Sec. 8. [60A.1701] [CONTINUING INSURANCE EDUCATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For the purposes of this section, "course" means a course, program of instruction, or seminar of continuing insurance education.

Subd. 2. [APPLICABILITY.] This section applies to all natural persons licensed by this state to sell classes of insurance for which licensing examinations are required.

(a) persons soliciting or selling solely on behalf of companies organized and operating according to chapter 67A;

(b) persons holding nonresident licenses issued by this state unless continuing education requirements are imposed on Minnesota resident license holders by the nonresident licensee's state of resident licensing; or

(c) persons who certify to the commissioner in writing by February 28 of each year that they will sell only credit life, credit health, and credit property insurance, including motor vehicle and homeowners' insurance, during that year and do in fact so limit their sale of insurance.

Subd. 4. [CONTINUING INSURANCE EDUCATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] There is established a continuing insurance education advisory committee consisting of 13 members. All members must be residents of Minnesota. Three members must neither be employed by an insurance company nor licensed as an insurance agent. These three members are not eligible to be chairperson and are compensated according to section 15.059, subdivision 3. Each of the other ten members must be actively engaged in some activity in the insurance industry in this state and have a principal office located in this state. These ten members serve without compensation, but are paid reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in the same amount and in the same manner as state employees. Three of these ten members must be employed in capacities other than as licensed agents by insurance companies authorized to do business in this state. The remaining seven members must be licensed insurance agents actively engaged in the solicitation and sale of insurance and currently subject to continuing education requirements. Membership on the advisory committee must represent, to the extent possible, the various phases of the insurance industry and especially the several classes of insurance.

The commissioner shall appoint the members of the committee. Before making appointments to the advisory committee, the commissioner shall solicit nominations from the several professional organizations representing persons selling insurance in this state and from the organizations representing companies authorized to do business in this state. Of the members first appointed, three shall be appointed for one year, three for two years, three for three years, and four for four years. Thereafter, each appointment is for a four-year term. No member may serve more than two consecutive four-year terms. Each member of the committee serves until a successor is appointed.

The advisory committee shall select by simple majority a chairperson and other officers it deems advisable. The term of the chairperson shall be determined by the commissioner. The advisory committee may adopt bylaws for its operation.

Subd. 5. [POWERS OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE.]

(a) Applications for accreditation of each course must be submitted to the advisory committee on forms prescribed by the committee and must be accompanied by a fee of not more than $10 payable to the state of Minnesota for deposit in the insurance division revolving fund. The advisory committee shall make recommendations to the commissioner regarding the accreditation of courses sponsored by institutions, both public and private, which satisfy the criteria established by this section, the number of credit hours to be assigned to the courses, and rules which may be promulgated by the commissioner. The advisory committee shall seek out and encourage the presentation of courses.

(b) The advisory committee shall make recommendations and provide subsequent evaluations to the commissioner regarding procedures for reporting compliance with the minimum education requirement.

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF THE COMMISSIONER.] (a) The commissioner shall make the final determination as to accreditation and assignment of credit hours for courses.

(b) The commissioner shall adopt procedures for reporting compliance with the minimum education requirement. These procedures are not subject to the rulemaking provisions of chapter 14.

(c) The commissioner shall promulgate rules according to chapter 14 to carry out the purposes of this section.

Subd. 7. [CRITERIA FOR COURSE ACCREDITATION.] (a) The commissioner may accredit a course only to the extent it is designed to impart substantive and procedural knowledge of the insurance field. The burden of demonstrating that the course satisfies this requirement is on the individual or organization seeking accreditation.

(b) The commissioner may not accredit a course:

(1) that is designed to prepare students for a license examination;

(2) in mechanical office or business skills, including typing, speedreading, use of calculators, or other machines or equipment;

(3) in sales promotion, including meetings held in conjunction with the general business of the licensed agent; or

(4) in motivation, salesmanship, psychology, or time management.

Subd. 8. [MINIMUM EDUCATION REQUIREMENT.] Each person subject to this section shall complete annually a minimum of 20 credit hours of courses accredited by the commissioner. Any person teaching or lecturing at an accredited course qualifies for 1-1/2 times the number of credit hours that would be granted to a person completing the accredited course. Credit hours over 20 earned in any one year may be carried forward for the following two years. The commissioner may recognize accredited courses completed in 1983, 1984, or 1985 for the minimum education requirement for 1985.

Subd. 9. [WAIVER OF REQUIREMENTS.] (a) The commissioner may grant a waiver or an extension of time up to 90 days to complete the minimum education requirement to an individual upon a showing of good cause. It is the licensed person's responsibility to request a waiver or extension on a form prescribed by the commissioner. As of the day the licensed person properly files a request for a waiver or extension, the license remains in effect until the commissioner notifies the licensed person of the commissioner's decision. The commissioner may approve a waiver or extension subject to any reasonable conditions. The person's license remains in effect during the compliance period determined by the commissioner. If the licensed person fails to comply with any reasonable conditions imposed by the commissioner, the commissioner shall terminate the license. If the request for a waiver or extension is denied by the commissioner, the licensed person shall have 30 days within which to satisfy the minimum education requirement involved in the request for a waiver or extension. If the minimum education requirement is not satisfied within the compliance period, the commissioner shall terminate the person's license.

(b) Upon application on a form prescribed by the commissioner, the commissioner may grant a waiver of the minimum education requirement to a group or class of licensed persons upon a showing of good cause.

Subd. 10. [REPORTING.] (a) After completing the minimum education requirement, each person subject to this section shall file or cause to be filed a compliance report annually in accordance with the procedures adopted by the commissioner.

(b) Each compliance report must be accompanied by an annual continuing education fee of $5 payable to the state of Minnesota for deposit in the insurance division revolving fund.

(c) An institution offering an accredited course shall comply with the procedure for reporting compliance adopted by the commissioner.

(d) If a person subject to this section completes a nonaccredited course, he may submit a written report to the advisory committee accompanied by a fee of not more than $10 payable to the state of Minnesota for deposit in the insurance division revolving fund. This report must be accompanied by proof satisfactory to the commissioner that the person has completed the minimum education requirement for the annual period during which the nonaccredited course was completed. Upon the recommendation of the advisory committee that the course satisfies the criteria for course accreditation, the commissioner may approve the nonaccredited course and shall so inform the person. If the nonaccredited course is approved by the commissioner, it may be used to satisfy the minimum education requirement for the person's next annual compliance period.

Subd. 11. [ENFORCEMENT.] If a person subject to this section fails to complete the minimum education or reporting requirement or to pay the prescribed fees for any annual period, no license may be issued, renewed, or continued in force for that person for any class of insurance until the person has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the commissioner that all requirements of this section have been complied with or that a waiver or extension has been obtained.

If a person subject to this section fails to file a compliance request or a request for a waiver or extension with the commissioner within 30 days of the date on which the person is required to report, the commissioner may issue an order summarily suspending that person's license. The order is effective upon service on the person by first class mail at his last known address on file with the commissioner. "Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.74, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [ASSESSMENT OF SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE RIGHTS.] An applicant for assistance, or a recipient of assistance, under sections 256.72 to 256.87 is considered to have assigned to the public agency responsible for child support enforcement at the time of application all rights to child support and maintenance from any other person the applicant may have in his own behalf or in the behalf of any other family member for whom application is made. The assignment:

(1) is effective as to both current and accrued child support and maintenance obligations;

(2) takes effect upon a determination that the applicant is eligible for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87;

(3) terminates when an applicant ceases to receive assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87, except with respect to the amount of any unpaid support or maintenance obligation, or both, accrued under the assignment.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.87, is amended to read:

256.87 [CONTRIBUTION BY PARENTS (; AMENDMENTS; REPEALS).]

Subdivision 1. [ACTIONS AGAINST PARENTS FOR ASSISTANCE FURNISHED.] At any time during the continuance of assistance to a child granted under sections 256.72 to 256.87 except as set forth below, a parent of a child is liable for the amount of assistance furnished during the two years immediately preceding the commencement of the action which the parent is reasonably able to pay. Provided, however, that where child support has been previously ordered, the state or county agency providing the assistance, as assignee of the obligee, shall be entitled to judgments for child support payments accruing within ten years preceding the date of the commencement of the action to collect. The action may be ordered by the state agency or county agency and shall be brought in the name of the county by the county attorney of the county in which the assistance was granted, or by the state agency against the parent for the recovery of the amount of assistance granted, together with the costs and disbursements of the action.

Subd. 1a. [CONTINUING SUPPORT CONTRIBUTIONS.] In addition to granting the county or state agency a money judgment, the court may, upon a motion or order to show cause, order continuing support contributions by a parent found able to reimburse the county or state agency. Except as provided in subdivision 4, the order shall be effective (ONLY) for the period of time during which the recipient receives public assistance from (THE) any county or state agency and for 90 days thereafter the order shall require support according to chapter 518. An order for continuing contributions is reinstated without further hearing upon notice to the parent by (THE) any county or state agency that assistance is again being provided for the child of the parent under sections 256.72 to 256.87. The notice shall be in writing and shall indicate that the parent may request a hearing for modification of the amount of support or maintenance (, THE AMOUNT REQUIRED TO BE PAID, AND THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH INCOME WITHHOLDING CAN OCCUR. IN ANY ORDER MODIFYING THE AMOUNT OF SUPPORT OR MAINTENANCE, THE COURT MAY, IF APPROPRIATE, MAKE THE MODIFICATION RETROACTIVE TO THE DATE OF AUTOMATIC REINSTATEMENT).

Subd. 2. [NOT TO BE VESTED RIGHT.] All assistance granted under those sections shall be deemed to be granted and to be held subject to the provisions of any amending or repealing act that may hereafter be passed. No recipient shall have any claim for compensation, or otherwise, by reason of his assistance being affected in any way by any amending or repealing act.

Subd. 4. [CONTINUING CONTRIBUTIONS TO FORMER RECIPIENT.] The order for continuing support contributions shall remain in effect following the 90 day period after public assistance granted under sections 256.72 to 256.87 is terminated if:

(a) the former recipient files an affidavit with the court within 90 days of the termination of assistance requesting that the support order remain in effect;

(b) the public authority serves written notice of the filing by mail on the parent responsible for making the support payments at that parent's last known address and notice that the parent may move the court under section 518.64 to modify the order respecting the amount of support or maintenance; and

(c) the former recipient makes an application to use the public authority's collection services.

Subd. 5. [ORDER FOR MODIFICATION.] In any order modifying the amount of support or maintenance under this section, the court may make the modification retroactive to the date public assistance was terminated or reinstated.

Subd. 6. [CHILD NOT RECEIVING ASSISTANCE.] A parent having custody of a dependent child not receiving assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87 has a cause of action for child support against the child's absent parent. Upon an order to show cause and a motion served on the absent parent, the court shall order child support payments from the absent parent under chapter 518.

Sec. 3. [257.541] [CUSTODY AND VISITATION OF CHILDREN BORN OUTSIDE OF MARRIAGE.]

Subdivision 1. [MOTHER'S RIGHT TO CUSTODY.] The natural mother of a child born to a mother who was not married to the child's father neither when the child was born nor when the child was conceived has sole custody of the child until paternity has been established.

Subd. 2. [FATHER'S RIGHT TO VISITATION.] (a) If paternity has been acknowledged under section 257.34 and paternity has been established under sections 257.51 to 257.74, the father's rights of visitation or custody are determined under sections 518.17 and 518.175.

(b) If paternity has not been acknowledged under section 257.34 and paternity has been established under sections 257.51 to 257.74, the natural father may petition for rights of visitation or custody in a separate proceeding under section 518.156.

(b) Before the child's birth, he and the child's natural mother have attempted to marry each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared void, voidable, or otherwise invalid, and,

(1) if the attempted marriage could be declared invalid only by a court, the child is born during the attempted marriage, or within 280 days after its termination by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, dissolution or divorce; or

(2) if the attempted marriage is invalid without a court order, the child is born within 280 days after the termination of cohabitation;

(c) After the child's birth, he and the child's natural mother have married, or attempted to marry, each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared void, voidable, or otherwise invalid, and,

(1) he has acknowledged his paternity of the child in writing filed with (THE DISTRICT COURT OR) the state registrar of vital statistics;

(2) with his consent, he is named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate; or

(3) he is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by court order;

(d) While the child is under the age of majority, he receives the child into his home and openly holds out the child as his natural child; or

(e) He (ACKNOWLEDGES) and the child's natural mother acknowledge his paternity of the child in a writing signed by both of them under section 257.34 and filed with (THE DISTRICT COURT OR) the state registrar of vital statistics (, WHICH SHALL PROMPTLY INFORM THE MOTHER OF THE FILING OF THE ACKNOWLEDGMENT, AND SHE DOES NOT WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME AFTER BEING INFORMED THEREOF DISPUTE THE ACKNOWLEDGMENT IN A WRITING FILED WITH THE DISTRICT COURT OR THE STATE REGISTRAR OF VITAL STATISTICS). Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 257.58, is amended to read:

257.58 [LIMITATION OF ACTIONS; EXCEPTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTIONS FOR CHILDREN WITHOUT A PRESUMED FATHER.] Except for (a) an action brought by or on behalf of a child whose paternity has not been de-terminated, and (b) an action brought by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement, if a child is over three years old when he or she first receives public assistance in the state of Minnesota, an action to determine the existence of the father and child relationship as to a child who has no presumed father under section 257.55 may not be brought later than three years after the birth of the child, or later than three years after August 1, 1980, whichever is later. An action brought by or on behalf of a child whose paternity has not been determined is not barred until one year after the child reaches the age of majority. If a child is over three years old when he or she first receives public assistance in the state of Minnesota, an action brought by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement is not barred until three years after the public assistance is first provided in this state.

Subd. 2. [HEIRSHIP.] Section 257.57 and this section do not extend the time within which a right of inheritance or a right to a succession may be asserted beyond the time provided by law relating to distribution and closing of decedents' estates or to the determination of heirship, or otherwise.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 257.59, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COURT JURISDICTION.] Except in Hennepin and Ramsey counties, the county court has jurisdiction of an action brought under sections 257.51 to 257.74. In Hennepin and Ramsey counties, the district court has jurisdiction of an action brought under sections 257.51 to 257.74. The action may be joined with an action for dissolution, annulment, legal separation, custody under chapter 518, or reciprocal enforcement of support.

257.60 [PARTIES.]

The child may be made a party to the action. If the child is a minor and is made a party, a general guardian or a guardian ad litem shall be appointed by the court to represent the child. The child's mother or father may not represent the child as guardian or otherwise. (THE COURT MAY APPOINT THE COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE AS GUARDIAN AD LITEM FOR THE CHILD.) If the child is a minor and the case involves a compromise under section 257.64, subdivision 1 or a lump sum payment under section 257.66, subdivision 4, the child and the commissioner of public welfare shall each be made a party (AND THE COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE SHALL BE APPOINTED AS GUARDIAN AD LITEM) before the court approves a compromise or orders a lump sum payment. The natural mother, each man presumed to be the father under section 257.55, and each man alleged to be the natural father, shall be made parties or, if not subject to the jurisdiction of the court, shall be given notice of the action in a manner prescribed by the court and shall be given an opportunity to be heard. A person who may bring an action under section 257.57 may be made a party to the action. The court may align the parties.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 257.64, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

257.64. [PRE-TRIAL ORDERS AND RECOMMENDATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. On the basis of the information produced at the pretrial hearing, including information as to the financial status of the parties, the court may, and if requested by a party, shall (EVALUATE THE PROBABILITY OF DETERMINING THE EXISTENCE OR NONEXISTENCE OF THE FATHER AND CHILD RELATIONSHIP IN A TRIAL AND WHETHER A JUDICIAL DECLARATION WOULD BE IN THE BEST INTEREST OF THE CHILD. ON THE BASIS OF THE EVALUATION, AN APPROPRIATE RECOMMENDATION FOR SETTLEMENT SHALL BE MADE TO THE PARTIES, WHICH MAY INCLUDE ANY OF THE FOLLOWING):

(a) (THAT THE ACTION BE DISMISSED WITH OR WITHOUT PREJUDICE;)

((B)) recommend that the alleged father voluntarily acknowledge his paternity of the child if the parties have agreed on a financial settlement;

((C)) (b) recommend that the matter be compromised by an agreement among the alleged father, the mother, and the child, in which the father and child relationship is not determined but in which a defined economic obligation is undertaken by the alleged father in favor of the child and, if appropriate, in favor of the mother, subject to approval by the court. In reviewing the obligation undertaken by the alleged father in a compromise agreement, the court shall consider the best interest of the child, in the light of the applicable factors enumerated in section 518.17, subdivision 3, discounted by the improbability, as it appears to the court, of establishing the alleged father's paternity or nonpaternity of the child in a trial of the action. In the best interest of the child, the court may order that the alleged father's identity be kept confidential. In that case, the court may designate a person or agency to receive from the alleged father and disburse on behalf of the child all amounts paid by the alleged father in fulfillment of obligations imposed on him. When the child reaches 21 years of age or older he may petition the court to disclose the alleged father's identity. The court shall grant the petition if after considering the interests of all known persons involved, the court determines that disclosure of the information would be of greater benefit than nondisclosure.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 257.66, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [JUDGMENT; ORDER.] The judgment or order shall contain provisions concerning the duty of support, the custody (AND GUARDIANSHIP) of the child, the name of the child, visitation privileges with the child, the furnishing of bond or other security for the payment of the judgment, or any other matter in the best interest of the child. Custody and visitation and all subsequent motions related to them shall proceed and be determined under section 3. (THESE) The remaining matters and all subsequent motions related to them shall proceed and be determined in accordance with chapter 518. The judgment or order may direct the appropriate party to pay all or a proportion of the reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement, after consideration of the relevant facts, including the relative financial means of the parents; the earning ability of each parent; and any health insurance policies held by either parent, or by a spouse or parent of the parent, which would provide benefits for the expenses incurred by the mother during her pregnancy and confinement.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 257.66, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.] Support judgments or orders ordinarily shall be for periodic payments which may vary in amount. In the best interest of the child, a lump sum payment may be ordered in lieu of periodic payments of support. The court shall limit the parent's liability for past support of the child to the proportion of the expenses that the court deems just, which were incurred in the (IMMEDIATE PRECEDING) two years immediately preceding the commencement of the action.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 257.69, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GUARDIAN; LEGAL FEES.] The court may order (REASONABLE COUNSEL,) expert (WITNESSES,) witness and guardian ad litem fees (,) and other costs of the trial and pre-trial proceedings, including appropriate tests, to be paid by the parties in proportions and at times determined by the court. The court shall require a party to pay part of the fees of court-appointed counsel according to the party's ability to pay, but if counsel has been appointed the appropriate agency shall pay the party's proportion of all other fees and costs. The agency responsible for child support enforcement shall pay the fees and costs for blood tests in a proceeding in which it is a party, is the real party in interest, or is acting on behalf of the child. However, at the close of a proceeding in which paternity has been established under sections 257.51 to 257.74, the court shall order the adjudicated father to reimburse the public agency, if the court finds he has sufficient resources to pay the costs of the blood tests. When a party bringing an action is represented by the county attorney, no filing fee shall be paid to the clerk of court.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 518.10, is amended to read:

(a) The child support payment guidelines take into consideration the following criteria:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the obligor including real and personal property;

(2) the basic living needs of the obligor;

(3) the financial needs of the child or children to be supported; and

(4) the amount of the aid to families with dependent children grant for the child or children.

(d) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

(e) The above guidelines are binding in each case unless the court makes express findings of fact as to the reason for departure from the guidelines in that case in which the court orders support that deviates from the guidelines.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 518.551, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FAILURE OF NOTICE.] If the court in a dissolution, legal separation or determination of parentage proceeding, finds before issuing the order for judgment and decree, that notification has not been given to the public authority, the court shall (ORDER THAT NOTIFICATION BE MADE AND SHALL NOT ISSUE ITS ORDER FOR JUDGMENT AND DECREE UNTIL THE PUBLIC AUTHORITY HAS MADE ITS RECOMMENDATIONS) set child support according to the guidelines in section 15. In those proceedings in which no notification has been made pursuant to this section and in which the public authority determines that the judgment is (NOT PROPER AND ADEQUATE FOR THE CARE AND SUPPORT OF THE CHILD OR CHILDREN) lower than the child support required by the guidelines in section 15, it (MAY) shall move the court for a redetermination of the support payments ordered so that the support payments comply with the guidelines.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 518.551, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 518.551, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [ASSIGNMENT OF RIGHTS; JUDGMENT.] The public agency responsible for child support enforcement is joined as a party in each case in which rights are assigned under section 1. When arrearages are reduced to judgment, the court shall grant judgment in favor of, and in the name of, the public agency to the extent that the arrearages are assigned. The public agency may enforce a judgment entered before the assignment of rights as if the judgment were granted to it, and in its name, to the extent that the arrearages in that judgment are assigned.

518.611 [(ASSIGNMENTS) INCOME WITHHOLDING.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] Whenever an obligation for support of a dependent child or maintenance of a spouse, or both, (IN A PROCEEDING FOR DISSOLUTION OR LEGAL SEPARATION OR DETERMINATION OF PARENTAGE, HAS BEEN) is determined and ordered by a court of this state, that court shall order the withholding of the amount of child support or maintenance as determined by court order, from the income, regardless of source, of the person obligated to pay the support or maintenance. When an order for withholding has not previously been secured, the obligee may or the public agency responsible for child support enforcement shall move the court, and the court shall grant the order.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE TO OBLIGOR OF CONDITIONS.] Each order for withholding shall provide for a conspicuous notice to the obligor that withholding may result if the obligor fails to make the maintenance or support payments, and that no withholding shall be made until the following conditions are met:

(a) The obligee or the public authority determines that the obligor is at least 30 days in arrears;

(b) The obligee or the public authority serves written notice of its determination of arrearage on the obligor at least 15 days before service of the determination and a copy of the court's order for withholding on the payor of funds;

(c) Within the 15 day period, the obligor has either failed to pay all arrearages or to move the court, under section 518.64, to modify the order respecting the amount of maintenance or support and, ex parte, to stay service on the payor of funds until the motion to modify is heard; and

(d) The obligee or the public authority serves a copy of the determination of arrearage and a copy of the court's withholding order on the payor of funds.

(e) The obligee shall also serve on the public authority a copy of the determination of arrearage, a copy of the court's withholding order and an application to use the public authority's collection services.

Subd. 3. [MODIFICATION ORDERS.] An order modifying the amount of maintenance or support, issued after the hearing on the motion to modify, shall provide that payments be made outright by withholding. The provisions of subdivision 2 do not apply.

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the order is binding on the employer, trustee, or other payor of the funds upon service upon him of notice that it has been made. The payor shall withhold from the income payable to the obligor the amount specified in the order and shall monthly or more frequently remit the amounts withheld to the public authority. Amounts received by the public authority which are in excess of public assistance expended for the party or for a child shall be remitted to the party. An employer shall not discharge or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of a wage or salary (ASSIGNMENT) withholding authorized by this section.

Subd. 5. [ARREARAGE ORDER.] Nothing in this section shall prevent the court from ordering the payor of funds to withhold amounts to satisfy the obligor's previous arrearage in child support or maintenance payments, the obligor's liability for pregnancy and confinement expenses and for blood test costs, and any service fees that may be imposed under section 518.551.

Subd. 6. [PRIORITY.] An order for withholding under this section or execution or garnishment upon a judgment for child support arrearages or preadjudicated expenses shall have priority over an attachment, execution, garnishment, or wage assignment unless otherwise ordered by the court and shall not be subject to the statutory limitations on amounts levied against the income of the obligor.

Subd. 7. [EMPLOYER EXPENSES.] An employer may deduct one dollar from the obligor-employee's remaining salary for each payment made pursuant to a withholding order under this section to cover the employer's expenses involved in the withholding.

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYER OR PAYOR NOTICE.] When a withholding order is in effect and the obligor's employment is terminated or the periodic payment terminates, the obligor's employer or the payor of funds shall notify the public agency responsible for child support enforcement of the termination within 30 days of the termination date. The notice shall include the obligor's home address and the name and address of the obligor's new employer or payor of funds, if known.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 518.64, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION.] The terms of a decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following: (1) substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party (OR); (2) substantially increased or decreased need of a party (,); (3) receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87; or (4) a change in the cost-of-living for either party as measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair. On a motion for modification of support, the court shall take into consideration the needs of the children and the financial circumstances of the custodial parent's spouse, if any. A modification which decreases support or maintenance may be made retroactive only upon a showing that any failure to pay in accord with the terms of the original order was not willful. A modification which increases support or maintenance shall not be made retroactive if the obligor has substantially complied with the previous order. Except for an award of the right of occupancy of the homestead, provided in section 518.63, all divisions of real and personal property provided by section 518.58 shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the court finds the existence of conditions that justify reopening a judgment under the laws of this state. The court may impose a lien or charge on the divided property at any time while the property, or subsequently acquired property, is owned by the parties or either of them, for the payment of maintenance or support money, or may sequester the property as is provided by section 518.24.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 518.64, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [SPECIAL PROVISION; COST-OF-LIVING ADJUSTMENT.] Cost-of-living increases pursuant to subdivision 2 for decrees entered into before August 1, 1983 shall be limited to 50 percent of the cost-of-living increase for periods of time before August 1, 1983. The remaining 50 percent of the increase may be implemented over a period of time as determined by the court.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 518.64, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FORM.] The department of public welfare shall prepare and make available to courts (AND), obligors and persons to whom child support is owed a form to be submitted by the obligor or the person to whom child support is owed in support of a motion for a modification of an order pursuant to this section or section 256.87. The (RULE MAKING) rulemaking provisions of chapter 14 shall not apply to the preparation of the form.

Sec. 23. [518.641] [COST-OF-LIVING ADJUSTMENTS IN CHILD SUPPORT ORDER.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] An order for child support shall provide for a biennial adjustment in the amount to be paid based on a change in the cost-of-living. The order shall specify the cost-of-living index to be applied. The court may use the consumer price index for all urban consumers, Minneapolis-St. Paul (CPI-U), the consumer price index for wage earners and clerical, Minneapolis-St. Paul (CPI-W), or another cost-of-living index published by the department of labor which it specifically finds is more appropriate. The court may specify that the housing component be excluded from the cost-of-living adjustment. Cost-of-living increases under this section shall be compounded. It may also increase the amount by more than the cost-of-living adjustment by agreement of the parties or by making further findings. The adjustment becomes effective on the first of May of the year in which it is made. A court may waive the requirement of the cost-of-living clause if it expressly finds that the obligor's occupation or income, or both, does not provide for cost-of-living adjustment or that the order for child support has a provision such as a step increase that has the effect of a cost-of-living clause. The commissioner of public welfare may promulgate rules under this section in accordance with the rulemaking provisions of chapter 14.

Subd. 2. [CONDITIONS.] No adjustment under this section may be made unless the order provides for it and until the following conditions are met:

(a) the obligee or public authority serves notice of its application for adjustment by mail on the obligor at the obligor's last known address at least 20 days before the effective date of the adjustment;

(b) the notice to the obligor shall inform the obligor that an adjustment in payments shall become effective on the first of May; and

(c) after receipt of notice and before the effective day of the adjustment, the obligor fails to request a hearing on the issue of whether the adjustment should take effect, and ex parte, to stay imposition of the adjustment pending outcome of the hearing.

Subd. 3. [RESULT OF HEARING.] If, at a hearing pursuant to this section, the obligor establishes an insufficient cost of living or other increase in income that prevents fulfillment of the adjusted child support obligation, the court may direct that all or part of the adjustment not take effect. If, at the hearing, the obligor does not establish this insufficient increase in income, the adjustment shall take effect as of the date it would have become effective had no hearing been requested.

Subd. 4. [FORM.] The department of public welfare shall prepare and make available to the court and obligors a form to be submitted to the department by the obligor in support of a request for hearing under this section. The rulemaking provisions of chapter 14 shall not apply to the preparation of the form.

Subd. 5. [REQUEST FOR COST-OF-LIVING CLAUSE.] A motion for enforcement or modification of an existing child support order shall include a request for a cost-of-living clause. The court may deny the request only upon an express finding that the obligor's occupation, income, or both, does not provide for a cost-of-living adjustment or that the existing child support order either has a cost-of-living clause or sets forth a step increase which has the effect of a cost-of-living adjustment.

518.645 [FORM OF ORDER.]

(d) Not sooner than fifteen days after service of written notice in paragraph (b) on the Obligor, _____ or the Obligee serves a copy of its determination of a thirty-day delinquency and a copy of the Court's withholding order on the employer or other payor of funds, who will then be obligated to withhold payments from income and forward the amount withheld to _____.

Support orders made under sections 518C.01 to 518C.36 shall require that payments be made as the responding court directs and the responding court shall order support payments under chapter 518. The court and the prosecuting attorney of a county in which the obligor is present or has property have the same powers and duties to enforce the order as have those of the county in which it was first issued. Subd. 6. [BUILDING EVALUATORS.] The commissioner shall certify evaluators in each county of the state who are qualified to determine the compliance of a residence with applicable energy (DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS) efficiency standards. The commissioner shall, by rule pursuant to chapter 14, adopt standards for the certification and performance of evaluators and set a fee for the certification of evaluators which is sufficient to cover the ongoing costs of the program once it is established. The commissioner shall encourage the certification of existing groups of trained municipal personnel and qualified individuals from community-based organizations and public service organizations. Each certified evaluator shall, on request of the owner, inspect any residence and report the degree to which it complies with applicable energy (DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS) efficiency standards established pursuant to subdivision 3. The inspections shall be made within 30 days of the request. After July 1, 1981, evaluators (FOR THE HOME ENERGY DISCLOSURE PROGRAM) shall be certified only if they also meet all requirements for conducting residential energy audits pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 8211 et seq. (ANY PERSON CERTIFIED AS A BUILDING EVALUATOR PRIOR TO JULY 1, 1981, SHALL, BY JANUARY 1, 1982, MEET THE UPGRADED CERTIFICATION STANDARDS IN EFFECT AFTER JULY 1, 1981.) The commissioner shall enter into an agreement with the department of education for the provision of evaluator training through the area vocational technical institutes. The commissioner may contract with the area vocational technical institutes to reduce the training costs to the students. The commissioner may eliminate the examination fee for persons seeking upgraded certificates. The commissioner may also establish requirements for continuing education, periodic recertification, and revocation of certification for evaluators.

The consumer services division and the attorney general are authorized to release information on consumer complaints about the operation of the program to the commissioner.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [OUTREACH FOR ENERGY AUDIT INTERPRETATION.] The commissioner shall establish a program to assist school officials in the understanding of energy audits performed on their schools. The program will also provide suggestions and assistance in the application for any state or federal grants or loans relating to energy conservation for which the school may be eligible.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.36, is amended to read:

116J.36 [DISTRICT HEATING GRANTS AND LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICIES.] Developing and improving efficient and economical district heating systems is a public purpose for state and local financing and a proper function of state and local government. Climate and geography make a reliable, economic supply of energy essential for industrial, commercial, and residential heating. Imported supplies are increasingly costly, unreliable, and environmentally disadvantageous. District heating systems employing cogeneration techniques and innovative technology offer an important means of increasing the efficiency of Minnesota's energy systems and reducing the state's reliance on imported energy supplies. The combination of the large initial capital cost and investors' lack of familiarity with district heating has made the private market reluctant to provide the necessary capital for district heating projects. As a result, public leadership, cooperation, and aid are needed to demonstrate the feasibility of district heating systems by establishing economically viable municipal district heating systems as demonstration projects. Municipal district heating systems may be financed by loans from the state and from other sources available to municipalities.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(a) "Construction costs" means all costs associated with the construction, modification or expansion of a district heating system except for preliminary planning costs and detailed design costs. Construction costs include the cost of debt service from the time a construction loan is made until five years after the beginning of the operation of the district heating system constructed or the part of the system being modified or expanded.

(b) "District heating" means the use of a central energy conversion facility to produce hot water or steam for a district heating system. District heating facilities may also produce electricity in addition to hot water or steam.

(c) "Municipality" means any county, city, town, municipal power agency, or public utility, as defined in section 452.01, subdivision 3, owned and operated by a city, however organized or nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of chapter 317 whose membership is limited to the mayor and governing body of the city in which the district heating system is located.

(d) "District heating system" means any existing or proposed facility for (1) the production, through cogeneration or otherwise, of hot water or steam to be used for district heating, or (2) the transmission and distribution of hot water or steam for district heating either directly to heating consumers or to another facility or facilities for transmission and distribution, or (3) any part or combination of the foregoing facilities.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner of finance, upon request of the governor, may make loans to municipalities for the acquisition, construction, expansion, or modification of district heating systems. A loan shall be made only to a municipality that has demonstrated that:

(a) The municipality has the financial capability to sponsor the project;

(b) The project is technologically feasible;

(c) The district heating project will become a cogeneration facility or the project will utilize hot water or, if the project involves an existing district steam heating system, the project will become integrated with a hot water district heating system, or the project will allow the use of nonpetroleum fuels or will construct an efficient heat transmission system; and

(d) The municipality has made adequate provision to assure proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the project after construction is completed.

Subd. 3a. [GRANT ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development may provide planning grants to municipalities for planning related to the development of district heating systems. The municipality must demonstrate that a community heatload survey and map have been successfully completed, that potential district heating load is sufficiently large to justify further consideration, and that sufficient resources are available for the municipality to meet its financial requirements. Eligible planning grant costs include project definition, development of preliminary financing and distribution system plans, and obtaining commitment for detailed planning or design and preparation of a final report. The amount of a grant shall be limited to 50 percent of eligible planning costs and shall not exceed $25,000.

Subd. 4. [PRIORITIES.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall give higher priority to a project that does more to achieve the following goals:

(a) The district heating conversion facility employs cogeneration techniques;

(b) The facility uses renewable or nonpetroleum sources of energy;

(c) The district heating facility will save petroleum or natural gas;

(d) The operation of the district heating facility will not have an adverse impact on the environment;

(e) The district heating facility may readily be expanded to serve additional customers or to supply additional amounts of energy, and market demand for the energy exists;

(f) The project has obtained additional financing from the federal government, private sources, or other sources of capital; and

(g) Other goals the commissioner of energy, planning and development finds desirable for district heating systems.

Subd. 5. [APPLICATION.] Application for a loan to be made pursuant to subdivision 6 shall be made by a municipality to the commissioner of energy, planning and development on a form prescribed by the commissioner of energy, planning and development by rule. The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall review each application and determine:

- (a) Whether or not the project is eligible for a loan;
- (b) The priority of the project when ranked with all other eligible projects for which a loan application has been submitted;
- (c) The total estimated cost of the project;
- (d) The amount of the loan for which the project is eligible;
- (e) The terms upon which the loan would be made; and
- (f) The means by which the municipality proposes to finance the project, including:
 - (1) A loan authorized by state law; or
 - (2) A grant of money appropriated by state law; or
 - (3) A grant to the municipality by an agency of the federal government within the amount of money then appropriated to that agency and allocated by it to projects within the state; or
 - (4) The appropriation of proceeds of bonds or other money of the municipality to an account for the construction of the project; or
 - (5) User charges, franchise fees, special assessments or taxes; or
 - (6) Any or all of the means referred to in clauses (1) to (5).

Subd. 6. [LOANS.] Upon the recommendation of the governor pursuant to subdivision 8, the commissioner of finance shall make loans to municipalities on the following terms:

(a) In the case of loans for design costs, the maximum amount of the loan shall be limited by the provisions of this clause. For cities of the first class, the amount of the loan shall not exceed 40 percent of the design costs. For cities of the second, third and fourth class, the amount of the loan shall not exceed 90 percent of the design costs;

(b) In the case for loans for construction costs, a municipality must demonstrate that all design activities have been completed; that the project is economically and technologically feasible; that the district heating system will be constructed, and that it has made adequate provisions to assure proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the project. For cities of the first class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 50 percent of the construction costs. For cities of the second class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 80 percent of the construction costs. For cities of the third or fourth class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 90 percent of the construction costs.

(c) A loan made pursuant to this section is repayable over a period of 20 years, with interest payments beginning the first year. Interest shall accrue from the date of the loan at a rate of interest assigned at the date of loan commitment. Principal payments shall begin in the sixth year after the receipt of the loan on a 25 year level payment schedule with the balance of the principal to be retired with the payment due 20 years after receipt of the loan.

Subd. 7. [MODERN STEAM SYSTEMS.] (a) A municipality which has operating within its boundaries a modern steam district heating system owned by a district heating utility may apply for a loan or grant under this section even though the district heating project for which the loan or grant application is made may be planned, constructed, or owned by a district heating utility. The loan or grant application shall be treated in the same manner as loan or grant applications for district heating projects where the projects are to be planned, constructed, or owned by a municipality.

All or a portion of the proceeds of a loan made to a municipality described in this subdivision may be used to make loans to a district heating utility to provide financial assistance for the planning, modification, expansion or construction of a district heating project. Prior to making the loan to the district heating utility, the municipality shall:

(1) Adopt a district heating plan which identifies the areas of the city to be served by district heating; a time schedule indicating when service would be available in different areas of the city and the type of service to be offered; and

(2) Enter into a written agreement with the district heating utility which includes a requirement that the district heating utility restrict expansion of its existing steam system within its current geographic boundaries as determined by the municipality and develop a hot water system on a specific time schedule.

(b) The powers, authority and obligations granted to a municipality under this subdivision are supplemental to the powers, authority and obligations granted all municipalities under this section.

(c) As used in this subdivision, "modern steam district heating system" means a steam district heating system with condensate return built after 1970 and before May 30, 1981. "District heating utility" means any person, corporation, or other legal entity which owns or operates or plans to own or operate a district heating system. "District heating project" means a new district heating system, or the expansion or modification of the existing modern steam district heating system.

Subd. 8. [LOAN APPROVAL.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall prepare and submit to the legislative advisory commission a list of district heating loan requests. The list shall contain the supporting information required by subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. The recommendation of the legislative advisory commission shall be transmitted to the governor. The governor shall approve or disapprove, or return for further consideration, each project recommended for approval by the legislative advisory commission. Loans may be disbursed only upon approval by the governor.

Subd. 9. [PAYMENT; OBLIGATION.] The commissioner of finance shall not pay money to a municipality pursuant to an approved loan until he has determined that:

(a) Financing of the project as proposed by the municipality is assured by an irrevocable undertaking, by resolution of the governing body of the municipality, to use all money made available by the financing plan exclusively for the eligible costs of the project, and to pay any additional amount by which the cost of the project exceeds the estimate by the appropriation to the construction account of additional municipal money or the proceeds of additional bonds to be issued by the municipality; and that

(b) The governing body of the municipality has adopted a resolution obligating the municipality to repay the loan according to the terms in the loan. The obligation may be payable from user charges, franchise fees, special assessments or other money available to the municipality. The resolution shall obligate the municipality to annually impose and collect user charges, franchise fees, special assessments, or to use any other money available to it from any other specified source, in amounts and at times that if collected in full will annually produce at least five percent in excess of the amount needed for all annual costs of the system, including annual repayment on state loans. A municipality may also pledge to levy an ad valorem tax to guarantee the payments under the loan agreement. For the purpose of repaying the loan, the municipality by resolution of its governing body may fix the rates and charges for district heating system service and products may enter into contracts for the payment by others of costs of construction, maintenance, and use of the project in accordance with section 444.075 and may pledge the revenues derived therefrom. The commissioner of finance shall condition a loan upon the establishment of rates and charges or the execution of contracts sufficient to produce annually the revenues pledged for repayment of all annual costs of the system, including annual repayment of the state loan.

Subd. 10. [RECEIPTS.] All principal and interest payments received by the commissioner of finance in repayment of the loans authorized by this section shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the state bond fund and are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the purposes of that account.

Subd. 11. [RULES.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules necessary to carry out this section. The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt temporary rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36, meeting the requirements of this section. The rules shall contain as a minimum:

- (a) Procedures for application by municipalities; and
- (b) Criteria for reviewing grant and loan applications.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 156A.02, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. For the purposes of sections 156A.02 to 156A.10 "groundwater thermal exchange device" means any (SPACE) heating or cooling device, the operation of which is dependent upon extraction and reinjection of groundwaters from an independent aquifer. Thermal exchange devices licensed under this chapter shall be sealed against the introduction of any foreign substance into the system, but shall be so constructed as to permit periodic inspection of water quality and temperature.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 156A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding any department or agency rule to the contrary, the department of health shall issue, upon request and submission of a $50 fee, permits for the reinjection of water by a properly constructed well into the same aquifer from which the water was drawn (EXCLUSIVELY) for the operation of a groundwater thermal exchange device. Withdrawal and reinjection shall be accomplished by means of a closed system in which the waters drawn for thermal exchange shall have no contact or commingling with water from other sources or with any polluting material or substances and so constructed as to allow opening for inspection by the department. Wells that are part of a groundwater thermal exchange system shall serve no other function, except that water may be supplied to the domestic water system if the supply is taken off the thermal exchange system ahead of the heat exchange unit, and if the water discharges to a break tank through an air gap which is at least twice the effective diameter of the water outlet from the tank. A groundwater thermal exchange system may be used for domestic water heating only if the water heating device is an integral part of the heat exchange unit that is used for space heating and cooling. As a condition of the permit, an applicant shall agree to allow inspection by the department during regular working hours for department inspectors. A maximum of 200 permits shall be issued for small systems having maximum capacities of 20 gallons per minute or less, which shall be subject to inspection twice annually. A maximum of ten permits shall be issued for larger systems having maximum capacities from 20 to 50 gallons per minute, which shall be subject to inspection four times per year. The department may by rule provide for administration of this section.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPLICABILITY.] This section as well as any rules promulgated by the commission (PURSUANT) to implement this section or the public utility regulatory policies act of 1978, Pub.L. 95-617, 92 Stat. 3117, and the federal energy regulatory commission regulations thereunder; 18 C.F.R. Part 292, shall apply to all Minnesota electric utilities, including cooperative electric associations and municipal electric utilities (THAT BECOME INTERCONNECTED WITH ANY QUALIFYING FACILITY AS DEFINED IN 18 C.F.R. SECTION 292.101(B) (1). Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this chapter to the contrary, for the purposes of this section the terms "utility" and "electric utility" shall include municipal utilities and cooperative electric associations as well as public utilities as defined in section 216B.02, subdivision 4.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISPUTES.] In the event of disputes between an electric utility and a qualifying facility, either party may request a determination of the issue by the commission. In any such determination, the burden of proof shall be on the utility, except as otherwise expressly provided in this section. The commission in its order resolving each such dispute shall require payments to the prevailing party of the prevailing party's costs, disbursements and reasonable attorneys' fees, except that the qualifying facility will be required to pay such costs, disbursements and attorneys' fees of the utility only if the commission finds that the claims of the qualifying facility in the dispute have been made in bad faith, or are a sham, or frivolous.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [MUNICIPAL ELECTRIC UTILITIES.] As this section applies to municipal electric utilities in this section only, commission shall mean the governing body of each municipal electric utility that adopts and has in effect rules implementing this section, which are consistent with the rules of the Minnesota public utilities commission adopted pursuant to subdivision 6, except for subdivisions 5 and 7 in which case commission shall mean the Minnesota public utilities commission. As used in this subdivision, the governing body of a municipal electric utility means the city council, or, if another board, commission, or body is empowered by law or its charter or by resolution of the city council to establish and regulate rates and charges for the distribution of electric energy within the service area of the city, such board, commission, or body shall be deemed to be the governing body.

Sec. 16. [216B.242] [INVERTED RATES.]

The commission shall initiate a demonstration program on the conservation effects of inverted rates on the residential customers of natural gas utilities. The commission shall order at least one public gas utility to implement inverted rates for its residential customers for a period of two years, and to monitor the effects of these rates on gas consumption, and on costs to residential customers. The inverted rate rules and monitoring plans shall be prepared in consultation with, and with the approval of, the energy division of the Minnesota department of energy, planning and development or its successor. The commission shall report its findings and recommendations regarding the demonstration program to the governor and the legislature not later than January 1, 1986.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.38, is amended to read:

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.44, is amended to read:

216B.44 [MUNICIPAL SERVICE TERRITORY EXTENSIONS (IN ANNEXED AREAS; MUNICIPAL PURCHASE).]

Subdivision 1. [EXTENSIONS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 216B.38 to 216B.42, whenever a municipality which owns and operates an electric utility (a) extends its corporate boundaries through annexation or consolidation, or (b) determines to extend its service territory within its existing corporate boundaries, the municipality shall thereafter furnish electric service to (THE ANNEXED AREA) these areas unless the area is already receiving electric service from an electric utility, in which event, the (ANNEXING) municipality may purchase the facilities of the electric utility serving the (ANNEXED) area. The municipality acquiring the facilities shall pay to the utility formerly serving the (ANNEXED) area the (APPROPRIATE) value of its properties within the area (WHICH PAYMENT MAY BE BY EXCHANGE OF OTHER ELECTRIC UTILITY PROPERTY OUTSIDE THE MUNICIPALITY ON AN APPROPRIATE BASIS GIVING DUE CONSIDERATION TO REVENUE FROM AND VALUE OF THE RESPECTIVE PROPERTIES. IN THE EVENT THE MUNICIPALITY AND THE ELECTRIC UTILITY INVOLVED ARE UNABLE TO AGREE AS TO THE TERMS OF THE PAYMENT OR EXCHANGE, THE MUNICIPALITY OR THE ELECTRIC UTILITY MAY FILE AN APPLICATION WITH THE COMMISSION REQUESTING THAT THE COMMISSION DETERMINE THE APPROPRIATE TERMS FOR THE EXCHANGE OR SALE. AFTER NOTICE AND HEARING, THE COMMISSION SHALL DETERMINE APPROPRIATE TERMS FOR AN EXCHANGE, OR IN THE EVENT NO APPROPRIATE PROPERTIES CAN BE EXCHANGED, THE COMMISSION SHALL FIX AND DETERMINE THE APPROPRIATE VALUE OF THE PROPERTY WITHIN THE ANNEXED AREA, AND THE TRANSFER SHALL BE MADE AS DIRECTED BY THE COMMISSION. IN MAKING THAT DETERMINATION THE COMMISSION SHALL CONSIDER THE ORIGINAL COST OF THE PROPERTY, LESS DEPRECIATION, LOSS OF REVENUE TO THE UTILITY FORMERLY SERVING THE AREA, EXPENSES RESULTING FROM INTEGRATION OF FACILITIES, AND OTHER APPROPRIATE FACTORS. UNTIL THE DETERMINATION BY THE COMMISSION, THE FACILITIES SHALL REMAIN IN PLACE AND SERVICE TO THE PUBLIC SHALL BE MAINTAINED BY THE OWNER. HOWEVER, THE ELECTRIC UTILITY BEING DISPLACED, SERVING THE ANNEXED AREA, SHALL NOT EXTEND SERVICE TO ANY ADDITIONAL POINTS OF DELIVERY WITHIN THE ANNEXED AREA IF THE COMMISSION, AFTER NOTICE AND HEARING, WITH DUE CONSIDERATION OF ANY UNNECESSARY DUPLICATION OF FACILITIES, SHALL DETERMINE THAT THE EXTENSION IS NOT IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST.)

(WHEN PROPERTY OF A PUBLIC UTILITY LOCATED WITHIN AN AREA ANNEXED TO A MUNICIPALITY WHICH OWNS AND OPERATES A PUBLIC UTILITY IS PROPOSED TO BE ACQUIRED BY THE MUNICIPALITY, RATIFICATION BY THE ELECTORS IS NOT REQUIRED) as provided in section 22.

Subd. 2. [EXCHANGE OF PROPERTY.] The municipality may pay for the acquired property by the exchange of other electric utility property owned by the municipality outside of its corporate boundaries giving due consideration to the value of that property as provided in section 22.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.45, is amended to read:

216B.45 [MUNICIPAL PURCHASE OF PUBLIC UTILITY.]

(ANY PUBLIC) An electric utility operating in a municipality under a license, permit, right, claim of right, municipal suf-

ference, or franchise (SHALL BE) is deemed to have consented to the purchase by the municipality, for just compensation, of its property operated in the municipality under (SUCH) the license, permit, right, claim of right, municipal sufferance, or franchise. The municipality, subject to the provisions of (LAWS 1974, CHAPTER 429) section 216B.44 to section 22, may purchase the property upon notice to the (PUBLIC) electric utility as (HEREIN) provided in section 216B.46, and upon payment to the utility of the value of its properties within the area as provided in section 22 and without regard to the terms and conditions of section 300.05. WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME THE COMMISSION SHALL, BY ORDER, DETERMINE THE JUST COMPENSATION FOR THE PROPERTY TO BE PURCHASED BY THE MUNICIPALITY. IN DETERMINING JUST COMPENSATION, THE COMMISSION SHALL CONSIDER THE ORIGINAL COST OF THE PROPERTY LESS DEPRECIATION, LOSS OF REVENUE TO THE UTILITY, EXPENSES RESULTING FROM INTEGRATION OF FACILITIES AND OTHER APPROPRIATE FACTORS. THE ORDER OF THE COMMISSION MAY BE REVIEWED AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 216B.52. COMMISSION EXPENSES ARISING OUT OF THE EXERCISE OF ITS JURISDICTION UNDER THIS SECTION SHALL BE ASSESSED TO THE MUNICIPALITY. FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, A PUBLIC UTILITY SHALL INCLUDE A COOPERATIVE ELECTRIC ASSOCIATION.)

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.46, is amended to read:

216B.46 [(MUNICIPAL PROCEDURE) PROCEDURES; NOTICE; ELECTION.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSION PROCEDURE.] In the event a municipality and an electric utility involved in the acquisition of property under section 216B.44 to section 22 are unable to agree as to the terms of the payment, the municipality or the electric utility may file an application with the commission requesting that the commission determine the appropriate terms for the sale. The commission shall set a time and place for a public hearing after not less than 30 days notice to the parties. The commission shall fix and determine the price to be paid for the property within the annexed area as provided in section 22. If the municipality determines to make payment by the exchange of property, the commission shall determine the value of the municipality's property also as provided in section 22 and further direct the terms and conditions of the transfer. Until the determination by the commission, the facilities shall remain in place and service to the public shall be maintained by the owner. However, the electric utility being displaced shall not extend service to additional points of delivery within the service territory assumed by the municipality unless the commission, after notice and hearing, with due consideration of unnecessary duplication of facilities and increased expense to consumers, determines that the extension is in the public interest. The order of the commission may be reviewed as provided in section 216B.52.

Subd. 2. [MUNICIPAL PROCEDURE.] (ANY) A municipality which desires to acquire the property of (A PUBLIC) an electric utility as authorized under (THE PROVISIONS OF) section (216B.45) 216B.44 to section 22 may determine to do so by resolution of the governing body of the municipality taken after a public hearing of which at least 30 days published notice (SHALL) must be given as determined by the governing body. If the municipality owns and operates a public utility at the time notice is given to acquire the property of the electric utility, ratification by the electors is not required. If the municipality does not then own and operate a public utility, the determination (SHALL BECOME) of the governing body of the municipality becomes effective when ratified by a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question at a special election (TO BE) held for that purpose, not less than 60 nor more than 120 days after the adoption of the resolution of the governing body of the municipality.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.47, is amended to read:

216B.47 [ACQUISITION BY EMINENT DOMAIN.]

Nothing in (LAWS 1974, CHAPTER 429 SHALL BE CONSTRUED TO PRECLUDE) this chapter or any other provision of Minnesota Statutes or municipal charter precludes a municipality from acquiring the property of (A PUBLIC) an electric utility by eminent domain proceedings; provided that damages to be paid in eminent domain proceedings (SHALL INCLUDE THE ORIGINAL COST OF THE PROPERTY LESS DEPRECIATION, LOSS OF REVENUE TO THE UTILITY, EXPENSES RESULTING FROM INTEGRATION OF FACILITIES, AND OTHER APPROPRIATE FACTORS. FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, A PUBLIC UTILITY SHALL INCLUDE A COOPERATIVE ELECTRIC ASSOCIATION) must be determined under the terms of section 22.

