge of the facts and file the same with the judge of the probate court of the county in which the "patient," as defined in such statutes, has a settlement or is present. The judge of probate shall thereupon follow the same procedures set forth in chapter 253B, for judicial commitment. The judge may exclude the general public from attendance at such hearing. If, upon completion of the hearing and consideration of the record, the court finds the proposed patient has a psychopathic personality, the court shall commit such person to a public hospital or a private hospital consenting to receive the person, subject to a mandatory review by the head of the hospital within 60 days from the date of the order as provided for in chapter 253B for persons found to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public. The patient shall thereupon be entitled to all of the rights provided for in chapter 253B, for persons found to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public, and all of the procedures provided for in chapter 253B, for persons found to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public shall apply to such patient except as otherwise provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER TO CORRECTIONAL FACILITY.] If a person has been committed under this section and also has been committed to the custody of the commissioner of corrections, the person may be transferred from a hospital to another facility designated by the commissioner of corrections as provided in section 253B.18; except that the special review board and the commissioner of human services may consider the following factors in lieu of the factors listed in section 253B.18, subdivision 6, to determine whether a transfer to the commissioner of corrections is appropriate:

- (1) the person's unamenability to treatment;
- (2) the person's unwillingness or failure to follow treatment recommendations;
- (3) the person's lack of progress in treatment at the public or private hospital;
- (4) the danger posed by the person to other patients or staff at the public or private hospital; and
- (5) the degree of security necessary to protect the public.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.11, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PROSECUTOR SHALL ESTABLISH.] Whenever reasonable grounds exist to believe that the defendant or an accomplice used a firearm or other dangerous weapon or had in possession a firearm, at the time of commission of an offense listed in subdivision 9, the prosecutor shall, at the time of trial or at the plea of guilty, present on the record all evidence tending to establish that fact unless it is otherwise admitted on the record. The question of whether the defendant or an accomplice, at the time of commission of an offense listed in subdivision 9, used a firearm or other dangerous weapon or had in possession a firearm shall be determined by the court on the record at the time of a verdict or finding of guilt at trial or the entry of a plea of guilty based upon the record of the trial or the plea of guilty. The court shall determine on the record at the time of sentencing whether the defendant has been convicted of a second or subsequent offense in which the defendant or an accomplice, at the time of commission of an offense listed in subdivision 9, used a firearm or other dangerous weapon or had in possession a firearm.

Sec. 21. [609.1351] [DANGEROUS SEX OFFENDERS; SPECIAL SENTENCING PROVISION.]

Subdivision 1. [SENTENCING AUTHORITY.] Except as otherwise required by section 38, a court may sentence a person to a term of imprisonment of not less than double the presumptive sentence under the sentencing guidelines and not more than the statutory maximum, or if the statutory maximum is less than double the presumptive sentence, to a term of imprisonment equal to the statutory maximum, if:

(1) the court is imposing an executed sentence on a person convicted of committing or attempting to commit a violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, or on a person convicted of committing or attempting to commit any other felony listed in section 611A.031 if it reasonably appears to the court that the felony was motivated by the offender's sexual impulses or was part of a predatory pattern of behavior that had criminal sexual conduct as its goal;

(2) the court finds that the offender is a danger to public safety;
and

(3) the court finds that the offender needs long-term treatment or supervision beyond the presumptive term of imprisonment and supervised release. This finding shall be based on a professional assessment by an examiner experienced in evaluating sex offenders which concludes that the offender is a patterned sex offender. The assessment must contain the facts upon which the conclusion is based, with reference to the social history, the offense history of the offender or the aggravated characteristics of the offender's current crime, and the results of an examination of the offender's mental status. The conclusion may not be based on testing alone. A patterned sex offender is one whose criminal sexual behavior is so ingrained that the risk of reoffending is great without intensive psychotherapeutic intervention or other long-term controls.

Subd. 2. [DANGER TO PUBLIC SAFETY.] The court shall base its finding that the offender is a danger to public safety on either of the following factors:

(1) the crime involved an aggravating factor that would justify a departure from the presumptive sentence under the sentencing guidelines; or

(2) the offender had previously committed or attempted to commit a felony offense listed in section 611A.031, including an offense committed as a juvenile that would have been a listed felony if committed by an adult.

Subd. 3. [DEPARTURE FROM GUIDELINES.] A sentence imposed under subdivision 1 is a departure from the sentencing guidelines.

Subd. 4. [EARLY PROBATIONARY RELEASE.] At the time of sentencing under subdivision 1, the court may provide that after the offender has completed one-half of the sentence imposed, excluding good time, the balance of the sentence may be stayed and the offender placed on supervised probation under the probation officer of the court for the remainder of the statutory maximum period or for ten years, whichever is longer, if the commissioner of corrections certifies to the sentencing court and the prosecution that:

(1) the offender is amenable to treatment and has made sufficient progress in a sex offender treatment program available in prison to be released to the intensive treatment program for sexual aggressives or a community sex offender treatment and reentry program; and

(2) the offender has been accepted in a program approved by the commissioner that provides treatment, aftercare, and phased reentry into the community.

The court shall impose conditions of probation which must include successful completion of treatment and aftercare in a program approved by the commissioner and any other conditions the court considered appropriate. Probation may be revoked and the stayed sentence executed in its entirety less good time if the offender fails to meet any condition of probation. The court must not dismiss the offender from probation before the sentence expires unless the court finds that the offender no longer represents a danger to public safety. The probationary portion of the sentence shall commence at the time of the commissioner's certification unless the court finds the commissioner's program for the offender provides for insufficient treatment, aftercare, or supervision upon the offender's release. The commissioner's certification must include a detailed report of the offender's course of treatment in prison and of the proposed plan for the offender's release.

Subd. 5. [COMMISSIONER OF CORRECTIONS.] The commissioner shall pay the cost of treatment and supervision of a person released under subdivision 4. This section does not require the commissioner to accept or retain an offender in a treatment program.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.185, is amended to read:

609.185 [MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE.]

Whoever does any of the following is guilty of murder in the first degree and shall be sentenced to imprisonment for life:

(1) causes the death of a human being with premeditation and with intent to effect the death of the person or of another;

(2) causes the death of a human being while committing or attempting to commit criminal sexual conduct in the first or second degree with force or violence, either upon or affecting the person or another;

(3) causes the death of a human being with intent to effect the death of the person or another, while committing or attempting to commit burglary, aggravated robbery, kidnapping, arson in the first or second degree, tampering with a witness in the first degree, or escape from custody, or any violation of chapter 152 involving the unlawful sale of a controlled substance;

(4) causes the death of a peace officer or a guard employed at a Minnesota state correctional facility, with intent to effect the death of that person or another, while the peace officer or guard is engaged in the performance of official duties; or

(5) causes the death of a minor under circumstances other than those described in clause (1) or (2) while committing or attempting to commit child abuse, when the perpetrator has engaged in a past pattern of child abuse upon the child and the death occurs under circumstances manifesting an extreme indifference to human life.

For purposes of clause (5), "child abuse" means an act committed against a minor victim that constitutes a violation of section 609.221, 609.222, 609.223, 609.224, 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, 609.345, 609.377, or 609.378.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.19, is amended to read:

609.19 [MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.]

Whoever does either of the following is guilty of murder in the second degree and may be sentenced to imprisonment for, upon conviction, shall be committed to the commissioner of corrections for a term of imprisonment of at least 20 years but not more than 40 years, notwithstanding sections 242.19, 243.05, 244.04, 609.11, 609.12, and 609.135:

(1) Causes the death of a human being with intent to effect the death of that person or another, but without premeditation, or

(2) Causes the death of a human being, without intent to effect the death of any person, while committing or attempting to commit a felony offense other than criminal sexual conduct in the first or second degree with force or violence.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.195, is amended to read:

609.195 [MURDER IN THE THIRD DEGREE.]

(a) Whoever, without intent to effect the death of any person, causes the death of another by perpetrating an act eminently dangerous to others and evincing a depraved mind, without regard for human life, is guilty of murder in the third degree and may be sentenced to imprisonment for, upon conviction, shall be committed to the commissioner of corrections for a term of imprisonment of at least ten years but not more than 25 years, notwithstanding sections 242.19, 243.05, 244.04, 609.11, 609.12, and 609.135.

(b) Whoever, without intent to cause death, proximately causes the death of a human being by, directly or indirectly, unlawfully selling, giving away, bartering, delivering, exchanging, distributing, or administering a controlled substance classified in schedule I or II, is guilty of murder in the third degree and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 25 years or to payment of a fine of not more than $40,000, or both.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.205, is amended to read:

609.205 [MANSLAUGHTER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.]

A person who causes the death of another by any of the following means is guilty of manslaughter in the second degree and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than seven ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$14,000~~ $20,000, or both:

(1) by the person's culpable negligence whereby the person creates an unreasonable risk, and consciously takes chances of causing death or great bodily harm to another; or

(2) by shooting another with a firearm or other dangerous weapon as a result of negligently believing the other to be a deer or other animal; or

(3) by setting a spring gun, pit fall, deadfall, snare, or other like dangerous weapon or device; or

(4) by negligently or intentionally permitting any animal, known by the person to have vicious propensities or to have caused great or substantial bodily harm in the past, to run uncontrolled off the owner's premises, or negligently failing to keep it properly confined.

If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be an affirmative defense to criminal liability under clause (4) that the victim provoked the animal to cause the victim's death.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.221, is amended to read:

609.221 [ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE.]

Whoever assaults another and inflicts great bodily harm may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~ten~~ 20 years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$20,000~~ $30,000, or both.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.222, is amended to read:

609.222 [ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE.]

Whoever assaults another with a dangerous weapon may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~five~~ seven years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$10,000~~ $14,000, or both.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.223, is amended to read:

609.223 [ASSAULT IN THE THIRD DEGREE.]

Whoever assaults another and inflicts substantial bodily harm may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~three~~ five years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$5,000~~ $10,000, or both.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.2231, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PEACE OFFICERS.] Whoever assaults a peace officer licensed under section 626.845, subdivision 1, when that officer is effecting a lawful arrest or executing any other duty imposed by law and inflicts demonstrable bodily harm is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~one year~~ and a day two years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$3,000~~ $4,000, or both.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.255, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [UNREASONABLE RESTRAINT OF CHILDREN.] A parent, legal guardian, or caretaker who intentionally subjects a child under the age of 18 years to unreasonable physical confinement or restraint by means including but not limited to, tying, locking, caging, or chaining for a prolonged period of time and in a cruel manner which is excessive under the circumstances, is guilty of unreasonable restraint of a child and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both. If the confinement or restraint results in substantial bodily harm, that person may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~three~~ five years or to payment of not more than ~~$5,000~~ $10,000, or both.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.2665, is amended to read:

609.2665 [MANSLAUGHTER OF AN UNBORN CHILD IN THE SECOND DEGREE.]

A person who causes the death of an unborn child by any of the following means is guilty of manslaughter of an unborn child in the second degree and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~seven~~ ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$14,000~~ $20,000, or both:

(1) by the actor's culpable negligence whereby the actor creates an unreasonable risk and consciously takes chances of causing death or great bodily harm to an unborn child or a person;

(2) by shooting the mother of the unborn child with a firearm or other dangerous weapon as a result of negligently believing her to be a deer or other animal;

(3) by setting a spring gun, pit fall, deadfall, snare, or other like dangerous weapon or device; or

(4) by negligently or intentionally permitting any animal, known by the person to have vicious propensities or to have caused great or substantial bodily harm in the past, to run uncontrolled off the owner's premises, or negligently failing to keep it properly confined.

If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be an affirmative defense to criminal liability under clause (4) that the mother of the unborn child provoked the animal to cause the unborn child's death.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.267, is amended to read:

609.267 [ASSAULT OF AN UNBORN CHILD IN THE FIRST DEGREE.]

Whoever assaults a pregnant woman and inflicts great bodily harm on an unborn child who is subsequently born alive may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~ten~~ 15 years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$20,000~~ $30,000, or both.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.323, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Whoever, while acting other than as a prostitute or patron, intentionally receives profit, knowing or having reason to know that it is derived from the prostitution, or the promotion of the prostitution, of an individual under the age of 13 years, may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~ten~~ 15 years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$20,000~~ $30,000, or both.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.342, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] Except as otherwise provided in section 38, a person convicted under subdivision 1 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~20~~ 25 years or to a payment of a fine of not more than ~~$35,000~~ $40,000, or both.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.343, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] Except as otherwise provided in section 38, a person convicted under subdivision 1 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~15~~ 20 years or to a payment of a fine of not more than ~~$30,000~~ $35,000, or both.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.344, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] Except as otherwise provided in section 38, a person convicted under subdivision 1 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~ten~~ 15 years or to a payment of a fine of not more than ~~$20,000~~ $30,000, or both.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.345, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] A person convicted under subdivision 1 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five ten years or to a payment of a fine of not more than $10,000 $20,000, or both.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.346, is amended to read:

609.346 [SUBSEQUENT OFFENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION; CONVICTION OF OFFENSE.] For purposes of this section, the term "offense" means a completed offense or an attempt to commit an offense.

Subd. 2. [SUBSEQUENT OFFENSE; PENALTY.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 3a, if a person is convicted of a second or subsequent offense under sections 609.342 to 609.345 within 15 years of the prior conviction, the court shall commit the defendant to the commissioner of corrections for imprisonment for a term of not less than three years, nor more than the maximum sentence provided by law for the offense for which convicted, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 242.19, 243.05, 609.11, 609.12 and 609.135. The court may stay the execution of the sentence imposed under this section subdivision only if it finds that a professional assessment indicates the offender is accepted by and can respond to treatment at a long-term inpatient program exclusively treating sex offenders and approved by the commissioner of corrections. If the court stays the execution of a sentence, it shall include the following as conditions of probation: (1) incarceration in a local jail or workhouse; and (2) a requirement that the offender successfully complete the treatment program and aftercare as directed by the court.

