Sec. 9. [466A.03] [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM; REQUIREMENT.] A city must prepare an annual comprehensive community resources program that is consistent with the recommendations of targeted neighborhood residents and organizations serving or representing these residents. The program must describe the specific community resource services and means by which the community intends to pursue and implement the program objectives outlined in subdivision 2 for each targeted neighborhood served under the program.

Subd. 2. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM OBJECTIVES.] A community resources program must address the following objectives:

(a) Establish means for stabilizing families so family members can become more functional as a family unit and as members of the community. This objective addresses family stabilization by insuring that children attend and adequately participate in schools providing elementary and secondary education, strengthening the family unit through counseling and other services, and increasing the family unit's health through nutrition, parenting skills, health assessment, drug abuse programs, and other services.

(b) Provide opportunities for families and individuals that lead to greater self-sufficiency through improved housing, health, environment, education, job training, employment, and independent living.

(c) Establish the community as a safer environment by finding the means to reduce crime and the fear of crime in the community and other parts of the city.

(d) Establish means to stabilize the neighborhood or community by building the capacity of the community's neighborhood-based organizations and institutions to build cohesiveness through planning and organizing residents, to provide or ensure the provision of necessary services, and to meet the other program objectives.

Subd. 3. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM; CONTENTS.]

(a) The community resources program must include the following information:

community resources services so that the program objectives identified in subdivision 2 can be met;

(2) the specific activities, programs, or means by which the city intends to pursue and implement the objectives in subdivision 2;

(3) a statement of the intended outcomes to be achieved by implementing the community resources program;

(4) the method to measure the outcomes to be achieved by implementing the community resources program, how the outcomes will be measured both qualitatively and quantitatively, and the estimated time over which they will occur;

(5) identification of the targeted neighborhoods, assisted housing, and other parts of the city that will receive community resources services;

(6) a detailed statement of how the community resources services will be coordinated with similar services being offered by the city, county, school district, state, and other providers;

(7) a description of the process used and the staff services provided to ensure the required community or neighborhood participation in the preparation of the program; and

(8) a budget that identifies the financial resources necessary to implement the community resources program. The budget must include the following items: (i) the estimated total cost to implement the community resources program; (ii) the estimated cost to implement each activity in the community resources program identified in clause (2); and (iii) the estimated amount of financial resources that will be available from all sources other than from the appropriation available under section 13 to implement the community resources program, including the amount of private funding to be made available to assist in funding the community resources program.

(b) The information required to be in the program under this subdivision must be specific to a targeted neighborhood to the greatest extent possible. If information is not specific to a targeted neighborhood that is to receive assistance under the program, the program must include a statement explaining the reason.

Subd. 4. [COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION.] (a) Each city must adopt a process to involve the residents of targeted neighborhoods and assisted housing in planning, developing, and implementing the program. As part of this process, the city must ensure that this community-based process has sufficient resources to assist in the development of the program.

(b) Beginning with the program for 1991, each targeted neighborhood or group of targeted neighborhoods must have a strategic planning group whose members include residents of the targeted neighborhood, representatives of community resources service providers in the neighborhood, and representatives of institutions in the neighborhood. The group must, as part of its responsibilities, develop a strategic plan for the neighborhood. This strategic plan must include the elements that the planning group recommends as part of the community resources program. The strategic plan must also address how the targeted neighborhood portions of the comprehensive revitalization and financing program will be integrated with the elements that are recommended to be included as part of the community resources program.

(c) The city must ensure that the strategic planning group required under paragraph (b) is established. An existing group or organization that reflects the required membership under paragraph (b) may be designated as the strategic planning group. The city may provide financial and staff resources to ensure the establishment of the strategic planning groups. The city may use part of the money received for the community resources program from the state to assist in the establishment of the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups.

(d) As part of the process for the development of the community resources plan, each targeted neighborhood strategic planning group must submit recommendations for the community resources program to the city and the advisory board established under subdivision 5. The recommendations must include the specific neighborhood services and other means to meet the objectives outlined in subdivision 2.

Subd. 5. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM ADVISORY BOARD.] Each city must establish a community resources program advisory board to assist the city in developing and implementing the community resources program. The advisory board must consist of at least two representatives of the city council appointed by the city council, one or more representatives of the county board appointed by the county board, one or more representatives of the school board appointed by the school board, and representatives of the targeted neighborhoods. The representatives of the targeted neighborhoods must represent a majority of the membership of the advisory board and reflect the geographic, cultural, racial, and ethnic diversity of the targeted neighborhoods. The city may determine the size of the advisory board and may designate an existing entity as the advisory board if the entity meets the membership requirements outlined in this subdivision.

Subd. 6. [DEVELOPMENT OF COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM.] (a) The advisory board must work closely with city staff in developing and drafting the community resources program.

The advisory board must be involved in assessing needs, prioritizing funds, and developing criteria for evaluating program proposals. In developing the program, the advisory board must give priority to the recommendations made by the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups. In addition, the community resources program must give priority to proposals or recommendations which (i) will create jobs for targeted neighborhood residents at living wages, and (ii) document efforts to create and maintain jobs for targeted neighborhood residents.

(b) The advisory board must conduct a public hearing and secure input from residents of targeted neighborhoods, governmental units affected by the program, and other organizations and persons.

(c) The advisory board may make any changes to the program resulting from testimony given at the public hearing. The advisory board must formally recommend to the city council a proposed community resources program.

(d) The advisory board will meet quarterly after recommending the program to the city council to monitor and review the programs, initiatives, and other activities that have been funded with community resource money.

Subd. 7. [REVIEW BY AFFECTED GOVERNMENTAL UNITS.] The city must develop a process to consult with affected governmental units including the state, county, and school districts. These affected governmental units may provide technical and informational assistance to the city and advisory board to ensure that the community resources services that are included in the program are coordinated with services provided by other governmental units and do not unnecessarily duplicate any existing services. The process must also include a comment period for the county board, school board, and commissioner to review a draft program and to provide comments to the city. If the county board, school board, or commissioner have comments, they must respond to the city in writing within 30 days. The city must respond to comments received from the county board and school board in writing before the city adopts the program.

Subd. 8. [CITY APPROVAL.] The city council must hold a public hearing before submitting the program to the commissioner for approval. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhood not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. In addition, to the maximum extent possible, notice shall be published in the most widely circulated community newspaper in the targeted neighborhoods.

Subd. 9. [REVIEW AND APPROVAL BY COMMISSIONER.] (a)

Before the city adopts a community resources program, the commissioner must approve the program.

(b) The commissioner must establish an advisory panel to assist the commissioner in reviewing the programs. The panel must consist of the commissioner; the commissioners of human services, health, jobs and training, Minnesota housing finance agency, and public safety; one representative of each of the cities that have submitted a program appointed by the appropriate city council; and two members of the public appointed by the commissioner.

(c) The advisory panel must review each city's community resources program to determine if the process, including any information required to be in the program objectives, meets the requirements of subdivisions 4 to 8. The panel will also review the program to insure that there is not unnecessary duplication of services already provided in the targeted neighborhood.

(d) The commissioner must notify the city in writing within 30 days after receiving the program of a preliminary decision on the approval of the program and any recommendations of the commissioner for modification of the program. The commissioner must specify in writing the reasons for each recommendation for modification of the program. If the commissioner has no recommendations for the program's modification, the commissioner must approve the program. The commissioner may not disapprove any part of the program unless the commissioner determines that (1) the process, including any information required to be in the program, by which that part of the program was developed, does not meet the requirements of subdivisions 4 to 8, (2) the program is inconsistent with program objectives, or (3) the program results in unnecessary duplication of services already provided in the targeted neighborhood. If modifications to the program are recommended by the commissioner, the city must modify the program and resubmit it to the commissioner within 30 days for approval.

(e) If the city does not accept all of the commissioner's recommendations, the city must notify the commissioner in writing within 15 days after receiving the commissioner's recommendations. The city must specify in writing the reasons for not accepting the commissioner's recommendations.

(f) The commissioner must notify the city, within ten days after receiving the city's decision, of the commissioner's approval or disapproval of specific programs, projects, or elements of the program. State funding may only be released to the city for those programs, projects, or elements given final approval by the commissioner.

Subd. 10. [PROGRAM CERTIFICATION.] The city council may only adopt those programs, projects, or elements of the community resources program that the commissioner has approved. A certification by the city that a community resources program has been approved by the city council must be provided to the commissioner together with a copy of the program. A copy of the program must also be provided to the county board and school board.

Subd. 11. [COMMUNITY RESOURCES PROGRAM MODIFICATION.] The community resources program may be modified at any time by the city council after review by the community resources advisory board and a public hearing. Notice of the public hearing must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. In addition, to the maximum extent possible, notice shall be published in the most widely circulated community newspaper in the targeted neighborhoods. If the city council or advisory board determines that the proposed modification is a significant modification to the program originally certified under subdivision 10, it must implement the community resources program approval and certification process of subdivisions 5 to 10 for the proposed modification.

Sec. 10. [466A.04] [CITY POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL POWERS.] A city may exercise any of its corporate powers in implementing the community resources program.

Subd. 2. [GRANTS AND LOANS.] In addition to the authority granted by other law, a city, through a request for proposal process, may make grants, loans, and other forms of assistance to, and enter into service contracts with, individuals, for profit and nonprofit corporations, and other organizations to implement a community resources program. The contracts entered into by the city under this subdivision must contain terms concerning use of money, repayment, and other conditions the city deems proper to implement a community resources program.

Subd. 3. [COMMUNITY INITIATIVES PROGRAM.] A city may establish a community initiatives program as part of the community resources program. At least ten percent of the community resource money must be distributed to organizations under the community initiatives program. A community initiatives program, in addition to the authority granted by other law, authorizes a city to set aside funds and to develop a process to request proposals for the purpose of making grants, loans, and other forms of assistance to, or entering into service contracts with, nonprofit organizations, including neighborhood organizations, representing community residents. The organizations may also represent residents from a contiguous neighborhood. Financial assistance or service contracts awarded under this subdivision are limited to $25,000 to any one organization in any one year. State money used for the community initiatives program must be used for implementing activities included in the community resources program. The contracts entered into by the city with a nonprofit organization under this subdivision must contain terms concerning use of money and other conditions the city deems proper to implement a community initiatives program.

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBLE USES FOR COMMUNITY RESOURCE MONEY.] The city may spend community resource money for any purpose authorized by subdivisions 1 to 3 except that an amount equal to at least 90 percent of the state payment according to section 11 made available to the city must be spent in or for residents in targeted neighborhoods or assisted housing. Use of community resources money must be authorized in a community resources program. If a resident of a targeted neighborhood or assisted housing is a recipient of community resource services and moves to a residence in (i) another part of the city, (ii) another location in the same county, or (iii) a location in an adjacent county located in the state, eligibility continues for the community resources services.

Sec. 11. [466A.05] [PAYMENT; DRAWDOWN; USES OF STATE MONEY.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT OF STATE MONEY.] Upon receiving from a city the certification that a community resources program has been adopted or modified, the commissioner shall, within 30 days after receiving the certification, pay to the city the amount of state money identified as necessary to implement the community resources program or program modification. State money may be paid to the city only to the extent that the appropriation limit for the city specified in subdivision 2 is not exceeded. Once the state money has been paid to the city, it becomes community resource money for use by the city according to an adopted community resources program and subject to the restrictions on its use in sections 7 to 12.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION.] A city may receive a part of the appropriations made available that is the proportion that the population of the city bears to the combined population of the cities. A city may agree to reduce its entitlement amount and to make it available to another city. The population of each city for the purposes of this subdivision is determined according to the most recent estimates available to the commissioner.

Sec. 12. [466A.06] [ANNUAL REPORT.]

A city that begins to implement a community resources program in a calendar year must, by March 1 of the succeeding calendar year, provide a detailed report to the commissioner and legislature on the community resources program or programs being implemented in the city. The report must describe the status of the program implementation and analyze whether the intended outcomes identified in section 9, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (3), are being achieved.

Subd. 2. [OUTREACH PROGRAM GRANTS.] $175,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the higher education coordinating board for fiscal year 1990 for grants to establish or expand baccalaureate and masters completion programs for currently licensed registered nurses.

Public or private post-secondary institutions that have nursing programs are eligible to receive grants. Subd. 3. [SCHOLARSHIPS.] Up to $250,000 of the appropriation for each fiscal year is for scholarships for part-time or full-time students enrolled in programs designed to prepare individuals to become registered nurses. Up to $250,000 of the appropriation for each fiscal year is for scholarships for part-time or full-time students enrolled in baccalaureate, masters, or doctorate degree programs in nursing. (2) recommend to the board eligibility requirements for scholarship recipients, procedures for awarding scholarships, procedures for allowing the use of matching grants, and alternate methods of determining award amounts;

(3) recommend, as necessary, other policy matters concerning the nursing education program grants and nursing scholarships; and

(4) recommend the conditions under which a nursing scholarship would not be included in the calculation of awards under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 136A.

Subd. 5. [CARRYOVER.] Any unencumbered balance of the appropriation in this section for fiscal year 1990 does not cancel but is available for fiscal year 1991.

The program is designed to prevent the spread of blight, conserve the existing housing supply, strengthen neighborhoods, and provide safe and affordable housing. The program is directed at single family residential properties in need of rehabilitation that are sold to "at risk" homebuyers committed to strengthening the neighborhood and following a good neighbor policy.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(3) "Eligible property" or "property" means a single family residential dwelling and surrounding property that is vacant, condemned, abandoned, or otherwise defined as eligible by the agency, which, if rehabilitated, may prevent or arrest the spread of blight.

(5) "Designated home ownership area" or "designated area" means a specific area where the acquisition, rehabilitation, and sale

The good neighbor standards must include: (i) attendance at home maintenance classes organized by the eligible applicant; (ii) continued maintenance of the property to ensure that the property retains its value; (iii) continued payment of heat, electricity, sewer, water, and other utilities; (iv) attendance at job training, chemical dependency services, educational programs, including progress toward a G.E.D., and other social services that would move the homebuyer toward self-sufficiency; and (v) participation in neighborhood functions including assisting others in home maintenance.

(5) establish construction and safety standards for properties that have been rehabilitated that must be met prior to the organization selling the property to a homebuyer. These standards should be designed to reduce the likelihood that major repairs will be necessary within at least five years;

(6) work with organizations in seeking waivers from building code requirements that may be barriers to providing affordable housing but do not jeopardize the structural integrity or safety of the property; and

(7) monitor the financial and other activities related to this program of the organizations that have received grants under this section including auditing the financial records of the organizations.

(b) The agency may require that all contracts related to properties under the program, including the contract for deed under subdivision 8, be approved by the agency before the execution of the contract. The agency may also require appraisals of property under the program.

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE ORGANIZATION; CAPACITY.] The eligible organization must demonstrate to the agency that it has the capacity to:

(1) organize and continue an ongoing relationship with the neighborhood volunteer resident advisory boards required under subdivision 6;

(2) provide the necessary staff to administer the program on the local level for an extended period;

(3) link homebuyers who buy property under this program to social services that may be required to move the homebuyer toward self-sufficiency and maintain the good neighbor provisions of the contract for deed under subdivision 8;

(4) select and acquire property that meets the requirements established for this program and contract with businesses or organizations for the rehabilitation of the property;

(5) raise funds or in-kind contributions from persons, foundations, government units, and businesses to assist in the funding for this program. In-kind contributions may include tools and equipment for the tool library and property at no or minimal cost to the organization;

(6) organize and maintain or arrange for a tool library for the lending of tools to homebuyers and other residents of the neighborhood area for the maintenance or improvement of their property;

(7) provide or arrange for classes on home maintenance and other topics relevant to homebuyers and other neighborhood residents; and

(8) monitor the progress of homebuyers who have acquired property under this section to determine if they maintain the good neighbor policies required under subdivision 8.

Subd. 6. [NEIGHBORHOOD VOLUNTEER RESIDENT ADVISORY BOARD.] Each organization must establish a neighborhood volunteer resident advisory board for each designated area. The advisory board must consist of residents of the designated area who reflect the racial composition of the area and who have demonstrated a commitment to strengthening their neighborhood and assisting homebuyers. In the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, at least 20 percent of the advisory board must be minority residents. The advisory board must:

(1) recommend to the organization properties that may be acquired for the program in the designated area;

(2) consent to the purchase of properties by the organization for the program;

(3) recommend to the organization the selection of homebuyers;

(4) make recommendations for any termination of a contract for deed made under subdivision 11;

(5) assist and nurture the homebuyer by ensuring that the homebuyer receives training in home maintenance and the necessary social services to move the homebuyer toward self-sufficiency; and

(6) assist the organization in monitoring the homebuyer's progress in maintaining the good neighbor provisions of the contract for deed.

Subd. 7. [PURCHASE AND REHABILITATION.] An eligible organization may acquire up to five properties in a designated area with the consent of the advisory board for that area. The organization must rehabilitate these properties to the standards established by the agency. All rehabilitation of the properties except menial labor must be contracted out to businesses or organizations experienced in rehabilitation of residential property. The total maximum cost of the acquisition, rehabilitation, closing costs, and back taxes must be no greater than $50,000 per individual property. The $50,000 maximum may be exceeded if the excess costs over $50,000 are attributed to rehabilitation or improvements to make the property handicapped accessible.

Subd. 8. [SALE OF PROPERTY TO HOMEBUYER.] The eligible organization may sell rehabilitated property to homebuyers. The organization's selection of the homebuyer must have the recommendation of the advisory board in the designated area in which the property is located. The organization may not discriminate against the homebuyer in the sale of the property based on race or sex. A contract for deed agreement between the homebuyer and the organization must be entered into for each sale of property under this subdivision. The terms and other provisions of the contract for deed must be established by the agency and the following requirements must be included in the contract:

(1) the organization must retain title to the property until the entire purchase price is paid to the eligible organization;

(2) the purchase price paid by the homebuyer must be equal to the total costs of acquiring and rehabilitating the property;

(3) no down payment or interest payment is required of the homebuyer;

(4) the monthly payment must equal 25 percent of the homebuyer's gross monthly income and must be applied according to subdivision 9;

(5) the organization retains the option to require verification of a homebuyer's income;

(6) the organization retains the option to require escrow for payment of property taxes and hazard insurance; or the organization may require the verification that payments of property taxes and hazard insurance have been made by the homeowner;

(7) the homebuyer may prepay the entire purchase price at any time during the term of the contract for deed and the title to the property must be transferred to the homeowner at the time of prepayment;

(8) the organization has the option to repurchase the property according to the terms established under subdivision 10;

(9) the homebuyer agrees to meet the good neighbor standards set by the agency; and

(10) any other requirements established by the agency that meet the requirements and purposes of this section.

The contract for deed must be reviewed every five years to determine if the homebuyer may be eligible to receive mortgage financing from another financing source including a mortgage company or other private financial institution. If other financing is made available to the homebuyer, the contract for deed must be prepaid.

Subd. 9. [APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS.] The monthly payments required under subdivision 8 must be applied or distributed in the following order:

- (1) hazard insurance for the property;
- (2) property taxes due on the property; and
- (3) the contract for deed principal amount.

The amount applied to the contract for deed principal amount may be used by the organization for (i) reasonable administrative costs of the organization directly related to the property; (ii) an escrow account for the maintenance and improvement of the property; and (iii) a seed account maintained by the organization for further acquisition and rehabilitation of eligible properties under the program.

The agency may audit the financial records of the organization to determine if the organization is collecting reasonable administrative costs from the monthly payment.

If the monthly payment is not sufficient to pay the hazard insurance and property taxes, the organization may use money from the amount collected under clause (3), money received from the grant award under subdivision 3, or other money of the organization to pay the difference. An amount equal to the amount that would be required to offset the difference between the monthly payment and payments for hazard insurance and property taxes must be added to the contract purchase price.

If the monthly payment is not sufficient to pay the hazard insurance and property taxes, the homebuyer shall agree to work toward increasing the homebuyer's income so that monthly payments are sufficient to pay the hazard insurance and property taxes. If the organization determines that the homebuyer is not making sufficient effort to increase the homebuyer's income after six months, the organization may find that the homebuyer has failed to meet good neighbor standards and the contract for deed may be terminated.

Subd. 10. [RIGHT TO REPURCHASE.] The organization has the option to repurchase the property if the homebuyer rents, assigns, vacates, transfers, or offers to sell the property within 20 years of the purchase of the property from the organization. This option to repurchase does not apply to a transfer of the property to a surviving joint tenant or heir of the homebuyer. If the organization chooses not to exercise its option to repurchase the property, the agency may repurchase the property.

The repurchase price paid by the organization or the agency may not exceed the lesser of the (i) appraised value of the property at the time of repurchase; or (ii) the sum of:

(1) the total amount paid by the homeowner to the organization for debt payment on the contract for deed;

(2) the value of any major improvements to the property that were paid directly by the homebuyer and were not part of the monthly payment required under subdivision 8; and

(3) the product of the sum of clauses (1) and (2), and the increase in inflation based on the housing component of the federal Consumer Price Index.

Subd. 11. [TERMINATION OF CONTRACT FOR DEED.] The contract for deed under subdivision 8 may be terminated by the organization if any of the following occurs:

(1) the homebuyer fails to make timely payments required by the contract for deed;

(2) the homebuyer refuses to provide verification of income at the request of the organization;

(3) the homebuyer fails to adequately maintain the property in compliance with all state, county, or municipal building, fire, health, or other codes and standards applicable to the eligible housing;

(4) the homebuyer is found to be guilty of a criminal action relating to controlled substances, firearms, assault, or other serious offenses as determined by the agency; or

(5) the homebuyer fails to meet the good neighbor standards established by the agency.

The organization shall consult with the advisory board before terminating the contract for deed except in the case where required payments are not made in a timely manner.

If the organization terminates the contract for deed, the homebuyer may be evicted from the property. The homebuyer is not entitled to any compensation for the payments made for the property when a contract for deed is terminated.

Subd. 12. [SUCCESSOR TO NEIGHBORHOOD ORGANIZATION.] If an organization is dissolved for any purpose or if the agency determines that the organization is unable to administer the program, the agency is the legal successor in any properties, accounts, and other assets related to the program, and all contracts, property, and other assets and liabilities of the organization related to the program are the contracts, property, and other assets and liabilities of the agency. The agency is subject to the liabilities related to the program of the organization only to the extent of the fair market value of the properties and other assets.

Subd. 13. [REPORTS.] Each organization that receives a grant under this section shall submit an annual report to the agency by December 1 of each year that describes the use of grant funds received under this section. The report must include a description of the number of eligible properties acquired, the number of properties purchased by homebuyers, the amount of nonpublic money used for the program, the effort by the organization and the advisory boards in ensuring that the homebuyers maintain a good neighbor status, and any other information required by the agency.

The agency shall prepare and submit an annual report to the legislature and the governor by January 15 of each year, beginning in 1991, that summarizes the reports of the organizations. The agency's report may also include recommendations to improve the program.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 462A.21, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. It may make grants to eligible organizations for the Minnesota rural and urban homesteading program under section 1 and may pay the costs and expenses necessary and incidental to the grant program.

Subd. 6. [PURCHASE PAYMENT AMOUNT.] For a person eligible to purchase credit for prior service under subdivisions 1 to 5, there must be paid to the public employees retirement association an amount equal to the present value, on the date of payment, of the amount of the additional retirement annuity that would be obtained by virtue of the purchase of the additional service credit, using the preretirement interest rate specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 356.215, subdivision 4d, and the mortality table adopted for the public employees retirement association and assuming continuous future service in the public employees retirement association until, and retirement at, the age at which the minimum requirements of the retirement association for normal retirement or retirement with an annuity unreduced for retirement at an early age, including Minnesota Statutes, section 356.30, are met with the additional service credit purchased, and also assuming a future salary history that includes annual salary increases at the salary increase rate specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 356.215, subdivision 4d. Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] (a) Upon receipt of a notice of contest, the secretary of state shall ask each party to the contest to submit within 30 days an affidavit setting forth the facts, opinions, and arguments for or against the retention of the contested name on the records of the secretary of state. Subd. 4. [DECISION; ENFORCEMENT.] The secretary of state shall make a decision for one of the parties within ten days of the hearing and may order that the contested name be changed on the records of the office of the secretary of state and the relevant documents be amended by the secretary of state in a manner that results in a new name that is not the same as or deceptively similar to another name registered with the office of the secretary of state.

(c) Socially disadvantaged are persons who have been classified as persons in need of supervision by the court system.

(d) Physically disadvantaged are persons who have been identified as having special needs by public agencies that deal with employment for the disabled.

(e) Educationally disadvantaged are persons who have dropped out of school or are at risk of dropping out of school and persons with learning disabilities or in need of special education classes.

Subd. 4. [REQUIREMENTS FOR ELIGIBILITY FOR ENROLLMENT IN THE CORPS.] A person is eligible to enroll in the Minnesota conservation corps if the person is:

- (1) a permanent resident of the state;
- (2) unemployed or underemployed;
- (3) at least age 15, but not older than age 26 years;
- (4) free from medical or behavioral problems that would render an individual unable to adjust to the standards, discipline, or requirements of the corps; and
- (5) in the young adult program, the person must have a high school diploma or equivalent, or agree to work towards a high school diploma or equivalent while participating in the program.

Subd. 5. [CORPS MEMBER STATUS.] Minnesota conservation corps members are not eligible for unemployment compensation or other benefits except workers' compensation, and are not employees of the state within the meaning of section 43A.02, subdivision 21.

Subd. 6. [FEES.] The commissioner may charge a fee for any service performed by the Minnesota conservation corps.

Subd. 7. [LIMITATIONS ON MINNESOTA CONSERVATION CORPS PROJECTS.] Each employing agency must certify that the assignment of Minnesota conservation corps members will not result in the displacement of currently employed workers or workers on seasonal layoff or layoff from a substantially equivalent position, including partial displacement such as reduction in hours of nonovertime work, wages, or other employment benefits. Supervising agencies that participate in the program may not terminate, lay off, reduce the seasonal hours, or reduce the working hours of any employee for the purpose of using a corps member with available funds. The positions and job duties of persons employed in projects shall be submitted to affected exclusive representatives prior to actual assignment.

Subd. 8. [EXPENDITURE OF CORPS FUNDS.] The commissioner shall allocate money received for Minnesota conservation corps work projects. An appropriation from a special revenue fund or account to the commissioner for Minnesota conservation corps programs must be spent for projects that are consistent with the purposes of the fund or account from which the appropriation was made.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

$1,000,000 in fiscal year 1990 and $1,000,000 in fiscal year 1991 are appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources for the 14 forested counties that operate land departments under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 282. The appropriation in the first year may be used in the second year. The money must be used for forestry-related programs using participants of the Minnesota conservation corps. A county participating in the program must make an in-kind contribution in the form of administration, tools, machinery, and transportation.

The money must be apportioned to the counties in the proportion that each county's managed commercial forest land is to the managed commercial forest land in all 14 counties. If a county does not use all of its share, the commissioner shall reallocate the balance to those of the 14 counties whose Minnesota conservation corps program was not fully supported by the first allocation for either year. The reallocation must be based on the proportion that commercial forest lands in each county to receive the reallocated money is to the managed commercial forest land in all of the counties receiving a reallocation.

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.01, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [DISABILITY.] "Disability" means any condition or characteristic that renders a person a disabled person. A disabled person is any person who (1) has a physical, sensory, or mental impairment which ~~substantially~~ materially limits one or more major life activities; (2) has a record of such an impairment; or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.01, subdivision 25a, is amended to read:

Subd. 25a. [QUALIFIED DISABLED PERSON.] "Qualified disabled person" means:

(1) with respect to employment, a disabled person who, with reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions required of all applicants for the job in question; and

(2) with respect to services and programs, a disabled person who, with physical and program access, meets the essential eligibility criteria required of all applicants for the program or service in question.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "disability" excludes any condition resulting from alcohol or drug abuse which prevents a person from performing the essential functions of the job in question or constitutes a direct threat to property or the safety of others.

If a respondent contends that the person is not a qualified disabled person, the burden is on the respondent to prove that it was reasonable to conclude the disabled person, with reasonable accommodation, could not have met the requirements of the job or that the selected person was demonstrably better able to perform the job.

Subd. 31. [FAMILIAL STATUS.] "Familial status" means the condition of one or more minors being domiciled with (a) their parent or parents or the minor's legal guardian or (b) the designee of the parent or parents or guardian with the written permission of the parent or parents or guardian. The protections afforded against discrimination on the basis of family status apply to any person who is pregnant or is in the process of securing legal custody of an individual who has not attained the age of majority.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYMENT.] The provisions of section 363.03, subdivision 1, shall not apply to:

(1) The employment of any individual

(a) by the individual's parent, grandparent, spouse, child, or grandchild, or

(b) in the domestic service of any person;

(2) A religious or fraternal corporation, association, or society, with respect to qualifications based on religion, when religion shall be a bona fide occupational qualification for employment;

(3) The employment of one person in place of another, standing by itself, shall not be evidence of an unfair discriminatory practice;

(4) The operation of a bona fide seniority system which mandates differences in such things as wages, hiring priorities, layoff priorities, vacation credit, and job assignments based on seniority, so long as the operation of the system is not a subterfuge to evade the provisions of this chapter;

(5) With respect to age discrimination, a practice by which a labor organization or employer offers or supplies varying insurance benefits or other fringe benefits to members or employees of differing ages, so long as the cost to the labor organization or employer for the benefits is reasonably equivalent for all members or employees;

(6) A restriction imposed by state statute, home rule charter, ordinance, or civil service rule, and applied uniformly and without exception to all individuals, which establishes a maximum age for entry into employment as a peace officer or firefighter.

(7) Nothing in this chapter concerning age discrimination shall be construed to validate or permit age requirements which have a disproportionate impact on persons of any class otherwise protected by section 363.03, subdivision 1 or 5.

(8) It is not an unfair employment practice for an employer, employment agency, or labor organization:

(i) to require or request a person to undergo physical examination, which may include a medical history, for the purpose of determining the person's capability to perform available employment, provided (a) that an offer of employment has been made on condition that the person meets the physical or mental requirements of the job; (b) that the examination tests only for essential job-related abilities; and (c) that the examination except for examinations authorized under chapter 176 is required of all persons conditionally offered employment for the same position regardless of disability; or

(ii) with the consent of the employee, to obtain additional medical information for the purposes of establishing an employee health record;

(iii) to administer preemployment tests, provided that the tests (a) measure only essential job-related abilities, (b) are required of all applicants for the same position regardless of disability except for tests authorized under chapter 176, and (c) accurately measure the applicant's aptitude, achievement level, or whatever factors they purport to measure rather than reflecting the applicant's impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills except when those skills are the factors that the tests purport to measure; or

(iv) to limit receipt of benefits payable under a fringe benefit plan for disabilities to that period of time which a licensed physician reasonably determines a person is unable to work; or

(v) to provide special safety considerations for pregnant women involved in tasks which are potentially hazardous to the health of the unborn child, as determined by medical criteria.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.02, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOUSING.] (1) The provisions of section 363.03, subdivision 2, shall not apply to:

(a) rooms in a temporary or permanent residence home run by a nonprofit organization, if the discrimination is by sex; or

(b) the rental by a resident owner or occupier of a one-family accommodation of a room or rooms in the accommodation to another person or persons if the discrimination is by sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance or disability. ~~Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require any~~ Except as provided elsewhere in this chapter or other state or federal law, no person or group of persons selling, renting or leasing property is required to modify the property in any way, or exercise a higher degree of care for a person having a disability than for a person who does not have a disability; nor shall this chapter be construed to relieve any person or persons of any obligations generally imposed on all persons regardless of any disability in a written lease, rental agreement, or contract of purchase or sale, or to forbid distinctions based on the inability to fulfill the terms and conditions, including financial obligations of the lease, agreement or contract.

(2) The provisions of section 363.03, subdivision 2, prohibiting discrimination because of familial status shall not be construed to defeat the applicability of any local, state or federal restrictions regarding the maximum number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling unit and shall not apply to:

(a) any unoccupied dwelling unit in one building of a housing complex consisting of two buildings or, in a housing complex consisting of three or more buildings, any unoccupied dwelling unit in up to one-third of all buildings in the housing complex. For the purposes of this clause, "housing complex" means a group of buildings each containing five or more units on a contiguous parcel of land owned by the same person; a building shall not be exempt from section 363.03, subdivision 2, pursuant to this clause unless the owner has filed an election to designate the building as exempt with the commissioner; an election made by an owner pursuant to this clause may not be withdrawn for purposes of designating another building in the housing complex as exempt for a period of one year from the filing of the election; or

(b) any unit in a condominium created prior to April 12, 1980, any unit in a condominium, other than a condominium converted from a residential building, created on or after April 12, 1980, and any unit in an adults-only condominium created from an existing adults-only rental building on or after April 12, 1980; or

(d) any owner occupied building containing four or fewer dwelling units; or

(e) an unoccupied dwelling unit in any building which is the subject of a valid certificate filed with the commissioner pursuant to the provisions of this clause. To be valid, a certificate must be on a form provided by the commissioner, be received by the commissioner, state that on the date that the certificate is received by the commissioner at least a majority of the dwelling units in the building are occupied by elderly persons or are unoccupied and available for occupancy solely by households of which at least one member is an elderly person, state that on the date that the certificate is received by the commissioner there is on file with the owner of the building or a specified duly authorized agent of the owner for each occupied unit relied upon in support of the certificate a signed statement by an elderly person occupying the unit on the date that the certificate is received by the commissioner that the person is an elderly person, state that for a period of 180 days following the receipt of the certificate by the commissioner the owner or duly authorized agent will preserve the signed statements of the elderly persons and will, upon request, make the statements available for inspection by the commissioner or by any local commission having jurisdiction over the building, be signed by the owner or the duly authorized agent, and be in all respects true and accurate. A valid certificate shall remain valid for a period of 180 days following the date on which it is received by the commissioner.

Any owner or authorized agent who files a certificate containing statements or information that the owner or authorized agent knows or should reasonably know to be false shall be guilty of a misdemeanor;

(f) any unoccupied dwelling unit of up to one-third of the units in a building that is not part of a multibuilding complex; or

(g) any dwelling unit in a building owned by a cooperative apartment corporation, other than a building converted from a residential rental building to a cooperative apartment corporation building on or after April 12, 1980, unless that conversion was from an existing adults-only residential rental building.

(b) housing for elderly persons. "Housing for elderly persons" means housing:

(i) provided under any state or federal program that the commissioner determines is specifically designed and operated to assist elderly persons, as defined in the state or federal program;

(ii) intended for, and solely occupied by, persons 62 years of age or older; or

(iii) intended and operated for occupancy by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit, provided that:

(A) there are significant facilities and services specifically designed to meet the physical or social needs of older persons, or if the provision of these facilities and services is not practicable, that the housing is necessary to provide important housing opportunities for older persons;

(B) at least 80 percent of the units are occupied by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit; and

(C) there is publication of, and adherence to, policies and procedures that demonstrate an intent by the owner or manager to provide housing for persons 55 years of age or older.

Housing does not fail to meet the requirements for housing for elderly persons by reason of persons residing in the housing as of the effective date of this act who do not meet the age requirements of clause (b), items (ii) and (iii) if new occupants of the housing meet the age requirements of clause (b), item (ii) or (iii). In addition, housing does not fail to meet the requirements by reason of unoccupied units if unoccupied units are reserved for occupancy by persons who meet the age requirements of clause (b), item (ii) or (iii).

(2) do not apply to a section or sections of a manufactured home park which are identified by park rule and do not comprise more than one-third of the lots in the park. In order to qualify for exemption under this subdivision, A park owner must comply with section 327C.02, subdivision 2, 327C.05, or 327C.07, subdivision 4, when adopting or amending a rule concerning the permitted familial status of residents or of buyers of homes offered for in park sale.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.02, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [EVICTION DUE TO FAMILIAL STATUS.] The provisions of section 363.03, subdivision 2, prohibiting discrimination because of familial status, do not apply to eviction from, or denial of continuing tenancy in, dwelling units exempt through certification under this section, provided that (1) one year has elapsed from the commencement of the familial status and (2) six months prior written notice has been given to the tenant, unless the eviction or denial of continuing tenancy is for nonpayment of rent, damage to the premises, disturbance of other tenants, or other breach of the lease.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.02, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [AGE.] By law or published retirement policy, a mandatory retirement age may be established without being a violation of this chapter if it is established consistent with section 181.81. Nothing in this chapter nor in section 181.81 shall prohibit employee pension and retirement plans from granting pension credit to employees over the age of 65 at a lesser rate than is granted to other employees, provided that in no event may an employee's accumulated pension credits be reduced by continued employment, and further provided that no other state or federal law is violated by the reduced rate of pension credit accrual. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the establishment of differential privileges, benefits, services or facilities for persons of designated ages if (a) such differential treatment is provided pursuant to statute, or (b) the designated age is greater than 59 years or less than 21 years.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYMENT.] Except when based on a bona fide occupational qualification, it is an unfair employment practice:

(1) For a labor organization, because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age,

(a) to deny full and equal membership rights to a person seeking membership or to a member;

(b) to expel a member from membership;

(c) to discriminate against a person seeking membership or a member with respect to hiring, apprenticeship, tenure, compensation, terms, upgrading, conditions, facilities, or privileges of employment; or

(d) to fail to classify properly, or refer for employment or otherwise to discriminate against a person or member.

(2) For an employer, because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local commission, disability, or age,

(a) to refuse to hire or to maintain a system of employment which unreasonably excludes a person seeking employment; or

(b) to discharge an employee; or

(c) to discriminate against a person with respect to hiring, tenure, compensation, terms, upgrading, conditions, facilities, or privileges of employment.

(3) For an employment agency, because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age,

(a) to refuse or fail to accept, register, classify properly, or refer for employment or otherwise to discriminate against a person; or

(b) to comply with a request from an employer for referral of applicants for employment if the request indicates directly or indirectly that the employer fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter.

(4) For an employer, employment agency, or labor organization, before a person is employed by an employer or admitted to membership in a labor organization, to

(a) require the person to furnish information that pertains to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance or, disability, or age; or, subject to section 363.02, subdivision 1, to require or request a person to undergo physical examination; unless, for the sole and exclusive purpose of national security, information pertaining to national origin is required by the United States, this state or a political subdivision or agency of the United States or this state, or for the sole and exclusive purpose of compliance with the public contracts act or any rule, regulation, or laws of the United States or of this state requiring the information pertaining to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance or disability is required by the United States or a political subdivision or agency of the United States or examination; or

(b) seek and obtain for purposes of making a job decision, information from any source that pertains to the person's race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age, unless for the sole and exclusive purpose of compliance with the public contracts act or any rule, regulation, or laws of the United States or of this state requiring the information; or

(c) cause to be printed or published a notice or advertisement that relates to employment or membership and discloses a preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age.

Any individual who is required to provide information that is prohibited by this subdivision is an aggrieved party under section 363.06.

(5) For an employer, an employment agency or a labor organization, with respect to all employment related purposes, including receipt of benefits under fringe benefit programs, not to treat women affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or disabilities related to pregnancy or childbirth, the same as other persons who are not so affected but who are similar in their ability or inability to work.

(6) For an employer with 50 or more permanent, full-time employees, an employment agency or a labor organization, not to make reasonable accommodation to the known disability of a qualified disabled person or job applicant unless the employer, agency, or organization can demonstrate that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the business, agency, or organization. "Reasonable accommodation" means steps which must be taken to accommodate the known physical or mental limitations of a qualified disabled person. "Reasonable accommodation" may include but is not limited to, nor does it necessarily require: (a) making facilities readily accessible to and usable by disabled persons; and (b) job restructuring, modified work schedules ~~that do not reduce the total number of hours normally worked~~, acquisition or modification of equipment or devices, and the provision of aides on a temporary or periodic basis.