Sec. 22. [216B.475] [PAYMENT FOR PROPERTY ACQUIRED BY MUNICIPALITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIVE VALUATION METHOD.] The value of the property taken by a municipality under section 216B.44 to this section must be determined solely in accordance with this section.

Subd. 2. [VALUATION WITHOUT FRANCHISE.] If no written franchise has been granted by the municipality to the electric utility or if no written franchise is in effect upon enactment, the price to be paid to the electric utility by the municipality for the property taken by the municipality in the expansion of its service territory is the net facilities value of the property of the electric utility upon the date of notice plus the expenses of necessary integration of facilities.

Subd. 3. [VALUATION IF FRANCHISE.] If a written franchise has been granted to the electric utility by the municipality and is in effect upon the date of enactment, there must be added to the amount determined under subdivision 2 of this section a sum for the lost net profits of the electric utility and with respect to an electric utility which is subject to the payment of federal income tax, in addition, 25 percent of the lost-net profits. The sum for the lost net profits must be the present value of the product of (a) the net facilities value within the acquired territory, as determined in subdivision 2, stated as a percentage of the electric utility's systemwide net plant value, times (b) the net income of the electric utility for a term of ten years. In determining present value, the foregoing amount is deemed payable in 120 equal monthly installments. The amount provided in this subdivision shall also be paid by the municipality if it does not own and operate a public utility upon the date of enactment.

Subd. 4. [OFFER OF WHOLESALE PURCHASE.] If a municipality subject to subdivision 2 does not tender to the electric utility an offer to purchase power and energy as a wholesale customer for resale to the retail customers within the area taken by the municipality and for a term not less than ten years, there shall be paid by the municipality to the electric utility an amount on account of lost net profits, as determined in subdivision 3. If a municipality subject to subdivision 3 does not tender to the electric utility an offer to purchase power and energy as a wholesale customer for resale to the retail customer within the area taken by the municipality, and for a term not less than ten years, the amount to be paid on account of lost-net profits shall be multiplied by two.

Subd. 2. [VOTE ON ESTABLISHMENT.] No gas, light, power, or heat utility (SHALL) may be constructed, purchased, or leased until the proposal to do so has been submitted to the voters at a regular or special election and been approved by five-eighths of those voting on the proposition. (SUCH) The proposal (SHALL) must state whether the public utility is to be constructed, purchased, or leased and the estimated cost or the maximum amount to be expended for that purpose. This proposal and a proposal to issue bonds to raise money therefor may be submitted either separately or as a single question. The proposal for the acquisition of the public utility may include authority for distribution only or for generation or production and distribution of a particular utility service or group of services. Approval of the voters (SHALL) must be obtained under this section before a city purchasing gas or electricity wholesale and distributing it to consumers acquires facilities for the manufacture of gas or generation of electricity unless the voters have, within the two previous years, approved a proposal for both generation or production and distribution. This subdivision does not apply to the expansion or acquisition of electric service territory by a municipality owning and operating a public utility system governed by section 216B.44 to section 22.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 453.54, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. It may invest in various technologies to minimize long-run costs of providing electrical services to consumers. These investments include energy conservation measures and renewable resources.

Sec. 2. [62H.02] [REQUIRED PROVISIONS.]

A joint self-insurance plan must include aggregate excess stop-loss coverage and individual excess stop-loss coverage provided by an insurance company licensed by the state of Minnesota. Aggregate excess stop-loss coverage must include provisions to cover incurred, unpaid claim liability in the event of plan termination. The excess or stop-loss insurer must bear the risk of coverage for any member of the pool which becomes insolvent with outstanding contribution due. In addition, the plan of self-insurance must have participating employers fund an amount at least equal to the point at which the excess or stop-loss insurer must assume 100 percent of additional liability. A joint self-insurance plan must submit its proposed excess or stop-loss insurance contract to the commissioner of insurance at least 30 days prior to the proposed plan's effective date and at least 30 days subsequent to any renewal date. Trustees shall receive no remuneration, but they may be reimbursed for actual and reasonable expenses incurred in connection with duties as trustees.

(b) Trustees shall be bonded in an amount not less than $100,000 or no more than $500,000 from a licensed bonding company.

(c) Investment of plan funds is subject to the same restrictions as are applicable to political subdivisions pursuant to section 475.66. All investments must be managed by a bank or other investment organization licensed to operate in Minnesota.

(d) Trustees, on behalf of the fund, shall file annual reports with the commissioner of insurance within 30 days immediately following the end of each calendar year. The reports must summarize the financial condition of the fund, itemize collection from participating employers, and detail all fund expenditures.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of such cost:

- (1) Inpatient hospital services.
- (2) Skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities.
- (3) Physicians' services.
- (4) Outpatient hospital or clinic services.
- (5) Home health care services.
- (6) Private duty nursing services.

- (7) Physical therapy and related services.
- (8) Dental services, excluding cast metal restorations.
- (9) Laboratory and x-ray services.

(10) The following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eyeglasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over the counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven or any other over the counter drug identified by the commissioner in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders and such determination shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedures act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary and his determination shall not be subject to the administrative procedure act. The commissioner (MAY PROMULGATE) shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the administrative procedure act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the administrative procedure act.

(11) Diagnostic, screening, and preventive services.

(12) Health care pre-payment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

(13) Abortion services, but only if one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion.

(14) Transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by non-ambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or non-emergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be non-ambulatory.

(15) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining non-emergency medical care.

(16) Any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law.

(b) is either toxic or highly toxic; an irritant; corrosive; a strong oxidizer; a strong sensitizer; combustible; either flammable or extremely flammable; dangerously reactive; pyrophoric or pressure-generating; compressed gas; carcinogen; teratogen; mutagen; reproductive toxic agent; or that otherwise, according to documented medical or scientific evidence, may cause substantial acute or chronic personal injury or illness during or as a direct result of any customary or reasonably foreseeable, accidental, or intentional exposure to the chemical or substance.

For the purposes of determining what is a hazardous substance, where one of the terms used in this subdivision is defined by the American National Standards Institute document Z129.1-1982 on the precautionary labeling of hazardous industrial chemicals, that definition shall apply.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.651, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

(a) any chemical, substance, or agent which is not introduced into the workplace by the employer to be used, studied, or produced, and is not the byproduct of some method of production; among other cases, this exception excludes from the definition of harmful biological agent, an agent in the body of a person who is present in a hospital or clinic for diagnosis or treatment;

(b) consumer products packaged for distribution to, and used by, the general public when the product is used by an employer or the employer's employees in the same form, concentration, and manner as it is sold to consumers, and employee exposure to the product is not significantly greater than exposure commonly experienced by private consumers of the product;

(c) any chemical, substance, or agent received by an employer in a sealed package which prevents exposure of the employee to the work environment hazard, when that chemical, substance, or agent is subsequently sold or transferred in the sealed package and the seal remains intact while the chemical, substance, or agent is in the employer's workplace;

(d) any article, including but not limited to, an item of equipment or hardware, which contains a hazardous substance, if the substance is present in a solid form which does not create any extant or potential health hazard as a result of being handled by the employee; or

Manufacturer does not include anyone whose primary business concerning the hazardous substance, harmful biological agent, or substance or mechanism which emits a harmful physical agent is in retail sales to the public. A hospital or clinic engaged in the diagnosis or treatment of a harmful biological agent is not a manufacturer of that agent.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.653, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. Every employer who is a manufacturer of a hazardous substance, harmful biological agent, or a substance or mechanism which emits a harmful physical agent, shall provide each employer who purchases the substance, agent, or mechanism with the information necessary for the purchasing employer to comply with section 9. If the purchase is of a substance, agent, or mechanism, or mixture thereof, which involves a number of work environment hazards, complete information will be provided by the manufacturer concerning each work environment hazard. For the purposes of this subdivision the term "purchase" shall include any transference including free trial samples.

When the work environment hazard is a mixture of hazardous substances, the manufacturer may provide the information required by this section on the entire product mixture, instead of on each hazardous substance in it, if all of the following conditions are met: hazard test information exists on the mixture itself or adequate information exists to form a valid judgment of the hazardous properties of the mixture itself and the manufacturer indicates that the conclusions drawn are from some source other than direct testing on the mixture; provision of information on the mixture will be as effective in protecting employee health as information on the ingredients; and the hazardous substances in the mixture are identified along with the information on the mixture.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.653, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. Prior to any employee's initial assignment to a workplace where the employee will be routinely exposed to a work environment hazard, his employer shall provide him with training concerning the work environment hazard. In addition, training shall be provided whenever an employee may be routinely exposed to any additional work environment hazard to which they were not previously exposed. For each work environment hazard to which the employee may be routinely exposed, the employee's training program shall include:

(a) the name or names of the work environment hazard including any generic name, chemical name, trade name, and commonly used name;

(b) the level, if any, at which exposure to the work environment hazard has been determined to be hazardous according to standards adopted by the commissioner, or, if no standard has been adopted, according to guidelines established by competent professional groups including but not limited to the American Industrial Hygiene Association, the American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists, the Center for Disease Control, the National Council on Radiation Protection and Measurements, and the American National Standards Institute;

(c) the acute and chronic effects of exposure at hazardous levels;

(d) the symptoms of the effects;

(e) any potential for flammability, explosion, or reactivity of the work environment hazard;

(f) appropriate emergency treatment;

(g) proper conditions for safe use of and exposure to the work environment hazard;

(h) procedures for cleanup of leaks and spills;

(i) the name, phone number, and address of the manufacturer of the hazardous substance, harmful biological agent, or substance or mechanism which emits the harmful physical agent; and

(j) a written copy of all of the above information.

It is intended that the training provisions of this subdivision apply only to new employee assignments and exposures after the effective date of this act. Employers are not required to train employees concerning work environment hazards, to which the employee was routinely exposed in the employer's workplace prior to the effective date of this act.

Every employer shall maintain current information for training under this subdivision or for information requests by employees under section 13.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.653, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4c. Each employer who operates a hospital or clinic shall provide regular inservice training to its employees who are routinely exposed to contagious animate agents including viruses, bacteria, and fungus. This training shall be current, appropriate to the level of education of the employee, and relevant to the employee's typical exposure to the animate agents in fulfilling their duties for the employer. The training shall include the names of common animate agents to which the employee may be exposed, proper techniques for the employee to avoid contamination of himself or others with the animate agent, and symptoms of contamination. Training shall be provided upon the initial assignment of the employee to a job where that person will be routinely exposed to contagious animate agents and shall be repeated after that at intervals no greater than two years.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.653, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4d. Each employer who is in the business of providing a service of collection, processing, or disposal of waste regulated pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, P.L. 94-580, shall provide employees who are routinely exposed to this waste a general safety training program approved by the commissioner. This training program shall be appropriate for the seriousness of the safety hazards commonly encountered by the employees and shall include: training concerning the general safety hazards involved in the collection, processing, or disposal of the waste; proper safety procedures to avoid the deleterious effects of these hazards; and common symptoms of the deleterious effects. Training shall be provided to employees within 60 days of the commissioner's approval of the training program, or, if the employee is employed after this 60-day period, prior to the employees initial assignment where they will be routinely exposed to waste. The employer's safety training program shall be submitted to the commissioner for approval within two months of the effective date of this act.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.654, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. Any employee who has been exposed or is being exposed to (TOXIC MATERIALS OR HARMFUL PHYSICAL AGENTS) work environment hazards in concentrations or at levels in excess of that provided for by any applicable standard shall be provided by his employer with the opportunities provided in section 182.655, subdivision (10) 10a.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.654, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. Every employee and any association or union representing that employee shall have the right, upon request, to receive from their employer, within a reasonable period of time, any information the employer would be required to provide the employee if the employer were training the employee under section 9 concerning any work environment hazards to which the employee is routinely exposed.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.654, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. An employee shall have the right, without loss of pay or other benefits of employment, to refuse to work under conditions which the employee reasonably believes constitute a violation of sections 182.65 to 182.674 and subject the employee to imminent hazard involving exposure to a work environment hazard. Once an employee has refused to work under this subdivision his employer must immediately correct the alleged violation, reassign the employee to other work under conditions that do not violate sections 182.65 to 182.674, or give the employee time off until the dispute is settled and any violation corrected or the employer exercises one of his other options described above. The employee's right under this section shall include, but not be limited to, the right of any employee, without loss of pay or other benefits of employment, to refuse to work if the employee reasonably believes (1) the employer has failed to provide training required pursuant to section 11, (2) the employer has failed to provide the information required pursuant to section 13 within a reasonable time not in excess of 24 hours of the employee's request for same, or (3) the employee is asked to work with a work environment hazard under conditions which are inconsistent with training or information provided by the employer pursuant to section 11 or 13. This subdivision is intended only to enlarge employees' right to refuse to work under conditions which violate sections 182.65 to 182.674 and involve exposure to work environment hazards and does not in any way limit any other employee right to refuse to work under state or federal law.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. The commissioner shall, with all due haste, adopt exposure safety standards for each harmful physical agent specifically listed in section 4 for which the commissioner has not yet adopted such a standard.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. The commissioner shall promulgate standards to construct a list of chemicals, substances, and agents that satisfy the definitions of a hazardous substance, harmful biological agent, or harmful physical agent in section 182.651. The commissioner shall also promulgate standards to construct a list of chemicals, substances, and agents that the commissioner has considered and determined do not satisfy these definitions. The commissioner shall not have exclusive power to make such determinations and the question of whether a chemical, substance, or agent meets the definitions of a hazardous substance, harmful biological agent, or harmful physical agent can be raised in any court of competent jurisdiction. However, once the commissioner has affirmatively promulgated that a chemical, substance, or agent does or does not satisfy these definitions, any later review of that same question by a court shall not be de novo but instead as a review of the commissioner's standard.

The commissioner is specifically directed, with all due haste, to review the available scientific evidence concerning the chemicals, substances, and agents covered by the definition of a toxic substance or harmful physical agent contained in the Code of Federal Regulations, title 29, section 1910.20(c)(11) to determine if they meet the definitions of hazardous substance, harmful biological agent, or harmful physical agent in section 182.651. The commissioner is also specifically directed to review new scientific evidence as it develops concerning old and new chemicals, substances, and agents and to promulgate standards in accordance with this subdivision.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. The commissioner, in promulgating standards dealing with (TOXIC MATERIALS OR HARMFUL PHYSICAL AGENTS) work environment hazards under this section, shall set the standard which most adequately assures, to the extent feasible, on the basis of the best available evidence, that no employee will suffer material impairment of health or functional capacity even if such employee has regular exposure to the hazard dealt with by such standard for the period of his working life. Development of standards under this subdivision shall be based upon research, demonstrations, experiments, and such other information as may be appropriate. In addition to the attainment of the highest degree of health and safety protection for the employee, other considerations shall be the latest available scientific data in the field, the feasibility of the standards, and experience gained under this and other health and safety laws. Whenever practicable, the standard promulgated shall be expressed in the terms of objective criteria and of the performance desired.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. Any standard promulgated under this section shall prescribe the use of labels or other appropriate forms of warning as are necessary to insure that employees are apprised of all hazards to which they are exposed, relevant symptoms and appropriate emergency treatment, and proper conditions and precautions of safe use or exposure. (WHERE APPROPRIATE, SUCH STANDARDS SHALL ALSO PRESCRIBE SUITABLE PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT, IF FEASIBLE ENGINEERING AND ADMINISTRATIVE METHODS OF PROTECTION ALONE DO NOT PROVIDE ADEQUATE PROTECTION, AND THIS EQUIPMENT SHALL BE MADE AVAILABLE BY OR AT THE COST OF THE EMPLOYER. SUCH STANDARDS SHALL PROVIDE FOR MONITORING OR MEASURING EMPLOYEE EXPOSURE AT SUCH LOCATIONS AND INTERVALS AND IN SUCH MANNER AS MAY BE NECESSARY AND APPROPRIATE FOR THE PROTECTION OF EMPLOYEES. IN ADDITION, WHERE APPROPRIATE, ANY SUCH STANDARD SHALL PRESCRIBE THE TYPE AND FREQUENCY OF MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS OR OTHER TESTS WHICH SHALL BE MADE AVAILABLE BY THE EMPLOYER, OR AT HIS COST, TO EMPLOYEES EXPOSED TO SUCH HAZARDS IN ORDER TO MOST EFFECTIVELY DETERMINE WHETHER THE HEALTH OF SUCH EMPLOYEES IS ADVERSELY AFFECTED BY SUCH EXPOSURE. THE RESULTS OF SUCH EXAMINATIONS OR TESTS SHALL BE FURNISHED ONLY TO THE COMMISSIONER AND, AT THE REQUEST OF THE EMPLOYEE, TO HIS PHYSICIAN.) In the case of work environment hazards, it shall be presumed by the commissioner that labeling of containers containing hazardous substances or harmful biological agents or posting notices in areas where work environment hazards are present is necessary to properly apprise employees. This presumption can be rebutted only by a finding by the commissioner that labeling or posting required under other federal or state law is adequate to fulfill the purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. Where appropriate, standards shall prescribe suitable protective equipment, if feasible engineering and administrative methods of protection alone do not provide adequate protection, and this equipment shall be made available by or at the cost of the employer. Standards shall also provide for monitoring or measuring employee exposure at the locations and intervals and in the manner as may be necessary and appropriate for the protection of employees. Where appropriate, a standard shall prescribe the type and frequency of medical examinations or other tests which shall be made available by the employer, or at his cost, to employees exposed to hazards in order to most effectively determine whether the health of those employees is adversely affected by such exposure. The results of these examinations or tests shall be furnished only to the commissioner and, at the request of the employee, to his physician.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. The commissioner shall provide for an emergency temporary standard to take immediate effect upon publication if he determines:

(a) That employees are exposed to grave danger from exposure to (SUBSTANCES OR AGENTS DETERMINED TO BE TOXIC OR PHYSICALLY HARMFUL OR FROM NEW) work environment hazards or other hazards; and

(b) That such emergency standard is necessary to protect employees from such danger. Such standard shall be effective until superseded by a standard promulgated in accordance with the procedures prescribed in subdivision 2.

Upon publication of such standard or standards, which interested persons may receive upon request and payment of fees, the commissioner shall commence a proceeding in accordance with subdivision 2 and the standard as published shall also serve as a proposed rule for the proceeding; the commissioner shall promulgate a standard under this section no later than six months after the publication of the emergency standard.

Sec. 21. [182.6575] [WAIVER PROHIBITED.]

No employer may request or require any employee to waive any rights under section 182.654 or occupational safety and health standards promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.658, is amended to read:

182.658 [POSTING REQUIREMENTS.]

The commissioner shall issue regulations requiring that employers, through posting of notices or other appropriate means, keep their employees informed of their protections and obligations under (LAWS 1973, CHAPTER 732) sections 182.65 to 182.674 including the provisions of applicable standards.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.66, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If, upon inspection or investigation, the commissioner believes that an employer has violated a requirement of section 182.653, (SUBDIVISIONS 2 TO 4,) or any standard, rule, regulation or order prescribed pursuant to Laws 1973, Chapter 732, he shall with reasonable promptness and in no event later than six months following the inspection issue to the employer by certified mail a written citation. The citation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a reference to the provision of the act, standard, rule, regulation or order alleged to have been violated. In addition, the citation shall fix a reasonable time for the abatement of the violation.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.663, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner shall issue regulations requiring employers to maintain accurate records of employee exposures to (POTENTIALLY TOXIC MATERIALS OR HARMFUL PHYSICAL AGENTS) work environment hazards which are required to be monitored under Laws 1973, Chapter 732. Such regulations shall provide employees or their representatives with an opportunity to have access to the records thereof. Such regulations shall provide employees or their representatives, with an opportunity to observe such monitoring or measuring and to have access to the records thereto. In order to carry out the provisions of this section, such regulations may include provisions requiring employers to conduct periodic inspections. Each employer shall promptly notify any employee who has been or is being exposed to (TOXIC MATERIALS OR HARMFUL PHYSICAL AGENTS) a work environment hazard in concentrations or at levels which exceed those prescribed by an applicable occupational safety and health standard promulgated under Laws 1973, Chapter 732, and shall inform any employee who is being thus exposed of the corrective action being taken.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.666, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. Any employer who knowingly violates section 11 shall be assessed a fine of up to $1,000 for each violation. The employer shall also be liable to each aggrieved employee for civil punitive damages of $200.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.668, is amended to read:

182.668 [TRADE SECRETS.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATION BY COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner may, on request and after a sufficient showing by the employer, determine that an employer's use of a substance, agent, or mechanism is a trade secret as defined in section 325C.01, subdivision 5.

Subd. 2. [CLASSIFICATION OF DATA.] All information reported to or otherwise obtained by the commissioner or his representative in connection with any inspection or proceeding under Laws 1973, Chapter 732 which contains or which might reveal a trade secret shall be considered confidential except that such information may be disclosed to other officers or employees concerned with carrying out Laws 1973, Chapter 732 or when relevant in any proceeding under Laws 1973, Chapter 732.

Subd. 3. [PROTECTION OF CONFIDENTIALITY.] The commissioner shall issue such orders as may be appropriate to protect the confidentiality of trade secrets by allowing, upon the request of an employer any authorized representative of employees in inspections of trade secrets areas or discussions involving trade secrets to be replaced by an employee authorized by the employer; by permitting the employer to screen out trade secret details where photographs are deemed essential to the investigation; and by allowing the employer to restrict samples to be taken where trade secrets might be exposed.

Subd. 4. [RESTRICTIONS ON DISCLOSURE.] Information provided to an employer, employee, or employee representative pursuant to section 8, 9, or 13, which has been determined to be a trade secret pursuant to subdivision 1, shall not be disclosed to anyone except as required for medical treatment, training under section 9, information under sections 8 or 13, or in the course of an investigation or proceeding under sections 182.65 to 182.674. An employer, employee, or employee representative who knowingly discloses information in violation of this subdivision and any person knowingly receiving such information is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. An employer, employee, or employee representative who violates this subdivision shall also be liable for damages to the aggrieved employer, including consequential damages caused by the unlawful receipt or disclosure.

Sec. 27. [182.675] [RELATIONSHIP TO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING.]

Although not required, an employee may seek to resolve any dispute arising under this chapter through resolution procedures provided by any applicable labor agreement or, if there is no applicable provision of a labor agreement, through a dispute resolution procedure that shall be developed by the commissioner. The employee shall not be deemed to have waived or lost any substantive or procedural rights under this chapter due to resort to the resolution methods and can pursue all legal remedies under this chapter without any prejudice due to the results of these resolution methods. The applicable statutes of limitations under this chapter shall toll during the employee's resort to these resolution methods. The commissioner may adopt temporary rules to develop a dispute resolution procedure. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prevent the creation of additional rights or remedies for employees pursuant to a labor agreement or personnel rule.

Sec. 28. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

Whenever the phrase "Laws 1973, chapter 732" or a like phrase appears in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 182, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the phrase "this chapter" or "chapter 182."

Sec. 29. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The provisions of sections 1 to 27 become effective 180 days after the date of final enactment."

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 16.083, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SMALL BUSINESS SET-ASIDES.] The commissioner of administration shall for each fiscal year designate and set aside for awarding to small businesses approximately (20) 30 percent of the value of anticipated total state procurement of goods and services including construction. The commissioner shall divide the procurements so designated into contract award units of economically feasible production runs in order to facilitate offers or bids from small businesses. In making his annual designation of set-aside procurements the commissioner shall attempt to vary the included procurements so that a variety of goods and services produced by different small businesses shall be set aside each year. The failure of the commissioner to set aside particular procurements shall not be deemed to prohibit or discourage small businesses from seeking the procurement award through the normal solicitation and bidding processes.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 16.083, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [CONSULTANT, PROFESSIONAL AND TECHNICAL PROCUREMENTS.] Every state agency shall for each fiscal year designate and set aside for awarding to small businesses approximately 30 percent of the value of anticipated procurements of that agency for consultant services or professional and technical services. The set aside under this subdivision shall be in addition to that provided by subdivision 1, but shall otherwise comply with section 16.098 and the set aside for businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons.

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATIONS.] No amendment to the articles or bylaws which has the effect of denying, limiting, or modifying the right to cumulative voting for directors provided in this section shall be adopted if the votes of a proportion of the voting power sufficient to elect a director at an election of the entire board under cumulative voting are cast against the amendment.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 302A.413, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

(b) On application of the corporation, a court in this state may issue a protective order permitting the corporation to withhold portions of the records of proceedings of the board for a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, in order to prevent premature disclosure of confidential information which would be likely to cause competitive injury to the corporation. A corporation shall convert any of the records referred to in subdivision 4 upon the request of a person entitled to inspect them, and the expense of the conversion shall be borne by the person who bears the expense of copying pursuant to subdivision 5. A copy of the conversion is admissible in evidence, and shall be accepted for all other purposes, to the same extent as the existing or original records would be if they were legible visually.

216B.01 [LEGISLATIVE FINDING.]

It is hereby declared to be in the public interest that public utilities be regulated as hereinafter provided in order to provide the retail consumers of natural gas and electric service in this state with adequate and reliable services at reasonable rates, consistent with the financial and economic requirements of public utilities and their need to construct facilities to provide such services or to otherwise obtain energy supplies, to avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities which increase the cost of service to the consumer and to minimize disputes between public utilities which may result in inconvenience or diminish efficiency in service to the consumers. It is also hereby declared to be in the public interest that public utility rates be set only after giving full consideration to the impact these rates will have on the economic well-being of the state in general and on the particular consumers of the utility's services. Because municipal utilities are presently effectively regulated by the residents of the municipalities which own and operate them, and cooperative electric associations are presently effectively regulated and controlled by the membership under the provisions of chapter 308, it is deemed unnecessary to subject such utilities to regulation under this chapter except as specifically provided herein."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.27, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ENERGY CONSERVATION FOR RENTAL PROPERTY.] Effective January 1, 1980, all residences constructed prior to January 1, 1976, which are renter-occupied during all or a portion of the months of November through April shall be in compliance with standards pursuant to subdivision 1 pertaining to caulking and weatherstripping of exterior joints and sealing of other openings in the building envelope, and effective July 1, 1983, all such residences shall be in compliance with standards pursuant to subdivision 1 pertaining to installation of storm windows, storm doors, and positive shut-offs for fireplaces and fireplace stoves. Effective July 1, (1983) 1984, all residences which are renter-occupied during all or a portion of the months of November through April shall be in compliance with all applicable energy efficiency standards.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [RESIDENTIAL RENTAL PROPERTY WEATHERIZATION DISCLOSURE PROGRAM.] On or before January 1, 1985, and every tenth January 1 thereafter, the owner of a renter-occupied residence shall file with the commissioner a certificate of compliance with all applicable energy efficiency standards prescribed by subdivisions 1 and 3. The certificate shall be obtained from a building evaluator following an inspection of the residence conducted after July 1, 1984, and recorded on a form provided by the commissioner. A building evaluator certified according to the standards prescribed in subdivision 6, or pursuant to section 116J.31, is qualified to inspect the residence and to issue the certificate required by this subdivision. The building evaluator may charge a reasonable fee for inspecting the residence. After inspection, if the building evaluator determines that the energy efficiency standards prescribed in subdivisions 1 and 3 have been met, he or she shall issue and sign a certificate of compliance.

The certificate for low-rent housing projects owned by a public housing authority or a housing and redevelopment authority as defined in section 462.421, subdivision 2, may be provided by an officer, employee, or agent of the authority after completion of an energy audit of the building as required by the United States department of housing and urban development pursuant to Code of Federal Regulations, title 24, sections 865.301 to 865.310 and completion of any improvements as necessary to bring the building into compliance with the requirements of section 116J.27, subdivision 3. If the certificate is issued prior to July 1, 1984, the building shall be in compliance with the adopted standards which are to become effective July 1, 1984. The energy audit of low-rent housing projects owned by a public housing authority or a housing and redevelopment authority may be conducted before or after July 1, 1984.

No building evaluator may make energy efficiency improvements or profit directly or indirectly from the provision of energy efficiency improvements to a building that he or she has inspected.

The commissioner shall adopt a form for the certificate, and the form shall include at least the following information: (a) name, address, and social security or Minnesota tax identification number of the owner of the residence; (b) street address of the residence; (c) date of the inspection by the building evaluator; (d) name of the building evaluator who performed the inspection; (e) date the certificate is signed by the building evaluator; and (f) a statement that a copy of the certificate should be filed with the commissioner. The commissioner shall maintain a file by city street address, if applicable, of the certificates filed pursuant to this subdivision. The certificates shall be released to the public according to section 13.03. If a certificate is not on file for a particular residence, upon request of any person, the commissioner shall provide free of charge a written statement to the effect that a certificate is not on file as of the date of the execution of the statement, and that statement shall constitute prima facie proof in any court action of the facts stated therein. The commissioner may charge a fee to owners, other than public housing authorities and housing and redevelopment authorities, who file certificates under this subdivision in an amount sufficient to defray the costs of recording the certificates.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [ABATEMENT OF CERTAIN ACTIONS.] In a civil action to recover possession of property subject to subdivision 3 on the basis of nonpayment of rent, a defendant may plead a failure to file the certificate required by subdivision 3a in order to abate the action, if the action was commenced before the certificate was filed, and if the defendant notified the owner in writing prior to the commencement of the action that the rent was not being paid because the property was not in compliance with applicable energy efficiency standards prescribed by subdivisions 1 and 3. All proceedings in the action shall be stayed until the certificate is filed pursuant to subdivision 3a; and the defendant, whether or not he or she prevails in the action, may tax $50 costs, in addition to other costs allowed by law. The court may condition the stay upon payment into court of the rent as it becomes due, and the defendant may elect to tax the $50 costs allowed by this subdivision by reducing the rent to be paid into court by $50. Upon written application supported by an affidavit and filed with the court, the court may disburse to the owner from the rent paid into court amounts the court determines necessary to permit the payment of documented sums expended or to be expended to comply with the energy efficiency standards prescribed in subdivisions 1 and 3. Upon the filing and presentation to the court of an affidavit setting forth a specific plan for timely compliance with the requirements of subdivisions 3 and 3a, the court may, upon written application supported by an affidavit and filed with the court, disburse to the owner from rent paid into court an amount the court determines necessary to permit the timely payment of expenses directly affecting the property. Further disbursements for the payment of expenses directly affecting the property shall be subject to a showing of satisfactory progress toward implementation of the plan.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. [CIVIL DAMAGES IN CERTAIN ACTIONS.] A tenant who occupies or occupied, after July 1, 1985, a property subject to subdivision 3 and who makes a claim in a civil action against the owner before the certificate prescribed by subdivision 3a is filed, shall be entitled to recover $500 from the owner, provided that if the owner demonstrates good cause for not filing the certificate, the recovery may be in an amount less than $500. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "owner" has the meaning given in section 566.18, subdivision 3.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.30, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. For purposes of sections 504.18 and 566.18 to 566.33, the weatherstripping, caulking, storm window, and storm door energy efficiency standards for renter-occupied residences prescribed by section 116J.27, subdivisions 1 and 3, shall be considered to be health and safety standards, and the penalties and remedies provided in this section are in addition to and do not limit remedies otherwise available to tenants of renter-occupied residences.

Sec. 6. [EXCEPTION TO APPLICATION.]

Sections 1 to 5 of this act do not apply to one single family residence located on farm property consisting of 50 or more acres.

Sec. 7. [APPROPRIATION.]

There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of energy the sum of $220,000 for the purpose of administering section 2.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, 5, and 6 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 3 is effective January 1, 1985. Section 4 is effective July 1, 1985. Section 7 is effective November 1, 1983."

Parole agents shall reside in the various districts of the state in which they are employed. Each agent or person shall perform the duties the commissioner may prescribe in behalf of or in the supervision of those persons described in clause (b). In addition, each agent or person shall act under the orders of the commissioner in the supervision of those persons conditionally released as provided in clause (a). Agents shall provide assistance to conditionally released persons in obtaining employment, and shall conduct relevant investigations and studies of persons under supervision upon the request of the commissioner. Regional supervisors may also supervise state parole agents as directed by the commissioner of corrections. This duty shall not interfere with the supervisor's responsibility under the county probation act, Laws 1959, chapter 698.

The reduction shall accrue to the period of supervised release to be served by the inmate.*

If an inmate violates a disciplinary offense rule promulgated by the commissioner, good time earned prior to the violation may not be taken away, but the inmate may be required to serve an appropriate portion of his term of imprisonment after the violation without earning good time.

"Section 1. [41A.01] [PURPOSE.]

Sections 1 to 6 provide a framework for an agricultural resource loan guaranty program, the purposes of which are to further the development of the state's agricultural resources, improve the market for its agricultural products, and increase the use of chemicals including fuel derived from renewable agricultural sources and having superior qualities for controlling pollution and conserving energy. Public debt is authorized by the constitution to be incurred for developing agricultural resources by extending credit on real estate security. The program contemplates the use of this power not to finance projects of the kind described herein, but to provide financial guaranties for a portion of the cost of viable projects to the extent necessary to enable qualified developers and operators to secure private financing which would not otherwise be available. All credit advanced pursuant to loan guaranty commitments is to be secured by subrogation of the state to mortgage security and other security interests granted to the private lender, in proportion to the amount advanced by the state. A loan guaranty board is established to investigate the feasibility of each project, its conformity to the above policies and to environmental standards, the qualifications of the owners, operators, and lenders, and the nature and extent of the security, prior to commitment, and to secure maximum financial participation by private persons, not supported by the guaranty, to assure that in these respects each project satisfies and will continue to satisfy criteria which are adequate in the judgment of the board.

Sec. 3. [41A.03] [LOAN GUARANTIES.]

Subdivision 1. Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF LOAN AMOUNT.] The total principal amount of any guaranteed loan may not exceed 80 percent of the total cost of the related project as estimated by the state at the time the commitment to guarantee is made (or, in the case of a refunding or refinancing loan, 95 percent of the aggregate amount of principal and interest refunded or refinanced); except that if the actual cost exceeds the estimate the state may, upon request of the borrower and the lender, consent to an increase of the loan by a principal amount not greater than 80 percent of the excess cost, and may increase the guaranteed amount by not more than 95 percent of the increase in the principal amount, and accrued interest thereon.

Subd. 3. [REQUIRED PROVISIONS.] The loan guaranty or loan agreement pertaining to any loan guaranteed by the state shall provide that:

(a) Payments of principal and interest made by the borrower under the loan shall be applied by the lender to reduce the guaranteed and nonguaranteed portion of the loan on a proportionate basis, and the nonguaranteed portion shall not in any event receive preferential treatment over the guaranteed portion.

(b) A period of grace shall be allowed of not less than 60 days from a date a principal or interest payment is due, prior to the making of demand for payment pursuant to the loan guaranty, to permit adequate time for a decision on behalf of the state regarding principal and interest assistance in accordance with subdivision 4. Payment as required by the loan guaranty shall be made within 60 days after receipt by the state of written demand complying with the terms and conditions of the guaranty.

(c) The lender may not accelerate repayment of the loan or exercise other remedies available to the lender in the event of the borrower's default, except in the case of the borrower's failure to pay a required payment of principal or interest, without the prior written consent of the state or as otherwise permitted in the loan guaranty. In the event of such defaults, the lender shall not be entitled to make demand for payment pursuant to the guaranty unless the state agrees in writing that such default has materially affected the rights or security of the parties, and finds that the lender should be entitled to receive payment pursuant to the loan guaranty.

(d) If a payment of principal or interest is made by the state upon default of the borrower, the state shall be subrogated to the rights of the lender with respect to such payment.

(e) The borrower shall cause to be promptly prepared and delivered to the state annual audited financial statements of the project prepared according to generally accepted accounting principles.

(f) Duly authorized representatives of the state shall have access to the project site at reasonable times during construction and operation of the project.

(g) The borrower shall maintain adequate records and documents concerning the construction and operation of the project in order that representatives of the state may determine its technical and financial conditions and its compliance with environmental requirements. Such records shall include the amounts of all sales and use taxes paid on personal property and services purchased for the construction and operation of the project, with tax receipts furnished by the sellers or other supporting documentation determined by the board to be satisfactory. The amounts of such taxes shall be reported to the board in the manner and at the times required by the board.

(h) The borrower shall protect and preserve at all times the project assets and other collateral securing the loan and shall assist in liquidation of collateral to minimize loss in the event of default.

(j) The state shall be paid at or prior to the closing of the guaranteed loan a fee or fees for the loan guaranty or the commitment to guarantee the loan, which shall not in the aggregate exceed one percent of the total principal amount of the guaranteed portion.

(k) The lender shall cause to be perfected and maintained the mortgage lien on the real estate and the security interest in personal property and collateral granted as security for the loan, and shall cause all other loan servicing functions to be performed which are normally required or performed by a reasonable and prudent lender with respect to a loan without a guaranty.

(l) The state shall be notified in writing without delay of (i) the date and amount of and basis for each disbursement of loan proceeds; (ii) any nonpayment of principal or interest due (within ten days after the due date and with evidence of notification to the borrower); (iii) any failure to honor a commitment by any person of an intended source of capital for the project; and (iv) any significant adverse changes from original cash flow projections as evidenced by reports from the borrower, or any other known evidence that the borrower might be unable to meet a future scheduled payment of principal or interest.

Subd. 4. [PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ASSISTANCE.]
The state may at any time enter into a written contract with the borrower to pay the lender, on behalf of the borrower, an amount not greater than the amount of principal and interest to become due on one or more subsequent dates, without acceleration, if the state determines that (i) the borrower is not in default in payment of principal or interest due more than 60 days prior to the date of the contract; (ii) the borrower is or may become unable to meet in full principal or interest payments, or both, which are due or to become due within a specified period; (iii) it is in the public interest to permit the borrower to continue to pursue the purposes of the project; (iv) the probable net financial loss to the state will be less than that which would result in the event of a default; (v) the borrower is obligated by the contract to reimburse the state for all principal or interest advanced, with interest thereon, upon terms and conditions satisfactory to the state; and (vi) funds are available for allocation to the account established for the project in the guaranty fund, and are continuously allocated to the account in accordance with the provisions of section 4, subdivision 3, in an amount equal to the amount of interest on the advances until actually reimbursed to the state by the borrower. All sums so advanced and interest thereon shall be secured by the mortgage lien and security interest granted by the loan agreement, but none of such advances shall thereafter be repaid to the state until and unless all principal and interest currently due on the loan has been fully paid. In the event of subsequent default by the borrower, acceleration by the lender, and payment by the state of the full amount due under the loan guaranty, the state shall be subrogated to the rights of the lender with respect to the principal paid by it under the contract. Upon payment of the loan in full, with accrued interest, the remaining amount of said advances and interest thereon may be paid to the state.

Sec. 4. [41A.04] [APPLICATION AND APPROVAL.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] Any rural development finance authority, or county exercising the powers of such an authority, may file a written application with the state commissioner of finance, to be considered by the agricultural resource loan guaranty board, for a guaranty by the state of a portion of a loan for an agricultural resource project. In general, the application shall provide information similar to that required by an investment banking or other financial institution considering such a project for debt financing. Specifically, each application shall include in brief but precise form the following information, as supplied by the applicant, the borrower, or the lender:

(1) a description of the scope, nature, extent, and location of the proposed project, including the identity of the borrower and a preliminary or conceptual design of the project;

(2) a description of the technology to be used in the project and the prior construction and operating experience of the borrower with such projects;

(3) a detailed estimate of the items comprising the total cost of the project, including escalation and contingencies, with explanation of the assumptions underlying the estimate;

(4) a general description of the financial plan for the project, including the mortgage and security interests to be granted for the security of the guaranteed loan, and all sources of equity, grants, or contributions or of borrowing the repayment of which is not to be secured by said mortgage and security interests, or, if so secured, is expressly subordinated to the guaranteed loan;

(5) an environmental report analyzing potential environmental effects of the project, any necessary or proposed mitigation measures, and other relevant data available to the applicant to enable the board to make an environmental assessment;

(6) a list of applications to be filed and estimated dates of approvals of permits required by federal, state, and local government agencies as conditions for construction and commencement of operation of the project;

(7) an estimated construction schedule;

(8) an analysis of the estimated cost of production of and market for the product, including economic factors justifying the analysis and proposed and actual marketing contracts, letters of intent, and contracts for the supply of feedstock;

(9) a description of the management experience of the borrower in organizing and undertaking similar projects;

(10) pro forma cash flow statements for the first five years of project operation including income statements and balance sheets;

(11) a description of the borrower's organization and, where applicable, a copy of its articles of incorporation or partnership agreement and bylaws;

(12) the estimated amount of the loan and percentage of guaranty requested, the proposed repayment schedule, and other terms and conditions and security provisions of the loan;

(13) an estimate of the amounts and times of receipt of guaranty fees, sales and use taxes, property tax increments, and any other governmental charges which may be available for the support of the state guaranty fund as a result of the construction of the project, with an analysis of the assumptions on which the estimate is based;

(14) a copy of any lending commitment issued by a lender to the borrower;

(15) a statement from the lender, if identified, as to its general experience in financing and servicing debt incurred for projects of the size and general type of the project, and its proposed servicing and monitoring plan; and

(16) such additional information as may be required by the board.

Subd. 2. [ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT.] Notwithstanding any other law or rule, the board shall be the responsible governmental unit for the completion of an environmental assessment worksheet with respect to each project considered for a loan guaranty in the agricultural resource loan guaranty program, and for considering comments on and determining the need for an environmental impact statement in accordance with section 116D.04, subdivision 2a, or other law. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law or rule, an environmental impact statement shall not be required to be prepared, unless so determined by the board, with respect to an agricultural resource project which will have a capacity to utilize 300,000 dry tons or less per year of input, or, if designed for production of alcohol fuels, will have a capacity to produce 60,000,000 or less gallons per year of alcohol.

Subd. 3. [COMMITMENT.] The board shall determine as to each project for which an application is submitted whether it appears in the board's judgment to conform to the purposes and policies stated in section 1 to an extent measured by criteria which in the board's judgment are satisfactory. It may but need not adopt rules setting forth such criteria prior to approving a commitment. Upon determination by the board that a project conforms to said purposes and policies, and it has determined the adequacy of the environmental impact statement if one is required, it may by resolution make on behalf of the state a conditional commitment to guarantee such portion of the proposed loan as it shall determine, not exceeding the limitations set forth in section 3. Such commitment shall not be binding upon the state until and unless:

(1) the board has created a project account for the project in the guaranty fund and has allocated thereto, from funds theretofore appropriated by the legislature or from the proceeds of bonds issued or to be issued for purposes of the guaranty fund pursuant to authorization theretofore enacted by the legislature, and not previously allocated to any other project account, in an aggregate amount sufficient, with any other amount then on hand in the project account, to pay the entire guaranteed principal amount of the proposed loan, plus interest thereon for one year; provided that bonds authorized by the legislature need not be issued until and unless the proceeds allocated to a project account must be deposited therein to comply with clause (2) or (3);

(2) the board has deposited in the project account bond proceeds or other funds in an amount not less than the annual amount which would be required to amortize the guaranteed portion of the principal of the loan over the term and at the interest rate (or at the rate of yield resulting from the interest rates) provided in the loan agreement; and

(3) the board has caused to be executed on behalf of the state a final loan guaranty instrument in conformity with section 3, which binds the state to cause state bonds to be offered for sale at the times and in the amounts required, with amounts on hand in the project account, to pay all amounts to become due and payable under the loan guaranty, within the authorization and allocation referred to in clause (1), and when sold, to issue the bonds and apply the proceeds to make these payments.

Sec. 5. [41A.05] [MINNESOTA AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE LOAN GUARANTY FUND AND BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF FUND.] For the purpose of developing the state's agricultural resources by extending credit on real estate security, the agricultural resource loan guaranty fund is established as a special and dedicated fund to be held and invested separately from all other funds of the state. All proceeds of state bonds authorized and issued for the purposes of the fund, and all guaranty fees, retail sales taxes, property tax increments, and other money from any source which may be credited to the fund pursuant to law or pursuant to the terms of grants, contributions, or contracts are appropriated and shall remain available for the purposes of the fund until such purposes have been fully accomplished. The fund shall be used solely for paying amounts due under loan guaranties and principal and interest assistance contracts entered into by the state, pursuant to the agricultural resource loan guaranty program.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF BONDS.] To provide money appropriated to the agricultural resource loan guaranty fund for the purposes of the program, when authorized by law and requested by the board, the commissioner of finance shall issue and sell bonds of the state for the prompt and full payment of which, with interest, the full faith, credit, and taxing powers of the state are irrevocably pledged. The proceeds of the bonds when issued, except accrued interest and any premium received upon sale, shall be credited to the guaranty fund. All such bonds shall be sold and issued and shall be secured in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed for state building bonds in chapter 16A, except that the commissioner may sell them and determine their interest rate by direct negotiation, and with the security provisions set forth therein and in article XI, sections 4 to 7 of the constitution.

Subd. 3. [COVENANT.] In fulfillment of the state's covenant with the beneficiary of each loan guaranty executed by the board on behalf of the state pursuant to the agricultural resource loan guaranty program, in accordance with section 4, subdivision 2, the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the board to comply with the terms of such loan guaranties, and further covenants that it will not at any time rescind or cancel any authorization of an amount of bonds, or the appropriation of the proceeds thereof for the purposes of the program, which, with the sum of the amounts then held in each project account in the guaranty fund, would be required, in the event of an immediate default on each guaranteed loan, to pay the balance of the guaranteed portion of the principal of all guaranteed loans with interest accrued and to accrue thereon for one year.

Subd. 4. [INCOME TAX EXEMPTION.] The interest on state bonds issued hereunder shall be exempt from state income taxation only as provided in sections 290.01, subdivisions 20 to 20g, and 290.08, subdivision 8, for obligations of the state. In the issuance of state bonds and the making of loan guaranties for the purposes of the program, the commissioner of finance and the board may and shall make all provisions and do or cause to be done all acts and things, consistent with sections 1 to 6, which are or may be effective under federal laws and regulations to comply with conditions for the exemption of interest on such bonds from federal income taxation. However, if for any reason, whether existing at the date of issue of any bonds or the date of execution of any loan guaranty or thereafter, the interest on any such bonds shall be or become subject to federal income taxes, this shall not impair or affect the validity of the bonds or of any loan guaranty or the provisions made for the security thereof, and shall not impair or affect the covenant made by the state in subdivision 3. Nothing herein affects the federal or state income tax treatment of interest on obligations of a borrower other than the state, whether or not guaranteed by the state.

Sec. 6. [41A.06] [PROJECT TAXES AND OTHER CHARGES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION.] The payments, taxes, and governmental charges described in this section which are received as a consequence of the undertaking, completion, and operation of each agricultural resource loan project for which a loan guaranty is made by the state are appropriated to the loan guaranty fund. This appropriation shall not lapse at the close of any fiscal year under the provisions of section 16A.28, and the receipts therefrom shall remain available as provided in section 5, subdivision 1; but the state shall not be obligated to continue the appropriation with respect to charges not yet collected, except to the extent determined to be necessary for compliance with the covenant contained in section 5, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION TO PROJECT ACCOUNTS.] Receipts of charges related to a particular project shall be deposited and recorded in its project account in the guaranty fund; but the board may reallocate receipts in any project account which cause the amount held therein to exceed the minimum balance established initially pursuant to section 4, subdivision 2, clause (2). Such reallocation may be made to another project account for the purpose of maintaining the minimum balance therein. Any amount in the guaranty fund at any time exceeding the amount needed to maintain the minimum balance in all project accounts may be transferred to the account maintained in the state debt service fund for the payment of Minnesota agricultural resource loan guaranty bonds; provided that (i) no guaranty fees or other amounts paid by borrowers shall be so transferred, and (ii) the board determines that the transfer may be made without jeopardizing the ability of the state to comply with the covenant contained in section 5, subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS BY BORROWERS.] Guaranty and commitment fees paid by borrowers pursuant to the loan guaranty provision required by section 3, subdivision 3, clause (j), and repayments by borrowers of amounts advanced by the state under contracts referred to in section 3, subdivision 4, shall be deposited in the project account for the borrower's project and shall not be disbursed or transferred for any purpose other than the fulfillment of the state's obligations under the loan guaranty for that project. No such funds shall be deemed to be so transferred at any time if the minimum required balance in the project account is maintained and exceeds the aggregate amount of fees and payments theretofore received from the borrower plus interest received from the investment thereof.

Subd. 4. [SALES AND USE TAXES.] All collections of the excise taxes imposed by chapter 297A upon retail sales, and upon the privilege of use, storage, or consumption in Minnesota, of personal property and services purchased for the construction or operation of any project for which a loan guaranty has been made or conditionally committed, less any refunds required by law and a proportionate share of the cost of administration and enforcement of the assessment and collection of the taxes, are appropriated and shall be deposited from the general fund into the project account in the guaranty fund at least once each year from and after the date of the conditional commitment. The commissioner of finance shall secure from each borrower the amount of taxes so imposed and from the commissioner of revenue the amount of refunds or costs to be deducted therefrom.

Subd. 5. [PROPERTY TAX INCREMENTS.] The applicant for a loan guaranty for any project, and the county in which the project is situated, shall do all acts and things necessary for the computation and segregation of property tax increments resulting from the construction of the project in accordance with the provisions of section 362A.05, and for the remittance to the commissioner of finance, for deposit in the loan guaranty fund, of all tax increments received from and after the date of the conditional commitment for the loan guaranty.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116B.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

interest in and to real property, including positive and negative easements and water, air, and development rights, for sites and buffer areas surrounding sites for hazardous waste facilities approved by the board pursuant to sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 and 115A.32 to 115A.39. The board may also direct the commissioner of administration to acquire by purchase, lease, gift, or grant, development rights for sites and buffer areas surrounding sites for all or part of the period that the development (MORATORIUM) limitations imposed by section 115A.21, subdivision 3, (IS) are in effect. Money for the acquisition of any real property and interest in real property pursuant to this subdivision shall come from the issuance of state waste management bonds in accordance with sections 115A.57 to 115A.59. The property shall be leased in accordance with terms determined by the board to the owner and operator of the hazardous waste facility located thereon at a rate sufficient to pay debt service on the bonds which provided funds used to acquire the property and to evaluate the eligibility of the property for inclusion in the inventory under section 115A.09 or candidacy under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30. Any local government unit and the commissioners of transportation, natural resources, and administration may convey or allow the use of any property for such sites and areas, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds issued with respect thereto, with or without compensation and without an election or approval by any other government agency. Land owned by the state may be exchanged for land not owned by the state for the purpose of providing a site and buffer area for a commercial hazardous waste facility, in accordance with the provisions of section 94.341 to 94.347 and other law. The commissioner of administration may hold the property for the purposes for which it was acquired, and may lease, rent, or dispose of the property so far as not needed for such purposes, upon the terms and in the manner the commissioner deems advisable. The right to acquire lands and property rights by condemnation shall be exercised in accordance with chapter 117. The commissioner of administration may take possession of any property for which condemnation proceedings have been commenced at any time after the issuance of a court order appointing commissioners for its condemnation. Where the property is acquired through eminent domain proceedings, the land owner's compensation shall be the fair market value of the property. Where the property is acquired by means other than through eminent domain proceedings, as by direct purchase or gift, the land owner's compensation shall be determined by the agreement of the parties involved. An award of compensation in a condemnation proceeding shall not be increased or decreased by reason of any increase or decrease in the value of the property caused by its designation in the inventory of preferred areas under section 115A.09 or as a candidate site under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 or its selection as a site or buffer area.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.08, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

The board and the chairperson on behalf of the board shall follow the procedures set out in section 115A.22, for consulting with citizens in areas affected by the selection of candidate sites for disposal facilities. To assist it in preparing the reports, the plan, and the certification of need required by subdivisions 4 (AND 5) to 5a and sections 115A.11 and 115A.24, the board through its chairperson shall make grants to each local project review committee established for a candidate site for disposal identified under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30. The grants may be used by the committee to employ staff, pay administrative expenses, or contract with affected units of government or qualified consultants. The board and the chairperson on behalf of the board shall request recommendations from the private waste management industry, the board's advisory councils, affected regional development commissions, and the metropolitan council and shall consult with them on the board's intended disposition of the recommendations. The reports of the board shall summarize the comments received and the board's response to the comments.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.10, is amended to read:

115A.10 [DUTIES OF THE BOARD; HAZARDOUS WASTE FACILITIES; ENCOURAGEMENT OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE.]

