Subdivision 1. [NECESSITY FOR NOTICE AND SHOWING; CONTENTS.] Where an employee claims that the right to compensation continues, the employer may not discontinue payment of compensation until he provides the employee with notice in writing of his intention to do so, together with a statement of facts clearly indicating the reasons for the discontinuance. A copy of the notice shall be provided to the division by the employer.

The notice to the employee and the copy to the division shall state the date of intended discontinuance and the reason for the action. The notice to the employee and the copy to the division shall be accompanied by a statement of facts in support of the discontinuance of compensation payments and whatever medical reports are in the possession of the employer bearing on the physical condition of the employee at the time of the proposed discontinuance.

Subd. 2. [CONTINUANCE OF EMPLOYER'S LIABILITY; SUSPENSION.] Except where the commissioner orders otherwise, until the copy of the notice and reports have been filed with the division, the liability of the employer to make payments of compensation continues.

When the division has received a copy of the notice of discontinuance, the statement of facts and available medical reports, the duty of the employer to pay compensation is suspended pending an investigation, hearing, and determination of the matter by the division as provided in the following subdivisions.

Subd. 3. [COPY OF NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE, INVESTIGATION, HEARING.] When the employer has reason to believe compensation may be terminated within the requirements of this chapter, notice shall be given to the employee informing the employee of his right to object to the discontinuance and providing instructions as to how to contact the employer or insurer regarding the discontinuance and the procedures related to initiation of a claim. The commissioner shall make an investigation to determine whether the right to compensation has terminated. If it appears from the investigation that the right to compensation may not have terminated, the commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner in order that a hearing before a compensation judge may be scheduled, to determine the right of the employee, or his dependent, to further compensation.

The hearing shall be held within (A REASONABLE TIME) 30 days after the division has received the notice of discontinuance. The compensation judge shall give eight days notice of the hearing to interested parties.

Subd. 4. [ORDER.] When the hearing has been held (,) and (HE HAS DULY CONSIDERED) the evidence duly considered, the person who held the hearing shall promptly enter an order directing the payment of further compensation or confirming the termination of compensation. (WHERE) If the order confirms a termination of compensation, (THE COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY SHALL NOTIFY THE EMPLOYER OF THE ACTION. THIS NOTIFICATION) the service and filing of the order relieves the employer from further liability for compensation subject to the right of review afforded by this chapter, and to the right of the (DIVISION) compensation judge to set aside the order at any time prior to the review and to grant a new hearing pursuant to this chapter. Once an appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals is filed, a compensation judge may not set aside the order but the court of appeals may remand the matter to a compensation judge for a new hearing.

Subdivision 1. [CONFIRMATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND WAGES.] If an insurer has discontinued compensation to an employee because the employee has returned to work, the insurer shall contact the employer by whom the employee is employed 14 calendar days after return to work. The insurer shall determine whether the employee is still employed after 14 days and shall also ascertain the wages being paid to the employee.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE TO COMMISSIONER.] If upon contact the insurer determines that the employee is not working or that the employee is earning a lower wage than at the time of the injury, the insurer shall notify the commissioner in writing of this fact and shall also state the actions that the insurer has taken or intends to take regarding payment of compensation. A copy of this notice shall be served by the insurer by certified mail to the employee.

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYEE REQUEST FOR ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] If the employee objects to the action of the insurer regarding payment of compensation upon the cessation of work by the employee, the employee may request an administrative conference with the commissioner to resolve disputed issues. A request for an administrative conference shall be made within ten calendar days after service of the notice on the employee. If the employee requests an administrative conference the commissioner shall schedule a conference to be held within 14 calendar days after the commissioner receives the request.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] After considering the information provided by the parties at the administrative conference the commissioner shall issue to all interested parties a written administrative decision regarding payment of compensation. The commissioner's decision is binding upon the parties and the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the decision. The commissioner shall advise all parties of the right to petition to the chief hearing examiner under section 176.241 and of the right to be represented by an attorney at a hearing before a compensation judge. A party aggrieved by the commissioner's decision may proceed under section 176.241.

Subd. 5. [DECISION BINDING PENDING COMPENSATION JUDGE DECISION.] If an aggrieved party files a petition under section 176.241, the commissioner's administrative decision remains in effect pending a determination by a compensation judge.

Subd. 6. [DECISION AS NOTICE.] If a party proceeds under section 176.241, the commissioner's administrative decision is deemed to fulfill the division's obligations under section 176.241.

Subd. 7. [OBLIGATIONS PRIOR TO ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] If an insurer has not voluntarily recommenced compensation following the employee's cessation of work the insurer is not obligated to do so until an administrative conference is held and unless the commissioner determines that compensation shall be recommenced.

Subd. 8. [NECESSITY OF ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] If the commissioner deems it appropriate, based upon information the commissioner has, the commissioner may determine that an administrative conference is not necessary, in which case a party may proceed under section 176.241.

Subd. 9. [APPLICATION OF SECTION.] This section applies only when the employee has received at least 60 days of temporary total or temporary partial compensation prior to return to work and if no rehabilitation plan has been approved.

Subd. 10. [NOTICE FORMS.] A notice under this section shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 11. [FINES, VIOLATIONS.] An employer or insurer who violates this section is subject to a fine of up to $500 for each violation which shall be paid to the special compensation fund.

Subd. 12. [APPLICATION.] This section is applicable to all cases in which a return to work has occurred after the effective date of this section even if the injury occurred prior to the effective date.

Sec. 123. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.271, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, no attorney employed by the state of Minnesota may represent any person in any action or matter under this chapter other than the state, as defined in section 79.34, subdivision 1.

Sec. 124. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.281, is amended to read:

176.281 [ORDERS, DECISIONS, AND AWARDS; FILING; SERVICE.]

When the commissioner or compensation judge or office of administrative hearings or the workers' compensation court of appeals has rendered (AN) a final order, decision, or award, or amendment to an order, decision, or award, it shall be filed immediately with the commissioner. (WHERE) If the commissioner, compensation judge, office of administrative hearings, or workers' compensation court of appeals has rendered (AN) a final order, decision, or award, or amendment thereto, the commissioner or the office of administrative hearings or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall immediately serve a copy upon every party in interest, together with a notification of the (TIME) date the (SAME) order was filed.

Sec. 125. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.285, is amended to read:

176.285 [SERVICE OF PAPERS AND NOTICES.]

Service of papers and notices shall be by mail or (BY SUCH OTHER MEANS) otherwise as the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY DIRECTS) or the chief hearing examiner may by rule direct. Where service is by mail, service is effected at the time mailed if properly addressed and stamped. If it is so mailed, it is presumed the paper or notice reached the party to be served. However, a party may show by competent evidence that (HE) that party did not receive it or that it had been delayed in transit for an unusual or unreasonable period of time. In case of (SUCH) non-receipt or delay, an allowance shall be made for the party's failure to assert a right within the prescribed time.

The commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) and the chief hearing examiner shall (KEEP A CAREFUL RECORD OF EACH SERVICE INCLUDING THE TIME WHEN MADE) ensure that proof of service of all papers and notices served by their respective agencies is placed in the official file of the case.

Sec. 126. [176.312] [AFFIDAVIT OF PREJUDICE.]

An affidavit of prejudice for cause may be filed by a party to the claim against a compensation judge, in the same manner as an affidavit of prejudice is filed pursuant to law or rule of district court. The filing of an affidavit of prejudice against a compensation judge has the same effect and shall be treated in the same manner as in district court.

Sec. 127. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.321, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FILING, SERVICE.] Within (TWENTY) 20 days after (HE HAS BEEN SERVED WITH A COPY) service of the petition, an adverse party (MAY) shall serve and file (A VERIFIED) an answer to the petition. (WHEN HE FILES THE ANSWER,) The party shall (ALSO) serve a copy of the answer on the petitioner or (HIS) the petitioner's attorney.

(WITHIN FIVE DAYS AFTER HE HAS BEEN SERVED WITH A COPY OF THE ANSWER, THE PETITIONER MAY FILE A VERIFIED REPLY ADMITTING OR DENYING NEW MATTER SET FORTH IN THE ANSWER.)

Sec. 128. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.331, is amended to read:

176.331 [AWARD BY DEFAULT.]

(WHERE) If an adverse party (HAS FAILED) fails to file and serve an answer (, IF) and the petitioner presents proof of (SUCH) this fact, the commissioner or compensation judge (SHALL) may enter whatever award or order to which the petitioner is entitled on the basis of the facts alleged in the petition, but the compensation judge may require proof of an alleged fact. If the commissioner requires (SUCH) proof, (HE) the commissioner shall request the chief hearing examiner to assign the matter to a compensation judge (TO SUMMARILY HEAR AND DETERMINE THE SAME) for an immediate hearing and (TO PROMPTLY MAKE AN) prompt award or other order.

Where in (SUCH) a default case the petition does not state facts sufficient to support an award, the compensation judge shall give the petitioner or (HIS) the petitioner's attorney written notice of this deficiency. The petitioner may thereupon serve and file another petition as in the case of an original petition.

176.341 [HEARING ON PETITION.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME.] (WHEN THE REPLY HAS BEEN FILED OR THE TIME HAS EXPIRED IN WHICH TO FILE A REPLY) Upon receipt of a matter from the commissioner, the chief hearing examiner shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition. The hearing shall be held as soon as practicable and at a time and place determined by the chief hearing examiner to be the most convenient for the parties, keeping in mind the intent of chapter 176 (AS EXPRESSED IN SECTION 176.001) and the requirements of section 176.306.

Subd. 2. [PLACE.] Unless otherwise ordered by the (COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY OR COMPENSATION JUDGE) chief hearing examiner, the hearing shall be held in the county where the injury or death occurred.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE MAILED TO EACH PARTY.] At least (FIVE) 30 days prior to the date of hearing, the (WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVISION) chief hearing examiner shall mail a notice of the time and place of hearing to each interested party. This subdivision does not apply to hearings which have been continued from an earlier date. In those cases, the notice shall be given in a manner deemed appropriate by the chief hearing examiner after considering the particular circumstances in each case.

Sec. 130. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.361, is amended to read:

176.361 [INTERVENTION.]

(WHERE) A person who has an interest in any matter before the workers' compensation court of appeals, or commissioner, or compensation judge (OF) such (A CHARACTER) that (HE) the person may either gain or lose by an order or decision (,

HE) may intervene in the proceeding by filing an application in writing stating the facts which show (SUCH) the interest.

The commissioner of the department of labor and industry and workers' compensation court of appeals shall adopt rules to govern the procedure for intervention.

Sec. 131. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.371, is amended to read:

176.371 [AWARD OR DISALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION.]

The compensation judge to whom a petition has been assigned for hearing, shall hear all competent, relevant evidence produced at the hearing (, AND, AS SOON AFTER THE HEARING AS POSSIBLE, MAKE FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW,). All questions of fact and law submitted to a compensation judge at the hearing shall be disposed of and the judge's decision shall be filed with the commissioner within 60 days after the submission, unless sickness or casualty prevents a timely filing, or the time is extended by written consent of the parties, or the chief hearing examiner extends the time for good cause. The compensation judge's decision shall include a determination of all contested issues of fact and law and an award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the pleadings, evidence, this chapter and rule require. A compensation judge's decision shall include a memorandum only if necessary to delineate the reasons for the decision or to discuss the credibility of witnesses. A memorandum shall not contain a recitation of the evidence presented at the hearing but shall be limited to the compensation judge's basis for the decision.

No part of the salary of a compensation judge shall be paid unless the chief hearing examiner determines that all decisions of that judge have been issued within the time limit prescribed by this section.

Sec. 132. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF APPEAL.] The appellant or (HIS) the appellant's attorney shall prepare and sign a written notice of appeal specifying:

- (1) the order appealed from;
- (2) that appellant appeals from the order to the workers' compensation court of appeals;

(3) the particular finding of fact or conclusion of law which (HE) the appellant claims was unwarranted by the evidence or procured by fraud, coercion, or other improper conduct; and

((5)) any other ground upon which the appeal is taken.

Sec. 133. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SERVICE AND FILING OF NOTICE; COST OF TRANSCRIPT.] Within the 30 day period for taking an appeal, the appellant shall:

(1) Serve a copy of the notice of appeal on each adverse party;

(2) File the original notice, with proof of service by admission or affidavit, with the chief hearing examiner and file a copy with the commissioner;

(3) In order to defray the cost of the preparation of the record of the proceedings appealed from, pay to the state treasurer, office of administrative hearings account the sum of $25; and

(4) Submit a request that the chief hearing examiner order the preparation of a transcript of (THAT PART OF) the hearing (DELINEATED IN THE NOTICE OF APPEAL).

(A PARTY WHO DESIRES A TRANSCRIPT OF MORE OF THE HEARING THAN HAS BEEN REQUESTED BY THE APPELLANT SHALL, WITHIN FIVE WORKING DAYS OF SERVICE OF THE NOTICE OF APPEAL, MAKE A REQUEST OF THE CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER THAT THE ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY BE TRANSCRIBED.)

The first party (REQUESTING THE PREPARATION OF THE TRANSCRIPT OR ANY PART) to file an appeal is liable for the original cost of preparation of the transcript. Cross-appellants or any other persons requesting a copy of the transcript are liable for the cost of the copy. The cost of a transcript prepared by a non-governmental source shall be paid directly to that source and shall not exceed the cost that the source would be able to charge the state for the same service.

Upon a showing of cause, the chief hearing examiner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the party requesting its preparation, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the office of administrative hearings.

All fees received by the office of administrative hearings for the preparation of the record for submission to the workers' compensation court of appeals or for the cost of transcripts prepared by the office shall be deposited in the office of administrative hearings account in the state treasury and shall be used solely for the purpose of keeping the record of hearings conducted under this chapter and the preparation of transcripts of those hearings.

Sec. 134. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS ON APPEAL.] On an appeal taken under this section, the workers' compensation court of (APPEALS) appeals' review is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of appeal or by a cross-appeal. In these cases, on those issues raised by the appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals may:

- (1) disregard the findings of fact which the compensation judge has made;
- (2) examine the record;
- (3) substitute for the findings of fact made by the compensation judge such findings as the total evidence requires; and,
- (4) make an award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the facts and findings require.

Sec. 135. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS.] At the division's own expense, the commissioner shall make a complete record of all proceedings before (HIMSELF.) the commissioner and shall provide a stenographer or an audio magnetic recording device to make (A) the record of the proceedings (BEFORE HIM).

The commissioner shall furnish a transcript of these proceedings to any person who requests it and who pays a reasonable charge (AND SHALL FIX THE AMOUNT OF THIS CHARGE) which shall be set by the commissioner. Upon a showing of cause, the commissioner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the person requesting the transcript, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the division. Transcript fees received under this subdivision shall be paid to the workers' compensation division account in the state treasury and shall be annually appropriated to the division for the sole purpose of providing a record and transcripts as provided in this subdivision.

Sec. 136. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.442, is amended to read:

176.442 [APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF COMMISSIONER (OF DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY).]

Any decision or determination of the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) affecting a right, privilege, benefit, or duty which is imposed or conferred under this chapter is subject to review by the workers' compensation court of appeals. A person aggrieved by (SUCH) the determination may appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

176.461 [SETTING ASIDE AWARD.]

Except (WHERE) when a writ of certiorari has been issued by the supreme court and the matter is still pending in that court or (WHERE) if as a matter of law the determination of the supreme court cannot be subsequently modified, the workers' compensation court of appeals, for cause, at any time after an award, upon application of either party and not less than five working days after written notice to all interested parties, may set the award aside and grant a new hearing and refer the matter for a determination on its merits to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge, who shall make (SUCH) findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order of award or disallowance of compensation or other order (AS) based on the pleadings and the evidence produced and as required by the provisions of this chapter (SHALL REQUIRE) or rules adopted under it.

Sec. 138. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL.] Settlements shall be approved only where the terms conform with this chapter.

The division, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, and the district court shall exercise discretion in approving or disapproving a proposed settlement.

The parties to the agreement of settlement have the burden of proving that the settlement is reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter. A settlement agreement where both the employee or his dependent and the employer or insurer and intervenors in the matter are represented by an attorney shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter except when the settlement purports to be a full, final, and complete settlement of an employee's right to medical compensation under this chapter or rehabilitation under section 176.102. A settlement which purports to do so must be approved by the division, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals.

The conclusive presumption in this subdivision applies to a settlement agreement entered into on or after January 15, 1982, whether the injury to which the settlement applies occurred prior to or on or after January 15, 1982.

Sec. 139. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SETTLEMENTS NOT SUBJECT TO APPROVAL.] When a settled case is not subject to approval, upon receipt of the stipulation for settlement, a compensation judge (OR), a settlement judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall immediately sign the award and file it with the commissioner. Payment pursuant to the award shall be made within 14 days after it is filed with the commissioner. The commissioner may correct mathematical or clerical errors at any time.

Sec. 140. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SETTING ASIDE AWARD UPON SETTLEMENT.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.521, subdivision 1, 2, or 2a, or any provision in the agreement of settlement to the contrary, upon the filing of a petition by any party to the settlement and after a hearing on the petition, the workers' compensation court of appeals may set aside an award made upon a settlement, pursuant to this chapter. In those cases, the workers' compensation court of appeals shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge for hearing.

Sec. 141. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.561, is amended to read:

176.561 [WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS POWERS AND DUTIES AS TO STATE EMPLOYEES; PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING LIABILITY.]

The division, a compensation judge and the workers' compensation court of appeals have the same powers and duties in matters relating to state employees as they have in relation to other employees.

Except as specifically provided otherwise (HEREIN) in this chapter, the procedure for determining the liability of the state for compensation is the same as that applicable in other cases.

Sec. 142. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.571, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FORMAL HEARING ON OBJECTIONS.] If the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY SHALL HOLD) determines that a formal hearing on the objections which have been filed to the proposed order (WHERE THE CIRCUMSTANCES WARRANT SUCH) is warranted, the commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for the assignment of a compensation judge who shall hold a hearing. (THE HEARING SHALL BE BEFORE A COMPENSATION JUDGE.)

Sec. 143. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.645, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2, 3a, and 4, and section 176.111, subdivision 5, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on October 1, 1977 or thereafter under this section shall exceed six percent a year. In those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum the increase shall be deemed to be six percent.

Sec. 144. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [MULTIPLE EMPLOYERS OR INSURERS; LIABILITY.] The employer liable for the compensation for a personal injury under this chapter is the employer in whose employment the employee was last exposed to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed, if the employment was for six months or more, whether intermittent or consecutive. In the event that the employer who is liable for the compensation had multiple insurers during the employee's term of employment, the insurer or self-insurer who was on the risk during the employee's last exposure as defined in this subdivision to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed is the liable party.

Sec. 145. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease shall be 66-2/3 percent of the employee's weekly wage on the date of last exposure to the hazard in the employment of the liable employer as defined in subdivision 10 of the occupational disease claimed, subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of the last exposure provided that the employee shall be immediately eligible for supplementary benefits if that employee's compensation is less than 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 146. [176.83] [RULES.]

In addition to any other section under this chapter giving the commissioner the authority to adopt rules, the commissioner may adopt, amend, or repeal rules to implement the provisions of this chapter. The rules shall have the force and effect of law and are binding on a compensation judge, workers' compensation court of appeals, the rehabilitation review panel, and the medical services advisory board and shall include but not be limited to:

(a) rules necessary to implement and administer section 176.102, including the establishment of qualifications necessary to be a qualified rehabilitation consultant and the requirements to be an approved registered vendor of rehabilitation services including registration fees to be paid by rehabilitation consultants and approved vendors under section 176.102. Registration fees set by the commissioner shall be set so that the total fees received approximate the amount appropriated for the function, plus the portion of general support costs and statewide indirect costs of the agency that is attributable to the function for which the fee is charged. Subsequent fee adjustments may be made without a public hearing when the total fees estimated to be received during the fiscal biennium will not exceed the sum of all direct appropriations, indirect costs, transfers in, and salary supplements for that purpose for the biennium. The rules may also provide for penalties to be imposed by the commissioner against insurers or self-insured employers who fail to provide rehabilitation consultation to employees pursuant to section 176.-

102. These rules may also establish criteria regarding "reasonable moving expenses" under the section. The rules may also establish criteria, guidelines, methods, or procedures to be met by an employer or insurer in providing the initial rehabilitation consultation pursuant to this chapter which would permit the initial consultation to be provided by an individual other than a qualified rehabilitation consultant, provided that in absence of such rules this consultation shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter governing rehabilitation consultation;

(b) rules establishing standards for reviewing and evaluating the clinical consequences of services provided by qualified rehabilitation consultants, approved registered vendors of rehabilitation services, and services provided to an employee by health care providers;

(c) rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether or not charges for health services or rehabilitation services rendered under this chapter are excessive. In this regard, the standards and procedures shall be structured to determine what is necessary to encourage providers of health services and rehabilitation services to develop and deliver services for the rehabilitation of injured employees.

The procedures shall include standards for evaluating hospital care, other health care and rehabilitation services to insure that quality hospital, other health care, and rehabilitation is available and is provided to injured employees;

(d) rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether a provider of health care services and rehabilitation services, including a provider of medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital or other services, is performing procedures or providing services at a level or with a frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards.

If it is determined by the commissioner that the level, frequency or cost of a procedure or service of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for the excessive procedure, service, or cost by an insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer. In addition, the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedure, service, or cost from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund, or any government program.

A health or rehabilitation provider who is determined by the commissioner to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level or cost may be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided under chapter 176. A prohibition imposed on a provider under this clause may be grounds for revocation or suspension of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care or rehabilitation service in Minnesota by the appropriate licensing or certifying body.

The rules adopted under this clause shall require insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this clause;

(e) rules establishing procedures and standards for the certification of physicians, chiropractors, podiatrists, and other health care providers, including rules related to additional training and continuing education, in order to assure the coordination of treatment, rehabilitation, and other services and requirements of chapter 176 for carrying out the purposes and intent of this chapter;

(f) rules necessary for implementing and administering the provisions of sections 176.001, 176.131, 176.132, 176.134, 176.242, 176.243, 176.251, 176.66 to 176.669, and rules regarding proper allocation of compensation under section 176.111;

(g) procedures required for the implementation and administration of section 176.129 including, but not limited to, determining the method by which an employer will be assessed for payments due under section 176.129, subdivision 3, and the amount of the assessment. In adopting the rule regarding the assessment, the commissioner shall consider among other things, the expenditures to be made from the fund in the next calendar year, the current fund balance, and future expenditure trends;

(h) rules establishing standards or criteria under which a physician, podiatrist, or chiropractor is selected or under which a change of physician, podiatrist, or chiropractor is allowed under section 176.135, subdivision 2;

(i) rules to govern the procedure for intervention pursuant to section 176.361;

(j) joint rules with either or both the workers' compensation court of appeals and the chief hearing examiner which may be necessary in order to provide for the orderly processing of claims or petitions made or filed pursuant to chapter 176;

(k) rules establishing criteria to be used by the division, compensation judge, and workers' compensation court of appeals to determine "independent contractor";

(l) rules necessary for implementation of the provisions of section 176.101, subdivision 3, shall include the provisions contained in the Manual for Orthopaedic Surgeons in Evaluating

Permanent Physical Impairment, published by the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, which are in effect as of the effective date of this act. The provisions adopted by reference herein shall be effective the same day as the provisions of section 176.101, subdivision 3.

(m) forms and other reporting procedures to be used by an employer, insurer, medical provider, qualified rehabilitation consultant, approved vendor of rehabilitation services, attorney, employee, or other person subject to the provisions of this chapter; or

(n) any other rules necessary to implement, administer, or clarify the intent of a provision of chapter 176 which are not inconsistent with the law.

The chief hearing examiner shall adopt rules relating to procedures in matters pending before a compensation judge in the office of administrative hearings.

The commissioner may adopt rules regarding requirements which must be met by individuals who are employed by insurers or self-insurers or claims servicing or adjusting agencies and who work as claims adjusters in the field of workers' compensation insurance.

((F)) (g) Premiums shall (EITHER) be (ESTABLISHED BY AN ACTUARY APPROVED BY THE COMMISSIONER OR SHALL BE PREMIUMS FILED BY A LICENSED RATE SERVICE ORGANIZATION WITH REDUCTIONS PERMITTED SOLELY FOR ADMINISTRATIVE OR PREMIUM TAX SAVINGS) neither excessive, inadequate, nor unfairly discriminatory;

((G)) (h) The commissioner may require each pool to purchase excess insurance above certain limits and in a particular form. The limits or form of the excess insurance may differ based on the kinds of coverage offered by a pool, the limits of liability of the coverage, and the revenues available to pool members for the payment of premiums or assessments;

((H)) (i) Each pool shall be audited annually by a certified public accountant;

((I)) (j) Whether limitations on the payment of dividends to pool members (MAY BE ESTABLISHED AS) are necessary to assure the solvency of the pool;

Each insurer as defined by section 79.01, subdivision 2, shall as a condition of its authority to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by the plan of operation of the reinsurance association; provided, that all affiliated insurers within a holding company system as defined in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. Each self-insurer approved pursuant to section 176.181 and each political subdivision which self-insurers shall, as a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by its plan of operation; provided, that (a) all affiliated companies within a holding company system, as determined by the commissioner in a manner consistent with the standards and definitions in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13, shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association, and (b) all group self-insurers granted authority to self-insure pursuant to section 176.181 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. As a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability, and for losses incurred on or after January 1, 1984, the state shall be a member of the reinsurance association and is bound by its plan of operation. The commissioner of labor and industry represents the state in the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. The state treasurer shall pay the premium to the reinsurance association from the state compensation revolving fund upon warrants of the commissioner of labor and industry. For the purposes of this section "state" means the administrative branch of state government, the legislative branch, the judicial branch, the University of Minnesota, and any other entity whose workers' compensation liability is paid from the state revolving fund. The commissioner may calculate, prorate, and charge a department or agency the portion of premiums paid to the reinsurance association for employees who are paid wholly or in part by federal funds, dedicated funds, or special revenue funds. The reinsurance association (SHALL) is not (BE DEEMED) a state agency. Actions of the reinsurance association and its board of directors and actions of the commissioner of insurance with respect to the reinsurance association (SHALL) are not (BE) subject to (CHAPTER) chapters 13, 14, and 15. The reinsurance association (SHALL BE) is exempt from taxation under the laws of this state and all property owned by the association (SHALL BE) is exempt from taxation. The reinsurance association (SHALL) is not (BE) obligated to make any payments or pay any assessments to any funds or pools established pursuant to this chapter or chapter 176 or any other law.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The reinsurance association shall provide and each member shall accept indemnification for 100 percent of the amount of ultimate loss sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event, including aggregate losses related to a single event or occurrence which constitutes a single loss occurrence, under chapter 176 on and after October 1, 1979, in excess of $300,000 or $100,000 retention limit, at the option of the member. In case of occupational disease causing disablement on and after October 1, 1979, each person suffering such disablement shall be considered to be involved in a separate loss occurrence. The (LESSER) lower retention limit shall be increased to the nearest $10,000, on January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. On January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter, the (GREATER) higher retention limit shall be increased by the amount necessary to retain a $200,000 difference between the two retention limits. Ultimate loss as used in this section means the actual loss amount which a member is obligated to pay and which is paid by the member for workers' compensation benefits payable under chapter 176 and shall not include claim expenses, assessments, damages or penalties. For losses incurred on or after January 1, 1979, any amounts paid by a member pursuant to sections 176.183, 176.221, 176.225, and 176.82 shall not be included in ultimate loss and shall not be indemnified by the reinsurance association. A loss is incurred by the reinsurance association on the date on which the accident or other compensable event giving rise to the loss occurs, and a member is liable for a loss up to its retention limit in effect at the time that the loss was incurred, except that members which are determined by the reinsurance association to be controlled by or under common control with another member, and which are liable for claims from one or more employees entitled to compensation for a single compensable event, including aggregate losses relating to a single loss occurrence, may aggregate their losses and obtain indemnification from the reinsurance association for the aggregate losses in excess of the higher retention limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. Each member is liable for payment of its ultimate loss and shall be entitled to indemnification from the reinsurance association for the ultimate loss in excess of the member's retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence.

A member that chooses the higher retention limit shall retain the liability for all losses below the higher retention limit itself and shall not transfer the liability to any other entity or reinsurance or otherwise contract for reimbursement or indemnification for losses below its retention limit, except in the following cases: (a) when the reinsurance or contract is with another member which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the member; (b) when the reinsurance or contract provides for reimbursement or indemnification of a member if and only if the total of all claims which the member pays or incurs, but which are not reimbursable or subject to indemnification by the reinsurance association for a given period of time, exceeds a dollar value or percentage of premium written or earned and stated in the reinsurance agreement or contract; (c) when the reinsurance or contract is a pooling arrangement with other insurers where liability of the member to pay claims pusuant to chapter 176 is incidental to participation in the pool and not as a result of providing workers' compensation insurance to employers on a direct basis under chapter 176; (d) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all the claims of a specific insured of a member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the insured of the member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the insured of a member is not inconsistent with the bases of exception provided under clauses (a), (b), and (c) above; or (e) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all claims of a specific self-insurer member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the self-insurer member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the self-insurer member are not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above.

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any member that chooses the higher retention limit has participated in the transfer of liability to any other entity or reinsured or otherwise contracted for reimbursement or indemnification of losses below its retention limit in a manner inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, order the member to pay to the state of Minnesota an amount not to exceed twice the difference between the reinsurance premium for the higher and lower retention limit applicable to the member for each year in which the prohibited reinsurance or contract was in effect. Any member subject to this penalty provision shall continue to be bound by its selection of the higher retention limit for purposes of membership in the reinsurance association.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. For losses incurred on or after January 1, 1984, the reinsurance association shall indemnify the member for the ultimate loss, in excess of the retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence, sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event in another state provided that:

(a) the injured worker is eligible for benefits under section 176.041, subdivision 2 or 3 but elects to receive benefits under the workers' compensation statute of another state in lieu of benefits under chapter 176; and

(b) the ultimate loss indemnified by the reinsurance association shall be determined as provided in this chapter, except that the benefits shall be equal to those required to be paid under the workers' compensation statute of the state elected.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.35, is amended to read:

79.35 [DUTIES; RESPONSIBILITIES; POWERS.]

The reinsurance association shall do the following on behalf of its members:

(a) Assume 100 percent of the liability as provided in section 79.34;

(b) Establish procedures by which members shall promptly report to the reinsurance association each claim which, on the basis of the injury sustained, may reasonably be anticipated to involve liability to the reinsurance association if the member is held liable under chapter 176. Solely for the purpose of reporting claims, the member shall in all instances consider itself legally liable for the injury. The member shall advise the reinsurance association of subsequent developments likely to materially affect the interest of the reinsurance association in the claim;

(c) Maintain relevant loss and expense data relative to all liabilities of the reinsurance association and require each member to furnish statistics in connection with liabilities of the reinsurance association at the times and in the form and detail as may be required by the plan of operation;

(d) Calculate and charge to members a total premium sufficient to cover the expected liability which the reinsurance association will incur in excess of the higher retention limit but less than the prefunded limit, together with incurred or estimated to be incurred operating and administrative expenses for the period to which this premium applies and actual claim payments to be made by members, during the period to which this premium applies, for claims in excess of the prefunded limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. The prefunded limit shall be $2,500,000 on and after October 1, 1979, provided that the prefunded limit shall be increased on January 1, 1983 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, to the nearest $100,000, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. Each member shall be charged a proportion of the total premium in an amount equal to its proportion of the (TOTAL STANDARD EARNED PREMIUM) exposure base of all members during the period to which the reinsurance association premium will apply (, AS DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSIONER).

The exposure base shall be determined by the board and is subject to the approval of the commissioner. In determining the exposure base, the board shall consider, among other things, equity, administrative convenience, records maintained by members, amenability to audit, and degree of risk refinement. Each member exercising the lower retention option shall also be charged a premium established by the board as sufficient to cover incurred or estimated to be incurred claims for the liability the reinsurance association is likely to incur between the lower and higher retention limits for the period to which the premium applies. Each member shall also be charged a premium determined by the board to equitably distribute excess or deficient premiums from previous periods including any excess or deficient premiums resulting from a retroactive change in the prefunded limit. (AN EQUITABLE BASIS FOR DETERMINING STANDARD EARNED PREMIUM FOR SELF-INSURERS SHALL BE ESTABLISHED BY THE COMMISSIONER.) The premiums charged to members shall not be unfairly discriminatory as defined in section 79.074. All premiums shall be approved by the commissioner;

(e) Require and accept the payment of premiums from members of the reinsurance association;

(f) Receive and distribute all sums required by the operation of the reinsurance association;

(g) Establish procedures for reviewing claims procedures and practices of members of the reinsurance association. If the claims procedures or practices of a member are considered inadequate to properly service the liabilities of the reinsurance association, the reinsurance association may undertake, or may contract with another person, including another member, to adjust or assist in the adjustment of claims which create a potential liability to the association (AND). The reinsurance association may charge the cost of the adjustment under this paragraph to the member, except that any penalties or interest incurred under sections 176.183, 176.221, 176.225, and 176.82 as a result of actions by the reinsurance association after it has undertaken adjustment of the claim shall not be charged to the member but shall be included in the ultimate loss and listed as a separate item; and

(h) Provide each member of the reinsurance association with an annual report of the operations of the reinsurance association in a form the board of directors may specify.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.37, is amended to read:

79.37 [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.]

A board of directors of the reinsurance association is created and (SHALL BE) is responsible for the operation of the reinsurance association consistent with the plan of operation and sections 79.34 to 79.42. The board (SHALL CONSIST) consists of (NINE) 13 directors and the (COMMISSIONER) commissioners of insurance (WHO SHALL BE AN EX OFFICIO MEMBER) and labor and industry, both of whom are voting members. Four members of the board shall represent insurers, (THREE) six members of the board shall represent employers, at least one, but not more than (TWO) three, of whom shall represent self-insurers, and (TWO) three members of the board shall represent employees. Members shall elect the insurer directors, and the commissioner of insurance shall appoint the employer and employee directors, for the terms authorized in the plan of operation. Each board member (SHALL BE) is entitled to one vote. Terms of the directors shall be staggered so that the terms of all the directors do not expire at the same time and so that a director does not serve a term of more than four years. The board shall select a chairman and other officers it deems appropriate.

A majority of the board (SHALL CONSTITUTE) constitutes a quorum, notwithstanding any vacancies. Action may be taken by a majority vote of the directors present.

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION; WHEN.] The commissioner shall adopt rules, including temporary rules, to implement provisions of chapter 79. (THE RULES SHALL BE FINALLY ADOPTED AFTER MAY 1, 1982. BY JANUARY 15, 1982, THE COMMISSIONER SHALL PROVIDE THE LEGISLATURE A DESCRIPTION AND EXPLANATION OF THE INTENT AND ANTICIPATED EFFECT OF THE RULES ON THE VARIOUS FACTORS OF THE RATING SYSTEM.)

If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment for the economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to (SUBDIVISION 3A) section 176.101, shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of (ANY TENDER) commencement of the (LUMP SUM) payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. Liability on the part of an employer or (HIS)

the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and (SHALL BE) compensation is payable accordingly, subject to (SUBDIVISION 3A) section 176.101. (PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY) Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to (SUBDIVISION 3A) section 176.101. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, (PERMANENT PARTIAL) or permanent total disability payments (SHALL VEST) vests in the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in (HIS) the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right (SHALL) is not (BE) abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

The right to receive economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation vests in an injured employee at the time the disability is ascertained provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.041, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

cupation of his employer; persons who are independent contractors as defined by rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.83 provided that this exclusion does not apply to an employee of an independent contractor; nor does it apply to officers or members of veteran's organizations whose employment relationship arises solely by virtue of attending meetings or conventions of their organization, unless the veteran's organizations elect by resolution to provide coverage under this chapter for the officers or members. Neither shall the chapter apply to any person employed as a household worker in, for, or about, a private home or household who earns less than $500 in cash in any three month period from a single private home or household provided that any household worker who has earned $500 or more from his present employer in any three month period within the previous year shall be covered by this chapter regardless of whether or not he has in the present quarter earned $500. This chapter does not apply to those persons employed by a corporation where those persons are related by blood or marriage, within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of civil law, to all of the officers of the corporation, and if the corporation files a written election with the commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) to have those persons excluded from this chapter except that a written election is not required for a person who is otherwise excluded from this chapter by this section. This chapter does not apply to a nonprofit association which does not pay more than $500 in salary or wages in a year.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.061, is amended to read:

176.061 [THIRD PARTY LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [ELECTION OF REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which benefits are payable occurs under circumstances which create a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer and at the time of (SUCH) the injury or death that party was insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, the employee, in case of injury, or (HIS) the employee's dependents, in case of death, may proceed either at law against that party to recover damages or against the employer for benefits, but not against both.

Subd. 2. [ACTION FOR RECOVERY OF DAMAGES.] If the employee, in case of injury, or (HIS) the employee's dependents, in case of death, brings an action for the recovery of damages, the amount thereof, the manner in which, and the persons to whom the same are payable, shall be as provided in this chapter. In no case shall (SUCH) the party be liable to any person other than the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents for any damages resulting from (SUCH) the injury or death.

Subd. 3. [ELECTION TO RECEIVE BENEFITS FROM EMPLOYER; INDEMNITY AND SUBROGATION.] If the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents elect to receive benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, the employer, or the special compensation fund, has a right of indemnity against third parties for cases under chapter 65B, or, in all other cases, is subrogated to the right of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents to recover damages against the other party. The employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may bring legal proceedings against (SUCH) the party and recover the aggregate amount of benefits payable to or on behalf of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, together with costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorney's fees of the action.

If an action as provided in this chapter prosecuted by the employee, the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against the third person, results in judgment against the third person, or settlement by the third person, the employer (SHALL HAVE) has no liability to reimburse or hold the third person harmless on the judgment or settlement in absence of a written agreement to do so executed prior to the injury.

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION OF SUBDIVISIONS 1, 2, AND 3.] The provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 apply only where the employer liable for benefits and the other party legally liable for damages are insured or self-insured and engaged, in the due course of business in, (a) furtherance of a common enterprise, or (b) in the accomplishment of the same or related purposes in operations on the premises where the injury was received at the time (THEREOF) of the injury.

Subd. 5. [CUMULATIVE REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which benefits are payable is caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, that party being then insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, and the provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4 do not apply, or the party other than the employer is not then insured or self-insured as provided by this chapter, legal proceedings may be taken by the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents in accordance with clause (a), or by his employer, or by the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, in accordance with clause (b), against the other party to recover damages, notwithstanding the payment by the employer, or the special compensation fund or their liability to pay benefits.

(a) If an action against the other party is brought by the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents and a judgment is obtained and paid or settlement is made with the other party, the employer or the special compensation fund may deduct from the benefits payable the amount actually received by the employee or dependents or paid on their behalf in accordance with subdivision 6. If the action is not diligently prosecuted or if the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interests of the employer, or the special compensation fund, upon application the court may grant the employer, or the special compensation fund, the right to intervene in (ANY SUCH) the action for the prosecution (THEREOF) of the action. If the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or any party on their behalf receives benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, or institute proceedings to recover (THE SAME) benefits or accept from the employer, or the special compensation fund, any payment on account of the benefits, the employer, or the special compensation fund, is subrogated to the rights of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, for cases under chapter 65B, against a third party. This employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may maintain (AN) a separate action or continue an action already instituted. This action may be maintained in the name of the employee or the names of the employee's dependents, or in the name of the employer or in the name of the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund against (SUCH) the other party for the recovery of damages. If the action is not diligently prosecuted by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, or the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interest of the employee, the court, upon application, may grant to the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents the right to intervene in the action for the prosecution (THEREOF) of the action. The proceeds of (SUCH) the action or settlement (THEREOF) of the action shall be paid in accordance with subdivision 6.

(b) If an employer, being then insured, sustains damages due to a change in workers' compensation insurance premiums, whether by a failure to achieve a decrease or by a retroactive or prospective increase, as a result of the injury or death of (HIS) an employee which was caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, the employer, notwithstanding other remedies provided, may maintain an action against the other party for recovery of (SUCH) the premiums. This cause of action may be brought either by joining in an action described in clause (a) or by a separate action. Damages recovered under this clause (SHALL BE) are for the benefit of the employer and the provisions of subdivision 6 (SHALL) are not (BE) applicable to (SUCH) the damages.

(c) The third party is not liable to any person other than the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, or (HIS) the employer, or the special compensation fund, for any damages resulting from the injury or death.

A co-employee working for the same employer is not liable for a personal injury incurred by another employee unless the injury resulted from the gross negligence of the co-employee or was intentionally inflicted by the co-employee.

Subd. 6. [COSTS, ATTORNEY FEES, EXPENSES.] The proceeds of all actions for damages or settlement (THEREOF) of an action under this section, except for damages received under subdivision 5, clause (b) received by the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or by the employer, or the special compensation fund, as provided by subdivision 5, shall be divided as follows:

(a) After deducting the reasonable cost of collection, including but not limited to attorneys fees and burial expense in excess of the statutory liability, then

(b) One-third of the remainder shall in any event be paid to the injured employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, without being subject to any right of subrogation.

(c) Out of the balance remaining, the employer, or the special compensation fund, shall be reimbursed in an amount equal to all benefits paid under this chapter to or on behalf of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents by the employer, or special compensation fund, less the product of the costs deducted under clause (a) divided by the total proceeds received by the employee or his dependents from the other party multiplied by all benefits paid by the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents.

(d) Any balance remaining shall be paid to the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, and shall be a credit to employer, and the special compensation fund, for any benefits which employer is obligated to pay, but has not paid, and for any benefits that (SUCH) the employer (SHALL BE) is obligated to make in the future.

There shall be no reimbursement or credit to the employer, or the special compensation fund, for interest or penalties.

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL TREATMENT.] The liability of an employer, or the special compensation fund, for medical treatment or payment of any other compensation under this chapter (SHALL) is not (BE) affected by the fact that (HIS) the employee was injured through the fault or negligence of a third party, against whom the employee may have a cause of action which may be sued under this chapter, but the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, (SHALL HAVE) has a separate additional cause of action against (SUCH) the third party to recover any amounts paid for medical treatment or for other compensation payable under this section resulting from the negligence of (SUCH) the third party. This separate cause of action of the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may be asserted in a separate action brought by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against (SUCH) the third party or in the action commenced by the employee or the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, under this chapter, but in the latter case the cause of action shall be separately stated, the amount awarded thereon shall be separately set out in the verdict, and the amount recovered by suit or otherwise as reimbursement for medical expenses or other compensation shall be for the benefit of the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the extent that the employer, or the special compensation fund, has paid or will be required to pay compensation or for medical treatment of the injured employee and (SHALL) does not affect the amount of periodic compensation to be paid.

(SUBD. 8. [STATE AS EMPLOYER.] IN EVERY CASE ARISING UNDER SUBDIVISION 5 WHEN THE STATE IS THE EMPLOYER AND A SETTLEMENT BETWEEN THE THIRD PARTY AND THE EMPLOYEE IS MADE IT IS NOT VALID UNLESS PRIOR NOTICE THEREOF IS GIVEN TO THE STATE WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME. IF THE STATE PAYS COMPENSATION TO THE EMPLOYEE UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THIS CHAPTER AND BECOMES SUBROGATED TO THE RIGHTS OF THE EMPLOYEE OR HIS DEPENDENTS ANY SETTLEMENT BETWEEN THE EMPLOYEE OR HIS DEPENDENTS AND THE THIRD PARTY IS VOID AS AGAINST THE STATE'S RIGHT OF SUBROGATION. WHEN AN ACTION AT LAW IS INSTITUTED BY AN EMPLOYEE OR HIS DEPENDENTS AGAINST A THIRD PARTY FOR RECOVERY OF DAMAGES A COPY OF THE COMPLAINT AND NOTICE OF TRIAL OR NOTE OF ISSUE IN SUCH ACTION SHALL BE SERVED ON THE STATE. ANY JUDGMENT RENDERED THEREIN IS SUBJECT TO A LIEN OF THE STATE FOR THE AMOUNT TO WHICH IT IS ENTITLED TO BE SUBROGATED UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF SUBDIVISION 5.)

Subd. 8a. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYER.] In every case arising under subdivision 5, a settlement between the third party and the employee is not valid unless prior notice of the intention to settle is given to the employer within a reasonable time. If the employer or insurer pays compensation to the employee under the provisions of this chapter and becomes subrogated to the right of the employee or the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, any settlement between the employee or the employee's dependents and the third party is void as against the employer's right of subrogation or indemnity unless prior notice was given. When an action at law is instituted by an employee or the employee's dependents against a third party for recovery of damages, a copy of the complaint and notice of trial or note of issue in the action shall be served on the employer or insurer. Any judgment rendered in the action is subject to a lien of the employer for the amount to which it is entitled to be subrogated or indemnified under the provisions of subdivision 5.

Subd. 9. [SERVICE OF NOTICE ON ATTORNEY GENERAL.] In every case in which the state is liable to pay compensation or is subrogated to the rights of the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, all notices required to be given the state shall be served on the attorney general and the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY).

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be 66-2/3 percent of the difference between the (DAILY) weekly wage of the (WORKER) employee at the time of injury and the wage (HE) the employee is able to earn in (HIS) the employee's partially disabled condition. This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability except as provided in section 176.101, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to the statewide average weekly wage. (IF THE EMPLOYER DOES NOT FURNISH THE WORKER WITH WORK WHICH HE CAN DO IN HIS TEMPORARY PARTIALLY DISABLED CONDITION AND HE IS UNABLE TO PROCURE SUCH WORK WITH ANOTHER EMPLOYER, AFTER REASONABLY DILIGENT EFFORT, THE EMPLOYEE SHALL BE PAID AT THE FULL COMPENSATION RATE FOR HIS OR HER TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY.)

(49) In all cases of permanent partial disability not enumerated in this schedule the compensation shall be 66 2/3 percent of the difference between the daily wage of the worker at the time of the injury and the daily wage he is able to earn in his partially disabled condition, subject to a maximum equal to the statewide average weekly wage, and continue during disability, not to exceed 350 weeks; and if the employer does not furnish the worker with work which he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition and he is unable to secure such work with another employer after a reasonably diligent effort, the employee shall be paid at his or her maximum rate of compensation for total disability.

This subdivision applies to a permanent partial disability incurred before the effective date of the rules adopted under section 176.105, subdivision 4.

If prior to the termination of this 90-day period the employee retires or the employer furnishes work to the employee that the employee can do in his or her physical condition and that job produces an economic status as close as possible to that the employee would have enjoyed without the disability, or the employer procures this employment with another employer or the employee accepts this job with another employer, temporary total compensation shall cease. If the injury resulted in permanent partial disability, the employee shall receive impairment compensation pursuant to subdivision 3b. This impairment compensation is in lieu of economic recovery compensation under subdivision 3a, and the employee shall not receive both economic recovery compensation and impairment compensation for the same disability. Temporary total compensation and impairment compensation shall not be paid concurrently. The commissioner may waive this rehabilitation consultation if the commissioner deems it appropriate. Further rehabilitation, if deemed appropriate, is governed by section 176.102.

(b) Upon the employee's initial return to work the monitoring period begins to run. If the employee is unemployed for the reason in clause (a), prior to the end of the monitoring period the employee shall receive monitoring period compensation. Subd. 13. [DISCONTINUANCE.] All benefits payable under chapter 176 may, after a determination and order by the commissioner, be discontinued or forfeited for any time during which the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures ordered by the commissioner to determine the need for and details of a plan of rehabilitation, or refuses to participate in rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section or does not make a good faith effort to participate in a rehabilitation plan. A discontinuance under this section is governed by section 176.242.

Sec. 72. [176.103] [MEDICAL HEALTH CARE REVIEW.]

Subd. 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose of this section to provide for review of clinical health care providers who render services to injured employees. This review shall be achieved by establishing a quality control system within the department of labor and industry.

The commissioner shall hire a medical consultant to assist in the administration of this section.

The medical consultant shall be a doctor of medicine licensed under the laws of Minnesota.

The medical consultant shall perform all duties assigned by the commissioner relating to the supervision of the total continuum of care of injured employees and shall also advise the department on matters on which the commissioner requests the consultant's advice or if the consultant deems it appropriate.

Subd. 2. [SCOPE.] The commissioner shall monitor the medical, surgical, and hospital treatment provided to injured employees or the services of other health care providers. This monitoring shall include determinations concerning the appropriateness of the service, whether the treatment is necessary and effective, the proper cost of services, the quality of the treatment, the right of providers to receive payment under this chapter for services rendered or the right to receive payment under this chapter for future services. The commissioner may penalize, disqualify, or suspend a provider from receiving payment for services rendered under this chapter, if the commissioner determines that the provider has violated any part of this chapter or rule adopted under this chapter. The commissioner's authority under this section also includes the authority to make determinations regarding any other activity involving the questions of utilization of medical services, and any other determination the commissioner deems necessary for the proper administration of this section.

The commissioner has the sole authority to make determinations under this section with a right of appeal to the medical services review board as provided in subdivision 3 and the workers' compensation court of appeals. A compensation judge has no jurisdiction in making determinations under this section.

Subd. 3. [MEDICAL SERVICES REVIEW BOARD; SELECTION; POWERS.] (a) There is created a medical services review board composed of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee, one person representing chiropractic and seven medical practitioners representing different specialties which the commissioner determines are the most frequently utilized by injured employees. The board shall also have one member representing employees, one member representing employers or insurers, and one member representing the general public. The members shall be appointed by the commissioner and shall be governed by section 15.0575. Terms of the board's members may be renewed. The board shall appoint from among its members a clinical advisory subcommittee on clinical quality and a clinical advisory subcommittee on clinical cost containment. Each subcommittee shall consist of at least three members.

The clinical quality subcommittee shall review clinical results for adequacy and recommend to the commissioner scales for disabilities and apportionment.

The clinical cost containment subcommittee shall review and recommend to the commissioner rates for individual clinical procedures and aggregate costs. The subcommittees shall make regular reports to the board and the commissioner which shall evaluate the reports for the purpose of determining whether or not a particular health care provider continues to qualify for payment under chapter 176 or is subject to any other sanctions or penalties authorized under this section and to determine whether an employee has been off work longer than necessary.

In evaluating the clinical consequences of the services provided to an employee by a clinical health care provider, the board shall consider the following factors in the priority listed:

- (1) the clinical effectiveness of the treatment;*
- (2) the clinical cost of the treatment; and*
- (3) the length of time of treatment.*

In its consideration of these factors, the board shall utilize the information and recommendations developed by the subcommittees. In addition, the board shall utilize any other data developed by the subcommittees pursuant to the duties assigned to the subcommittees under this section.

After making a determination, the board shall submit its recommendation in writing to the commissioner. The board shall advise the commissioner on the adoption of rules regarding all aspects of medical care and services provided to injured employees.

(b) The board shall appoint three of its members to hear appeals from decisions of the commissioner regarding quality control and supervision of medical care; any other disputes regarding medical, surgical, and hospital care; decisions regarding the eligibility of medical providers to receive payments; or any other determinations of the commissioner pursuant to subdivision 2. The three-member panel shall be composed of one member who does not represent a health care specialty, one member who represents the same specialty as the specialty at issue or, if the same specialty is not available, one member whose specialty is as close as possible considering the board's composition, and one member representing a different specialty. The three-member panel shall conduct a hearing in the same manner, giving the same notice and following other procedures required of the rehabilitation review panel in section 176.102, subdivision 3a. A majority vote of the three-member panel constitutes the decision of the board. This decision may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

(c) In any situation where a conflict of interest prevents the appointment of a full three-member panel or in any other situation where the commissioner deems it necessary to resolve a conflict of interest, the commissioner may appoint a temporary substitute board member to serve until the situation creating the conflict of interest has been resolved.

Sec. 73. [176.104] [REHABILITATION PRIOR TO DETERMINATION OF LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [DISPUTE.] If there exists a dispute regarding whether an injury arose out of and in the course and scope of employment and an employee has been disabled for the requisite time under section 176.102, subdivision 4 prior to determination of liability, the employee shall be referred by the commissioner to the division of vocational rehabilitation which shall provide rehabilitation consultation. The services provided by the division of vocational rehabilitation and the scope and term of the rehabilitation are governed by section 176.102 and rules adopted pursuant to that section. Rehabilitation costs and services under this subdivision shall be approved, rejected, or modified by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR PAST REHABILITATION.] If liability is determined after the employee has commenced rehabilitation under this section the liable party is responsible for the cost of rehabilitation provided and approved by the commissioner. Future rehabilitation after liability is established is governed by section 176.102.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.105, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. The commissioner shall by rule adopt procedures to determine the percentage of loss of function of a part of the body based on the body as a whole, including internal organs, described in section 176.101, subdivision 3 and any other body part not listed in section 176.101, subdivision 3 which the commissioner deems appropriate.

Temporary rules shall be adopted for this purpose not later than January 1, 1985. Prior to the adoption of these rules, at least two public hearings shall be held by the commissioner, in addition to the requirements of sections 14.29 to 14.36. Notwithstanding sections 14.29 to 14.36, the temporary rules adopted under this subdivision shall be effective until superseded by permanent rules. The rules shall promote objectivity and consistency in the evaluation of permanent functional impairment due to personal injury and in the assignment of a numerical rating to the functional impairment.

Disability ratings and schedules shall be based on objective medical evidence.

Prior to adoption of temporary rules the commissioner of insurance shall conduct an analysis of the current permanent partial disability schedule for the purpose of determining the number and distribution of permanent partial disabilities and the average compensation for various permanent partial disabilities. The commissioner of labor and industry shall consider this analysis in adopting the rules under this subdivision and shall consider establishing a schedule which provides that the average award under the proposed schedule shall be approximately the same as the average award under the current schedule. The commissioner shall consider setting the compensation under the proposed schedule for the most serious conditions higher in comparison to the current schedule and shall consider decreasing awards for minor conditions in comparison to the current schedule.

The commissioner shall consider, among other factors, and shall not be limited to the following factors in developing rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability benefits:

(a) the workability and simplicity of the procedures with respect to the evaluation of functional disability;

(b) the consistency of the procedures with accepted medical standards;

(c) rules, guidelines, and schedules that exist in other states that are related to the evaluation of permanent partial disability or to a schedule of benefits for functional disability;

(d) rules, guidelines, and schedules that have been developed by associations of health care providers or organizations;

(e) the effect the rules may have on reducing litigation;

(f) the treatment of preexisting disabilities with respect to the evaluation of permanent functional disability provided that any preexisting disabilities must be objectively determined by medical evidence; and to the effective date of this section continue, subject to the provisions of this section.

(g) symptomatology and loss of function and use of the injured member.

The factors in clauses (a) to (g) shall not be used in any individual or specific workers' compensation claim under this chapter but shall only be used in the adoption of rules pursuant to this section.

In determining this method, the commissioner shall consider, among other things, the frequency of indemnity claims, equity, administrative convenience, records maintained by employer's insurers and self-insurers, amenability to audit, and degree of risk refinement.

(b) Using the assessment base method established in clause (a), the commissioner shall annually determine the amount of the assessment base of each employer.

(c) The commissioner shall annually establish a uniform percentage rate to be applied to the assessment base determined pursuant to clause (b). In establishing this rate, the commissioner shall consider, among other things, the likely expenditures to be made by the special fund in the next calendar year, the current fiscal status of the fund, future expenditure trends, and the assessments estimated to be collected under subdivisions 2 and 3. The assessment rate multiplied by the assessment base of an employer is the assessment amount payable under this subdivision. The total amount assessed under this subdivision shall not exceed $25,000,000 in calendar year 1984. The total amount which may annually be assessed under this subdivision may be increased by up to ten percent beginning on January 1, 1985, and each January 1 thereafter.

The attorney general shall represent the special fund in all legal matters in which the special fund has an interest.*

Subd. 9. [POWERS OF FUND.] In addition to powers granted to the special compensation fund by this chapter the fund may do the following:

- (a) sue and be sued in its own name;
- (b) intervene in or commence an action under this chapter or any other law, including, but not limited to, intervention or action as a subrogee to the division's right in a third-party action, any proceeding under this chapter in which liability of the special compensation fund is an issue, or any proceeding which may result in other liability of the fund or to protect the legal right of the fund;
- (c) enter into settlements including but not limited to structured, annuity purchase agreements with appropriate parties under this chapter; and
- (d) take any other action which an insurer is permitted by law to take in operating within this chapter.

(b) An employee injured after the effective date of this clause is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving temporary total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after six years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Sec. 92. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.132, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [ROUNDING OF PAYMENTS.] A payment made under this section shall be rounded to the next highest whole dollar.

Sec. 93. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.134, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATION.] The commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) shall administer the reopened case fund as part of the special compensation fund provided that the reopened case fund is under separate accounting and audit procedures from the special fund.

Sec. 94. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL, CHIROPRACTIC, PODIATRIC, SURGICAL, HOSPITAL.] The employer shall furnish (SUCH) any medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical and hospital treatment, including nursing, medicines, medical, chiropractic, podiatric, and surgical supplies, crutches and apparatus, including artificial members, or, at the option of the employee, if the employer has not filed notice as hereinafter provided, Christian Science treatment in lieu of medical treatment, chiropractic medicine and medical supplies, as may reasonably be required at the time of the injury and any time thereafter to cure and relieve from the effects of the injury. (SUCH) This treatment shall include treatments necessary to physical rehabilitation. The employer shall furnish replacement or repair for artificial members, glasses, or spectacles, artificial eyes, podiatric orthotics, dental bridge work, dentures or artificial teeth, hearing aids, canes, crutches or wheel chairs damaged by reason of an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment. In case of his inability or refusal seasonably to do so the employer (SHALL BE) is liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing the same. The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability. Orders of (A COMPENSATION JUDGE) the commissioner or medical services review board with respect to this subdivision may be reviewed by the workers' compensation court of appeals on petition of an aggrieved party or by writ of certiorari to the supreme court.

Sec. 95. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.135, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] The pecuniary liability of the employer for the treatment, articles and supplies required by this section shall be limited to (SUCH) the charges therefor as prevail in the same community for similar treatment, articles and supplies furnished to injured persons of a like standard of living when the same are paid for by the injured persons. On this basis the (COMPENSATION JUDGE) commissioner, medical services review board, or workers' compensation court of appeals on appeal may determine the reasonable value of all such services and supplies and the liability of the employer is limited to the amount so determined.

Sec. 96. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.136, is amended to read:

176.136 [MEDICAL FEE REVIEW.]

The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, to the 75th percentile of usual and customary fees or charges based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive shall be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures shall incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees. If the commissioner (OF INSURANCE, A COMPENSATION JUDGE), medical services review board, the workers' compensation court of appeals or a district court determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter; however, the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall by rule establish procedures allowing for a provider to appeal such determination. The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 for the purposes listed in section 145.61, subdivision 5, and report to the legislature by January 15, 1983 and thereafter on January 15 of every odd-numbered year, regarding the delivery of medical and health care services, including rehabilitation services, under the workers' compensation laws of this state.

The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall also conduct a study of the qualifications and background of rehabilitation consultants and vendors providing services under section 176.102 for the purpose of determining whether there are adequate professional standards provided, including safeguards to protect against conflicts of interest. If upon the effective date of this section this study has already been conducted by the commissioner of insurance, the commissioner is not required to conduct the study.

The commissioner (OF INSURANCE) shall adopt temporary rules in order to implement the provisions of this subdivision. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.14, subdivision 1, and any amendments, the temporary rules adopted by the commissioner (OF INSURANCE) pursuant to this subdivision may be extended for an additional 180 days if the procedures for adoption of a rule pursuant to sections 14.13 to 14.20 or 14.21 to 14.28, and other provisions of the administrative procedure act related to final agency action and rule adoption have not been concluded.

Any rules adopted by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to this section shall be adopted by the commissioner of labor and industry and may be amended, modified, or repealed only by the commissioner of labor and industry.

Sec. 97. [176.138] [MEDICAL DATA; ACCESS.]

Notwithstanding any other state laws related to the privacy of medical data or any private agreements to the contrary, the release of medical data related to a current claim for compensation under this chapter to the employee, employer, or insurer who are parties to the claim, or to the department of labor and industry, shall not require prior approval of any party to the claim. Requests for pertinent data shall be made in writing to the person or organization that collected or currently possesses the data. The data shall be provided by the collector or possessor within seven working days of receiving the request. In all cases of a request for the data, except when it is the employee who is making the request, the employee shall be sent written notification of the request by the party requesting the data at the same time the request is made. This data shall be treated as private data by the party who requests or receives the data and the employee or the employee's attorney shall be provided with a copy of all data requested.

The commissioner may impose a penalty of up to $200 payable to the special compensation fund against a party who does not release the data in a timely manner. A party who does not treat this data as private pursuant to this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 98. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.155, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REFUSAL TO BE EXAMINED.] If the injured employee refuses to comply with any reasonable request for examination, (HIS) the right to compensation may be suspended by order of the division, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals in a matter before it, and no compensation shall be paid while (HE) the employee continues in (SUCH) the refusal.

Sec. 99. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.155, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TESTIMONY OF (EXAMINING PHYSICIANS) HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.] Any physician or other health care provider designated by the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY), compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals or whose services are furnished or paid for by the employer, who treats (OR WHO MAKES), examines, or is present at any examination, of an injured employee, may be required to testify as to any knowledge acquired by (HIM) the physician or health care provider in the course of (SUCH) the treatment or examination relative to the injury or disability resulting (THEREFROM) from the injury only if the commissioner or a compensation judge makes a written finding that the appearance of the physician or health care provider is crucial to the accurate determination of the employee's disability. In all other cases all medical evidence must be submitted by written report as prescribed by the chief hearing examiner. A party may cross-examine by deposition a physician or health care provider who has examined or treated the employee. If a physician or health care provider is not available for cross-examination prior to the hearing and the physician's or health care provider's written report is submitted at the hearing, the compensation judge shall, upon request of the adverse party, require the physician or health care provider to testify at the hearing for the purpose of being cross-examined by the adverse party. All written medical evidence must be submitted prior to or at the time of the hearing and no evidence shall be considered which was submitted after the hearing unless the compensation judge orders otherwise.

176.179 [PAYMENTS OF COMPENSATION RECEIVED IN GOOD FAITH.]

Notwithstanding section 176.521, subdivision 3, or any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, no lump sum or weekly payment, or settlement, which is voluntarily paid to an injured employee or the survivors of a deceased employee in apparent or seeming accordance with the provisions of this chapter by an employer or insurer, or is paid pursuant to an order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, or court of appeals relative to a claim by an injured employee or (HIS) the employee's survivors, and received in good faith by the employee or (HIS) the employee's survivors shall be refunded to the paying employer or insurer in the event that it is subsequently determined that the payment was made under a mistake in fact or law by the employer or insurer. When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a credit against future benefit entitlement; provided, however, that the credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits or death benefits shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

Sec. 101. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.182, is amended to read:

176.182 [BUSINESS LICENSES OR PERMITS; COVERAGE REQUIRED.]

Every state (OR LOCAL) licensing agency shall withhold the issuance of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision thereof shall enter into any contract for the doing of any public work before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

This section shall not be construed to create any liability on the part of the state or any governmental subdivision to pay workers' compensation benefits or to indemnify the special compensation fund, an employer, or insurer who pays workers' compensation benefits.

Sec. 102. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When any employee (SHALL SUSTAIN) sustains an injury arising out of and in the course of (HIS) employment while in the employ of an employer, other than the state or its political subdivisions, not insured or self-insured as provided for in this chapter, the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents shall nevertheless receive benefits as provided for (THEREIN) in this chapter from the special compensation fund, and the (STATE TREASURER AS CUSTODIAN OF SUCH FUND SHALL HAVE) commissioner has a cause of action against (SUCH) the employer for reimbursement for all moneys paid out or to be paid out, and, in the discretion of the court, as punitive damages an additional amount not exceeding 50 percent of all moneys paid out or to be paid out. An action to recover (SUCH) the moneys shall be instituted unless the (CUSTODIAN) commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All moneys recovered shall be deposited in the general fund. There shall be no payment from the special compensation fund if there is liability for the injury under the provisions of section 176.215, by an insurer or self-insurer.

Sec. 103. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. When an employee or (HIS) the employee's dependent is entitled to benefits under this chapter from a self-insurer, present or past, other than the state and its municipal subdivisions, but the self-insurer fails to (BE PAID THEM) pay the benefits, the employee or (HIS) the employee's dependents, regardless of the date when the accident, personal injury, occupational disease, or death occurred, shall nevertheless receive (SUCH) the benefits from the special compensation fund (, AND). The (STATE TREASURER AS CUSTODIAN OF SUCH FUND SHALL HAVE) commissioner has a cause of action against (SUCH) the self-insuring employer for reimbursement (,) for all (MONEYS) benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out and, in the discretion of the court, (AS) the self-insurer is liable for punitive damages in an (ADDITIONAL) amount not to exceed 50 percent of the total of all (MONEYS) benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out. The commissioner shall institute an action to recover (SUCH MONEYS SHALL BE INSTITUTED) the total expenditures from the fund unless the (CUSTODIAN) commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All (MONEYS) proceeds recovered shall be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 104. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision 2, the commissioner may direct payment from the special compensation fund for compensation payable pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 1a, including benefits payable under sections 176.102 and 176.135, prior to issuance of an order of a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals directing payment or awarding compensation.

(b) The commissioner may suspend or terminate an order under clause (a) for good cause as determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 105. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. If the commissioner authorizes the special fund to commence payment under this section, the commissioner shall serve notice by certified mail upon the employer and other interested parties of the intention to commence payment. This notice shall be served at least ten calendar days before commencing payment and shall be mailed to the last known address of the parties. The notice shall include a statement that failure of the employer to respond within ten calendar days of the date of service will be deemed acceptance by the employer of the proposed action by the commissioner and will be deemed a waiver of defenses the employer has to a subrogation or indemnity action by the commissioner. At any time prior to final determination of liability, the employer may appear as a party and present defenses the employer has, whether or not an appearance by the employer has previously been made in the matter. The commissioner has a cause of action against the employer to recover compensation paid by the special fund under this section.

Sec. 106. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.185, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [DATA COLLECTION CONTRACTS.] The commissioner may contract with other parties regarding the collection of appropriate data to assist in meeting the requirements of this section.

Sec. 107. [176.186] [RECORDS FROM OTHER STATE AGENCIES.]

Notwithstanding any other state law to the contrary, the commissioner may obtain from the department of revenue, department of economic security, and office of the secretary of state, or any other state agency, upon request, names or lists of employers doing business in the state. This information shall be treated by the commissioner in the manner provided by chapter 18 and shall be used only for insurance verification by the commissioner.

Sec. 108. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. Where a dispute exists between an employer, insurer, the special compensation fund, the reopened case fund, or the workers' compensation reinsurance association, regarding benefits payable under this chapter, the dispute may be submitted with consent of all interested parties to binding arbitration pursuant to the rules of the American arbitration association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be conclusive with respect to all issues presented except as provided in subdivisions 6 and 7. Consent of the employee is not required for submission of a dispute to arbitration pursuant to this section and the employee is not bound by the results of the arbitration. An arbitration award shall not be admissible in any other proceeding under this chapter. Notice of the proceeding shall be given to the employee.

The employee, or any person with material information to the facts to be arbitrated, shall attend the arbitration proceeding if any party to the proceeding deems it necessary. Nothing said by an employee in connection with any arbitration proceeding may be used against the employee in any other proceeding under this chapter. Reasonable expenses of meals, lost wages, and travel of the employee or witnesses in attending shall be reimbursed on a pro rata basis.

Sec. 109. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. If the employee commences an action under this chapter for benefits arising out of the same injury which resulted in the dispute arbitrated under subdivision 5, and if the benefits awarded to the employee under the employee's claim are inconsistent with the arbitration decision, any increase in benefits over those paid pursuant to the arbitration proceeding is paid by the party or parties who ordinarily would have been required to pay the increased benefits but for the arbitration. Any reimbursement from the employee of any decrease in benefits from those paid pursuant to the arbitration is paid to the party or parties who previously had paid the increased benefits. The provisions of this subdivision apply regardless of whether more or fewer employers and insurers or the special fund have been added or omitted as parties to the employee's subsequent action after arbitration.

Sec. 110. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. If an employee brings an action under the circumstances described in subdivision 6, the parties to the previous arbitration may be represented at the new action by a common or joint attorney.

Sec. 111. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. No attorney's fees shall be awarded under either section 176.081, subdivision 8, or 176.191 against any employer or insurer in connection with any arbitration proceeding unless the employee chooses to retain an attorney to represent the employee's interests during arbitration.

Sec. 112. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.195, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL GROUNDS.] Where an insurer or agent of an insurer has failed to comply with provisions of this chapter, other than the provisions in subdivision 1, the commissioner of insurance may revoke the license of the insurer to write workers' compensation insurance.

Sec. 113. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.195, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS.] (SUCH) The commissioner of insurance may act under subdivision 1 or 1a upon his own motion, the recommendation of the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT) of labor and industry, the chief hearing examiner, or the workers' compensation court of appeals, or the complaint of any interested person.

[REPORT TO COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE.] The commissioner may send reports to the commissioner of insurance regarding compliance with this chapter by insurers writing workers' compensation insurance. A report may include a recommendation for revocation of an insurer's license under this section and may also recommend the imposition of other penalties which may be imposed upon insurers by the commissioner of insurance.

Sec. 115. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.221, is amended to read:

176.221 [PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION AND TREATMENT CHARGES, COMMENCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of temporary total compensation (DUE PURSUANT TO SECTION 176.101, SUBDIVISION 1,) shall commence. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer may have on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under chapter 176 or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. (WHEN) If the employer or insurer has commenced payment of compensation under this subdivision but determines within 30 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be (DISCONTINUED) terminated upon (NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE PURSUANT TO SECTION 176.241) the filing of a notice of denial of liability. Upon the (DETERMINATION) termination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner or compensation judge finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith. A notice of denial of liability must state in detail specific reasons explaining why the claimed injury or occupational disease was determined not to be within the scope and course of employment and shall include the name and telephone number of the person making this determination.

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF EXTENSION.] Upon application made within 30 days (AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH THE FIRST PAYMENT WAS DUE) of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury, the commissioner may grant an extension of time within which to determine liability. The extension shall not exceed 30 days from the date the request for the extension is made. The application or grant of extension does not release the employer of the obligation to commence payment under subdivision 1 or to continue payments.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS TO SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.] Where an employer or insurer fails to begin payment of compensation (, CHARGES FOR TREATMENT UNDER SECTION 176.135 OR RETRAINING EXPENSES UNDER 176.102, SUBDIVISION 9) pursuant to subdivision 1, or to file a denial of liability within the 14-day period referred to in subdivision 1, (OR TO REQUEST AN EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH THE FIRST PAYMENT WAS DUE, HE) it shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled because of the injury (, IN ADDITION, EACH DAY SUBSEQUENT TO THE END OF THE PERIOD AND UNTIL A) to receive up to the date compensation payment is made to the (INJURED) employee (, THE PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION SHALL PAY TO THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE TOTAL COMPENSATION TO WHICH THE INJURED EMPLOYEE IS ENTITLED).

TREATMENT UNDER SECTION 176.135 OR RETRAINING EXPENSES UNDER 176.102, SUBDIVISION 9 OR TO FILE A DENIAL OF LIABILITY WITHIN SUCH EXTENDED PERIOD, HE SHALL MAKE THE PAYMENTS PROVIDED IN SUBDIVISION 3.)

(SUBD. 5. [DOUBLE PAYMENTS TO SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.] WHERE AN EMPLOYER OR INSURER HAS FAILED TO MAKE THE PAYMENTS REQUIRED BY SUBDIVISION 3 OR SUBDIVISION 4 WITHIN 30 DAYS FROM THE END OF THE PERIOD OR THE EXTENDED PERIOD, THE DIVISION MAY REQUIRE HIM TO PAY TO THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND, EACH DAY SUBSEQUENT TO THE END OF THE PERIOD AND UNTIL A COMPENSATION PAYMENT IS MADE TO THE INJURED EMPLOYEE, A SUM EQUAL TO DOUBLE THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION TO WHICH THE EMPLOYEE IS ENTITLED BECAUSE OF THE INJURY. IN ADDITION, THE PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR COMPENSATION, CHARGES FOR TREATMENT UNDER SECTION 176.135 OR RETRAINING EXPENSES UNDER 176.102, SUBDIVISION 9 SHALL PAY TO THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION TO WHICH THE EMPLOYEE IS ENTITLED.)

Subd. 6. [ASSESSMENT OF PENALTIES.] The division or compensation judge shall assess the penalty payments provided for by (SUBDIVISIONS) subdivision 3 (TO 5,) and any increase in benefit payments provided by section 176.225, subdivision 5, against (EITHER THE EMPLOYER OR) the insurer (DEPENDING UPON TO WHOM THE DELAY IS ATTRIBUTABLE IN MAKING PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION, CHARGES FOR TREATMENT UNDER SECTION 176.135 OR RETRAINING EXPENSES UNDER 176.102, SUBDIVISION 9). The insurer is (NOT) liable for a penalty payment assessed against it even if the delay is attributable to the employer.

An insurer who has paid a penalty under this section may recover from the employer the portion of the penalty attributable to the acts of the employer which resulted in the delay. A penalty paid by an insurer under this section which is attributable to the fault of the employer shall be treated as a loss in an experience rated plan, retrospective rating plan, or dividend calculation where appropriate.

Subd. 6a. [MEDICAL, REHABILITATION, ECONOMIC RECOVERY, AND IMPAIRMENT COMPENSATION.] The penalties provided by this section apply in cases where payment for treatment under section 176.135, rehabilitation expenses under section 176.102, subdivision 9, economic recovery compensa- tion or impairment compensation are not made in a timely manner as required by law or by rule adopted by the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [INTEREST.] Any payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or (RETRAINING) rehabilitation expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 not made when due shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent (PER ANNUM) a year from the due date to the date the payment is made or the rate set by section 549.09, subdivision 1, whichever is greater.

Subd. 8. [METHOD AND TIMELINESS OF PAYMENT.] Payment of compensation under this chapter shall be by immediately payable negotiable instrument, or if by any other method, arrangements shall be available to provide for the immediate negotiability of the payment instrument.

All payment of compensation shall be made within 14 days of the filing of an appropriate order by the division or a compensation judge, unless the order is (TO BE) appealed (,) or (WHERE) if a different time period is provided by this chapter.

Sec. 116. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.225, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] Upon reasonable notice and hearing or opportunity to be heard, the division, a compensation judge, or upon appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals or the supreme court may award compensation, in addition to the total amount of compensation award, of up to 25 percent of that total amount where an employer or insurer has:

(b) unreasonably or vexatiously delayed payment; or,

(c) neglected or refused to pay compensation; or,

(d) intentionally underpaid compensation.

Sec. 117. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.225, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

or insurer to furnish any other information relating to the payment of compensation.

The complaint shall specify the facts and recommend the revocation of the license of the insurer to do business in this state. The workers' compensation court of appeals may also file (SUCH) a written complaint.

Sec. 119. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.231, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Subd. 10. [FAILURE TO FILE REQUIRED REPORT, PENALTY.] (WHERE) If an employer, physician, (OR SURGEON HAS FAILED) chiropractor, or other health provider fails to file with the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) any report required by this section in the manner and within the time limitations prescribed, (HE SHALL FORFEIT TO THE STATE $50) or otherwise fails to provide a report required by this section in the manner provided by this section, the commissioner may impose a penalty of up to $200 for each (SUCH) failure.

The attorney general shall sue in a civil action to collect this penalty upon notification of the matter by the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY). The commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) shall certify to the attorney general each failure to report immediately upon its occurrence.

Penalties collected by the state under this subdivision shall be paid into the state treasury.

Sec. 124. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.241, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTINUANCE OF EMPLOYER'S LIABILITY; SUSPENSION.] Except (WHERE) when the commissioner orders otherwise, until the copy of the notice and reports have been filed with the division, the liability of the employer to make payments of compensation continues.

When the division has received a copy of the notice of discontinuance, the statement of facts and available medical reports, the duty of the employer to pay compensation is suspended pending an investigation, hearing, and determination of the matter by the division or compensation judge as provided in the following subdivisions.

Sec. 125. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.241, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ORDER.] When the hearing has been held (,) and (HE HAS DULY CONSIDERED) the evidence duly considered, the person who held the hearing shall promptly enter an order directing the payment of further compensation or confirming the termination of compensation. (WHERE) If the order confirms a termination of compensation, (THE COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY SHALL NOTIFY THE EMPLOYER OF THE ACTION. THIS NOTIFICATION) the service and filing of the order relieves the employer from further liability for compensation subject to the right of review afforded by this chapter, and to the right of the (DIVISION) compensation judge to set aside the order at any time prior to the review and to grant a new hearing pursuant to this chapter. Once an appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals is filed, a compensation judge may not set aside the order but the court of appeals may remand the matter to a compensation judge for a new hearing.

Sec. 126. [176.242] [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE PRIOR TO DISCONTINUANCE OF COMPENSATION.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE; GROUNDS.] If an employer or insurer files a notice of intention to discontinue, the employer or insurer shall serve a copy upon the commissioner and the employee including detailed reasons for the intended discontinuance.

Subd. 2. [CONFERENCE, REQUEST.] (a) The employee has ten calendar days from the date the notice was served to request that the commissioner schedule an administrative conference to determine the appropriateness of the proposed discontinuance. The employer or insurer may request an administrative conference under this section at any time whether or not a notice of intent to discontinue is filed. The commissioner shall schedule an administrative conference to be held within ten calendar days after the commissioner receives timely notice of the employee's or employer's request for an administrative conference.

(b) If the employee does not, in a timely manner, request that the commissioner schedule an administrative conference, or fails to appear, without good cause, at a scheduled conference, compensation may be discontinued, subject to the employee's right under section 176.241.

(c) An employee or employer may request a continuance of a scheduled administrative conference. If the commissioner determines that good cause exists for granting a continuance the commissioner may grant the continuance which shall not exceed ten calendar days. No more than one continuance shall be granted. If the employee is granted a continuance, compensation need not be paid during the period of continuance but shall recommence upon the date of the conference unless the commissioner orders otherwise.

(d) The purpose of an administrative conference is to determine whether reasonable grounds exist for a discontinuance and to clarify issues and resolve disputes regarding the discontinuance.

Subd. 3. [NECESSITY FOR CONFERENCE, COMMISSIONER'S DISCRETION.] The commissioner may determine that no administrative conference is necessary under this section and permit the employer or insurer to discontinue compensation, subject to the employee's right under section 176.241.

The commissioner may permit compensation to be discontinued at any time after a notice pursuant to subdivision 1 is received even if no administrative conference has been held, if the commissioner deems the discontinuance appropriate based on the information the commissioner has; subject to the employee's right under section 176.241.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] After considering the information provided by the parties at the administrative conference, the commissioner shall issue to all interested parties a written administrative decision permitting or denying the employer's or insurer's request to discontinue compensation. The decision shall be issued within five working days from the close of the conference. The commissioner's decision is binding.

on the parties. The commissioner shall advise all parties of the right to petition to the chief hearing examiner under section 176.241 and of the right to be represented by an attorney at a hearing before a compensation judge.

Subd. 5. [OBJECTION TO DECISION.] If the commissioner grants the employer's or insurer's request to discontinue compensation and the employee objects to the discontinuance, the employee may file an objection to discontinuance under section 176.241. If the commissioner denies the request to discontinue compensation the employer or insurer may file a petition to discontinue under section 176.241.

Subd. 6. [EFFECT OF DECISION, APPEAL.] If an objection or a petition is filed under subdivision 5, the commissioner's administrative decision remains in effect and the parties obligations or rights to pay or receive compensation are governed by the commissioner's administrative decision, pending a determination by a compensation judge.

Subd. 7. [DECISION AS NOTICE.] If a party proceeds under subdivision 5, the commissioner's administrative decision under this section is deemed required notice to interested parties under section 176.241 and the commissioner's obligations under section 176.241 are deemed to be met.

Subd. 8. [WHEN DISCONTINUANCE ALLOWED.] Compensation shall not be discontinued prior to an administrative conference except as provided under subdivision 2, clause (b) or if the commissioner determines pursuant to subdivision 3 that no administrative conference is necessary. The employer may discontinue compensation immediately without having an administrative conference if the discontinuance is because the employee has returned to work.

Subd. 9. [NOTICE, FORMS.] Notice to the employee under subdivision 1 shall be on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 10. [FINES, VIOLATIONS.] An employer or insurer who discontinues compensation in violation of this section is subject to a fine of up to $500 for each violation. Fines shall be paid to the special compensation fund.

Subd. 11. [APPLICATION.] This section is applicable to any notice of intent to discontinue which is filed after the effective date of this section, even if the injury occurred prior to the effective date of this section.

Sec. 127. [176.243] [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE FOLLOWING RETURN TO WORK, SUBSEQUENT INABILITY TO WORK.]

Subdivision 1. [CONFIRMATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND WAGES.] If an insurer has discontinued compensation to an employee because the employee has returned to work, the insurer shall contact the employer by whom the employee is employed 14 calendar days after return to work. The insurer shall determine whether the employee is still employed after 14 days and shall also ascertain the wages being paid to the employee.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE TO COMMISSIONER.] If upon contact the insurer determines that the employee is not working or that the employee is earning a lower wage than at the time of the injury, the insurer shall notify the commissioner in writing of this fact and shall also state the actions that the insurer has taken or intends to take regarding payment of compensation. A copy of this notice shall be served by the insurer by certified mail to the employee.