Subd. 3. [PRIOR CONVICTIONS UNDER SIMILAR STATUTES.] For the purposes of this section subdivision 2, an offense is considered a second or subsequent offense if conviction of the actor for the offense follows or coincides with a conviction of the actor under sections 609.342 to 609.345 or under any similar statute of the United States, or this or any other state.

Subd. 3a. [THIRD CONVICTION; MANDATORY LIFE SENTENCE.] A person who is convicted of violating section 609.342, 609.343, or 609.344 shall be sentenced to imprisonment for life if:

(1) the person has two prior convictions under section 609.342, 609.343, or 609.344 or under any similar statute of the United States, or this or any other state;

(2) the person committed the second criminal sexual conduct offense after having been convicted of and sentenced for the first criminal sexual conduct offense; and

(3) the person committed the current criminal sexual conduct offense after having been convicted of and sentenced for the second criminal sexual conduct offense.

Sec. 39. [609.3461] [DNA ANALYSIS OF SEX OFFENDERS REQUIRED.]

When a court sentences a person convicted of violating or attempting to violate section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, it shall order the person to provide a biological specimen for the purpose of DNA analysis as defined in section 14. The biological specimen or the results of the analysis shall be maintained by the bureau of criminal apprehension as provided in section 14.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.377, is amended to read:

609.377 [MALICIOUS PUNISHMENT OF A CHILD.]

A parent, legal guardian, or caretaker who, by an intentional act or a series of intentional acts with respect to a child, evidences unreasonable force or cruel discipline that is excessive under the circumstances is guilty of malicious punishment of a child and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both. If the punishment results in substantial bodily harm, that person may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~three~~ five years or to payment of not more than ~~$5,000~~ $10,000, or both.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.445, is amended to read:

609.445 [FAILURE TO PAY OVER STATE FUNDS.]

Whoever receives money on behalf of or for the account of the state or any of its agencies or subdivisions and intentionally refuses or omits to pay the same to the state or its agency or subdivision entitled thereto, or to an officer or agent authorized to receive the same, may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~three~~ five years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$5,000~~ $10,000, or both.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.48, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SENTENCE.] Whoever violates this section may be sentenced as follows:

(1) If the false statement was made upon the trial of a felony charge, or upon an application for an explosives license or use permit, to imprisonment for not more than five seven years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$10,000~~ $14,000, or both; or

(2) In all other cases, to imprisonment for not more than three five years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$5,000~~ $10,000, or both.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.487, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FLEEING AN OFFICER; DEATH; BODILY INJURY.] Whoever flees or attempts to flee by means of a motor vehicle a peace officer who is acting in the lawful discharge of an official duty, and the perpetrator knows or should reasonably know the same to be a peace officer, and who in the course of fleeing causes the death of a human being not constituting murder or manslaughter or any bodily injury to any person other than the perpetrator may be sentenced to imprisonment as follows:

(a) If the course of fleeing results in death, to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both; or

(b) If the course of fleeing results in great bodily harm, to imprisonment for not more than five seven years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$10,000~~ $14,000, or both; or

(c) If the course of fleeing results in substantial bodily harm, to imprisonment for not more than three five years or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$5,000~~ $10,000, or both.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.52, is amended to read:

609.52 [THEFT.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(1) "Property" means all forms of tangible property, whether real or personal, without limitation including documents of value, electricity, gas, water, corpses, domestic animals, dogs, pets, fowl, and heat supplied by pipe or conduit by municipalities or public utility companies and articles, as defined in clause (4), representing trade secrets, which articles shall be deemed for the purposes of Extra Session Laws 1967, chapter 15 to include any trade secret represented by the article.

(2) "Movable property" is property whose physical location can be changed, including without limitation things growing on, affixed to or found in land.

(3) "Value" means the retail market value at the time of the theft, or if the retail market value cannot be ascertained, the cost of replacement of the property within a reasonable time after the theft, or in the case of a theft or the making of a copy of an article representing a trade secret, where the retail market value or replacement cost cannot be ascertained, any reasonable value representing the damage to the owner which the owner has suffered by reason of losing an advantage over those who do not know of or use the trade secret. For a theft committed within the meaning of subdivision 2, clause (5), (a) and (b), if the property has been restored to the owner, "value" means the value of the use of the property or the damage which it sustained, whichever is greater, while the owner was deprived of its possession, but not exceeding the value otherwise provided herein.

(4) "Article" means any object, material, device or substance, including any writing, record, recording, drawing, sample specimen, prototype, model, photograph, microorganism, blueprint or map, or any copy of any of the foregoing.

(5) "Representing" means describing, depicting, containing, constituting, reflecting or recording.

(6) "Trade secret" means information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or process, that:

(i) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use, and

(ii) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

(7) "Copy" means any facsimile, replica, photograph or other reproduction of an article, and any note, drawing, or sketch made of or from an article while in the presence of the article.

(8) "Property of another" includes property in which the actor is coowner or has a lien, pledge, bailment, or lease or other subordinate interest, and property of a partnership of which the actor is a member, unless the actor and the victim are husband and wife. It does not include property in which the actor asserts in good faith a claim as a collection fee or commission out of property or funds recovered, or by virtue of a lien, setoff, or counterclaim.

(9) "Services" include but are not limited to labor, professional services, transportation services, electronic computer services, the supplying of hotel accommodations, restaurant services, entertainment services, advertising services, telecommunication services, and the supplying of equipment for use.

(10) "Motor vehicle" means a self-propelled device for moving persons or property or pulling implements from one place to another, whether the device is operated on land, rails, water, or in the air.

Subd. 2. [ACTS CONSTITUTING THEFT.] Whoever does any of the following commits theft and may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 3:

(1) intentionally and without claim of right takes, uses, transfers, conceals or retains possession of movable property of another without the other's consent and with intent to deprive the owner permanently of possession of the property; or

(2) having a legal interest in movable property, intentionally and without consent, takes the property out of the possession of a pledgee or other person having a superior right of possession, with intent thereby to deprive the pledgee or other person permanently of the possession of the property; or

(3) obtains for the actor or another the possession, custody or title to property of or performance of services by a third person by intentionally deceiving the third person with a false representation which is known to be false, made with intent to defraud, and which does defraud the person to whom it is made. "False representation" includes without limitation:

(a) the issuance of a check, draft, or order for the payment of money, except a forged check as defined in section 609.631, or the delivery of property knowing that the actor is not entitled to draw upon the drawee therefor or to order the payment or delivery thereof; or

(b) a promise made with intent not to perform. Failure to perform is not evidence of intent not to perform unless corroborated by other substantial evidence; or

(c) the preparation or filing of a claim for reimbursement, a rate application, or a cost report used to establish a rate or claim for payment for medical care provided to a recipient of medical assistance under chapter 256B, which intentionally and falsely states the costs of or actual services provided by a vendor of medical care; or

(4) by swindling, whether by artifice, trick, device, or any other means, obtains property or services from another person; or

(5) intentionally commits any of the acts listed in this subdivision but with intent to exercise temporary control only and;

(a) the control exercised manifests an indifference to the rights of the owner or the restoration of the property to the owner; or

(b) the actor pledges or otherwise attempts to subject the property to an adverse claim; or

(c) the actor intends to restore the property only on condition that the owner pay a reward or buy back or make other compensation; or

(6) finds lost property and, knowing or having reasonable means of ascertaining the true owner, appropriates it to the finder's own use or to that of another not entitled thereto without first having made reasonable effort to find the owner and offer and surrender the property to the owner; or

(7) intentionally obtains property or services, offered upon the deposit of a sum of money or tokens in a coin or token operated machine or other receptacle, without making the required deposit or otherwise obtaining the consent of the owner; or

(8) intentionally and without claim of right converts any article representing a trade secret, knowing it to be such, to the actor's own use or that of another person or makes a copy of an article representing a trade secret, knowing it to be such, and intentionally and without claim of right converts the same to the actor's own use or that of another person. It shall be a complete defense to any prosecution under this clause for the defendant to show that information comprising the trade secret was rightfully known or available to the defendant from a source other than the owner of the trade secret; or

(9) leases or rents personal property under a written instrument and who with intent to place the property beyond the control of the lessor conceals or aids or abets the concealment of the property or any part thereof, or any lessee of the property who sells, conveys, or encumbers the property or any part thereof without the written consent of the lessor, without informing the person to whom the lessee sells, conveys, or encumbers that the same is subject to such lease and with intent to deprive the lessor of possession thereof. Evidence that a lessee used a false or fictitious name or address in obtaining the property or fails or refuses to return the property to lessor within five days after written demand for the return has been served personally in the manner provided for service of process of a civil action or sent by certified mail to the last known address of the lessee, whichever shall occur later, shall be evidence of intent to violate this clause. Service by certified mail shall be deemed to be complete upon deposit in the United States mail of such demand, postpaid and addressed to the person at the address for the person set forth in the lease or rental agreement, or, in the absence of the address, to the person's last known place of residence; or

(10) alters, removes, or obliterates numbers or symbols placed on movable property for purpose of identification by the owner or person who has legal custody or right to possession thereof with the intent to prevent identification, if the person who alters, removes, or obliterates the numbers or symbols is not the owner and does not have the permission of the owner to make the alteration, removal, or obliteration; or

(11) with the intent to prevent the identification of property involved, so as to deprive the rightful owner of possession thereof, alters or removes any permanent serial number, permanent distinguishing number or manufacturer's identification number on personal property or possesses, sells or buys any personal property with knowledge that the permanent serial number, permanent distinguishing number or manufacturer's identification number has been removed or altered; or

(12) intentionally deprives another of a lawful charge for cable television service by

(i) making or using or attempting to make or use an unauthorized external connection outside the individual dwelling unit whether physical, electrical, acoustical, inductive, or other connection, or by

(ii) attaching any unauthorized device to any cable, wire, microwave, or other component of a licensed cable communications system as defined in chapter 238. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the electronic video rerecording of program material transmitted on the cable communications system by a subscriber for fair use as defined by Public Law Number 94-553, section 107; or

(13) except as provided in paragraphs (12) and (14), obtains the services of another with the intention of receiving those services without making the agreed or reasonably expected payment of money or other consideration; or

(14) intentionally deprives another of a lawful charge for telecommunications service by:

(i) making, using, or attempting to make or use an unauthorized connection whether physical, electrical, by wire, microwave, radio or other means to a component of a local telecommunication system as provided in chapter 237; or

(ii) attaching an unauthorized device to a cable, wire, microwave, radio, or other component of a local telecommunication system as provided in chapter 237.

The existence of an unauthorized connection is prima facie evidence that the occupier of the premises:

(i) made or was aware of the connection; and

(ii) was aware that the connection was unauthorized; or

(15) with intent to defraud, diverts corporate property other than in accordance with general business purposes or for purposes other than those specified in the corporation's articles of incorporation; or

(16) with intent to defraud, authorizes or causes a corporation to make a distribution in violation of section 302A.551, or any other state law in conformity with it; or

(17) intentionally takes or drives a motor vehicle without the consent of the owner or an authorized agent of the owner.

Subd. 3. [SENTENCE.] Whoever commits theft may be sentenced as follows:

(1) to imprisonment for not more than 20 years or to payment of a fine of not more than $100,000, or both, if the value of the property or services stolen is more than $35,000 and the conviction is for a violation of subdivision 2, clause (3), (4), (15), or (16); or

(2) to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both, if the value of the property or services stolen exceeds $2,500, or if the property stolen was an article representing a trade secret, an explosive or incendiary device, or a controlled substance listed in schedule 1 or 2 pursuant to section 152.02 with the exception of marijuana; or

(3) to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, if:

(a) the value of the property or services stolen is more than $500 but not more than $2,500; or

(b) the property stolen was a controlled substance listed in schedule 3, 4, or 5 pursuant to section 152.02; or

(c) the value of the property or services stolen is more than $200 but not more than $500 and the person has been convicted within the preceding five years for an offense under this section, section 256.98; 268.18, subdivision 3; 609.24; 609.245; 609.53; 609.582, subdivision 1, 2, or 3; 609.625; 609.63; 609.631; or 609.821, or a statute from another state in conformity with any of those sections, and the person received a felony or gross misdemeanor sentence for the offense, or a sentence that was stayed under section 609.135 if the offense to which a plea was entered would allow imposition of a felony or gross misdemeanor sentence; or

(4) to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, notwithstanding

(d) the value of the property or services stolen is not more than $200, if $500, and any of the following circumstances exist:

(a) (i) the property is taken from the person of another or from a corpse, or grave or coffin containing a corpse; or

(b) (ii) the property is a record of a court or officer, or a writing, instrument or record kept, filed or deposited according to law with or in the keeping of any public officer or office; or

(c) (iii) the property is taken from a burning building or upon its removal therefrom, or from an area of destruction caused by civil disaster, riot, bombing, or the proximity of battle; or

(d) (iv) the property consists of public funds belonging to the state or to any political subdivision or agency thereof; or

(e) (v) the property is a firearm; or

(f) (vi) the property stolen was is a motor vehicle as defined in section 609.55; or

(5) to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both, if the property stolen is an article representing a trade secret; or if the property stolen is an explosive or an incendiary device; or

(6) (4) to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both, if the value of the property or services stolen is more than $200 but not more than $500; or

(7) (5) in all other cases where the value of the property or services stolen is $200 or less, to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a fine of not more than $700, or both, provided, however, in any prosecution under subdivision 2, clauses (1), (2), (3), (4), and (13), the value of the money or property or services received by the defendant in violation of any one or more of the above provisions within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly in applying the provisions of this subdivision; provided that when two or more offenses are committed by the same person in two or more counties, the accused may be prosecuted in any county in which one of the offenses was committed for all of the offenses aggregated under this paragraph.

Sec. 45. [609.526] [PRECIOUS METAL DEALERS; RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY.]

Any precious metal dealer as defined in section 325F.731, subdivision 2, or any person employed by a precious metal dealer as defined in section 325F.731, subdivision 2, who receives, possesses, transfers, buys, or conceals any stolen property or property obtained by robbery, knowing or having reason to know the property was stolen or obtained by robbery, may be sentenced as follows:

(1) if the value of the property received, bought, or concealed is $1,000 or more, to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $50,000, or both;

(2) if the value of the property received, bought, or concealed is less than $1,000 but more than $300, to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $40,000, or both;

(3) if the value of the property received, bought, or concealed is $300 or less, to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a fine of not more than $700, or both.