The board and the chairperson on behalf of the board shall encourage the development and operation of hazardous waste facilities by private enterprise to the extent practicable and consistent with the purposes of sections 115A.01 to 115A.72 and the board's hazardous waste management plan adopted pursuant to section 115A.11. In preparing the reports under section 115A.08 and the inventory of processing facility sites under section 115A.09, in adopting the management plan, and in its actions and decisions under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 and 115A.32 to 115A.39, the board and the chairperson on behalf of the board shall solicit the active participation of private waste management firms and shall so conduct its activities as to encourage private permit applications for facilities needed in the state. Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS.] (BY DECEMBER 15, 1982,) The board shall adopt a hazardous waste management plan. In developing and implementing the plan, the highest priority of the board shall be placed upon alternatives to land disposal of hazardous wastes including: technologies to modify industrial processes or introduce new processes which will reduce or eliminate hazardous waste generation; recycling, re-use, and recovery methods to reduce or eliminate hazardous waste disposal; and conversion and treatment technologies to reduce the degree of environmental risk from hazardous waste. The board shall also consider technologies for retrievable storage of hazardous wastes for later recycling, re-use, recovery, conversion, or treatment.

The plan shall include at least the following elements:

(a) an estimate of the types and volumes of hazardous waste which will be generated in the state through the year 2000;

(b) specific and quantifiable objectives for reducing to the greatest feasible and prudent extent the need for and practice of disposal, through waste reduction, pretreatment, retrievable storage, processing, and resource recovery;

(c) a description of the minimum disposal capacity and capability needed to be developed within the state for use through the year 2000, based on the achievement of the objectives under clause (b);

(d) a description of implementation strategies required to develop the needed disposal capacity under clause (c) and to achieve the objectives under clause (b), including: the necessary private and government actions; development schedules for facilities, services, and regulations; revenue-raising and financing measures; levels of public and private effort and expenditure; legal and institutional changes; and other similar matters.

The plan shall provide for the orderly development of hazardous waste management sites and facilities to protect the health and safety of rural and urban communities. In preparing the plan the board shall consider its impact upon agriculture and natural resources.

The plan shall require the establishment in the state of at least one commercial retrievable storage or disposal facility and shall recommend and encourage methods and procedures, that will insure the establishment of at least one facility for the recycling, re-use, recovery, conversion, treatment, destruction, transfer, or storage of hazardous waste. The board may make the implementation of elements of the plan contingent on actions of the legislature which have been recommended in the draft plan and certification of need and considered in the reports submitted pursuant to section 115A.08.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] The plan shall be based upon the reports prepared pursuant to section 115A.08. The plan, the certificate of need issued under section 115A.24, and the procedures for hearings on the draft plan and draft certificate of need, shall not be subject to the rule-making or contested case provisions of chapter 14. By July 1, 1983, the chairman of the board shall report to the legislative commission on waste management about the hearing to be held pursuant to this subdivision. The chairman shall describe the board's plans and procedures for the hearing, the provisions for encouraging public participation in the hearing, and the board's plans for preparing the required report to the legislature fully and accurately summarizing the results of the hearing, the objections raised to the board's draft plan and certification, and the board's response to the testimony received. The legislative commission shall hold a hearing to receive public comment on the board's proposed hearing procedures and thereafter shall make any recommendations it deems appropriate for changes in the board's procedures. Within 30 days following the submission of the report on hazardous management required under section 115A.08, subdivision 4, the board shall hold a public hearing on the draft plan and draft certificate or certificates of need (CONTAINED IN) submitted with the report. Notices of the draft plan and the draft certificate or certificates and notice of the hearing shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the state. The notices must indicate how copies of the draft plan and draft certificate or certificates of need may be obtained. The board shall make the draft plan and draft certificate or certificates of need available for public review and comment at least 21 days before the hearing. The hearing shall be ordered by the chairperson of the board and shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings in the time allowed by this section. The hearing officer shall not issue a report but shall preside at the hearing to ensure that the hearing is conducted in a fair, orderly, and expeditious manner and in accordance with the hearing procedures of the board. A majority of the permanent members of the board shall attend the hearing. In connection with the hearing, the chairperson of the board shall provide copies of the studies and reports on which the draft plan and certification of need are based and shall (MAKE AN AFFIRMATIVE PRESENTATION SHOWING THE NEED FOR AND REASONABLE- NESS OF THE DRAFT PLAN AND CERTIFICATION OF NEED) present an explanation of the basis of the findings, conclusions, and recommendations in the draft plan and certification of need. Following the hearing, the board shall revise the plan and the certificate or certificates of need as it deems appropriate, shall make a written response to the testimony received at the hearing explaining its disposition of any recommendations made with respect to the plan and certification, and shall finally adopt a plan in accordance with this section and issue a certificate or certificates of need in accordance with section 115A.24.

Sec. 15. [115A.201] [BEDROCK DISPOSAL.]

Subdivision 1. [EVALUATION OF TECHNOLOGY; STUDY AREAS.] The board shall evaluate the feasibility of bedrock disposal of hazardous waste. If the board determines that bedrock disposal is or may be a feasible disposal technology, the board shall identify bedrock study areas of up to four square miles in size for further evaluation.

Subd. 2. [PARTICIPATION BY AFFECTED LOCALITIES.] A plan review committee shall be established for each study area and a temporary board member shall be appointed as provided in this subdivision, to participate in the plan and certification of need to be submitted to the commission under section 115A.08, subdivision 4 and adopted under sections 115A.11 and 115A.24. Within 30 days following the identification of a bedrock study area by the board, the governor shall appoint the chair and members of a plan review committee, ensuring a balanced representation of all parties with a legitimate and direct interest in the review of the plan and certification of need. The plan review committee shall be eligible for technical assistance and grants pursuant to section 115A.08, subdivision 6, to assist it in participating in the plan and certification of need. Within 30 days following the appointment of a plan review committee, the committee shall select a temporary board member to be added to the board. Temporary board members may be members of the local plan review committee, and they shall be residents of the county in which the study area is primarily located. Temporary board members shall serve for terms lasting so long as the location the member represents is a study area. Temporary board members shall not participate or vote in decisions affecting the selection and certification of sites under this section and section 115A.21.

Subd. 3. [CANDIDATE SITES.] If the board determines that candidate sites are to be selected in the bedrock study areas, the candidate sites must be proposed and selected as provided in section 115A.21, subdivisions 1 and 2a.

115A.21 [CANDIDATE SITES.]

Subdivision 1. [SELECTION.] (BY MARCH 15, 1982,) The board shall select (SIX) at least four locations in the state, no more than one site per county, as candidate sites for commercial disposal facilities for hazardous waste. Candidate sites selected by the board before February 1, 1983, and additional candidate sites selected pursuant to this section, must be reviewed pursuant to sections 115A.22 to 115A.30. No location shall be selected as a candidate site unless the agency certifies its intrinsic suitability for the use intended pursuant to subdivision 2a.

Subd. 2. [SEARCH PROCEDURE.] The board shall consult with the agency and the private waste management industry in selecting candidate sites. Any sites proposed in applications for permits for disposal facilities being reviewed by the agency may be included by the board as candidate sites, provided the agency certifies the intrinsic suitability of the sites. The agency shall suspend its review of any permit application being reviewed by the board for inclusion as a candidate site until the site is eliminated from consideration as a candidate site.

(SUBD. 2. [PROCEDURE.]) As soon as practicable, the board through its chairperson shall publish a request soliciting proposals and permit applications for hazardous waste disposal facilities from potential developers and operators of such facilities. Notice of the request shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the state and shall be transmitted to all regional development commissions, the metropolitan council, and all counties in the state. The board may select conceptual design and operating specifications for a variety of hazardous waste disposal facilities in sufficient detail and extent in the judgment of the board to assist the evaluation of sites and the selection of candidate sites. By November 1, 1980, the board through its chairperson shall notify each regional development commission, or the metropolitan council, and each local government unit within whose jurisdiction the board intends to search for candidate sites. The notification shall explain the selection of the jurisdiction as a search area; shall summarize any conceptual specifications and the evaluation factors, criteria, standards, and procedures the board intends to use in selecting candidate sites; and shall describe the relationship of the candidate site selection process to the other review procedures under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 and the hazardous waste reports and plans required under sections 115A.04 to 115A.15. The notification shall request recommendations and suggestions from each such commission, the metropolitan council, and local government unit on the criteria, standards, and procedures the board should use in selecting candidate sites within the time allowed. The board through its chairperson shall make a written response to any recommendations, explaining its disposition of the recommendations. No action of the board may be held invalid by reason of the board's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision.

BY NOVEMBER 15, 1981, THE BOARD SHALL PROPOSE AT LEAST SIX LOCATIONS AS CANDIDATE SITES, AND). The director of the agency shall issue (A) notice indicating (WHICH OF THOSE SITES) whether the director recommends that the proposed sites should be certified as intrinsically suitable. The board through its chairperson and the director shall publish notice of hearings on the board's proposal and the director's recommendations. Notice shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the state and shall be sent by mail to all regional development commissions, or the metropolitan council, and to local government units containing a proposed candidate site. The hearings shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency and board in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the board and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the board's decision on candidate sites and the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The rulemaking and contested case procedures of chapter 14 shall not apply to this hearing. The hearing examiner may consolidate hearings. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify sites accordingly (BY MARCH 1, 1982). No action of the board or agency (SHALL) may be held invalid by reason of the board's or agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [(MORATORIUM) DEVELOPMENT LIMITATIONS.] In order to permit the comparative evaluation of sites and buffer areas and the participation of affected localities in decisions about the use of sites and buffer areas, (A MORATORIUM IS HEREBY IMPOSED AS PROVIDED IN THIS SUBDIVISION ON ALL DEVELOPMENT WITHIN EACH PROPOSED OR CANDIDATE SITE IDENTIFIED PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION) development in each candidate site and in a buffer area identified by the board surrounding and at least equal in area to the site shall be limited to development consistent with the development plans, land use classifications, and zoning and other official controls applying to the property on February 1, 1983. No development inconsistent with the plans, use classification, controls, and zoning requirements; no transfers or change of use of public land; and no conditional uses may be permitted. The (MORATORIUM ON CANDIDATE SITES AND BUFFER AREAS) development limitations shall extend until (THE BOARD CHOOSES A FINAL CANDIDATE SITE OR FINAL CANDIDATE SITES PURSUANT TO THIS ARTICLE. THE MORATORIUM ON THE FINAL SITES AND BUFFER AREAS SHALL EXTEND UNTIL) six months following final action of the board pursuant to (SECTIONS 115A.18 TO 115A.30. THE BOARD SHALL NOT APPROVE ACTIONS WHICH WOULD JEOPARDIZE THE AVAILABILITY OF A CANDIDATE SITE FOR USE AS A HAZARDOUS WASTE FACILITY. THE BOARD MAY ESTABLISH GUIDELINES FOR REVIEWING REQUESTS FOR APPROVAL UNDER THIS SUBDIVISION. THE GUIDELINES SHALL NOT BE SUBJECT TO THE RULE-MAKING PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 14. REQUESTS FOR APPROVAL SHALL BE SUBMITTED IN WRITING TO THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD AND SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE APPROVED BY THE BOARD UNLESS THE CHAIRPERSON OTHERWISE NOTIFIES THE SUBMITTER IN WRITING WITHIN 15 DAYS) inconsistent with the requirements of this section.

If a local committee fails to appoint a temporary board member within (45 DAYS AFTER THE APPOINTMENT OF THE COMMITTEE) the time permitted by this subdivision, the governor shall appoint a temporary board member to represent the committee on the board. Temporary board members may be members of the local project review committee, and they shall be residents of the county where the candidate site is located. Temporary board members shall serve for terms lasting (UNTIL THE BOARD HAS TAKEN FINAL ACTION PURSUANT TO SECTION 115A.28 AND) as long as the location the member represents is a candidate site or, in the case of members representing the site or sites finally chosen for the facility, until the commencement of the operation of the facility at that site.*

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, (BY DECEMBER 15, 1982,) on the basis of and consistent with its hazardous waste management plan adopted under section 115A.11, the board shall issue a certificate or certificates of need for disposal facilities for hazardous wastes in the state. The certificate or certificates shall indicate the types and volumes of waste for which disposal facilities are and will be needed through the year 2000 and the number, types, (SIZES, GENERAL DESIGN AND OPERATING SPECIFICATIONS) capacity, and function or use of the disposal facilities needed in the state. The board shall not certify need for disposal of hazardous wastes until after the agency promulgates rules pursuant to section 116.41, subdivision 1a. The board shall not certify need for disposal of wastes which are prohibited from disposal by agency rule. The board shall certify need only to the extent that the board has determined that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives including waste reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing, and resource recovery which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources; provided that the board shall require the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility in the state. Economic considerations alone shall not justify certification nor the rejection of alternatives. Alternatives that are speculative and conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. The board shall consider all technologies being developed in other countries as well as in the United States when it considers the alternatives to hazardous waste disposal. The certificate or certificates shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 14 but shall be the final determination required on the matters decided by the certificate or certificates and shall have the force and effect of law. The certificate or certificates shall not be amended for five years except as provided in section 34. (THE BOARD AND THE PERMITTING AGENCIES,) In reviewing and selecting sites, completing and determining the adequacy of environmental impact statements, and issuing approvals and permits for waste disposal facilities described in the certificate or certificates of need, (SHALL NOT RECONSIDER) matters determined in the certification shall not be reconsidered except as otherwise provided in section 34. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of facilities consistent with the certification (THE BOARD AND THE PERMITTING AGENCIES SHALL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE A FINAL DECISION APPROVING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AT LEAST ONE COMMERCIAL DISPOSAL FACILITY FOR HAZARDOUS WASTE IN THE STATE) except as otherwise provided in section 34.

Sec. 23. [115A.241] [PARTICIPATION BY FACILITY DEVELOPERS AND OPERATORS.]

The board shall solicit the participation of private developers and operators of waste facilities in the evaluation of hazardous waste disposal sites and facility specifications. To qualify for consideration as a developer or operator, a person shall submit a letter of intent to the board within 90 days following the publication of the board's draft plan pursuant to section 115A.08, subdivision 4. To qualify for selection as a developer or operator, a person shall submit operability reports to the board at least 60 days before the board's hearings under section 115A.27. The letters of intent and reports shall be in the form and contain the information deemed appropriate by the board.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.25, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

115A.25 [(AGENCY;) ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT.] (AN) A phased environmental impact statement (MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF CHAPTER 116D) shall be completed by the board and the agency (ON DISPOSAL FACILITIES AT EACH CANDIDATE SITE. THE STATEMENT SHALL BE FINALLY ACCEPTED OR REJECTED WITHIN 120 DAYS FOLLOWING THE ISSUANCE OF A CERTIFICATE OR CERTIFICATES OF NEED UNDER SECTION 115A.24). The statement must be prepared and reviewed in accordance with chapter 116D and the rules issued pursuant thereto, except as otherwise required by this section and sections 115A.11, 115A.24, 115A.28, and 115A.30. The board and agency shall follow the procedures in subdivisions 2 and 3 in lieu of the scoping requirements of chapter 116D and rules issued pursuant thereto. The statement shall be completed in two phases as provided in sections 25 and 26.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [PHASE I.] Phase I of the statement shall be completed by the board on the environmental effects of the board's decision on sites and facility specifications under section 115A.28. Phase I of the statement shall not address or reconsider alternative sites or facility numbers, types, capacity, function, and use which have been eliminated from consideration by the board's decisions under sections 115A.21 and 115A.24. The determination of the adequacy of phase I of the statement is exclusively the authority of the board. The governor shall establish an interagency advisory group to comment on the scope of phase I of the statement, to review drafts, and to provide technical assistance in the preparation and review of phase I of the statement. The advisory group shall include representatives of the agency, the departments of natural resources, health, agriculture, energy, planning and development, and transportation, and the Minnesota geological survey. In order to obtain the staff assistance necessary to prepare the statement, the chairperson of the board may request reassignment of personnel pursuant to section 16.21 and may arrange to have other agencies prepare parts of the statement pursuant to section 16.135.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [PHASE II.] Phase II of the statement shall be completed by the agency as a supplement to phase I specifically for the purpose of examining the environmental effects of the permitting decisions required to be made by the permitting agencies under section 34. In preparing, reviewing, and determining the adequacy of phase II of the statement, the agency shall not repeat or duplicate the research and analysis contained in phase I of the statement, except as the agency determines is necessary to examine the environmental effects of the permitting decisions. Phase II of the statement shall not address or reconsider alternative sites and facility numbers, types, capacity, function, and use which have been eliminated from consideration by the board's decisions under sections 115A.21, 115A.24, and 115A.28. The determination of adequacy of phase II of the statement must be made by the agency within 180 days following submission of the preliminary permit application or applications under section 34. The determination of the adequacy of phase II of the statement is exclusively the authority of the agency.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.25, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC DISCLOSURE.] Before commencing preparation of a phase of the environmental impact statement, the board or agency shall issue a document summarizing and making full disclosure of the intended objectives and contents of the environmental impact statement and the environmental review. Announcement of the disclosure shall be published in the state register, the environmental quality board monitor, and appropriate newspapers of general distribution. The disclosure shall:

- (a) identify the candidate sites;
- (b) summarize (PRELIMINARY DESIGN AND OPERATING) facility specifications and indicate where and when the specifications are available for inspection;
- (c) describe as fully as possible the object of the review, including the significant actions, issues, alternatives, types of impacts, and compensation and mitigation measures expected to be addressed in the statement; the depth of the analysis expected; and subjects which the statement will not address in depth because they have been disposed of previously or because they are believed to be insignificant or remote and speculative;
- (d) identify, by reference and brief summary, any related planning activities and environmental reviews which have been, are being, or will be conducted, and the substantive, chronological, and procedural relationship between the proposed review and the other activities and reviews;
- (e) identify the membership and address of the local project review committees and the names of the local representatives on the board;
- (f) summarize the comments and suggestions received from the public pursuant to subdivision 3 and the board's or agency's response.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.25, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PROCEDURES.] The public disclosure document shall be issued following diligent effort to involve the public in determining the objective and contents of the environmental impact statement. At least one public meeting shall be held in each county with a candidate site. The advice of the board, facility developers, state agencies, the local project review committees, and local units of government shall be actively solicited. The board or agency may engage the state hearing examiner to conduct meetings and make recommendations concerning the review. Each local project review committee shall present to the board or agency a written report summarizing local concerns and attitudes about the proposed action and the specific issues which the local communities and residents wish to see addressed in the environmental review.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.26, is amended to read:

115A.26 [AGENCIES; REPORT ON PERMIT CONDITIONS AND APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS.]

Within (60) 30 days following the board's determination of the adequacy of (THE FINAL) phase I of the environmental impact statement, and after consulting with the board, facility developers, affected local government units, and the local project review committees, the chief executive officer of each permitting state agency shall issue (A NOTICE OF INTENT TO ISSUE PERMITS INDICATING,) to the board draft reports on permit conditions and permit application requirements at each candidate site. The reports must indicate, to the extent possible based on existing information, the probable terms, conditions, and requirements of (AGENCY APPROVAL FOR ALL PERMITS NEEDED AT EACH CANDIDATE SITE FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FACILITIES DESCRIBED IN THE BOARD'S CERTIFICATION OF NEED) permits and the probable supplementary documentation that will be required for phase II of the environmental impact statement under section 115A.25 and for permit applications under section 34. The reports may be revised following the hearings under section 115A.27 as the chief executive officer deems necessary. The (AGENCY DECISIONS SHALL) reports must be consistent with the establishment of facilities in accordance with the certification of need.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.27, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BOARD HEARINGS.] Within (90) 120 days following the (ISSUANCE OF AGENCY NOTICE OF INTENT UNDER SECTION 115A.26) board's determination of the adequacy of phase I of the environmental impact statement under section 115A.25, the board shall conduct a hearing in each county containing a candidate site, for the purpose of receiving testimony on the (SITES AND FACILITIES TO BE ESTABLISHED) decisions required under section 115A.28. The hearings shall be ordered by the chairperson of the board (AND SHALL BE CONDUCTED CONCURRENTLY WITH ANY AGENCY HEARING REGARDING THE SITE HELD PURSUANT TO SUBDIVISION 1). The subject of the board hearing shall not extend to matters previously decided in the board's decision on sites under section 115A.21 and the certificate of need issued under section 115A.24. The hearing shall be conducted for the board by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner (DETERMINED BY THE HEARING EXAMINER

TO BE) consistent with the completion of the proceedings in the time allowed. The proceedings (SHALL) and the hearing procedures are not (BE DEEMED A) subject to the rule-making or contested case (UNDER) provisions of chapter 14. The hearing officer shall not issue a report but shall preside at the hearings to ensure that the hearings are conducted in a fair, orderly, and expeditious manner and in accordance with the hearing procedures of the board. A majority of the permanent members of the board shall be present at the hearing.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.28, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

115A.28 [FINAL (ACTION) DECISION.]

Subdivision 1. [DECISION OF BOARD.] Within 60 days following (FINAL AGENCY DECISIONS ON PERMITS PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 115A.26 AND 115A.27, SUBDIVISION 1) the conclusion of the hearings under section 115A.27, subdivision 2, and after consulting with private facility developers, the (AGENCY) permitting agencies, affected local government units, and the local project review committees, the board shall finally select the site or sites for the facilities (AND SHALL SUBMIT OR CAUSE TO BE SUBMITTED FINAL PERMIT APPLICATIONS) and the developer and operator of the facility shall prescribe further specifications on the number, type, capacity, function, and use of the facilities as the board deems appropriate, consistent with the board's certification of need issued under section 115A.24. If the chairperson of the board determines that an agency (NOTICE OF INTENT) report on permit conditions and application requirements has been substantially revised following hearings held pursuant to section 115A.27, subdivision (1) 2, the chairperson (SHALL) may delay the decision for 30 days and may order a public hearing to receive further testimony on the sites and facilities to be established. The proceeding shall be conducted as provided in section 115A.27, subdivision 2, except that hearings shall not be separately held in the affected counties and the issues relating to all agency (NOTICES) reports shall be considered at one hearing. (THE BOARD'S DECISION AND FINAL PERMIT APPLICATIONS SHALL EMBODY ALL TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS OF THE PERMITTING AGENCIES, PROVIDED THAT THE BOARD MAY: (A) FINALLY RESOLVE ANY CONFLICTS BETWEEN STATE AGENCIES REGARDING PERMIT TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS, AND (B) REQUIRE MORE STRINGENT TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS RESPECTING THE FACILITY AS MAY BE CONSISTENT WITH THE CERTIFICATION OF NEED AND THE AGENCY RULES AND PERMIT CONDITIONS. THE BOARD'S RESOLUTION OF CONFLICTS UNDER CLAUSE (A) SHALL BE IN FAVOR OF THE MORE STRINGENT TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS.) The board's decision (AND THE PERMIT APPLICATIONS) shall provide for the establishment of facilities consistent with the board's certification of need.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.28, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BOARD'S DECISION PARAMOUNT.] The board's decision under subdivision 1 shall be final and shall supersede and preempt requirements of state agencies and political subdivisions and the requirements of sections 473H.02 to 473H.17; except that a facility established pursuant to the decision shall be subject to (THOSE) terms, conditions, and requirements in permits of state or federal permitting agencies (EMBODIED IN THE BOARD'S DECISION), the terms of lease determined by the board under section 115A.06, subdivision 4, and any requirements imposed pursuant to subdivision 3. (THE PERMITTING AGENCIES SHALL ISSUE PERMITS WITHIN 60 DAYS FOLLOWING AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE BOARD'S FINAL DECISION, AND ALL PERMITS SHALL CONFORM TO THE TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS OF THE BOARD'S DECISION.) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no charter provision, ordinance, regulation, permit, or other requirement of any state agency or political subdivision shall prevent or restrict the establishment, operation, expansion, continuance, or closure of a facility in accordance with the final decision and leases of the board and permits issued (PURSUANT THERETO) by state or federal permitting agencies.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.28, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LOCAL REQUIREMENTS.] A political subdivision may impose reasonable requirements respecting the construction, inspection, operation, monitoring, and maintenance of a facility. Any such requirements shall be subject to review by the (AGENCY) board to determine their reasonableness and consistency with the establishment and use of a facility in accordance with the final decision and lease of the board and by the agency to determine their reasonableness and consistency with permits (ISSUED PURSUANT THERETO) of state and federal permitting agencies. The board or agency may approve, disapprove, suspend, modify, or reverse any such requirements. The decision of the board or agency shall be final.

Sec. 34. [115A.291] [PERMITS.]

Research and analysis necessary to the permit applications and permit decisions required under this chapter, and the supporting environmental study, must commence immediately following the board's decision under section 115A.28. Within 180 days following its final decision under section 115A.28, the board shall submit or cause to be submitted a preliminary application for permits for a facility or facilities consistent with its decision under section 115A.28. Following review by the permitting agencies and within 60 days following the agency's determination of the adequacy of phase II of the environmental impact statement, the board shall revise the application, or cause it to be revised, in accordance with the recommendations of the permitting agencies. In preparing its revised permit application, the board may amend its certification of need issued under section 115A.24 or its facility specifications under section 115A.28; if the board finds and determines, based upon the recommendations of the permitting agencies, that: (a) the amendments are necessary to secure permits for the construction and operation of the proposed facility at the proposed site, and (b) the recommendations and amendments are the result of new information or rules produced after the board's decisions under sections 115A.24 and 115A.28. Within 210 days following the submission of the revised permit application, the permitting agencies shall issue the necessary permits unless the pollution control agency determines that the facility or facilities proposed for permitting present environmental problems which cannot be addressed through the imposition of permit conditions.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.30, is amended to read:

115A.30 [JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

Any civil action maintained by or against the agency or board under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 shall be brought in the county where the board is located and shall take precedence over all other matters of a civil nature and be expedited to the maximum extent possible. Any person aggrieved by a (FINAL) decision of the board (AUTHORIZING FACILITIES) or an agency under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 may appeal therefrom (WITHIN 30 DAYS) as provided in chapter 14 within 30 days following all final decisions on the issuance of permits. No civil action shall be maintained pursuant to section 116B.03 with respect to conduct taken by a person pursuant to any environmental quality standard, limitation, regulation, rule, order, license, stipulation agreement or permit issued by the board under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30. Notwithstanding any provision of chapter 116B to the contrary, in any action brought under that chapter with respect to any decision or conduct undertaken by any person or the board or agency pursuant to sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 after the period for appeal under this section has lapsed, the plaintiff shall have the burden of proving that the evidence required under section 116B.10 was not reasonably available within the time provided for appeal. The trial court shall, upon motion of any prevailing non-governmental party, award costs, disbursements, reasonable attorney's fees, and reasonable expert witness fees, if the court finds the action hereunder was commenced or defended in bad faith or was frivolous.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.54, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATION; ASSURANCE OF FUNDS.]
The board shall provide technical and financial assistance for the acquisition and betterment of the facilities and transfer stations from revenues derived from the issuance of bonds authorized by section 115A.58. Facilities for the incineration of solid waste without resource recovery are eligible for assistance only if the board determines that the project will demonstrate governmental or financial innovations of statewide significance and application. Of money appropriated for the purposes of the demonstration program, at least 70 percent shall be distributed as loans, and the remainder shall be distributed as grants. An individual project may receive assistance totaling up to 100 percent of the capital cost of the project and grants up to 50 percent of the capital cost of the project. No grant or loan shall be disbursed to any recipient until the board has determined the total estimated capital cost of the project and ascertained that financing of the cost is assured by funds provided by the state, by an agency of the federal government within the amount of funds then appropriated to that agency and allocated by it to projects within the state, by any person, or by the appropriation of proceeds of bonds or other funds of the recipient to a fund for the construction of the project.

THE DISTRICT SHALL NOT DESIGNATE AND REQUIRE USE OF FACILITIES FOR MATERIALS WHICH ARE BEING DELIVERED TO ANOTHER RESOURCE RECOVERY FACILITY) The designation may not apply to or include:

(a) materials which are separated from solid waste and recovered for reuse in their original form or for use in manufacturing processes; or

(b) materials other than those described in clause (a) which are being delivered to another resource recovery facility unless the district finds and determines that the required use is consistent with criteria and standards concerning displacement of existing facilities and with the evaluation of resource recovery designation which are required in the solid waste management plan of the district.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.70, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [RELATIONSHIP TO COUNTY DESIGNATION PROCEDURES.] A district need not repeat the designation procedures set out in subdivision 4 to the extent that these procedures have been completed by each county having territory in the district or by a joint powers board composed of each county having territory in the district. A district need not submit the designation for review pursuant to subdivision 2 if the designation has already been approved under section 115A.071 following submission by each county having territory in the district or by a joint powers board composed of each county having territory in the district.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

"Hazardous waste" means any refuse, sludge, or (DISCARDED) other waste material or combinations of refuse, sludge or (DISCARDED) other waste materials in solid, semi-solid, liquid, or contained gaseous form which (CANNOT BE HANDLED BY ROUTINE WASTE MANAGEMENT TECHNIQUES) because (THEY) of its quantity, concentration, or chemical, physical, or infectious characteristics may (a) cause or significantly contribute to an increase in mortality or an increase in serious irreversible, or incapacitating reversible illness; or (b) pose a substantial present or potential hazard to human health or (OTHER LIVING ORGANISMS BECAUSE OF THEIR CHEMICAL, BIOLOGICAL, OR PHYSICAL PROPERTIES) the environment when improperly treated, stored, transported, or disposed of, or otherwise managed. Categories of hazardous waste materials include, but are not limited to: explosives, flammables, oxidizers, poisons, irritants, and corrosives. Hazardous waste does not include (SEWAGE SLUDGE AND) source, special nuclear, or by-product material as defined by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116.07, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RULES AND STANDARDS.] Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 14, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1969, Chapter 1046, for the prevention, abatement, or control of air pollution. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state, or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances, or conditions in order to make due allowance for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to sources or emissions of air contamination or air pollution, to the quality or composition of such emissions, or to the quality of or composition of the ambient air or outdoor atmosphere or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement, or control of air pollution.

Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 14, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend, and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1969, Chapter 1046, for the collection, transportation, storage, processing, and disposal of solid waste and the prevention, abatement, or control of water, air, and land pollution which may be related thereto, and the deposit in or on land of any other material that may tend to cause pollution. The agency shall adopt such rules and standards for sewage sludge, addressing the intrinsic suitability of land, the volume and rate of application of sewage sludge of various degrees of intrinsic hazard, design of facilities, and operation of facilities and sites. The agency shall promulgate temporary rules for sewage sludge pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 14.29 to 14.36, the temporary rules shall be effective until permanent rules are promulgated or March 1, 1982, whichever is earlier. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances, or conditions in order to make due allowance for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to collection, transportation, processing, disposal, equipment, location, procedures, methods, systems or techniques or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement or control of water, air, and land pollution which may be advised through the control of collection, transportation, processing, and disposal of solid waste and sewage sludge, and the deposit in or on land of any other material that may tend to cause pollution. By January 1, 1983, the rules for the management of sewage sludge shall include an analysis of the sewage sludge determined by the commissioner of agriculture to be necessary to meet the soil amendment labeling requirements of section 17.716.

Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 14, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1971, Chapter 727, for the prevention, abatement, or control of noise pollution. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state, or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances or conditions in order to make due allowances for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to sources or emissions of noise or noise pollution, to the quality or composition of noises in the natural environment, or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement, or control of noise pollution.

As to any matters subject to this chapter, local units of government may set emission regulations with respect to stationary sources which are more stringent than those set by the pollution control agency.

Pursuant to chapter 14, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend, and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of this chapter for generators of hazardous waste, the management, identification, labeling, classification, storage, collection, treatment, transportation, processing, and disposal of hazardous waste and the location of hazardous waste facilities. A rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state or may be limited as to time, places, circumstances, or conditions. (THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION, IN COOPERATION WITH THE POLLUTION CONTROL AGENCY, SHALL SET STANDARDS FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF HAZARDOUS WASTE IN ACCORDANCE WITH CHAPTER 221.) In implementing its hazardous waste rules, the pollution control agency shall give high priority to providing planning and technical assistance to hazardous waste generators. The agency shall assist generators in investigating the availability and feasibility of both interim and long term hazardous waste management methods. The methods shall include waste reduction, waste separation, waste processing, resource recovery, and temporary storage.

The pollution control agency shall give highest priority in the consideration of permits to authorize disposal of diseased shade trees by open burning at designated sites to evidence concerning economic costs of transportation and disposal of diseased shade trees by alternative methods.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116.41, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [HAZARDOUS WASTE CLASSIFICATION.] By (JANUARY 1, 1982) September 1, 1985, the agency shall prescribe by rule criteria for excluding types and categories of hazardous wastes from disposal, criteria for accepting types and categories of wastes as suitable for disposal, and minimum pretreatment standards required as a condition of acceptance for disposal. The criteria and standards shall be based upon the degree of intrinsic hazard of the waste; the availability of conventional processing technologies for reducing, separating, reusing, recycling, and treating the waste; the feasibility and cost of applying the processing technologies in relation to the benefits to be achieved by such application; the class of facility; and other factors deemed relevant by the agency.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [INVENTORY OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL SITES.] By (FEBRUARY 1, 1982) September 1, 1983, the council shall adopt by resolution an inventory of eligible solid waste disposal sites and buffer areas within the metropolitan area. The council's inventory shall be composed of the sites and buffer areas proposed by the counties and reviewed and approved by the council pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1a. If a county does not have an approved inventory, the council shall adopt the required inventory for the county, following investigations by the council and public hearings as the council deems appropriate. The council's inventory shall satisfy all requirements and standards described in section 473.803, subdivision 1a, for sites and buffer areas proposed by counties. For sites and buffer areas included in the council's inventory, the moratorium imposed under section 473.803, subdivision 1a, shall extend until (OCTOBER 1, 1983) 90 days following the selection of sites pursuant to section 473.833, subdivision 3.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 2c, is amended to read:

Subd. 2c. [REPORT ON LOCAL EFFECTS OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITIES; REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] By (AUGUST 15, 1982) November 1, 1983, the council shall report to the legislative commission on methods of mitigating and compensating for the local risks, costs, and other adverse effects of solid waste disposal facilities and on methods of financing mitigation and compensation measures. The methods of mitigating and compensating to be considered shall include but not be limited to the following: payment outside of levy limitations in lieu of taxes for all property taken off the tax rolls; preference for the city or town containing a facility in federal A-95 reviews conducted by the council; payment of all costs to service the facilities including the costs of roads, monitoring, inspection, enforcement, police and fire, and litter clean up costs; payment for buffer zone amenities and improvements; city or town control over buffer zone design; elimination of the tipping charge for solid waste collected in the city or town; a guarantee against any and all liability that may occur; payment for reclamation of closed sites to local design specifications.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 2d, is amended to read:

Subd. 2d. [LAND DISPOSAL ABATEMENT PLAN.] By January 1, (1983) 1984, after considering county land disposal abatement proposals submitted pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1b, the council shall amend its policy plan to include specific and quantifiable objectives for abating the land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste. The plan shall include a reduced estimate, based on the council's abatement objectives, of the added solid waste disposal capacity needed in appropriate sectors of the metropolitan area, stated in annual increments through the year 1990 and thereafter in five year increments through the year 2000. The objectives in the plan shall be based upon standards for county resource recovery and waste reduction and separation programs and activities. The plan shall include standards and procedures to be used by the council in determining that metropolitan counties have not implemented the council's land disposal abatement plan and have not met the standards for county abatement programs and activities. The council shall report to the legislative commission on its abatement plan and on legislation that may be required to implement the plan.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 2e, is amended to read:

Subd. 2e. [SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITIES DEVELOPMENT SCHEDULE.] By January 1, (1983) 1984, after requesting and considering recommendations from the counties, cities, and towns, the council as part of its policy plan shall determine the number and capacity of sites to be acquired within each metropolitan county for solid waste disposal facilities in accordance with section 473.833. The council shall adopt a schedule for development of disposal facilities by each (SUCH) county through the year 2000. The schedule shall be based upon the council's reduced estimate of the disposal capacity needed because of the council's land disposal abatement plan. The council may make the implementation of elements of the schedule contingent on actions of the counties in adopting and implementing county abatement plans pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1b; and the council shall review the development schedule at least every two years and shall revise the development schedule as it deems appropriate based on the progress made in the adoption and implementation of the council and county abatement plans. The schedule may include procedures to be used by counties in selecting sites for acquisition pursuant to section 473.833. The schedule shall include standards and procedures for council certification of need pursuant to section 473.823. The schedule shall include a facility closure schedule and plans for post-closure management and disposition, for the use of property after acquisition and before facility development, and for the disposition of property and development rights, as defined in section 473.833, no longer needed for disposal facilities. The schedule shall also include a closure schedule and plans for post-closure management for facilities in existence (PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 1983) before the adoption of the development schedule.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The council shall establish an advisory committee to aid in the preparation of the policy plan, the performance of the council's responsibilities under subdivisions 2 to 2e, the review of county master plans and reports and applications for permits for waste facilities, under sections 473.151 and 473.801 to 473.823 and sections 473.827, 473.831 and 473.833, and other duties determined by the council. The committee shall consist of one-third citizen representatives, one-third representatives from metropolitan counties and municipalities, and one-third representatives from private waste management firms. From (OCTOBER 1, 1981 TO JANUARY 1, 1983) at least the date that the council adopts the inventory under subdivision 2b to the date that the council adopts a development schedule under subdivision 2e, for the purpose only of participating in the preparation of the legislative report required by subdivision 2c (AND), the land disposal abatement plan required by subdivision 2d, and the development schedule required by subdivision 2e, additional members shall be included on the advisory committee sufficient to assure that at least one-third of the members of the committee are residents of cities or towns containing eligible solid waste disposal sites included in the council's disposal site inventory, and that counties containing three sites have at least two additional members and counties containing one or two sites have at least one additional member. A representative from the pollution control agency, one from the waste management board established under section 115A.04, and one from the Minnesota health department shall serve as ex officio members of the committee.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CANDIDATE SITE SELECTION.] (BY DECEMBER 15, 1981.) The council shall select (SIX) candidate sites for the disposal of the commission's sewage sludge and solid waste, together with appropriate surrounding buffer areas. The council shall select at least four candidate sites by September 1, 1983. The council shall evaluate sites for candidacy on the basis of at least the following factors: local land use and land use controls, the protection of agriculture and natural resources, existing and future development patterns, transportation facilities, distance from the points of generation, and the intrinsic suitability of sites compared with other potential sites. Notwithstanding any plan, charter provision, law, ordinance, regulation, or other requirement of the council, counties, or local units of government, no land shall be excluded from consideration for candidacy except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable. No site shall be selected for candidacy unless the agency certifies its intrinsic suitability for the use intended, based on preliminary environmental analysis and on-site surveys and investigations conducted by the council. The council shall provide to the agency data relating to the intrinsic suitability of the sites to be proposed as candidate sites as soon as available (BUT NO LATER THAN AUGUST 15, 1981). (BY SEPTEMBER 1, 1981,) The council shall propose at least six locations as candidate sites and the director of the agency shall issue a notice indicating which of those sites the director recommends be certified as intrinsically suitable. The director shall publish notice of a consolidated hearing on the recommendation. Notice shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area and shall be sent by mail to local government units containing a proposed candidate site. The hearing shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the council and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The rulemaking and contested case procedures of chapter 14 shall not apply to this hearing. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify them accordingly (BY DECEMBER 1, 1981) within 90 days of the council's proposal of a site. The agency shall not be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 14 on criteria and standards to govern its certification of intrinsic suitability under this section. No action of the agency shall be held invalid by reason of the agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision. In selecting candidate sites, the council shall prefer land which is capable of being returned to its existing use or the use anticipated in a plan of a metropolitan agency, county, or local unit of government use after closure of a disposal facility.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ENVIRONMENTAL (AND PERMIT) REVIEW.] An environmental impact statement (MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF CHAPTER 116D SHALL) must be completed on (EACH CANDIDATE SITE, PROVIDED THAT) the environmental effects of the council's decisions required by subdivision 6. The statement (SHALL) must be (FINALLY ACCEPTED OR REJECTED WITHIN 280 DAYS OF THE SELECTION OF CANDIDATE SITES. WITHIN 90 DAYS FOLLOWING THE ACCEPTANCE OF THE STATEMENT, THE AGENCY SHALL INDICATE THE CONDITIONS AND TERMS OF APPROVAL OF ALL PERMITS NEEDED AT EACH CANDIDATE SITE) prepared and reviewed in accordance with chapter 116D and the rules issued pursuant thereto, except as otherwise required by this section. The statement must not address or reconsider alternatives eliminated from con- sideration pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 2 and must not address the matters to be decided by the council pursuant to subdivision 6b.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [AGENCIES; REPORT ON PERMIT CONDITIONS AND APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS.] Within 30 days following the council's determination of adequacy pursuant to subdivision 5, the chief executive officer of each permitting state agency shall issue to the council reports on permit conditions and permit application requirements at each candidate site. The reports must indicate, to the extent possible based on existing information, the probable terms, conditions, and requirements of permits and the probable supplementary documentation that will be required for permit applications. The reports must be consistent with the establishment of facilities in accordance with the requirements of this section, must not address or reconsider alternatives eliminated from consideration under subdivisions 1 and 2, and must not address the matters to be decided by the council pursuant to subdivision 6b.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COUNCIL SITE SELECTION.] Within 90 days following the (AGENCY'S DECISION ON PERMIT CONDITIONS AND TERMS) determination of adequacy, the council shall select at least one of the candidate sites for acquisition and development by the commission. Before its selection the council shall consult with the advisory committee and affected counties, cities, and towns.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, subdivision 6b, is amended to read:

Subd. 6b. [CERTIFICATION OF NEED.] No new facility for disposing of (SLUDGE,) ash (,) and other waste generated by the commission shall be permitted in the metropolitan area without a certification of need issued by the council indicating the council's determination:

(a) that the disposal of waste with concentrations of hazardous materials is necessary; and

(b) that the additional ash disposal capacity planned for the facility is needed.

The council shall certify need only to the extent that there are no feasible and prudent methods of reducing the concentrations of hazardous materials in the waste and no feasible and prudent alternatives to the ash disposal facility, including large-scale composting and co-composting of sludge, which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources. Methods and alternatives that are speculative or conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. Economic considerations alone shall not justify the certification of need or the rejection of methods or alternatives, including large-scale composting and co-composting of sludge as an alternative to incineration. In its certification the council shall not consider alternatives which have been eliminated from consideration by the selection of sites pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 6.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6c. [CERTIFICATION OF NEED; RESTRICTION.] No certification of need may be issued by the council pursuant to subdivision 6b until the report required by this subdivision is submitted to the legislative commission on waste management. The council shall submit the report by January 1, 1984. The report shall evaluate the potential of large-scale sewage sludge composting and co-composting to reduce the need for sewage sludge incineration, sewage sludge ash disposal, and mixed municipal solid waste land disposal; recommend institutional arrangements necessary for the implementation of large-scale sewage sludge composting and co-composting; and compare the costs and benefits of composting and co-composting with the costs, including costs already incurred, and the benefits of incineration.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.803, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [PROPOSED INVENTORY OF DISPOSAL SITES.] By October 15, 1981, each county shall adopt, by resolution of its governing body, an inventory of four proposed sites in the county suitable for mixed municipal solid waste disposal facilities (AND ONE PROPOSED SITE IN THE COUNTY SUITABLE FOR THE DISPOSAL OF DEMOLITION DEBRIS) and shall submit the inventory to the council for approval or disapproval. The council shall evaluate and approve or disapprove each proposed site in accordance with the standards set out in this subdivision. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, each site shall satisfy the standards and criteria in federal and state regulations and the council's policy plan for solid waste management. In proposing and approving sites for the inventory, the counties and the council shall prefer land which is capable of being returned to its existing use or the use anticipated in a plan of a metropolitan agency, county, or local unit of government use after closure of a disposal facility. Each site shall contain no less than 80 acres and no more than 250 acres. Each proposed site shall be surrounded by a buffer area at least equal to the area of the site. No site shall be adopted by a county or the council as part of an inventory unless the agency certifies its intrinsic suitability for the use intended, based on preliminary environmental analysis and on site surveys and investigations conducted by the county. Notwithstanding any plan, charter provision, law, ordinance, regulation, or other requirement of any state agency or political subdivision, no land shall be excluded from consideration for inclusion in the inventory except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable. Each county shall provide to the agency data relating to the intrinsic suitability of the sites to be proposed for the inventory as soon as available (BUT NO LATER THAN JUNE 15, 1981). By July 1, 1981 each county shall propose at least the number of sites required for the inventory, and the director of the agency shall issue a notice indicating which of those sites the director recommends be certified as intrinsically suitable. Notice of hearings on the director's recommendation shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area and shall be sent by mail to the metropolitan council and local government units containing a proposed inventory site. A hearing shall be held in each metropolitan county and shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the county and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The rulemaking and contested case procedures of chapter 14 shall not apply to this hearing. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify them accordingly (BY OCTOBER 1, 1981) within 90 days of the county's proposal of a site. The agency shall not be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 15 on criteria and standards to govern its certification of intrinsic suitability under this section. No action of the agency shall be held invalid by reason of the agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision. The council shall evaluate each site with respect to local land use and land use controls, the protection of agriculture and natural resources, existing and future development patterns, transportation facilities and other services and facilities appropriate to land disposal facilities, the quality of other potential sites, and patterns of generation of solid waste. The council shall notify a county of any site proposed by the county which the council disapproves and shall allow the county 60 days to propose an alternative site. If the county fails to propose an alternative acceptable to the council in the time allowed, the council shall propose a site acceptable to it for inclusion in the inventory of sites in that county. If in the council's judgment a county does not contain the requisite number of satisfactory sites, the council may reduce the number of sites required of that county. In order to permit the comparative evaluation of sites and the participation of affected localities in decisions about the use of sites, a moratorium is hereby imposed as provided in this subdivision on development within the area of each site and buffer area proposed by a county, pending the council's adoption of an inventory pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2b. For sites and buffer areas included in the council's inventory, the moratorium shall extend until (OCTOBER 1, 1983) 90 days following the selection of sites pursuant to section 473.833, subdivision 3, except that the council may at any time, with the approval of the county in which the site is located, abrogate the application of the moratorium to a specific site or sites or buffer areas. No development shall be allowed to occur within the area of a site or buffer area during the period of the moratorium without the approval of the council. No county, city, or town land use control shall permit development which has not been approved by the council, nor shall any county, city, or town sanction or approve any subdivision, permit, license, or other authorization which would allow development to occur which has not been approved by the council. The council shall not approve actions which would jeopardize the availability of a site for use as a solid waste facility. The council may establish guidelines for reviewing requests for approval under this subdivision. Requests for approval shall be submitted in writing to the chairman of the council and shall be deemed to be approved by the council unless the chairman otherwise notifies the submitter in writing within 15 days.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.803, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [LAND DISPOSAL ABATEMENT.] By April 1, 1982, after considering the council's disposal abatement report submitted to the counties pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2a, each county shall submit to the council a proposal to reduce to the greatest feasible and prudent extent the need for and practice of land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste. The proposal shall address at least waste reduction, separation, and resource recovery. The proposal shall include objectives, immediately and over specified time periods, for reducing the land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste generated within the county. The proposal shall describe specific functions to be performed and activities to be undertaken by the county and cities and towns within the county to achieve the objectives and shall describe the estimated cost, proposed manner of financing, and timing of the functions and activities. The proposal shall include alternatives which could be used to achieve the objectives if the proposed functions and activities are not established. (BY JUNE 1, 1983.) Each county shall revise its master plan to include a land disposal abatement element to implement the council's land disposal abatement plan adopted under section 473.149, subdivision 2d, and shall submit the revised plan to the council for review under subdivision 2 within nine months after the adoption of the council's abatement plan. The proposal and master plan revision required by this subdivision shall be prepared in consultation with cities and towns within the county, particularly the cities and towns in which a solid waste disposal facility is or may be located pursuant to the county master plan.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.823, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COUNCIL; CERTIFICATION OF NEED.] No new mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility shall be permitted in the metropolitan area without a certificate of need issued by the council indicating the council's determination that the additional disposal capacity planned for the facility is needed in the metropolitan area. The council shall amend its policy plan, adopted pursuant to section 473.149, to include standards and procedures for certifying need. The standards and procedures shall be based on the council's disposal abatement plan adopted pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2d, and the abatement master plans of counties adopted pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1b. The council shall certify need only to the extent that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives to the disposal facility, including waste reduction, source separation and resource recovery which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources. Alternatives that are speculative or conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. Economic considerations alone shall not justify the certification of need or the rejection of alternatives. In its certification the council shall not consider alternatives which have been eliminated from consideration by the adoption of the inventory pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2b, or the selection of sites under section 473.833, subdivision 3.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.831, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [USE OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of bonds issued under subdivision 1 shall be used (PURSUANT TO SECTION 473.833,) by the council, for the purposes provided in subdivision 1 and to make grants to metropolitan counties to pay the cost of the environmental review of sites and the acquisition of all property or interests in property for solid waste disposal sites and surrounding buffer areas required to be acquired by the county, pursuant to section 473.833, by the council's policy plan and development schedule adopted pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2e. If the council is required by law or regulation to prepare environmental analyses on one or more solid waste disposal sites and surrounding buffer areas, the council may use the proceeds of the bonds issued under subdivision 1 to contract for consultant services in the preparation of such analyses only upon a finding that equivalent expertise is not available among its own staff.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.833, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [ENVIRONMENTAL (ANALYSIS) IMPACT STATEMENT.] (BY JANUARY 1, 1983,) Each metropolitan county shall complete an (ANALYSIS COMPARING) environmental impact statement on the environmental effects of (SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITIES AT THE SITES IN THE COUNTY WHICH ARE INCLUDED IN THE METROPOLITAN INVENTORY OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL SITES ADOPTED BY THE METROPOLITAN COUNCIL PURSUANT TO SECTION 473.149, SUBDIVISION 2b) the decision required by subdivision 3. The (ANALYSIS) statement shall be (IN DETAIL SUFFICIENT, IN THE JUDGMENT OF THE COUNTY BOARD, TO INFORM ADEQUATELY THE COUNTY SITE SELECTION AUTHORITY ESTABLISHED UNDER SUBDIVISION 3 OF THE ENVIRONMENTAL EFFECTS OF FACILITIES AT SITES WITHIN THE COUNTY AND TO ASSURE THAT FACILITIES AT THE SITES CAN REASONABLY BE EXPECTED TO QUALIFY FOR PERMITS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RULES OF THE AGENCY) prepared and reviewed in accordance with chapter 116D and the rules issued pursuant thereto, except as otherwise required by section 473.149 and this section. The determination of adequacy must be made within one year following the council's adoption of the facilities development schedule pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2e. The statement must be consistent with the establishment of facilities in accordance with the requirements of the council's development schedule, must not address or reconsider alternatives eliminated from consideration under sections 473.149, 473.803, subdivisions 1, 1a, and 1b, and this section, and must not address matters to be determined by the council under section 473.823, subdivision 6. The statement must address matters respecting permitting under section 473.823 only to the extent deemed necessary for the siting decision required by subdivision 3 of this section. The pollution control agency and the council shall assist and advise counties in the scoping decision and the preparation notice.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.833, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [AGENCIES; COUNCIL; REPORT ON PERMIT CONDITIONS AND APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS.] Within 30 days following the county's determination of adequacy under subdivision 2a, the chief executive officer of the metropolitan council and each permitting state agency shall issue to the county reports on permit conditions and permit application requirements at each site in the county. The reports must indicate, to the extent possible based on existing information, the probable terms, conditions, and requirements of permits and the probable supplementary documentation and environmental review that will be required for permit applications pursuant to chapter 116 and section 473.823. The reports must be consistent with the establishment of facilities in accordance with the requirements of the council's development schedule adopted under section 473.