In determining whether an accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of a business or organization, factors to be considered include:

(a) the overall size of the business or organization with respect to number of employees or members and the number and type of facilities;

(b) the type of the operation, including the composition and structure of the work force, and the number of employees at the location where the employment would occur;

(c) the nature and cost of the needed accommodation;

(d) the reasonable ability to finance the accommodation at each site of business; and

(e) documented good faith efforts to explore less restrictive or less expensive alternatives, including consultation with the disabled person or with knowledgeable disabled persons or organizations.

A prospective employer need not pay for an accommodation for a job applicant if it is available from an alternative source without cost to the employer or applicant.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [DISCLOSURE OF MEDICAL INFORMATION.] If any health care records or medical information adversely affects any employment decision concerning an applicant, the employer must notify the affected party of that information within ten days of the decision.

(b) to discriminate against any person or group of persons because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status in the terms, conditions or privileges of the sale, rental or lease of any real property or in the furnishing of facilities or services in connection therewith, except that nothing in this clause shall be construed to prohibit the adoption of reasonable rules intended to protect the safety of minors in their use of the real property or any facilities or services furnished in connection therewith; or

(2) For a real estate broker, real estate salesperson, or employee, or agent thereof:

(a) to refuse to sell, rent, or lease or to offer for sale, rental, or lease any real property to any person or group of persons or to negotiate for the sale, rental, or lease of any real property to any person or group of persons because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status or represent that real property is not available for inspection, sale, rental, or lease when in fact it is so available, or otherwise deny or withhold any real property or any facilities of real property to or from any person or group of persons because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status; or

(b) to discriminate against any person because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status in the terms, conditions or privileges of the sale, rental or lease of real property or in the furnishing of facilities or services in connection therewith; or

(3) For a person, bank, banking organization, mortgage company, insurance company, or other financial institution or lender to whom application is made for financial assistance for the purchase, lease, acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, repair or maintenance of any real property or any agent or employee thereof:

(a) to discriminate against any person or group of persons because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status of the person or group of persons or of the prospective occupants or tenants of the real property in the granting, withholding, extending, modifying or renewing, or in the rates, terms, conditions, or privileges of the financial assistance or in the extension of services in connection therewith; or

(b) to use any form of application for the financial assistance or make any record or inquiry in connection with applications for the financial assistance which expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination; or

(c) to discriminate against any person or group of persons who desire to purchase, lease, acquire, construct, rehabilitate, repair, or maintain real property in a specific urban or rural area or any part thereof solely because of the social, economic, or environmental conditions of the area in the granting, withholding, extending, modifying, or renewing, or in the rates, terms, conditions, or privileges of the financial assistance or in the extension of services in connection therewith.

(4) For any real estate broker or real estate salesperson, for the purpose of inducing a real property transaction from which the person, the person's firm, or any of its members may benefit financially, to represent that a change has occurred or will or may occur in the composition with respect to race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, or disability of the owners or occupants in the block, neighborhood, or area in which the real property is located, and to represent, directly or indirectly, that this change will or may result in undesirable consequences in the block, neighborhood, or area in which the real property is located, including but not limited to the lowering of property values, an increase in criminal or antisocial behavior, or a decline in the quality of schools or other public facilities.

(5) For a person to deny a totally or partially blind, physically handicapped, or deaf person with a service dog full and equal access to real property provided for in this section. The person may not be required to pay extra compensation for the service dog but is liable for damage done to the premises by the service dog.

(6) For a home improvement, repair, or maintenance business to discriminate in terms, conditions, or extension of services against any person or group of persons who desire to rehabilitate, repair, or maintain real property in a specific urban or rural area or any part of the area because of the social or economic conditions of the area.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any law, ordinance, or home rule charter to the contrary, no person shall be deemed to have committed an unfair discriminatory practice based upon age if the unfair discriminatory practice alleged is attempted or accomplished for the purpose of obtaining or maintaining one of the exemptions provided for a dwelling unit provided for in section 363.02, subdivision 2.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [REAL PROPERTY; DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION.]

(a) For purposes of subdivision 2, "discrimination" includes:

(1) a refusal to permit, at the expense of the disabled person, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by the disabled person if modifications may be necessary to afford the disabled person full enjoyment of the premises; a landlord may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a modification on the renter agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that existed before the modification, excluding reasonable wear and tear;

(2) a refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services when accommodations may be necessary to afford a disabled person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; or

(3) in connection with the design and construction of covered multifamily dwellings for first occupancy after March 13, 1991, a failure to design and construct those dwellings in a manner that:

(i) the public use and common use portions are readily accessible to and usable by a disabled person;

(ii) all the doors designed to allow passage into and within all premises are sufficiently wide to allow passage by disabled persons in wheelchairs; and

(iii) all premises contain the following features of adaptive design: an accessible route into and through the dwelling; light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats, and other environmental controls in accessible locations; reinforcements in bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab bars; and usable kitchens and bathrooms so that an individual in a wheelchair can maneuver about the space.

(b) As used in this subdivision, "covered multifamily dwellings" means:

(1) a building consisting of four or more units if the building has one or more elevators; and

(2) ground floor units in other buildings consisting of four or more units.

(c) This subdivision does not invalidate or limit any law of the state or political subdivision of the state, or other jurisdiction in which this subdivision applies, that requires dwellings to be designed and constructed in a manner that affords disabled persons greater access than is required by this subdivision.

(d) This subdivision does not require that a dwelling be made available to an individual whose tenancy would constitute a direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or whose tenancy would result in substantial physical damage to the property of others.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS.] It is an unfair discriminatory practice:

(1) To deny any person the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations of a place of public accommodation because of race, color, creed, religion, disability, national origin or sex. It is an unfair discriminatory practice for a taxicab company to discriminate in the access to, full utilization of or benefit from service because of a person's disability. Nothing in this subdivision requires any person to exercise a higher degree of care for a person having a disability or to modify property in any way except as required by the accessibility provisions of the state building code.

(2) For a place of public accommodation not to make reasonable accommodation to the known physical disability of a disabled person. State or local building codes govern where applicable. For a place of public accommodation with annual gross revenues less than $250,000, reasonable accommodations that cost $1,000 or more in the aggregate are not required in any calendar or fiscal year. In determining whether an accommodation is reasonable, the factors to be considered may include:

(a) the frequency and predictability with which members of the public will be served by the accommodation at that location;

(b) the size of the business or organization at that location with respect to physical size, annual gross revenues, and the number of employees;

(c) the extent to which disabled persons will be further served from the accommodation;

(d) the type of operation;

(e) the nature and both direct and legitimate indirect costs of making the accommodation and the reasonableness for that location to finance the accommodation;

(f) the extent to which any persons may be adversely affected by the accommodation.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REPRISALS.] It is an unfair discriminatory practice for any employer, labor organization, employment agency, public accommodation, public service, educational institution, or owner, lessor, lessee, sublessee, assignee or managing agent of any real property, or any real estate broker, real estate salesperson or employee or agent thereof to intentionally engage in any reprisal against any person because that person:

(1) Opposed a practice forbidden under this chapter or has filed a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any matter manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this chapter; or

(2) Associated with a person or group of persons who are disabled or who are of different race, color, creed, religion, or national origin.

A reprisal includes, but is not limited to, any form of intimidation, retaliation, or harassment. It is a reprisal for an employer to do any of the following with respect to an individual because that individual has engaged in the activities listed in clause (1) or (2): refuse to hire the individual; depart from any customary employment practice; transfer or assign the individual to a lesser position in terms of wages, hours, job classification, job security, or other employment status; or inform another employer that the individual has engaged in the activities listed in clause (1) or (2).

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.03, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CREDIT; SEX DISCRIMINATION.] It is an unfair discriminatory practice:

(1) to discriminate in the extension of personal or commercial credit to a person, or in the requirements for obtaining credit, because of race, color, creed, religion, disability, national origin, sex, or marital status; or

(2) for a credit card issuer to refuse to issue a credit card to a woman under her current or former surname unless there is an intent to defraud or mislead, except that a credit card issuer may require that a woman requesting a card under a former surname open a separate account in that name. A credit card issuer may also require disclosure of any other names under which the credit card applicant may have a credit history.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.05, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SERVICE, ENFORCEMENT, AND EFFECT OF SUBPOENA.] (a) Disobedience of a subpoena issued by the commissioner pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be punishable in like manner as a contempt of the district court in proceedings instituted upon application of the commissioner made to the district court of the county where the alleged unfair discriminatory practice in connection with a charge made by a charging party or a complaint filed by the commissioner has occurred or where the respondent resides or has a principal place of business.

(b) It is not a violation of rights conferred by chapter 13 or any other statute related to the confidentiality of government data for an state agency, statewide system, or political subdivision as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 11, to provide data or information under a subpoena issued by the commissioner under this section.

(c) A subpoena issued under subdivision 1 must be served personally or by mailing a copy of the subpoena, by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the person to be served. The subpoena must include two copies of a notice and acknowledgment of service on a form to be provided by the commissioner, and a return envelope, postage prepaid, addressed to the sender. If acknowledgment of service is not received by the commissioner within 20 days, service is not effective. Unless good cause is shown for not doing so, a court or administrative law judge shall order the payment of the costs of personal service by the person served if the person does not complete and return the notice and acknowledgment of receipt of the subpoena within the time allowed.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.072, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPEAL.] The commissioner or a person aggrieved by a final decision of the department reached after a hearing held pursuant to section 363.071 may seek judicial review in accordance with chapter 14. ~~The attorney general shall represent on appeal, a charging party who prevailed at a hearing authorized by section 363.071, subdivision 1a, if the charging party requests representation within ten days after receipt of the petition for appeal.~~

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.073, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE OF APPLICATION.] No department or agency of the state shall receive, enter into, or accept any bid or proposal for a contract nor execute any contract for goods, services, or the performance of any function, or any agreement to transfer funds for any reason in excess of $50,000 with any person having more than 20 full-time employees in Minnesota at any time during the previous 12 months, unless the person has an affirmative action plan for the employment of minority persons, women, and the disabled that has been approved by the commissioner of human rights. Receipt of a certificate of compliance issued by the commissioner shall signify that a person has an affirmative action plan that has been approved by the commissioner. A certificate shall be valid for a period of two years.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.117, is amended to read:

363.117 [WITHDRAWAL FROM A LOCAL COMMISSION.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of any law or ordinance to the contrary, a person who has filed a charge with a local commission may bring a civil action as provided in section 363.14 at the following times:

(a) Within 45 days after receipt of notice that the local commission has determined that there is no probable cause to credit the allegations contained in the charge; receipt of notice is presumed to be five days from the date of written notice; or

(b) After 45 days from the filing of the charge if a hearing has not been held or if the local commission has not entered into a conciliation agreement to which the charging party is a signator. The charging party shall notify the local commission of an intention to bring a civil action, which shall be commenced within 90 days of giving the notice.

A charging party bringing a civil action shall mail by registered or certified mail a copy of the summons and complaint to the local commission and upon their receipt the local commission shall terminate all proceedings before the local commission relating to the charge. No charge shall be filed or reinstated with the local commission after a civil action relating to the same unfair discriminatory practice has been brought unless the civil action has been dismissed without prejudice.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.123, is amended to read:

363.123 [VIOLATION OF ACT.]

It shall be a violation of ~~Laws 1973, this chapter 729~~ for any person furnishing credit service to discriminate against any person who is the recipient of federal, state or local public assistance, including medical assistance, or who is a tenant receiving federal, state or local housing subsidies, including rental assistance or rent supplements, ~~solely~~ because the individual is such a recipient.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.14, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COURT ACTIONS, SUITS BY PRIVATE PARTIES, INTERVENTION.] (a) The commissioner or a person may bring a civil action seeking redress for an unfair discriminatory practice directly to district court. In addition, a person may bring a civil action:

(1) within 45 days after receipt of notice that the commissioner has dismissed a charge because it is frivolous or without merit, because the charging party has failed to provide required information, because the commissioner has determined that further use of department resources is not warranted, or because the commissioner has determined that there is no probable cause to credit the allegations contained in a charge filed with the commissioner;

(2) within 45 days after receipt of notice that the commissioner has reaffirmed a determination of no probable cause if the charging party requested a reconsideration of the no probable cause determination, or has decided not to reopen a dismissed case that the charging party has asked to be reopened; or

(3) after 45 days from the filing of a charge pursuant to section 363.06, subdivision 1, if a hearing has not been held pursuant to section 363.071 or if the commissioner has not entered into a conciliation agreement to which the charging party is a signator. The charging party shall notify the commissioner of an intention to bring a civil action, which shall be commenced within 90 days of giving the notice.

For purposes of clauses (1) and (2), receipt of notice is presumed to be five days from the date of written notice.

(b) If the commissioner has issued both probable cause and no probable cause determinations on separate issues in the same charge, the charging party may, if a hearing is held, require that all matters be heard at the hearing or may bring a civil action for the no probable cause charges at the same time as the probable cause charges under the rules and time frames that govern the probable cause charges.

(c) A charging party bringing a civil action shall mail by registered or certified mail a copy of the summons and complaint to the commissioner, and upon their receipt the commissioner shall terminate all proceedings in the department relating to the charge. No charge shall be filed or reinstated with the commissioner after a civil action relating to the same unfair discriminatory practice has been brought unless the civil action has been dismissed without prejudice.

(d) Upon application by the complaining party to the district court at a special term and under circumstances the court deems just, the court may appoint an attorney for the person and may authorize the commencement of the action without payment of fees, costs, or security.

(e) Upon timely application, the court may permit the department to intervene in a civil action brought pursuant to this section upon certification that the case is of general public importance.

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall renumber Minnesota Statutes, section 363.123 as section 363.03, subdivision 8b.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE.] The purpose of this section is to promote rigorous academic pursuits and to provide a wider variety of options to public high school pupils by encouraging and enabling secondary pupils to enroll full time or part time in nonsectarian and nonremedial courses or programs in eligible post-secondary institutions, as defined in subdivision 3.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [AUTHORIZATION; NOTIFICATION.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, an 11th or 12th grade public school pupil may apply to an eligible institution, as defined in subdivision 3, to enroll in nonsectarian and nonremedial courses offered at that post-secondary institution. If an institution accepts a secondary pupil for enrollment under this section, the institution shall send written notice to the pupil, the pupil's school district, and the commissioner of education within ten days of acceptance. The notice shall indicate the course and hours of enrollment of that pupil. If the pupil enrolls in a course for post-secondary credit, the institution shall notify the pupil about payment in the customary manner used by the institution. Acceptance for enrollment is not a guarantee of registration into a particular course. The pupil must comply with the institution's standards, prerequisites, and procedures to register for a course.

During the time a pupil is enrolled at a post-secondary institution under this section, the post-secondary institution must periodically inform the pupil; the pupil's parents or guardian, and the pupil's secondary school of the pupil's progress in the courses or programs taken for secondary credit.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 4c, is amended to read:

If no comparable course is offered by the district, the district shall, as soon as possible, notify the state board of education which shall determine the number of credits that shall be granted to a pupil who successfully completes a course. If a comparable course is offered by the district, the school board shall grant a comparable number of credits to the pupil. If there is a dispute between the district and the pupil regarding the number of credits granted for a particular course, the pupil may appeal the school board's decision to the state board of education. The state board's decision regarding the number of credits shall be final.

The secondary credits granted to a pupil shall be counted toward the graduation requirements and subject area requirements of the school district. Evidence of successful completion of each course and secondary credits granted shall be included in the pupil's secondary school record. A pupil must provide the school with a copy of the pupil's grade in each course taken under this section. Upon the request of a pupil, the pupil's secondary school record shall also include evidence of successful completion and credits granted for a course taken for post-secondary credit. In either case, the record shall indicate that the credits were earned at a post-secondary institution.

If a pupil enrolls in a post-secondary institution after leaving secondary school, the post-secondary institution shall award post-secondary credit for any course successfully completed for secondary credit at that institution. Other post-secondary institutions may award, after a pupil leaves secondary school, post-secondary credit for any courses successfully completed under this section. An institution may not charge a pupil for the award of credit.

Subd. 7. [FEES; TEXTBOOKS; MATERIALS.] A post-secondary institution that receives reimbursement for a pupil under subdivision 6 may not charge that pupil for fees, textbooks, materials, or other necessary costs of the course or program in which the pupil is enrolled if the charge would be prohibited under section 120.74, except for equipment purchased by the pupil that becomes the property of the pupil. Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 53.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION, FEE, NOTICE.] Any corporation hereafter organized as an industrial loan and thrift company, shall, after compliance with the requirements set forth in sections 53.01 and 53.02, file a written application with the department of commerce for a certificate of authorization. A corporation that will not sell or issue thrift certificates for investment as permitted by this chapter need not comply with subdivision 2b. The application must be in the form prescribed by the department of commerce. The application must be made in the name of the corporation, executed and acknowledged by an officer designated by the board of directors of the corporation, requesting a certificate authorizing the corporation to transact business as an industrial loan and thrift company, at the place and in the name stated in the application. At the time of filing the application the applicant shall pay a $1,000 filing fee and a $500 investigation fee. The fees must be turned over by the commissioner to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund. The applicant shall also submit a copy of the bylaws of the corporation, its articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto at that time. If the application is contested, 50 percent of an additional fee equal to the actual costs incurred by the department of commerce in approving or disapproving the application, payable to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund shall be paid by the applicant and 50 percent equally by the intervening parties. A notice of the filing of the application must be published once within 30 days of the receipt of the form prescribed by the department of commerce, at the expense of the applicant, in a qualified newspaper published in the municipality in which the proposed industrial loan and thrift company is to be located, or, if there be none, in a qualified newspaper published at the county seat of the county likely to give notice in the municipality in which the company is proposed to be located. If the department of commerce receives a written objection to the application from any person within 20 days of the notice having been fully published a contested case hearing must be conducted on the application. Notice of a hearing in connection with this section must be published once in the form prescribed by the department of commerce, at the expense of the applicant, in the same manner as a notice of application.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 53.03, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PLACE OF BUSINESS.] Not more than one place of business may be maintained under any certificate of authorization issued subsequent to the enactment of Laws 1943, chapter 67, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, but the department of commerce may issue more than one certificate of authorization to the same corporation upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a certificate of authorization. To the extent that previously filed applicable information remains unchanged, the applicant need not refile this information, unless requested. The filing fee for a branch application shall be $500 and the investigation fee $250. If a corporation has been issued more than one certificate of authorization, the corporation shall allocate a portion of ~~contributed~~ capital stock to each office for which a certificate has been issued, in order to comply with the capital requirements of sections 53.02 and 53.05, clause (2), which sections are applicable to each office and the capital allocated thereto in the same manner as if each certificate had been issued to a separate corporation. An industrial loan and thrift corporation with deposit liabilities may change one or more of its locations upon the written approval of the commissioner of commerce. A fee of $100 must accompany each application to the commissioner for approval to change the location of an established office. An industrial loan and thrift corporation that does not sell and issue thrift certificates for investment may change one or more locations by giving 30 days' written notice to the department of commerce which shall promptly amend the certificate of authorization accordingly.

Sec. 22, Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 53.05, is amended to read:

53.05 [POWERS, LIMITATION.]

No industrial loan and thrift company may do any of the following:

(1) carry demand banking accounts; use the word "savings" unless the institution's investment certificates, savings accounts, and savings deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and then only if the word is not followed by the words "and loan" in its corporate name; use the word "bank" or "banking" in its corporate name; operate as a savings bank;

(2) have outstanding at any one time certificates of indebtedness, savings accounts, and savings deposits; ~~exclusive of those held by the company, as security for loans made by it of more than seven times the sum of the contributed capital and appropriated reserves of the company until July 1, 1985, or the date an industrial loan and thrift company obtains a commitment for insurance or guarantee of accounts acceptable to the commissioner as required by section 53.10, whichever is earlier, and thereafter 15~~ 30 times the sum of contributed capital stock and appropriated reserves surplus of the company;

(3) accept trusts, except as provided in section 47.75, subdivision 1, or act as guardian, administrator, or judicial trustee in any form;

(4) deposit any of its funds in any banking corporation, unless that corporation has been designated by vote of a majority of directors or of the executive committee present at a meeting duly called, at which a quorum was in attendance;

(5) change any allocation of capital made pursuant to section 53.03 or reduce or withdraw in any way any portion of the contributed capital stock and appropriated reserves surplus without prior written approval of the commissioner of commerce;

(6) take any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution;

(7) lend money in excess of ~~15~~ 20 percent of the total of its contributed capital and appropriated reserves stock and surplus at all its authorized locations to a person primarily liable. "Contributed capital and appropriated reserves" means the total of the company's contributed capital and appropriated reserves at all its authorized locations.

If a loan has been made to a person primarily liable and payments have been made on a certificate of indebtedness securing it, the amount of the payments may be added to the limitation contained in this clause for the purpose of determining whether additional loans may be made to that person. However, industrial loan and thrift companies with deposit liabilities must comply with the provisions of section 48.24; or

(8) issue cashier's checks pursuant to section 48.151, unless and at all times the aggregate liability to all creditors on these instruments is protected by a special fund in cash or due from banks to be used solely for payment of the cashier's checks.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 53.06, is amended to read:

53.06 [DIRECTORS, RESIDENCE.]

At least three-fourths of the directors of any industrial loan and thrift company holding a certificate that includes the right to issue thrift certificates for investment must be residents of the county in which the industrial loan and thrift company maintains its principal place of business, an adjacent county or any county in which the industrial loan and thrift company maintains a place of business pursuant to this chapter Minnesota.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 53.08, is amended to read:

53.08 [DIVIDENDS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR DIVIDENDS.] When an industrial loan and thrift company is organized under this chapter or operating thereunder, the board of directors may declare a dividend of so much of the net profits of the corporation, after providing for all expenses, reserves, interest, and taxes accrued or due from the corporation, as they shall judge expedient, but before any dividend is declared, not less than one-tenth of the net profits of the industrial loan and thrift company of the preceding half year, or for such period as is covered by the dividend, shall be carried to ~~an invested income fund or appropriated reserves surplus~~ until the aggregate of ~~invested income undivided profits and appropriated reserves surplus~~ shall amount to 20 percent of its capital represented by shares of common stock.

Subd. 2. [SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR DEPOSIT COMPANIES.] In addition to the conditions in subdivision 1, industrial loan and thrift companies having outstanding time certificates of indebtedness, savings accounts, or savings deposits must comply with the following special conditions:

(1) the dividend period for the purpose of declaring dividends shall be the period beginning on January 1 and ending as of the close of business December 31 of each calendar year and the net income for this period shall be determined from the consolidated report of income of each company;

(2) the department of commerce will supply each company with forms to be completed with information called for. The forms must be mailed or delivered to the commissioner within ten days of the date of declaration of any dividend and at least 15 days before the proposed payment date of any dividend. The forms shall contain a statement by the commissioner providing that if certain requirements as set forth in the statement are met, the company may pay a cash dividend or dividends without specific approval of the commissioner in the year after the dividend period amounts so as not to reduce the company's capital, surplus, undivided profits, and reserves below these requirements;

(3) declared dividends shall be deducted from undivided profits and carried on the books as another liability entitled "dividends payable." The other liability account shall be reversed upon payment or nonapproval by the commissioner; and

(4) except as provided in clause (2), no company shall pay a cash dividend to its stockholders until written approval for the dividend has been obtained from the commissioner.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 53.09, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES.] The penalties for violation of this chapter, or for any wrongdoing in connection therewith, shall be the same as those applied to state banks under the laws of this state. In addition to being subject to the penalties in section 48.28, a company in violation of section 53.05, clause (2), may cure this violation in the manner provided in section 48.28.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 54.294, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

[DOCUMENTS FILED FOR EXAMINATION.] Notwithstanding the examination frequency prescribed by section 46.04, the examination of the face amount certificate companies described in Minnesota Statutes 1974, section 54.26, shall be carried out on an annual basis by the commissioner. In conducting such examination, the commissioner may utilize reports which have been audited and attested to by independent certified public accountants. The procedures employed by the independent certified public accountants shall conform to generally accepted auditing standards. Each face amount certificate investment company shall file with the commissioner copies of its prospectuses, semiannual and annual reports to shareholders, S-1 registration statements and amendments thereto, and annual reports to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, all as filed pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. The commissioner may accept as filed copies of the foregoing material previously filed with the commissioner of commerce. Other face amount certificate investment companies described in Minnesota Statutes 1974, section 54.26, shall file with the commissioner copies of their semiannual and annual reports, which annual reports have been audited and attested to by independent certified public accountants as to assets maintained on deposit and the value thereof, and semiannual and annual reports, which annual reports have been certified by independent certified public accountants, as to certificate liabilities.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 56.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST RATES AND CHARGES.] (a) On any loan in a principal amount not exceeding $35,000 or ten percent of a corporate licensee's ~~contributed capital stock and appropriated reserves~~ surplus as defined in section 53.015, if greater, a licensee may contract for and receive interest, calculated according to the actuarial method, not exceeding the equivalent of the greater of any of the following:

(1) the total of: (i) 33 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount not exceeding $350; and (ii) 19 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount exceeding $350; or

(2) 21.75 percent per year on the unpaid balance of the principal amount.

(b) On any loan where interest has been calculated according to the method provided for in paragraph (a), clause (1), interest must be contracted for and earned as provided in that provision or at the single annual percentage rate computed to the nearest 1/100 of one percent that would earn the same total interest at maturity of the contract as would be earned by the application of the graduated rates provided in paragraph (a), clause (1), when the debt is paid according to the agreed terms and the calculations are made according to the actuarial method.

(c) Loans may be interest-bearing or precomputed.

(d) To compute time on interest-bearing and precomputed loans, including, but not limited to the calculation of interest, a day is considered $\frac{1}{30}$ of a month when calculation is made for a fraction of a calendar month. A year is 12 calendar months. A calendar month is that period from a given date in one month to the same numbered date in the following month, and if there is no same numbered date, to the last day of the following month. When a period of time includes a whole month and a fraction of a month, the fraction of a month is considered to follow the whole month.

In the alternative, for interest-bearing loans, a licensee may charge interest at the rate of $\frac{1}{365}$ of the agreed annual rate for each actual day elapsed.

(e) With respect to interest-bearing loans:

(1) Interest must be computed on unpaid principal balances outstanding from time to time, for the time outstanding. Each payment must be applied first to the accumulated interest and the remainder of the payment applied to the unpaid principal balance; provided however, that if the amount of the payment is insufficient to pay the accumulated interest, the unpaid interest continues to accumulate to be paid from the proceeds of subsequent payments and is not added to the principal balance.

(2) Interest must not be payable in advance or compounded. However, if part or all of the consideration for a new loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan, then the principal amount payable under the new loan contract may include any unpaid interest which has accrued. The unpaid principal balance of a precomputed loan is the balance due after refund or credit of unearned interest as provided in paragraph (f), clause (3). The resulting loan contract is deemed a new and separate loan transaction for all purposes.

(f) With respect to precomputed loans:

(1) Loans must be repayable in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and interest combined, except that the first installment period may be more or less than one month by not more than 15 days, and the first installment payment amount may be larger than the remaining payments by the amount of interest charged for the extra days and must be reduced by the amount of interest for the number of days less than one month to the first installment payment; and monthly installment payment dates may be omitted to accommodate borrowers with seasonal income.

(2) Payments may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed interest until the loan is fully paid. Payments must be applied in the order in which they become due.

(3) When any loan contract is paid in full by cash, renewal or refinancing, or a new loan, one month or more before the final installment due date, a licensee shall refund or credit the borrower with the total of the applicable charges for all fully unexpired installment periods, as originally scheduled or as deferred, which follow the day of prepayment; if the prepayment is made other than on a scheduled payment date, the nearest scheduled installment payment date must be used in the computation; provided further, if the prepayment occurs prior to the first installment due date, the licensee may retain $\frac{1}{30}$ of the applicable charge for a first installment period of one month for each day from the date of the loan to the date of prepayment, and shall refund or credit the borrower with the balance of the total interest contracted for. If the maturity of the loan is accelerated for any reason and judgment is entered, the licensee shall credit the borrower with the same refund as if prepayment in full had been made on the date the judgment is entered.

(4) If an installment, other than the final installment, is not paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, a licensee may contract for and receive a default charge not exceeding five percent of the amount of the installment, but not less than $4.

A default charge under this subdivision may not be collected on an installment paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, or deferred installment due date with respect to deferred installments, even though a default or deferral charge on an earlier installment has not been paid in full. A default charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter.

(5) If the parties agree in writing, either in the loan contract or in a subsequent agreement, to a deferment of wholly unpaid installments, a licensee may grant a deferment and may collect a deferment charge as provided in this section. A deferment postpones the scheduled due date of the earliest unpaid installment and all subsequent installments as originally scheduled, or as previously deferred, for a period equal to the deferment period. The deferment period is that period during which no installment is scheduled to be paid by reason of the deferment. The deferment charge for a one-month period may not exceed the applicable charge for the installment period immediately following the due date of the last undeferred payment. A proportionate charge may be made for deferment for periods of more or less than one month. A deferment charge is earned pro rata during the deferment period and is fully earned on the last day of the deferment period. Should a loan be prepaid in full during a deferment period, the licensee shall make or credit to the borrower a refund of the unearned deferment charge in addition to any other refund or credit made for prepayment of the loan in full.

(6) If two or more installments are delinquent one full month or more on any due date, and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the unpaid balance by the refund credit which would be required for prepayment in full on the due date of the most recent maturing installment in default. Thereafter, and in lieu of any other default or deferment charges, the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision may be charged on the unpaid balance until fully paid.

(7) Following the final installment as originally scheduled or deferred, the licensee, for any loan contract which has not previously been converted to interest-bearing under paragraph (f), clause (6), may charge interest on any balance remaining unpaid, including unpaid default or deferment charges, at the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision until fully paid.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 56.155, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROPERTY INSURANCE.] A licensee may require the obligors to provide insurance on real or personal property security against reasonable risks of loss, damage, and destruction. The amount and term of the insurance shall be reasonable in relation to the value of the security, but the amount and term of the insurance and shall not exceed the principal amount of the loan and term of the loan, less any existing insurance, including homeowner's insurance as defined by section 65A.27, subdivision 4, on the secured property as to which the lender has been provided a loss payable clause, except that the lender may insure or arrange for insurance not to exceed the reasonable value of any motor vehicle collateral-less any existing insurance on the motor vehicle as to which the lender has been provided a loss payable clause. The term of the insurance shall also be reasonable in relation to the value of the security and shall not exceed the term of the loan. The restrictions contained in this subdivision shall not apply to the sale or provision of homeowner's insurance as defined in section 65A.27. In all cases when insurance is offered the obligor shall be informed that the obligor has the option of providing insurance through existing policies of insurance that the obligor owns or controls, or by procuring and furnishing the offered coverage through any insurer authorized to transact an insurance business within this state. The purchase of such insurance through the licensee or from an agent, broker, or insurer specified by the licensee shall not be required.”

Sec. 2. [473.1685] [REGIONAL RAILROAD AUTHORITIES; JOINT PLANNING.]

Subdivision 1. [JOINT PLANNING BOARD; CREATION; PURPOSE.] There is established a joint planning board for light rail transit, to:

(1) coordinate the activities of individual county regional railroad authorities in planning light rail transit facilities in the metropolitan area; and

(2) ensure that the facilities are acquired, developed, and capable of operation in a coordinated manner as an integrated and unified system on a multicounty basis in coordination with buses and other transportation modes and facilities.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP.] The joint planning board consists of:

(1) two members of the governing board of each regional railroad authority that applies for and receives state funding for preliminary engineering of light rail transit facilities;

(2) one member, in addition to those under clause (1), of the governing board of the Hennepin county regional railroad authority;

(3) one member of the governing board of each regional railroad authority not represented under clause (1) that applies for and receives state funding for planning of light rail transit facilities;

(4) two members of the metropolitan transit commission; and

(5) the commissioner of transportation or an employee of the department designated by the commissioner.

Appointments under clauses (1) to (3) are made by the respective authorities, and appointments under clause (4) are made by the commission. The regional transit board shall make the appointment for any appointing authority that fails to make the required appointments by August 1, 1989. Members serve at the pleasure of the agency making the appointment.

Subd. 3. [CHAIR.] The joint planning board shall annually elect a chair from among its members.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATION.] Staff and administrative services for the board must be provided by the organizations represented. The board may apply for financial assistance from the state or the regional transit board. The joint planning board may create technical and staff advisory committees as it deems appropriate to assist the board in fulfilling its responsibilities.

Sec. 3. [473.1686] [LIGHT RAIL TRANSIT; REGIONAL MANAGEMENT PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT; PURPOSE.] (a) By January 1, 1990, the joint planning board established under section 2 shall prepare a regional management plan for light rail transit.

(b) Nothing in this section should be interpreted to require the elimination of regional railroad authorities or to forbid one or more authorities to act independently, so long as their activities are consistent with the regional management plan.

(c) The plan must ensure that light rail transit facilities in the metropolitan area will be acquired, developed, owned, and capable of operation in a coordinated manner as an integrated and unified system on a multicounty basis in coordination with buses and other transportation modes and facilities. The management plan must include at least the following:

(1) specifications and standards to ensure joint or coordinated procurement of vehicles, electrification, communications and ticketing facilities, yards and shops, and other facilities that must be or should be operated on a systemwide basis;

(2) systemwide operating and performance specifications and standards;

(3) a method of organizing and coordinating acquisition, construction, ownership, and operation of the system, including in particular, provision for a single light rail transit operator and the organization and coordination method required if a turn-key approach to facility acquisition is used by a regional rail authority;

(4) bus and park-and-ride coordination policies, standards, and plans;

(5) a staged systemwide development plan for a prospective ten-year period, together with a financial plan showing anticipated and recommended sources and amounts of funds for (i) capital expenditures and debt service requirements for each stage of development, and (ii) annual operating costs and operating subsidies, including the share of the operating subsidy to be paid by regional railroad authorities;

(6) a method for ensuring ongoing coordination of development, design, and operational plans; and

(7) other matters that the joint planning board deems prudent and necessary to ensure that light rail transit facilities are acquired, developed, and capable of operation in a coordinated manner as an integrated and unified system on a multicounty basis in coordination with buses and other transportation modes and facilities.

(d) The plan must provide for the operation of light rail transit by the metropolitan transit commission.

(e) If two or more regional railroad authorities have agreed on aspects of the regional management plan set forth in clause (c), the board shall consider incorporating those aspects into its regional management plan.

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL BY REGIONAL TRANSIT BOARD.] The joint planning board shall submit the management plan prepared under subdivision 1 to the regional transit board by March 1, 1990.

The transit board shall determine whether the plan satisfies the requirements specified in subdivision 1. The transit board shall either approve the plan or, if it determines that the plan does not satisfy the requirements, disapprove the plan, in whole or in part, and recommend modifications in the plan that are necessary in order to secure approval. The transit board may not require that the first priority of the metropolitan system plan be the first route constructed. Before completing its review, the transit board shall:

(1) submit the plan to the council and the commissioner of transportation for review and comment;

(2) assemble a peer review panel of transit and light rail transit experts of national stature to review and comment on the plan; and

(3) hold a public hearing on the plan to receive the comments and suggestions of the public.

The transit board may not include on the peer review panel any person who is employed or under contract as a consultant on light rail transit in the metropolitan area by regional railroad authorities, by a firm employed as a consultant to regional railroad authorities, by the transit commission, or by the transit commission's management contractor. The transit board has 120 days from the date of submission to complete its review of the plan or plan modifications required for approval. Failure to respond within the time period is deemed to be approval, unless an extension of time is agreed to by the transit board and the joint planning board. The transit board shall report on the results of its review to the legislature.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL REQUIRED.] The regional management plan must be prepared, reviewed, and approved as required by this section before any regional railroad authority may begin construction of light rail transit facilities and before any authority is eligible for state financial assistance for constructing light rail transit facilities.

Subd. 4. [IMPLEMENTATION; CONFORMITY WITH PLAN.] Each regional railroad authority or other developer of light rail transit in the metropolitan area shall act in conformity with the approved regional management plan required by this section. To the extent and in the manner prescribed in the regional management plan, each authority or proposer shall prepare or amend its final light rail transit design plans as necessary to make the local plans consistent with the approved regional management plan. Each authority shall submit its final design plans to the joint planning board for review for consistency with the regional management plan. The joint board shall approve the local plans if it determines that they are consistent with the management plan; otherwise the joint board shall disapprove the plans, in whole or in part, and recommend modifications in the plans that are necessary in order to secure approval. The joint board has 60 days to complete its review.

Subd. 5. [PLAN AMENDMENT.] Amendments to the regional management plan must be adopted and submitted for review and approval or disapproval by the regional transit board.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.169, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT DEFINITIONS AND REQUIREMENTS.] Before constructing a light rail transit facility, the political subdivision proposing the facility must hold a public hearing on the preliminary design plans as provided in subdivision 2, and submit the preliminary and final design plans for review as provided in subdivisions 3 to 5. (a) "Preliminary design plan" means a plan that identifies the following: location, length, and termini of routes; general dimension, elevation, alignment, and character of routes and crossings; approximate station locations; standards and specifications for facilities and equipment; environmental impacts and mitigation measures; intermodal coordination, with bus operations and routes and park and ride, parking, and other transportation facilities; an acquisition and implementation strategy; ridership; capital costs; operating costs and revenues; and funding for final design, construction, and operation.

(b) "Final design plan" means a plan that includes the items in the preliminary design plan for the facilities proposed for construction, but with greater detail and specificity. The final design plan must include, at a minimum: the right-of-way definition; civil engineering; engineering plans for vehicles, track, stations, parking, access, electrification, communication, and other facilities; operational rules, procedures and strategies; capital costs; operating costs and revenues; financing for construction and operation; and other similar matters, all stated with sufficient particularity and detail to allow the proposer to begin the acquisition and construction of operable facilities.

(c) The design plans must include a plan for handicapped accessibility.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.169, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN PLANS; LOCAL APPROVAL.] At least 30 days before the hearing under subdivision 2, the proposer must shall submit the preliminary design plans to the governing body of each statutory and home rule charter city, county, and town in which the route is proposed to be located. The city, county, or town must shall hold a public hearing, except that a county board need not hold a hearing if the county board membership is identical to the membership of the regional rail authority submitting the plan for review. Within 45 days after the hearing under subdivision 2, the city, county, or town must shall review and approve or disapprove the plans for the route to be located in the city, county, or town. A local unit of government that disapproves the plans shall describe specific amendments to the plans that, if adopted, would cause the local unit to withdraw its disapproval. Failure to approve or disapprove the plans in writing within 45 days after the hearing is deemed to be approval, unless an extension of time is agreed to by the city, county, or town and the proposer. If the preliminary design plans are approved by each city, county, and town in which the route is proposed to be located, the proposer may proceed with final design plans under subdivision 5.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.169, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN PLANS; METROPOLITAN COUNCIL REFERRAL REVIEW BY REGIONAL TRANSIT BOARD.] If the governing body of one or more cities, counties, or towns disapproves the preliminary design plans within the period allowed (a) After review under subdivision 3, the proposer may refer shall submit the plans, along with any comments of local jurisdictions, to the metropolitan council regional transit board.

(b) The council must board shall hold a hearing on the plan, giving the proposer and the, any disapproving local governmental units, and other persons an opportunity to present the case for or against approval of their views on the plans. The council board may conduct independent study as it deems desirable and may mediate and attempt to resolve disagreements about the plans. Within 90 days after the referral, the council must either approve the plans as submitted by the proposer or recommend amended plans to accommodate the objections presented by the disapproving local governmental units.

(c) The board shall review the preliminary design plans to determine the compatibility of the plans with other light rail transit plans and facilities in the metropolitan area, the adequacy of the plans for handicapped accessibility, and the conformity of the plans with metropolitan transportation system plans. The board may comment on any aspect of the plans. If the board determines that the plans do not satisfy the standard stated in this paragraph, the board shall recommend modifications in the plans that are necessary in order to satisfy the board.

(d) The board has 120 days from the date of submission to complete its review of plans or plan modifications. Failure to respond within the time period is deemed to be approval, unless an extension of time is agreed to by the council and the proposer.

(e) Following approval or recommendation review of preliminary design plans by the council board, the proposer may proceed with final design plans under subdivision 5.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.169, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FINAL DESIGN PLANS.] (a) After the approval of preliminary design plans under subdivision 3 or review by the council following referral to the council under subdivision 4, the proposer may prepare final design plans.

(b) Before proceeding with beginning construction, the proposer must shall submit the final design plans to the governing body of each statutory and home rule city, county, and town in which the route is proposed to be located. Within 60 days after the submission of the plans, the city, county, or town must shall review and approve or disapprove the plans for the route located in the city, county, or town. A local unit of government that disapproves the plan shall describe specific amendments to the plan that, if adopted, would cause the local unit to withdraw its disapproval. Failure to approve or disapprove the plans in writing within the time period is deemed to be approval, unless an extension is agreed to by the city, county, or town and the proposer. If the final design plans are approved by each city, county, and town in which the route is proposed to be located, the proposer may proceed with construction on that route.

(c) If the governing body of one or more cities, counties, or towns disapproves the final design plans within the period allowed (b) After review under paragraph (b) (a), the proposer may refer shall submit the final design plans, along with any comments of local jurisdictions, to the metropolitan council regional transit board. The council must board shall review the final design plans under the same procedure and with the same effect and according to the same standards as provided in subdivision 4 for preliminary design plans, except that the board shall also review the final design plans to determine whether the plans conform to the approved regional management plan required by section 3. The board shall either approve the plans or, if it determines that the plans do not satisfy the standards, disapprove the plans, in whole or in part, and recommend modifications in the plans that are necessary in order to secure approval. The board may not disapprove the first route proposed for construction solely because the route is not the first priority of metropolitan system plans.

(c) Following approval or recommendation of final design plans by the council board, the proposer may proceed with construction. A proposer may not proceed with construction unless its design plans have been approved by the board. Following approval of final design plans by the transit board, if a regional railroad authority wishes to select a bid or a response to a request for proposal that is more than ten percent higher than the capital costs indicated in the final design plans for the facility, the authority may not proceed with construction until it has resubmitted the final design plans to the transit board for further review and approval or disapproval.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.17, is amended to read:

Sec. 3. [361A.02] [CERTIFICATE OF TITLE REQUIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, a watercraft used on the waters of the state must have a certificate of title if:

(1) the watercraft is owned by a resident of this state and is kept in the state for more than 90 consecutive days; or

(2) the watercraft is kept in the state for more than 60 consecutive days and has not been issued a certificate of title or similar document from another jurisdiction.

[VOLUNTARY TITLING.] The owner of a device used or designed for navigation on water and used on the waters of this state may obtain a certificate of title for the device, even though it is not a watercraft as defined in section 2, subdivision 14, in the same manner and with the same effect as the owner of a watercraft required to be titled under this act. Once titled, the device is a titled watercraft as defined in section 2, subdivision 13, and is and remains subject to this act to the same extent as a watercraft required to be titled.

Subd. 4. [TITLE REQUIRED FOR TRANSFER.] A person may not sell or otherwise transfer a titled watercraft without delivering to the person acquiring the watercraft a certificate of title with an assignment on it to show title in the person acquiring the watercraft. A person may not acquire a watercraft required to have a certificate of title without obtaining a certificate of title for the watercraft in the person's name.

Subd. 5. [NO LEGAL TITLE WITHOUT CERTIFICATE.] A person acquiring a watercraft through a sale or gift does not acquire a right, title, claim, or interest in the watercraft until the person has been issued a certificate of title to the watercraft or has received a manufacturer's or importer's certificate. A waiver or estoppel does not operate in favor of that person against another person who has obtained possession of the certificate of title or manufacturer's or importer's certificate for the watercraft for valuable consideration.

Subd. 6. [WATERCRAFT LICENSE MAY NOT BE ISSUED WITHOUT TITLE.] The commissioner may not issue or renew a watercraft license to an owner of a titled watercraft unless the owner has been issued or has applied for a certificate of title for the watercraft.

Sec. 4. [361A.03] [APPLICATION AND ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATE OF TITLE.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The owner of a titled watercraft must apply for the first certificate of title of a watercraft in this state to the commissioner or a deputy registrar on a form prescribed by the commissioner. The appropriate fee under section 12 must accompany the application. The application must be signed by the owner and contain:

(1) the full names, dates of birth, and addresses of owners who are natural persons and the full names and addresses of other owners;

(2) a description of the watercraft including its make, model, year, length, the principal material used in construction, the builder's hull identification number, and the manufacturer's inboard engine serial number;

(1) the application is genuine;

(2) the applicant is the owner of the watercraft; and

(3) payment of the required fee.

(8) other information the commissioner may require.

(b) A certificate of title issued by the commissioner is prima facie evidence of the facts appearing on it.

Subd. 4. [ISSUANCE WITHOUT ABSOLUTE PROOF OF OWNERSHIP.] (a) If application is made for a certificate of title for a watercraft and the commissioner is not satisfied of the ownership of the watercraft or the existence of security interests in the watercraft, the watercraft may be assigned a title number but the commissioner must:

(1) withhold issuance of a certificate of title until the applicant presents documents that satisfy the commissioner of the applicant's ownership of the watercraft and of security interest in the watercraft; or

(2) require the applicant to file a bond in the form prescribed by the commissioner and executed by the applicant as a condition to issuing a certificate of title.

(b) A bond filed under this subdivision must be accompanied by the deposit of cash or executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond must be in an amount equal to 1½ times the value of the watercraft as determined by the commissioner. The bond must be conditioned to indemnify prior owners, secured parties, and later purchasers of the watercraft or persons acquiring a security interest in the watercraft, or successors in interest of the persons, against expenses, losses, or damages, including reasonable attorney fees, by reason of the issuance of the certificate of title to the watercraft or on account of a defect in or undisclosed security interest upon the right, title, and interest of the applicant in the watercraft.

(c) An interested person has a right of action to recover on the bond for a breach of its conditions, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons may not exceed the amount of the bond.

(d) The commissioner shall return the bond and any deposit accompanying the bond if:

(1) the commissioner has not been notified of the pendency of an action to recover on the bond;

(2) questions of ownership and outstanding security interests have been resolved to the satisfaction of the commissioner;

(3) the bond has been posted for three years or the watercraft is not registered for license purposes in this state under section 361.03; and

(4) the currently valid certificate of title is surrendered.

Subd. 5. [RECORDS.] (a) The commissioner shall maintain records of certificates of title issued under this section according to one of the following systems:

(1) under a distinctive title number assigned to a watercraft;

(2) under the registration number awarded to a watercraft in accordance with the registration and numbering law of the state where it is registered;

(3) alphabetically, under the name of the owner; or

(4) under another system determined by the commissioner.

(b) Records relating to watercraft titling maintained by the commissioner are public records and are open to public inspection during regular office hours.

Subd. 6. [GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL TO ISSUE CERTIFICATE OF TITLE.] The commissioner may not issue a certificate of title if a required fee is not paid or the commissioner has reasonable grounds to believe that:

(1) the applicant is not the owner of the watercraft;

(2) the application contains a false statement; or

(3) the applicant failed to furnish required information or documents or additional information the commissioner reasonably requires.

Sec. 5. [361A.04] [DEALER ACQUISITION AND TRANSFER.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE OF ORIGIN REQUIRED.] (a) A dealer may not purchase or acquire a new titled watercraft without obtaining a manufacturer's or importer's certificate of origin from the seller.

(b) A manufacturer, importer, dealer, or other person may not sell or otherwise dispose of a new titled watercraft to a dealer for purposes of display and resale without delivering to the dealer a manufacturer's or importer's certificate of origin.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF CERTIFICATE.] The manufacturer's or importer's certificate of origin must be of a form prescribed by the commissioner and contain:

(1) a description of the watercraft, including its trade name, if any, year, series or model, hull material, length, and hull identification number;

(2) certification of the date of transfer of the watercraft and the name and address of the person to whom the watercraft was transferred;

(3) certification that the transfer of the watercraft was in ordinary trade and commerce;

(4) the signature and address of a representative of the person transferring the watercraft;

(5) an assignment form, including the name and address of the person the watercraft is to be transferred to, a certification that the watercraft is new, and a warranty that the title at the time of delivery is subject only to the security interests stated on the title; and

(6) other information required by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [SALE OF NEW WATERCRAFT.] A dealer selling or exchanging a new titled watercraft, before delivering the watercraft to a purchaser, shall apply to the commissioner for a new title in the name of the purchaser. The application must contain the name and address of any secured party holding a security interest created or reserved at the time of sale and the date of the security agreement and must be accompanied by a manufacturer's or importer's certificate of origin. The application must be signed by the dealer and the owner, and the dealer shall promptly mail or deliver the application to the commissioner or a deputy registrar.

Subd. 4. [USED WATERCRAFT ACQUIRED FOR RESALE.] (a) If a dealer buys or acquires a used titled watercraft for resale, the dealer must apply to the commissioner or deputy registrar and obtain a title number before selling or exchanging the watercraft in the same manner as a new watercraft on forms the commissioner provides or apply for and obtain a certificate of title.

(b) If a dealer acquires a used titled watercraft for resale and the watercraft is covered by a certificate of title that is surrendered to the dealer by the owner at the time of delivery of the watercraft, the dealer need not send the certificate of title to the commissioner. Upon transferring the watercraft to another person, the dealer must promptly execute the assignment, showing the name and address of the person to whom the watercraft is transferred and forward the certificate to the commissioner or deputy registrar with the application for a new certificate of title.

Subd. 5. [WATERCRAFT WITH FOREIGN REGISTRATION.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), an application for a certificate of title for a watercraft last registered in another state or foreign country must contain or be accompanied by:

(1) a certificate of title or registration issued by the other state or foreign country; and

(2) other information or documents the commissioner requires to establish the ownership of the watercraft and the existence or nonexistence of security interests.

(b) If the state or foreign country where the watercraft was last registered does not issue certificates of title, the application must contain or be accompanied by:

(1) a proper bill of sale or sworn statement of ownership, certificate of registration, or evidence of ownership as required by the law of the state or foreign country; and

(2) any other information or documents the commissioner requires to establish the ownership of the watercraft and the existence or nonexistence of security interests.

Sec. 6. [361A.05] [TRANSFER BY OWNER.]

Subdivision 1. [VOLUNTARY TRANSFER.] (a) An owner who transfers a titled watercraft must execute the assignment and warranty of title to the person to whom the watercraft is transferred in the space provided on the certificate of title where the watercraft is delivered.

(b) The person acquiring the watercraft must obtain a new certificate of title by applying to the commissioner or a deputy registrar on a form prescribed by the commissioner, and submitting the required fee. The application for certificate of title must be filed within 15 days after delivery of the watercraft to the person acquiring the watercraft.

(c) Upon request of the owner or the person who acquired the watercraft, a secured party in possession of the certificate of title must deliver the certificate to the person acquiring the watercraft, the commissioner, or a deputy registrar, unless the transfer is a breach of the security agreement. The delivery of the certificate does not affect the rights of the secured party under the security agreement.

(d) If a security interest or encumbrance is first created at the time of transfer of ownership, the certificate must be retained by or delivered to the secured party.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER BY LAW.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, if the ownership of a titled watercraft is transferred by operation of law, including inheritance or bequest, order in bankruptcy, insolvency, replevin, execution, sale, or satisfaction of mechanic's lien, or repossession upon default in performance of the terms of a security agreement, the person acquiring the watercraft by operation of law must promptly submit the last certificate of title, if available, or the manufacturer's or importer's certificate or other satisfactory proof of the transfer of ownership to the commissioner or deputy registrar with the application for a new certificate of title and the required fee.

(b) If a secured party acquires a titled watercraft under the terms of a security agreement or by operation of law, the secured party must promptly submit to the commissioner, a deputy registrar, or the person acquiring the watercraft from the secured party the last certificate of title, if available, an application for a new certificate of title with the required fee, and an affidavit by the secured party or an authorized representative stating the facts entitling the secured party to possession and ownership of the watercraft, including a copy of the journal entry, court order, or instrument upon which the claim of possession and ownership is founded. If the secured party cannot produce the required proof of ownership, the secured party may submit other evidence with the application and the commissioner may issue a new certificate of title if the evidence provides satisfactory proof of ownership.

Sec. 7. [361A.06] [TEMPORARY WATERCRAFT USE PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [ISSUANCE TO TITLE APPLICANT.] (a) The commissioner may issue a temporary watercraft use permit to a person applying for a certificate of title for a new or used watercraft to allow that person to operate the watercraft on the waters of this state pending completion of the titling and watercraft licensing process.

(b) The watercraft use permit must be carried aboard the watercraft to allow immediate inspection. The watercraft use permit must contain a description of the watercraft, including its trade name, if any, year, series or model, hull material, length, hull identification number, and other information prescribed by the commissioner. A permit is valid only for the watercraft for which it is issued.

Subd. 2. [DISTRIBUTION TO DEALERS.] The commissioner may distribute permits in booklet form to licensed dealers. If the dealer issues a permit, the dealer must submit a watercraft use permit information form to the commissioner. The commissioner must provide information forms that require the name of the person to whom the watercraft use permit was issued, the watercraft description, dates of issue and expiration, and other information prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 8. [361A.07] [DUPLICATE CERTIFICATE.]

Subdivision 1. [FORM AND ISSUANCE.] (a) The commissioner may issue a duplicate certificate of title under this section. The duplicate certificate of title must be a certified copy plainly marked "duplicate" across its face and must contain the legend: "This duplicate certificate of title may be subject to the rights of a person under the original certificate." It must be mailed to the first secured party named in it or, if none, to the owner. The commissioner shall indicate in the department records that a duplicate has been issued.

(b) As a condition to issuing a duplicate certificate of title, the commissioner may require a bond from the applicant in the manner and form prescribed in section 4, subdivision 4, paragraph (b).

Subd. 2. [WAITING PERIOD TO ISSUE NEW CERTIFICATE OF TITLE.] The commissioner may not issue a new certificate of title to a person acquiring a watercraft under an application made on a duplicate certificate of title until at least 15 days after receiving the application.

Subd. 3. [DISAPPEARANCE OF ORIGINAL CERTIFICATE.] If a certificate of title is lost, stolen, or destroyed, the owner or legal representative of the owner named in the certificate may obtain a duplicate by applying to the commissioner, furnishing information the commissioner requires concerning the original certificate, and the circumstances of its loss or destruction.

Subd. 4. [MUTILATED OR ILLEGIBLE CERTIFICATE.] If an original certificate of title is mutilated or rendered illegible, the person in possession of the title must return it to the commissioner with the application for a duplicate.

Subd. 5. [RECOVERY OF LOST OR STOLEN CERTIFICATE.] If a lost or stolen certificate of title for which a duplicate has been issued is recovered, the lost or stolen certificate of title must be surrendered promptly to the commissioner for cancellation.

Sec. 9. [361A.08] [SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION OF CERTIFICATE.]

Subdivision 1. [SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION.] The commissioner shall suspend or revoke a certificate of title upon notice and reasonable opportunity to be heard if authorized by law or if the commissioner finds that:

(2) the watercraft has been scrapped, dismantled, or destroyed.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF OWNER.] If the commissioner suspends or revokes a certificate of title, the owner or person in possession of the certificate of title, immediately upon receiving notice of the suspension or revocation, shall mail or deliver the certificate to the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [SEIZURE OR IMPOUNDMENT] The commissioner may seize and impound a certificate of title that has been suspended or revoked.

Subd. 4. [SUBSEQUENT GOOD FAITH PURCHASER.] Suspension or revocation of a certificate of title does not affect the validity of a subsequent transfer to a purchaser relying in good faith on the assignment of a suspended or revoked title if the certificate of title was not surrendered to or seized by the commissioner under subdivisions 2 and 3, and the commissioner shall issue a new certificate of title to an applicant who is a good faith purchaser for value in those circumstances.

Sec. 10. [361A.09] [RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMMISSIONER.]

The commissioner shall prescribe and provide suitable forms of applications, certificates of title, notices of security interests, and other notices and forms necessary to implement this chapter. In addition, the commissioner may:

(1) make necessary investigations to procure information required to implement this chapter;

(2) assign a new hull identification number to a watercraft if the watercraft does not have a number or the number is destroyed or obliterated; or

(3) adopt and enforce rules necessary to implement this chapter.

Sec. 11. [361A.10] [PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [FELONY.] A person is guilty of a felony and punishable by imprisonment for a term of not more than four years, or payment of a fine of not more than $5,000, or both, if the person with fraudulent intent:

(1) uses a false or fictitious name or address, makes a material false statement, fails to disclose a security interest, or conceals any other material fact in an application for a certificate of title; or

(2) submits a false, forged, or fictitious document in support of an application for a certificate of title.

Subd. 2. [MISDEMEANOR.] A person is guilty of a misdemeanor if that person:

(2) for each security interest when first noted upon a certificate of title, including the concurrent notation of an assignment of the security interest and its subsequent release or satisfaction, is $7;

(3) for transferring the interest of an owner and issuing a new certificate of title, is $7;

(4) for each assignment of a security interest when first noted on a certificate of title, unless noted concurrently with the security interest, is $1; and

(5) for issuing a duplicate certificate of title, is $4.

(b) In addition to other statutory fees and taxes, a filing fee of $3.25 is imposed on every application. The filing fee must be shown as a separate item on title renewal notices sent by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [CONCURRENT APPLICATIONS.] If a person applies for an original or a new certificate of title for a watercraft concurrently with an application for transfer of license of the watercraft to the applicant, the fee prescribed in subdivision 1 is in lieu of the fee prescribed by section 361.03 for a transfer of ownership or license of the watercraft to the applicant.

Subd. 3. [FEES PAID BEFORE TITLE ISSUED.] Subject to subdivision 2, the commissioner may not issue a certificate of title for a watercraft until the fees prescribed by subdivision 1 and section 361.03 for a prior transfer of ownership or license of the watercraft have been paid.

Subd. 4. [DEPOSIT OF FEE.] Fees collected under this section must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the water recreation account, except a deputy registrar who originates an application shall retain the filing fee under subdivision 1, paragraph (b).

Sec. 13. [361A.12] [INAPPLICABLE LIENS AND SECURITY INTERESTS.]

The requirements of this chapter relating to security interests and certificate of title do not apply to or affect:

(1) a lien given by statute or rule of law to a supplier of services or materials for the watercraft while the watercraft is in the possession of the lienholder;

(2) a lien given by statute to the United States, this state, or a political subdivision of this state; or

(3) a security interest in a watercraft created by a manufacturer or dealer who holds the watercraft for sale.

Sec. 14. [361A.13] [SECURITY INTERESTS.]

Subdivision 1. [VALIDITY.] Unless excepted by section 13, a security interest in a titled watercraft is not valid against creditors of the owner or subsequent transferees or secured parties of the watercraft unless perfected as provided in this chapter.

Subd. 2. [PERFECTION.] A security interest is perfected by the delivery to the commissioner of the existing certificate of title, if any, or an application for a certificate of title, containing the name and address of the secured party, the date of the security agreement, and the required fee. It is perfected as of the time of its creation if the delivery is completed within the following ten days. In other instances it is perfected as of the time of the delivery. The method provided in this chapter is exclusive.

Sec. 15. [361A.14] [OWNER-CREATED SECURITY INTEREST.]

Paragraphs (a) to (d) apply if an owner creates a security interest in a titled watercraft.

(a) The owner shall immediately execute the application in the space provided on the certificate of title or on a separate form prescribed by the commissioner, show the name and address of the secured party on the certificate, and have the certificate, application, and required fee delivered to the secured party.

(b) The secured party shall immediately have the certificate, application, and required fee mailed or delivered to the commissioner.

(c) Upon request of the owner or subordinate secured party, a secured party in possession of the certificate of title shall either (1) mail or deliver the certificate to the subordinate secured party for delivery to the commissioner, or (2) upon receiving from the subordinate secured party the owner's application and the required fee, mail or deliver them to the commissioner with the certificate. The delivery of the certificate does not affect the rights of the first secured party under the security agreement.

(d) Upon receiving the certificate of title, application, and required fee, the commissioner shall either endorse on the certificate or issue a new certificate containing the name and address of the new secured party, and mail or deliver the certificate to the first secured party named on it.

Sec. 16. [361A.15] [LICENSED WATERCRAFT PREVIOUSLY PERFECTED.]

If a security interest in a previously licensed watercraft is perfected under other applicable Minnesota law on January 1, 1991, the security interest continues perfected:

(1) until its perfection lapses under the law under which it was perfected or would lapse in the absence of a further filing; or

(2) until a certificate of title for the watercraft is issued and the security interest is perfected under section 14.

The assignment, release, or satisfaction of a security interest in a previously licensed watercraft is governed by the laws under which it was perfected.

Sec. 17. [361A.16] [SATISFACTION OF SECURITY INTEREST.]

Subdivision 1. [RELEASE.] Upon the satisfaction of a security interest in a watercraft for which the certificate of title is in the possession of the secured party, the secured party, within 15 days, shall execute a release of the security interest in the space provided on the certificate or as prescribed by the commissioner, and mail or deliver the certificate and release to the next secured party named or, if none, to the owner or a person who delivers to the secured party an authorization from the owner to receive the certificate. The owner, other than a dealer holding the watercraft for resale, shall promptly have the certificate, the release, and the required fee mailed or delivered to the commissioner, who shall release the secured party's rights on the certificate or issue a new certificate.

Subd. 2. [RELEASE OF SUBORDINATE SECURITY INTEREST.] Upon the satisfaction of a security interest in a watercraft for which the certificate of title is in the possession of a prior secured party, the secured party whose security interest is satisfied shall execute a release in the form prescribed by the commissioner and, within 15 days after satisfaction, deliver the release to the owner or a person who delivers to the secured party.

Sec. 18. [361A.17] [DISCLOSURE OF SECURITY AGREEMENT.]

A secured party named in a certificate of title, upon written request of the owner or other secured party named on the certificate, must disclose pertinent information about the security agreement and the indebtedness secured by it.

Sec. 19. [361A.18] [EFFECT OF SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION ON SECURITY INTEREST.]

Suspension or revocation of a certificate of title does not, in itself, affect the validity of a security interest noted on it.

Sec. 20. [361A.19] [PREVIOUSLY LICENSED WATERCRAFT UNDISCLOSED SECURITY INTERESTS.]

If the commissioner is not satisfied that there are no undisclosed security interests created before the watercraft is initially titled, the commissioner may, in addition to its options under section 4, subdivision 4, issue a distinctive certificate of title for the watercraft containing the legend: "This watercraft may be subject to an undisclosed lien," and any other information the commissioner prescribes.

Sec. 21. [361A.20] [LIENS ATTACHING TO WATERCRAFT.]

(a) A nonpossessory lien on a titled watercraft is not perfected unless a lien statement is filed with the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [DUTY OF COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner, upon receiving a report of the theft or conversion of a watercraft, shall record the report information, including the make of the stolen or converted watercraft and its builder's hull identification number, if any. The commissioner shall prepare a list of watercraft reported stolen and those recovered as disclosed by the reports submitted. The report may be distributed as the commissioner deems advisable.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF OWNER.] If a stolen or converted watercraft is recovered, the owner shall immediately notify the commissioner.

Sec. 23. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, sections 1 to 22 are effective January 1, 1991.

Subd. 2. [PHASE-IN PROVISIONS.] A watercraft that is owned and licensed under section 361.03 before January 1, 1991, is not required to have a certificate of title under this act until the owner transfers part of an interest in the watercraft, grants a security interest in the watercraft, or renews the license.

Sec. 24. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

If legislation is enacted in the 1989 legislature to change section numbers of provisions governing watercraft licensing or to recodify those provisions into chapter 361A, the revisor of statutes shall correct cross-references to those provisions in this act and renumber the sections of Minnesota Statutes in this act consistent with those changes."

Sec. 5. [10A.271] [CONTRIBUTION LIMIT ADJUSTMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [METHOD OF CALCULATION.] The dollar amounts in section 10A.27, subdivision 1, must be adjusted for 1990 and subsequent calendar years as provided in this section. By June 1 of each year, the executive director of the board shall determine the percentage increase in the consumer price index from December of the year in which the last determination was made to December of the year preceding the current year. The dollar amounts used for the current year must be multiplied by that percentage. The product of the calculation must be added to each dollar amount to produce the dollar limitations to be in effect for the next calendar year. The product must be rounded up to the next highest number of dollars evenly divisible by 25. The index used must be the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the St. Paul-Minneapolis metropolitan area prepared by the United States Department of Labor with 1982 as a base year.

Subd. 2. [TRANSITIONAL PERIOD.] The dollar amounts in section 10A.27, subdivision 1, must be adjusted for 1989 in the manner provided in subdivision 1, except that the percentage increase in the consumer price index shall be determined from April, 1974 to December, 1987, the product shall be rounded to the next highest dollar for each year prior to 1989, and the adjustment must be calculated by the executive director by June 1, 1989. Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the base year of 1967 must be used for the period of April, 1974 to December, 1987.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.275, is amended to read:

10A.275 [MULTICANDIDATE POLITICAL PARTY EXPENDITURES.]

Subdivision 1. [EXCEPTIONS.] Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the following expenditures by a state political party or, a substate unit of a state political party as described in section 10A.27, subdivision 4, or two or more substate units of a state political party acting together shall not be considered contributions to or expenditures on behalf of any candidate for the purposes of section 10A.25 or 10A.27, and shall not be allocated to any candidates pursuant to section 10A.22, subdivision 5:

(a) expenditures on behalf of candidates of that party generally without referring to any of them specifically in any advertisement published, posted or broadcast;

(b) expenditures for the preparation, display, mailing or other distribution of an official party sample ballot listing the names of three or more individuals whose names are to appear on the ballot;

(c) expenditures for any telephone conversation including the names of three or more individuals whose names are to appear on the ballot; or

(d) expenditures for any political party fundraising effort on behalf of three or more candidates; or

(e) expenditures for party committee staff member services that benefit three or more candidates. This paragraph applies only to staff members paid from the political committee of a political party as defined in section 10A.27, subdivision 4.

Subd. 2. [SUBSTATE UNIT OF STATE POLITICAL PARTY.] For purposes of this section, "substate unit of a state political party" means the party organization within each house of the legislature; the state party organization; or the party organization within congressional districts, counties, legislative districts, municipalities, or precincts.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.31; subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In each calendar year the money in the general account shall be allocated to candidates as follows:

(1) 21 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;

(2) 3.6 percent for the office of attorney general;

(3) 1.8 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor, and state treasurer;

(4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, 23 $\frac{1}{3}$ percent for the office of state senator and 46 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent for the office of state representative;

(5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative.

In each calendar year the money in each party account shall be allocated as follows:

(1) 14 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;

(2) 2.4 percent for the office of attorney general;

(3) 1.2 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor, and state treasurer;

(4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, 23 $\frac{1}{3}$ percent for the office of state senator and 46 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent for the office of state representative;

(5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

(6) ten percent for the state committee of a political party; money allocated to each state committee under this clause must be deposited in a separate account and must be spent for legitimate political party operations, including voter education; the sample ballot; operations of precinct caucuses, county unit conventions, and state conventions; and the maintenance and programming of computers used to provide lists of voters, party workers, party officers, patterns of voting, and other data for use in political party activities only those items enumerated in section 10A.275; money allocated to a state committee under this clause must be paid to the committee as it is received in the account, on a monthly or other basis agreed to between the committee and the board, with payment on the 15th day of the calendar month following the month in which the tax returns were received, provided that these distributions would be equal to the amount of money indicated in the department of revenue's weekly unedited reports of income tax returns for that month, subject to final annual adjustment and settlement as indicated according to the certification by the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6.

To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, money from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive money from the candidate's party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula;

For each county within the candidate's district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to the candidate's party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(b) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(c) The amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of the candidate's party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, amounts in the party's account shall be allocated based on (a) the number of people voting in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district, divided by (b) the number of the people voting in that county in the last general election, multiplied by (c) the amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "the candidate's district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (a) and (b). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for state senator and representative in any election year shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for other offices in an election year shall be returned to the party account for reallocation to candidates as provided in clauses (1) to (6) in the following year. Money from the general account refused by any candidate shall be distributed to all other qualifying candidates in proportion to their shares as provided in this subdivision.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [SPECIAL ELECTION ACCOUNT.] The special election account is established as a separate account in the state election campaign fund. Each eligible candidate for a legislative office in a special election shall receive from the special election account an amount equal to the sum of:

(a) the party account money at the last general election for the candidate's party for the office the candidate is seeking; and

(b) the general account money paid to candidates for the same office at the last general election.

If the filing period for the special election does not coincide with the filing period for the general election, a candidate who wishes to receive money from the special election account must submit a signed agreement under section 10A.32, subdivision 3, to the board not later than the day after the candidate files the affidavit of candidacy or nominating petition for the office. Money from the special election account must be distributed in the same manner as provided for the distribution of general account money to legislative candidates in a general election.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.32, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [MATCHING FUNDS.] In addition to the requirements of subdivision 3, to be eligible to receive any money from the state elections campaign fund, a candidate shall file an affidavit with the board stating that the candidate has received contributions or has made contributions to self, in an amount equal to or greater than 50 percent of the minimum amount that the board estimates, on August 15 of the general election year, would be received by the candidate from the state campaign fund. The candidate shall submit the affidavit required by this subdivision to the board in writing on or before September 1 of the general election year.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.32, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. As a condition of receiving any money from the state elections campaign fund, a candidate shall agree by stating in writing to the board that (a) the candidate's expenditures and approved expenditures shall not exceed the expenditure limits as set forth in section 10A.25, except as otherwise provided by section 10A.25, subdivision 10, and that (b) except for an amount equal to 25 percent of the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, but not exceeding $15,000, the candidate shall not accept contributions or allow approved expenditures to be made on the candidate's behalf for the period beginning with January 1 of the election year or with the registration of the candidate's principal campaign committee, whichever occurs later, and ending December 31 of the election year, which aggregate contributions and approved expenditures exceed the difference between the amount which may legally be expended by or for the candidate, and the amount which the candidate receives from the state elections campaign fund. The agreement, insofar as it relates to the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, remains effective until the dissolution of the principal campaign committee of the candidate or the opening of filings for the next succeeding election to the office held or sought at the time of agreement, whichever occurs first. Money in the account of the principal campaign committee of a candidate on January 1 of the election year for the office held or sought shall be considered contributions accepted by that candidate in that year for the purposes of this subdivision. That amount of all contributions accepted by a candidate in an election year which equals the amount of noncampaign disbursements and contributions and expenditures to promote or defeat a ballot question which are made by that candidate in that year shall not count toward the aggregate contributions and approved expenditure limit imposed by this subdivision. Except for an amount equal to 25 percent of the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, but not exceeding $15,000, any amount by which the aggregate contributions and approved expenditures agreed to under clause (b) exceed the difference shall be returned to the state treasurer in the manner provided in subdivision 2. In no case shall the amount returned exceed the amount received from the state elections campaign fund.

The candidate may submit the signed agreement to the filing officer on the day of filing the affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot, or to the board no later than September 1.

The board prior to the first day of filing for office shall forward forms for the agreement to all filing officers. The filing officer shall without delay forward signed agreements to the board. An agreement may not be rescinded after September 1.

Before the first day of filing for office, the board shall also forward a copy of section 10A.25, subdivision 3, to all filing officers. Before September 1, the filing officer shall provide a copy of section 10A.25, subdivision 3, to each candidate who files an affidavit of candidacy or whose name is to appear on the ballot by petition.

For the purposes of this subdivision only, the total amount to be distributed to each candidate is calculated to be the candidate's share of the total estimated funds in the candidate's party account as provided in subdivision 3a, plus the total amount estimated as provided in subdivision 3a to be in the general account of the state elections campaign fund and set aside for that office divided by the number of candidates whose names are to appear on the general election ballot for that office. If for any reason the amount actually received by the candidate is greater than the candidate's share of the estimate, and the contributions thereby exceed the difference, the agreement shall not be considered violated.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.32, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [TAX CREDIT; PENALTY.] As a condition of receiving a public subsidy for the candidate's election campaign in the form of tax credits against the tax due from individuals who contribute to the candidate's principal campaign committee, a candidate shall agree by stating in writing to the board at any time, beginning with the registration of the candidate's principal campaign committee, that the candidate's expenditures and approved expenditures shall not exceed the expenditure limits in section 10A.25, except as otherwise provided by section 10A.25, subdivision 10. The agreement shall remain effective until the dissolution of the principal campaign committee of the candidate or the opening of filing for the next election for the office held or sought at the time of agreement, whichever occurs first.

The commissioner of revenue shall not allow any credit under section 290.06, subdivision 23, for any contribution to a candidate for legislative or statewide office who has not signed an agreement under this subdivision. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the campaign expenditure of any candidate who does not sign an agreement under this subdivision but accepts a contribution for which the contributor claims a credit against tax due. The board shall forward a copy of any agreement signed under this subdivision to the commissioner of revenue.

The board shall make available to any candidate signing an agreement a supply of official tax credit receipt forms which state in boldface type that (a) a contributor who is given a receipt form is eligible to receive a credit against tax due in an amount equal to the amount of the contributions, but not more than $100 for an individual or not more than $200 for a married couple filing jointly, and (b) the candidate to whom the contribution was made has voluntarily agreed to abide by campaign expenditure limits. A candidate who does not sign an agreement under this subdivision may not issue an official tax credit receipt form or any facsimile of one to any of the candidate's contributors.

Any candidate who does not voluntarily agree to abide by the expenditure limits imposed in section 10A.25 and who willfully issues official tax credit receipt forms or any facsimiles thereof to any contributor is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.33, is amended to read:

10A.33 [APPLICATION.]

Except as otherwise provided in section 8, the provisions of sections 10A.30 to 10A.32 shall apply only in general elections and primaries preceding general elections and shall do not apply to special elections or special primaries.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 97A.485, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [DEER LICENSE; ABSENTEE BALLOT APPLICATION.] The commissioner shall include with every license to take deer with firearms or by archery, sold or issued during a general election year, an application for absentee ballots. The commissioner shall obtain absentee ballot application forms from the secretary of state.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CANDIDATES IN STATE AND COUNTY GENERAL ELECTIONS.] Except as otherwise provided by this subdivision, affidavits of candidacy and nominating petitions for county, state and federal offices filed at the state general election shall be filed not more than 70 days nor less than 56 days before the state primary. Subd. 2b. [WHEN CHILD HAS RESIDED WITH OTHER PERSON.] If an unmarried minor has resided in a household with a person, other than a foster parent, for two years or more and no longer resides with the person, the person may petition the district court for an order granting the person reasonable visitation rights to the child during the child's minority. The court shall grant the petition if it finds that:

- (1) visitation rights would be in the best interests of the child;
- (2) the petitioner and child had established emotional ties creating a parent and child relationship; and
- (3) visitation rights would not interfere with the relationship between the custodial parent and the child.

The court shall consider the reasonable preference of the child, if the court considers the child to be of sufficient age to express a preference.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FACTORS WHEN JOINT CUSTODY IS SOUGHT.] In addition to the factors listed in subdivision 1, where either joint legal or joint physical custody is contemplated or sought, the court shall consider the following relevant factors:

(a) The ability of parents to cooperate in the rearing of their children;

(b) Methods for resolving disputes regarding any major decision concerning the life of the child, and the parents' willingness to use those methods; and

(c) Whether it would be detrimental to the child if one parent were to have sole authority over the child's upbringing; and

(d) Whether domestic abuse, as defined in section 518B.01, has occurred between the parents.

The court shall use a rebuttable presumption that upon request of either or both parties, joint legal custody is in the best interests of the child.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.175, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. In all proceedings for dissolution or legal separation, subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding and continuing thereafter during the minority of the child, the court shall, upon the request of the ~~noncustodial~~ either parent, grant such rights of visitation on behalf of the child and noncustodial parent as will enable the child and the noncustodial parent to maintain a child to parent relationship that will be in the best interests of the child. If the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation is likely to endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional development, the court ~~may~~ shall restrict visitation by the noncustodial parent as to time, place, duration, or supervision and may deny visitation entirely, as the circumstances warrant. The court shall consider the age of the child and the child's relationship with the noncustodial parent prior to the commencement of the proceeding. A parent's failure to pay support because of the parent's inability to do so shall not be sufficient cause for denial of visitation.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.175, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The court ~~may~~ shall modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child, but the court shall not restrict a parent's visitation rights unless it finds that:

(1) the visitation is likely to endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional development; or

(2) the noncustodial parent has chronically and unreasonably failed to comply with court-ordered visitation.

If the custodial parent makes specific allegations that visitation places the custodial parent in danger of harm, the court shall hold a hearing at the earliest possible time to determine the need to modify the order granting visitation rights. The court may require a third party, including the county welfare board, to supervise the visitation or may restrict a parent's visitation rights if necessary to protect the custodial parent from harm.

Sec. 5. [518.1751] [VISITATION DISPUTE RESOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [VISITATION EXPEDITOR.] (a) Upon agreement of all parties, the court may appoint a visitation expeditor to resolve visitation disputes that occur under a visitation order while a matter is pending under this chapter, chapter 257 or 518A, or after a decree is entered. Prior to appointing the visitation expeditor, the court shall give the parties notice that the costs of the visitation expeditor will be apportioned among the parties and that if the parties do not reach an agreement, the visitation expeditor will make a nonbinding decision resolving the dispute.

(b) For purposes of this section, "visitation dispute" means a disagreement among parties about visitation with a child. "Visitation dispute" includes a claim by a custodial parent that a noncustodial parent is not visiting a child as well as a claim by a noncustodial parent that a custodial parent is denying or interfering with visitation.

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT; COSTS.] The court shall appoint the visitation expeditor. If the parties cannot agree on a visitation expeditor, the court shall present a list of candidates with one more candidate than there are parties to the dispute. In developing the list of candidates, the court must give preference to persons who agree to volunteer their services. Each party shall strike one name and the court shall appoint the remaining individual as the visitation expeditor. In its order appointing the visitation expeditor, the court shall apportion the costs of the visitation expeditor among the parties, with each party bearing the portion of costs that the court determines is just and equitable under the circumstances.

Subd. 3. [AGREEMENT OR DECISION.] (a) The visitation expeditor shall meet with the parties within five days after appointment and make a diligent effort to facilitate an agreement to resolve the visitation dispute.

(b) If the parties do not reach an agreement, the expeditor shall make a decision resolving the dispute as soon as possible. If a party does not comply with an agreement of the parties or a decision of the expeditor, any party may bring a motion with the court to resolve the dispute. The court may consider the agreement of the parties or the decision of the expeditor, but neither is binding on the court.