Any person convicted of violating this section a second or subsequent time within a period of one year may be sentenced as provided in clause (1).

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.53, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CRIMINAL PENALTY.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 45, any person who receives, possesses, transfers, buys or conceals any stolen property or property obtained by robbery, knowing or having reason to know the property was stolen or obtained by robbery, may be sentenced as follows:

(1) if the value of the property is $1,000 or more, to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both;

(2) if the value of the property is less than $1,000, but more than $300, to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both;

(3) if the value of the property is $300 or less, to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a fine of not more than $700, or both;

(4) notwithstanding the value of the property, if the property is a firearm, to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, in accordance with the provisions of section 609.52, subdivision 3.

(b) In a prosecution under this subdivision, the value of property received by the defendant in violation of this subdivision within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly in applying this subdivision. When two or more offenses are committed by the same person in two or more counties, the accused may be prosecuted in any county in which one of the offenses was committed for all of the offenses aggregated under this paragraph.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.53, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CIVIL ACTION; TREBLE DAMAGES.] Any person who has been injured by a violation of subdivisions subdivision 1 or 3 section 45 may bring an action for three times the amount of actual damages, sustained by the plaintiff or $1,500, whichever is greater, and the costs of suit and reasonable attorney's fees.

611A.038 [RIGHT TO SUBMIT STATEMENT AT SENTENCING.]

~~Subdivision 1. [IMPACT STATEMENT.]~~ A victim has the right to submit an impact statement, ~~either orally or in writing,~~ to the court at the time of sentencing or disposition hearing. The impact statement may be presented to the court orally or in writing, at the victim's option. If the victim requests, the prosecutor must orally present the statement to the court.

Statements may include the following, subject to reasonable limitations as to time and length:

- (1) a summary of the harm or trauma suffered by the victim as a result of the crime;
- (2) a summary of the economic loss or damage suffered by the victim as a result of the crime; and
- (3) a victim's reaction to the proposed sentence or disposition.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 624.701, is amended to read:

624.701 [LIQUORS IN CERTAIN BUILDINGS OR GROUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 1a, any person who shall introduce upon, or have in possession upon, or in, introduces or possesses an alcoholic beverage, as defined in section 340A.101, on any school ground, or in any schoolhouse or school building, any alcoholic beverage as defined in section 340A.101, except for is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 1a. [EXCEPTIONS.] Subdivision 1 does not apply to the following:

(1) experiments in laboratories and except for;

(2) those organizations who have been issued temporary licenses to sell nonintoxicating malt liquor pursuant to section 340A.403, subdivision 2, and;

(3) any person possessing nonintoxicating malt liquor as a result of a purchase from those organizations holding temporary licenses pursuant to section 340A.403, subdivision 2, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; or

(4) the possession or use of alcoholic beverages in an alcohol use awareness program that is held at a post-secondary school, sponsored or approved by the school, and limited to persons 21 years old or older.

Subd. 2. Any person who except by prescription of a licensed physician or permission of the hospital administrator shall introduce upon, or have in possession upon, or in, any state hospital or grounds thereof under the responsibility of the commissioner of human services any alcoholic beverage as defined in section 340A.101, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 624.712, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Crime of violence" includes murder in the first, second, and third degrees, manslaughter in the first and second degrees, aiding suicide, aiding attempted suicide, felony violations of assault in the first, second, third, and fourth degrees, use of drugs to injure or to facilitate crime, simple robbery, aggravated robbery, kidnapping, false imprisonment, criminal sexual conduct in the first, second, third, and fourth degrees, felonious theft, arson in the first and second degrees, riot, burglary in the first, second, third, and fourth degrees, reckless use of a gun or dangerous weapon, intentionally pointing a gun at or towards a human being, setting a spring gun, and unlawfully owning, possessing, or operating a machine gun, and an attempt to commit any of these offenses, as each of those offenses is defined in chapter 609. "Crime of violence" also includes felony violations of chapter 152.

Sec. 55. [634.25] [ADMISSIBILITY OF RESULTS OF DNA ANALYSIS.]

In a civil or criminal trial or hearing, the results of DNA analysis, as defined in section 14, are admissible in evidence without antecedent expert testimony that DNA analysis provides a trustworthy and reliable method of identifying characteristics in an individual's genetic material upon a showing that the offered testimony meets the standards for admissibility set forth in the Rules of Evidence.

Sec. 56. [634.26] [STATISTICAL PROBABILITY EVIDENCE.]

In a civil or criminal trial or hearing, statistical population frequency evidence, based on genetic or blood test results, is admissible to demonstrate the fraction of the population that would have the same combination of genetic markers as was found in a specific human biological specimen. "Genetic marker" means the various blood types or DNA types that an individual may possess.

Sec. 57. [638.025] [COMMUTATION OF LIFE SENTENCE FOR FIRST DEGREE MURDER.]

A person convicted of murder in the first degree and serving a mandatory sentence of life imprisonment without possibility of supervised release may apply to the board of pardons for a commutation of sentence only if the person has served at least 30 years in prison. After considering the person's application under the procedures set forth in this chapter, the board shall either (1) grant the application and commute the person's sentence to a term of years, (2) deny the application, or (3) deny commutation of the person's life imprisonment sentence, but authorize the commissioner of corrections to grant the person supervised release as provided in section 244.05 and the commissioner's rules.

Sec. 58. [SENTENCING GUIDELINES COMMISSION; STUDY OF MANDATORY MINIMUM SENTENCING LAW.]

The sentencing guidelines commission shall study sentencing practices under section 609.11 to determine the following issues:

(1) whether prosecutors are complying with the statute's requirement to place on the record any evidence tending to show that a gun or dangerous weapon was used to commit an offense listed in section 609.11, subdivision 9;

(2) whether courts are complying with the statute's requirement to determine on the record the question of whether a gun or dangerous weapon was used to commit an offense listed in section 609.11, subdivision 9;

(3) the number of cases in which a prosecutor files a motion under section 609.11, subdivision 8, seeking waiver of the mandatory minimum sentence, the reasons given in these cases to support the motion, and the disposition of these motions; and

(4) the number of cases in which the court, on its own motion, sentences a defendant without regard to the mandatory minimum sentence, the reasons given in these cases for the court's departure, and the sentences pronounced by the court.

The commission shall submit a written report to the legislature on or before February 1, 1991, summarizing its findings on this study and recommending any changes necessary to improve the operation of section 609.11.

Sec. 59. [CHILD PROTECTION SYSTEM STUDY COMMISSION.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] A child protection system study commission is created consisting of five members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house and five members of the senate appointed by the senate subcommittee on subcommittees. The commission shall select from its membership a chair or co-chairs and other officers it considers necessary.

Subd. 2. [STUDIES.] The commission shall study:

(1) the current structure and operation of the child protection system at the state and county level;

(2) the current operation of the child abuse reporting act, including whether the reporting act should be expanded to mandate reports of emotional harm and threatened harm, and whether its definitions of physical and sexual abuse should be expanded to include threatened harm;

(3) the ways in which the child protection system can provide more effective intervention and prevention services for sexually aggressive and sexually abused children; and

(4) other ways in which the child protection system and the child abuse reporting act can be improved.

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] The commission shall report to the legislature on its findings and recommendations not later than February 15, 1990, and ceases to function after that date.

Subd. 4. [COMPENSATION.] Members of the commission must be compensated in the same manner as for other legislative meetings.

Sec. 60. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR; REFERENCE CHANGE.]

The revisor of statutes shall change the reference to section 609.55, subdivision 1, in section 609.605, subdivision 1, clause (10), to section 609.52, subdivision 1, clause (10).

Sec. 61. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 609.53, subdivisions 1a, 3, and 3a; and 609.55, are repealed.

Sec. 62. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 20 and 58 are effective June 1, 1989. Sections 2 to 4, 9, 10, 13, 14, 19, 39, 52 to 56, 59, and 60 are effective August 1, 1989. Sections 1, 7, 8, 11, 15 to 18, 22 to 38, 40 to 51, 57 and 61 are effective August 1, 1989, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date. Section 21 is effective August 1, 1989, and applies to crimes committed on or after that date, but a court may consider acts committed before the effective date in determining whether an offender is a danger to public safety under section 21, subdivision 2.

ARTICLE 4

COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM

Section 1. [466A.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 6.

Subd. 2. [ASSISTED HOUSING.] "Assisted housing" means any property used for residential housing that is:

(1) either owned or is under the direct management and control of a housing agency, and is used in a manner authorized and contemplated by sections 469.001 to 469.047;

(2) defined as emergency shelter under section 272.02, clause (12);

(3) transitional housing as defined in section 272.02, clause (19);

(4) classified as class 4c property under section 273.13, subdivision 25, paragraph (c), clause (4);

(5) a qualified low income building that (i) receives a low-income housing credit under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987; or (ii) meets the requirements of that section and construction or rehabilitation of which began prior to May 1, 1988; or

(6) otherwise owned or operated by a governmental unit or nonprofit organization.

Subd. 3. [CITY.] "City" means a city of the first class as defined in section 410.01.

Subd. 4. [CITY COUNCIL.] "City council" means the city council of a city as defined in subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of state planning.

Subd. 6. [COMMUNITY.] "Community" means all or part of a targeted neighborhood.

Subd. 7. [COMMUNITY RESOURCE MONEY.] "Community resource money" means the money designated in the community resources program to be used to implement the community resource program.

Subd. 8. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM.] "Community resources program" or "program" means a community resources program adopted according to section 3.

Subd. 9. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES SERVICES.] "Community resources services" means programs, activities, and services intended to meet the objectives stated in section 3, subdivision 2. Programs, activities, and services may include:

- (1) community planning and organizing efforts;
- (2) employment and training services programs defined in section 256.736, subdivision 1a, clause (d);
- (3) services to residents of assisted housing;
- (4) services to stabilize neighborhoods; or
- (5) services to families and individuals intended to stabilize families and individuals or provide assistance for family needs including services to improve the educational achievement and development of minor family members;
- (6) child care services;
- (7) personal and family counseling;
- (8) health services;
- (9) parenting skills;
- (10) chemical dependency, counseling and treatment services;
- (11) crime prevention services;

- (12) services for victims of crime;
- (13) security services for assisted housing;
- (14) independent living services;
- (15) residential safe houses for teenage youth;
- (18) recreational alternatives for youth;
- (17) programs to facilitate cultural identity and cross cultural understanding;
- (18) efforts to facilitate the deconcentration of residential facilities licensed by the departments of health, human services, and corrections;
- (19) education, summer jobs, and training services for teenage youth; and
- (20) school readiness services relating to educational development screening and health services.

Subd. 10. [COUNTY BOARD.] "County board" means the board of county commissioners of a county containing a city.

Subd. 11. [SCHOOL BOARD.] "School board" means the school board of an independent school district or special school district having a student enrollment of 10,500 or more located wholly or partially within a city.

Subd. 12. [TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD.] "Targeted neighborhood" means an area including one or more census tracts as determined and measured by the Bureau of Census of the United States Department of Commerce that a city council determines by resolution meets the criteria of section 2, subdivision 2, and any additional area designated under section 2.

Sec. 2. [466A.02] [DESIGNATION OF TARGETED NEIGHBORHOODS.]

Subdivision 1. [CITY AUTHORITY.] A city may by resolution designate targeted neighborhoods within its borders after adopting detailed findings that the designated neighborhoods meet the eligibility requirements in subdivision 2 or 3.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR TARGETED NEIGHBORHOODS.] An area within a city is eligible for designation as a targeted neighborhood if the area meets at least two of the following three criteria:

(a) The area had an unemployment rate that was twice the unemployment rate for the Minneapolis and Saint Paul standard metropolitan statistical area as determined by the 1980 federal decennial census.

(b) The median household income in the area was no more than half the median household income for the Minneapolis and Saint Paul standard metropolitan statistical area as determined by the 1980 federal decennial census.

(c) The area is characterized by residential dwelling units in need of substantial rehabilitation. An area qualifies under this clause if 25 percent or more of the residential dwelling units are in substandard condition as determined by the city or 70 percent or more of the residential dwelling units in the area were built before 1940 as determined by the 1980 federal decennial census.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL AREA ELIGIBLE FOR INCLUSION IN TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD.] (a) The city may add to the area designated as a targeted neighborhood under subdivision 2 additional area extending up to four contiguous city blocks in all directions from the designated targeted neighborhood. For the purpose of this subdivision, "city block" has the meaning determined by the city.

(b) The city may add to the area designated as a targeted neighborhood under subdivision 2 an additional area in a contiguous census tract to the targeted neighborhood provided that the city council first finds that the additional area meets at least two of the three criteria of subdivision 2.

Sec. 3. [466A.03] [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM; REQUIREMENT.] A city must prepare an annual comprehensive community resources program that is consistent with the recommendations of targeted neighborhood residents and organizations serving or representing these residents. The program must describe the specific community resource services and means by which the community intends to pursue and implement the program objectives outlined in subdivision 2 for each targeted neighborhood served under the program.

Subd. 2. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM OBJECTIVES.] A community resources program must address the following objectives:

(a) Establish means for stabilizing families so family members can become more functional as a family unit and as members of the community. This objective addresses family stabilization by insuring that children attend and adequately participate in schools providing elementary and secondary education, strengthening the family unit through counseling and other services, and increasing the family unit's health through nutrition, parenting skills, health assessment, drug abuse programs, and other services.

(b) Provide opportunities for families and individuals that lead to greater self-sufficiency through improved housing, health, environment, education, job training, employment, and independent living.

(c) Establish the community as a safer environment by finding the means to reduce crime and the fear of crime in the community and other parts of the city.

(d) Establish means to stabilize the neighborhood or community by building the capacity of the community's neighborhood-based organizations and institutions to build cohesiveness through planning and organizing residents, to provide or ensure the provision of necessary services, and to meet the other program objectives.