149, subdivision 2e, must not address or reconsider alternatives eliminated from consideration under sections 473.149, 473.803, subdivisions 1, 1a, and 1b, and this section, and must not address matters to be determined by the council under section 473.823, subdivision 6.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.833, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COUNTY SITE SELECTION AUTHORITIES.] Each metropolitan county shall establish a site selection authority. (BY JUNE 1, 1983) Within 90 days following the county's determination of adequacy under subdivision 2a, each site selection authority shall select specific sites within the county from the council's disposal site inventory, in accordance with the procedures established by the council under section 473.149, subdivision 2e, and in a number and capacity equal to that required by the council to be acquired by the county. Each site selection authority shall be composed of the county board, plus one member appointed by the governing body of each city or town within the county containing a site in the council's disposal site inventory or the majority of the land contained within such a site. If the number of members on the site selection authority who reside in a city or town containing all or part of a site or buffer area is equal to or greater than the number of members who do not, the chairman of the county board shall appoint to the authority an additional member or members, residing within the county but not within a city or town containing all or part of a site or buffer area, sufficient to assure a majority of one on the authority of members residing in cities and towns not containing all or any part of a site or buffer area. The chairman of the county board shall be the chairman of the site selection authority. If a site selection authority has not selected the requisite number and capacity of sites in accordance with the council's standards, criteria, and procedures (BY JUNE 1, 1983) within the time allowed by this subdivision, the council shall make the selection. A county may not be required to develop a solid waste disposal facility at a site selected pursuant to this subdivision in a municipality in which a mixed municipal solid waste resource recovery facility is located unless the council determines that the capacity and number of disposal facilities required by the development schedule for that county cannot be provided in that county without development of the disposal facility.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.833, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FAILURE OF COUNTIES TO ACQUIRE; REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] If any county fails to identify property for acquisition or (IF ANY COUNTY REFUSES) to proceed with environmental analysis and acquisition, as required by this section and the council's disposal facility development schedule adopted pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2e, the council shall prepare and recommend (TO THE LEGISLATURE, NO LATER THAN JANUARY 1, 1984,) legislation to transfer solid waste management authority and responsibility in the metropolitan area from the counties to the waste control commission or a new metropolitan commission established for that purpose.

Sec. 63. [SLUDGE INCINERATION.]

The metropolitan waste control commission established by section 473.503 may not acquire or expand additional incineration facilities, or plan or undertake studies for such acquisition and expansion, until the report required by section 55 is submitted.

Sec. 64. [REPEALER]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 115A.23; 115A.27, subdivision 1; 116.07, subdivision 4c; and 116.41, subdivision 1, are repealed.

Sec. 65. [APPLICATION.]

“Section 1. [PURPOSE.]

In order to revitalize University Avenue with commercial development and housing, the legislature finds that the creation of a joint development commission by the cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul to promote commercial investment and housing and to construct a transit system linking the two cities along the University Avenue route is necessary and beneficial.

Sec. 2. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSION.] “Commission” means the University Avenue development commission created in section 3.

Subd. 2. [TRANSIT SYSTEM.] “Transit system” means, without limitation, a combination of property, structures, improvement, equipment, plants, parking, or other facilities, used or useful, for the purpose of public transit.

Subd. 3. [DEVELOPMENT ZONE.] “Development zone” means the area included in the commission’s development programs. The boundaries shall be determined by the commission before implementation of any programs by the commission.

Sec. 3. [UNIVERSITY AVENUE DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; MEMBERS.] The University Avenue development commission is created. The commission shall be composed of the following voting members: the mayors of St. Paul and Minneapolis; two members of the St. Paul city council appointed by the council; and two members of the Minneapolis city council appointed by the council. Two of the council members serving on the commission shall represent the involved University Avenue area. The chair or designee of the citizens advisory committee shall be a non-voting member of the commission.

Subd. 2. [TERMS OF THE MEMBERS.] Each member shall serve until a successor has been selected, unless tenure is terminated by resignation, removal, death, or otherwise as provided by law. All members shall serve without compensation for their services, except for necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duty.

Sec. 8. [PHASE II.]

Subdivision 1. Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.50, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION.] "Governmental subdivision" means (A) any county, and those home rule charter (CITY) cities, statutory (CITY) cities, (TOWN OR SPECIAL TAXING DISTRICT DETERMINED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE, EXCEPT A TOWN THAT HAS) and towns having the powers of statutory cities pursuant to section 368.01 or special law, having a population of (LESS THAN) 5,000 or more according to the most recent federal census, provided that the population of an incorporated municipality located within the boundaries of a town is not included in the population of the town. (THE TERM DOES NOT INCLUDE SCHOOL DISTRICTS OR THE METROPOLITAN TRANSIT COMMISSION CREATED PURSUANT TO SECTION 473.404.)

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in (1982) 1983 payable in (1983) 1984 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, but only to the extent of the increase in levy for such judgments and out of court settlements over levy year 1970, taxes payable in 1971;

(b) pay the costs of complying with any written lawful order initially issued prior to January 1, 1977 by the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof, which is authorized by law, statute, special act or ordinance and is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction, or any stipulation agreement or permit for treatment works or disposal system for pollution abatement in lieu of a lawful order signed by the governmental subdivision and the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof which is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner of revenue shall in consultation with other state departments and agencies, develop a suggested form for use by the state of Minnesota, its agencies and subdivisions in issuing orders pursuant to this subdivision;

(c) pay the costs to a governmental subdivision for their minimum required share of any program otherwise authorized by law for which matching funds have been appropriated by the state of Minnesota or the United States, excluding the administrative costs of public assistance programs, to the extent of the increase in levy for the taxes payable year 1983 and subsequent years over the amount levied for the local share of the program for the taxes payable year 1971. This clause shall apply only to those programs or projects for which matching funds have been designated by the state of Minnesota or the United States on or before September 1, of the previous year and only when the receipt of these matching funds is contingent upon the initiation or implementation of the project or program during the year in which the taxes are payable or those programs or projects approved by the commissioner;

(d) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. Except for the costs of general assistance medical care under section 256D.03 and the costs of hospital care pursuant to section 261.21, the aggregate amounts levied pursuant to this clause are subject to a maximum increase of 18 percent over the amount levied for these purposes in the previous year;

(e) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness, or (, EFFECTIVE FOR TAXES LEVIED IN 1973 AND YEARS THEREAFTER,) to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(f) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency;

(g) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(h) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(i) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in manufactured homes property tax receipts to the extent that the governmental subdivision's portion of the total levy in the current levy year, pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, as amended, is less than the distribution of the manufactured homes tax to the governmental subdivision pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, in calendar year 1971;

(j) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission (IN LEVY YEAR 1971 OR A SUBSEQUENT LEVY YEAR), but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(k) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(l) pay the increased cost of municipal services as the result of an annexation or consolidation ordered by the Minnesota municipal board (IN LEVY YEAR 1971 OR A SUBSEQUENT LEVY YEAR), but only to the extent and for the levy years as provided by the board in its order pursuant to section 414.01, subdivision 15. Special levies authorized by the board shall not exceed 50 percent of the levy limit base of the governmental subdivision and may not be in effect for more than three years after the board's order;

(m) pay the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, to the extent that the extension of such services are not paid for through bonded indebtedness or special assessments, and not to exceed the amount determined as follows. The governmental subdivision may calculate the aggregate of:

(1) The increased expenditures necessary in preparation for the delivering of municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, but limited to one year's expenditures one time for each such development;

(2) The amount determined by dividing the overall levy limitation established pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56, and exclusive of special levies and special assessments, by the total taxable value of the governmental subdivision, and then multiplying this quotient times the total increase in assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development within the governmental subdivision. For the purpose of this clause, the increase in the assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development is calculated as the increase in assessed value over the assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development as most recently determined before the building permit was issued. In the fourth levy year subsequent to the levy year in which the building permit was issued, the increase in assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development shall no longer be included in determining the special levy.

The aggregate of the foregoing amounts, less any costs of extending municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development which are paid by bonded indebtedness or special assessments, equals the maximum amount that may be levied as a "special levy" for the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development (. IN THE LEVY YEAR FOLLOWING THE LEVY YEAR IN WHICH THE SPECIAL LEVY MADE PURSUANT TO THIS CLAUSE IS DISCONTINUED, ONE-HALF OF THE AMOUNT OF THAT SPECIAL LEVY MADE IN THE PRECEDING YEAR SHALL BE ADDED TO THE PERMANENT LEVY BASE OF THE GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION);

(n) recover a loss or refunds in tax receipts incurred in non-special levy funds resulting from abatements or court action in the previous year pursuant to section 275.48;

(o) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced (FOR LEVY YEAR 1977 AND SUBSEQUENT YEARS) by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(p) pay the amounts allowed under section 174.27 to establish and administer a commuter van program;

(q) pay the costs of financial assistance to local governmental units and certain administrative, engineering, and legal expenses pursuant to Laws 1979, Chapter 253, Section 3;

(r) compensate for revenue lost as a result of abatements or court action pursuant to sections 270.07, 270.17 or 278.01 due to a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;

(s) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in revenues from public service enterprises, municipal liquor stores, licenses, permits, fines, and forfeits, to the extent that the aggregate of revenues from these sources in the calendar year preceding the year of levy are less than the inflation adjusted aggregate of revenues from these sources in calendar year 1981. "Revenues" from a public service enterprise or a municipal liquor store means the net income or loss of the public service enterprise or municipal liquor store, determined by subtracting total expenses from total revenues, and before any contribution to or from the governmental subdivision. "Fines" for a municipal court means the net amount remaining after subtracting total municipal court expenses from total collections of municipal court fines. The "inflation adjusted aggregate of revenues in calendar year 1981" is the aggregate of revenues received in calendar year 1981 increased by a percentage equal to the total percentage increase in the consumer price index for the Minneapolis-St. Paul area from the calendar year 1981 to June of the levy year. The commissioner of revenue shall calculate and notify the governmental subdivisions of the inflation adjustment by September of the levy year. A governmental subdivision qualifies for this special levy only if the decrease in aggregate revenues as computed herein is equal to or greater than two percent of the levy limitation for the preceding levy year;

(t) pay the cost to a governmental subdivision of implementing section 18.023, including sanitation and reforestation, as defined in section 18.023, subdivision 1, provided that the subdivision did not levy a special levy for the taxes payable year 1981 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, section 275.50, subdivision 6;

(u) pay the cost of acquisition or betterment of property for which bonds could have been issued pursuant to section 475.52, subdivision 1, to the extent that the acquisition or betterment was paid for with funds not obtained by the issuance of obligations of the subdivision. When an amount is levied pursuant to this clause, the subdivision shall be subject to the procedures for public hearings and referendums established in chapters 373, 412 or 475 or special law, whichever is applicable, that would have applied if the subdivision had issued obligations to pay for the property;

(v) compensate for revenue lost as the result of a reduction of the following state aids or property tax credits and reimbursements:

(1) Local government aid paid pursuant to section 477A.015 if the reduction results in a local government aid distribution which is less than the amount that was originally certified to the subdivision by the commissioner of revenue;

(2) Property tax credits and reimbursements determined in accordance with sections 273.115, 273.116, and 273.13, subdivision 6, 6a, 7, 7d, or 14a, which are paid pursuant to sections 273.139 and 273.13, subdivision 15a, provided that the reductions in the payment amounts are not due to errors in the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner of revenue by section 275.29;

(w) compensate for a reduction in federal general revenue sharing funds, for the levy year following any year in which the reduction exceeds ten percent of the amount received in the previous year.

The special levies established in Laws 1981, First Special Session, chapter 1, article V, sections 10, 11, and 12 or in any other general or special law enacted in the 1981 or 1982 sessions of the legislature shall continue to be levied outside of the levy limits set in sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [IMPLICIT PRICE DEFLATOR.] "Implicit price deflator" means the implicit price deflator for government purchases of goods and services for state and local government prepared by the bureau of economic analysis of the United States department of commerce.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [LEVY LIMIT BASE.] (a) A governmental subdivision's levy limit base for the taxes payable year 1984 is established by adding the governmental subdivision's levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1983, calculated pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, subdivision 3e, to the local government aid that it was certified to receive for calendar year 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 477A.011 to 477A.03.

(b) For the taxes payable year 1985 and subsequent years, a governmental subdivision's levy limit base is equal to its adjusted levy limit base for the preceding year.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [ADJUSTED LEVY LIMIT BASE.] The adjusted levy limit base is equal to the levy limit base computed pursuant to subdivision 3f, increased by:

(a) a percentage equal to the percentage growth in the implicit price deflator for the 12-month period ending in the second quarter of the year preceding the taxes payable year, or seven percent, whichever is greater;

(b) a percentage equal to the greater of the percentage increases in population or in number of households, if any, for the most recent 12-month period for which data is available, using figures derived pursuant to section 11;

(c) the amount of any base adjustment authorized by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to subdivision 3h; and

(d) for the taxes payable year 1984, the amount by which its levy limitation for taxes payable in 1981 calculated pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56 exceeded the amount that it actually levied subject to limitation for taxes payable in 1981.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [BASE ADJUSTMENTS.] The commissioner of revenue shall approve the following levy limit base adjustments:

(a) Any governmental subdivision which reduced any of its unreserved, undesignated fund balances because of spending for nonspecial levy purposes in calendar year 1981 may have its levy limit base increased by no more than the amount of the reduction in the fund balances;

(b) Any governmental subdivision which has been required to provide new or substantially expanded services because of judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction, changes in state law, rules, or regulations, whether or not the judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction, changed law, rule, or regulation directly mandates new services, may have its levy limit base increased by no more than the amount required to finance the services, provided that the services may not be financed by special levies or special assessments. For purposes of this clause, "substantially expanded services" means services of a type provided prior to the enactment of the change in state law but which are required to be provided under the changed law to an extent that will increase the cost of providing that type of service by 30 percent or more;

(c) Any governmental subdivision which has been required to provide new or expanded services because of annexations, consolidations, mergers or new incorporations since 1981 may have its levy limit base increased by no more than the amount required to finance the general operating costs involved in the services;

(d) Any governmental subdivision which levies a special levy for paying the costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (m) may have its levy limit base increased for the year following the levy year in which the special levy is discontinued, by an amount equal to one-half of the amount levied as a special levy in the previous levy year; and

(e) Any city or town which has a levy limit base per capita that is below 85 percent of the arithmetic average of the levy limit base per capita for cities and towns subject to the levy limitations of sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the same economic development region may have its levy limit base increased by the amount required to bring its levy limit base per capita up to 85 percent of the arithmetic average of levy limit bases per capita for all cities and towns subject to the levy limitations of sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the region. On or before July 1 each year, the commissioner of revenue shall certify the average levy limit base per capita for each region for purposes of this clause.

Any governmental subdivision which desires to have its levy limit base adjusted under the provisions of this subdivision shall apply to the commissioner of revenue. Applications shall be in the form and accompanied by the data required by the commissioner.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [LEVY LIMITATION.] The levy limitation for a governmental subdivision shall be equal to the adjusted levy limit base determined pursuant to subdivision 3g, reduced by the total amount of local government aid that the municipality has been certified to receive in the taxes payable year pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014. The resulting figure is the maximum amount that the municipality may levy for the taxes payable year for all purposes except special levies and special assessments.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If in any year (SUBSEQUENT TO 1973) the levy made by a governmental subdivision exceeds the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56, except when (SUCH) the excess levy is due to the rounding of the mill rates of the governmental subdivision in accordance with section 275.28, subsequent distributions required to be made by the commissioner of finance from any formula aids pursuant to sections 477A.011 to (477A.014) 477A.015, shall be reduced 33 cents for each full dollar the levy exceeds the limitation; provided that a governmental subdivision may determine to levy in excess of the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56 by not more than five percent by passing a resolution setting forth the amount by which the levy limit is proposed to be exceeded. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the proposed increase. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the governing body may determine to take no further action or, in the alternative, adopt a resolution authorizing the levy as originally proposed or approving a levy in the lesser amount it determines. The resolution authorizing a levy in excess of the limitation imposed by sections 275.50 to 275.56 shall be published in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the governmental subdivision in the last general election or 2,000 voters, whichever is less, requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision if the governmental subdivision is a city or town, or with the county auditor if the governmental subdivision is a county, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. A levy approved at a referendum held at a special or general election held prior to October 1 in any levy year increases the allowable levy in that levy year and provides a permanent adjustment to the levy limit base per capita of the governmental subdivision for future levy years, and there shall be no reduction in distributions of formula aids to the governmental subdivision as a result of the levy.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.53, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [POPULATION AND HOUSEHOLD ESTIMATES.] For the purpose of determining the amount of tax that a governmental subdivision may levy in accordance with limitation established by this chapter, the population or the number of households of the governmental subdivision shall be that established by the last federal census, by a census taken pursuant to subdivision 2, or by an estimate made by the metropolitan council, or by the state demographer made pursuant to section 116J.42, subdivision 7, clause (10), whichever is the most recent as to the stated date of count or estimate, up to and including July 1 of the current levy year.

Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, subdivision 3e, is repealed.

This article is effective for taxes levied in 1983, payable in 1984, and thereafter.

On July 1 of each odd-numbered year thereafter, the commissioner shall transfer to that budget reserve account an amount equal to 2-1/2 percent of the current total biennial general fund expenditures and transfers less dedicated revenue expenditures or a lesser amount as necessary to create a balance in the budget reserve account equal to five per cent of the then current biennium's total general fund expenditures and transfers less dedicated expenditures. “Sec. 5. [48.512] [PROCEDURES FOR OPENING CHECKING ACCOUNTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purpose of this section the following terms have the meanings given:

(a) “Financial intermediary” means any person doing business in this state who offers transaction accounts to the public.

(b) “Transaction account” means a deposit or account established and maintained by a natural person or persons under an individual or business name for personal, household, or business purposes, on which the depositor or account holder is permitted to make withdrawals by negotiable or transferable instruments, payment orders of withdrawal, or other similar device for the purpose of making payments or transfers to third persons or others, including demand deposits or accounts subject to check, draft, negotiable order of withdrawal, share draft, or other similar item. A transaction account does not include the deposit or account of a partnership having more than three partners, the personal representative of an estate, the trustee of a trust or a limited partnership.

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED INFORMATION.] Before opening or authorizing signatory power over a transaction account, a fi-financial intermediary shall require each applicant to provide the following information on an application document signed by the applicant under the penalties for perjury in section 609.48:

- (a) full name;
- (b) birth date;
- (c) address of residence;
- (d) address of current employment, if employed;
- (e) telephone numbers of residence and place of employment, if any;
- (f) social security number;
- (g) driver's license or identification card number issued pursuant to section 171.07. If the applicant does not have a driver's license or identification card, the applicant may provide an identification document number issued for identification purposes by any state, federal, or foreign government if the document includes the applicant's photograph, full name, birth date, and signature;
- (h) whether the applicant has had a transaction account at the same or another financial intermediary within 12 months immediately preceding the application, and, if so, the account number for each account;
- (i) whether the applicant has had a transaction account closed by a financial intermediary without the applicant's consent within 12 months immediately preceding the application, and, if so, the reason the account was closed; and
- (j) whether the applicant has been convicted of a criminal offense involving the use of a check or other similar item within 24 months immediately preceding the application.

A financial intermediary may require an applicant to disclose additional information.

Subd. 3. [ACCOUNT OPENING DATE.] All checks, drafts, negotiable orders of withdrawal, share drafts, or other similar items which are drawn against a transaction account after the effective date of this section shall, for a period of not less than 12 months, clearly display on the face thereof the month and year in which the account was opened, if:

- (a) the applicant represents on the application document that he has not maintained a transaction account within 12 months immediately preceding the application;

(b) the applicant represents on the application document that he has had a transaction account closed without his consent within 12 months immediately preceding the application; or

(c) the applicant represents on the application document that he has been convicted of a criminal offense involving the use of a check or other similar item within 24 months immediately preceding the application.

Subd. 4. [IDENTIFICATION IS REQUIRED.] A financial intermediary shall not open or authorize signatory power over a transaction account if none of the applicants provides a driver's license, identification card, or identification document as required by subdivision 2. When a minor is the applicant and the minor does not have a driver's license or identification card issued pursuant to section 171.07, the identification requirements of subdivision 2, clause (g), and this subdivision shall be satisfied if the minor's parent or guardian provides the parent's or guardian's own driver's license or identification card issued pursuant to section 171.07 and records the number of this license or identification card on the account application.

Subd. 5. [NO LIABILITY.] The requirements of this section shall not be construed to impose any liability on financial intermediaries offering transaction accounts nor to limit a financial intermediary's discretion as to whether to grant or deny an application subject to this section.

[WORTHLESS CHECK COLLECTIONS]

Sec. 6. [332.50] [CIVIL LIABILITY FOR ISSUANCE OF WORTHLESS CHECK.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] "Check" means a check, draft, order of withdrawal, or similar negotiable or nonnegotiable instrument.

"Credit" means an arrangement or understanding with the drawee for the payment of the check.

Subd. 2. [ACTS CONSTITUTING.] Whoever issues any check which, at the time of issuance, he intends shall not be paid, is liable to the holder for a civil penalty of $100 plus the amount of the check, interest at the rate payable on judgments pursuant to section 549.09 on the face amount of the check from the date of dishonor, reasonable attorney fees if the amount of the check is over $1,000, and a service charge not exceeding $15 if written notice of the charges authorized by this subdivision was conspicuously displayed on the premises when the check was issued and a notice of dishonor and a copy of sections 2 and 609.535 are sent to the drawer in compliance with subdivision 3.

This subdivision prevails over any provision of law limiting, prohibiting, or otherwise regulating service charges authorized by this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [PROOF OF INTENT.] Any of the following is evidence sufficient to establish a rebuttable presumption that the person at the time he issued the check intended it should not be paid:

(1) proof that, at the time of issuance, he did not have an account with the drawee;

(2) proof that, at the time of issuance, he did not have sufficient funds or credit with the drawee and that he failed to pay the check within five business days after mailing of notice of nonpayment or dishonor as provided in this subdivision; or

(3) proof that, when presentment was made within a reasonable time, the issuer did not have sufficient funds or credit with the drawee and that he failed to pay the check within five business days after mailing of notice of nonpayment or dishonor as provided in this subdivision.

Notice of nonpayment or dishonor and a copy of sections 2 and 690.535 shall be sent by the payee or holder of the check to the drawer by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by regular mail, supported by an affidavit of service by mailing, to the address printed or written on the check. The issuance of a check with an address printed or written on it is a representation by the drawer that the address is the correct address for receipt of mail concerning the check. Failure of the drawer to receive a regular or certified mail notice sent to that address is not a defense to liability under this section, nor does it rebut the presumption of intent established by this subdivision.

An affidavit of service by mailing shall be retained by the payee or holder of the check.

Subd. 4. [PROOF OF LACK OF FUNDS OR CREDIT.] If the check has been protested, the notice of protest thereof is admissible as proof of presentation, nonpayment, and protest, and is evidence sufficient to establish a rebuttable presumption that there was a lack of funds or credit with the drawee.

Subd. 5. [PROOF OF IDENTITY.] The check is prima facie evidence of the identity of the drawer if the person receiving the check:

(a) records the following information about the drawer on the check, unless it is printed on the face of the check:

(1) full name;

- (2) home or work address;
- (3) home or work telephone number; and
- (4) identification number issued pursuant to section 171.07;

(b) compares the drawer's physical appearance, signature, and the personal information recorded on the check with the drawer's identification card issued pursuant to section 171.07; and

(c) initials the check to indicate compliance with these requirements.

Subd. 6. [EXCEPTION.] Subdivision 3, clause (2), does not apply to a postdated check.

Subd. 7. [DEFENSES.] Any defense otherwise available to the drawer also applies to liability under this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 487.30, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [JURISDICTION; (WORTHLESS) DISHONORED CHECKS.] The conciliation court has jurisdiction to determine a civil action commenced by a plaintiff, resident of the county, to recover the amount of a (WORTHLESS) dishonored check as defined in section 2 issued in the county (WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 609.535), (NOTWITHSTANDING THAT) even though the defendant or defendants are not residents of the county (PROVIDED THAT), if the notice of nonpayment or dishonor (REQUIRED BY) described in section 609.535, subdivision 3, is sent to the maker or drawer as specified therein and the notice states that the payee or holder of the check (OR OTHER ORDER OF PAYMENT OF MONEY) may commence a conciliation court action in the county where the (WORTHLESS) dishonored check was issued to recover the amount of the check. This subdivision does not apply to a check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) that has been dishonored by a stop payment order. Notwithstanding any law or rule of civil procedure to the contrary, the summons in any action commenced under this subdivision may be served anywhere within the state of Minnesota. The conciliation court clerk shall attach a copy of the dishonored check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) to the summons before it is issued.

Subd. 3. [JURISDICTION.] (a) Excepting actions involving title to real estate, the court has jurisdiction to hear, conciliate, try, and determine civil actions at law where the amount in controversy does not exceed the sum of $1,250. The territorial jurisdiction of the court is coextensive with the geographic boundaries of the county of Hennepin.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of (CLAUSE) paragraph (a), or any rule of court to the contrary, the conciliation court of Hennepin county has jurisdiction to determine a civil action commenced by a plaintiff, a resident of Hennepin county, to recover the amount of a (WORTHLESS) dishonored check as defined in section 2 issued in the county (WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 609.535), (NOTWITHSTANDING THAT) even though the defendant or defendants are not residents of Hennepin county (PROVIDED THAT), if the notice of nonpayment or dishonor (REQUIRED BY) described in section 609.535, subdivision 3, is sent to the maker or drawer as specified therein and the notice states that the payee or holder of the check (OR OTHER ORDER OF PAYMENT OF MONEY) may commence a conciliation court action in the county where the (WORTHLESS) dishonored check was issued to recover the amount of the check. This clause does not apply to a check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) that has been dishonored by a stop payment order. Notwithstanding any law or rule of civil procedure to the contrary, the summons in any action commenced under this clause may be served anywhere within the state of Minnesota. The conciliation court administrator shall attach a copy of the dishonored check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) to the summons before it is issued.

[JURISDICTION.] (a) Excepting actions involving title to real estate, the court has jurisdiction to hear, conciliate, try and determine civil actions at law where the amount in controversy does not exceed the sum of $1,250. The territorial jurisdiction of the court is coextensive with the geographic boundaries of the county of Ramsey.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of (CLAUSE) paragraph (a) or any rule of court to the contrary, the conciliation court of Ramsey county has jurisdiction to determine an action brought pursuant to section 504.20 for the recovery of a deposit on rental property located in whole or in part in Ramsey county, and the summons in the action may be served anywhere in the state of Minnesota.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of (CLAUSE) paragraph (a) or any rule of court to the contrary, the conciliation court of Ramsey county has jurisdiction to determine a civil action commenced by a plaintiff, resident of Ramsey county, to recover the amount of a (WORTHLESS) dishonored check as defined in section 2 issued in the county (WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 609.535), (NOTWITHSTANDING THAT) even though the defendant or defendants are not residents of Ramsey county (PROVIDED THAT), if the notice of nonpayment or dishonor (REQUIRED BY) described in section 609.535, subdivision 3, is sent to the maker or drawer as specified therein and the notice states that the payee or holder of the check (OR OTHER ORDER OF PAYMENT OF MONEY) may commence a conciliation court action in the county where the (WORTHLESS) dishonored check was issued to recover the amount of the check. This clause does not apply to a check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR THE PAYMENT OF MONEY) that has been dishonored by a stop payment order. Notwithstanding any law or rule of civil procedure to the contrary, the summons in any action commenced under this clause may be served anywhere within the state of Minnesota. (MONEY FROM A PARTY ACCOUNT NOT DISTRIBUTED TO CANDIDATES FOR STATE SENATOR AND REPRESENTATIVE IN ANY ELECTION YEAR SHALL BE RETURNED TO THE GENERAL FUND OF THE STATE. MONEY FROM A PARTY ACCOUNT NOT DISTRIBUTED TO CANDIDATES FOR OTHER OFFICES IN AN ELECTION YEAR SHALL BE RETURNED TO THE PARTY ACCOUNT FOR REALLOCATION TO CANDIDATES AS PROVIDED IN CLAUSES (1) TO (6) OF THIS SUBDIVISION IN THE FOLLOWING YEAR. MONEYS FROM THE GENERAL ACCOUNT REFUSED BY ANY CANDIDATE SHALL BE DISTRIBUTED TO ALL OTHER QUALIFYING CANDIDATES IN PROPORTION TO THEIR SHARES AS PROVIDED IN THIS SUBDIVISION.)

(b) Congressional candidates. In each calendar year the money in each party account and the general account which has been segregated under subdivision 2 for allocation to congressional candidate offices shall be allocated as follows:

- (1) 33-1/3 percent for the office of United States senator;*
- (2) 66-2/3 percent for the offices of representative in congress.*

Subd. 5a. [FORMULA FOR DISTRIBUTION TO LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES.] (a) To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, moneys from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive moneys from his party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula;

For each county within his district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to his party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(1) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in his district for all candidates of his party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(2) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of his party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(3) The amount in his party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which he is a candidate.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of his party account.

(b) With respect to the formula set forth in paragraph (a), the terms "last general election" and "his district" have the following meanings:

(1) In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

(2) For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, "last general election" means the last general election in which the name of a candidate of that party appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state.

(3) In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "his district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

(c) If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (1) and (2) of paragraph (a). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (1) and (2) of paragraph (a) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Subd. 5b. [FORMULA FOR DISTRIBUTION TO CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.] The commissioner of revenue shall develop a formula for distribution of money to congressional candidates from the state elections campaign fund to assure that money will be returned to the counties from which it was collected, and to assure that the distribution of money rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular congressional candidates within congressional districts. Money distributed to congressional candidates from the state elections campaign fund shall be distributed according to the formula developed.

Subd. 5c. [UNDISTRIBUTED MONEYS.] Money in a party account not distributed in any election year to candidates for state senator and representative and congressional candidates for the office of representative in congress shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money in a party account not distributed in any election year to candidates for other offices or congressional candidates for the office of United States senator shall be retained in the party account but shall be reallocated in the following year to all of the candidate offices and congressional candidate offices as provided under subdivision 5. Money in the general account refused in any election year by a candidate or congressional candidate shall be distributed in that year as provided in subdivision 7 to all other qualifying candidates and congressional candidates in proportion to their shares as determined from the allocations and formulas set forth in subdivisions 5, 5a, and 5b.

Subd. 6. [DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS AFTER PRIMARY ELECTION.] Within two weeks after certification by the state canvassing board of the results of the primary, the state treasurer shall distribute the available funds in each party account, as certified by the commissioner of revenue on September 15, to the candidates and congressional candidates of that party who have signed (THE) an agreement, as provided in section (10A.-32. SUBDIVISION 3) 12, and whose names are to appear on the ballot in the general election, according to the allocations and formulas set forth in (SUBDIVISION) subdivisions 5, 5a, and 5b.

Subd. 7. [DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS AFTER GENERAL ELECTION.] Within two weeks after certification by the state canvassing board of the results of the general election, the state treasurer shall distribute the available funds in the general account, as certified by the commissioner of revenue on November 15 and according to allocations and formulas set forth in (SUBDIVISION) subdivisions 5, 5a, and 5b, in equal amounts to all candidates for each (STATEWIDE) state constitutional office and to all congressional candidates for the office of United States senator who received at least five percent of the votes cast in the general election for that office, and to all candidates for state legislative office and for the office of representative in congress who received at least ten percent of the votes cast in the general election for the specific office for which they were candidates or congressional candidates. The board shall not use the information contained in the report of the principal campaign committee of any candidate due ten days before the general election for the purpose of reducing the amount due that candidate from the general account.

Subd. 8. [CERTIFICATION OF AMOUNTS AFTER PRIMARY.] Within one week after certification by the state canvassing board of the results of the primary, the board shall certify to the state treasurer the name of each candidate and congressional candidate who has signed (THE) an agreement, as provided in section (10A.32, SUBDIVISION 3) 12, and the amount he is to receive from the available funds in his party account.

Subd. 9. [CERTIFICATION OF AMOUNTS AFTER GENERAL ELECTION.] Within one week after certification by the state canvassing board of the results of the general election, the board shall certify to the state treasurer the name of each candidate and congressional candidate who is qualified to receive funds from the general account, together with the amount he is to receive from the available funds in the general account.

Subd. 10. [CERTIFICATION OF AMOUNTS ACCUMULATED SINCE PREVIOUS CERTIFICATION.] In the event that on the date of either certification by the commissioner of revenue as provided in subdivisions 6 and 7, less than 98 percent of the tax returns have been processed, the commissioner of revenue shall certify to the board on December 7 the amount accumulated in each account since the previous certification. Within one week thereafter, the board shall certify to the state treasurer the amount to be distributed to each candidate and congressional candidate according to the allocations (AS PROVIDED) and formulas set forth in (SUBDIVISION) subdivisions 5, 5a, and 5b. As soon as practicable thereafter, the state treasurer shall distribute the amounts to the candidates and con- gressional candidates. Any moneys accumulated after the final certification shall be maintained in the respective accounts for distribution in the next general election year.

Subd. 11. [WRITE-IN CANDIDATES.] For the purposes of this section, a write-in candidate or congressional candidate is not a candidate or congressional candidate unless he complies with the provisions of section (10A.32, SUBDIVISION 3) 12.

Sec. 11. [10A.321] [ESTIMATES OF MINIMUM AMOUNTS TO BE RECEIVED.]

Subdivision 1. [CALCULATION AND CERTIFICATION OF ESTIMATES.] The commissioner of revenue shall calculate and certify to the board before the first day of July in an election year his estimate of (1) the total amount in the general account of the state elections campaign fund, and (2) the amount of money each candidate and congressional candidate who qualifies, as provided in section 10A.31, subdivisions 6 and 7, may receive from his party account in the state elections campaign fund. This estimate shall be based upon the allocations and formulas set forth in section 10A.31, subdivisions 5, 5a, and 5b, any necessary vote totals provided by the secretary of state for the purpose of applying the formulas set forth in section 10A.31, subdivisions 5 and 5b, and the amount of moneys expected to be available after 100 percent of the tax returns have been processed.

Subd. 2. [PUBLICATION, CERTIFICATION, AND NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES.] Prior to the first day of filing for office, the board shall publish and forward to all filing officers the estimates calculated and certified under subdivision 1. Within seven days after the last day for filing for office, the secretary of state shall certify to the board the name, address, office sought, and party affiliation of each candidate and congressional candidate who has filed with that office his affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot. The auditor of each county shall certify to the board the same information for each candidate and congressional candidate who has filed with that county his affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot. Within seven days thereafter, the board shall estimate the minimum amount to be received by each candidate and congressional candidate who qualifies, as provided in section 10A.31, subdivisions 6 and 7, and notify on or before August 15 all candidates and congressional candidates of the applicable amount. The board shall include with the notice a form for the agreement provided in section 12.

Sec. 12. [10A.322.] [SIGNED AGREEMENT AS CONDITION OF RECEIVING PUBLIC SUBSIDY IN FORM OF ALLOCATION FROM CAMPAIGN FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [SIGNED AGREEMENT BY CANDIDATE.] As a condition of receiving money from the state elections campaign fund, a candidate shall sign a written agreement with the board in which he agrees to the following:

(a) The aggregate of (i) expenditures made by the principal campaign committee of the candidate and (ii) approved expenditures made on behalf of the candidate may not exceed the expenditure limits set forth under section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255; and

(b) The aggregate of (i) contributions accepted by the principal campaign committee of the candidate and (ii) approved expenditures made on behalf of the candidate for the period beginning with January 1 of the election year or with the registration of the candidate's principal campaign committee, whichever occurs later, and ending December 31 of the election year may not exceed the difference between the expenditure limits for the office held or sought, as provided under section 10A.25 and as adjusted by section 10A.255, and the amount which the candidate receives from the state elections campaign fund.

Subd. 2. [SIGNED AGREEMENT BY CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.] As a condition of receiving money from the state elections campaign fund, a congressional candidate shall sign a written agreement with the board in which he agrees to the following:

(a) The aggregate of expenditures made by the authorized committees of the congressional candidate may not exceed the expenditure limits set forth under section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255; and

(b) The aggregate of contributions accepted by the authorized committees of the congressional candidate for the period beginning with January 1 of the election year or with the registration of the congressional candidate's principal campaign committee and any other authorized committees, whichever occurs later, and ending December 31 of the election year may not exceed the difference between the expenditure limits for the office held or sought, as provided under section 10A.25 and as adjusted by section 10A.255, and the amount which the congressional candidate receives from the state elections campaign fund.

Subd. 3. [SUBMISSION OF AGREEMENT.] Prior to the first day of filing for office, the board shall forward agreement forms to all filing officers. The candidate or congressional candidate may sign an agreement and submit it to the filing officer on the day he files his affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot. If he does so, the filing officer shall without delay forward signed agreements to the board. Alternatively, the candidate or congressional candidate may submit the agreement directly to the board no later than September 1. An agreement may not be rescinded after September 1.

Subd. 4. [HOW LONG AGREEMENT IS EFFECTIVE.] (a) The agreement, insofar as it relates to the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255, remains effective until the dissolution of the principal campaign committee of the candidate or the opening of filing for the next succeeding election to the office held or sought at the time of agreement, whichever occurs first.

(b) The agreement, insofar as it relates to the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255, remains effective until the termination of the authorized committees of the congressional candidate, as provided under United States Code, title 2, section 433 (d), as amended through December 31, 1982, or the opening of filing for the next succeeding election to the office held or sought at the time of agreement, whichever occurs first.

Subd. 5. [AGREEMENT NOT VIOLATED.] For the purposes of this section only, the total amount to be distributed to each candidate and congressional candidate is calculated to be his share for the office held or sought of the total amount estimated to be in his party account and the general account of the state elections campaign, as estimated under section 11, divided by the number of candidates or congressional candidates whose names are to appear on the general election ballot for that office. If for any reason the amount actually received by the candidate or congressional candidate is greater than his share of the estimate, and his contributions thereby exceed the difference, the agreement shall not be considered violated.

Sec. 13. [10A.323] [RETURN OF PUBLIC SUBSIDY.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN RETURN REQUIRED; CANDIDATES.] (a) A candidate shall return all or a portion of the public subsidy received from the state elections campaign fund under the following circumstances:

(1) To the extent that the amount of public subsidy received by the candidate exceeds the expenditure limits for the office held or sought, as provided under section 10A.25 and as adjusted by section 10A.255, the treasurer of the candidate's principal campaign committee shall return the excess to the board;

(2) To the extent that the amount of public subsidy received exceeds the aggregate of (i) actual expenditures made by the principal campaign committee of the candidate and (ii) approved expenditures made on behalf of the candidate, the treasurer of the candidate's principal campaign committee shall return an amount equal to the difference to the board; and

(3) To the extent that the aggregate of (i) contributions accepted by the principal campaign committee of the candidate and (ii) approved expenditures made on behalf of the candidate exceeds the difference between the expenditure limits for the office held or sought, as provided under section 10A.25 and as adjusted by section 10A.255, and the amount which the candidate receives from the state elections campaign fund, the treasurer of the candidate's principal campaign committee shall return an amount equal to the difference to the board.

(b) For purposes of calculating the amount of public subsidy required to be returned to the board, if any, under paragraph (a), clause (3), the following shall apply:

(1) The amount of money in the account of the principal campaign committee of a candidate on January 1 of the election year for the office held or sought shall be considered contributions accepted by that candidate in that year; and

(2) The aggregate of (i) contributions accepted by the principal campaign committee of the candidate and (ii) approved expenditures made on behalf of the candidate shall be reduced by the amount, if any, of noncampaign disbursements and contributions and expenditures to promote or defeat a ballot question made by the candidate in an election year.

Subd. 2. [WHEN RETURN REQUIRED; CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.]

(a) A congressional candidate shall return all or a portion of the public subsidy received from the state elections campaign fund under the following circumstances:

(1) To the extent that the amount of public subsidy received by the congressional candidate exceeds the expenditure limits for the office held or sought, as provided under section 10A.25 and as adjusted by section 10A.255, the treasurer of the congressional candidate's principal campaign committee shall return the excess to the board;

(2) To the extent that the amount of public subsidy received exceeds the aggregate of actual expenditures made by the authorized committees of the congressional candidate, the treasurer of the congressional candidate's principal campaign committee shall return an amount equal to the difference to the board; and

(3) To the extent that the aggregate of contributions accepted by the authorized committees of the congressional candidate exceeds the difference between the expenditure limits for the office held or sought, as provided under section 10A.25 and as adjusted by section 10A.255, and the amount which the congressional candidate receives from the state elections campaign fund, the treasurer of the congressional candidate's principal campaign committee shall return an amount equal to the difference to the board.

(b) For the purpose of calculating the amount of public subsidy required to be returned to the board, if any, under paragraph (a), clause (3), the amount of money in the accounts of the authorized committees of a congressional candidate on January 1 of the election year for the office held or sought shall be considered contributions accepted by that congressional candidate in that year.

Subd. 3. [HOW RETURN DETERMINED.] Whether or not a candidate or congressional candidate is required to return all or a portion of the public subsidy received from the state elections campaign fund, as provided under subdivisions 1 and 2, shall be determined from the report required to be filed with the board by that candidate or congressional candidate on or before January 31 of the year following an election. Any amount required to be returned shall be submitted in the form of a check or money order and shall accompany the report filed with the board. The board shall forward the check or money order to the state treasurer for deposit into the general fund. In no case shall the amount returned exceed the amount of public subsidy received by the candidate or congressional candidate from the state elections campaign fund.

Sec. 14. [10A.324] [POLITICAL PARTY NOT HAVING CERTAIN CANDIDATES OR CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.]

If a political party for whose candidates or congressional candidates funds have been accumulated in the state elections campaign fund does not have a candidate at a general election for the office of state senator or state representative or a congressional candidate for the office of representative in congress, the party account money allocated for that office shall be returned to the general fund of the state. If that party does not have a candidate at a general election for any state constitutional office or a congressional candidate for the office of United States senator, the party account money allocated for that office shall be transferred to the general account of the state elections campaign fund for reallocation to all of the candidate offices and congressional candidate offices as provided in section 10A.31, subdivision 5, and for distribution in that election year to candidates and congressional candidates as provided in section 10A.31, subdivision 7.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 10A.33, is amended to read:

10A.33 [APPLICATION.]

The provisions of sections 10A.30 to 10A.32 and sections 11 to 14 shall apply only in general elections and primaries preceding general elections and shall not apply to special elections or special primaries.

10A.335 [LEGISLATIVE MONITORING OF TAX CHECK-OFF.]

For the purpose of determining whether the distribution (FORMULA) formulas provided in section 10A.31, (SUBDIVISION 5) subdivisions 5a and 5b, (a) (ASSURES) assure that (MONEYS) money will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and (b) (CONTINUES) continue to have a rational relation to the support for particular parties or particular candidates within legislative districts or congressional candidates within congressional districts, it is the intention of this section that future legislatures monitor, using statistical data provided by the department of revenue, income tax returns and renter and homeowner property tax refund returns on which ($1) $4, or in the case of a joint return, ($2) $8, is designated for a political party.

Sec. 17. [10A.338] [SIGNED AGREEMENT AS CONDITION OF RECEIVING PUBLIC SUBSIDY IN FORM OF TAX CREDITS.]

Subdivision 1. [SIGNED AGREEMENT BY CANDIDATE.] As a condition of receiving a public subsidy for his election campaign in the form of tax credits against the tax due from individuals who contribute to his principal campaign committee, a candidate shall sign a written agreement with the board that his expenditures and approved expenditures shall not exceed the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255.

Subd. 2. [SIGNED AGREEMENT BY CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATE.] As a condition of receiving a public subsidy for his election campaign in the form of tax credits against the tax due from individuals who contribute to any of his authorized committees, a congressional candidate must sign a written agreement with the board that his expenditures will not exceed the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255.

Subd. 3. [SUBMISSION OF AGREEMENT.] (a) A candidate may submit his signed agreement to the board at any time beginning with or following the registration of his principal campaign committee.

(b) A congressional candidate may submit his signed agreement to the board at any time beginning with or following the registration of any of his authorized committees.

Subd. 4. [HOW LONG AGREEMENT IS EFFECTIVE.]

(a) A candidate's agreement remains effective until the dissolution of the principal campaign committee of the candidate or the opening of filing for the next succeeding election for the office held or sought at the time of agreement, whichever occurs first. An agreement signed under this subdivision may not be rescinded.

(b) A congressional candidate's agreement remains effective until the termination of the authorized committees of the congressional candidate, as provided under United States Code, title 2, section 433(d), as amended through December 31, 1982, or the opening of filing for the next succeeding election to the office held or sought at the time of the agreement, whichever occurs first. An agreement signed under this subdivision may not be rescinded.

Subd. 5. [TAX CREDIT NOT ALLOWED.] The commissioner of revenue shall not allow any individual or married couple filing jointly to take a credit against any tax due, as provided under section 290.06, subdivision 11, for any contribution to a candidate for legislative or state constitutional office or congressional candidate for representative in congress or United States senator who has not signed the agreement provided in this subdivision.

Subd. 6. [CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURES NOT LIMITED; CONSTRUCTION.] Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the campaign expenditure of any candidate or congressional candidate who does not sign an agreement under this subdivision but accepts a contribution for which the contributor claims a credit against tax due.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF BOARD.] The board shall forward a copy of any agreement signed under this subdivision to the commissioner of revenue. The board shall make available to any candidate or congressional candidate signing an agreement a supply of official tax credit receipt forms which state in bold face type that (a) a contributor who is given a receipt form is eligible to receive a credit against his tax due in an amount equal to 50 percent of his contribution but not more than $50 for an individual, or not more than $100 for a married couple filing jointly, and (b) the candidate or congressional candidate to whom he has contributed has voluntarily agreed to abide by campaign expenditure limits.

Subd. 8. [PENALTY.] If a candidate or congressional candidate does not sign an agreement under this subdivision he may not issue an official tax credit receipt form, or any facsimile thereof, to any of his contributors. Any candidate or congressional candidate who does not voluntarily agree to abide by the expenditure limits imposed in section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255, and who willfully issues official tax credit receipt forms, or any facsimile thereof, to any contributor is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CONTRIBUTIONS TO POLITICAL PARTIES AND CANDIDATES.] In lieu of the deduction provided by section 290.21, subdivision 3, clause (e), a taxpayer may take a credit against the tax due under this chapter of 50 percent of his contributions to candidates for elective state, local, or federal public office and to any political party. The maximum credit for an individual shall not exceed $50 and, for a married couple filing jointly or filing a combined return, shall not exceed $100. No credit shall be allowed under this subdivision for a contribution to any candidate, other than a candidate for elective judicial office (OR FEDERAL OFFICE) or local officer, who has not signed an agreement to limit his campaign expenditures as provided in section (10A.32, SUBDIVISION 3B) 17. For purposes of this subdivision, a political party means a major political party as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.041, is amended to read:

550.041 [SUMMARY EXECUTION OF (SMALL) JUDGMENT DEBTS.]

Subdivision 1. [COVERAGE.] When a judgment creditor proposes to make execution on a judgment debt (OF NOT MORE THAN $2,500) from money owed to the judgment debtor by a third party, the execution may be made by the attorney for the judgment creditor or sheriff, or their agents, through a registered or certified letter or by personal service to the third party containing a copy of the execution. Upon receipt, the third party shall remit as much of the amount due under section 550.04, but not more than $5,000, as his own debt equals to the sheriff or attorney who shall proceed in all other respects like the sheriff making a similar execution. No more than $5,000 may be recovered in an execution pursuant to this section.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION NOTICE.] If this section is used to enforce a judgment against a debtor who is a natural person by executing on funds of the judgment debtor held on deposit at any financial institution, the judgment creditor shall serve two copies of an exemption notice with the copy of the execution. The notice shall be substantially in the form set out in section 16. Failure of the judgment creditor to send the exemption notice renders the execution void, and the financial institution shall take no action. However, if this subdivision is being used to execute on funds which have previously been garnished in compliance with section 571.41, the judgment creditor is not required to serve an additional exemption notice. In that event, the execution shall only be effective as to the funds which were subject to the prior garnishment.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION; EXEMPTION; OBJECTION.] Upon receipt of the execution and exemption notices, the financial institution shall attach and bind as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as his own debt equals. Within two business days after receipt of the judgment creditor's letter, the financial institution shall serve upon the judgment debtor two copies of the exemption notice. The exemption notice shall be served by first class mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor. If no claim of exemption is received by the financial institution prior to the expiration of 14 days after the exemption notices are mailed to the judgment debtor, the financial institution shall remit as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as its own debt equals to the sheriff or attorney who shall proceed in all other respects like the sheriff making a similar execution. If the judgment debtor elects to claim an exemption, he shall complete the exemption notice, affix his signature under penalty of perjury, and deliver one copy to the financial institution and one copy to the judgment creditor within 14 days of the date postmarked on the correspondence mailed to the judgment debtor containing the exemption notices. Failure of the judgment debtor to serve the executed exemption notice does not constitute a waiver of any right he may have to an exemption. Upon timely receipt of a claim of exemption, the financial institution shall remit as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as his own debt equals to the sheriff or attorney from funds not claimed to be exempt by the judgment debtor. All money claimed to be exempt shall be released to the judgment debtor upon the expiration of seven days after the date postmarked on the correspondence containing the executed exemption notice mailed to the judgment creditor or the date of personal delivery of the executed exemption notice to the judgment creditor, unless within that time a timely objection to the exemption is interposed by the judgment creditor. Objection is made by mailing or delivering one copy of a written objection to the claim of exemption to the financial institution and one copy of the objection to the judgment debtor. Upon timely receipt of a written objection from the judgment creditor, the financial institution shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt. Unless the third party receives a notice of motion and motion from the judgment debtor asserting exemption rights within ten days after receipt of the objection, the financial institution shall remit as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as his own debt equals to the sheriff or attorney representing the judgment creditor. Either the judgment creditor or the judgment debtor may bring a motion to determine the validity of an exemption claim by following the procedure set out in section 17. If a notice of motion and motion to determine the validity of a claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within the period provided, it shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt until otherwise ordered by a court. However, at any time during the procedure specified in this subdivision, the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor may, by a writing dated subsequent to the service of the execution, direct the financial institution to release the funds in question to the other party. Upon receipt of a release, the financial institution shall release the funds as directed.

Subd. 4. [SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS; BAD FAITH CLAIMS.] If in subsequent proceedings brought by the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor, the claim of exemption is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, the judgment creditor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. If the claim of exemption is upheld, and the court finds that the judgment creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the judgment debtor shall be awarded costs, reasonable attorney fees, actual damages, and an amount not to exceed $100. The underlying judgment shall be modified to reflect assessment of damages, costs, and attorney fees. However, if the party in whose favor a penalty assessment is made is not actually indebted to his attorney for fees, the attorney's fee award shall be made directly to the attorney and an appropriate judgment in favor of the attorney shall be entered. Upon motion of any party in interest, on notice, the court shall determine the validity of any claim of exemption and may make any order necessary to protect the rights of those interested. No financial institution shall be liable for damages for complying with this section. Both copies of an exemption claim or an objection to an exemption claim shall be mailed or delivered on the same date. The financial institution may rely on the date of mailing or delivery of a notice to it in computing any time periods in this section.