Subd. 4. [OTHER AGREEMENTS.] This section does not preclude the parties from voluntarily agreeing to submit their visitation dispute to a neutral third party.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.552, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [PRIVATE AGREEMENTS.] The parties may expressly preclude or limit modification of maintenance through a stipulation, if the court makes specific findings that the stipulation is fair and equitable, is supported by consideration described in the findings, and that full disclosure of each party's financial circumstances has occurred. The stipulation must be made a part of the judgment and decree.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.58, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Upon a dissolution of a marriage, an annulment, or in a proceeding for disposition of property following a dissolution of marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property and which has since acquired jurisdiction, the court shall make a just and equitable division of the marital property of the parties without regard to marital misconduct, after making findings regarding the division of the property. The court shall base its findings on all relevant factors including the length of the marriage, any prior marriage of a party, the age, health, station, occupation, amount and sources of income, vocational skills, employability, estate, liabilities, needs, opportunity for future acquisition of capital assets, and income of each party. The court shall also consider the contribution of each in the acquisition, preservation, depreciation or appreciation in the amount or value of the marital property, as well as the contribution of a spouse as a homemaker. It shall be conclusively presumed that each spouse made a substantial contribution to the acquisition of income and property while they were living together as husband and wife. The court may also award to either spouse the household goods and furniture of the parties, whether or not acquired during the marriage. The court shall value marital assets for purposes of division between the parties as of the day of the proceeding for dissolution or annulment is commenced initially scheduled prehearing settlement conference, unless a different date is agreed upon by the parties, or unless the court finds makes specific findings that the parties subsequently made a good faith reconciliation, in which case the court may establish the valuation date as of the date the reconciliation ended. Within 60 days after a proceeding for dissolution or annulment is commenced, unless the time is extended either by agreement of the parties or by order of the court for good cause shown, each party shall serve and file a verified statement identifying all assets, marital and nonmarital, the values of the assets and the basis for the values, and disclosing all liabilities of the parties another date of valuation is fair and equitable. If there is a substantial change in value of an asset between the date of valuation and the final distribution, the court may adjust the valuation of that asset as necessary to effect an equitable distribution. During the pendency of a marriage dissolution or annulment proceeding, each party owes a fiduciary duty to the other for any profit or loss derived by the party, without consent of the other, from a transaction or from any use by the party of the marital assets.

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 156.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Application for a license to practice veterinary medicine in this state shall be made in writing to the board of veterinary medicine upon a form furnished by the board, accompanied by satisfactory evidence that the applicant is at least 18 years of age, is of good moral character, and has one of the following:

(1) a diploma conferring the degree of doctor of veterinary medicine, or an equivalent degree, from an accredited or approved college of veterinary medicine;

(2) an ECFVG certificate; or

(3) a certificate from the dean of an accredited or approved college of veterinary medicine stating that the applicant is a student in good standing expecting to be graduated at the completion of the next current academic term year of the college in which the applicant is enrolled. The application shall contain the information and material required by subdivision 2 and any other information that the board may, in its sound judgment, require. The application shall be filed with the secretary of the board at least 30 45 days before the date of the examination. If the board deems it advisable, it may require that such application be verified by the oath of the applicant.

Sec. 2. [156.15] [PURPOSE.]

The purpose of sections 3 to 7 is to ensure proper dispensing of veterinary drugs to animals and proper record keeping, to prevent adulteration of the food supply with illegal drug residues through misuse of drugs on food-producing animals, and to promote the health of all treated animals.

Sec. 3. [156.16] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 3 to 7.

Subd. 2. [CLIENT.] "Client" means the owner or caretaker of an animal who arranges for the animal's veterinary care.

Subd. 3. [DISPENSING.] "Dispensing" means distribution of veterinary prescription drugs or over-the-counter drugs for extra-label use by a person registered by the board of pharmacy to dispense or a person licensed by the board of veterinary medicine.

Subd. 4. [EXTRA-LABEL USE.] "Extra-label use" means the actual or intended use of a human or veterinary drug in an animal in a manner that is not in accordance with the drug's labeling.

Subd. 5. [FOOD-PRODUCING ANIMAL.] "Food-producing animal" means an animal, fowl, or fish raised commercially for human consumption.

Subd. 6. [OVER-THE-COUNTER DRUG.] "Over-the-counter drug" means a veterinary drug labeled "for veterinary use only" or

“for animal use only” that does not require a prescription or is not required to have the restrictive legend: “Caution: federal law restricts this drug to use by or on the order of a licensed veterinarian.”

Subd. 7. [PATIENT.] “Patient” means an animal in which a veterinary prescription drug is used or intended to be used.

Subd. 8. [PERSON.] “Person” means an individual, or a firm, partnership, company, corporation, trustee, association, agency, or other public or private entity.

Subd. 9. [PHARMACIST.] “Pharmacist” means an individual with a valid Minnesota license to practice pharmacy.

Subd. 10. [PRESCRIPTION.] “Prescription” means an order from a veterinarian to a pharmacist or another veterinarian authorizing the dispensing of a veterinary prescription drug to a client for use on or in a patient.

Subd. 11. [VETERINARY PRESCRIPTION DRUG.] “Veterinary prescription drug” means:

(1) a drug that is not safe for animal use except under the supervision of a veterinarian, and that is required by federal law to bear the following statement: “Caution: federal law restricts this drug to use by or on the order of a licensed veterinarian”;

(2) a drug that is required by state law to be dispensed only on order or prescription of a licensed veterinarian; and

(3) the extra-label use of an over-the-counter drug.

Subd. 12. [VETERINARIAN.] “Veterinarian” means an individual with a valid Minnesota license to practice veterinary medicine.

Subd. 13. [VETERINARIAN-CLIENT-PATIENT RELATIONSHIP.] “Veterinarian-client-patient relationship” means a relationship in which the conditions in paragraphs (a) to (d) have been met.

(a) The veterinarian has assumed the responsibility for making medical judgments regarding the health of the animal and the need for medical treatment, and the client has agreed to follow the instructions of the veterinarian.

(b) The veterinarian has sufficient knowledge of the animal to initiate at least a general, preliminary, or tentative diagnosis of the medical condition of the animal. The veterinarian must be acquainted with the keeping and care of the animal by virtue of an examination of the animal or medically appropriate and timely visits to the premises where the animal is kept.

(c) The veterinarian is available for consultation in case of adverse reactions or failure of the regimen of therapy.

(d) The veterinarian maintains records documenting patient visits, diagnosis, treatments, and drugs prescribed, dispensed, or administered, and other relevant information.

Subd. 14. [VETERINARY DRUG.] "Veterinary drug" means:

(1) a drug for animal use recognized in the official United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary of the United States;

(2) a drug intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in animals;

(3) a drug, other than feed, medicated feed, or a growth promoting implant intended to affect the structure or function of the body of an animal; or

(4) a drug intended for use as a component of a drug in clause (1), (2), or (3).

Sec. 4. [156.17] [POSSESSION PROHIBITED.]

A person may not possess a veterinary prescription drug unless the person is a licensed veterinarian or pharmacist, a client holding a veterinary prescription drug by or on the order of a veterinarian, a manufacturer or wholesaler of veterinary drugs, a valid researcher, or a person performing official state or federal regulatory duties.

Sec. 5. [156.18] [PRESCRIPTION; LABELS; RECORDS.]

Subdivision 1. [PRESCRIPTION.] (a) A person may not dispense a veterinary prescription drug to a client without a prescription or other veterinary authorization. A client may not make extra-label use of a veterinary drug without a prescription from a veterinarian. A veterinarian or the veterinarian's authorized agent may dispense a veterinary prescription drug to a client or oversee the extra-label use of a veterinary drug directly by a client without a separate written prescription.

(b) A veterinarian may sell prescription veterinary drugs and prescribe extra label use drugs to a client without personally examining the animal if a veterinarian-client-patient relationship exists and in the judgment of the veterinarian the client has sufficient knowledge to use the drugs properly.

(c) A veterinarian may issue a prescription or other veterinary authorization by oral or written communication to the dispenser, or by computer connection. If the communication is oral, the veterinarian must enter it into the patient's record. The dispenser must record the veterinarian's prescription or other veterinary authorization within 72 hours.

(d) A prescription or other veterinary authorization must include: the name, address, and, if written, the signature of the prescriber; the name and address of the client; identification of the species for which the drug is prescribed or ordered; the name, strength, and quantity of the drug; the date of issue; directions for use; withdrawal time; and cautionary statements.

Subd. 2. [LABEL OF DISPENSED VETERINARY DRUGS.] A veterinarian or the veterinarian's authorized agent dispensing a veterinary prescription drug or prescribing the extra-label use of an over-the-counter drug must affix a label to the container containing the name and address of the veterinarian, date of filling, species of patient, name or names of drug, directions for use, withdrawal time, and cautionary statements, if any, appropriate for the drug.

Subd. 3. [RECORDS ON VETERINARY DRUG TRANSACTIONS.] A veterinarian must maintain complete records of receipt and distribution of each prescription veterinary drug. The records may be kept in the form of sales invoices, shipping records, prescription files, or a record or log established solely to satisfy the requirements of this subdivision. Records must include all of the following information:

(1) the name of the drug, including dosage form and strength;

(2) the name and address of the person from whom the drug was received and the date and quantity received; and

(3) the name and address of the person to whom the drug was distributed and the date and quantity shipped or otherwise distributed.

Subd. 4. [RECORD KEEPING.] Records required by this section must be kept for at least two years after dispensing of the drug has been completed.

Sec. 6. [156.19] [INSPECTIONS AND SAMPLES.]

To enforce sections 2 to 6, a veterinarian must permit authorized representatives of the board of veterinary medicine, upon receipt of allegations of a violation of sections 2 to 6 and upon presenting appropriate credentials to the veterinarian in charge, to (1) enter, at reasonable times, within reasonable limits, and in a reasonable manner, premises and all pertinent records, equipment, materials, containers, and facilities bearing on whether veterinary drugs are in compliance with sections 2 to 6; and (2) collect samples. No inspection authorized by this section may extend to financial information, pricing information, personnel information, or sales information other than shipment information. Inspection must be started and completed with reasonable promptness.

Sec. 7. [156.20] [EXTRA-LABEL USE.]

A person, other than a veterinarian or a person working under the control of a veterinarian, must not make extra-label use of a veterinary drug in or on a food-producing animal, unless permitted by the prescription of a veterinarian. A veterinarian may prescribe the extra-label use of a veterinary drug if:

(1) the veterinarian makes a careful medical diagnosis within the context of a valid veterinarian-client-patient relationship;

(2) the veterinarian determines that there is no marketed drug specifically labeled to treat the condition diagnosed, or that drug therapy as recommended by the labeling has, in the judgment of the attending veterinarian, been found to be clinically ineffective;

(3) the veterinarian recommends procedures to ensure that the identity of the treated animal will be carefully maintained; and

(4) the veterinarian prescribes a significantly extended time period for drug withdrawal before marketing meat, milk, or eggs."

"Section 1. [325F.90] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] As used in sections 325F.90 to 325F.99, the following terms have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [ADVERTISEMENT.] "Advertisement" means a commercial message in any medium, including signs, window displays, and price tags, that promote, directly or indirectly, a rental-purchase agreement.

Subd. 3. [CASH PRICE.] "Cash price" means the price at which the lessor in the ordinary course of business would offer to sell the personal property to the lessee for cash on the date of the rental-purchase agreement.

Subd. 4. [CONSUMMATION.] "Consummation" means the time at which the lessee enters into a rental-purchase agreement.

Subd. 5. [LESSEE.] "Lessee" means a natural person who rents personal property under a rental-purchase agreement for personal, family, or household use.

Subd. 6. [LESSOR.] "Lessor" means a person who, in the ordinary course of business, regularly leases, offers to lease, or arranges for the leasing of property under a rental-purchase agreement.

Subd. 7. [PERSONAL PROPERTY.] "Personal property" means property that is not real property under the laws of this state when it is made available for a rental-purchase agreement.

Subd. 8. [RENTAL-PURCHASE AGREEMENT.] "Rental-purchase agreement" means an agreement for the use of personal property in which all of the following apply:

(1) the lessor is regularly engaged in the rental-purchase business;

(2) the agreement is for an initial period of four months or less, whether or not there is any obligation beyond the initial period, that is automatically renewable with each payment and that permits the lessee to become the owner of the property;

(3) the lessee is a person other than an organization; and

(4) the lessee takes under the rental-purchase agreement primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose.

Sec. 2. [325F.91] [APPLICATION OF OTHER LAW.]

An agreement that complies with sections 325F.90 to 325F.99 shall not be construed as, nor be governed by, the laws relating to:

(1) a "consumer credit sale" as defined in section 325G.15, subdivision 2;

(2) a "security interest" as defined in section 336.1-201, clause (37); or

(3) a "sale of goods" as defined in section 325G.15, subdivision 5.

Sec. 3. [325F.92] [DISCLOSURES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] In a rental-purchase agreement, the lessor shall disclose the following items, as applicable:

(a) The total of payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property accompanied by an explanation that this term means the "total dollar amount of payments you will have to make to acquire ownership."

(b) The total number, amounts, and timing of all payments and other charges including taxes or official fees paid to or through the lessor that are necessary to acquire ownership of the property.

(c) Any initial or advance payment such as a delivery charge, security deposit, or trade-in allowance.

(d) A statement that the lessee will not own the property until the lessee has made the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property.

(e) A statement that the total of payments does not include additional charges such as late payment charges, and a separate listing and explanation of these charges as applicable.

(f) Whether the lessee is liable for loss or damage to the property and, if so, the maximum amount for which the lessee is liable, which in the case of loss shall in no event be greater than the price the lessee would have paid to exercise an early purchase option. In the case of damage to the property other than normal wear and tear, the lessee shall be liable for the lesser of the price the lessee would have paid to exercise an early purchase option or the cost of repair as reasonably determined by the lessor.

(g) A description of the goods or merchandise including model numbers as applicable and a statement indicating whether the property is new or used. It is not a violation of this subdivision to indicate that the property is used if it is actually new.

(h) A statement that the lessee has the option to purchase the leased property during the terms of the rental-purchase agreement and at what price, formula, or by what method the price is to be determined.

(i) The cash price of the merchandise.

Subd. 2. [ALTERNATIVE COMPLIANCE.] With respect to matters specifically governed by the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, compliance with that act satisfies the requirements of this section.

Sec. 4: [325F.93] [FORM REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The disclosure information required by section 325F.92 must be disclosed in a rental-purchase agreement, and must:

(1) be made clearly and conspicuously with items appearing in logical order and segregated as appropriate for readability and clarity;

(2) be made in writing;

(3) need not be contained in a single writing or made in the order set forth in section 325F.92; and

(4) may be supplemented by additional information or explanations supplied by the lessor, but none shall be stated, used, or placed so as to mislead or confuse the lessee, or to contradict, obscure, or detract attention from the information required by section 325F.92, and so long as the additional information or explanations do not have the effect of circumventing, evading, or unduly complicating the information required to be disclosed by section 325F.92.

Subd. 2. [TIMING.] The lessor shall disclose all information required by section 325F.92 before the rental-purchase agreement is executed. These disclosures must be made on the face of the writing evidencing the rental-purchase agreement.

Subd. 3. [COPY TO LESSEE.] Before any payment is due, the lessor shall furnish the lessee with an exact copy of each rental-purchase agreement. The agreement shall be signed by the lessee and is evidence of the lessee's agreement. If there is more than one lessee in a rental-purchase agreement, delivery of a copy of the rental-purchase agreement to one of the lessees constitutes compliance with this subdivision; however, a lessee not signing the agreement is not liable under it.

Subd. 4. [TYPE SIZE.] The terms of the rental-purchase agreement, except as otherwise provided in this section, must be set forth in not less than eight-point standard type.

Sec. 5. [325F.94] [ADVERTISING.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITION.] An advertisement for a rental-purchase agreement does not state or imply that a specific item is available at specific amounts or terms unless the lessor usually and customarily offers or will offer that item at those amounts or terms.

Subd. 2. [DISCLOSURES.] (a) If an advertisement for a rental-purchase agreement refers to or states the amount of any payment, or the right to acquire ownership, for a specific item, the advertisement must also clearly and conspicuously state the following terms as applicable:

(1) that the transaction advertised is a rental-purchase agreement;

(2) the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership; and

(3) that the lessee will not own the property until the total amount necessary to acquire ownership is paid in full or by prepayment as provided for by law.

(b) Every item displayed or offered under a rental-purchase agreement shall have clearly and conspicuously indicated in Arabic numerals, so as to be readable and understandable by visual inspection, each of the following affixed to the item:

(1) the cash price of the item; and

(2) the amount of the lease payment and the total of lease payments required for ownership.

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE COMPLIANCE.] With respect to any matters specifically governed by the advertising provisions of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, compliance with that act satisfies the requirements of this section.

Subd. 4. [NONAPPLICATION.] This section does not apply to the owner or personnel, as such, of any medium in which an advertisement appears or through which it is disseminated.

Sec. 6. [325F.95] [LESSEE'S REINSTATEMENT RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] A lessee who fails to make timely lease payments may reinstate the original rental-purchase agreement without losing any rights or options previously acquired under the rental-purchase agreement if both of the following apply:

(1) after having failed to make a timely payment, the lessee has surrendered the property to the lessor, if and when requested by the lessor; and

(2) in the case of a lessee that has paid less than 60 percent of the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property, not more than 60 days has passed since the lessee returned the property. If the lessee has paid more than 60 percent of the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property, the lessee's rights to reinstate shall be extended for a period of not less than 180 days after the lessee has returned the property.

Subd. 2. [CHARGES.] As a condition to reinstating a rental-purchase agreement, a lessor may charge the outstanding balance of any accrued payments and delinquency charges, a reinstatement fee not to exceed $5, and a reasonable delivery charge, if redelivery of the item is necessary.

Subd. 3. [SUBSTITUTE ITEMS.] If reinstatement occurs pursuant to this section, the lessor shall provide the lessee with the same item, if available, leased by the lessee before reinstatement. If the same item is not available, a substitute item of comparable worth, quality, and condition may be used. If a substitute item is provided, the lessor shall provide the lessee with all the information required by section 325F.92.

Sec. 7. [325F.96] [PROHIBITED PROVISIONS.]

A rental-purchase agreement may not contain a provision:

- (1) requiring a confession of judgment;
- (2) authorizing a lessor or an agent of the lessor to commit a breach of the peace in the repossession of property;
- (3) waiving a defense, counterclaim, or right the lessee may have against the lessor or an agent of the lessor;

(4) requiring the payment of a late charge unless a lease payment is delinquent for more than two business days, and the charge or fee shall not be in an amount more than the greater of ten percent of the delinquent lease payment or $3; and

(5) requiring a separate payment in addition to lease payments in order to acquire ownership of the property, other than by exercising an early purchase option pursuant to section 325F.97.

Sec. 8. [325F.97] [EARLY PURCHASE OPTION.]

A rental-purchase agreement must provide that at any time after the initial payment, the lessee may acquire ownership of the property by complying with the terms of an early purchase option. This option must be clearly set forth in the rental-purchase agreement, as required by section 325F.92.

Sec. 9. [325F.98] [EXEMPTED TRANSACTION.]

Sections 325F.90 to 325F.99 do not apply to agreements for the rental of property in which the person who rents the property has no legal right to become the owner of the rented property at the end of the rental period.

Sec. 10. [325F.99] [PENALTIES AND REMEDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [DISCLOSURE PENALTIES AND REMEDIES.] A lessor who is found to have violated sections 325F.92 to 325F.94 is subject to the penalties and remedies provided in section 8.31.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION OF OTHER LAW.] A violation of sections 325F.95 to 325F.97 shall be treated as a violation of section 325F.69. The remedies provided by sections 325F.95 to 325F.97 are cumulative and shall not be construed as restricting any remedy that is otherwise available.

Subd. 3. [OFFSETS LIMITED.] A lessee may not take any action to offset any amount for which a lessor is potentially liable under this section against any amount owned by the lessee, unless the amount of the liability of the lessor has been determined by a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the lessor was a party. This section does not bar a lessee in default on an obligation arising from the rental-purchase agreement from asserting a violation of this chapter in an original action, or as defense or counterclaim to an action brought by the lessor to collect amounts owned by the lessee pursuant to the rental-purchase agreement.

Subd. 4. [LESSOR'S RIGHT TO CORRECT ERROR.] A lessor is not liable under this section for a violation of sections 325F.90 to 325F.98 if, within 60 days after discovering an error and before an action for damages is filed against the lessor pursuant to this section or written notice of the error is received from the lessee, the lessor notifies the lessee of the error and makes adjustments to the account of the lessee that are necessary to assure that the lessee is not required to pay an amount in excess of the amounts actually disclosed. This subdivision applies whether the error was discovered through the lessor's own procedures or by any other means.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] A lessor is not liable under this section for damages in excess of the actual damage sustained by the lessee if the lessor shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation of sections 325F.90 to 325F.98 resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance by the lessor of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error. As used in this subdivision, "bona fide error" includes, but is not limited to: clerical, calculation, computer malfunction and programming, and printing errors.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 325G.15, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Sale of goods" includes, without limitation, any agreement in the form of a bailment or lease of goods if the bailee or lessee agrees to pay as compensation for use a sum substantially equivalent to or in excess of the aggregate value of the goods involved and it is agreed that the bailee or lessee will become, or for no other or a nominal consideration has the option to become, the owner of the goods upon full compliance with the bailee's or lessee's obligations under the agreement. The term also includes a contract in the form of a terminable bailment or lease of goods if: (a) the bailee or lessee has the option to renew the contract by making the payments specified in the contract; (b) the contract obligates the bailor or lessor to transfer ownership of the property to the bailee or lessee for no other or a nominal consideration upon full compliance by the bailee or lessee with the bailee's or lessee's obligations under the contract including any obligation incurred by reason of the exercise of an option by the bailee or lessee to renew the contract; and (c) the payments contracted for by the bailee or lessee, including those payments pursuant to the exercise of an option by the bailee or lessee to renew the contract, are substantially equivalent to or in excess of the aggregate value of the property and services involved."

To promote the geographical distribution of set-aside awards, the commissioner may designate a portion of the small business set-aside procurement for award to bidders from a specified congressional district or other geographical region specified by the commissioner. The failure of the commissioner to designate particular procurements shall not be deemed to prohibit or discourage small businesses from seeking the procurement award through the normal solicitation and bidding processes.

Subd. 3. [STATEMENT.] If the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization refuses to correct, amend, or delete disputed personal information, the individual must be permitted to file with the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization a concise statement setting forth what the person thinks is the correct, relevant, or fair information and stating the reasons why the individual disagrees with the insurer's, insurance agent's, or insurance-support organization's refusal to correct, amend, or delete disputed personal information.

Subd. 4. [DISPUTED INFORMATION.] In the event an individual files a statement described in subdivision 3, the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization shall:

(1) file the statement with the disputed personal information and provide a means by which anyone reviewing the disputed personal information will be made aware of the individual's statement and have access to it;

(2) in any subsequent disclosure by the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization of the disputed personal information, clearly identify the matter or matters in dispute and provide the individual's statement along with the personal information being disclosed; and

(b) The commissioner may, after providing the insurer, insurance-support organization, or insurance agent an opportunity for a hearing, order the insurer, insurance-support organization, or insurance agent to amend, correct, or delete disputed personal information if the commissioner finds that the personal information kept by the insurer, insurance-support organization, or insurance agent is in error. If the commissioner finds that the disputed personal information maintained by the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization is correct, the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization may delete from the individual's records any statement filed with them by that individual relating to the disputed information under subdivision 3.

Sec. 11. [72A.499] [REASONS FOR ADVERSE UNDERWRITING DECISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE AND INFORMATION.] In the event of an adverse underwriting decision, the insurer or insurance agent responsible for the decision shall provide in writing to the applicant, policyholder, or individual proposed for coverage:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the adverse underwriting decision, a summary of the person's rights under sections 9 and 10, and that upon request the person may receive the specific items of personal information that support those reasons and the specific sources of the information; or

(2) the specific reason or reasons for the adverse underwriting decision, the specific items of personal and privileged information that support those reasons, the names and addresses of the sources that supplied the specific items of information specified, and a summary of the rights established under sections 9 and 10.

Subd. 2. [HEALTH REASONS.] If the specific reason for an adverse underwriting decision is based on health record information, the insurer may, in lieu of providing the specific reason to the individual under subdivision 1, provide the individual with the specific source of the adverse underwriting decision referring to the specific date, page, and line of the information received from a health professional or health care institution. If the insured has been informed of the condition indicated by their health provider and is unable to determine the reason for the adverse underwriting decision, then the insurer must provide the specific reason to the individual. The insurer must provide the specific reason for the adverse underwriting decision to a health professional designated by the individual, if requested either orally or in writing by the individual.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION.] (a) This section is not applicable to group policies or contracts, except for group policies that are individually underwritten. For group policies or contracts that are individually underwritten, the notice required under this section must be given to the individual or individuals in the group whose personal information resulted in the adverse underwriting decision.

(b) If a policy or contract is terminated on a class or statewide basis, or an insurance coverage is declined solely because the coverage is unavailable on a class or statewide basis, the insurer or agent is not required to provide the notice required under this section provided that the applicant or policyholder is provided with the specific reason for the termination or declination of coverage.

Subd. 4. [PRIVILEGED INFORMATION.] (a) An insurer or insurance agent is not required to provide particular, specific items of privileged information under subdivision 1 if it has a reasonable suspicion, based upon that specific information, that the applicant, policyholder, or person proposed for coverage has engaged in criminal activity, fraud, material misrepresentation, or material nondisclosure. If an insurer or insurance agent does not provide the specific items of information because the information is privileged under this subdivision, the insurer or insurance agent must notify the applicant, policyholder, or individual proposed for coverage that the specific items of information are privileged and of the person's right to appeal to the commissioner under this subdivision.

(b) If a person is not provided with the specific items of information relating to an adverse underwriting decision because the information is privileged under this subdivision, the person may request that the commissioner review the information. The commissioner may then order the insurer or insurance agent to supply the privileged information to the commissioner. If the commissioner determines that the information is not privileged under this subdivision, the commissioner shall order the insurer or insurance agent to provide the information to the applicant, policyholder, or person proposed for coverage.

Subd. 5. [HEALTH RECORDS INFORMATION.] Specific items of health record information supplied by a health care institution or health professional, and the identity of the health professional or health care institution that supplied the information, must be disclosed in the manner required under section 9, subdivision 3.

Subdivision 1. [ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REQUIRED.] An insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization must not seek information in connection with an insurance transaction concerning any previous adverse underwriting decision experienced by a person, or any previous insurance coverage obtained by a person through a residual market mechanism, unless the inquiry also requests the reasons for the previous adverse underwriting decision or the reasons why insurance coverage was previously obtained through a residual market mechanism.

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITIONS.] An insurer or insurance agent may not base an adverse underwriting decision, in whole or in part, on:

(1) the fact of a previous adverse underwriting decision or the fact that a person previously obtained insurance coverage through a residual market mechanism, provided that an insurer or insurance agent may base an adverse underwriting decision on further information obtained from an insurer or insurance agent responsible for a previous adverse underwriting decision; or

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM LEVY.] (1) The levy authorized by section 124A.23, subdivision 2, may be increased in any amount that is approved by the voters of the district at a referendum called for the purpose subject to the limit of section 6. The referendum may be called by the school board or shall be called by the school board upon written petition of qualified voters of the district. The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board. Only two elections may be held to approve a levy increase that will commence in a specific school year. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy in mills, the amount that will be raised by that tax capacity rate in the first year it is to be levied, and that the tax capacity rate shall be used to finance school operations. The ballot may designate a specific number of years for which the referendum authorization shall apply. The ballot may contain a textual portion with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

(a) For a school district, "Shall the increase in the levy proposed by (petition to) the board of, School District No. . . , be approved?"

(b) For a qualifying education district, "Shall the increase in the levy by (petition to) the board of, Education District No. . . , be approved?"

If approved, the amount provided by the approved tax capacity rate applied to each year's gross tax capacity shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

(2) A referendum on the question of revoking or reducing the increased levy amount authorized pursuant to clause (1) may be called by the school board and shall be called by the school board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the district. A levy approved by the voters of the district pursuant to clause (1) must be made at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation or reduction for subsequent years. Only one such revocation or reduction election may be held to revoke or reduce a levy for any specific year and for years thereafter.

(3) A petition authorized by clause (1) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent, or (a) for a school district, ten percent if the school board election is held in conjunction with a general election, of the average number of voters at the two most recent district wide school elections; (b) for a qualifying education district, the average number of voters at the two most recent school districtwide school elections in all the member school districts. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.

(4) A petition authorized by clause (2) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of five percent of the residents of the school district as determined by the most recent census. A revocation or reduction referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.

(5) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum.

(6) Within 30 days after the district holds a referendum pursuant to this clause, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

Subd. 2. [TOTAL AUTHORITY.] A district may not certify a referendum levy in excess of the greater of (a) $250,000, (b) the product of the district's actual pupil units for the fiscal year to which the levy is attributable times 20 percent of the formula allowance for the fiscal year before the fiscal year to which the levy is attributable, or (c) the amount of the district's referendum authority on June 1, 1989, plus the growth factor. The growth factor is equal to three percent of the formula allowance times the district's actual pupil units for the fiscal year to which the levy is attributable.

In no case may a district certify a referendum levy in excess of its levy authority under section 124A.03.

Subd. 3. [REFERENDUM EQUALIZATION AID REDUCTION.] A district must reduce its referendum levy certification amount by the amount of referendum equalization aid it receives for that fiscal year.

Subd. 4. [REFERENDUM; FUND BALANCE REDUCTION.] A district's referendum levy authority must be reduced if the net unappropriated operating fund balance as of June 30 in the year before the last fiscal year is more than $750 times the actual pupil units in the year before the last fiscal year. The amount of the reduction is equal to 0.5 times the amount of the excess.

Subd. 5. [ELECTIONS AMOUNTS.] Beginning July 1, 1989, no referendum election may be held for an amount to exceed $200 times the district's actual pupil units for that year.

Sec. 7. [124A.0302] [REFERENDUM EQUALIZATION AID.]

Subdivision 1. [REFERENDUM EQUALIZATION REVENUE.] A district's referendum equalization revenue equals the lesser of (1) the district's certified referendum levy or (2) the product of the district's actual pupil units for that year times the equalizing factor for that year times 1.4 percent.

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM EQUALIZATION LEVY.] A district's referendum equalization levy is equal to the product of the district's referendum equalization revenue times the lesser of one, or the ratio of the district's adjusted gross tax capacity per pupil unit to 60 percent of the equalizing factor.

Subd. 3. [REFERENDUM EQUALIZATION AID.] A district's referendum equalization aid is equal to its referendum equalization revenue minus its referendum equalization levy.

Referendum equalization aid must be reduced by the amount of other referendum equalization aid that is received by the district.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] "Teacher" in this section means a public employee licensed by the board of teaching whose duties are full-time classroom instructional or the equivalent, excluding a teacher for which categorical aids are received pursuant to sections 124.273 and 124.32. In this section, teacher does not include supervisory and support personnel, as defined in section 125.03, subdivision 4, librarians, school psychologists, school social workers, audio-visual directors and coordinators, recreation personnel, media generalists, media supervisors, or speech therapists. A teacher whose duties are less than full-time classroom instructional must be included as an equivalent only for the number of hours of classroom instruction.

Subd. 3. [STATE AID CRITERIA.] The state shall pay aid as provided in section 11 to districts that work to achieve or maintain a class size of no more than 15 elementary pupils per classroom session in kindergarten and grade one for each teacher in each school within the school district and no more than 17 elementary pupils in grades two and three for each teacher in each school within the school district. A district must reduce the class sizes in kindergarten and grade one before it reduces the class sizes in grades two and three unless the district has a compelling reason to reduce the class sizes in kindergarten through grade 3 concurrently. A district must not increase the class sizes in grades two and three in any school in the district as a result of reducing class sizes in kindergarten and grade one. A district must not increase the district wide class size per teacher in grades four through eight as a result of reducing class sizes in kindergarten through grade three.

A district must develop a districtwide plan to work to achieve or maintain the specified class sizes based upon the recommendations of the district's elementary school councils described in section 11. The plan must be approved by the commissioner of education. If a local district has achieved and is maintaining the specified class sizes, it must use the aid it receives under section 12 to work to improve program offerings throughout the district, or the education district of which the district is a member, based upon a plan developed by the local district's curriculum advisory committee. The amount of aid must be allocated to each school in proportion to the ratio of the school's kindergarten through grade 3 population to the district's kindergarten through grade 3 population.

Sec. 11. [124A.216] [AID AMOUNT.]

Of a district's basic revenue under section 124A.22, subdivision 2, an amount equal to 2.2 percent times the number of actual pupil units must be reserved and may be used only to achieve or maintain class sizes or improve program offerings according to section 10, subdivision 3.

Sec. 12. [124A.217] [SCHOOL DISTRICT PARTICIPATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF COUNCIL; PURPOSE.]

An elementary school council in each elementary school is created with the following members: (a) the elementary school principal; (b) representatives of teachers of kindergarten through grade three selected by those teachers at the school; (c) other school personnel serving pupils in kindergarten through grade three selected by those personnel at the school; and (d) parents of pupils in kindergarten through grade three attending the school, selected by the parents. A majority of the members of the council must be parents.

The purpose of the council is to (1) develop a written plan enabling the school to work to achieve or maintain the class sizes specified in section 10, subdivision 3, and to make recommendations for implementing the plan to the school board; and (2) participate in implementing the plan, including overseeing school budget items relating to reductions in class size.

The council shall specify the terms and method of replacement of the council members and council chair. The council is not permitted to receive expenses or per diem payments.

If an existing committee or council meets the criteria of this subdivision, or if an existing committee or council may be modified to meet the criteria of this subdivision, then that committee or council may be used to accomplish the purpose of this section.

Subd. 2. [COUNCIL AND SCHOOL DISTRICT PLANS.] To be eligible to receive aid under section 11, districts must submit to the commissioner of education a districtwide plan to reduce class sizes based upon the recommendations of the district's elementary school councils. Plans must be submitted by a date specified by the commissioner, in the form and manner prescribed by the commissioner, and must include any other information requested by the commissioner. The commissioner must review and approve or disapprove each district's plan within 45 days of receiving the plan. Any action by the commissioner must conform with widely published criteria for evaluating districts' plans; the criteria must include a definition of "work to achieve or maintain." Only approved plans are eligible for aid under section 11. At the request of a school board and the district's elementary school councils, the commissioner shall provide technical assistance to a district implementing an approved plan.

If a local school district has already achieved and is maintaining the class sizes specified in section 10, subdivision 3, the district must develop a plan in cooperation with the local district's curriculum advisory committee to improve program offerings throughout the district, or throughout the education district of which the district is a member. The commissioner must use the same review procedure to approve or disapprove a district's plan to improve program offerings.

Sec. 13. [124A.218] [REPORT]

The commissioner of education shall monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of districts' reduced class sizes and efforts to improve program offerings and shall report to the education committees in the legislature before March 1 of each school year.

(i) the number of FTE pupils transported in the regular category in the base year, plus

(ii) the number of secondary FTE pupils transported to and from school in the base year who live more than one mile but less than two miles from the public school that they could attend or from the nonpublic school actually attended, plus

(iii) the number of FTE pupils residing less than one mile from school who were transported to and from school in the base year because of extraordinary traffic hazards,

(C) by the area of the district in square miles;

(2) whether the district is nonrural, based upon criteria established by the department of education; and

(3) the logarithm of the percentage of all FTE's transported in the regular category using buses that are not owned by the district.

Subd. 7a. [BASE YEAR SOFTENING FORMULA.] Each district's predicted base cost determined for each school year the 1986-1987 and 1987-1988 base years according to subdivision 3 shall be adjusted as provided in this clause to determine the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE for that year.

(a) If the base cost of the district is within five percent of the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to the base cost.

(b) If the base cost of the district is more than five percent greater than the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to 105 percent of the predicted base cost, plus 40 percent of the difference between (i) the base cost, and (ii) 105 percent of the predicted base cost. However, in no case shall a district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE be less than 80 percent of base cost.

(c) If the base cost of the district is more than five percent less than the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to 95 percent of the predicted base cost, minus 40 percent of the difference between (i) 95 percent of predicted base cost, and (ii) the base cost. However, in no case shall a district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE be more than 120 percent of base cost.

(d) For the 1988-1989 base year and later years, each district's predicted base cost determined according to subdivision 3a must be adjusted as provided in this subdivision to determine the district's adjusted predicted base cost for that year. The adjusted predicted base cost equals 50 percent of the district's base cost plus 50 percent of the district's predicted base cost, but the adjusted predicted base cost cannot be less than 80 percent, nor more than 110 percent, of the base cost.

Subd. 7b. [INFLATION FACTORS.] The adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year shall be increased by 6.0 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1986-1987 school year, by 4.9 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1987-1988 school year, and by 4.1 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1988-1989 school year, and by 6.4 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1989-1990 school year. The adjusted predicted base cost determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year must be increased by 6.3 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the 1990-1991 school year, but the regular transportation allowance for a district cannot be less than the district's minimum regular transportation allowance according to subdivision 1, clause (r).

Subd. 7c. [TRANSPORTATION REVENUE.] Beginning in the 1990-1991 school year, the transportation revenue for each district equals the sum of the district's regular transportation revenue and the district's nonregular transportation revenue.

(a) The regular transportation revenue for each district equals the district's regular transportation allowance according to subdivision 7b times the sum of the number of FTE's transported by the district in the regular and desegregation categories in the current school year.

(b) The nonregular transportation revenue for each district equals the district's actual cost in the current school year for nonregular transportation services, minus the amount of regular transportation revenue attributable to FTE's transported in the desegregation category in the current school year.

Subd. 8a. [TRANSPORTATION AID.] (a) For the 1988-1989 school year and thereafter 1989-1990 school years, a district's transportation aid is equal to the sum of its basic transportation aid under subdivision 8b, its nonregular transportation aid under subdivision 8i, and its nonregular transportation levy equalization aid under subdivision 8j, minus its contracted services aid reduction under subdivision 8k and minus its basic transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5.

(b) For 1990-1991 and later school years, a district's transportation aid equals the product of:

(1) the difference between the transportation revenue and the sum of:

(i) the maximum basic transportation levy for that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5, plus

(ii) the maximum nonregular transportation levy for that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5c, plus

(iii) the contracted services aid reduction under subdivision 8k,

(2) times the ratio of the sum of the actual amounts levied under section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c, to the sum of the maximum levies under section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c.

(c) If the total appropriation for transportation aid for any fiscal year is insufficient to pay all districts the full amount of aid earned, the department of education shall reduce each district's aid in proportion to the number of resident pupils in average daily membership in the district to the state total average daily membership, and shall reduce the transportation levy of off-formula districts in the same proportion.

Subd. 8b. [BASIC AID COMPUTATION.] A district's basic transportation aid pursuant to this section for each school year the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years shall equal the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times the total number of authorized FTE's transported in the regular category in the district in the current school year.

Subd. 8i. [NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION AID.] (a) A district's nonregular transportation aid shall be determined according to this subdivision.

(b) For the 1986-1987 and 1987-1988 school years, nonregular transportation aid shall equal (1) 20 percent of the first $10 of actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation services per total pupil unit, plus 40 percent of the next $10 of actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation services per total pupil unit, plus 60 percent of the actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation services per total pupil unit which exceeds $20, times (2) the number of total pupil units in the district in the current year.

(c) For the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school year and thereafter years, nonregular transportation aid equals (1) 60 percent of the actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation ser-vinces per total pupil unit which exceeds $30, times (2) the number of total pupil units in the district in the current year.

Subd. 8j. [NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION LEVY EQUALIZATION AID.] For the 1984-1985 school year and each year thereafter 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years, a district's nonregular transportation levy equalization aid shall be determined pursuant to this subdivision.

(a) Unreimbursed nonregular transportation revenue shall equal the actual cost in the ~~current~~ school year for nonregular transportation services, minus the district's nonregular transportation aid computed pursuant to subdivision 8i.

(b) The nonregular transportation levy is the levy authorized by section 275.125, subdivision 5c.

(c) Nonregular transportation levy equalization aid for a district shall equal the product of (1) its unreimbursed nonregular transportation revenue, minus the nonregular transportation levy limitation for that year, times (2) the ratio of the district's actual nonregular transportation levy to its nonregular transportation levy limitation.

Subd. 8k. [CONTRACTED SERVICES AID REDUCTION.] (a) For the 1984-1985 school year and each year thereafter, each district's transportation aid shall be reduced according to the provisions of this subdivision, if the district contracted for some or all of the transportation services provided in the regular category.

(b) For the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years, the department of education shall compute this subtraction by conducting the multiple regression analysis specified in subdivision 3 and computing the district's aid under two circumstances, once including the coefficient of the factor specified in subdivision 4b, clause (3), and once excluding the coefficient of that factor. The aid subtraction shall equal the difference between the district's aid computed under these two circumstances.

(c) For 1990-1991 and later school years, the department of education shall determine the subtraction by computing the district's regular transportation revenue under two circumstances, once including the factor specified in subdivision 3a, clause (c), and once excluding the factor. The aid subtraction equals the difference between the district's revenue computed under the two circumstances.

Subd. 8l. [ALTERNATIVE ATTENDANCE PROGRAMS.] A district that serves nonresident pupils in programs under sections 120.062, 120.075, 120.0751, 120.0752, 123.3515, 126.22, and 129B.52 to 129B.55 shall provide authorized transportation to the pupil within the attendance area for the school that the pupil attends. The state shall pay transportation aid attributable to the pupil to the serving district according to this section. The district of the pupil's residence need not provide or pay for transportation between the pupil's residence and the district's border.

Subd. 9. [DISTRICT REPORTS.] Each district shall report data to the department as required by the department to implement the transportation aid formula. If a district's final transportation aid payment is adjusted after the final aid payment has been made to all districts, the adjustment shall be made by increasing or decreasing the district's aid for the next fiscal year.

Subd. 10. [DEPRECIATION.] Any school district which owns school buses or mobile units shall transfer annually from the undesignated fund balance account in its transportation fund to the reserved fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund at least an amount equal to 12½ percent of the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit until the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit is fully amortized, plus 20 percent of the original cost of each type three bus included in the district's authorized cost under the provisions of subdivision 1, clause (b)(4), until the original cost of each type three bus is fully amortized, plus 33⅓ percent of the cost to the district as of July 1 of each year for school bus reconditioning done by the department of corrections until the cost of the reconditioning is fully amortized; provided, if the district's transportation aid is reduced pursuant to subdivision 8a because the appropriation for that year is insufficient, this amount shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a as a percentage of the sum of

(1) the district's total transportation aid without the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a, plus

(2) the district's basic transportation levy limitation under section 275.125, subdivision 5, plus

(3) the district's contract services aid reduction under subdivision 8k, plus

(4) the district's nonregular transportation levy limitation under section 275.125, subdivision 5e district's transportation revenue.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BASIC TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] Each year, a school district may levy for school transportation services an amount not to exceed the amount raised by the basic transportation tax capacity rate times the adjusted gross tax capacity of the district for the preceding year. The commissioner of revenue shall establish the basic transportation tax capacity rate and certify it to the commissioner of education by September 1 of each year for levies payable in the following year. The basic transportation tax capacity rate shall be a rate, rounded up to the nearest hundredth of a mill percent, that, when applied to the adjusted gross tax capacity of taxable property for all districts, raises the amount specified in this subdivision. The basic transportation tax capacity rate for transportation for the 1990 fiscal year shall be the rate that raises $72,681,200. The basic transportation tax capacity rate for the 1991 fiscal year is the rate that raises $82,063,200. The basic transportation tax capacity rate certified by the commissioner of revenue must not be changed due to changes or corrections made to a district's adjusted gross tax capacity after the tax capacity rate has been certified.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, subdivision 5b, is amended to read:

Subd. 5b. [TRANSPORTATION LEVY OFF-FORMULA ADJUSTMENT.] (a) ~~In any~~ the 1989 and 1990 fiscal year years, if the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5 in a district attributable to a particular ~~the~~ fiscal year exceeds the transportation aid computation under section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, the district's levy limitation shall be adjusted as provided in this subdivision. ~~In the year following each next~~ fiscal year, the district's transportation levy shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between (1) the amount of the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5, and (2) the sum of the district's transportation aid computation pursuant to section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, and the amount of any subtraction made from special state aids pursuant to section 124.2138, subdivision 2, less the amount of any aid reduction due to an insufficient appropriation as provided in section 124.225, subdivision 8a.

(b) For 1991 and later fiscal years, in a district if the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5 attributable to that fiscal year is more than the difference between (1) the district's transportation revenue under section 124.225, subdivision 7c, and (2) the sum of the district's maximum nonregular levy under subdivision 5c and the district's contracted services aid reduction under section 124.225, subdivision 8k, the district's transportation levy in the next fiscal year must be reduced by the amount of the excess.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, subdivision 5c, is amended to read:

Subd. 5c. [NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] A school district may also make a levy for unreimbursed nonregular transportation costs pursuant to this subdivision. The amount of the levy shall not exceed the product of:

(a) the district's unreimbursed nonregular transportation revenue determined pursuant to section 124.225, subdivision 8j, clause (a), times

(b) the lesser of

(i) one, or

(ii) the ratio of the district's adjusted gross tax capacity for the preceding year per total pupil unit in the school year to which the levy is attributable, to $83,800. be the result of the following computation:

(a) multiply

(1) the amount of the district's nonregular transportation revenue under section 124.225, subdivision 7c that is more than the product of $30 times the district's actual pupil units, by

(2) 60 percent;

(b) subtract the result in clause (a) from the district's total nonregular transportation revenue;

(c) multiply the result in clause (b) by the lesser of one or the ratio of (i) the quotient derived by dividing the adjusted gross tax capacity of the district for the year before the year the levy is certified by the actual pupil units in the district for the school year to which the levy is attributable, to (ii) $9,722.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, subdivision 5e, is amended to read:

Subd. 5e. [EXCESS TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] A school district may make a levy for excess transportation costs according to this subdivision. The amount of the levy shall be the result of the following computation:

(a) Multiply the lesser of (1) the regular transportation allowance for the fiscal year to which the levy is attributable, or (2) base cost computed using data for the current school fiscal year according to section 124.225, subdivision 1, paragraph (i) to which the levy is attributable, by the sum of the number of secondary FTE pupils transported to and from school in the current year who live more than one mile but less than two miles from the public school which they could attend or the nonpublic school actually attended, plus the number of FTE pupils residing less than one mile from school who were transported to and from school in the current year due to extraordinary traffic hazards number of weighted FTE pupils transported in the excess category in the district in the current school year.

(b) Add to the result in paragraph (a) the actual cost in the current fiscal year to which the levy is attributable of other related services that are necessary because of extraordinary traffic hazards.

(c) Add to the result in paragraph (b) the actual cost in the fiscal year to which the levy is attributable of noon transportation to and from school for kindergarten pupils attending half-day sessions.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5h. [TRANSPORTATION LEVY; QUALIFYING EDUCATION DISTRICT.] For the purposes of subdivisions 5, 5b, 5c, 5e, 5f, and 5g of this section, "school district" means either school district as defined in section 120.02, subdivision 1, or qualifying education district as defined in section 122.91, subdivision 2a. Where base year data for formula computations are required that do not exist for education districts, the department of education shall compute the necessary figures using data from member districts.

Sec. 9. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.] The sums indicated in this section are appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for the fiscal years designated.

Subd. 2. [TRANSPORTATION AID.] For transportation aid:

$95,811,000 1991

The 1990 appropriation includes $12,773,000 for 1989 and $79,985,000 for 1990.

The 1991 appropriation includes $14,115,000 for 1990 and $81,696,000 for 1991.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.17, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RULES OF THE STATE BOARD.] The state board shall promulgate rules relative to qualifications of essential personnel, courses of study, methods of instruction, pupil eligibility, size of classes, rooms, equipment, supervision, parent consultation, and any other rules it deems necessary for instruction of handicapped children. These rules shall provide standards and procedures appropriate for the implementation of and within the limitations of subdivisions 3a and 3b. These rules shall also provide standards for the discipline, control, management and protection of handicapped children. The state board shall not adopt rules for pupils served in level 1, 2, or 3, as defined in Minnesota Rules, part 3525.2340, establishing either case loads or the maximum number of pupils that may be assigned to special education teachers. The state board, in consultation with the departments of health and human services, shall adopt permanent rules for instruction and services for children under age five and their families. ~~Until June 30, 1988, a developmental achievement center under contract to a school district to provide special instruction and services is eligible for variance from rules relating to personnel licensure. Until June 30, 1988, the licensure variance for a developmental achievement center shall be granted according to the same procedures and criteria used for granting a variance to a school district. The state board shall adopt rules to determine eligibility for special education services. The rules shall include procedures and standards by which to grant variances for experimental eligibility criteria.~~ The state board shall, according to section 14.05, subdivision 4, notify a district applying for a variance from the rules within 45 calendar days of receiving the request whether the request for the variance has been granted or denied. If a request is denied, the board shall specify the program standards used to evaluate the request and the reasons for denying the request.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.17, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [PROCEDURES FOR DECISIONS.] Every district shall utilize at least the following procedures for decisions involving identification, assessment, and educational placement of handicapped children:

(a) Parents and guardians shall receive prior written notice of:

(1) any proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) a proposed placement of their child in, transfer from or to, or denial of placement in a special education program; or

(3) the proposed provision, addition, denial or removal of special education services for their child;

(b) The district shall not proceed with the initial formal assessment of a child, the initial placement of a child in a special education program, or the initial provision of special education services for a child without the prior written consent of the child's parent or guardian. The refusal of a parent or guardian to consent may be overridden by the decision in a hearing held pursuant to clause (d) at the district's initiative;

(c) Parents and guardians shall have an opportunity to meet with appropriate district staff in at least one conciliation conference if they object to any proposal of which they are notified pursuant to clause (a). The conciliation process shall not be used to deny or delay a parent or guardian's right to a due process hearing. If the parent or guardian refuses efforts by the district to conciliate the dispute with the school district, the requirement of an opportunity for conciliation shall be deemed to be satisfied;

(d) Parents, guardians, and the district shall have an opportunity to obtain an impartial due process hearing initiated and conducted in the school district where the child resides responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules, if the parent or guardian continues to object to:

(1) a proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) the proposed placement of their child in, or transfer of their child to a special education program;

(3) the proposed denial of placement of their child in a special education program or the transfer of their child from a special education program;

(4) the proposed provision or addition of special education services for their child; or

(5) the proposed denial or removal of special education services for their child.

At least five calendar days before the hearing, the objecting party shall provide the other party with a brief written statement of the objection and the reasons for the objection.

The hearing shall take place before an impartial hearing officer mutually agreed to by the school board and the parent or guardian. If the school board and the parent or guardian are unable to agree on a hearing officer, the school board shall request the commissioner to appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer shall not be a school board member or employee of the school district where the child resides or of the child's school district of residence, an employee of any other public agency involved in the education or care of the child, or any person with a personal or professional interest which would conflict with the person's objectivity at the hearing. A person who otherwise qualifies as a hearing officer is not an employee of the district solely because the person is paid by the district to serve as a hearing officer. If the hearing officer requests an independent educational assessment of a child, the cost of the assessment shall be at district expense. The proceedings shall be recorded and preserved, at the expense of the school district, pending ultimate disposition of the action.

(e) The decision of the hearing officer pursuant to clause (d) shall be rendered not more than 45 calendar days from the date of the receipt of the request for the hearing. A hearing officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 45-day period at the request of either party. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding on all parties unless appealed to the hearing review officer by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides pursuant to clause (f).

The local decision shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) state the controlling facts upon which the decision is made in sufficient detail to apprise the parties and the hearing review officer of the basis and reason for the decision;

(3) state whether the special education program or special education services appropriate to the child's needs can be reasonably provided within the resources available to the responsible district or districts;

(4) state the amount and source of any additional district expenditure necessary to implement the decision; and

(5) be based on the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and the rules of the state board.

(f) Any local decision issued pursuant to clauses (d) and (e) may be appealed to the hearing review officer within 30 calendar days of that written decision, by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules.

If the decision is appealed, a written transcript of the hearing shall be made by the school district and shall be accessible to the parties involved within five calendar days of the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall issue a final decision based on an impartial review of the local decision and the entire record within 30 calendar days after the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall seek additional evidence if necessary and may afford the parties an opportunity for written or oral argument; provided any hearing held to seek additional evidence shall be an impartial due process hearing but shall be deemed not to be a contested case hearing for purposes of chapter 14. The hearing review officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 30-day period at the request of any party.

The final decision shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) include findings and conclusions; and

(3) be based upon the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and in the rules of the state board.

(g) The decision of the hearing review officer shall be final unless appealed by the parent or guardian or school board to the court of appeals. The judicial review shall be in accordance with chapter 14.

(h) The commissioner of education, having delegated general supervision of special education to the appropriate staff, shall be the hearing review officer except for appeals in which:

(1) the commissioner has a personal interest in or specific involvement with the student who is a party to the hearing;

(2) the commissioner has been employed as an administrator by the district that is a party to the hearing;

(3) the commissioner has been involved in the selection of the administrators of the district that is a party to the hearing;

(4) the commissioner has a personal, economic, or professional interest in the outcome of the hearing other than the proper administration of the federal and state laws, rules, and policies;

(5) the appeal challenges a state or local policy which was developed with substantial involvement of the commissioner; or

(6) the appeal challenges the actions of a department employee or official.

For any appeal to which the above exceptions apply, the state board of education shall name an impartial and competent hearing review officer.

In all appeals, the parent or guardian of the handicapped student or the district that is a party to the hearing may challenge the impartiality or competence of the proposed hearing review officer by applying to the state board of education.

(i) Pending the completion of proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, unless the district and the parent or guardian of the child agree otherwise, the child shall remain in the child's current educational placement and shall not be denied initial admission to school.

(j) The child's school district of residence, if different from the district where the child actually resides, or providing district shall receive notice of and may be a party to any hearings or appeals pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [INTERVENTIONS BEFORE REFERRAL.] A district must document two instructional strategies, alternatives, or interventions while a pupil is in the regular classroom before referring the pupil for a special education assessment. The multidisciplinary assessment team may waive this requirement for a student in crisis. This requirement must not be used to deny or delay a pupil's right to a special education assessment.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.273, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [TEACHERS SALARIES.] Each year the state shall pay a ~~school~~ district a portion of the salary, calculated from the date of hire, of one full-time equivalent teacher for each 45 pupils of limited English proficiency enrolled in the district. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the state shall pay a portion of the salary, calculated from the date of hire, of one-half of a full-time equivalent teacher to a district with 22 or fewer pupils of limited English proficiency enrolled. The portion for a full-time teacher shall be the lesser of 61 percent of the salary or $17,000. The portion for a part-time or limited-time teacher shall be the lesser of 61 percent of the salary or the product of $17,000 times the ratio of the person's actual employment to full-time employment.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.273, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION DATES.] (a) A district that expects to enroll pupils in educational programs for pupils of limited English proficiency during the next fiscal year shall submit an initial application for aid by October 15 and June 1. The district shall submit an amended application by ~~February~~ November 15 ~~or~~ and by ~~June~~ February 15 if the number of enrolled pupils of limited English proficiency has changed since filing a previous application. ~~Districts which do~~ A district that does not submit an initial application by ~~October 15~~ June 1 but ~~enroll~~ enrolls pupils of limited English proficiency after that date may need not wait until November 15 or February 15 to submit an initial application by February 15 or by June 15. A final report for the last fiscal year with actual salary and enrollment information shall be submitted by August 15 for calculation of the final payment.

(b) All applications shall be submitted to the department in the manner prescribed by the commissioner. Each application shall include (1) the number of pupils ~~or additional pupils~~ enrolled who meet the criteria in section 126.262, subdivision 2; (2) ~~the number, dates of hire,~~ full-time equivalency, and salaries of essential licensed personnel or additional essential licensed personnel employed in the district's educational program for pupils of limited English proficiency who meet the criteria in section 126.262, subdivision 3; and (3) any other information deemed necessary by the commissioner to implement this section. School districts may submit joint applications for aid pursuant to this section and may share essential instructional personnel employed in educational programs for pupils of limited English proficiency.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.273, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [NOTIFICATION; AID PAYMENTS.] The department shall inform each applicant district of the amount of aid it will receive pursuant to this section within a ~~month~~ 45 days after the application deadline.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.273, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MONEY FROM OTHER SOURCES.] A school district providing a program for pupils of limited English proficiency shall be eligible to receive moneys for these programs from other government agencies and from private sources when these moneys are available.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.273, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [DEFINITION.] In this section, unless otherwise specified "district" means either "school district" as defined in section 120.02, subdivision 1, or "qualifying education district" as defined in article 6, section 6, subdivision 2a; "school board" means either "school board" as defined in section 123.33 or "education district board" as defined in section 122.92.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.32, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

[REVIEW BY COMMISSIONER.] (a) The commissioner may, ~~after review and a favorable recommendation by the state board of education, recommend to the legislature capital loans to school districts only after receiving both a favorable site recommendation under section 7 and after review and a favorable recommendation by the state board.~~ Proceeds of the loans shall be used only for sites for school buildings and for acquiring, bettering, furnishing, or equipping school buildings under contracts to be entered into within 12 months from and after the date on which each loan is granted.

(b) Any school board that intends to submit an application for a capital loan shall submit a proposal to the commissioner for review and comment pursuant to section 121.15 by September 1 of any year, and the commissioner shall prepare a review and comment on the proposed facility, regardless of the amount of the capital expenditure required to construct the facility. The state board shall not make a favorable recommendation on an application for a capital loan for any facility unless:

(1) the facility receives a positive review and comment pursuant to section 121.15; and

(2) the state board determines that

(A) the facilities are needed to replace facilities dangerous to the health and safety of pupils, or to provide for pupils for whom no adequate facilities exist;

(B) the facilities could not be made available through dissolution and attachment of the district to another district or through pairing, interdistrict cooperation, or consolidation with another district, or through the purchase or lease of facilities from existing institutions within the area. The preference of the school district regarding reorganization shall not be a criterion used by the state board in determining whether the facilities could be made available through reorganization;

(C) the facilities are comparable in size and quality to facilities recently constructed in other districts of similar enrollment; and

(D) (C) the district's need for the facilities is comparable to needs that comparable districts are meeting through local bond issues.

The state board may recommend that the loan be approved in a reduced amount in order to meet the foregoing criteria. If the state board recommends that a loan not be approved, the commissioner shall not recommend approval of the loan. If the state board recommends that the loan be approved in a reduced amount, the commissioner shall not recommend approval of a loan larger than that recommended by the state board.

(c) As part of reviewing an application for a capital loan, the commissioner of education shall prepare estimated yearly repayments by the school district and the estimated amount of principal and interest that may be forgiven after the term of the loan. These estimates shall assume no growth in gross tax capacity over the term of the loan, shall assume a levy equal to 16 mills times the adjusted gross tax capacity, and shall be prepared using a methodology approved by the commissioner of finance. The commissioner of education shall use a discount factor provided by the commissioner of finance in determining the present value of the estimated amount of interest and principal which may be forgiven after the term of the loan.

(d) No loan shall be recommended for approval for any district exceeding the greater of 50 percent of the total cost of the project or an amount computed as follows:

(1) The amount requested by the district under subdivision 2;

(2) Plus the aggregate principal amount of general obligation bonds of the district outstanding on June 30 of the year following the year the application was received, not exceeding the limitation on net debt of the district in section 475.53, subdivision 4, or 24 percent of the adjusted gross tax capacity, whichever is less;

(3) Less the maximum net debt permissible for the district on December 1 of the year the application is received, under the limitation in section 475.53, subdivision 4, or 24 percent of the most recent adjusted gross tax capacity available at the time of application, whichever is less; and

(4) Less any amount by which the amount voted exceeds the total cost of the facilities for which the loan is granted, as estimated in accordance with subdivision 4, provided that the loan may be approved in an amount computed as provided in clauses (1) to (3), subject to subsequent reduction in accordance with this clause.

- (1) consolidation;
- (2) dissolution and attachment;
- (3) interdistrict cooperation;
- (4) purchase or lease of facilities from existing institutions; or
- (5) any other state facilities funding program.

The preference of the school district regarding reorganization must not be a criterion used by the state board in determining whether the facilities could be made available through reorganization.

1 whether the application has been accepted or rejected. If an application is rejected, the district must state in the notification the reason for rejection. The parent or guardian shall notify the nonresident district by February 15 that the pupil will enroll in the nonresident district. Notice of intent to enroll in the nonresident district obligates the pupil to attend the nonresident district during the following school year, unless the superintendents in the resident and the nonresident districts agree in writing to allow the pupil to transfer back to the resident district, or the pupil's parents or guardians change residence to another district. The nonresident district shall notify the resident district by March 1 of the pupil's intent to enroll in the nonresident district. The same procedures apply to a pupil who applies to transfer from one participating nonresident district to another participating nonresident district.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.062, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [ATHLETIC PARTICIPATION.] If a pupil enrolls in a nonresident district under this section, the pupil is ineligible to participate in the extracurricular varsity athletic activities of the nonresident district for one school year. During that year of ineligibility in the nonresident district, the pupil remains eligible to participate in the extracurricular varsity athletic activities of the pupil's resident district, or in the extracurricular varsity athletic activities of the nonpublic school the pupil attended before enrolling in a public school under this section. After the year of ineligibility expires, the pupil is eligible to participate in the extracurricular varsity athletic activities of the nonresident district and is no longer eligible to participate in the extracurricular varsity athletic activities of the resident district or nonpublic school. The same restrictions apply to a pupil who transfers from one participating nonresident district to another participating nonresident district.

The superintendents in the resident and nonresident districts may agree in writing to allow a nonresident pupil to participate in the extracurricular varsity athletic activities of the nonresident district during the year of ineligibility if the pupil demonstrates that the distance the pupil must travel between the resident and nonresident district prevents the pupil from participating in the extracurricular varsity athletic activities of the resident district. This subdivision does not apply to pupils who have been enrolled in the nonresident district during the 1988-1989 school year under an alternative enrollment options agreement.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE.] The purpose of this section is to promote rigorous academic pursuits and to provide a wider variety of options to public high school pupils by encouraging and enabling secondary pupils to enroll full time or part time in nonsectarian and nonremedial courses or programs in eligible post-secondary institutions, as defined in subdivision 3.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [AUTHORIZATION; NOTIFICATION.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, an 11th or 12th grade public school pupil may apply to an eligible institution, as defined in subdivision 3, to enroll in nonsectarian and nonremedial courses offered at that post-secondary institution. If an institution accepts a secondary pupil for enrollment under this section, the institution shall send written notice to the pupil, the pupil's school district, and the commissioner of education within ten days of acceptance. The notice shall indicate the course and hours of enrollment of that pupil. If the pupil enrolls in a course for post-secondary credit, the institution shall notify the pupil about payment in the customary manner used by the institution. Acceptance for enrollment is not a guarantee of registration into a particular course. The pupil must comply with the institution's standards, prerequisites, and procedures to register for a course.

During the time a pupil is enrolled at a post-secondary institution under this section, the post-secondary institution must periodically inform the pupil, the pupil's parents or guardian, and the pupil's secondary school of the pupil's progress in the courses or programs taken for secondary credit.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 4c, is amended to read:

Subd. 4c. [LIMIT ON PARTICIPATION.] A pupil who first enrolls in grade 11 may not enroll in post-secondary courses under this section for secondary credit for more than the equivalent of two academic years. A pupil who first enrolls in grade 12 may not enroll in post-secondary courses under this section for secondary credit for more than the equivalent of one academic year. If a pupil in grade 11 or 12 first enrolls in a post-secondary course for secondary credit during the school year, the time of participation shall be reduced proportionately. A pupil who has graduated from high school cannot participate in a program under this section. A pupil who has completed course requirements for graduation but who has not received a diploma may participate in the program under this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CREDITS.] A pupil may enroll in a course under this section for either secondary credit or post-secondary credit. At the time a pupil enrolls in a course, the pupil shall designate whether the course is for secondary or post-secondary credit. A pupil taking several courses may designate some for secondary credit and some for post-secondary credit. A pupil must not audit a course under this section.

A school district shall grant academic credit to a pupil enrolled in a course for secondary credit if the pupil successfully completes the course. Nine quarter or six semester college credits equal at least one full year of high school credit. Fewer college credits may be prorated. A school district shall also grant academic credit to a pupil enrolled in a course for post-secondary credit if secondary credit is requested by a pupil. If no comparable course is offered by the district, the district shall, as soon as possible, notify the state board of education which shall determine the number of credits that shall be granted to a pupil who successfully completes a course. If a comparable course is offered by the district, the school board shall grant a comparable number of credits to the pupil. If there is a dispute between the district and the pupil regarding the number of credits granted for a particular course, the pupil may appeal the school board's decision to the state board of education. The state board's decision regarding the number of credits shall be final.

The secondary credits granted to a pupil shall be counted toward the graduation requirements and subject area requirements of the school district. Evidence of successful completion of each course and secondary credits granted shall be included in the pupil's secondary school record. A pupil must provide the school with a copy of the pupil's grade in each course taken under this section. Upon the request of a pupil, the pupil's secondary school record shall also include evidence of successful completion and credits granted for a course taken for post-secondary credit. In either case, the record shall indicate that the credits were earned at a post-secondary institution.

If a pupil enrolls in a post-secondary institution after leaving secondary school, the post-secondary institution shall award post-secondary credit for any course successfully completed for secondary credit at that institution. Other post-secondary institutions may award, after a pupil leaves secondary school, post-secondary credit for any courses successfully completed under this section. An institution may not charge a pupil for the award of credit.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FEES; TEXTBOOKS; MATERIALS.] A post-secondary institution that receives reimbursement for a pupil under subdivision 6 may not charge that pupil for fees, textbooks, materials, or other necessary costs of the course or program in which the pupil is enrolled if the charge would be prohibited under section 120.74, except for equipment purchased by the pupil that becomes the property of the pupil. An institution may require the pupil to pay for fees, textbooks, and materials for a course taken for post-secondary credit.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [LIMIT; STATE OBLIGATION.] The provisions of subdivisions 6, 7, 8, and 9 shall not apply for any post-secondary courses in which a pupil is enrolled in addition to being enrolled full time in that pupil's district or for any post-secondary course in which a pupil is enrolled for post-secondary credit. The pupil is enrolled full time if the pupil attends credit-bearing classes in the high school or high school program for all of the available hours of instruction.

Sec. 10. [126.1995] [SAFETY REQUIREMENT GUIDELINES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEVELOPING AND IMPLEMENTING GUIDELINES.] The department of education, in cooperation with the Minnesota fire marshal's division, shall develop guidelines for school lab safety. The guidelines shall include a list of safety requirements and an explanation of the minimum state and national laws, codes, and standards affecting school lab safety the Minnesota fire marshal considers necessary for schools to implement.

The state department of education shall send the guidelines on school lab safety to district superintendents before September 1, 1989. The district superintendent must ensure that every school lab within the district complies with the school lab safety requirements. Each district superintendent must inform the department by January 1, 1990, of its efforts to comply with the safety requirements. Lack of funding is not an excuse for noncompliance.

Subd. 2. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] The department of education and the state fire marshal shall report to the chairs of the education finance division in the house and senate by February 1, 1990, on district and state compliance with school lab safety requirements.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 126.67, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CAREER INFORMATION; APPROPRIATION.] The department of education, through the Minnesota career information system, may provide career information to school districts and educational systems organizations, employment and training services, human service agencies, libraries, and families. The department may shall collect reasonable fees for subscriptions to necessary to recover all expenditures related to the operation of the Minnesota career information service. Grants may be accepted and used for the improvement or operation of the program.

Money collected from the sale of these products and services is annually appropriated to the department of education for the Minnesota career information system.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 141.35, is amended to read:

141.35 [EXEMPTIONS.]

member is on extended leave. The employee and employer contributions shall be based upon the rates of contribution prescribed by section 354.42 for the salary received during the year immediately preceding the extended leave. Payments for the years for which a member is receiving service credit while on extended leave shall be made on or before the later of June 30 of each fiscal year for which service credit is received or within 30 days after first notification of the amount due, if requested by the member, is given by the association. No payment is permitted after the following September 30. Payments received after June 30 must include six percent interest from June 30 through the end of the month in which payment is received.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.094, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Subd. 4. [RETIREMENT CONTRIBUTIONS.] Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this chapter relating to the salary figure to be used for the determination of contributions or the accrual of service credit, a teacher assigned to a part-time position pursuant to this section shall continue to make employee contributions to and to accrue allowable service credit in the retirement fund during the period of part-time employment on the same basis and in the same amounts as would have been paid and accrued if the teacher had been employed on a full-time basis provided that, ~~except as provided in subdivision 4a,~~ prior to June 30 each year, or within 30 days after notification by the association of the amount due, whichever is later, the member and the employing board make that portion of the required employer contribution to the retirement fund, in any proportion which they may agree upon, that is based on the difference between the amount of compensation that would have been paid if the teacher had been employed on a full-time basis and the amount of compensation actually received by the teacher for the services rendered in the part-time assignment. The employing unit shall make that portion of the required employer contributions to the retirement fund on behalf of the teacher that is based on the amount of compensation actually received by the teacher for the services rendered in the part-time assignment in the manner described in section 354.43, subdivision 3. The employee and employer contributions shall be based upon the rates of contribution prescribed by section 354.42. Full accrual of allowable service credit and employee contributions for part-time teaching service pursuant to this section and section 354A.094 shall not continue for a period longer than ten years.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.091, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

The employee and employer contributions shall be based upon the rates of contribution prescribed by section 354A.12 as applied to a salary figure equal to the teacher's actual covered salary for the plan year immediately preceding the leave. Payment of the employee and employer contributions authorized pursuant to this section shall be made on or before June 30 of the fiscal year for which service credit is to be received. No allowable service with respect to a year of extended leave of absence shall be credited to a teacher until payment of the required employee and employer contributions has been received by the association.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.091, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP RETENTION.] A teacher on extended leave pursuant to section 125.60 whose employee and employer contributions are made to the applicable teachers retirement fund association pursuant to ~~subdivisions~~ subdivision 1 and 1a shall retain membership in the association for each year during which the contributions are made, under the same terms and conditions as if the teacher had continued to teach in the district.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.094, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RETIREMENT CONTRIBUTIONS.] Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this chapter or the articles of

The employer contributions to the applicable association on behalf of the teacher shall be based on the amount of compensation actually received by the teacher for the services rendered in the part-time assignment in the manner described in section 354.43, subdivisions 1 and 5. The employee and employer contributions shall be based upon the rates of contribution prescribed by section 354A.12. Full membership, accrual of allowable service credit and employee contributions for part-time teaching service by a teacher pursuant to this section and section 354.66 shall not continue for a period longer than ten years.

Sec. 19. [STAFF EXCHANGE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT] A staff exchange program for the 1989-1990 and 1990-1991 school years is established to allow local school districts to arrange temporary and voluntary exchanges between members of their kindergarten through grade 12 instructional and administrative staffs. The purpose of the program is to provide participants with an understanding of the educational concerns of other local school districts, including concerns of class organization, curriculum development, instructional practices, and characteristics of the student population.

The educational needs and interests of the host school district and the training, experience, and interests of the participants shall determine the assignment of the participants in the host district. Participants may teach courses, provide counseling and tutorial services, work with teachers to better prepare students for future educational experiences, serve an underserved population in the district, or assist with administrative functions. The assignments participants perform for the host district must be comparable to the assignments the participants perform for the district employing the participants. Participation in the exchange program need not be limited to one school or one school district and may involve other education organizations including education districts and ECSUs.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.] All staff exchanges made under this section are subject to the requirements in this subdivision.

(a) A school district employing a participating staff member must not adversely affect the staff member's salary, seniority, or other employment benefits, or otherwise penalize the staff member for participating in the program.

(b) Upon completion or termination of an exchange, a school district employing a participating staff member must permit the staff member to return to the same assignment the staff member performed in the district before the exchange.

(c) A school district employing a participating staff member must continue to provide the staff member's salary and other employment benefits during the period of the exchange.

(d) A participant must be licensed and tenured.

(e) Participation in the program must be voluntary.

(f) The length of participation in the program must be no less than one-half of a school year and no more than one school year, and any premature termination of participation must be upon the mutual agreement of the participant and the participating school districts.

(g) A participant is responsible for transportation to and from the host school district.

This subdivision does not abrogate or change rights of staff members participating in the staff exchange program or the terms of an agreement between the exclusive representative of the school district employees and the school district. Participating school districts may enter into supplementary agreements with the exclusive representative of the school district employees to accomplish the purpose of this section.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION PROCEDURES.] The school board of a school district must decide by resolution to participate in the staff exchange program. A staff member wishing to participate in the exchange program must submit an application to the school district employing the staff member. The district must, in a timely and appropriate manner, provide to the exclusive bargaining representatives of teachers in the state the number and names of prospective participants within the district, the assignments available within the district, and the length of time for each exchange. The exclusive bargaining representatives are requested to cooperatively participate in the coordination of exchanges to facilitate exchanges across all geographical regions of the state. Prospective participants must contact teachers and districts with whom they are interested in making an exchange. The prospective participants must make all arrangements to accomplish their exchange and the superintendents of the participating districts must approve of the arrangements for the exchange in writing.

Subd. 4. [REPORT.] By January 1, 1991, the school districts participating in the staff exchange program shall report to the commissioner of education on the number and location of staff members participating in the exchange, the assignments of the participants, and other matters of interest, including the advisability of continuing the exchange. The commissioner shall compile the information provided by the districts and present the compiled information to the education committees of the legislature by February 1, 1991.

Sec. 20. [REPORT.]

The commissioner of education shall provide an interim report to the education committees of the legislature by February 1, 1990, describing the experiences of parents, pupils, and school districts with the enrollment options program. The commissioner shall provide a final report to the committees by February 1, 1991, evaluating experiences of parents, pupils, and school districts with the program.

Sec. 21. [REPEALER.]

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Section 19 is effective for the 1989-1990 school year. Sections 1 and 2 are effective for the 1990-1991 school year and thereafter. Section 3 is effective for the 1989-1990 school year and thereafter.

ARTICLE 10

LIBRARIES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 134.33, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. An establishment grant as described in section 134.32, subdivision 2, shall be made to any regional public library system for the first two state fiscal years after a board of county commissioners has contracted to join that system and has agreed that the county will provide the levels of support for public library service specified in this section. In the first year of participation 1990, the county shall provide an amount of support equivalent to 3 mill times 0.25 percent of the adjusted gross tax capacity of the taxable property of the county as determined by the commissioner of revenue for the second year preceding that calendar year or two-thirds of the per capita amount established under the provisions of section 134.34, subdivision 1, whichever amount is less. In the second year of participation 1991 and in each year thereafter, the county shall provide an amount of support equivalent to 4 mill times 0.41 percent of the adjusted gross net tax capacity of the taxable property of the county as determined by the commissioner of revenue for the second year preceding that calendar year or the per capita amount established under the provisions of section 134.34, subdivision 1, whichever is less. The minimum level of support shall be certified annually to the county by the department of education. In no event shall the department of education require any county to provide a higher level of support than the level of support specified in this section in order for a system to qualify for an establishment grant. This section shall not be construed to prohibit any county from providing a higher level of support for public libraries than the level of support specified in this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 134.34, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LOCAL SUPPORT LEVELS.] A regional library basic system support grant shall be made to any regional public library system where there are at least three participating counties and where each participating city and county, except in the first year of participation as provided in section 134.33, is providing for public library service support the lesser of (a) an amount equivalent to 4 mill times 0.33 percent of the adjusted gross tax capacity of the taxable property of that city or county, as determined by the commissioner of revenue for the second year preceding that calendar year in 1990 and an amount equivalent to .41 percent of the net tax capacity of the taxable property of that city or county, as determined by the commissioner of revenue for the second year preceding that calendar year in 1991 and later years or (b) a per capita amount calculated under the provisions of this subdivision. The per capita amount is established for calendar year 1980 1990 as $3 $3.62. In succeeding calendar years, the per capita amount shall be increased by a percentage equal to one-half of the percentage by which the total state adjusted gross net tax capacity of property as determined by the commissioner of revenue for the second year preceding that calendar year increases over that total adjusted gross net tax capacity for the third year preceding that calendar year. The minimum level of support shall be certified annually to the participating cities and counties by the department of education. A city which is a part of a regional public library system shall not be required to provide this level of support if the property of that city is already taxable by the county for the support of that regional public library system. In no event shall the department of education require any city or county to provide a higher level of support than the level of support specified in this section in order for a system to qualify for a regional library basic system support grant. This section shall not be construed to prohibit a city or county from providing a higher level of support for public libraries than the level of support specified in this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 134.34, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED INCREASES; LIMIT.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 134.33 and subdivision 1 of this section, after the second year of participation by a city or county, the dollar amount of the minimum level of support for that city or county shall not be required to increase by more than ten percent over the dollar amount of the minimum level of support required of it in the previous year. If a participating city or county which has been providing for public library service support in an amount equivalent to .67 mill times the gross tax capacity of the taxable property of that city or county for the year preceding that calendar year would be required to increase the dollar amount of such support by more than ten percent to reach the equivalent of .4 mill times the adjusted gross tax capacity of the taxable property of that participating city or county as determined by the commissioner of revenue for the second year preceding that calendar year or the per capita amount calculated under the provisions of subdivision 1, it shall only be required to increase the dollar amount of such support by ten percent per year until such time as it reaches an amount equivalent to .4 mill times the adjusted gross tax capacity of that taxable property as determined by the commissioner of revenue for the second year preceding that calendar year or the per capita amount calculated under the provisions of subdivision 1.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 134.34, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REGIONAL DESIGNATION.] Regional library basic system support grants shall be made only to those regional public library systems officially designated by the state board of education as the appropriate agency to strengthen, improve and promote public library services in the participating areas. The state board of education shall designate no more than one such regional public library system located entirely within any single development region existing under sections 462.381 to 462.396 462.398 or chapter 473.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 134.34, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT.] A regional library basic system support grant shall not be made to a regional public library system for a participating city or county which decreases the dollar amount provided for support for operating purposes of public library service below the amount provided by it for the preceding year. This subdivision shall not apply to participating cities or counties where the adjusted gross or net tax capacity of that city or county has decreased, if the dollar amount of the reduction in support is not greater than the dollar amount by which support would be decreased if the reduction in support were made in direct proportion to the decrease in adjusted gross or net tax capacity.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 134.35, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SEVENTEEN AND ONE-HALF PERCENT.] Seventeen and one-half percent of the available grant funds shall be distributed to regional public library systems which contain counties whose adjusted gross or net tax capacity per capita were below the state average adjusted gross or net tax capacity per capita for the second year preceding the fiscal year for which the grant is made. Each system's entitlement shall be calculated as follows:

(a) subtract the adjusted gross or net tax capacity per capita for each eligible county or participating portion of a county from the statewide average adjusted gross or net tax capacity per capita;

(b) multiply the difference obtained in clause (a) for each eligible county or participating portion of a county by the population of that eligible county or participating portion of a county;

(c) for each regional public library system, determine the sum of the results of the computation in clause (b) for all eligible counties or portions thereof in that system;

(d) determine the sum of the result of the computation in clause (b) for all eligible counties or portions thereof in all regional public library systems in the state;

(e) for each system, divide the result of the computation in clause (c) by the result of the computation in clause (d) to obtain the allocation factor for that system;

(f) multiply the allocation factor for each system as determined in clause (e) times the amount of the remaining grant funds to determine each system's dollar allocation pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 7. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.] The sums indicated in this section are appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for the fiscal years designated.

"ARTICLE 1
VOLUNTEER FIRE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 423A.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OPERATION OF LOCAL RELIEF ASSOCIATION UPON MODIFICATION OF RETIREMENT COVERAGE FOR NEWLY HIRED POLICE OFFICERS AND FIREFIGHTERS.] The following provisions shall govern the operation of a local relief association upon the modification of retirement coverage for newly hired police officers or firefighters:

(1) The minimum obligation of a municipality in which the retirement coverage for newly hired police officers or salaried firefighters has been modified pursuant to subdivision 1 with respect to the local relief association shall be determined and governed in accordance with the provisions of sections 69.77, 356.215 and 356.216, except that the normal cost calculation for the relief association shall be computed as a percentage of the compensation paid to the active members of the relief association. The compensation paid to persons with retirement coverage modified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not be included in any of the computations made in determining the obligation of the municipality with respect to the local relief association.

(2) The contribution rate of members of the local relief association shall be governed by section 69.77, unless a special law establishing a greater member contribution rate is applicable whereupon it shall continue to govern. The member contribution rate of persons with retirement coverage modified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be governed by section 353.65.

(3) Unless otherwise provided for by law, when every active member of the local relief association retires or terminates from active duty, the local relief association shall cease to exist as a legal entity and the assets of the special fund of the relief association shall be transferred to a trust fund to be established by the appropriate municipality for the purpose of paying service pensions and retirement benefits to recipient beneficiaries. Recipient beneficiaries who are competent to act on their own behalf shall be entitled to select the prescribed number of trustees of the trust fund as provided in this clause, subject to the approval of the governing body of the municipality. If there are at least five recipient beneficiaries, the trust fund shall be managed by a board of trustees composed of five persons selected by the recipient beneficiaries of the fund. When there are fewer than five recipient beneficiaries, the number of trustees selected by the recipient beneficiaries shall be equal to the number of the remaining recipient beneficiaries. The governing body of the municipality shall select the additional trustees. The term of the elected members of the board of trustees shall be indefinite and shall continue until a vacancy occurs in one of the board of trustee member positions. Board of trustee members shall not be compensated for their services, but shall be reimbursed for any expenses actually and necessarily incurred as a result of the performance of their duties in their capacity as board of trustee members. The municipality shall perform whatever services are necessary to administer the trust fund. When all obligations of the trust fund are paid, the balance of the assets remaining in the trust fund shall revert to the municipality for expenditure for law enforcement or firefighting purposes, whichever is applicable.

(4) The financial requirements of the trust fund and the minimum obligation of the municipality with respect to the trust fund shall be determined in accordance with sections 69.77, 356.215 and 356.216 until the unfunded accrued liability of the trust fund is fully amortized in accordance with section 69.77, subdivision 2b. The municipality shall provide in its annual budget for at least the aggregate amount of service pensions, disability benefits, survivorship benefits and refunds which are projected as payable for the following calendar year, as determined by the board of trustees of the trust fund, less the amount of assets in the trust fund as of the end of the most current calendar year for which figures are available, valued pursuant to section 356.20, subdivision 4, clause (1)(a), if the difference between those two figures is a positive number.

(5) In calculating the amount of service pensions and other retirement benefits payable from the local relief association and in calculating the amount of any automatic post retirement increases in those service pensions and retirement benefits based on the salary paid or payable to active members or escalated in any fashion, the salary for use as the base for the service pension or retirement benefit calculation and the post retirement increase calculation for the local relief association shall be the salary for the applicable position as specified in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the relief association as of the date immediately prior to the effective date of the modification of retirement coverage for newly hired personnel pursuant to subdivision 1, as the applicable salary is reset by the municipality periodically, irrespective of whether retirement coverage for persons holding the applicable position used in calculations is provided by the relief association or by the public employees police and fire fund. If for a local salaried firefighters relief association, the specified position no longer exists because of a reorganization of the fire department as a volunteer fire department, the percentage increase in the salary of the position of a top grade patrol officer in the police department of the municipality must be the basis for service pension and retirement benefit postretirement increase calculations.

(6) If the modification of retirement coverage implemented pursuant to subdivision 1 is applicable to a local police relief association, the police state aid received by the municipality shall be disbursed pursuant to section 69.031, subdivision 5, clause (2)(c). If the modification of retirement coverage implemented pursuant to subdivision 1 is applicable to a local firefighters' relief association, the fire state aid received by the applicable municipality shall be disbursed as the municipality at its option may elect. The municipality may elect: (a) to transmit the total fire state aid to the treasurer of the local relief association for immediate deposit in the special fund of the relief association; or (b) to apply the total fire state aid toward the employer contribution of the municipality to the public employees police and fire fund pursuant to section 353.65, subdivision 3; or (c) to allocate the total fire state aid proportionately between the special fund of the local relief association and employer contribution of the municipality to the public employees police and fire fund on the basis of the respective number of active full time salaried firefighters receiving retirement coverage from each.

ARTICLE 3

PARTIAL POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENT

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 11A.18, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [CALCULATION OF POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENT.] Annually, following June 30, the state board shall determine whether a postretirement adjustment shall be payable and shall determine the amount of any postretirement adjustment which shall be that is payable.

(1) The state board shall determine whether a postretirement adjustment shall be payable using the following procedure:

(a) The state board shall determine the amount of dividends, interest, accruals and realized capital gains or losses applicable to the most recent fiscal year ending June 30;

(b) The amount of reserves required for the annuity or benefit payable to an annuitant and benefit recipient of the participating public pension plans or funds shall be determined by the commission-retained actuary as of the current June 30. An annuitant or benefit recipient who has been receiving an annuity or benefit for at least ~~one year~~ 12 full months as of the current June 30 ~~shall be~~ is eligible to receive a full postretirement adjustment. An annuitant or benefit recipient who has been receiving an annuity or benefit for at least one full month, but less than 12 full months as of the current June 30, is eligible to receive a partial postretirement adjustment. Each fund shall report separately the amount of the reserves for those annuitants and benefit recipients who are eligible to receive a full postretirement benefit adjustment ~~and~~. This amount is known as "eligible reserves." Each fund shall also report separately the amount of the reserves for those annuitants and benefit recipients who are not eligible to receive a postretirement adjustment ~~shall be reported separately~~. This amount is known as "noneligible reserves." For an annuitant or benefit recipient who is eligible to receive a partial postretirement adjustment, each fund shall report separately as additional "eligible reserves" an amount that bears the same ratio to the total reserves required for the annuitant or benefit recipient as the number of full months of annuity or benefit receipt as of the current June 30 bears to 12 full months. The remainder of the annuitant's or benefit recipient's reserves shall be separately reported as additional "noneligible reserves." The amount of the "eligible" and "noneligible" required reserves shall be certified to the board by the commission-retained actuary as soon as is practical following the current June 30;

(c) The state board shall determine the amount of investment income required to equal five percent of the total amount of the required reserves as of the preceding June 30 adjusted by five percent of each transfer in or transfer out multiplied by the fraction of a year from the date of transfer to the current June 30. This amount of required investment income shall be subtracted from the actual amount of investment income determined according to clause (1)(a), to determine the amount of excess investment income. If this amount is positive, then a postretirement adjustment may be paid.

(2) The state board shall determine the amount of any postretirement adjustment which is payable using the following procedure:

(a) The state board shall determine the amount of excess investment income by the method indicated in clause (1);

(b) The total "eligible" required reserves as of the first of January next following the end of the fiscal year for the annuitants and benefit recipients eligible to receive ~~the~~ a full or partial postretirement adjustment as determined by clause (1)(b) shall be certified to the state board by the commission-retained actuary. The total "eligible" required reserves shall be determined by the commission-retained actuary on the assumption that all annuitants and benefit recipients eligible to receive the a full or partial postretirement adjustment will be alive on the January 1 in question;

(c) If the state board determines that the book value of the assets of the fund is less than an amount equal to the total amount of the current June 30 required reserves, with the book value and required reserves to be determined after the adjustments provided for in subdivision 11, then the state board shall allocate five percent of the excess investment income as an asset of the fund. The excess investment income allocated as an asset of the fund shall not exceed the difference between book value and required reserves. The remaining amount shall be termed available for distribution. The book value of assets on any given date shall be the net assets at cost less the excess investment income determined pursuant to clause (1)(c);

(d) The resulting total amount available for distribution shall be increased by 2½ percent, and the result shall be stated as a percentage of the total amount of the required reserves pursuant to clause (2)(b), and if the percentage is equal to or greater than one percent, the amount shall be certified to each participating public pension fund or plan as the amount of the full postretirement adjustment amount. If the percentage is less than one percent, no postretirement adjustment shall be payable in that year and the amount otherwise available for distribution shall be credited to a separate reserve established for this purpose. The reserve shall be invested in the same manner as all other assets of the fund and shall be credited with any investment income as specified in clause (1)(a). Amounts credited to the reserve shall be utilized in determining a postretirement adjustment in the subsequent year. The amount of any full postretirement adjustment certified by the state board as payable to the participating public pension plans or funds shall be carried to five decimal places and stated as a percentage.

(e) A retirement annuity payable in the event of retirement before becoming eligible for social security benefits as provided in section 352.116, subdivision 3; 353.29, subdivision 6; or 354.35 must be treated as the sum of a period certain retirement annuity and a life retirement annuity for the purposes of any postretirement adjustment. The period certain retirement annuity plus the life retirement annuity shall be the annuity amount payable until age 62 or 65, whichever applies. A red 16:postretirement adjustment granted on the period certain retirement annuity must terminate when the period certain retirement annuity terminates.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 11A.18, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [PAYMENT OF POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENT.] Upon receiving the certification of the amount of the full postretirement adjustment from the state board, each participating public pension fund or plan shall determine the amount of the postretirement adjustment payable to each eligible annuitant and benefit recipient. The dollar amount of the postretirement adjustment payable to each annuitant or benefit recipient shall be calculated by applying the certified postretirement adjustment percentage to the amount of the monthly annuity or benefit payable to each eligible annuitant or benefit recipient eligible for a full adjustment.

The dollar amount of the partial postretirement adjustment payable to each annuitant or benefit recipient eligible for a partial adjustment shall be calculated by first determining a partial percentage amount that bears the same ratio to the certified full adjustment percentage amount as the number of full months of annuity or benefit receipt as of the current June 30 bears to 12 full months. The partial percentage amount determined shall then be applied to the amount of the monthly annuity or benefit payable to each annuitant or benefit recipient eligible to receive a partial postretirement adjustment. The postretirement adjustment adjustments shall commence to be paid on January 1 following the calculations required pursuant to this section and shall thereafter be included in the monthly annuity or benefit paid to the recipient. Notwithstanding section 356.18, any adjustment adjustments pursuant to this section shall be paid automatically unless the intended recipient files a written notice with the applicable participating public pension fund or plan requesting that the adjustment not be paid.

Sections 1 and 2 are effective the day following final enactment.

To be eligible for reimbursement, a farmer must have raised hay for the farmer's own use during 1988 and must have hay land that was destroyed or damaged to the extent of 50 percent or more by the 1988 drought. A farmer who reseeded destroyed or damaged hay land after August 1, 1988, is eligible for reimbursement under this section. ARTICLE 2

PURCHASE OF FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE

Section 1. [17.752] [FINDING OF PUBLIC PURPOSE.]

The legislature finds that federal crop insurance represents the lowest cost, most economically feasible mechanism for protecting farm families from severe economic stress caused by drought and other natural disasters. The legislature further finds that costs to the state for rural disaster relief are greatly reduced when a majority of farmers carry federal crop insurance. In order to encourage all farmers to carry federal crop insurance, it is a valid public purpose for state funds to be used to make grants for a portion of the premium costs of the crop insurance.

Sec. 2. [17.754] [GRANTS FOR PARTIAL PAYMENT OF FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE CROPS.] Crops eligible for partial payment of federal crop insurance are barley, corn, flax, oats, soybeans, sugar beets, canning crops grown under contract, and wheat.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATION OF ELIGIBILITY.] An applicant for partial payment of the federal crop insurance premium on an eligible crop must apply to the federal crop insurance corporation for a certificate of eligibility. The federal crop insurance corporation must certify the eligibility of each applicant and determine the total premium to be paid for crop insurance coverage on all eligible crops.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION FOR STATE PAYMENT; REPORT.] The federal crop insurance corporation shall apply to the commissioner for payment of the state share of the premium on eligible crops. Before a state payment for crop insurance is authorized, the federal crop insurance corporation must report to the commissioner the following information:

(1) the total cost to the state for crop insurance premiums at the rate authorized in subdivision 5;

(2) the acreage of each eligible crop in each county;

(3) the participation rate for each eligible crop in each county; and

(4) other information the commissioner reasonably requires.

Subd. 4. [COMMISSIONER TO REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] By June 1, 1989, and June 1 in each succeeding year, the commissioner shall report to the chairs of the house and senate committees on agriculture on the program of partial state payment for federal crop insurance. The report must include county costs and participation rates for each eligible crop and the commissioner's recommendations for changes in the program, if any.

Subd. 5. [COMMISSIONER TO MAKE PAYMENT.] From funds appropriated for this program, the commissioner shall make a payment to the federal crop insurance corporation in an amount equal to ten percent of the total annual farmer paid crop insurance premium on eligible crops covered by the application under subdivision 3.

Sec. 3. [17.756] [RULES.]

The commissioner of agriculture may adopt rules, including emergency rules, for purposes of sections 1 to 3.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 3

CHEESE MARKETING STUDY

Section 1. [INVESTIGATION OF CHEESE MARKETING; RE-

PORT.] (a) The commissioner shall conduct an investigation and economic analysis of cheese marketing practices within the state, the upper midwest region, and the United States. The purpose of the investigation is to evaluate the extent to which dairy farmers and cheese producers in Minnesota are benefited by local and regional institutions and practices through which cheese and cheese products are marketed.

(b) In conducting the investigation and economic analysis of cheese marketing practices and institutions, the commissioner shall, to the greatest practicable extent, solicit the cooperation and participation of dairy farmer producers, dairy processors, farm cooperatives, and agricultural businesses involved in the dairy industry.

(c) Not later than March 1, 1990, the commissioner shall report to the agriculture committees of the senate and the house of representatives the findings from the investigation and economic analysis of cheese marketing institutions and practices. The commissioner may also recommend legislation to improve cheese marketing conditions for Minnesota dairy farmers and cheese producers.

Section 1. [169.801] [TRUCKS PARTICIPATING IN EMERGENCY HAYLIFT OPERATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPLIANCE.] The commissioners of transportation and public safety, and their agents, shall make every effort to comply with the provisions of this section.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION.] A motor vehicle being used to haul hay in an organized haylift operation is exempt from vehicle width limits if:

(1) the vehicle is operated by a person carrying a participation permit issued under subdivision 3;

(2) the load is firmly secured; and

(3) the vehicle and its load pose no undue risk to the operator or other persons.

Subd. 3. [CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION.] The commissioner of agriculture shall provide to each motor vehicle operator participating in an organized haylift operation a certificate of participation including the approximate dates of participation.

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION.] A motor vehicle operator shall not be eligible for exemption under subdivision 2 except while actually participating in an organized haylift program.

ARTICLE 5

DAMAGED HOMES

Section 1. [PURPOSE.]

Certain types of mineral soils respond in unanticipated ways to extraordinary environmental changes. When some clay soils dry out because of sustained drought, they shrink to a large degree. If foundations, footings, or house basements have been built into these mineral soils, costly repairs are necessitated by the shifting and cracking that results when the clay dries out. The 1988 drought has caused problems for owners of many of these homes in Minnesota. The purpose of this article is to make low-interest loans available to these victims of the drought so that their homes can be repaired.

Sec. 2. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to this article.

Subd. 2. [AGENCY.] "Agency" means the Minnesota housing finance agency.

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY.] "Municipality" means a statutory or home rule charter city or town.

Subd. 4. [HOMEOWNER.] "Homeowner" means one or more natural persons, regardless of income, who have at least a one-third interest in one of the following types of ownership in the home to be repaired:

(1) a fee title, excluding remaindermen subject to a life estate;

(2) a mutually binding contract for the purchase of the property where the borrower is rightfully in possession and the purchase price is payable in installments; or

(3) a life estate.

Subd. 5. [HOME.] "Home" means a residential structure containing no more than four units and which is the principal residence of the homeowner or will become the principal residence of the homeowner within 60 days after completion of the repairs and garage.

Sec. 3. [DROUGHT DAMAGE REPAIR LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] A homeowner whose home was damaged as a result of the drought of 1988 so that a serious structural condition has resulted that must be repaired is eligible for a loan under this article, provided the homeowner is deemed to be a reasonable credit risk, as determined in the agency's sole option and discretion.

Subd. 2. [INDEBTEDNESS.] The total indebtedness secured by the home, including the loan under this article, must not exceed 100 percent of the after repair market value of the property, as determined by appraisal before the loan is made.

Subd. 3. [AGENCY'S DUTIES.] The agency shall make or purchase only loans secured with mortgages within available funds to eligible homeowners under subdivision 1. The maximum loan to a homeowner is $25,000. The period over which the loan may be repaid shall be determined by the agency in its sole option and discretion.

Subd. 4. [LOCAL HOUSING INSPECTOR'S DUTIES.] The building inspector in a municipality, or an agent or contractor of the municipality without a financial interest in the making of repairs on the property, shall investigate the damage to the home of an applicant for a loan under this section to determine if the damage is a result of the drought of 1988. The building inspector, agent, or contractor shall certify his or her findings to the agency on forms prepared by the agency.

Subd. 5. [INTEREST; FEES.] The homeowner shall pay interest in an amount necessary to cover the administrative cost of providing periodic service on the loan. The owner shall also pay the costs of property value appraisals, escrow accounts, recording fees, mortgage registration tax, and credit investigation fees. The agency shall pay other costs related to the loan, including origination fees charged by originating lenders.

Subd. 6. [QUALITY CONTROL.] (a) Before the agency may make or purchase a loan under this article to a homeowner, the homeowner's municipality, or an agent or contractor of the municipality without a financial interest in the making of the repairs, must prepare a work order for only those repairs necessary to restore the home to its predrought condition.

(b) A homeowner may not make the required repairs. Only a contractor selected by the homeowner and competent to undertake the repairs shall be employed.

(c) The contractor must execute a contractor/homeowner warranty in conformity with that required for rehabilitation loans described in section 462A.05, subdivision 14.

(d) The agency shall require that loan proceeds be deposited in an escrow account from which partial and full payments for completed repairs may be made.

Subd. 7. [ELIGIBLE USES OF PROCEEDS.] (a) Loan proceeds may be used to pay:

(1) the cost of an appraisal;

(2) management of an escrow account related to the loan; and

(3) repair of damage to the home resulting from the drought of 1988.

(b) Loan proceeds may not be used for improvements or repairs in addition to those necessary to restore the property to its predrought condition, or for the repair or purchase of personal property.

Sec. 4. [APPLICATION DEADLINE.]

No application for assistance under sections 1 to 4 is valid if received by the agency after June 30, 1990.

ARTICLE 6

MUNICIPAL WATER SUPPLIES

Section 1. [PURPOSE.]

Severe drought conditions during the spring, summer, and fall of 1988 caused water wells and surface water sources used by many Minnesota municipalities to produce inadequate supplies of water suitable for distribution in the municipal water utility. The purpose of this article is to provide state financial and technical assistance to affected municipalities so that water of sufficient quality and quantity will be available to municipal water utility customers.

Sec. 2. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to this article.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of natural resources.

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY.] "Municipality" means a statutory or home rule charter city or town having a population, according to the most recent census certified as reliable by the state planning agency, of not more than 50,000 that operates a municipal water utility and relies on a single well or surface water source for 50 percent or more of the annual water supply distributed by the water utility.

Sec. 3. [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATION OF MUNICIPAL ELIGIBILITY.] Upon written application by a municipality to the commissioner, the commissioner shall, in cooperation with the department of health, conduct an investigation to determine if the drought of 1988 caused the principal well or surface water source used by that municipality's water utility to be inadequate in quantity or quality to meet the needs of customers of the water utility, including a reasonable capacity reserve. If the commissioner determines that the adverse condition exists and was caused by the 1988 drought, the commissioner shall certify that the municipality qualifies for relief under this article.

Subd. 2. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] (a) From resources available to the commissioner, the commissioner must provide technical assistance to an eligible municipality to evaluate options and alternatives for providing adequate water supplies to water utility customers. Options to be evaluated must include cost-effective opportunities for water conservation.

(b) If a municipality adopts a municipal water supply enhancement plan approved by the commissioner, the commissioner shall make grants from available funds to eligible municipalities for up to 50 percent of the cost of implementing the approved plan. The maximum grant to a municipality is $50,000.

ARTICLE 7

NOXIOUS WEED CONTROL

Section 1. [18.192] [LOCAL SUSPENSION OF NOXIOUS WEED CONTROL.]

During a drought, a town board may suspend the duty of owners and occupants of land and road maintenance personnel to control noxious weeds if the vegetation is to be harvested for livestock feed under sections 18.191 to 18.272, except under order by the commissioner or the local weed inspector.

ARTICLE 8
APPROPRIATIONS

Section 1. [RESEEDING HAY FIELDS.]

$3,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture for the purposes of article 1, section 1, to be available until June 30, 1991.

Sec. 2. [HAY FOR LIVESTOCK.]

$4,950,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture for the purposes of article 1, section 2, to be available until June 30, 1991.

(c) The commissioner shall also maintain services for an additional 100 persons at Faribault regional center for whom adequate services could not be planned and implemented by June, 1993. This group of 100 people shall be moved into community placements as appropriate services are developed, with a goal of placing all of them by July 1, 1995.

(g) The commissioner shall reassess the objectives and dates detailed in this subdivision as part of each biennial budget planning.

(h) No person will be discharged before an appropriate community placement is available.

Subd. 10. [EVALUATION OF COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICES DEVELOPMENT.] The commissioner shall develop an integrated approach to assessing and improving the quality of community-based services, including state-operated programs for persons with developmental disabilities.

The commissioner shall evaluate the progress of the development and quality of community-based services to determine if further development can proceed. The commissioner shall report results of the evaluation to the legislature by January 31, 1991, and January 31, 1993.

Subd. 12. [DISCHARGE OF PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR A RELATED CONDITION.] (a) Prior to discharge of persons with mental retardation or a related condition, a screening shall be conducted pursuant to section 256B.092, subdivision 8, and a plan developed pursuant to section 256B.092, subdivision 1a. The screening team shall determine that the services outlined in the plan can be made available in the community. For persons who have overriding health care needs or behaviors which cause injury to self or others, or cause damage to property which is an immediate threat to the physical safety of the persons or others, the following additional conditions must be met:

(1) For persons with overriding health care needs, a registered nurse or a licensed physician shall review the proposed community services to assure that the medical needs of the person have been planned for adequately.

(2) For persons with behaviors which cause injury to self or others, or cause damage to property which is an immediate threat to the physical safety of the person or others, a qualified mental retardation professional, as that term is defined in section 256B.092, subdivision 7, shall review the proposed community services to assure that the behavioral needs of the person have been planned for adequately. The qualified mental retardation professional must have one year of experience in the areas of assessment, planning, implementation, and monitoring of individual habilitation plans which have used behavior intervention techniques.

(3) For purposes of this section, "overriding health care needs" means a medical condition that requires daily clinical monitoring by a licensed nurse.

(b) No person with mental retardation or a related condition may be discharged before an appropriate community placement is available to receive the person.

(c) A person, legal representative, or near relative may object to a proposed discharge by using the procedures in section 252.515.

Sec. 18. [252.51] [COMMUNITY PLANNING.]

Each community where there is a regional treatment center shall establish a group to work with and advise the commissioner and the counties to:

Representatives shall meet at least monthly in fiscal year 1990 and quarterly in the following years to plan and coordinate services. Minutes of each meeting shall be available to the public.

Funds appropriated to the department of human services for this purpose shall be transferred to the city in which the regional treatment center is located upon receipt of evidence from the city that such a group has been constituted and designated. The funds shall be used to defray the expenses of the group.

The membership of each community group must reflect a broad range of community interests, including, at a minimum, families of persons with developmental disabilities, state employee unions, providers, advocates, and counties.

Sec. 19. [252.515] [RIGHTS OF PARENTS AND NEAR RELATIVES.]

(a) For purposes of this section, near relative means spouse, parent, adult sibling, or adult child.

(b) If the person, legal representative, or near relative of the person proposed to be discharged from a regional treatment center objects to the proposed discharge, the individual who objects to the discharge may request a review pursuant to section 256.045, subdivision 4a. The person shall not be transferred from a regional treatment center while a review or appeal is pending.

A resident of a regional treatment center may not be discharged to a community intermediate care facility with more than 15 beds. Effective July 1, 1993, a resident of a regional treatment center may not be discharged to a community intermediate care facility with more than ten beds.

(c) Within 30 days of the request for a review, the local agency shall conduct a conciliation conference and inform the individual who requested the review in writing of the action the local agency is going to take. The conciliation conference shall be conducted in a manner consistent with section 256.045, subdivision 4a.

(d) If the person, legal representative, or near relative of the person proposed to be discharged is not satisfied with the results of the conciliation conference, any of those individuals may submit to the commissioner a written request for a hearing before a state human services referee pursuant to section 256.045, subdivision 4a.

(e) The person, legal representative, or near relative of the person proposed to be discharged may appeal the order to the district court of the county responsible for furnishing assistance by serving a written copy of a notice of appeal upon the commissioner and any adverse party of record within 30 days after the date the commissioner issued the order, and by filing the original notice and proof of service with the court administrator of the district court. Judicial review shall proceed pursuant to section 256.045, subdivisions 7 to 10.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 253.015, is amended to read:

253.015 [LOCATION; MANAGEMENT; COMMITMENT; CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE HOSPITALS FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL ILLNESS.] The state hospitals located at Anoka, Brainerd, Fergus Falls, Hastings, Moose Lake, Rochester, St. Peter, and Willmar shall constitute the state hospitals for mentally ill persons with mental illness, and shall be maintained under the general management of the commissioner of human services. The commissioner of human services shall determine to what state hospital persons with mental illness shall be committed from each county and notify the probate judge thereof, and of changes made from time to time. The chief executive officer of each hospital for persons with mental illness shall be known as the chief executive officer.

Subd. 2. [REPORT ON NEEDED REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER SERVICES.] By January 31, 1991, the commissioner shall determine the need for providing services for persons in southeastern Minnesota who are mentally ill at the regional center in Faribault and submit a report to the legislature. The report shall also address the need to provide services to persons with closed head injuries at the Faribault regional center.

Sec. 21. [253.016] [PURPOSE OF REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTERS.]

The primary mission of the regional treatment centers is to provide inpatient psychiatric hospital services to persons with major mental illness. The regional treatment centers are part of a comprehensive mental health system, the focus of which shall be a commitment to community-based living for persons with mental illness. Regional treatment center services should be integrated into an array of services based on assessment of individual needs.

Sec. 22. [253.017] [TREATMENT PROVIDED BY REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTERS.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTIVE PSYCHIATRIC TREATMENT.] The regional treatment centers shall provide active psychiatric treatment according to contemporary professional standards. Treatment must be designed to:

(1) stabilize the individual and the symptoms that required hospital admission;

(2) restore individual functioning to a level permitting return to the community;

(3) strengthen family and community support; and

(4) facilitate discharge, after care, and follow-up as patients return to the community.

Subd. 2. [NEED FOR SERVICES.] The commissioner shall determine the need for the psychiatric services provided by the department based upon individual needs assessments of persons in the regional treatment centers as required by section 245.474, subdivision 2, and evaluation of its programs, programs needed in the region for persons who require hospitalization, and epidemiologic data. Throughout its planning and implementation, the assessment process will be discussed with the state advisory council on mental health in accordance with its duties under section 245.697. Ongoing assessment of this information will be used to plan for and implement change in state-operated programs and facilities for persons who are mentally ill. By January 31, 1990, the commissioner shall submit a proposal for renovation or new construction of the facility at Anoka serving the metropolitan area. By January 31, 1992, the commissioner shall submit a proposal for renovation or new construction of the facilities at Moose Lake and Fergus Falls. Expansion will be considered only after a thorough analysis of need and in conjunction with a comprehensive mental health plan.

Subd. 3. [DISSEMINATION OF ADMISSION AND STAY CRITERIA.] The commissioner shall periodically disseminate criteria for admission and continued stay in a regional treatment center and security hospital. The commissioner shall disseminate the criteria to the courts of the state and counties.

Sec. 23. [253.018] [PERSONS SERVED.]

The regional treatment centers shall primarily serve adults. Programs treating children and adolescents who require the clinical support available in a psychiatric hospital may be maintained on present campuses until adequate state-operated alternatives are developed off campus according to the criteria of section 253.28, subdivision 2.

Sec. 24. [253.28] [STATE-OPERATED, COMMUNITY-BASED PROGRAMS FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL ILLNESS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAMS FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL ILLNESS.] The commissioner may establish a system of state-operated, community-based programs for persons with mental illness. For purposes of this section, "state-operated, community-based program" means a program administered by the state to provide treatment and habilitation in community settings to persons with mental illness. Employees of the programs must be state employees under chapters 43A and 179A. The role of state-operated services must be defined within the context of a comprehensive system of services for persons with mental illness. Services may include, but are not limited to, community residential treatment facilities for children and adults.

Subd. 2. [LOCATION OF PROGRAMS FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL ILLNESS.] In determining the location of state-operated, community-based programs, the needs of the individual clients shall be paramount. The commissioner shall take into account:

(1) the personal preferences of the persons being served and their families;

(2) location of the support services needed by the persons being served as established by an individual service plan;

(3) the appropriate grouping of the persons served;

(4) the availability of qualified staff;

(5) the need for state-operated, community-based programs in the geographical region of the state; and

(6) a reasonable commuting distance from a regional treatment center or the residences of the program staff.

Subd. 3. [EVALUATION OF COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICES DEVELOPMENT.] The commissioner shall develop an integrated approach to assessing and improving the quality of community-based services including state-operated programs to persons with mental illness. The commissioner shall evaluate the progress of the development and quality of the community-based services to determine if further development can proceed. The commissioner shall report results of the evaluation to the legislature by January 31, 1991, and January 31, 1993.

Sec. 25. [256E.14] [GRANTS FOR CASE MANAGEMENT FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR RELATED CONDITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT TO COUNTIES FOR CASE MANAGEMENT.] To assist counties with increased case management and other administrative costs related to discharging persons with mental retardation or related conditions from regional treatment centers to community services, the commissioner shall provide funds to counties as specified in this section.

(a) By September 30, 1989, the commissioner shall pay to each county a sum equal to 1,000 times the net decrease that occurred between July 1, 1980 and December 31, 1988, in the number of persons with mental retardation or related conditions, from that county, who were residing in a regional treatment center.

(b) On January 1, 1989, and on the first of January in succeeding years, until 1993, the commissioner shall determine, for each county, the number of persons from that county with mental retardation or related conditions who are residing in a regional treatment center. By September 30 of each year, through 1993, the commissioner shall pay to each county the sum of $500 for each resident described in this paragraph.

(c) Beginning on January 1, 1990, and continuing until January 1, 1993, the commissioner shall conduct an annual census of the number of clients with mental retardation or related conditions from each county who are residing in a regional treatment center. The commissioner shall then determine, for each county, whether there has been a net decrease or increase from the previous January in the number of such persons residing in a regional treatment center.

(d) For a year in which it is determined under paragraph (c) that there has been a net decrease in the number of persons from a given county who have mental retardation or related conditions and who are residing in a regional treatment center, the commissioner shall pay to that county, by September 30 of that year, 1,000 times the net decrease in the number of such persons.

(e) For a year in which it is determined under paragraph (c) that there has been a net increase in the number of persons from a given county who have mental retardation or related conditions and who are residing in a regional treatment center, the amount due to a county for that year under paragraph (b) shall be reduced by a sum equal to 1,000 times the net increase in the number of such persons. If for any given year the amount to be deducted from a county payment exceeds the amount to be paid to the county under paragraph (b), then the difference shall be deducted from future amounts to be paid to the county under paragraphs (b) and (d). If any amount to be deducted from a county payment under paragraph (e) for the years 1990 to 1993 remains uncollected after September 30, 1993, then that amount shall be deducted from funds to be paid to the county under chapter 256E after January 1, 1994.

Subd. 2. [PRORATION OF PAYMENTS.] If the appropriation for any given year is insufficient to provide full funding, then payments under subdivision 1 shall be reduced proportionally. Similarly, funds remaining at the end of the fiscal year shall be distributed proportionally to the June 30 measurement of net decrease provided in subdivision 1, paragraph (c).

Sec. 26. [AGREEMENT AUTHORIZED.]

The agreement between the commissioner of human services, the state negotiator, and the bargaining representatives of state employees, dated March 10, 1989, concerning the department of human services plan to restructure the regional treatment centers, is ratified, subject to approval by the legislative commission on employee relations."

For purposes of a specific rule, an agency may define small business to include more employees if necessary to adapt the rule to the needs and problems of small businesses.

Sec. 2. [17.135] [FARM DISPOSAL OF SOLID WASTE.]

A permit is not required from a state agency, except under sections 88.16 and 88.17, for a person who owns or operates land used for farming that buries, or burns and buries, solid waste generated from the person's household or as part of the person's farming operation if the burying is done in a nuisance free, pollution free, and aesthetic manner on the land used for farming. This exception does not apply if there is regularly scheduled pickup of solid waste established by the county.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.46, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS.] The plans shall describe existing collection, processing, and disposal systems, including schedules of rates and charges, financing methods, environmental acceptability, and opportunities for improvements in the systems. The plans shall include an estimate of the land disposal capacity in acre-feet which will be needed through the year 2000, on the basis of current and projected waste generation practices. The plans shall require the most feasible and prudent reduction of the need for and practice of land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste. The plans shall address at least waste reduction, separation, and resource recovery, and shall include objectives, immediately and over specified time periods, for reducing the land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste. The plans shall describe methods for identifying the portions of the waste stream such as leaves, grass, clippings, tree and plant residue, and paper for application and mixing into the soil and use in agricultural practices. The plans shall describe specific functions to be performed and activities to be undertaken to achieve the abatement objectives and shall describe the estimated cost, proposed manner of financing, and timing of the functions and activities. The plans shall include alternatives which could be used to achieve the abatement objectives if the proposed functions and activities are not established. The plans shall designate how public education shall be accomplished. The plans shall, to the extent practicable and consistent with the achievement of other public policies and purposes, encourage ownership and operation of solid waste facilities by private industry. For solid waste facilities owned or operated by public agencies or supported primarily by public funds or obligations issued by a public agency, the plans shall include criteria and standards to protect comparable private and public facilities already existing in the area from displacement unless the displacement is required in order to achieve the waste management objectives identified in the plan. The plans shall establish a siting procedure and development program to assure the orderly location, develop-

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.48, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FACILITY DEVELOPMENT PROPOSALS.] In order to determine the feasibility and method of developing and operating specific types of facilities and services to use recyclable materials, solid waste suitable for land application, and compost generated in the state, the board shall request proposals from and may make grants to persons seeking to develop or operate the facilities or services. Grants may be made for the purposes in section 115A.156, subdivision 1, clauses (1) to (6). A grant must be matched by money or in-kind services provided by the grantee covering at least 50 percent of the project cost. In requesting proposals under this section the board shall follow the procedures provided in section 115A.158, subdivisions 1 and 2, as far as practicable.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.48, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

the provisions of chapter 14, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1969, chapter 1046, for the prevention, abatement, or control of air pollution. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state, or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances, or conditions in order to make due allowance for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to sources or emissions of air contamination or air pollution, to the quality or composition of such emissions, or to the quality of or composition of the ambient air or outdoor atmosphere or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement, or control of air pollution.

Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 14, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend, and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1969, chapter 1046, for the collection, transportation, storage, processing, and disposal of solid waste and the prevention, abatement, or control of water, air, and land pollution which may be related thereto, and the deposit in or on land of any other material that may tend to cause pollution. The agency shall adopt such rules and standards for sewage sludge, addressing the intrinsic suitability of land, the volume and rate of application of sewage sludge of various degrees of intrinsic hazard, design of facilities, and operation of facilities and sites. The agency shall promulgate emergency rules for sewage sludge pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 14.29 to 14.36, the emergency rules shall be effective until permanent rules are promulgated or March 1, 1982, whichever is earlier. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances, or conditions in order to make due allowance for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to collection, transportation, processing, disposal, equipment, location, procedures, methods, systems or techniques or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement or control of water, air, and land pollution which may be advised through the control of collection, transportation, processing, and disposal of solid waste and sewage sludge, and the deposit in or on land of any other material that may tend to cause pollution. By January 1, 1983, the rules for the management of sewage sludge shall include an analysis of the sewage sludge determined by the commissioner of agriculture to be necessary to meet the soil amendment labeling requirements of section 17.716.

Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 14, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1971, chapter 727, for the prevention, abatement, or control of noise pollution. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state, or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances or conditions in order to make due allowances for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to sources or emissions of noise or noise pollution, to the quality or composition of noises in the natural environment, or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement, or control of noise pollution.

As to any matters subject to this chapter, local units of government may set emission regulations with respect to stationary sources which are more stringent than those set by the pollution control agency.

Pursuant to chapter 14, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend, and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of this chapter for generators of hazardous waste, the management, identification, labeling, classification, storage, collection, treatment, transportation, processing, and disposal of hazardous waste and the location of hazardous waste facilities. A rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state or may be limited as to time, places, circumstances, or conditions. In implementing its hazardous waste rules, the pollution control agency shall give high priority to providing planning and technical assistance to hazardous waste generators. The agency shall assist generators in investigating the availability and feasibility of both interim and long term hazardous waste management methods. The methods shall include waste reduction, waste separation, waste processing, resource recovery, and temporary storage.

The pollution control agency shall give highest priority in the consideration of permits to authorize disposal of diseased shade trees by open burning at designated sites to evidence concerning economic costs of transportation and disposal of diseased shade trees by alternative methods.

In addition to the provisions under section 14.115, before the pollution control agency adopts or repeals rules that affect farming operations, the agency must provide a copy of the proposed rule change and a statement of the effect of the rule change on farming operations to the commissioner of agriculture for review and comment and hold public meetings in agricultural areas of the state.