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYEE REQUEST FOR ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] If the employee objects to the action of the insurer regarding payment of compensation upon the cessation of work by the employee, the employee may request an administrative conference with the commissioner to resolve disputed issues. A request for an administrative conference shall be made within ten calendar days after service of the notice on the employee. If the employee requests an administrative conference the commissioner shall schedule a conference to be held within 14 calendar days after the commissioner receives the request.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] After considering the information provided by the parties at the administrative conference the commissioner shall issue to all interested parties a written administrative decision regarding payment of compensation. The commissioner's decision is binding upon the parties and the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the decision. The commissioner shall advise all parties of the right to petition to the chief hearing examiner under section 176.241 and of the right to be represented by an attorney at a hearing before a compensation judge. A party aggrieved by the commissioner's decision may proceed under section 176.241.

Subd. 5. [DECISION BINDING PENDING COMPENSATION JUDGE DECISION.] If an aggrieved party files a petition under section 176.241, the commissioner's administrative decision remains in effect pending a determination by a compensation judge.

Subd. 6. [DECISION AS NOTICE.] If a party proceeds under section 176.241, the commissioner's administrative decision is deemed to fulfill the division's obligations under section 176.241.

Subd. 7. [OBLIGATIONS PRIOR TO ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] If an insurer has not voluntarily recommenced compensation following the employee's cessation of work, the insurer is not obligated to do so until an administrative conference is held and unless the commissioner determines that compensation shall be recommenced.

Subd. 8. [NECESSITY OF ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] If the commissioner deems it appropriate, based upon information the commissioner has, the commissioner may determine that an administrative conference is not necessary, in which case a party may proceed under section 176.241.

Subd. 9. [APPLICATION OF SECTION.] This section applies only when the employee has received at least 60 days of temporary total or temporary partial compensation prior to return to work and if no rehabilitation plan has been approved.

Subd. 10. [NOTICE FORMS.] A notice under this section shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 11. [FINES, VIOLATIONS.] An employer or insurer who violates this section is subject to a fine of up to $500 for each violation which shall be paid to the special compensation fund.

Subd. 12. [APPLICATION.] This section is applicable to all cases in which a return to work has occurred after the effective date of this section even if the injury occurred prior to the effective date.

Sec. 128. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.281, is amended to read:

(WHERE) If the commissioner, compensation judge, office of administrative hearings, or workers' compensation court of appeals has rendered (AN) a final order, decision, or award, or amendment thereto, the commissioner or the office of administrative hearings or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall immediately serve a copy upon every party in interest, together with a notification of the (TIME) date the (SAME) order was filed.

Sec. 129. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.285, is amended to read:

176.285 [SERVICE OF PAPERS AND NOTICES.]

Service of papers and notices shall be by mail or (BY SUCH OTHER MEANS) otherwise as the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY DIRECTS) or the chief hearing examiner may by rule direct. Where service is by mail, service is effected at the time mailed if properly addressed and stamped. If it is so mailed, it is presumed the paper or notice reached the party to be served. However, a party may show by competent evidence that (HE) that party did not receive it or that it had been delayed in transit for an unusual or unreasonable period of time. In case of (SUCH) non-receipt or delay, an allowance shall be made for the party's failure to assert a right within the prescribed time.

The commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) and the chief hearing examiner shall (KEEP A CAREFUL RECORD OF EACH SERVICE INCLUDING THE TIME WHEN MADE) ensure that proof of service of all papers and notices served by their respective agencies is placed in the official file of the case.

Sec. 130. [176.312] [AFFIDAVIT OF PREJUDICE.]

An affidavit of prejudice for cause may be filed by a party to the claim against a compensation judge, in the same manner as an affidavit of prejudice is filed pursuant to law or rule of district court. The filing of an affidavit of prejudice against a compensation judge has the same effect and shall be treated in the same manner as in district court.

Sec. 131. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.321, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FILING, SERVICE.] Within (TWENTY) 20 days after (HE HAS BEEN SERVED WITH A COPY) service of the petition, an adverse party (MAY) shall serve and file (A VERIFIED) an answer to the petition. (WHEN HE FILES THE ANSWER,) The party shall (ALSO) serve a copy of the answer on the petitioner or (HIS) the petitioner's attorney.

(WITHIN FIVE DAYS AFTER HE HAS BEEN SERVED WITH A COPY OF THE ANSWER, THE PETITIONER MAY FILE A VERIFIED REPLY ADMITTING OR DENYING NEW MATTER SET FORTH IN THE ANSWER.)

Sec. 132. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.331, is amended to read:

176.331 [AWARD BY DEFAULT.]

(WHERE) If an adverse party (HAS FAILED) fails to file and serve an answer (, IF) and the petitioner presents proof of (SUCH) this fact, the commissioner or compensation judge (SHALL) may enter whatever award or order to which the petitioner is entitled on the basis of the facts alleged in the petition, but the compensation judge may require proof of an alleged fact. If the commissioner requires (SUCH) proof, (HE) the commissioner shall request the chief hearing examiner to assign the matter to a compensation judge (TO SUMMARILY HEAR AND DETERMINE THE SAME) for an immediate hearing and (TO PROMPTLY MAKE AN) prompt award or other order.

Where in (SUCH) a default case the petition does not state facts sufficient to support an award, the compensation judge shall give the petitioner or (HIS) the petitioner's attorney written notice of this deficiency. The petitioner may thereupon serve and file another petition as in the case of an original petition.

Sec. 133. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.341, is amended to read:

176.341 [HEARING ON PETITION.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME.] (WHEN THE REPLY HAS BEEN FILED OR THE TIME HAS EXPIRED IN WHICH TO FILE A REPLY) Upon receipt of a matter from the commissioner, the chief hearing examiner shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition. The hearing shall be held as soon as practicable and at a time and place determined by the chief hearing examiner to be the most convenient for the parties, keeping in mind the intent of chapter 176 (AS EXPRESSED IN SECTION 176.001) and the requirements of section 176.306.

Subd. 2. [PLACE.] Unless otherwise ordered by the (COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY OR COMPENSATION JUDGE) chief hearing examiner, the hearing shall be held in the county where the injury or death occurred.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE MAILED TO EACH PARTY.] At least (FIVE) 30 days prior to the date of hearing, the (WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVISION) chief hearing examiner shall mail a notice of the time and place of hearing to each interested party. This subdivision does not apply to hearings which have been continued from an earlier date. In those cases, the notice shall be given in a manner deemed appropriate by the chief hearing examiner after considering the particular circumstances in each case.

Sec. 134. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.361, is amended to read:

176.361 [INTERVENTION.]

The commissioner of the department of labor and industry and workers' compensation court of appeals shall adopt rules to govern the procedure for intervention.

Sec. 135. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.371, is amended to read:

176.371 [AWARD OR DISALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION.]

The compensation judge to whom a petition has been assigned for hearing, shall hear all competent, relevant evidence produced at the hearing (, AND, AS SOON AFTER THE HEARING AS POSSIBLE, MAKE FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW,). All questions of fact and law submitted to a compensation judge at the hearing shall be disposed of and the judge's decision shall be filed with the commissioner within 60 days after the submission, unless sickness or casualty prevents a timely filing, or the time is extended by written consent of the parties, or the chief hearing examiner extends the time for good cause. The compensation judge's decision shall include a determination of all contested issues of fact and law and an award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the pleadings, evidence, this chapter and rule require. A compensation judge's decision shall include a memorandum only if necessary to delineate the reasons for the decision or to discuss the credibility of witnesses. A memorandum shall not contain a recitation of the evidence presented at the hearing but shall be limited to the compensation judge's basis for the decision.

No part of the salary of a compensation judge shall be paid unless the chief hearing examiner determines that all decisions of that judge have been issued within the time limit prescribed by this section.

Sec. 136. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF APPEAL.] The appellant or (HIS) the appellant's attorney shall prepare and sign a written notice of appeal specifying:

- (1) the order appealed from;
- (2) that appellant appeals from the order to the workers' compensation court of appeals;

(3) the particular finding of fact or conclusion of law which (HE) the appellant claims was unwarranted by the evidence or procured by fraud, coercion, or other improper conduct; and

((5)) any other ground upon which the appeal is taken.

An appeal initiates the preparation of a typewritten transcript of the entire record unless the appeal is solely from an award of attorney's fees or an award of costs and disbursements or unless otherwise ordered by the court of appeals. On appeals from an award of attorney's fees or an award of costs and disbursements, the appellant must specifically delineate in the notice of appeal the portions of the record to be transcribed in order for the court of appeals to consider the appeal.

Sec. 137. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SERVICE AND FILING OF NOTICE: COST OF TRANSCRIPT.] Within the 30 day period for taking an appeal, the appellant shall:

(1) Serve a copy of the notice of appeal on each adverse party;

(2) File the original notice, with proof of service by admission or affidavit, with the chief hearing examiner and file a copy with the commissioner;

(3) In order to defray the cost of the preparation of the record of the proceedings appealed from, pay to the state treasurer, office of administrative hearings account the sum of $25 (; AND)

((4) SUBMIT A REQUEST THAT THE CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER ORDER THE PREPARATION OF A TRANSCRIPT OF THAT PART OF THE HEARING DELINEATED IN THE NOTICE OF APPEAL).

(A PARTY WHO DESIRES A TRANSCRIPT OF MORE OF THE HEARING THAN HAS BEEN REQUESTED BY THE APPELLANT SHALL, WITHIN FIVE WORKING DAYS OF SERVICE OF THE NOTICE OF APPEAL, MAKE A REQUEST OF THE CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER THAT THE ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY BE TRANSCRIBED.)

The first party (REQUESTING THE PREPARATION OF THE TRANSCRIPT OR ANY PART) to file an appeal is liable for the original cost of preparation of the transcript. Cross-appellants or any other persons requesting a copy of the transcript are liable for the cost of the copy. The cost of a transcript prepared by a non-governmental source shall be paid directly to that source and shall not exceed the cost that the source would be able to charge the state for the same service.

Upon a showing of cause, the chief hearing examiner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the party requesting its preparation, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the office of administrative hearings.

All fees received by the office of administrative hearings for the preparation of the record for submission to the workers' compensation court of appeals or for the cost of transcripts prepared by the office shall be deposited in the office of administrative hearings account in the state treasury and shall be used solely for the purpose of keeping the record of hearings conducted under this chapter and the preparation of transcripts of those hearings.

Sec. 138. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS ON APPEAL.] On an appeal taken under this section, the workers' compensation court of (APPEALS) appeals' review is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of appeal or by a cross-appeal. In these cases, on those issues raised by the appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals may:

- (1) disregard the findings of fact which the compensation judge has made;
- (2) examine the record;
- (3) substitute for the findings of fact made by the compensation judge such findings as the total evidence requires; and,
- (4) make an award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the facts and findings require.

Sec. 139. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS.] At the division's own expense, the commissioner shall make a complete record of all proceedings before (HIMSELF.) the commissioner and shall provide a stenographer or an audio magnetic recording device to make (A) the record of the proceedings (BEFORE HIM).

The commissioner shall furnish a transcript of these proceedings to any person who requests it and who pays a reasonable charge (AND SHALL FIX THE AMOUNT OF THIS CHARGE) which shall be set by the commissioner. Upon a showing of cause, the commissioner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the person requesting the transcript, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the division. Transcript fees received under this subdivision shall be paid to the workers' compensation division account in the state treasury and shall be annually appropriated to the division for the sole purpose of providing a record and transcripts as provided in this subdivision.

Sec. 140. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.442, is amended to read:

176.442 [APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF COMMISSIONER (OF DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY).]

Any decision or determination of the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) affecting a right, privilege, benefit, or duty which is imposed or conferred under this chapter is subject to review by the workers' compensation court of appeals. A person aggrieved by (SUCH) the determination may appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Sec. 141. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.461, is amended to read:

176.461 [SETTING ASIDE AWARD.]

Except (WHERE) when a writ of certiorari has been issued by the supreme court and the matter is still pending in that court or (WHERE) if as a matter of law the determination of the supreme court cannot be subsequently modified, the workers' compensation court of appeals, for cause, at any time after an award, upon application of either party and not less than five working days after written notice to all interested parties, may set the award aside and grant a new hearing and refer the matter for a determination on its merits to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge, who shall make (SUCH) findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order of award or disallowance of compensation or other order (AS) based on the pleadings and the evidence produced and as required by the provisions of this chapter (SHALL REQUIRE) or rules adopted under it.

Sec. 142. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL.] Settlements shall be approved only where the terms conform with this chapter.

The division, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, and the district court shall exercise discretion in approving or disapproving a proposed settlement.

The parties to the agreement of settlement have the burden of proving that the settlement is reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter. A settlement agreement where both the employee or his dependent and the employer or insurer and intervenors in the matter are represented by an attorney shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter except when the settlement purports to be a full, final, and complete settlement of an employee's right to medical compensation under this chapter or rehabilitation under section 176.102. A settlement which purports to do so must be approved by the division, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals.

The conclusive presumption in this subdivision applies to a settlement agreement entered into on or after January 15, 1982, whether the injury to which the settlement applies occurred prior to or on or after January 15, 1982.

Sec. 143. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SETTLEMENTS NOT SUBJECT TO APPROVAL.] When a settled case is not subject to approval, upon receipt of the stipulation for settlement, a compensation judge (OR), a settlement judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall immediately sign the award and file it with the commissioner. Payment pursuant to the award shall be made within 14 days after it is filed with the commissioner. The commissioner may correct mathematical or clerical errors at any time.

Sec. 144. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SETTING ASIDE AWARD UPON SETTLEMENT.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.521, subdivision 1, 2, or 2a, or any provision in the agreement of settlement to the contrary, upon the filing of a petition by any party to the settlement and after a hearing on the petition, the workers' compensation court of appeals may set aside an award made upon a settlement, pursuant to this chapter. In those cases, the workers' compensation court of appeals shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge for hearing.

Sec. 145. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.561, is amended to read:

176.561 [WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS POWERS AND DUTIES AS TO STATE EMPLOYEES; PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING LIABILITY.]

The division, a compensation judge and the workers' compensation court of appeals have the same powers and duties in matters relating to state employees as they have in relation to other employees.

Except as specifically provided otherwise (HEREIN) in this chapter, the procedure for determining the liability of the state for compensation is the same as that applicable in other cases.

Sec. 146. [176.572] [CONTRACT WITH INSURANCE CARRIERS.]

The commissioner may contract with group health insurance carriers or health maintenance organizations to provide health care services and reimburse health care payments for injured state employees entitled to benefits under this chapter.

Sec. 147. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.571, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FORMAL HEARING ON OBJECTIONS.] If the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY SHALL HOLD) determines that a formal hearing on the objections which have been filed to the proposed order (WHERE THE CIRCUMSTANCES WARRANT SUCH) is warranted, the commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for the assignment of a compensation judge who shall hold a hearing. (THE HEARING SHALL BE BEFORE A COMPENSATION JUDGE.)

Sec. 148. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.645, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2, 3a, and 4, and section 176.111, subdivision 5, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on October 1, 1977 or thereafter under this section shall exceed six percent a year. In those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum the increase shall be deemed to be six percent.

Sec. 149. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [MULTIPLE EMPLOYERS OR INSURERS; LIABILITY.] The employer liable for the compensation for a personal injury under this chapter is the employer in whose employment the employee was last exposed to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed. In the event that the employer who is liable for the compensation had multiple insurers during the employee's term of employment, the insurer or self-insurer who was on the risk during the employee's last exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed is the liable party.

Sec. 150. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease shall be 66-2/3 percent of the employee's weekly wage on the date of last exposure of the occupational disease claimed, subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of last exposure provided that the employee shall be immediately eligible for supplementary benefits if that employee's compensation is less than 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 151. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [EMPLOYER RIGHT TO RECOVER.] An employer or insurer who has paid compensation pursuant to this section has a right of subrogation, indemnity, or contribution against an employer or insurer for whom the employee has previously worked during which time the employee was exposed to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed. This right shall be asserted in an action before a compensation judge or may be arbitrated pursuant to section 176.191, subdivisions 5 to 8.

Sec. 152. [176.83] [RULES.]

In addition to any other section under this chapter giving the commissioner the authority to adopt rules, the commissioner may adopt, amend, or repeal rules to implement the provisions of this chapter. The rules shall have the force and effect of law and are binding on a compensation judge, workers' compensation court of appeals, rehabilitation review panel, and the medical services advisory board and shall include but are not limited to:

(a) rules necessary to implement and administer section 176.102, including the establishment of qualifications necessary to be a qualified rehabilitation consultant and the requirements to be an approved registered vendor of rehabilitation services including registration fees to be paid by rehabilitation consultants and approved vendors under section 176.102. Registration fees set by the commissioner shall be set so that the total fees received approximate the amount appropriated for the function, plus the portion of general support costs and statewide indirect costs of the agency that is attributable to the function for which the fee is charged. Subsequent fee adjustments may be made without a public hearing when the total fees estimated to be received during the fiscal biennium will not exceed the sum of all direct appropriations, indirect costs, transfers in, and salary supplements for that purpose for the biennium. The rules may also provide for penalties to be imposed by the commissioner against insurers or self-insured employers who fail to provide rehabilitation consultation to employees pursuant to section 176.102. These rules may also establish criteria regarding "reasonable moving expenses" under the section. The rules may also establish criteria, guidelines, methods, or procedures to be met by an employer or insurer in providing the initial rehabilitation consultation pursuant to this chapter which would permit the initial consultation to be provided by an individual other than a qualified rehabilitation consultant, provided that in absence of such rules this consultation shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter governing rehabilitation consultation;

(b) rules establishing standards for reviewing and evaluating the clinical consequences of services provided by qualified rehabilitation consultants, approved registered vendors of rehabilitation services, and services provided to an employee by health care providers;

(c) rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether or not charges for health services or rehabilitation services rendered under this chapter are excessive. In this regard, the standards and procedures shall be structured to determine what is necessary to encourage providers of health services and rehabilitation services to develop and deliver services for the rehabilitation of injured employees.

The procedures shall include standards for evaluating hospital care, other health care and rehabilitation services to insure that quality hospital, other health care, and rehabilitation is available and is provided to injured employees;

(d) rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether a provider of health care services and rehabilitation services, including a provider of medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital or other services, is performing procedures or providing services at a level or with a frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards.

If it is determined by the commissioner that the level, frequency or cost of a procedure or service of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for the excessive procedure, service, or cost by an insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer. In addition, the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedure, service, or cost from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund, or any government program.

A health or rehabilitation provider who is determined by the commissioner to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level or cost may be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided under chapter 176. A prohibition imposed on a provider under this clause may be grounds for revocation or suspension of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care or rehabilitation service in Minnesota by the appropriate licensing or certifying body.

The rules adopted under this clause shall require insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this clause;

(e) rules establishing procedures and standards for the certification of physicians, chiropractors, podiatrists, and other health-care providers, including rules related to additional training and continuing education, in order to assure the coordination of treatment, rehabilitation, and other services and requirements of chapter 176 for carrying out the purposes and intent of this chapter;

(f) rules necessary for implementing and administering the provisions of sections 176.001, 176.131, 176.132, 176.134, 176.242, 176.243, 176.251, 176.66 to 176.669, and rules regarding proper allocation of compensation under section 176.111 provided that under the rules adopted under section 176.111 a party may petition for a hearing before a compensation judge to determine the proper allocation. In this case the compensation judge may order a different allocation than prescribed by rule;

(g) procedures required for the implementation and administration of section 176.129;

(h) rules to govern the procedure for intervention pursuant to section 176.361;

(i) joint rules with either or both the workers' compensation court of appeals and the chief hearing examiner which may be necessary in order to provide for the orderly processing of claims or petitions made or filed pursuant to chapter 176;

(j) rules establishing criteria to be used by the division, compensation judge, and workers' compensation court of appeals to determine "suitable gainful employment" and "independent contractor"; or

(k) forms and other reporting procedures to be used by an employer, insurer, medical provider, qualified rehabilitation consultant, approved vendor of rehabilitation services, attorney, employee, or other person subject to the provisions of this chapter.

The chief hearing examiner shall adopt rules relating to procedures in matters pending before a compensation judge in the office of administrative hearings.

The commissioner may adopt rules regarding requirements which must be met by individuals who are employed by insurers or self-insurers or claims servicing or adjusting agencies and who work as claims adjusters in the field of workers' compensation insurance.

The commissioner may adopt temporary rules establishing qualifications necessary to be a qualified rehabilitation consultant and penalties to be imposed against qualified rehabilitation consultants or approved vendors who violate this chapter or rules, including temporary rules, adopted under this chapter. In addition to the provisions of sections 14.29 to 14.36, at least one public hearing shall be held prior to the adoption of these temporary rules.

Sec. 153. [176.84] [SPECIFICITY OF NOTICE OR STATEMENT.]

All notices or statements required by this chapter including, but not limited to, notices or statements pursuant to sections 176.102, 176.103, 176.221, 176.241, 176.242, and 176.243, shall be sufficiently specific to convey clearly, without further inquiry, the basis upon which the party issuing the notice or statement is acting. If the commissioner or compensation judge determines that a notice or statement is not sufficiently specific to meet the standard under this section, the notice or statement may be rejected as unacceptable and the party issuing it shall be informed of this. The rejected notice or statement may be amended to meet the requirement of this section or a new one may be filed.

Sec. 154. [176.85] [PENALTIES; APPEALS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPEAL PROCEDURE.] If the commissioner has assessed a penalty against a party subject to this chapter and the party believes the penalty is not warranted, the party may request that a formal hearing be held on the matter. Upon a request for a hearing the commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge or hearing examiner.

The chief hearing examiner shall keep a record of the proceeding and provide a record pursuant to section 176.421.

The decision of the compensation judge or hearing examiner shall be final and shall be binding and enforceable. The decision may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] This section does not apply to penalties for which another appeal procedure is provided, including but not limited to penalties imposed pursuant to sections 176.102 or 176.103.

Subd. 3. [HEARING COSTS.] For purposes of this section, a hearing before a hearing examiner shall be treated in the same manner as a hearing before a compensation judge and no costs may be charged to the commissioner for the hearing, regardless of who hears it.

Sec. 155. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which he is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of his weekly benefit amount in the form of

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, the employer may allocate such lump sum payment over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided any such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of work but not to exceed 28 calendar days; or

(2) vacation allowance paid directly by the employer for a period of requested vacation, including vacation periods assigned by the employer under the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, or uniform vacation shutdown; or

(3) compensation for loss of wages under the workers' compensation law of this state or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, or under other insurance or fund established and paid for by the employer except that this does not apply to an individual who is receiving temporary partial compensation pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3j; or

(4) 50 percent of the pension payments from any fund, annuity or insurance maintained or contributed to by a base period employer including the armed forces of the United States if the employee contributed to the fund, annuity or insurance and all of the pension payments if the employee did not contribute to the fund, annuity or insurance; or

(5) 50 percent of a primary insurance benefit under Title II of the social security act as amended, or similar old age benefits under any act of congress or this state or any other state.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration; provided, further, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the federal government finally determines that he is not entitled to such benefits, this provision shall not apply.

Sec. 156. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 471.982, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The commissioner of insurance is authorized to (PROMULGATE) adopt administrative rules, including emergency rules pursuant to sections 14.01 to 14.70. These rules may provide standards or guidelines governing the formation, operation, administration, dissolution of self insurance pools, and other reasonable requirements to further the purpose of this section (AND). In developing the rules under this section, the commissioner shall (AT A MINIMUM REQUIRE) consider the following:

(a). The requirements for self-insuring pools of political subdivisions shall be no more restrictive and may be less restrictive than the requirements for self-insuring pools of private employers;

(b) All participants in the pool are jointly and severally liable for all claims and expenses of the pool;

((B)) (c) Each pool shall contract with a service company licensed by the commissioner to provide or contract for all administrative services required by the pool. No vendor of risk management services or entity administering a self insurance plan under this section may transact such business in this state unless it is licensed to do so by the commissioner. An applicant for a license shall state in writing the type of activities it seeks authorization to engage in and the type of services it seeks authorization to provide. The license shall be granted only when the commissioner is satisfied that the entity possesses the necessary organization, background, expertise, and financial integrity to supply the services sought to be offered. The commissioner may issue a license subject to restrictions or limitations upon the authorization, including the type of services which may be supplied or the activities which may be engaged in. The license fee shall be $100. All licenses shall be for a period of two years;

((C)) (d) The service company has sole responsibility for the settlement of all claims against the pool or its members for which the pool may provide indemnification;

((D)) (e) A minimum premium volume for each pool shall be established. The minimum premium volume may differ because of the kinds of coverage provided, and the limits of liability for the coverage;

((E)) (f) All premiums or other assessments due to the pool from members shall be payable prior to the period for which coverage is being provided, or at equal intervals throughout the period;

((F)) (g) Premiums shall (EITHER) be (ESTABLISHED BY AN ACTUARY APPROVED BY THE COMMISSIONER OR SHALL BE PREMIUMS FILED BY A LICENSED RATE SERVICE ORGANIZATION WITH REDUCTIONS PERMITTED SOLELY FOR ADMINISTRATIVE OR PREMIUM TAX SAVINGS) neither excessive, inadequate, nor unfairly discriminatory;

((G)) (h) The commissioner may require each pool to purchase excess insurance above certain limits and in a particular form. The limits or form of the excess insurance may differ based on the kinds of coverage offered by a pool, the limits of liability of the coverage, and the revenues available to pool members for the payment of premiums or assessments;

((H)) (i) Each pool shall be audited annually by a certified public accountant;

((I)) (j) Whether limitations on the payment of dividends to pool members (MAY BE ESTABLISHED AS) are necessary to assure the solvency of the pool in view of the taxing and levying authority of political subdivisions;

((J)) (k) No participant may withdraw from a pool for a period of at least three years after its initial entry into the pool;

((K)) (l) The amount of any liabilities in excess of assets shall be assessed to members of the pool within 30 days after a deficiency is identified and shall be payable by the member within 90 days;

((L)) (m) The investment policies of the pool shall be governed by the laws governing investments by cities pursuant to section 475.66;

((M)) (n) Pools shall be subject to the standards of unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices established in chapter 72A;

((N)) (o) Other requirements that are necessary to protect the solvency of the pool, the rights and privileges of claimants against the pool, and citizens of the members of the pool shall be included in the rules.

Sec. 157. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 471.982, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. The rules adopted pursuant to subdivision 2 shall not apply to self insurance pools established and open for enrollment on a statewide basis by the Minnesota league of cities insurance trust, the Minnesota school boards association insurance trust or the Minnesota association of counties insurance trust.

Sec. 158. [CITY OF DULUTH; GROUP WORKER'S COMPENSATION SELF INSURANCE POOLS.]

Subdivision 1. A member may withdraw only after it has reimbursed the pool for the amounts for which it is obligated under the terms of the agreement.

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL OF COMMISSIONER.] *A pool formed pursuant to this section shall not be effective or begin operation until it has been approved by the commissioner of insurance in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 471.982. Section 471.982 and any applicable rules adopted pursuant to it shall apply to any pool formed pursuant to this section. "Remove" or "removal" includes, but is not limited to, security fencing or other measures to limit access, provision of alternative water supplies, temporary evacuation and housing of threatened individuals not otherwise provided for, action taken pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(b), and any emergency assistance which may be provided under the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, 42 U.S.C. Section 5121 et seq.

Subd. 18. [RESPOND OR RESPONSE.] "Respond" or "response" means remove, removal, remedy, and remedial action.

Subd. 19. [WATER.] "Water" has the meaning given to the term "waters of the state" in section 115.01, subdivision 9.

Sec. 3. [115B.03] [RESPONSIBLE PERSON.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 20, and except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3, a person is responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, from a facility if the person:

(a) Owned or operated the facility: (1) when the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, was placed or came to be located in or on the facility; (2) when the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, was located in or on the facility but before the release; or (3) during the time of the release or threatened release;

(b) Owned or possessed the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, and arranged, by contract, agreement or otherwise, for the disposal, treatment or transport for disposal or treatment of the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant; or

(c) Knew or reasonably should have known that waste he accepted for transport to a disposal or treatment facility contained a hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, and either selected the facility to which it was transported or disposed of it in a manner contrary to law.

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEES AND EMPLOYERS.] When a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in subdivision 1 is an employee who is acting in the scope of his employment:

(a) The employee is subject to liability under section 4 or 5 only if his conduct with respect to the hazardous substance was negligent under circumstances in which he knew that the substance was hazardous and that his conduct, if negligent, could result in serious harm.

(b) His employer shall be considered a person responsible for the release or threatened release and is subject to liability under section 4 or 5 regardless of the degree of care exercised by the employee.

Subd. 3. [OWNER OF REAL PROPERTY.] An owner of real property is not a person responsible for the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility in or on the property unless that person:

(a) was engaged in the business of generating, transporting, storing, treating, or disposing of a hazardous substance at the facility or disposing of waste at the facility, or knowingly permitted others to engage in such a business at the facility;

(b) knowingly permitted any person to make regular use of the facility for disposal of waste;

(c) knowingly permitted any person to use the facility for disposal of a hazardous substance;

(d) knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility at the time right, title, or interest in the property was first acquired by the person and engaged in conduct by which he associated himself with the release; or

(e) took action which significantly contributed to the release after he knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility.

For the purpose of clause (d), a written warranty, representation, or undertaking, which is set forth in an instrument conveying any right, title or interest in the real property and which is executed by the person conveying the right, title or interest, or which is set forth in any memorandum of any such instrument executed for the purpose of recording, is admissible as evidence of whether the person acquiring any right, title, or interest in the real property knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility.

Any liability which accrues to an owner of real property under sections 1 to 15 does not accrue to any other person who is not an owner of the real property merely because the other person holds some right, title, or interest in the real property.

An owner of real property on which a public utility easement is located is not a responsible person with respect to any release caused by any act or omission of the public utility which holds the easement in carrying out the specific use for which the easement was granted.

Sec. 4. [115B.04] [LIABILITY FOR RESPONSE COSTS AND NATURAL RESOURCES; LIMITATIONS AND DEFENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions 2 to 12, and notwithstanding any other provision or rule of law, any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility is strictly liable, jointly and severally, for the following response costs and damages which result from the release or threatened release or to which the release or threatened release significantly contributes:

(a) All reasonable and necessary response costs incurred by the state, a political subdivision of the state or the United States;

(b) All reasonable and necessary removal costs incurred by any person; and

(c) All damages for any injury to, destruction of, or loss of natural resources, including the reasonable costs of assessing such injury, destruction, or loss.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT EXCLUDED.] There is no liability under this section for response costs or damages which result from the release of a pollutant or contaminant.

Subd. 3. [LIABILITY FOR A THREATENED RELEASE.] Liability under this section for a threatened release of a hazardous substance is limited to the recovery by the agency of reasonable and necessary response costs as provided in section 17, subdivision 6.

Subd. 4. [LIABILITY OF POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] The liability of a political subdivision under this section is subject to the limits imposed under section 466.04, subdivision 1.

Subd. 5. [TRANSPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD REFUSE.] A person who accepts only household refuse for transport to a treatment or disposal facility is not liable under this section for the release or threatened release of any hazardous substance unless he knew or reasonably should have known that the hazardous substance was present in the refuse. For the purpose of this subdivision, household refuse means garbage, trash, or septic tank sanitary wastes generated by single or multiple residences, hotels, motels, restaurants and other similar facilities.

Subd. 6. [DEFENSE TO CERTAIN CLAIMS BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS AND PRIVATE PERSONS.] It is a defense to a claim by a political subdivision or private person for recovery of the costs of its response actions under this section that the hazardous substance released from the facility was placed or came to be located in or on the facility before April 1, 1982, and that the response actions of the political subdivision or private person were not authorized by the agency as provided in section 17, subdivision 12. This defense applies only to response costs incurred on or after July 1, 1983.

Subd. 7. [DEFENSE FOR INTERVENING ACTS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the release or threatened release was caused solely by:

- (a) An act of God;*

- (d) An act or omission of a third party or the plaintiff.*

“Third party” for the purposes of clause (d) does not include an employee or agent of the defendant, or a person in the chain of responsibility for the generation, transportation, storage, treatment, or disposal of the hazardous substance.

The defenses provided in clauses (c) and (d) apply only if the defendant establishes that he exercised due care with respect to the hazardous substance concerned, taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous substance in light of all relevant facts and circumstances which he knew or should have known, and that he took precautions against foreseeable acts or omissions and the consequences that could foreseeably result from those acts or omissions.

Subd. 8. [INTERVENING ACTS OF PUBLIC AGENCIES.] When the agency or the federal environmental protection agency assumes control over any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance by taking removal actions at the site of the release, the persons responsible for the release are not liable under sections 1 to 15 for any subsequent release of the hazardous substance from another facility to which it has been removed.

Subd. 9. [RELEASES SUBJECT TO CERTAIN PERMITS OR STANDARDS; FEDERAL POST-CLOSURE FUND.] It is a defense to liability under this section that:

- (a) The release or threatened release was from a hazardous waste facility as defined under section 115A.03, for which a permit had been issued pursuant to section 116.07 or pursuant to subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section*

6921 et seq., the hazardous substance was specifically identified in the permit, and the release was within the limits allowed in the permit for release of that substance;

(b) The hazardous substance released was specifically identified in a federal or state permit and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit;

(c) The release resulted from circumstances identified and reviewed and made a part of the public record of a federal or state agency with respect to a permit issued or modified under federal or state law, and the release conformed with the permit;

(d) The release was any part of an emission or discharge into the air or water and the emission or discharge was subject to a federal or state permit and was in compliance with control rules or regulations adopted pursuant to state or federal law;

(f) Liability has been assumed by the federal post-closure liability fund under 42 U.S.C. Section 9607(k).

Subd. 10. [NATURAL RESOURCES.] It is a defense to liability under this section, for any injury to, destruction of, or loss of natural resources that:

(a) The natural resources were specifically identified as an irreversible and irretrievable commitment of natural resources in an approved final state or federal environmental impact statement, or other comparable approved final environmental analysis for a project or facility which was the subject of a governmental permit or license; and

(b) The project or facility was being operated within the terms of its permit or license.

Subd. 11. [RENDERING ASSISTANCE IN RESPONSE ACTIONS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the response costs or damages resulted from acts taken or omitted in preparation for, or in the course of rendering care, assistance, or advice to the director or agency pursuant to section 17 or in accordance with the national hazardous substance response plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605, or at the direction of an on-scene coordinator appointed under that plan, with respect to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance.

Subd. 12. [BURDEN OF PROOF FOR DEFENSES.] Any person claiming a defense provided in subdivisions 6 to 11 has the burden to prove all elements of the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 5. [115B.05] [LIABILITY FOR ECONOMIC LOSS, DEATH, PERSONAL INJURY AND DISEASE; LIMITATIONS AND DEFENSES.]

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT EXCLUDED.] There is no liability under this section for damages which result from the release of a pollutant or contaminant.

Subd. 3. [CERTAIN EMPLOYEE CLAIMS NOT COVERED.] Except for a third party who is subject to liability under section 176.061, subdivision 5, there is no liability under this section for the death, personal injury or disease of an employee which is compensable under chapter 176 as an injury or disease arising out of and in the course of employment.

Subd. 4. [LIABILITY LIMITATIONS.] The liability of a political subdivision under this section is subject to the limits imposed under section 466.04, subdivision 1.

Subd. 5. [TRANSPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD REFUSE.] A person who accepts only household refuse for transport to a treatment or disposal facility is not liable under this section for the release or threatened release of any hazardous substance unless he knew or reasonably should have known that the hazardous substance was present in the refuse. For the purpose of this subdivision, household refuse means garbage, trash, or septic tank sanitary wastes generated by single or multiple residences, hotels, motels, restaurants and other similar facilities.

Subd. 6. [DEFENSE FOR INTERVENING ACTS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the release or threatened release was caused solely by:

- (a) An act of God;*
- (b) An act of war;*
- (c) An act of vandalism or sabotage; or*
- (d) An act or omission of a third party or the plaintiff.*

"Third party" for the purposes of clause (d) does not include an employee or agent of the defendant, or a person in the chain of responsibility for the generation, transportation, storage, treatment, or disposal of the hazardous substance.

The defenses provided in clauses (c) and (d) apply only if the defendant establishes that he exercised due care with respect to the hazardous substance concerned, taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous substance in light of all relevant facts and circumstances which he knew or should have known, and that he took precautions against foreseeable acts or omissions and the consequences that could foreseeably result from those acts or omissions.

Subd. 7. [INTERVENING ACTS OF PUBLIC AGENCIES.] When the agency or the federal environmental protection agency assumes control over any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance by taking removal actions at the site of the release, the persons responsible for the release are not liable under sections 1 to 15 for any subsequent release of the hazardous substance from another facility to which it has been removed.

Subd. 8. [RELEASES SUBJECT TO CERTAIN PERMITS OR STANDARDS; FEDERAL POST-CLOSURE FUND.] It is a defense to liability under this section that:

(a) The release or threatened release was from a hazardous waste facility as defined under section 115A.03, for which a permit had been issued pursuant to section 116.07 or pursuant to subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq., the hazardous substance was specifically identified in the permit, and the release was within the limits allowed in the permit for release of that substance;

(b) The hazardous substance released was specifically identified in a federal or state permit and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit;

(c) The release resulted from circumstances identified and reviewed and made a part of the public record of a federal or state agency with respect to a permit issued or modified under federal or state law, and the release conformed with the permit;

(d) The release was any part of an emission or discharge into the air or water and the emission or discharge was subject to a federal or state permit and was in compliance with control rules or regulations adopted pursuant to state or federal law;

(e) The release was the introduction of any hazardous substance into a publicly owned treatment works and the substance was specified in, and is in compliance with, applicable pretreatment standards specified for that substance under state and federal law; or

(f) Liability has been assumed by the federal post-closure liability fund under 42 U.S.C. Section 9607(k).

Subd. 9. [RENDERING ASSISTANCE IN RESPONSE ACTIONS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the damages resulted from acts taken or omitted in preparation for, or in the course of rendering care, assistance, or advice to the director or agency pursuant to section 17 or in accordance with the national hazardous substance response plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605, or at the direction of an on-scene coordinator appointed under that plan, with respect to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance.

Subd. 10. [BURDEN OF PROOF FOR DEFENSES.] Any person claiming a defense provided in subdivisions 6 to 9 has the burden to prove all elements of the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 6. [115B.06] [APPLICATION TO PAST ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION OF SECTION 5 AND ADDITIONAL DEFENSE.] (a) A defendant in an action under section 5 has the additional defense provided in subdivision 2 for damages caused or significantly contributed to by the release of a hazardous substance from a facility if the defendant shows that the substance was placed or came to be located in or on the facility wholly before January 1, 1973.

(b) Section 5 does not apply to any claim for damages arising out of the release of a hazardous substance which was placed or came to be located in or on the facility wholly before January 1, 1960.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL DEFENSE.] For a defendant who has made the showing required in subdivision 1, clause (a), it is a defense to liability under section 5 that the activity by which the substance was kept, placed, or came to be located in or on the facility was not an abnormally dangerous activity. The determination of whether the activity was an abnormally dangerous activity shall be made by the court.

Sec. 7. [115B.07] [CAUSATION.]

In any action brought under section 5 or any other law to recover damages for death, personal injury, or disease arising out of the release of a hazardous substance, the court may not direct a verdict against the plaintiff on the issue of causation if the plaintiff produces evidence sufficient to enable a reasonable person to find that:

(a) the defendant is a person who is responsible for the release;

(b) the plaintiff was exposed to the hazardous substance;

(c) the release could reasonably have resulted in plaintiff's exposure to the substance in the amount and duration experienced by the plaintiff; and

(d) the death, injury, or disease suffered by the plaintiff is caused or significantly contributed to by exposure to the hazardous substance in an amount and duration experienced by the plaintiff.

Evidence to a reasonable medical certainty that exposure to the hazardous substance caused or significantly contributed to the death, injury, or disease is not required for the question of causation to be submitted to the trier of fact.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve the plaintiff of the burden of proving that the defendant is a person who is responsible for the release and of proving the causal connection between the release of the hazardous substance for which the defendant is a responsible person and the plaintiff's death, injury, or disease.

Sec. 8. [115B.08] [LIABILITY UNDER SECTION 4; APPORTIONMENT AND CONTRIBUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [RIGHT OF APPORTIONMENT; FACTORS.] Any person held jointly and severally liable under section 4 has the right at trial to have the trier of fact apportion liability among the parties as provided in this section. The burden is on each defendant to show how his liability should be apportioned. The court shall reduce the amount of damages in proportion to any amount of liability apportioned to the party recovering.

In apportioning the liability of any party under this section, the trier of fact shall consider the following:

(a) The extent to which that party's contribution to the release of a hazardous substance can be distinguished;

(b) The amount of hazardous substance involved;

(c) The degree of toxicity of the hazardous substance involved;

(d) The degree of involvement of and care exercised by the party in manufacturing, treating, transporting, and disposing of the hazardous substance;

(e) The degree of cooperation by the party with federal, state, or local officials to prevent any harm to the public health or the environment; and

(f) Knowledge by the party of the hazardous nature of the substance.

Subd. 2. [CONTRIBUTION.] If a person is held jointly and severally liable under section 4 and establishes his proportionate share of the aggregate liability, the provisions of section 604.02, subdivisions 1 and 2, shall apply with respect to contribution and reallocation of any uncollectible amounts.

Sec. 9. [115B.09] [LIABILITY UNDER SECTION 5; COMPARATIVE FAULT AND CONTRIBUTION.]

The provisions of sections 604.01, 604.02, subdivisions 1 and 2, apply to any action for damages under section 5, except that, if the percentage of fault attributable to a defendant is determined under section 604.01, the liability of the defendant shall be limited to two times that percentage of the damages recoverable in the action.

Sec. 10. [115B.10] [NO AVOIDANCE OF LIABILITY; INSURANCE AND SUBROGATION.]

An owner or operator of a facility or any other person who may be liable under sections 1 to 15 may not avoid that liability by means of any conveyance of any right, title, or interest in real property, or by any indemnification, hold harmless agreement, or similar agreement. Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) To prohibit any party who may be liable under sections 1 to 15 from entering an agreement by which that party is insured, held harmless or indemnified for part or all of that liability;

(b) To prohibit the enforcement of any insurance, hold harmless or indemnification agreement; or

(c) To bar any cause of action brought by a party who may be liable under sections 1 to 15 or by an insurer or guarantor, whether by right of subrogation or otherwise.

Sec. 11. [115B.11] [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.]

No person may recover pursuant to sections 1 to 15 unless the action is commenced within six years from the date when the cause of action accrues. In determining when the cause of action accrues for an action to recover damages for death, personal injury or disease, the court shall consider factors including the following:

(a) When the plaintiff discovered the injury or loss;

(b) Whether a personal injury or disease had sufficiently manifested itself; and

(c) When the plaintiff discovered, or using due diligence should have discovered, a causal connection between the injury, disease, or loss and the release of a hazardous substance.

Sec. 12. [115B.12] [OTHER REMEDIES PRESERVED.]

Nothing in sections 1 to 15 shall be construed to abolish or diminish any remedy or affect the right of any person to bring a legal action or use any remedy available under any other provision of state or federal law, including common law, to recover for personal injury, disease, economic loss or response costs arising out of a release of any hazardous substance, or for removal or the costs of removal of that hazardous substance. Nothing in sections 1 to 15 shall be construed to limit or restrict in any way the liability of any person under any other state or federal law, including common law, for loss due to personal injury or disease, for economic loss, or for response costs arising out of any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility regardless of the time at which a hazardous substance was placed or came to be located in or on the facility. The provisions of sections 1 to 15 shall not be considered, interpreted, or construed in any way as reflecting a determination, in whole or in part, of policy regarding the inapplicability of strict liability, or strict liability doctrines under any other state or federal law, including common law, to activities past, present or future, relating to hazardous substances, or pollutants or contaminants, or other similar activities.

Sec. 13. [115B.13] [DOUBLE RECOVERY PROHIBITED.]

A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 15 may not recover the same costs or damages pursuant to any other law. A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to any other state or federal law may not recover for the same costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 15.

Sec. 14. [115B.14] [AWARD OF COSTS.]

Upon motion of a party prevailing in an action under sections 1 to 15 the court may award costs, disbursements and reasonable attorney fees and witness fees to that party.

Sec. 15. [115B.15] [APPLICATION OF SECTIONS 1 TO 14.]

Sections 1 to 14 apply to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance occurring on or after July 1, 1983, including any release which began before July 1, 1983, and continued after that date. Sections 1 to 14 do not apply to a release or threatened release which occurred wholly before July 1, 1983, regardless of the date of discovery of any injury or loss caused by the release or threatened release.

Sec. 16. [115B.16] [DISPOSITION OF FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CLOSED DISPOSAL FACILITIES; USE OF PROPERTY.] No person shall use any property on or in which hazardous waste remains after closure of a disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, in any way that disturbs the integrity of the final cover, liners, or any other components of any containment system, or the function of the disposal facility's monitoring systems, unless the agency finds that the disturbance:

(a) Is necessary to the proposed use of the property, and will not increase the potential hazard to human health or the environment; or

(b) Is necessary to reduce a threat to human health or the environment.

Subd. 2. [RECORDING OF AFFIDAVIT.] Before any transfer of ownership of any property which the owner knew or should have known was used as the site of a hazardous waste disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, or which the owner knew or should have known is subject to extensive contamination by release of a hazardous substance, the owner shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located an affidavit containing a legal description of the property that discloses to any potential transferee:

(a) That the land has been used to dispose of hazardous waste or that the land is contaminated by a release of a hazardous substance;

(b) The identity, quantity, location, condition and circumstances of the disposal or contamination to the full extent known or reasonably ascertainable; and

(c) That the use of the property or some portion of it may be restricted as provided in subdivision 1.

An owner must also file an affidavit within 60 days after any material change in any matter required to be disclosed under clauses (a) to (c) with respect to property for which an affidavit has already been recorded.

If the owner or any subsequent owner of the property removes the hazardous substance, together with any residues, liner, and contaminated underlying and surrounding soil, that owner may record an affidavit indicating the removal of the hazardous substance.

Failure to record an affidavit as provided in this subdivision does not affect or prevent any transfer of ownership of the property.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF COUNTY RECORDER.] The county recorder shall record all affidavits presented to him in accordance with subdivision 2. The affidavits shall be recorded in a manner which will assure their disclosure in the ordinary course of a title search of the subject property.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] (a) Any person who knowingly violates the provisions of subdivision 1 is subject to a civil penalty in an amount determined by the court of not more than $100,000, and shall be liable under sections 4 and 5 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance resulting from the violation.

(b) Any person who knowingly fails to record an affidavit as required by subdivision 2 shall be liable under sections 4 and 5 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance from a facility located on that property.

(c) A civil penalty may be imposed and recovered by an action brought by a county attorney or by the attorney general in the district court of the county in which the property is located.

(d) Any civil fines recovered under this subdivision shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 17. [115B.17] [STATE RESPONSE TO RELEASES.]

Subdivision 1. [REMOVAL AND REMEDIAL ACTION.]
Whenever there is a release or substantial threat of release from a facility of any pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare or the environment or whenever a hazardous substance is released or there is a threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility:

(a) The agency may take any removal or remedial action relating to the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, which the agency deems necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the agency shall:

(1) Request any responsible party known to the agency to take actions which the agency deems reasonable and necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment, stating the reasons for the actions; a reasonable time for beginning and completing the actions taking into account the urgency of the actions for protecting the public health or welfare or the environment, and the intention of the agency to take action if the requested actions are not taken as requested;

(2) Notify the owner of real property where the facility is located or where response actions are proposed to be taken, if the owner is not a responsible party, that responsible parties have been requested to take response actions and that the owner's cooperation will be required in order for responsible parties or the agency to take those actions; and

(3) Determine that the actions requested by the agency will not be taken by any known responsible party in the manner and within the time requested.

(b) The director may take removal action which he deems necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment if the director determines that the release or threatened release constitutes an emergency requiring immediate action to prevent, minimize or mitigate damage to the public health or welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the director shall make reasonable efforts in light of the urgency of the action to follow the procedure provided in clause (a).

No removal action taken by any person shall be construed as an admission of liability for a release or threatened release.

Subd. 2. [OTHER ACTIONS.] Whenever the agency or director is authorized to act pursuant to subdivision 1 or whenever the agency or director has reason to believe that a release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, has occurred or is about to occur, or that illness, disease, or complaints thereof may be attributable to exposure to a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, the agency or director may undertake investigations, monitoring, surveys, testing, and other similar activities necessary or appropriate to identify the existence and extent of the release or threat thereof, the source and nature of the hazardous substances, or pollutants or contaminants, and the extent of danger to the public health or welfare or the environment. In addition, the agency may undertake planning, legal, fiscal, economic, engineering, architectural, and other studies or investigations necessary or appropriate to plan and direct a response action, to recover the costs of the response action, and to enforce the provisions of sections 1 to 18.

Subd. 3. [DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION] Any person who the agency has reason to believe is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in section 3, or who is the owner of real property where the release or threatened release is located or where response actions are proposed to be taken, when requested by the agency, or any member, employee or agent thereof who is authorized by the agency, shall furnish to the agency any information which he may have or may reasonably obtain which is relevant to the release or threatened release.

Subd. 4. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] The agency or any member, employee or agent thereof authorized by the agency, upon presentation of credentials, may:

(a) Examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda or data of any person who has a duty to provide information to the agency under subdivision 3; and

(b) Enter upon any property, public or private, for the purpose of taking any action authorized by this section including obtaining information from any person who has a duty to provide the information under subdivision 3, conducting surveys or investigations, and taking removal or remedial action.

Subd. 5. [CLASSIFICATION OF DATA.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, data obtained from any person pursuant to subdivision 3 or 4 is public data as defined in section 13.02. Upon certification by the subject of the data that the data relates to sales figures, processes or methods of production unique to that person, or information which would tend to affect adversely the competitive position of that person, the director shall classify the data as private or nonpublic data as defined in section 13.02. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, data classified as private or nonpublic under this subdivision may be disclosed when relevant in any proceeding under sections 1 to 18, or to other public agencies concerned with the implementation of sections 1 to 18.

Subd. 6. [RECOVERY OF EXPENSES.] Any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the agency or director pursuant to this section, including all response costs, and administrative and legal expenses, may be recovered in a civil action brought by the attorney general against any person who may be liable under section 4 or any other law. The agency's certification of expenses shall be prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. Any expenses incurred pursuant to this section which are recovered by the attorney general pursuant to section 4 or any other law, including any award of attorneys fees, shall be deposited in the fund and credited to a special account for additional response actions as provided in section 20, subdivision 2, clause (b) or (d).

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS RELATING TO NATURAL RESOURCES.] For the purpose of this subdivision, the state is the trustee of the air, water and wildlife of the state. An action pursuant to section 4 for damages with respect to air, water or wildlife may be brought by the attorney general in the name of the state as trustee for those natural resources. Any damages recovered by the attorney general pursuant to section 4 or any other law for injury to, destruction of, or loss of natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, shall be deposited in the fund and credited to a special account for the purposes provided in section 20, subdivision 2, clause (f).

Subd. 8. [ACTIONS RELATING TO PESTICIDES OR FERTILIZER OR SOIL OR PLANT AMENDMENTS.] When the commissioner of agriculture has reported an incident involving the release of pesticides under the provisions of section 18A.37 or the release of fertilizers or soil or plant amendments, and the agency determines that the incident constitutes a release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, the agency shall authorize the commissioner, subject to the provisions of subdivision 13, to take any action which the agency would be authorized to take under subdivisions 1 to 4. Subject to the provisions of section 20, subdivision 3, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 6.

Subd. 9. [ACTIONS RELATING TO OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH.] The agency, director and the commissioner of labor and industry shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate any actions taken under this section and under sections 182.65 to 182.674 to avoid duplication or conflict of actions or requirements with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the safety of any conditions or place of employment.

Subd. 10. [ACTIONS RELATING TO HEALTH.] The agency and director shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate and consult with the commissioner of health in planning and directing response actions with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the public health. If the commissioner of health, upon the request of the agency, takes any actions authorized under this section, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 6.

Subd. 11. [LIMIT ON ACTIONS BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] When the agency or director has requested a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release to take any response action under subdivision 1, no political subdivision shall request or order that person to take any action which conflicts with the action requested by the agency or director.

Subd. 12. [AUTHORIZATION OF CERTAIN RESPONSE ACTIONS.] For the purpose of permitting a political subdivision or private person to recover response costs as provided in section 4, subdivision 6, the agency may authorize the political subdivision to take removal or remedial actions or may authorize the private person to take removal actions with respect to any release of a hazardous substance which was placed or came to be located in the facility before April 1, 1982. The authorization shall be based on application of the criteria in the rules of the agency adopted under subdivision 13 or, if the rules have not been adopted, under the criteria set forth in subdivision 13 on which the rules are required to be based. The authorization shall not be inconsistent with the criteria. This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit a political subdivision or private person from taking removal or remedial actions without the authorization of the agency.

Subd. 13. [PRIORITIES; RULES.] By November 1, 1983, the agency shall establish a temporary list of priorities among releases or threatened releases for the purpose of taking remedial action and, to the extent practicable consistent with the urgency of the action, for taking removal action under this section. The temporary list, with any necessary modifications, shall remain in effect until the agency adopts rules establishing state criteria for determining priorities among releases and threatened releases. The agency shall adopt the rules by July 1, 1984. After rules are adopted, a permanent priority list shall be established, and may be modified from time to time, according to the criteria set forth in the rules. Before any list is established under this subdivision the agency shall publish the list in the state register and allow 30 days for comments on the list by the public.

The temporary list and the rules required by this subdivision shall be based upon the relative risk or danger to public health or welfare or the environment, taking into account to the extent possible the population at risk, the hazardous potential of the hazardous substances at the facilities, the potential for contamination of drinking water supplies, the potential for direct human contact, the potential for destruction of sensitive ecosystems, the administrative and financial capabilities of the agency, and other appropriate factors.

Sec. 18. [115B.18] [FAILURE TO TAKE REQUESTED ACTIONS; CIVIL PENALTIES; ACTION TO COMPEL PERFORMANCE; INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.]

Subdivision 1. [CIVIL PENALTIES.] Any person responsible for a release or threatened release from a facility of a pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare or the environment or for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil penalty in an amount to be determined by the court of not more than $20,000 per day for each day that the person fails to take reasonable and necessary response actions or to make reasonable progress in completing response actions requested as provided in subdivision 3.

The penalty provided under this subdivision may be recovered by an action brought by the attorney general in the name of the state in connection with an action to recover expenses of the agency under section 17, subdivision 6, or by a separate action in the district court of Ramsey County. All penalties recovered under this subdivision shall be deposited in the fund.

Subd. 2. [ACTION TO COMPEL PERFORMANCE.] When any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release from a facility of a pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare or the environment or for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility, fails to take response actions or to make reasonable progress in completing response actions requested as provided in subdivision 3, the attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state to compel performance of the requested response actions. If any person having any right, title, or interest in and to the real property where the facility is located or where response actions are proposed to be taken is not a person responsible for the release or threatened release, the person may be joined as an indispensable party in an action to compel performance in order to assure that the requested response actions can be taken on that property by the responsible parties.

Subd. 3. [REQUESTS FOR RESPONSE ACTIONS.] A request for emergency removal action shall be made by the director. Other requests for response actions shall be made by the agency. A request shall be in writing, shall state the action requested, the reasons for the action, and a reasonable time by which the action must be begun and completed taking into account the urgency of the action for protection of the public health or welfare or the environment.

Subd. 4. [INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.] The release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, shall constitute a public nuisance and may be enjoined in an action, in the name of the state, brought by the attorney general.

Sec. 19. [115B.19] [PURPOSES OF FUND AND TAXES.]

In establishing the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund in section 20 and imposing taxes in section 22 it is the purpose of the legislature to:

(a) Encourage treatment and disposal of hazardous waste in a manner that adequately protects the public health or welfare or the environment;

(b) Encourage responsible parties to provide the response actions necessary to protect the public and the environment from the effects of the release of hazardous substances;

(c) Encourage the use of alternatives to land disposal of hazardous waste including resource recovery, recycling, neutralization, and reduction;

(d) Provide state agencies with the financial resources needed to prepare and implement an effective and timely state response to the release of hazardous substances, including investigation, planning, removal and remedial action;

(e) Compensate for increased governmental expenses and loss of revenue and to provide other appropriate assistance to mitigate any adverse impact on communities in which commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities are located under the siting process provided in chapter 115A;

(f) Recognize the environmental and public health costs of land disposal of solid waste and of the use and disposal of hazardous substances and to place the burden of financing state hazardous waste management activities on those whose products and services contribute to hazardous waste management problems and increase the risks of harm to the public and the environment.

Sec. 20. [115B.20] [ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSE, COMPENSATION AND COMPLIANCE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The environmental response, compensation and compliance fund is created as an account in the state treasury and may be spent only for the purposes provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSES FOR WHICH MONEY MAY BE SPENT.] Subject to appropriation by the legislature the money in the fund may be spent for any of the following purposes:

(a) Preparation by the agency for taking removal or remedial action under section 17, including investigation, monitoring and testing activities, enforcement and compliance efforts relating to the release of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants under section 17 or 18;

(b) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 17, including related enforcement and compliance efforts under section 17 or 18, and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to facilities other than commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(c) Reimbursement to any private person for expenditures made before July 1, 1983 to provide alternative water supplies deemed necessary by the agency and the department of health to protect the public health from contamination resulting from the release of a hazardous substance;

(d) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 17 including related enforcement and compliance efforts under section 17 or 18, and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(e) Compensation as provided by law, after submission by the waste management board of the report required under section 115A.08, subdivision 5, to mitigate any adverse impact of the location of commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities located pursuant to the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(f) Planning and implementation by the commissioner of natural resources of the rehabilitation, restoration or acquisition of natural resources to remedy injuries or losses to natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance;

(g) Inspection, monitoring and compliance efforts by the agency, or by political subdivisions with agency approval, of commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(h) Grants by the agency or the waste management board to demonstrate alternatives to land disposal of hazardous waste including reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing and resource recovery, for education of persons involved in regulating and handling hazardous waste;

(i) Intervention and environmental mediation by the legislative commission on waste management under chapter 115A; and

(j) Grants by the agency to study the extent of contamination and feasibility of cleanup of hazardous substances and pollutants or contaminants in major waterways of the state.

Subd. 3. [LIMIT ON CERTAIN EXPENDITURES.] The director or agency may not spend any money under subdivision 2, clause (b) or (d) for removal or remedial actions to the extent that the costs of those actions may be compensated from any fund established under the Federal Superfund Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9600 et seq. The director or agency shall determine the extent to which any of the costs of those actions may be compensated under the federal act based on the likelihood that the compensation will be available in a timely fashion. In making this determination the director or agency shall take into account:

(a) The urgency of the removal or remedial actions and the priority assigned under the Federal Superfund Act to the release which necessitates those actions;

(b) The availability of money in the funds established under the Federal Superfund Act; and

(c) The consistency of any compensation for the cost of the proposed actions under the Federal Superfund Act with the national contingency plan, if such a plan has been adopted under that act.

Subd. 4. [REVENUE SOURCES.] Revenue from the following sources shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund:

(a) The proceeds of the taxes imposed pursuant to section 22, including interest and penalties;

(b) All money recovered by the state under sections 1 to 18 or under any other statute or rule related to the regulation of hazardous waste or hazardous substances, including civil penalties and money paid under any agreement, stipulation or settlement but excluding fees imposed under section 25;

(c) All interest attributable to investment of money deposited in the fund; and

(d) All money received in the form of gifts, grants, reimbursement or appropriation from any source for any of the purposes provided in subdivision 2, except federal grants.

Subd. 5. [RECOMMENDATION BY LCWM.] The legislative commission on waste management shall make recommendations to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations regarding appropriations from the fund.

Subd. 6. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] By November 1, 1984, and each year thereafter, the agency shall submit to the senate finance committee, the house appropriations committee and the legislative commission on waste management a report detailing the activities for which money from the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund has been spent during the previous fiscal year.

Sec. 21. [115B.21] [TAXES; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The definitions provided in this section and section 2 apply to sections 21 to 24.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [GENERATOR.] "Generator" means a person who generates hazardous waste and who is required to disclose the generation of hazardous waste under the hazardous waste rules of the agency adopted under section 116.07.

Subd. 4. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT.] "Long term containment" means land disposal or storage for a period of more than one year.

Subd. 5. [TREATMENT.] "Treatment" means any material, technique or process designed to change the physical, chemical or biological character or composition of a hazardous waste in order to: (a) neutralize it; (b) render it nonhazardous or less hazardous; (c) render it safer to transport, store or dispose of; (d) make it amenable to storage; or (e) reduce its volume.

Subd. 6. [WASTEWATER TREATMENT UNIT.] "Wastewater treatment unit" means a device which is part of a wastewater treatment facility subject to regulation pursuant to the federal Clean Water Act under 33 U.S.C. Section 1317 (b) or 1342.

Sec. 22. [115B.22] [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES IMPOSED; EXCLUSIONS.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay the taxes imposed by this section based upon the volume and destination of the hazardous wastes generated. The taxes imposed by this section do not apply to hazardous wastes destined for recycling or reuse including waste accumulated, stored, or physically, chemically, or biologically treated before recycling or reuse, to used crankcase oil, to hazardous waste which is generated as a result of any response action, or to hazardous waste which meets applicable pretreatment standards or compliance schedules and is discharged to a public sewage treatment works.

Subd. 2. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT WITHOUT TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment without treatment shall be taxed at the rate of $2 cents per gallon of liquid or $32 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 3. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT AFTER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment after treatment shall be taxed at the rate of 16 cents per gallon of liquid or $16 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 4. [LAND TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for treatment in or on the land shall be taxed at the rate of $32 per cubic yard.

Subd. 5. [OTHER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for treatment, other than as provided in subdivision 6, to produce a material which is not hazardous, including treatment permitted by the agency in a sewage treatment works, or hazardous waste which is destined for destructive treatment by incineration shall be taxed at the rate of eight cents per gallon of liquid or $8 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 6. [ON-SITE WASTEWATER TREATMENT.] The tax imposed under this section does not apply to hazardous waste which is destined for treatment in an on-site wastewater treatment unit to produce a material which is not hazardous before entering a public sewer system or waters of the state but the tax does apply to any residue of treatment which is a hazardous waste.

Subd. 7. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of the taxes imposed under this section including any interest and penalties shall be deposited in the fund.

Subd. 8. [REVIEW OF TAX BY LCWM.] After the waste management board submits the plan required under section 115A.11 to the legislative commission on waste management, the commission shall review the taxes and tax rates imposed under this section in light of the objectives and recommendations of the plan, and shall recommend to the standing tax committees of both houses of the legislature any changes in the taxes or tax rates which are needed to assist or encourage implementation of the strategies adopted by the state for management of hazardous waste.

Sec. 23. [115B.23] [SEVERABILITY.]

If any tax imposed under section 22 is found to be invalid because of the purpose for which the proceeds were appropriated or made available under section 20, subdivision 2, the proceeds of that tax shall not be appropriated or available for the objectionable purposes, but the tax shall continue to be imposed and the proceeds shall be appropriated and made available for other purposes provided in section 20, subdivision 2.

Sec. 24. [115B.24] [TAX ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL RETURNS.] Every generator of hazardous waste subject to taxation pursuant to section 22 shall file a return relating to the tax due for the preceding calendar year with the commissioner of revenue by April 15 each year, in the form prescribed by the commissioner. Payment of the tax, to the extent not paid in full pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3, shall be submitted with the return.

Subd. 2. [DECLARATIONS OF ESTIMATED TAX.] For 1983, every generator of hazardous waste required to pay a tax pursuant to section 22 shall make a declaration of estimated hazardous waste generated for the last six months of calendar 1983 if the tax can reasonably be estimated to exceed $500. The declaration of the estimated tax shall be filed by October 15, 1983. The amount of estimated tax with respect to which a declaration is required shall be paid in two equal installments by October 15, 1983 and January 15, 1984. For 1984 and subsequent years, every generator of hazardous waste required to pay a tax pursuant to section 22 shall make a declaration of estimated hazardous waste generated for the calendar year if the tax can reasonably be expected to be in excess of $1,000. The declaration of estimated tax shall be filed by March 15. The amount of estimated tax with respect to which a declaration is required shall be paid in four equal installments on or before the 15th day of March, June, September, and December.

An amendment of a declaration may be filed in any interval between installment dates prescribed above but only one amendment may be filed in each interval. If an amendment of a declaration is filed, the amount of each remaining installment shall be the amount which would have been payable if the new estimate had been made when the first estimate for the calendar year was made, increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the amount computed by dividing

(1) the difference between (A) the amount of estimated tax required to be paid before the date on which the amendment was made, and (B) the amount of estimated tax which would have been required to be paid before that date if the new estimate had been made when the first estimate was made, by

(2) the number of installments remaining to be paid on or after the date on which the amendment is made.

The commissioner of revenue may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing any declaration but the extension shall not be for more than six months.

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO PAY ESTIMATED TAX.] (a) In case of any underpayment of estimated tax required by this section, except as provided in clause (b), there shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75, subdivision 4, upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment.

For purposes of this subdivision, the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of

- (1) the amount of the installment, over
- (2) the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier:

- (1) April 15, or
- (2) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which the portion is paid. For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent the payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under this subdivision for the installment date.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (a), the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of the installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before that date if the estimated tax were the lesser of:

(1) For 1985 and thereafter, the tax shown on the return of the taxpayer for the preceding year or, for 1984, twice the amount of the tax shown for 1983; or

(2) Eighty percent of the actual liability for the year.

Subd. 4. [REFUNDS OF OVERPAYMENTS OF ESTIMATED TAX.] Refunds of overpayments of estimated tax shall be made as provided in section 290.936.

Subd. 5. [EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 116.075, the pollution control agency may provide the commissioner of revenue with the information necessary for the enforcement of section 22 and this section. Information disclosed in a return filed pursuant to this section is public. Information exchanged between the commissioner and the agency is public unless the information is of the type determined to be for the confidential use of the agency pursuant to section 116.075 or is trade secret information classified pursuant to section 13.37. Information obtained in the course of an audit of the taxpayer by the department of revenue shall be nonpublic or private data to the extent that it is not directly divulged in a return of the tax.

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT BY OUT-OF-STATE GENERATORS.] A generator of any hazardous waste which is generated outside of this state and is transported into this state for long term containment or treatment as described in section 22, subdivisions 2 to 5 shall pay the tax imposed by section 22 at the first point at which the hazardous wastes are received by a person in this state for storage, treatment or long term containment. The tax shall be paid to the person who first receives the wastes in this state at the time the waste is received and shall be remitted by that person to the commissioner of revenue quarterly in the form and manner provided by the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF THE AGENCY AND METROPOLITAN COUNTIES.] The agency shall provide to the commissioner the names and addresses of all persons known to the agency who are subject to tax under section 22, together with any information which the agency possesses concerning the amount of hazardous waste generated and disposed of by those persons. Metropolitan counties required to regulate hazardous wastes under section 473.811, subdivision 5b, shall provide to the agency the data and information necessary to allow the agency to carry out its duties under this subdivision. Upon request by the commissioner, the agency shall examine returns and reports filed with the commissioner and notify the commissioner of any suspected inaccurate or fraudulent declaration or return. The agency may assist in auditing any person subject to tax under section 22 when requested by the commissioner.

Subd. 8. [PENALTIES; ENFORCEMENT.] The audit, penalty and enforcement provisions applicable to taxes imposed under chapter 290 apply to the taxes imposed under section 22 and those provisions shall be administered by the commissioner.

Subd. 9. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement the provisions of this section and section 22.

Subd. 10. [ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.] Any amount expended by the commissioner from a general fund appropriation to enforce and administer section 22 and this section shall be reimbursed to the general fund and the amount necessary to make the reimbursement is appropriated from the fund to the commissioner of finance for transfer to the general fund.

Sec. 25. [116.12] [HAZARDOUS WASTE ADMINISTRATION FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [FEE SCHEDULES.] The agency shall establish the fees provided in subdivisions 2 and 3 in the manner provided in section 16A.128 to cover the amount appropriated from the general fund to the agency for that year for permitting, monitoring, inspection and enforcement expenses of the hazardous waste activities of the agency.

The legislature may appropriate additional amounts that need not be covered by fees or may provide that the fees shall cover only a portion of the general fund appropriation for the hazardous waste activities of the agency, in order to assure adequate funding for the regulatory and enforcement functions of the agency related to hazardous waste. All fees collected by the agency under this section shall be deposited in the general fund.

Subd. 2. [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR FEE.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay a fee on the hazardous waste which he generates. The agency shall compute the amount of the fee due based on the hazardous waste disclosures submitted by the generators and other information available to the agency. The agency shall annually prepare a statement of the amount of the fee due from each generator. The fee shall be paid annually commencing with the first day of the calendar quarter after the date of the statement.

The agency may exempt generators of small quantities of hazardous wastes otherwise subject to the fee if it finds that the cost of administering a fee on those generators is excessive relative to the proceeds of the fee. The fee shall consist of a minimum fee for each generator not exempted by the agency and an additional fee based on the quantity of wastes generated by the generator.

If any metropolitan counties recover the costs of administering county hazardous waste regulations by charging fees, the fees charged by the agency outside of those counties shall not exceed the fees charged by those counties. The agency shall not charge a fee in any metropolitan county which charges such a fee. The agency shall impose a fee calculated as a surcharge on the fees charged by the metropolitan counties and by the agency to reflect the agency's expenses in carrying out its statewide hazardous waste regulatory responsibilities. The surcharge imposed on the fees charged by the metropolitan counties shall be collected by the metropolitan counties in the manner in which the counties collect their generator fees. Metropolitan counties shall remit the proceeds of the surcharge to the agency by the last day of the month following the month in which they were collected.

Subd. 3. [FACILITY FEES.] The agency shall charge an original permit fee, a reissuance fee and an annual operator's fee for any hazardous waste facility regulated by the agency. The agency may include reasonable and necessary costs of any environmental review required under chapter 116D in the original permit fee for any hazardous waste facility.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE.] (EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBDIVISION 2,) By December 15, 1982, on the basis of and consistent with its hazardous waste management plan adopted under section 115A.11, the board shall issue a certificate or certificates of need for disposal facilities for hazardous wastes in the state. The certificate or certificates shall indicate the types and volumes of waste for which disposal facilities are and will be needed through the year 2000 and the number, types, sizes, general design and operating specifications, and function or use of the disposal facilities needed in the state. The board shall certify need only to the extent that the board has determined that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives including waste reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing, and resource recovery which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources, provided that the board shall require the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility in the state. Economic considerations alone shall not justify certification nor the rejection of alternatives. Alternatives that are speculative and conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. The board shall consider all technologies being developed in other countries as well as in the United States when it considers the alternatives to hazardous waste disposal. The certificate or certificates shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 14 but shall be the final determination required on the matters decided by the certificate or certificates and shall have the force and effect of law. The certificate or certificates shall not be amended for five years. The board and the permitting agencies, in reviewing and selecting sites, completing environmental impact statements, and issuing approvals and permits for waste disposal facilities described in the certificate or certificates of need, shall not reconsider matters determined in the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of facilities consistent with the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility for hazardous waste in the state.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 466.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. For the purposes of sections 466.01 to 466.15, "release" and "hazardous substance" have the meanings given in section 2.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 466.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITS; PUNITIVE DAMAGES.] Liability of any municipality on any claim within the scope of sections 466.01 to 466.15 shall not exceed

(a) $100,000 when the claim is one for death by wrongful act or omission and $100,000 to any claimant in any other case;

(b) $300,000 for any number of claims arising out of a single occurrence (.);

(c) Twice the limits provided in clauses (a) and (b), but not less than $300,000 per claim, when the claim arises out of the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, whether the claim is brought under sections 1 to 15 or under any other law.

No award for damages on any such claim shall include punitive damages.

Sec. 29. [RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNING ALLOCATION OF LIABILITY.]

The waste management board shall make recommendations to the legislature by November 1, 1983 regarding the allocation of liability among the owners, operators, and users of a hazardous waste disposal facility established pursuant to sections 115A.18 to 115A.30, including any recommended legislative changes, taking into consideration the need for the facility, the state's involvement in the facility, the need to protect the health, property and environment of the local community from injury and loss, and the need for incentives to encourage the development and use of alternatives to land disposal. The recommendations shall be made after consultation with affected industries, including insurers, generators, transporters, disposers, and treaters of hazardous waste, individuals, including academic, scientific and legal professionals, and groups, including community and environmental groups.

Sec. 30. [VICTIM COMPENSATION STUDY.]

By July 1, 1984, the legislative commission on waste management shall conduct a study and make recommendations to the legislature on the creation of a compensation fund to compensate persons who are injured as the result of a release of a hazardous substance and who would not otherwise be adequately compensated for their injuries. The study shall consider matters including the following:

(a) The appropriate scope of compensation which should be provided by the fund including the extent of any compensation which should be available for medical expenses, disability, loss of income, physical impairment, and death;

(b) Creation of a simple, speedy, and cost efficient claims procedure which provides an effective remedy for injured claimants;

(c) Methods by which compensation can be financed by those who create or contribute to the risk of injury from hazardous substance releases, including the manner by which the state may seek to recover amounts paid from the fund; and

(d) Whether the fund should be established or administered at the federal or state level and the appropriate degree of state and federal cooperation in providing compensation.

Sec. 31. [INSURANCE STUDY.]

The commissioner of insurance shall conduct a study of insurance providing coverage for liability under section 5. The commissioner shall submit the results of the study, together with his recommendations, to the legislature by July 1, 1985. The director of the pollution control agency shall cooperate with and provide assistance to the commissioner during the course of the study.

Sec. 32. [APPROPRIATION; COMPLEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION TO FUND.] $5,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund and transferred to the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund established in section 20. This appropriation is available until expended.

Subd. 2. [TAX ADMINISTRATION; COMPLEMENT.] $50,000 in fiscal year 1984 and $40,000 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for the purposes of administering and enforcing sections 21 to 24. This appropriation shall be reimbursed to the general fund under the provisions of section 24, subdivision 10.

The complement of the department of revenue is increased by two positions.

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATION FOR RESPONSE ACTIONS; COMPLEMENT.] $483,700 in fiscal year 1984 and $400,700 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund to the pollution control agency for administrative costs.

The complement of the pollution control agency is increased by ten positions.

All money in the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund not otherwise appropriated is appropriated to the pollution control agency for the purposes described in section 20, subdivision 2, clauses (a), (b), and (c). This appropriation is available until June 30, 1985.

Subd. 4. In addition, the plan of self-insurance must have participating employers fund an amount at least equal to the point at which the excess or stop-loss insurer must assume 100 percent of additional liability. A joint self-insurance plan must submit its proposed excess or stop-loss insurance contract to the commissioner of insurance at least 30 days prior to the proposed plan's effective date and at least 30 days subsequent to any renewal date. The commissioner shall review the contract to determine if they meet the standards established by this act and respond within a 30-day period. Any excess or stop-loss insurance plan must be non-cancellable for a minimum term of two years.

Sec. 3. [62H.03] [MARKETING, RISK MANAGEMENT, OR ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES.]

No joint self-insurance plan may offer marketing, risk management, or administrative service unless these services are provided by vendors duly licensed by the commissioner to provide these services. No vendor of these services may be a trustee of any joint self-insurance plan for which they provide marketing, risk management, or administrative services.

Sec. 4. [62H.04] [COMPLIANCE WITH OTHER LAWS.]

A joint self-insurance plan shall be subject to the requirements of chapter 62A and sections 72A.17 to 72A.35 unless otherwise specifically exempt. A joint self-insurance plan must not offer less than a number two qualified plan or its actuarial equivalent.

Sec. 5. [62H.05] [MANAGEMENT OF FUNDS.]

Funds collected from the participating employers under joint self-insurance plans must be held in trust subject to the following requirements:

(a) A board of trustees elected by participating employers shall serve as fund managers on behalf of participants. Trustees must be plan participants. No participating employer may be represented by more than one trustee. A minimum of three and a maximum of seven trustees may be elected. Trustees shall receive no remuneration, but they may be reimbursed for actual and reasonable expenses incurred in connection with duties as trustees.

(b) Trustees shall be bonded in an amount not less than $100,000 or no more than $500,000 from a licensed bonding company.

(c) Investment of plan funds is subject to the same restrictions as are applicable to political subdivisions pursuant to section 475.66. All investments must be managed by a bank or other investment organization licensed to operate in Minnesota.

(d) Trustees, on behalf of the fund, shall file annual reports with the commissioner of insurance within 30 days immediately following the end of each calendar year. The reports must summarize the financial condition of the fund, itemize collection from participating employers, and detail all fund expenditures.

Sec. 6. [62H.06] [REGULATION OF PLANS BY COMMISSIONER.]

The commissioner of insurance shall promulgate rules, including temporary rules, to insure the solvency and operation of all self insured plans subject to this chapter. The commissioner may examine the joint self-insurance plans pursuant to sections 60A.03 and 60A.031.

Sec. 7. [62H.07] [REVENUE FEE.]

A joint self-insurance plan shall pay a two percent revenue fee. This revenue must be computed based on two percent of the paid claims level for the most recently completed calendar year. This revenue must be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 8. [62H.08] [EXEMPT PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT ALLOWED.] In computing the net income of individuals, an amount determined pursuant to subdivision 2 or 3 is allowed as a deduction.

Subd. 2. [ITEMIZED DEDUCTIONS.] Subject to the provisions of section 290.18, subdivision 1, an amount equal to the amount determined pursuant to section 63(f) of the Internal Revenue Code is allowed with the following adjustments:

(a) Add the amount paid to others not to exceed $500 for each dependent in grades K to 6 and $700 for each dependent in grades 7 to 12, for tuition, textbooks, and transportation of each dependent in attending an elementary or secondary school situated in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, or Wisconsin, wherein a resident of this state may legally fulfill the state's compulsory attendance laws, which is not operated for profit, and which adheres to the provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and chapter 363. As used in this clause, "textbooks" includes books and other instructional materials and equipment used in elementary and secondary schools in teaching only those subjects legally and commonly taught in public elementary and secondary schools in this state. "Textbooks" does not include instructional books and materials used in the teaching of religious tenets, doctrines, or worship, the purpose of which is to instill such tenets, doctrines, or worship, nor does it include books or materials for, or transportation to, extracurricular activities including sporting events, musical or dramatic events, speech activities, driver's education, or similar programs;

(b) Add the amount of foreign income taxes which were paid or accrued during the taxable year and for which no deduction was allowed for federal purposes under section 275 of the Internal Revenue Code because the taxpayer chose to claim the federal foreign tax credit;

(c) Add the amount by which the deduction for the taxable year allowed pursuant to subdivision 4 exceeds the amount determined pursuant to section 222 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(d) Subtract income taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year under this chapter;

(e) Subtract income taxes paid to any other state or to any province or territory of Canada if a credit is allowed for the taxes under section 290.081;

(f) If the deduction computed under section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code is not reduced by the amount of the credit or refund allowed under chapter 290A, subtract that amount;

(g) Subtract the amount of interest on investment indebtedness paid or accrued in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981, which has been carried forward and is allowed as a deduction in the taxable year under section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 3. [STANDARD DEDUCTION.] In lieu of the deductions provided in subdivision 2, an individual may claim or be allowed a standard deduction as follows:

(a) Subject to modification pursuant to clause (b), the standard deduction shall be an amount equal to ten percent of the adjusted gross income of the taxpayer, up to a maximum deduction of $2,250.

In the case of a husband and wife, the standard deduction shall not be allowed to either if the net income of one of the spouses is determined without regard to the standard deduction.

(b) The maximum amount of the standard deduction shall be adjusted for inflation in the same manner as provided in section 290.06, subdivision 2d, for the expansion of the taxable net income brackets.

(c) The commissioner of revenue may establish a standard deduction tax table incorporating the rates set forth in section 290.06, subdivision 2c, and the standard deduction. The tax of any individual taxpayer whose adjusted gross income is less than $20,000 shall, if an election is made not to itemize nonbusiness deductions, be computed in accordance with tables prepared and issued by the commissioner of revenue. The tables shall be prepared to reflect the allowance of the standard deduction and the personal and dependent credits.

Subd. 4. [ADOPTION EXPENSES.] An individual taxpayer is allowed a deduction for the expenses incurred during the taxable year arising from the adoption of one or more children, including attorney fees, court costs, social or adoption agency fees, and other necessary costs in connection with an adoption; the total expense, however, shall not exceed $1,500 per child adopted. If under the taxpayer's system of accounting, the expense is deductible in two different taxable years, the total deduction for the two years shall not exceed $1,500 per child.

Subd. 5. [COMPUTATION OF MINNESOTA DEDUCTIONS.] An individual who does not itemize deductions for federal purposes but does itemize deductions for Minnesota purposes shall compute that person's deductions for Minnesota as if that person had itemized their deductions for federal purposes under the provisions of subdivision 2. The individual shall be allowed as an itemized deduction for Minnesota the charitable contributions claimed as a deduction for federal purposes under the provisions of section 170(i) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 6. [SEPARATE RETURNS ON SINGLE FORM.] In the case of a husband and wife who filed a joint federal income tax return but filed separate Minnesota income tax returns, the amount of the itemized deductions that shall be allowed shall be the same amount that was allowed on their joint federal income tax return and as modified by subdivision 2. The deductions shall be divided between them based on who incurred and paid the amount which qualifies as a deduction. Amounts which qualify as a deduction and which are paid from joint funds may be divided between the spouses as they elect.