Subd. 5. [COSTS; SATISFACTION.] The attorney shall be allowed no costs from any party other than the judgment creditor for execution in accordance with this section. The attorney making (SUCH) the execution shall endorse (THEREON) on it partial satisfaction by amount or the total satisfaction and return the original execution to the clerk of that court for filing without charge.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.14, is amended to read:

550.14 [LEVY ON OTHER PERSONAL PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [PROPERTY COVERED.] Other personal property shall be levied on by leaving a certified copy of the execution, and a notice specifying the property levied on, with the person holding (THE SAME) it; or, if a debt, with the debtor; or, if stock or an interest in stock of a corporation, with the president, secretary, treasurer, cashier, or managing agent (THEREOF) of it.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION NOTICE.] If this section is used to enforce a judgment against a judgment debtor who is a natural person by executing on funds of the judgment debtor held on deposit at any financial institution, the judgment creditor shall cause to be served with the execution two copies of an exemption notice. The notice shall be substantially in the form set out in section 16. If the judgment creditor fails to supply the exemption notice to the sheriff, the sheriff shall take no action. Failure of the sheriff to serve the exemption notice shall render the execution void, and the financial institution shall take no action. However, if this subdivision is being used to execute on funds which have previously been garnished in compliance with section 571.41, the judgment creditor shall not be required to serve an additional exemption notice. In that event, the execution shall only be effective as to the funds which were subject to the prior garnishment.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION; EXEMPTION; OBJECTION.] Upon receipt of the execution and exemption notices, the financial institution shall attach and bind as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as his own debt equals. Within two business days after receipt of the judgment creditor's execution of the execution and exemption notices, the financial institution shall serve upon the judgment debtor two copies of the exemption notice. The exemption notice shall be served by first class mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor. If no claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within 14 days after the exemption notices are mailed to the judgment debtor, the financial institution shall remit as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as its own debt equals to the sheriff. If the judgment debtor elects to claim an exemption, he shall complete the exemption notice, affix his signature under penalty of perjury, and deliver one copy to the financial institution and one copy to the judgment creditor within 14 days of the date postmarked on the correspondence mailed to the judgment debtor containing the exemption notices. Failure of the judgment debtor to serve the executed exemption notice does not constitute a waiver of any right he may have to an exemption. Upon timely receipt of a claim of exemption, the financial institution shall remit as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as his own debt equals to the sheriff from funds not claimed to be exempt by the judgment debtor. All money claimed to be exempt shall be released to the judgment debtor upon the expiration of seven days after the date postmarked on the correspondence containing the executed exemption notice mailed to the judgment creditor, or the date of personal delivery of the executed exemption notice to the judgment creditor, unless within that time a written objection to the claim of exemption is interposed by the judgment creditor. Objection is made by mailing or delivering one copy of the objection to the financial institution and one copy to the judgment debtor. Upon timely receipt of a written objection from the judgment creditor, the financial institution shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt. Unless the financial institution receives a notice of motion and motion from the judgment debtor asserting an exemption within ten days after receipt of the objection, the financial institution shall remit as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as its own debt equals to the sheriff. Either the judgment creditor or the judgment debtor may bring a motion to determine the validity of an exemption claim by following the procedure set out in section 17. If a notice of motion and motion to determine the validity of a claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within the period provided, the financial institution shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt until otherwise ordered by the court. However, at any time during the procedure specified in this subdivision, the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor may, by a writing dated subsequent to the service of the execution, direct the financial institution to release the funds in question to the other party. Upon receipt of a release, the financial institution shall release the funds as directed.

Subd. 4. [SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS.] If in subsequent proceedings brought by the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor, the claim of exemption is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, the judgment creditor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings and an amount not to exceed $100. If the claim of exemption is upheld, and the court finds that the judgment creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the judgment debtor shall be awarded costs, reasonable attorney fees, actual damages, and an amount not to exceed $100. The underlying judgment shall be modified to reflect assessment of damages, costs, and attorney fees. However, if the party in whose favor a penalty assessment is made is not actually indebted to his attorney for fees, the attorney's fee award shall be made directly to the attorney and an appropriate judgment in favor of the attorney shall be entered. Upon motion of any party in interest, on notice, the court shall determine the validity of any claim of exemption and may make any order necessary to protect the rights of those interested. No financial institution shall be liable for damages for complying with this section. Both copies of an exemption claim or an objection to an exemption claim shall be mailed or delivered on the same date. The financial institution may rely on the date of mailing or delivery of a notice to it in computing any time periods in this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.141, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [SERVICE OF EXECUTION.] If the execution has not been served within one year after service of the notice, the judgment creditor shall serve another notice upon the judgment debtor prior to serving the execution on his employer. If more than one year has passed since the most recent execution, the judgment creditor shall serve another notice upon the judgment debtor no less than ten days prior to service of a subsequent execution on his employer.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.37, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PERSONAL GOODS.] (a) All wearing apparel, one watch, utensils, and foodstuffs of the debtor and his family; and (b) household furniture, household appliances, phonographs, radio and television receivers of the debtor and his family, not exceeding ($3,000) $4,500 in value. The exemption provided by this subdivision may not be waived except with regard to purchase money security interests. Except for a pawnbroker's possessory lien, a nonpurchase money security interest in the property exempt under this subdivision is void.

(PROVIDED HOWEVER,) If a debtor has property of the type which would qualify for the exemption under clause (b) of this subdivision, of a value in excess of ($3,000) $4,500 an itemized list of the exempt property, together with the value of each item listed, shall be attached to the security agreement at the time a security interest is taken, and a creditor may take a nonpurchase money security interest in the excess over ($3,000) $4,500 by requiring the debtor to select his exemption in writing at the time the loan is made.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [ADJUSTMENT OF DOLLAR AMOUNTS.] (a) The dollar amounts in subdivision 4 shall change periodically as provided in this subdivision to the extent of changes in the implicit price deflator for the gross national product, 1972 = 100, compiled by the United States department of commerce, and hereafter referred to as the index. The index for December, 1982, is the reference base index.

(b) The designated dollar amounts shall change on July 1 of each even-numbered year if the percentage of change, calculated to the nearest whole percentage point, between the index for December of the preceding year and the reference base index is ten percent or more. The portion of the percentage change in the index in excess of a multiple of ten percent shall be disregarded and the dollar amounts shall change only in multiples of ten percent of the amounts stated in subdivision 4.

(c) If the index is revised, the percentage of change pursuant to this section shall be calculated on the basis of the revised index. If a revision of the index changes the reference base index, a revised reference base index shall be determined by multiplying the reference base index then applicable by the rebasing factor furnished by the department of commerce. If the index is superseded, the index referred to in this section is the one represented by the department of commerce as reflecting most accurately changes in the purchasing power of the dollar for consumers.

(d) The commissioner of banks shall announce and publish:

(1) on or before April 30 of each year in which dollar amounts are to change, the changes in dollar amounts required by paragraph (b); and

(2) promptly after the changes occur, changes in the index required by paragraph (c) including, if applicable, the numerical equivalent of the reference base index under a revised reference base index and the designation or title of any index superseding the index.

(e) A person does not violate this chapter with respect to a transaction otherwise complying with this chapter if he relies on dollar amounts either determined according to paragraph (b) or appearing in the last publication of the commissioner announcing the then current dollar amounts.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.37, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [WAGES.] All wages not subject to garnishment by the provisions of section 571.55. A subsequent attachment, garnishment or levy of execution shall impound only that pay period's non-exempt disposable earnings not subject to a prior attachment, garnishment or levy of execution, but in no instance shall more than an individual's total non-exempt disposable earnings in that pay period be subject to attachment, garnishment or levy of execution. Garnishments shall impound the non-exempt disposable earnings in the order of their service upon the employer. The disposable earnings exempt from garnishment are exempt as a matter of right, whether claimed or not by the person to whom due. (SUCH) The exemptions may not be waived. (SUCH) The exempt disposable earnings are payable by the employer when due. (SUCH) The exempt disposable earnings shall also be exempt for 20 days after deposit in any financial institution, whether in a single or joint account. This 20 day exemption (SHALL) also (APPLY) applies to any contractual set-off or security interest asserted by a financial insti- tution in which (SAID) the earnings are deposited by the individual. In tracing (SAID) the funds, the first-in first-out method of accounting shall be used. The burden of establishing that funds are exempt rests upon the debtor. As used in this section, the term "financial institution" (SHALL INCLUDE) includes credit unions. Nothing in this paragraph shall (BE CONSTRUED TO) void or supersede any valid assignment of wages or transfer of funds held on account made prior to the attachment, garnishment, or levy of execution.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.37, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.] All relief based on need, and the wages or salary of a person who is a recipient of relief based on need, shall be exempt from all claims of creditors including any contractual set-off or security interest asserted by a financial institution. For the purposes of this chapter, relief based on need (SHALL INCLUDE) includes AFDC, general assistance medical care, supplemental security income, medical assistance, Minnesota supplemental assistance, and general assistance. The salary or wages of any debtor who is or has been a recipient of relief based on need, or an inmate of a correctional institution shall, upon his return to private employment after having been a recipient of relief based on need, or an inmate of a correctional institution, be exempt from attachment, garnishment, or levy of execution for a period of six months after his return to employment and after all public assistance has been terminated. (HE MAY TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SUCH SIX MONTHS SALARY OR WAGE EXEMPTION PROVISIONS ONLY ONCE IN EVERY THREE YEARS.) The exemption provisions contained in this subdivision (SHALL) also apply for 60 days after deposit in any financial institution, whether in a single or joint account. In tracing (SAID) the funds, the first-in first-out method of accounting shall be used. The burden of establishing that funds are exempt rests upon the debtor. Agencies distributing relief and the correctional institutions shall, at the request of creditors, inform them whether or not any debtor has been a recipient of relief based on need, or an inmate of a correctional institution, within (SUCH PERIOD OF) the preceding six months.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.37, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [WAIVER.] The exemption of the property listed in subdivisions 2, 3, and 5 to (11, AND) 12a may not be waived except by a statement in substantially the following form, in bold face type of a minimum size of 12 points, signed and dated by the debtor at the time of the execution of the contract surrendering the exemption, immediately adjacent to the listing of the property: "I understand that some or all of the above property is normally protected by law from the claims of creditors, and I voluntarily give up my right to that protection for the above listed property with respect to claims arising out of this contract.”

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.37, subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [TRACEABLE FUNDS.] The exemption of funds from creditors' claims, provided by subdivisions 9, 10, 11, (AND) 15, and 24, shall not be affected by the subsequent deposit of (SAID) the funds in a bank or any other financial institution, whether in a single or joint account, (SO LONG AS SAID) if the funds (CAN BE) are traceable to their exempt source. In tracing (SAID) the funds, the first-in first-out method of accounting shall be used. The burden of establishing that funds are exempt rests upon the debtor. No bank or other financial institution shall be liable for damages for complying with process duly issued out of any court for the collection of a debt even if the funds affected by (SAID) the process are subsequently determined to have been exempt.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 550.37, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. [EMPLOYEE BENEFITS.] The debtor's right to receive a payment, or payments received by the debtor, under a stock bonus, pension, profit sharing, annuity, or similar plan or contract on account of illness, disability, death, age, or length of service, to the extent reasonably necessary for the support of the debtor and any dependent of the debtor.

Subd. 5. [PRIOR NOTICE REQUIRED.] If the garnishee summons is to be used to garnish the earnings of an individual to enforce a judgment, or to garnish earnings prior to entry of judgment pursuant to subdivision 2, clause (a), prior to the first garnishment on any debt, the creditor shall serve upon the debtor, no less than ten days prior to the service of the garnishee summons, a notice that (SUCH) a summons may be issued. If the garnishee summons has not been served within one year after service of the notice, the judgment creditor shall serve another notice upon the judgment debtor prior to serving the garnishee summons on his employer. If more than one year has passed since service of the judgment creditor's most recent garnishee summons, the judgment creditor shall no less than ten days prior to service of a subsequent garnishee summons serve notice that another garnishee summons may be served. (SAID) The notice shall (1) be substantially in the form set out in this chapter (. SAID NOTICE SHALL); (2) be served personally, in the manner of a summons and complaint, or by first class mail to the last known address of the debtor (. SAID NOTICE SHALL); (3) inform the debtor that a garnishee summons may be served on the debtor's employer in ten days, and that the debtor may, within that time, cause to be served on the creditor a signed statement under penalties of perjury asserting an entitlement to an exemption from garnishment (. SAID NOTICE SHALL FURTHER); (4) inform the debtor of the wage garnishment exemptions contained in section 550.37, subdivision 14 (. SAID NOTICE SHALL FURTHER); and (5) advise the debtor of the relief set forth in this chapter to which he may be entitled if a creditor in bad faith disregards a valid claim and the fee, costs, and penalty which may be assessed against a debtor who in bad faith falsely claims an exemption or in bad faith takes action to frustrate the garnishment process. If no statement of exemption is received by the creditor within ten days from the service of the notice, he may proceed with the garnishment. Failure of the debtor to serve (SUCH) a statement (SHALL) does not constitute a waiver of any right he may have to an exemption. If (SAID) the statement of exemption is received by the creditor, he may still cause a garnishee summons to be issued (; HOWEVER,). If the debtor subsequently asserts his claim of exemption successfully to the court having jurisdiction over the action, and the court finds that the creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the debtor shall be entitled to costs, reasonable attorney fees, actual damages, and an amount not to exceed $100. If in subsequent proceedings which may be brought by the debtor or creditor, the claim is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, or if the court finds that the debtor has in bad faith taken action to frustrate the garnishment process, the debtor shall be assessed costs and reasonable attorney fees resulting from (SAID) the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 571.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [EXEMPTION NOTICE.] If the garnishee summons is used to garnish funds of a judgment debtor who is a natural person and if the funds to be garnished are held on deposit at any financial institution, the judgment creditor shall serve with the garnishee summons two copies of an exemption notice. The notice shall be substantially in the form set out in section 16. Failure of the judgment creditor to send the exemption notice shall render the garnishment void, and the financial institution shall take no action.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 571.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5b. [DUTY OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION; EXEMPTION; OBJECTION.] Upon receipt of the garnishee summons and exemption notices, the financial institution shall attach and bind as much of the amount due under section 571.471 as the financial institution has on deposit owing to the judgment debtor. Within two business days after receipt of the garnishee summons and exemption notices, the financial institution shall serve upon the judgment debtor two copies of the exemption notice. The financial institution shall serve the notice by first class mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor. If no claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within 14 days after the exemption notices are mailed to the judgment debtor, the funds shall remain subject to the garnishment summons. If the judgment debtor elects to claim an exemption, he shall complete the exemption notice, affix his signature under penalty of perjury, and deliver one copy to the financial institution and one copy to the judgment creditor within 14 days of the date postmarked on the correspondence mailed to the judgment debtor containing the exemption notices. Failure of the judgment debtor to serve the executed exemption notice does not constitute a waiver of any right he may have to an exemption. Upon timely receipt of a claim of exemption, funds not claimed to be exempt by the judgment debtor shall remain subject to the garnishment summons. All money claimed to be exempt shall be released to the judgment debtor upon the expiration of seven days after the date postmarked on the correspondence containing the executed exemption notice mailed to the judgment creditor, or the date of personal delivery of the executed exemption notice to the judgment creditor, unless within that time the judgment creditor interposes an objection to the exemption. Objection shall be interposed by mailing or delivering one copy of the written objection to the financial institution and one copy of the written objection to the judgment creditor. Upon receipt of a written objection from the judgment creditor within the specified seven-day period, the financial institution shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt. Unless the financial institution receives a notice of motion and motion from the judgment debtor asserting exemption rights within ten days after receipt of the written exemption, the funds shall remain subject to the garnishment summons as if no claim of exemption has been made. Either the judgment creditor or the judgment debtor may bring a motion to determine the validity of an exemption claim by following the procedure set out in section 17. If a notice of motion and motion to determine the validity of a claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within the period provided, the financial institution shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt until otherwise ordered by the court, or until the garnishment lapses pursuant to section 571.69. However, at any time during the procedure specified in this subdivision, the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor may, by a writing dated subsequent to the service of the execution, direct the financial institution to release the funds in question to the other party. Upon receipt of a release, the financial institution shall release the funds as directed.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 571.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5c. [SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS; BAD FAITH CLAIMS.] If in subsequent proceedings brought by the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor, the claim of exemption is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, the judgment creditor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings and an amount not to exceed $100. If the claim of exemption is upheld, and the court finds that the judgment creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the judgment debtor shall be awarded costs, reasonable attorney fees, actual damages, and an amount not to exceed $100. The underlying judgment shall be modified to reflect assessment of damages, costs, and attorney fees. However, if the party in whose favor a penalty assessment is made is not actually indebted to his attorney for fees, the attorney's fee award shall be made directly to the attorney and an appropriate judgment in favor of the attorney shall be entered. Upon motion of any party in interest, on notice, the court shall determine the validity of any claim of exemption and may make any order necessary to protect the rights of those interested. No garnishee shall be liable for damages for complying with this section. Both copies of an exemption claim or an objection to an exemption claim shall be mailed or delivered on the same date. The financial institution may rely on the date of mailing or delivery of a notice to it in computing any time periods in this section.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 571.41, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FORM OF NOTICE.] The ten day notice informing a judgment debtor that a garnishee summons may be used to garnish the wages of an individual to enforce a judgment, shall be substantially in the following form:

The action may be brought by the state agency or the county agency in the county where assistance was granted, for the assistance, together with the costs of disbursements incurred due to the action.

In addition to granting the county or state agency a money judgment, the court may, upon a motion or order to show cause, order continuing contributions by a responsible relative found able to repay the county or state agency. (2) In the payment of any contribution, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

For purposes of this clause, the state's three-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants under this law during the 36 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1 of each year by the total dollar amount of wages subject to contributions under this law during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

(b) Not exceeding 2-7/10 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent and (2) the state's four-year benefit cost rate for the 48 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1 of each year for each employer, except employers in the construc-

For purposes of this clause, the state's four-year benefit cost rate shall be computed and derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants under this law during the 48 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1983 by the total dollar amount of wages subject to contributions under this law during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year 1984.

Each construction employer described above who becomes subject to chapter 268 shall pay contributions at a rate, not exceeding 7.5 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent, or (2) the state's four-year benefit cost rate for construction employers for the 48 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, 1983. For purposes of this clause, the state's four-year benefit cost rate shall be computed and derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants of construction employers, as determined by the commissioner, during the 48 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1983 by the total dollar amount of wages of construction employers subject to contributions during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year 1984.

(c) Not exceeding $(2-7/10)$ $5-4/10$ percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent and (2) the state's five-year benefit cost rate for the 60 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, 1984 and each year thereafter for each employer, except employers in the construction industry, as determined by the commissioner (, PRINCIPALLY EMPLOYING LABORERS AND CONSTRUCTION TRADESMEN,) who becomes subject to this law on January 1, 1985 and thereafter. For purposes of this clause, the state's five-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants under this law during the 60 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1984 and each year thereafter by the total dollar amount of wages subject to contributions under this law during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

Each construction employer described above who becomes subject to this chapter shall pay contributions at a rate, not exceeding 7.5 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent, or (2) the state's five-year benefit cost rate for construction employers for the 60 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, 1984 and each year thereafter. For purposes of this clause, the state's five-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants of construction employers, as determined by the commissioner, during the 60 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1984 and each year thereafter by the total dollar amount of wages of construction employers subject to contributions during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS CHARGED AS AND WHEN PAID.] Benefits paid to an individual pursuant to a valid claim shall be charged against the account of his employer as and when paid, except that benefits paid to an individual who earned base period wages for part time employment shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer if the employer: (1) provided weekly base period part time employment; (2) continues to provide weekly employment equal to at least 90 percent of the part time employment provided in the base period; and (3) is an interested party because of the individual's loss of other employment. The amount of benefits so chargeable against each base period employer's account shall bear the same ratio to the total benefits paid to an individual as the base period wage credits of the individual earned from such employer bear to the total amount of base period wage credits of the individual earned from all his base period employers.

In making computations under this provision, the amount of wage credits if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the nearest multiple of $1.

(AN EMPLOYER'S ACCOUNT SHALL NOT BE CHARGED WITH RESPECT TO BENEFITS PAID TO ANY INDIVIDUAL WHOSE BASE PERIOD WAGE CREDITS INCLUDE WAGES FOR PREVIOUSLY UNCOVERED SERVICES AS DEFINED IN SECTION 268.07, SUBDIVISION 4 TO THE EXTENT THAT THE UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION FUND IS REIMBURSED FOR SUCH BENEFITS PURSUANT TO SECTION 121 OF UNITED STATES PUBLIC LAW 94-566.)

Benefits shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer for unemployment that is directly caused by a major natural disaster declared by the president pursuant to section 102 (2) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5122 (2)), if the unemployed individual would have been eligible for disaster unemployment assistance with respect to that unemployment but for the individual's receipt of unemployment insurance benefits.

Subd. 20. [PROTEST, REVIEW, REDETERMINATION, APPEAL.] A review of the charges made to an employer's account as set forth in the notice of charges referred to in subdivision 18 and a review of an employer's contribution rate as set forth in the notice of his rate for any calendar year as provided in subdivision 19, may be had by such employer if he files with the commissioner a written protest setting forth his reasons therefor within 30 days from the date of the mailing of the notice of charges or contribution rate to him, which date shall appear on such notice. Upon receipt of such protest the commissioner shall refer the matter to an official designated by him to review the charges appearing on such notice appealed from or the computations of the protesting employer's rate, as the case may be, to determine whether or not there has been any clerical error or error in computation in either case, and he shall either affirm or make a redetermination rectifying said charges or rate as the case may be, and a notice of such affirmation or redetermination shall immediately be mailed to said employer. If the employer is not satisfied with such affirmation or redetermination, he may appeal therefrom by filing a notice thereof with the department within ten days after the date of mailing appearing upon said redetermination. Upon the receipt of such appeal the commissioner shall refer the matter to a referee for a hearing and after opportunity for a fair hearing, the referee shall affirm, modify or set aside the original determination with its affirmation or the redetermination, as appears just and proper. The commissioner may at any time upon his own motion correct any clerical error of the department resulting in charges against an employer's account or any error in the computation of an employer's contribution rate. The referee may order the consolidation of two or more appeals whenever, in his judgment, such consolidation will not be prejudicial to any interested party. At any such hearing a written report of any employee of the department which has been authenticated shall be admissible in evidence. Appeals from the decision of the referee shall be (MADE IN THE SAME MANNER) as (APPEALS FROM THE DECISION OF AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) provided by section 268.10, subdivision 5. (DECISIONS OF THE COMMISSIONER MADE UPON APPEAL FROM A DECISION OF THE REFEREE SHALL BE REVIEWED BY THE SUPREME COURT UPON CERTIORARI IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROCEDURE OUTLINED THEREFOR WITH RESPECT TO BENEFIT DECISIONS.)

((C)) (b) any nonprofit organization which makes an election in accordance with clause (a) or clause (b) will continue to be liable for payments in lieu of contributions until it files with the commissioner a written notice terminating its election not later than 30 days prior to the beginning of the calendar year for which such termination shall first be effective.

((D)) (c) Any nonprofit organization which has been paying contributions under this law for a period subsequent to January 1, 1972, may change to a reimbursable basis by filing with the commissioner not later than 30 days prior to the beginning of any calendar year a written notice of election to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions. Such election shall not be terminable by the organization for that and the next year.

((E)) (d) The commissioner may for good cause extend the period within which a notice of election, or a notice of termination, must be filed and may permit an election to be retroactive but not any earlier than with respect to benefits paid after December 31, 1971.

(F) (e) The commissioner, in accordance with such regulations as he may prescribe, shall notify each nonprofit organization of any determination which he may make of its status as an employer and of the effective date of any election which it makes and of any termination of such election. Such determinations shall be final unless reviewed in accordance with the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(2) Payments in lieu of contributions shall be made at the end of each calendar quarter, or at the end of any other period as determined by the commissioner and become due on the last day of the month next following the month in which the notice of benefits charged is mailed to the employer. The commissioner shall bill each nonprofit organization (or group of such organizations) which has elected to make payments in lieu of contributions for an amount equal to the full amount of regular benefits plus one-half of the amount of extended benefits charged during such quarter or other prescribed period that is attributable to service in the employ of such organization.

(3) Past due payments of amounts in lieu of contributions shall be subject to the same interest charges and collection procedures that apply to past due contributions under sections 268.16 and 268.161.

(4) If any nonprofit organization is delinquent in making payments in lieu of contributions as required under this subdivision, the commissioner may terminate such organization's election to make payments in lieu of contributions as of the beginning of the next taxable year, and such termination shall be effective for that and the following taxable year.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.06, subdivision 29, is amended to read:

Subd. 29. [GROUP ACCOUNTS.] Two or more employers that have become liable for payments in lieu of contributions may file a joint application to the commissioner for the establishment of a group account for the purpose of sharing the cost of benefits paid that are attributable to service in the employ of such employers. Each such application shall identify and authorize a group representative to act as the group's agent for the purposes of this subdivision. Upon his approval of the application, the commissioner shall establish a group account for such employers effective as of the beginning of the calendar year in which the application is received by the commissioner and shall notify the group's representative of the effective date of the account. Such account shall remain in effect for not less than two years and thereafter until terminated at the discretion of the commissioner or upon application by the group at least 30 days prior to the end of such two year period or 30 days prior to January 1 of any calendar year subsequent to such two calendar years. (UPON ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ACCOUNT,) Each member of the group shall be jointly and severally liable for payments in lieu of contributions (IN THE AMOUNT THAT BEARS THE SAME RATIO TO THE TOTAL BENEFITS PAID THAT ARE ATTRIBUTABLE TO SERVICE PERFORMED IN THE EMPLOY OF ALL MEMBERS OF THE GROUP AS THE TOTAL WAGE CREDITS FOR SERVICE IN EMPLOYMENT BY SUCH MEMBER BEAR TO THE TOTAL DURING THE BASE PERIOD FOR SERVICE PERFORMED IN THE EMPLOY OF ALL MEMBERS OF THE GROUP) for all benefits paid based upon wage credits earned with a group member during the period the group account was in effect. The commissioner shall prescribe such regulations as he deems necessary with respect to applications for establishment, maintenance and termination of group accounts that are authorized by this subdivision, for addition of new members to, and withdrawal of active members from, such account, and for the determination of the amounts that are payable under this subdivision by members of the group and the time and manner of such payments.

Sec. 16. [268.061] [SURCHARGE; EMERGENCY INTEREST REPAYMENT FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] Each employer, except those making payments in lieu of contributions pursuant to section 268.06, subdivisions 25, 26, 27, and 28, shall pay an annual surcharge of 10 percent of contributions paid or due and payable for the calendar year of 1982 and for each calendar year thereafter. The commissioner shall notify employers of the contributions upon which the surcharge is based and the amount of surcharge payable no later than August 1, 1983, and August 1 for each taxable year thereafter. The surcharge for taxable year 1982 shall be paid no later than August 31, 1983, and by the 31st day of August each taxable year thereafter. Payments due under this subdivision are subject to the collection provisions of sections 268.16 and 268.161. The surcharges paid under this subdivision are not contributions for the purposes of section 268.06, subdivision 6. The commissioner may temporarily reduce the amount of surcharge imposed by this section when there are sufficient funds raised by the surcharge to make the interest payment required on federal funds advanced to the state under section 1202 of the Social Security Act.

Subd. 2. [EMERGENCY INTEREST REPAYMENT FUND, CREATION.] A special fund to be known as the emergency interest repayment fund is created in the state treasury. The special fund is separate and distinct from any fund or account created for any other purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24. All collections from the surcharge shall be deposited in the special fund. The special fund shall be used only to pay interest accruing on funds advanced from the federal government pursuant to section 1202 of the Social Security Act. All moneys in this fund shall be deposited, administered, and disbursed in the same manner and under the same conditions and requirements as are provided by law for the other special funds in the state treasury, except that all interest resulting from the investment or deposit of these funds shall accrue to the emergency fund for the purposes of the fund.

Subd. 3. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] On January 1, 1984, and on each January 1 thereafter the commissioner shall report to the legislature on the status of the outstanding funds advanced pursuant to section 1202 of the Social Security Act, including the interest charged on those funds. When all advanced funds and the interest charged on those funds have been repaid to the federal government, the commissioner shall recommend appropriate action by the legislature relating to the termination of the emergency interest repayment fund and the disposition of any money still in the fund.

Subd. 2. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT AND DURATION.] If the commissioner finds that an individual has earned 15, or more, credit weeks within the base period of employment in insured work with one or more employers, benefits shall be payable to such individual during his benefit year as follows:

(1) Weekly benefit amount shall be equal to 60 percent of the first \$85, 40 percent of the next \$85 and 50 percent of the remainder of the average weekly wage of such individual (.). The amount so computed (TO THE NEAREST) if not a whole dollar shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount. The maximum weekly benefit amount of claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to July 1, 1979 shall be $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the average weekly wage, except as provided in clause (d).

On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment.

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

The maximum weekly benefit amount as so determined computed to the nearest whole dollar shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year which begins subsequent to June 30 of each year.

(d) The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1982, and prior to July 1, 1983, shall be $184.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1984, and prior to July 1, 1985, shall be $198.

(2) An individual's maximum amount of regular benefits payable in a benefit year shall not exceed the lesser of (a) 26 times his weekly benefit amount or (b) 70 percent of the number of credit weeks earned by such an individual computed to the nearest whole week times his weekly benefit amount.

(3) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less that part of his earnings, including holiday pay, payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $25 or $200 for earnings from service in the national guard or a United States military reserve unit. Jury duty pay is not considered as earnings and shall not be deducted from benefits paid. Such benefit, if not a (MULTIPLE OF $1,) whole dollar amount shall be (COMPUTED) rounded down to the next (HIGHER MULTIPLE OF $1) lower dollar amount.

(4) The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, (1982) 1983.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [WHEN WAGE CREDITS ARE NOT AVAILABLE.] (1) No individual may receive benefits in a benefit year unless, subsequent to the beginning of the next preceding benefit year during which (HE RECEIVED) benefits were received, (HE) the individual performed service in insured work as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 17, and earned remuneration for (SUCH) the service in an amount equal to not less than the minimum wage credits required to qualify for benefits.

(2) No employer who provided 90 percent or more of the wage credits in a claimant's base period shall be charged for benefits based upon earnings of (SUCH) the claimant during a subsequent base period unless (HE) the employer has employed (SUCH) the claimant in any part of (SUCH) the subsequent base period.

(3) Wages paid by an employing unit may not be used for benefit purposes by any individual who (a) individually or jointly with a spouse, parent or child owns or controls directly or indirectly 25 percent or more interest in the employing unit; or (b) is the spouse, parent or minor child of any individual who owns or controls directly or indirectly 25 percent or more interest in the employing unit; and (c) is not permanently separated from employment.

This clause (SHALL BE) is effective when the individual has been paid four times the individual's weekly benefit amount in the current benefit year.

((4) WAGES PAID BY AN EMPLOYING UNIT MAY NOT BE USED FOR BENEFIT PURPOSES DURING A BENEFIT YEAR COMMENCING AFTER OCTOBER 1, 1982, IF THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF WAGE CREDITS IN THE BASE PERIOD EQUAL OR EXCEED THREE TIMES THE AVERAGE ANNUAL WAGE, AS DETERMINED IN SUBDIVISION 2, IN THE SECOND YEAR PRECEDING THE CALENDAR YEAR IN WHICH THE INDIVIDUAL'S VALID CLAIM WAS ESTABLISHED.)

((5)) (4) Wages paid in seasonal employment, as defined in subdivision 2a, are not available for benefit purposes during weeks in which there is no seasonal employment available with the employer.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.071, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR EXTENDED BENEFITS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive extended benefits with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period only if the commissioner finds that with respect to such week:

(1) He is an "exhaustee" as defined in subdivision 1, clause (9);

(2) He has satisfied the requirements of this law for the receipt of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of benefits, except that an individual disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 268.09, subdivision 1, clause (6) is not eligible for extended benefits unless the individual has, subsequent to the disciplinary suspension, earned

at least four times his or her weekly extended benefit amount; and

(3) He has, during his base period earned wage credits available for benefit purposes of not less than 40 times his weekly benefit amount as determined pursuant to section 268.07, subdivision 2.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week of unemployment only if the commissioner finds that the individual:

(1) (HE) has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report to an employment office, or agent of (SUCH) the office, in accordance with (SUCH REGULATIONS AS) rules the commissioner may (PRESCRIBE) adopt; except that the commissioner may by (REGULATION) rule waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this clause as to types of cases or situations with respect to which (HE) the commissioner finds that compliance with (SUCH) the requirements would be oppressive or would be inconsistent with the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24;

(2) (HE) has made a claim for benefits in accordance with (SUCH REGULATIONS) rules as the commissioner may (PRESCRIBE) adopt; and

(3) (HE) was able to work and was available for work, and was actively seeking work (, PROVIDED THAT). The individual's weekly benefit amount shall be reduced one-fifth for each day (SUCH) the individual is unable to work or is unavailable for work (; PROVIDED FURTHER THAT). Benefits shall not be denied by application of this clause to an individual who is in training with the approval of the commissioner or in training approved pursuant to section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended;

An individual (SHALL BE) is deemed unavailable for work with respect to any week which occurs in a period when (HE) the individual is a full-time student in attendance at, or on vacation from an established school, college or university unless a majority of the credit weeks earned in (HIS) the base period were for services performed during weeks in which (HE) the student was attending school as a full-time student.

An individual serving as a juror shall be considered as available for work and actively seeking work on each day the individual is on jury duty.

(4) (HE) has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week during which (HE) the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 (, PROVIDED,). However, payment for the waiting week shall be made to (SUCH) the individual after (HE) the individual has qualified for and been paid benefits for four weeks of unemployment in a benefit year which period of unemployment is terminated because of (SUCH) the individual's return to employment. No individual (SHALL BE) is required to serve a waiting period of more than one week within the one year period subsequent to filing a valid claim and commencing with the week within which (SUCH) the valid claim was filed.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which he is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of his weekly benefit amount in the form of

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, the employer may allocate such lump sum payment over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided any such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of work but not to exceed 28 calendar days; or

(2) vacation allowance paid directly by the employer for a period of requested vacation, including vacation periods assigned by the employer under the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, or uniform vacation shutdown; or

(3) compensation for loss of wages under the workers' compensation law of this state or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, or under other insurance or fund established and paid for by the employer; or

(4) 50 percent of the pension payments from any fund, annuity or insurance maintained or contributed to by a base period employer including the armed forces of the United States if the employee contributed to the fund, annuity or insurance and all of the pension payments if the employee did not contribute to the fund, annuity or insurance; or

(5) 50 percent of a primary insurance benefit under Title II of the social security act as amended, or similar old age benefits under any act of congress or this state or any other state.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration; provided, further, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the federal government finally determines that he is not entitled to such benefits, this provision shall not apply. If the computation of reduced benefits, required by this subdivision, is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [RECEIPT OF BACK PAY.] Back pay received by an individual with respect to any weeks of unemployment occurring in the 104 weeks immediately preceding the payment of the back pay shall be deducted from benefits paid for those weeks.

The amount deducted shall not reduce the benefits for which the individual is otherwise eligible for that week below zero. If the amount of benefits after the deduction of back pay is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded to the next lower dollar.

If a deduction from back pay is paid to the fund for benefits deductible under this subdivision, the payment: (a) shall be applied to benefit overpayments resulting from the payment of the back pay; (b) credited to the individual's maximum amount of benefits payable in a benefit year which includes the weeks of unemployment for which back pay was deducted; and (c) benefit charges for those weeks shall be removed from the employer's account as of the calendar quarter in which the fund receives payment.

Payments to the fund under this subdivision are made by the employer on behalf of the individual and are not voluntary contributions under section 268.06, subdivision 24.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SERVICES PERFORMED FOR STATE, MUNICIPALITIES OR CHARITABLE CORPORATION.] (EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1978) Benefits based on service in employment defined in section 268.04, subdivision 12, clauses (7), (8) and (9), (SHALL BE) are payable in the same amount, on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as benefits payable on the basis of other service subject to this chapter; except that performed in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity for an institution of higher education or a public school, or a nonpublic school or the Minnesota school for the deaf or Minnesota braille and sight saving school, or in a public or nonpublic school for an educational cooperative service unit established under section 123.58, or any other educational service agency as defined in section 3304 (a) (6) (A) (IV) of the federal unemployment tax act, shall not be paid for any week of unemployment commencing during the period between two successive academic years or terms, or during a similar period between two regular but not successive terms, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, to any individual if the individual performs the services in the first of the academic years or terms and if there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform services in any such capacity for any institution of higher education, public school, nonpublic school, state deaf and sight saving schools, an educational cooperative service unit, or other educational service agency, (OR DEVELOPMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT CENTER) in the second of the academic years or terms, and.

(b) With respect to service performed (AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1977) in any capacity (,) other than those capacities described in clause (a) of this subdivision, for an institution of higher education, or a public school or nonpublic school, or the Minnesota school for the deaf or Minnesota braille and sight saving school, or in a public or nonpublic school or for an educational cooperative service unit established under section 123.58, or any other educational service agency as defined in section 3304 (a) (6) (A) (IV) of the federal unemployment tax act, benefits shall not be paid on the basis of these services to any individual for any week which commences during a period between two successive academic years or terms if the individual performs the services in the first of the academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform the services in the second of the academic years or terms (,). If benefits are denied to any individual under this clause and the individual was not offered an opportunity to perform the services in the second of the academic years or term, the individual shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits for each week in which the individual filed a timely claim for benefits, but the claim was denied solely because of this clause; and

(c) With respect to (ANY) services described in (CLAUSE) clauses (a) or (b), benefits payable on the basis of the services shall not be paid to any individual for any week which commences during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if the individual performs the services in the period immediately before the vacation period or holiday recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform the services in the period immediately following the vacation period or holiday recess.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [SERVICES FOR CERTAIN CONTRACTORS.] Benefits based upon services performed for an employer are subject to subdivision 6, clauses (b) and (c) if:

(a) the employment was provided pursuant to a contract between the employer and a public or private school;

(b) the contract was for services which the public or private school could have had performed by its employees;

(c) the employment was not as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 12, clauses (7), (8), and (9); and

(d) the individual is notified in writing of the provisions of this subdivision while employed in 1983 or prior to or at the time of commencing the employment.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual separated from employment under clauses (1), (2) (AND), or (3) shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. For separations under clauses (1) and (2), the disqualification shall continue until 4 calendar weeks have elapsed following his separation and (HE) the individual has earned four times his weekly benefit amount in insured work.

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued his employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of its temporary nature or for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment or based solely on a provision in a collective bargaining agreement by which an individual has vested discretionary authority in another to act in behalf of the individual shall not be deemed voluntary.

A separation shall be for good cause attributable to the employer if it occurs as a consequence of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when: (1) the employee's submission to such conduct or communication is made a term or condition of the employment, (2) the employee's submission to or rejection of such conduct or communication is the basis for decisions affecting employment, or (3) such conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment and the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with his work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

(a) The individual voluntarily discontinued his employment to accept work offering substantially better conditions of work or substantially higher wages or both;

(b) The individual is separated from employment due to his own serious illness provided that such individual has made reasonable efforts to retain his employment;

An individual who is separated from his employment due to his illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which he has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment he knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain his employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in his location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues his employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because he had reached mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older;

(e) The individual is terminated by his employer because he gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which he receives his normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than his weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178;

(g) The individual voluntarily leaves part-time employment with a base period employer while continuing full-time employment if the individual attempted to return to part-time employment after being separated from the full-time employment, and if substantially the same part-time employment with the base period employer was not available for the individual.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment (AND PROVIDED FURTHER THAT). For a separation under this clause, the commissioner (IS EMPOWERED TO) shall impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and (TO) cancel (PART OR) all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom he was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" (SHALL BE) is defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property (OR THE THEFT OF MONEY OR PROPERTY OF A VALUE OF $100 OR MORE) or arson or sabotage or embezzlement or any other act, including theft, the commission of which amounts to a felony or gross misdemeanor. For an employee of a health care facility, gross misconduct also includes misconduct involving an act of patient or resident abuse as defined in section 626.557, subdivision 2, clause (d).

If an individual is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor for the same act or acts of misconduct for which the individual was discharged, the misconduct is conclusively presumed to be gross misconduct if it was connected with his work.

(4) [LIMITED OR NO CHARGE OF BENEFITS.] Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's separation under any of the foregoing clauses, excepting clauses (2) (c) and (2) (e), shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer from whose employment such individual separated.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment he failed to accept or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from his residence, the individual's own serious illness or his other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after his separation from employment with the employer.

(6) [DISCIPLINARY SUSPENSIONS.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits for the duration of any disciplinary suspension of 30 days or less resulting from his own misconduct. Disciplinary suspensions of more than 30 days shall constitute a discharge from employment.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO APPLY FOR OR ACCEPT SUITABLE WORK OR RE-EMPLOYMENT.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits during the week of occurrence and until four calendar weeks have elapsed following his refusal or failure and he has earned four times his weekly benefit amount in insured work if the commissioner finds that he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work of which he was advised by the employment office, or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the commissioner, or to accept (SUITABLE) a base period employer's offer of re-employment (OFFERED BY A BASE PERIOD EMPLOYER) offering substantially the same or better hourly wages and conditions of work as were previously provided by that employer in his base period.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience, his length of unemployment and prospects of securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24, no work shall be deemed suitable, and benefits shall not be denied thereunder to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization;

(4) if the individual is in training with the approval of the commissioner.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an (INTERESTED PARTY) employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages (WHILE EMPLOYED BY THE INTERESTED PARTY, THE) earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (THE AMOUNT DERIVED BY DIVIDING THE TOTAL BASE PERIOD WAGES EARNED IN ALL CREDIT WEEKS BY THE NUMBER OF BASE PERIOD CREDIT WEEKS COMPUTED TO THE NEAREST WHOLE DOLLAR OR THE AMOUNT AS COMPUTED UNDER SECTION 268.07) (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07; or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks. If within the time specified for the filing of wage and separation information as provided in subdivision 1, clause (2), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to his account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an appeal tribunal decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an appeal tribunal decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an appeal decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or appeal tribunal decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within (15) 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the regulations of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within (15) 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on his own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof if he finds that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may in his discretion refer any disputed claims directly to (THE APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal from an initial determination.

(6) If (AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

The department of economic security shall mail to all interested parties a notice of the filing of and a copy of the findings and decision of the commissioner or his representative.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.10, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.10, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SUBPOENAED.] Witnesses, other than an interested party or officers and employees of an interested party, subpoenaed pursuant to this section shall be allowed fees (AT A RATE FIXED BY THE COMMISSIONER) the same as witness fees in a civil action in district court. (SUCH) These fees shall be deemed a part of the expense of administering sections 268.03 to 268.24.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.10, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [REPRESENTATION BY ATTORNEY.] In any proceeding under these sections before (AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee or the commissioner, a party may be represented by an agent or attorney, but no individual claiming benefits shall be charged fees of any kind in (ANY) a proceeding (THEREUNDER BY THE APPEAL TRIBUNAL) before a referee, the commissioner, (OR HIS) commissioner's representatives, or by any court or any officers thereof. Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION FOR TERMINATION OF COVERAGE.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 3, any employing unit shall cease to be an employer subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 as of the last day of the calendar quarter in which the employing unit files with the commissioner a written application for termination of coverage, if the commissioner finds the employment in the preceding calendar year and during the current calendar year, up to the last day of the calendar quarter in which the application was received, was not sufficient to make the employing unit liable under the provisions of section 268.04, subdivision 10. For the purpose of this subdivision the two or more employing units mentioned in section 268.04, subdivision 10, clause (2), (3), ((4), OR) (5), or (6), shall be treated as a single employing unit.

The commissioner shall waive the requirement for an application for termination of coverage whenever it shall appear that the employer was unable to comply with such requirement for the reason that, at the time when he had qualified for release from liability under the provisions of this chapter, he was in good faith not aware of the fact that he was an employer subject to the provisions of this chapter.

The commissioner at the commissioner's discretion may on his or her own motion terminate the coverage of any employer who no longer meets the definition of employer under section 268.04, subdivision 10.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.11, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ELECTION AGREEMENTS; TERMINATION POWERS OF COMMISSIONER.] (1) An employing unit, not otherwise subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 as an employer, which files with the commissioner its written election to become an employer subject thereto for not less than two calendar years, shall, with the written approval of such election by the commissioner, become an employer subject hereto to the same extent as all other employers, as of the date stated in such approval and cease to be subject hereto as of the first day of January of any calendar year subsequent to such two calendar years, only, if at least 30 days prior to such first day of January, it has filed with the commissioner a written notice to that effect;

(2) Any employing unit for which services that do not constitute employment are performed, may file with the commissioner a written election that all such service performed by individuals in its employ in one or more distinct establishments or places of business shall be deemed to constitute employment for all the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 for not less than two calendar years. Upon the written approval of such election by the commissioner, such services shall be deemed to constitute employment subject to these sections from and after the date stated in such approval. Such services shall cease to be deemed employment subject hereto as of the first day of January of any calendar year subsequent to such two calendar years only if at least 30 days prior to such first day of January such employing unit has filed with the commissioner a written notice to that effect.

(3) The commissioner (IN HIS DISCRETION MAY ON HIS OWN MOTION) must terminate any election agreement under this subdivision upon 30 days notice to the employer, (AND HE MAY ALSO IN HIS DISCRETION AND ON HIS OWN MOTION TERMINATE THE COVERAGE OF ANY EMPLOYER WHO HAS HAD LESS THAN 20 WEEKS OF EMPLOYMENT IN A CALENDAR YEAR) if the employer fails to pay all contributions due under section 268.06, subdivision 1, or reimburse the unemployment fund in accordance with section 268.06, subdivisions 25, 26, 27, and 28.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.12, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECORDS; REPORTS.] (1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records for such periods of time and containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection, audit, and verification, and be subject to being copied by any authorized representative of the commissioner at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner, appeal referee, (CHAIRMAN OF AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL,) or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner, may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, which the commissioner, appeal referee, (CHAIRMAN OF AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL,) or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner deems necessary for the effective administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, provided that quarterly contribution and wage report forms shall (BE MADE TO CORRESPOND WHEREVER POSSIBLE WITH THE REPORTS REQUIRED FROM EMPLOYERS UNDER THE FEDERAL INSURANCE CONTRIBUTIONS ACT, SO THAT SUCH STATE FORMS MAY BE PREPARED AS DUPLICATES OF SUCH FEDERAL FORMS, EXCEPT THAT NO EMPLOYER SHALL BE PERMITTED TO SUBMIT A DUPLICATE REPORT WHICH IS NOT THOROUGHLY LEGIBLE) include the employee's name, social security number, and total wages paid to the employee.

(2) The commissioner may cause to be made such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications, or reproductions of any records, reports, or transcripts thereof as he may deem advisable for the effective and economical preservation of the information contained therein, and such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications or reproductions, duly authenticated, shall be admissible in any proceeding under sections 268.03 to 268.24, if the original record or records would have been admissible therein. Notwithstanding any restrictions contained in section 16.02, except restrictions as to quantity, the commissioner is hereby authorized to duplicate, on equipment furnished by the federal government or purchased with funds furnished for that purpose by the federal government, records, reports, summaries, compilations, instructions, determinations, or any other written matter pertaining to the administration of the Minnesota Employment Services Law.

(3) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions elsewhere, the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any records, reports, transcripts, or reproductions thereof, or other papers in his custody, which are more than two years old, the preservation of which is no longer necessary for the establishment of contribution liability or benefit rights or for any purpose necessary to the proper administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, including any required audit thereof, provided, that the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any record, report, or transcript, or other paper in his custody which has been photographed, duplicated, or reproduced in the manner provided in clause (2).

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Minnesota State Archives Act the commissioner shall with the approval of the legislative auditor destroy all benefit checks and benefit check authorization cards that are more than two years old and no person shall make any demand, bring any suit or other proceeding to recover from the state of Minnesota any sum alleged to be due him on any claim for benefits after the expiration of two years from the date of filing such claim.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.12, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [TESTIMONIAL POWERS.] (1) In the discharge of the duties imposed by sections 268.03 to 268.24, the commissioner, (THE CHAIRMAN OF THE APPEAL TRIBUNAL,) appeal referee, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with a disputed claim or the administration of these sections;

(2) Witnesses, other than interested parties or officers and employees of an employing unit which is an interested party, subpoenaed pursuant to this subdivision or sections 268.03 to 268.24, shall be allowed fees (AT A FIXED RATE PRESCRIBED BY REGULATION BY THE COMMISSIONER) the same as witness fees in civil actions in district court, which fees need not be paid in advance of the time of giving of testimony, and such fees of witnesses so subpoenaed shall be deemed part of the expense of administering these sections;

(3) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey, a subpoena issued to any person, any court of this state within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which such person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the commissioner, (CHAIRMAN OF AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL,) or referee, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commissioner, the chairman of an appeal tribunal, referee, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, there to produce evidence if so ordered or there to give testimony relative to the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Subd. 2. [REPORTS; DELINQUENCIES; PENALTIES.]
(1) Any employer who knowingly fails to make and submit to the department of economic security any report of wages paid by or due from him for insured work in the manner and at the time such report is required by regulations prescribed by the commissioner shall pay to the department of economic security for the contingent account a penalty in the amount of one and one-half percent of contributions accrued during the period for which such report is required, for each month from and after such date until such report is properly made and submitted to the department of economic security. In no case shall the amount of the penalty imposed hereby be less than $5 per month. The maximum penalty imposed hereby shall be $25 or the amount determined at the rate of one and one-half percent per month, whichever is greater. Any employing unit which fails to make and submit to the commissioner any report, other than one of wages paid or payable for insured work, as and when required by the regulations of the commissioner, shall be subject to a penalty in the sum of $10 payable to the department of economic security for the contingent account. All such penalties shall be in addition to interest and any other penalties provided for by sections 268.03 to 268.24 and shall be collected (BY CIVIL ACTION AS HEREINAFTER PROVIDED) as provided by section 268.161.

(2) If any employing unit required by sections 268.03 to 268.24 to make and submit contribution reports shall fail to do so within the time prescribed by these sections or by regulations under the authority thereof, or shall make, wilfully or otherwise, an incorrect, false or fraudulent contribution report, he shall, on the written demand of the commissioner, make such contribution report, or corrected report, within ten days after the mailing of such written demand and at the same time pay the whole contribution, or additional contribution, due on the basis thereof. If such employer shall fail within that time to make such report, or corrected report, the commissioner shall make for him a report, or corrected report, from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony, or otherwise, and assess a contribution on the basis thereof, which contribution, plus penalties and interest which thereafter accrued (less any payments theretofore made) shall be paid within ten days after the commissioner has mailed to such employer a written notice of the amount thereof and demand for its payment. Any such contribution report or assessment made by the commissioner on account of the failure of the employer to make a report or corrected report shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the employer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto. Whenever such delinquent employer shall file a report or corrected report, the commissioner may, if he finds it substantially correct, substitute it for the commissioner's report. (IF AN EMPLOYER HAS FAILED TO SUBMIT ANY REPORT OF WAGES PAID, OR HAS FILED AN INCORRECT REPORT, AND THE COMMISSIONER FINDS THAT SUCH NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE TERMS OF SECTIONS 268.03 TO 268.24 WAS NOT WILFUL AND THAT SUCH EMPLOYER WAS FREE FROM FRAUDULENT INTENT, THE COMMISSIONER SHALL LIMIT THE CHARGE AGAINST SUCH EMPLOYER TO THE PERIOD OF THE YEAR IN WHICH SUCH CONDITION HAS BEEN FOUND TO EXIST AND FOR THE PRECEDING CALENDAR YEAR.)