“Section 1. [473.155] [AVIATION PLANNING.]

Subdivision 1. [AVIATION PLANNING ASSESSMENT.] By February 15 of each year, the council shall prepare a long-range assessment of air transportation trends and factors that may affect major airport development in the metropolitan area for a prospective 30-year period. The council shall involve the airports commission in preparing the assessment and shall take into consideration the airport development and operations plans and activities of the commission.

Subd. 2. [AVIATION PLAN.] By February 1, 1990, the council shall amend the aviation chapter of the metropolitan development guide to incorporate policies and strategies that will ensure a comprehensive, coordinated, continuing, thorough, and timely investigation and evaluation of alternatives for major airport development in the metropolitan area for a prospective 30-year period. The alternatives to be examined must include both the airport improvements and enhancements of capacity that may be necessary at the existing airport and the location and development of a new airport.

Subd. 3. [SEARCH AREA.] By January 1, 1992, the council, in consultation with the airports commission, shall designate an area within the metropolitan area as a search area for a major new airport.

Subd. 4. [LEGISLATIVE REPORTS.] (a) Until the activities required by section 3, subdivision 3, and section 4 are completed, the council shall report to the legislature by February 15 of each year on the results of the aviation planning activities of the council under this section. The report must include a summary of expenditures and sources of funding for the activities.

(b) By February 1, 1990, the council shall report to the legislature recommending methods and legislative actions that would be necessary to protect a new airport search area from conflicting development, to protect and control development on land at and around a site for a major new airport, and to inhibit land speculation and reduce incentives for land speculation in the airport and all surrounding areas.

(c) By March 1, 1990, after consulting with the airports commission, the federal aviation administration, industry representatives, and other persons, the council shall report to the legislature on assumptions and methods that will be used by the council to forecast demand related to the need for major airport facilities in the metropolitan area for a prospective 30-year period.

(d) By March 1, 1990, the council shall report to the legislature analyzing and making recommendations on long-range aviation goals for the major airport facility in the metropolitan area for a prospective 30-year period. The report must address goals for safety, environmental impact, and service, including ground access and service levels to other states and countries and to nonmetropolitan areas of the state. In preparing the report, the council shall consider regional growth patterns, economic development, economic impact, regional and statewide investment, and ground transportation.

(e) By February 1, 1991, the council shall report to the legislature on the general availability of suitable land in the metropolitan area for a new airport. If the council finds that sufficient land may not be available in the area, the council shall describe the legal and institutional changes that would be required to extend the search for a suitable site beyond the boundaries of the metropolitan area.

(f) By January 1, 1993, the council shall report to the legislature on policies for the reuse of the existing major airport site should a new major airport be developed.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.604, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(1) the mayor of each of the cities, or a qualified voter appointed by the mayor, for the term of office as mayor;

(2) a number of members appointed from precincts equal or nearest to but not exceeding half the number of districts which are provided by law for the selection of members of the metropolitan council in section 473.123. Each member shall be a resident of the precinct represented. The members shall be appointed by the governor as follows: a number as near as possible to one-fourth, for a term of one year; a similar number for a term of two years; a similar number for a term of three years; and a similar number for a term of four years, all of which terms shall commence on July 1, 1981. The successors of each member shall be appointed for four-year terms commencing in July of each fourth year after the expiration of the original term. Before making an appointment, the governor shall consult with each member of the legislature from the precinct for which the member is to be appointed, to solicit the legislator's recommendation on the appointment; and

(3) four members appointed from outside of the metropolitan area to reflect fairly the various regions and interests throughout the state that are affected by the operation of the commission's major airport and airport system. Two of these members must be residents of statutory or home rule charter cities, towns, or counties containing an airport designated by the commissioner of transportation as a key airport. The other two must be residents of statutory or home rule charter cities, towns, or counties containing an airport designated by the commissioner of transportation as an intermediate airport. The members must be appointed by the governor as follows: one for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, and one for a term of four years. All of the terms start on July 1, 1989. The successors of each member must be appointed to four-year terms commencing on July 1 of each fourth year after the expiration of the original term. Before making an appointment, the governor shall consult each member of the legislature representing the municipality or county from which the member is to be appointed, to solicit the legislator's recommendation on the appointment; and Subd. 4. [LEGISLATIVE REPORTS.] (a) Until the activities required by subdivision 3 and section 4 are completed, the commission shall report to the legislature by February 15 of each year on the results of the airport planning activities of the commission under this section. When not divisible, the cost of the full-time benefits normally allocable to the employer shall be allocated, the appropriate shared time percent to the employee in a shared position, by payroll deduction, and the remaining percent to the employer.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.01, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [ALLOWABLE SERVICE.] "Allowable service" means:

(1) Service by an employee for which on or before July 1, 1957, the employee was entitled to allowable service credit on the records of the system by reason of employee contributions in the form of salary deductions, payments in lieu of salary deductions, or in any other manner authorized by Minnesota Statutes 1953, chapter 352, as amended by Laws 1955, chapter 239.

(2) Service by an employee for which on or before July 1, 1961, the employee chose to obtain credit for service by making payments to the fund under Minnesota Statutes 1961, section 352.24.

(3) Except as provided in clauses (9) and (10), service by an employee after July 1, 1957, for any calendar month in which the employee is paid salary from which deductions are made, deposited, and credited in the fund, including deductions made, deposited, and credited as provided in section 352.041.

(4) Except as provided in clauses (9) and (10), service by an employee after July 1, 1957, for any calendar month for which payments in lieu of salary deductions are made, deposited, and credited in the fund, as provided in section 352.27 and Minnesota Statutes 1957, section 352.021, subdivision 4.

For purposes of clauses (3) and (4), except as provided in clauses (9) and (10), any salary paid for a fractional part of any calendar month is deemed the compensation for the entire calendar month.

(5) The period of absence from their duties by employees who are temporarily disabled because of injuries incurred in the performance of duties and for which disability the state is liable under the workers' compensation law until the date authorized by the director for the commencement of payments of a total and permanent disability benefit from the retirement fund.

(6) The unused part of an employee's annual leave allowance for which the employee is paid salary.

(7) Any service covered by a refund repaid as provided in section 352.23 or 352D.05, subdivision 4, except service rendered as an employee of the adjutant general for which the person has credit with the federal civil service retirement system.

(8) Any service before July 1, 1978, by an employee of the transit operating division of the metropolitan transit commission or by an employee on an authorized leave of absence from the transit operating division of the metropolitan transit commission who is employed by the labor organization which is the exclusive bargaining agent representing employees of the transit operating division, which was credited by the metropolitan transit commission-transit operating division employees retirement fund or any of its predecessor plans or funds as past, intermediate, future, continuous, or allowable service as defined in the metropolitan transit commission-transit operating division employees retirement fund plan document in effect on December 31, 1977.

(9) Service after July 1, 1983, by an employee who is employed on a part-time basis for less than 50 percent of full time, for which the employee is paid salary from which deductions are made, deposited, and credited in the fund, including deductions made, deposited, and credited as provided in section 352.041 or for which payments in lieu of salary deductions are made, deposited, and credited in the fund as provided in section 352.27 shall be credited on a fractional basis either by pay period, monthly, or annually based on the relationship that the percentage of salary earned bears to a full-time salary, with any salary paid for the fractional service credited on the basis of the rate of salary applicable for a full-time pay period, month, or a full-time year. For periods of part-time service that is duplicated service credit, section 356.30, subdivision 1, clauses (i) and (j), govern.

~~(10) Any service by an employee in the Minnesota demonstration job-sharing program under sections 43A.40 to 43A.465 which is less than 40 hours per week or 2,080 hours per year and for which the employee is paid salary from which deductions are made, deposited and credited in the fund, shall be credited on a fractional basis either weekly or annually based on the relationship that the number of hours of service bears to either 40 hours per week or 2,080 hours per year, with any salary paid for the fractional service credited on the basis of the rate of salary applicable for a full-time week or a full-time year.~~

The allowable service determined and credited on a fractional basis under clauses (9) and (10) shall be used in calculating the amount of benefits payable, but service as determined on a fractional basis must not be used in determining the length of service required for eligibility for benefits.

~~(11)~~ (10) Any period of authorized leave of absence without pay that does not exceed one year and for which the employee obtained credit by payment to the fund in lieu of salary deductions. To obtain credit, the employee shall pay an amount equal to the employee and employer contribution rate in section 352.04, subdivisions 2 and 3, multiplied by the employee's hourly rate of salary on the date of return from leave of absence and by the days and months of the leave of absence without pay for which the employee wants allowable service credit. The employing department, at its option, may pay the employer amount on behalf of its employees. Payments made under this clause shall include interest at the rate of six percent per year from the date of termination of the leave of absence to the date payment is made unless payment is completed within one year of the return from leave of absence.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.021, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CONTINUING COVERAGE.] Any state employee who has made contributions to the retirement fund for a period of one year and who, continuing in state service after that year, becomes eligible for membership in the state teachers retirement association as a full-time teacher, as defined in section 354.05, subdivision 2, may continue coverage under the system by filing in its office written notice of election to continue. The election to be covered by the system under this subdivision or section 352.01, subdivision 2b, clause (3), must be made on a form approved by the director within 90 days after appointment to the position. If the option is exercised, the employee is not thereafter entitled to membership in the teachers retirement association while employed by the state in a position that entitled the employee to make this election.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.03, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [LEGAL ADVISER, ATTORNEY GENERAL.] The attorney general shall be the legal adviser of the board and of the director. The board may sue or be sued or petitioned under this section in the name of the board of directors of the system. In actions brought by it or against it, the board shall be represented by the attorney general and, except as provided in subdivision 9, venue of actions shall be in the Ramsey county district court.

Sec. 5. [352.031] [APPEALS PROCEDURE.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] Unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, for the purpose of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Board" means the board of directors of the Minnesota state retirement system.

(b) "Documentation" includes, but is not limited to:

(1) sworn and notarized affidavits made on the personal knowledge of any person;

(2) official letters or documents;

(3) documents from the file of the petitioner; and

(4) other relevant documents that are admissible as evidence in a court of law.

(c) "Executive director" means the executive director of the Minnesota state retirement system.

(d) "Person" includes any state agency or other governmental unit that employs persons covered under statutes listed in subdivision 2.

(e) “Record” means the petition and the documentation that the petitioners submit with the petition; the executive director’s answer to the petition and documentation submitted with it; and any documentation the board allows to be submitted at or after the meeting at which the petition is considered.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF TERMINATION OR DENIAL.] If the executive director terminates a benefit, reduces a benefit, or denies an application or a written request of any person claiming a right under chapter 352, other than sections 352.96 and 352.97; chapters 3A, 352B, 352C, and 352D; sections 490.121 to 490.133; or the applicable sections of chapters 355 and 356, the executive director must serve upon that person written notice containing:

(1) the reasons for the termination, reduction, or denial;

(2) notice that the person may petition the board for a review of the termination, reduction, or denial and that the petition for review must be filed within 60 days of the receipt of the written notice;

(3) a statement that failure to petition the board within 60 days will preclude the person from contesting in any other court procedure or administrative hearing, the issues determined by the executive director; and

(4) a copy of this section.

Subd. 3. [PETITION FOR REVIEW.] A person who claims a right under subdivision 2 and whose benefit has been terminated or reduced or whose application or written request has been denied may petition for a review of that decision by the board. A petition under this section must be served upon the executive director personally, or by mail postmarked no later than 60 days after the petitioner received the notice required by subdivision 2. The petition must include the sworn, notarized statement of the reasons the petitioner believes the decision of the executive director should be reversed or modified and may include relevant documentation.

Subd. 4. [ANSWER; RECORD FOR HEARING.] Within a reasonable time after receiving a petition, the executive director must serve the petitioner with an answer to the petition with all relevant documentation and with notice of the time and place of the regular or special board meeting at which the board will consider the petition. The documentation need not duplicate the documentation submitted by the petitioner. Not later than ten days before the board meeting at which the petition will be heard, the executive director must, personally or by mail, deliver a copy of the relevant documentation to each board member. Each board member who participates in the decision on the petition must be familiar with all relevant documentation.

Subd. 5. [HEARING.] The board shall hold a timely hearing on a petition for review. The board shall make its decision on a petition solely on the relevant documentation as submitted and the proceedings of the hearing. At the hearing, the petitioner, the petitioner's attorney, and the executive director may state and discuss with the board their positions with respect to the petition. The board may allow further documentation to be placed in the record at or subsequent to the board meeting at which the petition is considered. If the board allows additional documentation into the record at or subsequent to the board meeting, it may make a final determination on the petition at that board meeting only upon the agreement of both the petitioner and the executive director.

Subd. 6. [TERMINATION OF BENEFITS.] If the executive director proposes to terminate a benefit that is being paid to any person, before terminating the benefit, the executive director must, in addition to the other procedures prescribed herein, give the person written or oral notice of the proposed termination. The notice must explain the reason for the proposed termination. The person must be given an opportunity, verbally or in writing, to explain why the benefit should not be terminated: if the executive director is unable to contact the person and the executive director determines that a failure to terminate the benefit might result in unauthorized payment by the association, the executive director may terminate the benefit with only a written notice containing the information required by subdivision 2, mailed to the address to which the benefit was last sent and, if that address is a financial institution, to the last known address of the person.

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL ADVISOR ACTION.] If a person petitions the board to reverse or modify a determination by the executive director finding that the petitioner, for medical reasons, does not or has ceased to qualify for a disability benefit, the board may resubmit the matter to the medical advisor for reconsideration, with or without instructions to obtain further medical examinations. The board may make a determination contrary to the recommendation of the medical advisor only if there is expert medical evidence in the record to support its contrary decision. If there is no medical opinion contrary to the opinion of the medical advisor in the record and the medical advisor asserts that the decision was made in accordance with the disability standard in sections 352.01, subdivision 17; 352B.10; or 490.121, subdivision 13, the board must follow the determination of the medical advisor. The board may make a determination different from the recommendation of the medical advisor on issues that do not involve a medical opinion.

Subd. 8. [BOARD FINDINGS.] After the board has made a decision on a petition, the executive director must prepare findings of fact, the board's reasons for its conclusions, and the board's final order for the signature of the chair or other board member as the board, by resolution, may designate. The executive director shall serve the findings, conclusions, and order on the petitioner by certified mail.

Subd. 9. [APPEALS.] Within 30 days of receipt of the findings, conclusions, and final order, the petitioner may appeal the board's decision by writ or certiorari to the court of appeals. Failure to appeal to that court within the 30 days precludes the petitioner from later raising, in any court procedure or administrative hearing, those substantive and procedural issues that reasonably should have been raised upon appeal.

Subd. 10. [REFERRAL FOR ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING.] Notwithstanding sections 14.03; 14.06; and 14.57 to 14.69, a challenge to a determination of the executive director must be conducted exclusively under the procedures in this section. The board in its sole discretion may refer a petition brought under this section to the office of administrative hearings for a contested case hearing under sections 14.57 to 14.69.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.116, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OPTIONAL ANNUITIES.] The board shall establish an optional retirement annuity in the form of a joint and survivor annuity. The board may also establish an optional annuity in the form of an annuity payable for a period certain and for life thereafter or establish an optional annuity which takes the form of a joint and survivor annuity providing that, if after the joint and survivor annuity becomes payable, the person with the designated remainder interest in the annuity dies before the former member, the annuity amount must be reinstated to a normal single life annuity amount as of the first day of the month after the day the person dies. In addition, the board may also establish an optional annuity that takes the form of an annuity calculated on the basis of the age of the retired employee at retirement and payable for the period before the retired employee becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in a greater amount than the amount of the annuity calculated under subdivision 2 on the basis of the age of the retired employee at retirement but equal so far as possible to the social security old age retirement benefit and the adjusted retirement annuity amount payable immediately after the retired employee becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits and payable for the period after the retired employee becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in an amount less than the amount of the annuity calculated under subdivisions 2 and 3. The social security leveling option may be calculated based on broad average social security old age retirement benefits. For each year that the retiring employee is under age 62, up to five percent of the total single life annuity required reserves may be used to accelerate the optional retirement annuity. This greater amount shall be paid until the end of the month in which the retired employee reaches age 62, at which time the annuity shall be reduced. The optional forms must be actuarially equivalent to the normal single life annuity forms provided in sections 352.115 and 352.116, whichever applies.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.22, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SERVICE TERMINATION.] Any employee who ceases to be a state employee by reason of termination of state service or layoff is entitled to a refund provided in subdivision 2 or a deferred retirement annuity as provided in subdivision 3. Application for a refund may be made 30 or more days after the termination of state service or layoff if the applicant has not again become a state employee required to be covered by the system.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.22, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [AMOUNT OF CERTAIN REFUND REPAYMENTS PROHIBITED.] For any employee who is entitled to a refund under subdivision 1 and who, before July 1, 1978, was a member of the metropolitan transit commission transit operating division employees retirement fund, the refund for contributions made before July 1, 1978, must equal the following amounts:

(a) For any employee contributions made before January 1, 1950, the amount equal to one half of the employee contributions without interest;

(b) For any employee contributions made after December 31, 1949, but before January 1, 1975, the amount of the employee contributions plus simple interest at the rate of two percent per year; and

(c) For any employee contributions made after December 31, 1974, but before July 1, 1978, the amount of the employee contributions plus simple interest at the rate of 3½ percent per year. The refund of contributions made on or after July 1, 1978, must be determined under subdivision 2. Interest must be computed to the first day of the month in which the refund is processed and must be based on fiscal year balances. No refunds of contributions made to the metropolitan transit commission-transit operating division employees retirement fund received before July 1, 1978, or for service rendered before July 1, 1978, may be repaid.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.93, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS; DURATION AND AMOUNT.] The annuity under this section shall begin to accrue as provided in section 352.115, subdivision 8, and must be paid for an additional 84 full calendar months or to the first of the month following the month in which the employee becomes age 65, whichever occurs first, except that payment must not cease before the first of the month following the month in which the employee becomes 62. It must then be reduced to the amount as calculated under section 352.115, except that if this amount, when added to the social security benefit based on state service the employee is eligible to receive at the time, is less than the benefit payable under subdivision 2, the retired employee shall receive an amount that when added to the social security benefit will equal the amount payable under subdivision 2.

When an annuity is reduced under this subdivision, the percentage adjustments, if any, that have been applied to the original annuity under section 11A.18, before the reduction, must be compounded and applied to the reduced annuity. A former correctional employee employed by the state in a position covered by the regular plan or the unclassified employees retirement program between the ages of 58 and 65 shall receive a partial return of correctional contributions at retirement with five percent interest based on the following formula:

Employee contributions contributed as a correctional employee in excess of the contributions the employee would have contributed as a regular employee	X	Years and complete months of regular service between ages 58 and 65 7

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OPTIONAL ANNUITY FORMS.] In lieu of the single life annuity provided in subdivision 2, the member or former member with ~~ten~~ five years or more of service may elect an optional annuity form. The board of the Minnesota state retirement system shall establish a joint and survivor annuity, payable to a designated beneficiary for life, adjusted to the actuarial equivalent value of the single life annuity. The board shall also establish an additional optional annuity with an actuarial equivalent value of the single life annuity in the form of a joint and survivor annuity which provides that the elected annuity be reinstated to the single life annuity provided in subdivision 2, if after commencing the elected joint and survivor annuity, the designated beneficiary dies before the member, which reinstatement is not retroactive but takes effect for the first full month occurring after the death of the designated beneficiary. The board may also establish other actuarial equivalent value optional annuity forms. In establishing actuarial equivalent value optional annuity forms, each optional annuity form shall have the same present value as a regular single life annuity using the mortality table adopted by the board and the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d, and the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. These recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of the board.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.10, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [OPTIONAL ANNUITY.] A disabled member ~~not eligible for~~ may, in lieu of survivorship coverage under section 352B.11, subdivision 2, may choose the normal disability benefit or an optional annuity as provided in section 352B.08, subdivision 2. The choice of an optional annuity must be made before commencement of payment of the disability benefit. It is effective ~~30 days after receipt of this choice or on~~ on the date on which the disability benefit begins to accrue, ~~whichever is later. Upon becoming effective, the optional annuity begins to accrue on the date provided for the disability benefit.~~

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEATH; PAYMENT TO SPOUSE AND CHILDREN.] If a member serving actively as a member, a member receiving the disability benefit provided by section 352B.10, subdivision 1, or a former member receiving a disability benefit as provided by section 352B.10, subdivision ~~3~~ 2, dies from any cause, the surviving spouse and dependent children are entitled to benefit payments as follows:

(a) A member with at least five years of allowable service ~~or a former member with at least 20 years of allowable service~~ is deemed to have elected a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity payable to a surviving spouse only on or after the date the member or former member became or would have become 55.

(b) The surviving spouse of a member who had credit for less than five years of service shall receive, for life, a monthly annuity equal to 20 percent of that part of the average monthly salary of the member from which deductions were made for retirement. If the surviving spouse remarries, the annuity shall cease as of the date of the remarriage.

(c) The surviving spouse of a member who had credit for at least five years service and who died after attaining 55 years of age, may elect to receive a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity, for life, notwithstanding a subsequent remarriage, in lieu of the annuity prescribed in paragraph (b).

(d) The surviving spouse of any member who had credit for five years or more and who was not 55 years of age at death, shall receive the benefit equal to 20 percent of the average monthly salary as described in clause (b) until the deceased member would have reached the age of 55 years, and beginning the first of the month following that date, may elect to receive the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity. If the surviving spouse remarries before the deceased member's 55th birthdate, benefits or annuities shall cease as of the date of remarriage. Remarriage after the deceased member's 55th birthday shall not affect the payment of the benefit.

(e) Each dependent child shall receive a monthly annuity equal to ten percent of that part of the average monthly salary of the former member from which deductions were made for retirement. A dependent child over 18 and under 22 years of age also may receive the monthly benefit provided in this section, if the child is continuously attending an accredited school as a full-time student during the normal school year as determined by the director. If the child does not continuously attend school but separates from full-time attendance during any part of a school year, the annuity shall cease at the end of the month of separation. In addition, a payment of $20 per month shall be prorated equally to surviving dependent children when the former member is survived by one or more dependent children. Payments for the benefit of any qualified dependent child must be made to the surviving spouse, or if there is none, to the legal guardian of the child. The maximum monthly benefit must not exceed 40 percent of the average monthly salary for any number of children.

(f) If the member dies under circumstances that entitle the surviving spouse and dependent children to receive benefits under the workers' compensation law, the workers' compensation benefits received by them must not be deducted from the benefits payable under this section.

(g) The surviving spouse of a deceased former member who had credit for five or more years of allowable service, but not the spouse of a former member receiving a disability benefit under section 352B.10, subdivision 3 2, is entitled to receive the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity at the time the deceased member would have reached the age of 55 years, if the surviving spouse has not remarried before that date. If a former member dies who does not qualify for other benefits under this chapter, the surviving spouse or, if none, the children or heirs are entitled to a refund of the accumulated deductions left in the fund plus interest at the rate of five percent per year compounded annually.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352D.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When a participant attains at least age ~~58~~ 55, is retired from covered service, and applies for a retirement annuity, the cash value of the participant's shares shall be transferred to the Minnesota postretirement investment fund and used to provide an annuity for the retired employee based upon the participant's age when the benefit begins to accrue according to the reserve basis used by the state employees retirement fund in determining pensions and reserves.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352D.075, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. If a participant dies leaving a spouse and there is no named beneficiary who survives to receive payment or the spouse is named beneficiary, the spouse may receive:

(1) The value of the participant's total shares;

(2) The value of one-half of the total shares and beginning at age 58 55 or thereafter receive an annuity based on the value of one-half of the total shares, provided that if the spouse dies before receiving any annuity payments the value of said shares shall be paid to the spouse's children in equal shares, but if no such children survive then to the parents of the spouse in equal shares, but if no such children or parents survive, then to the estate of the spouse; or

(3) Beginning at age 58 55 or thereafter receive an annuity based on the value of the total shares, provided that if the spouse dies before receiving any annuity payments the value of said shares shall be paid to the spouse's children in equal shares, but if no such children survive then to the parents of the spouse in equal shares, but if no such children or parents survive, then to the estate of the spouse; and further provided, if said spouse dies after receiving annuity payments but before receiving payments equal to the value of the employee shares, the value of the employee shares remaining shall be paid to the spouse's children in equal shares, but if no such children survive then to the parents of the spouse in equal shares, but if no such children or parents survive, then to the estate of the spouse.

Sec. 15. [DEADLINE EXTENSION IN CERTAIN INSTANCES.]

Notwithstanding any provision of Minnesota Statutes, section 352D.12, to the contrary, a participant on the effective date of this section may transfer prior service contributions or repay any refund under that section by September 30, 1989, or within one year of the person's participation, whichever is later.

Sec. 16. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 352.03, subdivision 13; and 352.73, subdivision 3, are repealed.

ARTICLE 2

TRA

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136.81, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. There shall be deducted from the salary of each person described in section 136.80, subdivision 1, a sum equal to five percent of the portion of the person's annual salary paid between $6,000 and $15,000. The deduction is to be made in the same manner as other retirement deductions are made from the salary of the person only after the first $6,000 has been paid in a fiscal year. The state employer shall make a contribution to the plan on behalf of every covered person in an amount equal to the deductions made from the salary of the person. The moneys so deducted and the state employer contribution shall be deposited to the credit of the state university and community college supplemental retirement plan account of the teachers retirement fund. The account is hereby established and shall be separate and distinct from other funds, accounts, or assets of the teachers retirement fund. The money required to meet the obligation of the state as provided in this subdivision shall be contributed to the executive director of the teachers retirement association by the state. Two percent of the amount of the salary deductions and employer contributions must be credited to the administrative expense reserve account of the supplemental retirement plan and must be used for payment of necessary and reasonable administrative expenses of the supplemental retirement plan as provided in section 354.65.

Any deductions which are taken from the salary of a person for the supplemental retirement plan in error shall upon discovery and verification be refunded to the person. Any related employer contributions must be refunded to the employer. The retirement board executive director shall establish a reserve which shall must reflect any gains or losses realized due to the purchase and redemption of shares representing salary deductions and state employer contributions which were made in error. The balance of the reserve shall remaining after the refund of contributions made in error must be credited annually to the cancellation reserve established pursuant to section 136.82, subdivision 1, clause (5) administrative expense reserve account.

If any payroll salary deductions which are required pursuant to under this section are omitted, the amount of the omitted salary deductions shall may be remitted by the person to the supplemental retirement plan investment account of the teachers retirement association within one year from the end of the fiscal year in which the deductions were due, and at the time of the receipt of 90 days following the association's written notification to the person of the omission, but not thereafter. If the omitted salary deductions are received from the person, the required state employer contribution shall then must be made paid by the employer within 30 days after the association's written notification to the employer of the amount due.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136.82, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] (a) The executive director of the teachers retirement fund shall redeem shares in the accounts of the Minnesota supplemental retirement investment fund standing in an employee's share account record under the following circumstances, but always in accordance with the laws and rules governing the Minnesota supplemental retirement investment fund:

(b) The executive director shall redeem shares under this subdivision when requested to do so in writing on forms provided by the executive director by a person having shares to the credit of the employee's share account record if the person is age 55 or older and is no longer employed by the state university board or state board for community colleges. In such case the person must receive the cash realized on the redemption of the shares. The person may direct the redemption of not more than 20 percent of the person's shares in the employee's share account record in any one year and may not direct more than one redemption in any one calendar month; provided, however, that the state university board or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state university board, and the state board for community colleges or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state board for community colleges, may, upon application, at their sole discretion, permit greater withdrawals in any one year.

(c) The executive director shall redeem shares under this subdivision when requested to do so in writing, on forms provided by the executive director, by a person having shares to the credit of the employee's share account record if the person has left employment by the state university board or state board for community colleges because of a total and permanent disability as defined in section 354.05, subdivision 14. If the executive director finds that the person is totally and permanently disabled and will as a result be unable to return to similar employment, the person must receive the cash realized on the redemption of the shares. The person may direct the redemption of not more than 20 percent of the shares in the employee's share account record in any one year and may not direct more than one redemption in any one calendar month; provided, however, that the state university board or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state university board, and the state board for community colleges or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state board for community colleges, may, upon application, at their sole discretion, permit greater withdrawals in any one year. If the person returns to good health, the person owes no restitution to the state or a fund established by its laws for a redemption under this paragraph.

(d) The executive director shall redeem shares under this subdivision in the event of the death of a person having shares to the credit of the employee's share account record and leaving a surviving spouse, when requested to do so in writing, on forms provided by the executive director, by the surviving spouse. The surviving spouse must receive the cash realized on the redemption of the shares. Whenever the court supplies information from a court file on an individual, in whatever form, the court shall include information on the outcome of the court proceeding when it is available. The tenant screening service is not liable under section 6 with respect to court file information if the tenant screening service reports complete and accurate information as provided by the court.

(a) For a violation of section 566.18, subdivision 6, paragraph (a), the tenant may deposit with the court administrator the rent due to the owner along with a copy of the written notice of code violation provided in section 566.19, subdivision 2. The tenant may not deposit the rent or file the written notice of code violation until the time granted to make repairs has expired without satisfactory repairs being accomplished, unless the tenant alleges that the time granted is excessive.

(b) For a violation of section 566.18, subdivision 6, paragraph (b) or (c), the tenant shall give written notice to the owner specifying the violation. The notice must be delivered personally or sent to the person or place where rent is normally paid. If the violation is not corrected within 14 days, the tenant may deposit the amount of rent due to the owner with the court administrator along with an affidavit specifying the violation. The court shall provide a simplified form affidavit for use under this section.

As long as proceedings are pending under this section, the tenant shall pay rent to the owner or as directed by the court and may not withhold rent in order to remedy a violation.

Subd. 3. [COUNTERCLAIM FOR POSSESSION.] The owner may file a counterclaim for possession of the premises in cases where the owner alleges that the tenant did not deposit the full amount of rent with the court administrator. The court must set the date for a hearing on the counterclaim not less than seven nor more than 14 days from the day of filing the counterclaim. If the rent escrow hearing and the hearing on the counterclaim for possession cannot be heard on the same day, the matters must be consolidated and heard on the date scheduled for the hearing on the counterclaim. The contents of the counterclaim for possession must meet the requirements for a complaint in unlawful detainer under section 566.05. The owner must serve the counterclaim as provided in section 566.06, except that the affidavits of service or mailing may be brought to the hearing rather than filed with the court before the hearing. The court shall provide a simplified form for use under this section.

Subd. 4. [DEFENSES.] The defenses provided in section 566.23 are defenses to an action brought under this section.

Subd. 5. [FILING FEE.] The court administrator may charge a filing fee in the amount set for complaints and counterclaims in conciliation court subject to the filing of an inability to pay affidavit.

Subd. 6. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] A hearing must be held within ten to 14 days of the day a tenant deposits rent with the court administrator. If the cost of remedying the violation, as estimated by the tenant, is within the jurisdictional limit for conciliation court, the court administrator shall notify the owner and the tenant of the time and place of the hearing by first class mail. The tenant shall provide the court administrator with the owner's name and address. If under section 504.22, the owner has disclosed a post office box as the owner's address, then notice of the hearing may be mailed to the post office box. If the cost of remedying the violation, as estimated by the tenant, is above the jurisdictional limit for conciliation court, the tenant shall serve the notice of hearing according to the rules of civil procedure. The notice of hearing must specify the amount the tenant has deposited with the court administrator and must inform the owner that possession of the premises will not be an issue at the hearing unless the owner files a counter claim for possession or an action under sections 566.01 to 566.17.

Subd. 7. [RELEASE OF RENT PRIOR TO HEARING.] If the tenant gives written notice to the court administrator that the code violation has been remedied, the court administrator shall release the rent to the owner and, unless the hearing has been consolidated with another action pending in housing court, shall cancel the hearing. If the tenant and the owner enter into a written agreement signed by both parties apportioning the rent between them, the court administrator shall release the rent in accordance with the written agreement and cancel the hearing.

Subd. 8. [CONSOLIDATION WITH UNLAWFUL DETAINER.] Actions under this section and actions in unlawful detainer brought under sections 566.01 to 566.17 that involve the same parties must be consolidated and heard on the date scheduled for the unlawful detainer.

Subd. 9. [HEARING.] The hearing shall be conducted by a court without a jury. A certified copy of an inspection report meets the requirements of Rule 803(8) of the Rules of Evidence as an exception to the rule against hearsay, and meets the requirements of Rules 901 and 902 of the Rules of Evidence as to authentication.

Subd. 10. [JUDGMENT.] (a) Upon finding that a violation exists, the court may, in its discretion, do any or all of the following:

(1) order relief as provided in section 566.25, paragraph (a), (b), (d), or (e), including retroactive rent abatement;

(2) order that all or a portion of the rent in escrow be released for the purpose of remedying the violation;

(3) order that rent be deposited with the court as it becomes due to the owner or abate future rent until the owner remedies the violation; or

(4) impose fines as required in section 19.

(b) When a proceeding under this section has been consolidated with a counterclaim for possession or an action in unlawful detainer under sections 566.01 to 566.17, and the owner prevails, the tenant may redeem the tenancy as provided in section 504.02.

(c) When a proceeding under this section has been consolidated with a counterclaim for possession or an action under an unlawful detainer under sections 566.01 to 566.17 on the grounds of nonpayment, the court may not require the tenant to pay the owner's filing fee as a condition of retaining possession of the premises when the tenant has deposited with the court the full amount of money found by the court to be owing the owner.

Subd. 11. [RELEASE OF RENT AFTER HEARING.] Upon finding, after a hearing on the matter has been held, that no violation exists in the building, or that the tenant did not deposit the full amount of rent due with the court administrator, the court shall order the immediate release of the rent to the owner. Upon finding that a violation existed but was remedied between the commencement of the action and the hearing, the court may order rent abatement and shall release the rent to the parties accordingly. Any rent found owing the tenant must be released to the tenant.

Subd. 12. [RETIATION; WAIVER; RIGHTS AS ADDITIONAL.] The provisions of section 566.28 apply to proceedings under this section. The tenant rights under this section may not be waived or modified and are in addition to and do not limit other rights or remedies which may be available to the tenant and owner, except as provided in subdivision 2.

Sec. 19. [566.36] [VIOLATIONS OF BUILDING REPAIR ORDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in section 566.18, apply to subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [NONCOMPLIANCE; FINES.] Upon finding an owner has failed to comply with a court order for building repairs, the court shall fine the owner according to the following schedule:

(1) $250 for the first violation of a court order;

(2) $500 for the second violation of the same court order; and

(3) $750 for the third and subsequent violations of the same court order.

The court must find that there has been a willful disregard of a court order before a fine may be imposed. An owner fined twice in a period of three years for failure to comply with a court order for repairs on any building owned is guilty of a gross misdemeanor for a third or subsequent violation and may be sentenced accordingly.

Subd. 3. [FINES COLLECTED.] Fines collected under this section in Hennepin county must be used for expenses of the district court, fourth judicial district, and housing calendar consolidation project. Fines collected under this section in Ramsey county must be used for expenses of the district court, second judicial district, and housing calendar consolidation project.

Sec. 20. [DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS.]

The establishment of the housing calendar consolidation project under section 17, is a demonstration project to evaluate the effectiveness of coordinating the adjudication of all housing-related cases in one court.

Sec. 21. [APPROPRIATION; HOUSING CALENDAR PILOT PROJECT.]

Subd. 5. [CITIES OF ST. PAUL AND DULUTH APPROVAL.] (a) The cities of St. Paul and Duluth may approve the preliminary revitalization program developed through a process that includes the citizen participation required under subdivision 2 only after holding a public hearing. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhoods not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. After the public hearing and after the city has incorporated any changes into the preliminary program as a result of the public hearing, the city may approve the preliminary program and shall submit the approved preliminary program for final approval to the review board.

(b) After approval, the cities of St. Paul and Duluth shall submit the preliminary program to the commissioner, the Minnesota housing finance agency, and the state planning agency for their comments. The state agencies have 30 days to provide comments to the preliminary program. State agency comments must be submitted in writing to the review board.

(c) The cities of St. Paul and Duluth shall each establish a city urban revitalization action program review board whose purpose is to review the preliminary program submitted by the city, and approve all or portions of the program. The review board consists of two city council members who represent targeted neighborhoods, two members representing the city's business community appointed by the chamber of commerce representing businesses in the city, and three residents of targeted neighborhoods appointed by the city council. Two members of the house of representatives and one member of the state senate appointed by the city's legislative delegation shall be nonvoting members of the review board. Non-voting legislative members of the review board shall represent targeted neighborhoods. A member of the review board who is appointed as a targeted neighborhood resident may not be a member

Persons who provide staff assistance to the review board may not be city employees or in any way involved in a formal or informal organization representing residents of a targeted neighborhood. The city may use state money available under section 4 to pay for the costs of staffing the review board.

(d) The review board shall review the city's preliminary program and approve all or portions of the program. In reviewing the program, the review board shall take into account any comments submitted by state agencies under paragraph (b). The review board may approve all of the preliminary program and submit it to the city council for certification under paragraph (e) or submit for certification only those specific portions of the program approved by the review board. If the review board does not approve a portion of the program, it shall specify in writing to the city the reasons for not approving that portion of the program and any recommendations for changes. If the review board determines that a portion of the program needs significant changes, it may require the city to implement the community participation process and state review under this subdivision for making changes to that portion of the program.

(e) The city council may, by formal resolution, certify only those portions of a program approved by the review board under paragraph (d). A certification by the city council that all or portions of a revitalization program has been approved by the review board must be provided to the commissioner together with a copy of the approved portions of the program. A copy of the approved portions of the program must be submitted to the Minnesota housing finance agency and the state planning agency.

State money may be paid to the city only to the extent that the appropriation limit for the city specified in subdivision 2 is not exceeded. Once the state money has been paid to the city, it becomes targeted neighborhood money for use by the city in accordance with an adopted revitalization program and subject only to the restrictions on its use in sections 1 to 8.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION.] Each city of the first class, as defined in section 410.01, may receive a part of the appropriations made available that is the proportion that the population of such city bears to the combined population of such cities of the first class. One city may agree to reduce its entitlement amount and to make it available to another city. For the purposes of this subdivision the population of each city is determined according to the most recent estimates available to the commissioner. Interest earned by a city from money paid to the city must be repaid to the commissioner annually unless the revitalization program identifies the interest as necessary to implement the revitalization program and the requirement for city matching money is satisfied with respect to the interest.

Subd. 3. [CITY MATCHING MONEY; DRAWDOWN AND RESTRICTION ON USE OF STATE MONEY.] A city may spend state money only if the revitalization program identifies city matching money to be used to implement the program in an amount equal to 25 percent of the state appropriation paid to the city. For the purposes of section 462C.02, subdivision 9, a targeted neighborhood is considered a "targeted area."

Subd. 2. [COMMUNITY INITIATIVES PROGRAM.] For purposes of this subdivision, "community" means all or part of a targeted neighborhood. Such an organization may also represent residents from a contiguous neighborhood. The grants, loans, or other forms of public assistance may be used for the planning or implementation of activities to be included in the revitalization program for the community. The grants, loans, or other forms of public assistance used must contain the terms the city considers proper to implement a revitalization program for the community.

Subd. 3. [GRANTS AND LOANS.] In addition to the authority granted by other law, a city may make grants, loans, and other forms of public assistance to individuals, for-profit and nonprofit corporations, and other organizations to implement a revitalization program. Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL AUTHORITY.] In addition to the authority granted in subdivisions 1, 2, and 3, and in section 6; a city may expend up to ten percent of its targeted neighborhood money to fund the cost of implementing the provisions of sections 463.15 to 463.26 in areas of the city located outside the targeted neighborhood. If the city uses funds for such purposes, it must describe the use of the funds in the revitalization program.