Subd. 7. [INTERNAL REVENUE CODE.] The Internal Revenue Code referred to in any of the subdivisions of this section means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through March 12, 1983.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CONTRIBUTIONS TO POLITICAL PARTIES AND CANDIDATES.] (IN LIEU OF THE DEDUCTION PROVIDED BY SECTION 290.21, SUBDIVISION 3, CLAUSE (E).) A taxpayer may take a credit against the tax due under this chapter of 50 percent of his contributions to candidates for elective state or federal public office and to any political party. The maximum credit for an individual shall not exceed $50 and, for a married couple filing jointly or filing a combined return, shall not exceed $100. No credit shall be allowed under this subdivision for a contribution to any candidate, other than a candidate for elective judicial office or federal office, who has not signed an agreement to limit his campaign expenditures as provided in section 10A.32, subdivision 3b. For purposes of this subdivision, a political party means a major political party as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7.

This credit shall be allowed only if the contribution is verified in the manner the commissioner of revenue shall prescribe.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [RESIDENTIAL ENERGY CREDIT.] A credit of 20 percent of the first $10,000 of renewable energy source expenditures, including the expenditures described in clauses (a), (b) and (d) if made by an individual taxpayer on a Minnesota building of six dwelling units or less and expenditures for biomass conversion equipment described in clause (c), may be deducted from the tax due under this chapter for the taxable year in which the expenditures were made. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "building" shall include a condominium or townhouse used by the taxpayer as a residence. In the case of qualifying expenditures incurred in connection with a building under construction by a contractor, the credit shall be deducted from the tax liability of the first individual to purchase the building for use as a principal residence or for residential rental purposes; the contractor shall not be eligible for the credit given pursuant to this subdivision for that expenditure.

A "renewable energy source expenditure" which qualifies shall include:

(a) Expenditures which qualify for the federal renewable energy source credit, pursuant to Section 44C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, provided that, after December 31, 1980, any solar collector included in the claimed expenditure is certified by the commissioner of energy, planning and development. A solar collector is a device designed to absorb incident solar radiation, convert it to thermal energy, and transfer the thermal energy to a fluid passing through or in contact with the device. "Solar collector" shall not include passive solar energy systems as defined in clause (d);

(b) Expenditures for earth sheltered dwelling units. For purposes of this credit, an "earth sheltered dwelling unit" shall mean a structure which complies with applicable building standards and which is constructed so that:

(1) 80 percent or more of the roof area is covered with a minimum depth of 12 inches of earth; and

(2) 50 percent or more of the wall area is covered with a minimum depth of 12 inches of earth; and

(3) Those portions of the structure not insulated with a minimum of seven feet of earth shall have additional insulation;

(c) Expenditures for biomass conversion equipment located in Minnesota which produces ethanol, methane or methanol for use as a gaseous or as a liquid fuel which is not offered for sale; and

(d) Expenditures for passive solar energy systems. For purposes of this credit, a "passive solar energy system" is defined to include systems which utilize elements of the building and its operable components to heat or cool a building with the sun's energy by means of conduction, convection, radiation, or evaporation. A passive system shall include:

(1) Collection aperture, including glazing installed in south facing walls and roofs; and

(2) Storage element, including thermal mass in the form of water, masonry, rock, concrete, or other mediums which is designed to store heat collected from solar radiation.

A passive system may include either or both:

(1) Control and distribution element, including fans, louvers, and air ducts; or

(2) Retention element, including movable insulation used to minimize heat loss caused by nocturnal radiation through areas used for direct solar heat gain during daylight hours.

Eligible passive expenditures shall be for equipment, materials or devices that are an integral part of the components listed above and essential to the functioning of a passive design which qualifies pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner of revenue in cooperation with the commissioner of energy, planning and development. Expenditures for equipment, materials, or devices which are a part of the normal heating, cooling, or insulation system of a building are not eligible for the credit.

If a credit was allowed to a taxpayer under this subdivision for any prior taxable year, the dollar amount of the maximum expenditure for which a taxpayer may qualify for a credit under this subdivision in subsequent years shall be $10,000 reduced by the amount of expenditures which a credit was claimed pursuant to this subdivision in prior years. A taxpayer shall never be allowed to claim more than $10,000 of expenditures during the duration of the renewable energy credit.

The credit provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed in a taxable year if the amount of the credit would be less than $10.

If the credit allowable under this subdivision exceeds the amount of tax due in a taxable year, the excess credit shall not be refunded but may be carried forward to the succeeding taxable year and added to the credit allowable for that year. No amount may be carried forward to a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1987.

A shareholder in a family farm corporation and each partner in a partnership operating a family farm shall be eligible for the credit provided by this subdivision in the same manner and to the same extent allowed a joint owner of property under section 44C (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. "Family farm corporation" and "family farm" have the meanings given in section 500.24.

The credit provided in this subdivision is subject to the provisions of Section 44C, (c) (7) and (10), and (d) (1) to (3), (AND (E),) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

The commissioner of revenue in cooperation with the commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules establishing additional qualifications and definitions for the credits provided in this subdivision.

Notwithstanding section 290.61, the commissioner of revenue may request the commissioner of energy, planning and development to assist in the review and auditing of the information furnished by the taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit. The provisions of section 290.61 shall apply to employees of the department of energy, planning and development who receive information furnished by a taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit.

The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules establishing the criteria for certification of solar collectors as required by clause (a). The criteria shall:

- (1) Specify the testing procedures to be used in the evaluation of solar collectors;
- (2) Establish minimum levels of collector quality for safety;
- (3) Provide a means to determine the maintainability and structural integrity of solar collectors;
- (4) Establish a system for evaluating and rating the thermal performance of solar collectors;
- (5) Specify the procedures to follow to obtain certification of a solar collector;

(6) Conform to the maximum extent practicable to the solar collector certification requirements of other states which have adopted certification procedures; and

(7) Allow for individual variation so as not to hamper the development of innovative solar collectors.

The commissioner of energy, planning and development may adopt temporary rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36 to establish this certification procedure.

This subdivision is effective for expenditures made during taxable years beginning after December 31, 1978 and before January 1, 1986.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.067, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 29. [DEDUCTIONS ATTRIBUTABLE TO FARMING.] (a) [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this subdivision, income and gains and expenses and losses shall be considered as "arising from a farm" if such items are received or incurred in connection with cultivating the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, including horses for horse racing, bees, poultry, and fur-bearing animals and wild-life, and all operations incident thereto, including but not limited to the common use of "hedging".

(b) [DEDUCTIONS LIMITED.] Except as provided in this subdivision, expenses and losses, except for interest and taxes, arising from a farm shall not be allowed as deductions in excess of income and gains arising from a farm.

(c) [DEDUCTIONS ALLOWED; CARRYOVER DEDUCTIONS.] Expenses and losses arising from a farm or farms shall be allowed as deductions up to the amount of the income and gains arising from a farm or farms in any taxable year, plus the first ($15,000) $30,000 of non-farm gross income, or non-farm taxable net income in the case of a corporation, provided however that in any case where non-farm income exceeds ($15,000) $30,000, the maximum allowable amount of ($15,000) $30,000 shall be reduced by (TWICE THE) an amount (BY WHICH) equal to the non-farm income (EXCEEDS THE AMOUNT) in excess of ($15,000) $30,000 multiplied by three. For this purpose and for the purpose of applying the limitation in the following paragraph regarding the application of any carryback or carryforward, the term gross income shall include the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and no deduction shall be allowed for two-earner married couples as provided in section 221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. Any remaining balance of the deductions shall be carried back three years and carried forward five years, in chronological order, provided, however, that in any case in which any individual, estate or trust which elects a net operating loss carryforward under section 172(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, such losses shall not be carried back but shall only be carried forward.

Current expenses and losses shall be utilized as deductions in any taxable year, to the extent herein allowable, prior to the application of any carryback or carryover deductions. In any event, the combined amounts of such current expenses and losses and carryback or carryover deductions shall be allowed as deductions up to the amount of the income and gains arising from a farm or farms in any taxable year, plus the first ($15,000) $30,000 of non-farm gross income, or non-farm taxable net income in the case of a corporation, provided however that in any case where non-farm income exceeds ($15,000) $30,000, the maximum allowable amount of ($15,000) $30,000 shall be reduced by (TWICE THE) an amount (BY WHICH) equal to the non-farm income (EXCEEDS THE AMOUNT) in excess of ($15,000) $30,000 multiplied by three.

(d) [SHAREHOLDERS SEPARATE ENTITIES.] For purposes of this subdivision, individual shareholders of an electing small business corporation shall be considered separate entities.

(e) [SPECIAL PERIOD OF LIMITATION WITH RESPECT TO FARM LOSS LIMITATION CARRYBACKS.] For the purposes of sections 290.46 and 290.50, if the claim for refund relates to an overpayment attributable to a farm loss limitation carryback under this subdivision, in lieu of the period of limitation prescribed in sections 290.46 and 290.50, the period of limitation shall be that period which ends with the expiration of the 15th day of the 46th month (or the 45th month, in the case of a corporation) following the end of the taxable year of the farm loss which results in the carryback.

(f) [INTEREST ON CLAIMS.] In any case in which a taxpayer is entitled to a refund in a carryback year due to the carryback of a farm loss, interest shall be computed only from the end of the taxable year in which the loss occurs.

(g) [ORDER OF APPLICATION.] The application of this subdivision shall be made after applying any limitation to out of state losses contained in section 290.17.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.091, is amended to read:

290.091 [MINIMUM TAX ON PREFERENCE ITEMS.]

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981. For purposes of the tax imposed by this section, the following modifications shall be made:

(1) Capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years.

(2) In the case of a corporate taxpayer, percentage depletion shall not be a preference item.

(3) In the case of a corporate taxpayer, the capital gain preference item shall not include the timber preference income defined in section 57(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) The preference item of reserves for losses on bad debts shall not include reserves allowable under section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code, but which are not allowable under section 290.09, subdivision 6, clause (c).

(5) (IN THE CASE OF AN INDIVIDUAL, THE PREFERENCE ITEM OF ADJUSTED ITEMIZED DEDUCTIONS DOES NOT INCLUDE ANY DEDUCTION FOR CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMITATIONS CONTAINED IN SECTION 290.21, SUBDIVISION 3, INCLUDING ANY CARRYOVER AMOUNT ALLOWED FOR FEDERAL PURPOSES.)

((6)) The capital gain preference item shall be reduced where the gain would be modified because some or all of the assets have a higher basis for Minnesota purposes than for federal purposes.

((7)) (6) In the case of a nonresident individual, or an estate or trust, with a net operating loss that is a larger amount for Minnesota than for federal, the capital gain preference item shall be reduced to the extent it was reduced in the allowance of the net operating loss.

In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes.

The tax benefit rule contained in section 58(h) of the Internal Revenue Code is applied to the Minnesota minimum tax only to the extent that it determines if there is a federal minimum tax. No separate tax benefit rule is allowable for the Minnesota minimum tax.

For property placed in service after December 31, 1980, the preference items contained in section 57(a)(12) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall not apply.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.14, is amended to read:

290.14 [GAIN OR LOSS ON DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY, BASIS.]

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired on or after January 1, 1933, shall be the cost to the taxpayer of such property, with the following exceptions:

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, it shall be the last inventory value thereof;

(2) If the property was acquired by gift, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the last preceding owner not acquiring it by gift; if the facts required for this determination cannot be ascertained, it shall be the fair market value as of the date, or approximate date, of acquisition by the last preceding owner, as nearly as the requisite facts can be ascertained by the commissioner;

(3) If the property was acquired by gift through an inter vivos transfer in trust, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the grantor;

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this clause, the basis of property in the hands of a person acquiring the property from a decedent or to whom the property passed from a decedent shall, if not sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of before the decedent's death by the person, be the fair market value of the property at the date of decedent's death or, in the case of an election under section 2032 (relating to alternate valuation) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, its valuation at the applicable valuation date prescribed by that section, or in the case of an election under section 2032A (relating to valuation of farm real property) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, its value determined by that section.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the following property shall be considered to have been acquired from or to have passed from the decedent:

(a) Property acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance, or by the decedent's estate from the decedent;

(b) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent, with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to revoke the trust;

(c) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to make any change in the enjoyment thereof through the exercise of a power to alter, amend, or terminate the trust;

(d) Property passing without full and adequate consideration under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent by will;

(e) In the case of a decedent's dying after December 31, 1956, property acquired from the decedent by reason of death, form of ownership, or other conditions (including property acquired through the exercise or non-exercise of a power of appointment), if by reason thereof the property is required to be included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate for Minnesota inheritance or estate tax purposes. In this case, if the property is acquired before the death of the decedent, the basis shall be the amount determined under the first paragraph of this clause reduced by the amount allowed to the taxpayer as deductions in computing taxable net income under this chapter or prior Minnesota income tax laws for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion on the property before the death of the decedent. The basis shall be applicable to the property commencing on the death of the decedent. This paragraph shall not apply to annuities and property described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this clause.

This clause shall not apply to property which constitutes a right to receive an item of income in respect of a decedent under section 290.077.

(5) If substantially identical property was acquired in the place of stocks or securities which were sold or disposed of and in respect of which loss was not allowed as a deduction under section 10 or section 290.09, subdivision 5, the basis in the case of property so acquired shall be the same as that provided in section 1091 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

(6) Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of a lessor of the property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of the property and excludable from gross income under section 290.08, subdivision 14.

If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of the property was included in gross income of the lessor for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, the basis of each portion of the property shall be properly adjusted for the amount included in gross income.

(7) (IF THE PROPERTY WAS ACQUIRED BY THE TAXPAYER AS A TRANSFER OF PROPERTY IN EX-CHANGE FOR THE RELEASE OF THE TAXPAYER'S MARITAL RIGHTS, THE BASIS OF THE PROPERTY SHALL BE THE SAME AS IT WOULD BE IF IT WERE BEING SOLD OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED OF BY THE PERSON WHO TRANSFERRED THE PROPERTY TO THE TAXPAYER.)

(8) The basis of property subject to the provisions of section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981 (relating to the rollover of gain on sale of principal residence) shall be the same as the basis for federal income tax purposes. The basis shall be increased by the amount of gain realized on the sale of a principal residence outside of Minnesota, while a nonresident of this state, which gain was not recognized because of the provisions of section 1034.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) (a) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state.

(b) In the case of an individual who is a nonresident of Minnesota and who is an athlete or entertainer, income from compensation for labor or personal services performed within this state shall be determined in the following manner.

(i) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident salaried athletic team employee shall be determined by using a fraction in which the denominator contains the total number of days in which the individual is under a duty to perform for the employer, and the numerator is the total number of those days spent in Minnesota. In order to eliminate the need to file state or provincial income tax returns in several states or provinces, Minnesota will exclude from income any income assigned to Minnesota under the provisions of this clause for a nonresident athlete who is employed by an athletic team whose operations are not based in this state if the state or province in which the athletic team is based provides a similar income exclusion. If the state or province in which the athletic team's operations are based does not have an income tax on an individual's personal service income, it will be deemed that that state or province has a similar income exclusion. As used in the preceding sentence, the term "province" means a province of Canada.

(ii) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident, and who is an athlete not listed in clause (i), or who is an entertainer, for that person's athletic or entertainment performance in Minnesota shall be determined by assigning to this state all income from performances or athletic contests in this state.

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income from winnings on Minnesota pari-mutuel betting tickets shall be assigned to this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.28 or 290.29;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1);

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

If the trade or business carried on wholly or partly in Minnesota is part of a unitary business, the entire income of that unitary business shall be subject to apportionment under section 290.19. The term "unitary business" shall mean a number of business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group. Unity shall be presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction. Unity of ownership will not be deemed to exist unless the corporation owns more than 50 percent of the voting stock of the other corporation.

The entire income of a unitary business, including all income from each activity, operation or division, shall be subject to apportionment as provided in section 290.19. None of the income of a unitary business shall be considered as derived from any particular source and none shall be allocated to any particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) (IN THE CASE OF A NONRESIDENT WHO IS LIABLE FOR PAYMENT OF A PENALTY FOR HAVING WITHDRAWN FUNDS FROM AN INDIVIDUAL HOUSING AC-COUNT ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO SECTION 290.08, SUBDIVISION 25, THE AMOUNT SO WITHDRAWN AND FOR WHICH A DEDUCTION WAS ALLOWED SHALL BE AN ITEM OF INCOME ASSIGNABLE TO THIS STATE, AND THE PENALTY TAX OF TEN PERCENT SHALL REMAIN AN ADDITIONAL LIABILITY OF THAT TAXPAYER.)

((6)) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a non-resident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

((7)) (6) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAXABLE NET INCOME.] (a) For resident individuals, taxable net income shall be the same as net income.

(b) For all other taxpayers, the taxable net income shall, except insofar as section 290.19 is applicable, be computed by deducting from the gross income assignable to this state under section 290.17 deductions of the kind permitted by (SECTION) sections 10, 290.09, and section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through March 12, 1983, in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Such deductions shall be allowed to the extent that they are connected with and allocable against the production or receipt of such gross income assignable to this state;

(2) That proportion of such deductions, so far as not connected with an allocable against the production or receipt of such gross income assignable to this state and so far as not connected with and allocable against the production or receipt of gross income assignable to other states or countries and so far as not entering into the computation of the net income assignable to this state under section 290.19, shall be allowed which the taxpayer's gross income from sources within this state, as determined under section 290.17, subdivision 2, clauses (1), (2), (3), (5), and ((7)) (6), bears to his gross income from all sources, including that entering into the computations provided for by section 290.19; provided that taxes of the kind deductible under section 290.09, subdivision 4, shall, so far as within the description of deductions deductible under this clause, be deductible in their entirety if paid to the state of Minnesota, or any of its subdivisions authorized to impose such taxes, and thereupon be excluded in making the computation of deductions, as in this clause provided.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FEDERAL INCOME TAX PAYMENTS AND REFUNDS.] The adjusted gross income shall be computed by deducting from the gross income assignable to this state under section 290.17, the deduction for allowable federal income taxes determined under the provisions of sections (290.09, SUBDIVISION 4,) 9 or 290.10, clause (8), (9) or (10), and 290.18.

This deduction shall be allowed to individuals, estates, or trusts:

(i) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 in the taxable year to which the liability applies. Such liability includes the portion of self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8). The self-employment tax must be deducted by the person who is deriving the income. When the federal tax liability is joint and several under the computation of a joint federal return of husband and wife, the federal tax liability (MUST BE SPLIT BETWEEN THE SPOUSES IN THE SAME RATIO THAT THE FEDERAL ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME OF THAT SPOUSE BEARS TO THE TOTAL FEDERAL ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME. FOR PURPOSES OF THE PRECEDING SENTENCE, "FEDERAL ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME" INCLUDES THE ORDINARY INCOME PORTION OF A LUMP SUM DISTRIBUTION AS DEFINED IN SECTION 402(E) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1954, AS AMENDED THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 1981) shall be divided between the spouses as follows: the spouse with the lower qualified earned income, as defined in section 221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through March 12, 1983, shall deduct an amount equal to at least the federal tax withheld for the taxable year from his wages and from interest, dividends, or patronage dividends earned on assets solely in his name, but not to exceed the joint federal income tax liability less self-employment tax; the balance of the joint federal tax liability may be taken by either spouse or divided between them as they elect, provided that the allocation of federal income tax liability as required under section 290.10, clause (9), shall be made on the basis of joint federal adjusted gross income prior to apportionment of the deduction between the spouses.

(ii) taxes paid for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981 shall be allowed as follows (:).

(1) Those taxes paid in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981, shall be claimed in the year in which the payment was made.

(2) Those paid in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 shall be divided and deducted in equal installments reflected by the yearly periods beginning with the first day of the taxable year in which the payment was made and ending December 31, 1986.

(iii) In the case of a person who was self employed during all or a portion of the taxable year, the federal income tax liability for purposes of this section shall be increased by the self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8).

(iv) If a taxpayer's federal tax liability is eventually not paid by reason of compromise, discharge, or court order, the deduction allowed pursuant to this subdivision shall be disallowed for the taxable year in which the liability was accrued.

(v) In the event a federal tax liability for a taxable year commencing after December 31, 1980 is increased, decreased or modified, and such increase, decrease or modification has resulted in a change in the amount of Minnesota income tax in the year to which such increase, decrease or modification is attributable, the taxpayer's deduction under this section shall be modified for such year.

(vi) If the readjustments required in (iv) or (v) are for taxes reflected in the transition rule described in (ii) ((2)), the readjustment shall be made equally to the remaining installments and if a reduction to such installments is required under this readjustment which exceeds the total of all remaining installments, the remaining installments will be reduced to zero and the excess included in income as a federal income tax refund.

(vii) Refunds which are not involved with any readjustments under the transition rule shall be included in income under Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.01, subdivision 20a, clause (6) if it is from a year beginning before January 1, 1981.

(viii) Refunds of taxes for years beginning after December 31, 1980, shall be used to adjust the deduction in the taxable year of the liability unless that year is closed by statute and no other adjustments are to be required or allowable in which case such refund shall be reportable in the year received.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.21, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The following deductions shall be allowed only to corporations and shall be deductions from (GROSS INCOME IN COMPUTING NET INCOME FOR INDIVIDUALS, AND FROM) a corporation's taxable net income (FOR CORPORATIONS).

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.21, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

(b) to or for the use of any community chest, corporation, organization, trust, fund, association, or foundation located in and carrying on substantially all of its activities within this state, organized and operating exclusively for religious, charitable, public cemetery, scientific, literary, artistic, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual,

(c) to a fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system located in and carrying on substantially all of their activities within this state if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for the purposes specified in subdivision 3(b), or for or to posts or organizations of war veterans or auxiliary units or societies of such posts or organizations, if they are within the state and no part of their net income inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual,

(e) (TO A MAJOR POLITICAL PARTY, AS DEFINED IN SECTION 200.02, SUBDIVISION 7, OR A POLITICAL CANDIDATE, AS DEFINED IN SECTION 210A.01, OR A

((II) THE TOTAL DEDUCTION UNDER THIS SUBPARAGRAPH FOR ANY TAXABLE YEAR SHALL NOT EXCEED 20 PERCENT OF THE TAXPAYER'S MINNESOTA GROSS INCOME. FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SUBPARAGRAPH, THE DEDUCTION UNDER THIS SECTION SHALL BE COMPUTED WITHOUT REGARD TO ANY DEDUCTION ALLOWED UNDER SUBPARAGRAPH (I) BUT SHALL TAKE INTO ACCOUNT ANY CONTRIBUTIONS DESCRIBED IN SUBPARAGRAPH (I) WHICH ARE IN EXCESS OF THE AMOUNT ALLOWABLE AS A DEDUCTION UNDER SUBPARAGRAPH (I). FOR PURPOSES OF PARAGRAPH (F) THE TERM MINNESOTA GROSS INCOME SHALL ALSO INCLUDE THE ORDINARY INCOME PORTION OF A LUMP SUM DISTRIBUTION AS DEFINED IN SECTION 402(E) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1954, AS AMENDED THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 1981,)

((G) IN THE CASE OF A CORPORATION,) the total deduction hereunder shall not exceed 15 percent of the taxpayer's taxable net income less the deductions allowable under this section other than those for contributions or gifts,

((H)) (f) in the case of a corporation reporting its taxable income on the accrual basis, if: (A) the board of directors authorizes a charitable contribution during any taxable year, and (B) payment of such contribution is made after the close of such taxable year and on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of such taxable year; then the taxpayer may elect to treat such contribution as paid during such taxable year. Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.23, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISTRIBUTABLE NET INCOME, INCOME, BENEFICIARY; DEFINED.] (1) For purposes of sections 290.22 through 290.25, the term "distributable net income" means the same as that term is defined in section 643(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981 with the following modification:

There shall be included any tax-exempt interest to which section 290.01, subdivision 20b, clause (1) applies, reduced by any amounts which would be deductible in respect of disbursements allocable to such interest but for the provisions of (SECTIONS 290.09, SUBDIVISION 3, AND) section 290.10(9) (relating to disallowance of certain deductions).

If the estate or trust is allowed a deduction under section 642(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the amount of the modification shall be reduced to the extent that the amount of income which is paid, permanently set aside, or to be used for the purposes specified in that section of the Internal Revenue Code is deemed to consist of items specified in the modification. For this purpose, such amount shall (in the absence of specific provisions in the governing instrument) be deemed to consist of the same proportion of each class of items of income of the estate or trust as the total of each class bears to the total of all classes.

(2) The term "income," and the term "beneficiary" have the same meaning as those terms are defined in section 643(b) and (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.31, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INCOME AND CREDITS OF PARTNER.] (1) In determining his income tax, each partner shall take into account separately his distributive share of the partnership's

(a) gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than one year,

(b) gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than one year,

(c) gains and losses from sales or exchanges of property described in section (290.16, SUBDIVISION 9(1) AND (2)) 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983 (relating to certain property used in a trade or business and involuntary conversions),

(d) charitable contributions ((AS DEFINED IN SECTION 290.21, SUBDIVISION 3)) as defined in section 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1982,

(e) dividends with respect to which there is provided (A DEDUCTION UNDER SECTION 290.21,) an exclusion under section 116 or a deduction under sections 241 to 247 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1982,

(f) other items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit, to the extent provided by regulations prescribed by the commissioner, and

(g) taxable net income or loss, exclusive of items requiring separate computation under other subparagraphs of this paragraph (1).

(2) The character of any item of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit included in a partner's distributive share under paragraphs (a) through (f) of paragraph (1) shall be determined as if such item were realized directly from the source from which realized by the partnership, or incurred in the same manner as incurred by the partnership.

(3) In any case where it is necessary to determine the gross income of a partner for purposes of this chapter, such amount shall include his distributive share of the gross income of the partnership.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.31, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PARTNERSHIP COMPUTATIONS.] The taxable net income of a partnership shall be computed in the same manner as in the case of an individual except that

(1) the items described in subdivision 2(1) shall be separately stated, and

(2) the following deductions shall not be allowed to the partnership:

(a) the deduction for taxes provided in section (290.09, SUBDIVISION 4) 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1982, with respect to taxes, described in section 901 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, paid or accrued to foreign countries and to possessions of the United States,

(b) the deduction for charitable contributions provided in section 290.21, subdivision 3 or section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1982,

(c) the net operating loss deduction provided in section 290.095,

(d) the additional itemized deductions for individuals provided in (SECTION 290.09, SUBDIVISIONS 10 AND 17) sections 211 to 223 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1982, and,

(e) the deduction for depletion under section 290.09, subdivision 8 with respect to oil and gas wells.

Any election affecting the computation of taxable net income derived from a partnership shall be made by the partnership except as provided in section 703(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.39, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SEPARATE COMPUTATIONS ON A SINGLE RETURN.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, a husband and wife may elect to compute their Minnesota income tax separately on a single return, in which event:

(a) if the sum of the payments by either spouse, including withheld and estimated taxes, exceeds the amount of tax of such spouse as computed separately, the excess may be applied by the commissioner to the credit of the other spouse if the sum of the payments by such other spouse, including withheld and estimated taxes, is less than the amount of the tax of such other spouse as computed separately;

(b) if the sum of the payments made by both spouses with respect to the taxes of both as computed separately, including withheld and estimated taxes, exceeds the total of the taxes due, refund of the excess may be made payable to both spouses or may be credited against any liability in respect of Minnesota income tax on the part of either spouse;

(c) if the sum of the payments made by both spouses with respect to the taxes of both as computed separately, including withheld and estimated taxes, is less than the total of the taxes due, the liability for the unpaid tax shall be joint and several; provided that a spouse may be relieved of liability in those cases contained in section 6013(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981 (for purposes of computing the 25 percent test contained in that section, the amount of gross income stated in the return shall include the total gross income of both spouses);

(d) if the standard deduction provided for by section (290.09, SUBDIVISION 15) 10, subdivision 3, is not utilized, then the total of the Minnesota itemized deductions of a husband and wife may be taken by either or divided between them as they elect;

(e) the limitation on the deduction for investment interest prescribed in section 163(d) (1) (A) for married individuals who file separate returns shall also apply to married individuals who file separately on one return.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.431, is amended to read:

290.431 [NON-GAME WILDLIFE CHECKOFF.]

Every individual who files an income tax return or property tax refund claim form may designate on their original return that $1 or more shall be added to the tax or deducted from the refund that would otherwise be payable by or to that individual and paid into an account to be established for the management of non-game wildlife. The commissioner of revenue shall, on the first page of the income tax return and the property tax refund claim form, notify filers of their right to designate that a portion of their tax or refund shall be paid into the non-game wildlife management account. The sum of the amounts so designated to be paid shall be credited to the non-game wildlife management account for use by the non-game section of the division of wildlife in the department of natural resources. The commissioner of natural resources shall submit a work program for each fiscal year and semi-annual progress reports to the legislative commission on Minnesota resources in the form determined by the commission. None of the money provided in this section may be expended unless the commission has approved the work program.

The state pledges and agrees with all contributors to the non-game wildlife management account to use the funds contributed solely for the management of nongame wildlife projects and further agrees that it will not impose additional conditions or restrictions that will limit or otherwise restrict the ability of the commissioner of natural resources to use the available funds for the most efficient and effective management of nongame wildlife.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.46, is amended to read:

290.46 [EXAMINATION OF RETURNS; ASSESSMENTS, REFUNDS.]

The commissioner shall, as soon as practicable after the return is filed, examine the same and make any investigation or examination of the taxpayer's records and accounts that he may deem necessary for determining the correctness of the return. The tax computed by him on the basis of such examination and investigation shall be the tax to be paid by such taxpayer. If the tax found due shall be greater than the amount reported as due on the taxpayer's return, the commissioner shall assess a tax in the amount of such excess and the whole amount of such excess shall be paid to the commissioner within 60 days after notice of the amount and demand for its payment shall have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner. If the understatement of the tax on the return was false and fraudulent with intent to evade the tax, the installments of the tax shown by the taxpayer on his return which have not yet been paid shall be paid to the commissioner within 60 days after notice of the amount thereof and demand for payment shall have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner. If the amount of the tax found due by the commissioner shall be less than that reported as due on the taxpayer's return, the excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer in the manner provided by section 290.50 (except that no demand therefor shall be necessary), if he has already paid the whole of such tax, or credited against any unpaid installment thereof; provided, that no refundment shall be made except as provided in section 290.50.

If the commissioner examines returns of a taxpayer for more than one year, he may issue one order covering the several years under consideration reflecting the aggregate refund or additional tax due.

The notices and demands provided for by sections 290.46 to 290.48 shall be in such form as the commissioner may determine (including a statement) and shall contain a brief explanation of the computation of the tax and shall be sent by mail to the taxpayer at the address given in his return, or to his last known address.

In cases where there has been an overpayment of a self-assessed liability as shown on the return filed by the taxpayer, the commissioner may refund such overpayment to the taxpayer and no demand therefor shall be necessary; further, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer and certificate for refundment by the commissioner shall not be necessary and the provisions of section 270.10, in such case, shall not be applicable.

In the case of an individual, estate or trust, the commissioner may audit and adjust the taxpayer's computation of federal adjusted gross income (or federal taxable income for estates or trusts) to make it properly conform with the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20. In the case of an individual, the commissioner may audit and adjust the taxpayer's computation of itemized deductions to make them properly conform with the provisions of section 10.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.92, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [COLLECTION AT SOURCE.] (1) [DEDUCTIONS.] Every employer making payment of wages shall deduct and withhold upon such wages a tax as provided in this section.

(2) [WITHHOLDING ON PAYROLL PERIOD.] The employer shall withhold the tax on the basis of each payroll period or as otherwise provided in this section.

(3) [WITHHOLDING TABLES.] Unless the amount of tax to be withheld is determined as provided in subdivision 3, the amount of tax to be withheld for each individual shall be based upon tables to be prepared and distributed by the commissioner. The tables shall be computed for the several permissible withholding periods and shall take account of exemptions allowed under this section; and the amounts computed for withholding shall be such that the amount withheld for any individual during his taxable year shall approximate in the aggregate as closely as possible the tax which is levied and imposed under this chapter for that taxable year, upon his salary, wages, or compensation for personal services of any kind for the employer, and shall take into consideration the allowable deduction for federal income tax and the deduction allowable under section (290.09) 10, subdivision (15) 3, and the personal credits allowed against the tax.

(4) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] If wages are paid with respect to a period which is not a payroll period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days, including Sundays and holidays, equal to the number of days in the period with respect to which such wages are paid.

(5) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] (a) In any case in which wages are paid by an employer without regard to any payroll period or other period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days equal to the number of days, including Sundays and holidays, which have elapsed since the date of the last payment of such wages by such employer during the calendar year, or the date of commencement of employment with such employer during such year, or January 1 of such year, whichever is the later.

(b) In any case in which the period, or the time described in clause (a), in respect of any wages is less than one week, the commissioner, under regulations prescribed by him, may authorize an employer to determine the amount to be deducted and withheld under the tables applicable in the case of a weekly payroll period, in which case the aggregate of the wages paid to the employee during the calendar week shall be considered the weekly wages.

(6) [WAGES COMPUTED TO NEAREST DOLLAR.] If the wages exceed the highest bracket, in determining the amount to be deducted and withheld under this subdivision, the wages may, at the election of the employer, be computed to the nearest dollar.

(7) [REGULATIONS ON WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner may, by regulations, authorize employers:

(a) To estimate the wages which will be paid to any employee in any quarter of the calendar year;

(b) To determine the amount to be deducted and withheld upon each payment of wages to such employee during such quarter as if the appropriate average of the wages so estimated constituted the actual wages paid; and

(c) To deduct and withhold upon any payment of wages to such employee during such quarter such amount as may be necessary to adjust the amount actually deducted and withheld upon wages of such employee during such quarter to the amount required to be deducted and withheld during such quarter without regard to this paragraph (7).

(8) [ADDITIONAL WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner is authorized to provide by rule for increases or decreases in the amount of withholding otherwise required under this section in cases where the employee requests the changes. Such additional withholding shall for all purposes be considered tax required to be deducted and withheld under this section.

(9) [TIPS.] In the case of tips which constitute wages, this subdivision shall be applicable only to such tips as are included in a written statement furnished to the employer pursuant to section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and only to the extent that the tax can be deducted and withheld by the employer, at or after the time such statement is so furnished and before the close of the calendar year in which such statement is furnished, from such wages of the employee (excluding tips, but including funds turned over by the employee to the employer for the purpose of such deduction and withholding) as are under the control of the employer; and an employer who is furnished by an employee a written statement of tips (received in a calendar month) pursuant to section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981 to which subdivision 1 is applicable may deduct and withhold the tax with respect to such tips from any wages of the employee (excluding tips) under his control, even though at the time such statement is furnished the total amount of the tips included in statements furnished to the employer as having been received by the employee in such calendar month in the course of his employment by such employer is less than $20. Such tax shall not at any time be deducted and withheld in an amount which exceeds the aggregate of such wages and funds as are under the control of the employer minus any tax required by other provisions of state or federal law to be collected from such wages and funds.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.92, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RETURNS, DEPOSITS.] (1) (a) [RETURNS.] Every employer who is required to deduct and withhold tax under subdivision 2a or 3 shall file a return with the commissioner for each quarterly period, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarterly period, unless otherwise prescribed by the commissioner. Any tax required to be deducted and withheld during the quarterly period shall be paid with the return unless an earlier time for payment is provided herein. However, any such return may be filed on or before the tenth day of the second calendar month following such period if such return shows timely deposits in full payment of such taxes due for such period. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, a deposit which is not required to be made within such return period, may be made on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the close of such period. Every employer, in preparing said quarterly return, shall take credit for monthly deposits previously made in accordance with this subdivision.

The return shall be in the form and contain the information prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing the return and paying the tax, but no extension shall be granted for more than six months.

(b) [ADVANCE DEPOSITS REQUIRED IN CERTAIN CASES.] (i) Unless clause (ii) is applicable, if during any calendar month, other than the last month of the calendar quarter, the aggregate amount of the tax withheld during that quarter under subdivision 2a or 3 exceeds $200, or beginning January 1, 1982, $500, the employer shall deposit the aggregate amount with the commissioner within 15 days after the close of the calendar month. (ii) If at the close of any eighth-monthly period the aggregate amount of undeposited taxes is $3,000 or more, the employer shall deposit the undeposited taxes with the commissioner within three banking days after the close of the eighth-monthly period. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "eighth-monthly period" means the first three days of a calendar month, the fourth day through the seventh day of a calendar month, the eighth day through the 11th day of a calendar month, the 12th day through the 15th day of a calendar month, the 16th day through the 19th day of a calendar month, the 20th day through the 22nd day of a calendar month, the 23rd day through the 25th day of a calendar month, or the portion of a calendar month following the 25th day of such month.

(c) [OTHER METHODS.] The commissioner shall have the power by rule to prescribe other return periods or deposit requirements. In prescribing the reporting period, the commissioner may classify employers according to the amount of their tax liability and may adopt an appropriate reporting period for each class which he deems to be consistent with efficient tax collection. In no event shall the duration of the reporting period be more than one year, provided that for employers with annual withholding tax liabilities of less than $1,200 the reporting period shall be no more frequent than quarterly.

(2) If less than the correct amount of such tax is paid to the commissioner, proper adjustments, with respect to both the tax and the amount to be deducted, shall be made, without interest, in such manner and at such times as the commissioner may prescribe. If such underpayment cannot be so adjusted the amount of the underpayment shall be assessed and collected in such manner and at such times as the commissioner may prescribe.

(3) If any employer fails to make and file any return required by paragraph (1) at the time prescribed therefor, or makes and files a false or fraudulent return, the commissioner shall make for him a return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony, or otherwise, and assess a tax on the basis thereof. The amount of tax shown thereon shall be paid to the commissioner at such times as the commissioner may prescribe. Any such return or assessment so made by the commissioner shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the employer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto.

(4) If the commissioner, in any case, has reason to believe that the collection of the tax provided for in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, and any added penalties and interest, if any, will be jeopardized by delay, he may immediately assess such tax, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making and filing the return and paying such tax has expired.

(5) Any assessment under this subdivision shall be made by recording the liability of the employer in the office of the commissioner in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner. Upon request of the employer, the commissioner shall furnish the employer a copy of the record of assessment.

(6) Any assessment of tax under this subdivision shall be made within three and one-half years after the due date of the return required by paragraph (1), or the date the return was filed, whichever is later; except that in the case of a false or fraudulent return or failure to file a return, the tax may be assessed at any time.

(7) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this paragraph, every employer who fails to pay to or deposit with the commissioner any sum or sums required by this section to be deducted, withheld and paid, shall be personally and individually liable to the state of Minnesota for such sum or sums (and any added penalties and interest); and any sum or sums deducted and withheld in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 2a or subdivision 3 shall be held to be a special fund in trust for the state of Minnesota.

(b) If the employer, in violation of the provision of this section, fails to deduct and withhold the tax under this section, and thereafter the taxes against which such tax may be credited are paid, the tax so required to be deducted and withheld shall not be collected from the employer; but this shall in no case relieve the employer from liability for any penalties and interest otherwise applicable in respect of such failure to deduct and withhold.

(8) Upon the failure of any employer to pay to or deposit with the commissioner within the time provided by paragraphs (1), (2) or (3) of this subdivision any tax required to be withheld in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, or if the commissioner has assessed a tax pursuant to paragraph (4), such tax shall become immediately due and payable, and the commissioner may deliver to the attorney general a certified statement of the tax, penalties and interest due from such employer. The statement shall also give the address of the employer owing such tax, the period for which the tax is due, the date of the delinquency, and such other information as may be required by the attorney general. It shall be the duty of the attorney general to institute legal action in the name of the state to recover the amount of such tax, penalties, interest and costs. The commissioner's certified statement to the attorney general shall for all purposes and in all courts be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated and that the amount shown therein is due from the employer named in the statement. In event action is instituted as herein provided, the court shall, upon application of the attorney general, appoint a receiver of the property and business of the delinquent employer for the purpose of impounding the same as security for any judgment which has been or may be recovered. Any such action shall be brought within four years and three months after the due date of the return or deposit required by paragraph (1), or the date the return was filed, or deposit made whichever is later; except that in the case of failure to make and file such return or if such return is false or fraudulent, or such deposit is not made such action may be brought at any time.

(8a) The period of time during which a tax must be assessed or collection proceedings commenced under this subdivision shall be suspended during the period from the date of filing of a petition in bankruptcy until 30 days after the commissioner of revenue receives notice that the bankruptcy proceedings have been closed or dismissed or the automatic stay has been terminated or has expired.

The suspension of the statute of limitations under this subdivision shall apply to the person against whom the petition in bankruptcy is filed and all other persons who may also be wholly or partially liable for the tax under this chapter.

(9) Either party to an action for the recovery of any tax, interest or penalties under this subdivision may remove the judgment to the supreme court by appeal, as provided for appeals in civil cases.

(10) No suit shall lie to enjoin the assessment or collection of any tax imposed by this section, or the interest and penalties added thereto.

(11) For purposes of this subdivision, a withholding tax payment, return, or deposit is filed or paid on time if the payment, return, or deposit was mailed to the commissioner of revenue on or before the due date, including any extension of time which was granted. The person required to make the payment, return, or deposit shall have the burden of establishing that the payment, return, or deposit was timely mailed by United States mail in an envelope, postage prepaid, and properly addressed.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.92, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 26. Any holder of a class A, B, or D license issued by the Minnesota horse racing commission, who makes a payment or payments for winnings on a pari-mutuel betting ticket or tickets on which withholding is required under section 3402(q) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983, shall deduct from the payment or payments and withhold eight percent of the amount as Minnesota withholding tax. For purposes of this subdivision, winnings from a pari-mutuel betting ticket must be determined by reducing the amount received by the amount paid for the ticket, and payments for winning on a pari-mutuel betting ticket which are not money must be taken into account at their fair market value. For purposes of the provisions of this section, a payment to any person of winnings which are subject to withholding must be treated as if the payment was a wage paid by an employer to an employee. Every individual who is to receive a payment of winnings which are subject to withholding shall furnish the license holder with a statement, made under the penalties of perjury, containing the name, address, and social security account number of the person receiving the payment and of each person entitled to any portion of such payment. The license holder is liable for the payment of the tax required to be withheld under this subdivision and subdivision 27 but is not liable to any person for the amount of the payment.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.92, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 27. Any holder of a class A or B license issued by the Minnesota horse racing commission who makes a payment to a holder of a class C license issued by the commission, or who pays an amount as a purse, shall deduct from the payment and withhold seven percent of the amount as Minnesota withholding tax when the amount paid to that individual during the calendar year exceeds $700. For purposes of the provisions of this section, a payment to any person which is subject to withholding under this subdivision must be treated as if the payment was a wage paid by an employer to an employee. Every individual who is to receive a payment which is subject to withholding under this subdivision shall furnish the license holder with a statement, made under the penalties of perjury, containing the name, address, and social security account number of the person receiving the payment. No withholding is required if the individual presents a signed certificate from his employer which states that the individual is an employee of that employer. A nonresident individual who holds a class C license must be treated as an athlete for purposes of applying the provisions of sections 290.17, subdivision 2(1)(b)(ii) and 290.92, subdivision 4a.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

The term "household" as used in this section is defined to be a domestic establishment maintained either (1) by two or more persons living together within the same house or place of abode, subsisting in common and constituting a domestic or family relationship, or (2) by one person.

(b) During the period of his active service and for six months after his discharge therefrom, no member of the armed forces of the United States shall lose status of a householder under paragraph (a) which he had immediately prior to becoming a member of the armed forces.

In case there is an assessment against more than one member of a household the $100 exemption shall be divided among the members assessed in the proportion that the assessed value of the Class 2 property of each bears to the total assessed value of the Class 2 property of all the members assessed. The Class 2 property of each household claimed to be exempt shall be limited to property in one taxing district, except in those cases where a single domestic establishment is maintained in two or more adjoining districts.

Bonds and certificates of indebtedness hereafter issued by the state of Minnesota, or by any county or city of the state, or any town, or any common or independent school district of the state, or any governmental board of the state, or any county or city thereof, shall hereafter be exempt from taxation; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as exempting such bonds from the payment of a tax thereon, as provided for by section 291.01, when any of such bonds constitute, in whole or in part, any inheritance or bequest, taken or received by any person or corporation.

(9) Farm machinery manufactured prior to 1930, which is used only for display purposes as a collectors item;

(14) Real and personal property used primarily for the abatement and control of air, water, or land pollution to the extent that it is so used, other than real property used primarily as a solid waste disposal site.

Any taxpayer requesting exemption of all or a portion of any equipment or device, or part thereof, operated primarily for the control or abatement of air or water pollution shall file an application with the commissioner of revenue. Any such equipment or device shall meet standards, regulations or criteria prescribed by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, and must be installed or operated in accordance with a permit or order issued by that agency. The Minnesota Pollution Control Agency shall upon request of the commissioner furnish information or advice to the commissioner. If the commissioner determines that property qualifies for exemption, he shall issue an order exempting such property from taxation. Any such equipment or device shall continue to be exempt from taxation as long as the permit issued by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency remains in effect.

(15) Wetlands. For purposes of this subdivision, "wetlands" means land which is mostly under water, produces little if any income, and has no use except for wildlife or water conservation purposes. "Wetlands" shall be land preserved in its natural condition (.) which predominantly supports aquatic emergent, submergent or nonwoody vegetation and drainage of which would be legal, feasible and practical (AND WOULD PROVIDE LAND SUITABLE FOR THE PRODUCTION OF LIVESTOCK, DAIRY ANIMALS, POULTRY, FRUIT, VEGETABLES, FORAGE AND GRAINS, EXCEPT WILD RICE). "Wetlands" shall include adjacent land which is not suitable for agricultural purposes due to the presence of the wetlands. Exemption of wetlands from taxation pursuant to this section shall not grant the public any additional or greater right of access to the wetlands or diminish any right of ownership to the wetlands.

(16) Native prairie. The commissioner of the department of natural resources shall determine lands in the state which are native prairie and shall notify the county assessor of each county in which the lands are located. Pasture land used for livestock grazing purposes shall not be considered native prairie for the purposes of this clause (AND SECTION 273.116). Upon receipt of an application for the exemption and credit provided in this clause (AND SECTION 273.116) for lands for which the assessor has no determination from the commissioner of natural resources, the assessor shall refer the application to the commissioner of natural resources who shall determine within 30 days whether the land is native prairie and notify the county assessor of his decision. Exemption of native prairie pursuant to this clause shall not grant the public any additional or greater right of access to the native prairie or diminish any right of ownership to it.

(19) To the extent provided by section 295.44, real and personal property used or to be used primarily for the production of hydroelectric or hydromechanical power on a site owned by the state or a local governmental unit which is developed and operated pursuant to the provisions of section 105.482, subdivisions 1, 8, and 9.

Subd. 8. [MARKET VALUE.] "Market value" means the usual selling price at the place where the property to which the term is applied shall be at the time of assessment; being the price which could be obtained at a private sale (AND NOT AT FORCED) or an auction sale, if it is determined by the assessor that the price from the auction sale represents an arms length transaction. The price obtained at a forced sale shall not be considered.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 272.115, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

272.115 [CERTIFICATE OF VALUE; FILING.]

The certificate of value shall include the classification to which the property belongs for the purpose of determining the fair market value of the property. The certificate shall include financing terms and conditions of the sale which are necessary to determine the actual, present value of the sale price for purposes of the sales ratio study. The commissioner of revenue shall promulgate administrative rules specifying the financing terms and conditions which must be included on the certificate.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivisions 6 and 7 or section 273.17, subdivision 1, all property shall be valued at its market value. The market value as determined pursuant to this section shall be stated such that any amount under $100 is rounded up to $100 and any amount exceeding $100 shall be rounded to the nearest $100. In estimating and determining such value, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell (AT AUCTION OR) at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but he shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such sum or price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money. In assessing any tract or lot of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures and improvements, shall be determined, and also the value of all structures and improvements thereon, and the aggregate value of the property, including all structures and improvements, excluding the value of crops growing upon cultivated land. In valuing real property upon which there is a mine or quarry, it shall be valued at such price as such property, including the mine or quarry, would sell for a fair, voluntary sale, for cash. In valuing real property which is vacant, the fact that such property is platted shall not be taken into account. An individual lot of such platted property shall not be assessed in excess of the assessment of the land as if it were unplatted until the lot is improved with a permanent improvement all or a portion of which is located upon the lot, or for a period of three years after final approval of said plat whichever is shorter. When a lot is sold or construction begun, the assessed value of that lot or any single contiguous lot fronting on the same street shall be eligible for reassessment. All property, or the use thereof, which is taxable under sections 272.01, subdivision 2, or 273.19, shall be valued at the market value of such property and not at the value of a leasehold estate in such property, or at some lesser value than its market value.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.115, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The county auditor shall annually reduce the tax liability of each owner of wetlands exempt from property taxation pursuant to section 272.02, subdivision 1, clause (15), by an amount equal to (THREE-FOURTHS) one-half of one percent of the average level of estimated market value of an acre of tillable land in the township, city or unorganized territory in which the qualifying wetland is located, multiplied by the number of acres of wetlands he owns. Any excess of credit over tax liability shall not be paid to the property owner but shall be applied to the tax liability of the owner of the wetlands for any parcel he owns which is contiguous to the parcel containing the wetlands.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.115, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The total (AMOUNTS) amount of (CREDITS) credit allowed pursuant to subdivision 1 (AND THE TOTAL AMOUNTS OF REVENUE LOST AS A RESULT OF THE EXEMPTION PROVIDED IN SECTION 272.02, SUBDIVISION 1, CLAUSE (15),) shall be submitted by the county auditor to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under the provisions of section 275.29. (THE AMOUNT OF REVENUE LOST AS A RESULT OF THE EXEMPTION SHALL BE COMPUTED EACH YEAR BY APPLYING THE CURRENT MILL RATES OF THE TAXING JURISDICTIONS IN WHICH THE WETLANDS ARE LOCATED TO THE ASSESSED VALUATION OF THE WETLANDS FOR PURPOSES OF TAXES LEVIED IN 1979, PAYABLE IN 1980. PROVIDED THAT PAYMENT TO THE COUNTY FOR LOST REVENUE SHALL NOT BE LESS THAN THE REVENUE WHICH WOULD HAVE BEEN RECEIVED IN TAXES IF THE WETLANDS HAD AN ASSESSED VALUE OF $5 PER ACRE.) The commissioner of revenue shall review such certifications to determine their accuracy. He may make such changes in the certification as he may deem necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.115, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Payment shall be made according to the procedure provided in section 273.13, subdivision 15a, for the (PURPOSE OF REPLACING REVENUE LOST AS A RESULT OF THE EXEMPTION PROVIDED IN SECTION 272.02, SUBDIVISION 1, CLAUSE (15), AND THE) credit provided in this section.

(EFFECTIVE FOR TAXES PAYABLE IN 1982 AND THEREAFTER,) The maximum amount of the market value of the homestead bracket subject to the 14 percent rate shall be adjusted by the commissioner of revenue as provided in section 273.1311. The property tax to be paid on class 3b property as otherwise determined by law less any reduction received pursuant to sections (124.213) 124.2137 and 273.135 shall be reduced by 58 percent of the tax for taxes payable in (1981) 1984 and thereafter; provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed $650. (VALUATION SUBJECT TO RELIEF SHALL BE LIMITED TO 240 ACRES OF LAND, MOST CONTIGUOUS SURROUNDING, BORDERING, OR CLOSEST TO THE HOUSE OCCUPIED BY THE OWNER AS HIS DWELLING PLACE, AND SUCH OTHER STRUCTURES AS MAY BE INCLUDED THEREON UTILIZED BY THE OWNER IN AN AGRICULTURAL PURSUIT, PROVIDED THAT NONCONTIGUOUS LAND SHALL CONSTITUTE CLASS 3B ONLY IF THE HOMESTEAD IS CLASSIFIED AS CLASS 3B AND THE DETACHED LAND IS LOCATED IN THE SAME TOWNSHIP OR CITY OR NOT FARTHER THAN TWO TOWNSHIPS OR CITIES OR COMBINATION THEREOF FROM THE HOMESTEAD.) The first $12,000 market value of each tract of real estate which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except as specifically provided otherwise by law.

Agricultural land as used herein, and in section 124.2137, shall mean contiguous acreage of ten acres or more, primarily used during the preceding year for agricultural purposes. Agricultural use may include pasture, timber, waste, unusable wild land and land included in federal farm programs.

Real estate of less than ten acres used principally for raising poultry, livestock, fruit, vegetables or other agricultural products, shall be considered as agricultural land, if it is not used primarily for residential purposes.

(EFFECTIVE FOR THE 1981 ASSESSMENT AND IN SUBSEQUENT YEARS,) The assessor shall determine and list separately on his records the market value of the homestead dwelling and the one acre of land on which that dwelling is located. If any farm buildings or structures are located on this homesteaded acre of land, their market value shall not be included in this separate determination.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.13, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [HOMESTEAD OWNED BY FAMILY FARM CORPORATION OR PARTNERSHIP.] (a) Each family farm corporation and each partnership operating a family farm shall be entitled to class 3b assessment and shall be eligible for the credit provided in subdivision 6 for one homestead occupied by a shareholder or partner thereof who is residing on the land and actively engaged in farming of the land owned by the corporation or partnership. (SUCH A) The homestead (SHALL NOT EXCEED 240 ACRES, AND) shall be assessed as provided in subdivision 6, notwithstanding the fact that legal title to the property may be in the name of the corporation or partnership and not in the name of the person residing thereon. "Family farm corporation" and "family farm" shall mean as defined in section 500.24.

(b) In addition to property specified in paragraph (a), any other residences owned by corporations or partnerships described in paragraph (a) which are located on agricultural land and occupied as homesteads by shareholders or partners who are actively engaged in farming on behalf of the corporation or partnership shall also be assessed as class 3b property, and be entitled to the credit provided in subdivision 6, but the property eligible shall be limited to the residence itself and as much of the land surrounding the homestead, not exceeding one acre, as is reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, and shall not include any other structures that may be located thereon.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.13, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CLASS 3C, 3CC.] All other real estate and class 2a property, except as provided by classes 1 and 3cc, which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c, and shall be valued and assessed (FOR TAXES PAYABLE IN 1981 AND THEREAFTER) as follows: the first $25,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at 16 percent; the next $25,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at 22 percent; and the remaining market value shall be valued and assessed at 28 percent. (EFFECTIVE FOR TAXES PAYABLE shall the total percentage exceed 58 percent. The resulting percentage shall be rounded to the nearest whole percent. Only the tax applicable to the first $60,000 of market value shall qualify for homestead credit. No homestead shall receive a homestead credit greater than $650.

ARTICLE 4

PROPERTY TAX REFUND

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [HOMESTEAD.] "Homestead" means the dwelling occupied by a claimant as (A PLACE) his principal residence and so much of the land surrounding it, not exceeding ten acres, as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home and any other property used for purposes of a homestead as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 7, except that (THIS) the acreage restriction shall not be applicable to agricultural land assessed as part of a homestead pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 6. The homestead may be owned or rented and may be a part of a multi-dwelling or multi-purpose building and the land on which it is built. A manufactured home, as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, assessed as personal property may be a dwelling for purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CLAIMANT.] "Claimant" means a person, other than a dependent, who filed a claim authorized by sections 290A.01 to 290A.20 and who was domiciled in this state during the calendar year for which the claim for relief was filed. In the case of a claim relating to rent constituting property taxes, the claimant shall have resided in a rented or leased unit on which ad valorem taxes or payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, are payable at some time during the calendar year covered by the claim. "Claimant" shall not include a resident of a nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long term residential facility whose rent constituting property taxes is paid pursuant to the supplemental security income program under Title XVI of the social security act, the Minnesota supplemental aid program under sections 256D.35 to 256D.41, the medical assistance program pursuant to Title XIX of the social security act, or the general assistance medical care program pursuant to section 256D.03, Subdivision 3. If only a portion of the rent constituting property taxes is paid by these programs, the resident shall be a claimant for purposes of this chapter, but the refund calculated pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 reduced by the total amount of income from the above sources other than vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program and the denominator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 plus vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program, to determine the allowable refund pursuant to this chapter.

Rather than apportion the amount of the allowable refund in the above prescribed manner, if the claimant was a resident of the nursing home, intermediate care facility or long term residential facility for only a portion of the calendar year covered by the claim, that claimant may compute rent constituting property taxes by ignoring the rent constituting property taxes from the nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long term residential facility and use only that amount of rent or property taxes payable relating to that portion of the year when the claimant was not in one of those institutions. The claimant's household income as defined in subdivision 3, however, must be for the entire calendar year covered by the claim.

In the case of a claim for rent constituting property taxes of a part year Minnesota resident, the income and rental reflected in this computation shall be for the period of Minnesota residency only. Any rental expenses paid which may be reflected in arriving at federal adjusted gross income cannot be utilized for this computation. When two individuals of a household are able to meet the qualifications for a claimant, they may determine among them as to who the claimant shall be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. If a homestead property owner was a part year Minnesota resident, the income reflected in the computation made pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be for the entire calendar year, including income not assignable to Minnesota.

If a homestead is occupied by two or more renters, who are not husband and wife, the rent shall be deemed to be paid equally by each, and separate claims shall be filed by each. The income of each shall be his household income for purposes of computing the amount of credit to be allowed.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RENT CONSTITUTING PROPERTY TAXES.] "Rent constituting property taxes" means (23 PERCENT OF) the amount of gross rent actually paid in cash, or its equivalent, which is attributable (a) to the property tax paid on the unit or (THAT PORTION OF GROSS RENT WHICH IS) (b) to the amount paid in lieu of property taxes, in any calendar year by a claimant solely for the right of occupancy of his Minnesota homestead in the calendar year, and which rent constitutes the basis, in the succeeding calendar year of a claim for relief under sections 290A.01 to 290A.20 by the claimant. The amount of rent attributable to property taxes paid or payments in lieu made on the unit shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the property where the unit is located by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid by the claimant for the calendar year for the unit and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the property in which the unit is located.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, subdivision 13, as amended by Laws 1983, chapter 15, section 28, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [PROPERTY TAXES PAYABLE.] "Property taxes payable" means the property tax exclusive of special assessments, penalties, and interest payable on a claimant's homestead before reductions made pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7 and 14a, but after deductions made pursuant to sections 124.2137, 273.115, (273.116,) 273.135, 273.139, 273.1391 (, 273.42, SUBDIVISION 2,) and any other state paid property tax credits in any calendar year. No apportionment or reduction of the "property taxes payable" shall be required for the use of a portion of the claimant's homestead for a business purpose if the claimant does not deduct any business depreciation expenses for the use of a portion of the homestead in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For homesteads which are manufactured homes as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, "property taxes payable" shall also include (23 PERCENT) the amount of the gross rent paid in the preceding year for the site on which the homestead is located, (EXCLUSIVE OF CHARGES FOR UTILITIES OR SERVICES) which is attributable to the net tax paid on the site. The amount attributable to property taxes shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the parcel by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the site and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the parcel. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, such tenants shall determine between them which tenant may claim the property taxes payable on the homestead. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. Property taxes are considered payable in the year prescribed by law for payment of the taxes.

In the case of a claim relating to "property taxes payable", the claimant must have owned and occupied the homestead on January 2 of the year in which the tax is payable and (i) the property must have been classified as homestead property pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, or 14a on or before June 1 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were levied; or (ii) the claimant must provide documentation from the local assessor that application for homestead classification has been made prior to (JULY 1) October 1 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were payable and that the assessor has approved the application.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [NET TAX.] "Net tax" means

(a) the property tax, exclusive of special assessments, interest, and penalties, or

(b) the payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, for the calendar year in which the rent was paid. If a portion of the property is occupied as a homestead or is used for other than rental purposes, the net tax shall be the amount of tax after reductions pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, and 14a, reduced by the percentage that the non-rental use comprises of the total square footage of the building. If a portion of the property is used for purposes other than for residential rental and none of the property is occupied as a homestead, the net tax shall be the amount of the tax of the parcel multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the assessed value of the residential rental portion and the denominator of which is the total assessed value of the parcel. If a portion of the property is used for other than rental residential purposes, the county treasurer shall list on the property tax statement the amount of net tax pertaining to the rental residential portion of the property.

The amount of the net tax shall not be reduced by an abatement or a court ordered reduction in the property tax on the property made after the certificate of rent constituting property tax has been provided to the renter.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A credit shall be allowed each claimant in the amount that property taxes payable or rent constituting property taxes exceed the percentage of the household income of the claimant specified in subdivision 2 in the year for which the taxes were levied or in the year in which the rent was paid. (THE MAXIMUM CREDIT FOR ANY CLAIMANT WHO WAS DISABLED ON OR BEFORE JUNE 1 OR WHO ATTAINED THE AGE OF 65 PRIOR TO JUNE 1 OF THE YEAR FOLLOWING THE YEAR FOR WHICH THE TAXES WERE LEVIED OR IN WHICH THE RENT WAS PAID SHALL BE $200 ABOVE THE MAXIMUM FOR WHICH THAT CLAIMANT WOULD OTHERWISE BE ELIGIBLE ACCORDING TO HIS INCOME.) If the amount of property taxes payable or rent constituting property taxes is equal to or less than the percentage of the household income of the claimant specified in subdivision 2 in the year for which the taxes were levied or in the year in which the rent was paid, the claimant shall not be eligible for a state refund pursuant to this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (THE REFUND SHALL BE PAID TO CLAIMANTS WHOSE PROPERTY TAXES PAYABLE EXCEED THE FOLLOWING PERCENTAGES OF THEIR INCOME, UP TO THE DESIGNATED MAXIMUM CREDIT AMOUNTS:)

(FOR CLAIMANTS EARNING:)

($0 TO $2,999, 0.5 PERCENT, UP TO $650;)

(d) any amount levied as a special assessment to cover the costs of municipal operation and maintenance activities for the taxes payable year 1983; and

(e) the amount of any base adjustment authorized by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to subdivision 3g.

For the taxes payable year 1985 and subsequent years, a governmental subdivision's levy limit base is equal to its adjusted levy limit base for the preceding year.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [BASE ADJUSTMENTS.] Any governmental subdivision which reduced any of its unreserved, undesignated fund balances because of spending for nonspecial levy purposes in calendar year 1981 may apply to the commissioner of revenue to have its levy limit base increased for the taxes payable year 1984 by no more than the amount of the reduction in the fund balances.

Applications shall be in the form and accompanied by the data required by the commissioner. If approved by the commissioner, the subdivision may then pass a resolution stating the amount by which the levy limit base is proposed to be increased. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the proposed increase. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the governing body may determine to take no further action or, in the alternative, adopt a resolution authorizing the increase as originally proposed or approving an increase in the lesser amount it determines. The resolution authorizing an increase shall be published in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the governmental subdivision in the last general election or 2,000 voters, whichever is less, requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision if the governmental subdivision is a city or town, or with the county auditor if the governmental subdivision is a county, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. The referendum must be held at a special or general election prior to October 1, 1983.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [ADJUSTED LEVY LIMIT BASE.] For any taxes payable year, the adjusted levy limit base is equal to the levy limit base computed pursuant to subdivision 3f, increased by:

(a) a percentage equal to the forecasted percentage growth in the implicit price deflator during the taxes payable year, as determined by the commissioner of revenue, or six percent, whichever is greater;

(b) a percentage equal to the greater of the percentage increases in population or in number of households, if any, for the most recent 12 month period for which data is available, using figures derived pursuant to section 275.53, subdivision 1b;

(c) one-half of the amount levied as a special levy in the previous year for paying the costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (m), provided that the special levy is discontinued; and

(d) the amount of any permanent increase in the levy limit base approved at a general or special election held during the 12-month period ending September 30 of the levy year, pursuant to section 275.58, subdivisions 1 and 2.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [LEVY LIMITATION.] The levy limitation for governmental subdivision shall be equal to the adjusted levy limit base determined pursuant to subdivision 3h, reduced by the total amount of local government aid that the municipality has been certified to receive in the taxes payable year pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014. The resulting figure is the maximum amount that the municipality may levy for the taxes payable year for all purposes except special levies and special assessments.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.53, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [POPULATION AND HOUSEHOLD ESTIMATES.] For the purpose of determining the amount of tax that a governmental subdivision may levy in accordance with limitation established by this chapter, the population or the number of households of the governmental subdivision shall be that established by the last federal census, by a census taken pursuant to section 275.14, or by an estimate made by the metropolitan council, or by the state demographer made pursuant to section 116J.42, subdivision 7, whichever is the most recent as to the stated date of count or estimate, up to and including July 1 of the current levy year.

Sec. 9. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, subdivisions 3e and 5, are repealed.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective for taxes levied in 1983, payable in 1984, and thereafter.

(2) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

(3) “(INDUSTRIAL) Employment property” means taxable property, excluding land but including buildings, structures, fixtures, and improvements that satisfy each of the following conditions:

(b) The (PRIMARY PURPOSE AND PROSPECTIVE USE OF THE) property is ((I) THE MANUFACTURE OR PROCESSING OF GOODS OR MATERIALS BY PHYSICAL OR CHEMICAL CHANGE, OR (II) THE PROVISION OF OFFICE, ENGINEERING, RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT, WAREHOUSING, PARTS DISTRIBUTION, OR OTHER FACILITIES THAT ARE RELATED TO A MANUFACTURING OR PROCESSING OPERATION CONDUCTED BY THE USER) commercial or industrial property and is used in a trade or business which would qualify for tax reductions under section 10, subdivision 9.

((D) THE PROPERTY IS CLASSIFIED AS INDUSTRIAL EMPLOYMENT PROPERTY BY THE PROCEDURE AND SUBJECT TO THE CONDITIONS PROVIDED IN THIS SECTION, BEFORE IT IS FIRST PLACED IN USE.)

(4) “Market value” (, AS APPLIED TO INDUSTRIAL) of a parcel of employment property (ON ANY PARTICULAR PARCEL OF LAND,) means the value of (ALL) the taxable property (SITUATED THERE EXCEPT THE LAND,) as annually determined pursuant to section 273.12, less (i) the market value of all property existing at the time of application for classification, as last assessed prior to the time of application, and (ii) any increase in the market value of the property referred to in clause (i) as assessed in each year after the (INDUSTRIAL) employment property is first placed in service. In each year, any change in the values of the (INDUSTRIAL) employment property and the other property on the land shall be deemed to be proportionate unless caused by a capital improvement or loss.

(5) “Municipality” means any home rule charter or statutory city or county, but a county may not exercise the powers granted in this section with reference to property situated within a city.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (3) and (4), “employment property” and “market value” includes in the case of taxable real property located in an enterprise zone designated under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, clause (3)(c), the entire value of the commercial and industrial property used in a trade or business which would qualify for tax reductions under section 10, subdivision 9.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.1313, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM.] (1) The governing body of any municipality which contains a designated enterprise zone as provided by section 273.1312 (MAY) shall by resolution establish a program for classification of new (INDUSTRIAL) property or improvements to existing property as (INDUSTRIAL) employment property pursuant to the provisions of this section (, IF IT FINDS THAT THE PROGRAM IS NEEDED TO FACILITATE AND ENCOURAGE THE RENEWAL OR ADDITION OF INDUSTRIAL FACILITIES TO PROVIDE OR PRESERVE EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR ITS CITIZENS). Applications for classification under the program shall be filed with the municipal clerk or auditor in a form prescribed by the commissioner, with additions as may be prescribed by the municipal governing body. The application shall contain, where appropriate, a legal description of the parcel of land on which the facility is to be situated or improved; a general description of the facility or improvement and its proposed use, (THE EQUIPMENT PROPOSED TO BE USED IN CONNECTION WITH IT (INCLUDING EQUIPMENT EXEMPT FROM TAXATION UNDER EXISTING LAW),) the probable time schedule for undertaking the construction or improvement, and information regarding the matters referred to in paragraph (4); the market value and the assessed value of the land and of all other taxable property then situated on it, according to the most recent assessment; and an estimate of the probable cost of the new construction or improvement and the market value of the new or improved facility (excluding land) when completed.

(2) Upon receipt of an application the municipal clerk or auditor, subject to any prior approval required by the resolution establishing the program, shall furnish a copy to the assessor for the property and to the governing body of each school district and other public body authorized to levy taxes on the property, and shall publish a notice in the official newspaper of the time and place of a hearing to be held by the governing body on the application, not less than 30 days after the notice is published, stating that the applicant, the assessor, representatives of the affected taxing authorities, and any taxpayer of the municipality may be heard or may present their views in writing at or before the hearing. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time, but the governing body shall take action on the application by resolution within 30 days after the hearing. If disapproved, the reasons shall be set forth in the resolution, and the applicant may appeal to the commissioner within 30 days thereafter, but only on the ground that the determination is arbitrary, in relation to prior determinations as to classification under the program, or based upon a mistake of law. If approved, the resolution shall include determinations as to the matters set forth in paragraph (4), and the clerk or auditor shall transmit it to the commissioner.

(3) Within 60 days after receipt of an approved application or an appeal from the disapproval of an application, the commissioner shall take action on it. The commissioner shall approve each application approved by the governing body if he finds that it complies with the provisions of this section. If he disapproves the application, or finds grounds exist for appeal of a disapproved application, he shall transmit the finding to the governing body and the applicant. When grounds for appeal have been determined to exist, the governing body shall reconsider and take further action on the application within 30 days after receipt of the commissioner's notice and serve written notice of the action upon the applicant. The applicant, within 30 days after receipt of notice of final disapproval by the commissioner or the governing body, may appeal from the disapproval to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) In the case of enterprise zones qualifying pursuant to section 273.1312, subdivision 4, clause (3)(a), an application shall not be approved unless the governing body finds and determines that the construction or improvement of the facility:

(a) Is reasonably likely to create new employment or prevent a loss of employment in the municipality;

(b) Is not likely to have the effect of transferring existing employment from one or more other municipalities within the state;

(c) Is not likely to cause the total market value of (INDUSTRIAL) employment property within the municipality to exceed five percent of the total market value of all taxable property within the municipality; or if it will, the resulting limitation upon the increase of the assessed value of all taxable property within the municipality, considering the amount of additional municipal services likely to be required for the (INDUSTRIAL) employment property, is not likely to substantially impede the operation or the financial integrity of the municipality or any other public body levying taxes on property in the municipality; and

(d) Will not result in the reduction of the assessed value of existing property within the municipality owned by the applicant, through abandonment, demolition, or otherwise, without provision for the restoration of the existing property within a reasonable time in a manner sufficient to restore the assessed valuation.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.1313, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CLASSIFICATION.] Property shall be classified as (INDUSTRIAL) employment property and assessed as provided for class 4d property in section 273.13, subdivision 9, clause (4), for taxes levied in the year in which the classification is approved and (IN EACH YEAR THEREAFTER TO AND INCLUDING THE 12TH YEAR AFTER THE INDUSTRIAL EMPLOYMENT PROPERTY IS COMPLETED) for the four succeeding years after the approval. If the classification is revoked, the revocation is effective for taxes levied in the next year after revocation.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.1313, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [HEARING.] Upon receipt of the request, the commissioner shall notify the applicant and the governing body (BY CERTIFIED MAIL) of a time and place (, NOT LESS THAN 30 DAYS AFTER RECEIPT,) at which the applicant may be heard (AND). The hearing shall be held within 30 days after receipt of the request. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner (WILL) shall determine whether the facts and circumstances are grounds for revocation as recommended by the governing body. If the commissioner revokes the classification, the applicant may appeal from the commissioner's order to a court of competent jurisdiction at any time within 30 days after revocation.

Sec. 10. [273.1314] [SELECTION OF ENTERPRISE ZONES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "City" means a statutory or home rule charter city.

(b) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of energy, planning, and development or its successor agency.

(c) "Legislative advisory commission" means the legislative advisory commission established under section 3.30.

(d) "Municipality" means a city or a county for an area located outside the boundaries of a city. If an area lies in two or more cities or in both incorporated and unincorporated areas, municipality shall include an entity formed pursuant to section 471.59 by the governing bodies of the cities with jurisdiction over the incorporated area and the counties with jurisdiction over the unincorporated area.

Subd. 2. [SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS.] On or before July 31, a municipality seeking designation of an area as an enterprise zone shall submit an application to the commissioner. The commissioner shall establish procedures and forms for the submission of applications for enterprise zone designation.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATIONS; CONTENTS.] The applications for designation as an enterprise zone shall contain, at a minimum:

(a) verification that the area is eligible for designation pursuant to section 273.1312;

(b) a development plan, outlining the types of investment and development within the zone that the municipality expects to take place if the incentives and tax reductions specified under clauses (d) and (e) are provided, including specific investment or development reasonably expected to take place and any commitments obtained from businesses;

(c) the municipality's proposed method of assessing the effectiveness of the development plan once it has been implemented;

(d) the specific form of tax reductions, authorized by subdivision 9, proposed to be granted to businesses making new investment in the zones, the duration of the tax reductions, an estimate of the total state taxes likely to be foregone as a result, and a statement of the relationship between the proposed tax reductions and the type of investment or development sought or expected to be attracted to the area if it is designated as a zone;

(e) the municipality's contribution to the zone as required by subdivision 6;

(f) any additional information required by the commissioner; and

(g) any additional information which the municipality considers relevant to the designation of the area as an enterprise zone.

Clause (b) shall not apply to an application for designation under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, clause (3)(c).

Subd. 4. [EVALUATION OF APPLICATIONS.] The commissioner shall review and evaluate the applications submitted pursuant to subdivision 3 and shall determine whether each area is eligible for designation as an enterprise zone. In determining whether an area is eligible under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, clause (3), if unemployment, employment, income or other necessary data are not available for the area from the federal departments of labor or commerce or the state demographer, the commissioner may rely upon other data submitted by the municipality if he determines it is statistically reliable or accurate. The commissioner, in conjunction with the commissioner of revenue, shall prepare an estimate of the amount of state tax revenue which will be foregone for each application if the area is designated as a zone.

On or before September 1, the commissioner shall submit to the legislative advisory commission a list of the areas eligible for designation as enterprise zones, along with his recommendations for designation and supporting documentation. In making his recommendations for designation, the commissioner shall consider and evaluate the applications pursuant to the following criteria:

(a) the pervasiveness of poverty, unemployment, and general distress in the area;

(b) the extent of chronic abandonment, deterioration or reduction in value of commercial, industrial or residential structures in the area and the extent of property tax arrearages in the area;

(c) the prospects for new investment and economic development in the area with the tax reductions proposed in the application relative to the state and local tax revenue which would be foregone;

(d) the competing needs of other areas of the state;

(e) the municipality's proposed use of other state and federal development funds or programs to increase the probability of new investment and development occurring;

(f) the extent to which the proposed development will provide employment for individuals located within the economic hardship area;

(g) the funds available pursuant to subdivision 8; and

(h) other relevant factors which he specifies in his recommendations.

The commissioner shall submit a separate list of the areas entitled to designation as enterprise zones under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, clauses (3)(b) and (3)(c), along with his recommendations for the amount of funds to be allocated to each area.

Subd. 5. [LAC RECOMMENDATIONS.] On or before September 15, the legislative advisory commission shall submit to the commissioner its advisory recommendations regarding the designation of enterprise zones. By September 30 the commissioner shall make the final designation of the areas as enterprise zones, pursuant to section 273.1312, subdivision 2. In making the designation, the commissioner may make modifications in the design of or limitations on the tax reductions contained in the application necessary because of the funding limitations under subdivision 8.

Subd. 6. [LOCAL CONTRIBUTION.] No area shall be designated as an enterprise zone unless the municipality agrees to make a qualifying local contribution in the form of (i) a property tax reduction for employment property as provided by section 273.1313 for any business qualifying for a state tax reduction pursuant to this section, or (ii) an equivalent local contribution or investment out of other municipal funds, but excluding any special federal grants or loans. If the local contribution is to be used to fund additional reductions in state taxes, the commissioner and the governing body of the municipality shall enter an agreement for timely payment to the state to reimburse the state for the amount of tax revenue foregone as a result.

Subd. 7. [LIMITATIONS; NUMBER OF DESIGNATIONS.] (a) In each of the two calendar years following and including the effective date of this section, the commissioner shall designate at least three but not more than six areas as enterprise zones. No designations shall be made after December 31, 1984.

(b) No more than one area may be designated as an enterprise zone in any county, except that two areas may be designated in a county containing a city of the first class.

(c) No more than one area in a congressional district may be designated as an enterprise zone in any calendar year.

This subdivision shall not apply to enterprise zones designated pursuant to section 273.1312, subdivision 4, clauses (3)(b) or (3)(c).

Subd. 8. [FUNDING LIMITATIONS.] (a) $ _____ is appropriated to the commissioner of revenue from the general fund for the purpose of funding the tax reductions authorized pursuant to designations of enterprise zones under section 273.1312 and this section. $10,000,000 of the total appropriation is the maximum amount which may be authorized by the commissioner for tax reductions pursuant to subdivision 9 that will reduce tax revenues which otherwise would have been received during fiscal years 1984 and 1985. The commissioner shall allocate to enterprise zones designated under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, clause (3)(c), an amount not less than 80 percent of the total appropriation multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of zones designated under section 273-1312, subdivision 4, clause (3)(c), and the denominator of which is the maximum number of enterprise zones which may be designated for the year including those designated under clause (3)(c) during any year and the funds shall be allocated among (3)(c) zones on a per capita basis. Upon designation of an enterprise zone the commissioner shall certify the total amount available for tax reductions in the zone for its duration. The amount certified shall reduce the amount available for tax reductions in other enterprise zones. If subsequent estimates indicate or actual experience shows that the approved tax reductions will result in amounts of tax reductions in excess of the amount certified, the commissioner shall implement a plan to reduce the available tax reductions in the zone to an amount within the sum certified. If subsequent estimates indicate or actual experience shows that the approved tax reductions will result in amounts of tax reductions below the amount certified, the difference shall be available for certification in other zones or used in connection with an amended plan of tax reductions for the zone as the commissioner determines appropriate. If the tax reductions authorized result in reduced revenues for a dedicated fund, the commissioner of finance shall transfer equivalent amounts to the dedicated fund from the general fund as necessary.

(b) The appropriation pursuant to paragraph (a) shall not cancel. The commissioner of finance shall reduce the amount of the appropriation based upon information supplied by the commissioner of revenue that the tax reductions authorized for enterprise zones have or are estimated to have resulted in reduced state tax collections.

Subd. 9. [AUTHORIZED FORMS OF STATE TAX REDUCTIONS.] (a) The following types of tax reductions may be approved by the commissioner for businesses located in an enterprise zone:

(1) An exemption from the general sales tax imposed by chapter 297A for purchases of construction materials or equipment for use in the zone;

(2) A credit against income tax for a percentage of the payroll costs or wages paid to additional workers employed in the zone, other than workers employed in construction;

(3) An income tax credit for a percentage of the cost of debt financing to construct new facilities in the zone;

(4) A state paid property tax credit for a portion of the property taxes paid by a new commercial or industrial facility or the additional property taxes paid by an expansion of an existing commercial or industrial facility in the zone.

(b) The municipality shall specify in its application for designation the types of tax reductions it seeks to be made available in the zone and the percentage rates and other appropriate limitations on the reductions.

(c) Upon designation of an enterprise zone and approval by the commissioner of the tax reductions to be made available therein, the commissioner of revenue shall take the steps necessary to implement the tax reductions.

(d) The tax reductions provided by this subdivision shall not apply to any facility as enumerated in section 103(b)(6)(O) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983, or to any regulated public utility.

(e) In addition to the tax reductions authorized by paragraph (a), for an enterprise zone designated under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, clause (3)(c), the following types of tax reductions may be approved:

(1) A credit against income tax for workers employed in the zone up to a maximum of $ per employee; or

(2) A state paid property tax credit for a portion of the property taxes paid by a commercial or industrial facility located in the zone.

Subd. 10. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] The commissioner shall establish a mechanism for providing and shall provide technical assistance to small municipalities seeking designation of an area as an enterprise zone under this section and section 273.1312. For purposes of this subdivision, a small municipality means a municipality with a population of 25,000 or less.

Subd. 11. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES ACT.] The provisions of chapter 14 shall not apply to designation of enterprise zones pursuant to this section or section 273.1312.

Subd. 12. [FEDERAL DESIGNATIONS.] The commissioner may accept applications and may at any time grant a contingent designation of area as an enterprise zone for purposes of seeking a designation of the area as a federal enterprise zone. For purposes of such designations, the commissioner may waive any of the requirements or limitations on designations contained in this section. If the contingent designation would require funding in excess of the amount available pursuant to subdivision 8, the commissioner shall inform the members of the legislative advisory commission and shall submit a request for the necessary funding to the tax and appropriations committees of the legislature.

Subd. 13. [REPEALER.] This section is repealed effective December 31, 1991.

Sec. 11. [APPROPRIATION.]

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(1) On the first $25,000, (FOR THE FIRST TAXABLE YEAR BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1981 AND BEFORE JANUARY 1, 1983 NINE PERCENT AND, FOR TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1982,) six percent; provided that, in the case of a corporation having taxable net income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of section 290.19 or 290.20, the amount of income subject to this rate shall be that proportion of $25,000 which its income allocable to this state bears to its total taxable net income; and

(2) On the remainder, (12) 11 percent.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.068, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [ADDITIONAL CREDIT.] (a) In addition to the credit allowed by subdivision 1, a credit shall be allowed against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year equal to 12.5 percent of the amount of qualified research expenses paid or incurred for qualified research performed by a corporation for or on behalf of one or more of its wholly-owned subsidiary corporations which has in effect during the taxable year a valid election under section 936 of the Internal Revenue Code, including any expenses paid or incurred that are attributable to a wholly-owned subsidiary corporation by reason of paragraph (h) of section 936 for purposes of determining each corporation's combined taxable income.

(b) The maximum credit allowed by clause (a) for the taxable year shall be the excess of

(1) the total amount of tax imposed by this chapter on all members of the unitary group for the taxable year, over

(2) the sum of (A) the total amount of tax which would be imposed on the unitary group, if the corporation or corporations with valid elections under section 936 of the Internal Revenue Code were excluded from the unitary group, plus (B) the tax, if any, which would be imposed on the corporation or corporations with valid elections under section 936 of the Internal Revenue Code without regard to the other members of the unitary group.

(c)(1) If the amount of the credit determined under clause (a) for any taxable year exceeds the limitation provided in clause (b), the excess shall be a research credit carryover to each of the 15 succeeding taxable years. The entire amount of the excess unused credit for the taxable year shall be carried first to the earliest of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried and then to each successive year to which the credit may be carried.

(2) The amount of the unused credit which may be added under clause (c)(1) for any preceding taxable year shall not exceed the amount by which the limitation provided by clause (b) for the taxable year exceeds the sum of

(i) the credit allowable under this subdivision for the taxable year, and

(ii) the amounts, which, by reason of clause (c)(1), are added to the amount allowable for the taxable year and which are attributable to taxable years preceding the taxable year in which an excess credit arises.

Sec. 14. [290.069] [SMALL BUSINESS INVESTMENT CREDITS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Qualified small business" means a business entity organized for profit if the entity:

(1) Has 20 or fewer employees and has less than $1,000,000 in gross annual receipts;

(2) Is not a subsidiary or an affiliate of a business which employs more than 20 employees or has total gross receipts for the previous year of more than $1,000,000, computed by aggregating all of the employees and gross receipts of the business entities affiliated with the business;

(3) Has its commercial domicile in this state;

(4) Does not derive more than 20 percent of its gross receipts from royalties, rents, dividends, interest, annuities, and sales or exchanges of stock or securities;

(5) Is not engaged in a trade or business, the primary purpose of which is described in section 103(b)(6)(O) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; and

(6) Is certified by the commissioner of energy, planning and development that it satisfies the requirements of clauses (1) to (5).

(b) "Small business assistance office" means a nonprofit corporation which is formed under chapter 317, is an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and satisfies the following conditions:

(1) The primary purpose of the corporation is to aid in the formation of new businesses which create jobs in the state by training or providing other direct assistance to entrepreneurs, managers, and other individuals in the development, financing, and operation of qualified small businesses.

(2) The corporation provides audited financial statements to all contributors and the commissioner of energy, planning, and development within 90 days following the close of the corporation's fiscal year.

(3) The corporation employs at least two full-time professional employees or the equivalent.

(4) The corporation is not engaged in providing financing or primarily engaged in arranging financing for businesses.

(5) The commissioner of energy, planning and development certifies that the corporation satisfies the requirements of this paragraph for the calendar year.

(c) "Technology" means a proprietary process, formula, pattern, device, or compilation of scientific or technical information unless it

(1) is in the public domain; or

(2) cannot be accurately valued.

(d) "Controlled group of corporations" means the controlled group of corporations as defined in section 1563 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and if the corporation is part of a unitary business, includes the corporations or entities constituting the unitary business which are not in the controlled group of corporations as defined in section 1563.

(e) The "Internal Revenue Code of 1954" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983.

Subd. 2. [TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER CREDIT.] A credit may be claimed against the taxes imposed by this chapter in an amount equal to 30 percent of the net value of the technology transferred to a qualified small business if the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The commissioner certifies that the technology has the value claimed by the transferor taxpayer.

(b) The transferor taxpayer is the exclusive and undisputed owner of the technology at the time the transfer is made.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (h), the transferor retains no proprietary or financial interest in the technology subsequent to its transfer to the qualified small business and no credit is claimed for the transfer of the technology in a prior or subsequent taxable year, except pursuant to the carryover provisions of subdivision 5.

(d) The credit shall apply only to the first $1,000,000 of the net value of the technology transferred during the taxable year. The value of the technology shall not exceed the total qualified research expenses, as defined in section 290.068, subdivision 2, expended by the transferor to create or develop the technology. For purposes of this clause, "net value" means the total value of the technology less any payments received from the transferee and less the value of any equity interest in the transferee received by the transferor in exchange for the technology. For purposes of determining the value of the equity interest, the total value of the transferee shall be deemed to be not less than the value of the technology transferred, less any cash payment made to the transferor.

(e) The taxpayer has not deducted the value of the transferred property from income under any other provisions of this chapter, except that the costs of developing the technology may have been deducted as a business expense or depreciated or included in the computation of the research and experimental expenditure credit pursuant to section 290.068.

(f) The transferee business entity may not be a subsidiary or affiliate of the transferor taxpayer.

(g) The transferee makes a substantial investment in acquiring or developing the technology. The requirements of this clause are satisfied if (1) transferee pays the transferor an amount equal to 20 percent of the value of the technology in return for acquisition of the rights to the technology, or if (2) the transferee expends an equivalent amount for equipment, materials, wages, or other direct costs to develop, produce, or otherwise use the technology. The requirements of this paragraph may not be satisfied by granting the transferor an equity interest as provided by paragraph (h).

(h) The transferor may receive in exchange for the transfer of the technology an equity interest in the transferee, but this interest may not exceed 25 percent of the capital interest, if the transferee is a partnership, or 25 percent in value of the outstanding stock, if the transferee is a corporation. The transferor's basis in the equity interest shall be reduced by the amount of the credits received pursuant to this subdivision. The transferor may not deduct any loss realized on the sale or exchange of the equity interest.

The commissioner may require that the taxpayer obtain an appraisal of the value of the transferred technology by a reliable, expert third party. The commissioner may promulgate administrative rules for appraising the value of transferred technology.

Subd. 3. [SMALL BUSINESS ASSISTANCE OFFICE CREDIT.] A credit shall be allowed against the taxes imposed by this chapter in an amount equal to 50 percent of the first $50,000 of contributions made during the taxable year to a small business assistance office. No credit shall be allowed for any contributions deducted pursuant to any other provision of this chapter.

Subd. 4. [EQUITY INVESTMENT CREDIT.] (a) A credit shall be allowed against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year in an amount equal to 30 percent of the net investment in excess of $25,000 in the equity stock of a qualified small business. The maximum amount of the credit for a taxable year may not exceed $75,000. For purposes of this credit the following limitations apply:

(1) Equity stock shall not include any security which provides for fixed or variable interest payments.

(2) The taxpayer and any related persons may not own more than 49 percent of the value of any class of stock. For purposes of this paragraph, a person is a related person to another person if (i) the relationship between the persons would result in a disallowance of losses under section 267 or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or (ii) the persons are members of the same controlled group of corporations. The restrictions provided by this subdivision shall apply for a three year period beginning on the date the stock is purchased. If the taxpayer or a related person acquires more than 49 percent of the value of any class of stock after the allowance of a credit under this subdivision and prior to the end of the three year period, the taxpayer's tax for the taxable year in which the credit was allowed shall be increased by the amount of the credit previously claimed.

(3) The credit shall not exceed 75 percent of the taxpayer's tax liability computed after the subtraction of all credits, other than the credit provided in this subdivision. The portion of the credit disallowed shall qualify as a carryover pursuant to subdivision 5.

(b) If the principal place of business of the qualified small business is located in an enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 273.1312, $10,000 shall be substituted for $25,000 and $100,000 for $75,000 in paragraph (a).

Subd. 5. [LIMITATIONS; OTHER CONDITIONS.] The provisions of section 290.068, subdivisions 3, clause (a); 4; and 5 shall apply to the sum of the credits which this section allows, except that no carryback shall be allowed. The carryover provisions of section 290.068, subdivision 3, clause (b), shall apply to the sum of the credits allowed by this section except that the term "research credit" or "research and experimental expenditure credit" shall include the credits authorized by subdivisions 2 to 4 of this section. The credits allowed by subdivisions 2 and 3 shall only be available to corporations and banks whose tax is computed pursuant to section 290.06, subdivision 1.

The maximum limitations on the amount of credits pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3 shall be determined by aggregating together the credits of all the corporations in the controlled group of corporations with the taxpayer. In order to facilitate compliance with and enforcement of this provision the commissioner may require the taxpayer to claim the credit on a combined report of the unitary business or to file a copy of the consolidated federal return with the state return or both.

Subd. 6. [REPEALER.] This section is repealed effective for contributions made, technology transferred, and investments made in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1985.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXES.] Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year, except (a) income or franchise taxes imposed by this chapter and income or franchise taxes paid to any other state or to any province or territory of Canada for which a credit is allowed under section 290.081; (b) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind deemed in law to increase the value of the property assessed; (c) inheritance, gift and estate taxes except as provided in section 290.077, subdivision 4; (d) cigarette and tobacco products excise tax imposed on the consumer; (e) that part of Minnesota property taxes for which a credit or refund is claimed and allowed under chapter 290A; (f) federal income taxes (including the windfall profit tax on domestic crude oil), by corporations, national and state banks; (g) mortgage registry tax; (h) real estate transfer tax; (i) federal telephone tax; (j) federal transportation tax; (AND) (k) income or franchise taxes paid by a corporation to another state, to a political subdivision of another state, or to the District of Columbia; and (l) tax paid by any corporation or national or state bank to any foreign country or possession of the United States to the extent that a credit against federal income taxes is allowed under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. If the taxpayer's foreign tax credit consists of both foreign taxes deemed paid and foreign taxes actually paid or withheld, it will be conclusively presumed that foreign taxes deemed paid were first used by the taxpayer in its foreign tax credit. Minnesota gross income shall include the amount of foreign tax paid which had been allowed as a deduction in a previous year, provided such foreign tax is later allowed as a credit against federal income tax.

Taxes imposed upon a shareholder's interest in a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder shall be deductible only by such corporation.

Property taxes shall be allowed as a deduction to the same taxpayer and in the same manner as provided in section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, notwithstanding the provisions of section 272.31.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.09, subdivision 28, is amended to read:

Subd. 28. [REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUSTS; DEDUCTIBLE DIVIDENDS.] A "real estate investment trust," as defined in section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and to which sections 856 to 860 of the Code apply for the taxable year, may deduct its dividends paid to the extent permitted by section 857(b) (2) (B) of the Code. Such a trust and its shareholders and beneficiaries shall be subject to all of the provisions of sections 857 and 858 of the Code which are applicable under this chapter, in determining their respective taxable net incomes, provided that the amount determined and available for the alternative tax under section 857(b) (3) (A) (ii) of the Code shall be included in gross income (SUBJECT TO THE DEDUCTION PROVIDED BY SECTION 290.16, SUBDIVISION 4).

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.091, is amended to read:

290.091 [MINIMUM TAX ON PREFERENCE ITEMS.]

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981. For purposes of the tax imposed by this section, the following modifications shall be made:

(1) Capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years.

(2) In the case of a corporate taxpayer, percentage depletion shall not be a preference item.

(3) In the case of a corporate taxpayer, (THE) capital (GAIN) gains shall not be a preference item (SHALL NOT INCLUDE THE TIMBER PREFERENCE INCOME DEFINED IN SECTION 57(E)(1) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE).

(4) The preference item of reserves for losses on bad debts shall not include reserves allowable under section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code, but which are not allowable under section 290.09, subdivision 6, clause (c).

(5) In the case of an individual, the preference item of adjusted itemized deductions does not include any deduction for charitable contributions in excess of the limitations contained in section 290.21, subdivision 3, including any carryover amount allowed for federal purposes.

(6) The capital gain preference item shall be reduced where the gain would be modified because some or all of the assets have a higher basis for Minnesota purposes than for federal purposes.

(7) In the case of a nonresident individual, or an estate or trust, with a net operating loss that is a larger amount for Minnesota than for federal, the capital gain preference item shall be reduced to the extent it was reduced in the allowance of the net operating loss.

In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes.

The tax benefit rule contained in section 58(h) of the Internal Revenue Code is applied to the Minnesota minimum tax only to the extent that it determines if there is a federal minimum tax. No separate tax benefit rule is allowable for the Minnesota minimum tax.

For property placed in service after December 31, 1980, the preference items contained in section 57 (a) (12) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall not apply.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.16, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DEDUCTIONS FOR CAPITAL GAINS.] If for any taxable year the net long-term capital gain exceeds the net short-term capital loss, (60) 50 percent of the amount of (SUCH) the excess shall be a deduction from gross income. The deduction provided by this subdivision shall be allowed only if the taxpayer has long term capital gain derived from the sale or exchange of qualified securities equal to at least the amount of the excess of net long term capital gain over net short term capital loss. For purposes of this subdivision, "qualified security" means a security as defined in section 165(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983, if (a) the security represents or is convertible to an equity interest in the issuing corporation or business entity, (b) the security or other securities issued by the same corporation or entity were not listed on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange, or the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation system within a one year period of the date on which the taxpayer acquired the security, and (c) the security was not issued by a corporation or entity in which the taxpayer owned more than 60 percent of the combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote.

The county auditor shall, within 30 days after each settlement, send an abstract of same to the state auditor in the form prescribed by the state auditor. Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATION OF VALIDITY.] Any person having any estate, right, title, or interest in or lien upon any parcel of land, who claims that such property has been partially, unfairly, or unequally assessed in comparison with other property in the city or county, or that the parcel has been assessed at a valuation greater than its real or actual value, or that the tax levied against the same is illegal, in whole or in part, or has been paid, or that the property is exempt from the tax so levied, may have the validity of his claim, defense, or objection determined by the district court of the county in which the tax is levied or by the tax court by serving two copies of a petition for such determination upon the county auditor and one copy each on the county treasurer and the county attorney and filing the same, with proof of service, in the office of the clerk of the district court before the (FIRST) 15th day of (JUNE) May of the year in which the tax becomes payable. The county auditor shall immediately forward one copy of the petition to the appropriate governmental authority in a home rule charter or statutory city or town in which the property is located if that city or town employs its own certified assessor. A copy of the petition shall also be sent to the school board of the school district in which the property is located. A petition for determination under this section may be transferred by the district court to the tax court. An appeal may also be taken to the tax court under chapter 271 at any time following receipt of the valuation notice required by section 273.121 but prior to (JUNE 1) May 15 of the year in which the taxes are payable.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 278.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOMESTEADS.] Any person having any estate, right, title or interest in or lien upon any parcel which is classified as homestead under the provisions of section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 6a, 7, 7b, 10 or 12, who claims that said parcel has been assessed at a valuation which exceeds by ten percent or more the valuation which the parcel would have if it were valued at the average assessment/sales ratio for real property in the same class, in that portion of the county in which that parcel is located, for which the commissioner is able to establish and publish a sales ratio study as determined by the applicable real estate assessment/sales ratio study published by the commissioner of revenue, may have the validity of his claim, defense, or objection determined by the district court of the county in which the tax is levied or by the tax court by serving two copies of a petition for such determination upon the county auditor and one copy each on the county treasurer and the county attorney and filing the same, with proof of such service, in the office of the clerk of the district court before the (FIRST) 15th day of (JUNE) May of the year in which such tax becomes payable. The county auditor shall immediately forward one copy of the petition to the appropriate governmental authority in a home rule charter or statutory city or town in which the property is located if that city or town employs its own certified assessor. A copy of the petition shall also be sent to the school board of the school district in which the property is located. A petition for determination under this section may be transferred by the district court to the tax court.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 278.03, is amended to read:

278.03 [PAYMENT OF TAX.]

If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed before the (FIRST) 15th day of (JUNE) May next following the filing, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the tax levied for such year against the property involved, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without such payment is obtained as herein provided. If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed by the next (NOVEMBER 1) October 15, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the unpaid balance of the taxes levied for the year against the property involved if the unpaid balance is $2,000 or less and 80 percent of the unpaid balance if the unpaid balance is over $2,000, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as herein provided. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the county attorney and to the county auditor, given at least ten days prior to the (FIRST) 15th day of (JUNE) May or the (FIRST) 15th day of (NOVEMBER) October, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

- (1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;
- (2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and
- (3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay the taxes due, the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment. The county treasurer shall, upon request of the petitioner, issue duplicate receipts for the tax payment, one of which shall be filed by the petitioner in the proceeding.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 278.05, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Any time after the filing of the petition and before the trial of the issues raised thereby, when the defense or claim presented is that the property has been partially, unfairly, or unequally assessed, or that the parcel has been assessed at a valuation greater than its real or actual value, or that a parcel which is classified as homestead under the provisions of section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 6a, 7, 7b, 10 or 12, has been assessed at a valuation which exceeds by ten percent or more the valuation which the parcel would have if it were valued at the average assessment/sales ratio for real property in the same class in that portion of the county in which the parcel is located, for which the commissioner is able to establish and publish a sales ratio study, the attorney representing the state, county, city or town in the proceedings may serve on the petitioner, or his attorney, and file with the clerk of the district court, an offer to reduce the valuation of any tract or tracts to a valuation set forth in the offer. If, within ten days thereafter, the petitioner, or his attorney, gives notice in writing to the county attorney, or the attorney for the city or town, that the offer is accepted, he may file the offer with proof of notice, and the clerk shall enter judgment accordingly. Otherwise, the offer shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof shall not be given; and, unless a lower valuation than specified in the offer is found by the court, no costs or disbursements shall be allowed to the petitioner, but the costs and disbursements of the state, county, city or town, including interest at six percent on the tax based on the amount of the offer from and after the (FIRST) 15th day of (NOVEMBER) October of the year the taxes are payable, shall be taxed in its favor and included in the judgment and when collected shall be credited to the county revenue fund, unless the taxes were paid in full before the (FIRST) 15th day of (NOVEMBER) October of the year in which the taxes were payable, in which event interest shall not be taxable.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 279.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. On (JUNE FIRST) May 15, of each year, with respect to property actually occupied and used as a homestead by the owner of the property, a penalty of three percent shall accrue and thereafter be charged upon all unpaid taxes on real estate on the current lists in the hands of the county treasurer, and a penalty of seven percent on non-homestead property. Thereafter, for both homestead and non-homestead property, on the (FIRST) 15th day of each month, up to and including (NOVEMBER FIRST) October 15 following, an additional penalty of one percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $10, one-half thereof may be paid prior to (JUNE FIRST) May 15; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to (NOVEMBER FIRST) October 15 following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of four percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on non-homestead property. Thereafter, for homestead property, on the (FIRST) 15th day of each month up to and including (JANUARY 1) December 15 following, an additional penalty of two percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter, for non-homestead property, on the (FIRST) 15th day of each month up to and including (JANUARY 1) December 15 following, an additional penalty of four percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. If one-half of such taxes shall not be paid prior to (JUNE FIRST) May 15, the same may be paid at any time prior to (NOVEMBER FIRST) October 15, with accrued penalties to the date of payment added, and thereupon no penalty shall attach to the remaining one-half until (NOVEMBER FIRST) October 15 following; provided, also, that the same may be paid in installments as follows: One-fourth prior to (APRIL FIRST) March 15; one-fourth prior to (JUNE FIRST) May 15; one-fourth prior to (SEPTEMBER FIRST) August 15; and the remaining one-fourth prior to (NOVEMBER FIRST) October 15, subject to the aforesaid penalties. Where the taxes delinquent after (NOVEMBER FIRST) October 15 against any tract or parcel exceed $40, they may be paid in installments of not less than 25 percent thereof, together with all accrued penalties and costs, up to the next tax judgment sale, and after such payment, penalties, interest, and costs shall accrue only on the sum remaining unpaid. Any county treasurer who shall make out and deliver or countersign any receipt for any such taxes without including all of the foregoing penalties therein, shall be liable to the county for the amount of such penalties.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473F.08, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. The administrative auditor shall determine for each county the difference between the total levy on distribution value pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (a), within the county and the total tax on contribution value pursuant to subdivision 6, within the county. On or before (JUNE 1) May 15 of each year, he shall certify the differences so determined to each county auditor. In addition, he shall certify to those county auditors for whose county the total tax on contribution value exceeds the total levy on distribution value the settlement the county is to make to the other counties of the excess of the total tax on contribution value over the total levy on distribution value in the county. On or before June (30) 15 and November (30) 15 of each year, each county treasurer in a county having a total tax on contribution value in excess of the total levy on distribution value shall pay one-half of the excess to the other counties in accordance with the administrative auditors certification.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 2 to 10 are effective for taxes levied in 1983 and thereafter, payable in 1984 and thereafter.

These aids shall be deducted from the school district's maintenance levy limitation established pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2a, in determining the amount of taxes the school district may levy for general and special purposes for taxes payable in 1984 and 1985.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.139, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 477A.011, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [(CONSUMER PRICE INDEX) IMPLICIT PRICE DEFLATOR INCREASE.] For any calendar year aid distribution, the (CONSUMER PRICE INDEX) implicit price deflator increase means the percentage increase in the (REVISED CONSUMER PRICE INDEX FOR ALL URBAN CONSUMERS FOR THE MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL METROPOLITAN AREA) implicit price deflator for government purchases of goods and services for state and local government prepared by the bureau of economic analysis of the United States department of (LABOR) commerce for the 12 month period ending in June of the previous year.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 477A.011, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [LOCAL REVENUE BASE.] For the (1982) 1984 aid distribution, a municipality's local revenue base means (ITS LOCAL REVENUE BASE FOR) the sum of:

(a) (1) in the case of a municipality which had a local revenue base for the 1981 aid distribution, the 1981 aid distribution base calculated pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 477A.01, less any amount added to the local revenue base for the costs of principal and interest on bonded debt incurred for the purpose of providing capital replacement for streets, curbs, gutters, storm sewers, and bridges; (INCREASED IN THE MANNER PRESCRIBED BY CLAUSES (A) AND (B).) multiplied by a factor of 1.208, and multiplied by a factor equal to the estimated 1981 population divided by the 1980 census population, provided that the latter factor is greater than 1.0; or

(FOR ALL SUBSEQUENT CALENDAR YEAR AID DISTRIBUTIONS, A MUNICIPALITY'S LOCAL REVENUE BASE MEANS ITS LOCAL REVENUE BASE FOR THE PREVIOUS YEAR AID DISTRIBUTION CALCULATED PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 477A.011 TO 477A.014 INCREASED BY:)

((A) A PERCENTAGE EQUAL TO THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX INCREASE; AND)

((B) A PERCENTAGE EQUAL TO THE PERCENTAGE INCREASE IN POPULATION OVER THAT USED TO COMPUTE THE PREVIOUS YEAR AID DISTRIBUTION, IF ANY.)

(THE LOCAL REVENUE BASE FOR A STATUTORY OR HOME RULE CHARTER CITY OR A TOWN HAVING THE POWERS OF A STATUTORY CITY PURSUANT TO SECTION 368.01 OR SPECIAL LAW WHICH HAS A POPULATION OF 2,500 OR MORE ACCORDING TO THE MOST RECENT FEDERAL CENSUS AND)

(2) in the case of a municipality which (DOES) did not have a local revenue base for the (PREVIOUS YEAR) 1981 aid distribution (SHALL BE ESTABLISHED BY ADDING), the (PRIOR YEAR'S) 1983 local government aid distribution received pursuant to (MINNESOTA STATUTES 1980, SECTION 477A.01 OR) sections 477A.011 to 477A.014, (AND) plus the property tax levy, exclusive of levies for bonded indebtedness (, IN THE PRECEDING YEAR AND MULTIPLYING THAT SUM BY A PERCENTAGE EQUAL TO THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX INCREASE.) for taxes payable in 1983;

Applications shall be in the form and accompanied by the data required by the commissioner.

For 1985 and all subsequent calendar year aid distributions the local revenue base means the adjusted local revenue base used in the previous year aid distribution.

For any subsequent calendar year aid distribution, a municipality's maximum aid amount shall be 106 percent of the amount received in the previous year pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.03.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 477A.012, is amended to read:

477A.012 [COUNTY GOVERNMENT DISTRIBUTIONS.]

(THIS AMOUNT SHALL THEN BE ADJUSTED, SO THAT IT IS NEITHER LESS THAN THE SUM OF ITS PREVIOUS YEAR AID AND ITS MINIMUM INCREASE, NOR GREATER THAN THE SUM OF ITS PREVIOUS YEAR AID AND ITS MAXIMUM INCREASE.)

An aid amount shall be computed in the same manner for all towns which have an average equalized mill rate of at least two mills. A town's final aid amount shall be determined by either the subdivision 1 or the subdivision 2 calculation, whichever is greater.

Subd. 3. [AID LIMITATION.] The aid amount determined pursuant to subdivision 2 shall be limited so that it is not greater than the municipality's maximum aid amount.

Sec. 11. [477A.0131] [SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATION.]

Subd. 2. [APPROPRIATION.] A sum sufficient to satisfy the requirement of subdivision 1 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for the purposes of this section. Payments shall be made in the manner prescribed in section 477A.015.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 477A.014, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

ARTICLE 9

MULTISTATE TAX COMPACT

Section 1. [290.171] [ENACTMENT OF MULTISTATE TAX COMPACT.]

The "multistate tax compact" is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all jurisdictions legally joining therein, in the form substantially as follows:

Article I. Purposes.

The purposes of this compact are to:

- 1. Facilitate proper determination of state and local tax liability of multistate taxpayers, including the equitable apportionment of tax bases and settlement of apportionment disputes.*
- 2. Promote uniformity or compatibility in significant components of tax systems.*
- 3. Facilitate taxpayer convenience and compliance in the filing of tax returns and in other phases of tax administration.*
- 4. Avoid duplicative taxation.*

Article II. Definitions.

As used in this compact:

- 1. "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States.*
- 2. "Subdivision" means any governmental unit or special district of a state.*
- 3. "Taxpayer" means any corporation, partnership, firm, association, governmental unit or agency or person acting as a business entity in more than one state.*
- 4. "Income tax" means a tax imposed on or measured by net income including any tax imposed on or measured by an amount arrived at by deducting expenses from gross income, one or more forms of which expenses are not specifically and directly related to particular transactions.*
- 5. "Capital stock tax" means a tax measured in any way by the capital of a corporation considered in its entirety.*

6. "Gross receipts tax" means a tax, other than a sales tax, which is imposed on or measured by the gross volume of business, in terms of gross receipts or in other terms, and in the determination of which no deduction is allowed which would constitute the tax an income tax.

7. "Sales tax" means a tax imposed with respect to the transfer for a consideration of ownership, possession or custody of tangible personal property or the rendering of services measured by the price of the tangible personal property transferred or services rendered and which is required by state or local law to be separately stated from the sales price by the seller, or which is customarily separately stated from the sales price, but does not include a tax imposed exclusively on the sale of a specifically identified commodity or article or class of commodities or articles.

8. "Use tax" means a nonrecurring tax, other than a sales tax, which (a) is imposed on or with respect to the exercise or enjoyment of any right or power over tangible personal property incident to the ownership, possession or custody of that property or the leasing of that property from another including any consumption, keeping, retention, or other use of tangible personal property and (b) is complementary to a sales tax.

9. "Tax" means an income tax, capital stock tax, gross receipts tax, sales tax, use tax, and any other tax which has a multistate impact, except that the provisions of articles III, IV and V of this compact shall apply only to the taxes specifically designated therein and the provisions of article IX of this compact shall apply only in respect to determinations pursuant to article IV.

Article III. Elements of Income Tax Laws.

Taxpayer Option, State and Local Taxes.

1. Any taxpayer subject to an income tax whose income is subject to apportionment and allocation for tax purposes pursuant to the laws of a party state or pursuant to the laws of subdivisions in two or more party states may elect to apportion and allocate his income in the manner provided by the laws of such state or by the laws of such states and subdivisions without reference to this compact, or may elect to apportion and allocate in accordance with article IV. This election for any tax year may be made in all party states or subdivisions thereof or in any one or more of the party states or subdivisions thereof without reference to the election made in the others. For the purposes of this paragraph, taxes imposed by subdivisions shall be considered separately from state taxes and the apportionment and allocation also may be applied to the entire tax base. In no instance wherein article IV is employed for all subdivisions of a state may the sum of all apportionments and allocations to subdivisions within a state be greater than the apportionment and allocation that would be assignable to that state if the apportionment or allocation were being made with respect to a state income tax.

Taxpayer Option, Short Form.

2. Each party state or any subdivision thereof which imposes an income tax shall provide by law that any taxpayer required to file a return, whose only activities within the taxing jurisdiction consist of sales and do not include owning or renting real estate or tangible personal property, and whose dollar volume of gross sales made during the tax year within the state or subdivision, as the case may be, is not in excess of $100,000 may elect to report and pay any tax due on the basis of a percentage of such volume, and shall adopt rates which shall produce a tax which reasonably approximates the tax otherwise due. The commissioner of revenue, after consultation with the Multistate Tax Commission, not more than once in five years, may adjust the $100,000 figure in order to reflect such changes as may occur in the real value of the dollar, and such adjusted figure, upon adoption by the commissioner, shall replace the $100,000 figure specifically provided herein. Each party state and subdivision thereof may make the same election available to taxpayers additional to those specified in this paragraph.

Coverage.

3. Nothing in this article relates to the reporting or payment of any tax other than an income tax.

Article IV. Division of Income.

1. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business, and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations.

(b) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.

(c) "Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions and any other form of remuneration paid to employees for personal services.

(d) "Financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank, small loan company, sales finance company, investment company, or any type of insurance company.

(e) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income.

(f) "Public utility" means any business entity (1) which owns or operates any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications, transportation of goods or persons, except by pipeline, or the production, transmission, sale, delivery, or furnishing of electricity, water or steam; and (2) whose rates of charges for goods or services have been established or approved by a federal, state or local government or governmental agency.

(g) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under paragraphs of this article.

(h) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

(i) "This state" means the state in which the relevant tax return is filed or, in the case of application of this article to the apportionment and allocation of income for local tax purposes, the subdivision or local taxing district in which the relevant tax return is filed.

2. Any taxpayer having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state, other than activity as a financial organization or public utility or the rendering of purely personal services by an individual or any income received by a Minnesota resident individual or income from the operation of a farm, shall allocate and apportion his net income as provided in this article. If a taxpayer has income from business activity as a public utility but derives the greater percentage of his income from activities subject to this article, the taxpayer may elect to allocate and apportion his entire net income as provided in this article.

3. For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this article, a taxpayer is taxable in another state if (1) in that state he is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or a corporate stock tax, or (2) that state has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

4. All business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three.

5. The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period.

6. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals.

7. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the tax administrator may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

8. The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid everywhere during the tax period.

9. Compensation is paid in this state if:

(a) The individual's service is performed entirely within the state;

(b) The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

(c) Some of the service is performed in the state and (1) the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or (2) the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

10. The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period.

11. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

(a) The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

(b) The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and (1) the purchaser is the United States government or (2) the taxpayer is not taxable in the state of the purchaser.

12. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if:

(a) The income-producing activity is performed in this state; or

(b) The income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

13. If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this article do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the tax administrator may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's business activity, if reasonable:

(a) Separate accounting;

(b) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(c) The inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this state; or

(d) The employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's income.

Article V. Elements of Sales and Use Tax Laws.

Tax Credit.

1. Each purchaser liable for a use tax on tangible personal property shall be entitled to full credit for the combined amount or amounts of legally imposed sales or use taxes paid by him with respect to the same property to another state and any subdivision thereof. The credit shall be applied first against the amount of any use tax due the state, and any unused portion of the credit shall then be applied against the amount of any use tax due a subdivision.

2. Whenever a vendor receives and accepts in good faith from a purchaser a resale or other exemption certificate or other written evidence of exemption authorized by the appropriate state or subdivision taxing authority, the vendor shall be relieved of liability for a sales or use tax with respect to the transaction.

Article VI. The Commission.

Organization and Management.

1. (a) The multistate tax commission is hereby established. It shall be composed of one "member" from each party state who shall be the head of the state agency charged with the administration of the types of taxes to which this compact applies. If there is more than one such agency the state shall provide by law for the selection of the commission member from the heads of the relevant agencies. State law may provide that a member of the commission be represented by an alternate but only if there is on file with the commission written notification of the designation and identity of the alternate. The attorney general of each party state or his designee, or other counsel if the laws of the party state specifically provide, shall be entitled to attend the meetings of the commission, but shall not vote. Such attorneys general, designees, or other counsel shall receive all notices of meetings required under paragraph 1(e) of this article.

(b) Each party state shall provide by law for the selection of representatives from its subdivisions affected by this compact to consult with the commission member from that state.

(c) Each member shall be entitled to one vote. The commission shall not act unless a majority of the members are present, and no action shall be binding unless approved by a majority of the total number of members.

(d) The commission shall adopt an official seal to be used as it may provide.

(e) The commission shall hold an annual meeting and such other regular meetings as its bylaws may provide and such special meetings as its executive committee may determine. The commission bylaws shall specify the dates of the annual and any other regular meetings, and shall provide for the giving of notice of annual, regular and special meetings. Notices of special meetings shall include the reasons therefor and an agenda of the items to be considered.

(f) The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, a vice chairman and a treasurer. The commission shall appoint an executive director who shall serve at its pleasure, and it shall fix his duties and compensation. The executive director shall be secretary of the commission. The commission shall make provision for the bonding of such of its officers and employees as it may deem appropriate.

(g) Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any party state, the executive director shall appoint or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the commission and shall fix their duties and compensation. The commission bylaws shall provide for personnel policies and programs.

(h) The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any state, the United States, or any other governmental entity.

(i) The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any governmental entity, and may utilize and dispose of the same.

(j) The commission may establish one or more offices for the transacting of its business.

(k) The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form, and shall file a copy of the bylaws and any amendments thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

(l) The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering its activities for the preceding year. Any donation or grant accepted by the commission or services borrowed shall be reported in the annual report of the commission, and shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, gift, grant or services borrowed and the identity of the donor or lender. The commission may make additional reports as it may deem desirable.

Committees.

2. (a) To assist in the conduct of its business when the full commission is not meeting, the commission shall have an executive committee of seven members, including the chairman, vice chairman, treasurer and four other members elected annually by the commission. The executive committee, subject to the provisions of this compact and consistent with the policies of the commission, shall function as provided in the bylaws of the commission.

(b) The commission may establish advisory and technical committees, membership on which may include private persons and public officials, in furthering any of its activities. Such committees may consider any matter of concern to the commission, including problems of special interest to any party state and problems dealing with particular types of taxes.

(c) The commission may establish such additional committees as its bylaws may provide.

Powers.

3. In addition to powers conferred elsewhere in this compact, the commission shall have power to:

(a) Study state and local tax systems and particular types of state and local taxes.

(b) Develop and recommend proposals for an increase in uniformity or compatibility of state and local tax laws with a view toward encouraging the simplification and improvement of state and local tax law and administration.

(c) Compile and publish information as in its judgment would assist the party states in implementation of the compact and taxpayers in complying with state and local tax laws.

(d) Do all things necessary and incidental to the administration of its functions pursuant to this compact.

Finance.

4. (a) The commission shall submit to the governor or designated officer or officers of each party state a budget of its estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that state for presentation to the legislature thereof.

(b) Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states. The total amount of appropriations requested under any such budget shall be apportioned among the party states as follows: one-tenth in equal shares; and the remainder in proportion to the amount of revenue collected by each party state and its subdivisions from income taxes, capital stock taxes, gross receipts taxes, sales and use taxes. In determining such amounts, the commission shall employ such available public sources of information as, in its judgment, present the most equitable and accurate comparisons among the party states. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures and requests for appropriations shall indicate the sources used in obtaining information employed in applying the formula contained in this paragraph.

(c) The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party state. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it under paragraph 1(i) of this article, provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring any obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it under paragraph 1(i), the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

(d) The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. All receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the commission.

(e) The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the commission.

(f) Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

Article VII. Uniform Regulations and Forms.

1. Whenever any two or more party states, or subdivisions of party states, have uniform or similar provisions of law relating to an income tax, capital stock tax, gross receipts tax, sales or use tax, the commission may adopt uniform regulations for any phase of the administration of such law, including assertion of jurisdiction to tax, or prescribing uniform tax forms. The commission may also act with respect to the provisions of article IV of this compact.

2. Prior to the adoption of any regulation, the commission shall:

(a) As provided in its bylaws, hold at least one public hearing on due notice to all affected party states and subdivisions thereof and to all taxpayers and other persons who have made timely request of the commission for advance notice of its regulation-making proceedings.

(b) Afford all affected party states and subdivisions and interested persons an opportunity to submit relevant written data and views, which shall be considered fully by the commission.

3. The commission shall submit any regulations adopted by it to the appropriate officials of all party states and subdivisions to which they might apply. Each such state and subdivision shall consider any such regulation for adoption in accordance with its own laws and procedures.

Article VIII. Interstate Audits.

1. Any party state or subdivision thereof desiring to make or participate in an audit of any accounts, books, papers, records or other documents may request the commission to perform the audit on its behalf. In responding to the request, the commission shall have access to and may examine, at any reasonable time, such accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents and any relevant property or stock of merchandise. The commission may enter into agreements with party states or their subdivisions for assistance in performance of the audit. The commission shall make charges, to be paid by the state or local government or governments for which it performs the service, for any audits performed by it in order to reimburse itself for the actual costs incurred in making the audit.

2. The commission may require the attendance of any person within the state where it is conducting an audit or part thereof at a time and place fixed by it within such state for the purpose of giving testimony with respect to any account, book, paper, document, other record, property or stock of merchandise being examined in connection with the audit. If the person is not within the jurisdiction, he may be required to attend for such purpose at any time and place fixed by the commission within the state of which he is a resident, provided that such state has adopted this article.

3. The commission may apply to any court having power to issue compulsory process for orders in aid of its powers and responsibilities pursuant to this article and any and all such courts shall have jurisdiction to issue such orders. Failure of any person to obey any such order shall be punishable as contempt of the issuing court. If the party or subject matter on account of which the commission seeks an order is within the jurisdiction of the court to which application is made, such application may be to a court in the state or subdivision on behalf of which the audit is being made or a court in the state in which the object of the order being sought is situated. The provisions of this paragraph apply only to courts in a state that has adopted this article.

4. The commission may decline to perform any audit requested if it finds that its available personnel or other resources are insufficient for the purpose or that, in the terms requested, the audit is impracticable of satisfactory performance. If the commission, on the basis of its experience, has reason to believe that an audit of a particular taxpayer, either at a particular time or on a particular schedule, would be of interest to a number of party states or their subdivisions, it may offer to make the audit or audits, the offer to be contingent on sufficient participation therein as determined by the commission.

5. Information obtained by any audit pursuant to this article shall be confidential and available only for tax purposes to party states, their subdivisions or the United States. Availability of information shall be in accordance with the laws of the states or subdivisions on whose account the commission performs the audit, and only through the appropriate agencies or officers of such states or subdivisions. Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any taxpayer to keep records for any period not otherwise required by law.

6. Other arrangements made or authorized pursuant to law for cooperative audit by or on behalf of the party states or any of their subdivisions are not superseded or invalidated by this article.

7. In no event shall the commission make any charge against a taxpayer for an audit.

8. As used in this article, "tax," in addition to the meaning ascribed to it in article II, means any tax or license fee imposed in whole or in part for revenue purposes.

Article IX. Arbitration.

1. Whenever the commission finds a need for settling disputes concerning apportionments and allocations by arbitration, it may adopt a regulation placing this article in effect, notwithstanding the provisions of article VII.

2. The commission shall select and maintain an arbitration panel composed of officers and employees of state and local governments and private persons who shall be knowledgeable and experienced in matters of tax law and administration.

3. Whenever a taxpayer who has elected to employ article IV, or whenever the laws of the party state or subdivision thereof are substantially identical with the relevant provisions of article IV, the taxpayer, by written notice to the commission and to each party state or subdivision thereof that would be affected, may secure arbitration of an apportionment or allocation, if he is dissatisfied with the final administrative determination of the tax agency of the state or subdivision with respect thereto on the ground that it would subject him to double or multiple taxation by two or more party states or subdivisions.

thereof. Each party state and subdivision thereof hereby consents to the arbitration as provided herein, and agrees to be bound thereby.

4. The arbitration board shall be composed of one person selected by the taxpayer, one by the agency or agencies involved, and one member of the commission's arbitration panel. If the agencies involved are unable to agree on the person to be selected by them, such person shall be selected by lot from the total membership of the arbitration panel. The two persons selected for the board in the manner provided by the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall jointly select the third member of the board. If they are unable to agree on the selection, the third member shall be selected by lot from among the total membership of the arbitration panel. No member of a board selected by lot shall be qualified to serve if he is an officer or employee or is otherwise affiliated with any party to the arbitration proceeding. Residence within the jurisdiction of a party to the arbitration proceeding shall not constitute affiliation within the meaning of this paragraph.

5. The board may sit in any state or subdivision party to the proceeding, in the state of the taxpayer's incorporation, residence or domicile, in any state where the taxpayer does business, or in any place that it finds most appropriate for gaining access to evidence relevant to the matter before it.

6. The board shall give due notice of the times and places of its hearings. The parties shall be entitled to be heard, to present evidence, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The board shall act by majority vote.

7. The board shall have power to administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents, and issue commissions to take testimony. Subpoenas may be signed by any member of the board. In case of failure to obey a subpoena, and upon application by the board, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of the state in which the board is sitting or in which the person to whom the subpoena is directed may be found, may make an order requiring compliance with the subpoena, and the court may punish failure to obey the order as a contempt. The provisions of this paragraph apply only in states that have adopted this article.

8. Unless the parties otherwise agree the expenses and other costs of the arbitration shall be assessed and allocated among the parties by the board in such manner as it may determine. The commission shall fix a schedule of compensation for members of arbitration boards and of other allowable expenses and costs. No officer or employee of a state or local government who serves as a member of a board shall be entitled to compensation therefor unless he is required on account of his service to forego the regular compensation attaching to his public employment, but any such board member shall be entitled to expenses.

9. The board shall determine the disputed apportionment or allocation and any matters necessary thereto. The determinations of the board shall be final for purposes of making the apportionment or allocation, but for no other purpose.

10. The board shall file with the commission and with each tax agency represented in the proceeding: the determination of the board; the board's written statement of its reasons therefor; the record of the board's proceedings; and any other documents required by the arbitration rules of the commission to be filed.

11. The commission shall publish the determinations of boards together with the statements of the reasons therefor.

12. The commission shall adopt and publish rules of procedure and practice and shall file a copy of such rules and of any amendment thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

13. Nothing contained herein shall prevent at any time a written compromise of any matter or matters in dispute, if otherwise lawful, by the parties to the arbitration proceedings.

Article X. Entry Into Force and Withdrawal.

1. This compact shall become effective as to any other state upon its enactment. The commission shall arrange for notification of all party states whenever there is a new enactment of the compact.

2. Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

3. No proceeding commenced before an arbitration board prior to the withdrawal of a state and to which the withdrawing state or any subdivision thereof is a party shall be discontinued or terminated by the withdrawal, nor shall the board thereby lose jurisdiction over any of the parties to the proceeding necessary to make a binding determination therein.

Article XI. Effect on Other Laws and Jurisdictions.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to:

(a) Affect the power of any state or subdivision thereof to fix rates of taxation, except that a party state shall be obligated to implement article III 2 of this compact.

(b) Apply to any tax or fixed fee imposed for the registration of a motor vehicle or any tax on motor fuel, other than a sales tax, provided that the definition of "tax" in article VIII 9 may apply for the purposes of that article and the commissioner's powers of study and recommendation pursuant to article VI 8 may apply.

(c) Withdraw or limit the jurisdiction of any state or local court or administrative officer or body with respect to any person, corporation or other entity or subject matter, except to the extent that such jurisdiction is expressly conferred by or pursuant to this compact upon another agency or body.

(d) Supersede or limit the jurisdiction of any court of the United States.

Article XII. Construction and Severability.

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining party states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

Sec. 2. [290.172] [COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE.]

The commissioner of revenue shall represent the state of Minnesota on the multistate tax commission. The commissioner may be represented on the commission by an alternate designated by him. The alternate shall be a deputy or assistant commissioner in the department of revenue.

Sec. 3. [290.173] [MULTISTATE COMPACT ADVISORY COMMITTEE.]

There is hereby established the multistate tax compact advisory committee composed of the commissioner of revenue or the alternate member of the commission designated by him, the attorney general or his designee, and two members of the senate, appointed by the committee on committees, and two members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house. The chairman shall be the member of the multistate tax commission, representing the state of Minnesota. The committee shall meet at the call of its chairman or at the request of a ma-majority of its members, but in any event not less than three times in each year. The committee may consider any and all matters relating to recommendations of the multistate tax commission and the activities of the members in representing the state of Minnesota on the commission.

Sec. 4. [290.174] [INTERSTATE AUDITS.]

Article VIII of the multistate tax compact relating to interstate audits shall be in force in and with respect to the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 5. [290.175] [OPTIONAL APPORTIONMENT.]

No person may engage in any of the above activities without first having obtained the appropriate license from the commission.

Subd. 2. [FORMS.] All application forms for licenses must contain a statement to the effect that by accepting a license from the commission a licensee consents to having his property or person subject to inspection at any time by the chief of racing security or by security officers designated by the commission.

Subd. 3. [POLICY.] It is the intent of the legislature that authority granted by law to the commission to issue licenses not be construed as requiring the commission to issue any license.

Sec. 6. [240.06] [RACETRACK LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The commission may issue one or more class A licenses, but not more than one to any one person. An application for a class A license must be on a form the commission prescribes and must be accompanied by detailed plans and specifications of the track, buildings, fences, and other improvements. The application must contain:

(a) the name and address of the applicant and, if it is a corporation, the names of all officers, directors, and stockholders of the corporation and any of its holding corporations;

(b) if required by the commission, the names of any person or persons holding directly, indirectly, or beneficially an interest of any kind in the applicant or any of its holding corporations, whether the interest is financial, administrative, policy-making, or supervisory;

(c) a statement of the assets and liabilities of the applicant; and

(d) a sworn statement executed by the applicant setting forth that no officer, director, or other person with a present or future direct or indirect financial or management interest in the racetrack, to the best of the applicant's knowledge:

(1) is in default in the payment of an obligation or debt to the state under this act;

(2) has ever been convicted of a felony in a state or federal court or has a state or federal felony charge pending;

(3) is or has been connected with or engaged in any illegal business;

(4) has ever been found guilty of fraud or misrepresentation in connection with racing or breeding;

(5) has ever been found guilty of a violation of a law or rule in any racing jurisdiction for which a license revocation has been or could have been imposed; or

(6) has ever knowingly violated a rule or order of the commission or a law of Minnesota relating to racing.

Subd. 2. [HEARINGS.] Before granting an initial class A license application the commission shall hold one or more public hearings in the area where the racetrack is or will be located. The commission shall also request comments on the application from the city council of the city where the track is or will be located, or from the county board if it is to be located outside a municipality, and from the appropriate regional development commission or the metropolitan council, as the case may be.

Subd. 3. [INVESTIGATION.] Before granting an initial class A license the commission shall conduct, or request the bureau of criminal apprehension to conduct, a comprehensive background and financial investigation of the applicant and sources of financing. The commission may charge an applicant an investigation fee to cover the cost of the investigation, and shall from this fee reimburse the bureau for its share of the cost of the investigation. The commission has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension on class A licensees and applicants.

Subd. 4. [LICENSE ISSUANCE.] If after considering the information received at the hearing or hearings and the comments requested under subdivision 2, the commission determines that the license will not adversely affect the public health, welfare, and safety, that the race track will be operated in accordance with all applicable laws and rules, that the license will not create a competitive situation that will adversely affect racing and the public interest, and that the applicant is financially able to operate a licensed racetrack, it may issue a class A license to the applicant. The license is effective until revoked or suspended by the commission or relinquished by the licensee.

Subd. 5. [PROHIBITED LOCATIONS.] A class A license may not be issued to any location where the operation of a racetrack is prohibited by a valid local zoning ordinance.

Subd. 6. [CHANGES IN OWNERSHIP OR MANAGEMENT.] If a change in the officers, directors, stockholders, or other persons with a present or future direct or indirect financial or management interest in the licensee, or a change of ownership of more than five percent of the licensee's stock is made after the initial application or license issuance, the applicant or licensee must notify the commission of the changes within five days of their occurrence and provide the affidavit required by subdivision 1.

Subd. 7. [LICENSE SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION.] The commission may revoke a class A license for a violation of law, order, or rule which in the commission's opinion adversely affects the integrity of horse racing in Minnesota, or for an intentional false statement made in a license application, or for a willful failure to pay any money required to be paid by this act.

The commission may suspend a class A license for up to one year for a violation of law, order, or rule, and may suspend a class A license indefinitely if it determines that the licensee has as an officer, director, stockholder, or other person with a direct, indirect, or beneficial interest a person who is in the commission's opinion inimical to the integrity of horse racing in Minnesota or who cannot be certified under subdivision 1, clause (d).

A license revocation or suspension under this subdivision, or a refusal to renew a class A license, is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.70 of the administrative procedure act, and is in addition to criminal penalties imposed for a violation of law or rule.

Subd. 8. [WORK AREAS.] A class A licensee must accept and provide suitable work areas for commission members, officers, employees, and agents who are directed by the commission to supervise and control racing at the licensed racetrack at no cost to the commission.

Sec. 7. [240.07] [RACING LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The commission may issue one or more class B licenses for the sponsorship and management of horse racing at licensed racetracks. An application for a class B license must be on a form the commission prescribes, and must be accompanied by a bond in the principal amount of $500,000 payable to the state of Minnesota conditioned on the licensee's payment of all fees, taxes, and other money due and payable under this act, including horse owner's purses and payouts on winning pari-mutuel tickets.

The application must contain:

(a) the name and address of the applicant and, if it is a corporation or association, the names of all officers, directors, and stockholders, including those of any of its holding companies;

(b) if required by the commission, the names of any person or persons holding, directly, indirectly, or beneficially, an interest of any kind in the applicant or any of its holding companies, whether the interest is financial, administrative, policy-making, or supervisory;

(c) a statement of the assets and liabilities of the applicant; and

(d) a sworn statement of the type described in section 6, subdivision 1, clause (d).

Subd. 2. [HEARINGS; INVESTIGATIONS.] Before granting an initial class B license the commission shall hold at least one public hearing on the license. Comprehensive investigations must be conducted and their costs paid in the manner prescribed by section 6, subdivision 3. The commission has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension on class B licensees and applicants.

Subd. 3. [LICENSE ISSUANCE.] If after considering the information received from the hearing and investigations, the commission determines that the applicant will conduct horse racing in accordance with all applicable laws and rules, will not adversely affect the public health, welfare, and safety, that the license will not create a competitive situation that will adversely affect racing and the public interest and is fit to sponsor and manage racing, the commission may issue a class B license. The license is for a period of one year.

Subd. 4. [RENEWAL.] The commission may renew a class B license without a hearing unless it determines a hearing to be necessary.

Subd. 5. [CHANGES IN OWNERSHIP.] If a change in the officers, directors, or other persons with a direct or indirect financial or management interest in the licensee, or a change of ownership of more than five percent of the licensee's stock is made after the initial application or license issuance, the applicant or licensee must notify the commission of the changes within five days of their occurrence and provide the affidavit required in subdivision 1.

Subd. 6. [LICENSE SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION.] Suspension, revocation, and refusal to renew a class B license is as provided in section 6, subdivision 7.

Subd. 7. [MULTIPLE LICENSES.] A person may simultaneously hold one class A and one class B license.

Sec. 8. [240.08] [OCCUPATION LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The commission may issue class C occupational licenses to persons who wish to be employed in horse racing where pari-mutuel betting is conducted as:

- (a) horse owners or lessees;*
- (b) jockeys or drivers;*
- (c) exercise workers;*
- (d) grooms;*
- (e) trainers and their assistants;*
- (f) pari-mutuel personnel;*
- (g) security officers;*
- (h) other occupations the commission by rule determines require licensing to ensure the integrity of horse racing in Minnesota.*

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION.] An application for a class C license must be on a form the commission prescribes and must be accompanied by an affidavit of qualification that the applicant:

- (a) is not in default in the payment of an obligation or debt to the state under this act;*
- (b) has never been convicted of a felony in a state or federal court and does not have a state or federal felony charge pending;*
- (c) is not and never has been connected with or engaged in an illegal business;*

(d) has never been found guilty of fraud or misrepresentation in connection with racing or breeding;

(e) has never been found guilty of a violation of law or rule in any racing jurisdiction for which a license revocation has been or could have been imposed;

(f) has never knowingly violated a rule or order of the commission or a law of Minnesota relating to racing.

Subd. 3. [INVESTIGATIONS.] The commission shall investigate each applicant for a class C license to the extent it deems necessary, and may request the assistance of and may reimburse the bureau of criminal apprehension in investigating applicants. The commission may by rule require that an applicant be fingerprinted or furnish his fingerprints. Investigations must be conducted and their costs paid in the manner prescribed by section 6, subdivision 3. The commission may cooperate with national and international organizations and agencies in conducting investigations. The commission may by rule provide for examining the qualifications of an applicant for the license for which he is applying. The commission has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension on class C applicants and licensees.

Subd. 4. [LICENSE ISSUANCE AND RENEWAL.] If the commission determines that the applicant has sufficient qualifications for the occupation for which licensing is sought and will not adversely affect the public health, welfare, and safety or the integrity of racing in Minnesota, it may issue a class C license to the applicant. If it makes a similar finding for a renewal of a class C license it may renew the license. Class C licenses are effective for one year.

Subd. 5. [REVOCAION AND SUSPENSION.] The commission may revoke a class C license for a violation of law or rule which in the commission's opinion adversely affects the integrity of horse racing in Minnesota, or for an intentional false statement made in a license application.

The commission may suspend a class C license for up to one year for a violation of law, order or rule.

The commission may delegate to its designated agents the authority to impose suspensions of class C licenses, and the suspension may be appealed to the commission according to its rules.

A license revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.70 of the administrative procedure act and is in addition to criminal penalties imposed for a violation of law or rule.

Sec. 9. [240.09] [COUNTY FAIR LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The commission may issue class D licenses to county agricultural societies or associations incorporated under chapter 38 or nonprofit corporations in existence on April 21, 1951 and operating fairs, to conduct and manage, on their own fairgrounds, horse racing on which pari-mutuel betting is conducted. An application for a class D license must be on a form the commission prescribes and must be accompanied by a certified copy of a resolution of the county board of the county where racing is to be conducted stating that it has reviewed the license application and does not object to it. An application for a class D license must be accompanied by detailed plans and specifications of the track, buildings, fences, and other improvements.

Subd. 2. [OCCUPATIONAL LICENSES.] A person who participates in the management or conduct of horse racing or pari-mutuel betting for a county fair holding a class C license who is in an occupation listed in section 8, subdivision 1 must have a class C license from the commission except for active members as defined in section 349.12 of nonprofit organizations who act without compensation as concession workers or pari-mutuel clerks.

Subd. 3. [HEARING.] Before granting an initial application for a class D license, the commission must hold at least one public hearing in the county where the license is to be issued, and if the racetrack to be licensed is within a city, it must also request comments on the application from the city council.

Subd. 4. [ISSUANCE.] If after considering the information received at the hearing or hearings and considering the comments requested under subdivision 3, the commission determines that the license will not adversely affect the public health, welfare, and safety and that the racing to be licensed will be conducted in accordance with all applicable laws and rules, it may issue a class D license to the applicant. The license is for a period of one year.

Subd. 5. [RENEWAL.] The commission may renew a class D license without a hearing unless it determines a hearing is necessary.

Subd. 6. [REVOCAION AND SUSPENSION.] Revocation and suspension of class D licenses, and refusals to renew class D licenses, are as provided in section 6, subdivision 7.

Sec. 10. [240.10] [LICENSE FEES.]

The fee for a class A license is $10,000 per year. The fee for a class B license is $100 for each assigned racing day on which racing is actually conducted. The fee for a class D license is $50 for each assigned racing day on which racing is actually conducted. Fees imposed on class B and class D licenses must be paid to the commission at the same time and in the same manner as payments due under section 15, subdivision 2.

The commission shall by rule establish an annual license fee for each occupation it licenses under section 8 but no annual fee for a class C license may exceed $100.

License fee payments received must be paid by the commission to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 11. [240.11] [LICENSES NONTRANSFERABLE.]

A license issued under this act may not be transferred.

Sec. 12. [240.12] [LICENSE AGREEMENTS.]

The commission may enter into agreements with comparable bodies in other racing jurisdictions for the mutual recognition of occupational licenses issued by each body. The commission may by rule provide for and may charge a fee for the registration of each license issued in another jurisdiction.

Sec. 13. [240.13] [PARI-MUTUEL BETTING.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZED.] Class B and class D licenses give the licensees authority to conduct pari-mutuel betting on the results of races run at the licensed racetrack, and on other races as authorized by the commission under subdivision 6.

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS.] A licensee conducting pari-mutuel betting must provide at the licensed track:

(a) the necessary equipment for issuing pari-mutuel tickets; and

(b) mechanical or electronic equipment for displaying information the commission requires. All mechanical or electronic devices must be approved by the commission before being used.

Subd. 3. [TYPES OF BETTING.] The commission shall by rule designate those types of pari-mutuel pools which are permitted at licensed racetracks, and no licensee may conduct any type of pari-mutuel pool which has not been so designated.

Subd. 4. [TAKEOUT; DISTRIBUTION OF WINNINGS.] A licensee conducting pari-mutuel betting must deduct from a straight pari-mutuel pool, before payments to holders of winning tickets, an amount equal to 16 percent of the total money in that pool. The licensee must deduct from a multiple pari-mutuel pool, before payments to the holders of winning tickets, an amount equal to 22 percent of the total money in that pool. The remaining money in each pool must be distributed among the holders of winning tickets in a manner the commission by rule prescribes for each type of pool. Breakage must be computed on the basis of payoffs rounded down to the next lowest increment of 20 cents, with a minimum payoff of $2.20 on a $2 ticket, except that the licensee may reduce the minimum payoff to $2.10 on a $2 ticket if there is not a sufficient amount in a pool to make a minimum payoff of $2.20.

Subd. 5. [PURSES.] From the amounts deducted from all pari-mutuel pools by a licensee, an amount equal to five percent of all money in all pools must be set aside by the licensee and used for purses for races conducted by him. The commission may by rule provide for the administration and enforcement of this subdivision.

Subd. 6. [TELEVISED RACES.] The commission may by rule permit a class B or class D licensee to conduct on the premises of the licensed racetrack pari-mutuel betting on horse races run in other states and broadcast by television on the premises. All provisions of law governing pari-mutuel betting apply to pari-mutuel betting on televised races except as otherwise provided in this subdivision or in the commission's rules. Pari-mutuel pools conducted on such televised races may consist only of money bet on the premises and may not be commingled with any other pool off the premises, except that:

(a) the licensee may pay a fee to the person or entity conducting the race for the privileges of conducting pari-mutuel betting on the race, and

(b) the licensee may pay the costs of transmitting the broadcast of the race.

Pari-mutuel betting on a televised race may be conducted only on a racing day assigned by the commission. The takeout and taxes on pari-mutuel pools on televised races are as provided for other pari-mutuel pools. All televised races under this subdivision must comply with the Interstate Horse Racing Act of 1978 or found in United States Code, title 15, section 3001 and the following relevant sections, as amended through December 31, 1983.

Subd. 7. [TIME LIMIT FOR PAYMENTS.] The licensee must pay off on an uncashed ticket presented for payment within 90 days of the end of the racing meeting during which it was issued. A ticket not presented for payment within that period is an unredeemed ticket and shall be reported to the commission as provided in section 15, subdivision 5.

Subd. 8. [PROHIBITED ACTS.] A licensee may not accept a bet from any person under the age of 18 years; and a licensee may not accept a bet of less than $2.

Sec. 14. [240.14] [RACING DAYS.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSIGNMENT OF RACING DAYS.] The commission shall assign racing days to each racetrack licensee authorized to conduct racing with pari-mutuel betting, and a licensee may conduct racing with pari-mutuel betting only on a racing day assigned by the commission. The commission may assign racing days for up to three years beyond the year in which the assignment is made. Assignments of racing days in any year must be made by July 1 of the previous year, except that it may assign dates after that date to a licensee whose license is issued after that date.

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] A public hearing is required before the commission may:

- (a) make an assignment of racing days;
- (b) revise the assignment during the year; or
- (c) assign racing days to a licensee whose license is issued after the initial assignment.

The commission may without a hearing assign one additional racing day to a licensee for each originally assigned racing day during the same racing meeting on which racing was not conducted for reasons beyond the licensee's control.

Subd. 3. [COUNTY FAIR RACING DAYS.] The commission may assign to a class D licensee only those racing days, not to exceed ten racing days, which coincide with the days on which the licensee's county fair is running or the weekend preceding or following the county fair.

Subd. 4. [RESCINDING OF RACING DAYS.] The commission may, after a public hearing, rescind one or more racing days assigned to a licensee if it determines that the licensee has not met or will not meet the terms of his license. A day or days so rescinded may be reassigned to another licensee.

Sec. 15. [240.15] [PAYMENTS TO STATE.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES IMPOSED.] (a) There is imposed on the total amount bet on all pari-mutuel pools on each racing day a tax at the following rates:

- (1) For each racing day in a calendar year on which the total amount bet, together with the total amount bet at the same licensed racetrack in all previous racing days in the same calendar year does not exceed $48,000,000, 1-3/4 percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

(2) For each racing day in a calendar year after the racing day on which the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools at the same licensed racetrack in the same calendar year exceeds $48,000,000, six percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

In addition to the above tax, the licensee must designate and pay to the commission a tax for deposit in the Minnesota breeders fund, at the following rates:

(1) For racing days on which the state tax under clause (a) (1) is 1-3/4 percent, one-half percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

(2) For racing days on which the state tax under clause (a) (2) is six percent, one percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

The taxes imposed by this clause must be paid from the amounts permitted to be withheld by a licensee under section 13, subdivision 4.

(b) The commission shall impose on each paid admission to each licensed racetrack on a racing day a tax of 40 cents. It may impose an additional admissions tax of not more than ten cents at any licensed racetrack if:

(1) the additional tax is requested by a local unit of government within whose borders the track is located;

(2) a public hearing is held on the request; and

(3) the commission finds that the local unit of government requesting the additional tax is in need of its revenue to meet extraordinary expenses caused by the racetrack.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT.] The licensee must remit the tax to the commission or its representative within seven days of the day on which it was collected. In addition to the tax and at that time the licensee must pay to the commission or its representative a sum equal to one-half the total breakage for each racing day during the period for which the tax is paid. The payments must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the remittance on a form the commission prescribes. The commission may by rule provide for the direct deposit of required payments in the commission's account in a financial institution within the state and for determining the time of applicability of different tax rates under subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [TAX EXCLUSIVE.] The tax imposed by subdivision 1 is in lieu of any tax or license fee, other than taxes on real property, imposed by a political subdivision and in lieu of any other sales or excise tax imposed by the state on racetrack admissions or pari-mutuel pools or pari-mutuel ticket sales.

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] Within 100 days of the end of a racing meeting a licensee subject to the tax imposed by subdivision 1 must file with the commission a certified statement of receipts from all sources during the racing meeting and of expenses and disbursements, itemized on a form the commission prescribes after consultation with the state auditor, showing the licensee's net revenues from all sources. The statement must be prepared by a certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

Subd. 5. [UNREDEEMED TICKETS.] Not later than 100 days after the end of a racing meeting a licensee who sells pari-mutuel tickets must remit to the commission or its representative an amount equal to the total value of unredeemed tickets from the racing meeting. The remittance must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the money on a form the commission prescribes.

Subd. 6. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The commission shall distribute all money received under this section, and all money received from license fees and fines it collects, as follows: all money designated for deposit in the Minnesota breeders fund must be paid into that fund for distribution under section 18. Revenue from an additional admissions tax imposed under subdivision 1 must be paid to the local unit of government at whose request it was imposed, at times and in a manner the commission determines. All other revenues received under this section by the commission, and all license fees, fines, and other revenue it receives, must be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 16. [240.16] [STEWARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] All horse races run at a licensed racetrack must be presided over by a board of three stewards, who must be appointees of the commission or persons approved by it. The commission shall designate one steward as chairman. At least two stewards for all races shall be employees of the commission. The commission may delegate the following duties and powers to a board of stewards:

(a) to ensure that races are run in accordance with the commission's rules;

(b) to supervise the conduct of racing to ensure the integrity of the sport;

(c) to settle disputes arising from the running of horse races, and to certify official results;

(d) to impose on licensees, for violation of law or commission rules, fines not exceeding $500 and license suspensions not exceeding 30 days;

(e) to recommend to the commission where warranted penalties in excess of those in clause (d);

(f) to otherwise enforce the laws and rules of racing; and

(g) to perform other duties and have other powers assigned by the commission.

Subd. 2. [APPEALS; HEARINGS.] A ruling of a board of stewards may be appealed to the commission or be reviewed by it on its own initiative. The commission may provide for appeals to be heard by less than a quorum of the commission. A hearing on a penalty imposed by a board of stewards must be granted on request.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURAL POWERS.] A board of stewards has the authority to administer oaths, issue subpoenas, order the production of documents and other evidence, and regulate the course of hearings before it, according to the commission's rules. Hearings held by a board of stewards are not subject to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act except those provisions which the commission by rule makes applicable.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] In addition to rules under subdivision 3, the commission may promulgate rules governing the qualifications, appointment, approval, authority, removal, and compensation of stewards.

Subd. 5. [COSTS.] The commission may require that a licensee reimburse it for the costs of providing a state-paid steward or stewards to supervise racing at the licensee's race-track.

Sec. 17. [240.17] [LOCAL OPTION.]

Subdivision 1. [CITIES.] An initial issuance of a class A license for a location in a city is not effective until it has been approved by a majority vote of the city council. Failure to act on a license within 30 days of its referral to a city council by the commission constitutes approval.

Subd. 2. [TOWNS.] An initial issuance of a class A license for a location in a town is not effective until it has been approved by a majority vote of the town board. Failure to act on a license within 30 days of its referral to the town board by the commission constitutes approval.

Subd. 3. [UNORGANIZED TERRITORY.] An issuance of a class A license for a location in unorganized territory is not effective until it has been approved by a majority vote of the county board. Failure to act on a license within 30 days of its referral to the county board by the commission constitutes approval.

Sec. 18. [240.18] [BREEDERS FUND.]

The commission shall establish a Minnesota breeders fund with the money paid to it under section 15, subdivision 1. The commission, after paying the costs of administering the fund, shall distribute the net proceeds as follows:

(1) Twenty percent of the remaining money in the fund must be expended as grants for equine research at public institutions of post-secondary learning within the state.

(2) After deducting the amount for (1), the balance of the fund shall be apportioned into categories corresponding with the various breeds of horses which raced at licensed Minnesota racetracks in the previous year, in proportion to each category's contribution to the fund. The funds in each category may be expended by the commission to:

(a) supplement purses for races held exclusively for Minnesota-bred or Minnesota-owned horses, as those terms are defined by the commission;

(b) pay breeders or owners awards to the breeders or owners of Minnesota-bred horses which win money at licensed racetracks in the state; and

(c) provide other financial incentives to encourage the horse breeding industry in Minnesota.

The commission shall adopt rules governing the distribution of the fund. The commission may establish advisory committees to advise it on the distribution of money under this section, provided that the members of an advisory committee shall serve without compensation.

Sec. 19. [240.19] [CONTRACTS.]

The commission shall by rule require that all contracts entered into by a class A, class B, or class D licensee for the provision of goods or services, including concessions contracts, be subject to commission approval. The commission may require a contract holder to submit to it documents and records the commission deems necessary to evaluate the contract.

Sec. 20. [240.20] [APPEALS.]

Appeals from a decision of the commission must be made in the manner prescribed by sections 14.63 to 14.68.

Sec. 21. [240.21] [RIGHT OF INSPECTION.]

The commission and its representatives have the right to inspect the licensed premises of a licensee and to examine his books and other records at any time without a search warrant.

Sec. 22. [240.22] [FINES.]

The commission may impose a fine on a licensee for a violation of its rules or of a law relating to horse racing. The fine is in addition to any criminal penalty imposed for the same violation. Fines imposed by the commission must be paid to the commission which shall pay them to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 23. [240.23] [RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.]

The commission has the authority, in addition to all other rule-making authority granted elsewhere in this act, to promulgate rules governing:

(a) the conduct of horse races held at licensed racetracks in Minnesota, including but not limited to the rules of racing, standards of entry, operation of claiming races, filing and handling of objections, carrying of weights, and declaration of official results;

(b) wire communications between the premises of a licensed racetrack and any place outside the premises;

(c) information on horse races which is sold on the premises of a licensed racetrack;

(d) liability insurance which it may require of all class A, class B, and class D licensees;

(e) the auditing of the books and records of a licensee by an auditor employed or appointed by the commission;

(f) emergency action plans maintained by licensed racetracks and their periodic review;

(g) safety, security, and sanitation of stabling facilities at licensed racetracks;

(h) entry fees and other funds received by a licensee in the course of conducting racing which the commission determines must be placed in escrow accounts; and

(i) any other aspect of horse racing or pari-mutuel betting which in its opinion affects the integrity of racing or the public health, welfare, or safety.

Except as provided in this act, rules of the commission are subject to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act.

Sec. 24. [240.24] [MEDICATION.]

The commission shall make and enforce rules governing medication and medical testing for horses running at licensed racetracks. The rules must provide that no medication, as the commission defines that term by rule, may be administered to a horse within 48 hours of a race it runs at a licensed racetrack. The commission shall by rule establish the qualifications for laboratories used by it as testing laboratories to enforce its rules under this section.

Sec. 25. [240.26] [PROHIBITED ACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ILLEGAL BETS.] No person may accept a bet as defined in section 609.75 on the premises of a licensed racetrack other than a bet made within a licensed pari-mutuel system.

Subd. 2. [OFF-TRACK BETS.] No person may, as part of an organized commercial activity, accept a bet off the premises of a licensed racetrack for delivery to a licensed racetrack.

Subd. 3. [INFLUENCING RACES.] No person may influence or attempt to influence a horse race by:

(a) making threats;

(b) offering anything of value to a person involved in the conduct of a race in return for that person's committing an illegal act or failing to perform a duty; or

(c) conniving with or seeking or having an understanding or agreement with an owner, jockey, driver, trainer, groom, valet, agent, or other person associated with or interested in a horse or stable of horses.

Subd. 4. [TAMPERING WITH HORSES.] No person may:

(a) on the premises of a licensed racetrack use, have in his possession with intent to use, or knowingly assist another person in using a battery or buzzer, electrical or mechanical, or other device or appliance, which can be used to affect a horse's racing condition or performance, other than an ordinary whip;

(b) affect or attempt to affect the racing condition or performance of a horse at a race or workout through the use of a drug or medication in violation of the commission's rules; or

(c) use any method, injurious or otherwise, to affect a horse's racing condition or performance at a race or workout in violation of the commission's rules.

Subd. 5. [REPORTING OF INFORMATION.] A person licensed by the commission who has information regarding a violation provision of this section must report that information promptly to the commission or an agent of the commission.

Subd. 6. [FALSE STATEMENT.] No person may knowingly make a false statement in a document or application required to be submitted to the commission or in a sworn statement to or testimony before the commission.

Subd. 7. [ALTERED TICKETS.] No person may knowingly offer for payment any pari-mutuel ticket which has been altered or any counterfeit or forged pari-mutuel ticket.

Sec. 26. [240.27] [PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [FELONIES.] A violation of section 25, subdivision 1, 2, 3, 4, or 7 is a felony.

Subd. 2. [GROSS MISDEMEANORS.] A violation of section 25, subdivision 5 or 6, is a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 3. [MISDEMEANORS.] A violation of any other provision of this act or of a rule or order of the commission for which another penalty is not provided is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 27. [240.28] [EXCLUSION OF CERTAIN PERSONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS EXCLUDED.] The commission may exclude from any and all licensed racetracks in the state a person who:

(a) has been convicted of a felony under the laws of any state or the United States;

(b) has had a license suspended, revoked, or denied by the commission or by the racing authority of any other jurisdiction; or

(c) is determined by the commission, on the basis of evidence presented to it, to be a threat to the integrity of racing in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [HEARING; APPEAL.] An order to exclude a person from any or all licensed racetracks in the state must be made by the commission at a public hearing of which the person to be excluded must have at least five days' notice. If the person is present at the hearing, he must be permitted to show cause why he should not be excluded. An appeal of the order may be made in the same manner as other appeals under section 20.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO RACETRACKS.] Upon issuing an order excluding a person from any or all licensed racetracks, the commission shall send a copy of the order to the excluded person and to all racetracks named in it, along with other information as it deems necessary to permit compliance with the order.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITIONS.] It is a gross misdemeanor for a person named in an exclusion order to enter, attempt to enter, or be on the premises of a racetrack named in the order while it is in effect, and for a person licensed to conduct racing or operate a racetrack knowingly to permit an excluded person to enter or be on the premises.

Subd. 5. [EXCLUSIONS BY RACETRACK.] The holder of a license to conduct racing may eject and exclude from its premises any licensee or any other person who is in violation of any state law or commission rule or order or who is a threat to racing integrity or the public safety. A person so excluded from racetrack premises may appeal his exclusion to the commission and must be given a public hearing on his appeal if he so requests. At the hearing he must be given the opportunity to show cause why he should not be so excluded. If the commission after the hearing finds that the integrity of racing and the public safety do not justify the exclusion, it shall order the racetrack making the exclusion to reinstate or readmit the person. An appeal of a commission order upholding the exclusion is governed by section 20.

Sec. 28. [240.29] [CONFLICT OF INTEREST.]

Subd. 1. [FINANCIAL INTEREST.] No person may serve on the commission or be employed by it who has an interest in any corporation, association, or partnership which holds a license from the commission or which holds a contract to supply goods or services to a licensee or at a licensed racetrack, including concessions contracts. No member or employee of the commission may own, wholly or in part, or have an interest in a horse which racers at a licensed racetrack in Minnesota. No member or employee of the commission may have a financial interest in or be employed in a profession or business which the commission regulates or which conflicts with the performance of his duties as a member or employee.

Subd. 2. [BETTING.] No member or employee of the commission may bet or cause a bet to be made on a race at a licensed racetrack while serving on or being employed by the commission. No person appointed or approved by the commission as a steward may bet or cause a bet to be made at a licensed racetrack during a racing meeting at which he is serving as a steward. The commission shall by rule prescribe such restrictions on betting by its licensees as it deems necessary to protect the integrity of racing.

Subd. 3. [VIOLATION.] A violation of subdivisions 1 and 2 is grounds for removal from the commission or termination of employment. A bet made directly or indirectly by a steward in violation of subdivision 2 or by a licensee in violation of a rule made by the commission under subdivision 2 is grounds for suspension or revocation of the license.

Sec. 29. [240.30] [MINNESOTA-BRED OR MINNESOTA-OWNED HORSES.]

Each holder of a class B or class D license must declare and schedule on each racing day it conducts at least one race limited to horses which are Minnesota-bred or Minnesota-owned as those terms are defined in the commission rules unless there is not a sufficient number of such horses entered in the declared race to make up an adequate slate of entries, in which case another race may be substituted.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 38.04, is amended to read:

38.04 [ANNUAL MEETINGS; REPORTS.]

Every county agricultural society shall hold an annual meeting for the election of officers and the transaction of other business on or before the third Tuesday in November, each year, at which time its secretary shall make a report of its proceedings for the preceding year; this report shall contain a statement of all transactions at its fairs, the numbers of entries, the amount and source of all moneys received, and the amount paid out for premiums and other purposes, and show in detail its entire receipts and expenditures during the year. The report must contain a separate accounting of any income received from the operation of horse racing on which pari-mutuel betting is conducted, and of the disposition of that income.

The treasurer shall make a comprehensive report of the funds received, paid out, and on hand, and upon whose order paid. Each secretary shall cause a certified copy of his annual report to be filed with the county recorder of the county and the commissioner of agriculture on or before the first day of November, each year.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.76, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [LICENSED RACETRACKS; TREATMENT UNDER TAX INCREMENT.] No revenues derived from tax increment shall be used to pay the cost of redevelopment, or providing public improvements or facilities, or other public costs in connection with the construction or development of a licensed racetrack as defined in section 1. If a licensed racetrack is located wholly or partly within the boundaries of a tax increment district, no portion of the assessed value of the racetrack shall be included in the district's captured assessed value. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 273.78, this subdivision shall apply to tax increment district or project, regardless of whether the tax increment was certified before August 1, 1979.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 609.75, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [WHAT ARE NOT BETS.] The following are not bets:

(1) A contract to insure, indemnify, guarantee or otherwise compensate another for a harm or loss sustained, even though the loss depends upon chance.

(2) A contract for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or other commodities.

(3) Offers of purses, prizes or premiums to the actual contestants in any bona fide contest for the determination of skill, speed, strength, endurance, or quality or to the bona fide owners of animals or other property entered in such a contest.

(4) The game of bingo when conducted in compliance with sections 349.11 to 349.23.

(5) A private social bet not part of or incidental to organized, commercialized, or systematic gambling.

(6) The operation of a gambling device or the conduct of a raffle as defined in section 349.26, by an organization licensed for such operation by a local unit of government pursuant to section 349.26.

(7) Pari-mutuel betting on horse racing when conducted under chapter 240.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 609.761, is amended to read:

Notwithstanding sections 609.755 and 609.76, a fraternal, religious, veterans or other nonprofit organization may set up or operate a gambling device or conduct a raffle as defined in section 349.26, if licensed by the local unit of government and conducted (PURSUANT TO) under section 349.26, and a person may manufacture, sell or offer for sale a gambling device to the organization, and pari-mutuel betting on horse racing may be conducted under chapter 240.

Sec. 34. [COMPULSIVE GAMBLING.]

The commissioner of public welfare, after consulting with the commissioner of health, the chairman of the racing commission established by section 2, and other persons knowledgeable in the assessment and treatment of compulsive gamblers, shall present to the legislature no later than January 30, 1984, legislation establishing treatment programs for the rehabilitation of compulsive gamblers if the commissioner of public welfare concludes that treatment programs will aid in the rehabilitation of compulsive gamblers. In developing the legislation, the commissioner of public welfare shall include, among other things, consideration of the following issues:

(1) the nature of compulsive gambling and current practices in diagnosing and treating it;

(2) the extent of compulsive gambling in this state and the effect of current and proposed forms of legalized gambling on the incidence of compulsive gambling;

(3) existing programs in this state to deal with compulsive gambling;

(4) proposals for additional efforts to deal with compulsive gambling by both public and private agencies;

(5) coverage of compulsive gambling under existing health insurance policies and proposals to change that coverage;

(6) recommendations for a coordinated program of public and private action to deal with compulsive gambling by means of both treatment and public information, with recommended funding levels and implementation strategy; and

(7) the estimated annual cost of establishing compulsive gambling treatment programs.

At a minimum, the legislation must include provisions establishing residential and outpatient treatment programs which address the unique needs of compulsive or pathological gamblers and which allow participants to return to normal lifestyles which do not include gambling. The legislation must also authorize the commissioner of public welfare to provide educational materials to the public regarding the detrimental effects of compulsive gambling on the economic and emotional health and welfare of the family unit.

There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of public welfare the sum of $35,000, or so much thereof as is necessary, for the purposes of section 34 of this act. This appropriation is available until January 30, 1984.

Subdivision 1. There is appropriated from the general fund to the Minnesota racing commission, for the purposes of sections 1 to 29, the sum of $247,000 for the year ending June 30, 1984, and $344,300 for the year ending June 30, 1985. If the appropriation for either year is insufficient, the appropriation for the other year is available.

Subd. 2. There is appropriated from the general fund to the legislative advisory commission the sum of $150,000 for the year ending June 30, 1985. The legislative advisory commission may transfer all or part of this appropriation to the Minnesota racing commission on application and a showing that the funds are necessary because of the licensing of one or more class A race-tracks and the authorization of racing days in that year.

Sec. 36. [NONAPPLICABILITY.]

The provisions of sections 1 to 24 and 27 to 35 do not apply to horse racing on which pari-mutuel betting is not conducted.

"Sec. 21 [TAX REDUCTION FOR JOBS.]

Subdivision 1. [TITLE.] This section may be cited as the Tax Discount For Jobs Act of 1983.

Subd. 2. [STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.] The legislature finds that the taxpayers of this state desire to use their resources to patronize and support new businesses or businesses which are expanding the number of their employees. The legislature finds that an optional tax reduction will provide taxpayers with additional funds which they may use to patronize businesses which the state has certified are employers which are creating new jobs.

Subd. 3. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Taxpayer" means every individual, estate, trust, corporation, partnership, or other organization or association required by law to pay any Minnesota state tax.

(b) "Certified tax discount employer" is any business certified by the secretary of state as lawfully operating in Minnesota; and the number of whose full-time permanent employees on the day the application for certification is filed is at least five percent larger than the number of full time employees employed on the same day in the preceding year, or that has been operating less than one year on the date the application for certification is filed.

Subd. 4. [CERTIFICATION.] Any business wishing to be designated as a certified tax discount employer shall submit an application for certification to the secretary of state along with a $2 filing fee. The application shall contain the information prescribed by the secretary of state in order for the secretary of state to determine if the business qualifies under the provisions of this section. The secretary of state may require supporting documents, affidavits, or other documentation to determine whether the business should be issued a certification. Within 30 days after receipt of the application and any other information required by the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall issue the certificate or reject the application. If the application is rejected, the secretary of state shall state the reasons for the rejection and the statements shall be mailed to the address stated on the application. For purposes of determining eligibility under this section, entities shall aggregate all permanent full-time employees employed within the state. A separate certificate shall be issued for each place of business within Minnesota listed on the application.

Subd. 5. [USE OF CERTIFICATE.] Once issued, a certificate is valid until July 1, 1985. A certified tax discount employer may display the permit in a conspicuous place in the place of business designated on the permit. A certification is not transferable, is valid only for the person in whose name it is issued, and may be displayed only at the place designated therein. A certified tax discount employer may so represent himself to the public and may so state in any advertising and promotional activities.

Subd. 6. [DISCOUNT.] Every form used to report a state tax in Minnesota shall contain a space labeled: "Optional Discount: 5%." This space shall be adjacent to the space on the form used to show the amount of the net tax due after any credits or other reductions, but not including penalties or interest. On any form where there is no space for the designated optional discount entry, the taxpayer may write in longhand or type "Optional Discount: 5%." If there is no space available on the form, the optional discount entry may be shown and entered on a separate slip of paper and attached to the form.

The taxpayer who timely files any such form may claim on the form or attachment and retain for personal use five percent of the amount of the net tax shown on the form, after any credits or other reductions, but not including penalties or interest. The taxpayer shall file the form as prescribed by law and pay the tax due with or without the optional discount.

Subd. 7. [RULES.] The secretary of state may adopt rules under the administrative procedures act to administrate and enforce the provisions of this section. The secretary of state may adopt temporary rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36.

Subd. 8. [PENALTY.] Any person representing to the public that he is a certified tax discount employer who is not so certified shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 9. [DURATION.] This section is effective July 1, 1983, and applies to certifications issued after that date for taxes due after issuance of the certificate. This section expires July 1, 1985."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 458.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A commission to be known as "Port Authority of _____" (IS HEREBY) may be established in and for (EVERY) any city of the first class (SITUATED UPON, OR ADJACENT TO, OR EMBRACING WITHIN ITS BOUNDARIES, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, A PORT OR HARBOR LOCATED ON A NAVIGABLE LAKE OR STREAM) or second class, however organized, by resolution of its governing body. Sections 458.09 to 458.19 are expressly declared to be applicable to all such cities. Those port authorities now or hereafter having jurisdiction over harbors located on the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence seaway system shall be known and are referred to in sections 458.09 to 458.19 as seaway port authorities. A port authority shall be a body politic and corporate in the state of Minnesota with the right to sue and be sued in the names above designated. A port authority shall also be considered a governmental subdivision within the meaning of section 282.01. The exercise by any such authority or commission of any of its powers shall be deemed and held to be essential governmental functions of the state of Minnesota, but any such authority shall not be immune from liability by reason thereof.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 458.17, is amended to read:

458.17 [ADDITIONAL POWERS.]

The port authority, in its own name, shall have full power and authority to acquire, purchase, construct, lease, or operate any bulkheads, jetties, piers, wharves, docks, landing places, warehouses, storehouses, elevators, cold storage plants, terminals, bridges, and such other terminal or transportation facilities as may be necessary or convenient for storing, handling, or transporting freight, for the handling of passenger traffic, and for the establishment of rail and water transfer within the district; to make rules, regulations, and charges for the use thereof, and for any service rendered; for such purposes to own, hold, lease, or operate real and personal property, to borrow money and to secure the same by bonds or mortgages upon any property held or to be held by it, and in the case of any seaway port authority only to issue and sell negotiable revenue bonds of the port authority for such purposes, or any of the purposes outlined in this chapter for the development of a seaport, such bonds to be issued, sold and secured in the same manner as provided below for the construction of a vehicular toll bridge or tunnel, except that a trust indenture may but is not required to be executed, and in and by the resolutions and indenture, if any, authorizing the bonds the port authority shall define the facilities whose net revenues are to be pledged thereto, and may in its discretion mortgage such facilities to a trustee for the bondholders, which facilities may be all of those owned by the authority (except any vehicular bridge or tunnel), and all subsequent additions thereto and betterments thereof, or may be restricted to one or more described facilities, including or not including the facilities financed by the bonds, and may be facilities which are either operated by the authority or are leased to others, and the authority may establish such covenants and restrictions regarding the issuance of additional bonds payable from net revenues of the same facilities, the subsequent amendment of the bond resolutions or indenture, the remedies and priorities of the bondholders in the event of default and, without limitation, all such other matters pertinent to the security of the bonds, as the authority may determine to be necessary for the marketing of the bonds to the best advantage; to sell, convey, and exchange any real or personal property owned or held by it in such manner and on such terms as it may see fit, save that no real property owned by the authority shall be so sold, exchanged, or the title thereto transferred without the unanimous approval of the members of the port authority in attendance when such a sale, conveyance, exchange or transfer of real property is authorized, provided that no such sale, conveyance, exchange or transfer of real property shall be considered at any meeting unless all commissioners have been given at least ten days written notice that such a sale, conveyance, exchange or transfer will be voted upon at a special or regular meeting, which notice shall contain a complete description of the affected real estate, and provided further that such authorization shall not be given unless there is at least a quorum present. The port authority is hereby empowered to acquire by condemnation any property, corporeal or incorporeal, within the port district which may be needed by it for public use; and the fact that the property so needed has been acquired by the owner under the power of eminent domain or is already devoted to a public use shall not prevent its acquisition by the port authority by the exercise of the right of eminent domain hereby conferred. No property now or hereafter vested in or held by the state of Minnesota, or any city, county, school district, town, or other municipality, shall be so taken or acquired by the port authority without the consent of the state, municipality, or governmental subdivision. The necessity of the taking of any property by the port authority shall be determined by resolution duly adopted by the commissioners, which shall describe the property as nearly as may be and state the use and purpose to which it is to be devoted. The acquisition of such property shall be thereafter accomplished by proceedings by law, as in taking land for public use by right of eminent domain under the laws of the state.

In addition to the power and authority heretofore conferred upon the port authority, the port authority, in its own name, shall have full power and authority to acquire and thereafter operate and maintain any existing vehicular toll bridge across any waters which form a common boundary between any city of the first class or second class, however organized, in the state and any other city either within or without the state and to reconstruct, improve, and repair such existing bridge; and to construct, maintain, and operate an additional vehicular toll bridge and approaches across these waters at a point suitable to the interests of navigation, and to reconstruct, repair, and improve the same; and to construct, maintain, and operate a tunnel under these waters and to reconstruct, repair, and improve the same; and to issue and sell the negotiable revenue bonds of the port authority for such purposes. Such bonds shall be authorized by resolutions as the port authority may determine from time to time, such resolutions to contain such provisions with respect to the form thereof and maturity, interest rate, sinking fund, redemption, and refunding as are customary and usual; and such bonds shall be issued under a trust indenture from the port authority to a corporate trustee, which indenture shall contain the usual and customary provisions with respect to the issuance of bonds, the application of the revenues of such bridge or tunnel for the creation of a sinking fund to provide for the payment of such bonds and interest thereon, and for the holding of the proceeds of the bonds in a special trust for the purpose of acquiring or constructing such bridge or tunnel, and for the pledge and assignment by the port authority to the trustee under such trust indenture of the revenues of such bridge or tunnel over and above the cost of operation and maintenance thereof as security for the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds. The port authority shall establish, maintain, and collect tolls for transit over such bridge or through such tunnel acquired or constructed hereunder sufficient at all times to pay the cost of the operation and maintenance thereof and to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds issued hereunder; and such bonds and the coupons evidencing interest thereon shall constitute an irrevocable contract between the holders thereof and the port authority that such tolls shall always be sufficient therefor. No bonds issued hereunder shall bear interest at a rate exceeding eight percent per annum and all such bonds so issued hereunder shall be sold for not less than par and accrued interest to the date of delivery and payment and may be sold at private sale without prior publication of notice thereof. All such bonds issued hereunder shall never constitute an indebtedness of any such city of the first class or second class chargeable to its debt limit or payable from ad valorem taxes, but such bonds shall be payable solely and only from the toll revenues earned by such bridge or tunnel pledged to the payment thereof.

When the port authority determines to acquire any of these existing bridges, or to construct the additional bridge or tunnel, the port authority shall have all rights and powers to enter upon lands and to acquire, condemn, occupy, possess, and use such real estate and other property as may be needed for the location, construction, operation, and maintenance of such bridge or tunnel and approaches thereto as are possessed by railroad corporations for railroad purposes, or by bridge corporations for bridge purposes in the state in which such real estate or other property is situated, upon making just compensation therefor to be ascertained and paid according to the laws of the state in which such property may be located and the proceedings therefor shall be the same as in condemnation or expropriation of property for public purposes in such state.

The port authority shall also have full right and power to cause to be made a survey or investigation relating to the proper uses, operations, improvement, and development of the port district, the stimulation of employment by reason thereof, and the benefit to the city and county in which such district lies and to the state of Minnesota. The port authority may also cause to be prepared a plan for future construction, development, and improvement of the port, which plan may be integrated into any existing or future city plans of any city in the port district. Upon completion of the plan, and after public hearing, such port authority may adopt the same as its official plan for the port district. Thereafter such plan may be extended, modified, or amended after hearing. Upon the adoption of any such plan, all improvements made by such port authority shall conform thereto.

Any seaway port authority may also operate its port terminal facilities constructed on their premises as terminal operators and as such, may contract with a warehouse operator or operators performing other terminal services on an agency basis. They may enter into such a contract which may provide that the agent will be paid a compensation on a monthly basis to operate the facilities and that said agent may hire the necessary personnel to carry all the functions assumed in said contract, and that any and all employees engaged by said agent shall be considered employees of such agent and not of the port authority, and he shall be responsible for the payment of their compensation and in compliance with all local ordinances, state or federal laws in regard to employees. Such seaway port authority may also contract with any other agent or agents for the performing of any and all functions that the port authority has power by law to execute in a like manner. In contracting with so-called managing agent, but in remaining the terminal operator, the seaway port authority may contract to retain power over the setting of all rates for any services to be performed in any terminal facility owned, leased, or operated by said seaway port authority.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 458.191, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. It is hereby declared to be the public policy of the legislature of the state of Minnesota that it is in the public interest to empower the port authority to employ the power of eminent domain, and for such port authority to advance and expend public moneys for the purposes contained in Laws 1957, Chapter 812, and to provide for means by which marginal area properties may be developed or redeveloped in accordance with the legislative policies hereinafter stated.

(1) A sound development of the economic security of the peoples of the city of the first class or second class, however organized, in which is situated such port authority is dependent upon proper development and redevelopment of marginal properties, and the general welfare of the inhabitants of the port districts in which they exist require the remedying of such injurious conditions to which marginal properties are now subject; and

(2) The development and redevelopment of such marginal area properties cannot be accomplished by private enterprise alone without public participation and assistance in the acquisition of land and planning and in the financing of land assembly in the work of clearance, development and redevelopment, and in the making of improvements necessary therefor.

(3) To protect and promote sound development and redevelopment of marginal lands as hereinafter defined, and the general welfare of the inhabitants of the port districts in which they exist, to remedying such injurious conditions through the employment of all appropriate means.

(4) That whenever the development or redevelopment of such marginal lands cannot be accomplished by private enterprise alone, without public participation and assistance in the acquisition of land and planning and in financing of land assembly in the work of clearance, development and redevelopment, and in the making of improvements necessary therefor, it is in the public interest to employ the power of eminent domain, to advance and expend public moneys for those purposes, and to provide for means by which such marginal lands may be developed or redeveloped.

(5) That the development or redevelopment of such marginal lands and the provision of appropriate continuing land use constitute public uses and purposes for which public moneys may be advanced or expended and private property acquired, and are governmental functions and are of state concern in the interest of health, safety and welfare of the peoples of the state of Minnesota and of the communities in which such areas exist.

(6) That the necessity in the public interest for the provision of Laws 1957, Chapter 812, is declared to be a matter of legislative determination."

"Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 458.193, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. In anticipation of the receipt by the port authority of payments, appropriations, rents and profits and of income from any other source and for the purpose of securing funds as needed by such port authority for the payment of the cost of property acquired and for other purposes as herein authorized, the port authority is hereby authorized to issue bonds in such principal amount as shall be authorized by the governing body of the city of the first class or second class, however organized, in which such port authority is situated. Such bonds shall be in such amount and form and bear interest at such rate as the said governing body of such city of the first class shall prescribe and shall be sold by such port authority to the highest bidder therefor after notice of the time and the place for the receiving of the bids has been published once at least two weeks prior to the date of receiving bids. Except as otherwise provided in Laws 1957, Chapter 812, the issuance of the bonds herein authorized by such port authority shall be governed by provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475, and such port authority when issuing such bonds shall be deemed to be embraced within the meaning of the term "municipal corporation" as said term is used in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary included within the charter of any such city or any general or special law of the state of Minnesota, such bonds may be issued and sold without submission of the question thereof to the electors of such city of the first class or second class, provided, however, that the ordinance of the governing body of such city authorizing issuance of such bonds by such port authority shall be subject to any provisions in the charter of such city pertaining to the procedure for referendum of ordinances enacted by such governing body. The receipt and expenditure of any moneys received hereunder shall not be included within the definition of any limitation imposed on per capita taxing or spending in the charter of any such city of the first class or second class, and such exemption from such limitation shall apply to such port authority. The taxing powers granted to cities of the first class or second class in connection with Laws 1957, Chapter 812, in any manner shall be in addition to all taxing powers now possessed by them.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 458.193, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. The bonds shall be secured by the pledge of the full faith, credit and resources of the city of the first class or second class, however organized, in which said port authority has been created. Said port authority is hereby authorized to pledge such full faith, credit and resources of said city only upon the specific authorization of the governing body of said city that said port authority may so do. The propriety of the issuance of bonds in any specific case and the amount thereof shall be a matter of decision for such governing body in the first instance. The specific consent to the pledge of such full faith, credit and resources of the city of the first class or second class shall be conclusively presumed from formal action of the governing body of such city, taken by ordinance. Such bonds shall be paid, both in the principal amount thereof and the interest thereon, by the port authority from tax levies as hereinafter provided for the purpose of repayment, the earnings and all income received by such port authority from whatever source it may be derived."

poses and its Production and Processing, Vol. 37 Federal Register, No. 68, Part II, April 7, 1972, with the following exceptions:

(a) Inspections of producers shall begin not later than January 1, 1985;

(b) Producers shall comply with the standards not later than July 1, 1986, except as otherwise allowed under the standards; and

(c) The commissioner shall develop methods by which producers can comply with the standards without violation of religious beliefs. The commissioner may adopt rules, including temporary rules, for the purpose of this clause.

The commissioner of agriculture shall perform or contract for the performance of the inspections necessary to implement this section or shall certify dairy industry personnel to perform the inspections.

The commissioner and other employees of the department shall make every reasonable effort to assist producers in achieving the milk quality standards at minimum cost and to use the experience and expertise of the University of Minnesota and the agricultural extension service to assist producers in achieving the milk quality standards in the most cost-effective manner.

The commissioner of agriculture shall consult with producers, processors, and others involved in the dairy industry in order to prepare for the implementation of this section including development of informational and educational materials, meetings, and other methods of informing producers about the implementation of standards under this section.

Sec. 2. [32.416] [LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [PRODUCER ASSISTANCE.] The commissioner shall administer a loan guarantee and payment adjustment program for producers to assist in financing any real property improvements required by section 1.

For purposes of this subdivision, written rejection of a loan application by two lenders, as defined in subdivision 2, or the availability of a loan only at interest rates determined by rule or temporary rule pursuant to subdivision 7 to be excessive, shall be sufficient to show that credit is unavailable from commercial lenders.*

Subd. 5. Subd. 7. [RULES; ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement the loan guarantee and payment adjustment program. The rules shall include:

(a) Procedures for approving loan guarantees;

(b) Eligibility requirements for applicants which assure that approval of a loan guarantee is based on financial need and credit worthiness of the applicant; and

(c) Required loan guarantee terms which provide adequate security for recovery by the state of amounts paid to lenders on default of any guaranteed loan, and repayment of a guaranteed loan by the applicant through assignment of a portion of any payment received for milk produced by the applicant.

The rules may be adopted as temporary rules as provided in chapter 14. The rules shall be effective July 1, 1984, and shall expire on July 1, 1985. Loan guarantees and payment adjustments may be granted only from July 1, 1984, to July 1, 1985.

The commissioner of health shall coordinate his inspections of nursing homes with inspections by other state and local agencies.

The commissioner shall conduct inspections and reinspections of health facilities with a frequency and in a manner calculated to produce the greatest benefit to residents within the limits of the resources available to the commissioner. All of said guardianships, and the funds and property of the same, are hereby transferred to and vested in said commissioner, and said commissioner is hereby constituted a legal entity and is hereby empowered to act as guardian under any laws of this state heretofore conferring such powers upon the state board of control.

(9) Act as coordinating referral and informational center on requests for service for newly arrived immigrants coming to Minnesota.

(10) The specific enumeration of powers and duties as hereinabove set forth shall in no way be construed to be a limitation upon the general transfer of powers herein contained.

(11) Establish county, regional, or state-wide schedules of maximum fees and charges which may be paid by local agencies for medical, dental, surgical, hospital, nursing and nursing home care and medicine and medical supplies under all programs of medical care provided by the state and for congregate living care under the income maintenance programs.

(12) Have the authority to conduct and administer experimental projects to test methods and procedures of administering assistance and services to recipients or potential recipients of public welfare. To carry out such experimental projects, it is further provided that the commissioner of public welfare is authorized to waive the enforcement of existing specific statutory program requirements, regulations, and standards in one or more counties. The order establishing the waiver shall provide alternative methods and procedures of administration, shall not be in conflict with the basic purposes, coverage, or benefits provided by law, and in no event shall the duration of a project exceed two years. It is further provided that no order establishing an experimental project as authorized by the provisions of this section shall become effective until the following conditions have been met:

(a) The proposed comprehensive plan including estimated project costs and the proposed order establishing the waiver shall be filed with the secretary of the senate and chief clerk of the house of representatives at least 60 days prior to its effective date.

(b) The secretary of health, education, and welfare of the United States has agreed, for the same project, to waive state plan requirements relative to state-wide uniformity.

(c) A comprehensive plan, including estimated project costs, shall be approved by the legislative advisory commission and filed with the commissioner of administration.

(13) In accordance with federal requirements establish procedures to be followed by local welfare boards in creating citizen advisory committees, including procedures for selection of committee members.

(14) (PROMULGATE, BY RULE, STANDARDS OF ADMINISTRATION TO BE APPLIED BY LOCAL WELFARE BOARDS ADMINISTERING STATE AND COUNTY FINANCED PROGRAMS OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 256B, GENERAL RELIEF MEDICAL CARE PURSUANT TO SECTION 256D.02, SUBDIVISION 4 AND MEDICAL, HOSPITAL, AND SURGICAL CARE FOR PERSONS ELIGIBLE FOR GENERAL ASSISTANCE PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 256D, OR FOR INDIGENT PERSONS WHOSE COSTS OF HOSPITALIZATION ARE PAID PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 261.21 TO 261.232. THE RULES SHALL SPECIFY A UNIFORM STANDARD OF PERFORMANCE AND A TOLERATED ERROR RATE, BUT SHALL NOT SPECIFY THE MINIMUM NUMBER OF PERSONNEL TO BE EMPLOYED BY A LOCAL AGENCY IF THE AGENCY OPERATES AT THE SPECIFIED STANDARD OF PERFORMANCE OR AT OR BELOW THE TOLERATED ERROR RATE. THE COMMISSIONER MAY DEDUCT FROM THE EARNED ADMINISTRATIVE REIMBURSEMENTS OF A COUNTY A PENALTY FOR THE COUNTY'S FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE STANDARDS OF ADMINISTRATION. THE PENALTY SHALL BE FIXED BY THE COMMISSIONER AS A PERCENTAGE OF THE OVEREXPENDITURE CAUSED BY IMPROPER ADMINISTRATION, BEYOND AN INITIAL TOLERATED AMOUNT OF OVEREXPENDITURE. IN THE EVENT THAT FISCAL SANCTIONS ARE IMPOSED BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT BECAUSE OF IMPROPER ADMINISTRATION OF THE PROGRAMS, ONE HALF OF THE AMOUNT OF THE SANCTIONS ATTRIBUTABLE TO LOCAL AGENCY PERFORMANCE SHALL BE DEDUCTED FROM ADMINISTRATIVE REIMBURSEMENT OTHERWISE DUE THE COUNTY) Allocate federal fiscal disallowances or sanctions which are based on quality control error rates for the aid to families with dependent children, medical assistance, or food stamp program in the following manner:

(a) One-half of the total amount of the disallowance shall be borne by the county boards responsible for administering the programs and shall be shared by each county board in the same proportion as that county's expenditures for the sanctioned program are to the total of all counties' expenditures for that program. Each county shall pay its share of the disallowance to the state of Minnesota. When a county fails to pay the amount due hereunder, the commissioner may deduct the amount from reimbursement otherwise due the county, or the attorney general, upon the request of the commissioner, may institute civil action to recover the amount due.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), if the disallowance results from knowing noncompliance by one or more counties with a specific program instruction, and that knowing noncompliance is a matter of official county board record, the commissioner may require payment or recover from the county or counties, in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a), an amount equal to the portion of the total disallowance which resulted from the noncompliance, and may distribute the balance of the disallowance according to paragraph (a).

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.82, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [SETTING FOSTER CARE STANDARD RATES.] The commissioner shall annually establish minimum standard rates for foster care maintenance for all children in foster care, and require county boards to establish difficulty-of-care payments for all children in foster care.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.966, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] For the biennium ending June 30, (1983) 1985, the annual increase in the cost per service unit paid to any vendor under medical assistance and general assistance medical care shall not exceed eight percent. (THE PERIOD FOR MEASURING GROWTH SHALL BE THE STATE FISCAL YEAR.)

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.967, is amended to read:

256.967 [MEDICAL CARE PAYMENTS; LIMITATIONS ON FEES.]

For the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1985, all payments for vendors of medical care under general assistance medical care shall be based upon this standard: the 50th percentile of usual and customary fees based upon medical assistance billings during calendar year 1978. All payments for vendors of medical care under medical assistance shall be limited to the 50th percentile of usual and customary fees based upon billings during calendar year 1979 for physician services, dental care, vision care, podiatric services, chiropractic care, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech pathologists, audiologists, mental health centers, psychologists, public health clinics, and independent laboratory and x-ray services.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.968, is amended to read:

256.968 [LIMITATION ON INPATIENT CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall limit medical assistance and general assistance medical care reimbursement for treatment of alcoholism, chemical dependency or drug addiction which is rendered in a licensed hospital or certified nursing home to 10 days unless need for extended care is certified by the attending physician. In no case shall reimbursement for inpatient treatment extend beyond 20 days in a 12-month period unless there is prior authorization from the commissioner. The commissioner shall seek the advice of the professional services advisory committee concerning the need for extended inpatient treatment.

Sec. 9. [256.969] [INPATIENT HOSPITALS.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL COST INDEX.] The legislature directs the commissioner of public welfare to develop a prospective payment system for inpatient hospital service under the medical assistance and general assistance medical care programs. Rates paid to licensed hospitals for rate years beginning during the biennium ending June 30, 1985, shall not exceed an annual hospital cost index for the final rate allowed to the hospital for the preceding year. The annual hospital cost index shall be obtained from an independent source representing a statewide average of inflation estimates determined for expense categories to include salaries, employee benefits, medical fees, raw food, medical supplies, pharmaceuticals, utilities, repairs and maintenance, insurance other than malpractice insurance, and other applicable expenses as determined by the commissioner. The index shall reflect the regional differences within the state and include a one percent increase to reflect changes in technology. The annual hospital cost index shall be published 30 days before the start of each calendar quarter and shall be applicable to all hospitals whose fiscal years start on or during the calendar quarter.

Subd. 2. [RATES FOR INPATIENT HOSPITALS.] Rates paid to inpatient hospitals shall be based on a rate per admission.

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS.] In determining the rate, the commissioner of public welfare will take into consideration whether the following circumstances exist:

- (a) minimal medical assistance and general assistance medical care utilization;
- (b) unusual length of stay experience; and
- (c) disproportionate numbers of low income patients served.

Subd. 4. [APPEALS BOARD.] An appeals board shall be established for purposes of hearing reports for changes in the rate per admission. The appeals board shall consist of two public representatives, two representatives of the hospital industry, and one representative of the business or consumer community. The appeals board shall advise the commissioner on adjustments to hospital rates under this section.

Subd. 5. [APPEAL RIGHTS.] Nothing in this section supersedes the contested case provisions of chapter 14, the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 6. [RULES.] The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules to implement a system of prospective payment for inpatient hospital services pursuant to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; MEDICAL CARE.] "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of such cost:

(1) Inpatient hospital services. A second medical opinion is required prior to reimbursement for elective surgeries. The commissioner shall publish a proposed list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion prior to reimbursement in the State Register by July 1, 1983, and the public shall be given an opportunity to review and comment on the proposed list prior to implementation. The list is not subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act. The final list shall be published in the State Register and implemented by August 15, 1983.

(2) Skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities.

(3) Physicians' services.

(4) Outpatient hospital or non-profit community health clinic services or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open, and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of the physician who is on the premises.

Hospital outpatient departments shall be subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions which, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, or any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, the qualifications, and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section.

(5) Community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2 and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2.

((5)) (6) Home health care services.

((6)) (7) Private duty nursing services.

((7)) (8) Physical therapy and related services.

((8)) (9) Dental services, excluding cast metal restorations.

((9)) (10) Laboratory and x-ray services.

((10)) (11) The following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eyeglasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner, with the consent of the drug formulary committee, before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over the counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven or any other over the counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders and such determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary and his determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act. The commissioner (MAY PROMULGATE) shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any charge in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the administrative procedure act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the administrative procedure act.

((11)) (12) Diagnostic, screening, and preventive services.

((12)) (13) Health care pre-payment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

((13)) (14) Abortion services, but only if one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of a criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e) (i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion.

((14)) (15) Transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by non-ambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or non-emergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be non-ambulatory.

((15)) (16) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining non-emergency medical care.

((16)) (17) Any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.04, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [COMPETITIVE BIDDING.] The commissioner shall utilize volume purchase through competitive bidding under the provisions of chapter 16, to provide the following items:

(1) Eyeglasses;

(2) Oxygen. The commissioner shall provide for oxygen needed in an emergency situation on a short term basis, until the vendor can obtain the necessary supply from the contract dealer;

(3) Hearing aids and supplies; and

((3)) (4) Durable medical equipment, including but not limited to:

(a) hospital beds;

(b) commodes;

(c) glide-about chairs;

(d) patient lift apparatus;

(e) wheelchairs and accessories;

(f) oxygen administration equipment;

(g) respiratory therapy equipment; and

(h) electronic diagnostic, therapeutic and life support systems.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [UTILIZATION REVIEW.] Establish on a statewide basis a program to safeguard against unnecessary or inappropriate use of medical assistance services, against excess payments, against unnecessary or inappropriate hospital admissions or lengths of stay, and against underutilization of services in pre-paid health plans, long term care facilities or any health care delivery system subject to fixed rate reimbursement. In implementing the program, the state agency shall utilize both pre-payment and post-payment review systems to determine if utilization is reasonable and necessary. The determination of whether services are reasonable and necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a professional services advisory group appointed by the commissioner. Determinations shall be binding on all parties, and shall not be subject to provisions of sections 14.57 to 14.62 or section 256.045.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.041, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNT.] An account is established in the state treasury from which medical assistance payments to vendors shall be made. Into (SUCH) this account there shall be deposited federal funds, state funds, county funds, and other moneys which are available and which may be paid to the state agency for medical assistance payments and reimbursements from counties or others for their share of such payments.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.041, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT BY COUNTY TO STATE TREASURER.] If required by federal law or rules promulgated thereunder, or by authorized regulation of the state agency, each county shall pay to the state treasurer the portion of medical assistance paid by the state for which it is responsible. The county's share of cost shall be ten percent of that portion not met by federal funds.

The county shall advance its portion of medical assistance costs, based upon estimates submitted by the state agency to the county agency, stating the estimated expenditures for the succeeding month. Upon the direction of the county agency, payment shall be made monthly by the county to the state for the estimated expenditures for each month. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate based on actual expenditures shall be made by the state agency by adjusting the estimate for any succeeding month.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY FOR MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.] Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, (42 U.S.C. SECTIONS 670 TO 676) United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676; or

(2) Who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, (42 U.S.C. SECTIONS 670 TO 676) United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676; or

(3) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and living with the woman; or

(4) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(5) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(6) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.-01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(7) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(8) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(9) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(10) Who individually does not own more than ($2,000) $3,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than ($4,000) $6,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. Cash and liquid assets may include a prepaid funeral contract and insurance policies with cash surrender value. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(11) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(12) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(13) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.061, is amended to read:

256B.061 [ELIGIBILITY.]

If any individual has been determined to be eligible for medical assistance, it will be made available to him for care and services included under the plan and furnished in or after the third month before the month in which he made application for such assistance, if such individual was, or upon application would have been, eligible for medical assistance at the time the care and services were furnished. The commissioner may limit, restrict, or suspend the eligibility of an individual for up to one year upon that individual's conviction of a criminal offense related to his application for or receipt of medical assistance benefits.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.064, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [GROUNDS FOR MONETARY RECOVERY AND SANCTIONS AGAINST VENDORS.] The commissioner may seek monetary recovery and impose sanctions against vendors of medical care for any of the following: fraud, theft, or abuse in connection with the provision of medical care to recipients of public assistance; a pattern of presentment of false or duplicate claims or claims for services not medically necessary; a pattern of making false statements of material facts for the purpose of obtaining greater compensation than that to which the vendor is legally entitled; suspension or termination as a Medicare vendor; and refusal to grant the state agency access during regular business hours to examine all records necessary to disclose the extent of services provided to program recipients. No sanction may be imposed or monetary recovery obtained against any vendor of nursing home or convalescent care for providing services not medically necessary when the services provided were ordered by a licensed health professional not an employee of the vendor. The determination of (ABUSE OR) services not medically necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a (REVIEW ORGANIZATION AS DEFINED IN SECTION 145.61 OR OTHER) provider advisory (COMMITTEES AS) committee appointed by the commissioner on the recommendation of appropriate professional organizations.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.064, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURES FOR MONETARY RECOVERY AND SANCTIONS.] The commissioner shall determine monetary amounts to be recovered and the sanction to be imposed upon a vendor of medical care for conduct described by subdivision 1a. Neither a monetary recovery nor a sanction will be sought by the commissioner without prior notice and an opportunity for a hearing, pursuant to (CHAPTER 14) section 256.045, on the commissioner's proposed action, provided that the commissioner may suspend or reduce payment to a vendor of medical care, except a nursing home or convalescent care facility, prior to the hearing if in the commissioner's opinion that action is necessary to protect the public welfare and the interests of the program.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.07, is amended to read:

256B.07 [EXCEPTIONS IN DETERMINING RESOURCES.]

A local agency may, within the scope of regulations set by the commissioner of public welfare, waive the requirement of liquidation of excess assets when the liquidation would cause undue hardship. Household goods and furniture in use in the home, wearing apparel, (INSURANCE POLICIES WITH CASH SURRENDER VALUE NOT IN EXCESS OF $1,500 PER INSURED PERSON,) personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient, (A PREPAID FUNERAL CONTRACT NOT IN EXCESS OF $750 PER PERSON PLUS ACCRUED INTEREST OF NOT MORE THAN $200,) and a lot in a burial plot shall not be considered as resources available to meet medical needs.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.14, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACTIONS TO OBTAIN PAYMENT.] The state agency shall promulgate rules to determine the ability of responsible relatives to contribute partial or complete repayment of medical assistance furnished to recipients for whom they are responsible. In determining the resource contribution of a spouse at the time of the first medical assistance application, all medical assistance exclusions shall be allowed, and a resource limit of $10,000 for nonexcluded resources shall be implemented. Above these limits, a contribution of one-third of the excess resources shall be required. These rules shall not require repayment when payment would cause undue hardship to the responsible relative or his or her immediate family. The county agency shall give the responsible relative notice of the amount of the repayment. If the state agency or county agency finds that notice of the payment obligation was given to the responsible relative, but that the relative failed or refused to pay, a cause of action exists against the responsible relative for that portion of medical assistance granted after notice was given to the responsible relative, which the relative was determined to be able to pay.

The action may be brought by the state agency or the county agency in the county where assistance was granted, for the assistance, together with the costs of disbursements incurred due to the action.

In addition to granting the county or state agency a money judgment, the court may, upon a motion or order to show cause, order continuing contributions by a responsible relative found able to repay the county or state agency. The order shall be effective only for the period of time during which the recipient receives medical assistance from the county or state agency.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [EXCEPTION FOR ASSET TRANSFERS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions 1 through 4, an institutionalized spouse who applies for medical assistance on or after July 1, 1983, may transfer liquid assets to his or her noninstitutionalized spouse without loss of eligibility if all of the following conditions apply:

(a) The noninstitutionalized spouse is not applying for or receiving assistance;

(b) The noninstitutionalized spouse has less than $10,000 in liquid assets, including assets singly owned and 50 percent of assets owned jointly with the institutionalized spouse;

(c) The amount transferred, together with the noninstitutionalized spouse's own assets, totals no more than $10,000 in liquid assets; and

(d) The transfer may be effected only once, at the time of initial medical assistance application.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.27, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER'S ACCESS TO MEDICAL RECORDS.] The commissioner of public welfare, with the written consent of the recipient, on file with the county welfare office, shall be allowed access to all personal medical records of medical assistance recipients solely for the purposes of investigating whether or not: (a) a vendor of medical care has submitted a claim for reimbursement, a cost report or a rate application which the vendor knows to be false in whole or in part; or (b) the medical care was medically necessary. The vendor of medical care shall receive notification from the commissioner at least 24 hours before the commissioner gains access to such records. The determination of (ABUSE OR) provision of services not medically necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with (A REVIEW ORGANIZATION AS DEFINED IN SECTION 145.61 OR OTHER) an advisory (COMMITTEES) committee of vendors as appointed by the commissioner on the recommendation of appropriate professional organizations. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, a vendor of medical care (SHALL NOT BE) is not subject to any civil or criminal liability for providing access to medical records to the commissioner of public welfare pursuant to this section.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.27, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

JOBS PROGRAMS

Section 1. [268A.01] [PURPOSE.]

The prolonged recession has caused hardship for thousands of people in the state and has undermined the strength of Minnesota's economy. To address the social consequences of long-term unemployment and resulting poverty, this act seeks to create meaningful employment opportunities which provide workers income sufficient to meet basic needs, and to assure basic necessities to people who cannot work. To serve these purposes this act provides:

(a) For a small business job creation incentive program to provide training; create jobs, and facilitate economic development in Minnesota by providing job creation incentives to small business employers in the private sector;

(b) For a public service jobs program to provide meaningful employment and a liveable wage to workers in the event that the private sector jobs program does not create enough jobs to meet the needs of all qualified workers, and to provide a means for persons who would otherwise be receiving general assistance grants to earn more than these grants would provide; and

(c) For a program of grants and allowances to provide for the basic needs of persons who are not able to find work through any means, including the programs created by this act.

Also, the business shall not hire an individual with funds available under this act if any other person is on layoff from the same or a substantially equivalent job; and*

The business shall repay 50 percent of the amount initially received, without interest, for each person employed more than one year and less than two years. Beginning one year after a business receives funds from the program administrator, the business shall begin to make payments. Sec. 7. [268A.07] [WORK INCENTIVE DEMONSTRATION PROJECT.]

Subdivision 1. In order to maximize the opportunity for recipients of aid to families with dependent children to take full advantage of the jobs created by sections 1 to 11, the commissioner of public welfare shall inform each applicant or recipient of the availability of this program.

Subd. 2. In addition, the commissioner shall make changes in the state plan and rules or seek any waivers or demonstration authority as necessary to minimize the barriers to participation in the programs or to employment. Changes shall be sought in the following areas including, but not limited to: allowances, child care, work expenses, the amount and duration of earning incentives, medical care coverage, limitations on the hours of employment, and the diversion of payments to wage subsidies. The commissioner shall implement each change as soon as possible.

Subd. 3. Persons required to register for the work incentive program under section 256.736 or with job services shall be referred to the small business job creation incentives program for the required orientation, appraisal, and job search activities.

Subd. 4. Participants shall receive medical assistance and other benefits provided under the aid to families with dependent children program according to the applicable standards and any authority granted by the department of health and human services.

Subd. 5. The commissioner of public welfare may adopt rules, including temporary rules for the implementation of this section.

Sec. 8. [268A.08] [PUBLIC SERVICE JOBS PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROJECTS.] The commissioner shall allocate the funds available for public service jobs to program administrators according to section 3. The program administrators shall allocate these funds to state agencies, counties, cities, towns, school districts, and nonprofit agencies that sponsor public service jobs. The sponsoring unit shall provide the administration, supervision, supplies, and materials for all jobs.

Subd. 2. [PERMISSIBLE EXPENDITURES.] All money appropriated for jobs under this program shall be expended for wages and benefits for eligible job applicants, except as provided in section 11.

Subd. 3. [WAGES.] A maximum of $5 per hour for a maximum of 1,040 hours for each person hired under this section may be disbursed to a sponsoring unit of government or nonprofit agency.

Subd. 4. [LIMITS.] The sponsoring unit of a government or nonprofit agency may not terminate, lay off, or reduce the working hours of an employee for the purpose of hiring an individual with funds available under this section. The sponsoring unit may not hire an individual with funds available under this act if any other person is on layoff from the same or a substantially equivalent job.

Subd. 5. [EMPLOYER CERTIFICATION.] In order to qualify as an eligible employer, a government or nonprofit agency must certify to the program administrator that each job created and funded under this section:

(1) will result in an increase in employment opportunities over those which would otherwise be available;

(2) will not result in the displacement of currently employed workers, including partial displacement such as reduction in hours of nonovertime work, wages, or employment benefits; and

(3) will not impair existing contracts for service or result in the substitution of program funds for other funds in connection with work that would otherwise be performed.

Sec. 9. [268A.09] [RULES.]

The commissioner of economic security may adopt rules necessary to implement this article. These rules are not subject to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act.

Sec. 10. [268A.10] [SMALL BUSINESS JOB CREATION INCENTIVES PROGRAM REVOLVING ACCOUNT.]

The small business creation incentives program revolving account is established in the state treasury. All payments from businesses pursuant to section 5 shall be deposited in this account, and all funds in the account are annually appropriated to the commissioner of economic security for the purpose of making disbursements pursuant to section 3.

Sec. 11. [USE OF FUNDS.]

To the extent permissible under federal law, the commissioner of economic security shall use funds available under the Job Training Partnership Act to fund the small business job creation incentives program. The commissioner may also apply for gifts and grants, including matching grants, for the program, and shall deposit funds received in the revolving account. Gift and grant funds may be distributed as specified by the person making the gift or grant. This sum shall be available until June 30, 1985. It is the intent of the legislature that the commissioner give priority to using these funds and funds appropriated by the legislature for private sector jobs to the extent that eligible small businesses apply for funds. The commissioner shall make an initial determination of the amount that she believes can be used under the small business job creation incentive program. Remaining funds may be used for public service jobs, as provided in section 8. The commissioner's initial allocation of funds between private and public sector jobs programs shall be submitted to the legislative advisory commission prior to July 1, 1983, and approved by the governor according to section 3.30 prior to taking effect. The commissioner may amend her initial determination, and shift funds between the public and private sector jobs program as necessary to maximize employment opportunities, while giving priority to private sector jobs. The amended allocation shall be submitted to the legislative advisory commission and approved by the governor according to section 3.30 prior to taking effect. In allocating funds to program administrators, the commissioner shall specify what proportion of the funds may be used for public service jobs. Ninety-eight percent of the amount appropriated from the general fund shall be disbursed to program administrators according to sections 3 and 8. The remaining two percent shall be used by the commissioner for administrative purposes. Of the funds disbursed to each program administrator at least 80 percent shall be disbursed to qualifying businesses under section 4 or to sponsors of public service jobs under section 8. Up to five percent may be disbursed to the program administrators for administrative purposes. Up to 15 percent may be disbursed to the program administrators for provision of child-care information and subsidies pursuant to section 6, and for provision of other support services to persons employed under the small business job creation incentives program.

By October 1, 1984, the program administrator of each service delivery area shall submit to the grants administrator a spending plan establishing that funds allocated to the service delivery area will be used by July 1, 1985, in the manner required by sections 1 to 10. Any funds allocated to the service delivery area for which there is no spending plan approved by the grants administrator shall cancel back to the commissioner of economic security on November 1, 1984, and may be reallocated by the grants administrator to other program administrators.

Subdivision 1. [OBJECTIVES AND POLICY OF GENERAL ASSISTANCE.] The objectives of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 are to provide a sound administrative structure for public assistance programs; to maximize the use of federal funds for public assistance purposes; and to provide an integrated public assistance program for all those persons in the state (MEETING THE ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA CONTAINED IN THIS CHAPTER) without adequate income or resources to maintain a subsistence reasonably compatible with decency and health.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state that persons unable to provide for themselves and not otherwise provided for by law and who meet the eligibility requirements of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 shall be entitled to receive such grants of general assistance (, WITHIN THE TIME LIMITS SET FORTH IN THIS CHAPTER) as may be necessary to maintain a subsistence reasonably compatible with decency and health. The furnishing of such assistance and services is a matter of public concern and a necessity in promoting the public health and welfare.

A principal objective in providing general assistance shall be to provide for persons ineligible for federal programs who are unable to provide for themselves. To achieve these aims, the commissioner shall establish minimum standards of assistance for general assistance. The minimum standard for cash payments to recipients shall be: as to shelter and utilities, 100 percent of the actual need or state standards therefor, subject to the maximum established for shelter in the aid to the blind, aid to the disabled, and old age assistance programs in December, 1973; and as to other budgetary items, 50 percent, of those established for said items in the aid to the blind, aid to the disabled, and old age assistance programs in December, 1973. The minimum standards of assistance shall authorize the payment of rates negotiated by local agencies for recipients living in a room and board arrangement. In order to maximize the use of federal funds, the commissioner shall (PROMULGATE REGULATIONS) adopt rules, to the extent permitted by federal law for eligibility for the emergency assistance program under aid to families with dependent children, and under the terms of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 for general assistance, to require the use of the emergency program under aid to families with dependent children as the primary financial resource when available. The commissioner shall provide by (REGULATION) rule for the eligibility for general assistance of persons with seasonal income, and may attribute seasonal income to other periods not in excess of one year from receipt by an applicant or recipient.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE.] "General assistance" means cash payments to persons unable to provide themselves with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health and who are not otherwise provided for under the laws of this state or the United States. It shall include cash payments for goods, shelter, fuel, food, clothing, light, necessary household supplies, and personal need items. General assistance shall not include payments for foster care, child welfare services, or other social services. Vendor payments and vouchers may be (MADE) issued only as provided for in section 256D.09.

(a) A person who is suffering from a permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is both medically certified and prevents the person from engaging in suitable employment, and who, if the medical certification establishes that the illness, injury, or incapacity is temporary and recommends a reasonable plan for rehabilitation, is following the plan;

(b) A person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the certified illness or incapacity of another member of the household;

(c) A person who has been placed in a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilitation, if the placement is based on illness or incapacity, and is pursuant to a plan developed or approved by the local agency through its director or designated representative;

(d) A person who resides in a shelter facility described in subdivision 3;

(e) A person who is or may be eligible for displaced homemaker services, programs, or assistance under section 4.40. In determining eligibility of the person for general assistance, income received as a stipend shall be disregarded as provided in section 4.40;

(f) A person who is unable to secure suitable employment due to inability to communicate in the English language, and who, if assigned to a language skills program by the local agency, is participating in that program;

(g) A person not described in clause (a) or (c) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician or licensed consulting psychologist as mentally ill or mentally retarded;

If found eligible for benefits from other sources, and a payment received from another source relates to the period during which general assistance was also being received, the recipient shall be required to reimburse the local agency for the interim assistance paid. Reimbursement shall not exceed the amount of general assistance paid during the time period to which the other maintenance benefits apply and shall not exceed the state standard applicable to that time period. The commissioner shall adopt rules, and may adopt temporary rules, authorizing local agencies to retain from the amount recovered under an interim assistance agreement 25 percent plus actual reasonable costs of litigation and disbursements when the agency has provided special assistance to the recipient in processing the recipient's claim for maintenance benefits from other sources. The funds retained under this section shall be from the state share of the recovery. The local agency may contract with qualified persons for special assistance. The rules adopted by the commissioner shall include the methods by which local agencies shall identify, refer, and assist recipients who may be eligible for benefits under the federal programs for the disabled. This (PROVISION) subdivision shall not require repayment of per diem payments made to shelters for battered women pursuant to section 256D.05, subdivision 3.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RULES FOR RECIPIENTS UNABLE TO MANAGE GRANTS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, the commissioner shall provide by rule (AND REGULATION), and is authorized to adopt temporary rules, for situations in which vouchers and vendor payments may be (MADE) issued by local agencies because of the inability of the recipient to manage his general assistance grant for his own or family's benefit.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [GRANT DIVERSION AGREEMENTS.] Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21, the commissioner of public welfare may provide by rule for the payment of all or a part of a recipient's grant pursuant to a grant diversion agreement entered into by the commissioner of public welfare with the commissioner of economic security. Any rule adopted by the commissioner shall establish the maximum and minimum length of grant diversion agreements, and shall provide that any grant diversion agreement entered into provide that the recipient be paid at least the usual and customary wage, and that the total of the net monthly wages paid the recipient and any part of the grant retained by the recipient be at least 150 percent of the recipient's monthly grant. During the term of the grant diversion agreement, the recipient shall retain his full general assistance medical care benefits to the extent that medical care coverage is not provided by his employer.

Sec. 10. [256D.111] [REGISTRATION FOR WORK; DISQUALIFICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [REGISTRATION REQUIREMENT.] Unless exempt in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 2, an adult who is a recipient of general assistance and who is not employed is required to register for employment services with the department of economic security; comply with reasonable reporting and job search requirements, as prescribed by permanent or temporary rule; and to accept any offer of suitable employment.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] A recipient is not required to register for employment services with the department of economic security and comply with the other requirements of subdivision 1 if he is:

(a) a person who is suffering from a permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is medically certified and which prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;

(b) a person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the certified illness, injury, incapacity, or the age of another member of the household;

(c) a person who has been placed in a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilita-

(d) a person who resides in a shelter facility described in section 256D.05, subdivision 3;

(e) a person who is or may be eligible for displaced homemaker services, programs, or assistance under section 4.40;

(f) a person not described in clause (a) or (c) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician or licensed consulting psychologist as mentally retarded or mentally ill, which condition prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;

(g) a person who has an application pending for the social security disability program or the program of supplemental security income for the aged, blind, and disabled, or who has been terminated from either program and has an appeal from that termination pending;

(h) a person who is unable to obtain or retain employment because his advanced age significantly affects his ability to seek or engage in substantial work;

(i) a person who has been referred to, has applied for, or is in a work training, work experience, vocational rehabilitation, or other employment related educational program if the period of time the person is exempted pursuant to this clause, while awaiting acceptance into such program, shall not exceed two months;

(j) an adult member of a household with children in which another adult is employed full time or has registered for employment services with the department of economic security or has been accepted in a work training program; or

(k) a person who has been certified as unemployable by the commissioner of economic security.

Subd. 3. [RIGHT TO HEARING.] Any person required by the local agency to register in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 1 is entitled, prior to grant reduction, suspension, or termination, to a hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 256D.10 on the issue of whether the person comes within the exemptions contained in subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE OF NONCOMPLIANCE.] No notice of grant reduction, suspension, or termination on the ground that a recipient has failed to comply with the requirements of subdivision 1 shall be given by the local agency pursuant to section 256D.10 until the commissioner of economic security certifies in writing to the local agency that the recipient has been finally determined, in accordance with the notice, hearing, and appeal rights and procedures applicable to the work incentive program, as prescribed in section 256.736, subdivision 4, clause (4), to have failed to comply with the requirements of subdivision 1. A final determination, if made in accordance with these procedures, shall be binding upon the local agency and the recipient.

Subd. 5. [RULEMAKING.] The commissioner shall adopt rules and is authorized to adopt temporary rules:

(a) providing for a reasonable period of disqualification from the receipt of general assistance for a recipient who is not exempt pursuant to subdivision 2 and who has been finally determined pursuant to the procedure prescribed in subdivision 4 to have failed to comply with the requirements of subdivision 1, provided that the period of disqualification for the first failure to comply shall not exceed one month;

(b) providing for the use of vouchers or vendor payments with respect to the family of a recipient described in clause (a); and

(c) providing that at the time of the approval of an application for general assistance, the local agency gives to the recipient a written notice in plain and easily understood language describing the recipient's job registration, search, and acceptance obligations under this section, and the period of disqualification that will be imposed for a failure to comply with those obligations.

Sec. 11. [256D.112] [TEMPORARY AUTHORITY TO REFER CERTAIN RECIPIENTS TO COMMISSIONER OF ECONOMIC SECURITY.]

The local agency shall refer a recipient to the commissioner of economic security for services under the small business job creation incentive program or the public service jobs program upon the payment to the recipient of a one-month grant. A referral shall be in writing, shall describe the jobs programs for which the referral is being made, shall state the address of the office to which the recipient is being referred, and shall state that if the recipient is not accepted for participation in the jobs programs, the recipient should return to the local agency. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10, subdivision 3, and section 256D.10, assistance to a general assistance recipient referred to the commissioner of economic security pursuant to this section shall be suspended at the time of the referral for a period of 30 days following the period for which a grant has been issued. If the recipient does not return to the local agency within the 30-day period, assistance shall be terminated. This section does not apply:

(1) to persons that the commissioner of economic security has determined, pursuant to section 12, are not eligible for the jobs programs; are not likely to secure a job through one of the jobs programs; or are not able to successfully perform a job available through one of the jobs programs;

(2) to persons who are recipients of general assistance on July 1, 1983; and

(3) to persons whom the local agency has substantial reason to believe are covered by section 10, subdivision 2.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting any recipient who has not been referred by the local agency from applying to the commissioner of economic security for services under the small business job creation incentive program or the public service jobs program. The local agency shall provide to all recipients a written description of the small business job creation incentive program and the public service jobs program.

Sec. 12. [268A.11] [APPLICATION PROCESS; DETERMINATIONS.]

Any person may apply to the commissioner for services under the small business job creation incentive program or the public service jobs program. Upon receiving an application, the commissioner shall promptly determine the person's eligibility for services under the programs, the person's ability to successfully perform a job available through one of the programs, and the person's eligibility for an allowance pursuant to section 13. In determining the eligibility of a person for the allowance, the commissioner shall apply the eligibility standards set forth in sections 256D.01 to 256D.21. A person referred by a local agency pursuant to the provisions of section 11 shall be deemed to be eligible for the allowance. If the commissioner finds at any time that a person is not eligible for services under the jobs programs or if the commissioner determines after a three-month period that the person is unlikely to secure a job through one of the jobs programs, then the commissioner shall issue a written determination stating the findings and provide the person with a written referral to the appropriate local agency. If the commissioner finds at any time, pursuant to standards established by the commissioner by rule or temporary rule, that a person is not able to successfully perform a job available through one of the jobs programs, the commissioner shall issue a written determination stating the findings and explaining the person's right to appeal pursuant to section 14, and shall provide the person with a written referral to the appropriate local agency. If the commissioner finds that a person is not eligible for an allowance pursuant to section 13, the commissioner shall advise the person in writing that the person may make an application for general assistance with the appropriate local agency.

Sec. 13 [268A.12] [PAYMENT OF ALLOWANCE.]

A person accepted pursuant to section 12 for participation in the small business job creation incentive program or the public service jobs program and determined by the commissioner to satisfy the eligibility standards set forth in sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 shall be paid a cash allowance by the commissioner in an amount which is not less than the amount of the general assistance grant that the person would otherwise receive pursuant to sections 256D.01 to 256D.21. The commissioner shall adopt a permanent or temporary rule establishing the amounts of allowances to be paid pursuant to this section. The initial allowance shall be paid to the person as soon as administratively feasible. A person referred by a local agency pursuant to section 11 shall be paid the initial allowance upon the expiration of the period covered by the one-month grant received from the local agency. Thereafter, the allowance shall be paid at such intervals as the commissioner shall by rule or temporary rule prescribe.

Sec. 14. [268A.13] [APPEAL PROCEDURE.]

A person aggrieved by a determination issued pursuant to section 12 that the person is not able to successfully perform a job available through the small business job creation incentive program or the public service jobs program may appeal that determination in accordance with the time limits and procedures applicable to the work incentive program, as prescribed in section 256.736, subdivision 4, clause (4). If otherwise eligible under section 13, the person shall receive the allowance prescribed by section 13 until a final decision on the appeal is rendered.

Sec. 15. [268A.14] [SUITABLE EMPLOYMENT FOR PURPOSES OF GENERAL ASSISTANCE.]

For purposes of eligibility for general assistance pursuant to sections 256D.01 to 256D.21, a job provided through the small business job creation incentive program or the public service jobs program shall be deemed to be "suitable employment," as that term is defined in section 256D.02, subdivision 13.

Sec. 16. [TRANSFER OF FUNDS.]

The commissioners of economic security and public welfare may, upon approval by the legislative advisory commission and the governor according to section 3.30, transfer funds among appropriations and between departments if the utilization of small business jobs, public service jobs, allowances, or general assistance is significantly different from the projected utilization.

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 256D.02, subdivision 14; and 256D.06, subdivision 1a, are repealed.

Sec. 18. [SUNSET PROVISION.]

Sections 5 and 11 to 15 of this article are repealed June 30, 1985.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

ARTICLE 7

SERVICES FOR THE MENTALLY RETARDED

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 252.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SELECTION OF DEVELOPMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT CENTERS.] The county board shall administer developmental achievement services, including training and habilitation services provided by licensed developmental achievement centers to residents of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded. The county board shall ensure that transportation is provided for persons who fulfill the eligibility requirements of section 252.23, clause (1), utilizing the most efficient and reasonable means available. The county board may contract for developmental achievement services and transportation from a center which is licensed under the provisions of sections 245.781 to 245.813, 252.28, and 257.175, and in the board's opinion, best provides daytime developmental achievement services for mentally retarded and cerebral palsied persons within the appropriation and medical assistance resources made available for this purpose. Daytime developmental achievement services administered by the county board shall comply with standards established by the commissioner pursuant to subdivision 2 and applicable federal regulations.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 252.28, is amended to read:

252.28 [COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE; DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATIONS; BIENNIAL REDETERMINATIONS.] The commissioner of public welfare (MAY) shall determine, and shall redetermine biennially, the need, location, size, and program of public and private residential and day care facilities and services for mentally retarded children and adults.

Subd. 2. [RULES; PROGRAM STANDARDS; LICENSES.] The commissioner of public welfare shall:

(1) Establish uniform rules, regulations and program standards for each type of residential and day facility or service for (MORE THAN FOUR) mentally retarded persons, including state institutions under control of the commissioner and serving mentally retarded persons, and excluding mentally retarded persons residing with their families.

(2) Grant licenses according to the provisions of Laws 1976, chapter 243, sections 2 to 13.

Subd. 3. [LICENSING DETERMINATIONS.] (1) No new license shall be granted pursuant to this section when the issuance of the license would substantially contribute to an excessive concentration of community residential facilities within any town, municipality or county of the state.

(2) In determining whether a license shall be issued pursuant to this subdivision, the commissioner of public welfare shall specifically consider the population, size, land use plan, availability of community services and the number and size of existing public and private community residential facilities in the town, municipality or county in which a licensee seeks to operate a residence. Under no circumstances may the commissioner newly license any facility pursuant to this section except as provided in section 245.812. The commissioner of public welfare shall establish uniform rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this subdivision.

(3) Licenses for community facilities and services shall be issued pursuant to section 245.821.

Subd. 4. [RULES; DECERTIFICATION OF BEDS.] The commissioner shall promulgate in rule criteria for decertification of beds in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, and shall encourage providers in voluntary decertification efforts. The commissioner shall not recommend to the commissioner of health the involuntary decertification of an intermediate care facility for beds for the mentally retarded prior to the availability of appropriate services for those residents affected by the decertification. The commissioner of health shall decertify those intermediate care beds determined to be not needed by the commissioner of welfare.

Sec. 3. [252.291] [LIMITATION ON DETERMINATION OF NEED.]

Subdivision 1. [MORATORIUM.] Notwithstanding section 252.28, subdivision 1, or any other law or rule to the contrary, the commissioner of public welfare shall deny any request for a determination of need and refuse to grant a license pursuant to section 245.782 for any new intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons or for an increase in the licensed capacity of an existing facility except as provided in subdivision 2. In no event shall the total of certified intermediate care beds for mentally retarded persons in community facilities and state hospitals exceed 7,500 beds as of July 1, 1983, and 7,000 beds as of July 1, 1986. "Certified bed" means an intermediate care bed for the mentally retarded certified by the commissioner of health for the purposes of the medical assistance program under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of public welfare in coordination with the commissioner of health may approve a new intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons only in the following circumstances:

(a) when the facility is developed in accordance with a request for proposal system established pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (c);

(b) when the facility is necessary to serve the needs of identifiable mentally retarded persons who are seriously behaviorally disordered or who are physically or sensorily impaired; or

(c) to license beds in new facilities where need was determined by the commissioner prior to the effective date of this section.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE.] The commissioner shall:

(a) establish standard admission criteria for state hospitals and county utilization targets to limit and reduce the number of intermediate care beds in state hospitals and community facilities in accordance with approved waivers under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, to assure that appropriate services are provided in the least restrictive setting;

(b) eliminate state hospital beds by consolidating program units and closing other units as necessary to reduce costs and assure quality programming, provided that a staff redeployment plan is in place before the consolidation, and shall ensure that providers of services make reasonable efforts to hire qualified employees of state hospital units who have been displaced by re-organization, closure, or consolidation of state hospital mental retardation units;

(c) provide technical assistance so that county boards may establish a request for proposal system for meeting individual service plan objectives through home and community-based services; alternative community services; or, if no other alternative will meet the needs of identifiable individuals for whom the county is financially responsible, a new intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons; and

(d) establish a client tracking and evaluation system as required under applicable federal waiver regulations, Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, sections 431, 435, 440, and 441, as amended through December 31, 1982.

(e) develop a state plan for the delivery and funding of residential day and support services to the mentally retarded in Minnesota and submit that plan to the clerk of each house of the Minnesota legislature on or before the 15th of January of each biennium beginning January 15, 1985. The biennial mental retardation plan shall include but not be limited to:

(1) county by county maximum intermediate care bed utilization quotas;

(2) plans for the development of the number and types of services alternative to intermediate care beds;

(3) procedures for the administration and management of the plan;

(4) procedures for the evaluation of the implementation of the plan; and

(5) the number, type, and location of intermediate care beds targeted for decertification.

The commissioner shall modify the plan to ensure conformance with the medical assistance home and community-based services waiver.

Subd. 4. [MONITORING.] The commissioner of public welfare, in coordination with the commissioner of health, shall implement mechanisms to monitor and analyze the effect of the bed moratorium in the different geographic areas of the state. The commissioner of public welfare shall submit to the legislature annually beginning January 15, 1984, an assessment of the impact of the moratorium by geographic areas.

Subd. 5. [RULEMAKING.] The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules pursuant to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act, to implement this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; MEDICAL CARE.] "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of (SUCH) this cost:

- (1) inpatient hospital services (.);
- (2) skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities (.), including training and habilitation services, as defined in section 256B.50, subdivision 1, for mentally retarded individuals residing in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded;
- (3) physicians' services (.);
- (4) outpatient hospital or clinic services (.);
- (5) home health care services (.);
- (6) private duty nursing services (.);
- (7) physical therapy and related services (.);
- (8) dental services, excluding cast metal restorations (.);
- (9) laboratory and x-ray services (.);
- (10) the following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eyeglasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. The formulary shall not include: drugs for which there is no federal funding; over the counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; nutritional products; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established. The commissioner may promulgate conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the administrative procedure act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the administrative procedure act (.);

(11) diagnostic, screening, and preventive services (.);

(12) health care pre-payment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act (.);

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e) (i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(14) transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by non-ambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or non-emergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be non-ambulatory (.) ;

(15) to the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining non-emergency medical care (.) ; and

(16) any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law.

Sec. 5. [256B.092] [CASE MANAGEMENT OF MENTALLY RETARDED PERSONS.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY; DUTIES.] Before any services shall be rendered to mentally retarded persons in need of social service and medical assistance, the county of financial responsibility shall conduct a diagnostic evaluation in order to determine whether the person is or may be mentally retarded. If a client is diagnosed mentally retarded, that county must conduct a needs assessment, develop an individual service plan, and authorize placement for services. If the county of financial responsibility places a client in another county for services, the placement shall be made in cooperation with the host county of service, and arrangements shall be made between the two counties for ongoing social service, including annual reviews of the client's individual service plan. The host county may not make changes in the service plan without approval by the county of financial responsibility.

Subd. 2. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.] To assure quality case management to those county clients who are eligible for medical assistance, the commissioner shall: (a) provide consultation on the case management process; (b) assist county agencies in the screening and annual reviews of clients to assure that appropriate levels of service are provided; (c) provide consultation on service planning and development of services with appropriate options; (d) provide training and technical assistance to county case managers; and (e) authorize payment for medical assistance services.

Subd. 3. [TERMINATION OF SERVICES.] County agency case managers, under rules of the commissioner, shall authorize and terminate services of community and state hospital providers in accordance with individual service plans. Medical assistance services not needed shall not be authorized by county agencies nor funded by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [ALTERNATIVE HOME AND COMMUNITY BASED SERVICES.] The commissioner shall make payments to county boards participating in the medical assistance program to pay costs of providing alternative home and community based services to medical assistance eligible mentally retarded persons screened under subdivision 7. Payment is available under this subdivision only for persons who, if not provided these services, would require the level of care provided in an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons.

Subd. 5. [FEDERAL WAIVERS.] The commissioner shall apply for any federal waivers necessary to secure, to the extent allowed by law, federal financial participation under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, for the provision of services to persons who, in the absence of the services, would need the level of care provided in a state hospital or a community intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons. The commissioner may seek amendments to the waivers or apply for additional waivers under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, to contain costs. The commissioner shall ensure that payment for the cost of providing home and community based alternative services under the federal waiver plan shall not exceed the cost of intermediate care services that would have been provided without the waived services.

Subd. 6. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt temporary and permanent rules to establish required controls, documentation, and reporting of services provided in order to assure proper administration of the approved waiver plan.

Subd. 7. [SCREENING TEAMS ESTABLISHED.] Each county agency shall establish a screening team which, under the direction of the county case manager, shall make an evaluation of need for home and community based services of persons who are entitled to the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons or for whom there is a reasonable indication that they might need the services in the near future. The screening team shall make an evaluation of need within 15 working days of the request for service and within five working days of an emergency admission of an individual to an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons. The screening team shall consist of the case manager, the client, a parent or guardian, a qualified mental retardation professional, as defined in the Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 442.401, as amended through December 31, 1982, assigned by the commissioner. The case manager shall consult with the client's physician or other persons as necessary to make this evaluation. Other persons may be invited to attend meetings of the screening team. No member of the screening team shall have any direct or indirect service provider interest in the case.

Subd. 8. [SCREENING TEAM DUTIES.] The screening team shall:

- (a) review diagnostic data;*
- (b) review health, social, and developmental assessment data using a uniform screening tool specified by the commissioner;*
- (c) identify the level of services needed to maintain the person in the most normal and least restrictive setting that is consistent with treatment needs;*
- (d) identify other noninstitutional public assistance or social service that may prevent or delay long-term residential placement;*
- (e) determine whether a client is in serious need of long-term residential care;*
- (f) make recommendations to the county agency regarding placement and payment for: (1) social service or public assistance support to maintain a client in the client's own home or other place of residence; (2) training and habilitation service, vocational rehabilitation, and employment training activities; (3) community residential placement; (4) state hospital placement; or (5) a home and community based alternative to community residential placement or state hospital placement;*
- (g) make recommendations to a court as may be needed to assist the court in making commitments of mentally retarded persons; and*
- (h) inform clients that appeal may be made to the commissioner pursuant to section 256.045.*

Subd. 9. [REIMBURSEMENT.] Payment shall not be provided to a service provider for any recipient placed in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded prior to the recipient being screened by the screening team. The commissioner shall not deny reimbursement for: (a) an individual admitted to an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded who is assessed to need long-term supportive services, if long-term supportive services other than intermediate care are not available in that community; (b) any individual admitted to an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded under emergency circumstances; (c) any eligible individual placed in the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded pending an appeal of the screening team's decision; or (d) any medical assistance recipient when, after full discussion of all appropriate alternatives including those that are expected to be less costly than intermediate care for mentally retarded, the individual or the individual's legal representative insists on intermediate care placement. The screening team shall provide documentation that the most cost effective alternatives available were offered to this individual or the individual's legal representative.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.19, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [STUDY OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FINANCIAL PARTICIPATION.] The commissioner shall study the feasibility and outcomes of implementing a variable medical assistance county financial participation rate for long-term care services to mentally retarded persons in order to encourage the utilization of alternative services to long-term intermediate care for the mentally retarded. The commissioner shall submit his findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 20, 1984.

(b) "Facility" means a facility licensed as a mental retardation residential facility under section 252.28, licensed as a supervised living facility under chapter 144, and certified as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(c) "Waivered service" means home or community-based service authorized under United States Code, title 42, section 1396n (c), as amended through December 31, 1982, and defined in the Minnesota state plan for the provision of medical assistance services. Waivered services include, at a minimum, case management, family training and support, developmental training homes, supervised living arrangements, semi-independent living services, respite care, and training and habilitation services.

(d) "Training and habilitation services" are those health and social services needed to ensure optimal functioning of persons who are mentally retarded or have related conditions. Training and habilitation services shall be provided to a client away from the residence unless medically contraindicated by an organization which does not have a direct or indirect financial interest in the organization which provides the person's residential services. This requirement shall not apply to any developmental achievement center which has applied for licensure prior to April 15, 1983.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORITY.] The commissioner shall establish procedures and rules for determining rates for care of residents of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded which qualify as vendors of medical assistance, waived services, and for provision of training and habilitation services. Approved rates shall be established on the basis of methods and standards that the commissioner finds adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the quality care of residents in efficiently and economically operated facilities and services. The procedures shall specify the costs that are allowable for payment through medical assistance. The commissioner may use experts from outside the department in the establishment of the procedures.

Subd. 3. [RATES FOR INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES FOR THE MENTALLY RETARDED.] The commissioner shall establish, by rule, procedures for determining rates for care of residents of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded. The procedures shall be based on methods and standards that the commissioner finds are adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the care of residents in efficiently and economically operated facilities. In developing the procedures, the commissioner shall include:

(a) cost containment measures that assure efficient and prudent management of capital assets and operating cost increases which do not exceed increases in other sections of the economy;

(b) limits on the amounts of reimbursement for property, general and administration, and new facilities;

(c) requirements to ensure that the accounting practices of the facilities conform to generally accepted accounting principles; and

(d) incentives to reward accumulation of equity.

In establishing rules and procedures for setting rates for care of residents in intermediate care facilities for mentally retarded persons, the commissioner shall consider the recommendations contained in the February 11, 1983, Report of the Legislative Auditor on Community Residential Programs for the Mentally Retarded and the recommendations contained in the 1982 Report of the Department of Public Welfare Rule 52 Task Force. Rates paid to supervised living facilities for rate years beginning during the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1985, shall not exceed the final rate allowed the facility for the previous rate year by more than six percent.

Subd. 4. [WAIVERED SERVICES.] In establishing rates for waivered services the commissioner shall consider the need for flexibility in the provision of those services to meet individual needs identified by the screening team.

Subd. 5. [TRAINING AND HABILITATION SERVICES.]
(a) Except as provided in subdivision 6, rates for reimbursement under medical assistance for training and habilitation services provided by a developmental achievement center either as a waivered service or to residents of an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons shall be established and paid in accordance with this subdivision effective January 1, 1984.

(b) Prior to August 1, 1983, the county board shall submit to the commissioner its contractual per diem rate and its maximum per client annual payment limitations, if any, for each developmental achievement center it administers pursuant to section 252.24, subdivision 1, for the period from July 1, 1983, through December 31, 1983, which shall be the medical assistance reimbursement rate established for that developmental achievement center for 1983. If the county rate is based on average daily attendance which is less than 93 percent of the developmental achievement center's average enrollment for the period from July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1983, the commissioner shall adjust that rate based on 93 percent average daily attendance.

(c) The base per diem reimbursement rate established for 1983 may be increased by the commissioner in 1984 in an amount up to the projected percentage change in the average value of the consumer price index (all urban) for 1984 over 1983. In subsequent years, the increase in the per diem rate shall not exceed the projected percentage change in the average annual value of the consumer price index (all urban) for the same time period.

(d) The county board in which an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons is located shall contract annually with that facility and with the appropriate developmental achievement center or training and habilitation service provider for provision of training and habilitation services for each resident of the facility for whom the services are required by the resident's individual service plan. This contract shall specify the county payment rate or the medical assistance reimbursement rate, as appropriate; the training and habilitation services to be provided; and the performance standards for program provision and evaluation. A similar contract shall be entered into between the county and the developmental achievement center for persons receiving training and habilitation services from that center as a waived service.

(e) The commissioner shall reimburse under medical assistance up to 210 days of training and habilitation services at developmental achievement centers for those centers which provided less than or equal to 210 days of training and habilitation services in calendar year 1982. For developmental achievement centers providing more than 210 days of services in 1982, the commissioner shall not reimburse under medical assistance in excess of the number of days provided by those programs in 1982.

(f) Medical assistance payments for training and habilitation services shall be made directly to the training and habilitation provider after submission of invoices to the medical assistance program following procedures established by the medical assistance program.

(g) Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit county boards from contracting for rates for services not reimbursed under medical assistance.

Subd. 6. [NEW DEVELOPMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAMS; RATES.] The commissioner, upon the recommendation of the local county board, shall determine the medical assistance reimbursement rate for new developmental achievement programs. The payment rate shall not exceed 125 percent of the average payment rate in the region.

Subd. 7. [ALTERNATIVE RATES FOR TRAINING AND HABILITATION SERVICES.] Alternative methods may be proposed by the counties or the commissioner for provision of training and habilitation services during daytime hours apart from a residential facility to persons for whom needs identified in their individual service plan are not met by the training and habilitation services provided at a developmental achievement center. The commissioner shall establish procedures for approval of the proposals and for medical assistance payment of rates which shall not exceed the average rate allowed in that county for training and habilitation services pursuant to subdivision 5. Nothing in this subdivision prohibits a county from contracting with a developmental achievement center for those purposes.

Subd. 8. [PAYMENT FOR PERSONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS.] The commissioner shall establish by December 31, 1983, procedures to be followed by the counties to seek authorization from the commissioner for medical assistance reimbursement for waived services or training and habilitation services for very dependent persons with special needs in an amount in excess of the rates allowed pursuant to subdivisions 2, 4, 5, and 6, and procedures to be followed for rate limitation exemptions for intermediate care facilities for mentally retarded persons. No excess payment or limitation exemption shall be authorized unless the need for the service is documented in the individual service plan of the person or persons to be served, the type and duration of the services needed are stated, and there is a basis for estimated cost of the services.

The commissioner shall evaluate the services provided pursuant to this subdivision through program and fiscal audits.

Subd. 9. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] The developmental achievement center shall submit to the county and the commissioner no later than March 1 of each year an annual report which includes the actual program revenues and expenditures, client information, and program information. The information shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 10. [RULES.] To implement this section, the commissioner shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules in accordance with chapter 14. To implement subdivision 3, the commissioner shall promulgate temporary rules by October 1, 1983, and permanent rules in accordance with sections 14.01 to 14.38. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.35, the temporary rule promulgated to implement subdivision 3 shall be effective for up to 720 days.

Sec. 8. [RULES.]

To implement sections 1 to 7, the commissioner shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules in accordance with sections 14.01 to 14.38.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256E.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [STATE TRANSFER OF FUNDS.] Notwithstanding subdivisions 1 and 2, for the purpose of funding training and habilitation services provided to residents of intermediate care facilities for mentally retarded persons as required under federal regulation, the commissioner is authorized to transfer on a quarterly basis to the medical assistance state account from each county's Community Social Services Act allocation an amount equal to the state share of medical assistance reimbursement for such services provided to clients for whom the county is financially responsible. Upon federal approval and state implementation of the state medical assistance plan, county boards will not be responsible for the funding of training and habilitation services as a social service to residents of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded. County board responsibility for training and habilitation services shall be assumed under section 256B.20. County boards continue to be responsible for funding developmental achievement center services not covered under the medical assistance program established by United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, and shall develop contractual agreements for these services under the authority of chapter 256E.

Sec. 10. [CASE MANAGEMENT PLAN.]

(a) Up to 15 line item positions are authorized for the implementation of provisions of the case management plan, the home and community based services waiver program, assisting county agencies in screening clients for medical assistance services, technical assistance in developing community-based alternatives, and management of the mental retardation medical assistance program.

(b) The appropriation for development and implementation of this project shall be expended with the approval of the governor after consulting with the legislative advisory commission as provided in section 3.30. Release of these funds shall also be contingent upon submission of a plan prepared by the commissioner. The plan shall describe the following:

(1) the organization, development, and responsibilities of requested staff;

(2) specification of all the administrative costs associated with the program;

(3) how the information system will be integrated into the community services information system, the medicaid management information system, and any other data processing operations of the department;

(4) the methods for implementing the system; and

(5) the projected costs for the maintenance and operation of the system.

The plan shall be submitted to the chairmen of the house appropriations and senate finance committees.

Sec. 11. [REPEALER.]

The provisions of sections 2, 3, 5, 7, subdivisions 1 and 4 and 10 are repealed effective June 30, 1984, if a home and community based waiver under United States Code, title 42, section 1915(c), as amended through December 31, 1982, is not approved by June 30, 1984.

Sec. 12. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 11 are effective the day following final enactment."

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.05, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [TEMPORARY STANDARDS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, from March 24, 1982 until June 30, (1983) 1985, each person or family whose income and resources are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner, and who is not eligible for the federally aided assistance programs of emergency assistance or aid to families with dependent children, or any successor to those programs, shall be eligible for and entitled to general assistance if the person or family is:

(a) A person who is suffering from a permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is both medically certified and prevents the person from engaging in suitable employment, and who, if the medical certification establishes that the illness, injury, or incapacity is temporary and recommends a reasonable plan for rehabilitation, is following the plan;

(b) A person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the certified illness or incapacity of another member of the household;

(c) A person who has been placed in a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilitation, if the placement is based on illness or incapacity, and is pursuant to a plan developed or approved by the local agency through its director or designated representative;

(d) A person who resides in a shelter facility described in subdivision 3;

(e) A person who is or may be eligible for displaced homemaker services, programs, or assistance under section 4.40. In determining eligibility of the person for general assistance, income received as a stipend shall be disregarded as provided in section 4.40;

(f) A person who is unable to secure suitable employment due to inability to communicate in the English language, and who, if assigned to a language skills program by the local agency, is participating in that program;

(g) A person not described in clause (a) or (e) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician or licensed consulting psychologist as mentally ill or mentally retarded;

(h) A person who is unable to secure suitable employment due to a lack of marketable skills and who, if assigned to a vocational counseling, vocational rehabilitation, or work training program by the local agency, is participating in that program. Eligibility for general assistance under clause (h) is limited to five weeks per calendar year;

(i) A person who has an application pending for the program of supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled or has been terminated from that program and has an appeal from that termination pending, and who has executed an interim assistance authorization agreement pursuant to the provisions of section 256D.06, subdivision 5; or

(j) A person who is unable to secure suitable employment because his advanced age significantly affects his ability to engage in substantial work. This clause is effective January 1, 1983.

This subdivision is repealed July 1, (1983) 1985.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBILITY FOR OTHER BENEFITS; INTERIM ASSISTANCE.] Any applicant, otherwise eligible for general assistance and possibly eligible for maintenance benefits from any other source shall be obligated to (a) make application for those benefits within 30 days of the general assistance application; and (b) execute an interim assistance authorization agreement on a form as directed by the commissioner. If found eligible for benefits from other sources, and a payment received from another source relates to the period during which general assistance was also being received, the recipient shall be required to reimburse the local agency for the interim assistance paid. Reimbursement shall not exceed the amount of general assistance paid during the time period to which the other maintenance benefits apply and shall not exceed the state standard applicable to that time period. The commissioner shall adopt rules, and may adopt temporary rules, authorizing local agencies to retain from the amount recovered under an interim assistance agreement 25 percent plus actual reasonable costs of litigation and disbursements when the agency has provided special assistance to the recipient in processing the recipient's claim for maintenance benefits from other sources. The funds retained under this section shall be from the state share of the recovery.

The local agency may contract with qualified persons for special assistance. The rules adopted by the commissioner shall include the methods by which local agencies shall identify, refer, and assist recipients who may be eligible for benefits under the federal programs for the disabled. This (PROVISION) subdivision shall not require repayment of per diem payments made to shelters for battered women pursuant to section 256D.05, subdivision 3.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RULES FOR RECIPIENTS UNABLE TO MANAGE GRANTS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, the commissioner shall provide by rule (AND REGULATION), and is authorized to adopt temporary rules, for situations in which vouchers and vendor payments may be (MADE) issued by local agencies because of the inability of the recipient to manage his general assistance grant for his own or family's benefit.

Sec. 6. [268A.11] [APPLICATION PROCESS; DETERMINATIONS.]

Any person may apply to the commissioner for services under the small business job creation incentive program or the public service jobs program. Upon receiving an application, the commissioner shall promptly determine the person's eligibility for services under the programs, the person's ability to successfully perform a job available through one of the programs, and the person's eligibility for an allowance pursuant to section 17. In determining the eligibility of a person for the allowance, the commissioner shall apply the standards set forth in sections 256D.01 to 256D.21. If the commissioner finds at any time that a person is not eligible for services under the jobs programs or if the commissioner determines after a three-month period that the person is unlikely to secure a job through one of the jobs programs, then the commissioner shall issue a written determination stating the findings. If the commissioner finds at any time, pursuant to standards established by the commissioner by rule or temporary rule, that a person is not able to successfully perform a job available through one of the jobs programs, the commissioner shall issue a written determination stating the findings and explaining the person's right to appeal pursuant to section 18.

Sec. 7. [268A.12] [PAYMENT OF ALLOWANCE.]

A person accepted pursuant to section 16 for participation in the small business job creation incentive program or the public service jobs program and determined by the commissioner to satisfy the standards set forth in sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 shall be paid a cash allowance by the commissioner. The commissioner shall adopt a permanent or temporary rule establishing the amounts of allowances to be paid pursuant to this section. The initial allowance shall be paid to the person as soon as administratively feasible.

Sec. 8. [268A.13] [APPEAL PROCEDURE.]

A person aggrieved by a determination issued pursuant to section 16 that the person is not able to successfully perform a job available through the small business job creation incentive program or the public service jobs program may appeal that determination in accordance with the time limits and procedures applicable to the work incentive program, as prescribed in section 256.736, subdivision 4, clause (4). If otherwise eligible under section 7, the person shall receive the allowance prescribed by section 7 until a final decision on the appeal is rendered.

Sec. 9. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 256D.02, subdivision 14; and 256D.06, subdivision 1a, are repealed.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [116J.37] [ENERGY CONSERVATION INVESTMENT LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(a) “Commissioner” means the commissioner of energy, planning and development. Upon passage of legislation creating a body known as the Minnesota energy authority, the duties of the commissioner pursuant to sections 1 to 6 are delegated to the authority.

(b) “Maxi-audit” has the meaning given in section 116J.06, subdivision 12.

(c) “Energy conservation investments” mean all capital expenditures that are associated with conservation measures identified in a maxi-audit and that have a ten-year or less pay back period.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner shall approve loans to school districts for energy conservation investments. A loan may be made to a school district that has demonstrated that it has complied with all the appropriate provisions of this section and has made adequate provisions to assure proper and efficient operation of the school facilities after improvements and modifications are completed.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] Application for a loan to be made pursuant to this section shall be made by a school district to the commissioner on a form he or she prescribes by rule. The commissioner shall review each application to determine:

(a) whether or not the district's proposal is complete;

(b) whether the project is eligible for a loan;

(c) the amount of the loan for which the project is eligible;
and

(d) the means by which the district proposes to finance the project including:

(1) a loan authorized by this section;

(2) a grant of money appropriated by state law;

(3) a grant to the district by an agency of the federal government within the amount of money then appropriated to that agency; or

(4) the appropriation of other money of the district to an account for the construction of the project.

Subd. 4. [LOANS.] The commissioner shall approve loans to school districts on the following conditions:

(a) A district must demonstrate that all audit activities for a given building or project have been completed, that the project is economically feasible, and that it has made adequate provisions to assure proper and efficient operation of the facility once the project is completed.

(b) A loan made pursuant to this section is repayable over a period of not more than ten years.

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT; OBLIGATION.] The commissioner shall not approve payment to a school district pursuant to an approved loan until he or she has determined that financing of the project is assured by an irrevocable undertaking, by resolution of the governing body of the district, to annually levy or otherwise collect an amount of money sufficient to pay the principal and interest due on the loan as well as any of the commissioner of finance's administrative expenses according to the terms of the loan.

Subd. 6. [RECEIPTS; APPROPRIATION.] The commissioner of finance shall deposit in the state treasury all principal and interest payments received in repayment of the loans authorized by this section. These payments shall be credited to the state bond building fund and are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the purposes of that account.

Subd. 7. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules necessary to carry out this section. The commissioner shall adopt temporary rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36, meeting the requirements of this section. The rules shall contain as a minimum:

- (a) procedures for application by districts;
- (b) criteria for reviewing loan applications; and
- (c) procedures and guidelines for program monitoring, close-out, and evaluation.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.125, subdivision 11a, is amended to read:

Subd. 11a. [CAPITAL EXPENDITURE LEVY.] (a) Each year a school district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount equal to $90 per pupil unit, or $95 per pupil unit in districts where the actual number of pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), has increased from the prior year. No levy under this clause shall exceed seven mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district for the preceding year.

(b) The proceeds of the tax may be used to acquire land, to equip and re-equip buildings and permanent attached fixtures, to rent or lease buildings for school purposes, to pay leasing fees for computer systems hardware and related proprietary software, and to pay leasing fees for photocopy machines and telecommunications equipment. The proceeds of the tax may also be used for capital improvement and repair of school sites, buildings and permanent attached fixtures, energy assessments as required pursuant to section 116J.24, and for the payment of any special assessments levied against the property of the district authorized pursuant to section 435.19 or any other law or charter provision authorizing assessments against publicly owned property; provided that a district may not levy amounts to pay assessments for service charges, such as those described in section 429.101, whether levied pursuant to that section or pursuant to any other law or home rule provision. The proceeds of the tax may also be used for capital expenditures to reduce or eliminate barriers to or increase access to school facilities by handicapped individuals. The proceeds of the tax may also be used to make capital improvements to schoolhouses to be leased pursuant to section 123.36, subdivision 10. The proceeds of the tax may also be used to pay fees for capital outlay expenditures assessed and certified to each participating school district by the educational cooperative service unit board of directors. The proceeds of the tax may also be used to pay principal and interest on loans from the state authorized by section 1.

(c) Subject to the commissioner's approval, the tax proceeds may also be used to acquire or construct buildings. The state board shall promulgate rules establishing the criteria to be used by the commissioner in approving and disapproving district applications requesting the use of capital expenditure tax proceeds for the acquisition or construction of buildings. The approval criteria for purposes of building acquisition and construction shall include: the appropriateness of the proposal for the district's long term needs; the availability of adequate existing facilities; and the economic feasibility of bonding because of the proposed building's size or cost.

(d) The board shall establish a fund in which the proceeds of this tax shall be accumulated until expended.

(e) The proceeds of the tax shall not be used for custodial or other maintenance services.

(f) Each year, subject to the seven mill limitation of clause (a) of this subdivision, a school district which operates an approved secondary vocational education program or an approved senior secondary industrial arts program may levy an additional amount equal to $5 per pupil unit for capital expenditures for equipment for these programs.

(g) For purposes of computing allowable levies under this subdivision and subdivision 11b, pupil units shall include those units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), and 98.5 percent of the units identified in Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 124.17, Subdivision 1, Clauses (4) and (5) for 1980-1981.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.125, subdivision 11b, is amended to read:

Subd. 11b. [SPECIAL PURPOSE CAPITAL EXPENDITURE LEVY.] In 1981 and each year thereafter, in addition to the levy authorized in subdivision 11a, a school district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount equal to $25 per pupil unit. No levy under this clause shall exceed two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the property in the district for the preceding year. The proceeds of the tax shall be placed in the district's capital expenditure fund and may be used only for the following:

(a) for energy audits on district owned buildings conducted pursuant to chapter 116H, and for funding those energy conservation and renewable energy measures which the energy audits indicate will reduce the use of nonrenewable sources of energy to the extent that the projected energy cost savings will amortize the cost of the conservation measures within a period of ten years or less;

(b) for capital expenditures for the purpose of reducing or eliminating barriers to or increasing access to school facilities by handicapped persons;

(c) for capital expenditures to bring district facilities into compliance with the uniform fire code adopted pursuant to chapter 299F; and

(d) to pay principal and interest on loans from the state authorized by section 1.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11c. The proceeds of the taxes levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 11a and 11b may be used to:

(a) pay the costs of any energy audits; or

(b) repay loans from the state authorized by section 1.

Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. The sum of $30,000,000 is appropriated from the state building fund to the commissioner of finance for the purpose of making loans to school districts for energy conservation investments pursuant to section 1. Any expense incidental to the sale, printing, execution, and delivery of the bonds, including the costs of the commissioner of finance shall be paid from the proceeds of the bond sales authorized in section 6 and the amounts necessary for these expenses are hereby appropriated. To reduce the amount of taxes otherwise required to be levied, there is also appropriated from the general fund, on November 1 in each year, a sum of money sufficient in amount, when added to other funds appropriated for the bonds, to pay all bonds and interest on them due and to become due to and including July 1 in the second ensuing year.

Subd. 2. None of the appropriations made in this section shall lapse until the purpose for which it is made has been accomplished or abandoned. The amount of each loan approved for disbursement shall be and remain appropriated for that purpose until the loan is fully disbursed or part or all of it is revoked by the energy division.

Subd. 3. [ADMINISTRATION COSTS.] The sum of $259,300 in fiscal year 1984 and $320,000 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner to administer section 1. The complement of the department is increased by 11 positions. If the appropriation for either year is insufficient, the appropriation for the other year is available for it.

Subd. 4. [AUDIT EXPENSES.] The sum of $200,000 in fiscal year 1984 and $300,000 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated to the commissioner of energy, planning and development for the purpose of providing cost-share audit revision services for previously audited buildings in an amount not to exceed $2,000 per building and to provide cost-share audit services for non-audited buildings in an amount not to exceed $5,000 per building to eligible institutions applying for loans authorized in section 1. The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall contract for provision of audit services, and determine the amount, if any, of audit revision and audit services for which the institution is eligible. Any unencumbered balance remaining in the first year shall not cancel but is available in the second year.

Sec. 6. [BOND SALE.]

To provide the money appropriated from the state building fund by section 5, subdivision 1, the commissioner of finance shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $30,000,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.63 to 16A.66, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

The commissioner shall by rule designate the kinds that are required to be labeled as to variety. If the variety of those kinds generally labeled as to variety is not stated and it is not required to be stated, the label shall show the name of the kind and the words: "Variety not stated."

(1) The percentage that is hybrid shall be at least 95 percent of the percentage of pure seed shown unless the percentage of pure seed which is hybrid seed is shown separately. If two or more kinds or varieties are present in excess of five percent and are named on the label, each that is hybrid shall be designated as hybrid on the label. Any one kind or kind and variety that has pure seed which is less than 95 percent but more than 75 percent hybrid seed as a result of incompletely controlled pollination in a cross shall be labeled to show the percentage of pure seed that is hybrid seed or a statement such as "contains from 75 percent to 95 percent hybrid seed." No one kind or variety of seed shall be labeled as hybrid if the pure seed contains less than 75 percent hybrid seed. The word hybrid shall be shown on the label in conjunction with the kind.

(b) Lot number or other lot identification.

(c) Origin, if known, or that the origin is unknown.

(d) Percentage by weight of all weed seeds present in agricultural, vegetable, or flower seed. This percentage may not exceed one percent. If weed seeds are not present in vegetable or flower seeds, the heading "weed seeds" may be omitted from the label.

(e) Name and rate of occurrence per pound of each kind of restricted noxious weed seeds present. They shall be listed under the heading "noxious weed seeds." If noxious weed seeds are not present in vegetable or flower seeds, the heading "noxious weed seeds" may be omitted from the label.

(f) Percentage by weight of agricultural, vegetable, or flower seeds other than those required to be named on the label. They shall be listed under the heading "other crop." If "other crop" seeds are not present in vegetable or flower seeds, the heading "other crop" may be omitted from the label.

(g) Percentage by weight of inert matter.

(h) Net weight of contents, to appear on either the container or the label, except that in the case of vegetable or flower seed containers with contents of 200 seeds or less, a statement indicating the number of seeds in the container may be listed along with or in lieu of the net weight of contents.

(i) For each named agricultural or vegetable seed:

(1) percentage of germination, exclusive of hard seed;

(2) percentage of hard seed, if present; and

(3) the calendar month and year the percentages were determined by test.

(j) Name and address of the person who labeled the seed or who sells the seed within this state, or a code number which has been registered with the commissioner.

The day classification shall approximate the number of days of growing season necessary from emergence of the corn plant above ground to relative maturity and shall conform to the day classification established by the director of the Minnesota agricultural experiment station for the appropriate zone.

Subd. 5. [GRASS SEED.] For grass seed and mixtures of grass seeds intended for lawn and turf purposes, the requirements in clauses (a) to (c) must be met.

(a) The label shall contain the percentage by weight of inert matter, up to ten percent by weight except for those kinds specified by rule. The percentage by weight of foreign material not common to grass seed must be listed as a separate item in close association with the inert matter percentage.

(b) If the seed contains no "other crop" seed, the following statement may be used and may be flagged: "contains no other crop seed."

(c) When grass seeds are sold outside their original containers, the labeling requirements are met if the seed is weighed from a properly labeled container in the presence of the purchaser.

Subd. 6. [COATED AGRICULTURAL SEEDS.] For coated agricultural seeds the label shall contain:

(a) percentage by weight of pure seeds with coating material removed;

(b) percentage by weight of coating material shown as a separate item in close association with the percentage of inert matter; and

Sec. 34. [21.83] [LABEL REQUIREMENTS; TREE OR SHRUB SEEDS.]

Subdivision 1. [FORM.] Each container of tree or shrub seed which is offered for sale for sowing purposes shall bear or have attached in a conspicuous place a plainly written or printed label or tag in the English language giving the information required by this section. This label statement shall not be modified or denied in the labeling or on another label attached to the container, except that labeling of seed supplied under a contractual agreement may be made by an invoice accompanying the shipment or by an analysis tag attached to the invoice if each bag or other container is clearly identified by a lot number stenciled on the container. Each bag or container that is not so stenciled must carry complete labeling.

Subd. 2. [LABEL CONTENT.] For all tree or shrub seed subject to this section the label shall contain:

(a) the common name of the species, and the subspecies if appropriate;

(b) the scientific name of the genus and species, and the subspecies if appropriate;

(c) the lot number or other lot identification;

(d) for seed collected from a predominantly indigenous stand, the area of collection given by latitude and longitude, or geographic description, or political subdivision such as state or county;

(e) for seed collected from a predominantly nonindigenous stand, the identity of the area of collection and the origin of the stand or the words "origin not indigenous;"

(f) if the seed has been treated with an inoculant, the date beyond which the inoculant is considered ineffective. It shall be listed on the label as "inoculant: expires (month and year)" or wording which conveys the same meaning.

Sec. 35. [21.84] [RECORDS.]

Each person whose name appears on the label of agricultural, vegetable, flower, tree or shrub seeds subject to section 33 or 34 shall keep for three years complete records of each lot of agricultural, vegetable, flower, tree or shrub seed sold in this state and shall keep for one year a file sample of each lot of seed after disposition of the lot. In addition, the grower shall have as a part of the record a "genuine grower's declaration" or a "tree seed collector's declaration."

Sec. 36. [21.85] [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.]

Subdivision 1. [ENFORCEMENT.] The commissioner shall administer and enforce sections 31 to 43.

Subd. 2. [SEED LABORATORY.] The commissioner shall establish and maintain a seed laboratory for seed testing, employing necessary agents and assistants to administer and enforce sections 31 to 43, none of whom, except those who are employed on a regular full-time basis, shall come within or be governed by chapter 43A. The compensation for the unclassified employees shall be on the basis of a rating and salary scale determined by the commissioner's plan of the department of employee relations or the appropriate bargaining unit contract.

Subd. 3. [ENTRY UPON PREMISES.] For the purpose of administering and enforcing sections 31 to 43 the commissioner may enter upon any public or private premises during regular business hours in order to have access to seeds and the records concerning the seeds that are subject to sections 31 to 43, and to enter any truck or other conveyor by land, water, or air at any time when the conveyor is accessible, for the same purpose.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION AND SAMPLING.] The commissioner shall sample, inspect, make analysis of and test seeds subject to sections 31 to 43 that are offered for sale for sowing purposes at the time and place and to the extent necessary to determine whether the seeds are in compliance with sections 31 to 43.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE OF VIOLATION.] The commissioner shall promptly notify the person who sold, labeled, or transported seed that has been:

- (1) found to be in violation of sections 31 to 43;*
- (2) placed under a stop sale order; or*
- (3) seized on complaint of the commissioner to a court of competent jurisdiction.*

Subd. 6. [STOP SALE ORDERS.] The commissioner may issue and enforce a written or printed "stop sale" order to the owner or custodian of any lot of seed which he finds to be in violation of sections 31 to 43. The order shall prohibit further sale, conditioning, and movement of the seed, except on approval of the enforcing officer, until the officer has evidence that the law has been complied with and has issued a release from the "stop sale" order. With respect to seed which has been denied sale, conditioning, or movement, the owner or custodian of the seed may appeal from the order to a court where the seeds are found, for the discharge of the seeds from the order prohibiting the sale, conditioning, or movement in accordance with the findings of the court. This subdivision does not limit the right of the enforcement officer to proceed in a different fashion.

Subd. 7. [SEIZURE.] Any lot of seed not in compliance with sections 31 to 43 is subject to seizure on complaint of the commissioner to a court of competent jurisdiction in the locality where the seed is located. If the court finds the seed to be in violation and orders the condemnation of the seed, it shall be denatured, destroyed, relabeled, or otherwise disposed of in compliance with law. In no instance shall the court order dispose of the seed without first giving the claimant an opportunity to apply to the court for the release of the seed or permission to condition or relabel it into compliance.

Subd. 8. [INJUNCTION.] When the commissioner applies to any court for a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating or continuing to violate sections 31 to 43, the injunction shall be issued without requiring a bond.

Subd. 9. [PROSECUTIONS.] When the commissioner finds that a person has violated any part of sections 31 to 43, he may initiate court proceedings in the locality in which the violation occurred. No prosecution shall be instituted without a person having an opportunity to appear in person or by a representative before the commissioner to provide evidence. Either a county attorney or the attorney general may prosecute actions under sections 31 to 43.

Subd. 10. [COMMISSIONER MAY ALTER REQUIREMENTS IN EMERGENCIES.] In the event of acute shortages of any seed or seeds, or the occurrence of other conditions which in the opinion of the commissioner create an emergency which would make impractical the enforcement of any requirement of sections 31 to 43 relating to the percentage of purity and weed seed content of any seed or seeds, the commissioner may temporarily change and alter any requirement relating to percentage of purity and weed seed content for the duration of the emergency.

Subd. 11. [RULES.] The commissioner may make necessary rules, including temporary rules, for the proper enforcement of sections 31 to 43. Existing rules shall remain in effect unless temporary or permanent rules are made that supercede them.

Subd. 12. [SERVICE TESTING AND IDENTIFICATION.] The commissioner shall provide for purity and germination tests of seeds and identification of seeds and plants for farmers, dealers, and others. He may establish and collect fees for testing and identification.

Subd. 13. [SAMPLING EXPORT SEED.] The commissioner may sample agricultural, vegetable, flower, tree or shrub seeds which are destined for export to other countries. He may establish and collect suitable fees from the exporter for this service.

Subd. 14. [COOPERATION WITH UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.] The commissioner shall cooperate with the United States department of agriculture in seed law enforcement.

Sec. 37. [21.86] [UNLAWFUL ACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITIONS.] A person may not advertise or sell any agricultural, vegetable, flower, or tree and shrub seed if:

(a) A test to determine the percentage of germination required by sections 33 and 34 has not been completed within a nine-month period, exclusive of the calendar month in which the test was completed. This prohibition does not apply to tree, shrub, agricultural, or vegetable seeds packaged in hermetically sealed containers. Seeds packaged in hermetically sealed containers under the conditions defined by rule may be offered for sale for a period of 36 months after the last day of the month that the seeds were tested for germination prior to packaging. If seeds in hermetically sealed containers are offered for sale more than 36 months after the last day of the month in which they were tested prior to packaging, they must be retested within a nine-month period, exclusive of the calendar month in which the retest was completed;

(b) It is not labeled in accordance with sections 33 and 34 or has false or misleading labeling;

(c) False or misleading advertisement has been used in respect to its sale;

(d) It contains prohibited noxious weed seeds;

(e) It consists of or contains restricted noxious weed seeds in excess of 25 seeds per pound or in excess of the number declared on the label attached to the container of the seed or associated with the seed;

(f) It contains more than one percent by weight of all weed seeds;

(g) It contains less than the stated net weight of contents;

(h) it contains less than the stated number of seeds in the container;

(i) It contains any labeling, advertising, or other representation subject to sections 33 and 34 representing the seed to be certified unless:

(1) it has been determined by a seed certifying agency that the seed conformed to standards of purity and identity as to kind, species, subspecies, or variety, and also that tree seed was found to be of the origin and elevation claimed, in compliance with the rules pertaining to the seed; and

(2) the seed bears an official label issued for it by a seed certifying agency stating that the seed is of a certified class and a specified kind, species, subspecies, or variety;

(j) It is labeled with a variety name but not certified by an official seed certifying agency when it is a variety for which a United States certificate of plant variety protection has been granted under United States Code, title 7, sections 2481 to 2486, specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed. Seed from a certified lot may be labeled as to variety name when used in a blend or mixture by or with approval of the owner of the variety; or

(k) The person whose name appears on the label does not have complete records including a file sample of each lot of agricultural, vegetable, flower, tree or shrub seed sold in this state as required in section 35.

Subd. 2. [MISCELLANEOUS VIOLATIONS.] No person may:

(a) detach, alter, deface, or destroy any label required in sections 33 and 34 or alter or substitute seed in a manner that may defeat the purposes of sections 33 and 34;

(b) hinder or obstruct in any way any authorized person in the performance of duties under sections 31 to 43;

(c) fail to comply with a "stop sale" order or to move or otherwise handle or dispose of any lot of seed held under a stop sale order or attached tags, except with express permission of the enforcing officer for the purpose specified;

(d) use the word "type" in any labeling in connection with the name of any agricultural seed variety;

(e) use the word "trace" as a substitute for any statement which is required; or

(f) plant any agricultural seed which the person knows contains weed seeds or noxious weed seeds in excess of the limits for that seed.

Sec. 38. [21.87] [EXEMPTION.]

Sections 33 and 34 do not apply:

(a) to seed or grain not intended for sowing purposes;

(b) to seed in storage in or being transported or consigned to a conditioning establishment for conditioning, provided that the invoice or label accompanying any shipment of the seeds bears the statement "seeds for conditioning," and provided that any labeling or other representation which may be made with respect to the unconditioned seed is subject to the provisions of sections 33 and 34; or

(c) to any carrier with respect to seed transported or delivered for transportation in the ordinary course of its business as a carrier, provided that the carrier is not engaged in producing, conditioning, or marketing seeds subject to sections 33 and 34.

Sec. 39. [21.88] [PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [MISDEMEANOR; GROSS MISDEMEANOR.] A violation of sections 31 to 43 or a rule adopted under section 36 is a misdemeanor. Each additional day of violation is a separate offense. A subsequent violation by a person is a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. [UNLAWFUL PRACTICE.] In addition to other penalties provided by law, a person who violates a provision of sections 31 to 43 or a rule adopted under section 36 has committed an unlawful practice under sections 325F.68 and 325F.69 and is subject to the remedies provided in sections 8.31 and 325F.70.

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES NOT TO APPLY.] A person is not subject to the penalties in subdivision 1 or 2 for having sold seeds which were incorrectly labeled or represented as to kind, species, subspecies, if appropriate, variety, type, origin and year, elevation or place of collection if required, if the seeds cannot be identified by examination unless he has failed to obtain an invoice or genuine grower's or tree seed collector's declaration or other labeling information and to take other reasonable precautions to ensure the identity is as stated.

Sec. 40. [21.89] [SEED FEE PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [SEED FEE.] In order to pay for administering and enforcing sections 31 to 43, the commissioner shall establish the fees charged for various seeds and shall collect the fees on all seeds covered by sections 31 to 43.

Subd. 2. [PERMITS; ISSUANCE, REVOCATION.] The commissioner shall issue a permit to the initial labeler of agricultural, vegetable, or flower seeds which are offered for sale in Minnesota and which conform to and are labeled under sections 31 to 43. The person shall furnish to the commissioner an itemized statement of all seeds sold in Minnesota for the periods established by the commissioner. This statement shall be delivered, along with the payment of the fee, to the commissioner no later than 30 days after the end of each reporting period. Any person holding a permit shall show as part of the analysis labels or invoices on all agricultural, vegetable, flower, tree or shrub seeds all information the commissioner requires. The commissioner may revoke any permit in the event of failure to comply with applicable laws and rules.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] A penalty fee established by the commissioner shall be assessed any permit holder who fails to submit a statement and pay the fee due within the 30 days following the end of each reporting period.

Subd. 4. [EXEMPTIONS.] A person who labels for sale agricultural, vegetable, or flower seeds must have a seed fee permit unless:

(a) The person labels and sells less than 50,000 pounds of agricultural seed in Minnesota each calendar year. If more than 50,000 pounds are labeled and sold in Minnesota by any person, the person must have a seed fee permit and pay fees on all seed sold. A person who labels and sells grass seeds and mixtures of grass seeds intended for lawn or turf purposes is not exempted from having a permit and paying seed fees on all seeds in this category sold in Minnesota; or

(b) The agricultural, vegetable, or flower seeds are of the breeder or foundation seed classes of varieties developed by publicly financed research agencies intended for the purpose of increasing the quantity of seed available.

Sec. 41. [21.90] [HYBRID SEED FIELD CORN VARIETY REGISTRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [GROWING ZONES.] The director of the agricultural experiment station at the University of Minnesota shall determine, establish, and number or otherwise identify corn growing zones of the state and determine and publish a list of day classifications for each zone which will approximate the number of days growing season necessary for corn from emergence of the corn plants above ground after planting to relative maturity.

Subd. 2. [FEES.] A record of each hybrid seed field corn variety to be sold in Minnesota shall be registered with the com- missioner by February 1 of each year by the originator or owner. The commissioner shall establish the annual fee for registration for each variety. The record shall include the permanent designation of the hybrid as well as the day classification and zone of adaptation, as determined under subdivision 1, which the originator or owner declares to be the zone in which the variety is adapted. In addition, at the time of the first registration of a hybrid seed field corn variety, the originator or owner shall include a sworn statement that his declaration of the zone of adaptation was based on actual field trials in that zone and that the field trials substantiate his declaration as to the day and zone classifications to which the variety is adapted. The name or number used to designate a hybrid seed field corn variety in the registration is the only name of all seed corn covered by or sold under that registration.

Subd. 3. [TESTS OF VARIETIES.] If the commissioner needs to verify that a hybrid seed field corn variety is adapted to the corn growing zone declared by the originator or owner, it must, when grown in several official comparative trials by the director of the Minnesota agricultural experiment station in the declared zone of adaptation, have an average kernel moisture at normal harvest time which does not differ from the average kernel moisture content of three or more selected standard varieties adapted for grain production in that particular growing zone by more than four percentage points. If a new variety when tested has more than six percentage points of moisture over the standard variety, it must have the relative maturity increased by five days in the correct zone of adaptation before it can be sold the second year. If it does not exceed the standard varieties by more than five percentage points of moisture the second year tested, it can be sold the third year with the same relative maturity. If upon being tested the third year the moisture percentage points are found to be over the four percentage points allowed, the variety then must have the relative maturity increased by five days in the correct zone. The varieties to be used as standard varieties for determining adaptability to a zone shall be selected for each zone by the director of the Minnesota agricultural experiment station with the advice and consent of the commissioner of agriculture. Should a person, firm, originator, or owner of a hybrid seed field corn variety wish to offer hybrid seed for sale or distribution in this state, the person, firm, originator, or owner not having distributed any products in Minnesota during the past ten years, or not having any record of testing by an agency acceptable to the commissioner, then after registration of the variety the commissioner is required to have the variety tested for one year by the director of the Minnesota agricultural experiment station before it may be distributed in Minnesota. Should any person, firm, originator, or owner of a seed field corn variety be guilty of two successive violations with respect to the declaration of relative maturity date and zone number, then the violator must commence a program of pretesting for varieties as determined by the commissioner. The list of varieties to be used as standards in each growing zone shall be sent by the commissioner not later than February 1 of each year to each seed firm registering hybrid varieties with the commissioner as of the previous April 1. To assist in defraying the expenses of the Minnesota agricultural experiment station in carrying out the provisions of this section, there shall be transferred annually from the seed inspection fund to the agricultural experiment station a sum which shall at least equal 80 percent of the total revenue from all hybrid seed field corn variety registrations.

Sec. 42. [21.91] [SEED CERTIFICATION AGENCIES.]

Subdivision 1. [MINNESOTA.] The official seed certification agency for Minnesota shall be determined by the commissioner of agriculture and the director of the Minnesota agricultural experiment station.

Subd. 2. [OTHER JURISDICTIONS.] The official seed certification agency for other jurisdictions shall be determined and the identity filed as a public record in the office of the commissioner of agriculture. The determination shall be made by the commissioner of agriculture and the director of the Minnesota agricultural experiment station.

Sec. 43. [21.92] [SEED INSPECTION FUND.]

There is established in the state treasury an account known as the seed inspection fund. Fees and penalties collected by the commissioner under sections 31 to 43 shall be deposited into this account. The rates at which the fees are charged may be adjusted pursuant to section 16A.28. Money in this account, including interest earned and any appropriations made by the legislature for the purposes of sections 31 to 43, is annually appropriated to the commissioner for the administration and enforcement of sections 31 to 43.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 40.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEES.] The department of (NATURAL RESOURCES) agriculture shall provide administrative functions of this section. The commissioner of (NATURAL RESOURCES) agriculture shall make available (BY SEPARATE BUDGET) to the state soil and water conservation board (THE) staff (SERVICES), funds for operation (,) and office space necessary for the administration and coordination of its functions. The state board shall be responsible to the commissioner (FOR REPORTING PURPOSES IN REGARD TO STAFF FUNCTIONS AND OPERATIONS WHICH RELATE TO DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES).

The commissioner of (NATURAL RESOURCES) agriculture shall (, SUBJECT TO APPROVAL OF THE STATE BOARD,) provide an administrative officer and other necessary permanent and temporary technical experts, agents, and employees. (THE STATE BOARD SHALL DETERMINE THE PERSONNEL'S QUALIFICATIONS AND DUTIES, AND RECOMMEND COMPENSATION TO THE COMMISSIONER OF EMPLOYEE RELATIONS.) The state board may call upon the attorney general for necessary legal services. It (SHALL HAVE) has authority to delegate to its chairman or to one or more of its other officers or members or administrative officer any of its own powers and duties it may deem proper. ALL) Permanent personnel of the state board are employees of the department of (NATURAL RESOURCES) agriculture and are in the classified service of the state except as otherwise required by statute. In order to perform its duties, the state board may request information from the supervising officer of (ANY) a state agency or state institution of higher education, including the state universities, the community colleges, and the post-secondary vocational technical schools. (THE SUPERVISING OFFICER SHALL COMPLY WITH THE STATE BOARD'S REQUEST TO THE EXTENT POSSIBLE CONSIDERING AVAILABLE APPROPRIATIONS AND MAY ASSIGN AGENCY OR INSTITUTION EMPLOYEES TO COMPILE EXISTING INFORMATION AND TO COMPLETE SPECIAL REPORTS, SURVEYS, OR STUDIES CONCERNING THE PROBLEMS SPECIFIED IN SECTION 40.02.)

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 43A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [DONATION OF TIME BY STATE PATROL.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the commissioner shall authorize the appointing authority to permit the donation of up to three hours of accumulated vacation time in each year by each employee who is a member of law enforcement unit number 1 to their union representative for the purpose of carrying out the duties of his or her office.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 70A.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. (1) Rates and changes and amendments of rates for policies of insurance against damage by hail must be filed with the commissioner 60 days prior to their effective date.

(2) An insurer increasing the rate charged for a policy of insurance against damage by hail shall notify the insured 30 days prior to a rate change or 30 days prior to a renewal. In the event that the notice required by this subdivision is provided to the insured less than 30 days prior to the rate change or renewal date, the insured has the option to continue coverage for 30 days from the date of notice of a rate increase at the rates then applicable.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.251, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ASSIGNED RISK PLAN REVIEW BOARD.] ((1)) (a) An assigned risk plan review board is created for the purposes of review of the operation of sections 79.24 to 79.27. The board shall have all the usual powers and authorities necessary for the discharge of its duties under this section and may contract with individuals in discharge of those duties.

((2)) (b) The board shall consist of five members to be appointed by the commissioner of insurance. Two members shall be insureds holding policies issued (PURSUANT TO) under section 79.25. Two members (SHALL) must be members of the association. The commissioner (SHALL) must be the fifth member and shall vote.

Initial appointments (SHALL) must be made by September 1, 1981 and terms (SHALL BE) are for three years duration. Removal, the filling of vacancies, and compensation of the members other than the commissioner (SHALL) must be as provided in section 15.059.

((3)) (c) The assigned risk review board shall audit the reserves established by insurers ((A)) (1) for individual cases arising under policies issued under section 79.25, and ((B)) (2) for the total book of business issued under section 79.25.

((4)) (d) The assigned risk review board shall monitor the operations of sections 79.24 to 79.27 and shall periodically make recommendations to the commissioner, and to the governor and legislature when appropriate, for improvement in the operation of those sections.

((5) ALL) (e) Members of the association issuing policies under section 79.25 shall pay (AND) to the commissioner (SHALL RECEIVE AND DISBURSE, ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD,) a .25 percent assessment on premiums for policies issued under section 79.25 for the purpose of defraying the costs of the assigned risk review board. Proceeds of the assessment must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 162.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FEDERAL CENSUS TO BE CONCLUSIVE.] (a) In determining whether any city has a population of 5,000 or more, the last federal census shall be conclusive, except that effective January 1, 1984, the 1970 federal census or the last federal census taken in the city, whichever results in higher population for an individual city, shall be conclusive.

(b) A city that has previously been classified as having a population of 5,000 or more for the purposes of chapter 162 and whose population decreases by less than 15 percent from the census figure that last qualified the city for inclusion shall receive the following percentages of its 1981 apportionment for the years indicated: 1982, 66 percent and 1983, 33 percent. Thereafter the city shall not receive any apportionment from the municipal state-aid street fund unless its population is determined to be 5,000 or over by a federal census. The governing body of the city may contract with the United States bureau of the census to take one special census before January 1, 1986. A certified copy of the results of the census shall be filed with the appropriate state authorities by the city. The result of the census shall be the population of the city for the purposes of any law providing that population is a required qualification for distribution of highway aids under chapter 162. The special census shall remain in effect until the 1990 federal census is completed and filed. The expense of taking the special census shall be paid by the city.

(c) If an entire area not heretofore incorporated as a city is incorporated as such during the interval between federal censuses, its population shall be determined by its incorporation census. The incorporation census shall be determinative of the population of the city only until the next federal census.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 168.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NUMBER PLATES; VISIBILITY, PERIODS OF ISSUANCE.] The registrar, upon the approval and payment, shall issue to the applicant the number plates required by law, bearing an abbreviation of the state name and the number assigned. The number assigned may be a combination of a letter or sign with figures. The color of the plates and the color of the abbreviation of the state name and the number assigned shall be in marked contrast. The plates shall be lettered, spaced, or distinguished to suitably indicate the registration of the vehicle according to the rules of the registrar, and when a vehicle is registered on the basis of total gross weight, the plates issued shall clearly indicate by letters or other suitable insignia the maximum gross weight for which the tax has been paid. Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 174.24, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] Payment of financial assistance (SHALL) must be by contract between the commissioner and an eligible recipient. The commissioner shall determine the total operating cost of (ANY) a public transit system receiving or applying for assistance in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. To be eligible for financial assistance, an applicant or recipient shall provide to the commissioner all financial records and other information and shall permit any inspection reasonably necessary to determine total operating cost and correspondingly the amount of assistance which may be paid to the applicant or recipient. (WHERE) When more than one county or municipality contributes assistance to the operation of a public transit system, the commissioner shall identify one as lead agency for the purpose of receiving (MONEYS) funds under this section.

The commissioner shall adopt rules establishing uniform performance standards for private operators of regular route transit systems in the transit taxing district, as defined in section 473.446, subdivision 2. The rules are subject to the provisions in the administrative procedure act of sections 14.01 to 14.70. Payments to those private operators (SHALL) must be based on the uniform performance standards and operating deficit and (SHALL) must not exceed 100 percent of the operating deficit as determined by the commissioner. Payments (SHALL) must be based on approved estimates of expenditures during the contract period and (SHALL BE) are subject to audit and adjustment after any payment has been made.

Prior to distributing operating assistance to eligible recipients for any contract period, the commissioner shall place all recipients into one of the following classifications: large urbanized area service, urbanized area service, small urban area service, rural area service, and elderly and handicapped service. The commissioner shall distribute funds under this section so that the percentage of total operating cost paid by (ANY) a recipient from local sources will not exceed the percentage for that recipient's classification except as provided in an undue hardship case. The percentages (SHALL) must be: for large urbanized area service, 55 percent; for urbanized area service and small urban area service, 40 percent; for rural area service, 35 percent; and for elderly and handicapped service, 35 percent. The remainder of the total operating cost will be paid from state funds less any assistance received by the recipient from any federal source. For purposes of this subdivision "local sources" means (ALL) local sources of funds and includes (ALL) operating revenue, tax levies, and contributions from public funds, except that the commissioner may exclude from the total assistance contract revenues derived from operations the cost of which is excluded from the computation of total operating cost.

If a recipient informs the commissioner in writing after the establishment of these percentages but prior to the distribution of financial assistance for any year that paying its designated percentage of total operating cost from local sources will cause undue hardship, the commissioner may reduce the percentage to be paid from local sources by the recipient and increase the percentage to be paid from local sources (FOR ALL) by one or more other recipients (IN ITS) inside or outside the classification (SO THAT THE TOTAL STATE FUNDS TO BE RECEIVED BY ALL THE RECIPIENTS IN THE CLASSIFICATION WILL NOT BE ALTERED), provided that no recipient shall have its percentage thus reduced or increased for more than two years successively. If for any year the funds appropriated to the commissioner to carry out the purposes of this section are insufficient to allow the commissioner to pay the state share of total operating cost as provided in this paragraph, the commissioner shall reduce the state share in each classification to the extent necessary.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 299C.46, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

The department is a continuation of the former authority and not a new authority for the purpose of succession to the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of the department of energy, planning and development relating to energy as they were constituted immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

The commissioner, in cooperation with the director of consumer services, shall develop (THE) and administer state (PLAN FOR THE PROGRAM) programs of energy audits of residential and commercial buildings including those required by (42) United States Code, title 42, section 8211 et seq. and section 8281. The consumer services division and the attorney general are authorized to release information on consumer complaints about the operation of the program to the commissioner.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [OUTREACH FOR ENERGY AUDIT INTERPRETATION.] The commissioner shall establish a program to assist school officials in the understanding of energy audits performed on their schools. The program will also provide suggestions and assistance in the application for any state or federal grants or loans relating to energy conservation for which the school may be eligible.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.36, is amended to read:

116J.36 [DISTRICT HEATING GRANTS AND LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICIES.] Developing and improving efficient and economical district heating systems is a public purpose for state and local financing and a proper function of state and local government. Climate and geography make a reliable, economic supply of energy essential for industrial, commercial, and residential heating. Imported supplies are increasingly costly, unreliable, and environmentally disadvantageous. District heating systems employing cogeneration techniques and innovative technology offer an important means of increasing the efficiency of Minnesota's energy systems and reducing the state's reliance on imported energy supplies. The combination of the large initial capital cost and investors' lack of familiarity with district heating has made the private market reluctant to provide the necessary capital for district heating projects. As a result, public leadership, cooperation, and aid are needed to demonstrate the feasibility of district heating systems by establishing economically viable municipal district heating systems as demonstration projects. Municipal district heating systems may be financed by loans from the state and from other sources available to municipalities.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(a) "Construction costs" means all costs associated with the construction, modification or expansion of a district heating system except for preliminary planning costs and detailed design costs. Construction costs include the cost of debt service from the time a construction loan is made until five years after the beginning of the operation of the district heating system constructed or the part of the system being modified or expanded.

(b) "District heating" means the use of a central energy conversion facility to produce hot water or steam for a district heating system. District heating facilities may also produce electricity in addition to hot water or steam.

(c) "Municipality" means any county, city, town, municipal power agency, or public utility, as defined in section 452.01, subdivision 3, owned and operated by a city, however organized or nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of chapter 317 whose membership is limited to the mayor and governing body of the city in which the district heating system is located.

(d) "District heating system" means any existing or proposed facility for (1) the production, through cogeneration or otherwise, of hot water or steam to be used for district heating, or (2) the transmission and distribution of hot water or steam for district heating either directly to heating consumers or to another facility or facilities for transmission and distribution, or (3) any part or combination of the foregoing facilities.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner of finance, upon request of the governor, may make loans to municipalities for the acquisition, construction, expansion, or modification of district heating systems. A loan shall be made only to a municipality that has demonstrated that:

(a) The municipality has the financial capability to sponsor the project;

(b) The project is technologically feasible;

(c) The district heating project will become a cogeneration facility or the project will utilize hot water or, if the project involves an existing district steam heating system, the project will become integrated with a hot water district heating system, or the project will allow the use of nonpetroleum fuels or will construct an efficient heat transmission system; and

(d) The municipality has made adequate provision to assure proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the project after construction is completed.

Subd. 3a. [GRANT ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development may provide planning grants to municipalities for planning related to the development of district heating systems. The municipality must demonstrate that a community heatload survey and map have been successfully completed, that potential district heating load is sufficiently large to justify further consideration, and that sufficient resources are available for the municipality to meet its financial requirements. Eligible planning grant costs include project definition, development of preliminary financing and distribution system plans, and obtaining commitment for detailed planning or design and preparation of a final report. The amount of a grant shall be limited to 50 percent of eligible planning costs and shall not exceed $25,000.

Subd. 4. [PRIORITIES.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall give higher priority to a project that does more to achieve the following goals:

(a) The district heating conversion facility employs cogeneration techniques;

(b) The facility uses renewable or nonpetroleum sources of energy;

(c) The district heating facility will save petroleum or natural gas;

(d) The operation of the district heating facility will not have an adverse impact on the environment;

(e) The district heating facility may readily be expanded to serve additional customers or to supply additional amounts of energy, and market demand for the energy exists;

(f) The project has obtained additional financing from the federal government, private sources, or other sources of capital; and

(g) Other goals the commissioner of energy, planning and development finds desirable for district heating systems.

Subd. 5. [APPLICATION.] Application for a loan to be made pursuant to subdivision 6 shall be made by a municipality to the commissioner of energy, planning and development on a form prescribed by the commissioner of energy, planning and development by rule. The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall review each application and determine:

- (a) Whether or not the project is eligible for a loan;
- (b) The priority of the project when ranked with all other eligible projects for which a loan application has been submitted;
- (c) The total estimated cost of the project;
- (d) The amount of the loan for which the project is eligible;
- (e) The terms upon which the loan would be made; and
- (f) The means by which the municipality proposes to finance the project, including:
 - (1) A loan authorized by state law; or
 - (2) A grant of money appropriated by state law; or
 - (3) A grant to the municipality by an agency of the federal government within the amount of money then appropriated to that agency and allocated by it to projects within the state; or
 - (4) The appropriation of proceeds of bonds or other money of the municipality to an account for the construction of the project; or
 - (5) User charges, franchise fees, special assessments or taxes; or
 - (6) Any or all of the means referred to in clauses (1) to (5).

Subd. 6. [LOANS.] Upon the recommendation of the governor pursuant to subdivision 8, the commissioner of finance shall make loans to municipalities on the following terms:

- (a) In the case of loans for design costs, the maximum amount of the loan shall be limited by the provisions of this clause. For cities of the first class, the amount of the loan shall not exceed 40 percent of the design costs. For cities of the second, third and fourth class, the amount of the loan shall not exceed 90 percent of the design costs;
- (b) In the case for loans for construction costs, a municipality must demonstrate that all design activities have been completed; that the project is economically and technologically feasible; that the district heating system will be constructed, and that it has made adequate provisions to assure proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the project. For cities of the first class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 50 percent of the construction costs. For cities of the second class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 80 percent of the construction costs.

For cities of the third or fourth class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 90 percent of the construction costs.

(c) A loan made pursuant to this section is repayable over a period of 20 years, with interest payments beginning the first year. Interest shall accrue from the date of the loan at a rate of interest assigned at the date of loan commitment. Principal payments shall begin in the sixth year after the receipt of the loan on a 25 year level payment schedule with the balance of the principal to be retired with the payment due 20 years after receipt of the loan.

Subd. 7. [MODERN STEAM SYSTEMS.] (a) A municipality which has operating within its boundaries a modern steam district heating system owned by a district heating utility may apply for a loan or grant under this section even though the district heating project for which the loan or grant application is made may be planned, constructed, or owned by a district heating utility. The loan or grant application shall be treated in the same manner as loan or grant applications for district heating projects where the projects are to be planned, constructed, or owned by a municipality.

All or a portion of the proceeds of a loan made to a municipality described in this subdivision may be used to make loans to a district heating utility to provide financial assistance for the planning, modification, expansion or construction of a district heating project. Prior to making the loan to the district heating utility, the municipality shall:

(1) Adopt a district heating plan which identifies the areas of the city to be served by district heating; a time schedule indicating when service would be available in different areas of the city and the type of service to be offered; and

(2) Enter into a written agreement with the district heating utility which includes a requirement that the district heating utility restrict expansion of its existing steam system within its current geographic boundaries as determined by the municipality and develop a hot water system on a specific time schedule.

(b) The powers, authority and obligations granted to a municipality under this subdivision are supplemental to the powers, authority and obligations granted all municipalities under this section.

(c) As used in this subdivision, "modern steam district heating system" means a steam district heating system with condensate return built after 1970 and before May 30, 1981. "District heating utility" means any person, corporation, or other legal entity which owns or operates or plans to own or operate a district heating system. "District heating project" means a new dis-strict heating system, or the expansion or modification of the existing modern steam district heating system.

Subd. 8. [LOAN APPROVAL.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall prepare and submit to the legislative advisory commission a list of district heating loan requests. The list shall contain the supporting information required by subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. The recommendation of the legislative advisory commission shall be transmitted to the governor. The governor shall approve or disapprove, or return for further consideration, each project recommended for approval by the legislative advisory commission. Loans may be disbursed only upon approval by the governor.

Subd. 9. [PAYMENT; OBLIGATION.] The commissioner of finance shall not pay money to a municipality pursuant to an approved loan until he has determined that:

(a) Financing of the project as proposed by the municipality is assured by an irrevocable undertaking, by resolution of the governing body of the municipality, to use all money made available by the financing plan exclusively for the eligible costs of the project, and to pay any additional amount by which the cost of the project exceeds the estimate by the appropriation to the construction account of additional municipal money or the proceeds of additional bonds to be issued by the municipality; and that

(b) the governing body of the municipality has adopted a resolution obligating the municipality to repay the loan according to the terms in the loan. The obligation may be payable from user charges, franchise fees, special assessments or other money available to the municipality. The resolution shall obligate the municipality to annually impose and collect user charges, franchise fees, special assessments, or to use any other money available to it from any other specified source, in amounts and at times that if collected in full will annually produce at least five percent in excess of the amount needed for all annual costs of the system, including annual repayment on state loans. A municipality may also pledge to levy an ad valorem tax to guarantee the payments under the loan agreement. For the purpose of repaying the loan, the municipality by resolution of its governing body may fix the rates and charges for district heating system service and products, may enter into contracts for the payment by others of costs of construction, maintenance, and use of the project in accordance with section 444.075 and may pledge the revenues derived therefrom. The commissioner of finance shall condition a loan upon the establishment of rates and charges or the execution of contracts sufficient to produce annually the revenues pledged for repayment of all annual costs of the system, including annual repayment of the state loan.

Subd. 10. [RECEIPTS.] All principal and interest payments received by the commissioner of finance in repayment of the loans authorized by this section shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the state bond fund and are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the purposes of that account.

Subd. 11. [RULES.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules necessary to carry out this section. The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt temporary rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36, meeting the requirements of this section. The rules shall contain as a minimum:

- (a) Procedures for application by municipalities; and
- (b) Criteria for reviewing grant and loan applications.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 156A.02, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. For the purposes of sections 156A.02 to 156A.10 "groundwater thermal exchange device" means any (SPACE) heating or cooling device, the operation of which is dependent upon extraction and reinjection of groundwaters from an independent aquifer. Thermal exchange devices licensed under this chapter shall be sealed against the introduction of any foreign substance into the system, but shall be so constructed as to permit periodic inspection of water quality and temperature.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 156A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding any department or agency rule to the contrary, the department of health shall issue, upon request and submission of a $50 fee, permits for the reinjection of water by a properly constructed well into the same aquifer from which the water was drawn (EXCLUSIVELY) for the operation of a groundwater thermal exchange device. Withdrawal and reinjection shall be accomplished by means of a closed system in which the waters drawn for thermal exchange shall have no contact or commingling with water from other sources or with any polluting material or substances and so constructed as to allow opening for inspection by the department. Wells that are part of a groundwater thermal exchange system shall serve no other function, except that water may be supplied to the domestic water system if the supply is taken off the thermal exchange system ahead of the heat exchange unit, and if the water discharges to a break tank through an air gap which is at least twice the effective diameter of the water outlet from the tank. A groundwater thermal exchange system may be used for domestic water heating only if the water heating device is an integral part of the heat exchange unit that is used for space heating and cooling. As a condition of the permit, an applicant shall agree to allow inspection by the department during regular working hours for department inspectors. A maximum of 20 permits shall be issued for small systems having maximum capacities of 20 gallons per minute or less, which shall be subject to inspection twice annually. A maximum of ten permits shall be issued for larger systems having maximum capacities from 20 to 50 gallons per minute, which shall be subject to inspection four times per year. The department may by rule provide for administration of this section.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPLICABILITY.] This section as well as any rules promulgated by the commission (PURSUANT) to implement this section or the public utility regulatory policies act of 1978, Pub.L. 95-617, 92 Stat. 3117, and the federal energy regulatory commission regulations thereunder, 18 C.F.R. Part 292, shall apply to all Minnesota electric utilities, including cooperative electric associations and municipal electric utilities (, THAT BECOME INTERCONNECTED WITH ANY QUALIFYING FACILITY AS DEFINED IN 18 C.F.R. SECTION 292.101(B)(1)). Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this chapter to the contrary, for the purposes of this section the terms "utility" and "electric utility" shall include municipal utilities and cooperative electric associations as well as public utilities as defined in section 216B.02, subdivision 4.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISPUTES.] In the event of disputes between an electric utility and a qualifying facility, either party may request a determination of the issue by the commission. In any such determination, the burden of proof shall be on the utility, except as otherwise expressly provided in this section. The commission in its order resolving each such dispute shall require payments to the prevailing party of the prevailing party's costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorneys' fees, except that the qualifying facility will be required to pay such costs, disbursements, and attorneys' fees of the utility only if the commission finds that the claims of the qualifying facility in the dispute have been made in bad faith, or are a sham, or frivolous.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [MUNICIPAL ELECTRIC UTILITIES.] As this section applies to municipal electric utilities in this section only, commission shall mean the governing body of each municipal electric utility that adopts and has in effect rules implementing this section which are consistent with the rules of the Minnesota public utilities commission adopted pursuant to subdivision 6, except for subdivisions 5 and 7 in which case commission shall mean the Minnesota public utilities commission. As used in this subdivision, the governing body of a municipal electric utility means the city council, or, if another board, commission, or body is empowered by law or its charter or by resolution of the city council to establish and regulate rates and charges for the distribution of electric energy within the service area of the city, such board, commission, or body shall be deemed to be the governing body.

Sec. 16. [216B.242] [INVERTED RATES.]

The commission shall initiate a demonstration program on the conservation effects of inverted rates on the residential customers of natural gas utilities. The commission shall order at least one public gas utility to implement inverted rates for its residential customers for a period of two years, and to monitor the effects of these rates on gas consumption, and on costs to residential customers. The inverted rate rules and monitoring plans shall be prepared in consultation with, and with the approval of, the energy division of the Minnesota department of energy, planning and development or its successor. The commission shall report its findings and recommendations regarding the demonstration program to the governor and the legislature not later than January 1, 1986.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.44, is amended to read:

216B.44 [MUNICIPAL SERVICE TERRITORY EXTENSIONS (IN ANNEXED AREAS; MUNICIPAL PURCHASE).]

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 216B.38 to 216B.42, whenever a municipality which owns and operates an electric utility (a) extends its corporate boundaries through annexation or consolidation, or (b) determines to extend its service territory within its existing corporate boundaries, the municipality shall thereafter furnish electric service to (THE ANNEXED AREA) these areas unless the area is already receiving electric service from an electric utility, in which event, the (ANNEXING) municipality may purchase the facilities of the electric utility serving the (ANNEXED) area. The municipality acquiring the facilities shall pay to the electric utility formerly serving the (ANNEXED) area the appropriate value of its properties within the area which payment may be by exchange of other electric utility property outside the municipality on an appropriate basis giving due consideration to revenue from and value of the respective properties. In the event the municipality and the electric utility involved are unable to agree as to the terms of the payment or exchange, the municipality or the electric utility may file an application with the commission requesting that the commission determine the appropriate terms for the exchange or sale. After notice and hearing, the commission shall determine appropriate terms for an exchange, or in the event no appropriate properties can be exchanged, the commission shall fix and determine the appropriate value of the property within the annexed area, and the transfer shall be made as directed by the commission. In making that determination the commission shall consider the original cost of the property, less depreciation, loss of revenue to the utility formerly serving the area, expenses resulting from integration of facilities, and other appropriate factors. Until the determination by the commission, the facilities shall remain in place and service to the public shall be maintained by the owner. However, the electric utility being displaced, serving the annexed area, shall not extend service to any additional points of delivery within the annexed area if the commission, after notice and hearing, with due consideration of any unnecessary duplication of facilities, shall determine that the extension is not in the public interest.

When property of (A PUBLIC) an electric utility located within an area annexed to a municipality which owns and operates (A PUBLIC) an electric utility is proposed to be acquired by the municipality, ratification by the electors is not required.

When property of an electric utility located within the existing corporate boundaries of a municipality which currently operates a municipal electric utility is proposed to be included within the service territory of the municipal electric utility, ratification by the electors is not required.

Sec. 18. [216B.465] [VOTER RATIFICATION OF MUNICIPAL PURCHASE, LIMITED APPLICATION.]

The provisions of sections 216B.45 and 216B.46 shall apply only to the purchase of public utility property by a municipality which, prior to the time of the purchase, did not operate a municipal utility providing the type of utility service delivered by the utility property being purchased.

In cases where the municipality operates, prior to the purchase of public utility property, a municipal utility providing the type of utility service delivered by the utility property being purchased, the provisions of section 216B.44 apply and voter ratification is not required.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 453.54, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. It may invest in various technologies to minimize long-run costs of providing electrical services to consumers. These investments include energy conservation measures and renewable resources.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 471.345, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [ENERGY EFFICIENCY SERVICE CONTRACTS.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a municipality may enter into a contract to purchase by installment payments capital or other equipment or services intended to improve the energy efficiency of buildings or facilities owned by the municipality provided that:

- (a) the term of the contract does not exceed ten years;*
- (b) the entire cost of the contract is a percentage of the resultant savings in energy costs;*
- (c) the contract for purchase is based on a competitive basis; and*
- (d) the municipality may unilaterally cancel the agreement if the governing board of the municipality fails to appropriate funds to continue the contract.*

Speaker of the House of Representatives

Renumber the subdivisions in sequence

Page 6, delete section 5 and insert:

"Sec. 5. [48.512] [PROCEDURES FOR OPENING CHECKING ACCOUNTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purpose of this section the following terms have the meanings given:

(a) "Financial intermediary" means any person doing business in this state who offers transaction accounts to the public.

(b) "Transaction account" means a deposit or account established and maintained by a natural person or persons under an individual or business name for personal, household, or business purposes, on which the depositor or account holder is permitted to make withdrawals by negotiable or transferable instruments, payment orders of withdrawal, or other similar device for the purpose of making payments or transfers to third persons or others, including demand deposits or accounts subject to check, draft, negotiable order of withdrawal, share draft, or other similar item. A transaction account does not include the deposit or account of a partnership having more than three partners, the personal representative of an estate, the trustee of a trust or a limited partnership.

Subd. 2 [REQUIRED INFORMATION.] Before opening or authorizing signatory power over a transaction account, a financial intermediary shall require one applicant to provide the following information on an application document signed by the applicant:

- (a) full name;
- (b) birth date;
- (c) address of residence;
- (d) address of current employment, if employed;
- (e) telephone numbers of residence and place of employment, if any;
- (f) social security number;
- (g) driver's license or identification card number issued pursuant to section 171.07. If the applicant does not have a driver's license or identification card, the applicant may provide an identification document number issued for identification purposes by any state, federal, or foreign government if the docu- ment includes the applicant's photograph, full name, birth date, and signature;

(h) whether the applicant has had a transaction account at the same or another financial intermediary within 12 months immediately preceding the application, and, if so, the name of the financial intermediary;

(i) whether the applicant has had a transaction account closed by a financial intermediary without the applicant's consent within 12 months immediately preceding the application, and, if so, the reason the account was closed; and

(j) whether the applicant has been convicted of a criminal offense because of the use of a check or other similar item within 24 months immediately preceding the application.

A financial intermediary may require an applicant to disclose additional information.

An applicant who makes a false material statement that he does not believe to be true in an application document with respect to information required to be provided by this subdivision is guilty of perjury. The financial intermediary shall notify the applicant of the provisions of this paragraph.

Subd. 3. [CONFIRM NO INVOLUNTARY CLOSING.] Before opening or authorizing signatory power over a transaction account, the financial intermediary shall attempt to verify the information disclosed for subdivision 2, clause (i). The financial intermediary may not open or authorize signatory power over a transaction account if (i) the applicant had a transaction account closed by a financial intermediary without his consent because of his issuance of dishonored checks within 12 months immediately preceding the application, or (ii) the applicant has been convicted of a criminal offense because of the use of a check or other similar item within 24 months immediately preceding the application.

If the transaction account is refused, the reasons for the refusal shall be given to the applicant in writing.

Subd. 4. [IDENTIFICATION IS REQUIRED.] A financial intermediary shall not open or authorize signatory power over a transaction account if none of the applicants provides a driver's license, identification card, or identification document as required by subdivision 2. When a minor is the applicant and the minor does not have a driver's license or identification card issued pursuant to section 171.07, the identification requirements of subdivision 2, clause (g), and this subdivision are satisfied if the minor's parent or guardian provides identification of his own that meets the identification requirement. The financial intermediary may waive the identification requirement if the applicant has had another type of account with the financial intermediary for at least one year immediately preceding the time of application.

Subd. 5. [NO LIABILITY.] The requirements of this section do not impose any liability on financial intermediaries offering transaction accounts or, except as provided in subdivisions 3 and 4, limit a financial intermediary's discretion as to whether to grant or deny an application subject to this section.

[WORTHLESS CHECK COLLECTIONS]

Sec. 6. [332.50] [CIVIL LIABILITY FOR ISSUANCE OF WORTHLESS CHECK.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] "Check" means a check, draft, order of withdrawal, or similar negotiable or nonnegotiable instrument.

"Credit" means an arrangement or understanding with the drawee for the payment of the check.

Subd. 2. [ACTS CONSTITUTING.] Whoever issues any check that is dishonored and is not paid within 30 days after mailing a notice of dishonor and a copy of sections 6 and 609.535 in compliance with subdivision 3, is liable to the holder for the amount of the check plus a civil penalty of up to $100, interest at the rate payable on judgments pursuant to section 549.09 on the face amount of the check from the date of dishonor, reasonable attorney fees if the amount of the check is over $1,250, and a service charge not exceeding $15 if written notice of the service charge was conspicuously displayed on the premises when the check was issued.

This subdivision prevails over any provision of law limiting, prohibiting, or otherwise regulating service charges authorized by this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF DISHONOR REQUIRED.] Notice of nonpayment or dishonor and a copy of sections 6 and 609.535 shall be sent by the payee or holder of the check to the drawer by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by regular mail, supported by an affidavit of service by mailing, to the address printed or written on the check. The issuance of a check with an address printed or written on it is a representation by the drawer that the address is the correct address for receipt of mail concerning the check. Failure of the drawer to receive a regular or certified mail notice sent to that address is not a defense to liability under this section, if the drawer has had actual notice for 30 days that the check has been dishonored.

An affidavit of service by mailing shall be retained by the payee or holder of the check.

Subd. 4. [PROOF OF IDENTITY.] The check is prima facie evidence of the identity of the drawer if the person receiving the check:

(a) records the following information about the drawer on the check, unless it is printed on the face of the check:

(1) name;

(2) home or work address;

(3) home or work telephone number; and

(4) identification number issued pursuant to section 171.07;

(b) compares the drawer's physical appearance, signature, and the personal information recorded on the check with the drawer's identification card issued pursuant to section 171.07; and

(c) initials the check to indicate compliance with these requirements.

Subd. 5. [DEFENSES.] Any defense otherwise available to the drawer also applies to liability under this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 487.30, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

*Subd. 4. [JURISDICTION; (WORTHLESS) DISHONORED CHECKS.] The conciliation court has jurisdiction to determine a civil action commenced by a plaintiff, resident of the county, to recover the amount of a (WORTHLESS) dishonored check issued in the county (WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 609.535, NOTWITHSTANDING THAT) even though the defendant or defendants are not residents of the county (PROVIDED THAT), if the notice of nonpayment or dishonor (REQUIRED BY) described in section 609.535, subdivision 3, is sent to the maker or drawer as specified therein and the notice states that the payee or holder of the check (OR OTHER ORDER OF PAYMENT OF MONEY) may commence a conciliation court action in the county where the (WORTHLESS) dishonored check was issued to recover the amount of the check. This subdivision does not apply to a check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) that has been dishonored by a stop payment order. Notwithstanding any law or rule of civil procedure to the contrary, the summons in any action commenced under this subdivision may be served anywhere within the state of Minnesota. The conciliation court clerk shall attach a copy of* the dishonored check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) to the summons before it is issued.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 488A.12, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [JURISDICTION.] (a) Excepting actions involving title to real estate, the court has jurisdiction to hear, conciliate, try, and determine civil actions at law where the amount in controversy does not exceed the sum of $1,250. The territorial jurisdiction of the court is coextensive with the geographic boundaries of the county of Hennepin.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of (CLAUSE) paragraph (a), or any rule of court to the contrary, the conciliation court of Hennepin county has jurisdiction to determine an action brought pursuant to section 504.20 for the recovery of a deposit on rental property located in whole or in part in Hennepin county, and the summons in the action may be served anywhere within the state of Minnesota.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of (CLAUSE) paragraph (a), or any rule of court to the contrary, the conciliation court of Hennepin county has jurisdiction to determine a civil action commenced by a plaintiff, a resident of Hennepin county, to recover the amount of a (WORTHLESS) dishonored check issued in the county (WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 609.535), (NOTWITHSTANDING THAT) even though the defendant or defendants are not residents of Hennepin county (PROVIDED THAT), if the notice of nonpayment or dishonor (REQUIRED BY) described in section 609.535, subdivision 3, is sent to the maker or drawer as specified therein and the notice states that the payee or holder of the check (OR OTHER ORDER OF PAYMENT OF MONEY) may commence a conciliation court action in the county where the (WORTHLESS) dishonored check was issued to recover the amount of the check. This clause does not apply to a check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) that has been dishonored by a stop payment order. Notwithstanding any law or rule of civil procedure to the contrary, the summons in any action commenced under this clause may be served anywhere within the state of Minnesota. The conciliation court administrator shall attach a copy of the dishonored check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) to the summons before it is issued.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 488A.29, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [JURISDICTION.] (a) Excepting actions involving title to real estate, the court has jurisdiction to hear, conciliate, try and determine civil actions at law where the amount in controversy does not exceed the sum of $1,250. The territorial jurisdiction of the court is coextensive with the geographic boundaries of the county of Ramsey.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of (CLAUSE) paragraph (a) or any rule of court to the contrary, the conciliation court of Ramsey county has jurisdiction to determine an action brought pursuant to section 504.20 for the recovery of a deposit on rental property located in whole or in part in Ramsey county, and the summons in the action may be served anywhere in the state of Minnesota.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of (CLAUSE) paragraph (a) or any rule of court to the contrary, the conciliation court of Ramsey county has jurisdiction to determine a civil action commenced by a plaintiff, resident of Ramsey county, to recover the amount of a (WORTHLESS) dishonored check issued in the county (WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 609.535), (NOTWITHSTANDING THAT) even though the defendant or defendants are not residents of Ramsey county (PROVIDED THAT), if the notice of nonpayment or dishonor (REQUIRED BY) described in section 609.535, subdivision 3, is sent to the maker or drawer as specified therein and the notice states that the payee or holder of the check (OR OTHER ORDER OF PAYMENT OF MONEY) may commence a conciliation court action in the county where the (WORTHLESS) dishonored check was issued to recover the amount of the check. This clause does not apply to a check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR THE PAYMENT OF MONEY) that has been dishonored by a stop payment order. Notwithstanding any law or rule of civil procedure to the contrary, the summons in any action commenced under this clause may be served anywhere within the state of Minnesota. The conciliation court administrator shall attach a copy of the dishonored check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) to the summons before it is issued.

Notice of nonpayment or dishonor and a copy of this section shall be sent by the payee or holder of the check to the maker or drawer by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by regular mail, supported by an affidavit of service by mailing, to the address printed on the check. Refusal by the maker or drawer of the check to accept certified mail notice or failure to claim certified or regular mail notice (SHALL) is not (CONSTITUTE) a defense that notice was not received.

The notice may state that unless the check is paid in full within five business days after mailing of the notice of (NON-PAYMENT) nonpayment or dishonor, the payee or holder of the check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR THE PAYMENT OF MONEY) will or may refer the matter to proper authorities for prosecution under this section.

An affidavit of service by mailing shall be retained by the payee or holder of the check.

Subd. 4. [PROOF OF LACK OF FUNDS OR CREDIT.] If the check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR THE PAYMENT OF MONEY) has been protested, the notice of protest (THEREOF) is admissible as proof of presentation, nonpayment, and protest, and is evidence sufficient to sustain a finding that there was a lack of funds or credit with the drawee.

(4) The last known home and business addresses and telephone numbers of the drawer.

The drawee shall release all of the information described in clauses (1) to (4) that it possesses within ten days after receipt of a request conforming to all of the provisions of this subdivision. A drawee is not liable in a criminal or civil proceeding for releasing information in accordance with this subdivision.

Subd. 7. [RELEASE OF ACCOUNT INFORMATION TO PAYEE OR HOLDER.] (IF THERE IS A WRITTEN REQUEST TO A DRAWEE FROM A PAYEE OR HOLDER OF A CHECK OR OTHER ORDER FOR THE PAYMENT OF MONEY THAT HAS BEEN DISHONORED OTHER THAN BY A STOP PAYMENT ORDER, WHICH REQUEST IS ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE DISHONORED CHECK OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY, THE) A drawee (IS NOT LIABLE IN A CIVIL OR CRIMINAL PROCEEDING FOR RELEASING) shall release the information specified in clauses (1) and (2) to the payee or holder (ANY) of a check that has been dishonored who makes a written request for this information and states in writing that the check has been dishonored and that 30 days have elapsed since the mailing of the notice described in subdivision 8 and who accompanies this request with a copy of the dishonored check and a copy of the notice of dishonor.

The requesting payee or holder shall notify the drawee immediately to cancel this request if payment is made before the drawee has released this information.

This subdivision applies to the following information relating to the drawer's account:

(1) Whether at the time the check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY) was issued or presented for payment the drawer had sufficient funds or credit with the drawee, and whether at that time the account was open, closed, or restricted for any reason and the date it was closed or restricted; and

(2) The last known home (AND BUSINESS ADDRESSES) address and telephone (NUMBERS) number of the drawer. A drawee may be liable in a civil or criminal proceeding for releasing the business address or business telephone number of the drawer to the payee or holder.

The drawee shall release all of the information described in clauses (1) and (2) that it possesses within ten days after receipt of a request conforming to all of the provisions of this subdivision. The drawee may require the person requesting the information to pay the reasonable costs, not to exceed 15 cents per page, of reproducing and mailing the requested information.

A drawee is not liable in a criminal or civil proceeding for releasing information in accordance with this subdivision.

Subd. 8. [NOTICE.] The provisions of subdivisions 6 and 7 are not applicable unless the notice to the maker or drawer required by subdivision 3 states that if the check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR THE PAYMENT OF MONEY) is not paid in full within five business days after mailing of the notice, the drawee (MAY) will be authorized to release information relating to the account to the payee or holder of the check (OR OTHER ORDER FOR THE PAYMENT OF MONEY) and may also release this information to law enforcement or prosecuting authorities.

S. F. No. 695 was reported to the House.

Clawson moved to amend S. F. No. 695 as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [144A.071] [MORATORIUM ON CERTIFICATION OF NURSING HOME BEDS.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDINGS.] The legislature finds that control of expenditures for nursing home care is more difficult due to construction of more nursing home facilities, the addition of more nursing home beds to the long-term care system, and the increased certification of skilled nursing facility beds. Increases in facilities and beds, especially skilled nursing facility beds, leads to greatly increased expenditures now and into the future and inhibits the development of a comprehensive long-term care policy that includes a continuum of care.

Subd. 2. [MORATORIUM.] Notwithstanding the provisions of the Certificate of Need Act, sections 145.832 to 145.845, or any other law to the contrary, the commissioner of health, in coordination with the commissioner of public welfare, shall deny each request by a nursing home or boarding care home for addition of new certified beds or for a change or changes in the certification status of existing beds except as provided in subdivision 2 during a period of three years beginning on the effective date of this section and ending on June 30, 1986. The total number of certified beds in the state in the skilled level and in the intermediate level of care shall remain at or decrease from the number of beds certified at each level of care on the effective date of this section until June 30, 1986. "Certified bed" means a nursing home bed or a boarding care bed certified by the commissioner of health for the purposes of the medical assistance program, under United States Code, title 42, section 1396 et seq.

The commissioner of public welfare, in coordination with the commissioner of health, shall deny any request to issue a license under the provisions of sections 245.781 to 245.812 and 252.28 to a nursing home or boarding care home if that license would result in an increase in the medical assistance reimbursement amount.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of health, in coordination with the commissioner of welfare, may approve the addition of a new certified bed or change in the certification status of an existing bed under the following conditions:

(a) To replace a bed decertified after the effective date of this section or if the commissioner finds an extreme hardship situation in a particular county that has fewer nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly than the number that is ten percent higher than the national average of nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly individuals. For the purposes of this section, the national average of nursing home beds shall be the most recent figure that can be supplied by the federal health care financing administration and the number of elderly in the county or the nation shall be determined by the most recent federal census or estimate of the state demographer of persons age 65 and older, whichever is the most recent at the time of the request for replacement. In allowing replacement of a decertified bed, the commissioners shall ensure that the number of added or recertified beds does not exceed the total number of decertified beds in the state in that level of care. An extreme hardship situation can only be found after the county documents the existence of unmet medical or religious dietary needs that cannot be addressed by any other alternatives; or

(b) To certify a new bed in a facility that commenced construction before the effective date of this section. For the purposes of this section, "commenced construction" means that all of the following conditions were met: the final working drawings and specifications were submitted to the commissioner of health; the construction contracts were let; a timely construction schedule was developed, stipulating dates for beginning, achieving various stages, and completing construction; and all zoning and building permits were secured;

(c) When the change in certification status results in a decrease in the reimbursement amount;

(d) To certify a new bed in a facility for which a certificate of need was issued prior to the effective date of this section, provided conditions of the certificate include requirements that at least one-third of the beds be licensed and certified short-stay beds and that the applicant construct and operate on a concurrent time schedule with the nursing home a congregate housing program for the elderly upon a single site; or

(e) To replace a decertified bed or certify a new bed or a change in certification level in state facilities established pursuant to chapters 252 and 253.

Subd. 4. [MONITORING.] The commissioner of health, in coordination with the commissioner of public welfare, shall implement mechanisms to monitor and analyze the effect of the moratorium in the different geographic areas of the state. The commissioner of health shall submit to the legislature, no later than January 15, 1984, and annually thereafter, an assessment of the impact of the moratorium by geographic area with particular attention to service deficits or problems and a corrective action plan.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 144A.10, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FINES.] A nursing home which is issued a notice of noncompliance with a correction order shall be assessed a civil fine in accordance with a schedule of fines to be promulgated by rule of the commissioner of health before September 1, 1983. The fine shall be assessed for each day the facility remains in noncompliance and until a notice of correction is received by the commissioner of health in accordance with subdivision 7. No fine for a specific violation may exceed ($250) $500 per day of noncompliance.

Sec. 3. [144A.31] [INTERAGENCY BOARD FOR QUALITY ASSURANCE.]

Subdivision 1. [INTERAGENCY BOARD.] The commissioners of health and public welfare shall establish, by July 1, 1983, an interagency board of employees of their respective departments who are knowledgeable and employed in the areas of long-term care, geriatric care, long-term care facility inspection, or quality of care assurance. The number of interagency board members shall not exceed seven; three members each to represent the commissioners of health and public welfare and one member to represent the commissioner of public safety in the enforcement of fire and safety standards in nursing homes. The commissioner of health shall serve as chair and convener of the board. The board may utilize the expertise and time of other individuals employed by either department as needed. The board may recommend to the commissioners to contract for services as needed. The board shall meet as often as necessary to accomplish its duties, but at least monthly.

Subd. 2. [INSPECTIONS.] No later than January 1, 1984, the board shall develop and recommend implementation and enforcement of an effective system to ensure quality of care in each nursing home in the state.

The board shall assist the commissioner of health to ensure that inspections and reinspections of nursing homes are conducted with a frequency and in a manner calculated to most effectively and appropriately fulfill its quality assurance responsibilities and achieve the greatest benefit to nursing home residents. The commissioner of health shall require a higher frequency and extent of inspections with respect to those nursing homes that present the most serious concerns with respect to resident health, treatment, comfort, safety, and well-being. These concerns include but are not limited to: a history of complaints about care, safety, or rights; situations where previous inspections or reinspections have resulted in correction orders related to care, safety, or rights; instances of frequent change in administration in excess of normal turnover rates; and situations where persons involved in ownership or administration of the nursing home have been convicted of engaging in criminal activity. A nursing home that presents none of these concerns or any other concern or condition established by the board that poses a risk to resident care, safety, or rights shall be inspected once every two years for compliance with key requirements as determined by the board.

The board shall develop and recommend to the commissioners mechanisms beyond the inspection process to protect resident care, safety, and rights, including but not limited to coordination with the office of health facility complaints and the nursing home ombudsman program.

Subd. 3. [METHODS FOR DETERMINING RESIDENT CARE NEEDS.] The board shall develop and recommend to the commissioners definitions for levels of care and methods for determining resident care needs for implementation on July 1, 1985 in order to adjust payments for resident care based on the mix of resident needs in a nursing home. The methods for determining resident care needs shall include assessments of ability to perform activities of daily living and assessments of medical and therapeutic needs.

Subd. 4. [ENFORCEMENT.] The board shall develop and recommend for implementation effective methods of enforcing quality of care standards. When it deems necessary, and when all other methods of enforcement are not appropriate, the board shall recommend to the commissioner of health closure of all or part of a nursing home and revocation of the license. The board shall develop, and the commissioner of public welfare shall implement, a resident relocation plan which instructs the county where the nursing home is located of procedures to ensure that the needs of residents in nursing homes about to be closed are met. The county shall ensure placement in swing beds in hospitals, placement in unoccupied beds in other nursing homes, utilization of home health care on a temporary basis, foster care placement, or other appropriate alternative care. In preparing for relocation, the board shall ensure that residents and their families or guardians are involved in planning the relocation.

Subd. 5. [REPORTS.] The board shall prepare a report and the commissioners of health and public welfare shall deliver this report to the legislature no later than January 15, 1984, on the board's proposals and progress on implementation of the methods required under subdivisions 2, 3, and 4. The commissioners shall recommend changes in or additions to legislation necessary or desirable to fulfill their responsibilities. The board shall prepare an annual report and the commissioners shall deliver this report annually to the legislature, beginning in January, 1985, on the implementation and enforcement of the provisions of this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.091, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose of this section to prevent inappropriate nursing home or boarding care home placement by establishing a program of preadmission screening teams for all medical assistance recipients and any individual who would become eligible for medical assistance within (90) 180 days of admission to a licensed nursing home or boarding care home participating in the program. Further, it is the purpose of this section and the program to gain further information about how to contain costs associated with inappropriate nursing home or boarding care home admissions. The commissioners of public welfare and health shall seek to maximize use of available federal and state funds and establish the broadest program possible within the appropriation available. The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary rules in order to implement this section by September 1, 1980.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.091, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SCREENING TEAMS; ESTABLISHMENT.] Each county agency designated by the commissioner of public welfare to participate in the program shall contract with the local board of health organized under section 145.911 to 145.922 or other public or non-profit agency to establish a screening team to assess, prior to admission to a nursing home licensed under section 144A.02 or a boarding care home licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56, the health and social needs of medical assistance recipients and individuals who would become eligible for medical assistance within (90) 180 days of nursing home or boarding care home admission. Each local screening team shall be composed of a public health nurse from the local public health nursing service and a social worker from the local community welfare agency. Each screening team shall have a physician available for consultation and shall utilize individuals' attending physicians' physical assessment forms, if any, in assessing needs. The individual's physician shall be included on the screening team if the physician chooses to participate. If the individual is being discharged from an acute care facility, a discharge planner from that facility may be present, at the facility's request, during the screening team's assessment of the individual and may participate in discussions but not in making the screening team's recommendations under subdivision 3, clause (e). If the assessment procedure or screening team recommendation results in a delay of the individual's discharge from the acute care facility, the facility shall not be denied reimbursement or incur any other financial or regulatory penalty caused by the individual's extended length of stay. Other personnel as deemed appropriate by the county agency may be included on the team. No member of a screening team shall have a direct or indirect financial or self-serving interest in a nursing home or non-institutional referral such that it would not be possible for the member to consider each case objectively.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.091, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCREENING OF PERSONS.] Prior to nursing home or boarding care home admission, or admission to a nursing home after residence in a boarding care home that is not attached to the nursing home, screening teams shall assess the needs of all persons receiving medical assistance and of all persons who would be eligible for medical assistance within (90) 180 days of admission to a nursing home or boarding care home, except patients transferred from other nursing homes or patients who, having entered acute care facilities from nursing homes, are returning to nursing home care. Any other interested person may be assessed by a screening team upon payment of a fee based upon a sliding fee scale.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.091, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ALTERNATIVE CARE GRANTS.] The commissioner shall provide grants to counties participating in the program to pay costs of providing alternative care to individuals screened under subdivision 4. Payment is available under this subdivision only for individuals (1) for whom the screening team would recommend nursing home admission if alternative care were not available; (2) who are receiving medical assistance or who would be eligible for medical assistance within (90) 180 days of admission to a nursing home; and (3) who need services that are not available at that time in the county through other public assistance.

Grants may be used for payment of costs of providing services such as, but not limited to, foster care for elderly persons, day care whether or not offered through a nursing home, nutritional counseling, or medical social services, which services are provided by a licensed health care provider, a home health service eligible for reimbursement under Titles XVIII and XIX of the federal Social Security Act, or by persons employed by or contracted with by the county board or the local welfare agency. The county agency shall ensure that a plan of care is established for each individual in accordance with subdivision 3, clause (e)(2). The plan shall include any services prescribed by the individual's attending physician as necessary and follow up services as necessary. The county agency shall provide documentation to the commissioner verifying that the individual's alternative care is not available at that time through any other public assistance or service program and shall provide documentation in each individual's plan of care that the most cost effective alternatives available have been offered to the individual. Grants to counties under this subdivision are subject to audit by the commissioner for fiscal and utilization control.

The commissioner shall establish a sliding fee schedule for requiring payment for the cost of providing services under this subdivision to persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance.

The commissioner shall apply for a waiver for federal financial participation to expand the availability of services under this subdivision. The commissioner shall provide grants to counties from the non-federal share, unless the commissioner obtains a federal waiver for medical assistance payments, of medical assistance appropriations. The state expenditures for this section shall not exceed $1,800,000 for the biennium ending June 30, 1983. A county agency may use grant money to supplement but not supplant services available through other public assistance or service programs and shall not use grant money to establish new programs for which public money is available through sources other than grants provided under this subdivision. A county agency shall not use grant money to provide care under this subdivision to an individual if the anticipated cost of providing this care would exceed the average payment, as determined by the commissioner, for the level of nursing home care that the recipient would receive if placed in a nursing home.

The non-federal share may be used to pay up to 90 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision. Each county agency that receives a grant shall pay 10 percent of the costs.

The commissioner shall promulgate temporary rules in accordance with sections 14.29 to 14.36, to establish required documentation and reporting of care delivered.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.41, is amended to read:

256B.41 [INTENT.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The (STATE AGENCY) commissioner shall (BY RULE) establish (A FORMULA), by rule, procedures for (ESTABLISHING PAYMENT) determining equitable rates for care of residents of nursing homes which qualify as vendors of medical assistance, and for implementing the provisions of sections 256B.41, 256B.47, 256B.48, and sections 9, 10, 13, and 14. The procedures shall be based on methods and standards that the commissioner finds are adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the care of residents in efficiently and economically operated nursing homes and shall specify the costs that are allowable for establishing payment rates through medical assistance.

Subd. 2. [FEDERAL REQUIREMENTS.] (IT IS THE INTENT OF THE LEGISLATURE TO ESTABLISH CERTAIN LIMITATIONS ON THE STATE AGENCY IN SETTING STANDARDS FOR NURSING HOME RATE SETTING FOR THE CARE OF RECIPIENTS OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PURSUANT TO THIS CHAPTER. IT IS NOT THE INTENT OF THE LEGISLATURE TO REPEAL OR CHANGE ANY EXISTING OR FUTURE RULE PROMULGATED BY THE STATE AGENCY RELATING TO THE SETTING OF RATES FOR NURSING HOMES UNLESS THE RULE IS CLEARLY IN CONFLICT WITH SECTIONS 256B.41 TO 256B.48.) If any provision of sections 256B.41 (TO), 256B.47, and 256B.48 and sections 9, 10, 13, and 14, is determined by the United States government to be in conflict with existing or future requirements of the United States government with respect to federal participation in medical assistance, the federal requirements shall prevail.

Sec. 9. [256B.421] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of sections 256B.41, 256B.47, 256B.48, and sections 9, 10, 13, and 14, the following terms and phrases shall have the meaning given to them.

Sec. 10. [256B.431] [RATE DETERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] The commissioner shall determine prospective payment rates for resident care costs. In determining the rates, the commissioner shall group nursing homes according to different levels of care as defined by the commissioner and geographic location. The commissioner shall consider the use of the standard metropolitan statistical areas when developing groups by geographic location. Until groups are established according to mix of resident needs, the commissioner shall group all convalescent and nursing care units attached to hospitals into one group for purposes of determining reimbursement for operating costs. On or before June 1, 1983, the commissioner shall mail notices to each nursing home of the rates to be effective from July 1 of that year to June 30 of the following year. In subsequent years, the commissioner shall provide notice to each nursing home on or before May 1 of the rates effective for the following rate year. If a statute enacted after May 1 affects the rates, the commissioner shall provide a revised notice to each nursing home as soon as possible.

Subd. 2. [OPERATING COSTS.] (a) The commissioner shall establish, by rule, procedures for determining per diem reimbursement for operating costs based on actual resident days and for reserved bed days. The commissioner shall disallow any portion of the general and administrative cost category, exclusive of fringe benefits and payroll taxes, which exceeds

11 percent for nursing homes with more than 100 beds in total,

12 percent for nursing homes with fewer than 101 but more than 40 certified beds in total, and

13 percent for nursing homes with 40 or fewer certified beds in total, of the expenditures in all operating cost categories except fringe benefits, payroll taxes, and general and administrative costs.

(b) For the rate year beginning July 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1984, the prospective operating cost payment rate for each nursing home shall be determined by the commissioner based on the most recently audited and available cost reports of allowed historical operating costs received by December 31, 1982. To determine the allowed historical operating cost, the commissioner shall update the actual historical per diem shown in those cost reports to June 30, 1983, using an eight percent annual rate of increase after applying the general and administrative cost limitation described in paragraph (a), and after adjusting for rate limitations in effect prior to the effective date of this act. The commissioner shall calculate the 60th percentile of actual allowed historical operating cost per diem for each group of nursing homes established under subdivision 1.

(1) Within each group, each nursing home whose actual allowed historical operating cost per diems are above the 60th percentile of per diems shall receive their allowed historical operating cost per diem plus the dollar change amount resulting from a six percent increase to the 60th percentile.

(2) Within each group, each nursing home whose actual allowed historical operating cost per diem is at or below the 60th percentile shall receive that actual allowed historical operating cost per diem increased by six percent.

(c) For rate years beginning July 1, 1984, the prospective operating cost payment rate for each nursing home shall be determined by the commissioner based on actual allowed historical operating costs incurred during the reporting year preceding the rate year.

The commissioner shall:

(1) Contract with an econometric firm knowledgeable of Minnesota economic conditions and with recognized expertise in and access to current national economic change indices which can be applied to the appropriate cost categories when determining the operating cost payment rate.

(2) Establish the 60th percentile of actual allowed historical operating cost per diems for each group of nursing homes established under subdivision 1 based on cost reports of actual allowed historical operating cost in the previous reporting year. The commissioner shall provide for the analysis and evaluation of each nursing home's report of allowed operating costs incurred by the nursing home during the reporting year immediately preceding the rate year for which the payment rate becomes effective.

The allowed historical operating costs, after the commissioner's analysis and evaluation, shall be added together and divided by the number of actual resident days in order to compute the actual allowed historical operating cost per diem amount.

(3) Establish a composite index for each group by determining the weighted average of all economic change indicators applied to the operating cost categories in that group.

(4) Within each group, each nursing home with an actual allowed historical operating cost per diem in the previous reporting year at or below the 60th percentile calculated in paragraph (c)(2) shall receive the percentage change resulting from the application of the composite index to its allowed historical operating cost per diem. Each nursing home with an actual allowed historical operating cost per diem in the previous reporting year above the 60th percentile calculated in paragraph (c)(2) shall receive the dollar change amount allowed nursing homes at the 60th percentile. The historical base for determining the prospective payment rate shall not exceed the operating cost payment rates during that reporting year.

The commissioner shall include the reported actual real estate tax liability of each proprietary nursing home as an operating cost of that nursing home. The commissioner shall include a reported actual special assessment for each nursing home as an operating cost of that nursing home. Total real estate tax liability plus any special assessments for each nursing home shall be divided by actual resident days in order to compute the operating cost payment rate for this operating cost category, but shall not be used to compute the 60th percentile.

(d) The commissioner shall allow the nursing home to keep, as an efficiency incentive, the difference between the nursing home's operating cost payment rate established for that rate year and the actual historical operating costs incurred for that rate year, if the latter amount is smaller. If a nursing home's actual historic operating costs are greater than the prospective payment rate for that rate year, there shall be no retroactive cost settle-up. If an annual cost report or field audit indicates that the expenditures for direct resident care have been reduced in amounts large enough to indicate a possible detrimental effect on the quality of care, the commissioner shall notify the commissioner of health and the interagency board for quality assurance.

(e) Until groups are established according to mix of resident care needs, nursing homes which are licensed by the commissioner to provide residential services for the physically handicapped and nursing homes that have an average length of stay of less than 180 days shall not be included in the calculation of the 60th percentile of any group. For rate year beginning July 1, 1983 and July 1, 1984, each of these nursing homes shall receive their actual allowed historical operating cost per diem increased by six percent. The commissioner shall also apply to these nursing homes the ten percent limitation on the general and administrative cost category as provided in subdivision 2 (a).

(f) The commissioner may negotiate, with a nursing home that is eligible to receive medical assistance payments, a payment rate of up to 125 percent of the allowed payment rate to be paid for a period of up to three months for individuals who have been hospitalized for more than 100 days.

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY-RELATED COSTS.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1984, property-related costs shall be reimbursed to each nursing home at the level recognized in the final rate in effect on March 1, 1983. Property-related costs include: depreciation, interest, bond amortization, earnings or investment allowance, lease, or rental payments at the level recognized in the final rate. No adjustments shall be made as a result of sales or reorganizations of provider entities. Annual per diem shall be computed by dividing total property-related costs by 93 percent of the nursing home's certified capacity days.

In subsequent years, the commissioner shall reimburse nursing home providers who are vendors in the medical assistance program for the rental use of their property. The "rent" is the amount of periodic payment which a renter might expect to pay for the right to the agreed use of the real estate and the depreciable equipment as it exists. "Real estate" means land improvements, buildings, and attached fixtures used directly for patient care. "Depreciable equipment" means resident care equipment and support service equipment generally used in long-term care facilities. The rent payment shall be deemed to include compensation for depreciation expense, interest expense, and the owner's investment.

(a) For the state fiscal year beginning July 1, 1984, the commissioner shall provide for the appraisal of all nursing homes by uniform standards, using the depreciated replacement cost method. The appraisal shall include real estate, depreciable equipment, and leased facilities and equipment. The appraised base shall be updated annually to reflect changes for asset additions, improvements, replacements, disposals, and retirements from service. New leases for facilities and equipment shall be capitalized according to generally accepted accounting principles and included in the appraised base.

The commissioners of health and public safety shall notify the commissioner of public welfare when an inspection or reinspection reveals deterioration of real estate or equipment in areas that relate to resident care, safety, or rights and that might indicate a need to reappraise the nursing home's value.

(b) The commissioner shall establish an investment per bed limitation on the value to be recognized of buildings, land improvements, and major movable equipment and shall annually update the limitation to reflect changes in replacement costs.

(c) The per diem rent shall be determined annually by taking the base market value computed in clause (a) and limited by clause (b) and multiplying it by eight percent and dividing by 96 percent of the nursing home's certified capacity days. Each year the commissioner shall apply an appropriate index to the base per diem rent computed under this clause, not to exceed three percent per year.

(d) Rent for rate years beginning July 1, 1984, shall not exceed by more than 108 percent the statewide aggregate for depreciation, interest expense, and investment allowance for the most recent reporting year. The amounts paid for rent shall not exceed the previous year's aggregate payments for property-related costs by more than eight percent. Payment made pursuant to clause (e) shall be included in the eight percent limit.

(e) Facilities that receive, on June 30, 1984, and after adjusting for rate limitations in effect prior to June 30, 1984, reimbursement for depreciation allowance, interest expenses and earnings or investment allowances in excess of the rent computed in clauses (b) and (c), shall continue to receive reimbursement for those amounts, minus retirements from depreciation schedules or reductions in actual interest expenses, until the rent exceeds the amount of those obligations. In no case, however, shall the amounts paid for earnings or investment allowances exceed the amount received by any nursing home for those allowances on March 1, 1983. In the event of a sale, payments made pursuant to clause (e) shall not be transferrable and excess depreciation paid by medical assistance shall be recaptured.

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL RATES.] A newly-constructed nursing home or one with a capacity increase of 50 percent or more may, upon written application to the commissioner, receive 110 percent of the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group under subdivision 2, paragraph (b), increased by six percent as their interim operating cost payment rate to be effective from the first day a medical assistance recipient resides in the home or for the added beds. The commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining the interim property-related cost payment rate for newly-constructed beds and payment rates for nursing homes which provide care under a lesser care level than the level for which the nursing home is certified. For newly-constructed nursing homes which are not included in the calculation of the 60th percentile for any group, subdivision 2(e), the commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining interim operating cost payment rates and interim property-related cost payment rates. The interim payment rates shall not be in effect for more than twelve months. The commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for a retroactive cost settlement after the first year of operation the cost settled operating cost per diem shall not exceed 110 percent of the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group.

THE STATE AGENCY MAY ALSO BY RULE, ESTABLISH LIMITATIONS FOR SPECIFIC COST CATEGORIES WHICH DO NOT DIRECTLY RELATE TO THE PROVISION OF PATIENT CARE. THE STATE AGENCY SHALL REIMBURSE NURSING HOMES FOR THE COSTS OF NURSING CARE IN EXCESS OF ANY STATE AGENCY LIMITS ON HOURS OF NURSING CARE IF THE COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH ISSUES A CORRECTION ORDER PURSUANT TO SECTION 144A.10, SUBDIVISION 4, DIRECTING THE NURSING HOME TO PROVIDE THE ADDITIONAL NURSING CARE. ALL COSTS DETERMINED OTHERWISE ALLOWABLE SHALL BE SUBJECT TO THESE LIMITATIONS.)

Subd. (4.) 2. [NOTICE TO RESIDENTS.] No increase in nursing home rates for private paying residents shall be effective unless the nursing home notifies the resident or person responsible for payment of the increase in writing 30 days before the increase takes effect.

A nursing home may adjust its rates without giving the notice required by this subdivision when the purpose of the rate adjustment is to (: (A)) reflect a necessary change in the level of care provided to a resident (; OR (B) RETROACTIVELY OR PROSPECTIVELY EQUALIZE PRIVATE PAY RATES WITH RATES CHARGED TO MEDICAL ASSISTANCE RECIPIENTS AS REQUIRED BY SECTION 256B.48, SUBDIVISION 1, CLAUSE (A) AND APPLICABLE FEDERAL LAW.)

(SUBD. 5. Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.48, is amended to read:

256B.48 [CONDITIONS FOR PARTICIPATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED PRACTICES.] (NO) A nursing home (SHALL BE) is not eligible to receive medical assistance payments unless it agrees in writing that it will refrain from:

(a) (CHARGING NONMEDICAL ASSISTANCE RESIDENTS RATES FOR SIMILAR SERVICES WHICH EXCEED BY MORE THAN TEN PERCENT THOSE RATES WHICH ARE APPROVED BY THE STATE AGENCY FOR MEDICAL ASSISTANCE RECIPIENTS. FOR NURSING HOMES CHARGING NONMEDICAL ASSISTANCE RESIDENTS RATES LESS THAN TEN PERCENT MORE THAN THOSE RATES WHICH ARE APPROVED BY THE STATE AGENCY FOR MEDICAL ASSISTANCE RECIPIENTS, THE MAXIMUM DIFFERENTIAL IN RATES BETWEEN NONMEDICAL ASSISTANCE RESIDENTS AND MEDICAL ASSISTANCE RECIPIENTS SHALL NOT EXCEED THAT DIFFERENTIAL WHICH WAS IN EFFECT ON APRIL 13, 1976. IF A NURSING HOME HAS EXCEEDED THIS DIFFERENTIAL SINCE APRIL 13, 1976, IT SHALL RETURN THE AMOUNT COLLECTED IN EXCESS OF THE ALLOWABLE DIFFERENTIAL STATED BY THIS SUBDIVISION TO THE NONMEDICAL ASSISTANCE RESIDENT, OR THAT PERSON'S REPRESENTATIVE, BY JULY 1, 1977. A nursing home that charges a private paying resident a rate in violation of this clause is subject to an action by the state of Minnesota or any of its subdivisions or agencies for civil damages. A private paying resident or the resident's legal representative has a cause of action for civil damages against a nursing home that charges the resident rates in violation of this clause. The damages awarded shall include three times the payments that result from the violation, together with costs and disbursements, including reasonable attorneys' fees or their equivalent. A private paying resident or the resident's legal representative, the state, subdivision or agency, or a nursing home may request a hearing to determine the allowed rate or rates at issue in the cause of action. Within 15 calendar days after receiving a request for such a hearing, the commissioner shall request assignment of a hearing examiner under sections 14.48 to 14.56 to conduct the hearing as soon as possible or according to agreement by the parties. The hearing examiner shall issue a report within 15 calendar days following the close of the hearing. The prohibition set forth in this clause shall not apply to facilities licensed as boarding care facilities which are not certified as nursing homes for reimbursement through medical assistance;

(g) Permit access by the state agency to the certified public accountant's and licensed public accountant's audit workpapers which support the audited financial statements required in clauses (a), (c), and (d).

Documents or information provided to the state agency pursuant to this subdivision shall be public. If the requirements of clauses (a) to (g) are not met, the reimbursement rate shall be reduced to 80 percent of the rate in effect on the first day of the fourth calendar month after the close of the reporting year, and the reduction shall continue until the requirements are met. This subdivision is not subject to the rulemaking requirements of section 14.

Subd. 3. [INCOMPLETE OR INACCURATE REPORTS.] The (STATE AGENCY) commissioner may reject any annual cost report filed by a nursing home pursuant to this chapter if (IT) the commissioner determines that the report or the information required in subdivision 2, clause (a) has been filed in a form that is incomplete or inaccurate. In the event that a report is rejected pursuant to this subdivision, the (STATE AGENCY MAY) commissioner shall make payments to a nursing home at (THE) its most recently allowed operating cost per diem rate (DETERMINED FOR ITS PRIOR FISCAL YEAR, OR AT AN INTERIM RATE ESTABLISHED BY THE STATE AGENCY,) until the information is completely and accurately filed.

Subd. 4. [EXTENSIONS; AMENDMENTS.] The commissioner may grant a 30-day extension of the reporting deadline to a nursing home in unusual circumstances. To receive such an extension, a nursing home shall submit a written request by December 1. The commissioner will notify the nursing home of the decision by December 15.

Sec. 13. [256B.50] [APPEALS.]

A nursing home may appeal a decision arising from the application of standards or methods pursuant to sections 256B.41, 256B.47, 256B.48, and sections 9, 10, 13, and 14, if the appeal, if successful, would result in a change to the nursing home's payment rate. An appealable decision is an operating cost determination decision. To appeal, the nursing home shall notify the commissioner of its intent to appeal within 30 days and submit a written appeal request within 60 days of receiving notice of the payment rate determination or decision. The request shall specify each disputed item, the reason for the dispute, an estimate of the dollar amount involved, and other information required by the commissioner. The appeal shall be heard by a hearing examiner according to sections 14.48 to 14.56, or upon agreement by both parties according to a modified appeals procedure established by the commissioner and the hearing examiner. Regardless of any rate appeal, the rate established shall be the rate paid and shall remain in effect until final resolution of the appeal, subsequent desk or field audit adjustment, notwithstanding any provision of law or rule to the contrary. To challenge the validity of rules established by the commissioner pursuant to sections 256B.41, 256B.47, 256B.48, and sections 9, 10, 13, and 14, a nursing home shall comply with section 14.44.

The temporary rule promulgated in accordance with this section shall not be effective 720 days after its effective date without following the procedures in sections 14.13 to 14.20.

Sec. 15. [LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION ON LONG TERM HEALTH CARE.]

Subdivision 1. A legislative study commission is created (a) to monitor the inspection and regulation activities, including rule developments, of the departments of health and public welfare with the goal of improving quality of care; (b) to study and report on alternative long-term care services, including respite care services, day care services, and hospice services; and (c) to study and report on alternatives to medical assistance funding for providing long term health care services to the citizens of Minnesota. The study commission shall consider the use of such alternatives as private insurance, private annuities, health maintenance organizations, preferred provider organizations, medicare, and such other alternatives as the commission may deem worthy of study.

Subd. 2. The commission shall consist of six members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker and six members of the senate appointed by the subcommittee on committees.

Subd. 3. The commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the governor and the legislature not later than January 1, 1985.

The commission shall have full authority to contract for expert services and opinions relevant to the purposes of this section. The commission, by a two-thirds vote of its members, may request the issuance of subpoenas, including subpoenas duces tecum, requiring the appearance of persons, production of relevant records, and giving of relevant testimony. Issuance of subpoenas shall be as provided in section 3.153.

Sec. 16. [ANCILLARY SERVICES.]

The commissioner shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules pursuant to the administrative procedures act to identify the ancillary materials and services, including therapy services, that are included in the nursing home operating cost per diem and reimbursed pursuant to sections 8 to 14. Payment for such materials and services may be made to either the nursing home in the operating cost per diem or to the vendor of ancillary services pursuant to 12 MCAR 2.047. Payment for the same or similar service to a recipient shall not be made to both the nursing home and the vendor. The commissioner shall ensure that charges for ancillary materials and services are as would be incurred by a prudent buyer.

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 256B.42; 256B.43; 256B.44; 256B.45; and 256B.46 are repealed. Section 1 is repealed effective June 30, 1986.

Sec. 18. [APPROPRIATION.]

For the biennium ending June 30, 1985, $2,646,500 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of public welfare to implement sections 3 to 9 and 17 and for the purposes of establishing an interagency board for quality assurance, phasing in the new reimbursement system, for rule-making, for contracting for professional services, for computer and data entry services and for appraisals to determine rental values. The approved complement of the department of public welfare is increased by one full-time position for the interagency board and four full-time positions.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 18 are effective the day following enactment, for establishing procedures for determining payment rates to become effective for the biennium beginning July 1, 1983, and thereafter. The amendments to section 256B.48, subdivision 1, apply to causes of action arising from charges made on or after the effective date of section 12."

“Sec. 2. [32.416] [LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [PRODUCER ASSISTANCE.] The commissioner shall administer a loan guarantee and payment adjustment program for producers to assist in financing any real property improvements required by section 1.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of sections 2 and 3, “lender” has the meaning given in section 41.52, subdivision 7, except that “lender” also includes creameries, dairy co-operatives, and other milk purchasing businesses which finance the improvements required by section 1, “commissioner” means the commissioner of agriculture, and “applicant” means a dairy farmer storing milk in cans who is required to make any real property improvements required by section 1. An applicant must have resided on a farm receiving homestead credit under section 273.13 prior to January 1, 1983. No applicant who purchases a farm after July 1, 1983, is eligible for the loan guarantee program.

Subd. 3. [LOANS.] The commissioner may guarantee loans not exceeding $2,500 in principal amount for a term not to exceed five years, for the purpose of making any real property improvements required by section 1. The guarantee shall obligate the state of Minnesota to pay the lender 90 percent of the sums due and payable in the event of default.

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBILITY, LIMITATION.] No applicant who is otherwise eligible shall receive the benefit of the loan guarantee or payment adjustment provided in this section unless it is demonstrated that credit for the same purpose is unavailable at reasonable interest rates from a commercial lender. For purposes of this subdivision, written rejection of a loan application by two lenders, as defined in subdivision 2, or the availability of a loan only at interest rates determined by rule or temporary rule pursuant to subdivision 7 to be excessive, shall be sufficient to show that credit is unavailable from commercial lenders.

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT ADJUSTMENT.] At the time of the approval of the loan guarantee, the commissioner shall provide to the lender an amount equal to 12 percent of the guaranteed loan, and the lender shall use this payment to reduce the number or size of the payments otherwise required by the terms of the loan.

Subd. 6. [SALE OF PROPERTY.] Any applicant who sells or conveys any property securing a loan guaranteed by the commissioner shall immediately retire the balance owed the lender.

Subd. 7. [RULES; ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement the loan guarantee and payment adjustment program. The rules shall include:

(a) Procedures for approving loan guarantees;

(b) Eligibility requirements for applicants which assure that approval of a loan guarantee is based on financial need and credit worthiness of the applicant; and

(c) Required loan guarantee terms which provide adequate security for recovery by the state of amounts paid to lenders on default of any guaranteed loan, and repayment of a guaranteed loan by the applicant through assignment of a portion of any payment received for milk produced by the applicant.

The rules may be adopted as temporary rules as provided in chapter 14. The rules shall be effective July 1, 1984, and shall expire on July 1, 1985. Loan guarantees and payment adjustments may be granted only from July 1, 1984, to July 1, 1985.

Sec. 3. [32.417] [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFAULTS.] The sum of all outstanding loans guaranteed by the commissioner at any time shall not exceed $2,500,000. In the event of a default on a guaranteed loan, the commissioner may submit a request to the legislative advisory commission for sufficient funds to pay the lender the amount required for the guaranteed loan.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT ADJUSTMENTS.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner the sum of $300,000 for fiscal year 1985, to pay the payment adjustment under section 2, subdivision 4.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION.]

There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture the sum of $30,800 for the year ending June 30, 1984, for administrative expenses incurred to implement the provisions of sections 1 to 3. PROTEST AND DISSENT

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 11, of the Minnesota Constitution, we herewith register our formal protest and dissent regarding the actions and conduct of the Speaker of the House, Harry Sieben, and the Majority Leader, Willis Eken, in their attempt to manipulate and deviate from the rules of the House on May 2, 1983.

The Speaker of the House, in collusion with the Majority Leader, did willfully ignore the rules of the House by calling an unannounced rules committee for the sole purpose of altering the floor schedule to avoid discussion on the issue of workers' compensation. With no prior notice to the public or to other legislators, and with no opportunity for input, a prearranged Special Orders Calendar was sent to the floor. This action and subsequent actions of the Speaker and Acting Speaker prohibited the members of the legislature from a free and open discussion of the workers' compensation issue.

The Speaker further compounded the inappropriateness of the rules committee action by ignoring the motion to lay the special orders calendar committee report on the table pursuant to House rule 1.14.

Later, State Representative Ann Wynia, charged with the temporary responsibility as presiding officer in the Minnesota House of Representatives, did on two separate occasions refuse to rule on valid points of order as is required by "Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure." She would not acknowledge the breach of order called to her attention in the first instance, which in itself, became the second breach of order which was also called to her attention. Representative Wynia's failure to rule as presiding officer is a serious contravention of established parliamentary practice and constituted further deliberate action to prevent discussion of the issue of workers' compensation.

As offended members of this legislative body, we expect that the conventions of the House of Representatives will not continue to receive abusive treatment from any individual acting as Speaker.

Through their actions, the confidence in House rules and parliamentary procedure have been jeopardized. Their deliberate attempts to circumvent the will of the majority, and their abusive conduct is a denial of each members' rights and a direct attack on the tradition of the Minnesota House of Representatives.

Those charged with leadership responsibilities must rise above their own pettiness and partisanship to restore a tradition of evenhandedness and straightforwardness by following parliamentary procedure and House rules as has been done in the past.

This right is limited where the service is not reimbursable by public or private resources.

Subd. 7. [PHYSICIAN'S IDENTITY.] Patients and residents shall have or be given, in writing, the name, business address, telephone number, and specialty, if any, of the physician responsible for coordination of their care. In cases where it is medically inadvisable, as documented by the attending physician in a patient's or resident's care record, the information shall be given to the patient's or resident's guardian or other person designated by the patient or resident as his or her representative.

Subd. 8. [RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER HEALTH SERVICES.] Patients and residents who receive services from an outside provider are entitled, upon request, to be told the identity of the provider. This information shall be in terms and language the patients or residents can reasonably be expected to understand. Patients and residents may be accompanied by a family member or other chosen representative. This information shall include the likely medical or major psychological results of the treatment and its alternatives. In cases where it is medically inadvisable, as documented by the attending physician in a patient's or resident's medical record, the information shall be given to the patient's or resident's guardian or other person designated by the patient or resident as his or her representative. Individuals have the right to refuse this information.

Subd. 10. [PARTICIPATION IN PLANNING TREATMENT.] *Patients and residents shall have the right to participate in the planning of their health care. This right includes the opportunity to discuss treatment and alternatives with individual caregivers, the opportunity to request and participate in formal care conferences, and the right to include a family member or other chosen representative. "Abuse" means any act which constitutes assault, sexual exploitation, or criminal sexual conduct as described in section 626.557, subdivision 2d, or the intentional and nontherapeutic infliction of physical pain or injury, or any persistent course of conduct intended to produce mental or emotional distress. Every patient and resident shall also be free from nontherapeutic chemical and physical restraints, except in fully documented emergencies, or as authorized in writing after examination by a patient's or resident's physician for a specified and limited period of time, and only when necessary to protect the resident from self-injury or injury to others.

Subd. 15. [TREATMENT PRIVACY.] Patients and residents shall have the right to respectfulness and privacy as it relates to their medical and personal care program. Case discussion, consultation, examination, and treatment are confidential and shall be conducted discreetly. Privacy shall be respected during toileting, bathing, and other activities of personal hygiene, except as needed for patient or resident safety or assistance.

Subd. 16. [CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS.] Patients and residents shall be assured confidential treatment of their personal and medical records, and may approve or refuse their release to any individual outside the facility. Residents shall be notified when personal records are requested by any individual outside the facility and may select someone to accompany them when the records or information are the subject of a personal interview. cluded in the facility's basic per diem or daily room rate and that other services are available at additional charges. Facilities shall make every effort to assist patients and residents in obtaining information regarding whether the medicare or medical assistance program will pay for any or all of the aforementioned services.

Subd. 18. [RESPONSIVE SERVICE.] Patients and residents shall have the right to a prompt and reasonable response to their questions and requests.

Subd. 19. Subd. 20. [GRIEVANCES.] Patients and residents shall be encouraged and assisted, throughout their stay in a facility, to understand and exercise their rights as patients, residents, and citizens. Patients and residents may voice grievances and recommend changes in policies and services to facility staff and others of their choice, free from restraint, interference, coercion, discrimination, or reprisal, including threat of discharge. Notice of the facility's grievance procedure, as well as addresses and telephone numbers for the office of health facility complaints and the area nursing home ombudsman pursuant to the Older Americans Act, section 307(a)(12) shall be posted in a conspicuous place.

[COMMUNICATION PRIVACY.] Patients and residents may associate and communicate privately with persons of their choice and enter and, except as provided by the Minnesota Commitment Act, leave the facility as they choose. Patients and residents shall have access, at their expense, to writing instruments, stationery, and postage. Personal mail shall be sent without interference and received unopened unless medically or programmatically contraindicated and documented by the physician in the medical record. There shall be access to a telephone where patients and residents can make and receive calls as well as speak privately. Facilities which are unable to provide a private area shall make reasonable arrangements to accommodate the privacy of patients' or residents' calls. This right is limited where medically inadvisable, as documented by the attending physician in a patient's or resident's care record. Subd. 22. [PERSONAL PROPERTY.] Patients and residents may retain and use their personal clothing and possessions as space permits, unless to do so would infringe upon rights of other patients or residents, and unless medically or programmatically contraindicated for documented medical, safety, or programmatic reasons. The facility must either maintain a central locked depository or provide individual locked storage areas in which residents may store their valuables for safekeeping. The facility may, but is not required to, provide compensation for or replacement of lost or stolen items.

Subd. 23. [SERVICES FOR THE FACILITY.] Patients and residents shall not perform labor or services for the facility unless those activities are included for therapeutic purposes and appropriately goal-related in their individual medical record.

Subd. 24. [CHOICE OF SUPPLIER.] A resident may purchase or rent goods or services not included in the per diem rate from a supplier of his or her choice unless otherwise provided by law. The supplier shall ensure that these purchases are sufficient to meet the medical or treatment needs of the resident.

Subd. 25. [FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.] Competent residents may manage their personal financial affairs, or shall be given at least a quarterly accounting of financial transactions on their behalf if they delegate this responsibility in accordance with the laws of Minnesota to the facility for any period of time.

Subd. 26. [RIGHT TO ASSOCIATE.] Residents may meet with visitors and participate in activities of commercial, religious, political, as defined in section 203B.11 and community groups without interference at their discretion if the activities do not infringe on the right to privacy of other residents or are not programmatically contraindicated. This includes the right to join with other individuals within and outside the facility to work for improvements in long-term care.

Subd. 27. [ADVISORY COUNCILS.] Residents and their families shall have the right to organize, maintain, and participate in resident advisory and family councils. Each facility shall provide assistance and space for meetings. Council meetings shall be afforded privacy, with staff or visitors attending only upon the council's invitation. A staff person shall be designated the responsibility of providing this assistance and responding to written requests which result from council meetings. Resident and family councils shall be encouraged to make recommendations regarding facility policies.

Subd. 28. [MARRIED RESIDENTS.] Residents, if married, shall be assured privacy for visits by their spouses and, if both spouses are residents of the facility, they shall be permitted to share a room, unless medically contraindicated and documented by their physicians in the medical records.

Subd. 29. [TRANSFERS AND DISCHARGES.] Residents shall not be arbitrarily transferred or discharged. Residents must be notified, in writing, of the proposed discharge or transfer and its justification no later than 30 days before discharge from the facility and seven days before transfer to another room within the facility. This notice shall include the resident's right to contest the proposed action, with the address and telephone number of the area nursing home ombudsman pursuant to the Older Americans Act, section 307(a)(12). The resident, informed of this right, may choose to relocate before the notice period ends. The notice period may be shortened in situations outside the facility's control, such as a determination by utilization review, the accommodation of newly-admitted residents, a change in the resident's medical or treatment program, the resident's own or another resident's welfare, or nonpayment for stay unless prohibited by the public program or programs paying for the resident's care, as documented in the medical record. Facilities shall make a reasonable effort to accommodate new residents without disrupting room assignments.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 144.652, is amended to read.

144.652 [(POLICY STATEMENT) BILL OF RIGHTS NOTICE TO PATIENT OR RESIDENT; VIOLATION.]

Subdivision 1. The issuance or nonissuance of a correction order shall not preclude, diminish, enlarge, or otherwise alter private action by or on behalf of a patient or resident to enforce any unreasonable violation of his rights. Compliance with the provisions of section 144.651 shall not be required whenever emergency conditions, as documented by the attending physician in a patient's medical record or a resident's care record, indicate immediate medical treatment, including but not limited to surgical procedures, is necessary and it is impossible or impractical to comply with the provisions of section 144.651 because delay would endanger the patient's or resident's life, health, or safety.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [NOT PUBLIC DATA.] "Not public data" means any government data which is classified by statute, federal law, or temporary classification as confidential, private, nonpublic, or protected nonpublic.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO DATA.] Upon request to a responsible authority or designee, a person shall be permitted to inspect and copy public government data at reasonable times and places, and if the person requests, he shall be informed of the data's meaning. The responsible authority or designee shall provide copies of public government data upon request. The responsible authority may require the requesting person to pay the actual costs of making, certifying and compiling the copies. If the responsible authority or designee is not able to provide copies at the time a request is made he shall supply copies as soon as reasonably possible.

When a request under this subdivision involves any person's receipt of copies of public government data which is an entire formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, process, data base, or system developed with a significant expenditure of public funds by the agency, the responsible authority may charge a reasonable fee for the information in addition to the costs of making, certifying, and compiling the copies. Any fee charged must be clearly demonstrated by the agency to relate to the actual development costs of the information. The responsible authority, upon the request of any person, shall provide sufficient documentation which explains and justifies the fee being charged.

If the responsible authority or designee determines that the requested data is classified so as to deny the requesting person access, the responsible authority or designee shall so inform the requesting person of the determination either orally at the time of the request, (AND) or in writing as soon (THEREAFTER) after that time as possible, and shall cite the (STATUTE) specific statutory section, temporary classification, or specific provision of federal law on which the determination is based. Upon the request of any person denied access to data, the responsible authority or designee shall certify in writing that the request has been denied and shall cite the specific statutory section, temporary classification or specific provision of federal law which was the basis for the denial.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CHANGE IN CLASSIFICATION OF DATA.]

The classification of data in the possession of an agency shall change if it is required to do so to comply with either judicial or administrative rules pertaining to the conduct of legal actions or with a specific statute applicable to the data in the possession of the disseminating or receiving agency.

If data on individuals can be classified as either private or confidential by any provision of this chapter, or any other statute or federal law, then the correct classification of the data shall be presumed to be private.

To the extent that government data is disseminated to state agencies, political subdivisions, or statewide systems by another state agency, political subdivision, or statewide system, the data disseminated shall have the same classification in the possession of the agency receiving it as it had in the possession of the entity providing it.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [DISCOVERABILITY OF NOT PUBLIC DATA.]

Access to data classified as not public may be sought by a party in a civil or criminal proceeding, whether administrative or judicial, by seeking discovery of the data pursuant to the appropriate rules of administrative, arbitration, civil, or criminal legal actions. The classification of data as not public shall not create a presumption that the data is not discoverable. The presiding officer shall decide whether the data is discoverable under the rules of civil, criminal, or administrative procedure appropriate to the action.

In addition, the hearing examiner, arbitrator, or judicial officer shall consider whether the benefit to the party seeking the data outweighs any harm to the confidentiality interests of the agency maintaining the data, or of any person who has provided the data or who is the subject of the data, or to the privacy interest of any individual identified in the data. The presiding officer may issue any protective orders he deems necessary to assure proper treatment of the data by the parties.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [COURT ORDERS.] Data classified as not public may be provided, pursuant to a valid court order, to a party named in a civil or criminal proceeding, whether administrative or judicial. In determining whether or not to issue an order, or in any action brought to challenge an order previously issued, the hearing examiner, arbitrator, or judicial officer shall decide whether to order the data to be released under the rules of civil, criminal, or administrative procedure appropriate to the action. In addition the presiding officer shall consider whether the benefit to the party seeking the data outweighs any harm to the confidentiality interests of the agency maintaining the data, or of any person who has provided the data or who is identified in the data, or to the privacy interest of any individual identified in the data.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [DATA TRANSFERRED TO ARCHIVES.] When government data, which is classified as not public by this chapter or any other statute, is approved by the records disposition panel established by section 138.17 for preservation in the state archives, or is physically transferred to the state archives, the data shall no longer be classified as not public and access to and use of the data shall be governed by section 138.17.

[INFORMATION REQUIRED TO BE GIVEN INDIVIDUAL.] An individual asked to supply private or confidential data concerning himself shall be informed of: (a) the purpose and intended use of the requested data within the collecting state agency, political subdivision or statewide system; (b) whether he may refuse or is legally required to supply the requested data; (c) any known consequence arising from his supplying or refusing to supply private or confidential data; and (d) the identity of other persons or entities authorized by state or federal law to receive the data. This requirement shall not apply when an individual is asked to supply investigative data, pursuant to section 13.82, subdivision 5, to a law enforcement officer.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ACCESS TO DATA BY INDIVIDUAL.] Upon request to a responsible authority, an individual shall be informed whether he is the subject of stored data on individuals, and whether it is classified as public, private or confidential. Upon his further request, an individual who is the subject of stored private or public data on individuals shall be shown the data without any charge to him and, if he desires, shall be informed of the content and meaning of that data. (AFTER AN INDIVIDUAL HAS BEEN SHOWN THE PRIVATE DATA AND INFORMED OF ITS MEANING, THE DATA NEED NOT BE DISCLOSED TO HIM FOR SIX MONTHS THEREAFTER UNLESS A DISPUTE OR ACTION PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION IS PENDING OR ADDITIONAL DATA ON THE INDIVIDUAL HAS BEEN COLLECTED OR CREATED.)

The responsible authority shall provide copies of the private or public data upon request by the individual subject of the data. The responsible authority may require the requesting person to pay the actual costs of making, certifying, and compiling the copies.

The responsible authority shall comply immediately, if possible, with any request made pursuant to this subdivision, or within five days of the date of the request, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, if immediate compliance is not possible. If he cannot comply with the request within that time, he shall so inform the individual, and may have an additional five days within which to comply with the request, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.05, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL STANDARDS FOR COLLECTION AND STORAGE.] Collection and storage of (PUBLIC, PRIVATE OR CONFIDENTIAL) all data on individuals and the use and dissemination of private and confidential data on individuals shall be limited to that necessary for the administration and management of programs specifically authorized by the legislature, local governing body or mandated by the federal government.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.05, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PREPARATION OF SUMMARY DATA.] The use of summary data derived from private or confidential data on individuals under the jurisdiction of one or more responsible authorities shall be permitted. Unless classified pursuant to section 13.06, another statute or federal law, summary data is public. The responsible authority shall prepare summary data from private or confidential data on individuals upon the request of any person, provided that the request is in writing and the cost of preparing the summary data is borne by the requesting person. The responsible authority may delegate the power to prepare summary data (1) to the administrative officer responsible for any central repository of summary data; or (2) to a person outside of its agency if the person, in writing, sets forth his purpose and agrees not to disclose, and the agency reasonably determines that the access will not compromise private or confidential data on individuals.

Sec. 11 Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.05, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [INTERGOVERNMENTAL ACCESS OF DATA.] A responsible authority shall allow another responsible authority access to data classified as not public only when the access is authorized or required by statute or federal law. An agency that supplies government data under this subdivision may require the requesting agency to pay the actual cost of supplying the data.

(DATA SHALL HAVE THE SAME CLASSIFICATION IN THE HANDS OF THE AGENCY RECEIVING IT AS IT HAD IN THE AGENCY PROVIDING IT.)

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 13.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION TO COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 13.03, the responsible authority of a state agency, political subdivision or statewide system may apply to the commissioner for permission to classify data or types of data on individuals as private or confidential, or data not on individuals as non-public or protected non-public, for its own use and for the use of other similar agencies, political subdivisions or statewide systems on a temporary basis until a proposed statute can be acted upon by the legislature. The application for temporary classification is public.

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 125.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [NONPROVISIONAL LICENSE DEFINED.] For purposes of this section, "nonprovisional license" shall mean an entrance, continuing, or life license.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 125.12, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [NEGOTIATED UNREQUESTED LEAVE OF ABSENCE.] The school board and the exclusive bargaining representative of the teachers may negotiate a plan providing for unrequested leave of absence without pay or fringe benefits for as many teachers as may be necessary because of discontinuance of position, lack of pupils, financial limitations, or merger of classes caused by consolidation of districts. Failing to successfully negotiate such a plan, the provisions of subdivision 6b shall apply. The negotiated plan shall not include provisions which would result in the exercise of seniority by a teacher holding a provisional license, other than a vocational education license, contrary to the provisions of subdivision 6b, clause (c), or the reinstatement of a teacher holding a provisional license, other than a vocational education license, contrary to the provisions of subdivision 6b, clause (e). The provisions of section 179.72 shall not apply for the purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 125.12, subdivision 6b, is amended to read:

Subd. 6b. [UNREQUESTED LEAVE OF ABSENCE.] The school board may place on unrequested leave of absence, without pay or fringe benefits, as many teachers as may be necessary because of discontinuance of position, lack of pupils, financial limitations, or merger of classes caused by consolidation of districts. The unrequested leave shall be effective at the close of the school year. In placing teachers on unrequested leave, the board shall be governed by the following provisions:

(a) The board may place probationary teachers on unrequested leave first in the inverse order of their employment. No teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights shall be placed on unrequested leave of absence while probationary teachers are retained in positions for which the teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights is licensed;

(b) Teachers who have acquired continuing contract rights shall be placed on unrequested leave of absence in fields in which they are licensed in the inverse order in which they were employed by the school district. In the case of equal seniority, the order in which teachers who have acquired continuing contract rights shall be placed on unrequested leave of absence in fields in which they are licensed shall be negotiable;

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b), no teacher shall be entitled to exercise any seniority when that exercise results in that teacher being retained by the district in a field for which the teacher holds only a provisional license, as defined by the board of teaching, unless that exercise of seniority results in the placement on unrequested leave of absence of another teacher who also holds a provisional license in the same field. The provisions of this clause shall not apply to vocational education licenses;

((C)) (d) Notwithstanding clauses (a) (AND), (b) and (c), if (EITHER) the placing of a probationary teacher on unrequested leave before a teacher who has acquired continuing rights, (OR) the placing of a teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights on unrequested leave before another teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights but who has greater seniority, or the restriction imposed by the provisions of clause (c) would place the district in violation of its affirmative action program, the district may retain the probationary teacher (OR), the teacher with less seniority, or the provisionally licensed teacher;

((D)) (e) Teachers placed on unrequested leave of absence shall be reinstated to the positions from which they have been given leaves of absence or, if not available, to other available positions in the school district in fields in which they are licensed. Reinstatement shall be in the inverse order of placement on leave of absence. No teacher shall be reinstated to a position in a field in which the teacher holds only a provisional license, other than a vocational education license, while another teacher who holds a nonprovisional license in the same field remains on unrequested leave. The order of reinstatement of teachers who have equal seniority and who are placed on unrequested leave in the same school year shall be negotiable;

((E)) (f) No appointment of a new teacher shall be made while there is available, on unrequested leave, a teacher who is properly licensed to fill such vacancy, unless the teacher fails to advise the school board within 30 days of the date of notification that a position is available to (HIM) that teacher, that he or she may return to employment and that he or she will assume the duties of the position to which appointed on a future date determined by the board;

((F)) (g) A teacher placed on unrequested leave of absence may engage in teaching or any other occupation during the period of this leave;

((G)) (h) The unrequested leave of absence shall not impair the continuing contract rights of a teacher or result in a loss of credit for previous years of service;

((H)) (i) The unrequested leave of absence of a teacher who is placed on unrequested leave of absence prior to January 1, 1978 and who is not reinstated shall continue for a period of two years after which the right to reinstatement shall terminate. The unrequested leave of absence of a teacher who is placed on unrequested leave of absence on or after January 1, 1978 and who is not reinstated shall continue for a period of five years, after which the right to reinstatement shall terminate; provided the teacher's right to reinstatement shall also terminate if he or she fails to file with the board by April 1 of any year a written statement requesting reinstatement;

((I)) (j) The same provisions applicable to terminations of probationary or continuing contracts in subdivisions 3 and 4 shall apply to placement on unrequested leave of absence;

((J)) (k) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to impair the rights of teachers placed on unrequested leave of absence to receive unemployment compensation if otherwise eligible.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 125.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WORDS, TERMS, AND PHRASES.] Unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, the following words, terms, and phrases, for the purposes of the following subdivisions in this section shall be defined as follows:

(a) [TEACHERS.] The term "teacher" includes every person regularly employed, as a principal, or to give instruction in a classroom, or to superintend or supervise classroom instruction, or as placement teacher and visiting teacher. Persons regularly employed as counselors and school librarians shall be covered by these sections as teachers if licensed as teachers or as school librarians.

(b) [SCHOOL BOARD.] The term "school board" includes a majority in membership of any and all boards or official bodies having the care, management, or control over public schools.

(c) [DEMOTE.] The word "demote" means to reduce in rank or to transfer to a lower branch of the service or to a position carrying a lower salary or compensation.

(d) [NONPROVISIONAL LICENSE.] For purposes of this section, "nonprovisional license" shall mean an entrance, continuing, or life license.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 125.17, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [SERVICES TERMINATED BY DISCONTINUANCE OR LACK OF PUPILS; PREFERENCE GIVEN.] (a) Any teacher whose services are terminated on account of discontinuance of position or lack of pupils shall receive first consideration for other positions in the district for which (SHE) that teacher is qualified. In the event it becomes necessary to discontinue one or more positions, in making such discontinuance, teachers shall be discontinued in any department in the inverse order in which they were employed.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (a), no teacher shall be entitled to exercise any seniority when that exercise results in that teacher being retained by the district in a field for which the teacher holds only a provisional license, as defined by the board of teaching, unless that exercise of seniority results in the termination of services, on account of discontinuance of position or lack of pupils, of another teacher who also holds a provisional license in the same field. The provisions of this clause shall not apply to vocational education licenses.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (a), no teacher shall be reinstated to a position in a field in which the teacher holds only a provisional license, other than a vocational education license, while another teacher who holds a nonprovisional license in the same field is available for reinstatement.

Sec. 6. Laws 1974, chapter 237, section 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 1. [INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 709; TERMINATION OF TEACHING POSITIONS.] Independent School District No. 709, St. Louis county, and the exclusive representative of teachers as defined by Minnesota Statutes, 1973 Supplement, Section 179.63, Subdivision 13, may enter into a written agreement with respect to the termination of such teachers due to discontinuance of position or lack of pupils within the school district, which may include a method, system or scheme other than that provided by Minnesota Statutes, Section 125.17, Subdivision 11, or any act amendatory thereof. The written agreement entered into pursuant to this section shall not include provisions allowing a teacher to exercise any seniority when that exercise results in the teacher being retained by the district in a field for which the teacher holds only a provisional license, as defined by the board of teaching, other than vocational education license, unless that exercise of seniority results in the termination of services, on account of discontinuance of position or lack of pupils, of another teacher who also holds a provisional license in the same field. In addition, the written agreement entered into pursuant to this section shall not include provisions allowing a teacher to be reinstated to a position in a field in which the teacher holds only a provisional license, other than a vocational education license, while another teacher who holds a nonprovisional license in the same field is available for reinstatement.

Sec. 7. [EXEMPTION FROM APPLICATION.]

The provisions of sections 1 to 6 shall not apply to any final decisions relating to placing teachers, as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 125.12, subdivision 1, on unrequested leaves of absence or, in the case of cities of the first class, termination of services of teachers, as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 125.17, subdivision 1, on account of discontinuance of position or lack of pupils made by school boards prior to the effective date of this act. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any school district that, on the effective date of this act, is governed by a contractual agreement which includes specific terms explicitly allowing the exercise of seniority rights by teachers holding provisional licenses, the results of which would be contrary to the provisions of this act, until the expiration of that contractual agreement. All contractual agreements entered into after the effective date of this act shall be consistent with this act.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act shall be effective the day after final enactment."

“Section 1. [120.801] [PURPOSE.]

The legislature recognizes that one of the principal public purposes of the state is to provide an adequate education for its citizenry. An important means of furthering this public purpose is the continuation of educational computing services provided by the Minnesota educational computing consortium, including development and distribution of computer software, training educators in the use of computers in the classroom, and negotiating purchasing arrangements for Minnesota educational institutions. The intent of sections 1 to 13 is to accomplish those public purposes.

Sec. 2. [120.802] [DEFINITIONS.]

For the purpose of sections 1 to 12 “consortium” means the Minnesota educational computing consortium originally created pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 471.59, and created as a state agency by this act.

“Minnesota educational institutions” means Minnesota school districts or combination of school districts, area vocational technical institutions, the state department of education, community colleges, state universities, and the University of Minnesota.

Sec. 3. [120.803] [TRANSFER.]

The consortium created under section 471.59 is abolished as of the date of the transfer required by this section, and the Minnesota educational computer consortium is created as an independent state agency in the executive branch as a continuation of the abolished consortium. All powers and duties formerly assigned to the consortium created under section 471.59 are transferred to the state agency created by this act. Section 15.039 governs the transfer required by this section. All employees of the consortium are transferred to the state agency.

Sec. 4. [120.804] [STATE AGENCY.]

Subdivision 1. [STAFF.] The governor shall appoint and set the salary of an executive director of the consortium, subject to the confirmation of the senate, to serve at the pleasure of the governor. The executive director may employ other staff. The person who serves as executive director of the consortium on the effective date of section 3 shall continue to serve as executive director until the governor appoints a new director.

Subd. 2. [PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT.] The executive director shall establish personnel policies and procedures, including the compensation of other staff.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION OF OTHER LAW.] The consortium is exempt from the application of chapters 14, 16, 43A, and 179. However, consortium employees may participate in the Minnesota state retirement system and the teachers' retirement system. The commissioner of administration shall provide administrative services if requested by the consortium, and the consortium shall reimburse the commissioner for services provided. The consortium shall be empowered to purchase or lease real estate necessary for the consortium's operations, but in no event shall the consortium rely upon the full faith and credit of the state of Minnesota.

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY TASK FORCE.] The governor shall appoint a six member advisory task force to advise in carrying out the responsibilities assigned by sections 5 to 8. Members shall be knowledgeable in areas related to the work of the consortium. In appointing members, the governor shall consider curriculum development specialists familiar with the use of computers in education, state department of education and school district personnel who are knowledgeable in educational computing, and users of consortium services. Membership terms, compensation, and removal of members shall be governed by section 15.059. Until advisory task force members are appointed, the current consortium board shall serve as the advisory task force.

Sec. 5. [120.805] [DUTIES OF CONSORTIUM.]

Subdivision 1. [PRODUCTS.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the consortium shall provide its services and products at cost, including overhead, to Minnesota educational institutions.

Subd. 2. [SERVICES TO OTHERS.] The consortium may provide its products and services to other than Minnesota educational institutions. To further the public purpose expressed in section 1, the consortium may establish a differential pricing policy between sales to Minnesota educational institutions and sales to others.

Sec. 6. [120.806] [POWERS.]

The consortium may:

(a) develop computer software and documentation for use by educational institutions;

(b) train educators in the use of computing;

(c) research and develop innovative uses of instructional and management computing for education; and

(d) contract with educational institutions for the development of software, documentation, and instructional and management computing services and charge for the cost of the development or services.

Sec. 7. [120.807] [MINNESOTA EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS; POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law or charter, the city council of the city of Minneapolis may, by ordinance:

(a) Establish an independent development and redevelopment agency, corporate and politic, which shall be a governmental subdivision of the state of Minnesota. The agency shall be governed by a board of commissioners. The city council, by ordinance, shall provide for the establishment of the board of commissioners, and shall state the number of commissioners, terms of office, the appointing authority of the commissioners, and other matters relating to the composition of the board and shall designate the name for the agency. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of the Minneapolis city charter, state statute, veterans preference act, or civil service rule, law, or regulation, all employees of the agency shall be selected and employed by the board of commissioners and shall not by virtue of employment by the agency be employees of the city of Minneapolis, and the terms and conditions of employment, including salary, shall be determined by the board of commissioners, subject only to limitations contained in this act. Throughout this act the term "agency" means the agency established pursuant to this clause.

The passage of the first ordinance establishing an agency, the passage of any ordinance changing the number of commissioners, the term of office of the commissioners, or the appointing authority of the commissioners, shall require affirmative votes of nine members of the city council. The vote of the city council adopting the ordinance shall be subject to mayoral veto and city council override of that veto.

(b) Establish a development and redevelopment department of the city. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of the Minneapolis city charter, statute, veterans preference act, or civil service rule, law or regulation, the ordinance creating the department may provide for a director and three assistant directors, who shall be in the unclassified service of the city of Minneapolis, and may provide for the director to appoint not more than ten employees to perform managerial duties as defined by the director, who shall be in the unclassified service of the city. The ordinance shall establish the appointing authority of the director and assistant directors, and the manner of appointment and term of office, if any, and shall provide for the terms and conditions of employment, including salary, subject only to the limitations contained within this act for all employees of the department, and shall designate the name for the department. The director shall select and appoint all employees of the department. Throughout this act the term "department" means the department established pursuant to this clause.

(c) Any time up to six months after the passage of the first ordinance implementing the provisions of this section, transfer any employee of the city of Minneapolis or the Minneapolis housing and redevelopment authority or the Minneapolis industrial development commission to the employment of the agency or the department or the Minneapolis housing and redevelopment authority or the Minneapolis industrial development commission. An assistant city coordinator of the city of Minneapolis for economic development, and his administrative assistant, may be transferred to the Minneapolis housing and redevelopment authority (AT ANY TIME UP TO 18 MONTHS) after passage of the first ordinance implementing the provisions of this section.

(ANY ASSISTANT CITY COORDINATOR TRANSFERRED TO EMPLOYMENT OF THE HOUSING AND REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY SHALL BE ENTITLED TO PURCHASE PRIOR SERVICE CREDIT FROM THE MINNEAPOLIS EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT FUND FOR ACTUAL SERVICE WITH THE MINNEAPOLIS HOUSING AND REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY FROM MAY 4, 1964 TO JUNE 4, 1975 FOR WHICH THE ASSISTANT CITY COORDINATOR HAS NOT PREVIOUSLY RECEIVED SERVICE CREDIT FROM THE MINNEAPOLIS EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT FUND. THE AMOUNT TO BE PAID FOR THE PURCHASE OF THE PRIOR SERVICE CREDIT AND THE MANNER OF PAYMENT SHALL BE AS PROVIDED IN THE FIRST PARAGRAPH OF LAWS 1981, CHAPTER 197, SECTION 2, SUBDIVISION 2 FOR PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO PURCHASE PRIOR SERVICE CREDIT BY LAWS 1981, CHAPTER 297, SECTION 2, SUBDIVISION 1. THE AUTHORITY TO MAKE A LUMP SUM PAYMENT OR TO MAKE AN AGREEMENT TO MAKE INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS SHALL EXPIRE ON JULY 1, 1983.)

An employee who is in the classified service of the city of Minneapolis whose position is being transferred pursuant to this clause, may elect to remain in the classified service and exercise the rights provided by the Minneapolis civil service commission to an employee as if the position held by the employee had been eliminated. Any employee who is transferred from employment with one employer pursuant to this clause to another employer shall retain rights and benefits accumulated including seniority, accumulated vacation and sick leave, and length of service for the purposes of calculating benefits, layoffs, seniority-rating for promotions and merit increases, emolument or rewards. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of law or city charter, any employee of the Minneapolis industrial development commission who is not in the classified service of the city of Minneapolis, and any person employed as a director or deputy director of the Minneapolis housing and redevelopment agency shall either be transferred to employment of the agency or department, or the city of Minneapolis, or shall remain an employee of the commission or authority, as determined by the city council, and the city council may transfer the person into the classified service of the city of Minneapolis and into a position for which the person is qualified as determined by the city council.

Following implementation of this act, all existing employees of the Minneapolis housing and redevelopment authority except the director and deputy directors shall either be transferred to employment of the agency or department or shall continue to be employed by the Minneapolis housing and redevelopment authority or shall be transferred to employment of the city, as determined by the city council. In the event of transfer of employment to the city of Minneapolis, the city council may transfer the person into the classified service into a position for which the employee is qualified. In any event:

(a) the employee's salary shall not be diminished as a result of implementation of this act;

(b) the employee's job responsibilities shall not be substantially diminished as a result of implementation of this act;

(c) the employee shall not be required to change residence as a result of this legislation; and

(d) the employee shall have the right to apply and be considered for positions with the agency or department on an equal basis with the other employees of the agency or department. Length of service with the Minneapolis housing redevelopment authority shall count on the same basis as length of service is counted for existing employees of the city of Minneapolis.

The director and deputy directors shall be considered employees for the purposes of clauses (c) and (d).

If a person employed as an employee of the agency or as a director or assistant director or as a managerial employee of the department or as an employee of the Minneapolis housing and redevelopment authority is, at the time of agency employment or department employment or Minneapolis housing and redevelopment authority employment, a member of the classified service of the city of Minneapolis, the employee shall be deemed to be on leave of absence during his tenure in the employment, and upon termination of service, shall be returned to his permanent civil service classification. “Sec. 12. [CLARIFICATION OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

The purpose of this section is to clarify the intent of an amendment to the human rights act adopted as Laws 1978, chapter 793, section 74. This section does not alter the meaning of that enactment. The legislature did not intend, by Laws 1978, chapter 793, section 74 to deprive a charging party under the human rights act of one remedy while preserving another remedy. A party with a charge pending in the human rights department on the effective date of Laws 1978, chapter 793, section 74 could have elected either to continue the charge for investigation by the department or, as expressly stated in Laws 1978, chapter 793, section 74, could have withdrawn the charge and filed a civil action in district court within 90 days of the withdrawal. Therefore, notwithstanding that any party's charge was filed prior to the effective date of Laws 1978, chapter 793, section 74, a party who after the effective date of the 1978 act, withdrew a charge from the department and complied with the time limits of the 1978 act for filing an action in district court, may maintain the action. The state may not raise the defense of res judicata in connection with any such action commenced before the effective date of this section."

Whereas, October 6, 1983, will mark the Three Hundredth Anniversary of German immigration to America commencing with the sail vessel Concord, and that 1983 has been declared as the "Tricentennial Anniversary Year of German Settlement in America;" and

Whereas, Minnesota, throughout its history, has greatly benefited from the presence of German Americans through their leadership in education, agriculture, government, trade, industry, religion, and all other aspects of daily life within our state; and

Whereas, much of what we perceive to be the American way of life and culture can be attributed to those values and identities which come to Minnesota with various cultures, among which are the Germans; and

Whereas, Americans of German-speaking ancestry continue to provide valuable contributions to life in Minnesota; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Minnesota, the House of Representatives concurring, that the period of September 25 to October 8, 1983, be specifically designated to honor and celebrate German immigration to Minnesota through an appreciation of German American contribution to our state. A special five-day ethnic festival called the "Germanfest for a Heritage Fulfilled" will be established to celebrate this event.

(2) In the payment of any contribution, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

(3) When the contribution rate applied to an employer's taxable payroll for any given calendar quarter results in a computed contribution of less than $1, the contribution shall be disregarded.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RATES.] Each employer (WHO IS NOT ELIGIBLE FOR AN EXPERIENCE RATIO OR WHO HAS AN EXPERIENCE RATIO OF ONE-TENTH OF ONE PERCENT OR MORE AS COMPUTED IN SUBDIVISION 6) shall pay contributions equal to two and seven-tenths percent for each calendar year prior to 1985 and 5-4/10 percent for 1985 and each subsequent calendar year of wages paid and wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment from him with respect to employment occurring during each calendar year, except as may be otherwise prescribed in subdivisions 3a and 4. For purposes of this clause, the state's three-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants under this law during the 36 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1 of each year by the total dollar amount of wages subject to contributions under this law during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

(b) Not exceeding $2\frac{7}{10}$ percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent and (2) the state's four-year benefit cost rate for the 48 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1 of each year for each employer, except employers in the construction industry, as determined by the commissioner, (PRINCIPALLY EMPLOYING LABORERS AND CONSTRUCTION TRADESMEN), who becomes subject to this law subsequent to December 31, 1983 and prior to January 1, 1985. For purposes of this clause, the state's four-year benefit cost rate shall be computed and derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants under this law during the 48 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1983 by the total dollar amount of wages subject to contributions under this law during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year 1984.

Each construction employer described above who becomes subject to chapter 268 shall pay contributions at a rate, not exceeding 7.5 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent, or (2) the state's four-year benefit cost rate for construction employers for the 48 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, 1983. For purposes of this clause, the state's four-year benefit cost rate shall be computed and derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants of construction employers, as determined by the commissioner, during the 48 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1983 by the total dollar amount of wages of construction employers subject to contributions during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year 1984.

(c) Not exceeding $(2\frac{7}{10})\ 5\frac{4}{10}$ percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent and (2) the state's five-year benefit cost rate for the 60 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, 1984 and each year thereafter for each employer, except employers in the construction industry, as determined by the commissioner (PRINCIPALLY EMPLOYING LABORERS AND CONSTRUCTION TRADESMEN), who becomes subject to this law on January 1, 1985 and thereafter. For purposes of this clause, the state's five-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants under this law during the 60 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1984 and each year thereafter by the total dollar amount of wages subject to contributions under this law during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

Each construction employer described above who becomes subject to this chapter shall pay contributions at a rate, not exceeding 7.5 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent, or (2) the state's five-year benefit cost rate for construction employers for the 60 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, 1984 and each year thereafter. For purposes of this clause, the state's five-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants of construction employers, as determined by the commissioner, during the 60 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1984 and each year thereafter by the total dollar amount of wages of construction employers subject to contributions during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS CHARGED AS AND WHEN PAID.] Benefits paid to an individual pursuant to a valid claim shall be charged against the account of his employer as and when paid, except that benefits paid to an individual who earned base period wages for part time employment shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer if the employer: (1) provided weekly base period part time employment; (2) continues to provide weekly employment equal to at least 90 percent of the part time employment provided in the base period; and (3) is an interested party because of the individual's loss of other employment. The amount of benefits so chargeable against each base period employer's account shall bear the same ratio to the total benefits paid to an individual as the base period wage credits of the individual earned from such employer bear to the total amount of base period wage credits of the individual earned from all his base period employers.

In making computations under this provision, the amount of wage credits if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the nearest multiple of $1.

Benefits shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer for unemployment that is directly caused by a major natural disaster declared by the president pursuant to section 102 (2) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5122 (2)), if the unemployed individual would have been eligible for disaster unemployment assistance with respect to that unemployment but for the individual's receipt of unemployment insurance benefits.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.06, subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [PROTEST, REVIEW, REDETERMINATION, APPEAL.] A review of the charges made to an employer's account as set forth in the notice of charges referred to in subdivision 18 and a review of an employer's contribution rate as set forth in the notice of his rate for any calendar year as provided in subdivision 19, may be had by such employer if he files with the commissioner a written protest setting forth his reasons therefore within 30 days from the date of the mailing of the notice of charges or contribution rate to him, which date shall appear on such notice. Upon receipt of such protest the commissioner shall refer the matter to an official designated by him to review the charges appearing on such notice appealed from or the computations of the protesting employer's rate, as the case may be, to determine whether or not there has been any clerical error or error in computation in either case, and he shall either affirm or make a redetermination rectifying said charges or rate as the case may be, and a notice of such affirmation or redetermination shall immediately be mailed to said employer. If the employer is not satisfied with such affirmation or redetermination, he may appeal therefrom by filing a notice thereof with the department within ten days after the date of mailing appearing upon said redetermination. Upon the receipt of such appeal the commissioner shall refer the matter to a referee for a hearing and after opportunity for a fair hearing, the referee shall affirm, modify or set aside the original determination with its affirmation or the redetermination, as appears just and proper. The commissioner may at any time upon his own motion correct any clerical error of the department resulting in charges against an employer's account or any error in the computation of an employer's contribution rate. The referee may order the consolidation of two or more appeals whenever, in his judgment, such consolidation will not be prejudicial to any interested party. At any such hearing a written report of any employee of the department which has been authenticated shall be admissible in evidence. Appeals from the decision of the referee shall be (MADE IN THE SAME MANNER) as (APPEALS FROM THE DECISION OF AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) provided by section 268.10, subdivision 5. (DECISIONS OF THE COMMISSIONER MADE UPON APPEAL FROM A DECISION OF THE REFEREE SHALL BE REVIEWED BY THE SUPREME COURT UPON CERTIORARI IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROCEDURE OUTLINED THEREFOR WITH RESPECT TO BENEFIT DECISIONS.)

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.06, subdivision 28, is amended to read:

Subd. 28. For the purpose of this subdivision, a nonprofit organization is an organization (or group of organizations) described in section 501(c) (3) of the United States internal revenue code which is exempt from income tax under section 501(a) of such code. Any nonprofit organization which, pursuant to section 268.04, subdivision 10, clause (9) is, or becomes, subject to this law on or after January 1, 1972, shall pay contributions under the provisions of section 268.06, subdivision 1, unless it elects, in accordance with this paragraph, to pay to the commissioner for the unemployment fund an amount equal to the amount of regular benefits and the state share of the extended benefits charged, that is attributable to service in the employ of such nonprofit organization, to individuals for weeks of unemployment which begin during the effective period of such election.

(a) (ANY NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION WHICH IS, OR BECOMES, SUBJECT TO THIS LAW ON JANUARY 1, 1972, MAY ELECT TO BECOME LIABLE FOR PAYMENTS IN LIEU OF CONTRIBUTIONS FOR A PERIOD OF NOT LESS THAN TWO CALENDAR YEARS BEGINNING WITH JANUARY 1, 1972; PROVIDED IT FILES WITH THE COMMISSIONER A WRITTEN NOTICE OF ITS ELECTION WITHIN THE 30 DAY PERIOD IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING SUCH DATE.)

((B)) Any nonprofit organization which becomes subject to this law after January 1, 1972, may elect to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions for a period of not less than two calendar years beginning with the date on which such subjectivity begins by filing a written notice of its election with the commissioner not later than 30 days immediately following the date of the determination of such subjectivity.

((C)) (b) Any nonprofit organization which makes an election in accordance with clause (a) or clause (b) will continue to be liable for payments in lieu of contributions until it files with the commissioner a written notice terminating its election not later than 30 days prior to the beginning of the calendar year for which such termination shall first be effective.

((D)) (c) Any nonprofit organization which has been paying contributions under this law for a period subsequent to January 1, 1972, may change to a reimbursable basis by filing with the commissioner not later than 30 days prior to the beginning of any calendar year a written notice of election to become liable for payments in lieu of contributions. Such election shall not be terminable by the organization for that and the next year.

((E)) (d) The commissioner may for good cause extend the period within which a notice of election, or a notice of termination, must be filed and may permit an election to be retroactive but not any earlier than with respect to benefits paid after December 31, 1971.

((F)) (e) The commissioner, in accordance with such regulations as he may prescribe, shall notify each nonprofit organization of any determination which he may make of its status as an employer and of the effective date of any election which it makes and of any termination of such election. Such determinations shall be final unless reviewed in accordance with the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(2) Payments in lieu of contributions shall be made at the end of each calendar quarter, or at the end of any other period as determined by the commissioner and become due on the last day of the month next following the month in which the notice of benefits charged is mailed to the employer. The commissioner shall bill each nonprofit organization (or group of such organizations) which has elected to make payments in lieu of contributions for an amount equal to the full amount of regular benefits plus one-half of the amount of extended benefits charged during such quarter or other prescribed period that is attributable to service in the employ of such organization.

(3) Past due payments of amounts in lieu of contributions shall be subject to the same interest charges and collection procedures that apply to past due contributions under sections 268.16 and 268.161.

(4) If any nonprofit organization is delinquent in making payments in lieu of contributions as required under this subdivision, the commissioner may terminate such organization's election to make payments in lieu of contributions as of the beginning of the next taxable year, and such termination shall be effective for that and the following taxable year.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.06, subdivision 29, is amended to read:

Subd. 29. [GROUP ACCOUNTS.] Two or more employers that have become liable for payments in lieu of contributions may file a joint application to the commissioner for the establishment of a group account for the purpose of sharing the cost of benefits paid that are attributable to service in the employ of such employers. Each such application shall identify and authorize a group representative to act as the group's agent for the purposes of this subdivision. Upon his approval of the application, the commissioner shall establish a group account for such employers effective as of the beginning of the calendar year in which the application is received by the commissioner and shall notify the group's representative of the effective date of the account. Such account shall remain in effect for not less than two years and thereafter until terminated at the discretion of the commissioner or upon application by the group at least 30 days prior to the end of such two year period or 30 days prior to January 1 of any calendar year subsequent to such two calendar years. (UPON ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ACCOUNT,) Each member of the group shall be jointly and severally liable for payments in lieu of contributions (IN THE AMOUNT THAT BEARS THE SAME RATIO TO THE TOTAL BENEFITS PAID THAT ARE ATTRIBUTABLE TO SERVICE PERFORMED IN THE EMPLOY OF ALL MEMBERS OF THE GROUP AS THE TOTAL WAGE CREDITS FOR SERVICE IN EMPLOYMENT BY SUCH MEMBER BEAR TO THE TOTAL DURING THE BASE PERIOD FOR SERVICE PERFORMED IN THE EMPLOY OF ALL MEMBERS OF THE GROUP) for all benefits paid based upon wage credits earned with a group member during the period the group account was in effect. The commissioner shall prescribe such regulations as he deems necessary with respect to applications for establishment, maintenance and termination of group accounts that are authorized by this subdivision, for addition of new members to, and withdrawal of active members from, such account, and for the determination of the amounts that are payable under this subdivision by members of the group and the time and manner of such payments.

Sec. 16. [268.061] [SURCHARGE; EMERGENCY INTEREST REPAYMENT FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] Each employer, except those making payments in lieu of contributions pursuant to section 268.06, subdivisions 25, 26, 27 and 28, shall pay an annual surcharge of 10 percent of contributions paid or due and payable for the calendar year of 1982 and for each calendar year thereafter. The commissioner shall notify employers of the contributions upon which the surcharge is based and the amount of surcharge payable no later than August 1, 1983, and August 1 for each taxable year thereafter. The surcharge for taxable year 1982 shall be paid no later than August 31, 1983, and by the 31st day of August each taxable year thereafter. Payments due under this subdivision are subject to the collection provisions of sections 268.16 and 268.161. The surcharges paid under this subdivision are not contributions for the purposes of section 268.06, subdivision 6. The commissioner may temporarily reduce the amount of surcharge imposed by this section when there are sufficient funds raised by the surcharge to make the interest payment required on federal funds advanced to the state under section 1202 of the Social Security Act.

Subd. 2. [EMERGENCY INTEREST REPAYMENT FUND, CREATION.] A special fund to be known as the emergency interest repayment fund is created in the state treasury. The special fund is separate and distinct from any fund or account created for any other purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24. All collections from the surcharge shall be deposited in the special fund. The special fund shall be used only to pay interest accruing on funds advanced from the federal government pursuant to section 1202 of the Social Security Act. All moneys in this fund shall be deposited, administered, and disbursed in the same manner and under the same conditions and requirements as are provided by law for the other special funds in the state treasury, except that all interest resulting from the investment or deposit of these funds shall accrue to the emergency fund for the purposes of the fund.

Subd. 3. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] On January 1, 1984, and on each January 1 thereafter the commissioner shall report to the legislature on the status of the outstanding funds advanced pursuant to section 1202 of the Social Security Act, including the interest charged on those funds. When all advanced funds and the interest charged on those funds have been repaid to the federal government, the commissioner shall recommend appropriate action by the legislature relating to the termination of the emergency interest repayment fund and the disposition of any money still in the fund.

Subd. 2. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT AND DURATION.] If the commissioner finds that an individual has earned 15, or more, credit weeks within the base period of employment in insured work with one or more employers, benefits shall be payable to such individual during his benefit year as follows:

(1) Weekly benefit amount shall be equal to 60 percent of the first $85, 40 percent of the next $85 and 50 percent of the remainder of the average weekly wage of such individual (.). The amount so computed (TO THE NEAREST) if not a whole dollar shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount. The maximum weekly benefit amount of claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to July 1, 1979 shall be 66 2/3 percent of the average weekly wage, except as provided in clause (d).

On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment.

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

The maximum weekly benefit amount as so determined computed to the nearest whole dollar shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year which begins subsequent to June 30 of each year.

(d) The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1982, and prior to July 1, 1983, shall be $184.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983, and prior to July 1, 1984, shall be $191.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1984, and prior to July 1, 1985, shall be $198.

(2) An individual's maximum amount of regular benefits payable in a benefit year shall not exceed the lesser of (a) 26 times his weekly benefit amount or (b) 70 percent of the number of credit weeks earned by such an individual computed to the nearest whole week times his weekly benefit amount.

(3) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less that part of his earnings, including holiday pay, payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $25 or $200 for earnings from service in the national guard or a United States military reserve unit. Jury duty pay is not considered as earnings and shall not be deducted from benefits paid. Such benefit, if not a (MULTIPLE OF $1.) whole dollar amount shall be (COMPUTED) rounded down to the next (HIGHER MULTIPLE OF $1) lower dollar amount.

(4) The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, (1982) 1983.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [WHEN WAGE CREDITS ARE NOT AVAILABLE.] (1) No individual may receive benefits in a benefit year unless, subsequent to the beginning of the next preceding benefit year during which (HE RECEIVED) benefits were received, (HE) the individual performed service in insured work as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 17, and earned remuneration for (SUCH) the service in an amount equal to not less than the minimum wage credits required to qualify for benefits.

(2) No employer who provided 90 percent or more of the wage credits in a claimant's base period shall be charged for benefits based upon earnings of (SUCH) the claimant during a subsequent base period unless (HE) the employer has employed (SUCH) the claimant in any part of (SUCH) the subsequent base period.

(3) Wages paid by an employing unit may not be used for benefit purposes by any individual who (a) individually or jointly with a spouse, parent or child owns or controls directly or indirectly 25 percent or more interest in the employing unit; or (b) is the spouse, parent or minor child of any individual who owns or controls directly or indirectly 25 percent or more interest in the employing unit; and (c) is not permanently separated from employment.

This clause (SHALL BE) is effective when the individual has been paid four times the individual's weekly benefit amount in the current benefit year.

((4) WAGES PAID BY AN EMPLOYING UNIT MAY NOT BE USED FOR BENEFIT PURPOSES DURING A BENEFIT YEAR COMMENCING AFTER OCTOBER 1, 1982, IF THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF WAGE CREDITS IN THE BASE PERIOD EQUAL OR EXCEED THREE TIMES THE AVERAGE ANNUAL WAGE, AS DETERMINED IN SUBDIVISION 2, IN THE SECOND YEAR PRECEDING THE CALENDAR YEAR IN WHICH THE INDIVIDUAL'S VALID CLAIM WAS ESTABLISHED.)

((5)) (4) Wages paid in seasonal employment, as defined in subdivision 2a, are not available for benefit purposes during weeks in which there is no seasonal employment available with the employer.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.071, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR EXTENDED BENEFITS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive extended benefits with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period only if the commissioner finds that with respect to such week:

(1) He is an "exhaustee" as defined in subdivision 1, clause (9);

(2) He has satisfied the requirements of this law for the receipt of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of benefits, except that an individual disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 268.09, subdivision 1, clause (6) is not eligible for extended benefits unless the individual has, subsequent to the disciplinary suspension, earned at least four times his or her weekly extended benefit amount; and

(3) He has, during his base period earned wage credits available for benefit purposes of not less than 40 times his weekly benefit amount as determined pursuant to section 268.07, subdivision 2.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week of unemployment only if the commissioner finds that the individual:

(1) (HE) has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report to an employment office, or agent of (SUCH) the office, in accordance with (SUCH REGULATIONS AS) rules the commissioner may (PRESCRIBE) adopt; except that the commissioner may by (REGULATION) rule waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this clause as to types of cases or situations with respect to which (HE) the commissioner finds that compliance with (SUCH) the requirements would be oppressive or would be inconsistent with the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24;

(2) (HE) has made a claim for benefits in accordance with (SUCH REGULATIONS) rules as the commissioner may (PRESCRIBE) adopt; and

(3) (HE) was able to work and was available for work, and was actively seeking work (, PROVIDED THAT). The individual's weekly benefit amount shall be reduced one-fifth for each day (SUCH) the individual is unable to work or is unavailable for work (; PROVIDED FURTHER THAT). Benefits shall not be denied by application of this clause to an individual who is in training with the approval of the commissioner or in training approved pursuant to section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended;

An individual (SHALL BE) is deemed unavailable for work with respect to any week which occurs in a period when (HE) the individual is a full-time student in attendance at, or on vacation from an established school, college or university unless a majority of the credit weeks earned in (HIS) the base period were for services performed during weeks in which (HE) the student was attending school as a full-time student.

An individual serving as a juror shall be considered as available for work and actively seeking work on each day the individual is on jury duty.

(4) (HE) has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week during which (HE) the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 (, PROVIDED,). However, payment for the waiting week shall be made to (SUCH) the individual after (HE) the individual has qualified for and been paid benefits for four weeks of unemployment in a benefit year which period of unemployment is terminated because of (SUCH) the individual's return to employment. No individual (SHALL BE) is required to serve a waiting period of more than one week within the one year period subsequent to filing a valid claim and commencing with the week within which (SUCH) the valid claim was filed.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which he is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of his weekly benefit amount in the form of

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, the employer may allocate such lump sum payment over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided any such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of work but not to exceed 28 calendar days; or

(2) vacation allowance paid directly by the employer for a period of requested vacation, including vacation periods assigned by the employer under the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, or uniform vacation shutdown; or

(3) compensation for loss of wages under the workers' compensation law of this state or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, or under other insurance or fund established and paid for by the employer; or

(4) 50 percent of the pension payments from any fund, annuity or insurance maintained or contributed to by a base period employer including the armed forces of the United States if the employee contributed to the fund, annuity or insurance and all of the pension payments if the employee did not contribute to the fund, annuity or insurance; or

(5) 50 percent of a primary insurance benefit under Title II of the social security act as amended, or similar old age benefits under any act of congress or this state or any other state.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration; provided, further, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the federal government finally determines that he is not entitled to such benefits, this provision shall not apply. If the computation of reduced benefits, required by this subdivision, is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [RECEIPT OF BACK PAY.] Back pay received by an individual with respect to any weeks of unemployment occurring in the 104 weeks immediately preceding the payment of the back pay shall be deducted from benefits paid for those weeks.

The amount deducted shall not reduce the benefits for which the individual is otherwise eligible for that week below zero. If the amount of benefits after the deduction of back pay is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded to the next lower dollar.

If a deduction from back pay is paid to the fund for benefits deductible under this subdivision, the payment: (a) shall be applied to benefit overpayments resulting from the payment of the back pay; (b) credited to the individual's maximum amount of benefits payable in a benefit year which includes the weeks of unemployment for which back pay was deducted; and (c) benefit charges for those weeks shall be removed from the employer's account as of the calendar quarter in which the fund receives payment.

Payments to the fund under this subdivision are made by the employer on behalf of the individual and are not voluntary contributions under section 268.06, subdivision 24.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SERVICES PERFORMED FOR STATE, MUNICIPALITIES OR CHARITABLE CORPORATION.] (EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1978) Benefits based on service in employment defined in section 268.04, subdivision 12, clauses (7),

(8) and (9), (SHALL BE) are payable in the same amount, on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as benefits payable on the basis of other service subject to this chapter; except that

(a) (WITH RESPECT TO WEEKS OF UNEMPLOYMENT AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1977.) Benefits based upon service performed in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity for an institution of higher education or a public school, or a nonpublic school or the Minnesota school for the deaf or Minnesota braille and sight saving school, or in a public or nonpublic school for an educational cooperative service unit established under section 123.58, or any other educational service agency as defined in section 3304 (a) (6) (A) (IV) of the federal unemployment tax act, shall not be paid for any week of unemployment commencing during the period between two successive academic years or terms, or during a similar period between two regular but not successive terms, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, to any individual if the individual performs the services in the first of the academic years or terms and if there is a contract or a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform services in any such capacity for any institution of higher education, public school, nonpublic school, state deaf and sight saving schools, an educational cooperative service unit, or other educational service agency, (OR DEVELOPMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT CENTER) in the second of the academic years or terms, and

(b) With respect to service performed (AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1977) in any capacity (,) other than those capacities described in clause (a) of this subdivision, for an institution of higher education, or a public school or nonpublic school, or the Minnesota school for the deaf or Minnesota braille and sight saving school, or in a public or nonpublic school or for an educational cooperative service unit established under section 123.58, or any other educational service agency as defined in section 3304 (a) (6) (A) (IV) of the federal unemployment tax act, benefits shall not be paid on the basis of these services to any individual for any week which commences during a period between two successive academic years or terms if the individual performs the services in the first of the academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform the services in the second of the academic years or terms (,). If benefits are denied to any individual under this clause and the individual was not offered an opportunity to perform the services in the second of the academic years or term, the individual shall be entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits for each week in which the individual filed a timely claim for benefits, but the claim was denied solely because of this clause; and shall not be paid to any individual for any week which commences during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if the individual performs the services in the period immediately before the vacation period or holiday recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual will perform the services in the period immediately following the vacation period or holiday recess.

(c) With respect to (ANY) services described in (CLAUSE) clauses (a) or (b), benefits payable on the basis of the services

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [SERVICES FOR CERTAIN CONTRACTORS.] Benefits based upon services performed for an employer are subject to subdivision 6, clauses (b) and (c) if:

(a) the employment was provided pursuant to a contract between the employer and a public or private school;

(b) the contract was for services which the public or private school could have had performed by its employees;

(c) the employment was not as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 12, clauses (7), (8), and (9); and

(d) the individual is notified in writing of the provisions of this subdivision while employed in 1983 or prior to or at the time of commencing the employment.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual separated from employment under clauses (1), (2), (AND), or (3) shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. For separations under clauses (1) and (2), the disqualification shall continue until 4 calendar weeks have elapsed following his separation and (HE) the individual has earned four times his weekly benefit amount in insured work.

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued his employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of its temporary nature or for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment or based solely on a provision in a collective bargaining agreement by which an individual has vested discretionary authority in another to act in behalf of the individual shall not be deemed voluntary.

A separation shall be for good cause attributable to the employer if it occurs as a consequence of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when: (1) the employee's submission to such conduct or communication is made a term or condition of the employment, (2) the employee's submission to or rejection of such conduct or communication is the basis for decisions affecting employment, or (3) such conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment and the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with his work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

(a) The individual voluntarily discontinued his employment to accept work offering substantially better conditions of work or substantially higher wages or both;

(b) The individual is separated from employment due to his own serious illness provided that such individual has made reasonable efforts to retain his employment;

An individual who is separated from his employment due to his illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which he has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment he knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain his employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in his location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues his employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because he had reached mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older;

(e) The individual is terminated by his employer because he gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which he receives his normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than his weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178;

(g) The individual voluntarily leaves part-time employment with a base period employer while continuing full-time employment if the individual attempted to return to part-time employment after being separated from the full-time employment, and if substantially the same part-time employment with the base period employer was not available for the individual.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment (AND PROVIDED FURTHER THAT). For a separation under this clause, the commissioner (IS EMPOWERED TO) shall impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and (TO) cancel (PART OR) all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom he was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" (SHALL BE) is defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property (OR THE THEFT OF MONEY OR PROPERTY OF A VALUE OF $100 OR MORE) or arson or sabotage or embezzlement or any other act, including theft, the commission of which amounts to a felony or gross misdemeanor. For an employee of a health care facility, gross misconduct also includes misconduct involving an act of patient or resident abuse as defined in section 626.557, subdivision 2, clause (d).

If an individual is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor for the same act or acts of misconduct for which the individual was discharged, the misconduct is conclusively presumed to be gross misconduct if it was connected with his work.

(4) [LIMITED OR NO CHARGE OF BENEFITS.] Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's separation under any of the foregoing clauses, excepting clauses (2) (c) and (2) (e), shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer from whose employment such individual separated.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment he failed to accept or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from his residence, the individual's own serious illness or his other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after his separation from employment with the employer.

(6) [DISCIPLINARY SUSPENSIONS.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits for the duration of any disciplinary suspension of 30 days or less resulting from his own misconduct. Disciplinary suspensions of more than 30 days shall constitute a discharge from employment.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.09, subdivision 2. is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO APPLY FOR OR ACCEPT SUITABLE WORK OR RE-EMPLOYMENT.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits during the week of occurrence and until four calendar weeks have elapsed following his refusal or failure and he has earned four times his weekly benefit amount in insured work if the commissioner finds that he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work of which he was advised by the employment office, or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the commissioner, or to accept (SUITABLE) a base period employer's offer of re-employment (OFFERED BY A BASE PERIOD EMPLOYER) offering substantially the same or better hourly wages and conditions of work as were previously provided by that employer in his base period.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience, his length of unemployment and prospects of securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of section 268.03 to 268.24, no work shall be deemed suitable, and benefits shall not be denied thereunder to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization;

(4) if the individual is in training with the approval of the commissioner.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an (INTERESTED PARTY) employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages (WHILE EMPLOYED BY THE INTERESTED PARTY, THE) earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (THE AMOUNT DERIVED BY DIVIDING THE TOTAL BASE PERIOD WAGES EARNED IN ALL CREDIT WEEKS BY THE NUMBER OF BASE PERIOD CREDIT WEEKS COMPUTED TO THE NEAREST WHOLE DOLLAR OR THE AMOUNT AS COMPUTED UNDER SECTION 268.07) (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07, or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks. If within the time specified for the filing of wage and separation information as provided in subdivision 1, clause (2), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to his account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an appeal tribunal decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause

(6), if an appeal tribunal decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an appeal decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or appeal tribunal decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within (15) 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the regulations of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within (15) 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on his own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof if he finds that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may in his discretion refer any disputed claims directly to (THE APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal from an initial determination.

(6) If (AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPEAL; HEARING.] Unless (SUCH) an appeal is withdrawn, the date for hearing before (AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee shall be set and notice of (SUCH) the hearing shall be mailed to the last known address of all interested parties at least ten days prior to the date set for (SUCH) the hearing. Subd. 2. [APPLICATION FOR TERMINATION OF COVERAGE.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 3, any employing unit shall cease to be an employer subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 as of the last day of the calendar quarter in which the employing unit files with the commissioner a written application for termination of coverage, if the commissioner finds the employment in the preceding calendar year and during the current calendar year, up to the last day of the calendar quarter in which the application was received, was not sufficient to make the employing unit liable under the provisions of section 268.04, subdivision 10. For the purpose of this subdivision the two or more employing units mentioned in section 268.04, subdivision 10, clause (2), (3), ((4), OR) (5), or (6), shall be treated as a single employing unit.

The commissioner shall waive the requirement for an application for termination of coverage whenever it shall appear that the employer was unable to comply with such requirement for the reason that, at the time when he had qualified for release from liability under the provisions of this chapter, he was in good faith not aware of the fact that he was an employer subject to the provisions of this chapter.

The commissioner at the commissioner's discretion may on his or her own motion terminate the coverage of any employer who no longer meets the definition of employer under section 268.04, subdivision 10.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.11, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ELECTION AGREEMENTS; TERMINATION POWERS OF COMMISSIONER.] (1) An employing unit, not otherwise subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 as an employer, which files with the commissioner its written election to become an employer subject thereto for not less than two calendar years, shall, with the written approval of such election by the commissioner, become an employer subject hereto to the same extent as all other employers, as of the date stated in such approval and cease to be subject hereto as of the first day of January of any calendar year subsequent to such two calendar years, only, if at least 30 days prior to such first day of January, it has filed with the commissioner a written notice to that effect;

(2) Any employing unit for which services that do not constitute employment are performed, may file with the commissioner a written election that all such service performed by individuals in its employ in one or more distinct establishments or places of business shall be deemed to constitute employment for all the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 for not less than two calendar years. Upon the written approval of such election by the commissioner, such services shall be deemed to constitute employment subject to these sections from and after the date stated in such approval. Such services shall cease to be deemed employment subject hereto as of the first day of January of any calendar year subsequent to such two calendar years only if at least 30 days prior to such first day of January such employing unit has filed with the commissioner a written notice to that effect.

(3) The commissioner (IN HIS DISCRETION MAY ON HIS OWN MOTION) must terminate any election agreement under this subdivision upon 30 days notice to the employer, (AND HE MAY ALSO IN HIS DISCRETION AND ON HIS OWN MOTION TERMINATE THE COVERAGE OF ANY EMPLOYER WHO HAS HAD LESS THAN 20 WEEKS OF EMPLOYMENT IN A CALENDAR YEAR) if the employer fails to pay all contributions due under section 268.06, subdivision 1, or reimburse the unemployment fund in accordance with section 268.06, subdivisions 25, 26, 27, and 28.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.12, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECORDS; REPORTS.] (1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records for such periods of time and containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection, audit, and verification, and be subject to being copied by any authorized representative of the commissioner at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner, appeal referee, (CHAIRMAN OF AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL,) or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner, may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, which the commissioner, appeal referee, (CHAIRMAN OF AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL,) or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner deems necessary for the effective administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, provided that quarterly contribution and wage report forms shall (BE MADE TO CORRESPOND WHEREVER POSSIBLE WITH THE REPORTS REQUIRED FROM EMPLOYERS UNDER THE FEDERAL INSURANCE CONTRIBUTIONS ACT, SO THAT SUCH STATE FORMS MAY BE PREPARED AS DUPLICATES OF SUCH FEDERAL FORMS, EXCEPT THAT NO EMPLOYER SHALL BE PERMITTED TO SUBMIT A DUPLICATE REPORT WHICH IS NOT THOROUGHLY LEGIBLE) include the employee's name, social security number, and total wages paid to the employee.

(2) The commissioner may cause to be made such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications, or reproductions of any records, reports, or transcripts thereof as he may deem advisable for the effective and economical preservation of the information contained therein, and such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications or reproductions, duly authenticated, shall be admissible in any proceeding under sections 268.03 to 268.24, if the original record or records would have been admissible therein. Notwithstanding any restrictions contained in section 16.02, except restrictions as to quantity, the commissioner is hereby authorized to duplicate, on equipment furnished by the federal government or purchased with funds furnished for that purpose by the federal government, records, reports, summaries, compilations, instructions, determinations, or any other written matter pertaining to the administration of the Minnesota Employment Services Law.

(3) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions elsewhere, the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any records, reports, transcripts, or reproductions thereof, or other papers in his custody, which are more than two years old, the preservation of which is no longer necessary for the establishment of contribution liability or benefit rights or for any purpose necessary to the proper administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, including any required audit thereof, provided, that the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any record, report, or transcript, or other paper in his custody which has been photographed, duplicated, or reproduced in the manner provided in clause (2).

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Minnesota State Archives Act the commissioner shall with the approval of the legislative auditor destroy all benefit checks and benefit check authorization cards that are more than two years old and no person shall make any demand, bring any suit or other proceeding to recover from the state of Minnesota any sum alleged to be due him on any claim for benefits after the expiration of two years from the date of filing such claim.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.12, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [TESTIMONIAL POWERS.] (1) In the discharge of the duties imposed by sections 268.03 to 268.24, the commissioner, (THE CHAIRMAN OF THE APPEAL TRIBUNAL,) appeal referee, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with a disputed claim or the administration of these sections;

(2) Witnesses, other than interested parties or officers and employees of an employing unit which is an interested party, subpoenaed pursuant to this subdivision or sections 268.03 to 268.24, shall be allowed fees (AT A FIXED RATE PRESCRIBED BY REGULATION BY THE COMMISSIONER) the same as witness fees in civil actions in district court, which fees need not be paid in advance of the time of giving of testimony, and such fees of witnesses so subpoenaed shall be deemed part of the expense of administering these sections;

(3) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey, a subpoena issued to any person, any court of this state within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which such person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the commissioner, (CHAIRMAN OF AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL,) or referee, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commissioner, the chairman of an appeal tribunal, referee, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, there to produce evidence if so ordered or there to give testimony relative to the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.16, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REPORTS; DELINQUENCIES; PENALTIES.]

(1) Any employer who knowingly fails to make and submit to the department of economic security any report of wages paid by or due from him for insured work in the manner and at the time such report is required by regulations prescribed by the commissioner shall pay to the department of economic security for the contingent account a penalty in the amount of one and one-half percent of contributions accrued during the period for which such report is required, for each month from and after such date until such report is properly made and submitted to the department of economic security. In no case shall the amount of the penalty imposed hereby be less than $5 per month. The maximum penalty imposed hereby shall be $25 or the amount determined at the rate of one and one-half percent per month, whichever is greater. Any employing unit which fails to make and submit to the commissioner any report, other than one of wages paid or payable for insured work, as and when required by the regulations of the commissioner, shall be subject to a penalty in the sum of $10 payable to the department of economic security for the contingent account. All such penalties shall be in addition to interest and any other penalties provided for by sections 268.03 to 268.24 and shall be collected (BY CIVIL ACTION AS HEREINAFTER PROVIDED) as provided by section 268.161.

(2) If any employing unit required by sections 268.03 to 268.24 to make and submit contribution reports shall fail to do so within the time prescribed by these sections or by regulations under the authority thereof, or shall make, wilfully or otherwise, an incorrect, false or fraudulent contribution report, he shall, on the written demand of the commissioner, make such contribution report, or corrected report, within ten days after the mailing of such written demand and at the same time pay the whole contribution, or additional contribution, due on the basis thereof. If such employer shall fail within that time to make such report, or corrected report, the commissioner shall make for him a report, or corrected report, from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony, or otherwise, and assess a contribution on the basis thereof, which contribution, plus penalties and interest which thereafter accrued (less any payments theretofore made) shall be paid within ten days after the commissioner has mailed to such employer a written notice of the amount thereof and demand for its payment. Any such contribution report or assessment made by the commissioner on account of the failure of the employer to make a report or corrected report shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the employer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto. Whenever such delinquent employer shall file a report or corrected report, the commissioner may, if he finds it substantially correct, substitute it for the commissioner's report. (IF AN EMPLOYER HAS FAILED TO SUBMIT ANY REPORT OF WAGES PAID, OR HAS FILED AN INCORRECT REPORT, AND THE COMMISSIONER FINDS THAT SUCH NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE TERMS OF SECTIONS 268.03 TO 268.24 WAS NOT WILFUL AND THAT SUCH EMPLOYER WAS FREE FROM FRAUDULENT INTENT, THE COMMISSIONER SHALL LIMIT THE CHARGE AGAINST SUCH EMPLOYER TO THE PERIOD OF THE YEAR IN WHICH SUCH CONDITION HAS BEEN FOUND TO EXIST AND FOR THE PRECEDING CALENDAR YEAR.)

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.161, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIEN.] Any contributions or reimbursements due under sections 268.03 to 268.24 and interest and penalties imposed with respect thereto, shall become a lien upon all the property, (BOTH REAL AND PERSONAL, OF THE PERSON LIABLE THEREFOR,) within this state, both real and personal, of the person liable therefor, except his homestead, from and after the filing by the commissioner of a notice of lien in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the property is situated, or in the case of personal property belonging to an individual who is not a resident of this state, or which is a corporation, partnership, or other organization, in the office of the secretary of state.

The lien created under this section shall become effective with respect to personal property from and after the date of filing by the commissioner of a notice of the lien describing the property to which the lien attaches in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the commissioner believes the property is located at the time the lien is filed, and with the secretary of state.

The lien imposed on personal property by this section, even though properly filed, shall not be valid as against a purchaser with respect to tangible personal property purchased at retail or as against the personal property listed as exempt in sections 550.37, 550.38 and 550.39.

The lien imposed by this section shall be enforceable by levy as authorized in subdivision 8 or by judgment lien foreclosure as authorized in chapter 550.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.161, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION BY CIVIL ACTION.] (1) In addition to all other collection methods authorized, if, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest due thereon or penalties for failure to file returns and other reports as required by sections 268.03 to 268.24 or by any rule of the commissioner, the amount due (SHALL) may be collected by civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota, and any money recovered shall be credited to the funds provided for under those sections. Any employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of the action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions, interest due thereon, or penalties from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date. No action for the collection of contributions or interest thereon shall be commenced more than (FOUR) six years after the contributions have been reported by the employer or determined by the commissioner to be due and payable. In any action, judgment shall be entered against any defendant in default for the relief demanded in the complaint without proof, together with costs and disbursements, upon the filing of an affidavit of default.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state, and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any civil action under this subdivision. In instituting an action against any employing unit, the commissioner shall cause process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state, together with a payment of a fee of $15 and that service shall be sufficient service upon the employing unit, and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state. The commissioner shall forthwith send notice of the service of process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the employing unit at its last known address. The return receipt, the commissioner's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which the civil action is pending.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.161, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RIGHT OF SETOFF.] Upon certification by the commissioner to the commissioner of finance or to any state agency which disburses its own funds, that an employer has an uncontested delinquent contribution or reimbursement liability owed to the department, and that the state has purchased personal services, supplies, contract services, or property from said employer, the commissioner of finance or the state agency shall apply to the delinquent contribution or reimbursement liability funds sufficient to satisfy the unpaid liability from funds appropriated for payment of said obligation of the state or any of its agencies that are due and owing the employer. The credit shall not be made against any funds exempt under section 550.37 or those funds owed (THE) an individual employer who receives assistance under chapter 256 (OR 256B).

All funds, whether general or dedicated, shall be subject to setoff in the manner provided in this subdivision. Transfer of funds in payment of the obligations of the state or any of its agencies to an employer and any actions for the funds shall be had against the commissioner on the issue of the contribution or reimbursement liability. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the previously existing right of the state or any of its agencies to setoff.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.161, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT.] (a) Any contribution report or form that is required to be filed with the commissioner concerning contributions or reimbursements due, shall contain a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of section 268.18, subdivision 3 for wilfully making a false report and shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the contribution or reimbursement shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid together with any interest and penalty due under this chapter.

(b) The commissioner may, within (FOUR) six years after a report or form is filed, notwithstanding section 541.09, enter judgment on any confession of judgment contained in the contribution report or form after 20 days notice served upon the employer by mail at the address shown in the employer's report. The judgment shall be entered by the clerk of court of any county upon the filing of a photocopy or similar reproduction of that part of the contribution report or form containing the confession of judgment along with a statement of the commissioner or his agent that the contribution or reimbursement has not been paid.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.161, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [LEVY.] (a) If any contribution or reimbursement payable to the department is not paid when due, the amount may be collected by the commissioner, his duly authorized representative, or by the sheriff of any county to whom the commissioner has issued his warrant, who may levy upon all property and rights of property of the person liable for the contribution or reimbursement, (except that which is exempt from execution pursuant to section 550.37), or property on which there is a lien provided by subdivision 1 of this section. The terms "contribution or reimbursement" shall include any penalty, interest, and costs. The term "levy" includes the power of distraint and seizure by any means. Before a levy is made or warrant issued, notice and demand for payment of the amount due shall be given to the person liable for the contribution or reimbursement at least ten days prior to the levy or issuing of a warrant.

(b) Upon the commissioner issuing a warrant, the sheriff shall proceed within 60 days to levy upon the rights to property of the employer within his county, except the homestead and household goods of the employer and property of the employer not liable to attachment, garnishment, or sale on any final process issued from any court under the provisions of section 550.37, and shall sell so much thereof as is required to satisfy the contribution, reimbursement, interest, and penalties, together with his costs. The sales shall, as to their manner, be governed by the law applicable to sales of like property on execution issued against property upon a judgment of a court of record. The proceeds of the sales, less the sheriff's costs, shall be turned over to the commissioner, who shall retain a part thereof as is required to satisfy the contribution, reimbursement, interest, penalties, and costs, and pay over any balance to the employer.

(c) If the commissioner has reason to believe that collection of the contribution or reimbursement is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of the amount may be made by the commissioner. If the contribution or reimbursement is not paid, the commissioner may proceed to collect by levy or issue his warrant without regard to the ten day period provided herein.

(d) In making the execution of the levy and in collecting the contribution or reimbursement due, the commissioner shall have all of the powers provided in chapter 550 and in any other law for purposes of effecting an execution against property in this state. The sale of property levied upon and the time and manner of redemption therefrom shall be as provided in chapter 550. The seal of the court, subscribed by the clerk, as provided in section 550.04, shall not be required. The levy for collection of contributions or reimbursements may be made whether or not the commissioner has commenced a legal action for collection of the amount.

(e) Where a jeopardy assessment or any other assessment has been made by the commissioner, the property seized for collection of the contribution or reimbursement shall not be sold until any determination of liability, rate or benefit charges has become final. No sale shall be made unless the contribution or reimbursement remain unpaid for a period of more than 30 days after the determination becomes final. Seized property may be sold at any time if:

(1) the employer consents in writing to the sale; or

(2) the commissioner determines that the property is perishable or may become greatly reduced in price or value by keeping, or that the property cannot be kept without great expense.

(f) Where a levy has been made to collect contributions or reimbursements pursuant to this subdivision and the property seized is properly included in a formal proceeding commenced under sections 524.3-401 to 524.3-505 and maintained under full supervision of the court, the property shall not be sold until the probate proceedings are completed or until the court so orders.

(g) The property seized shall be returned by the commissioner if the owner gives a surety bond equal to the appraised value of his interest in the property, as determined by the commissioner, or deposits with the commissioner security in a form and amount as he deems necessary to insure payment of the liability, but not more than twice the liability.

(h) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, if a levy or sale pursuant to this section would irreparably injure rights in property which the court determines to be superior to rights of the state in the property, the district court may grant an injunction to prohibit the enforcement of the levy or to prohibit the sale.

(i) Any person who fails or refuses to surrender without reasonable cause any property or rights to property subject to levy upon demand by the commissioner shall be personally liable to the department in an amount equal to the value of the property or rights not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of contribution or reimbursement for the collection of which the levy has been made. Any amount recovered under this subdivision shall be credited against the contribution or reimbursement liability for the collection of which the levy was made. The term "person" includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership who, as an officer, employee, or member is under a duty to surrender the property or rights to property or to discharge the obligation.

(j) Any action taken by the commissioner pursuant to this subdivision shall not constitute an election by the department to pursue a remedy to the exclusion of any other remedy.

(k) After the commissioner has seized the property of any person, that person may, upon giving 48 hours notice to the commissioner and to the court, bring a claim for equitable relief before the district court for the release of the property to the employer upon terms and conditions as the court may deem equitable.

(l) Any person in possession of (or obligated with respect to) property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made who, upon demand by the commissioner, surrenders the property or rights to property or who pays a liability under this subdivision shall be discharged from any obligation or liability to the person liable for the payment of the delinquent contribution or reimbursement with respect to the property or rights to property so surrendered or paid.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, the notice of any levy authorized by this section may be served by certified or registered mail or by delivery by an employee or agent of the department of economic security.

(n) It shall be lawful for the commissioner to release the levy upon all or part of the property or rights to property levied upon if the commissioner determines that the release will facilitate the collection of the liability, but the release shall not operate to prevent any subsequent levy. If the commissioner determines that property has been wrongfully levied upon, it shall be lawful for the commissioner to return:

(1) the specific property levied upon, at any time; or

(2) an amount of money equal to the amount of money levied upon, at any time before the expiration of nine months from the date of levy.

(o) A levy by the commissioner made pursuant to the provisions of this section upon an employer's funds on deposit in a financial institution located in this state, shall have priority over any unexercised right of setoff of the financial institution to apply the levied funds toward the balance of an outstanding loan or loans owed by the employer to the financial institution. A claim by the financial institution that it exercised its right to setoff prior to the levy by the commissioner must be substantiated by evidence of the date of the setoff, and shall be verified by the sworn statement of a responsible corporate officer of the financial institution. Furthermore, for purposes of determining the priority of any levy made under this section, the levy shall be treated as if it were an execution made pursuant to chapter 550.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS.] Any claimant for benefits who, by reason of his own mistake or through the error of any individual engaged in the administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or because of a determination or redetermination issued pursuant to section 268.10, subdivision 2, has received any sum as benefits to which he was not entitled under these sections, shall promptly return such benefits in cash to the nearest office of the Minnesota department of economic security. If such claimant fails to return such benefits, the department of economic security shall, as soon as it discovers such erroneous payment, determine the amount thereof and notify said individual to return the same. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant files an appeal with the department in writing within the time aforesaid the matter shall be set for hearing before (AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee of the department and heard as other benefit matters are heard in accordance with section 268.10 with the same rights of review as outlined for benefit cases in that section. The commissioner of the department of economic security is hereby authorized to deduct from any future benefits payable to the claimant under these sections in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable under its law to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. Benefits paid for weeks more than three years prior to the discovery of error are not erroneous payments.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FRAUD.] Any claimant who files a claim for or receives benefits by knowingly and wilfully misrepresenting or misstating any material fact or by knowingly and wilfully failing to disclose any material fact which would make him ineligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 is guilty of fraud. After the discovery of facts by the commissioner indicating fraud in claiming or obtaining benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he is hereby authorized to make a determination that the claimant was ineligible for each week with reference to which benefits were claimed or obtained by fraud for the amount as was in excess of what the claimant would have been entitled to had he not made the fraudulent statements or failed to disclose any material facts. The commissioner also may disqualify an individual from benefits for one to 52 weeks in which the claimant is otherwise eligible for benefits following the week in which the fraud was determined. A disqualification imposed for fraud shall not be removed by subsequent insured work or the expiration of a benefit year but shall not apply to any week more than 104 weeks after the week in which the fraud was determined. (SAID) The claimant shall (WITHIN 20 DAYS FROM THE DATE OF MAILING THE NOTICE OF SAID DETERMINATION TO HIM) promptly repay in cash to the department of economic security any benefits (SO) fraudulently obtained. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. The determination shall become final. If the claimant (SHALL APPEAL) appeals from (SUCH) the determination within the time above specified (SAID) the matter shall be referred to (AN APPEAL TRIBUNAL) a referee for a hearing as in other benefit cases and thereafter the procedure for review shall be the same as set forth in section 268.10. The commissioner is hereby authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. A determination of fraud may be made at any time.

Sec. 46. [PERSONNEL NAME CHANGE.]

Those individuals serving as salaried examiners of an appeal tribunal shall be referees as of the effective date of section 29 without change in the terms and conditions of their employment. They have the same authority to decide matters pending before them as did an appeal tribunal chairman.

Sec. 47. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.06, subdivision 32 is repealed.

Sec. 48. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 19 is effective retroactively to July 4, 1982. Section 18 is effective retroactively to October 1, 1982. Any wage credits disallowed for benefit purposes due to the operation of the stricken clause (4) shall be reinstated and eligibility for regular benefits shall be extended from October 1, 1982, until the claimant is reemployed or the final approval of this act whichever is earlier. Page 39, after line 16, insert:

"Section 25. [268.073] [SHARED UNEMPLOYMENT PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [QUALIFIED PLANS.] Notwithstanding any other law, for the purposes of this section an individual is "unemployed" in any week if: (a) the individual works less than his or her normal weekly hours of work for the individual's regular employer; and (b) the regular employer has reduced or restricted the individual's normal hours of work or has rehired an individual previously laid off and reduced that individual's normal hours of work from those previously worked, as the result of a plan by the regular employer. Normal weekly hours of work means the number of hours in a week that the employee normally would work for the regular employer or 40 hours, whichever is less. The plan of the employer must, in lieu of lay-off, reduce employment and stabilize the work force by a program of sharing work after a reduction in total hours of work and wages of at least ten percent has occurred. The plan must involve the participation of at least two employees and include not less than ten percent of the employer's regular permanent work force involved in the affected work unit or units in each week, or in at least one week of a two-consecutive-week period. A plan must be approved by the commissioner before an employee may receive benefits under this section. A plan approved by the commissioner shall expire six months after the effective date of the plan. A new plan shall not be approved during the 26-week period beginning with the expiration of a previously approved plan except when the previous plan expires during any quarter in which the average seasonally adjusted civilian unemployment rate in this state during the first three of the four months immediately preceding the beginning of the calendar quarter equals or exceeds five percent.

Subd. 2. [BENEFIT AMOUNT.] Except as otherwise provided in this section, each individual eligible under this section who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to that week a weekly shared work unemployment compensation benefit amount equal to the percentage of reduction of the individual's wages resulting from an approved plan, rounded to the nearest five percent, multiplied by the individual's weekly benefit amount which would be payable if the individual was unemployed and this section did not apply.

The benefit payment, if not a multiple of $1, shall be increased to the next higher multiple of $1.

Subd. 3. [BENEFIT EXCLUDES OTHER PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT.] An individual who receives benefits under this section during any benefit year shall not receive any other unemployment benefits pursuant to chapter 268 as a partially unemployed individual with respect to any week during that benefit year while in employment status with the regular employer who initiated the program of sharing work under this section. No benefits under this section shall be payable on any type of extended claim.

Subd. 4. [BENEFIT OFFSETS.] Any amount payable under this section shall be reduced by the amount of compensation payable to the individual for personal services whether performed as an employee, an independent contractor, as a juror, or as a witness, except compensation payable by the regular employer under a shared work plan.

Subd. 5. [CERTAIN BENEFIT QUALIFICATIONS REQUIREMENTS EXCLUDED.] For the purposes of this section an individual is able to work and is available for work if:

(1) The individual has not been absent from work without the approval of the regular employer; and

(2) The individual accepted all work the regular employer made available to the individual during hours scheduled off due to the worksharing plan.

Subd. 6. [APPLICATION OF RULES AND STATUTES.] Except as otherwise provided by or inconsistent with this section, all provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 and rules adopted pursuant to those sections apply to benefits under this section. Rules may, to the extent permitted by federal law, make distinctions and requirements necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, including rules defining normal hours, days, workweek, and wages.

Subd. 7. [WRITTEN ACCEPTANCE OF PLAN.] Employees shall not be eligible to receive any benefits under this section unless their employer agrees, in writing, to voluntarily participate in the shared work unemployment insurance benefit program created by this section.

Subd. 8. [TERMINATION OF PLAN.] The commissioner may terminate a shared work plan for good cause if the plan is not being carried out according to its terms and intent.

Subd. 9. [CONTRIBUTIONS, CREATION OF SHARED WORK UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT FUND.] All benefits payable under this section shall be paid from the Shared Work Unemployment Benefit Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. Each month the Department shall collect from the regular employer, in addition to any other contributions required by this Act, an amount equal to all benefits paid pursuant to this section to his employees in the previous month. All amounts collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited into the Shared Work Unemployment Benefit Fund. No benefits may be paid under this section to any employee of an employer who is more than two months delinquent in payments required by this section.

Subd. 10. [TERMINATION OF SECTION.] Subdivisions 1 to 9 are repealed effective December 31, 1986, and no benefits shall be paid under those sections for a day of unemployment occurring after December 31, 1986.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] Section 1 is effective October 1, 1983."

Subd. 20b. [MODIFICATIONS REDUCING FEDERAL ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME.] There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Income from the performance of personal or professional services which is subject to the reciprocity exclusion contained in section 290.081, clause (a);

(4) Losses, not otherwise reducing federal adjusted gross income assignable to Minnesota, arising from events or transactions which are assignable to Minnesota under the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks or out of state loss carryforwards resulting from the losses, and including any farm loss carryforwards or carrybacks;

(5) If included in federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any credit received, whether received as a refund or credit to another taxable year's income tax liability, pursuant to chapter 290A, and the amount of any overpayment of income tax to Minnesota, or any other state, for any previous taxable year, whether the amount is received as a refund or credited to another taxable year's income tax liability;

(6) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, or the amount reflected as the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution under section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the amount received by any person (i) from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank or from the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions or from any other state or its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer firefighter's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or (ii) as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000 less the amount by which the individual's federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, exceeds $17,000. In the case of a volunteer firefighter who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of his pension or retirement benefits, the maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000; this subtraction shall not be reduced by the amount of the individual's federal adjusted gross income in excess of $17,000;

(7) The amount of any credit to the taxpayer's federal tax liability under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(8) To the extent included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, gain recognized upon a transfer of property to the spouse or former spouse of the taxpayer in exchange for the release of the spouse's marital rights;

(9) The amount of any distribution from a qualified pension or profit sharing plan included in federal adjusted gross income in the year of receipt to the extent of any contribution not previously allowed as a deduction by reason of a change in federal law which was not adopted by Minnesota law for a taxable year beginning in 1974 or later;

(10) Interest, including payment adjustment to the extent that it is applied to interest, earned by the seller of the property on a family farm security loan executed before January 1, 1986 that is guaranteed by the commissioner of agriculture as provided in sections 41.51 to 41.60;

(11) The first $3,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations, and the next $2,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations wholly performed outside the state of Minnesota. This modification does not apply to compensation defined in subdivision 20b, clause (6);

Land owned by the state may be exchanged for land not owned by the state for the purpose of providing a site and buffer area for a commercial hazardous waste facility, in accordance with the provisions of section 94.341 to 94.347 and other law. The commissioner of administration may hold the property for the purposes for which it was acquired, and may lease, rent, or dispose of the property so far as not needed for such purposes, upon the terms and in the manner the commissioner deems advisable. The right to acquire lands and property rights by condemnation shall be exercised in accordance with chapter 117. The commissioner of administration may take possession of any property for which condemnation proceedings have been commenced at any time after the issuance of a court order appointing commissioners for its condemnation. Where the property is acquired through eminent domain proceedings, the land owner's compensation shall be the fair market value of the property. Where the property is acquired by means other than through eminent domain proceedings, as by direct purchase or gift, the land owner's compensation shall be determined by the agreement of the parties involved. An award of compensation in a condemnation proceeding shall not be increased or decreased by reason of any increase or decrease in the value of the property caused by its designation in the inventory of preferred areas under section 115A.09 or as a candidate site under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 or its election as a site or buffer area.

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS.] (BY DECEMBER 15, 1982,) The board shall adopt a hazardous waste management plan. In developing and implementing the plan, the highest priority of the board shall be placed upon alternatives to land disposal of hazardous wastes including: technologies to modify industrial processes or introduce new processes which will reduce or eliminate hazardous waste generation; recycling, re-use, and recovery methods to reduce or eliminate hazardous waste disposal; and conversion and treatment technologies to reduce the degree of environmental risk from hazardous waste. The board shall also consider technologies for retrievable storage of hazardous wastes for later recycling, re-use, recovery, conversion, or treatment.

The plan shall include at least the following elements:

- (a) an estimate of the types and volumes of hazardous waste which will be generated in the state through the year 2000;
- (b) specific and quantifiable objectives for reducing to the greatest feasible and prudent extent the need for and practice of disposal, through waste reduction, pretreatment, retrievable storage, processing, and resource recovery;
- (c) a description of the minimum disposal capacity and capability needed to be developed within the state for use through the year 2000, based on the achievement of the objectives under clause (b);

(d) a description of implementation strategies required to develop the needed disposal capacity under clause (c) and to achieve the objectives under clause (b), including: the necessary private and government actions; development schedules for facilities, services, and regulations; revenue-raising and financing measures; levels of public and private effort and expenditure; legal and institutional changes; and other similar matters.

The plan shall provide for the orderly development of hazardous waste management sites and facilities to protect the health and safety of rural and urban communities. In preparing the plan the board shall consider its impact upon agricultural and natural resources.

The plan shall require the establishment in the state of at least one commercial retrievable storage or disposal facility and shall recommend and encourage methods and procedures, that will insure the establishment of at least one facility for the recycling, re-use, recovery, conversion, treatment, destruction, transfer, or storage of hazardous waste. The board may make the implementation of elements of the plan contingent on actions of the legislature which have been recommended in the draft plan and certification of need and considered in the reports submitted pursuant to section 115A.08.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] The plan shall be based upon the reports prepared pursuant to section 115A.08. The plan, the certificate of need issued under section 115A.24, and the procedures for hearings on the draft plan and draft certificate of need, shall not be subject to the rule-making or contested case provisions of chapter 14. By July 1, 1983, the chairman of the board shall report to the legislative commission on waste management about the hearing to be held pursuant to this subdivision. The chairman shall describe the board's plans and procedures for the hearing, the provisions for encouraging public participation in the hearing, and the board's plans for preparing the required report to the legislature fully and accurately summarizing the results of the hearing, the objections raised to the board's draft plan and certification, and the board's response to the testimony received. The legislative commission shall hold a hearing to receive public comment on the board's proposed hearing procedures and thereafter shall make any recommendations it deems appropriate for changes in the board's procedures. Within 30 days following the submission of the report on hazardous management required under section 115A.08, subdivision 4, the board shall hold a public hearing on the draft plan and draft certificate or certificates of need (CONTAINED IN) submitted with the report. Notices of the draft plan and the draft certificate or certificates and notice of the hearing shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general cir-ulation in the state. The notices must indicate how copies of the draft plan and draft certificate or certificates of need may be obtained. The board shall make the draft plan and draft certificate or certificates of need available for public review and comment at least 21 days before the hearing. The hearing shall be ordered by the chairperson of the board and shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings in the time allowed by this section. The hearing officer shall not issue a report but shall preside at the hearing to ensure that the hearing is conducted in a fair, orderly, and expeditious manner and in accordance with the hearing procedures of the board. A majority of the permanent members of the board shall attend the hearing. In connection with the hearing, the chairperson of the board shall provide copies of the studies and reports on which the draft plan and certification of need are based and shall (MAKE AN AFFIRMATIVE PRESENTATION SHOWING THE NEED FOR AND REASONABLENESS OF THE DRAFT PLAN AND CERTIFICATION OF NEED) present an explanation of the basis of the findings, conclusions, and recommendations in the draft plan and certification of need. Following the hearing, the board shall revise the plan and the certificate or certificates of need as it deems appropriate, shall make a written response to the testimony received at the hearing explaining its disposition of any recommendations made with respect to the plan and certification, and shall finally adopt a plan in accordance with this section and issue a certificate or certificates of need in accordance with section 115A.24.

Sec. 15. [115A.201] [BEDROCK DISPOSAL.]

Subdivision 1. [EVALUATION OF TECHNOLOGY; STUDY AREAS.] The board shall evaluate the feasibility of bedrock disposal of hazardous waste. If the board determines that bedrock disposal is or may be a feasible disposal technology, the board shall identify bedrock study areas of up to four square miles in size for further evaluation.

Subd. 2. [PARTICIPATION BY AFFECTED LOCALITIES.] A plan review committee shall be established for each study area and a temporary board member shall be appointed as provided in this subdivision, to participate in the plan and certification of need to be submitted to the commission under section 115A.08, subdivision 4 and adopted under sections 115A.11 and 115A.24. Within 30 days following the identification of a bedrock study area by the board, the governor shall appoint the chair and members of a plan review committee, ensuring a balanced representation of all parties with a legitimate and direct interest in the review of the plan and certification of need. The plan review committee shall be eligible for technical assistance and grants pursuant to section 115A.08, subdivision 6, to assist it in participating in the plan and certification of need. Within 30 days following the appointment of a plan review committee, the committee shall select a temporary board member to be added to the board. Temporary board members may be members of the local plan review committee, and they shall be residents of the county in which the study area is primarily located. Temporary board members shall serve for terms lasting so long as the location the member represents is a study area. Temporary board members shall not participate or vote in decisions affecting the selection and certification of sites under this section and section 115A.21.

Subd. 3. [CANDIDATE SITES.] If the board determines that candidate sites are to be selected in the bedrock study areas, the candidate sites must be proposed and selected as provided in section 115A.21, subdivisions 1 and 2a.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.21, is amended to read:

115A.21 [CANDIDATE SITES.]

Subdivision 1. [SELECTION.] (BY MARCH 15, 1982,) The board shall select (SIX) at least four locations in the state, no more than one site per county, as candidate sites for commercial disposal facilities for hazardous waste. Candidate sites selected by the board before February 1, 1983, and additional candidate sites selected pursuant to this section, must be reviewed pursuant to sections 115A.22 to 115A.30. No location shall be selected as a candidate site unless the agency certifies its intrinsic suitability for the use intended pursuant to subdivision 2a.

Subd. 2. [SEARCH PROCEDURE.] The board shall consult with the agency and the private waste management industry in selecting candidate sites. Any sites proposed in applications for permits for disposal facilities being reviewed by the agency may be included by the board as candidate sites, provided the agency certifies the intrinsic suitability of the sites. The agency shall suspend its review of any permit application being reviewed by the board for inclusion as a candidate site until the site is eliminated from consideration as a candidate site.

(SUBD. 2. [PROCEDURE.]) As soon as practicable, the board through its chairperson shall publish a request soliciting proposals and permit applications for hazardous waste disposal facilities from potential developers and operators of such facilities. Notice of the request shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the state and shall be transmitted to all regional development commissions, the metropolitan council, and all counties in the state. The board may select conceptual design and operating specifications for a variety of hazardous waste disposal facilities in sufficient detail and extent in the judgment of the board to assist the evaluation of sites and the selection of candidate sites. By November 1, 1980, the board through its chairperson shall notify each regional development commission, or the metropolitan council, and each local government unit within whose jurisdiction the board intends to search for candidate sites. The notification shall explain the selection of the jurisdiction as a search area; shall summarize any conceptual specifications and the evaluation factors, criteria, standards, and procedures the board intends to use in selecting candidate sites; and shall describe the relationship of the candidate site selection process to the other review procedures under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 and the hazardous waste reports and plans required under sections 115A.04 to 115A.15. The notification shall request recommendations and suggestions from each such commission, the metropolitan council, and local government unit on the criteria, standards, and procedures the board should use in selecting candidate sites within the time allowed. The board through its chairperson shall make a written response to any recommendations, explaining its disposition of the recommendations. No action of the board may be held invalid by reason of the board's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision.

The board through its chairperson and the director shall publish notice of hearings on the board's proposal and the director's recommendations. Notice shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the state and shall be sent by mail to all regional development commissions, or the metropolitan council, and to local government units containing a proposed candidate site. The hearings shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency and board in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the board and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the board's decision on candidate sites and the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The rulemaking and contested case procedures of chapter 14 shall not apply to this hearing. The hearing examiner may consolidate hearings. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify sites accordingly (BY MARCH 1, 1982). No action of the board or agency (SHALL) may be held invalid by reason of the board's or agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [(MORATORIUM) DEVELOPMENT LIMITATIONS.] In order to permit the comparative evaluation of sites and buffer areas and the participation of affected localities in decisions about the use of sites and buffer areas, (A MORATORIUM IS HEREBY IMPOSED AS PROVIDED IN THIS SUBDIVISION ON ALL DEVELOPMENT WITHIN EACH PROPOSED OR CANDIDATE SITE IDENTIFIED PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION) development in each candidate site and in a buffer area identified by the board surrounding and at least equal in area to the site shall be limited to development consistent with the development plans, land use classifications, and zoning and other official controls applying to the property on February 1, 1983. No development inconsistent with the plans, use classification, controls, and zoning requirements; no transfers or change of use of public land; and no conditional uses may be permitted. The (MORATORIUM ON CANDIDATE SITES AND BUFFER AREAS) development limitations shall extend until (THE BOARD CHOOSES A FINAL CANDIDATE SITE OR FINAL CANDIDATE SITES PURSUANT TO THIS ARTICLE. No plan, land use classification, official control, or zoning of any political subdivision shall permit or be amended to permit development (WHICH HAS NOT BEEN APPROVED BY THE BOARD) inconsistent with the requirements of this section, nor shall any political subdivision sanction or approve any subdivision, permit, license, or other authorization which would allow development (TO OCCUR WHICH HAS NOT BEEN APPROVED BY THE BOARD. THE BOARD SHALL NOT APPROVE ACTIONS WHICH WOULD JEOPARDIZE THE AVAILABILITY OF A CANDIDATE SITE FOR USE AS A HAZARDOUS WASTE FACILITY. THE BOARD MAY ESTABLISH GUIDELINES FOR REVIEWING REQUESTS FOR APPROVAL UNDER THIS SUBDIVISION. THE GUIDELINES SHALL NOT BE SUBJECT TO THE RULE-MAKING PROVISIONS OF CHAPTER 14. Economic considerations alone shall not justify certification nor the rejection of alternatives. Alternatives that are speculative and conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. The board shall consider all technologies being developed in other countries as well as in the United States when it considers the alternatives to hazardous waste disposal. The certificate or certificates shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 14 but shall be the final determination required on the matters decided by the certificate or certificates and shall have the force and effect of law. THE STATEMENT SHALL BE FINALLY ACCEPTED OR REJECTED WITHIN 120 DAYS FOLLOWING THE ISSUANCE OF A CERTIFICATE OR CERTIFICATES OF NEED UNDER SECTION 115A.24). The statement must be prepared and reviewed in accordance with chapter 116D and the rules issued pursuant thereto, except as otherwise required by this section and sections 115A.11, 115A.24, 115A.28, and 115A.30. The board and agency shall follow the procedures in subdivisions 2 and 3 in lieu of the scoping requirements of chapter 116D and rules issued pursuant thereto. The statement shall be completed in two phases as provided in sections 25 and 26.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [PHASE I.] Phase I of the statement shall be completed by the board on the environmental effects of the board's decision on sites and facility specifications under section 115A.28. Phase I of the statement shall not address or reconsider alternative sites or facility numbers, types, capacity, function, and use which have been eliminated from consideration by the board's decisions under sections 115A.21 and 115A.24. The determination of the adequacy of phase I of the statement is exclusively the authority of the board. The governor shall establish an interagency advisory group to comment on the scope of phase I of the statement, to review drafts, and to provide technical assistance in the preparation and review of phase I of the statement. The advisory group shall include representatives of the agency, the departments of natural resources, health, agriculture, energy, planning and development, and transportation, and the Minnesota geological survey. In order to obtain the staff assistance necessary to prepare the statement, the chairperson of the board may request reassignment of personnel pursuant to section 16.21 and may arrange to have other agencies prepare parts of the statement pursuant to section 16.135.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [PHASE II.] Phase II of the statement shall be completed by the agency as a supplement to phase I specifically for the purpose of examining the environmental effects of the permitting decisions required to be made by the permitting agencies under section 34. In preparing, reviewing, and determining the adequacy of phase II of the statement, the agency shall not repeat or duplicate the research and analysis contained in phase I of the statement, except as the agency determines is necessary to examine the environmental effects of the permitting decisions.

Phase II of the statement shall not address or reconsider alternative sites and facility numbers, types, capacity, function, and use which have been eliminated from consideration by the board's decisions under sections 115A.21, 115A.24, and 115A.28. The determination of adequacy of phase II of the statement must be made by the agency within 180 days following submission of the preliminary permit application or applications under section 34. The determination of the adequacy of phase II of the statement is exclusively the authority of the agency.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.25, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC DISCLOSURE.] Before commencing preparation of a phase of the environmental impact statement, the board or agency shall issue a document summarizing and making full disclosure of the intended objectives and contents of the environmental impact statement and the environmental review. Announcement of the disclosure shall be published in the state register, the environmental quality board monitor, and appropriate newspapers of general distribution. The disclosure shall:

- (a) identify the candidate sites;
- (b) summarize (PRELIMINARY DESIGN AND OPERATING) facility specifications and indicate where and when the specifications are available for inspection;
- (c) describe as fully as possible the object of the review, including the significant actions, issues, alternatives, types of impacts, and compensation and mitigation measures expected to be addressed in the statement; the depth of the analysis expected; and subjects which the statement will not address in depth because they have been disposed of previously or because they are believed to be insignificant or remote and speculative;
- (d) identify, by reference and brief summary, any related planning activities and environmental reviews which have been, are being, or will be conducted, and the substantive, chronological, and procedural relationship between the proposed review and the other activities and reviews;
- (e) identify the membership and address of the local project review committees and the names of the local representatives on the board;
- (f) summarize the comments and suggestions received from the public pursuant to subdivision 3 and the board's or agency's response.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.25, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PROCEDURES.] The public disclosure document shall be issued following diligent effort to involve the public in determining the objective and contents of the environmental impact statement. At least one public meeting shall be held in each county with a candidate site. The advice of the board, facility developers, state agencies, the local project review committees, and local units of government shall be actively solicited. The board or agency may engage the state hearing examiner to conduct meetings and make recommendations concerning the review. Each local project review committee shall present to the board or agency a written report summarizing local concerns and attitudes about the proposed action and the specific issues which the local communities and residents wish to see addressed in the environmental review.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.26, is amended to read:

115A.26 [AGENCIES; REPORT ON PERMIT CONDITIONS AND APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS.]

Within (60) 30 days following the board's determination of the adequacy of (THE FINAL) phase I of the environmental impact statement, and after consulting with the board, facility developers, affected local government units, and the local project review committees, the chief executive officer of each permitting state agency shall issue (A NOTICE OF INTENT TO ISSUE PERMITS INDICATING,) to the board draft reports on permit conditions and permit application requirements at each candidate site. The reports must indicate, to the extent possible based on existing information, the probable terms, conditions, and requirements of (AGENCY APPROVAL FOR ALL PERMITS NEEDED AT EACH CANDIDATE SITE FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FACILITIES DESCRIBED IN THE BOARD'S CERTIFICATION OF NEED) permits and the probable supplementary documentation that will be required for phase II of the environmental impact statement under section 115A.25 and for permit applications under section 34. The reports may be revised following the hearings under section 115A.27 as the chief executive officer deems necessary. The (AGENCY DECISIONS SHALL) reports must be consistent with the establishment of facilities in accordance with the certification of need.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.27, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BOARD HEARINGS.] Within (90) 120 days following the (ISSUANCE OF AGENCY NOTICE OF INTENT UNDER SECTION 115A.26) board's determination of the adequacy of phase I of the environmental impact statement under section 115A.25, the board shall conduct a hearing in each county containing a candidate site, for the purpose of receiving testimony on the (SITES AND FACILITIES TO BE ESTABLISHED) decisions required under section 115A.28. The hearings shall be ordered by the chairperson of the board (AND SHALL BE CONDUCTED CONCURRENTLY WITH ANY AGENCY HEARING REGARDING THE SITE HELD PURSUANT TO SUBDIVISION 1). The subject of the board hearing shall not extend to matters previously decided in the board's decision on sites under section 115A.21 and the certificate of need issued under section 115A.24. The hearing shall be conducted for the board by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner (DETERMINED BY THE HEARING EXAMINER TO BE) consistent with the completion of the proceedings in the time allowed. The proceedings (SHALL) and the hearing procedures are not (BE DEEMED A) subject to the rule-making or contested case (UNDER) provisions of chapter 14. The hearing officer shall not issue a report but shall preside at the hearings to ensure that the hearings are conducted in a fair, orderly, and expeditious manner and in accordance with the hearing procedures of the board. A majority of the permanent members of the board shall be present at the hearing.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.28, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

115A.28 [FINAL (ACTION) DECISION.]

Subdivision 1. [DECISION OF BOARD.] Within 60 days following (FINAL AGENCY DECISIONS ON PERMITS PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 115A.26 AND 115A.27, SUBDIVISION 1) the conclusion of the hearings under section 115A.27, subdivision 2, and after consulting with private facility developers, the (AGENCY) permitting agencies, affected local government units, and the local project review committees, the board shall finally select the site or sites for the facilities (AND SHALL SUBMIT OR CAUSE TO BE SUBMITTED FINAL PERMIT APPLICATIONS) and the developer and operator of the facility and shall prescribe further specifications on the number, type, capacity, function, and use of the facilities as the board deems appropriate, consistent with the board's certification of need issued under section 115A.24. If the chairperson of the board determines that an agency (NOTICE OF INTENT) report on permit conditions and application requirements has been substantially revised following hearings held pursuant to section 115A.27, subdivision (1) 2, the chairperson (SHALL) may delay the decision for 30 days and may order a public hearing to receive further testimony on the sites and facilities to be established. The proceeding shall be conducted as provided in section 115A.27, subdivision 2, except that hearings shall not be separately held in the affected counties and the issues relating to all agency (NOTICES) reports shall be considered at one hearing.

(THE BOARD'S DECISION AND FINAL PERMIT APPLICATIONS SHALL EMBODY ALL TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS OF THE PERMITTING AGENCIES, PROVIDED THAT THE BOARD MAY: (A) FINALLY RESOLVE ANY CONFLICTS BETWEEN STATE AGENCIES REGARDING PERMIT TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS, AND (B) REQUIRE MORE STRINGENT TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS RESPECTING THE FACILITY AS MAY BE CONSISTENT WITH THE CERTIFICATION OF NEED AND THE AGENCY RULES AND PERMIT CONDITIONS. THE BOARD'S RESOLUTION OF CONFLICTS UNDER CLAUSE (A) SHALL BE IN FAVOR OF THE MORE STRINGENT TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS.) The board's decision (AND THE PERMIT APPLICATIONS) shall provide for the establishment of facilities consistent with the board's certification of need.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.28, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BOARD'S DECISION PARAMOUNT.] The board's decision under subdivision 1 shall be final and shall supersede and preempt requirements of state agencies and political subdivisions and the requirements of sections 473H.02 to 473H.17; except that a facility established pursuant to the decision shall be subject to (THOSE) terms, conditions, and requirements in permits of state or federal permitting agencies (EMBODIED IN THE BOARD'S DECISION), the terms of lease determined by the board under section 115A.06, subdivision 4, and any requirements imposed pursuant to subdivision 3. (THE PERMITTING AGENCIES SHALL ISSUE PERMITS WITHIN 60 DAYS FOLLOWING AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE BOARD'S FINAL DECISION, AND ALL PERMITS SHALL CONFORM TO THE TERMS, CONDITIONS, AND REQUIREMENTS OF THE BOARD'S DECISION.) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no charter provision, ordinance, regulation, permit, or other requirement of any state agency or political subdivision shall prevent or restrict the establishment, operation, expansion, continuance, or closure of a facility in accordance with the final decision and leases of the board and permits issued (PURSUANT THERETO) by state or federal permitting agencies.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.28, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LOCAL REQUIREMENTS.] A political subdivision may impose reasonable requirements respecting the construction, inspection, operation, monitoring, and maintenance of a facility. Any such requirements shall be subject to review by the (AGENCY) board to determine their reasonableness and consistency with the establishment and use of a facility in accordance with the final decision and lease of the board and by the agency to determine their reasonableness and consistency with permits (ISSUED PURSUANT THERETO) of state and federal permitting agencies. The board or agency may approve, disapprove, suspend, modify, or reverse any such requirements. The decision of the board or agency shall be final.

Sec. 34. [115A.291] [PERMITS.]

Research and analysis necessary to the permit applications and permit decisions required under this chapter, and the supporting environmental study, must commence immediately following the board's decision under section 115A.28. Within 180 days following its final decision under section 115A.28, the board shall submit or cause to be submitted a preliminary application for permits for a facility or facilities consistent with its decision under section 115A.28. Following review by the permitting agencies and within 60 days following the agency's determination of the adequacy of phase II of the environmental impact statement, the board shall revise the application, or cause it to be revised, in accordance with the recommendations of the permitting agencies. In preparing its revised permit application, the board may amend its certification of need issued under section 115A.24 or its facility specifications under section 115A.28, if the board finds and determines, based upon the recommendations of the permitting agencies, that: (a) the amendments are necessary to secure permits for the construction and operation of the proposed facility at the proposed site, and (b) the recommendations and amendments are the result of new information or rules produced after the board's decisions under sections 115A.24 and 115A.28. Within 210 days following the submission of the revised permit application, the permitting agencies shall issue the necessary permits unless the pollution control agency determines that the facility or facilities proposed for permitting present environmental problems which cannot be addressed through the imposition of permit conditions.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.30, is amended to read:

115A.30 [JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

Any civil action maintained by or against the agency or board under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 shall be brought in the county where the board is located and shall take precedence over all other matters of a civil nature and be expedited to the maximum extent possible. Any person aggrieved by a (FINAL) decision of the board (AUTHORIZING FACILITIES) or an agency under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 may appeal therefrom (WITHIN 30 DAYS) as provided in chapter 14 within 30 days following all final decisions on the issuance of permits. No civil action shall be maintained pursuant to section 116B.03 with respect to conduct taken by a person pursuant to any environmental quality standard, limitation, regulation, rule, order, license, stipulation agreement or permit issued by the board under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30. Notwithstanding any provision of chapter 116B to the contrary, in any action brought under that chapter with respect to any decision or conduct undertaken by any person or the board or agency pursuant to sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 after the period for appeal under this section has lapsed, the plaintiff shall have the burden of proving that the evidence required under section 116B.10 was not reasonably available within the time provided for appeal. The trial court shall, upon motion of any prevailing non-governmental party, award costs, disbursements, reasonable attorney's fees, and reasonable expert witness fees, if the court finds the action hereunder was commenced or defended in bad faith or was frivolous.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.54, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATION; ASSURANCE OF FUNDS.] The board shall provide technical and financial assistance for the acquisition and betterment of the facilities and transfer stations from revenues derived from the issuance of bonds authorized by section 115A.58. Facilities for the incineration of solid waste without resource recovery are eligible for assistance only if the board determines that the project will demonstrate governmental or financial innovations of statewide significance and application. Of money appropriated for the purposes of the demonstration program, at least 70 percent shall be distributed as loans, and the remainder shall be distributed as grants. An individual project may receive assistance totaling up to 100 percent of the capital cost of the project and grants up to 50 percent of the capital cost of the project. No grant or loan shall be disbursed to any recipient until the board has determined the total estimated capital cost of the project and ascertained that financing of the cost is assured by funds provided by the state, by an agency of the federal government within the amount of funds then appropriated to that agency and allocated by it to projects within the state, by any person, or by the appropriation of proceeds of bonds or other funds of the recipient to a fund for the construction of the project.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.67, is amended to read:

115A.67 [ORGANIZATION OF DISTRICT.]

The governing body of each county wholly or partly within the district shall appoint two persons to serve on the first board of directors of the district, except that in the case of a district having territory within only two counties each county may appoint three persons. At least one person appointed by each county shall be an elected official of a local government unit having territory within the district. The first chairperson of the board

The first chairperson shall serve for a term of two years. Thereafter the chairperson shall be elected from outside the board of directors by majority vote of the board of directors. Members of the board of directors shall be residents of the district. The first meeting of the board of directors shall be held at the call of the chairperson, after notice, for the purpose of proposing the bylaws, electing officers and for any other business that comes before the meeting. The bylaws of the district, and amendments thereto, shall be adopted by a majority vote of the board of directors unless the certificate of incorporation requires a greater vote. The bylaws shall state:

(a) the manner and time of calling regular meetings of the representatives and the board of directors, not less than once annually;

(b) the title, manner of selection, and term of office of officers of the district;

(c) the term of office of members of the board of directors, the manner of their removal, and the manner of filling vacancies on the board of directors;

(d) the powers and duties of the board of directors consistent with the order and articles of incorporation establishing the district;

(e) the definition of a quorum for meetings of the board of directors, which shall be not less than a majority of the members;

(f) the compensation and reimbursement for expenses for members of the board of directors, which shall not exceed that provided for in section 15.0575, subdivision 3; and

(g) such other provisions for regulating the affairs of the district as the board of directors shall determine to be necessary.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.70, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION.] (THE DISTRICT SHALL NOT DESIGNATE AND REQUIRE USE OF FACILITIES FOR MATERIALS WHICH ARE BEING SEPARATED FROM SOLID WASTE AND RECOVERED FOR REUSE OR RECYCLING BY THE GENERATOR, BY A PRIVATE PERSON UNDER CONTRACT WITH THE GENERATOR OR BY A LICENSED SOLID WASTE COLLECTOR. THE DISTRICT SHALL NOT DESIGNATE AND REQUIRE USE OF FACILI-TIES FOR MATERIALS WHICH ARE BEING DELIVERED TO ANOTHER RESOURCE RECOVERY FACILITY) The designation may not apply to or include:

(a) materials which are separated from solid waste and recovered for reuse in their original form or for use in manufacturing processes; or

(b) materials other than those described in clause (a) which are being delivered to another resource recovery facility unless the district finds and determines that the required use is consistent with criteria and standards concerning displacement of existing facilities and with the evaluation of resource recovery designation which are required in the solid waste management plan of the district.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.70, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [RELATIONSHIP TO COUNTY DESIGNATION PROCEDURES.] A district need not repeat the designation procedures set out in subdivision 4 to the extent that these procedures have been completed by each county having territory in the district or by a joint powers board composed of each county having territory in the district. A district need not submit the designation for review pursuant to subdivision 2 if the designation has already been approved under section 115A.071 following submission by each county having territory in the district or by a joint powers board composed of each county having territory in the district.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9i. "Sludge" means any solid, semi-solid, or liquid waste generated from a municipal, commercial, or industrial waste water treatment plant, water supply treatment plant, or air contaminant treatment facility, or any other waste having similar characteristics and effects.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116.06, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. "Hazardous waste" means any refuse, sludge, or (DISCARDED) other waste material or combinations of refuse, sludge or (DISCARDED) other waste materials in solid, semi-solid, liquid, or contained gaseous form which (CANNOT BE HANDLED BY ROUTINE WASTE MANAGEMENT TECHNIQUES) because (THEY) of its quantity, concentration, or chemical, physical, or infectious characteristics may (a) cause or significantly contribute to an increase in mortality or an increase in serious irreversible, or incapacitating reversible illness; or (b) pose a substantial present or potential hazard to human health or (OTHER LIVING ORGANISMS BECAUSE OF THEIR CHEMICAL, BIOLOGICAL, OR PHYSICAL PROPERTIES) the environment when improperly treated, stored, transported, or disposed of, or otherwise managed. Categories of hazardous waste materials include, but are not limited to: explosives, flammables, oxidizers, poisons, irritants, and corrosives. Hazardous waste does not include (SEWAGE SLUDGE AND) source, special nuclear, or by-product material as defined by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116.07, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RULES AND STANDARDS.] Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 14, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1969, Chapter 1046, for the prevention, abatement, or control of air pollution. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state, or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances, or conditions in order to make due allowance for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to sources or emissions of air contamination or air pollution, to the quality or composition of such emissions, or to the quality of or composition of the ambient air or outdoor atmosphere or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement, or control of air pollution.

Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 14, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend, and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1969, Chapter 1046, for the collection, transportation, storage, processing, and disposal of solid waste and the prevention, abatement, or control of water, air, and land pollution which may be related thereto, and the deposit in or on land of any other material that may tend to cause pollution. The agency shall adopt such rules and standards for sewage sludge, addressing the intrinsic suitability of land, the volume and rate of application of sewage sludge of various degrees of intrinsic hazard, design of facilities, and operation of facilities and sites. The agency shall promulgate temporary rules for sewage sludge pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 14.29 to 14.36, the temporary rules shall be effective until permanent rules are promulgated or March 1, 1982, whichever is earlier. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances, or conditions in order to make due allowance for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to collection, transportation, processing, disposal, equipment, location, procedures, methods, systems or techniques or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement or control of water, air, and land pollution which may be advised through the control of collection, transportation, processing, and disposal of solid waste and sewage sludge, and the deposit in or on land of any other material that may tend to cause pollution. By January 1, 1983, the rules for the management of sewage sludge shall include an analysis of the sewage sludge determined by the commissioner of agriculture to be necessary to meet the soil amendment labeling requirements of section 17.716.

Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 14, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1971, Chapter 727, for the prevention, abatement, or control of noise pollution. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state, or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances or conditions in order to make due allowances for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to sources or emissions of noise or noise pollution, to the quality or composition of noises in the natural environment, or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement, or control of noise pollution.

As to any matters subject to this chapter, local units of government may set emission regulations with respect to stationary sources which are more stringent than those set by the pollution control agency.

Pursuant to chapter 14, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend, and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of this chapter for generators of hazardous waste, the management, identification, labeling, classification, storage, collection, treatment, transportation, processing, and disposal of hazardous waste and the location of hazardous waste facilities. A rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state or may be limited as to time, places, circumstances, or conditions. (THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION, IN COOPERATION WITH THE POLLUTION CONTROL AGENCY, SHALL SET STANDARDS FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF HAZARDOUS WASTE IN ACCORDANCE WITH CHAPTER 221.) In implementing its hazardous waste rules, the pollution control agency shall give high priority to providing planning and technical assistance to hazardous waste generators. The agency shall assist generators in investigating the availability and feasibility of both interim and long term hazardous waste management methods. The methods shall include waste reduction, waste separation, waste processing, resource recovery, and temporary storage.

The pollution control agency shall give highest priority in the consideration of permits to authorize disposal of diseased shade trees by open burning at designated sites to evidence concerning economic costs of transportation and disposal of diseased shade trees by alternative methods.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116.41, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [HAZARDOUS WASTE CLASSIFICATION.] By (JANUARY 1, 1982) September 1, 1985, the agency shall prescribe by rule criteria for excluding types and categories of hazardous wastes from disposal, criteria for accepting types and categories of wastes as suitable for disposal, and minimum pre-treatment standards required as a condition of acceptance for disposal. The criteria and standards shall be based upon the degree of intrinsic hazard of the waste; the availability of conventional processing technologies for reducing, separating, reusing, recycling, and treating the waste; the feasibility and cost of applying the processing technologies in relation to the benefits to be achieved by such application; the class of facility; and other factors deemed relevant by the agency.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [INVENTORY OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL SITES.] By (FEBRUARY 1, 1982) September 1, 1983, the council shall adopt by resolution an inventory of eligible solid waste disposal sites and buffer areas within the metropolitan area. The council's inventory shall be composed of the sites and buffer areas proposed by the counties and reviewed and approved by the council pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1a. If a county does not have an approved inventory, the council shall adopt the required inventory for the county, following investigations by the council and public hearings as the council deems appropriate. The council's inventory shall satisfy all requirements and standards described in section 473.803, subdivision 1a. for sites and buffer areas proposed by counties. For sites and buffer areas included in the council's inventory, the moratorium imposed under section 473.803, subdivision 1a, shall extend until (OCTOBER 1, 1983) 90 days following the selection of sites pursuant to section 473.833, subdivision 3.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 2c, is amended to read:

Subd. 2c. [REPORT ON LOCAL EFFECTS OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITIES; REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] By (AUGUST 15, 1982) November 1, 1983, the council shall report to the legislative commission on methods of mitigating and compensating for the local risks, costs, and other adverse effects of solid waste disposal facilities and on methods of financing mitigation and compensation measures. The methods of mitigating and compensating to be considered shall include but not be limited to the following: payment outside of levy limitations in lieu of taxes for all property taken off the tax rolls; preference for the city or town containing a facility in federal A-95 reviews conducted by the council; payment of all costs to service the facilities including the costs of roads, monitoring, inspection, enforcement, police and fire, and litter clean up costs; payment for buffer zone amenities and improvements; city or town control over buffer zone design; elimination of the tipping charge for solid waste collected in the city or town; a guarantee against any and all liability that may occur; payment for reclamation of closed sites to local design specifications.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 2d, is amended to read:

Subd. 2d. [LAND DISPOSAL ABATEMENT PLAN.] By January 1, (1983) 1984, after considering county land disposal abatement proposals submitted pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1b, the council shall amend its policy plan to include specific and quantifiable objectives for abating the land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste. The plan shall include a reduced estimate, based on the council's abatement objectives, of the added solid waste disposal capacity needed in appropriate sectors of the metropolitan area, stated in annual increments through the year 1990 and thereafter in five year increments through the year 2000. The objectives in the plan shall be based upon standards for county resource recovery and waste reduction and separation programs and activities. The plan shall include standards and procedures to be used by the council in determining that metropolitan counties have not implemented the council's land disposal abatement plan and have not met the standards for county abatement programs and activities. The council shall report to the legislative commission on its abatement plan and on legislation that may be required to implement the plan.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 2e, is amended to read:

Subd. 2e. [SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITIES DEVELOPMENT SCHEDULE.] By January 1, (1983) 1984, after requesting and considering recommendations from the counties, cities, and towns, the council as part of its policy plan shall determine the number and capacity of sites to be acquired within each metropolitan county for solid waste disposal facilities in accordance with section 473.833. The council shall adopt a schedule for development of disposal facilities by each (SUCH) county through the year 2000. The schedule shall be based upon the council's reduced estimate of the disposal capacity needed because of the council's land disposal abatement plan. The council may make the implementation of elements of the schedule contingent on actions of the counties in adopting and implementing county abatement plans pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1b; and the council shall review the development schedule at least every two years and shall revise the development schedule as it deems appropriate based on the progress made in the adoption and implementation of the council and county abatement plans. The schedule may include procedures to be used by counties in selecting sites for acquisition pursuant to section 473.833. The schedule shall include standards and procedures for council certification of need pursuant to section 473.823. The schedule shall include a facility closure schedule and plans for post-closure management and disposition, for the use of property after acquisition and before facility development, and for the disposition of property and development rights, as defined in section 473.833, no longer needed for disposal facilities. The schedule shall also include a closure schedule and plans for post-closure management for facilities in existence (PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 1983) before the adoption of the development schedule.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.149, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The council shall establish an advisory committee to aid in the preparation of the policy plan, the performance of the council's responsibilities under subdivisions 2 to 2e, the review of county master plans and reports and applications for permits for waste facilities, under sections 473.151 and 473.801 to 473.823 and sections 473.827, 473.831 and 473.833, and other duties determined by the council. The committee shall consist of one-third citizen representatives, one-third representatives from metropolitan counties and municipalities, and one-third representatives from private waste management firms. From (OCTOBER 1, 1981 TO JANUARY 1, 1983) at least the date that the council adopts the inventory under subdivision 2b to the date that the council adopts a development schedule under subdivision 2e, for the purpose only of participating in the preparation of the legislative report required by subdivision 2c (AND), the land disposal abatement plan required by subdivision 2d, and the development schedule required by subdivision 2e additional members shall be included on the advisory committee sufficient to assure that at least one-third of the members of the committee are residents of cities or towns containing eligible solid waste disposal sites included in the council's disposal site inventory, and that counties containing three sites have at least two additional members and counties containing one or two sites have at least one additional member. A representative from the pollution control agency, one from the waste management board established under section 115A.04, and one from the Minnesota health department shall serve as ex officio members of the committee.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CANDIDATE SITE SELECTION.] (BY DECEMBER 15, 1981,) The council shall select (SIX) candidate sites for the disposal of the commission's sewage sludge and solid waste, together with appropriate surrounding buffer areas. The council shall select at least four candidate sites by September 1, 1983. The council shall evaluate sites for candidacy on the basis of at least the following factors: local land use and land use controls, the protection of agriculture and natural resources, existing and future development patterns, transportation facilities, distance from the points of generation, and the intrinsic suitability of sites compared with other potential sites. Notwithstanding any plan, charter provision, law, ordinance, regulation, or other requirement of the council, counties, or local units of government, no land shall be excluded from consideration for candidacy except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable. No site shall be selected for candidacy unless the agency certifies its intrinsic suitability for the use intended, based on preliminary environmental analysis and on-site surveys and investigations conducted by the council. The council shall provide to the agency data relating to the intrinsic suitability of the sites to be proposed as candidate sites as soon as available (BUT NO LATER THAN AUGUST 15, 1981). (BY SEPTEMBER 1, 1981,) The council shall propose at least six locations as candidate sites and the director of the agency shall issue a notice indicating which of those sites the director recommends be certified as intrinsically suitable. The director shall publish notice of a consolidated hearing on the recommendation. Notice shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area and shall be sent by mail to local government units containing a proposed candidate site. The hearing shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the council and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The rulemaking and contested case procedures of chapter 14 shall not apply to this hearing. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify them accordingly (BY DECEMBER 1, 1981) within 90 days of the council's proposal of a site. The agency shall not be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 14 on criteria and standards to govern its certification of intrinsic suitability under this section. No action of the agency shall be held invalid by reason of the agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision. In selecting candidate sites, the council shall prefer land which is capable of being returned to its existing use or the use anticipated in a plan of a metropolitan agency, county, or local unit of government use after closure of a disposal facility.

Sec. 50 Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ENVIRONMENTAL (AND PERMIT) REVIEW.] An environmental impact statement (MEETING THE REQUIREMENTS OF CHAPTER 116D SHALL) must be completed on (EACH CANDIDATE SITE, PROVIDED THAT) the environmental effects of the council's decisions required by subdivision 6. The statement (SHALL) must be (FINALLY ACCEPTED OR REJECTED WITHIN 280 DAYS OF THE SELECTION OF CANDIDATE SITES. WITHIN 90 DAYS FOLLOWING THE ACCEPTANCE OF THE STATEMENT, THE AGENCY SHALL INDICATE THE CONDITIONS AND TERMS OF APPROVAL OF ALL PERMITS NEEDED AT EACH CANDIDATE SITE) prepared and reviewed in accordance with chapter 116D and the rules issued pursuant thereto, except as otherwise required by this section. The statement must not address or reconsider alternatives eliminated from consideration pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 2 and must not address the matters to be decided by the council pursuant to subdivision 6b.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [AGENCIES; REPORT ON PERMIT CONDITIONS AND APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS.] Within 30 days following the council's determination of adequacy pursuant to subdivision 5, the chief executive officer of each permitting state agency shall issue to the council reports on permit conditions and permit application requirements at each candidate site. The reports must indicate, to the extent possible based on existing information, the probable terms, conditions, and requirements of permits and the probable supplementary documentation that will be required for permit applications. The reports must be consistent with the establishment of facilities in accordance with the requirements of this section, must not address or reconsider alternatives eliminated from consideration under subdivisions 1 and 2, and must not address the matters to be decided by the council pursuant to subdivision 6b.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COUNCIL SITE SELECTION.] Within 90 days following the (AGENCY'S DECISION ON PERMIT CONDITIONS AND TERMS) determination of adequacy, the council shall select at least one of the candidate sites for acquisition and development by the commission. Before its selection the council shall consult with the advisory committee and affected counties, cities, and towns.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, subdivision 6b, is amended to read:

Subd. 6b. [CERTIFICATION OF NEED.] No new facility for disposing of (SLUDGE,) ash (,) and other waste generated by the commission shall be permitted in the metropolitan area without a certification of need issued by the council indicating the council's determination:

(a) that the disposal of waste with concentrations of hazardous materials is necessary; and

(b) that the additional ash disposal capacity planned for the facility is needed.

The council shall certify need only to the extent that there are no feasible and prudent methods of reducing the concentrations of hazardous materials in the waste and no feasible and prudent alternatives to the ash disposal facility, including large-scale composting and co-composting of sludge, which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources. Methods and alternatives that are speculative or conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. Economic considerations alone shall not justify the certification of need or the rejection of methods or alternatives, including large-scale composting and co-composting of sludge as an alternative to incineration. In its certification the council shall not consider alternatives which have been eliminated from consideration by the selection of sites pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 6.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.153, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6c. [CERTIFICATION OF NEED; RESTRICTION.] No certification of need may be issued by the council pursuant to subdivision 6b until the report required by this subdivision is submitted to the legislative commission on waste management. The council shall submit the report by January 1, 1984. The report shall evaluate the potential of large-scale sewage sludge composting and co-composting to reduce the need for sewage sludge incineration, sewage sludge ash disposal, and mixed municipal solid waste land disposal; recommend institutional arrangements necessary for the implementation of large-scale sewage sludge composting and co-composting; and compare the costs and benefits of composting and co-composting with the costs, including costs already incurred, and the benefits of incineration.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.803, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [PROPOSED INVENTORY OF DISPOSAL SITES.] By October 15, 1981, each county shall adopt, by resolution of its governing body, an inventory of four proposed sites in the county suitable for mixed municipal solid waste disposal facilities (AND ONE PROPOSED SITE IN THE COUNTY SUITABLE FOR THE DISPOSAL OF DEMOLITION DEBRIS) and shall submit the inventory to the council for approval or disapproval. The council shall evaluate and approve or disapprove each proposed site in accordance with the standards set out in this subdivision. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, each site shall satisfy the standards and criteria in federal and state regulations and the council's policy plan for solid waste management. In proposing and approving sites for the inventory, the counties and the council shall prefer land which is capable of being returned to its existing use or the use anticipated in a plan of a metropolitan agency, county, or local unit of government use after closure of a disposal facility. Each site shall contain no less than 80 acres and no more than 250 acres. Each proposed site shall be surrounded by a buffer area at least equal to the area of the site. No site shall be adopted by a county or the council as part of an inventory unless the agency certifies its intrinsic suitability for the use intended, based on preliminary environmental analysis and on site surveys and investigations conducted by the county. Notwithstanding any plan, charter provision, law, ordinance, regulation, or other requirement of any state agency or political subdivision, no land shall be excluded from consideration for inclusion in the inventory except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable. Each county shall provide to the agency data relating to the intrinsic suitability of the sites to be proposed for the inventory as soon as available (BUT NO LATER THAN JUNE 15, 1981). By July 1, 1981 each county shall propose at least the number of sites required for the inventory, and the director of the agency shall issue a notice indicating which of those sites the director recommends be certified as intrinsically suitable. Notice of hearings on the director's recommendation shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area and shall be sent by mail to the metropolitan council and local government units containing a proposed inventory site. A hearing shall be held in each metropolitan county and shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the county and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The rulemaking and contested case procedures of chapter 14 shall not apply to this hearing. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify them accordingly (BY OCTOBER 1, 1981) within 90 days of the county's proposal of a site. The agency shall not be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 15 on criteria and standards to govern its certification of intrinsic suitability under this section. No action of the agency shall be held invalid by reason of the agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision. The council shall evaluate each site with respect to local land use and land use controls, the protection of agriculture and natural resources, existing and future development patterns, transportation facilities and other services and facilities appropriate to land disposal facilities, the quality of other potential sites, and patterns of generation of solid waste. The council shall notify a county of any site proposed by the county which the council disapproves and shall allow the county 60 days to propose an alternative site. If the county fails to propose an alternative acceptable to the council in the time allowed, the council shall propose a site acceptable to it for inclusion in the inventory of sites in that county. If in the council's judgment a county does not contain the requisite number of satisfactory sites, the council may reduce the number of sites required of that county. In order to permit the comparative evaluation of sites and the participation of affected localities in decisions about the use of sites, a moratorium is hereby imposed as provided in this subdivision on development within the area of each site and buffer area proposed by a county, pending the council's adoption of an inventory pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2b. For sites and buffer areas included in the council's inventory, the moratorium shall extend until (OCTOBER 1, 1983) 90 days following the selection of sites pursuant to section 473.833, subdivision 3, except that the council may at any time, with the approval of the county in which the site is located, abrogate the application of the moratorium to a specific site or sites or buffer areas. No development shall be allowed to occur within the area of a site or buffer area during the period of the moratorium without the approval of the council. No county, city, or town land use control shall permit development which has not been approved by the council, nor shall any county, city, or town sanction or approve any subdivision, permit, license, or other authorization which would allow development to occur which has not been approved by the council. The council shall not approve actions which would jeopardize the availability of a site for use as a solid waste facility. The council may establish guidelines for reviewing requests for approval under this subdivision. Requests for approval shall be submitted in writing to the chairman of the council and shall be deemed to be approved by the council unless the chairman otherwise notifies the submitter in writing within 15 days.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.803, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [LAND DISPOSAL ABATEMENT.] By April 1, 1982, after considering the council's disposal abatement report submitted to the counties pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2a, each county shall submit to the council a proposal to reduce to the greatest feasible and prudent extent the need for and practice of land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste. The proposal shall address at least waste reduction, separation, and resource recovery. The proposal shall include objectives, immediately and over specified time periods, for reducing the land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste generated within the county. The proposal shall describe specific functions to be performed and activities to be undertaken by the county and cities and towns within the county to achieve the objectives and shall describe the estimated cost, proposed manner of financing, and timing of the functions and activities. The proposal shall include alternatives which could be used to achieve the objectives if the proposed functions and activities are not established. (BY JUNE 1, 1983,) Each county shall revise its master plan to include a land disposal abatement element to implement the council's land disposal abatement plan adopted under section 473.149, subdivision 2d, and shall submit the revised plan to the council for review under subdivision 2 within nine months after the adoption of the council's abatement plan. The proposal and master plan revision required by this subdivision shall be prepared in consultation with cities and towns within the county, particularly the cities and towns in which a solid waste disposal facility is or may be located pursuant to the county master plan.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.823, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COUNCIL; CERTIFICATION OF NEED.] No new mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility shall be permitted in the metropolitan area without a certificate of need issued by the council indicating the council's determination that the additional disposal capacity planned for the facility is needed in the metropolitan area. The council shall amend its policy plan, adopted pursuant to section 473.149, to include standards and procedures for certifying need. The standards and procedures shall be based on the council's disposal abatement plan adopted pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2d, and the abatement master plans of counties adopted pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1b. The council shall certify need only to the extent that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives to the disposal facility, including waste reduction, source separation and resource recovery which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources. Alternatives that are speculative or conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. Economic considerations alone shall not justify the certification of need or the rejection of alternatives. In its certification the council shall not consider alternatives which have been eliminated from consideration by the adoption of the inventory pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2b, or the selection of sites under section 473.833, subdivision 3.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.831, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [USE OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of bonds issued under subdivision 1 shall be used (PURSUANT TO SECTION 473.833,) by the council, for the purposes provided in subdivision 1 and to make grants to metropolitan counties to pay the cost of the environmental review of sites and the acquisition of all property or interests in property for solid waste disposal sites and surrounding buffer areas required to be acquired by the county, pursuant to section 473.833, by the council's policy plan and development schedule adopted pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2e. If the council is required by law or regulation to prepare environmental analyses on one or more solid waste disposal sites and surrounding buffer areas, the council may use the proceeds of the bonds issued under subdivision 1 to contract for consultant services in the preparation of such analyses only upon a finding that equivalent expertise is not available among its own staff.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.833, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [ENVIRONMENTAL (ANALYSIS) IMPACT STATEMENT.] (BY JANUARY 1, 1983,) Each metropolitan county shall complete an (ANALYSIS COMPARING) environmental impact statement on the environmental effects of (SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITIES AT THE SITES IN THE COUNTY WHICH ARE INCLUDED IN THE METROPOLITAN INVENTORY OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL SITES ADOPTED BY THE METROPOLITAN COUNCIL PURSUANT TO SECTION 473.149, SUBDIVISION 2B) the decision required by subdivision 3. The (ANALYSIS) statement shall be (IN DETAIL SUFFICIENT, IN THE JUDGMENT OF THE COUNTY BOARD, TO INFORM ADEQUATELY THE COUNTY SITE SELECTION AUTHORITY ESTABLISHED UNDER SUBDIVISION 3 OF THE ENVIRONMENTAL EFFECTS OF FACILITIES AT SITES WITHIN THE COUNTY AND TO ASSURE THAT FACILITIES AT THE SITES CAN REASONABLY BE EXPECTED TO QUALIFY FOR PERMITS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RULES OF THE AGENCY) prepared and reviewed in accordance with chapter 116D and the rules issued pursuant thereto, except as otherwise required by section 473.149 and this section. The determination of adequacy must be made within one year following the council's adoption of the facilities development schedule pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2e. The statement must be consistent with the establishment of facilities in accordance with the requirements of the council's development schedule, must not address or reconsider alternatives eliminated from consideration under sections 473.149, 473.803, subdivisions 1, 1a, and 1b, and this section, and must not address matters to be determined by the council under section 473.823, subdivision 6. The statement must address matters respecting permitting under section 473.823 only to the extent deemed necessary for the siting decision required by subdivision 3 of this section. The pollution control agency and the council shall assist and advise counties in the scoping decision and the preparation notice.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.833, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [AGENCIES; COUNCIL; REPORT ON PERMIT CONDITIONS AND APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS.] Within 30 days following the county's determination of adequacy under subdivision 2a, the chief executive officer of the metropolitan council and each permitting state agency shall issue to the county reports on permit conditions and permit application requirements at each site in the county. The reports must indicate, to the extent possible based on existing information, the probable terms, conditions, and requirements of permits and the probable supplementary documentation and environmental review that will be required for permit applications pursuant to chapter 116 and section 473.823. The reports must be consistent with the establishment of facilities in accordance with the requirements of the council's development schedule adopted under section 473.149, subdivision 2e, must not address or reconsider alternatives eliminated from consideration under sections 473.149, 473.803, subdivisions 1, 1a, and 1b, and this section, and must not address matters to be determined by the council under section 473.823, subdivision 6.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.833, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COUNTY SITE SELECTION AUTHORITIES.] Each metropolitan county shall establish a site selection authority. (BY JUNE 1, 1983) Within 90 days following the county's determination of adequacy under subdivision 2a, each site selection authority shall select specific sites within the county from the council's disposal site inventory, in accordance with the procedures established by the council under section 473.149, subdivision 2e, and in a number and capacity equal to that required by the council to be acquired by the county. Each site selection authority shall be composed of the county board, plus one member appointed by the governing body of each city or town within the county containing a site in the council's disposal site inventory or the majority of the land contained within such a site. If the number of members on the site selection authority who reside in a city or town containing all or part of a site or buffer area is equal to or greater than the number of members who do not, the chairman of the county board shall appoint to the authority an additional member or members, residing within the county but not within a city or town containing all or part of a site or buffer area, sufficient to assure a majority of one on the authority of members residing in cities and towns not containing all or any part of a site or buffer area. The chairman of the county board shall be the chairman of the site selection authority. If a site selection authority has not selected the requisite number and capacity of sites in accordance with the council's standards, criteria, and procedures (BY JUNE 1, 1983) within the time allowed by this subdivision, the council shall make the selection. A county may not be required to develop a solid waste disposal facility at a site selected pursuant to this subdivision in a municipality in which a mixed municipal solid waste resource recovery facility is located unless the council determines that the capacity and number of disposal facilities required by the development schedule for that county cannot be provided in that county without development of the disposal facility.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 473.833, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FAILURE OF COUNTIES TO ACQUIRE; REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] If any county fails to identify property for acquisition or (IF ANY COUNTY REFUSES) to proceed with environmental analysis and acquisition, as required by this section and the council's disposal facility development schedule adopted pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2e, the council shall prepare and recommend (TO THE LEGISLATURE, NO LATER THAN JANUARY 1, 1984,) legislation to transfer solid waste management authority and responsibility in the metropolitan area from the counties to the waste control commission or a new metropolitan commission established for that purpose.

Sec. 63. [SLUDGE INCINERATION.]

The metropolitan waste control commission established by section 473.503 may not acquire or expand additional incineration facilities, or plan or undertake studies for such acquisition and expansion, until the report required by section 55 is submitted.

Sec. 64. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 115A.23; 115A.27, subdivision 1; 116.07, subdivision 4c; and 116.41, subdivision 1, are repealed.

Sec. 65. [APPLICATION.]

Sections 44 to 63 are effective in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Sec. 66. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

"Sec. 64. [COUNTY FINANCING OF FACILITIES.]

The counties of Washington and Ramsey, separately or jointly, may, by resolution, authorize the issuance of bonds or other obligations, including initial obligations in an amount not to exceed an aggregate amount of $4 million issued to finance solely preliminary costs such as site acquisition and preparations and legal, engineering, financial, and planning services, to provide funds to acquire or better solid waste and related facilities, including transmission facilities and property or property rights for a solid waste or related facility, or to refund any outstanding obligations issued for that purpose.

Any later formation of a solid waste management district under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 115A, or contemplated sale or lease of any of the facilities or their work product to a private person, after the county or solid waste management district has incurred the costs of the facilities or work product, shall not restrict or limit the use of the proceeds of the bonds or other obligations.

The county may pledge to the payment of the obligations and the interest on them,

- (a) its full faith, credit, and taxing powers;*
- (b) the proceeds of any designated tax levies;*
- (c) the gross or net revenues or charges to be derived from any facility operated by or for the county;*
- (d) the proceeds of any anticipating refunding obligations, state or federal loan or grant, or any sale of the facilities or their work product;*
- (e) any other funds of the county; or*
- (f) any combination of the foregoing.*

Taxes levied for the payment of the obligations and interest shall not reduce the amounts of other taxes which the county is authorized by law to levy.

The proceeds of the bonds may be used in part to establish a reserve as further security for the payment of the principal and interest when due and to pay the cost of interest accruing on the obligations before six months after the date the facilities are first placed in service.

Revenue bonds issued pursuant to this section may be sold at public or private sale upon the conditions the county board shall determine, but any bonds to which the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the county are pledged shall be sold in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. No election shall be required to authorize the issuance of the obligations, and the debt limitations of chapter 475 or other law shall not apply to the obligations. The obligations may mature at a time or times, and in amounts, as the county board determines.

The county may covenant to refund, to the extent necessary, any temporary obligations with a term of no more than four years, in which event the tax which would otherwise be required by section 475.61, subdivision 1, need not be required. The interest rate on temporary obligations may be fixed at the time of sale or be adjusted from time to time based on an index related to the cost of borrowing, and the price at which the temporary obligations may be sold may be at any amount determined most favorable by the county board, but the resulting composite interest rate may not exceed the rate permitted under section 475.55.

Except as provided in this section, the obligations shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 475.

Sec. 65. [DISTRICT FORMATION.]

Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 115A.63, subdivision 3, or other law, Ramsey and Washington counties, before establishing a waste management district solely within their boundaries, need not demonstrate that they are unable to fulfill the purposes of a district through joint action under Minnesota Statutes, section 471.59.

Sec. 66. [POWERS ADDITIONAL AND SUPPLEMENTAL.]

The powers conferred by sections 64 and 65 are in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law or charter. Insofar as any other law or charter is inconsistent with sections 64 and 65, the provisions of sections 64 and 65 control as to facilities authorized under those sections."