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.161, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIEN.] Any contributions or reimbursements due under sections 268.03 to 268.24 and interest and penalties imposed with respect thereto, shall become a lien upon all the property, (BOTH REAL AND PERSONAL, OF THE PERSON LIABLE THEREFOR,) within this state, both real and personal, of the person liable therefor, except his homestead, from and after the filing by the commissioner of a notice of lien in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the property is situated, or in the case of personal property belonging to an individual who is not a resident of this state, or which is a corporation, partnership, or other organization, in the office of the secretary of state.

The lien created under this section shall become effective with respect to personal property from and after the date of filing by the commissioner of a notice of the lien describing the property to which the lien attaches in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the commissioner believes the property is located at the time the lien is filed, and with the secretary of state.

The lien imposed on personal property by this section, even though properly filed, shall not be valid as against a purchaser with respect to tangible personal property purchased at retail or as against the personal property listed as exempt in sections 550.37, 550.38 and 550.39.

The lien imposed by this section shall be enforceable by levy as authorized in subdivision 8 or by judgment lien foreclosure as authorized in chapter 550.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.161, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION BY CIVIL ACTION.] (1) In addition to all other collection methods authorized, if, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest due thereon or penalties for failure to file returns and other reports as required by sections 268.03 to 268.24 or by any rule of the commissioner, the amount due (SHALL) may be collected by civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota, and any money recovered shall be credited to the funds provided for under those sections. Any employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of the action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions, interest due thereon, or penalties from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date. No action for the collection of contributions or interest thereon shall be commenced more than (FOUR) six years after the contributions have been reported by the employer or determined by the commissioner to be due and payable. In any action, judgment shall be entered against any defendant in default for the relief demanded in the complaint without proof, together with costs and disbursements, upon the filing of an affidavit of default.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state, and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any civil action under this subdivision. In instituting an action against any employing unit, the commissioner shall cause process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state, together with a payment of a fee of $15 and that service shall be sufficient service upon the employing unit, and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state. The commissioner shall forthwith send notice of the service of process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the employing unit at its last known address. The return receipt, the commissioner's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which the civil action is pending.

Subd. 5. [RIGHT OF SETOFF.] Upon certification by the commissioner to the commissioner of finance or to any state agency which disburses its own funds, that an employer has an uncontested delinquent contribution or reimbursement liability owed to the department, and that the state has purchased personal services, supplies, contract services, or property from said employer, the commissioner of finance or the state agency shall apply to the delinquent contribution or reimbursement liability funds sufficient to satisfy the unpaid liability from funds appropriated for payment of said obligation of the state or any of its agencies that are due and owing the employer. The credit shall not be made against any funds exempt under section 550.37 or those funds owed (THE) an individual employer who receives assistance under chapter 256 (OR 256B).

All funds, whether general or dedicated, shall be subject to setoff in the manner provided in this subdivision. Transfer of funds in payment of the obligations of the state or any of its agencies to an employer and any actions for the funds shall be had against the commissioner on the issue of the contribution or reimbursement liability. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the previously existing right of the state or any of its agencies to setoff.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.161, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT.] (a) Any contribution report or form that is required to be filed with the commissioner concerning contributions or reimbursements due, shall contain a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of section 268.18, subdivision 3 for wilfully making a false report and shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the contribution or reimbursement shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid together with any interest and penalty due under this chapter.

(b) The commissioner may, within (FOUR) six years after a report or form is filed, notwithstanding section 541.09, enter judgment on any confession of judgment contained in the contribution report or form after 20 days notice served upon the employer by mail at the address shown in the employer's report. The judgment shall be entered by the clerk of court of any county upon the filing of a photocopy or similar reproduction of that part of the contribution report or form containing the confession of judgment along with a statement of the commissioner or his agent that the contribution or reimbursement has not been paid.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.161, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [LEVY.] (a) If any contribution or reimbursement payable to the department is not paid when due, the amount may be collected by the commissioner, his duly authorized representative, or by the sheriff of any county to whom the commissioner has issued his warrant, who may levy upon all property and rights of property of the person liable for the contribution or reimbursement, (except that which is exempt from execution pursuant to section 550.37), or property on which there is a lien provided by subdivision 1 of this section. The terms "contribution or reimbursement" shall include any penalty, interest, and costs. The term "levy" includes the power of distraint and seizure by any means. Before a levy is made or warrant issued, notice and demand for payment of the amount due shall be given to the person liable for the contribution or reimbursement at least ten days prior to the levy or issuing of a warrant.

(b) Upon the commissioner issuing a warrant, the sheriff shall proceed within 60 days to levy upon the rights to property of the employer within his county, except the homestead and household goods of the employer and property of the employer not liable to attachment, garnishment, or sale on any final process issued from any court under the provisions of section 550.37, and shall sell so much thereof as is required to satisfy the contribution, reimbursement, interest, and penalties, together with his costs. The sales shall, as to their manner, be governed by the law applicable to sales of like property on execution issued against property upon a judgment of a court of record. The proceeds of the sales, less the sheriff's costs, shall be turned over to the commissioner, who shall retain a part thereof as is required to satisfy the contribution, reimbursement, interest, penalties, and costs, and pay over any balance to the employer.

(c) If the commissioner has reason to believe that collection of the contribution or reimbursement is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of the amount may be made by the commissioner. If the contribution or reimbursement is not paid, the commissioner may proceed to collect by levy or issue his warrant without regard to the ten day period provided herein.

(d) In making the execution of the levy and in collecting the contribution or reimbursement due, the commissioner shall have all of the powers provided in chapter 550 and in any other law for purposes of effecting an execution against property in this state. The sale of property levied upon and the time and manner of redemption therefrom shall be as provided in chapter 550. The seal of the court, subscribed by the clerk, as provided in section 550.04, shall not be required. The levy for collection of contributions or reimbursements may be made whether or not the commissioner has commenced a legal action for collection of the amount.

(e) Where a jeopardy assessment or any other assessment has been made by the commissioner, the property seized for collection of the contribution or reimbursement shall not be sold until any determination of liability, rate or benefit charges has become final. No sale shall be made unless the contribution or reimbursement remain unpaid for a period of more than 30 days after the determination becomes final. Seized property may be sold at any time if:

(1) the employer consents in writing to the sale; or

(2) the commissioner determines that the property is perishable or may become greatly reduced in price or value by keeping, or that the property cannot be kept without great expense.

(f) Where a levy has been made to collect contributions or reimbursements pursuant to this subdivision and the property seized is properly included in a formal proceeding commenced under sections 524.3-401 to 524.3-505 and maintained under full supervision of the court, the property shall not be sold until the probate proceedings are completed or until the court so orders.

(g) The property seized shall be returned by the commissioner if the owner gives a surety bond equal to the appraised value of his interest in the property, as determined by the commissioner, or deposits with the commissioner security in a form and amount as he deems necessary to insure payment of the liability, but not more than twice the liability:

(h) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, if a levy or sale pursuant to this section would irreparably injure rights in property which the court determines to be superior to rights of the state in the property, the district court may grant an injunction to prohibit the enforcement of the levy or to prohibit the sale.

(i) Any person who fails or refuses to surrender without reasonable cause any property or rights to property subject to levy upon demand by the commissioner shall be personally liable to the department in an amount equal to the value of the property or rights not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of contribution or reimbursement for the collection of which the levy has been made. Any amount recovered under this subdivision shall be credited against the contribution or reimbursement liability for the collection of which the levy was made. The term "person" includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership who, as an officer, employee, or member is under a duty to surrender the property or rights to property or to discharge the obligation.

(j) Any action taken by the commissioner pursuant to this subdivision shall not constitute an election by the department to pursue a remedy to the exclusion of any other remedy.

(k) After the commissioner has seized the property of any person, that person may, upon giving 48 hours notice to the commissioner and to the court, bring a claim for equitable relief before the district court for the release of the property to the employer upon terms and conditions as the court may deem equitable.

(l) Any person in possession of (or obligated with respect to) property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made who, upon demand by the commissioner, surrenders the property or rights to property or who pays a liability under this subdivision shall be discharged from any obligation or liability to the person liable for the payment of the delinquent contribution or reimbursement with respect to the property or rights to property so surrendered or paid.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, the notice of any levy authorized by this section may be served by certified or registered mail or by delivery by an employee or agent of the department of economic security.

(n) It shall be lawful for the commissioner to release the levy upon all or part of the property or rights to property levied upon if the commissioner determines that the release will facilitate the collection of the liability, but the release shall not operate to prevent any subsequent levy. If the commissioner determines that property has been wrongfully levied upon, it shall be lawful for the commissioner to return:

(1) the specific property levied upon, at any time; or

(2) an amount of money equal to the amount of money levied upon, at any time before the expiration of nine months from the date of levy.

(o) A levy by the commissioner made pursuant to the provisions of this section upon an employer's funds on deposit in a financial institution located in this state, shall have priority over any unexercised right of setoff of the financial institution to apply the levied funds toward the balance of an outstanding loan or loans owed by the employer to the financial institution. Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS.] Any claimant for benefits who, by reason of his own mistake or through the error of any individual engaged in the administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or because of a determination or redetermination issued pursuant to section 268.10, subdivision 2, has received any sum as benefits to which he was not entitled under these sections, shall promptly return such benefits in cash to the nearest office of the Minnesota department of economic security. If such claimant fails to return such benefits, the department of economic security shall, as soon as it discovers such erroneous payment, determine the amount thereof and notify said individual to return the same. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant files an appeal with the department in writing within the time aforesaid the matter shall be set for hearing before (AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee of the department and heard as other benefit matters are heard in accordance with section 268.10 with the same rights of review as outlined for benefit cases in that section. The commissioner of the department of economic security is hereby authorized to deduct from any future benefits payable to the claimant under these sections in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable under its law to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. Benefits paid for weeks more than three years prior to the discovery of error are not erroneous payments.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FRAUD.] Any claimant who files a claim for or receives benefits by knowingly and wilfully misrepresenting or misstating any material fact or by knowingly and wilfully failing to disclose any material fact which would make him ineligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 is guilty of fraud. After the discovery of facts by the commissioner indicating fraud in claiming or obtaining benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he is hereby authorized to make a determination that the claimant was ineligible for each week with reference to which benefits were claimed or obtained by fraud for the amount as was in excess of what the claimant would have been entitled to had he not made the fraudulent statements or failed to disclose any material facts. The commissioner also may disqualify an individual from benefits for one to 52 weeks in which the claimant is otherwise eligible for benefits following the week in which the fraud was determined. A disqualification imposed for fraud shall not be removed by subsequent insured work or the expiration of a benefit year but shall not apply to any week more than 104 weeks after the week in which the fraud was determined. (SAID) The claimant shall (WITHIN 20 DAYS FROM THE DATE OF MAILING THE NOTICE OF SAID DETERMINATION TO HIM) promptly repay in cash to the department of economic security any benefits (SO) fraudulently obtained. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. The determination shall become final. If the claimant (SHALL APPEAL) appeals from (SUCH) the determination within the time above specified (SAID) the matter shall be referred to (AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee for a hearing as in other benefit cases and thereafter the procedure for review shall be the same as set forth in section 268.10. The commissioner is hereby authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. A determination of fraud may be made at any time.

Sec. 46. [PERSONNEL NAME CHANGE.]

Those individuals serving as salaried examiners of an appeal tribunal shall be referees as of the effective date of section 29 without change in the terms and conditions of their employment. They have the same authority to decide matters pending before them as did an appeal tribunal chairman.

Sec. 48. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 19 is effective retroactively to July 4, 1982. Section 18 is effective retroactively to October 1, 1982. Any wage credits disallowed for benefit purposes due to the operation of the stricken clause (4) shall be reinstated and eligibility for regular

In any proceeding under this clause, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a person in any other proceeding.

For the purposes of clause (10), unprofessional conduct means any unethical, deceptive or deleterious conduct or practice harmful to the public, any departure from or the failure to conform to the minimal standards of acceptable chiropractic practice, or a willful or careless disregard for the health, welfare or safety of patients, in any of which cases proof of actual injury need not be established. Unprofessional conduct shall include, but not be limited to, the following acts of a chiropractor:

The suspension shall take effect upon written notice to the person, specifying the statute or rule violated. The term state funds does not include any federal money received by the state or counties for financing these services.

No county shall receive more than 130 percent of the amount received in the immediately preceding year as specified in this subdivision. If the amount allocated to any county pursuant to subdivision 1 is greater than this amount, the excess shall be reallocated to all counties in direct proportion to their initial allocations.

If the amount allocated to any county pursuant to subdivision 1 and the preceding paragraph is less than the minimum funding level of that county, its allocation shall be raised to its minimum share through an equal percentage reduction applied to all other county allocations.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [1.135] [STATE SEAL]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] This section prescribes the design and states the historical symbolism of the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [OFFICIAL SEAL] The seal described in subdivision 3 is the "Great Seal of the State of Minnesota." When the seal, the impression of the seal, the scene within the seal, or its likeness is reproduced at state expense, it must conform to subdivision 3 and section 4.04. A seal, impression, scene, or likeness which does not conform to these provisions is not official.

Subd. 3. [DESIGN.] The design of the seal is as described in this subdivision.

(a) The seal is composed of two concentric borders. The outside forms the border of the seal and the inside forms the border for the illustrations within the seal. The area between the two borders contains lettering.

(b) The seal is two inches in diameter. The outside border has a radius of one inch and resembles the serrated edge of a coin. The width of the border is 1/16 of an inch.

(c) The inside border has a radius of three-fourths of an inch and is composed of a series of closely spaced dots measuring 1/32 of an inch in diameter.

(d) Within the area between the borders "The Great Seal of the State of Minnesota." is printed in capital letters. Under that is the date "1858," with two dagger symbols separating the date and the letters. The lettering is 14 point century bold.

(e) In the area within the inside border is the portrayal of an 1858 Minnesota scene made up of various illustrations that serve to depict a settler plowing the ground near the falls of St. Anthony while he watches an Indian on horseback riding in the distance.

(f) For the purposes of description, when the area within the inside border is divided into quadrants, the following illustrations should be clearly visible in the area described.

(1) In the upper parts of quadrants one and two, the inscription "L'Etoile du Nord" is found on the likeness of a scroll whose length is equal to twice the length of the inscription, but whose ends are twice folded underneath and serve to enhance the inscription. The lettering is seven point century bold.

(2) In quadrant two is found a likeness of a rising sun whose ambient rays form a background for a male Indian in loincloth and plume riding on horseback at a gallop. The Indian is sitting erect and is holding a spear in his left hand at an upward 60-degree angle to himself and is looking toward the settler in quadrant four.

(3) In quadrant one, three pine trees form a background for a picturesque resemblance of St. Anthony Falls in 1858.

(4) In quadrants three and four, cultivated ground is found across the lower half of the seal, which provides a background for the scenes in quadrants three and four.

(5) In quadrant three, a tree stump is found with an ax embedded in the stump and a period muzzle loader resting on it. A powder flask is hanging towards the end of the barrel.

(6) In quadrant four, a white barefoot male pioneer wearing clothing and a hat of that period is plowing the earth, using an animal-drawn implement from that period. The animal is not visible. The torso of the man continues into quadrant two, and he has his legs spread apart to simulate movement. He is looking at the Indian.

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL EFFECTS; SIZE.] Every effort shall be made to reproduce the seal with justification to the 12 o'clock position and with attention to the authenticity of the illustrations used to create the scene within the seal. The description of the scene in this section does not preclude the graphic inclusion of the effects of movement, sunlight, or falling water when the seal is reproduced. Nor does this section prohibit the enlargement, proportioned reduction, or embossment of the seal for its use in unofficial acts.

Subd. 5. [HISTORICAL SYMBOLISM OF SEAL.] The sun, visible on the western horizon, signifies summer in the northern hemisphere. The horizon's visibility signifies the flat plains covering much of Minnesota. The Indian on horseback is riding due south and represents the great Indian heritage of Minnesota. The Indian's horse and spear and the Pioneer's ax, rifle, and plow represent tools that were used for hunting and labor. The stump symbolizes the importance of the lumber industry in Minnesota's history. The Mississippi River and St. Anthony Falls are depicted to note the importance of these resources in transportation and industry. The cultivated ground and the plow symbolize the importance of agriculture in Minnesota. Beyond the falls three pine trees represent the state tree and the three great pine regions of Minnesota; the St. Croix, Mississippi, and Lake Superior.

Subd. 6. [STATE'S DUTIES.] State agencies and departments using the seal, its impression, the scene within the seal or its likeness shall make every effort to bring any seal, impression, scene, or likeness currently fixed to a permanent object into accordance with this section and section 4.04. Expendable material to which the seal or any impression, scene, or likeness is currently affixed may be used until the supply is exhausted. All unused dies and engravings of the Great Seal shall be given to the Minnesota historical society, along with all historical information available about the seal, to be retained in the society's permanent collection.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 1.143, is amended to read:

1.143 [STATE TREE, DESIGNATION.]

Subdivision 1. The Red pine (Pinus resinosa), more commonly known as Norway pine, is hereby designated as the official state tree of the State of Minnesota.

Subd. 2. A photograph of the Red pine, to be obtained and approved by the commissioner of natural resources, shall be certified and preserved in the office of the secretary of state.

Sec. 3. [5.071] [SECRETARY OF STATE'S DUTIES.]

The secretary of state shall secure, file, and retain custodial control over a description, photograph, and reproduction proof of the impression of the seal for viewing by the public. The secretary shall also secure and file all historical information pertaining to the reproduction and use of the seal. The department of administration shall respond to any inquiries about duplication of the seal for state agencies.

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 1.144 and 358.02, are repealed."

GENERAL ORDERS

Pursuant to rules of the House, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole with Sieben in the Chair for the consideration of bills pending on General Orders of the Day. Wynia presided during a portion of the meeting of the Committee of the Whole. After some time spent therein the Committee arose.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

The Speaker resumed the Chair, whereupon the following proceedings of the Committee as kept by the Chief Clerk were reported to the House:

H. F. No. 938 which it recommended progress retaining its place on General Orders.

H. F. No. 102 which it recommended to pass with the following amendment offered by Bergstrom:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 47.20, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, any notice of default on homestead property as defined in section 5, mailed after the effective date of this section and prior to May 1, 1984, shall indicate that the borrower has 60 days from the date the notice is mailed in which to cure the default.

Sec. 2. [550.181] [TEMPORARY MINIMUM NOTICE.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the sale on execution or on judgment of homestead property as defined in section 5, after the effective date of this section and prior to May 1, 1984, may be held only after posted and published notice for eight weeks of the time and place of the sale, describing the property with sufficient certainty to enable a person of common understanding to identify it.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 559.21, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [TEMPORARY MINIMUM NOTICE.] Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, no contract for conveyance of homestead property, as defined in section 5, shall terminate until 60 days after service of notice if the notice is served after the effective date of this section and prior to May 1, 1984 or 90 days after service of notice if the contract was entered into after May 1, 1980 and the contract vendee has paid 25 percent or more of the purchase price. The notice shall specify this 60 or 90 day period.

Sec. 4. [583.01] [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the number of unemployed persons in this state has reached the highest level since the Depression of the 1930's; that farm commodity prices are below the break even point for the cost of production; that the number of mortgage loans currently in default due to the unemployment of the principal wage earner has reached critical levels; and that by reason of these conditions and the high rates of interest on mortgage loans, many of the citizens of this state will be unable for extended periods of time, to meet payments of taxes, interest, and principal of mortgages on their properties and are, therefore, threatened with loss of their real property through mortgage foreclosure, contract termination, and judicial sales. The legislature further finds that these conditions have resulted in an emergency of a nature that justifies and validates legislation for the extension of the time prior to foreclosure and execution sales and for other relief.

Sec. 5. [583.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

As used in sections 4 to 15, the term "homestead" means residential or agricultural real estate, a portion or all of which is entitled to receive homestead credit under section 273.13, subdivision 15a.

Sec. 6. [583.03] [APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROPERTY COVERED.] The provisions of sections 1 to 15 apply to first mortgages secured by and contracts for deed conveying, homesteads within the meaning of section 5, including: (a) mortgages held by the United States or by any agency, department, bureau, or instrumentality of the United States, as security or pledge of the mortgagor, its successors or assigns; and (b) mortgages held as security or pledge to secure payment of a public debt or to secure payment of the deposit of public funds.

Subd. 2. [GENERAL EXCLUSION.] The provisions of sections 1 to 15 do not apply to mortgages or contracts for deed made after the effective date of sections 1 to 15, nor to mortgages or contracts for deed made before the effective date of sections 1 to 15, which are renewed or extended after the effective date of sections 1 to 15 for a period longer than one year, nor to mortgages, judgments, or contracts for deed, regardless of when made, if a second or subsequent mortgage is made against the property after the effective date of sections 1 to 15. No court shall allow a stay, postponement, or extension of time that would cause any right to be lost or adversely affected by any statute of limitation.

Sec. 7. [583.04] [MORTGAGOR MAY APPLY TO DISTRICT COURT FOR RELIEF.]

Any mortgagor, or owner in possession of the mortgaged premises, or anyone claiming under the mortgage, or anyone liable for the mortgage debt, may at any time after the issuance of the notice of the foreclosure proceedings and prior to the sale, petition the district court of the county where the foreclosure proceedings are pending, serving a summons and verified complaint requesting that the sale in foreclosure be postponed for up to six months or, in the case of a farm homestead located on more than ten acres, for up to 12 months. A contract for deed vendee or anyone claiming under the contract or liable for the contract payment, in any case where the contract has not yet been terminated as of the effective date of sections 4 to 15, may petition the district court in the same manner, requesting that the contract termination be delayed for up to 90 days. Upon receiving the petition, the court shall order a stay in the foreclosure proceedings until after the hearing on the petition. As a condition precedent to the postponement of the foreclosure sale, the party serving the verified complaint shall file it and pay to the clerk for the person foreclosing the mortgage the actual costs incurred, including attorney's fees, in the foreclosure proceeding before postponement. As a condition precedent to delay of the contract termination, the party seeking relief shall file the verified complaint and pay to the clerk for the person cancelling the contract, the actual costs, including attorneys' fees incurred in the cancellation. If payment is made by other than cash or certified check, the order postponing the sale or termination is not final until after the check or other negotiable instrument has been paid.

Sec. 8. [583.05] [COURT MAY ORDER DELAY IN SALE; FINDINGS.]

The court may order a delay in the sale or contract termination as provided in sections 4 to 15 only if it finds:

(1) that the petitioner is unemployed, underemployed or facing economic problems due to low farm commodity prices;

(2) that the petitioner has an inability to make payments on the mortgage or contract for deed;

(3) that there is a reasonable probability the petitioner will be able to reinstate the mortgage or contract for deed; and

(4) if the petitioner is a farmer, that there is a reasonable probability the petitioner will be able to obtain any additional short term financing necessary to allow viable ongoing farming operations.

If the court grants or denies a delay in the sale, the mortgagee shall publish notice of the new sale date as provided in section 580.03.

Sec. 9. [583.06] [COMPROMISES.]

If the parties to a foreclosure action agree in writing to a compromise settlement thereof, or of composition of the mortgage indebtedness, or both, the court shall have jurisdiction and may by its order confirm and approve the settlement or composition, or both, as the case may be.

Sec. 10. [583.07] [REDUCTION OF REDEMPTION PERIOD.]

If the court grants a delay in the foreclosure sale pursuant to sections 4 to 15, the redemption period pursuant to section 580.23 shall be reduced by an equivalent period of time provided, that in no event shall the redemption period be less than 30 days. If the court does not grant a delay in the foreclosure sale, the redemption period shall be as provided in section 580.23.

Sec. 11. [583.08] [PARTIAL PAYMENT.]

The petition must also request the court to determine the reasonable value of the income on the property, or, if the property has no income, then the reasonable rental value of the property subject to the contract for deed or mortgage and must direct the contract vendee or mortgagor to pay all or a reasonable part of the income or rental value for the payment of taxes, insurance, interest or principal at the times and in the manner determined by the court. The court shall hear the petition and after the hearing shall make and file its order directing the payment by the contract vendee or mortgagor of an amount at the times and in the manner that the court determines just and equitable. In the case of contracts for deed, the court shall insure that the payment required by the contract vendee is sufficient to adequately maintain the vendor's standard of living. If the mortgagor or contract vendee defaults in the payments ordered, the mortgagee may immediately commence foreclosure proceedings as provided in section 580.03, and the contract vendor may terminate the contract 30 days after the default. If default is claimed because of waste, the mortgagee or contract vendor may commence foreclosure proceedings or terminate the contract immediately after the filing of an order of the court finding the waste. No action shall be maintained for a deficiency judgment until the period of redemption as allowed by section 580.23, or by sections 4 to 15, has expired.

Sec. 12. [583.09] [COURT MAY REVISE AND ALTER TERMS.]

Upon the application of either party before the expiration of the extended period prior to the sale or contract termination and upon the presentation of evidence that the terms for partial payment fixed by the court are no longer just and reasonable, the court may revise and alter the terms, in the manner the changed circumstances and conditions require.

Sec. 13. [583.10] [HEARING TO BE HELD WITHIN 30 DAYS.]

The hearing on the petition must be held within 30 days after the filing of the petition. The order therein must be made and filed within five days after the hearing. Review by the supreme court may be had by certiorari, if application for the writ is made within 15 days after notice of the order. The writ is returnable within 30 days after the filing of the order.

Sec. 14. [583.11] [LIMITATIONS.]

No postponement or extension shall be ordered under conditions which would substantially diminish or impair the value of the contract or obligation of the person against whom the relief is sought without reasonable allowance to justify the exercise of the police power authorized in sections 4 to 15, or which would cause irreparable harm or undue hardship to any mortgagee, contract vendor, judgment creditor, or their successors or assigns. The remedy authorized by sections 4 to 15 shall be available to a mortgagor or contract vendee only one time on any piece of property.

Sec. 15. [583.12] [INCONSISTENT LAWS SUSPENDED.]

Every law, to the extent that it is inconsistent with sections 4 to 15 is suspended during the effective period of sections 4 to 15.

Sec. 16. [REPEALER.]

Sections 1 to 15 are repealed effective July 1, 1984.

Sec. 17. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 15 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 16 is effective July 1, 1984."

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.11, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [ON-SALE LICENSES, INCLUDING HOTELS, CLUBS, RESTAURANTS, AND ON-SALE EXCLUSIVE LIQUOR STORES.] "On-sale" licenses may be issued by municipalities for the sale of intoxicating liquors in hotels, clubs, restaurants and establishments for the sale of "on-sale" liquors exclusively within the number authorized by this section. In addition to the number of licenses authorized by this section, an "on-sale" license may be issued, if approved by the commissioner of public safety, to a bona fide club (WHICH HAS BEEN IN EXISTENCE FOR 15 YEARS OR MORE) or (TO A) congressionally chartered veterans' organization which has been in existence for (FIVE) at least three years. The club or veterans' organization must be incorporated in order to be eligible to apply for a license, and the license issued must be for the sale of intoxicating liquors to members and bona fide guests only. The license fee for an "on-sale" license issued by a municipality pursuant to this subdivision shall be in an amount determined by the governing body thereof subject to the following limitations: up to $300 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of 200 or less; up to $500 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of between 201 and 500; up to $650 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of between 501 and 1,000; up to $800 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of between 1,001 and 2,000; up to $1,000 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership between 2,000 and 4,000; up to $2,000 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership

For purposes of the maximum license fee which may be imposed by a municipality pursuant to this subdivision, "fraternal club" means a club which serves only members and their guests and which uses any profits derived from these sales principally for sponsoring activities beneficial to the community and not for the benefit of any individual. Except in cities of the first, second, and third class, a license may be issued jointly to congressionally chartered veterans' organizations that otherwise qualify under this subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.11, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

The requirements of law relating to minimum prices for the sale of intoxicating malt beverages shall not apply to sales made under this subdivision, nor shall any license be required for the making of such sales. It is also lawful for a collector of commemorative bottles, as these terms are defined in section 340.44, to sell commemorative bottles to another collector without obtaining a license. It is also lawful for an off-sale licensee or municipal liquor store to provide samples of wine, liqueurs, and cordials which the licensee or municipal liquor store currently has in stock and is offering for sale to the general public without obtaining an additional license, provided the wine, liqueur, and cordial samples are dispensed at no charge and consumed on the licensed premises during the permitted hours of off-sale in a quantity less than 50 milliliters of wine per variety per customer and 25 milliliters of liqueur or cordial per variety per customer.

No "off-sale" shall be made before eight o'clock a.m. or after ten o'clock p.m. of any day. However, in cities of the first class, and in all cities located within a radius of 15 miles of a city of the first class within the same county, "off-sale" may be made only until eight o'clock p.m. of any day except Friday and Saturday, on which days "off-sale" may be made until ten o'clock p.m. No "off-sale" shall be made on New Years Day,

January 1; Independence Day, July 4; Thanksgiving Day; or Christmas Day, December 25; but on the evenings preceding such days, if the sale of liquor is not otherwise prohibited on such evenings, "off-sales" may be made until ten o'clock p.m., except that no "off-sale" shall be made on December 24 after eight o'clock p.m. It shall be beyond the power of any municipality of this state to authorize or permit the sale of intoxicating liquors when such sale is prohibited by this section, however, any municipality may further limit the hours of sale of intoxicating liquors, provided that such further restricted hours for "on-sale" shall apply to both intoxicating liquors and non-intoxicating malt liquors.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The unrestricted advertising of intoxicating liquor is hereby declared to be contrary to public policy. This section does not prohibit an off-sale licensee from advertising intoxicating liquor prices in a newspaper published in a bordering state in which off-sale retail intoxicating liquor licenses are issued and in which the state tax on distilled spirits is at least $1.75 less than the tax imposed on distilled spirits under section 340.47. Reasonable rules and regulations restricting advertising to prevent it from counteracting temperance education shall be made by the commissioner of public safety.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment."

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A nonprofit association known as the workers' compensation reinsurance association is created, which may be incorporated under chapter 317 with all the powers of a corporation formed under that chapter, except that if the provisions of that chapter are inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.40 or any amendments thereto, sections 79.34 to 79.40 shall govern. Each insurer as defined by section 79.01, subdivision 2, shall as a condition of its authority to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by the plan of operation of the reinsurance association; provided, that all affiliated insurers within a holding company system as defined in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. Each self-insurer approved pursuant to section 176.181 and each political subdivision which self-insures shall, as a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by its plan of operation; provided, that (a) all affiliated companies within a holding company system, as determined by the commissioner in a manner consistent with the standards and definitions in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13, shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association, and (b) all group self-insurers granted authority to self-insure pursuant to section 176.181 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. As a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability, and for losses incurred on or after January 1, 1984, the state shall be a member of the reinsurance association and is bound by its plan of operation. The commissioner of labor and industry represents the state in the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. The state treasurer shall pay the premium to the reinsurance association from the state compensation revolving fund upon warrants of the commissioner of labor and industry. For the purposes of this section "state" means the administrative branch of state government, the legislative branch, the judicial branch, the University of Minnesota, and any other entity whose workers' compensation liability is paid from the state revolving fund. The commissioner may calculate, prorate, and charge a department or agency the portion of premiums paid to the reinsurance association for employees who are paid wholly or in part by federal funds, dedicated funds, or special revenue funds. The reinsurance association (SHALL) is not (BE DEEMED) a state agency. Actions of the reinsurance association and its board of directors and actions of the commissioner of insurance with respect to the reinsurance association (SHALL) are not (BE) subject to (CHAPTER) chapters 13, 14, and 15. The reinsurance association (SHALL BE) is exempt from taxation under the laws of this state and all property owned by the association (SHALL BE) is exempt from taxation. The reinsurance association (SHALL) is not (BE) obligated to make any payments or pay any assessments to any funds or pools established pursuant to this chapter or chapter 176 or any other law.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The reinsurance association shall provide and each member shall accept indemnification for 100 percent of the amount of ultimate loss sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event, including aggregate losses related to a single event or occurrence which constitutes a single loss occurrence, under chapter 176 on and after October 1, 1979, in excess of $300,000 or $100,000 retention limit, at the option of the member. In case of occupational disease causing disablement on and after October 1, 1979, each person suffering such disablement shall be considered to be involved in a separate loss occurrence. The (LESSER) lower retention limit shall be increased to the nearest $10,000, on January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. On January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter, the (GREATER) higher retention limit shall be increased by the amount necessary to retain a $200,000 difference between the two retention limits. Ultimate loss as used in this section means the actual loss amount which a member is obligated to pay and which is paid by the member for workers' compensation benefits payable under chapter 176 and shall not include claim expenses, assessments, damages or penalties. For losses incurred on or after January 1, 1979, any amounts paid by a member pursuant to sections 176.183, 176.221, 176.225, and 176.82 shall not be included in ultimate loss and shall not be indemnified by the reinsurance association. A loss is incurred by the reinsurance association on the date on which the accident or other compensable event giving rise to the loss occurs, and a member is liable for a loss up to its retention limit in effect at the time that the loss was incurred, except that members which are determined by the reinsurance association to be controlled by or under common control with another member, and which are liable for claims from one or more employees entitled to compensation for a single compensable event, including aggregate losses relating to a single loss occurrence, may aggregate their losses and obtain indemnification from the reinsurance association for the aggregate losses in excess of the higher retention limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. Each member is liable for payment of its ultimate loss and shall be entitled to indemnification from the reinsurance association for the ultimate loss in excess of the member's retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence.

A member that chooses the higher retention limit shall retain the liability for all losses below the higher retention limit itself and shall not transfer the liability to any other entity or reinsure or otherwise contract for reimbursement or indemnification for losses below its retention limit, except in the following cases: (a) when the reinsurance or contract is with another member which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the member; (b) when the reinsurance or contract provides for reimbursement or indemnification of a member if and only if the total of all claims which the member pays or incurs, but which are not reimbursable or subject to indemnification by the reinsurance association for a given period of time, exceeds a dollar value or percentage of premium written or earned and stated in the reinsurance agreement or contract; (c) when the reinsurance or contract is a pooling arrangement with other insurers where liability of the member to pay claims pursuant to chapter 176 is incidental to participation in the pool and not as a result of providing workers' compensation insurance to employers on a direct basis under chapter 176; (d) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all the claims of a specific insured of a member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the insured of the member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the insured of a member is not inconsistent with the bases of exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above; or (e) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all claims of a specific self-insurer member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the self-insurer member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the self-insurer member are not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above.

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any member that chooses the higher retention limit has participated in the transfer of liability to any other entity or reinsured or otherwise contracted for reimbursement or indemnification of losses below its retention limit in a manner inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, order the member to pay to the state of Minnesota an amount not to exceed twice the difference between the reinsurance premium for the higher and lower retention limit applicable to the member for each year in which the prohibited reinsurance or contract was in effect. Any member subject to this penalty provision shall continue to be bound by its selection of the higher retention limit for purposes of membership in the reinsurance association.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. For losses incurred on or after January 1, 1984, the reinsurance association shall indemnify the member for the ultimate loss, in excess of the retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence, sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event in another state provided that:

(a) the injured worker is eligible for benefits under section 176.041, subdivision 2 or 3 but elects to receive benefits under the workers' compensation statute of another state in lieu of benefits under chapter 176; and

(b) the ultimate loss indemnified by the reinsurance association shall be determined as provided in this chapter, except that the benefits shall be equal to those required to be paid under the workers' compensation statute of the state elected.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.35, is amended to read:

79.35 [DUTIES; RESPONSIBILITIES; POWERS.]

The reinsurance association shall do the following on behalf of its members:

(a) Assume 100 percent of the liability as provided in section 79.34;

(b) Establish procedures by which members shall promptly report to the reinsurance association each claim which, on the basis of the injury sustained, may reasonably be anticipated to involve liability to the reinsurance association if the member is held liable under chapter 176. Solely for the purpose of reporting claims, the member shall in all instances consider itself legally liable for the injury. The member shall advise the reinsurance association of subsequent developments likely to materially affect the interest of the reinsurance association in the claim;

(c) Maintain relevant loss and expense data relative to all liabilities of the reinsurance association and require each member to furnish statistics in connection with liabilities of the reinsurance association at the times and in the form and detail as may be required by the plan of operation;

(d) Calculate and charge to members a total premium sufficient to cover the expected liability which the reinsurance association will incur in excess of the higher retention limit but less than the prefunded limit, together with incurred or estimated to be incurred operating and administrative expenses for the period to which this premium applies and actual claim payments to be made by members, during the period to which this premium applies, for claims in excess of the prefunded limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. The prefunded limit shall be $2,500,000 on and after October 1, 1979, provided that the prefunded limit shall be increased on January 1, 1983 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, to the nearest $100,000, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. Each member shall be charged a proportion of the total premium in an amount equal to its proportion of the (TOTAL STANDARD EARNED PREMIUM) exposure base of all members during the period to which the reinsurance association premium will apply (, AS DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSIONER). The exposure base shall be determined by the board and is subject to the approval of the commissioner. In determining the exposure base, the board shall consider, among other things, equity, administrative convenience, records maintained by members, amenability to audit, and degree of risk refinement. Each member exercising the lower retention option shall also be charged a premium established by the board as sufficient to cover incurred or estimated to be incurred claims for the liability the reinsurance association is likely to incur between the lower and higher retention limits for the period to which the premium applies. Each member shall also be charged a premium determined by the board to equitably distribute excess or deficient premiums from previous periods including any excess or deficient premiums resulting from a retroactive change in the prefunded limit. (AN EQUITABLE BASIS FOR DETERMINING STANDARD EARNED PREMIUM FOR SELF-INSURERS SHALL BE ESTABLISHED BY THE COMMISSIONER.) The premiums charged to members shall not be unfairly discriminatory as defined in section 79.074. All premiums shall be approved by the commissioner;

(e) Require and accept the payment of premiums from members of the reinsurance association;

(f) Receive and distribute all sums required by the operation of the reinsurance association;

(g) Establish procedures for reviewing claims procedures and practices of members of the reinsurance association. If the claims procedures or practices of a member are considered inadequate to properly service the liabilities of the reinsurance association, the reinsurance association may undertake, or may contract with another person, including another member, to adjust or assist in the adjustment of claims which create a potential liability to the association (AND). The reinsurance association may charge the cost of the adjustment under this paragraph to the member, except that any penalties or interest incurred under sections 176.183, 176.221, 176.225, and 176.82 as a result of actions by the reinsurance association after it has undertaken adjustment of the claim shall not be charged to the member but shall be included in the ultimate loss and listed as a separate item; and

(h) Provide each member of the reinsurance association with an annual report of the operations of the reinsurance association in a form the board of directors may specify.

79.37 [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.]

The right to receive economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation vests in an injured employee at the time the disability is ascertained provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101.

Neither shall the chapter apply to any person employed as a household worker in, for, or about, a private home or household who earns less than $500 in cash in any three month period from a single private home or household provided that any household worker who has earned $500 or more from his present employer in any three month period within the previous year shall be covered by this chapter regardless of whether or not he has in the present quarter earned $500. This chapter does not apply to those persons employed by a corporation where those persons are related by blood or marriage, within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of civil law, to all of the officers of the corporation, and if the corporation files a written election with the commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) to have those persons excluded from this chapter except that a written election is not required for a person who is otherwise excluded from this chapter by this section. This chapter does not apply to a nonprofit association which does not pay more than $500 in salary or wages in a year.

176.061 [THIRD PARTY LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [ELECTION OF REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which benefits are payable occurs under circumstances which create a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer and at the time of (SUCH) the injury or death that party was insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, the employee, in case of injury, or (HIS) the employee's dependents, in case of death, may proceed either at law against that party to recover damages or against the employer for benefits, but not against both.

Subd. 2. [ACTION FOR RECOVERY OF DAMAGES.] If the employee, in case of injury, or (HIS) the employee's dependents, in case of death, brings an action for the recovery of damages, the amount thereof, the manner in which, and the persons to whom the same are payable, shall be as provided in this chapter. In no case shall (SUCH) the party be liable to any person other than the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents for any damages resulting from (SUCH) the injury or death.

Subd. 3. [ELECTION TO RECEIVE BENEFITS FROM EMPLOYER; INDEMNITY AND SUBROGATION.] If the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents elect to receive benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, the employer, or the special compensation fund, has a right of indemnity against third parties for cases under chapter 65B, or, in all other cases, is subrogated to the right of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents to recover damages against the other party. The employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may bring legal proceedings against (SUCH) the party and recover the aggregate amount of benefits payable to or on behalf of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, together with costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorney's fees of the action.

If an action as provided in this chapter prosecuted by the employee, the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against the third person, results in judgment against the third person, or settlement by the third person, the employer (SHALL HAVE) has no liability to reimburse or hold the third person harmless on the judgment or settlement in absence of a written agreement to do so executed prior to the injury.

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION OF SUBDIVISIONS 1, 2, AND 3.] The provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 apply only where the employer liable for benefits and the other party legally liable for damages are insured or self-insured and engaged, in the due course of business in, (a) furtherance of a common enterprise, or (b) in the accomplishment of the same or related purposes in operations on the premises where the injury was received at the time (THEREOF) of the injury.

Subd. 5. [CUMULATIVE REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which benefits are payable is caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, that party being then insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, and the provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4 do not apply, or the party other than the employer is not then insured or self-insured as provided by this chapter, legal proceedings may be taken by the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents in accordance with clause (a), or by his employer, or by the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, in accordance with clause (b), against the other party to recover damages, notwithstanding the payment by the employer, or the special compensation fund or their liability to pay benefits.

(a) If an action against the other party is brought by the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents and a judgment is obtained and paid or settlement is made with the other party, the employer or the special compensation fund may deduct from the benefits payable the amount actually received by the employee or dependents or paid on their behalf in accordance with subdivision 6. If the action is not diligently prosecuted or if the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interests of the employer, or the special compensation fund, upon application the court may grant the employer, or the special compensation fund, the right to intervene in (ANY SUCH) the action for the prosecution (THEREOF) of the action. If the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or any party on their behalf receives benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, or institute proceedings to recover (THE SAME) benefits or accept from the employer, or the special compensation fund, any payment on account of the benefits, the employer, or the special compensation fund, is subrogated to the rights of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, for cases under chapter 65B, against a third party. This employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may maintain (AN) a separate action or continue an action already instituted. This action may be maintained in the name of the employee or the names of the employee's dependents, or in the name of the employer or in the name of the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund against (SUCH) the other party for the recovery of damages. If the action is not diligently prosecuted by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, or the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interest of the employee, the court, upon application, may grant to the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents the right to intervene in the action for the prosecution (THEREOF) of the action. The proceeds of (SUCH) the action or settlement (THEREOF) of the action shall be paid in accordance with subdivision 6.

(b) If an employer, being then insured, sustains damages due to a change in workers' compensation insurance premiums, whether by a failure to achieve a decrease or by a retroactive or prospective increase, as a result of the injury or death of (HIS) an employee which was caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, the employer, notwithstanding other remedies provided, may maintain an action against the other party for recovery of (SUCH) the premiums. This cause of action may be brought either by joining in an action described in clause (a) or by a separate action. Damages recovered under this clause (SHALL BE) are for the benefit of the employer and the provisions of subdivision 6 (SHALL) are not (BE) applicable to (SUCH) the damages.

(c) The third party is not liable to any person other than the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, or (HIS) the employer, or the special compensation fund, for any damages resulting from the injury or death.

A co-employee working for the same employer is not liable for a personal injury incurred by another employee unless the injury resulted from the gross negligence of the co-employee or was intentionally inflicted by the co-employee.

Subd. 6. [COSTS, ATTORNEY FEES, EXPENSES.] The proceeds of all actions for damages or settlement (THEREOF) of an action under this section, except for damages received under subdivision 5, clause (b) received by the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or by the employer, or the special compensation fund, as provided by subdivision 5, shall be divided as follows:

(a) After deducting the reasonable cost of collection, including but not limited to attorneys fees and burial expense in excess of the statutory liability, then

(b) One-third of the remainder shall in any event be paid to the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, without being subject to any right of subrogation.

(c) Out of the balance remaining, the employer, or the special compensation fund, shall be reimbursed in an amount equal to all benefits paid under this chapter to or on behalf of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents by the employer, or special compensation fund, less the product of the costs deducted under clause (a) divided by the total proceeds received by the employee or his dependents from the other party multiplied by all benefits paid by the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents.

(d) Any balance remaining shall be paid to the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, and shall be a credit to employer, and the special compensation fund, for any benefits which employer is obligated to pay, but has not paid, and for any benefits that (SUCH) the employer (SHALL BE) is obligated to make in the future.

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL TREATMENT.] The liability of an employer, or the special compensation fund, for medical treatment or payment of any other compensation under this chapter (SHALL) is not (BE) affected by the fact that (HIS) the employee was injured through the fault or negligence of a third party, against whom the employee may have a cause of action which may be sued under this chapter, but the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, (SHALL HAVE) has a separate additional cause of action against (SUCH) the third party to recover any amounts paid for medical treatment or for other compensation payable under this section resulting from the negligence of (SUCH) the third party. This separate cause of action of the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may be asserted in a separate action brought by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against (SUCH) the third party or in the action commenced by the employee or the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, under this chapter, but in the latter case the cause of action shall be separately stated, the amount awarded thereon shall be separately set out in the verdict, and the amount recovered by suit or otherwise as reimbursement for medical expenses or other compensation shall be for the benefit of the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the extent that the employer, or the special compensation fund, has paid or will be required to pay compensation or for medical treatment of the injured employee and (SHALL) does not affect the amount of periodic compensation to be paid.

(SUBD. 8. [STATE AS EMPLOYER.] IN EVERY CASE ARISING UNDER SUBDIVISION 5 WHEN THE STATE IS THE EMPLOYER AND A SETTLEMENT BETWEEN THE THIRD PARTY AND THE EMPLOYEE IS MADE IT IS NOT VALID UNLESS PRIOR NOTICE THEREOF IS GIVEN TO THE STATE WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME. IF THE STATE PAYS COMPENSATION TO THE EMPLOYEE UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THIS CHAPTER AND BECOMES SUBROGATED TO THE RIGHTS OF THE EMPLOYEE OR HIS DEPENDENTS ANY SETTLEMENT BETWEEN THE EMPLOYEE OR HIS DEPENDENTS AND THE THIRD PARTY IS VOID AS AGAINST THE STATE'S RIGHT OF SUBROGATION. WHEN AN ACTION AT LAW IS INSTITUTED BY AN EMPLOYEE OR HIS DEPENDENTS AGAINST A THIRD PARTY FOR RECOVERY OF DAMAGES A COPY OF THE COMPLAINT AND NOTICE OF TRIAL OR NOTE OF ISSUE IN SUCH ACTION SHALL BE SERVED ON THE STATE. ANY JUDGMENT RENDERED THEREIN IS SUBJECT TO A LIEN OF THE STATE FOR THE AMOUNT TO WHICH IT IS ENTITLED TO BE SUBROGATED UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF SUBDIVISION 5.)

Subd. 8a. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYER.] In every case arising under subdivision 5, a settlement between the third party and the employee is not valid unless prior notice of the intention to settle is given to the employer within a reasonable time. If the employer or insurer pays compensation to the employee under the provisions of this chapter and becomes subrogated to the right of the employee or the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, any settlement between the employee or the employee's dependents and the third party is void as against the employer's right of subrogation or indemnity unless prior notice was given. When an action at law is instituted by an employee or the employee's dependents against a third party for recovery of damages, a copy of the complaint and notice of trial or note of issue in the action shall be served on the employer or insurer. Any judgment rendered in the action is subject to a lien of the employer for the amount to which it is entitled to be subrogated or indemnified under the provisions of subdivision 5.

Subd. 9. [SERVICE OF NOTICE ON ATTORNEY GENERAL.] In every case in which the state is liable to pay compensation or is subrogated to the rights of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, all notices required to be given the state shall be served on the attorney general and the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY).

If the employer or (HIS) the insurer or the defendant is given written notice of (SUCH) claims for legal services or disbursements, the (SAME) claim shall be a lien against the amount paid or payable as compensation (, SUBJECT TO DETERMINATION OF THE AMOUNT AND APPROVAL PROVIDED BY THIS CHAPTER). (PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT) In no case shall fees be calculated on the basis of any undisputed portion of compensation awards. The statement shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall clearly and conspicuously state that the employee or insurer has ten calendar days to object to the attorney fees requested. If no objection is timely made by the employee or insurer, the amount requested shall be conclusively presumed reasonable providing the amount does not exceed the limitation in subdivision 1. The commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall issue an order granting the fees and the amount requested shall be awarded to the party requesting the fee.*

If a timely objection is filed, the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall review the matter and make a determination based on the criteria in subdivision 5.

(a) The fee in each individual case must be a reasonable one.

(b) There is no set standard fee to be awarded in any workers' compensation matter.

(c) No attorney-client fee contract or arrangement is binding in any workers' compensation matter.

(d) In determining a reasonable attorney fee, important factors to be taken into account are: the amount involved, the time and expense necessary to prepare for trial, the responsibility assumed by counsel, the expertise of counsel in the workers' compensation field, the difficulties of the issues involved, the nature of proof needed to be adduced and the results obtained. The amount of money involved shall not be the controlling factor.

(e) The determination of the fee in each specific workers' compensation matter must be done with the same care as the determination of any other fact question in the matter.

(f) The determiner of the attorney fee in each matter must ascertain whether or not a retainer fee has been paid to the attorney and if so, the amount of the retainer fee.

(g) The determiner of attorney fees in each case must personally see that the workers' compensation file contains fully adequate information to justify the fee that is determined.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.081, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. The commissioner, office of administrative hearings and the workers' compensation court of appeals may adopt reasonable and proper joint rules to effect (ITS) each of their obligations under this section.

Subd. 7. If the employer or insurer (SHALL FILE) files a denial of liability, notice of discontinuance, or (SHALL FAIL) fails to make payment of compensation or medical expenses within the statutory period after notice of injury or occupational disease, or (SHALL) otherwise (RESIST) unsuccessfully resists the payment of compensation or medical expenses, or unsuccessfully disputes the payment of rehabilitation benefits or other aspects of a rehabilitation plan, and the injured person (SHALL HAVE) has employed an attorney at law, who successfully procures payment on behalf of the employee or who enables the resolution of a dispute with respect to a rehabilitation plan, the compensation judge, commissioner of the department of labor and industry, or the workers' compensation court of appeals upon appeal, upon application, shall award to the employee against the insurer or self-insured employer or uninsured em-

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be 66-2/3 percent of the difference between the (DAILY) weekly wage of the (WORKER) employee at the time of injury and the wage (HE) the employee is able to earn in (HIS) the employee's partially disabled condition. This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability except as provided in section 176.101, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to the statewide average weekly wage. (IF THE EMPLOYER DOES NOT FURNISH THE WORKER WITH WORK WHICH HE CAN DO IN HIS TEMPORARY PARTIALLY DISABLED CONDITION AND HE IS UNABLE TO PROCURE SUCH WORK WITH ANOTHER EMPLOYER, AFTER REASONABLY DILIGENT EFFORT, THE EMPLOYEE SHALL BE PAID AT THE FULL COMPENSATION RATE FOR HIS OR HER TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY.)

These rules shall be made or revised after consultation with experts on industrial vision and after public notice to and hearing of interested parties;

(49) In all cases of permanent partial disability not enumerated in this schedule the compensation shall be $66\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the difference between the daily wage of the worker at the time of the injury and the daily wage he is able to earn in his partially disabled condition, subject to a maximum equal to the statewide average weekly wage, and continue during disability, not to exceed 350 weeks; and if the employer does not furnish the worker with work which he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition and he is unable to secure such work with another employer after a reasonably diligent effort, the employee shall be paid at his or her maximum rate of compensation for total disability.