Subd. 3. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM; CONTENTS.]

(a) The community resources program must include the following information:

(1) the means to identify families and individuals who need community resources services so that the program objectives identified in subdivision 2 can be met;

(2) the specific activities, programs, or means by which the city intends to pursue and implement the objectives in subdivision 2;

(3) a statement of the intended outcomes to be achieved by implementing the community resources program;

(4) the method to measure the outcomes to be achieved by implementing the community resources program, how the outcomes will be measured both qualitatively and quantitatively, and the estimated time over which they will occur;

(5) identification of the targeted neighborhoods, assisted housing, and other parts of the city that will receive community resources services;

(6) a detailed statement of how the community resources services will be coordinated with similar services being offered by the city, county, school district, state, and other providers;

(7) a description of the process used and the staff services provided to ensure the required community or neighborhood participation in the preparation of the program; and

(8) a budget that identifies the financial resources necessary to implement the community resources program. The budget must include the following items: (i) the estimated total cost to implement the community resources program; (ii) the estimated cost to implement each activity in the community resources program identified in clause (2); and (iii) the estimated amount of financial resources that will be available from all sources other than from the state money allocated under section 5 to implement the community resources program, including the amount of private funding to be made available to assist in funding the community resources program.

(b) The information required to be in the program under this subdivision must be specific to a targeted neighborhood to the greatest extent possible. If information is not specific to a targeted neighborhood that is to receive assistance under the program, the program must include a statement explaining the reason.

Subd. 4. [COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION.] (a) Each city must adopt a process to involve the residents in targeted neighborhoods in planning, developing, and implementing the community resources program. As part of the process, the city must ensure that the community-based process has sufficient resources to assist in the development of the program.

(b) Beginning with the program for 1991, each targeted neighborhood or group of targeted neighborhoods must have a strategic planning group whose members include residents of the targeted neighborhood. Each strategic planning group must be the same group designated for providing recommendations for the development of the urban revitalization action plan. The group must, as part of its responsibilities, develop a strategic plan that must include the activities that the planning group recommends as part of the community resource program. The strategic plan must also address how the community resource program activities will be integrated into a comprehensive approach toward meeting the needs of the neighborhood and its residents, including those activities proposed or included in the urban revitalization action program.

(c) The city must ensure that the strategic planning group required under paragraph (b) is established. An existing group or organization which includes neighborhood residents may be designated by the city as the strategic planning group. The city may provide financial and staff resources to ensure the establishment of the strategic planning groups. The city may use community resource money to assist in the establishment of the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups.

(d) For 1989 and 1990, the process adopted by the city under paragraph (a) shall be used to develop prioritized recommendations for use of community resource program money within each targeted neighborhood. The prioritized recommendations must include the specific neighborhood programs and services that will help achieve the statutory objectives of the programs. After a public hearing is held in each targeted neighborhood to discuss the prioritized recommendations, the prioritized recommendations shall be forwarded to the city for consideration.

(e) For 1991 and subsequent years, as part of the process for the development of the city's community resources program, each targeted neighborhood strategic planning group must develop its prioritized recommendations for the use of community resource program money. The prioritized recommendations must include the specific neighborhood programs and services that will help achieve the objectives of the programs. After a public hearing is held in each targeted neighborhood to discuss the prioritized recommendations, the prioritized recommendations shall be forwarded to the city for consideration.

Subd. 5. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The governing body of a city requesting state financial assistance under section 5 shall establish an advisory committee to assist the city in developing and implementing the city's community resources program. The advisory committee may include city council members, county commissioners, school board members, community service representatives, business community representatives, legislators, and representatives of targeted neighborhoods. If an advisory committee is established by the city, the representatives of targeted neighborhoods must represent a majority of the membership of the advisory committee and reflect the geographic, cultural, racial, and ethnic diversity of the targeted neighborhoods. The city may determine the size of the advisory committee and may designate an existing entity as the advisory committee if the entity meets the membership requirements outlined in this subdivision.

Subd. 6. [REVIEW BY AFFECTED GOVERNMENTAL UNITS.] The city may develop a process to consult with affected governmental units including the state, county, and school districts. These affected governmental units may provide technical and informational assistance to the city to ensure that the community resources program is coordinated with activities and services provided by other governmental units and does not unnecessarily duplicate any existing services.

Subd. 7. [DEVELOPMENT OF PROGRAMS.] The city must develop and draft a preliminary community resources program. In developing the preliminary program for 1989 and 1990, the city of Minneapolis must give priority to the recommendations made through the process established in subdivision 4, paragraph (a). In developing the program for 1991 and subsequent years, the city of Minneapolis must give priority to the recommendations made by the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups.

A city may approve the preliminary community resources program only after holding a public hearing. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhoods not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. In addition, to the maximum extent possible, notice shall be published in the most widely circulated community newspaper in the targeted neighborhoods. After the public hearing and after the city has incorporated any changes into the preliminary program as a result of the public hearing, the city may approve the preliminary program and must submit the approved preliminary program to the city review board.

Subd. 8. [CITY REVIEW BOARD.] (a) Each city shall establish a city review board whose purpose is to review and comment on the preliminary community resources program submitted by the city. The city review board appointed under this subdivision must be the same city review board appointed for the review of the urban revitalization action plan. The city review board shall consist of two city council members who represent targeted neighborhoods appointed by the city council, one county board member appointed by the county board, one school board member appointed by the school board, one for profit or nonprofit housing developer appointed by the city council, one business representative appointed by the city's chamber of commerce, and at least seven representatives of the targeted neighborhoods appointed by the city council. The representatives of the targeted neighborhoods must reflect the geographic, cultural, racial, and ethnic diversity of the targeted neighborhoods. The targeted neighborhoods strategic planning groups may recommend a list of names to the city council for appointment to the city review board. Two members of the house of representatives and one member of the senate appointed by the city's legislative delegation shall be nonvoting members of the city review board. Nonvoting legislative members of the city review board must represent one or more targeted neighborhoods.

(b) The city review board may require the city to contract for temporary staff assistance in reviewing and approving the program. Persons who provide staff assistance to the city review board may not be city employees or in any way involved in a formal or informal organization representing residents of a targeted neighborhood. The city may use state money available under section 5 to pay for the costs of staffing the city review board. The city must make all information requested by the city review board relating to the development of the program available to the city review board.

(c) In reviewing the city's preliminary community resources program, the city review board shall ensure that the following review criteria are satisfied:

(1) the city followed the process required under subdivisions 4 to 7 for developing the community resources program;

(2) the activities to be funded by the program are community resource services that meet the objectives under subdivision 2;

(3) the activities to be funded do not result in duplication of existing services;

(4) the community resources program does not result in undue concentration of community resources program money in a single proposed activity or project; and

(5) in 1991 and subsequent years for the city of Minneapolis only, the activities to be funded are compatible with the prioritized recommendations submitted to the city by the neighborhood strategic planning groups. In 1989 and 1990 programs for the city of Minneapolis only, the activities to be funded are compatible with the prioritized recommendations submitted to the city through the process adopted under subdivision 4, paragraph (a).

The city review board may not reject or require modification of the city's preliminary community resources program unless the city's preliminary program, or process used to develop the program, does not satisfy all of the required review criteria. If the city review board rejects a city's preliminary program for failing to satisfy one or more of the required review criteria, the board must notify the city in writing within 45 days after receiving the preliminary program, stating its basis for determining that one or more of the required review criteria were not satisfied. The city must address the written concerns of the review board before it may resubmit a new preliminary program to the board.

(d) In addition to reviewing the city's community resources program to ensure that it meets the review criteria outlined in paragraph (c), the city review board shall review and comment on the overall quality of the city's preliminary program. In reviewing the 1989 and 1990 programs, the city review board shall compare the city's preliminary program to the prioritized recommendations submitted to the city through the process adopted under subdivision 4, paragraph (a). In reviewing the 1991 and subsequent year programs, the city review board shall compare the city's preliminary program to the prioritized recommendations submitted to the city by the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups. The city review board shall determine if the city gave adequate consideration to the recommendations of the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups.

The city review board may provide comments and recommendations on the overall quality of the city's preliminary program to the city in writing within 45 days after receiving the preliminary program. Except as provided for under paragraph (c), the city review board may not require the city to modify its preliminary program. If the city review board makes recommendations for modifying the city's preliminary program and the city decides not to accept those recommendations, the city may specify in writing the reasons for not accepting the city review board's recommendations.

(e) Within 45 days after receiving the city's preliminary community resources program which satisfies all of the required review criteria outlined in paragraph (c), the city review board shall submit the preliminary program, along with any comments or recommendations, to the city for final certification.

Subd. 9. [PROGRAM CERTIFICATION.] The city council may incorporate the recommendations of the city review board into its community resources program. The city council, after public hearing and by formal resolution, must adopt and certify the community resources program.

Copies of the community resources program must be forwarded to the county board and the school board. The community resources program must be forwarded to the state planning agency for funding. The city must certify to the commissioner that:

(1) the community resources program has been reviewed by the city review board; and

(2) the city review board found that the city's program satisfied the required review criteria outlined in subdivision 8, paragraph (c).

Subd. 10. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM MODIFICATION.] The community resources program may be modified at any time by the city council after review by the city review board and a public hearing. Notice of the public hearing must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. In addition, to the maximum extent possible, notice shall be published in the most widely circulated community newspaper in the targeted neighborhoods. If the city council or city review board determines that the proposed modification is a significant modification to the program originally certified under subdivision 9, it must implement the community resources program approval and certification process of subdivisions 4 to 9 for the proposed modification.

Subd. 11. [STATE EVALUATION OF PROGRAMS.] The state planning agency, in consultation with other appropriate state agencies, shall monitor the planning, development, and implementation of the community resources programs in the cities. The state planning agency shall determine if:

(1) the program development process required by subdivisions 4 to 9 is providing adequate neighborhood participation in the planning, drafting, and implementation of the programs;

(2) the programs are effectively achieving the objective required under subdivision 2 and the objectives outlined in the programs themselves; and

(3) private funding is being used to partially fund the activities established under the programs.

The state planning agency shall provide an interim report to the legislature by January 1, 1990, with a final report of its findings due by January 1, 1991.

Sec. 4. [466A.04] [CITY POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL POWERS.] A city may exercise any of its corporate powers in implementing the community resources program.

Subd. 2. [GRANTS AND LOANS.] In addition to the authority granted by other law, a city, through a request for proposal process, may make grants, loans, and other forms of assistance to, and enter into service contracts with, individuals, for profit and nonprofit corporations, and other organizations to implement a community resources program. The contracts entered into by the city under this subdivision must contain terms concerning use of money, repayment, and other conditions the city deems proper to implement a community resources program.

Subd. 3. [COMMUNITY INITIATIVES PROGRAM.] A city may establish a community initiatives program as part of the community resources program. At least ten percent of the community resource money must be distributed to organizations under the community initiatives program. A community initiatives program, in addition to the authority granted by other law, authorizes a city to set aside funds and to develop a process to request proposals for the purpose of making grants, loans, and other forms of assistance to, or entering into service contracts with, nonprofit organizations, including neighborhood organizations, representing community residents. The organizations may also represent residents from a contiguous neighborhood. Financial assistance or service contracts awarded under this subdivision are limited to $25,000 to any one organization in any one year. State money used for the community initiatives program must be used for implementing activities included in the community resources program. The contracts entered into by the city with a nonprofit organization under this subdivision must contain terms concerning use of money and other conditions the city deems proper to implement a community initiatives program.

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBLE USES FOR COMMUNITY RESOURCE MONEY.] The city may spend community resource money for any purpose authorized by subdivisions 1 to 3 except that an amount equal to at least 90 percent of the state payment according to section 5 made available to the city must be spent in or for residents in targeted neighborhoods or assisted housing. The city may use up to five percent of the community resources money to address the housing needs of low income residents of the city. Use of community resources money must be authorized in a community resources program. If a resident of a targeted neighborhood or assisted housing is a recipient of community resource services and moves to a residence in (i) another part of the city, (ii) another location in the same county, or (iii) a location in an adjacent county located in the state, eligibility continues for the community resources services.

Sec. 5. [466A.05] [PAYMENT; DRAWDOWN; USES OF STATE MONEY.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT OF STATE MONEY.] Upon receiving from a city the certification that a community resources program has been adopted or modified, the commissioner shall, within 30 days after receiving the certification, pay to the city the amount of state money identified as necessary to implement the community resources program or program modification. State money may be paid to the city only to the extent that the appropriation limit for the city specified in subdivision 2 is not exceeded. Once the state money has been paid to the city, it becomes community resource money for use by the city according to an adopted community resources program and subject to the restrictions on its use in sections 1 to 6.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION.] A city may receive a part of the appropriations made available that is the proportion that the population of the city bears to the combined population of the cities. A city may agree to reduce its entitlement amount and to make it available to another city. The population of each city for the purposes of this subdivision is determined according to the most recent estimates available to the commissioner.

Sec. 6. [466A.06] [ANNUAL REPORT.]

A city that begins to implement a community resources program in a calendar year must, by March 1 of the succeeding calendar year, provide a detailed report to the commissioner and legislature on the community resources program or programs being implemented in the city. The report must describe the status of the program implementation and analyze whether the intended outcomes identified in section 3, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (3), are being achieved.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 are effective the day after final enactment."

"ARTICLE 5
EMPLOYEE OWNERSHIP

Section 1. [268A.01] [SHORT TITLE.]

Sections 1 to 5 may be cited as "the employee-owned business act."

Sec. 2. [268A.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] In sections 1 to 5, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [DEPARTMENT.] "Department" means the department of jobs and training.

Subd. 4. [EMPLOYEE-OWNED BUSINESS.] "Employee-owned business" means any one of the following:

(1) a business operation in which at least three-fourths of each class of voting security is owned by at least 50 percent of the employees of the operation or by an employee-owned stock ownership plan in which at least 50 percent of the employees participate in each part of the plan. The operation must be controlled by a board of directors who are selected by the shareholders on the basis of one vote per shareholder or on the basis of one vote per share;

(2) a business operation in which at least three-fourths of each class of voting security is owned by an employee stock ownership trust set up under an employee stock ownership plan as defined in the Internal Revenue Code, United States Code, title 26, section 4975(e)(7), if that employee stock ownership plan requires pass-through of all voting rights possessed by voting securities as the securities are allocated to accounts of individual participants;

(3) a business organized as a worker cooperative; or

(4) a business organized as an industrial cooperative.

If a business operation adopts a plan by which it will become an employee-owned business within five years after the adoption of the plan, it shall be considered an employee-owned business.

Subd. 4. [ESTABLISHMENT.] "Establishment" includes a factory, plant, office, or other facility but does not include a construction site or other workplace that is intended to be a temporary workplace.

Subd. 5. [WORKER OR INDUSTRIAL COOPERATIVE.] "Worker cooperative" or "industrial cooperative" means an establishment in which the owners or members all work in the establishment and are the only persons, other than trial employees, part-time workers, or volunteers who work in the establishment. In a worker cooperative or industrial cooperative, the workers hold the basic ownership or membership rights of the establishment which consist of the voting rights to elect the board of directors, which in turn appoints the management or staff, and the rights to the profits or net income of the establishment. Each worker has an equal vote in accordance with the democratic principle of one person, one vote. The net income, which may be positive or negative, is shared among the workers pursuant to an agreed upon formula.

Sec. 3. [268A.03] [DEPARTMENT OF JOBS AND TRAINING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY.] It is the policy of the state to encourage the formation of employee-owned businesses in order to stabilize local economies, to anchor business activity by increasing and broadening community investments, to increase productivity, and to encourage new capital formation through employee ownership.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF DEPARTMENT.] To assist the development of employee-owned businesses, the department shall do all of the following:

(1) develop, collect, and disseminate information to persons and organizations throughout the state that will assist in undertaking or promoting the establishment and successful operation of employee-owned businesses;

(2) provide technical assistance and counseling services to persons who seek to form an employee-owned business;

(3) provide assistance, counseling, and training in the operation of an employee-owned business;

(4) assist persons in obtaining financing for the purchase and operation of an employee-owned business; and

(5) promote and coordinate the efforts of local, state, federal, and private agencies to assist in the formation or operation of an employee-owned business.

Subd. 3. [RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.] In order to effectuate the purposes of sections 1 to 5, the commissioner shall adopt rules. The commissioner may adopt emergency rules.

Sec. 4. [268.04] [GRANTS TO EMPLOYEE GROUPS.]

The department may make grants to employee groups considering establishing an employee-owned business. The grants may be used for any costs associated with determining the feasibility of establishing an employee-owned business, including, but not limited to, completing necessary economic or feasibility studies and legal and consulting fees. The department shall establish guidelines for determining the eligibility for the grants and the purposes for which the grants may be used.

Sec. 5. [268A.05] [EMPLOYEE-OWNED BUSINESS ADVISORY COUNCIL.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The commissioners shall appoint an employee-owned business advisory council consisting of two representatives of the business community, two representatives of employees, and two representatives of the public. The members must have demonstrated expertise in corporate management, economic development, or investment bond matters. The council shall be governed by section 15.059, except that the council is not subject to section 15.059, subdivision 5.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The council shall serve as a source of expertise and information to employee-owned businesses. The council shall also keep the department informed about problems and matters affecting employee-owned businesses and advise the department upon request with respect to any matters relating to employee-owned businesses.

Sec. 6. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF JOBS AND TRAINING.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of jobs and training the sums indicated in this section for the biennium ending June 30, 1991.

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEE-OWNERSHIP ASSISTANCE.] For the state's obligations under sections 1 to 5, except for the grants provided under section 4, there is appropriated $

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYEE-OWNERSHIP GRANT.] For employee-ownership assistance grants under section 4, there is appropriated

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 6

ASSISTANCE TO EMPLOYEE-OWNED BUSINESSES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 41A.02, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [ELIGIBLE SMALL BUSINESS.] "Eligible small business" means:

(1) an enterprise determined by the board to constitute a small business concern as defined in regulations of the United States Small Business Administration under United States Code, title 15, sections 631 to 647; or

(2) an enterprise eligible to receive assistance under section 41A.036; or

(3) an employee-owned business defined in article 5, section 2, subdivision 4.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 41A.036, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT LOANS; PREFERENCES.] The following eligible small businesses have preference among all business applicants for small business development loans:

(1) businesses located in rural areas of the state that are experiencing the most severe unemployment rates in the state;

(2) businesses that are likely to expand and provide additional permanent employment in rural areas of the state;

(3) businesses located in border communities that experience a competitive disadvantage due to location;

(4) businesses that have been unable to obtain traditional financial assistance due to a disadvantageous location, minority ownership, or other factors rather than due to the business having been considered a poor financial risk;

(5) businesses that utilize state resources and reduce state dependence on outside resources, and that produce products or services consistent with the long-term social and economic needs of the state; and

(6) businesses located in designated enterprise zones, as described in section 273.1312, subdivision 4; and

(7) employee-owned businesses defined in article 5, section 2, subdivision 4, that are seeking financial assistance to purchase or operate existing business entities or establishments that are closing, relocating, or being sold.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 41A.036, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DESIGNATION; CRITERIA.] A revenue-producing enterprise is not eligible to receive special assistance unless the board has passed a resolution designating the revenue-producing enterprise as being in need of special assistance. The resolution must include findings that the designation and receipt of the special assistance will be of exceptional benefit to the state of Minnesota in that at least three of the following criteria are met:

(1) to expand or remain in Minnesota, the revenue-producing enterprise has demonstrated that it cannot obtain suitable financing from other sources;

(2) special assistance will enable a revenue-producing enterprise not currently located in Minnesota to locate a facility in Minnesota that directly increases the number of jobs in the state;

(3) the revenue-producing enterprise will create or retain significant numbers of jobs in a Minnesota community;

(4) the revenue-producing enterprise has a significant potential for growth in jobs or economic activities in Minnesota during the ensuing five-year period; and

(5) the revenue-producing enterprise will maintain a significant level of productivity in Minnesota during the ensuing five-year period.

An employee-owned business, defined in article 5, section 2, subdivision 4, that is seeking financial assistance to purchase or operate an existing business entity or establishment, which is closing, relocating, or being sold, is eligible to receive special assistance under subdivision 4.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116J.873, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATION.] Economic recovery grants shall be made available to local communities and recognized Indian tribal governments in accordance with the rules adopted for economic development grants in the small cities community development block grant programs, except that all units of general purpose local government are eligible applicants for economic recovery grants. The commissioner of trade and economic development shall administer the economic recovery grant program as a part of the small cities development program.

Economic recovery grants may be made available to employee-owned businesses, defined in article 5, section 2, subdivision 4, that are seeking financial assistance to purchase or operate existing business entities or establishments that are closing, relocating, or being sold.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116N.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [EMPLOYEE-OWNED BUSINESS.] A loan under the challenge grant program may be made to an employee-owned business, defined in article 5, section 2, subdivision 4, that is seeking financial assistance to purchase or operate an existing business entity or establishment that is closing, relocating, or being sold.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 7

SEVERABILITY

Section 1. [SEVERABILITY.]

In the event that any provision of this act is determined by court decision to be invalid, the legislature intends for all remaining provisions to be severable and enforced without regard to the provision that was determined to be invalid.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 11, after the semicolon insert "providing assistance to employee-owned businesses;" and after "sections" insert "41A.02, subdivision 16; 41A.036, subdivisions 2 and 5,"

Page 1, line 13, after the first semicolon insert "116J.873, subdivision 1; and 116N.08, by adding a subdivision;"

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Taxes.

The report was adopted.

		$221,308,000		$215,083,000

The commissioner of transportation shall notify the chair of the senate finance committee and chair of the house appropriations committee promptly of any events that should cause these estimates to change.

This appropriation is for the actual construction, reconstruction, and improvement of trunk highways. This includes the cost of actual payment to land owners for lands acquired for highway right-of-way, payment to lessees, interest subsidies, and relocation expenses.

(b) County State Aids

$240,115,000 $247,544,000

This appropriation is from the county state-aid highway fund and is available until spent.

(c) Municipal State Aids

$77,640,000 $79,915,000

This appropriation is from the municipal state-aid street fund and is available until spent.

If an appropriation for either county state aids or municipal state aids does not exhaust the balance in the fund from which it is made in the year for which it is made, the commissioner of finance, upon request of the commissioner of transportation, shall notify the committee on finance of the senate and the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives of the amount of the remainder and shall then add that amount to the appropriation. The amount added is appropriated for the purposes of county state $10,000 the first year and $10,000 the second year are for the International Water Coalition.

$978,000 the first year and $978,000 the second year are for general purpose grants to soil and water conservation districts, including conservation tillage and review and comment on water permits. On approval of the board, expenditures may be made from these appropriations for supplies and services benefiting soil and water conservation districts.

$199,000 the first year and $199,000 the second year are for grants to watershed districts and other local units of government in the southern Minnesota river basin study area 2 for flood plain management.

$1,501,000 the first year and $1,501,000 the second year are for grants to soil and water conservation districts for cost-sharing contracts for erosion control and water quality management.

The appropriations in this section for the southern Minnesota river basin study area 2 and for grants to soil and water districts for cost-sharing contracts for erosion control and water quality management are available until expended.

$159,000 the first year and $159,000 the second year are for grants-in-aid to soil and water conservation districts and local units of government to assist them in solving sediment and erosion control problems. Grants must not exceed 50 percent of total project costs or

$ 1990 $ 1991

50 percent of the local share if federal money is used. Priority must be given to projects designed to solve lakeshore, stream bank, and roadside erosion and to projects eligible for federal matching money.

$65,000 the first year and $365,000 the second year are for a well sealing cost-share program.

$1,404,000 the first year and $2,125,000 the second year are for increased local water resources protection and management.

$902,000 the first year and $902,000 the second year are for technical services and implementation of the conservation reserve program. Of this appropriation, $750,000 the first year and $750,000 the second year must be distributed to soil and water conservation districts.

Sec. 21. MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Subdivision 1. Total Appropriation	11,239,000	11,707,000
------------------------------------	------------	------------

The amounts that may be spent from this appropriation for each program are specified in the following subdivisions.

The amounts shown in subdivisions 2 to 5 are reduced by $93,000 the first year and $92,000 the second year from the general fund. Reductions must be made from appropriations that will not reduce revenue to the general fund.

This appropriation includes funds to continue the copying and cataloguing of Hubert H. Humphrey Film Archives material as determined by the society.

The society shall cooperate with the supreme court to ensure that the marble fountain which occupied space in the former mechanic arts high school building is installed in the judicial building, using funds included in the supreme court appropriation for this purpose.

The appropriation in subdivisions 2 to 6 includes no money for compensation increases. The Minnesota historical society is eligible for a salary supplement in the same manner as state agencies. The commissioner of finance will determine the amount of the salary supplement based on available appropriations. Employees of the Minnesota historical society will be paid in accordance with the appropriate pay plan.

Any unencumbered balance remaining in this section at the end of the first year does not cancel but is available for the second year.

Subd. 2. Minnesota Historical Society Operations	6,681,000	6,681,000
Subd. 3. Historic Site Operations	3,188,000	3,188,000
Subd. 4. State History Center	279,000	841,000

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, unencumbered balances from appropriations in Minnesota Session Laws 1983, chapter 344, section 13, are reappropriated to the Minnesota historical society for the state history center building and exhibit construction purposes. The Minnesota historical society shall report to the chair of the senate committee on finance and the chair of the house of representatives committee on appropriations on expenditures made under this subdivision. The purpose of the reappropriation is to eration with the Sibley House association.

This appropriation is available for operation and maintenance of the Sibley House and related buildings on the Old Mendota state historic site owned by the Sibley House association.

The historical society should seek an agreement with the Sibley House association whereby the historical society will make payments to the association for this purpose and will provide the association with technical assistance in applying for federal grants.

Notwithstanding any other law, the Sibley House association may purchase fire, wind, hail, and vandalism insurance, and insurance coverage for fine art objects from this appropriation.

The Minnesota historical society shall conduct an interim study during the 1990-1991 biennium relating to the ownership and management of the Sibley historic site properties, which include the Sibley, Faribault, and Du Puis houses, for the purpose of transferring these properties to the state of Minnesota for inclusion in the state's historic site network. The study must include, but is not limited to, ownership, management, and governance structure of the site; funding needed to repair and restore the site; restoration priorities; funding needed to operate the site; and ownership of the collections. The study must contain joint recommendations of the society and the Sibley House association regarding these issues, and a recommendation on when the site should be turned over to the state. The society shall report the findings to the governor and the legislature by July 1, 1990.

Sec. 30. TORT CLAIMS	600,000	600,000
----------------------	---------	---------

To be spent by the commissioner of finance.

This appropriation is from the trunk highway fund.

If the appropriation for either year is insufficient, the appropriation for the other year is available for it.

Sec. 31. [COMMISSIONER TO ACT AS AGENT.]

The commissioner of transportation is authorized and directed to act as agent for the Bois Fort Indian Reservation in the use of federal demonstration funds and state matching funds for the design and construction of a proposed highway project in the Lake Vermilion Indian Reservation Recreational Complex as authorized in the Surface Transportation and Uniform Relocation Assistance Act of 1987, Public Law Number 100-17.

Sec. 32. [SPECIAL GREAT RIVER ROAD ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [ACCOUNT CREATED.] There is created in the state treasury a special Great River Road account, consisting of money credited under subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNT FUNDED.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 297B.09 or other law, in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1990, the first $750,000 that would otherwise be credited to the highway user tax distribution fund under Minnesota Statutes, section 297B.09, must be set aside and credited to the special Great River Road account created in subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [DISTRIBUTION OF ACCOUNT.] The commissioner shall distribute money in the special Great River Road account and provide for distribution of money in the fund for the development of the Great River Road established under Minnesota Statutes, section 161.142. In providing assistance to any political subdivision, the commissioner shall follow the general policy of the Mississippi River parkway commission and shall give principal consideration on how the project would promote public safety, recreation, travel, trade, and the general welfare of the state. Priority should be given to new construction of the Great River Road system, to projects that provide local or federal matching assistance, and to projects for which highway user tax distribution funds are not available.

Subd. 4. [TERMINATION OF ACCOUNT.] The account created in subdivision 1, expires June 30, 1991. The state treasurer shall credit all undistributed money in the account on that date to the highway user tax distribution fund.

Subd. 5. [REPEALER.] This section is repealed effective July 1, 1991.

Sec. 33. [TRUNK HIGHWAY SYSTEM; REMOVAL OF ROUTE NO. 249.]

Subdivision 1. [ROUTE DISCONTINUED.] Legislative Route No. 249 as contained and described in Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 161.115, is discontinued and removed from the trunk highway system.

Subd. 2. [AGREEMENT REQUIRED.] Legislative Route No. 249 is not removed from the trunk highway system until transfer of jurisdiction has been agreed to by the commissioner of transportation and Houston county and a copy of the agreement, signed by the commissioner and chair of the Houston county board, has been filed in the office of the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [REVISOR INSTRUCTION.] The revisor of statutes shall delete the route identified in subdivision 1 in the next and subsequent editions of Minnesota Statutes following the completion of the agreement.

Subd. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] This section is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 34. [CONSTRUCTION OF EXIT ON T.H. 65.]

The commissioner of transportation shall construct by January 1, 1990, an exit from marked trunk highway No. 65 in Anoka county, within one-fourth mile of the intersection of the highway with marked trunk highway No. 242 and Anoka county highway No. 14, under the following conditions:

(1) the exit has been studied and approved for safety purposes by a qualified consultant;

(2) the exit must be constructed to state standards;

(3) the cost of the project must be paid by Anoka county; and

(4) the exit will be removed at no cost to the state if necessitated by a reconstruction of the intersection of marked trunk highway No. 65 with marked trunk highway No. 242 and Anoka county highway No. 14.

Sec. 35. [EXCHANGE OF INTERESTS IN LANDS.]

(a) The commissioner of transportation shall convey to the regional railroad authority of St. Louis and Lake counties a 25-foot wide easement for railroad purposes lying generally southerly and southeasterly of the northbound lane of marked interstate highway 35 between 10th Avenue West and 5th Avenue East in Duluth. The easement must include two spur lines in the vicinity of the Duluth steam plant and a crossover connection, approximately 1,000 feet in length, in the vicinity of 9th Avenue West. This crossover connection is intended to allow a reconnection of railroad track with the Lake Superior Museum of Transportation. The commissioner shall also convey easements necessary to provide a continuous 25-foot wide easement for railroad purposes lying generally southeasterly and easterly of the northbound lane of marked interstate highway 35 between 14th Avenue East and 26th Avenue East in Duluth. The commissioner of transportation shall maintain a temporary construction easement as required to complete the marked interstate highway 35 extension, provided the easement does not interfere with operation of the railroad after June 1, 1990.

As consideration, the St. Louis and Lake counties regional railroad authority shall grant to either the department of transportation or the department of natural resources an option to establish an easement for a multiuse recreation trail along the regional rail authority-owned railway right-of-way between the municipalities of Duluth and Two Harbors. This easement must begin at a point east of the Lester River (Milepost 8) and shall continue to the Two Harbors Depot (Milepost 26.5).

The conveyances of the exchanged properties must be in a form approved by the attorney general. The regional rail authority and commissioner of transportation shall provide complete and accurate property descriptions of the lands to be exchanged.

The rail authority retains the right to determine where on their right-of-way this easement may be granted and may impose restrictions or alterations if it determines that the recreational trail interferes with the operation of the railroad right-of-way or any of its revenue-related uses.

This easement is conveyed exclusively to the regional railroad authority and is terminated if the line is abandoned.

(b) This section is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 12.14, is amended to read:

12.14 [ASSESSMENT FOR NUCLEAR SAFETY PREPAREDNESS ACT.]

Any person, firm, corporation, or association in the business of owning or operating a nuclear fission electrical generating plant located in Minnesota, shall pay an assessment to cover the cost of nuclear power plant emergency response plans and other programs necessary to deal with incidents resulting from the operation of nuclear fission electrical generating plants. An assessment of ~~$137,500~~ $177,500 per plant shall be paid to the commissioner of public safety on July 1 of each year.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [UNCLASSIFIED POSITIONS.] Unclassified positions are held by employees who are:

- (a) chosen by election or appointed to fill an elective office;

(9) enter into contracts or agreements with a federal or state agency, individual, business entity, or other organization;

(10) acquire and dispose of real property or an interest in real property;

(11) purchase insurance;

(12) spend money appropriated to it for its purposes, including expenditures for the food, lodging, and travel of consultants and speakers hired by the board, and for publications, advertising, and promotional activities; and

(13) hold and maintain membership for the Minnesota world trade center in the world trade centers association; and

(14) utilize the established network of world trade centers in the world trade centers association as the official foreign trade offices of the state of Minnesota, and enter into contracts or other agreements, including agreements to establish and maintain offices and other types of representation in foreign countries to promote international trade and attract investment from foreign countries.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 44A.023, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [FISCAL AGENT.] The board shall contract with the commissioner of agriculture to have the department of agriculture act as fiscal agent for the corporation, handling all payroll and financial transactions, financial accounting, and deposits into and expenditures from the World Trade Center Corporation fund.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116J.966, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] (a) The commissioner shall promote, develop, and facilitate trade and foreign investment in Minnesota. In furtherance of these goals, and in addition to the powers granted by section 116J.035, the commissioner may:

(1) locate, develop, and promote international markets for Minnesota products and services;

(2) arrange and lead trade missions, utilizing the established network of world trade centers in the world trade centers association, to countries with promising international markets for Minnesota goods, technology, services, and agricultural products;

(3) promote Minnesota products and services at domestic and international trade shows;

(4) organize, promote, and present domestic and international trade shows featuring Minnesota products and services;

(5) host trade delegations and assist foreign traders in contacting appropriate Minnesota businesses and investments;

(6) develop contacts with Minnesota businesses and gather and provide information to assist them in locating and communicating with international trading or joint venture counterparts;

(7) provide information, education, and counseling services to Minnesota businesses regarding the economic, commercial, legal, and cultural contexts of international trade;

(8) provide Minnesota businesses with international trade leads and information about the availability and sources of services relating to international trade, such as export financing, licensing, freight forwarding, international advertising, translation, and custom brokering;

(9) locate, attract, and promote foreign investment and business development in Minnesota to enhance employment opportunities in Minnesota;

(10) provide foreign businesses and investors desiring to locate facilities in Minnesota information regarding sources of governmental, legal, real estate, financial, and business services;

(11) undertake activities to support the world trade center; and

(12) enter into contracts or other agreements with private persons and public entities, ~~including agreements to establish and maintain offices and other types of representation in foreign countries,~~ to carry out the purposes of promoting international trade and attracting investment from foreign countries to Minnesota and to carry out this section, without regard to sections 16B.07 and 16B.09; and

(13) utilize the Minnesota world trade center corporation's established network of world trade centers in the world trade centers association, in fulfilling Minnesota's foreign trade office and staffing needs.

(b) The programs and activities of the commissioner of trade and economic development and the Minnesota trade division may not duplicate programs and activities of the commissioner of agriculture or the Minnesota world trade center corporation.

(e) The commissioner shall notify the chairs of the senate finance and house appropriations committees of each agreement under this subdivision to establish and maintain an office or other type of representation in a foreign country.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 168.33, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [POWERS.] The registrar shall have the power to appoint, hire and discharge and fix the compensation of the necessary employees, in the manner provided by law, as may be required to enable the registrar to properly carry out the duties imposed by the provisions of this chapter. As of April 14, 1976, the registrar may appoint, and for cause discontinue, a deputy registrar for any city as the public interest and convenience may require, without regard to whether the county auditor of the county in which the city is situated has been appointed as the deputy registrar for the county or has been discontinued as the deputy registrar for the county, and without regard to whether the county in which the city is situated has established a county license bureau which issues motor vehicle licenses as provided in section 373.32.

Effective August 1, 1976, the registrar may appoint, and for cause discontinue, a deputy registrar for any city as the public interest and convenience may require, if the auditor for the county in which the city is situated chooses not to accept appointment as the deputy registrar for the county or is discontinued as a deputy registrar, or if the county in which the city is situated has not established a county license bureau which issues motor vehicle license as provided in section 373.32. Any person appointed by the registrar as a deputy registrar for any city shall be a resident of the county in which the city is situated.

The registrar may appoint, and for cause discontinue, the county auditor of each county as a deputy registrar. Upon approval of the county board, the auditor, with the approval of the director of motor vehicles, may appoint, and for cause discontinue, the clerk or equivalent officer of each city or any other person as a deputy registrar as public interest and convenience may require, regardless of the appointee's county of residence. Notwithstanding any other provision, a person other than a county auditor or a director of a county license bureau, who was appointed by the registrar before August 1, 1976, as a deputy registrar for any city, may continue to serve as deputy registrar and may be discontinued for cause only by the registrar. The county auditor who appointed the deputy registrars shall be responsible for the acts of deputy registrars appointed by the auditor. Each such deputy, before entering upon the discharge of duties, shall take and subscribe an oath to faithfully discharge the duties and to uphold the laws of the state. If a deputy registrar appointed hereunder is not an officer or employee of a county or city, such deputy shall in addition give bond to the state in the sum of $10,000, or such larger sum as may be required by the registrar, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of duties as deputy registrar. A corporation governed by chapter 302A may be appointed a deputy registrar. Upon application by an individual serving as a deputy registrar and the giving of the requisite bond as provided in subdivision 2, personally assured by the individual or another individual approved by the commissioner of public safety, a corporation named in an application shall become the duly appointed and qualified successor to the deputy registrar. Each deputy registrar appointed hereunder shall keep and maintain, in a convenient public place within or in close proximity to the place for which appointed, a registration and motor vehicle tax collection bureau, to be approved by the registrar, for the registration of motor vehicles and the collection of motor vehicle taxes thereon. The deputy registrar shall keep such records and make such reports to the registrar as that officer, from time to time, may require. Such records shall be maintained at the facility of the deputy registrar. The records and facilities of the deputy registrar shall at all times be open to the inspection of the registrar or the registrar's agents. The deputy registrar shall report to the registrar by the next working day following receipt all registrations made and taxes and fees collected by the deputy registrar. The filing fee imposed pursuant to subdivision 7 shall be deposited in the treasury of the place for which appointed, or if not a public official, such deputy shall retain the filing fee, but the registration tax and any additional fees for delayed registration the deputy registrar has collected the deputy registrar shall deposit by the next working day following receipt in an approved state depository to the credit of the state through the state treasurer. The place for which the deputy registrar is appointed through its governing body shall provide the deputy registrar with facilities and personnel to carry out the duties imposed by this subdivision if such deputy is a public official. In all other cases, the deputy shall maintain a suitable facility for serving the public.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 168.33, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FEES.] In addition to all other statutory fees and taxes, a filing fee of ~~$3.25~~ $3.75 is imposed on every application; except that a filing fee may not be charged for a document returned for a refund or for a correction of an error made by the department or a deputy registrar. The filing fee shall be shown as a separate item on all registration renewal notices sent out by the department of public safety. No filing fee or other fee may be charged for the permanent surrender of a certificate of title and license plates for a motor vehicle.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 173.25, is amended to read:

173.25 [AVAILABILITY OF FEDERAL AID.]

The commissioner of transportation shall not expend money for the acquisition of advertising devices controlled under this chapter, except those for which acquisition proceedings were begun before June 8, 1979 or for which federal money has been appropriated by Congress and the federal share has been made available to the commissioner. No advertising device legal under Laws 1971, chapter 883, shall be required to be removed or relocated until payment as provided in Laws 1971, chapter 883, is tendered by the commissioner of transportation. No further state funds shall be used for any existing or proposed acquisitions other than those funds necessary to obtain full federal participation in the acquisition proceeding pursuant to United States Code, title 23, "Highways."

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 237.30, is amended to read:

237.30 [TELEPHONE INVESTIGATION REVOLVING FUND.]

The sum of $25,000 is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to establish and provide a revolving fund to be known as the Minnesota Telephone Investigation Fund for the use of the department of public service and of the attorney general in investigations, valuations, and revaluations under section 237.295. All sums paid by the telephone companies to reimburse the department of public service for its expenses pursuant to section 237.295 shall be credited to the revolving fund and shall be deposited in a separate bank account and not commingled with any other state funds or moneys, but any balance in excess of $25,000 in the revolving fund at the end of each fiscal year shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund. The sum of $25,000 herein appropriated and all subsequent credits to said revolving fund shall be paid upon the warrant of the commissioner of finance upon application of the department or of the attorney general to an aggregate amount of not more than one-half of such sums to each of them, which proportion shall be constantly maintained in all credits and withdrawals from the revolving fund.

Sec. 45. [299C.23] [CONTINUING EDUCATION FEES; APPROPRIATED.]

The commissioner of public safety may charge tuition to cover the cost of continuing education courses provided by the bureau of criminal apprehension when money available to the commissioner for this purpose is not adequate to pay these costs. The tuition fees collected are appropriated to the commissioner.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.165, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PRACTICE OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTING.] The "practice of public accounting" is: (a) holding one's self out to the public as skilled in the knowledge and practice of accounting; or (b) expressing any form of assurance on financial statements; or (c) expressing opinions on financial statements for credit purposes, for use in courts and for other purposes involving third parties. "Practice of public accounting" means the performance or the offering to perform by a person or firm holding itself out to the public as a licensee, for a client or potential client, of one or more kinds of services involving the use of accounting or auditing skills, including the issuance of reports on financial statements, or of one or more kinds of management advisory or consulting services, or the preparation of tax returns or the furnishing of advice on tax matters.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 341.10, is amended to read:

341.10 [LICENSE FEES.]

The board shall have authority to collect and require the payment of a license fee in an amount set by the board from the owners of franchises or licenses. The board shall require the payment of the fee at the time of the issuance of the license or franchise to the owner. The moneys so derived shall be collected by the board and paid to the state treasurer. The board shall have authority to license all boxers, managers, seconds, referees and judges and may require them to pay a license fee. All moneys collected by the board from such licenses shall be paid to the state treasurer. The board is exempt from the requirements of section 16A.128, subdivision 1a.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 373.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The county auditor shall serve as the director of the county license bureau or, if the auditor chooses not to serve, the county board shall appoint any other county officer or employee, or any other person, to serve as the director upon the terms and conditions the county board deems advisable. The county board shall set the compensation of the director and may provide for the expenses of the office including the premium of any bond required to be furnished by the director. The director shall have the powers and duties imposed on the county officer who previously had the authority to issue or process the application for any license referred to in section 373.32.

Notwithstanding section 168.33, subdivision 2, the commissioner of public safety may appoint, and for cause discontinue, the director as the deputy registrar of motor vehicles in the county. If appointed a deputy registrar the director shall have the same authority as a county auditor to appoint one or more deputy registrars as provided in section 168.33, subdivision 2. If the director is a deputy registrar, all provisions of section 168.33 and Minnesota Rules, chapter 7406, apply to a county license bureau.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 505.1792, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. In order to give supplemental information to the public as to the location of streets, county roads, county state-aid highways, and town roads, and other transportation corridors, and the right of way thereof, the governing body of any city, town, or county may file for record in the office of the county recorder and the registrar of titles of said county such maps or plats showing such information as the governing body shall determine necessary. The map or plat shall be subscribed by the mayor or chair of the governing body and the county surveyor, together with a certified copy of the resolution of the governing body setting forth the necessity for said plat, and shall be entitled to record without compliance with the provisions of this chapter. Any amendments, alterations, or vacations of such maps or plats so filed may be entitled to record in like manner."

89.72 [COUNTY FOREST ACCESS ROAD ACCOUNT.]

(a) There is created in the state treasury a county forest access road account in the special revenue fund, consisting of money credited under section 296.421, subdivision 8. Money in the county forest access road account is appropriated to the commissioner for distribution to counties managing forest lands administered through a county land department under the jurisdiction of a land commissioner appointed under section 282.13. The payments must be made by July 15 and January 15 of each year through the commissioner and in proportion to each county's ownership of commercial forest lands, for purposes of constructing, reconstructing, acquiring, and maintaining county management access roads, including the acquisition of rights-of-way or easements as may be needed.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), the commissioner shall distribute the first $40,000 in money credited to the county forest access road account after July 1, 1989, to the town board of Minneiska township for the purpose of improving a town road which provides access to a state-operated public launching site on the Mississippi River."

A copy of the assessment must be provided to the commission. The board may enter into the contract only if it determines that the service to be assisted under the contract will not impose an undue hardship on the ridership or financial condition of the commission, or cause the dismissal of persons that are employed by the commission. The requirements of this subdivision do not apply to contracts for assistance to recipients who, as part of a negotiated cost-sharing arrangement with the board, pay a substantial part of the cost of services that directly benefit the recipient as an institution or organization."

CALL OF THE HOUSE LIFTED

McLaughlin moved that the call of the House be dispensed with. The motion prevailed and it was so ordered.

Otis was excused between the hours of 2:45 p.m. and 6:50 p.m.

CONSIDERATION UNDER RULE 1.10

Pursuant to rule 1.10, Anderson, G., requested immediate consideration of H. F. No. 1759.

H. F. No. 1759 was reported to the House.

POINT OF ORDER

Miller raised a point of order pursuant to section 121, paragraph 1, of "Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure" relating to breaches of the order of the House. Speaker pro tempore Quinn ruled the point of order not well taken.

Frerichs moved to amend H. F. No. 1759, as follows:

Adjust totals accordingly

Page 299, line 10, after "home" insert "and for rate years beginning July 1, 1989, and July 1, 1990, the commissioner shall include workers' compensation insurance costs, provided the nursing home submits by April 5 a copy of its actual invoice for workers' compensation insurance for coverage which most nearly approximates the nursing home's rate year. The commissioner shall substitute the amount of the annual actual workers' compensation insurance premium for the amount of workers' compensation insurance reported on the cost report at an amount that is the lesser of the actual workers' compensation insurance premium submitted or 120 percent of workers' compensation insurance reported on the cost report. If the actual invoice for workers' compensation insurance is not provided by April 5, the commissioner shall disallow the nursing home's workers' compensation insurance. The disallowance shall remain in effect until the nursing home provides the actual invoice for workers' compensation insurance and amends its cost report as provided in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0041, subpart 14. Upon receipt of that invoice, the commissioner shall adjust the nursing home's payment rate accordingly."

"Sec. . . . Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 252.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [RATES FOR DAY TRAINING AND HABILITATION; SALARY ADJUSTMENT.] For the 12-month contract period beginning January 1, 1990, the county must recommend payment rates for day training and habilitation services for approval by the commissioner that are adjusted according to clauses (1) and (2). To be eligible for the adjustment in payment rates, the county shall require a written affidavit signed by the vendor. The affidavit must include assurances that the entire amount paid under this provision shall be used for equitable increases for employee salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits included in clause (1). That portion of the payment rate increase attributable to compliance with this subdivision and recommended for approval to the commissioner under subdivision 5, is exempt from the limits in subdivision 3. The county shall determine the salary adjustment on payment rates by:

(1) multiplying each vendor's eligible salary expenses, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits for calendar year 1989 by three and one-half percent in addition to the annual cost-of-living increase recommended under subdivision 3; and

(2) then dividing the amount in clause (1) by the total number of service units projected to be provided for the contract period.

Counties that contract for salary increases under this subdivision shall monitor expenditures according to section 252.44 and shall report the actual salary expenses and annual salary increases of vendors to the department on forms prescribed by the commissioner. This subdivision does not apply to state-operated services."

"Sec. . . . Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [RATES FOR INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR RELATED CONDITIONS; SALARY ADJUSTMENT.] For the rate period January 1, 1990, to September 30, 1991, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem calculated in clauses (1) and (2) to the total operating cost payment rate of each eligible facility. For a facility to be eligible for a salary adjustment per diem, the commissioner shall require a written affidavit signed by the provider of each facility. The affidavit must include assurances that at least 50 percent of the amount of the increase resulting from the application of the statewide composite index for the rate year beginning October 1, 1989, and the entire amount paid under this provision, shall be used for equitable increases to facility employee salaries, fringe benefits, and payroll taxes included in clause (1). Facilities with rates governed by section 252.292 or Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0075, or which are newly developed or established with payment rates effective on or after July 1, 1989, are not eligible for payments under this subdivision. The commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem by:

(1) multiplying each eligible facility's total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed after desk audit in each operating cost category, for the reporting year ending December 31, 1988, by three and one-half percent; and

(2) then dividing the amount in clause (1) by the facility's resident days."

"[WAGE DISPARITY ADJUSTMENT PER DIEM; 1988-1990.] For the rate period October 1, 1989, to June 30, 1991, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem calculated under clauses (1) to (3) to the total operating cost payment rate of each nursing home. The salary adjustment per diem for each nursing home must be determined as follows:

(1) All nursing homes must be grouped according to Minnesota hospital association districts as indicated in the Minnesota salary survey of hospitals and nursing homes for 1988 as published by the department of jobs and training. The percentage adjustment is determined according to the percentage disparity that exists between the care-related salaries of hospital employees and nursing home employees in each district. For this purpose the disparity is determined as follows:

(i) The median hourly wage for staff nurses, licensed practical nurses, and nurse assistants employed in nursing homes in each district is combined on a district basis. A corresponding value is determined for hospitals in each district.

(ii) The value determined in subclause (i) for hospital employees is divided by the corresponding value for the nursing home wages determined in subclause (i). The resulting value is the wage disparity for each district.

(iii) Nursing homes with disparity values of greater than one but less than or equal to 1.1 will receive a one percent adjustment. Nursing homes with a disparity value of greater than 1.1 but less than or equal to 1.2 will receive a two percent adjustment. Nursing homes with a disparity value of greater than 1.2 will receive a three percent adjustment.

(2) For each nursing home that reports salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, and aides, orderlies and attendants separately, the commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem by multiplying the total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed in each operating cost category, except management fees and administrator and central office salaries and the related payroll taxes and fringe benefits, by the appropriate percentage determined under clause (1) and then dividing the resulting amount by the nursing home's actual resident days.

(3) For each nursing home that does not report salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, aides, orderlies, and attendants separately, the salary adjustment per diem is the weighted average salary adjustment per diem increase determined under clause (2) for the district in which the nursing home is located.

Each nursing home that receives a salary adjustment per diem pursuant to this clause must adjust nursing home employee salaries by a minimum of the amount determined under clauses (1) to (3). The commissioner shall review allowable salary costs, including payroll taxes and fringe benefits, for the reporting year ending September 30, 1990, to determine whether or not each nursing home complied with this requirement. The commissioner shall report the extent to which each nursing home complied with the legislative commission on long-term care by August 1, 1991.

Until January 1, 1990, the state shall pay any increased cost to the counties resulting from implementation of the wage disparity adjustment."

"Sec. 16. [252.501] [SERVICES FOR DEVELOPMENTALLY DISABLED PERSONS AT REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTERS.]

Subdivision 1. [CRISIS SERVICES.] Within the limits of the appropriation, technical assistance shall be available at regional treatment centers to assist counties, residential and day programming staff, and families to prevent or resolve crises that could lead to a shift in placement.

Technical assistance and consultation shall also be available in each region to providers and counties. Staff will be available to provide:

- (1) individual assessments;
- (2) program plan development and implementation assistance;
- (3) analysis of service delivery problems; and
- (4) assistance with transition planning, including technical assistance to counties and providers to develop new services, site such services, and assist with community acceptance.

By 1995, the commissioner shall develop crisis units to be operated in conjunction with the regional technical assistance services. Crisis units, not to exceed four beds per unit, shall be developed at the regional treatment centers at Cambridge, Fergus Falls, Moose Lake, Willmar, and Faribault. These services will be available within the limits of the appropriation, when assistance at home is not possible or has failed.

Subd. 2. [REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTERS.] (a) The regional treatment centers shall provide services for persons for whom appropriate community services have not yet been identified or developed including:

(1) persons with developmental disabilities who are mentally ill;

(2) persons with developmental disabilities with such medical fragility that skilled nursing is needed; and

(3) persons with severe aggressive behavior who are self-injurious or who place others at risk.

(b) By June 1993, the commissioner shall reduce the population of the regional treatment centers to the following levels:

(1) For persons who are medically fragile, up to 60 beds will be maintained at the Faribault regional center.

(2) For persons who are mentally retarded and mentally ill, up to 35 beds will be maintained at the St. Peter regional treatment center.

(c) The commissioner shall also maintain services for an additional 100 persons at Faribault regional center for whom adequate services could not be planned and implemented by June, 1993. This group of 100 people shall be moved into community placements as appropriate services are developed, with a goal of placing all of them by July 1, 1995.

(d) The commissioner shall maintain two 15-bed residential units at Willmar regional treatment center for persons with developmental disabilities and shall plan to move the remaining residential and habilitation services for persons with developmental disabilities from that facility to the community, by June 30, 1991.

(e) The commissioner shall plan to move residential and habilitation services for persons with developmental disabilities at Moose Lake regional treatment center to community-based services by June 30, 1991.

(f) The commissioner shall plan to move residential and habilitation services for persons with developmental disabilities at the regional centers at Cambridge and Brainerd to community-based services by June 30, 1992, and by that date, all persons with developmental disabilities at St. Peter regional center who are not dually diagnosed as mentally ill and mentally retarded will be discharged.

(g) The commissioner shall maintain one 15-bed residential unit for persons with developmental disabilities at the Fergus Falls regional treatment center and shall plan to move the remaining residential and habilitation services for persons with developmental disabilities from that facility to the community by June 30, 1992.

(h) The commissioner shall reassess the objectives and dates detailed in this subdivision as part of each biennial budget planning.

(i) No person will be discharged before an appropriate community placement is available.

Subd. 3. [SPIRITUAL CARE SERVICES.] An organized means for providing spiritual care services and follow-up shall be established as part of the comprehensive health care, congruent with the operational philosophy of the department of human services, to clients of residential group homes including residents of regional treatment centers discharged to private facilities, by persons certified for ministry in specialized settings.

Subd. 4. [EVALUATION OF COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICES DEVELOPMENT.] The commissioner shall develop an integrated approach to assessing and improving the quality of community-based services for persons with developmental disabilities.

The commissioner shall evaluate the progress of the development and quality of community-based services to determine if further development can proceed. The commissioner shall report results of the evaluation to the legislature by January 31, 1991, and January 31, 1993.

Subd. 5. [DISCHARGE OF PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR A RELATED CONDITION.] (a) Prior to discharge of persons with mental retardation or a related condition, a screening shall be conducted pursuant to section 256B.092, subdivision 8, and a plan developed pursuant to section 256B.092, subdivision 1a. The screening team shall determine that the services outlined in the plan can be made available in the community. For persons who have overriding health care needs or behaviors which cause injury to self or others, or cause damage to property which is an immediate threat to the physical safety of the persons or others, the following additional conditions must be met:

(1) For persons with overriding health care needs, a registered nurse or a licensed physician shall review the proposed community services to assure that the medical needs of the person have been planned for adequately.

(2) For persons with behaviors which cause injury to self or others, or cause damage to property which is an immediate threat to the physical safety of the person or others, a qualified mental retardation professional, as that term is defined in section 256B.092, subdivision 7, shall review the proposed community services to assure that the behavioral needs of the person have been planned for adequately. The qualified mental retardation professional must have one year of experience in the areas of assessment, planning, implementation, and monitoring of individual habilitation plans which have used behavior intervention techniques.

(3) For purposes of this section, "overriding health care needs" means a medical condition that requires daily clinical monitoring by a licensed nurse.

(b) No person with mental retardation or a related condition may be discharged before an appropriate community placement is available to receive the person.

(c) A person, legal representative, or near relative may object to a proposed discharge by using the procedures in section 252.515."

Pauly moved to amend H. F. No. 1759, as amended, as follows:

Page 88, line 7, after the period insert:

“The portion of the plan relating to a city within the county may be prepared by the city and must include a division of the city into from 6 to 30 areas or neighborhoods of approximately equal population, and a procedure for placement of state-licensed residential facilities so that none of the city’s areas or neighborhoods shall contain a second state-licensed residential facility until each area or neighborhood contains at least one. The plan must provide a similar policy for placement of additional state-licensed residential facilities after the first so that they are evenly dispersed throughout each city.”

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Tompkins; Valento; Heap; Poppenhagen; Lynch; Onnen; Seaberg; Pellow; Girard; Johnson, V.; Schafer; Frerichs; McDonald; Ozment; Henry; Richter; Hugoson; Frederick; Abrams; McPherson; Macklin; Dauner; Haukoos and Tjornhom moved to amend H. F. No. 1759, as amended, as follows:

Page 299, line 10, after "home" insert ", and for rate years beginning July 1, 1989, and July 1, 1990, the commissioner shall include workers' compensation insurance costs, provided the nursing home submits by April 5 a copy of its actual invoice for workers' compensation insurance for coverage which most nearly approximates the nursing home's rate year. The commissioner shall substitute the amount of the annual actual workers' compensation insurance premium for the amount of workers' compensation insurance reported on the cost report at an amount that is the lesser of the actual workers' compensation insurance premium submitted or 120 percent of workers' compensation insurance reported on the cost report. If the actual invoice for workers' compensation insurance is not provided by April 5, the commissioner shall disallow the nursing home's workers' compensation insurance. The disallowance shall remain in effect until the nursing home provides the actual invoice for workers' compensation insurance and amends its cost report as provided in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0041, subpart 14. Upon receipt of that invoice, the commissioner shall adjust the nursing home's payment rate accordingly."

Page 299, line 19, after "contribution," insert "workers' compensation insurance increase,"

Page 302, after line 36, insert:

"[WAGE DISPARITY ADJUSTMENT PER DIEM; 1988-1990.] For the rate period October 1, 1989, to June 30, 1991, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem calculated under clauses (1) to (3) to the total operating cost payment rate of each nursing home. The salary adjustment per diem for each nursing home must be determined as follows:

(1) All nursing homes must be grouped according to Minnesota hospital association districts as indicated in the Minnesota salary survey of hospitals and nursing homes for 1988 as published by the department of jobs and training. The percentage adjustment is determined according to the percentage disparity that exists between the care-related salaries of hospital employees and nursing home employees in each district. For this purpose the disparity is determined as follows:

(i) The median hourly wage for staff nurses, licensed practical nurses, and nurse assistants employed in nursing homes in each district is combined on a district basis. A corresponding value is determined for hospitals in each district.

(ii) The value determined in subclause (i) for hospital employees is divided by the corresponding value for the nursing home wages determined in subclause (i). The resulting value is the wage disparity for each district.

(iii) Nursing homes with disparity values of greater than one but less than or equal to 1.1 will receive a one percent adjustment. Nursing homes with a disparity value of greater than 1.1 but less than or equal to 1.2 will receive a two percent adjustment. Nursing homes with a disparity value of greater than 1.2 will receive a three percent adjustment.

(2) For each nursing home that reports salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, and aides, orderlies and attendants separately, the commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem by multiplying the total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed in each operating cost category, except management fees and administrator and central office salaries and the related payroll taxes and fringe benefits, by the appropriate percentage determined under clause (1) and then dividing the resulting amount by the nursing home's actual resident days.

(3) For each nursing home that does not report salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, aides, orderlies, and attendants separately, the salary adjustment per diem is the weighted average salary adjustment per diem increase determined under clause (2) for the district in which the nursing home is located.

Each nursing home that receives a salary adjustment per diem pursuant to this clause must adjust nursing home employee salaries by a minimum of the amount determined under clauses (1) to (3). The commissioner shall review allowable salary costs, including payroll taxes and fringe benefits, for the reporting year ending September 30, 1990, to determine whether or not each nursing home complied with this requirement. The commissioner shall report the extent to which each nursing home complied with the legislative commission on long-term care by August 1, 1991."

"Subd. 21. [CASE MIX COST ALLOCATION ADJUSTMENT.] For rate years beginning after June 30, 1989, the commissioner shall adjust a nursing home's total payment rate established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0070, subpart 1, according to paragraphs (a) to (h):

(a) A nursing home whose nursing facility beds are not 100 percent certified for Medicare by the end of the reporting year ending September 30, 1988, and each full reporting year thereafter, is not eligible for a case mix cost allocation adjustment per diem.

(b) The commissioner shall calculate each nursing home's Medicare case mix score by dividing each home's standardized Medicare resident days by its actual Medicare resident days for the reporting year.

(c) The commissioner shall calculate each nursing home's total case mix score by dividing each home's standardized resident days by its actual resident days for the reporting year.

(d) The commissioner shall subtract the nursing home's total case mix score from the home's Medicare case mix score and multiply the difference by the allowable historical case mix operating cost standardized per diem, as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0054, subpart 3.

(e) The commissioner shall calculate the case mix cost allocation adjustment factor by multiplying the amount calculated in paragraph (c) by the number of actual Medicare resident days in the reporting year.

(f) The commissioner shall calculate the case mix cost allocation adjustment per diem by multiplying the case mix cost allocation adjustment factor by the care-related annual adjustment factor, as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0055, subpart 1, item A, and dividing the product by the sum of the number of actual medical assistance resident days and private pay resident days in the reporting year.

(g) The commissioner shall add the case mix cost allocation adjustment per diem calculated in paragraph (e) to the nursing home's total payment rate.

(h) A case mix cost allocation adjustment paid under this subdivision is subject to retroactive recovery if the Health Care Financing Administration disapproves the commissioner's state plan amendment."

"(f) [CAPITAL ASSET REPLACEMENT FUND.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990, the commissioner shall establish a capital asset replacement fund per diem for each nursing home. The capital asset replacement fund per diem equals the nursing home's allowable appraised value multiplied by .03, divided by the home's capacity days as determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 11, as modified by paragraph (c) for the preceding reporting year. The nursing home must establish, manage, and use the capital asset replacement fund as provided in clauses 1 to 7.

(1) The nursing home must annually deposit to the capital asset replacement fund, within 30 days after the end of the reporting year, an amount equal to the capital asset replacement fund per diem multiplied by the nursing home's proportion of resident days appropriate to the capital asset replacement fund per diem established for that reporting year. For the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, the nursing home's resident days must be multiplied by .25.

(2) Capital asset replacement funds must be invested in liquid marketable investments such as savings or money market accounts, certificates of deposit and United States treasury bills. A separate capital asset replacement fund account must be maintained for each nursing home.

(3) Capital asset replacement funds and the interest income earned on the capital asset replacement funds may only be used for the cost of capitalized repair, renovation, or replacement of the nursing home's buildings, attached fixtures, or land improvements that were incurred after June 30, 1990.

(4) Capital asset replacement funds and the interest income earned on the capital asset replacement funds attach to the nursing home, and shall remain the property of the nursing home regardless of a sale, change of ownership, or reorganization of provider entity. If the nursing home is decertified or delicensed, and the nursing home's beds are not replaced as certified nursing home beds under the medical assistance program, the commissioner shall recapture all remaining capital asset replacement funds, including any interest income earned thereon.

(5) Capital asset replacement funds managed or used contrary to any of the provisions of this paragraph must be recaptured by the commissioner through desk audit or field audit adjustments.

(6) The terms "renovation" and "replacement" have the meanings given them in section 144A.073, subdivision 1.

(7) The terms "reporting year," "rate year," "buildings," "attached fixtures," "land improvements," "repairs," and "resident days," have the meanings given them in Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080."

(b) The commissioner shall calculate each nursing home's Medicare case mix score by dividing each home's standardized Medicare resident days by its actual Medicare resident days for the reporting year.

(c) The commissioner shall calculate each nursing home's total case mix score by dividing each home's standardized resident days by its actual resident days for the reporting year.

(d) The commissioner shall subtract the nursing home's total case mix score from the home's Medicare case mix score and multiply the difference by the allowable historical case mix operating cost standardized per diem, as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0054, subpart 3.

(e) The commissioner shall calculate the case mix cost allocation adjustment factor by multiplying the amount calculated in paragraph (c) by the number of actual Medicare resident days in the reporting year.

(f) The commissioner shall calculate the case mix cost allocation adjustment per diem by multiplying the case mix cost allocation adjustment factor by the care-related annual adjustment factor, as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0055, subpart 1, item A, and dividing the product by the sum of the number of actual medical assistance resident days and private pay resident days in the reporting year.

(g) The commissioner shall add the case mix cost allocation adjustment per diem calculated in paragraph (e) to the nursing home's total payment rate.

(h) A case mix cost allocation adjustment paid under this subdivision is subject to retroactive recovery if the Health Care Financing Administration disapproves the commissioner's state plan amendment."

“Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [TRANSPORTATION COSTS.] Medical assistance covers transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by nonambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or nonemergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this subdivision, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be nonambulatory. Medical assistance does not cover the cost of ambulance transportation services provided to ambulatory persons for the purpose of obtaining nonemergency medical care, unless under a physician's order.

Special transportation, as defined in Minnesota Rules, part 9505.0315, subpart 1, Item F, provided to nonambulatory persons who are not developmentally disabled may be reimbursed at a lower rate than special transportation provided to nonambulatory persons who are developmentally disabled.”

"Sec. . . . Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 252.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [RATES FOR DAY TRAINING AND HABILITATION; SALARY ADJUSTMENT.] For the 12-month contract period beginning January 1, 1990, the county must recommend payment rates for day training and habilitation services for approval by the commissioner that are adjusted according to clauses (1) and (2). To be eligible for the adjustment in payment rates, the county shall require a written affidavit signed by the vendor. The affidavit must include assurances that the entire amount paid under this provision shall be used for equitable increases for employee salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits included in clause (1). That portion of the payment rate increase attributable to compliance with this subdivision and recommended for approval to the commissioner under subdivision 5, is exempt from the limits in subdivision 3. The county shall determine the salary adjustment on payment rates by:

(1) multiplying each vendor's eligible salary expenses, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits for calendar year 1989 by three and one-half percent in addition to the annual cost-of-living increase recommended under subdivision 3; and

(2) then dividing the amount in clause (1) by the total number of service units projected to be provided for the contract period.

Counties that contract for salary increases under this subdivision shall monitor expenditures according to section 252.44 and shall report the actual salary expenses and annual salary increases of vendors to the department on forms prescribed by the commissioner. This subdivision does not apply to state-operated services."

Subd. 12. [RATES FOR INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR RELATED CONDITIONS; SALARY ADJUSTMENT.] For the rate period January 1, 1990, to September 30, 1991, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem calculated in clauses (1) and (2) to the total operating cost payment rate of each eligible facility. For a facility to be eligible for a salary adjustment per diem, the commissioner shall require a written affidavit signed by the provider of each facility. The affidavit must include assurances that at least 50 percent of the amount of the increase resulting from the application of the statewide composite index for the rate year beginning October 1, 1989, and the entire amount paid under this provision, shall be used for equitable increases to facility employee salaries, fringe benefits, and payroll taxes included in clause (1). Facilities with rates governed by section 252.292 or Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0075, or which are newly developed or established with payment rates effective on or after July 1, 1989, are not eligible for payments under this subdivision. The commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem by:

(1) multiplying each eligible facility's total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed after desk audit in each operating cost category, for the reporting year ending December 31, 1988, by three and one-half percent; and

(2) then dividing the amount in clause (1) by the facility's resident days."

"[WAGE DISPARITY ADJUSTMENT PER DIEM; 1988-1990.] For the rate period October 1, 1989, to June 30, 1991, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem calculated under clauses (1) to (3) to the total operating cost payment rate of each nursing home. The salary adjustment per diem for each nursing home must be determined as follows:

(1) All nursing homes must be grouped according to Minnesota hospital association districts as indicated in the Minnesota salary survey of hospitals and nursing homes for 1988 as published by the department of jobs and training. The percentage adjustment is determined according to the percentage disparity that exists between the care-related salaries of hospital employees and nursing home employees in each district. For this purpose the disparity is determined as follows:

(i) The median hourly wage for staff nurses, licensed practical nurses, and nurse assistants employed in nursing homes in each district is combined on a district basis. A corresponding value is determined for hospitals in each district.

(ii) The value determined in subclause (i) for hospital employees is divided by the corresponding value for the nursing home wages determined in subclause (i). The resulting value is the wage disparity for each district.

(iii) Nursing homes with disparity values of greater than one but less than or equal to 1.1 will receive a one percent adjustment. Nursing homes with a disparity value of greater than 1.1 but less than or equal to 1.2 will receive a two percent adjustment. Nursing homes with a disparity value of greater than 1.2 will receive a three percent adjustment.

(2) For each nursing home that reports salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, and aides, orderlies and attendants separately, the commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem by multiplying the total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed in each operating cost category, except management fees and administrator and central office salaries and the related payroll taxes and fringe benefits, by the appropriate percentage determined under clause (1) and then dividing the resulting amount by the nursing home's actual resident days.

(3) For each nursing home that does not report salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, aides, orderlies, and attendants separately, the salary adjustment per diem is the weighted average salary adjustment per diem increase determined under clause (2) for the district in which the nursing home is located.

Each nursing home that receives a salary adjustment per diem pursuant to this clause must adjust nursing home employee salaries by a minimum of the amount determined under clauses (1) to (3). The commissioner shall review allowable salary costs, including payroll taxes and fringe benefits, for the reporting year ending September 30, 1990, to determine whether or not each nursing home complied with this requirement. The commissioner shall report the extent to which each nursing home complied with the legislative commission on long-term care by August 1, 1991.

Until January 1, 1990, the state shall pay any increased cost to the counties resulting from implementation of the wage disparity adjustment."