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE USES OF TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD MONEY.] The city may spend targeted neighborhood money for any purpose authorized by subdivision 1, 2, 3, or 4, or section 6 except that an amount equal to at least 50 percent of the state payment under section 4 made to the city must be used for housing activities. Use of target neighborhood money must be authorized in a revitalization program.

Sec. 6. [469.206] [URBAN HOMESTEADING PROGRAM.]

The grants must be used by the organization to buy eligible properties and pay for the costs of rehabilitating those properties. Up to $30,000 of the grant award may be used for the administrative costs of the organization and for other costs associated with the acquisition and sale of properties under this program including the payment of taxes on the property during the period between the purchase and sale of the property.

Subd. 4. [CITY POWERS; DUTIES.] (a) The city shall:

(1) establish criteria for selecting which neighborhood organizations that apply for grants under this section receive the grants;

(2) establish criteria for targeting the program to homebuyers who are at risk which is defined to include families and individuals who are homeless, receiving public assistance, have recently experienced chemical abuse, are recently unemployed, are high school dropouts or otherwise have limited educational backgrounds, and other factors that might drive the family or individual away from becoming self-sufficient;

(i) attendance at home maintenance classes organized by the neighborhood organization;

(6) work with organizations in seeking waivers from building code requirements that may be barriers to providing affordable housing but do not jeopardize the structural integrity or safety of the property;

(7) monitor financial and other activities related to this program of the organizations that have received grants under this section including auditing the financial records of the organizations.

(b) The city may require that all contracts related to properties under the program, including the contract for deed under subdivision 8, be approved by the city before the execution of the contract. The city may also require appraisals of property under the program.

Subd. 5. [NEIGHBORHOOD ORGANIZATION; CAPACITY.] The neighborhood organization shall demonstrate to the city that it has the capacity to:

(1) organize and continue an ongoing relationship with the neighborhood volunteer resident advisory boards required under subdivision 6;

(2) provide the necessary staff to administer the program on the neighborhood level for an extended period of time;

(3) link homebuyers who buy property under this program to social services that may be required to move the homebuyer toward self-sufficiency and to maintain the good neighbor provisions of the contract for deed under subdivision 8;

(4) select and acquire property that meets the requirements established for this program and contract with businesses or organizations for the rehabilitation of the property;

Subd. 6. [NEIGHBORHOOD VOLUNTEER RESIDENT ADVISORY BOARD.] Each neighborhood organization shall establish a neighborhood volunteer resident advisory board for each designated area. The advisory board must consist of residents of the designated area who reflect the racial composition of the area and who have demonstrated a commitment to strengthening their neighborhood and assisting homebuyers. At least 30 percent of the advisory board must be minority residents. The advisory board shall:

(1) recommend to the organization properties that may be acquired for the program in the designated area;

(2) consent to the purchase of properties by the organization for the program;

(3) recommend to the organization the selection of homebuyers;

(4) make recommendations for any termination of a contract for deed made under subdivision 11;

(5) assist and nurture the homebuyer by ensuring the homebuyer receives training in home maintenance and the necessary social services to move the homebuyer toward self-sufficiency; and

(6) assist the organization in monitoring the homebuyer's progress in maintaining the good neighborhood provisions of the contract for deed.

Subd. 7. [PURCHASE AND REHABILITATION.] A neighborhood organization may acquire up to five properties in a designated area with the consent of the advisory board for that area. The organization must rehabilitate these properties to the standards established by the city. All rehabilitation of the properties except menial labor must be contracted out to businesses or organizations experienced in rehabilitation of residential property. The total maximum cost of the acquisition, rehabilitation, closing costs, and back taxes must be no greater than $50,000 per individual property.

Subd. 8. [SALE OF PROPERTY TO HOMEBUYER.] The neighborhood organization may sell rehabilitated property to homebuyers. The organization's selection of the homebuyer must have the recommendation of the advisory board in the designated area in which the property is located. The organization may not discriminate against the homebuyer in the sale of the property based on race or sex. A contract for deed agreement between the homebuyer and the organization must be entered into for each sale of property under this subdivision. The terms and other provisions of the contract for deed must be established by the city and the following requirements must be included in the contract:

(1) the organization shall retain title to the property until the entire purchase price is paid to the organization;

(2) the purchase price paid by the homebuyer must be equal to the total costs of acquiring and rehabilitating the property;

(5) the organization shall retain the option to require verification of a homebuyer's income;

(6) the organization shall retain the option to require escrow for payment of property taxes, hazard insurance, and utilities; or the organization may require a verification that payments of property taxes, hazard insurance, and utilities have been made by the homeowner;

(7) the homebuyer may prepay the entire purchase price at any time during the term of the contract for deed and the title to the property must be transferred to the homeowner at the time of prepayment;

(8) the organization has the option to repurchase the property according to the terms established under subdivision 10;

(9) the homebuyer agrees to meet the good neighbor standards set by the city; and

(10) any other requirements established by the city that meet the requirements and purposes of this section.

Subd. 9. [APPLICATION OF CONTRACT FOR DEED PAYMENTS.] (a) The monthly payments required under subdivision 8 must be applied or distributed in the following order:

(b) The city may audit the financial records of the organization to determine if the organization is collecting reasonable administrative costs from the monthly payment.

(c) If the monthly payment is not sufficient to pay the property taxes, utility payments, and hazard insurance, the organization may use money from the seed account, money received from the grant award under subdivision 3, or other money of the organization to pay the difference. An amount equal to the amount that would offset the difference between the monthly payment and payments for property taxes, utilities, and insurance must be added to the contract purchase price.

(d) If the monthly payment is not sufficient to pay the taxes, utilities, and hazard insurance, the homebuyer shall agree to work toward increasing the homebuyer's income so that monthly payments are sufficient to pay the taxes, utilities, and hazard insurance. If the organization determines that the homebuyer is not making sufficient effort to increase the homebuyer's income after one year, the organization may find that the homebuyer has failed to meet good neighbor standards and the contract for deed may be terminated.

Subd. 10. [RIGHT TO REPURCHASE.] The neighborhood organization has the option to repurchase the property if the homebuyer rents, assigns, vacates, transfers, or offers to sell the property within 20 years of the purchase of the property from the organization. This option to repurchase does not apply to a transfer of the property to a surviving joint tenant or heir of the homebuyer. If the organization chooses not to exercise its option to repurchase the property, the city may repurchase the property.

The repurchase price paid by the organization or the city under this subdivision must equal the sum of:

(1) the total amount paid by the homeowner to the organization under the contract for deed;

(2) the product of the amount in clause (1) and the increase in inflation based on the housing component of the federal Consumer Price Index;

(3) the value of any major improvements to the property that were paid directly by the homebuyer and were not part of the monthly payment required under subdivision 8; and

(4) the sweat equity the homeowner has contributed to the property.

The amount of the homebuyer's sweat equity will be determined annually between the organization and homebuyer and must be an amendment to the contract for deed required under subdivision 8. The total repurchase price may not exceed 150 percent of the amount in clause (1).

Subd. 11. [TERMINATION OF CONTRACT FOR DEED.] The contract for deed under subdivision 8 may be terminated by the neighborhood organization, upon the recommendation of the advisory board, if any of the following occurs:

(1) the homebuyer fails to make timely payments required by the contract for deed;

(2) the homebuyer refuses to provide verification of income at the request of the organization;

(3) the homebuyer fails to adequately maintain the property in compliance with all state, county, or municipal building, fire, health, or other codes and standards applicable to housing;

(4) the homebuyer is found to be guilty of a criminal action relating to controlled substances, firearms, assault, or other serious offenses as determined by the city; or

(5) the homebuyer fails to meet the good neighbor standards established by the city.

If the organization terminates the contract for deed, the homebuyer may be evicted from the property. The homebuyer is not entitled to any compensation for the payments made for the property when a contract for deed is terminated.

Subd. 12. [SUCCESSOR TO NEIGHBORHOOD ORGANIZATION.] If a neighborhood organization is dissolved for any purpose or if the city determines that the organization is unable to administer the program; the city is the legal successor in any properties and accounts related to the program, and all contracts, property, and liabilities of the organization related to the program are the contracts, property, and liabilities of the city.

Sec. 7. [469.207] [HAZARDOUS PROPERTY PENALTY.]

A city may assess a penalty up to one percent of the market value of real property, including any building located within the city that the city determines to be hazardous as defined in section 463.15, subdivision 3. The city shall send a written notice to the address to which the property tax statement is sent at least 90 days before it may assess the penalty. If the owner of the property has not paid the penalty and fixed the property within 90 days after receiving notice of the penalty, the penalty is considered delinquent and is increased by 25 percent each 60 days the penalty is not paid and the property remains hazardous. For the purposes of this section, a penalty that is delinquent is considered a delinquent property tax and subject to chapters 279, 280, and 281, in the same manner as delinquent property taxes.

If a property that has had a hazardous property penalty assessed against it under this section and is subsequently improved with, or otherwise benefits from, targeted neighborhood money, then an amount equal to the total penalty assessed against the property under this section must be spent from the general fund of the city in the targeted neighborhood for purposes that meet the requirements of the program.

Sec. 8. [469.208] [ANNUAL AUDIT AND REPORT.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL FINANCIAL AUDIT.] In 1989 and subsequent years, at the end of each calendar year, the legislative auditor shall conduct a financial audit to review the spending of state money under sections 1 to 7. Before spending state money to implement a revitalization program, the city must consult with the legislative auditor to determine appropriate accounting methods and principles that will assist the legislative auditor in conducting its financial audit. The results of the financial audit must be submitted to the legislative audit commission, the commissioner, the state planning agency, and the Minnesota housing finance agency.

Subd. 2. [ANNUAL REPORT.] A city that begins to implement a revitalization program in a calendar year must, by March 1 of the succeeding calendar year, provide a detailed report on the revitalization program or programs being implemented in the city. The report must describe the status of the program implementation and analyze whether the intended outcomes identified in section 3, subdivision 1, clause (4), are being achieved. The report must include at least the following:

(1) the number of housing units, including lost units, removed, created, lost, replaced, relocated, or assisted as a result of the program. The level of rent of the units and the income of the households affected must be included in the report;

(2) the number and type of commercial establishments removed, created, and assisted as a result of a revitalization program. The report must include information regarding the number of new jobs created by category, whether the jobs are full-time or part-time, and the salary or wage levels of both new and expanded jobs in the affected commercial establishments;

(3) a description of a statement of the cost of the public improvement projects that are part of the program and the number of jobs created per each $20,000 of funds spent on commercial projects and applicable public improvement projects;

(4) the increase in the tax capacity for the city as a result of the assistance to commercial and housing assistance; and

(5) the amount of private investment that is a result of the use of public money in a targeted neighborhood.

The report must be submitted to the commissioner, the Minnesota housing finance agency, the state planning agency, and the legislative audit commission, and must be available to the public.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 282.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CLASSIFICATION; USE; EXCHANGE.] It is the general policy of this state to encourage the best use of tax-forfeited lands, recognizing that some lands in public ownership should be retained and managed for public benefits while other lands should be returned to private ownership. All parcels of land becoming the property of the state in trust under the provisions of any law now existing or hereafter enacted declaring the forfeiture of lands to the state for taxes, shall be classified by the county board of the county wherein such parcels lie as conservation or nonconservation. Such classification shall be made with consideration, among other things, to the present use of adjacent lands, the productivity of the soil, the character of forest or other growth, accessibility of lands to established roads, schools, and other public services, their peculiar suitability or desirability for particular uses and the suitability of the forest resources on the land for multiple use, sustained yield management. Such classification, furthermore, shall aid: to encourage and foster a mode of land utilization that will facilitate the economical and adequate provision of transportation, roads, water supply, drainage, sanitation, education, and recreation; to facilitate reduction of governmental expenditures; to conserve and develop the natural resources; and to foster and develop agriculture and other industries in the districts and places best suited thereto.

In making such classification the county board may make use of such data and information as may be made available by any office or department of the federal, state, or local governments, or by any other person or agency possessing information pertinent thereto at the time such classification is made. Such lands may be reclassified from time to time as the county board may deem necessary or desirable, except as to conservation lands held by the state free from any trust in favor of any taxing district.

If any such lands are located within the boundaries of any organized town, with taxable valuation in excess of $20,000, or incorporated municipality, the classification or reclassification and sale shall first be approved by the town board of such town or the governing body of such municipality insofar as the lands located therein are concerned. The town board of the town or the governing body of the municipality will be deemed to have approved the classification or reclassification and sale if the county board is not notified of the disapproval of the classification or reclassification and sale within 90 days of the date the request for approval was transmitted to the town board of the town or governing body of the municipality. If the town board or governing body desires to acquire any parcel lying in the town or municipality by procedures authorized in this subdivision, it shall, within 90 days of the request for classification or reclassification and sale, file a written application with the county board to withhold the parcel from public sale. The county board shall then withhold the parcel from public sale for one year.

Any tax-forfeited lands may be sold by the county board to any organized or incorporated governmental subdivision of the state for any public purpose for which such subdivision is authorized to acquire property or may be released from the trust in favor of the taxing districts upon application of any state agency for any authorized use at not less than their value as determined by the county board. The commissioner of revenue shall have power to convey by deed in the name of the state any tract of tax-forfeited land held in trust in favor of the taxing districts, to any governmental subdivision for any authorized public use, provided that an application therefor shall be submitted to the commissioner with a statement of facts as to the use to be made of such tract and the need therefor and the recommendation of the county board; and provided further, that upon application of a political subdivision and the filing with the commissioner of revenue and the county board of a resolution adopted by the governing body of the political subdivision finding that the conveyance of a tract of tax-forfeited land to the political subdivision is necessary to provide for the redevelopment of land as productive taxable property, the commissioner of revenue shall convey by deed in the name of the state the tract of land to the political subdivision. The deed of conveyance shall be upon a form approved by the attorney general and shall be conditioned upon continued use for the purpose stated in the application, provided, however, that if the governing body of such governmental subdivision by resolution determines that some other public use shall be made of such lands, and such change of use is approved by the county board and an application for such change of use is made to, and approved by, the commissioner, such changed use may be made of such lands without the necessity of the governing body conveying the lands back to the state and securing a new conveyance from the state to the governmental subdivision for such new public use.

Whenever any governmental subdivision to which any tax-forfeited land has been conveyed for a specified public use as provided in this section shall fail to put such land to such use, or to some other authorized public use as provided herein, or shall abandon such use, the governing body of the subdivision shall authorize the proper officers to convey the same, or such portion thereof not required for an authorized public use, to the state of Minnesota, and such officers shall execute a deed of such conveyance forthwith, which conveyance shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner and in form approved by the attorney general, provided, however, that a sale, lease, transfer or other conveyance of such lands by a housing and redevelopment authority, a port authority, an economic development authority, or a city as authorized by sections 469.001 to 469.047 chapter 469 or by sections 1 to 8 shall not be an abandonment of such use and such lands shall not be reconveyed to the state nor shall they revert to the state. A certificate made by a housing and redevelopment authority, a port authority, an economic development authority, or a city referring to a conveyance by it and stating that the conveyance has been made as authorized by sections 469.001 to 469.047 chapter 469 or by sections 1 to 8 may be filed with the county recorder or registrar of titles, and the rights of reverter in favor of the state provided by this subdivision will then terminate. No vote of the people shall be required for such conveyance. In case any such land shall not be so conveyed to the state, the commissioner of revenue shall by written instrument, in form approved by the attorney general, declare the same to have reverted to the state, and shall serve a notice thereof, with a copy of the declaration, by certified mail upon the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision concerned, provided, that no declaration of reversion shall be made earlier than five years from the date of conveyance for failure to put such land to such use or from the date of abandonment of such use if such lands have been put to such use. The commissioner shall file the original declaration in the commissioner's office, with verified proof of service as herein required. The governmental subdivision may appeal to the district court of the county in which the land lies by filing with the court administrator a notice of appeal, specifying the grounds of appeal and the description of the land involved, mailing a copy thereof by certified mail to the commissioner of revenue, and filing a copy thereof for record with the county recorder or registrar of titles, all within 30 days after the mailing of the notice of reversion. The appeal shall be tried by the court in like manner as a civil action. If no appeal is taken as herein provided, the declaration of reversion shall be final. The commissioner of revenue shall file for record with the county recorder or registrar of titles, of the county within which the land lies, a certified copy of the declaration of reversion and proof of service.

Any city of the first class now or hereafter having a population of 450,000, or over, or its board of park commissioners, which has acquired tax-forfeited land for a specified public use pursuant to the terms of this section, may convey said land in exchange for other land of substantially equal worth located in said city of the first class, provided that the land conveyed to said city of the first class now or hereafter having a population of 450,000, or over, or its board of park commissioners, in exchange shall be subject to the public use and reversionary provisions of this section; the tax-forfeited land so conveyed shall thereafter be free and discharged from the public use and reversionary provisions of this section, provided that said exchange shall in no way affect the mineral or mineral rights of the state of Minnesota, if any, in the lands so exchanged.

ARTICLE 6

CENTRAL CITY HOUSING REHABILITATION

Section 1. Laws 1974, chapter 285, section 1, is amended to read:

Section 1. [MINNEAPOLIS, CITY OF; HOUSING ACQUISITION AND REHABILITATION LOAN AND GRANT PROGRAM; PURPOSE.] The legislature of the state of Minnesota finds that preservation of the quality of life in a major metropolitan city is dependent upon the preservation of adequate housing, that many houses in the city of Minneapolis do not meet the applicable housing code or otherwise need rehabilitation or modernizing, that there is a need for a comprehensive housing rehabilitation program in the city of Minneapolis which will complement any statewide housing rehabilitation program, that some home owners are unable to afford any rehabilitation expenses, that many home owners are unable to afford housing rehabilitation loans at market rate of interest, and that because the availability of mortgage credit for housing rehabilitation is limited some home owners cannot obtain such credit, and that reinvestment in the housing stock by rehabilitating and updating homes is necessary to maintain the stability of neighborhoods in the city. The legislature further finds that the construction of housing to replace individual dilapidated and obsolete buildings, for which rehabilitation is not economically feasible, is necessary to increase the stability and maintain the value of housing in established neighborhoods.

Sec. 2. Laws 1974, chapter 285, section 2, is amended to read:

Sec. 2. [CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS; HOUSING REHABILITATION LOAN PROGRAM.] The city of Minneapolis is authorized to develop and administer a housing rehabilitation loan program with respect to property located anywhere within its boundaries on such terms and conditions as it determines; provided that in approving applications for this such a program, the following factors shall be considered:

- (1) The availability of other governmental programs affordable by the applicant;
- (2) The availability and affordability of private market financing;

(3) Whether the housing is required, pursuant to an urban renewal program or a code enforcement program, to be repaired, improved, or rehabilitated;

(4) Whether the housing is required, pursuant to a court order issued under Minnesota Statutes, 1973 Supplement, Section 566.25, Clauses (b), (c), and (e), to be repaired, improved, or rehabilitated;

(5) Whether the housing has been determined to be uninsurable because of physical hazards after inspection pursuant to a statewide property insurance plan approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development under Title XII of the National Housing Act; and further provided that all loans and grants shall be issued primarily for rehabilitating housing so that it meets applicable housing codes.

(6) Whether rehabilitation of the housing will maintain or improve the value of the housing and will help to stabilize the neighborhood in which the housing is located.

Sec. 3. Laws 1974, chapter 285, is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 2a. [NEW SINGLE FAMILY RESIDENCES.]

Any housing rehabilitation loan program undertaken under section 2 may also provide for the city to make or purchase loans made to finance the acquisition of single family residences that have been newly constructed in established neighborhoods on land owned by the city or any agency of the city. For purposes of this section, land shall be considered to be owned by the city if the city or one of its agencies previously owned the land and conveyed it to an individual under a development agreement in which the individual has agreed to construct single family housing on such land. In approving applications for a loan to be made under this section, the following factors shall be considered:

(1) the availability and affordability of other governmental programs or private market financing; and

(2) whether the construction of such housing enhances the stability of the neighborhood in which it is located.

Sec. 4. Laws 1974, chapter 285, section 3, is amended to read:

Sec. 3. [CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS; HOUSING REHABILITATION GRANT PROGRAM.] The city of Minneapolis is authorized to develop and administer a housing rehabilitation grant program with respect to property within its boundaries, on such terms and conditions as it determines; provided that in approving applications for grants under this program, all of the considerations and limitations enumerated in section 2 for loans must be considered in making grants under this program, and the following factors must also be considered:

(1) Whether the housing unit is a single family dwelling or homesteaded unit and

(2) Whether the applicant is a person of low income; and further provided that the city council of the city of Minneapolis shall by ordinance set forth the regulations for this its grant program; and further provided that the dollar value of grants made shall not exceed five percent of the total value of the bonds issued for the loan and grant program together, and that all grants shall be made primarily to rehabilitate housing so that it meets applicable housing codes.

Sec. 5. Laws 1974, chapter 285, section 4, is amended to read:

Sec. 4. [ISSUANCE OF BONDS.] To finance the programs authorized in sections 2, 2a, and 3 of this act, the governing body of the city of Minneapolis may by resolution authorize, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the city of Minneapolis in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475. The total amount of all bonds outstanding for the programs shall not exceed $10,000,000 $25,000,000. The amount of all bonds issued shall not be included in the net indebtedness of the city for the purpose of any charter or statutory debt limitation.

Sec. 6. [SAINT PAUL; HOUSING ACQUISITION AND REHABILITATION LOAN AND GRANT PROGRAM; PURPOSE.]

The legislature of the state of Minnesota finds that preservation of the quality of life in a major metropolitan city is dependent upon the preservation of adequate housing, that many houses in the city of Saint Paul do not meet the applicable housing code or otherwise need rehabilitation or modernizing, that there is a need for a comprehensive housing rehabilitation program in the city of Saint Paul which will complement any statewide housing rehabilitation program, that some homeowners are unable to afford any rehabilitation expenses, that many homeowners are unable to afford housing rehabilitation loans at market rate of interest, that because the availability of mortgage credit for housing rehabilitation is limited some homeowners cannot obtain such credit, and that reinvestment in the housing stock by rehabilitating and updating homes is necessary to maintain the stability of neighborhoods in the city. The legislature further finds that the construction of housing to replace individual dilapidated and obsolete buildings, for which rehabilitation is not economically feasible, is necessary to increase the stability and maintain the value of housing in established neighborhoods.

Sec. 7. [CITY OF SAINT PAUL; HOUSING REHABILITATION LOAN PROGRAM.]

The city of Saint Paul is authorized to develop and administer a housing rehabilitation loan program with respect to property located anywhere within its boundaries on such terms and conditions as it determines; provided that in approving applications for such a program, the following factors shall be considered:

(1) the availability of other governmental programs affordable by the applicant;

(2) the availability and affordability of private market financing;

(3) whether the housing is required, under an urban renewal program or a code enforcement program, to be repaired, improved, or rehabilitated;

(4) whether the housing is required, under a court order issued under Minnesota Statutes, section 566.25, clauses (b), (c), and (e), to be repaired, improved, or rehabilitated;

(5) whether the housing has been determined to be uninsurable because of physical hazards after inspection pursuant to a statewide property insurance plan approved by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development under title XII of the National Housing Act; and

(6) whether rehabilitation of the housing will maintain or improve the value of the housing and will help to stabilize the neighborhood in which the housing is located.

Sec. 8. [NEW SINGLE FAMILY RESIDENCES.]

Any housing rehabilitation loan program undertaken under section 7 may also provide for the city to make or purchase loans made to finance the acquisition of single family residences that have been newly constructed in established neighborhoods on land owned by the city or any agency of the city. For purposes of this section, land shall be considered to be owned by the city if the city or one of its agencies previously owned the land and conveyed it to an individual under a development agreement in which the individual has agreed to construct single family housing on such land. In approving applications for a loan to be made under this section, the following factors shall be considered:

(1) the availability and affordability of other governmental programs or private market financing; and

(2) whether the construction of such housing enhances the stability of the neighborhood in which it is located.

Sec. 9. [CITY OF SAINT PAUL; HOUSING REHABILITATION GRANT PROGRAM.]

The city of Saint Paul is authorized to develop and administer a housing rehabilitation grant program with respect to property within its boundaries, on such terms and conditions as it determines; provided that in approving applications for grants under this program, all of the considerations and limitations enumerated in section 7 for loans must be considered and the following factors must also be considered:

(1) whether the housing unit is a single family dwelling or homesteaded unit; and

(2) whether the applicant is a person of low income; and further provided that the city council of the city of Saint Paul shall by ordinance set forth the regulations for its grant program; and further provided that the dollar value of grants made shall not exceed five percent of the total value of the bonds issued for the loan and grant program together, and that all grants shall be made primarily to rehabilitate housing so that it meets applicable housing codes.

Sec. 10. [ISSUANCE OF BONDS.]

To finance the programs authorized in sections 6 to 9, the governing body of the city of Saint Paul may by resolution authorize, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the city of Saint Paul in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. The total amount of all bonds outstanding for the programs shall not exceed $25,000,000. The amount of all bonds issued shall not be included in the net indebtedness of the city for the purpose of any charter or statutory debt limitation.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE; REHABILITATION LOAN AND GRANT PROGRAM.]

Sections 1 to 10 are effective the day after enactment without local approval in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.023, subdivision 1, clause (a).

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 462A.05, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. It may engage in housing programs for low and moderate income elderly, handicapped, or developmentally disabled persons, as defined by the agency, to provide grants or loans, with or without interest, for

(1) accessibility improvements to residences occupied by elderly persons;

(4) housing sponsors, as defined by the agency, to demonstrate the potential for home equity conversion in Minnesota for the elderly, in both rural and urban areas, and to determine the need in those equity conversions for consumer safeguards.

In making the grants or loans, the agency shall determine the terms and conditions of repayment and the appropriate security, if any, should repayment be required. The agency may provide technical assistance to sponsors of home sharing programs or may contract or delegate the provision of the technical assistance in accordance with section 462A.07, subdivision 12.

Housing sponsors who receive funding through these programs shall provide homeowners and tenants participating in a home sharing program with information regarding their rights and obligations as they relate to federal and state tax law including, but not limited to, taxable rental income, homestead credit under chapter 273, and the property tax refund act under chapter 290A.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.007, is amended to read:

469.007 [POWERS OF COUNTY AND MULTICOUNTY AUTHORITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [POWERS.] A county or multicounty authority and its commissioners shall, within the area of operation of the authority, have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, privileges, immunities, and limitations as are provided for housing and redevelopment authorities created for cities, and for the commissioners of those authorities. The provisions of law applicable to housing and redevelopment authorities created for cities and their commissioners shall be applicable to county and multicounty authorities and their commissioners, except as clearly indicated otherwise.

Subd. 2. [POWERS AS TO HOUSING DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS.] When a county or multicounty authority undertakes any housing project or housing development project involving the acquisition of multifamily housing rental properties that (1) were financed under the Federal Section 8 or Section 236 programs, or (2) are designed to be affordable to persons or families with incomes not greater than 80 percent of median income for the metropolitan statistical area or nonmetropolitan county, and are located within any village, city, or township, the authority shall notify the governing body of such village, city, or township in writing of the location of such housing project or housing development project. If the governing body fails to take action on a housing project or housing development project in a writing which sets forth its reasons for such action within 30 days, the governing body shall be deemed to have approved the location of such housing project or housing development project for purposes of any special or general law requiring local approval of the location of housing projects and housing development projects undertaken by county or multicounty authorities.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.012, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE OF POWERS.] An authority shall be a public body corporate and politic and shall have all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of sections 469.001 to 469.047, except that the power to levy and collect taxes or special assessments is limited to the power provided in sections 469.027 to 469.033. Its powers include the following powers in addition to others granted in sections 469.001 to 469.047:

(6) within its area of operation, to acquire real or personal property or any interest therein by gifts, grant, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, bequest, devise, or otherwise, and by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, in the manner provided by chapter 117, to acquire real property which it may deem necessary for its purposes, after the adoption by it of a resolution declaring that the acquisition of the real property is necessary to eliminate one or more of the conditions found to exist in the resolution adopted pursuant to section 469.003 or to provide decent, safe, and sanitary housing for persons of low and moderate income, or is necessary to carry out a redevelopment project. Real property needed or convenient for a project may be acquired by the authority for the project by condemnation pursuant to this section. This includes any property devoted to a public use, whether or not held in trust, notwithstanding that the property may have been previously acquired by condemnation or is owned by a public utility corporation, because the public use in conformity with the provisions of sections 469.001 to 469.047 shall be deemed a superior public use. Property devoted to a public use may be so acquired only if the governing body of the municipality has approved its acquisition by the authority. An award of compen-

(7) within its area of operation, and without the adoption of an urban renewal plan, to acquire, by all means as set forth in clause (6) but without the adoption of a resolution provided for in clause (6), real property, and to demolish, remove, rehabilitate, or reconstruct the buildings and improvements or construct new buildings and improvements thereon, or to so provide through other means as set forth in Laws 1974, chapter 228, or to grade, fill, and construct foundations or otherwise prepare the site for improvements. The authority may dispose of the property pursuant to section 469.029, provided that the provisions of section 469.029 requiring conformance to an urban renewal plan shall not apply. The authority may finance these activities by means of the redevelopment project fund or by means of tax increments or tax increment bonds or by the methods of financing provided for in section 469.033 or by means of contributions from the municipality provided for in section 469.041, clause (9), or by any combination of those means. Real property with buildings or improvements thereon shall only be acquired under this clause when the buildings or improvements are substandard. The exercise of the power of eminent domain under this clause shall be limited to real property which contains buildings and improvements which are vacated and substandard. For the purpose of this clause, substandard buildings or improvements mean hazardous buildings as defined in section 463.15, subdivision 3, or buildings or improvements that are dilapidated or obsolescent, faultily designed, lack adequate ventilation, light, or sanitary facilities, or any combination of these or other factors that are detrimental to the safety or health of the community;

(8) within its area of operation, to determine the level of income constituting low or moderate family income. The authority may establish various income levels for various family sizes. In making its determination, the authority may consider income levels that may be established by the federal housing administration or a similar or successor federal agency for the purpose of federal loan guarantees or subsidies for persons of low or moderate income. The authority may use that determination as a basis for the maximum amount of income for admissions to housing development projects or housing projects owned or operated by it;

(9) to provide in federally assisted projects any relocation payments and assistance necessary to comply with the requirements of the Federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, and any amendments or supplements thereto;

(12) to make plans for carrying out a program of voluntary repair and rehabilitation of buildings and improvements, and plans for the enforcement of laws, codes, and regulations relating to the use of land and the use and occupancy of buildings and improvements, and to the compulsory repair, rehabilitation, demolition, or removal of buildings and improvements. The authority may develop, test, and report methods and techniques, and carry out demonstrations and other activities for the prevention and elimination of slums and blight;

(13) to borrow money or other property and accept contributions, grants, gifts, services, or other assistance from the federal government, the state government, state public bodies, or from any other public or private sources;

(14) to include in any contract for financial assistance with the federal government any conditions that the federal government may attach to its financial aid of a project, not inconsistent with purposes of sections 469.001 to 469.047, including obligating itself (which obligation shall be specifically enforceable and not constitute a mortgage, notwithstanding any other laws) to convey to the federal government the project to which the contract relates upon the occurrence of a substantial default with respect to the covenants or conditions to which the authority is subject; to provide in the contract that, in case of such conveyance, the federal government may complete, operate, manage, lease, convey, or otherwise deal with the project until the defaults are cured if the federal government agrees in the contract to reconvey to the authority the project as then constituted when the defaults have been cured;

(18) to carry out studies of the housing and redevelopment needs within its area of operation and of the meeting of those needs. This includes study of data on population and family groups and their distribution according to income groups, the amount and quality of available housing and its distribution according to rentals and sales prices, employment, wages, desirable patterns for land use and community growth, and other factors affecting the local housing and redevelopment needs and the meeting of those needs; to make the results of those studies and analyses available to the public and to building, housing, and supply industries;

(19) if a local public body does not have a planning agency or the planning agency has not produced a comprehensive or general community development plan, to make or cause to be made a plan to be used as a guide in the more detailed planning of housing and redevelopment areas;

(20) to lease or rent any dwellings, accommodations, lands, buildings, structures, or facilities included in any project and, subject to the limitations contained in sections 469.001 to 469.047 with respect to the rental of dwellings in housing projects, to establish and revise the rents or charges therefor;

“Subd. 4. [COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION.] (a) Each city must adopt a process to involve the residents in targeted neighborhoods in planning, developing, and implementing the community resources program. As part of the process, the city must ensure that the community-based process has sufficient resources to assist in the development of the program.

(b) Beginning with the program for 1991, each targeted neighborhood or group of targeted neighborhoods must have a strategic planning group whose members include residents of the targeted neighborhood. Each strategic planning group must be the same group designated for providing recommendations for the development of the urban revitalization action plan. The group must, as part of its responsibilities, develop a strategic plan that must include the activities that the planning group recommends as part of the community resource program. The strategic plan must also address how the community resource program activities will be integrated into a comprehensive approach toward meeting the needs of the neighborhood and its residents, including those activities proposed or included in the urban revitalization action program.

(c) The city must ensure that the strategic planning group required under paragraph (b) is established. An existing group or organization which includes neighborhood residents may be designated by the city as the strategic planning group. The city may provide financial and staff resources to ensure the establishment of the strategic planning groups. The city may use community resource money to assist in the establishment of the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups.

(d) For 1989 and 1990, the process adopted by the city under paragraph (a) shall be used to develop prioritized recommendations for use of community resource program money within each targeted neighborhood. The prioritized recommendations must include the specific neighborhood programs and services that will help achieve the statutory objectives of the programs. After a public hearing is held in each targeted neighborhood to discuss the prioritized recommendations, the prioritized recommendations shall be forwarded to the city for consideration.

(e) For 1991 and subsequent years, as part of the process for the development of the city's community resources program, each targeted neighborhood strategic planning group must develop its prioritized recommendations for the use of community resource program money. The prioritized recommendations must include the specific neighborhood programs and services that will help achieve the objectives of the programs. After a public hearing is held in each targeted neighborhood to discuss the prioritized recommendations, the prioritized recommendations shall be forwarded to the city for consideration.

Subd. 5. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The governing body of a city requesting state financial assistance under section 11 may establish an advisory committee to assist the city in developing and implementing the city's community resources program. The advisory committee may include city council members, county commissioners, school board members, community service representatives, business community representatives, legislators, and representatives of targeted neighborhoods. If an advisory committee is established by the city, the representatives of targeted neighborhoods must represent a majority of the membership of the advisory committee and reflect the geographic, cultural, racial, and ethnic diversity of the targeted neighborhoods. The city may determine the size of the advisory committee and may designate an existing entity as the advisory committee if the entity meets the membership requirements outlined in this subdivision.

Subd. 6. [REVIEW BY AFFECTED GOVERNMENTAL UNITS.] The city may develop a process to consult with affected governmental units including the state, county, and school districts. These affected governmental units may provide technical and informational assistance to the city to ensure that the community resources program is coordinated with activities and services provided by other governmental units and does not unnecessarily duplicate any existing services.

Subd. 7. [DEVELOPMENT OF PROGRAMS.] The city must develop and draft a preliminary community resources program. In developing the preliminary program for 1989 and 1990, the city of Minneapolis must give priority to the recommendations made through the process established in subdivision 4, paragraph (a). In developing the program for 1991 and subsequent years, the city of Minneapolis must give priority to the recommendations made by the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups.

A city may approve the preliminary community resources program only after holding a public hearing. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhoods not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. In addition, to the maximum extent possible, notice shall be published in the most widely circulated community newspaper in the targeted neighborhoods. After the public hearing and after the city has incorporated any changes into the preliminary program as a result of the public hearing, the city may approve the preliminary program and must submit the approved preliminary program to the city review board.

Subd. 8. [CITY REVIEW BOARD.] (a) Each city shall establish a city review board whose purpose is to review and comment on the preliminary community resources program submitted by the city. The city review board appointed under this subdivision must be the same city review board appointed for the review of the urban revitalization action plan. The city review board shall consist of two city council members who represent targeted neighborhoods appointed by the city council, one county board member appointed by the county board, one school board member appointed by the school board, one for profit or nonprofit housing developer appointed by the city council, one business representative appointed by the city's chamber of commerce, and at least seven representatives of the targeted neighborhoods appointed by the city council. The representatives of the targeted neighborhoods must reflect the geographic, cultural, racial, and ethnic diversity of the targeted neighborhoods. The targeted neighborhoods strategic planning groups may recommend a list of names to the city council for appointment to the city review board. Two members of the house of representatives and one member of the senate appointed by the city's legislative delegation shall be nonvoting members of the city review board. Nonvoting legislative members of the city review board must represent one or more targeted neighborhoods.

(b) The city review board may require the city to contract for temporary staff assistance in reviewing and approving the program. Persons who provide staff assistance to the city review board may not be city employees or in any way involved in a formal or informal organization representing residents of a targeted neighborhood. The city may use state money available under section 11 to pay for the costs of staffing the city review board. The city must make all information requested by the city review board relating to the development of the program available to the city review board.

(c) In reviewing the city's preliminary community resources program, the city review board shall ensure that the following review criteria are satisfied:

(1) the city followed the process required under subdivisions 4 to 7 for developing the community resources program;

(2) the activities to be funded by the program are community resource services that meet the objectives under subdivision 2;

(3) the activities to be funded do not result in duplication of existing services;

(4) the community resources program does not result in undue concentration of community resources program money in a single proposed activity or project; and

(5) in 1991 and subsequent years for the city of Minneapolis only, the activities to be funded are compatible with the prioritized recommendations submitted to the city by the neighborhood strategic planning groups. In 1989 and 1990 programs for the city of Minneapolis only, the activities to be funded are compatible with the prioritized recommendations submitted to the city through the process adopted under subdivision 4, paragraph (a).

The city review board may not reject or require modification of the city's preliminary community resources program unless the city's preliminary program, or process used to develop the program, does not satisfy all of the required review criteria. If the city review board rejects a city's preliminary program for failing to satisfy one or more of the required review criteria, the board must notify the city in writing within 45 days after receiving the preliminary program, stating its basis for determining that one or more of the required review criteria were not satisfied. The city must address the written concerns of the review board before it may resubmit a new preliminary program to the board.

(d) In addition to reviewing the city's community resources program to ensure that it meets the review criteria outlined in paragraph (c), the city review board shall review and comment on the overall quality of the city's preliminary program. In reviewing the 1989 and 1990 programs, the city review board shall compare the city's preliminary program to the prioritized recommendations submitted to the city through the process adopted under subdivision 4, paragraph (a). In reviewing the 1991 and subsequent year programs, the city review board shall compare the city's preliminary program to the prioritized recommendations submitted to the city by the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups. The city review board shall determine if the city gave adequate consideration to the recommendations of the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16A.85, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MASTER LEASES NOT DEBT.] The commissioner of finance may not enter into a master lease unless the commissioner of finance has conducted a demand survey of the amount of projected rentals and determines that money has been appropriated and allotted for the payment of the maximum amount of rentals that are projected to be payable from state money and that are projected to be due or to become due during the appropriation period in which the lease contract is entered into. Rent due under a master lease during a current lease term for which money has been appropriated is a current expense of the state."