This subdivision applies to a permanent partial disability incurred before the effective date of the rules adopted under section 176.105, subdivision 4.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

The compensation shall be $66\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the weekly wage at the time of injury subject to a maximum equal to the statewide average weekly wage. For permanent partial disability up to the percent of the whole body in the following schedule, the compensation shall be paid for the proportion that the loss of function of the disabled part bears to the whole body multiplied by the number of weeks aligned with that percent.

66-70	1120

The percentage loss in all cases under this subdivision is determined according to the rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, subdivision 4. This subdivision shall apply to a permanent partial disability incurred on or after the adoption of those rules.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [IMPAIRMENT COMPENSATION.] An employee who suffers a permanent partial disability due to a personal injury and receives impairment compensation under this section shall receive compensation in an amount as provided by this subdivision. For permanent partial disability up to the percent of the whole body shown in the following schedule the amount shall be equal to the proportion that the loss of function of the disabled part bears to the whole body multiplied by the amount aligned with that percent in the following schedule:

Percent of disability	Amount

86-90	320,000
96-100	400,000

For all cases under this subdivision the percentage loss of function of a part of the body is determined by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, subdivision 4. This subdivision shall apply to a permanent partial disability incurred on or after the adoption of those rules.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [MAXIMUM PAYABLE.] The maximum amount payable under subdivisions 3a and 3b is the maximum compensation payable to an employee who has a disability to the body as a whole and under no conditions shall an employee receive more than those amounts even if the employee sustains a disability to two or more body parts.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [GENERAL.] An employee who has incurred a personal injury shall receive temporary total compensation until these benefits are no longer payable pursuant to this section. If the injury results in a permanent partial disability, the employee shall receive compensation as provided in this section.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. [END OF TEMPORARY TOTAL COMPENSATION.] (a) 90 days after an employee has reached maximum medical improvement or 90 days after the end of an approved retraining program, whichever is later, the employee's temporary total compensation shall cease. This cessation shall occur at an earlier date if otherwise provided by this section. If prior to the termination of this 90-day period the employee retires or the employer furnishes work to the employee that the employee can do in his or her physical condition and that job produces an economic status as close as possible to that the employee would have enjoyed without the disability, or the employer procures this employment with another employer or the employee accepts this job with another employer, temporary total compensation shall cease. If the injury resulted in permanent partial disability, the employee shall receive impairment compensation pursuant to subdivision 3b. This impairment compensation is in lieu of economic recovery compensation under subdivision 3a, and the employee shall not receive both economic recovery compensation and impairment compensation for the same disability. Temporary total compensation and impairment compensation shall not be paid concurrently. Once temporary total compensation ceases no further temporary total compensation is payable except as specifically provided in this section.

(b) If the job offered under clause (a) is not the job the employee had at the time of injury it shall be in writing and shall state the nature of the job, the rate of pay, the physical requirements of the job, an agreement to pay temporary partial compensation if appropriate, and any other information necessary to fully and completely inform the employee of the job duties and responsibilities.

The employee has 14 calendar days to accept or reject the job offer. If the employee does not respond within this period it is deemed a refusal of the offer.

(c) Self employment may be an appropriate job under this subdivision.

The commissioner shall monitor application of this subdivision and may adopt rules to assure its proper application.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [ACCEPTANCE OF JOB OFFER.] If the employee accepts a job offer described in subdivision 3e and begins work at that job, the impairment compensation shall be paid in a lump sum 30 calendar days after the return to work.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL COMPENSATION.] An employee who accepts a job under subdivision 3e and begins that job shall receive temporary partial compensation pursuant to subdivision 2, if appropriate.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [LAYOFF BECAUSE OF LACK OF WORK OR RELEASED FOR OTHER THAN SEASONAL CONDITIONS.] (a) If an employee accepts a job under subdivision 3e and begins work at that job and is subsequently unemployed because of economic conditions, other than seasonal conditions, the employee shall receive monitoring period compensation pursuant to clause (b). In addition, the employer who was the employer at the time of the injury shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant if the employee remains unemployed for 45 calendar days. The commissioner may waive this rehabilitation consultation if the commissioner deems it appropriate. Further rehabilitation, if deemed appropriate, is governed by section 176.102.

(b) Upon the employee's initial return to work the monitoring period begins to run. If the employee is unemployed for the reason in clause (a), prior to the end of the monitoring period the employee shall receive monitoring period compensation. This compensation shall be paid for the lesser of (1) the weeks remaining in the monitoring period, or (2) the weeks equal to the monitoring period minus the impairment compensation paid to the employee. For purposes of this clause the impairment compensation shall be converted to weeks by dividing the impairment compensation received by the employee by the employee's compensation rate for temporary total disability at the time of the injury. No monitoring period compensation is payable if the unemployment occurs after the expiration of the monitoring period. Monitoring period compensation is payable at the same intervals and amount as temporary total compensation was paid.

(c) If the employee returns to work and is still receiving monitoring period compensation, this compensation shall cease. Any period remaining in the monitoring period upon this return to work shall be used to determine further benefits if the employee is again unemployed under clause (a).

(d) Upon the employee's return to work pursuant to this section the employer shall notify the employee of the length of the employee's monitoring period and shall notify the employee of the amount of impairment to be paid and the date of payment.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [MEDICALLY UNABLE TO CONTINUE WORK.] (a) If the employee has started the job offered under subdivision 3e and is medically unable to continue at that job, that employee shall receive compensation pursuant to clause (b). In addition, the employer who was the employer at the time of the injury shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant. In its consideration of these factors, the board shall utilize the information and recommendations developed by the subcommittees. In addition, the board shall utilize any other data developed by the subcommittees pursuant to the duties assigned to the subcommittees under this section.

After making a determination, the board shall submit its recommendation in writing to the commissioner. The board shall advise the commissioner on the adoption of rules regarding all aspects of medical care and services provided to injured employees.

(b) The board shall appoint three of its members to hear appeals from decisions of the commissioner regarding quality control and supervision of medical care; any other disputes regarding medical, surgical, and hospital care; decisions regarding the eligibility of medical providers to receive payments; or any other determinations of the commissioner pursuant to subdivision 2. The three-member panel shall be composed of one member who does not represent a health care specialty, one member who represents the same specialty as the specialty at issue or, if the same specialty is not available, one member whose specialty is as close as possible considering the board's composition, and one member representing a different specialty. The three-member panel shall conduct a hearing in the same manner, giving the same notice and following other procedures required of the rehabilitation review panel in section 176.102, subdivision 3a. A majority vote of the three-member panel constitutes the decision of the board. This decision may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

(c) In any situation where a conflict of interest prevents the appointment of a full three-member panel or in any other situation where the commissioner deems it necessary to resolve a conflict of interest, the commissioner may appoint a temporary substitute board member to serve until the situation creating the conflict of interest has been resolved.

Sec. 81. [176.104] [REHABILITATION PRIOR TO DETERMINATION OF LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [DISPUTE.] If there exists a dispute regarding whether an injury arose out of and in the course and scope of employment and an employee has been disabled for the requisite time under section 176.102, subdivision 4 prior to determination of liability, the employee shall be referred by the commissioner to the division of vocational rehabilitation which shall provide rehabilitation consultation. The services provided by the division of vocational rehabilitation and the scope and term of the rehabilitation are governed by section 176.102 and rules adopted pursuant to that section. Rehabilitation costs and services under this subdivision shall be approved, rejected, or modified by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR PAST REHABILITATION.] If liability is determined after the employee has commenced rehabilitation under this section the liable party is responsible for the cost of rehabilitation provided and approved by the commissioner. Future rehabilitation after liability is established is governed by section 176.102.

Sec. 82. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.105, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. The commissioner shall by rule adopt procedures to determine the percentage of loss of function of a part of the body based on the body as a whole, including internal organs, described in section 176.101, subdivision 3 and any other body part not listed in section 176.101, subdivision 3 which the commissioner deems appropriate.

Temporary rules shall be adopted for this purpose not later than January 1, 1985. Prior to the adoption of these rules, at least two public hearings shall be held by the commissioner, in addition to the requirements of sections 14.29 to 14.36. Notwithstanding sections 14.29 to 14.36, the temporary rules adopted under this subdivision shall be effective until superseded by permanent rules. The rules shall promote objectivity and consistency in the evaluation of permanent functional impairment due to personal injury and in the assignment of a numerical rating to the functional impairment.

Disability ratings and schedules shall be based on objective medical evidence.

Prior to adoption of temporary rules the commissioner of insurance shall conduct an analysis of the current permanent partial disability schedule for the purpose of determining the number and distribution of permanent partial disabilities and the average compensation for various permanent partial disabilities. The commissioner of labor and industry shall consider this analysis in adopting the rules under this subdivision and shall consider establishing a schedule which provides that the average award under the proposed schedule shall be approximately the same as the average award under the current schedule. The commissioner shall consider setting the compensation under the proposed schedule for the most serious conditions higher in comparison to the current schedule and shall consider decreasing awards for minor conditions in comparison to the current schedule.

The commissioner shall consider, among other factors, and shall not be limited to the following factors in developing rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability benefits:

(a) the workability and simplicity of the procedures with respect to the evaluation of functional disability;

(b) the consistency of the procedures with accepted medical standards;

(c) rules, guidelines, and schedules that exist in other states that are related to the evaluation of permanent partial disability or to a schedule of benefits for functional disability;

(d) rules, guidelines, and schedules that have been developed by associations of health care providers or organizations;

(e) the effect the rules may have on reducing litigation;

(f) the treatment of preexisting disabilities with respect to the evaluation of permanent functional disability provided that any preexisting disabilities must be objectively determined by medical evidence; and

(g) symptomatology and loss of function and use of the injured member.

The factors in clauses (a) to (g) shall not be used in any individual or specific workers' compensation claim under this chapter but shall only be used in the adoption of rules pursuant to this section.

The commissioners authority to adopt, amend, or repeal rules under this subdivision shall expire upon adoption of the permanent rules, and in no case later than January 1, 1987. The rules adopted under this subdivision, however, shall continue to have the full force and effect of law after this date.

Sec. 86. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. [REMARRIAGE OF SPOUSE.] Remarriage of a surviving spouse who is receiving benefits under subdivision 6, 7, or 8 has no effect on the spouse's right to receive weekly benefits for the remaining period that the spouse is entitled to receive benefits pursuant to this section.

Sec. 87. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.111, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [BURIAL EXPENSE.] In all cases where death results to an employee from a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment, the employer shall pay the expense of burial, not exceeding in amount ($1,000) $2,500. In case any dispute arises as to the reasonable value of the services rendered in connection with the burial, (SUCH) its reasonable value shall be determined and approved by the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY), a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals, in cases upon appeal, before payment, after (SUCH) reasonable notice to interested parties as is required by the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY). If the deceased leave no dependents, no compensation is payable, except as provided by this chapter.

Sec. 88. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.121, is amended to read:

176.121 [COMMENCEMENT OF COMPENSATION.]

In cases of temporary total or temporary partial disability no compensation (SHALL BE) is allowed for the three calendar days after the disability commenced, except as provided by section 176.135, nor in any case unless the employer has actual knowledge of the injury or is notified thereof within the period specified in section 176.141. If (SUCH) the disability continues for 10 calendar days or longer, (SUCH) the compensation (SHALL BE) is computed from the commencement of the disability. Disability is deemed to commence on the first calendar day or fraction of a calendar day that the employee is unable to work.

Sec. 89. [176.129] [CREATION OF THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPOSIT OF FUNDS.] The special compensation fund is created for the purposes provided for in this chapter. The state treasurer is the custodian of the special compensation fund. Sums paid to the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be deposited with the state treasurer for the benefit of the fund and used to pay the benefits under this chapter. Any interest or profit accruing from investment of these sums shall be credited to the special compensation fund. Subject to the provisions of this section, all the powers, duties, functions, obligations, and rights vested in the special compensation fund immediately prior to the effective date of this section are transferred to and vested in the special compensation fund recreated by this section. All rights and obligations of employers with regard to the special compensation fund which existed immediately prior to the effective date of this section continue, subject to the provisions of this section.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENTS TO FUND, DEATH.] In every case of death of an employee resulting from personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner the sum of $25,000 for the benefit of the special compensation fund. In every case of death of an employee resulting from personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to at least $25,000 in monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner for the benefit of the special compensation fund the difference between the amounts actually paid for the dependency benefits and $25,000; but in no event shall the employer pay the commissioner less than $5,000.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS TO FUND, INJURY.] If an employee suffers a personal injury resulting in permanent partial disability, temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, or death and the employee or the employee's dependents are entitled to compensation under section 176.101 or 176.111 the employer shall pay to the commissioner a lump sum amount, without any interest deduction, equal to 20 percent of the total compensation payable. The rate under this subdivision shall remain constant and applies to injuries occurring prior to January 1, 1984, even if the payment is made on or after January 1, 1984. This payment is to be credited to the special compensation fund and shall be in addition to any compensation payments made by the employer under this chapter. Payment shall be made as soon as the amount is determined and approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [TIME OF INJURY.] Subdivisions 2 and 3 apply to all workers' compensation payments paid under section 176.101 or 176.111 for an injury or death occurring on or after June 1, 1971, but before January 1, 1984.

Payments made for personal injuries that occurred prior to June 1, 1971, shall be assessed at the rate in effect on the date of occurrence.

Subd. 5. [DETERMINATION OF AMOUNT PAYABLE.] (a) For injuries occurring on or after January 1, 1984, employers shall pay an assessment as provided in this subdivision. The assessment base shall be determined according to a method established by rule adopted by the commissioner. In determining this method, the commissioner shall consider, among other things, the frequency of indemnity claims, equity, administrative convenience, records maintained by employer's insurers and self-insurers, amenability to audit, and degree of risk refinement.

(b) Using the assessment base method established in clause (a), the commissioner shall annually determine the amount of the assessment base of each employer.

(c) The commissioner shall annually establish a uniform percentage rate to be applied to the assessment base determined pursuant to clause (b). In establishing this rate, the commissioner shall consider, among other things, the likely expenditures to be made by the special fund in the next calendar year, the current fiscal status of the fund, future expenditure trends, and the assessments estimated to be collected under subdivisions 2 and 3. The assessment rate multiplied by the assessment base of an employer is the assessment amount payable under this subdivision. The total amount assessed under this subdivision shall not exceed $25,000,000 in calendar year 1984. The total amount which may annually be assessed under this subdivision may be increased by up to ten percent beginning on January 1, 1985, and each January 1 thereafter.

(d) An amount assessed pursuant to this subdivision is payable to the commissioner within 45 days of mailing notice of the amount due.

Subd. 6. [PAYMENTS OUT OF FUND.] The workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or district court in cases before them shall direct the distribution of benefits provided by this chapter.

These benefits are payable in the same manner as other payments of compensation.

Subd. 7. [REFUNDS.] In case deposit is or has been made under subdivision 2 and dependency later is shown, or if deposit is or has been made pursuant to subdivision 2 or 3 by mistake or inadvertence, or under circumstances that justice requires a refund, the state treasurer is authorized to refund the deposit under order of the commissioner, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or a district court. There is appropriated to the commissioner from the fund an amount sufficient to make the refund and payment.

Subd. 8. [COMMISSIONER AS ADMINISTRATOR.] The commissioner is the administrator of the special compensation fund. The special compensation fund shall be designated a party in an action regarding any right, obligation, and liability of the special fund. The state treasurer, as custodian, does not have standing in an action determining any right, obligation, or liability of the special fund. The attorney general shall represent the special fund in all legal matters in which the special fund has an interest.

Subd. 9. [POWERS OF FUND.] In addition to powers granted to the special compensation fund by this chapter the fund may do the following:

- (a) sue and be sued in its own name;*
- (b) intervene in or commence an action under this chapter or any other law, including, but not limited to, intervention or action as a subrogee, to the division's right in a third-party action, any proceeding under this chapter in which liability of the special compensation fund is an issue, or any proceeding which may result in other liability of the fund or to protect the legal right of the fund;*
- (c) enter into settlements including but not limited to structured, annuity purchase agreements with appropriate parties under this chapter; and*
- (d) take any other action which an insurer is permitted by law to take in operating within this chapter.*

Subd. 10. [PENALTY.] Sums paid to the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be in the manner prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may impose a penalty of up to 15 percent of the amount due under this section but not less than $500 in the event payment is not made in the manner prescribed.

Subd. 11. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS.] The accounting, investigation, and legal costs necessary for the administration of the programs financed by the special compensation fund shall be paid from the fund during each biennium commencing July 1, 1981. Staffing and expenditures related to the administration of the special compensation fund shall be approved through the regular budget and appropriations process.

Subd. 12. [REPORT OF COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall report biennially to the governor and to the legislature as to the financial status of the special compensation fund. The report shall include a statement of the receipts and the disbursements for the period covered.

Subd. 13. [EMPLOYER REPORTS.] All employers shall make reports to the commissioner as required for the proper administration of this section and section 176.131.

Sec. 90. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If an employee incurs personal injury and suffers disability that is substantially greater, because of a pre-existing physical impairment, than what would have resulted from the personal injury alone, the employer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, but (HE) the employer shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for all compensation paid in excess of 52 weeks of monetary benefits and $2,000 in medical expenses, subject to the following exceptions:

If the personal injury alone results in permanent partial disability to a scheduled member under (SECTION 176.101) the schedule adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, the monetary and medical expense limitations shall not apply and the employer (SHALL BE) is liable for (SUCH) the compensation, medical expense, and (RETRAINING) rehabilitation attributable to the permanent partial disability, and (HE) may be reimbursed from the special compensation fund only for compensation paid in excess of (SUCH) the disability.

Sec. 92. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

The procedures shall incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees. If the commissioner (OF INSURANCE, A COMPENSATION JUDGE), medical services review board, the workers' compensation court of appeals or a district court determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter; however, the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall by rule establish procedures allowing for a provider to appeal such determination. The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 for the purposes listed in section 145.61, subdivision 5, and report to the legislature by January 15, 1983 and thereafter on January 15 of every odd-numbered year, regarding the delivery of medical and health care services, including rehabilitation services, under the workers' compensation laws of this state.

The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall also conduct a study of the qualifications and background of rehabilitation consultants and vendors providing services under section 176.102 for the purpose of determining whether there are adequate professional standards provided, including safeguards to protect against conflicts of interest. If upon the effective date of this section this study has already been conducted by the commissioner of insurance, the commissioner is not required to conduct the study.

The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall adopt temporary rules in order to implement the provisions of this subdivision. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.14, subdivision 1, and any amendments, the temporary rules adopted by the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) pursuant to this subdivision may be extended for an additional 180 days if the procedures for adoption of a rule pursuant to sections 14.13 to 14.20 or 14.21 to 14.28, and other provisions of the administrative procedure act related to final agency action and rule adoption have not been concluded.

Any rules adopted by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to this section shall be adopted by the commissioner of labor and industry and may be amended, modified, or repealed only by the commissioner of labor and industry.

Sec. 105. [176.138] [MEDICAL DATA; ACCESS.]

Notwithstanding any other state laws related to the privacy of medical data or any private agreements to the contrary, the release of medical data related to a current claim for compensation under this chapter to the employee, employer, or insurer who are parties to the claim, or to the department of labor and industry, shall not require prior approval of any party to the claim. Requests for pertinent data shall be made in writing to the person or organization that collected or currently possesses the data. The data shall be provided by the collector or possessor within seven working days of receiving the request. In all cases of a request for the data, except when it is the employee who is making the request, the employee shall be sent written notification of the request by the party requesting the data at the same time the request is made. This data shall be treated as private data by the party who requests or receives the data and the employee or the employee's attorney shall be provided with a copy of all data requested.

This section does not apply to medical data related to a previous injury or disability which is an issue in a claim for apportionment.

The commissioner may impose a penalty of up to $200 payable to the special compensation fund against a party who does not release the data in a timely manner. A party who does not treat this data as private pursuant to this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 106. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.155, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REFUSAL TO BE EXAMINED.] If the injured employee refuses to comply with any reasonable request for examination, (HIS) the right to compensation may be suspended by order of the division, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals in a matter before it, and no compensation shall be paid while (HE) the employee continues in (SUCH) the refusal.

Sec. 107. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.155, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TESTIMONY OF (EXAMINING PHYSICIANS) HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.] Any physician or other health care provider designated by the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY), compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals or whose services are furnished or paid for by the employer, who treats (OR WHO MAKES), examines, or is present at any examination, of an injured employee, may be required to testify as to any knowledge acquired by (HIM) the physician or health care provider in the course of (SUCH) the treatment or examination relative to the injury or disability resulting (THEREFROM) from the injury only if the commissioner or a compensation judge makes a written finding that the appearance of the physician or health care provider is crucial to the accurate determination of the employee's disability. In all other cases all medical evidence must be submitted by written report as prescribed by the chief hearing examiner. A party may cross-examine by deposition a physician or health care provider who has examined or treated the employee. If a physician or health care provider is not available for cross-examination prior to the hearing and the physician's or health care provider's written report is submitted at the hearing, the compensation judge shall, upon request of the adverse party, require the physician or health care provider to testify at the hearing for the purpose of being cross-examined by the adverse party. All written medical evidence must be submitted prior to or at the time of the hearing and no evidence shall be considered which was submitted after the hearing unless the compensation judge orders otherwise.

176.179 [PAYMENTS OF COMPENSATION RECEIVED IN GOOD FAITH.]

Notwithstanding section 176.521, subdivision 3, or any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, no lump sum or weekly payment, or settlement, which is voluntarily paid to an injured employee or the survivors of a deceased employee in apparent or seeming accordance with the provisions of this chapter by an employer or insurer, or is paid pursuant to an order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, or court of appeals relative to a claim by an injured employee or (HIS) the employee's survivors, and received in good faith by the employee or (HIS) the employee's survivors shall be refunded to the paying employer or insurer in the event that it is subsequently determined that the payment was made under a mistake in fact or law by the employer or insurer. When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a credit against future benefit entitlement; provided, however, that the credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits or death benefits shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

176.182 [BUSINESS LICENSES OR PERMITS; COVERAGE REQUIRED.]

Every state (OR LOCAL) licensing agency shall withhold the issuance of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision thereof shall enter into any contract for the doing of any public work before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

This section shall not be construed to create any liability on the part of the state or any governmental subdivision to pay workers' compensation benefits or to indemnify the special compensation fund, an employer, or insurer who pays workers' compensation benefits.

Sec. 110. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. An action to recover (SUCH) the moneys shall be instituted unless the (CUSTODIAN) commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All moneys recovered shall be deposited in the general fund. There shall be no payment from the special compensation fund if there is liability for the injury under the provisions of section 176.215, by an insurer or self-insurer.

Sec. 111. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. When an employee or (HIS) the employee's dependent is entitled to benefits under this chapter from a self-insurer, present or past, other than the state and its municipal subdivisions, but the self-insurer fails to (BE PAID THEM) pay the benefits, the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, regardless of the date when the accident, personal injury, occupational disease, or death occurred, shall nevertheless receive (SUCH) the benefits from the special compensation fund (, AND). The (STATE TREASURER AS CUSTODIAN OF SUCH FUND SHALL HAVE) commissioner has a cause of action against (SUCH) the self-insuring employer for reimbursement (,) for all (MONEYS) benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out and, in the discretion of the court, (AS) the self-insurer is liable for punitive damages in an (ADDITIONAL) amount not to exceed 50 percent of the total of all (MONEYS) benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out. The commissioner shall institute an action to recover (SUCH MONEYS SHALL BE INSTITUTED) the total expenditures from the fund unless the (CUSTODIAN) commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All (MONEYS) proceeds recovered shall be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 112. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision 2, the commissioner may direct payment from the special compensation fund for compensation payable pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 1a, including benefits payable under sections 176.102 and 176.135, prior to issuance of an order of a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals directing payment or awarding compensation.

(b) The commissioner may suspend or terminate an order under clause (a) for good cause as determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 113. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. If the commissioner authorizes the special fund to commence payment under this section, the commissioner shall serve notice by certified mail upon the employer and other interested parties of the intention to commence payment. This notice shall be served at least ten calendar days before commencing payment and shall be mailed to the last known address of the parties. The notice shall include a statement that failure of the employer to respond within ten calendar days of the date of service will be deemed acceptance by the employer of the proposed action by the commissioner and will be deemed a waiver of defenses the employer has to a subrogation or indemnity action by the commissioner. At any time prior to final determination of liability, the employer may appear as a party and present defenses the employer has, whether or not an appearance by the employer has previously been made in the matter. The commissioner has a cause of action against the employer to recover compensation paid by the special fund under this section.

Subd. 10. [DATA COLLECTION CONTRACTS.] The commissioner may contract with other parties regarding the collection of appropriate data to assist in meeting the requirements of this section.

Notwithstanding any other state law to the contrary, the commissioner may obtain from the department of revenue, department of economic security, and office of the secretary of state, or any other state agency, upon request, names or lists of employers doing business in the state. This information shall be treated by the commissioner in the manner provided by chapter 13 and shall be used only for insurance verification by the commissioner.

Sec. 116. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. Where a dispute exists between an employer, insurer, the special compensation fund, the reopened case fund, or the workers' compensation reinsurance association, regarding benefits payable under this chapter, the dispute may be submitted with consent of all interested parties to binding arbitration pursuant to the rules of the American arbitration association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be conclusive with respect to all issues presented except as provided in subdivisions 6 and 7. Consent of the employee is not required for submission of a dispute to arbitration pursuant to this section and the employee is not bound by the results of the arbitration. An arbitration award shall not be admissible in any other proceeding under this chapter. Notice of the proceeding shall be given to the employee.

The employee, or any person with material information to the facts to be arbitrated, shall attend the arbitration proceeding if any party to the proceeding deems it necessary. Nothing said by an employee in connection with any arbitration proceeding may be used against the employee in any other proceeding under this chapter. Reasonable expenses of meals, lost wages, and travel of the employee or witnesses in attending shall be reimbursed on a pro rata basis.

Sec. 117. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Any reimbursement from the employee of any decrease in benefits from those paid pursuant to the arbitration is paid to the party or parties who previously had paid the increased benefits. The provisions of this subdivision apply regardless of whether more or fewer employers and insurers or the special fund have been added or omitted as parties to the employee's subsequent action after arbitration.

Sec. 118. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. If an employee brings an action under the circumstances described in subdivision 6, the parties to the previous arbitration may be represented at the new action by a common or joint attorney.

Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of temporary total compensation (DUE PURSUANT TO SECTION 176.101, SUBDIVISION 1,) shall commence. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer may have on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under chapter 176 or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. (WHEN) If the employer or insurer has commenced payment of compensation under this subdivision but determines within 30 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be (DISCONTINUED) terminated upon (NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE PURSUANT TO SECTION 176.241) the filing of a notice of denial of liability. Upon the (DETERMINATION) termination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner or compensation judge finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith. A notice of denial of liability must state in detail specific reasons explaining why the claimed injury or occupational disease was determined not to be within the scope and course of employment and shall include the name and telephone number of the person making this determination.

(SUBD. 2. [GRANT OF EXTENSION.] UPON APPLICATION MADE WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH THE FIRST PAYMENT WAS DUE, THE COMMISSIONER MAY GRANT AN EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO DETERMINE LIABILITY. THE EXTENSION SHALL NOT EXCEED 30 DAYS.)

The insurer is (NOT) liable for a penalty payment assessed against it even if the delay is attributable to the employer.

An insurer who has paid a penalty under this section may recover from the employer the portion of the penalty attributable to the acts of the employer which resulted in the delay. A penalty paid by an insurer under this section which is attributable to the fault of the employer shall be treated as a loss in an experience rated plan, retrospective rating plan, or dividend calculation where appropriate.

Subd. 6a. The commissioner shall advise all parties of the right to petition to the chief hearing examiner under section 176.241 and of the right to be represented by an attorney at a hearing before a compensation judge.

Subd. 5. [OBJECTION TO DECISION.] If the commissioner grants the employer's or insurer's request to discontinue compensation and the employee objects to the discontinuance, the employee may file an objection to discontinuance under section 176.241. If the commissioner denies the request to discontinue compensation the employer or insurer may file a petition to discontinue under section 176.241.

Subd. 6. [EFFECT OF DECISION, APPEAL.] If an objection or a petition is filed under subdivision 5, the commissioner's administrative decision remains in effect and the parties obligations or rights to pay or receive compensation are governed by the commissioner's administrative decision, pending a determination by a compensation judge.

Subd. 7. [DECISION AS NOTICE.] If a party proceeds under subdivision 5, the commissioner's administrative decision under this section is deemed required notice to interested parties under section 176.241 and the commissioner's obligations under section 176.241 are deemed to be met.

Subd. 8. [WHEN DISCONTINUANCE ALLOWED.] Compensation shall not be discontinued prior to an administrative conference except as provided under subdivision 2, clause (b) or if the commissioner determines pursuant to subdivision 3 that no administrative conference is necessary. The employer may discontinue compensation immediately without having an administrative conference if the discontinuance is because the employee has returned to work.

Subd. 9. [NOTICE, FORMS.] Notice to the employee under subdivision 1 shall be on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 10. [FINES, VIOLATIONS.] An employer or insurer who discontinues compensation in violation of this section is subject to a fine of up to $500 for each violation. Fines shall be paid to the special compensation fund.

Subd. 11. [APPLICATION.] This section is applicable to any notice of intent to discontinue which is filed after the effective date of this section, even if the injury occurred prior to the effective date of this section.

Sec. 135. [176.243] [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE FOLLOWING RETURN TO WORK, SUBSEQUENT INABILITY TO WORK.]

Subdivision 1. [CONFIRMATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND WAGES.] If an insurer has discontinued compensation to an employee because the employee has returned to work, the insurer shall contact the employer by whom the employee is employed 14 calendar days after return to work. The insurer shall determine whether the employee is still employed after 14 days and shall also ascertain the wages being paid to the employee.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE TO COMMISSIONER.] If upon contact the insurer determines that the employee is not working or that the employee is earning a lower wage than at the time of the injury, the insurer shall notify the commissioner in writing of this fact and shall also state the actions that the insurer has taken or intends to take regarding payment of compensation. A copy of this notice shall be served by the insurer by certified mail to the employee.

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYEE REQUEST FOR ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] If the employee objects to the action of the insurer regarding payment of compensation upon the cessation of work by the employee, the employee may request an administrative conference with the commissioner to resolve disputed issues. A request for an administrative conference shall be made within ten calendar days after service of the notice on the employee. If the employee requests an administrative conference the commissioner shall schedule a conference to be held within 14 calendar days after the commissioner receives the request.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] After considering the information provided by the parties at the administrative conference the commissioner shall issue to all interested parties a written administrative decision regarding payment of compensation. The commissioner's decision is binding upon the parties and the rights and obligation of the parties are governed by the decision. The commissioner shall advise all parties of the right to petition to the chief hearing examiner under section 176.241 and of the right to be represented by an attorney at a hearing before a compensation judge. A party aggrieved by the commissioner's decision may proceed under section 176.241.

Subd. 5. [DECISION BINDING PENDING COMPENSATION JUDGE DECISION.] If an aggrieved party files a petition under section 176.241, the commissioner's administrative decision remains in effect pending a determination by a compensation judge.

Subd. 6. [DECISION AS NOTICE.] If a party proceeds under section 176.241, the commissioner's administrative decision is deemed to fulfill the division's obligations under section 176.241.

Subd. 7. [OBLIGATIONS PRIOR TO ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] If an insurer has not voluntarily recommenced compensation following the employee's cessation of work, the insurer is not obligated to do so until an administrative conference is held and unless the commissioner determines that compensation shall be recommenced.

Subd. 8. [NECESSITY OF ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] If the commissioner deems it appropriate, based upon information the commissioner has, the commissioner may determine that an administrative conference is not necessary, in which case a party may proceed under section 176.241.

Subd. 9. [APPLICATION OF SECTION.] This section applies only when the employee has received at least 30 days of temporary total or temporary partial compensation prior to return to work and if no rehabilitation plan has been approved.

Subd. 10. [NOTICE FORMS.] A notice under this section shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 11. [FINES, VIOLATIONS.] An employer or insurer who violates this section is subject to a fine of up to $500 for each violation which shall be paid to the special compensation fund.

Subd. 12. [APPLICATION.] This section is applicable to all cases in which a return to work has occurred after the effective date of this section even if the injury occurred prior to the effective date.

176.281 [ORDERS, DECISIONS, AND AWARDS; FILING; SERVICE.]

When the commissioner or compensation judge or office of administrative hearings or the workers' compensation court of appeals has rendered (AN) a final order, decision, or award, or amendment to an order, decision, or award, it shall be filed immediately with the commissioner. (WHERE) If the commissioner, compensation judge, office of administrative hearings, or workers' compensation court of appeals has rendered (AN) a final order, decision, or award, or amendment thereto, the commissioner or the office of administrative hearings or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall immediately serve a copy upon every party in interest, together with a notification of the (TIME) date the (SAME) order was filed.

176.285 [SERVICE OF PAPERS AND NOTICES.]

Service of papers and notices shall be by mail or (BY SUCH OTHER MEANS) otherwise as the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY DIRECTS) or the chief hearing examiner may by rule direct. Where service is by mail, service is effected at the time mailed if properly addressed and stamped. If it is so mailed, it is presumed the paper or notice reached the party to be served. However, a party may show by competent evidence that (HE) that party did not receive it or that it had been delayed in transit for an unusual or unreasonable period of time. In case of (SUCH) non-receipt or delay, an allowance shall be made for the party's failure to assert a right within the prescribed time.

The commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) and the chief hearing examiner shall (KEEP A CAREFUL RECORD OF EACH SERVICE INCLUDING THE TIME WHEN MADE) ensure that proof of service of all papers and notices served by their respective agencies is placed in the official file of the case.

Sec. 138. [176.312] [AFFIDAVIT OF PREJUDICE.]

An affidavit of prejudice for cause may be filed by a party to the claim against a compensation judge, in the same manner as an affidavit of prejudice is filed pursuant to law or rule of district court. The filing of an affidavit of prejudice against a compensation judge has the same effect and shall be treated in the same manner as in district court.

Sec. 139. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.321, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FILING, SERVICE.] Within (TWENTY) 20 days after (HE HAS BEEN SERVED WITH A COPY) service of the petition, an adverse party (MAY) shall serve and file (A VERIFIED) an answer to the petition. (WHEN HE FILES THE ANSWER,) The party shall (ALSO) serve a copy of the answer on the petitioner or (HIS) the petitioner's attorney.

(WITHIN FIVE DAYS AFTER HE HAS BEEN SERVED WITH A COPY OF THE ANSWER, THE PETITIONER MAY FILE A VERIFIED REPLY ADMITTING OR DENYING NEW MATTER SET FORTH IN THE ANSWER.)

176.331 [AWARD BY DEFAULT.]

(WHERE) If an adverse party (HAS FAILED) fails to file and serve an answer (, IF) and the petitioner presents proof of (SUCH) this fact, the commissioner or compensation judge (SHALL) may enter whatever award or order to which the petitioner is entitled on the basis of the facts alleged in the petition, but the compensation judge may require proof of an alleged fact. If the commissioner requires (SUCH) proof, (HE) the commissioner shall request the chief hearing examiner to assign the matter to a compensation judge (TO SUMMARILY HEAR AND DETERMINE THE SAME) for an immediate hearing and (TO PROMPTLY MAKE AN) prompt award or other order.

Where in (SUCH) a default case the petition does not state facts sufficient to support an award, the compensation judge shall give the petitioner or (HIS) the petitioner's attorney written notice of this deficiency. The petitioner may thereupon serve and file another petition as in the case of an original petition.

176.341 [HEARING ON PETITION.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME.] (WHEN THE REPLY HAS BEEN FILED OR THE TIME HAS EXPIRED IN WHICH TO FILE A REPLY) Upon receipt of a matter from the commissioner, the chief hearing examiner shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition. The hearing shall be held as soon as practicable and at a time and place determined by the chief hearing examiner to be the most convenient for the parties, keeping in mind the intent of chapter 176 (AS EXPRESSED IN SECTION 176.001) and the requirements of section 176.306.

Subd. 2. [PLACE.] Unless otherwise ordered by the (COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY OR COMPENSATION JUDGE) chief hearing examiner, the hearing shall be held in the county where the injury or death occurred.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE MAILED TO EACH PARTY.] At least (FIVE) 30 days prior to the date of hearing, the (WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVISION) chief hearing examiner shall mail a notice of the time and place of hearing to each interested party. This subdivision does not apply to hearings which have been continued from an earlier date. In those cases, the notice shall be given in a manner deemed appropriate by the chief hearing examiner after considering the particular circumstances in each case.

Sec. 142. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.361, is amended to read:

176.361 [INTERVENTION.]

The commissioner of the department of labor and industry and workers' compensation court of appeals shall adopt rules to govern the procedure for intervention.

Sec. 143. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.371, is amended to read:

176.371 [AWARD OR DISALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION.]

The compensation judge to whom a petition has been assigned for hearing, shall hear all competent, relevant evidence produced at the hearing (, AND, AS SOON AFTER THE HEARING AS POSSIBLE, MAKE FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW,). All questions of fact and law submitted to a compensation judge at the hearing shall be disposed of and the judge's decision shall be filed with the commissioner within 60 days after the submission, unless sickness or casualty prevents a timely filing, or the time is extended by written consent of the parties, or the chief hearing examiner extends the time for good cause. The compensation judge's decision shall include a determination of all contested issues of fact and law and an award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the pleadings, evidence, this chapter and rule require. A compensation judge's decision shall include a memorandum only if necessary to delineate the reasons for the decision or to discuss the credibility of witnesses. A memorandum shall not contain a recitation of the evidence presented at the hearing but shall be limited to the compensation judge's basis for the decision.

No part of the salary of a compensation judge shall be paid unless the chief hearing examiner determines that all decisions of that judge have been issued within the time limit prescribed by this section.

Sec. 144. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF APPEAL.] The appellant or (HIS) the appellant's attorney shall prepare and sign a written notice of appeal specifying:

- (1) the order appealed from;
- (2) that appellant appeals from the order to the workers' compensation court of appeals;
- (3) the particular finding of fact or conclusion of law which (HE) the appellant claims was unwarranted by the evidence or procured by fraud, coercion, or other improper conduct; and
- (4) (THE TESTIMONY OR OTHER PART OF THE RECORD OF THE HEARING NECESSARY TO BE TRANSCRIBED IN ORDER FOR THE COURT OF APPEALS TO CONSIDER THE APPEAL; AND,)
- ((5)) any other ground upon which the appeal is taken.

An appeal initiates the preparation of a typewritten transcript of the entire record unless the appeal is solely from an award of attorney's fees or an award of costs and disbursements or unless otherwise ordered by the court of appeals. On appeals from an award of attorney's fees or an award of costs and disbursements, the appellant must specifically delineate in the notice of appeal the portions of the record to be transcribed in order for the court of appeals to consider the appeal.

Sec. 145. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SERVICE AND FILING OF NOTICE; COST OF TRANSCRIPT.] Within the 30 day period for taking an appeal, the appellant shall:

(3) In order to defray the cost of the preparation of the record of the proceedings appealed from, pay to the state treasurer, office of administrative hearings account the sum of $25 (; AND)

((4) SUBMIT A REQUEST THAT THE CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER ORDER THE PREPARATION OF A TRANSCRIPT OF THAT PART OF THE HEARING DELINEATED IN THE NOTICE OF APPEAL).

(A PARTY WHO DESIRES A TRANSCRIPT OF MORE OF THE HEARING THAN HAS BEEN REQUESTED BY THE APPELLANT SHALL, WITHIN FIVE WORKING DAYS OF SERVICE OF THE NOTICE OF APPEAL, MAKE A REQUEST OF THE CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER THAT THE ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY BE TRANSCRIBED.)

The first party (REQUESTING THE PREPARATION OF THE TRANSCRIPT OR ANY PART) to file an appeal is liable for the original cost of preparation of the transcript. Cross-appellants or any other persons requesting a copy of the transcript are liable for the cost of the copy. The cost of a transcript prepared by a non-governmental source shall be paid directly to that source and shall not exceed the cost that the source would be able to charge the state for the same service.

Upon the showing of cause, the chief hearing examiner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the party requesting its preparation, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the office of administrative hearings.

All fees received by the office of administrative hearings for the preparation of the record for submission to the workers' compensation court of appeals or for the cost of transcripts prepared by the office shall be deposited in the office of administrative hearings account in the state treasury and shall be used solely for the purpose of keeping the record of hearings conducted under this chapter and the preparation of transcripts of those hearings.

Sec. 146. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS ON APPEAL.] On an appeal taken under this section, the workers' compensation court of (APPEALS) appeals' review is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of appeal or by a cross-appeal. In these cases, on those issues raised by the appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals may:

(1) disregard the findings of fact which the compensation judge has made;

(2) examine the record;

(3) substitute for the findings of fact made by the compensation judge such findings as the total evidence requires; and,

(4) make an award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the facts and findings require.

Sec. 147. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS.] At the division's own expense, the commissioner shall make a complete record of all proceedings before (HIMSELF.) the commissioner and shall provide a stenographer or an audio magnetic recording device to make (A) the record of the proceedings (BEFORE HIM).

The commissioner shall furnish a transcript of these proceedings to any person who requests it and who pays a reasonable charge (AND SHALL FIX THE AMOUNT OF THIS CHARGE) which shall be set by the commissioner. Upon a showing of cause, the commissioner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the person requesting the transcript, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the division. Transcript fees received under this subdivision shall be paid to the workers' compensation division account in the state treasury and shall be annually appropriated to the division for the sole purpose of providing a record and transcripts as provided in this subdivision.

176.442 [APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF COMMISSIONER (OF DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY).]

Any decision or determination of the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) affecting a right, privilege, benefit, or duty which is imposed or conferred under this chapter is subject to review by the workers' compensation court of appeals. A person aggrieved by (SUCH) the determination may appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

176.461 [SETTING ASIDE AWARD.]

Except (WHERE) when a writ of certiorari has been issued by the supreme court and the matter is still pending in that court or (WHERE) if as a matter of law the determination of the supreme court cannot be subsequently modified, the workers' compensation court of appeals, for cause, at any time after an award, upon application of either party and not less than five working days after written notice to all interested parties, may set the award aside and grant a new hearing and refer the matter for a determination on its merits to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge, who shall make (SUCH) findings of fact, conclusions of law, and and order of award or disallowance of compensation or other order (AS) based on the pleadings and the evidence produced and as required by the provisions of this chapter (SHALL REQUIRE) or rules adopted under it.

Sec. 150. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL.] Settlements shall be approved only where the terms conform with this chapter.

The division, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, and the district court shall exercise discretion in approving or disapproving a proposed settlement.

The parties to the agreement of settlement have the burden of proving that the settlement is reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter. A settlement agreement where both the employee or his dependent and the employer or insurer and intervenors in the matter are represented by an attorney shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter except when the settlement purports to be a full, final, and complete settlement of an employee's right to medical compensation under this chapter or rehabilitation under section 176.102. A settlement which purports to do so must be approved by the division, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals.

The conclusive presumption in this subdivision applies to a settlement agreement entered into on or after January 15, 1982, whether the injury to which the settlement applies occurred prior to or on or after January 15, 1982.

Sec. 151. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SETTLEMENTS NOT SUBJECT TO APPROVAL.] When a settled case is not subject to approval, upon receipt of the stipulation for settlement, a compensation judge (OR), a settlement judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall immediately sign the award and file it with the commissioner. Payment pursuant to the award shall be made within 14 days after it is filed with the commissioner. The commissioner may correct mathematical or clerical errors at any time.

Sec. 152. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SETTING ASIDE AWARD UPON SETTLEMENT.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.521, subdivision 1, 2, or 2a, or any provision in the agreement of settlement to the contrary, upon the filing of a petition by any party to the settlement and after a hearing on the petition, the workers' compensation court of appeals may set aside an award made upon a settlement, pursuant to this chapter. In those cases, the workers' compensation court of appeals shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge for hearing.

Sec. 153. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.561, is amended to read:

176.561 [WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS POWERS AND DUTIES AS TO STATE EMPLOYEES; PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING LIABILITY.]

The division, a compensation judge and the workers' compensation court of appeals have the same powers and duties in matters relating to state employees as they have in relation to other employees.

Except as specifically provided otherwise (HEREIN) in this chapter, the procedure for determining the liability of the state for compensation is the same as that applicable in other cases.

Sec. 154. [176.572] [CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE CARRIERS.]

The commissioner may contract with group health insurance carriers or health maintenance organizations to provide health care services and reimburse health care payments for injured state employees entitled to benefits under this chapter.

Sec. 155. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.571, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FORMAL HEARING ON OBJECTIONS.] If the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY SHALL HOLD) determines that a formal hearing on the objections which have been filed to the proposed order (WHERE THE CIRCUMSTANCES WARRANT SUCH) is warranted, the commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for the assignment of a compensation judge who shall hold a hearing. (THE HEARING SHALL BE BEFORE A COMPENSATION JUDGE.)

Sec. 156. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.645, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2, 3a, and 4, and section 176.111, subdivision 5, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on October 1, 1977 or thereafter under this section shall exceed six percent a year. In those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum the increase shall be deemed to be six percent.

Sec. 157. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [MULTIPLE EMPLOYERS OR INSURERS; LIABILITY.] The employer liable for the compensation for a personal injury under this chapter is the employer in whose employment the employee was last exposed to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed. In the event that the employer who is liable for the compensation had multiple insurers during the employee's term of employment, the insurer or self-insurer who was on the risk during the employee's last exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed is the liable party.

Sec. 158. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [DATE OF INJURY IN OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE CASES.] In the case of a claim for occupational disease, the date of injury is the date a diagnosis is made or the date the employee displays symptoms of the disease and knows or has reason to know the symptoms are related to the hazard of occupational disease, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 159. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease shall be 66-2/3 percent of the employee's weekly wage on the date of injury, as defined in subdivision 11, of the occupational disease claimed, subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of injury provided that the employee shall be immediately eligible for supplementary benefits if that employee's compensation is less than 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 160. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [EMPLOYER RIGHT TO RECOVER.] An employer or insurer who has paid compensation pursuant to this section has a right of subrogation, indemnity, or contribution against an employer or insurer for whom the employee has previously worked during which time the employee was exposed to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed. This right shall be asserted in an action before a compensation judge.

Sec. 161. [176.83] [RULES.]

In addition to any other section under this chapter giving the commissioner the authority to adopt rules, the commissioner may adopt, amend, or repeal rules to implement the provisions of this chapter. The rules include but are not limited to:

(a) rules necessary to implement and administer section 176.102, including the establishment of qualifications necessary to be a qualified rehabilitation consultant and the requirements to be an approved registered vendor of rehabilitation services including registration fees to be paid by rehabilitation consultants and approved vendors under section 176.102. Registration fees set by the commissioner shall be set so that the total fees received approximate the amount appropriated for the function, plus the portion of general support costs and statewide indirect costs of the agency that is attributable to the function for which the fee is charged. Subsequent fee adjustments may be made without a public hearing when the total fees estimated to be received during the fiscal biennium will not exceed the sum of all direct appropriations, indirect costs, transfers in, and salary supplements for that purpose for the biennium. The rules may also provide for penalties to be imposed by the commissioner against insurers or self-insured employers who fail to provide rehabilitation consultation to employees pursuant to section 176.102. These rules may also establish criteria regarding "reasonable moving expenses" under the section. The rules may also establish criteria, guidelines, methods, or procedures to be met by an employer or insurer in providing the initial rehabilitation consultation pursuant to this chapter which would permit the initial consultation to be provided by an individual other than a qualified rehabilitation consultant, provided that in absence of such rules this consultation shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter governing rehabilitation consultation;

(b) rules establishing standards for reviewing and evaluating the clinical consequences of services provided by qualified rehabilitation consultants, approved registered vendors of rehabilitation services, and services provided to an employee by health care providers;

(c) rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether or not charges for health services or rehabilitation services rendered under this chapter are excessive. In this regard, the standards and procedures shall be structured to determine what is necessary to encourage providers of health services and rehabilitation services to develop and deliver services for the rehabilitation of injured employees.

The procedures shall include standards for evaluating hospital care, other health care and rehabilitation services to insure that quality hospital, other health care, and rehabilitation is available and is provided to injured employees;

(d) rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether a provider of health care services and rehabilitation services, including a provider of medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital or other services, is performing procedures or providing services at a level or with a frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards.

If it is determined by the commissioner that the level, frequency or cost of a procedure or service of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for the excessive procedure, service, or cost by an insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer. In addition, the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedure, service, or cost from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund, or any government program.

A health or rehabilitation provider who is determined by the commissioner to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level or cost may be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided under chapter 176. A prohibition imposed on a provider under this clause may be grounds for revocation or suspension of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care or rehabilitation service in Minnesota by the appropriate licensing or certifying body.

The rules adopted under this clause shall require insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this clause;

(e) rules necessary for implementing and administering the provisions of sections 176.131, 176.132, 176.134, 176.242, 176.243, 176.251, 176.66 to 176.669, and rules regarding proper allocation of compensation under section 176.111 provided that under the rules adopted under section 176.111 a party may petition for a hearing before a compensation judge to determine the proper allocation. In this case the compensation judge may order a different allocation than prescribed by rule;

(f) procedures required for the implementation and administration of section 176.129;

(g) rules to govern the procedure for intervention pursuant to section 176.361;

(h) joint rules with either or both the workers' compensation court of appeals and the chief hearing examiner which may be necessary in order to provide for the orderly processing of claims or petitions made or filed pursuant to chapter 176;

(i) rules establishing criteria to be used by the division, compensation judge, and workers' compensation court of appeals to determine "suitable gainful employment" and "independent contractor"; or

(j) forms and other reporting procedures to be used by an employer, insurer, medical provider, qualified rehabilitation consultant, approved vendor of rehabilitation services, attorney, employee, or other person subject to the provisions of this chapter.

The chief hearing examiner shall adopt rules relating to procedures in matters pending before a compensation judge in the office of administrative hearings.

The commissioner may adopt rules regarding requirements which must be met by individuals who are employed by insurers or self-insurers or claims servicing or adjusting agencies and who work as claims adjusters in the field of workers' compensation insurance.

The commissioner may adopt temporary rules establishing qualifications necessary to be a qualified rehabilitation consultant and penalties to be imposed against qualified rehabilitation consultants or approved vendors who violate this chapter or rules, including temporary rules, adopted under this chapter. In addition to the provisions of sections 14.29 to 14.36, at least one public hearing shall be held prior to the adoption of these temporary rules.

Sec. 162. [176.84] [SPECIFICITY OF NOTICE OR STATEMENT.]

All notices or statements required by this chapter including, but not limited to, notices or statements pursuant to sections 176.102, 176.103, 176.221, 176.241, 176.242, and 176.243, shall be sufficiently specific to convey clearly, without further inquiry, the basis upon which the party issuing the notice or statement is acting. If the commissioner or compensation judge determines that a notice or statement is not sufficiently specific to meet the standard under this section, the notice or statement may be rejected as unacceptable and the party issuing it shall be informed of this. The rejected notice or statement may be amended to meet the requirement of this section or a new one may be filed.

(b) All participants in the pool are jointly and severally liable for all claims and expenses of the pool;

((B)) (c) Each pool shall contract with a service company licensed by the commissioner to provide or contract for all administrative services required by the pool. The commissioner may issue a license subject to restrictions or limitations upon the authorization, including the type of services which may be supplied or the activities which may be engaged in. The license fee shall be $100. All licenses shall be for a period of two years;

((C)) (d) The service company has sole responsibility for the settlement of all claims against the pool or its members for which the pool may provide indemnification;

((E)) (f) All premiums or other assessments due to the pool from members shall be payable prior to the period for which coverage is being provided, or at equal intervals throughout the period;

((F)) (g) Premiums shall (EITHER) be (ESTABLISHED BY AN ACTUARY APPROVED BY THE COMMISSIONER OR SHALL BE PREMIUMS FILED BY A LICENSED RATE SERVICE ORGANIZATION WITH REDUCTIONS PERMITTED SOLELY FOR ADMINISTRATIVE OR PREMIUM TAX SAVINGS) neither excessive, inadequate, nor unfairly discriminatory;

((G)) (h) The commissioner may require each pool to purchase excess insurance above certain limits and in a particular form. The limits or form of the excess insurance may differ based on the kinds of coverage offered by a pool, the limits of liability of the coverage, and the revenues available to pool members for the payment of premiums or assessments;

((H)) (i) Each pool shall be audited annually by a certified public accountant;

((I)) (j) Whether limitations on the payment of dividends to pool members (MAY BE ESTABLISHED AS) are necessary to assure the solvency of the pool in view of the taxing and levying authority of political subdivisions;

((J)) (k) No participant may withdraw from a pool for a period of at least three years after its initial entry into the pool;

((K)) (l) The amount of any liabilities in excess of assets shall be assessed to members of the pool within 30 days after a deficiency is identified and shall be payable by the member within 90 days;

((L)) (m) The investment policies of the pool shall be governed by the laws governing investments by cities pursuant to section 475.66;

((M)) (n) Pools shall be subject to the standards of unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices established in chapter 72A;

((N)) (o) Other requirements that are necessary to protect the solvency of the pool, the rights and privileges of claimants against the pool, and citizens of the members of the pool shall be included in the rules.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.071, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner shall adopt a schedule of workers' compensation insurance rates for use in this state for each classification under which business is written until January 1, (1986) 1984. The schedule of rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. In adopting a schedule of rates, the commissioner may act on the written petition of the association or any other interested party requesting that a hearing be held for modification of the schedule of rates. The commissioner may include the expense of a reasonable charge for the services of an agent of record, for the service of rejected risks as set forth in sections 79.24 to 79.27.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A nonprofit association known as the workers' compensation reinsurance association is created, which may be incorporated under chapter 317 with all the powers of a corporation formed under that chapter, except that if the provisions of that chapter are inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.40 or any amendments thereto, sections 79.34 to 79.40 shall govern. Each insurer as defined by section 79.01, subdivision 2, shall as a condition of its authority to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by the plan of operation of the reinsurance association; provided, that all affiliated insurers within a holding company system as defined in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. Each self-insurer approved pursuant to section 176.181 and each political subdivision which self-insures shall, as a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by its plan of operation; provided, that (a) all affiliated companies within a holding company system, as determined by the commissioner in a manner consistent with the standards and definitions in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13, shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association, and (b) all group self-insurers granted authority to self-insure pursuant to section 176.181 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. As a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability, and for losses incurred on or after January 1, 1984, the state shall be a member of the reinsurance association and is bound by its plan of operation. The commissioner of labor and industry represents the state in the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. The state treasurer shall pay the premium to the reinsurance association from the state compensation revolving fund upon warrants of the commissioner of labor and industry. For the purposes of this section "state" means the administrative branch of state government, the legislative branch, the judicial branch, the University of Minnesota, and any other entity whose workers' compensation liability is paid from the state revolving fund. The commissioner may calculate, prorate, and charge a department or agency the portion of premiums paid to the reinsurance association for employees who are paid wholly or in part by federal funds, dedicated funds, or special revenue funds. The reinsurance association (SHALL) is not (BE DEEMED) a state agency. Actions of the reinsurance association and its board of directors and actions of the commissioner of insurance with respect to the reinsurance association (SHALL) are not (BE) subject to (CHAPTER) chapters 13, 14, and 15. The reinsurance association (SHALL BE) is exempt from taxation under the laws of this state and all property owned by the association (SHALL BE) is exempt from taxation. The reinsurance association (SHALL) is not (BE) obligated to make any payments or pay any assessments to any funds or pools established pursuant to this chapter or chapter 176 or any other law.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The reinsurance association shall provide and each member shall accept indemnification for 100 percent of the amount of ultimate loss sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event, including aggregate losses related to a single event or occurrence which constitutes a single loss occurrence, under chapter 176 on and after October 1, 1979, in excess of $300,000 or $100,000 retention limit, at the option of the member. In case of occupational disease causing disablement on and after October 1, 1979, each person suffering such disablement shall be considered to be involved in a separate loss occurrence. The (LESSER) lower retention limit shall be increased to the nearest $10,000, on January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. On January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter, the (GREATER) higher retention limit shall be increased by the amount necessary to retain a $200,000 difference between the two retention limits. Ultimate loss as used in this section means the actual loss amount which a member is obligated to pay and which is paid by the member for workers' compensation benefits payable under chapter 176 and shall not include claim expenses, assessments, damages or penalties. For losses incurred on or after January 1, 1979, any amounts paid by a member pursuant to sections 176.183, 176.221, 176.225, and 176.82 shall not be included in ultimate loss and shall not be indemnified by the reinsurance association. A loss is incurred by the reinsurance association on the date on which the accident or other compensable event giving rise to the loss occurs, and a member is liable for a loss up to its retention limit in effect at the time that the loss was incurred, except that members which are determined by the reinsurance association to be controlled by or under common control with another member, and which are liable for claims from one or more employees entitled to compensation for a single compensable event, including aggregate losses relating to a single loss occurrence, may aggregate their losses and obtain indemnification from the reinsurance association for the aggregate losses in excess of the higher retention limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. Each member is liable for payment of its ultimate loss and shall be entitled to indemnification from the reinsurance association for the ultimate loss in excess of the member's retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence.

A member that chooses the higher retention limit shall retain the liability for all losses below the higher retention limit itself and shall not transfer the liability to any other entity or reinsurance or otherwise contract for reimbursement or indemnification for losses below its retention limit, except in the following cases: (a) when the reinsurance or contract is with another member which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the member; (b) when the reinsurance or contract provides for reimbursement or indemnification of a member if and only if the total of all claims which the member pays or incurs, but which are not reimbursable or subject to indemnification by the reinsurance association for a given period of time, exceeds a dollar value or percentage of premium written or earned and stated in the reinsurance agreement or contract; (c) when the reinsurance or contract is a pooling arrangement with other insurers where liability of the member to pay claims pursuant to chapter 176 is incidental to participation in the pool and not as a result of providing workers' compensation insurance to employers on a direct basis under chapter 176; (d) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all the claims of a specific insured of a member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the insured of the member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the insured of a member is not inconsistent with the bases of exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above; or (e) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all claims of a specific self-insurer member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the self-insurer member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the self-insurer member are not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above.

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any member that chooses the higher retention limit has participated in the transfer of liability to any other entity or reinsured or otherwise contracted for reimbursement or indemnification of losses below its retention limit in a manner inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, order the member to pay to the state of Minnesota an amount not to exceed twice the difference between the reinsurance premium for the higher and lower retention limit applicable to the member for each year in which the prohibited reinsurance or contract was in effect. Any member subject to this penalty provision shall continue to be bound by its selection of the higher retention limit for purposes of membership in the reinsurance association.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. For losses incurred on or after January 1, 1984, the reinsurance association shall indemnify the member for the ultimate loss, in excess of the retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence, sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event in another state provided that:

(a) the injured worker is eligible for benefits under section 176.041, subdivision 2 or 3 but elects to receive benefits under the workers' compensation statute of another state in lieu of benefits under chapter 176; and

(b) the ultimate loss indemnified by the reinsurance association shall be determined as provided in this chapter, except that the benefits shall be equal to those required to be paid under the workers' compensation statute of the state elected.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.35, is amended to read:

79.35 [DUTIES; RESPONSIBILITIES; POWERS.]

The reinsurance association shall do the following on behalf of its members:

(a) Assume 100 percent of the liability as provided in section 79.34;

(b) Establish procedures by which members shall promptly report to the reinsurance association each claim which, on the basis of the injury sustained, may reasonably be anticipated to involve liability to the reinsurance association if the member is held liable under chapter 176. Solely for the purpose of reporting claims, the member shall in all instances consider itself legally liable for the injury. The member shall advise the reinsurance association of subsequent developments likely to materially affect the interest of the reinsurance association in the claim;

(c) Maintain relevant loss and expense data relative to all liabilities of the reinsurance association and require each member to furnish statistics in connection with liabilities of the reinsurance association at the times and in the form and detail as may be required by the plan of operation;

(d) Calculate and charge to members a total premium sufficient to cover the expected liability which the reinsurance association will incur in excess of the higher retention limit but less than the prefunded limit, together with incurred or estimated to be incurred operating and administrative expenses for the period to which this premium applies and actual claim payments to be made by members, during the period to which this premium applies, for claims in excess of the prefunded limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. The prefunded limit shall be $2,500,000 on and after October 1, 1979, provided that the prefunded limit shall be increased on January 1, 1983 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, to the nearest $100,000, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. Each member shall be charged a proportion of the total premium in an amount equal to its proportion of the (TOTAL STANDARD EARNED PREMIUM) exposure base of all members during the period to which the reinsurance association premium will apply (, AS DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSIONER). The exposure base shall be determined by the board and is subject to the approval of the commissioner. In determining the exposure base, the board shall consider, among other things, equity, administrative convenience, records maintained by members, amenability to audit, and degree of risk refinement. Each member exercising the lower retention option shall also be charged a premium established by the board as sufficient to cover incurred or estimated to be incurred claims for the liability the reinsurance association is likely to incur between the lower and higher retention limits for the period to which the premium applies. Each member shall also be charged a premium determined by the board to equitably distribute excess or deficient premiums from previous periods including any excess or deficient premiums resulting from a retroactive change in the prefunded limit. (AN EQUITABLE BASIS FOR DETERMINING STANDARD EARNED PREMIUM FOR SELF-INSURERS SHALL BE ESTABLISHED BY THE COMMISSIONER.) The premiums charged to members shall not be unfairly discriminatory as defined in section 79.074. All premiums shall be approved by the commissioner;

(e) Require and accept the payment of premiums from members of the reinsurance association;

(f) Receive and distribute all sums required by the operation of the reinsurance association;

(g) Establish procedures for reviewing claims procedures and practices of members of the reinsurance association. If the claims procedures or practices of a member are considered inadequate to properly service the liabilities of the reinsurance association, the reinsurance association may undertake, or may contract with another person, including another member, to adjust or assist in the adjustment of claims which create a potential liability to the association (AND). The reinsurance association may charge the cost of the adjustment under this paragraph to the member, except that any penalties or interest

incurred under sections 176.183, 176.221, 176.225, and 176.82 as a result of actions by the reinsurance association after it has undertaken adjustment of the claim shall not be charged to the member but shall be included in the ultimate loss and listed as a separate item; and

(h) Provide each member of the reinsurance association with an annual report of the operations of the reinsurance association in a form the board of directors may specify.

79.37 [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.]

A board of directors of the reinsurance association is created and (SHALL BE) is responsible for the operation of the reinsurance association consistent with the plan of operation and sections 79.34 to 79.42. The board (SHALL CONSIST) consists of nine directors and the (COMMISSIONER) commissioners of insurance (WHO SHALL BE AN EX OFFICIO MEMBER) and labor and industry, both of whom are voting members. Four members of the board shall represent insurers, three members of the board shall represent employers, at least one, but not more than two of whom shall represent self-insurers, and two members of the board shall represent employees. Members shall elect the insurer directors, and the commissioner of insurance shall appoint the employer and employee directors, for the terms authorized in the plan of operation. Each board member (SHALL BE) is entitled to one vote. Terms of the directors shall be staggered so that the terms of all the directors do not expire at the same time and so that a director does not serve a term of more than four years. The board shall select a chairman and other officers it deems appropriate.

A majority of the board (SHALL CONSTITUTE) constitutes a quorum, notwithstanding any vacancies. Action may be taken by a majority vote of the directors present.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.51, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TRANSITION PERIOD; RULES GOVERN.] Insurance rates from July 1, 1983, to December 31, (1985) 1983, shall be determined in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner. The rules shall require (1) that a hearing be held pursuant to the provisions of section 79.071 to consider any petition requesting modification of rates and (2) that following the hearing the commissioner shall adopt a schedule of rates.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.51, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RULES; SUBJECT MATTER.] (a) The commissioner in issuing rules shall consider:

(1) Data reporting requirements, including types of data reported, such as loss and expense data;

(2) Experience rating plans;

(3) Retrospective rating plans;

(4) General expenses and related expense provisions;

(5) Minimum premiums;

(6) Classification systems and assignment of risks to classifications;

(7) Loss development and trend factors;

(8) The workers' compensation reinsurance association;

(9) Restrictions, prohibitions, and requirements with respect to the activities of the workers' compensation insurers rating association of Minnesota during the period from July 1, 1983 to January 1, (1986) 1984;

(10) Requiring substantial compliance with the rules mandated by this section as a condition of workers' compensation carrier licensure;

(11) Imposing limitations on the functions of workers' compensation data service organizations consistent with the introduction of competition;

(12) The rules contained in the workers' compensation rating manual adopted by the workers' compensation insurers rating association; and

(13) Any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant to achieve the purposes of chapter 79.

(b) The rules shall provide for the following:

(1) Competition in workers' compensation insurance rates in such a way that the advantages of competition are introduced with a minimum of employer hardship during the transition period;

(2) Adequate safeguards against excessive or discriminatory rates in workers' compensation during the transition period;

(3) Encouragement of workers' compensation insurance rates which are as low as reasonably necessary, but shall make provision against inadequate rates, insolvencies and unpaid benefits;

(4) Assurances that employers are not unfairly relegated to the assigned risk pool;

(5) Requiring all appropriate data and other information from insurers for the purpose of issuing rules and making legislative recommendations pursuant to this section; and

(6) Preserving a framework for risk classification, data collection, and other appropriate joint insurer services where these will not impede the introduction of competition in premium rates.

(c) The rules shall expire on January 1, (1986) 1984.

176.001 [INTENT OF THE LEGISLATURE.]

It is the intent of the legislature that chapter 176 be interpreted so as to assure the quick and efficient delivery of indemnity and medical benefits to injured workers at a reasonable cost to the employers who are subject to the provisions of chapter 176. It is the specific intent of the legislature that workers' compensation cases shall be decided on their merits and that the common law rule of "liberal construction" based on the supposed "remedial" basis of workers' compensation legislation shall not apply in such cases. The workers' compensation system in Minnesota is based on a mutual renunciation of common law rights and defenses by employers and employees alike. Employees' rights to sue for damages over and above medical and health care benefits and wage loss benefits are to a certain degree limited by the provisions of this chapter, and employers' rights to raise common law defenses such as lack of negligence, contributory negligence on the part of the employee, and others, are curtailed as well. Accordingly, the legislature hereby declares that the workers' compensation laws are not remedial in any sense and are not to be given a broad liberal construction in favor of the claimant or employee on the one hand, nor are the rights and interests of the employer to be favored over those of the employee on the other hand.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 23. [RETRAINING.] "Retraining" means a formal course of study in a school setting which is designed to train an employee to return to suitable gainful employment.

[HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.] "Health care provider" means a physician, podiatrist, chiropractor, dentist, optometrist, osteopath, psychologist, psychiatric social worker, or any other person who furnishes a medical or health service to an employee under this chapter but does not include a qualified rehabilitation consultant or approved vendor.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 25. [MAXIMUM MEDICAL IMPROVEMENT.] "Maximum medical improvement" means the date after which no further significant recovery from or lasting significant improvement to a personal injury can reasonably be anticipated, based upon reasonable medical probability.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.021, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. Preponderance of the evidence means evidence produced in substantiation of a fact which, when weighed against the evidence opposing the fact, has more convincing force and greater probability of truth.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by (SUBDIVISION 3A) section 176.101. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment for the economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to (SUBDIVISION 3A) section 176.101, shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of (ANY TENDER) commencement of the (LUMP SUM) payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. (COMPENSATION FOR PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY) After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in addition to but not concurrently with compensation for temporary total disability and temporary partial disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivisions 1 and 2, and as provided in (SUBDIVISION 3A) section 176.101. (COMPENSATION FOR PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY) Impairment compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 5, and as provided in (SUBDIVISION 3A) section 176.101. (COMPENSATION FOR PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY) Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total (AND TEMPORARY PARTIAL) disability (BUT SHALL NOT BE WITHHELD PENDING PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION FOR PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY), and no credit shall be taken for payment of (PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY) economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation against liability for temporary total or permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or (HIS) the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and (SHALL BE) compensation is payable accordingly, subject to (SUBDIVISION 3A) section 176.101. (PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY) Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to (SUBDIVISION 3A) section 176.101. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, (PERMANENT PARTIAL) or permanent total disability payments (SHALL VEST) vests in the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in (HIS) the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right (SHALL) is not (BE) abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

The right to receive economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation vests in an injured employee at the time the disability is ascertained provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.041, subdivision 1 is amended to read:

Neither shall the chapter apply to any person employed as a household worker in, for, or about, a private home or household who earns less than $500 in cash in any three month period from a single private home or household provided that any household worker who has earned $500 or more from his present employer in any three month period within the previous year shall be covered by this chapter regardless of whether or not he has in the present quarter earned $500. This chapter does not apply to those persons employed by a corporation where those persons are related by blood or marriage, within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of civil law, to all of the officers of the corporation, and if the corporation files a written election with the commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) to have those persons excluded from this chapter except that a written election is not required for a person who is otherwise excluded from this chapter by this section. This chapter does not apply to a nonprofit association which does not pay more than $500 in salary or wages in a year.

176.061 [THIRD PARTY LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [ELECTION OF REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which benefits are payable occurs under circumstances which create a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer and at the time of (SUCH) the injury or death that party was insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, the employee, in case of injury, or (HIS) the employee's dependents, in case of death, may proceed either at law against that party to recover damages or against the employer for benefits, but not against both.

Subd. 2. [ACTION FOR RECOVERY OF DAMAGES.] If the employee, in case of injury, or (HIS) the employee's dependents, in case of death, brings an action for the recovery of damages, the amount thereof, the manner in which, and the persons to whom the same are payable, shall be as provided in this chapter. In no case shall (SUCH) the party be liable to any person other than the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents for any damages resulting from (SUCH) the injury or death.

Subd. 3. [ELECTION TO RECEIVE BENEFITS FROM EMPLOYER; SUBROGATION.] If the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents elect to receive benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, the employer, or the special compensation fund, has a right of indemnity or is subrogated to the right of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents to recover damages against the other party. The employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may bring legal proceedings against (SUCH) the party and recover the aggregate amount of benefits payable to or on behalf of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, together with costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorney's fees of the action.

If an action as provided in this chapter prosecuted by the employee, the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against the third person, results in judgment against the third person, or settlement by the third person, the employer (SHALL HAVE) has no liability to reimburse or hold the third person harmless on the judgment or settlement in absence of a written agreement to do so executed prior to the injury.

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION OF SUBDIVISIONS 1, 2, AND 3.] The provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 apply only where the employer liable for benefits and the other party legally liable for damages are insured or self-insured and engaged, in the due course of business in, (a) furtherance of a common enterprise, or (b) in the accomplishment of the same or related purposes in operations on the premises where the injury was received at the time (THEREOF) of the injury.

Subd. 5. [CUMULATIVE REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which benefits are payable is caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, that party being then insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, and the provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4 do not apply, or the party other than the employer is not then insured or self-insured as provided by this chapter, legal proceedings may be taken by the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents in accordance with clause (a), or by his employer, or by the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, in accordance with clause (b), against the other party to recover damages, notwithstanding the payment by the employer, or the special compensation fund or their liability to pay benefits.

(a) If an action against the other party is brought by the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents and a judgment is obtained and paid or settlement is made with the other party, the employer or the special compensation fund may deduct from the benefits payable the amount actually received by the employee or dependents or paid on their behalf in accordance with subdivision 6. If the action is not diligently prosecuted or if the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interests of the employer, or the special compensation fund, upon application the court may grant the employer, or the special compensation fund, the right to intervene in (ANY SUCH) the action for the prosecution (THEREOF) of the action. If the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or any party on their behalf receives benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, or institute proceedings to recover (THE SAME) benefits or accept from the employer, or the special compensation fund, any payment on account of the benefits, the employer, or the special compensation fund, is subrogated to the rights of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity against a third party. This employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may maintain (AN) a separate action or continue an action already instituted. This action may be maintained in the name of the employee or the names of the employee's dependents, or in the name of the employer or in the name of the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund against (SUCH) the other party for the recovery of damages. If the action is not diligently prosecuted by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, or the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interest of the employee, the court, upon application, may grant to the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents the right to intervene in the action for the prosecution (THEREOF) of the action. The proceeds of (SUCH) the action or settlement (THEREOF) of the action shall be paid in accordance with subdivision 6.

(b) If an employer, being then insured, sustains damages due to a change in workers' compensation insurance premiums, whether by a failure to achieve a decrease or by a retroactive or prospective increase, as a result of the injury or death of (HIS) an employee which was caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, the employer, notwithstanding other remedies provided, may maintain an action against the other party for recovery of (SUCH) the premiums. This cause of action may be brought either by joining in an action described in clause (a) or by a separate action. Damages recovered under this clause (SHALL BE) are for the benefit of the employer and the provisions of subdivision 6 (SHALL) are not (BE) applicable to (SUCH) the damages.

(c) The third party is not liable to any person other than the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, or (HIS) the employer, or the special compensation fund, for any damages resulting from the injury or death.

A co-employee working for the same employer is not liable for a personal injury incurred by another employee unless the injury resulted from the gross negligence of the co-employee or was intentionally inflicted by the co-employee.

Subd. 6. [COSTS, ATTORNEY FEES, EXPENSES.] The proceeds of all actions for damages or settlement (THEREOF) of an action under this section, except for damages received under subdivision 5, clause (b) received by the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or by the employer, or the special compensation fund, as provided by subdivision 5, shall be divided as follows:

(a) After deducting the reasonable cost of collection, including but not limited to attorneys fees and burial expense in excess of the statutory liability, then

(b) One-third of the remainder shall in any event be paid to the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, without being subject to any right of subrogation.

(c) Out of the balance remaining, the employer, or the special compensation fund, shall be reimbursed in an amount equal to all benefits paid under this chapter to or on behalf of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents by the employer, or special compensation fund, less the product of the costs deducted under clause (a) divided by the total proceeds received by the employee or his dependents from the other party multiplied by all benefits paid by the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents.

(d) Any balance remaining shall be paid to the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, and shall be a credit to employer, and the special compensation fund, for any benefits which employer is obligated to pay, but has not paid, and for any benefits that (SUCH) the employer (SHALL BE) is obligated to make in the future.

There shall be no reimbursement or credit to the employer, or the special compensation fund, for interest or penalties.

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL TREATMENT.] The liability of an employer, or the special compensation fund, for medical treatment or payment of any other compensation under this chapter (SHALL) is not (BE) affected by the fact that (HIS) the employee was injured through the fault or negligence of a third party, against whom the employee may have a cause of action which may be sued under this chapter, but the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, (SHALL HAVE) has a separate additional cause of action against (SUCH) the third party to recover any amounts paid for medical treatment or for other compensation payable under this section resulting from the negligence of (SUCH) the third party. This separate cause of action of the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may be asserted in a separate action brought by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against (SUCH) the third party or in the action commenced by the employee or the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, under this chapter, but in the latter case the cause of action shall be separately stated, the amount awarded thereon shall be separately set out in the verdict, and the amount recovered by suit or otherwise as reimbursement for medical expenses or other compensation shall be for the benefit of the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the extent that the employer, or the special compensation fund, has paid or will be required to pay compensation or for medical treatment of the injured employee and (SHALL) does not affect the amount of periodic compensation to be paid.

(SUBD. 8. [STATE AS EMPLOYER.] IN EVERY CASE ARISING UNDER SUBDIVISION 5 WHEN THE STATE IS THE EMPLOYER AND A SETTLEMENT BETWEEN THE THIRD PARTY AND THE EMPLOYEE IS MADE IT IS NOT VALID UNLESS PRIOR NOTICE THEREOF IS GIVEN TO THE STATE WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME. IF THE STATE PAYS COMPENSATION TO THE EMPLOYEE UN-DER THE PROVISIONS OF THIS CHAPTER AND BECOMES SUBROGATED TO THE RIGHTS OF THE EMPLOYEE OR HIS DEPENDENTS ANY SETTLEMENT BETWEEN THE EMPLOYEE OR HIS DEPENDENTS AND THE THIRD PARTY IS VOID AS AGAINST THE STATE'S RIGHT OF SUBROGATION. WHEN AN ACTION AT LAW IS INSTITUTED BY AN EMPLOYEE OR HIS DEPENDENTS AGAINST A THIRD PARTY FOR RECOVERY OF DAMAGES A COPY OF THE COMPLAINT AND NOTICE OF TRIAL OR NOTE OF ISSUE IN SUCH ACTION SHALL BE SERVED ON THE STATE. ANY JUDGMENT RENDERED THEREIN IS SUBJECT TO A LIEN OF THE STATE FOR THE AMOUNT TO WHICH IT IS ENTITLED TO BE SUBROGATED UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF SUBDIVISION 5.)

Subd. 8a. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYER.] In every case arising under subdivision 5, a settlement between the third party and the employee is not valid unless prior notice of the intention to settle is given to the employer within a reasonable time. If the employer or insurer pays compensation to the employee under the provisions of this chapter and becomes subrogated to the right of the employee or the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, any settlement between the employee or the employee's dependents and the third party is void as against the employer's right of subrogation or indemnity unless prior notice was given. When an action at law is instituted by an employee or the employee's dependents against a third party for recovery of damages, a copy of the complaint and notice of trial or note of issue in the action shall be served on the employer or insurer. Any judgment rendered in the action is subject to a lien of the employer for the amount to which it is entitled to be subrogated or indemnified under the provisions of subdivision 5.

Subd. 9. [SERVICE OF NOTICE ON ATTORNEY GENERAL.] In every case in which the state is liable to pay compensation or is subrogated to the rights of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, all notices required to be given the state shall be served on the attorney general and the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY).

Subd. 10. [INDEMNITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 65B or any other law to the contrary, an employer has a right of indemnity for any compensation paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, including temporary total compensation, temporary partial compensation, permanent partial disability economic recovery compensation, impairment compensation, medical compensation, rehabilitation, death, and permanent total compensation.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the difference between the (DAILY) weekly wage of the (WORKER) employee at the time of injury and the wage (HE) the employee is able to earn in (HIS) the employee's partially disabled condition. This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability except as provided in section 176.101, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to the statewide average weekly wage. (IF THE EMPLOYER DOES NOT FURNISH THE WORKER WITH WORK WHICH HE CAN DO IN HIS TEMPORARY PARTIALLY DISABLED CONDITION AND HE IS UNABLE TO PROCURE SUCH WORK WITH ANOTHER EMPLOYER, AFTER REASONABLY DILIGENT EFFORTS, THE EMPLOYEE SHALL BE PAID AT THE FULL COMPENSATION RATE FOR HIS OR HER TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY.)

((43)) (37) When an employee sustains concurrent injuries resulting in concurrent disabilities he shall receive compensation only for the injury which entitled him to the largest amount of compensation, but this does not affect liability for disfigurement affecting the employability of the injured person or liability for the concurrent loss of more than one member, for which members compensations are provided in the specific schedule and in subdivision 5;

((44) IN ALL CASES OF PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY IT IS CONSIDERED THAT THE PERMANENT LOSS OF THE USE OF A MEMBER IS EQUIVALENT TO AND DRAWS THE SAME COMPENSATION AS THE LOSS OF THAT MEMBER, BUT THE COMPENSATION IN AND BY THIS SCHEDULE PROVIDED SHALL BE IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER COMPENSATION IN THESE CASES, EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BY THIS SECTION;)

The compensation shall be 66 2/3 percent of the weekly wage at the time of injury subject to a maximum equal to the statewide average weekly wage. For permanent partial disability up to the percent of the whole body in the following schedule the compensation shall be paid for the proportion that the loss of function of the disabled part bears to the whole body multiplied by the number of weeks aligned with that percent.

Percent of disability	Weeks of Compensation
0-40	500
41-50	600
51-60	700
61-75	800

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Percent of disability	Amount
0-40	50,000
41-50	75,000
51-60	100,000
61-75	150,000

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [MAXIMUM PAYABLE.] The maximum amount payable under subdivisions 3a and 3b is the maximum compensation payable to an employee who has a disability to the body as a whole and under no conditions shall an employee receive more than those amounts even if the employee sustains a disability to two or more body parts.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [GENERAL.] An employee who has incurred a personal injury shall receive temporary total compensation until these benefits are no longer payable pursuant to this section. Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. [END OF TEMPORARY TOTAL COMPENSATION.] (a) 90 days after an employee has reached maximum medical improvement or 90 days after the end of an approved retraining program, whichever is later, the employee's temporary total compensation shall cease. This cessation shall occur at an earlier date if otherwise provided by this section. If prior to the termination of this 90-day period the employee retires or the employer furnishes work to the employee that the employee can do in his or her physical condition or the employer procures this employment with another employer or the employee accepts this job with another employer, temporary total compensation shall cease. If the injury resulted in permanent partial disability, the employee shall receive impairment compensation pursuant to subdivision 3b. This impairment compensation is in lieu of economic recovery compensation under subdivision 3a, and the employee shall not receive both economic recovery compensation and impairment compensation for the same disability. Temporary total compensation and impairment compensation shall not be paid concurrently. Once temporary total compensation ceases no further temporary total compensation is payable except as specifically provided in this section.

(b) If the job offered under clause (a) is not the job the employee had at the time of injury it shall state any information necessary to fully and completely inform the employee of the job duties and responsibilities and shall agree to pay temporary partial compensation if appropriate.

The employee has 14 calendar days to accept or reject the job offer. If the employee does not respond within this period it is deemed a refusal of the offer.

(c) Self employment may be an appropriate job under this subdivision.

The commissioner shall monitor application of this subdivision and may adopt rules to assure its proper application.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

In addition, the employer who was the employer at the time of the injury shall provide rehabilitation consultation if the employee remains unemployed for 45 calendar days. The commissioner may waive this rehabilitation consultation if the commissioner deems it appropriate. Further rehabilitation, if deemed appropriate, is governed by section 176.102.

(b) Upon the employee's initial return to work the monitoring period begins to run. If the employee is unemployed for the reason in clause (a), prior to the end of the monitoring period the employee shall receive monitoring period compensation. This compensation shall be paid for the lesser of (1) the weeks remaining the monitoring period, or (2) the weeks equal to the monitoring period minus the impairment compensation paid to the employee. For purposes of this clause the impairment compensation shall be converted to weeks by dividing the impairment compensation received by the employee by the employee's compensation rate for temporary total disability at the time of the injury. No monitoring period compensation is payable if the unemployment occurs after the expiration of the monitoring period. Monitoring period compensation is payable at the same intervals and amount as temporary total compensation was paid.

(c) If the employee returns to work and is still receiving monitoring period compensation, this compensation shall cease.

(d) Upon the employee's return to work pursuant to this section the employer shall notify the employee of the length of the employee's monitoring period and shall notify the employee of the amount of impairment to be paid and the date of payment.

(b) Compensation shall be paid for up to 90 days after the employee has reached maximum medical improvement or 90 days after the end of an approved retraining plan or 90 days after the employee has ceased work because of medical inability to continue, whichever is later. The temporary total compensation shall cease at any time within the 90-day period that the employee begins work meeting the requirements of subdivision 3e. If no such job is offered to the employee by the end of this 90-day period, the employee shall receive economic recovery compensation pursuant to this section except that this economic recovery compensation shall be reduced by the impairment compensation previously received by the employee for the same disability.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101 is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Temporary total compensation shall cease upon the employee's refusal to accept the job offered and no further or additional temporary total compensation is payable. The payment of the periodic impairment compensation shall cease when the amount the employee is eligible to receive under subdivision 3b is reached, after which time the employee shall not receive additional impairment compensation or any other compensation under this chapter unless the employee has a greater permanent partial disability than already compensated for.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

If this employee returns to work at any job during the period the impairment compensation is being paid, the remaining impairment compensation due shall be paid in a lump sum 30 days after the employee has returned to work and no further temporary total compensation shall be paid.

(b) If an employee is receiving or has received economic recovery compensation and is determined to be permanently totally disabled no offset shall be taken against permanent total compensation for the compensation paid. No further economic recovery compensation is payable even if the amount due the employee pursuant to subdivision 3a has not yet been reached.

(c) If the employee has or is receiving impairment compensation and is determined to be permanently totally disabled no credit shall be taken for the compensation received. If any of this compensation remains to be paid, it shall cease and clause (d) of this subdivision applies.

(d) An employee who has received economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation and who meets the criteria under clause (b) or (c) of this subdivision shall receive impairment compensation pursuant to clause (a) of this subdivision even if the employee has previously received economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation for that disability.

Sec. 88. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.132, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Sec. 90. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL, CHIROPRACTIC, PODIATRIC, SURGICAL, HOSPITAL.] The employer shall furnish (SUCH) any medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical and hospital treatment, including nursing, medicines, medical, chiropractic, podiatric, and surgical supplies, crutches and apparatus, including artificial members, or, at the option of the employee, if the employer has not filed notice as hereinafter provided, Christian Science treatment in lieu of medical treatment, chiropractic medicine and medical supplies, as may reasonably be required at the time of the injury and any time thereafter to cure and relieve from the effects of the injury. (SUCH) This treatment shall include treatments necessary to physical rehabilitation. The employer shall furnish replacement or repair for artificial members, glasses, or spectacles, artificial eyes, podiatric orthotics, dental bridge work, dentures or artificial teeth, hearing aids, canes, crutches or wheel chairs damaged by reason of an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment. In case of his inability or refusal seasonably to do so the employer (SHALL BE) is liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing the same. The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability. Orders of (A COMPENSATION JUDGE) the commissioner or medical services review board with respect to this subdivision may be reviewed by the workers' compensation court of appeals on petition of an aggrieved party or by writ of certiorari to the supreme court.

On this basis the (COMPENSATION JUDGE) commissioner, medical services review board, or workers' compensation court of appeals on appeal may determine the reasonable value of all such services and supplies and the liability of the employer is limited to the amount so determined.

176.136 [MEDICAL FEE REVIEW.]

The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, to the 75th percentile of usual and customary fees or charges based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive shall be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures shall incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees. If the commissioner (OF INSURANCE, A COMPENSATION JUDGE), medical services review board, the workers' compensation court of appeals or a district court determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter; however, the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall by rule establish procedures allowing for a provider to appeal such determination. The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 for the purposes listed in section 145.61, subdivision 5, and report to the legislature by January 15, 1983 and thereafter on January 15 of every odd-numbered year, regarding the delivery of medical and health care services, including rehabilitation services, under the workers' compensation laws of this state.

The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall also conduct a study of the qualifications and background of rehabilitation consultants and vendors providing services under section 176.102 for the purpose of determining whether there are adequate professional standards provided, including safeguards to protect against conflicts of interest. If upon the effective date of this section this study has already been conducted by the commissioner of insurance, the commissioner is not required to conduct the study.

The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall adopt temporary rules in order to implement the provisions of this subdivision. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.14, subdivision 1, and any amendments, the temporary rules adopted by the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) pursuant to this subdivision may be extended for an additional 180 days if the procedures for adoption of a rule pursuant to sections 14.13 to 14.20 or 14.21 to 14.28, and other provisions of the administrative procedure act related to final agency action and rule adoption have not been concluded.

Any rules adopted by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to this section shall be adopted by the commissioner of labor and industry and may be amended, modified, or repealed only by the commissioner of labor and industry.

Notwithstanding any other laws related to the privacy of medical data, except federal law, or any private agreements to the contrary, the release of medical data related to a current claim for compensation under this chapter to the employee, employer, or insurer who are parties to the claim, or to the department of labor and industry, shall not require prior approval of any party to the claim. Requests for pertinent data shall be made in writing to the person or organization that collected or currently possesses the data. The data shall be provided by the collector or possessor within seven working days of receiving the request. In all cases of a request for the data, except when it is the employee who is making the request, the employee shall be sent written notification of the request by the party requesting the data at the same time the request is made. This data shall be treated as private data by the party who requests or receives the data and the employee or the employee's attorney shall be provided with a copy of all data requested.

The commissioner may impose a penalty of up to $200 payable to the special compensation fund against a party who does not release the data in a timely manner. A party who does not treat this data as private pursuant to this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 94. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.155, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REFUSAL TO BE EXAMINED.] If the injured employee refuses to comply with any reasonable request for examination, (HIS) the right to compensation may be suspended by order of the division, a compensation judge or workers' compensation court of appeals in a matter before it, and no compensation shall be paid while (HE) the employee continues in (SUCH) the refusal.

Sec. 95. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.155, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TESTIMONY OF (EXAMINING PHYSICIANS) HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.] Any physician or other health care provider designated by the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY), compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals or whose services are furnished or paid for by the employer, who treats (OR WHO MAKES), examines, or is present at any examination, of an injured employee, may be required to testify as to any knowledge acquired by (HIM) the physician or health care provider in the course of (SUCH) the treatment or examination relative to the injury or disability resulting (THEREFROM) from the injury only if the commissioner or a compensation judge makes a written finding that the appearance of the physician or health care provider is crucial to the accurate determination of the employee's disability. In all other cases all medical evidence must be submitted by written report as prescribed by the chief hearing examiner. A party may cross examine by deposition a physician or health care provider who has examined or treated the employee. If a physician or health care provider is not available for cross examination prior to the hearing and the physician's or health care provider's written report is submitted at the hearing, the compensation judge shall, upon request of the adverse party, require the physician or health care provider to testify at the hearing for the purpose of being cross examined by the adverse party. All written medical evidence must be submitted prior to or at the time of the hearing and no evidence shall be considered which was submitted after the hearing unless the compensation judge orders otherwise.

Sec. 96. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.179, is amended to read:

176.179 [PAYMENTS OF COMPENSATION RECEIVED IN GOOD FAITH.]

Notwithstanding section 176.521, subdivision 3, or any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, no lump sum or weekly payment, or settlement, which is voluntarily paid to an injured employee or the survivors of a deceased employee in apparent or seeming accordance with the provisions of this chapter by an employer or insurer, or is paid pursuant to an order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, or court of appeals relative to a claim by an injured employee or (HIS) the employee's survivors, and received in good faith by the employee or (HIS) the employee's survivors shall be refunded to the paying employer or insurer in the event that it is subsequently determined that the payment was made under a mistake in fact or law by the employer or insurer. When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a credit against future benefit entitlement; provided, however, that the credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits or death benefits shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

176.182 [BUSINESS LICENSES OR PERMITS; COVERAGE REQUIRED.]

Every state (OR LOCAL) licensing agency shall withhold the issuance of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision thereof shall enter into any contract for the doing of any public work before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

This section shall not be construed to create any liability on the part of the state or any governmental subdivision to pay workers' compensation benefits or to indemnify the special compensation fund, an employer, or insurer who pays workers' compensation benefits.

Sec. 98. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When any employee (SHALL SUSTAIN) sustains an injury arising out of and in the course of (HIS) employment while in the employ of an employer, other than the state or its political subdivisions, not insured or self-insured as provided for in this chapter, the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents shall nevertheless receive benefits as provided for (THEREIN) in this chapter from the special compensation fund, and the (STATE TREASURER AS CUSTODIAN OF SUCH FUND SHALL HAVE) commissioner has a cause of action against (SUCH) the employer for reimbursement for all moneys paid out or to be paid out, and, in the discretion of the court, as punitive damages an additional amount not exceeding 50 percent of all moneys paid out or to be paid out. An action to recover (SUCH) the moneys shall be instituted unless the (CUSTODIAN) commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All moneys recovered shall be deposited in the general fund. There shall be no payment from the special compensation fund if there is liability for the injury under the provisions of section 176.215, by an insurer or self-insurer.

Sec. 99. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. When an employee or (HIS) the employee's dependent is entitled to benefits under this chapter from a self-insurer, present or past, other than the state and its municipal subdivisions, but the self-insurer fails to (BE PAID THEM) pay the benefits, the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, regardless of the date when the accident, personal injury, occupational disease, or death occurred, shall nevertheless receive (SUCH) the benefits from the special compensation fund (, AND). The (STATE TREASURER AS CUSTODIAN OF SUCH FUND SHALL HAVE) commissioner has a cause of action against (SUCH) the self-insuring employer for reimbursement (,) for all (MONEYS) benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out and, in the discretion of the court, (AS) the self-insurer is liable for punitive damages in and (ADDITIONAL) amount not to exceed 50 percent of the total of all (MONEYS) benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out. The commissioner shall institute an action to recover (SUCH MONEYS SHALL BE INSTITUTED) the total expenditures from the fund unless the (CUSTODIAN) commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All (MONEYS) proceeds recovered shall be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 100. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision 2, the commissioner may direct payment from the special compensation fund for compensation payable pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 1a, including benefits payable under sections 176.102 and 176.135, prior to issuance of an order of a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals directing payment or awarding compensation.

(b) The commissioner may suspend or terminate an order under clause (a) for good cause as determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 101. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. If the commissioner authorizes the special fund to commence payment under this section, the commissioner shall serve by certified mail notice upon the employer and other interested parties of the intention to commence payment. This notice shall be served at least ten calendar days before commencing payment and shall be mailed to the last known address of the parties. The notice shall include a statement that failure of the employer to respond within ten calendar days of the date of service will be deemed acceptance by the employer of the proposed action by the commissioner and will be deemed a waiver of defenses the employer has to a subrogation or indemnity action by the commissioner. At any time prior to final determination of liability, the employer may appear as a party and present defenses the employer has, whether or not an appearance by the employer has previously been made in the matter. The commissioner has a cause of action against the employer to recover compensation paid by the special fund under this section.

Sec. 102. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.185, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [DATA COLLECTION CONTRACTS.] The commissioner may contract with other parties regarding the collection of appropriate data to assist in meeting the requirements of this section.

Sec. 103. [176.186] [RECORDS FROM OTHER STATE AGENCIES.] Notwithstanding any other state law to the contrary, the commissioner may obtain from the department of revenue, department of economic security, and office of the secretary of state, or any other state agency, upon request, names or lists of employers doing business in the state. This information shall be treated by the commissioner in the manner provided by chapter 13 and shall be used only for insurance verification by the commissioner.

Sec. 104. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. Where a dispute exists between an employer, insurer, the special compensation fund, the reopened case fund, or the workers' compensation reinsurance association, regarding benefits payable under this chapter, the dispute may be submitted with consent of all interested parties to binding arbitration pursuant to the rules of the American arbitration association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be conclusive with respect to all issues presented except as provided in subdivisions 6 and 7. Consent of the employee is not required for submission of a dispute to arbitration pursuant to this section and the employee is not bound by the results of the arbitration. An arbitration award shall not be admissible in any other proceeding under this chapter. Notice of the proceeding shall be given to the employee.

The employee, or any person with material information to the facts to be arbitrated, shall attend the arbitration proceeding if any party to the proceeding deems it necessary. Nothing said by an employee in connection with any arbitration proceeding may be used against the employee in any other proceeding under this chapter. Reasonable expenses of meals, lost wages, and travel of the employee or witnesses in attending shall be reimbursed on a pro rata basis.

Sec. 105. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. If the employee commences an action under this chapter for benefits arising out of the same injury which resulted in the dispute arbitrated under subdivision 5, and if the benefits awarded to the employee under the employee's claim are inconsistent with the arbitration decision, any increase in benefits over those paid pursuant to the arbitration proceeding is paid by the party or parties who ordinarily would have been required to pay the increased benefits but for the arbitration. Any reimbursement from the employee of any decrease in benefits from those paid pursuant to the arbitration is paid to the party or parties who previously had paid the increased benefits. The provisions of this subdivision apply regardless of whether more or fewer employers and insurers or the special fund have been added or omitted as parties to the employee's subsequent action after arbitration.

Sec. 106. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. If an employee brings an action under the circumstances described in subdivision 6, the parties to the previous arbitration may be represented at the new action by a common or joint attorney.

Sec. 107. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. No attorney's fees shall be awarded under either section 176.081, subdivision 8, or 176.191 against any employer or insurer in connection with any arbitration proceeding unless the employee chooses to retain an attorney to represent the employee's interests during arbitration.

Sec. 108. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.195, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL GROUNDS.] Where an insurer or agent of an insurer has failed to comply with provisions of this chapter, other than the provisions in subdivision 1, the commissioner of insurance may revoke the license of the insurer to write workers' compensation insurance.

Sec. 109. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.195, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS.] (SUCH) The commissioner of insurance may act under subdivision 1 or subdivision 1a upon his own motion, the recommendation of the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT) of labor and industry, the chief hearing examiner, or the workers' compensation court of appeals, or the complaint of any interested person.

Sec. 110. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.195, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [REPORT TO COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE.] The commissioner may send reports to the commissioner of insurance regarding compliance with this chapter by insurers writing workers' compensation insurance. A report may include a recommendation for revocation of an insurer's license under this section and may also recommend the imposition of other penalties which may be imposed upon insurers by the commissioner of insurance.

176.221. [PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION AND TREATMENT CHARGES, COMMENCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of temporary total compensation (DUE PURSUANT TO SECTION 176.101, SUBDIVISION 1,) shall commence. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer may have on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under chapter 176 or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. (WHEN) If the employer or insurer has commenced payment of compensation under this subdivision but determines within 30 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be (DISCONTINUED) terminated upon (NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE PURSUANT TO SECTION 176.241) the filing of a notice of denial of liability. Upon the (DETERMINATION) termination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner or compensation judge finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith. A notice of denial of liability must state in detail specific reasons explaining why the claimed injury or occupational disease was determined not to be within the scope and course of employment and shall include the name and telephone number of the person making this determination.

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF EXTENSION.] Upon application made within 30 days (AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH THE FIRST PAYMENT WAS DUE) of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury, the commissioner may grant an extension of time within which to determine liability. The extension shall not exceed 30 days from the date the request for extension is made. The application or grant of extension does not release the employer of the obligation to commence payment under subdivision 1 or to continue payments.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS TO SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.] Where an employer or insurer fails to begin payment of compensation (, CHARGES FOR TREATMENT UNDER SECTION 176.135 OR RETRAINING EXPENSES UNDER 176.102, SUBDIVISION 9) pursuant to subdivision 1, or to file a denial of liability within the 14-day period referred to in subdivision 1, (OR TO REQUEST AN EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH THE FIRST PAYMENT WAS DUE, HE) it shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled because of the injury (, IN ADDITION, EACH DAY SUBSEQUENT TO THE END OF THE PERIOD AND UNTIL A) to receive up to the date compensation payment is made to the (INJURED) employee (, THE PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION FUND SHALL PAY TO THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE TOTAL COMPENSATION TO WHICH THE INJURED EMPLOYEE IS ENTITLED).

(SUBD. 4. [FAILURE TO MAKE PAYMENTS AFTER EXTENSION.] WHERE AN EMPLOYER OR INSURER HAS BEEN GRANTED AN EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO DETERMINE LIABILITY AND FAILS TO BEGIN PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION, CHARGES FOR TREATMENT UNDER SECTION 176.135 OR RETRAINING EXPENSES UNDER 176.102, SUBDIVISION 9 OR TO FILE A DENIAL OF LIABILITY WITHIN SUCH EXTENDED PERIOD, HE SHALL MAKE THE PAYMENTS PROVIDED IN SUBDIVISION 3.)

(SUBD. 5. [DOUBLE PAYMENTS TO SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.] WHERE AN EMPLOYER OR IN-SURER HAS FAILED TO MAKE THE PAYMENTS REQUIRED BY SUBDIVISION 3 OR SUBDIVISION 4 WITHIN 30 DAYS FROM THE END OF THE PERIOD OR THE EXTENDED PERIOD, THE DIVISION MAY REQUIRE HIM TO PAY TO THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND, EACH DAY SUBSEQUENT TO THE END OF THE PERIOD AND UNTIL A COMPENSATION PAYMENT IS MADE TO THE INJURED EMPLOYEE, A SUM EQUAL TO DOUBLE THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION TO WHICH THE EMPLOYEE IS ENTITLED BECAUSE OF THE INJURY. IN ADDITION, THE PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR COMPENSATION, CHARGES FOR TREATMENT UNDER SECTION 176.135 OR RETRAINING EXPENSES UNDER 176.102, SUBDIVISION 9 SHALL PAY TO THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION TO WHICH THE EMPLOYEE IS ENTITLED.)

Subd. 6. [ASSESSMENT OF PENALTIES.] The division or compensation judge shall assess the penalty payments provided for by (SUBDIVISIONS) subdivision 3 (TO 5,) and any increase in benefit payments provided by section 176.225, subdivision 5, against (EITHER THE EMPLOYER OR) the insurer (DEPENDING UPON TO WHOM THE DELAY IS ATTRIBUTABLE IN MAKING PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION, CHARGES FOR TREATMENT UNDER SECTION 176.135 OR RETRAINING EXPENSES UNDER 176.102, SUBDIVISION 9). The insurer is (NOT) liable for a penalty payment assessed against it even if the delay is attributable to the employer.

An insurer who has paid a penalty under this section may recover from the employer the portion of the penalty attributable to the acts of the employer which resulted in the delay. A penalty paid by an insurer under this section which is attributable to the fault of the employer shall be treated as a loss in an experience rated plan, retrospective rating plan, or dividend calculation where appropriate.

Subd. 6a. [MEDICAL, REHABILITATION, ECONOMIC RECOVERY, AND IMPAIRMENT COMPENSATION.] The penalties provided by this section apply in cases where payment for treatment under section 176.135, rehabilitation expenses under section 176.102, subdivision 9, economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation are not made in a timely manner as required by law or by rule adopted by the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [INTEREST.] Any payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or (RETRAINING) rehabilitation expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 not made when due shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent (PER ANNUM) a year from the due date to the date the payment is made or the rate set by section 549.09, subdivision 1, whichever is greater.

Subd. 8. [METHOD AND TIMELINESS OF PAYMENT.] Payment of compensation under this chapter shall be by immediately payable negotiable instrument, or if by any other method, arrangements shall be available to provide for the immediate negotiability of the payment instrument.

All payment of compensation shall be made within 14 days of the filing of an appropriate order by the division or a compensation judge, unless the order is (TO BE) appealed (,) or (WHERE) if a different time period is provided by this chapter.

Sec. 112. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.225, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] Upon reasonable notice and hearing or opportunity to be heard, the division, a compensation judge, or upon appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals or the supreme court may award compensation, in addition to the total amount of compensation award, of up to 25 percent of that total amount where an employer or insurer has:

(a) instituted a proceeding or interposed a defense which does not present a real controversy but which is frivolous or for the purpose of delay; or,

(b) unreasonably or vexatiously delayed payment; or,

(c) neglected or refused to pay compensation; or,

(d) intentionally underpaid compensation.

Sec. 113. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.225, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS.] To determine whether an employer or insurer (HAS BECOME SUBJECT TO) is liable for the payment provided by subdivision 1, the division, a compensation judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals upon appeal may examine the books and records of the (PERSON) employer or insurer relating to the payment of compensation, and may require (HIM) the employer or insurer to furnish any other information relating to the payment of compensation.

Sec. 114. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.225, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEFIANCE OF DIVISION, COMPENSATION JUDGE, OR WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS, COMPLAINT.] (WHERE) If an insurer persists in an action or omission listed in subdivision 1, or does not permit the examination of (HIS) books and records, or fails to furnish (SUCH) information as required, the commissioner or the chief hearing examiner shall file a written complaint with the insurance commissioner. The complaint shall specify the facts and recommend the revocation of the license of the insurer to do business in this state. The workers' compensation court of appeals may also file (SUCH) a written complaint.

Sec. 115. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.231, subdivision 3, is amended to read:
