"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 214.101, as amended by Laws 1993, chapters 322, sections 1 and 2, and 340, section 2, is amended to read:

214.101 [CHILD SUPPORT; SUSPENSION OF LICENSE.]

Subdivision 1. [COURT ORDER; HEARING ON SUSPENSION.] (a) For purposes of this section, "licensing board" means a licensing board or other state agency that issues an occupational license.

(b) If a licensing board receives an order from a court or a notice from a public child support enforcement agency under section 518.551, subdivision 12, dealing with suspension of a license of a person found by the court or the public agency to be in arrears in child support or maintenance payments, or both, the board shall, within 30 days of receipt of the court order or public agency notice, provide notice to the licensee and hold a hearing. If the board finds that the person is licensed by the board and evidence of full payment of arrearages found to be due by the court or the public agency is not presented at the hearing, the board shall suspend the license unless it determines that probation is appropriate under subdivision 2. The only issues to be determined by the board are whether the person named in the court order or public agency notice is a licensee, whether the arrearages have been paid, and whether suspension or probation is appropriate. The board may not consider evidence with respect to the appropriateness of the court underlying child support order or the ability of the person to comply with the order. The board may not lift the suspension until the licensee files with the board proof showing that the licensee is current in child support payments and maintenance.

Subd. 2. [PROBATION.] If the board determines that the suspension of the license would create an extreme hardship to either the licensee or to persons whom the licensee serves, the board may, in lieu of suspension, allow the licensee to continue to practice the occupation on probation. Probation must be conditioned upon full compliance with the court order or public agency notice that referred the matter to the board. The probation period may not exceed two years, and the terms of probation must provide for automatic suspension of the license if the licensee does not provide monthly proof to the board of full compliance with the court order or public agency notice that referred the matter to the board or a further court order or public agency notice if the original order is modified by the court or the public agency.

Subd. 3. [REVOCATION OR REINSTATEMENT OF PROBATION.] If the licensee has a modification petition pending before the court or the public agency, the board may, without a hearing, defer a revocation of probation and institution of suspension until receipt of the court's ruling on the modification order. A licensee who was placed on probation and then automatically suspended may be automatically reinstated upon providing proof to the board that the licensee is currently in compliance with the court order or public agency notice.

Subd. 4. [VERIFICATION OF PAYMENTS.] Before a board may terminate probation, remove a suspension, issue, or renew a license of a person who has been suspended or placed on probation under this section, it shall contact the court or public agency that referred the matter to the board to determine that the applicant is not in arrears for child support or maintenance or both. The board may not issue or renew a license until the applicant proves to the board's satisfaction that the applicant is current in support payments and maintenance.

Subd. 5. [APPLICATION.] This section applies to support obligations ordered by any state, territory, or district of the United States."

The following may not be designated privileged bills: a major finance or revenue bill under Rule 5.12 or a committee bill under Rule 6.08. A privileged bill must be given a hearing and acted upon by the committee to which it is referred. If a privileged bill that is introduced at least 30 legislative days before the first committee deadline in Rule 9.03 is not heard and acted upon within 20 legislative days following referral, the bill shall be considered to be in the possession of the House and shall be given its second reading and placed on General Orders. The decisions to hold hearings on bills referred to the committee shall be made by the committee, and the chair shall schedule hearings in accordance with the decisions of the committee.

A majority of members of any committee shall constitute a quorum.

The Rules of the House shall be observed in all committees wherever they are applicable.

Any member of any committee may demand a roll call on any bill, resolution, report, motion or amendment before the committee. Only upon such demand being made shall the roll be called and the vote of each member on the bill, resolution, report, motion or amendment be recorded in the committee minutes, together with the name of the member demanding the roll call.

A committee may reconsider any action so long as the matter remains in the possession of the committee. A committee member need not have voted with the prevailing side in order to move reconsideration.

The question recurred on the Carruthers motion that the Report of the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, as amended, be now adopted. The motion prevailed and the Permanent Rules of the House for the 1994 Session, as amended, were adopted.

So the Permanent Rules of the House for the 1994 Session read as follows:

PERMANENT RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

ARTICLE I - DAILY BUSINESS

1.01 CONVENING OF THE HOUSE. Unless otherwise ordered, regular sessions of the House shall convene at two-thirty p.m. The Speaker shall take the chair at the hour at which the House convenes and the House shall then be called to order. A prayer shall be said by the Chaplain or time allowed for a brief meditation. Then, on the first legislative day in any calendar week, it shall be followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America. Then a roll of members shall be called and the names of members present and members excused shall be entered in the Journal of the House.

1.02 READING OF THE JOURNAL. A quorum being present, the Journal of the preceding day shall be read by the Chief Clerk unless otherwise ordered. The House may correct any errors in the Journal of the preceding day.

1.03 ORDER OF BUSINESS. After the reading of the Journal, the order of business of the day shall be:

(1) Presentation of petitions or other communications.

(2) Reports of standing committees.

(3) Second reading of House bills.

(4) Second reading of Senate bills.

(5) Reports of select committees.

(6) Introduction and first reading of House bills.

(7) Consideration of messages from the Senate.

(8) First reading of Senate bills.

(9) Consent Calendar.

(10) Calendar for the day.

(11) General Orders.

(12) Motions and resolutions.

Conference committees on House bills and the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration may report at any time except when the House is in the Committee of the Whole.

1.04 SECOND READING OF BILLS. Every bill shall require a second reading.

Except as otherwise ordered, every bill requiring the approval of the Governor shall, after a second reading, be considered in a Committee of the Whole before it shall be finally acted upon by the House.

1.05 COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. The Committee of the Whole is a committee of the entire membership of the House. The Speaker may appoint another member as chair to preside over the Committee of the Whole.

When the House arrives at the General Orders of the Day, it shall resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider bills on General Orders.

A bill considered in the Committee of the Whole shall be reported and then debated by sections, with the title considered last. All amendments shall be typewritten and five copies shall be submitted to the Chair who shall report them to the House.

1.06 RULES TO APPLY TO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. The Rules of the House shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole so far as may be applicable except that the previous question shall not be forced or speaking limited.

Upon demand of 15 members, the yeas and nays shall be called, the question voted on, and the yeas and nays recorded in the Journal of the House.

In the Committee of the Whole no amendment increasing the amount of any appropriation shall be passed without the yeas and nays recorded in the Journal of the House.

A motion that the Committee arise shall always be in order and shall be decided without debate.

1.07 GENERAL ORDERS OF THE DAY. The Chief Clerk at the direction of the Speaker shall prepare the General Orders of the Day, which is a list of all bills which have not been made Special Orders or placed on the Consent Calendar, numbered according to their order at second reading. Unless otherwise ordered by a majority of the Committee, items on General Orders shall be taken up in numerical order.

The Chief Clerk shall see that a copy of each bill printed under the Rules or Orders of the House is placed in each member's file, which is to be kept at the member's desk in the chamber, at least 24 hours before the bill shall be considered in the Committee of the Whole.

If a bill is progressed three times it shall be placed at the end of General Orders.

Except during the last five days in any year on which a bill may be passed, a bill amended in the Committee of the Whole shall not be given its third reading until it is engrossed and reproduced as amended.

1.08 THIRD READING OF BILLS. No amendment shall be received after the third reading without the unanimous consent of the House, except to fill blanks or to amend titles.

At any time prior to its passage any bill or resolution may be referred or re-referred by a majority vote of the whole House. If the committee, other than the Committee of the Whole, to which it was referred or re-referred reports an amendment on it, it shall again be given its second reading, considered in Committee of the Whole, given its third reading and placed upon its final passage.

1.09 SPECIAL ORDERS. A bill may be made the Order of the Day for a special time and be placed upon a separate list known as "Special Orders."

The Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration may by committee report designate as a Special Order any bill which has had its second reading.

Any member may move to make a bill a Special Order by giving notice at least two legislative days in advance of and specifying the day on which the member will so move. The notice shall include the number and title of the bill and the day and time certain for the Special Order. Only the member giving such notice, or another member designated in writing by the member who originally gave notice of the Special Order to the Speaker, may make the motion for the Special Order. A two-thirds vote of the whole House on such motion is required to make a bill a Special Order.

The time set for the motion may not be extended, and failure to make the motion on the specified day forfeits the right to make the motion.

A motion to make a bill a Special Order, when made according to the procedures herein prescribed, shall be a privileged motion, shall take precedence over all other motions except a motion to adjourn or to set the time to adjourn and questions of personal privilege, and may be made at any time on the day designated in the notice. A three-fourths vote of the whole House is required to suspend the motion.

Any Special Order, or any part of it, may be continued or postponed by two-thirds vote of the whole House at the time of such Special Order; however, a Special Order designated by the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration may be continued or postponed by a majority vote of the whole House at the time of such Special Order. If a bill on Special Orders has been continued three times by the author or coauthor a motion for continuance shall not be in order and the bill shall be returned to General Orders.

When the time arrives for the consideration of any Special Order, the House shall consider each bill upon the Special Order in the order in which it is listed. After consideration it shall immediately be read the third time and placed upon final passage.

1.10 FINANCE AND REVENUE BILLS GIVEN PRECEDENCE. Any bill relating to taxes or raising revenue and any finance bill, which has had its second reading, shall be acted upon whenever requested by the Chair of the Committee on Ways and Means or a designee of the Chair.

1.11 CONSENT CALENDAR. Any bill of a non-controversial nature for which the committee report recommends placement upon the Consent Calendar shall be given its second reading after the report is adopted and placed upon the Consent Calendar. The bill shall be printed and placed in the members' files at least one day before it can be considered. The bill shall be placed upon the Consent Calendar in the order in which it is given its second reading.

The Consent Calendar shall immediately precede the order of business known as "Calendar for the Day." Every bill on the Consent Calendar shall be debated, given its third reading and voted upon, provided, however, that at any time prior to third reading, ten members may object to any bill as being controversial. Any bill so objected to shall be stricken from the Consent Calendar and be immediately placed upon General Orders, taking its place in the usual order.

1.12 SUSPENSION OF RULES TO ADVANCE A BILL. Every bill shall be reported on three different days, except that in case of urgency, a two-thirds majority of the whole House may suspend this Rule. A motion for suspension of the Rules to advance a bill for consideration out of its regular order is in order under the order of business "Motions and Resolutions" or at any time the bill is before the House. The motion must be presented to the Speaker in writing and must state the present position of the bill.

1.13 MINORITY REPORTS. Any minority report shall be made separately from the majority report and shall be considered before the majority report. If the minority report is adopted the majority report shall not be considered. If the minority report is not adopted the majority report shall then be considered.

1.14 COMMITTEE REPORT LAID OVER. The report of any committee may be laid over one day and printed in the Journal, if so ordered by the House.

1.15 RECALLING BILL FROM COMMITTEE OR DIVISION. In regular session, except after the deadline for committee reports on bills originating in the House, any bill or resolution may be recalled from any committee or division at any time by majority vote of the whole House, be given a second reading and be advanced to General Orders. A motion to recall a bill or resolution shall be in order only under the order of business "Motions and Resolutions."

1.16 TIME LIMIT FOR CONSIDERATION OF BILLS. If 20 legislative days after a bill has been referred to committee or division (other than a bill in the Committee on Ways and Means, the Committee on Taxes, a finance committee, or a finance division of a standing committee) no report has been made upon it by the committee or division, its chief author may request that it be returned to the House and the request shall be entered in the Journal for the day. The committee or division shall have ten calendar days thereafter in which to vote upon the bill requested. If the committee or division fails to vote upon it within the ten days, the chief author may, at any time within five calendar days thereafter, present a written demand to the Speaker for its immediate return to the House. The demand shall be entered in the Journal for that day and shall constitute the demand of the House. The bill shall then be considered to be in the possession of the House, given its second reading and placed at the end of General Orders.

Such bill is subject to re-reference by a majority vote of the whole House. If the motion to re-refer is made on the day of the demand or within one legislative day thereafter, the motion shall take precedence over all other motions except privileged motions and shall be in order at any time.

In regular session in 1993 after Friday, May 7, and in 1994 after April 15, the House shall not act on bills other than those recommended by conference committee reports, the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, or the Committee on Ways and Means, and those bills contained in messages from the Senate or from the Governor.

THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1994

1.17 DISPOSITION OF SENATE BILLS. Any Senate File received by the House, accompanied by a message announcing its passage by the Senate, shall be referred to the appropriate standing committee in accordance with Rule 5.05. However, if a Senate File is received which is stated by a member to be identical to a House File already reported by a standing committee of the House and placed on General Orders, Calendar, Consent Calendar, or Special Orders, the Senate File shall be referred to the Chief Clerk for comparison. If the Chief Clerk reports that the Senate File is identical with the House File, the Senate File may by majority vote be substituted for the House File and take its place. The fact that the bills are identical shall be entered in the Journal and the House File is then considered withdrawn.

Any Senate File which has been amended on the floor of the House, except at time of final passage, and any Senate File which has been reported to the House with amendments by a House standing committee, shall be unofficially engrossed and reprinted by the Chief Clerk. Amendments to unofficial engrossments of a Senate File may be offered.

1.18 RECORDED FLOOR PROCEEDINGS. All proceedings on the floor of the House shall be recorded on magnetic tape or similar recording device under the direction of the Chief Clerk. All taped proceedings of the House floor sessions shall be delivered to the Director of the Legislative Reference Library and there maintained on file for use by any member of the public in accordance with the rules of the Legislative Reference Library. Tapes delivered to the Legislative Reference Library shall be delivered to the Director of the library for eight years after which they shall be delivered to the Director of the Minnesota Historical Society.

Any person may obtain a copy of any such tape during the biennium in which it is recorded upon payment of a fee determined by the Chief Clerk to be adequate to cover the cost of preparing the copy.

Discussion preserved under this rule is not intended to be admissible in any court or administrative proceeding on an issue of legislative intent.

ARTICLE II - VOTING

2.01 AUTHORIZING ELECTRIC VOTING SYSTEM. Except for a vote upon elections, any vote may be taken by means of the electric voting system which shall be under the control of the Speaker of the House. No member may vote on a question except at the member's own seat in the chamber.

2.02 CALL OF THE HOUSE. Ten members may demand a call of the House at any time except after voting has commenced. When such call is demanded, the doors shall be closed, the roll shall be called, the absent members shall be sent for, and no member may be permitted to leave until the roll call is suspended or completed. During the roll call, no motion shall be in order except a motion pertaining to matters incidental to the call. Proceedings under the roll call may be suspended by a majority vote of the whole House. After the roll call is suspended or completed the Sergeant at Arms shall not permit any member to leave the Chamber unless excused by the Speaker. A call of the House may be lifted by a majority vote of the whole House.

2.03 DEMANDING YEAS AND NAYS. Yeas and nays shall be ordered without demand upon final passage of bills and upon adoption of resolutions or motions directing the payment of money. In all other cases the yeas and nays shall be ordered only upon demand of 15 members.

2.04 EXPLAINING OR CHANGING VOTE. No member shall be allowed to explain a vote or discuss the question while the yeas and nays are being taken, nor be allowed to change a vote after the yeas and nays have been announced from the chair by the Speaker.

2.05 EVERY UNEXCUSED MEMBER TO VOTE. Any member who is immediately interested in the question being voted on shall not vote.

Every other member present before a vote is declared from the chair shall vote for or against the matter before the House, unless the House excuses the member from voting. However, no member is required to vote on any matter concerning a resolution except for a resolution relating to the internal business of the House or the Legislature.

A member who declines to vote on a call of the member's name shall be required to state reasons for so declining. After the vote has been taken but before the chair has announced the vote, the chair shall submit to the House the question, "Shall the member, for the reasons stated, be excused from voting?" which shall be decided without debate. Any other proceedings in reference thereto shall take place after announcement of the vote.

ARTICLE III - MOTIONS AND AMENDMENTS

3.01 AMENDMENTS AND OTHER MOTIONS. No amendment or other motion shall be debated until after it is stated by the Speaker.

After an amendment or other motion has been stated by the Speaker it is in possession of the House, but the mover may withdraw it at any time before amendment or decision. Unless a motion, resolution or amendment is withdrawn on the day it is made, it shall be entered in the Journal, together with the name of the member offering it.

The Speaker may require any amendment or other motion be typewritten and that five copies be given to the Chief Clerk.

3.02 PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received except the following, the first four of which shall be decided without debate:

(1) To fix the time of adjournment.

(2) To adjourn.

(3) To lay on the table.

(4) For the previous question.

(5) To refer.

(6) To postpone to a day certain.

(7) To amend.

(8) To postpone indefinitely.

(9) To pass.

The motions shall have precedence in the order listed. However, if the motion for the previous question has been seconded and the main question ordered, the motion to lay on the table shall not be in order.

3.03 MOTION TO ADJOURN. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order except during roll call.

When a motion to adjourn is made it shall be in order for the Speaker, before putting the question, to permit any member to state reasons which would seem to render adjournment improper at that time. Such a statement shall not be debatable and shall be limited to not over two minutes.

3.04 MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION. When a question has been decided either in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move its reconsideration, provided that such motion is made either on the same day the vote was taken or within the following two days of actual session of the House. A motion for reconsideration can be made at any time in the Order of Business and shall take precedence over all other questions except the motion to adjourn and the notice of intention to move reconsideration. Such motion or notice shall not be in order if the document, bill, resolution, message, report or other official action on which the vote was taken shall have left the possession of the House.

When a member gives notice of intention to move reconsideration of the final action of the House on any bill, resolution, message, report or other official action, the Chief Clerk shall retain the same until after the matter is disposed of or the time has expired during which the motion for reconsideration can be made.

On the last day allowed for the motion to reconsider, it shall be in order for any member who voted on the prevailing side to make the motion, unless the matter has been already disposed of

A motion for reconsideration having been voted upon and lost shall not be renewed.

In regular session in 1993, notice of intention to move reconsideration shall not be in order after Monday, April 19.

In regular session in 1994, notice of intention to move reconsideration shall not be in order after April 8.

3.05 ORDER OF PUTTING QUESTION. Except in the case of privileged questions, all questions, whether in committee or in the House, shall be put in the order in which they are moved. When filling blanks, a motion for the largest sum or the longest time shall be put first.

3.06 DIVISION OF A QUESTION. Any member may request the division of a question which contains several separate and distinct points. A motion to strike out and insert shall not be divisible. If a motion to strike out is lost it shall not preclude another motion to amend or to strike out and insert.

3.07 THE PREVIOUS QUESTION: The motion calling for the previous question must be seconded by 15 members. If the motion for the previous question is ordered by a majority of members present, it shall have the effect of cutting off all debate and bringing the House to direct vote upon the question or questions.

The previous question may be moved and ordered upon a single motion, a series of motions allowable under the Rules, or an amendment or amendments; or it may include all authorized motions or amendments, including a vote on final passage of a bill.

On a motion for the previous question, but prior to its being ordered, a call of the House shall be in order. After a majority has ordered the previous question, no call shall be in order prior to the decision on the main question.

When the previous question is decided in the negative, the main question remains under debate until disposed of by taking a vote either on the question or in some other manner.

All incidental questions of order arising after a motion is made for the previous question and prior to the vote on the main question shall be decided without debate.

3.08 AMENDMENTS TO AMENDMENTS. An amendment may be amended, but an amendment to an amendment may not be amended.

3.09 MOTIONS AND PROPOSITIONS TO BE GERMANE. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under guise of its being an amendment.

3.10 AMENDMENT NOT TO ANNEX ANOTHER BILL. Except in a standing committee no bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing or incorporating any other bill or resolution.

3.11 RESOLUTIONS AND MOTIONS INVOLVING EXPENDITURE OF MONEY. Any resolution or motion involving the expenditure of money out of the legislative expense fund shall be referred to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration before being acted upon by the House. 16B.75 [INTERSTATE COMPACT ON INDUSTRIALIZED/MODULAR BUILDINGS.]

The state of Minnesota ratifies and approves the following compact:

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON INDUSTRIALIZED/MODULAR BUILDINGS

ARTICLE I

FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS OF POLICY

(1) The compacting states find that:

(a) Industrialized/modular buildings are constructed in factories in the various states and are a growing segment of the nation's affordable housing and commercial building stock.

(b) The regulation of industrialized/modular buildings varies from state to state and locality to locality, which creates confusion and burdens state and local building officials and the industrialized/modular building industry.

(c) Regulation by multiple jurisdictions imposes additional costs, which are ultimately borne by the owners and users of industrialized/modular buildings, restricts market access and discourages the development and incorporation of new technologies.

(2) It is the policy of each of the compacting states to:

(a) Provide the states which regulate the design and construction of industrialized/modular buildings with a program to coordinate and uniformly adopt and administer the states' rules and regulations for such buildings, all in a manner to assure interstate reciprocity.

(b) Provide to the United States Congress assurances that would preclude the need for a voluntary preemptive federal regulatory system for modular housing, as outlined in Section 572 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1987, including development of model standards for modular housing construction, such that design and performance will insure quality, durability and safety; will be in accordance with life-cycle cost-effective energy conservation standards; all to promote the lowest total construction and operating costs over the life of such housing.

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Commission" means the interstate industrialized/modular buildings commission.

(2) "Industrialized/modular building" means any building which is of closed construction, i.e. constructed in such a manner that concealed parts or processes of manufacture cannot be inspected at the site, without disassembly, damage or destruction, and which is made or assembled in manufacturing facilities, off the building site, for installation, or assembly and installation, on the building site. "Industrialized/modular building" includes, but is not limited to, modular housing which is factory-built single-family and multifamily housing (including closed wall panelized housing) and other modular, nonresidential buildings. "Industrialized/modular building" does not include any structure subject to the requirements of the National Manufactured Home Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974.

(3) "Interim reciprocal agreement" means a formal reciprocity agreement between a noncompacting state wherein the noncompacting state agrees that labels evidencing compliance with the model rules and regulations for industrialized/modular buildings, as authorized in Article VIII, section (9), shall be accepted by the state and its subdivisions to permit installation and use of industrialized/modular buildings. Further, the noncompacting state agrees that by legislation or regulation, and appropriate enforcement by uniform administrative procedures, the noncompacting state requires all industrialized/modular building manufacturers within that state to comply with the model rules and regulations for industrialized/modular buildings.

(4) "State" means a state of the United States, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(5) "Uniform administrative procedures" means the procedures adopted by the commission (after consideration of any recommendations from the rules development committee) which state and local officials, and other parties, in one state, will utilize to assure state and local officials, and other parties, in other states, of the substantial compliance of industrialized/modular building construction with the construction standard of requirements of such other states; to assess the adequacy of building systems; and to verify and assure the competency and performance of evaluation and inspection agencies.

(6) "Model rules and regulations for industrialized/modular buildings" means the construction standards adopted by the commission (after consideration of any recommendations from the rules development committee) which govern the design, manufacture, handling, storage, delivery and installation of industrialized/modular buildings and building components. The construction standards and any amendments thereof shall conform insofar as practicable to model building codes and referenced standards generally accepted and in use throughout the United States.

ARTICLE III

CREATION OF COMMISSION

The compacting states hereby create the Interstate Industrialized/Modular Buildings Commission, hereinafter called commission. Said commission shall be a body corporate of each compacting state and an agency thereof. The commission shall have all the powers and duties set forth herein and such additional powers as may be conferred upon it by subsequent action of the respective legislatures of the compacting states.

ARTICLE IV

SELECTION OF COMMISSIONERS

The commission shall be selected as follows. As each state becomes a compacting state, one resident shall be appointed as commissioner. The commissioner shall be selected by the governor of the compacting state, being designated from the state agency charged with regulating industrialized/modular buildings or, if such state agency does not exist, being designated from among those building officials with the most appropriate responsibilities in the state. The commissioner may designate another official as an alternate to act on behalf of the commissioner at commission meetings which the commissioner is unable to attend.

Each state commissioner shall be appointed, suspended, or removed and shall serve subject to and in accordance with the laws of the state which said commissioner represents; and each vacancy occurring shall be filled in accordance with the laws of the state wherein the vacancy exists.

When For every three state commissioners who have been appointed in the manner described, those state commissioners shall select one additional commissioner who shall be a representative of manufacturers of industrial-residential- or commercial-use industrialized/modular buildings. When For every six state commissioners who have been appointed in the manner described, the state commissioners shall select a second one additional commissioner who shall be a representative of consumers of industrialized/modular buildings. When For every six state commissioners who have been appointed in the manner described, the state commissioners shall select a second one additional commissioner who shall be a representative of consumers of industrialized/modular buildings. With each addition of three state commissioners, the state commissioners shall appoint one additional representative commissioner, alternating between a representative of manufacturers of industrialized/modular buildings and consumers of industrialized/modular buildings. The ratio between state commissioners and representative commissioners shall be three to one. The notice shall also be mailed or otherwise delivered to each person who has filed a written request for notice of special meetings with the public body. This notice shall be posted and mailed or delivered at least three days before the date of the meeting. As an alternative to mailing or otherwise delivering notice to persons who have filed a written request for notice of special meetings, the public body may publish the notice once, at least three days before the meeting, in the official newspaper of the public body or, if there is none, in a qualified newspaper of general circulation within the area of the public body's authority. The public body shall identify the individual to be evaluated prior to closing a meeting. At its next open meeting, the public body shall summarize its conclusions regarding the evaluation. [VIOLATION; PENALTY PENALTIES.] (a) Any person who violates subdivision 1 this section shall be subject to personal liability in the form of a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $100 $300 for a single occurrence, which shall not be paid by the public body. An action to enforce this penalty may be brought by any person in any court of competent jurisdiction where the administrative office of the governing body is located. Upon a third violation by the same person connected with the same governing body, such person shall forfeit any further right to serve on such governing body or in any other capacity with such public body for a period of time equal to the term of office such person was then serving. The court determining the merits of any action in connection with any alleged third violation shall receive competent, relevant evidence in connection therewith and, upon finding as to the occurrence of a separate third violation, unrelated to the previous violations issue its order declaring the position vacant and notify the appointing authority or clerk of the governing body. As soon as practicable thereafter the appointing authority or the governing body shall fill the position as in the case of any other vacancy.

(b) In addition to other remedies, the court may award reasonable costs, disbursements, and up to $7,500 in attorney's fees to any party in an action under this section. A public body may by separate motion at a public meeting pay, or direct its insurer or self-insurance administrator to pay to the extent that a policy or coverage agreement so requires, costs, disbursements, and attorney's fees incurred by or awarded against any of its members in an action brought under this section, unless the court finds that the member was guilty of malfeasance in office, willful neglect of duty, or bad faith.

(c) No monetary penalties may be imposed on a member of a public body, or attorney's fees awarded to a plaintiff, if the defendant establishes that there was no specific intent to violate this section.

Subd. 3. [POPULAR NAME CITATION.] This section may be cited as the "Minnesota open meeting law".

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Subd. 2. [RESTORING LICENSE.] For reasons it finds sufficient, the board may grant a license previously refused, restore a license that has been revoked, or reduce a period of suspension or restriction of a license.

Subd. 3. [REVIEW.] Suspension, revocation, or restriction of a license must be reviewed by the board at the request of the licensee against whom the disciplinary action was taken.

Sec. 11. [148.630] [LICENSE REQUIRED.]

(a) No person may engage in dietetics or nutrition practice unless the person is licensed as a dietitian or nutritionist by the board. No person may use the title "dietitian" or "nutritionist" or any title deemed equivalent by the board unless so licensed by the board, nor shall any person hold out as a dietitian or nutritionist unless so licensed.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 2 to 14, a dietitian registered by the commission shall have the right to use the title "registered dietitian" and the designation "R.D." Sec. 12. [148.631] [PENALTY.]

A person who violates sections 2 to 14 is guilty of a misdemeanor. If a person other than a licensed dictitian or nutritionist engages in an act or practice constituting an offense under sections 2 to 14, a district court on application of the board may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining the act or practice.

Sec. 13. [148.632] [EXEMPTIONS; VOLUNTARY LICENSING.]

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS EXCEPTED FROM THE LICENSING REQUIREMENT.] Nothing in sections 2 to 14 prevents or restricts the activities of:

(1) any person pursuing a degree in dietetics or nutrition at an accredited college or university who is practicing under the supervision of a licensed dietitian or licensed nutritionist and in accordance with accepted scientific knowledge and standards of practice, provided that the person is designated by a title which clearly indicates the person's status as a student or trainee;

(2) any person in the process of fulfilling the professional experience requirements in dietetics or nutrition necessary for licensure who is practicing under the supervision of a licensed dietitian or licensed nutritionist and in accordance with accepted scientific knowledge and standards of practice, provided that the person is designated by a title which clearly indicates the person's status as a trainee;

Beginning in 1993, The chair of the council shall submit the results from the metropolitan area to the commissioner director by March May 1 of each year. The commissioner director shall average the nonmetropolitan and metropolitan results and submit the statewide percentage, along with a statistically reliable margin of error, to the director by April 1 of each year. The director shall report the information to the legislative commission on waste management by July 1 of each year.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.5501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [DEFINITION.] For the purposes of this section only, "solid waste" means mixed municipal solid waste, industrial waste, medical waste, and construction debris.

Sec. 9. [115A.5502] [PACKAGING STUDY AND RECOMMENDATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [STUDY AND RECOMMENDATIONS.] (a) The director, in consultation with the commissioner, manufacturers, packagers, recyclers, public and private solid waste managers, environmental groups, and other interested persons, shall undertake a continuing study of:

(1) the feasibility and prudence of implementing sections 115A.561, requiring recycled content in limited types of material and containers; 116F.12, prohibiting management of waste transport packaging as part of other solid waste; and 116F.13, establishing guidelines for use of disposable packaging; and

(2) any other issues determined by the director to be relevant to encouraging and achieving the maximum reduction of packaging in the solid waste stream that is feasible and prudent.

(b) In determining the feasibility and prudence of implementing the sections listed in paragraph (a), the director also shall study the effects of minimum recycled content requirements, regulation of transport packaging, and guidelines for and regulation of disposable packaging in other states and other nations.

(c) For recycled content requirements, the director also shall analyze the extent to which products and packaging are or reasonably can be made available with significant postconsumer material content in light of existing and developing technologies and in light of the direct and indirect costs of postconsumer material in relation to direct and indirect costs of virgin material. If the director finds that postconsumer content requirements are feasible and prudent and may be effective in encouraging markets for recycled materials, the director periodically may recommend to the legislative commission on waste management minimum postconsumer material content standards for specific types of products or packaging sufficient to significantly increase market demand for recyclable materials that are technologically and economically feasible and prudent. Specifically, the director shall determine whether the postconsumer material standards established in section 115A.561 are appropriate and achievable and shall recommend to the legislative commission on waste management, as part of the report required in section 115A.5501, subdivision 4, that each individual standard take effect, be further studied, or be reduced, increased, or repealed.

(d) For regulation of management of waste transport packaging, the director shall study the most efficient design and use of transport packaging, how waste transport packaging is presently managed, how generators of waste transport packaging can manage the packaging by reuse and recycling rather than by destruction of the packaging or by landfilling it. The director shall make recommendations to packagers, transporters, and receivers of items in transport packaging on how best to design and use transport packaging and how to manage waste packaging outside the solid waste management system. The director periodically may recommend to the legislative commission appropriate regulation of transport packaging. Specifically, the director shall recommend to the legislative commission on waste management, as part of the report required in section 115A.5501, subdivision 4, whether the transport packaging prohibition in section 116F.12 should be implemented, further studied, adjusted, or repealed.

(e) For discardable packaging, the director shall determine whether packagers are making progress toward meeting the proposed guidelines in section 116F.13. The director specifically shall recommend, as part of the report required under section 115A.5501, subdivision 4, whether to adjust, provide enforcement of, repeal, or let stand the guidelines for discardable packaging in section 116F.13. The director periodically shall recommend to the legislative commission on waste management how to significantly reduce the use of discardable packaging and the presence of discardable packaging in solid waste. The director shall consider all means of achieving reduction in both the quantity and toxicity of discardable packaging in use and in the solid waste stream, including requirements for and/or prohibitions on the use of certain materials in the manufacture of disposable packaging, prohibitions on the use of discardable packaging, advance disposal or recycling fees on discardable packaging, mandatory recycling of discardable packaging, and any other means of achieving reduction proposed by any interested person. At a minimum, the recommendations must include:

(1) how, by 2000, to reduce by at least 50 percent over 1995 levels the amount of discardable packaging in solid waste delivered to solid waste composting, incineration, refuse-derived fuel, and disposal facilities;

(2) how to reduce, to the greatest extent technically feasible, the presence of any materials or combinations of materials in discardable packaging that are toxic, may combine with other materials during a waste management process to become toxic, or make the packaging impossible, difficult, or costly to recycle; and

(3) how to ensure that any additional costs incurred to redesign packaging, recycle increased quantities or types of materials, and administer any necessary government programs to oversee production, use, sale, and management of discardable packaging be recovered from the manufacture, use, and sale of the packaging, and not from state or local revenue or from the solid waste management system itself.

Subd. 2. [PERIODIC AND SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS.] (a) Until July 1, 1996, any periodic recommendations made by the director under subdivision 1 may not include making any of the provisions of section 115A.561, 116F.12, or 116F.13 more stringent or enforcing any of those provisions.

(b) As part of the report required on July 1, 1996, under section 115A.5501, subdivision 4, the director shall specifically recommend implementation and enforcement of sections 115A.561, 116F.12, and/or 116F.13, with appropriate alterations, if the director finds that:

(1) the 25 percent packaging reduction goal in section 115A.5501 has not been met;

(2) continuing significant reduction of packaging in the waste stream will be adversely affected if one or more of those sections is not implemented;

(3) in relation to section 115A.561, implementation of recycled content standards will encourage or stabilize markets for recyclable materials;

(4) in relation to section 116F.12, there remains a significant quantity of transport packaging in the waste stream and it is unlikely to be reduced by at least 75 percent of 1995 levels by January 1, 1998; or

(5) in relation to section 116F.13, random sampling shows that less than 50 percent of consumer packaging available in retail stores in the state substantially complies with the discardable packaging guidelines.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS.] The provisions of sections 115A.561, relating to recycled content in materials and packaging; 116F.12, relating to management of transport packaging; and 116F.13, relating to discardable packaging are advisory only until the legislature acts to make them enforceable. Neither the director, the commissioner, the attorney general, a county attorney, or any other person may enforce any of the provisions in any of those sections without legislative direction to enforce them.

Sec. 10. [115A.561] [RECYCLED CONTENT IN CERTAIN PRODUCTS AND PACKAGING.]

Subdivision 1. [MINIMUM RECYCLED CONTENT.] (a) Newsprint that is distributed for sale to or use by consumers in this state must contain a minimum percentage of postconsumer material of 50 percent by January 1, 2000, unless the newsprint is consumed by a printer who prints less than 10,000 copies each month of all publications printed by that printer on newsprint, in which case, the newsprint must contain a minimum percentage of postconsumer material of 30 percent by January 1, 2000. (b) Glass packaging that is distributed for sale or use, including sale to or use by consumers of products contained in the glass packaging who reside in this state, must contain a minimum percentage of postconsumer material of 50 percent by January 1, 2000.

(c) A rigid plastic container that is distributed for sale or use, including sale to or use by a consumer of a product contained in the container who resides in this state, must contain a minimum of 25 percent postconsumer material by January 1, 2000. For the purposes of this paragraph, "rigid plastic container" means a formed or molded container composed predominantly of plastic resin and having a relatively inflexible finite shape or form intended primarily as a single service container with a capacity of eight ounces or more, but less than five gallons.

(d) Paperboard packaging, excluding corrugated paperboard packaging, that is distributed for sale or use, including sale to or use by a consumer of a product contained in the packaging who resides in this state, must contain a minimum percentage of postconsumer material of 50 percent by January 1, 2000.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT.] Under section 115A.5502, subdivision 3, this section is advisory only and is unenforceable unless the legislature acts affirmatively to make it enforceable.

Sec. 11. [116F.10] [DEFINITIONS.]

Unless otherwise provided, the definitions in section 115A.03 apply to this chapter.

Sec. 12. [116F.11] [PACKAGING PRACTICES; PREFERENCES; GOALS.]

Packaging forms a substantial portion of solid waste and contributes to environmental degradation and the costs of managing solid waste. It is imperative to reduce the amount and toxicity of packaging that must be managed as solid waste. In order to achieve significant reduction of packaging in solid waste and to assist packagers and others to meet the packaging reduction goal in section 115A.5501, the goal of the state is that items be distributed without any packaging where feasible and, only when necessary to protect health and safety or product integrity, with the minimal amount of packaging possible. The following categories of packaging are listed in order of preference for use by all persons who find it necessary to package items for distribution or use in the state:

(1) minimal packaging that contains no intentionally introduced toxic materials and that is designed to be and actually is reused for its original purpose at least five times;

(2) minimal packaging that contains no intentionally introduced toxic materials and that consists of at least 50 percent postconsumer material as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 24b;

(3) minimal packaging that contains no intentionally introduced toxic materials, that is recyclable, and is regularly collected through recycling collection programs available to at least 75 percent of the residents of the state;

(4) minimal packaging that does not comply with clauses (1) to (3) because it is required under federal or state law and for which there does not exist a commercially feasible alternative that does comply with clauses (1) to (3);

(5) packaging that contains no intentionally introduced toxic materials but does not comply with clauses (1) to (4); and

(6) all other packaging.

It is the further goal of this chapter that the packaging described in clauses (5) and (6) no longer be in use for any purpose after December 31, 1999.

Sec. 13. [116F.12] [TRANSPORT PACKAGING.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] "Transport packaging" means packaging as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 22b, that is used primarily for transportation of products prior to final sale or delivery, whichever occurs later, of the products to their ultimate consumers. Transport packaging includes, but is not limited to, crates, barrels, boxes, pallets, and packing materials that are or may be removed prior to final sale or delivery of a product to a consumer.

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITION.] (a) Beginning January 1, 1998, a person may not place transport packaging in:

(1) mixed municipal solid waste, industrial waste, medical waste, or construction debris;

(2) a resource recovery facility other than for reuse or recycling; or

(3) a disposal facility.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a), transport packaging may be delivered to a resource recovery facility or a disposal facility for reuse or recycling as long as the packaging is not placed in that portion of the facility that composts waste, burns waste, processes waste into refuse-derived fuel, or disposes of waste.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT.] Under section 115A.5502, subdivision 3, this section is advisory only and is unenforceable unless the legislature acts affirmatively to make it enforceable.

Sec. 14. [116F.13] [DISCARDABLE PACKAGING.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section:

(1) "discardable packaging" means packaging that is not transport packaging as defined in section 116F.12 or reusable packaging;

(2) "recyclable packaging" means packaging made of a material that is collected either:

(i) through recycling collection programs available to 75 percent of the state's residents; or

(ii) by a collection program established by a manufacturer or distributor of the product contained in the packaging that is designed to collect and recycle a minimum of 60 percent of the packaging; and

(3) "reusable packaging" means packaging that is designed to be reused for its original purpose at least five times and for which systems for return and reuse are in operation statewide.

Subd. 2. [GUIDELINES.] For a consumer product sold or otherwise distributed for use in this state, the person who packages the product shall, to the extent practical:

(1) use the minimal amount of packaging necessary to protect the product;

(2) use recyclable packaging;

(3) use packaging that, all layers taken together, meets or exceeds the postconsumer material content requirements in section 115A.561 for the packaging specified in that section and contains the maximum reasonably feasible postconsumer content for packaging not specified in that section; and

(4) label, in compliance with section 325E.41, the outermost layer of packaging to clearly inform the consumer prior to purchase of the ways in which the packaging, taken as a whole, complies with clauses (1) to (3).

Subd. 3. [EFFECT.] Under section 115A.5502, subdivision 3, this section is advisory only and is unenforceable unless the legislature acts affirmatively to make it enforceable.

Sec. 15. [116F.20] [REFUSAL TO STOCK PRODUCTS IN REUSABLE CONTAINERS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, "reusable container" means a container that is designed to be and actually is reused at least five times for its original purpose by any number of persons who are in the business of placing contents in the container.

Subd. 2. [ANTICOMPETITIVE CONDUCT PROHIBITED.] A retailer or wholesaler may not refuse, after request by a manufacturer, bottler, or distributor, to stock a product, including a food or a beverage, for sale because the product is packaged in reusable containers. A person who violates this subdivision engages in anticompetitive conduct by excluding the manufacturer's, bottler's, or distributor's products that utilize reusable containers from fair competition with products packaged in discardable packaging.

Subd. 3. [BURDEN OF PROOF.] A retailer or wholesaler who refuses to stock a product for sale that is packaged in reusable containers and who is accused of anticompetitive conduct under this section has the burden of proving that the product was refused for reasons other than that it is packaged in reusable containers. Subd. 4. [ENFORCEMENT; REMEDIES.] The attorney general may enforce this section under section 8.31. In addition, a person who would suffer injury from a threatened violation of this section or who does suffer injury from an actual violation of this section may bring an action to enjoin the threatened or actual violation and may recover actual damages, court costs, and reasonable attorney fees from the violator.

Sec. 16. [325E.41] [DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES; ENVIRONMENTAL MARKETING CLAIMS.]

Subdivision 1. [DECEPTIVE CLAIMS; ADOPTION OF FEDERAL GUIDES.] A manufacturer, packager, wholesaler, or retailer who makes, in any manner, an environmental claim for a product, including for the product's packaging, for sale or distribution in this state shall comply with the guides for the use of environmental marketing claims that were issued by the Federal Trade Commission on July 28, 1992, as revised.

Subd. 2. [ENFORCEMENT.] A person who violates this section is subject to the penalties and remedies in section 8.31, including a private right of action.

Sec. 17. [PILOT PROJECTS; SCHOOL MILK.]

The director of the office of waste management shall use a portion of the funds available in fiscal year 1995 for grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 115A.55, for pilot projects to determine the feasibility of long-term use of refillable milk containers for use in schools. The director shall make grants for pilot projects to at least one school or school district located in the metropolitan area, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.121, and one school or school district located outside the metropolitan area.

Sec. 18. [BEVERAGE CONTAINERS; STUDY AND REPORT.]

By December 1, 1994, the director of the office of waste management shall prepare and submit to the legislative commission on waste management a report that analyzes the costs and benefits of discardable beverage containers in relation to the costs and benefits of reusable beverage containers. The director may rely on existing analyses of the advantages and disadvantages of disposable containers and reusable containers and existing analyses of container deposit systems in operation in other states. The director shall analyze at least the effects of discardable and reusable containers on labor and the availability of jobs related to those containers, on breweries, dairies, and other bottlers in the state, on other businesses in the state including retailers, on public health and the environment, and on solid waste management systems.

Sec. 19. [WOOD WASTE AND WOOD PRODUCTS RESIDUE; MARKETING PLAN.]

By January 1, 1996, the director of the office of waste management, in consultation with wood products manufacturers, users of transport packaging made of wood or wood products, consumers including reusers and recyclers of wood waste and wood products residue, the commissioners of the departments of trade and economic development, public service, and natural resources, the Minnesota technical assistance program, the University of Minnesota extension service, and other interested persons, shall develop a statewide wood waste and wood products residue marketing plan. The plan must:

(1) identify generators of wood waste and wood products residue;

(2) identify existing and potential markets for wood waste and wood products residue;

(3) provide guidelines for the collection, transportation, storage, processing, and reuse or recycling of wood waste and wood products residue; and

(4) recommend to the legislative commission on waste management any legislation necessary to encourage development of greater capacity in the state to reuse and recycle wood waste and wood products residue to ensure that those items are managed to maximize their environmental and economic benefits to society.

The director shall develop the marketing plan in light of the prohibition on placing transport packaging made of wood or wood products in solid waste or in a solid waste facility under Minnesota Statutes, section 116F.12. The director may include in the marketing plan a recommendation to adjust that prohibition if necessary to implement a sound marketing system for wood waste and wood products residue.

Sec. 20. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subd. 1a. [NO JUVENILE COURT JURISDICTION OVER CERTAIN OFFENDERS.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the juvenile court lacks jurisdiction over proceedings concerning a child described in section 260.015, subdivision 5, paragraph (b). The district court has original and exclusive jurisdiction in criminal proceedings concerning a child described in section 260.015, subdivision 5, paragraph (b).

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.115, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.125, is amended to read:

260.125 [REFERENCE FOR PROSECUTION CERTIFICATION TO DISTRICT COURT.]

Subdivision 1. When a child is alleged to have violated a state or local law or ordinance committed, after becoming 14 years of age, an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, the juvenile court may enter an order referring certifying the alleged violation proceeding to the appropriate prosecuting authority district court for action under the criminal laws in force governing the commission of and punishment for violations of statutes or local laws or ordinances. The prosecuting authority to whom the matter is referred shall within the time specified in the order of reference, which time shall not exceed 90 days, file with the court making the order of reference notice of intent to prosecute or not to prosecute. If the prosecuting authority files notice of intent not to prosecute or fails to act within the time specified, the court shall proceed as if no order of reference had been made. If such prosecuting authority files with the court in the matter is terminated.

Subd. 2. [ORDER OF REFERENCE CERTIFICATION; REQUIREMENTS.] Except as provided in subdivision 3a or 3b, the juvenile court may order a reference certification to district court only if:

(a) (1) a petition has been filed in accordance with the provisions of section 260.131;

(b) (2) a motion for certification has been filed by the prosecuting authority;

(3) notice has been given in accordance with the provisions of sections 260.135 and 260.141;

(e) (4) a hearing has been held in accordance with the provisions of section 260.155 within 30 days of the filing of the reference certification motion, unless good cause is shown by the prosecution or the child as to why the hearing should not be held within this period in which case the hearing shall be held within 90 days of the filing of the motion; and

(d) (5) the court finds that

(1) there is probable cause, as defined by the rules of criminal procedure promulgated pursuant to section 480.059, to believe the child committed the offense alleged by delinquency petition; and

(2) (6) the court finds either:

(i) that the presumption of certification created by subdivision 2a applies and the child has not rebutted the presumption by clear and convincing evidence demonstrating that retaining the proceeding in the juvenile court serves public safety; or

(ii) that the presumption of certification does not apply and the prosecuting authority has demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that the child is not suitable to treatment or that the retaining the proceeding in the juvenile court does not serve public safety is not served under the provisions of laws relating to juvenile courts. If the court finds that the prosecutor has not demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that retaining the proceeding in juvenile court does not serve public safety, the court shall retain the proceeding in juvenile court.

Subd. 2a. [PRESUMPTION OF CERTIFICATION.] It is presumed that a proceeding involving an offense committed by a child will be certified to district court if:

(1) the child was 16 or 17 years old at the time of the offense; and

(2) the delinquency petition alleges that the child committed an offense that would result in a presumptive commitment to prison under the sentencing guidelines and applicable statutes.

If the court determines that probable cause exists to believe the child committed the alleged offense, the burden is on the child to rebut this presumption by demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that retaining the proceeding in the juvenile court serves public safety. If the court finds that the child has not rebutted the presumption by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall certify the child to district court.

Subd. 2b. [PUBLIC SAFETY.] In determining whether the public safety is served by certifying a child to district court, the court shall consider the following factors:

(1) the seriousness of the alleged offense in terms of community protection, including the existence of any aggravating factors recognized by the sentencing guidelines, the use of a firearm, and the impact on any victim;

(2) the culpability of the child in committing the alleged offense, including the level of the child's participation in planning and carrying out the offense and the existence of any mitigating factors recognized by the sentencing guidelines;

(3) whether the child committed the alleged offense as a member of a group whose members have been involved in repeated, joint, adjudicated felony-level behavior;

(4) the child's prior record of delinquency;

(5) the child's programming history, including the child's past willingness to participate meaningfully in available programming;

(6) the adequacy of the punishment available in the juvenile justice system; and

(7) the dispositional options available for the child.

In considering these factors, the court shall give greater weight to the seriousness of the alleged offense and the child's prior record of delinquency than to the other factors listed in this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [PRIMA FACIE CASE.] A prima facie case that the public safety is not served or that the child is not suitable for treatment shall have been established if the child was at least 16 years of age at the time of the alleged offense and:

(1) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed an aggravated felony against the person and (a) in committing the offense, the child acted with particular cruelty or disregard for the life or safety of another; or (b) the offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning by the juvenile; or (c) the juvenile, at the time of the offense, used, whether by brandishing, displaying, threatening with, or otherwise employing, a firearm; or

(2) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed murder in the first degree; or

(3) is alleged by delinquency petition (a) to have committed the delinquent act of escape from confinement to a state juvenile correctional facility and (b) to have committed an offense as part of, or subsequent to, escape from custody that would be a felony listed in section 609.11, subdivision 9, if committed by an adult; or

(4) has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed an offense within the preceding 24 months which would be a felony if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed murder in the second or third degree, manslaughter in the first degree, criminal sexual conduct in the first degree or assault in the first degree; or

(5) has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed two offenses, not in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months which would be felonies if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed manslaughter in the second degree, kidnapping, criminal sexual conduct in the second degree, arson in the first degree, aggravated robbery, or assault in the second degree; or

(6) has been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed two offenses, not in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months, one or both of which would be the felony of burglary of a dwelling if committed by an adult, and the child is alleged by the delinquency petition to have committed another burglary of a dwelling. For purposes of this subdivision, "dwelling" means a building which is, in whole or in part, usually occupied by one or more persons living there at night; or

(7) has previously been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed three offenses, none in the same behavioral incident, within the preceding 24 months which would be felonies if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed any felony other than those described in clause (2), (4), or (5); or

(8) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed an aggravated felony against the person, other than a violation of section 609.713, in furtherance of criminal activity by an organized gang; or

(9) has previously been found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed an offense which would be a felony if committed by an adult, and is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed a felony level violation of chapter 152 involving the unlawful sale or possession of a schedule I or II controlled substance, while in a park zone or a school zone as defined in section 152.01, subdivisions 12a and 14a. This clause does not apply to a juvenile alleged to have unlawfully possessed a controlled substance in a private residence located within the school zone or park zone; or

(10) is alleged by delinquency petition to have committed a violation of section 624.713, subdivision 1, clause (a), and has been previously found by the court, pursuant to an admission in court or after trial, to have committed a violation of section 624.713, subdivision 1, clause (a).

For the purposes of this subdivision, "aggravated felony against the person"-means a violation of any of the following provisions: -section 609.185; 609.19; 609.20; subdivision 1 or 2; 609.221; 609.222; 609.223; 609.245; 609.25; 609.342; 609.343; 609.344, subdivision 1, clause (c) or (d); 609.345, subdivision 1, clause (c) or (d); 609.582, subdivision 1, clause (b) or (c); or 609.713.

For the purposes of this subdivision, an "organized gang" means an association of five or more persons, with an established hierarchy, formed to encourage members of the association to perpetrate crimes or to provide support to members of the association who do commit crimes.

Subd. 3a. [PRIOR REFERENCE CERTIFICATION; EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions 2, and 3 2a, and 2b, the court shall order a reference certification in any felony case where if the prosecutor shows that the child has been previously referred for prosecution prosecuted on a felony charge by an order of reference certification issued pursuant to either a hearing held under subdivision 2 or pursuant to the waiver of the right to such a hearing, other than a prior reference certification in the same case.

This subdivision only applies if the child is convicted of the offense or offenses for which the child was prosecuted pursuant to the order of reference certification or of a lesser included lesser-included offense which is a felony.

This subdivision does not apply to juvenile offenders who are subject to criminal court jurisdiction under section 609.055.

Subd. 3b. [ADULT CHARGED WITH JUVENILE OFFENSE.] The juvenile court has jurisdiction to hold a certification hearing on motion of the prosecuting authority to certify the matter to district court if:

(1) an adult is alleged to have committed an offense before the adult's 18th birthday; and

(2) a petition is filed under section 260.131 after the adult's 19th birthday and before expiration of the time for filing under section 628.26.

The court may not certify the matter to district court under this subdivision if the adult demonstrates that the delay was purposefully caused by the state in order to gain an unfair advantage.

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] When the juvenile court enters an order referring certifying an alleged violation to a prosecuting authority district court, the prosecuting authority shall proceed with the case as if the jurisdiction of the juvenile court had never attached.

Subd. 5. [WRITTEN FINDINGS; OPTIONS.] The court shall decide whether to order certification to district court within 15 days after the certification hearing was completed, unless additional time is needed, in which case the court may extend the period up to another 15 days. If the juvenile court orders a reference for prosecution certification, and the presumption described in subdivision 2a does not apply, the order shall contain in writing, findings of fact and conclusions of law as to why the child is not suitable to treatment or the public safety is not served under by retaining the provisions of laws relating to proceeding in the juvenile courts court. If the juvenile court, after a hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision 2, decides not to order a reference for prosecution certification to district court, the decision shall contain, in writing, findings of fact and conclusions of law as to why a reference for prosecution certification is not ordered. If the juvenile court decides not to order certification in a case in which the presumption described in subdivision 2a applies, the court shall designate the child a serious youthful offender and include in its decision written findings of fact and conclusions of law as to why the proceeding in juvenile court serves public safety, with specific reference to the factors listed in subdivision 2b. If the court decides not to order certification in a case in which the presumption described in subdivision 2a does not apply, the court may designate the child a serious youthful offender.

Subd. 6. [FIRST-DEGREE MURDER.] When a motion for certification has been filed in a case in which the petition alleges that the child committed murder in the first degree, the prosecuting authority shall present the case to the grand jury for consideration of indictment under chapter 628 within 14 days after the petition was filed.

Subd. 7. [INAPPLICABILITY TO CERTAIN OFFENDERS.] This section does not apply to a child described in section 260.015, subdivision 5, paragraph (b).

Sec. 15. [260.126] [SERIOUS YOUTHFUL OFFENDER PROCEEDINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION.] A child alleged to have committed a felony offense is a serious youthful offender if:

(1) the child was 14 to 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense, a certification hearing was held, and the court designated the child a serious youthful offender; or

(2) the child was 16 or 17 years old at the time of the alleged offense, the offense would result in a presumptive commitment to prison under the sentencing guidelines and applicable statutes, other than murder in the first degree or criminal sexual conduct in the first degree, and the prosecutor has designated in the delinquency petition that the child is a serious youthful offender.

Subd. 2. [PROCEEDINGS.] A child who is a serious youthful offender has the right to a trial by jury and to the effective assistance of counsel, as described in section 260.155, subdivision 2.

Subd. 3. [DISPOSITION.] (a) If a serious youthful offender proceeding results in a guilty plea or finding of guilt, the court shall:

(1) impose one or more juvenile dispositions under section 260.185; and

(2) impose an adult criminal sentence, the execution of which shall be stayed on the condition that the offender not violate the provisions of the disposition order and not commit a new offense.

(b) If a child designated as a serious youthful offender in the delinquency petition is convicted of an offense that would not result in a presumptive commitment to prison under the sentencing guidelines and applicable statutes, the court shall adjudicate the child delinquent and order a disposition under section 260.185.

Subd. 4. [EXECUTION OF ADULT SENTENCE.] When it appears that a person convicted as a serious youthful offender has violated the conditions of the stayed sentence, or is alleged to have committed a new offense, the court may, without notice, revoke the stay and probation and direct that the offender be taken into immediate custody. The court shall notify the offender in writing of the reasons alleged to exist for revocation of the stay of execution of the adult sentence. If the offender challenges the reasons, the court shall hold a summary hearing on the issue at which the offender is entitled to be heard and represented by counsel. After the hearing, if the court finds that reasons exist to revoke the stay of execution of sentence, the court shall treat the offender as an adult and order any of the adult sanctions authorized by section 609.14, subdivision 3. If the offender was convicted of an offense described in subdivision 1, clause (2), and the court finds that reasons exist to revoke the stay, the court must order execution of the previously-imposed sentence unless the court makes written findings regarding the mitigating factors that justify continuing the stay.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.131, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [DELINQUENCY PETITION; SERIOUS YOUTHFUL OFFENDER.] When a prosecutor files a delinquency petition alleging that a child committed a felony offense after reaching the age of 16 years, the prosecutor shall indicate in the petition whether the prosecutor designates the child a serious youthful offender.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.132, is amended to read:

260.132 [PROCEDURE; HABITUAL TRUANTS, RUNAWAYS, JUVENILE PETTY AND MISDEMEANOR OFFENDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE.] When a peace officer, or attendance officer in the case of a habitual truant, has probable cause to believe that a child:

(1) is in need of protection or services under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (11) or (12), or,

(2) is a juvenile petty offender; or

(3) has committed a delinquent act that would be a petty misdemeanor or misdemeanor if committed by an adult;

The officer shall file a copy of the notice to appear with the juvenile court of the appropriate county. If a child fails to appear in response to the notice, the court may issue a summons notifying the child of the nature of the offense alleged and the time and place set for the hearing. If the peace officer finds it necessary to take the child into custody, sections 260.165 and 260.171 shall apply.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT OF NOTICE.] Filing with the court a notice to appear containing the name and address of the child, specifying the offense alleged and the time and place it was committed, has the effect of a petition giving the juvenile court jurisdiction. In the case of running away, the place where the offense was committed may be stated in the notice as either the child's custodial parent's or guardian's residence or lawful placement or where the child was found by the officer. In the case of truancy, the place where the offense was committed may be stated as the school or the place where the child was found by the officer.

Subd. 3. This summons and notice shall be served in the time and manner provided in section 260.135, subdivision 1.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 260.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] (a) Except for hearings arising under section 260.261, hearings on any matter shall be without a jury and may be conducted in an informal manner, except that a child who is a serious youthful offender has the right to a jury trial on the issue of guilt. The rules of evidence promulgated pursuant to section 480.0591 and the law of evidence shall apply in adjudicatory proceedings involving a child alleged to be delinquent, a serious youthful offender, or a juvenile petty offender, and hearings conducted pursuant to section 260.125 except to the extent that the rules themselves provide that they do not apply. In all adjudicatory proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services, the court shall admit only evidence that would be admissible in a civil trial. To be proved at trial, allegations of a petition alleging a child to be in need of protection or services must be proved by clear and convincing evidence.

(b) Except for proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services and petitions for the termination of parental rights, hearings may be continued or adjourned from time to time. In proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services and petitions for the termination of parental rights, hearings may not be continued or adjourned for more than one week unless the court makes specific findings that the continuance or adjournment is in the best interests of the child. If a hearing is held on a petition involving physical or sexual abuse of a child who is alleged to be in need of protection or services or neglected and in foster care, the court shall file the decision with the court administrator as soon as possible but no later than 15 days after the matter is submitted to the court. When a continuance or adjournment is ordered in any proceeding, the court may make any interim orders as it deems in the best interests of the minor in accordance with the provisions of sections 260.011 to 260.301.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the court shall exclude the general public from these hearings under this chapter and shall admit only those persons who, in the discretion of the court, have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court; except that. The court shall open the hearings to the public in delinquency or serious youthful offender proceedings where the child is alleged to have committed an offense or has been proven to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult and the child was at least 16 years of age at the time of the offense, except that the court may exclude the public from portions of a certification hearing to discuss psychological material or other evidence that would not be accessible to the public in an adult proceeding.

(d) In all delinquency cases a person named in the charging clause of the petition as a person directly damaged in person or property shall be entitled, upon request, to be notified by the court administrator in writing, at the named person's last known address, of (1) the date of the reference certification or adjudicatory hearings, and (2) the disposition of the case.

(e) Adoption hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of laws relating to adoptions.

(2) the subject of a delinquency proceeding in which out-of-home placement has been proposed.

(b) If they desire counsel but are unable to employ it, the court shall appoint counsel to represent the minor child or the parents or guardian in any other case in which it feels that such an appointment is desirable.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.155, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. [PARENT OR GUARDIAN; PRESENCE AT HEARING REQUIRED.] In any proceedings concerning a minor alleged or found to be delinquent, the juvenile court may issue a subpoena requiring the presence of the minor's parent or guardian at any or all hearings held during the delinquency proceedings. The failure of a parent or guardian to comply with the subpoena may be punished as provided in section 260.145.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 260.161, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RECORDS REQUIRED TO BE KEPT.] (a) The juvenile court judge shall keep such minutes and in such manner as the court deems necessary and proper. Except as provided in paragraph (b), the court shall keep and maintain records pertaining to delinquent adjudications until the person reaches the age of 23 26 years and shall release the records on an individual to another juvenile court that has jurisdiction of the juvenile, to a requesting adult court for purposes of sentencing, or to an adult court or juvenile court as required by the right of confrontation of either the United States Constitution or the Minnesota Constitution. The juvenile court shall provide, upon the request of any other juvenile court, copies of the records concerning adjudications involving the particular child. The court also shall provide copies of records concerning delinquency adjudications, on request, to law enforcement agencies, probation officers, and corrections agents.

The court shall also keep an index in which files pertaining to juvenile matters shall be indexed under the name of the child. After the name of each file shall be shown the file number and, if ordered by the court, the book and page of the register in which the documents pertaining to such file are listed. The court shall also keep a register properly indexed in which shall be listed under the name of the child all documents filed pertaining to the child and in the order filed. The list shall show the name of the document and the date of filing thereof. The juvenile court legal records shall be deposited in files and shall include the petition, summons, notice, findings, orders, decrees, judgments, and motions and such other matters as the court deems necessary and proper. Unless otherwise provided by law, all court records shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of any child to whom the records relate, and to the child's parent and guardian.

(b) The court shall retain records of the court finding that a juvenile committed an act that would be a violation of, or an attempt to violate, section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, until the offender reaches the age of  $25 \ 28$ . If the offender commits another violation of sections 609.342 to 609.345 as an adult, or the court convicts a child as a serious youthful offender, the court shall retain the juvenile records for as long as the records would have been retained if the offender had been an adult at the time of the juvenile offense. This paragraph does not apply unless the juvenile was represented by an attorney when the petition was admitted or proven provided counsel as required by section 260.155, subdivision 2.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.161, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [RECORD OF ADJUDICATIONS; NOTICE TO BUREAU OF CRIMINAL APPREHENSION.] (a) The juvenile court shall forward to the bureau of criminal apprehension the following data on juveniles adjudicated delinquent for having committed an act described in subdivision 1, paragraph (b) felony-level criminal sexual conduct:

(b) The bureau shall retain data on a juvenile until the offender reaches the age of 25 28. If the offender commits another violation of sections 609.342 to 609.345 as an adult, the bureau shall retain the data for as long as the data would have been retained if the offender had been an adult at the time of the juvenile offense.

(c) The juvenile court shall forward to the bureau the following data on individuals convicted as serious youthful offenders:

(1) the name and birthdate of the offender;

(2) the crime committed by the offender and the date of the crime; and

(3) the date and county in which the offender was convicted.

The bureau shall retain the serious youthful offender data until 15 years have elapsed since the disposition order expired. If the offender's stayed adult sentence is executed under section 260.126, subdivision 4, the bureau shall retain the data for as long as the data would have been retained if the offender had been an adult at the time of the offense.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.161, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Except as provided in this subdivision and in subdivision 1, and except for legal records arising from proceedings or portions of proceedings that are public under section 260.155, subdivision 1, none of the records of the juvenile court and none of the records relating to an appeal from a nonpublic juvenile court proceeding, except the written appellate opinion, shall be open to public inspection or their contents disclosed except (a) by order of a court or (b) as required by sections 245A.04, 611A.03, 611A.04, 611A.06, and 629.73. The records of juvenile probation officers and county home schools are records of the court for the purposes of this subdivision. Court services data relating to delinquent acts that are contained in records of the juvenile court may be released as allowed under section 13.84, subdivision 5a. This subdivision applies to all proceedings under this chapter, including appeals from orders of the juvenile court, except that this subdivision does not apply to proceedings under section 260.255, 260.261, or 260.315 when the proceeding involves an adult defendant. The court shall maintain the confidentiality of adoption files and records in accordance with the provisions of laws relating to adoptions. In juvenile court proceedings any report or social history furnished to the court shall be open to inspection by the attorneys of record and the guardian ad litem a reasonable time before it is used in connection with any proceeding before the court.

When a judge of a juvenile court, or duly authorized agent of the court, determines under a proceeding under this chapter that a child has violated a state or local law, ordinance, or regulation pertaining to the operation of a motor vehicle on streets and highways, except parking violations, the judge or agent shall immediately report the violation to the commissioner of public safety. The report must be made on a form provided by the department of public safety and must contain the information required under section 169.95.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 260.161, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PEACE OFFICER RECORDS OF CHILDREN.] (a) Except for records relating to an offense where proceedings are public under section 260.155, subdivision 1, peace officers' records of children who are or may be delinquent or who may be engaged in criminal acts shall be kept separate from records of persons 18 years of age or older and are private data but shall be disseminated: (1) by order of the juvenile court, (2) as required by section 126.036, (3) as authorized under section 13.82, subdivision 2, (4) to the child or the child's parent or guardian unless disclosure of a record would interfere with an ongoing investigation, or (5) as provided in paragraph paragraphs (d) and (e). Except as provided in paragraph (c), no photographs of a child taken into custody may be taken without the consent of the juvenile court unless the child is alleged to have violated section 169.121 or 169.129. Peace officers' records containing data about children who are victims of crimes or witnesses to crimes must be administered consistent with section 13.82, subdivisions 2, 3, 4, and 10. Any person violating any of the provisions of this subdivision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

In the case of computerized records maintained about juveniles by peace officers, the requirement of this subdivision that records about juveniles must be kept separate from adult records does not mean that a law enforcement agency must keep its records concerning juveniles on a separate computer system. Law enforcement agencies may keep juvenile records on the same computer as adult records and may use a common index to access both juvenile and adult records so long as the agency has in place procedures that keep juvenile records in a separate place in computer storage and that comply with the special data retention and other requirements associated with protecting data on juveniles.

(b) Nothing in this subdivision prohibits the exchange of information by law enforcement agencies if the exchanged information is pertinent and necessary to the requesting agency in initiating, furthering, or completing a criminal investigation.

(c) A photograph may be taken of a child taken into custody pursuant to section 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (b), provided that the photograph must be destroyed when the child reaches the age of 19 years. The commissioner of corrections may photograph juveniles whose legal custody is transferred to the commissioner. Photographs of juveniles authorized by this paragraph may be used only for institution management purposes, case supervision by parole agents, and to assist law enforcement agencies to apprehend juvenile offenders. The commissioner shall maintain photographs of juveniles in the same manner as juvenile court records and names under this section.

(d) Traffic investigation reports are open to inspection by a person who has sustained physical harm or economic loss as a result of the traffic accident. Identifying information on juveniles who are parties to traffic accidents may be disclosed as authorized under section 13.82, subdivision 4, and accident reports required under section 169.09 may be released under section 169.09, subdivision 13, unless the information would identify a juvenile who was taken into custody or who is suspected of committing an offense that would be a crime if committed by an adult, or would associate a juvenile with the offense, and the offense is not a minor petty misdemeanor-level traffic offense under section 260.193.

(e) Peace officer records of children who are or may be delinquent or who may be engaged in criminal activity may be disseminated to school officials without a juvenile court order when the information in the records is pertinent and necessary to maintaining order and safety in the school building and on school property.

A school official who receives peace officer records under this paragraph may use the information only for the purpose of maintaining order and safety in the school building and on school property. The classification of the data while in the hands of the school official is governed by section 13.03, subdivision 4.

When records are disseminated under this paragraph, the law enforcement agency must notify the parent or guardian of the subject of the record that the information has been shared with school officials.

As used in this paragraph, "school" means a public or private elementary, middle, or secondary school.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.161, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [COURT SERVICES DATA ON JUVENILES; DISCLOSURE TO SCHOOL OFFICIALS.] Private or confidential court services data on juveniles who have been adjudicated delinquent may be disseminated to school officials without a juvenile court order when the information in the records is pertinent and necessary to maintaining order and safety in the school building and on school property.

A school official who receives court services data under this subdivision may use the information only for the purpose of maintaining order and safety in the school building and on school property. Subd. 4. [TERMINATION OF JURISDICTION.] The court may dismiss the petition or otherwise terminate its jurisdiction on its own motion or on the motion or petition of any interested party at any time. Unless terminated by the court, and except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the jurisdiction of the court shall continue until the individual becomes 19 23 years of age if the court determines it is in the best interest of the individual to do so. Court jurisdiction under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (12), may not continue past the child's 17th birthday.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.185, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Such a continuance may be extended for one additional successive period not to exceed 90 days and only after the court has reviewed the case and entered its order for an additional continuance without a finding of delinquency. During this continuance the court may enter an order in accordance with, the provisions of subdivision 1, clauses (a) or (b) or enter an order to hold the child in detention for a period not to exceed 15 days on any one order for the purpose of completing any consideration, or any investigation or examination ordered in accordance with the provisions of section 260.151. This subdivision does not apply to a serious youthful offender proceeding.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 260.193, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

PROTEIN ANALYSIS EQUIPMENT LEASE PILOT PROGRAM

Section 1. [17B.042] [PROTEIN ANALYSIS EQUIPMENT; COMMISSIONER MAY PROVIDE BY LEASE.]

Subdivision 1. [EQUIPMENT LEASING PROGRAM; PURPOSE.] The legislature finds that Minnesota wheat producers face a critical problem because country elevators currently use a wide variety of technologies, brands, and models of wheat protein analysis equipment. Inaccurate and inconsistent protein readings on wheat samples result in the loss of millions of dollars of income each year for farmers, and contribute to further decline in the economic base of Minnesota's rural communities. The legislature further finds that country elevators often lack the resources to acquire adequate, reliable protein testing equipment on their own. It is therefore found to be in the public interest for the commissioner of agriculture to establish a voluntary program to lease to country elevators, at cost, high quality wheat protein testing equipment.

Subd. 2. [SELECTION OF EQUIPMENT; PILOT LEASING PROGRAM.] Not later than April 1, 1995, the commissioner shall evaluate available wheat protein analysis equipment and determine a brand and model to be used in the pilot lease program. Selection may be made on the basis of competitive bid price but must also take into consideration operational factors such as reliability, replicability, durability, ease of calibration and use, and the availability of comprehensive operator training.

Subd. 3. [PARTICIPATION IN PILOT EQUIPMENT LEASE PROGRAM; ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner shall designate up to eight counties in which to implement the pilot equipment lease program.

Subd. 4. [TERMS OF LEASE.] The commissioner shall establish terms and conditions of the protein equipment test program so that the cost of equipment will be amortized over the estimated useful life of the equipment.

Subd. 5. [MANDATORY EQUIPMENT OPERATOR TRAINING.] The principal protein test equipment operator in each country elevator that participates in the pilot equipment lease program must undergo comprehensive training as determined appropriate by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

$2,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture for purposes of the pilot equipment lease program in section 1. Of this appropriation, not more than $25,000 may be used for costs of administering the program.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective the day following final enactment."

"Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATION; WHEAT SCAB RESEARCH.]

$430,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture for the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1995, to make grants to the University of Minnesota or other Minnesota educational institutions for research into the problem of wheat scab (vomitoxin) in Minnesota. The research should be designed to minimize the adverse effects of future wheat scab infestations in the short term while seeking to fully eliminate the problem in the long term.

Before making grants under this section, the commissioner shall develop grant criteria including:

(1) locating a small grains specialist in the wheat growing area of the state;

(2) long-term variety development and short-term marketing solutions;

(3) alternative agronomic and management techniques for wheat production that minimize scab and describe the biology and the pathology of wheat scab infestation; and

(4) alternative uses for scabby wheat that minimize the adverse effects of mycotoxin produced by the scab infestation."

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Solberg from the Committee on Ways and Means to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1858, A bill for an act relating to taxation; property tax refund; uncapping the appropriation for targeting for 1994 only; requiring that certain information be made available; requiring counties to provide the commissioner of revenue with certain data; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 290A.04, subdivision 2h.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Page 3, delete lines 4 to 15 and insert:

"(f) On or before May 2, 1994, each county shall notify the owner of each homestead parcel within the county of the retroactive change in eligibility made by this act. For the purpose of giving mailed notice, owners are those shown on the records of the county auditor. The notice may be in the form of a postcard or a notice may be inserted in the envelope containing the payable 1994 property tax statement, if the property tax statements have not yet been mailed. The notice to the homeowner must say the following:

"Attention Homeowners! A new law increases the funding for special property tax refunds for taxes payable in 1994. You may be eligible for a special property tax refund:

(1) If the 1994 property taxes on your homestead increased 12 percent or more and that increase was at least $100; or

(2) If you received a refund last year under this program.

If you meet either of the above two criteria, obtain a copy of the M-1PR property tax refund form. On the back of that form is Schedule 1 for determining whether you are eligible to receive a special tax refund. The printed amount, however, shown on lines 25 and 27, has been changed by the new law from $300 to $100. Complete that schedule by comparing your qualifying property tax amount to a $100 amount on lines 25 and 27, rather than the $300 amount printed on the form.

If you qualify for a refund, send the completed M-1PR to the Department of Revenue. If you have already filed an M-1PR with the Minnesota Department of Revenue, you do not need to file a second form. The Commissioner of Revenue will recompute your refund based upon a $100 minimum increase.

If you have any questions, call ...... county at (telephone number).""

(e) a common interest community plat subject to chapter 515B or a declaration that contains such a plat, is presented to the county auditor for transfer, the auditor shall ascertain from the records if there be taxes delinquent upon the land described therein, or if it has been sold for taxes. An assignment of a sheriff's or referee's certificate of sale, when the certificate of sale describes real estate, and certificates of redemption from mortgage or lien foreclosure sales, when the certificate of redemption encompasses real estate and is issued to a junior creditor, are considered instruments conveying land for the purposes of this section and section 272.121. If there are taxes delinquent, the auditor shall certify to the same; and upon payment of such taxes, or in case no taxes are delinquent, shall transfer the land upon the books of the auditor's office, and note upon the instrument, over official signature, the words, "no delinquent taxes and transfer entered," or, if the land described has been sold or assigned to an actual purchaser for taxes, the words "paid by sale of land described within;" and, unless such statement is made upon such instrument, the county recorder or the registrar of titles shall refuse to receive or record the same, provided, that sheriff's or referees' certificates of sale on execution or foreclosure of a lien or mortgage, certificates of redemption from mortgage or lien foreclosure sales issued to the redeeming mortgagor or lienee, deeds of distribution made by a personal representative in probate proceedings, decrees and judgments, receivers receipts, patents, and copies of town or statutory city plats, in case the original plat filed in the office of the county recorder has been lost or destroyed, and the instruments releasing, removing and discharging reversionary and forfeiture provisions affecting title to land and instruments releasing, removing or discharging easement rights in land or building or other restrictions, may be recorded without such certificate; and, provided that instruments conveying land and, as appurtenant thereto an easement over adjacent tract or tracts of land, may be recorded without such certificate as to the land covered by such easement; and provided further, that any instrument granting an easement made in favor of any public utility or pipe line for conveying gas, liquids or solids in suspension, in the nature of a right of way over, along, across or under a tract of land may be recorded without such certificate as to the land covered by such easement. Any instrument amending or restating the declarations, bylaws, plats, or other enabling documents governing homeowners associations of condominiums, townhouses, common interest ownership communities, and other planned unit developments may be recorded without the auditor's certificate.

A deed of distribution made by a personal representative in a probate proceeding, a decree, or a judgment that conveys land shall be presented to the county auditor, who shall transfer the land upon the books of the auditor's office and note upon the instrument, over official signature, the words, "transfer entered", and the instrument may then be recorded. A decree or judgment that affects title to land but does not convey land may be recorded without presentation to the auditor.

A violation of this section by the county recorder or the registrar of titles shall be a gross misdemeanor, and, in addition to the punishment therefor, the recorder or registrar shall be liable to the grantee of any instrument so recorded for the amount of any damages sustained.

When, as a condition to permitting the recording of deed or other instrument affecting the title to real estate previously forfeited to the state under the provisions of sections 281.16 to 281.27, county officials, after such real estate has been purchased or repurchased, have required the payment of taxes erroneously assumed to have accrued against such real estate after forfeiture and before the date of purchase or repurchase, the sum required to be so paid shall be refunded to the persons entitled thereto out of moneys in the funds in which the sum so paid was placed. Subd. 2. [APPROVAL AUTHORITY; PROJECT APPLICATIONS.] To the extent money is available, the commissioner of education, in consultation with a voluntary interdistrict coordinating council, if established, may approve projects from applications submitted under this section. The grant money must be used only to acquire, construct, remodel, or improve the building or site of a magnet school facility according to contracts entered into within 15 months after the date on which a grant is awarded.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, is amended to read:

Subd. 2h. (a) If the gross property taxes payable on a homestead increase more than 12 percent over the net property taxes payable in the prior year on the same property that is owned and occupied by the same owner on January 2 of both years, and the amount of that increase is $80 or more for taxes payable in 1993, and $100 or more for taxes payable in 1994, 1995, and 1996, a claimant who is a homeowner shall be allowed an additional refund equal.

to 75 percent of the amount of the increase over the greater of 12 percent of the prior year's net property taxes payable or $80 for taxes payable in 1993, and 75 percent of the amount of the increase over the greater of 12 percent of the prior year's net property taxes payable or $100 for taxes payable in 1994, 1995, and 1996. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the gross property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead after the assessment date for the prior year's taxes.

The maximum refund allowed under this subdivision is $1,500.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given:

(1) "Net property taxes payable" means property taxes payable minus refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivision 2 and this subdivision.

(2) "Gross property taxes" means net property taxes payable determined without regard to the refund allowed under this subdivision.

(c) In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.

(d) On or before December 1, 1993, 1994, and 1995, the commissioner shall estimate the cost of making the payments provided by this subdivision for taxes payable in the following year. Notwithstanding the open appropriation provision of section 290A.23, if the estimated total refund claims for taxes payable in 1994, 1995, and 1996 exceed $5,500,000, for each of the three two years the commissioner shall increase the $100 amount of tax increase which must occur before a taxpayer qualifies for a refund, and increase by an equal amount the $100 threshold used in determining the amount of the refund, so that the estimated total refund claims do not exceed $5,500,000 for taxes payable in 1995, or for taxes payable in 1996.

The determinations of the revised thresholds by the commissioner are not rules subject to chapter 14.

(e) Upon request, the appropriate county official shall make available the names and addresses of the property taxpayers who may be eligible for the additional property tax refund under this section. The information shall be provided on a magnetic computer disk. The county may recover its costs by charging the person requesting the information the reasonable cost for preparing the data. The information may not be used for any purpose other than for notifying the homeowner of potential eligibility and assisting the homeowner, without charge, in preparing a refund claim.

(f) On or before May 2, 1994, each county shall notify the owner of each homestead parcel within the county of the retroactive change in eligibility made by this act. For the purpose of giving mailed notice, owners are those shown on the records of the county auditor. The notice may be in the form of a postcard or a notice may be inserted in the envelope containing the payable 1994 property tax statement, if the property tax statements have not yet been mailed. The notice to the homeowner must say the following:

"Attention Homeowners! A new law increases the funding for special property tax refunds for taxes payable in 1994. You may be eligible for a special property tax refund:

(1) If the 1994 property taxes on your homestead increased 12 percent or more and that increase was at least $100; or

(2) If you received a refund last year under this program.

If you meet either of the above two criteria, obtain a copy of the M-1PR property tax refund form. On the back of that form is Schedule 1 for determining whether you are eligible to receive a special tax refund. The printed amount, however, shown on lines 25 and 27, has been changed by the new law from $300 to $100. Complete that schedule by comparing your qualifying property tax amount to a $100 amount on lines 25 and 27, rather than the $300 amount printed on the form.

If you qualify for a refund, send the completed M-1PR to the Department of Revenue. If you have already filed an M-1PR with the Minnesota Department of Revenue, you do not need to file a second form. The Commissioner of Revenue will recompute your refund based upon a $100 minimum increase.

If you have any questions, call ...... county at (telephone number)."

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

Notwithstanding the appropriation in section 290A.23, subdivision 2, the amount of refunds in excess of $5,500,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue to pay the additional amount needed for the total refund claims for taxes payable in 1994 under section 1.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for refunds based on the payable 1994 property tax levy. The commissioner of revenue shall compute the refunds based on the payable 1994 property tax levy using the $100 amount of tax increase as specified in section 1, paragraph (a)."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

ELECTIVE SHARE OF SURVIVING SPOUSE

Sec. 15. [524.2-201] [DEFINITIONS.]

The interest shall be identified and valued as of the time immediately prior to the death of the decedent or the date of the transfer which causes the property to be included in the augmented estate, as the case may be. In the case of an account described in article VI, part 2, the severable interest owned by the person is the amount which belonged to the person determined under section 524.6-203. In the case of property described in article VI, part 3, the severable interest owned by the person is the amount consistent with section 524.6-306.

(3) "Marriage," as it relates to a transfer by the decedent during marriage, means any marriage of the decedent to the decedent's surviving spouse.

"Transfer" does not include the lapse, other than a lapse at death, of a power described in clause (ii).

(11) "Bona fide purchaser" means a purchaser for value in good faith and without notice or actual knowledge of an adverse claim, or a person who receives a payment or other item of property in partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable obligation in good faith without notice of an adverse claim. In the case of real property located in Minnesota purchased from a successor or successors in interest of a decedent, the purchaser is without notice of an adverse claim arising under this part or, if the decedent was not domiciled in Minnesota at the time of death, arising under similar provisions of the law of the decedent's domicile, unless the decedent's surviving spouse has filed a notice in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located or, if the property is registered land, in the office of the registrar of titles of the county in which the real property is located, containing the legal description of the property, a brief statement of the nature and extent of the interest claimed, and the venue, title, and file number of the proceeding for an elective share, if any has been commenced. (b) [SUPPLEMENTAL ELECTIVE-SHARE AMOUNT.] If the sum of the amounts described in sections 524.2-207, 524.2-209, paragraph (a), clause (1), and that part of the elective-share amount payable from the decedent's probate estate and nonprobate transfers to others under section 524.2-209, paragraphs (b) and (c), is less than $50,000, the surviving spouse is entitled to a supplemental elective-share amount equal to $50,000, minus the sum of the amounts described in those sections. (c) [EFFECT OF ELECTION ON STATUTORY BENEFITS.] If the right of election is exercised by or on behalf of the surviving spouse, the surviving spouse's homestead rights and other allowances under sections 524.2-402, 524.2-403 and 524.2-404, if any, are not charged against but are in addition to the elective-share and supplemental elective-share amounts.

(d) [NONDOMICILIARY.] The right, if any, of the surviving spouse of a decedent who dies domiciled outside this state to take an elective share in property in this state is governed by the law of the decedent's domicile at death.

Sec. 17. [524.2-203] [COMPOSITION OF THE AUGMENTED ESTATE.]

Subject to section 524.2-208, the value of the augmented estate, to the extent provided in sections 524.2-204, 524.2-205, 524.2-206, and 524.2-207, consists of the sum of the values of all property, whether real or personal, movable or immovable, tangible or intangible, wherever situated, that constitute the decedent's net probate estate, the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others, the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others, the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others.

Sec. 18. [524.2-204] [DECEDENT'S NET PROBATE ESTATE.]

The value of the augmented estate includes the value of the decedent's probate estate, reduced by funeral and administration expenses, the homestead, family allowances and exemptions, liens, mortgages, and enforceable claims.

Sec. 19. [524.2-205] [DECEDENT'S NONPROBATE TRANSFERS TO OTHERS.]

The value of the augmented estate includes the value of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others, other than the homestead, of any of the following types, in the amount provided respectively for each type of transfer.

(1) Property owned or owned in substance by the decedent immediately before death that passed outside probate at the decedent's death. Property included under this category consists of:

(i) Property over which the decedent alone, immediately before death, held a presently exercisable general power of appointment. The amount included is the value of the property subject to the power, to the extent the property passed at the decedent's death, by exercise, release, lapse, default, or otherwise, to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent's estate or surviving spouse.

(ii) The decedent's interest in property held with the right of survivorship. The amount included is the value of the decedent's interest, to the extent the interest passed by right of survivorship at the decedent's death to someone other than the decedent's surviving spouse.

(iii) Proceeds of insurance, including accidental death benefits, on the life of the decedent, if the decedent owned the insurance policy immediately before death or if and to the extent the decedent alone and immediately before death held a presently exercisable general power of appointment over the policy or its proceeds. The amount included is the value of the proceeds, to the extent they were payable at the decedent's death to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent's estate or surviving spouse.

(iv) The value payable after the decedent's death to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent's surviving spouse of the proceeds of annuity contracts under which the decedent was the primary annuitant. The amount included is any amount over which the person has an immediate right of withdrawal after the decedent's death plus the commuted value of other amounts payable in the future.

(v) The value payable after the decedent's death to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent's surviving spouse of amounts under any public or private pension, disability compensation, benefit, or retirement plan or account, excluding the federal Social Security system. The amount included is any amount over which the person has an immediate right of withdrawal after the decedent's death plus the commuted value of other amounts payable in the future.

(2) Property transferred in any of the following forms by the decedent during marriage, to the extent not included under paragraph (1):

(i) Any irrevocable transfer in which the decedent retained the right to the possession or enjoyment of, or to the income from, the property if and to the extent the decedent's right terminated at or continued beyond the decedent's death. The amount included is the value of the fraction of the property to which the decedent's right related, to the extent the fraction of the property passed outside probate to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent's estate or surviving spouse.

(ii) Any transfer in which the decedent created a general power of appointment over income or property exercisable by the decedent alone or in conjunction with any other person, or exercisable by a nonadverse party. The amount included with respect to a power over property is the value of the property subject to the power, and the amount included with respect to a power over income is the value of the property that produces or produced the income, to the extent in either case that the property passed at the decedent's death to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent's estate or surviving spouse. If the power is a power over both income and property and the preceding sentence produces different amounts, the amount included is the greater amount.

(3) Property that passed during marriage and during the two-year period next preceding the decedent's death as a result of a transfer by the decedent if the transfer was of any of the following types:

(i) Any property that passed as a result of the termination of a right or interest in, or power over, property that would have been included in the augmented estate under paragraph (1), clause (i), (ii), (iv), or (v), or under paragraph (2), if the right, interest, or power had not terminated until the decedent's death. The amount included is the value of the property that would have been included under those paragraphs if the property were valued at the time the right, interest, or power terminated, and is included only to the extent the property passed upon termination to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent or the decedent's estate, spouse, or surviving spouse. As used in this paragraph, "termination," with respect to a right or interest in property, occurs when the power is terminated by exercise, release, default, or otherwise, but with respect to a power described in paragraph (1), clause (i), "termination" occurs when the power is terminated by exercise or release, but not otherwise.

(ii) Any transfer of or relating to an insurance policy on the life of the decedent if the proceeds would have been included in the augmented estate under paragraph (1), clause (iii), had the transfer not occurred. The amount included is the value of the insurance proceeds to the extent the proceeds were payable at the decedent's death to or for the benefit of any person other than the decedent's estate or surviving spouse.

(iii) Any transfer of property, to the extent not otherwise included in the augmented estate, made to or for the benefit of a person other than the decedent's surviving spouse. The amount included is the value of the transferred property to the extent the aggregate transfers to any one donee in either of the two years exceeded $10,000.

Sec. 20. [524.2-206] [DECEDENT'S NONPROBATE TRANSFERS TO THE SURVIVING SPOUSE.]

Excluding the homestead and property passing to the surviving spouse under the federal Social Security system, the value of the augmented estate includes the value of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to the decedent's spouse, which consists of all property that passed outside probate at the decedent's death from the decedent to the surviving spouse by reason of the decedent's death that would have been included in the augmented estate under section 524.2-205, paragraph (1) or (2), had the property passed to or for the benefit of a person other than the decedent's spouse, the decedent, or the decedent's creditors, estate, or estate creditors.

Sec. 21. [524.2-207] [SURVIVING SPOUSE'S PROPERTY AND NONPROBATE TRANSFERS TO OTHERS.]

(a) [INCLUDED PROPERTY.] Except to the extent included in the augmented estate under section 524.2-204 or 524.2-206, the value of the augmented estate includes the value of:

(1) property, other than the homestead, that was owned by the surviving spouse at the decedent's death, including the surviving spouse's interest in property held with right of survivorship; and

(2) property that would have been included in the surviving spouse's nonprobate transfers to others, other than the spouse's interest in property held with right of survivorship included under clause (1), had the spouse been the decedent.

(c) [REDUCTION FOR ENFORCEABLE CLAIMS.] The value of property included under this section is reduced by mortgages, liens, and enforceable claims against the property or against the surviving spouse.

Sec. 22. [524.2-208] [EXCLUSIONS, VALUATION, AND OVERLAPPING APPLICATION.]

(a) [EXCLUSIONS.] The value of any property is excluded from the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others (i) to the extent the decedent received adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth for a transfer of the property, or (ii) if the property was transferred with the written joinder of, or if the transfer was consented to in writing by, the surviving spouse.

(b) [PROTECTION OF BONA FIDE PURCHASERS.] A bona fide purchaser who purchases property from a successor or successors in interest of the decedent or from a transferee of the decedent is neither obligated under this part to return the payment, item of property, or benefit nor is liable under this part for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit.

(c) [VALUATION.] The value of property:

(1) included in the augmented estate under section 524.2-205, 524.2-206, or 524.2-207 is reduced in each category by mortgages, liens, and enforceable claims against the included property; and

(2) includes the commuted value of any present or future interest and the commuted value of amounts payable under any trust, life insurance settlement option, annuity contract, public or private pension, disability compensation, death benefit or retirement plan, or any similar arrangement, exclusive of the federal Social Security system. The commuted value of the surviving spouse's interest in a life estate or in any trust shall be calculated as if worth one-half of the total value of the property subject to the life estate, or of the trust estate, unless higher or lower values for these interests are established by proof.

(d) [OVERLAPPING APPLICATION; NO DOUBLE INCLUSION.] In case of overlapping application to the same property of portions of section 524.2-205, 524.2-206, or 524.2-207, the property is included in the augmented estate under the provision yielding the greatest value, and under only one overlapping provision if they all yield the same value.

Sec. 23. [524.2-209] [SOURCES FROM WHICH ELECTIVE SHARE PAYABLE.]

(a) [ELECTIVE-SHARE AMOUNT ONLY.] In a proceeding for an elective share, the following are applied first to satisfy the elective-share amount and to reduce or eliminate any contributions due from the decedent's probate estate and recipients of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others:

(1) amounts included in the augmented estate under section 524.2-204 which pass or have passed to the surviving spouse by testate or intestate succession and amounts included in the augmented estate under section 524.2-206;

(2) amounts included in the augmented estate which would have passed to the spouse but were disclaimed; and

(3) amounts included in the augmented estate under section 524.2-207 up to the applicable percentage thereof. For the purposes of this paragraph, the "applicable percentage" is twice the elective-share percentage set forth in the schedule in section 524.2-202, paragraph (a), appropriate to the length of time the spouse and the decedent were married to each other.

(b) [UNSATISFIED BALANCE OF ELECTIVE-SHARE AMOUNT; SUPPLEMENTAL ELECTIVE-SHARE AMOUNT.] If, after the application of paragraph (a), the elective-share amount is not fully satisfied or the surviving spouse is entitled to a supplemental elective-share amount, amounts included in the decedent's probate estate and in the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others, other than amounts included under section 524.2-205, paragraph (3), clause (i) or (iii), are applied first to satisfy the unsatisfied balance of the elective-share amount or the supplemental elective-share amount. The decedent's probate estate and that portion of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others are so applied that liability for the unsatisfied balance of the elective-share amount or for the supplemental elective-share amount is equitably apportioned among the recipients of the decedent's probate estate and of that portion of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others in proportion to the value of their interests therein.

(c) [UNSATISFIED BALANCE OF ELECTIVE-SHARE AND SUPPLEMENTAL ELECTIVE-SHARE AMOUNTS.] If, after the application of paragraphs (a) and (b), the elective-share or supplemental elective-share amount is not fully satisfied, the remaining portion of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others is so applied that liability for the unsatisfied balance of the elective-share or supplemental elective-share amount is equitably apportioned among the recipients of the remaining portion of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others in proportion to the value of their interests therein.

Sec. 24. [524.2-210] [PERSONAL LIABILITY OF RECIPIENTS.]

(a) Only original recipients of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others, and the donees of the recipients of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others, to the extent the donees have the property or its proceeds, are liable to make a proportional contribution toward satisfaction of the surviving spouse's elective-share or supplemental elective-share amount. A person liable to make contribution may choose to give up the proportional part of the decedent's nonprobate transfers to him or her or to pay the value the amount for which he or she is liable.

(b) If any section or part of any section of this part is preempted by federal law with respect to a payment, an item of property, or any other benefit included in the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others, a person who is not a bona fide purchaser and who receives the payment, item of property, or any other benefit is obligated to return the payment, item of property, or benefit, or is personally liable for the amount of the payment or the value of that item of property or benefit, as provided in section 524.2-209, to the person who would have been entitled to it were that section or part of that section not preempted.

Sec. 25. [524.2-211] [PROCEEDING FOR ELECTIVE SHARE; TIME LIMIT.]

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), the election must be made by filing in the court and mailing or delivering to the personal representative, if any, a pétition for the elective share within nine months after the date of the decedent's death, or within six months after the probate of the decedent's will, whichever limitation later expires. The surviving spouse must give notice of the time and place set for hearing to persons interested in the estate and to the distributees and recipients of portions of the augmented estate whose interests will be adversely affected by the taking of the elective share. Except as provided in paragraph (b), the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others are not included within the augmented estate for the purpose of computing the elective share, if the petition is filed more than nine months after the decedent's death.

(b) Within nine months after a decedent's death, the surviving spouse may petition the court for an extension of time for making an election. If, within nine months after the decedent's death, the spouse gives notice of the petition to all persons interested in the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others, the court for cause shown by the surviving spouse may extend the time for election. If the court grants the spouse's petition for an extension, the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others are not excluded from the augmented estate for the purpose of computing the elective-share and supplemental elective-share amounts, if the spouse makes an election by filing in the court and mailing or delivering to the personal representative, if any, a petition fo the elective share within the time allowed by the extension.

(c) The surviving spouse may withdraw his or her demand for an elective share at any time before entry of a final determination by the court.

(d) After notice and hearing, the court shall determine the elective-share and supplemental elective-share amounts, and shall order its payment from the assets of the augmented estate or by contribution as appears appropriate under sections 524.2-209 and 524.2-210. If it appears that a fund or property included in the augmented estate has not come into the possession of the personal representative, or has been distributed by the personal representative, the court nevertheless shall fix the liability of any person who has any interest in the fund or property or who has possession thereof, whether as trustee or otherwise. The proceeding may be maintained against fewer than all persons against whom relief could be sought, but no person is subject to contribution in any greater amount than he or she would have been under sections 524.2-209 and 524.2-210 had relief been secured against all persons subject to contribution.

(e) An order of judgment of the court may be enforced as necessary in suit for contribution or payment in other courts of this state or other jurisdictions.

(f) Whether or not an election has been made under paragraph (a), the surviving spouse may elect statutory rights in the homestead by filing in the manner provided in this section a petition in which the spouse asserts the rights provided in section 524.2-402, provided that:

(1) when the homestead is subject to a testamentary disposition; the filing must be within nine months after the date of death, or within six months after the probate of the decedent's will, whichever limitation last expires; or

(2) where the homestead is subject to other disposition, the filing must be within nine months after the date of death.

The court may extend the time for election in the manner provided in paragraph (b).

Sec. 26. [524.2-212] [RIGHT OF ELECTION PERSONAL TO SURVIVING SPOUSE.]

The right of election of the surviving spouse may be exercised only during the surviving spouse's lifetime. In the case of a protected person, the right of election may be exercised only by order of the court in which protective proceedings as to the protected person's property are pending, after finding (1) that exercise is necessary to provide adequate support for the protected person during the protected person's probable life expectancy and (2) that the election will be consistent with the best interests of the natural bounty of the protected person's affection.

Sec. 27. [524.2-213] [WAIVER OF RIGHT TO ELECT AND OF OTHER RIGHTS.]

The right of election of a surviving spouse and the rights of the surviving spouse to the homestead, exempt property, and family allowance, or any of them, may be waived, wholly or partially, after marriage, by a written contract, agreement, or waiver signed by the party waiving after fair disclosure. Unless it provides to the contrary, a waiver of "all rights," or equivalent language, in the property or estate of a spouse is a waiver only of the right to the elective share. Any waiver prior to marriage must be made pursuant to section 519.11.

Sec. 28. [524.2-214] [PROTECTION OF PAYORS AND OTHER THIRD PARTIES.]

(a) Although under section 524.2-205 a payment, item of property, or other benefit is included in the decedent's nonprobate transfers to others, a payor or other third party is not liable for having made a payment or transferred an item of property or other benefit to a beneficiary designated in a governing instrument, or for having taken any other action in good faith reliance on the validity of a governing instrument, upon request and satisfactory proof of the decedent's death, before the payor or other third party received written notice from the surviving spouse or spouse's representative of an intention to file a petition for the elective share or that a petition for the elective share or other third party received written notice from taken after the payor or other third party is liable for payments made or other actions taken after the payor or other third party received written notice share or that a petition for the elective share o

(b) A written notice of intention to file a petition for the elective share or that a petition for the elective share has been filed must be mailed to the payor's or other third party's main office or home by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or served upon the payor or other third party in the same manner as a summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice of intention to file a petition for the elective share or that a petition for the elective share has been filed, a payor or other third party may pay any amount owed or transfer or deposit any item of property held by it to or with the court having jurisdiction of the probate proceedings relating to the decedent's estate or, if no proceedings have been commenced, to or with the court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to the decedent's residence. The court shall hold the funds or item of property and, upon its determination under section 524.2-211, paragraph (d), shall order disbursement in accordance with the determination. If no petition is filed in the court within the specified time under section 524.2-211, paragraph (a), or, if filed, the demand for an elective share is withdrawn under section 524.2-211, paragraph (c), the court shall order disbursement to the designated beneficiary. Payments or transfers to the court or deposits made into court discharge the payor or other third party from all claims for amounts so paid or the value of property so transferred or deposited.

(c) Upon petition to the court described in paragraph (b) by the beneficiary designated in the governing instrument, the court may order that all or part of the property be paid to the beneficiary in an amount and subject to conditions consistent with this part.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-301, is amended to read:

524.2-301 [OMITTED ENTITLEMENT OF SPOUSE; PREMARITAL WILL.]

(a) If a testator fails to provide by will for a surviving spouse who married the testator after the execution of the will, the omitted spouse shall receive the same share of the estate as if the decedent left no will unless it appears from the will that the omission was intentional or the testator provided for the spouse by transfer outside the will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by statements of the testator or from the amount of the transfer or other evidence.

(b) In satisfying a share provided by this section, the devises made by the will abate as provided in section 524.3 902.

(a) If a testator's surviving spouse married the testator after the testator executed his or her will, the surviving spouse is entitled to receive, as an intestate share, no less than the value of the share of the estate he or she would have received if the testator had died intestate as to that portion of the testator's estate, if any, that neither is devised to a child of the testator who was born before the testator married the surviving spouse and who is not a child of the surviving spouse nor is devised to a descendant of such a child or passes under section 524.2-603 or 524.2-604 to such a child or to a descendant of such a child, unless:

(1) it appears from the will or other evidence that the will was made in contemplation of the testator's marriage to the surviving spouse;

(2) the will expresses the intention that it is to be effective notwithstanding any subsequent marriage; or

(3) the testator provided for the spouse by transfer outside the will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by the testator's statements or is reasonably inferred from the amount of the transfer or other evidence.

(b) In satisfying the share provided by this section, devises made by the will to the testator's surviving spouse, if any, are applied first, and other devises, other than a devise to a child of the testator who was born before the testator married the surviving spouse and who is not a child of the surviving spouse or a devise or substitute gift under section 524.2-603 or 524.2-604 to a descendant of such a child, abate as provided in section 524.3-902.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-302, is amended to read:

524.2-302 [PRETERMITTED OMITTED CHILDREN.]

(a) If a testator fails to provide for any child born or adopted after the execution of the testator's will, the omitted child receives a share in the estate equal in value to that which that child would have received if the testator had died intestate unless:

(1) it appears from the will that the omission was intentional;

(2) when the will was executed the testator had one or more children and devised substantially all the estate to the other parent of the omitted child; or

(3) the testator provided for the child by transfer-outside the will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by statements of the testator or from the amount of the transfer or other evidence.

(b) If at the time of execution of the will the testator fails to provide for a living child solely because of a belief that the child is dead, the child receives a share in the estate equal in value to that which that child would have received if the testator had died-intestate.

(c) In satisfying a share provided by this section, the devises made by the will abate as provided in section 524.3 902.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), if a testator fails to provide in his or her will for any of his or her children born or adopted after the execution of the will, the omitted after-born or after-adopted child receives a share in the estate as follows: (1) If the testator had no child living when he or she executed the will, an omitted after-born or after-adopted child receives a share in the estate equal in value to that which the child would have received had the testator died intestate, unless the will devised all or substantially all the estate to the other parent of the omitted child and that other parent survives the testator and is entitled to take under the will.

(2) If the testator had one or more children living when he or she executed the will, and the will devised property or an interest in property to one or more of the then-living children, an omitted after-born or after-adopted child is entitled to share in the testator's estate as follows:

(i) The portion of the testator's estate in which the omitted after-born or after-adopted child is entitled to share is limited to devises made to the testator's then-living children under the will.

(ii) The omitted after-born or after-adopted child is entitled to receive the share of the testator's estate, as limited in subclause (i), that the child would have received had the testator included all omitted after-born and after-adopted children with the children to whom devises were made under the will and had given an equal share of the estate to each child.

(iii) To the extent feasible, the interest granted an omitted after-born or after-adopted child under this section must be of the same character, whether equitable or legal, present or future, as that devised to the testator's then-living children under the will.

(iv) In satisfying a share provided by this paragraph, devises to the testator's children who were living when the will was executed abate ratably. In abating the devises of the then-living children, the court shall preserve to the maximum extent possible the character of the testamentary plan adopted by the testator.

(b) Neither paragraph (a), clause (1) or (2), nor paragraph (c), applies if:

(1) it appears from the will that the omission was intentional; or

(2) the testator provided for the omitted after-born or after-adopted child by transfer outside the will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by the testator's statements or is reasonably inferred from the amount of the transfer or other evidence.

(c) If at the time of execution of the will the testator fails to provide in his or her will for a living child solely because he or she believes the child to be dead, the child receives a share in the estate equal in value to that which the child would have received had the testator died intestate.

(d) In satisfying a share provided by paragraph (a), clause (1), or (c), devises made by the will abate under section 524.3-902.

Part 4

EXEMPT PROPERTY AND ALLOWANCES

Sec. 31. [524.2-401] [APPLICABLE LAW.]

This part applies to the estate of a decedent who dies domiciled in this state. Rights to homestead, exempt property, and family allowance for a decedent who dies not domiciled in this state are governed by the law of the decedent's domicile at death.

Sec. 32. [524.2-402] [DESCENT OF HOMESTEAD.]

(a) If there is a surviving spouse, the homestead, including a manufactured home which is the family residence, descends free from any testamentary or other disposition of it to which the spouse has not consented in writing or as provided by law, as follows:

(1) if there is no surviving descendant of decedent, to the spouse; or

(2) if there are surviving descendants of decedent, then to the spouse for the term of the spouse's natural life and the remainder in equal shares to the decedent's descendants by representation.

(b) If there is no surviving spouse and the homestead has not been disposed of by will it descends as other real estate.

(c) If the homestead passes by descent or will to the spouse or decedent's descendants, it is exempt from all debts which were not valid charges on it at the time of decedent's death except that the homestead is subject to a claim filed pursuant to section 246.53 for state hospital care or 256B.15 for medical assistance benefits. If the homestead passes to a person other than a spouse or decedent's descendants, it is subject to the payment of the items mentioned in section 524.2-101. No lien or other charge against a homestead so exempted is enforceable in the probate court, but the claimant may enforce the lien or charge by an appropriate action in the district court.

(d) For purposes of this section, except as provided in section 524.2-301, the surviving spouse is deemed to consent to any testamentary or other disposition of the homestead to which the spouse has not previously consented in writing unless the spouse files in the manner provided in section 524.2-211, paragraph (f), a petition that asserts the homestead rights provided to the spouse by this section.

Sec. 33. [524.2-403] [EXEMPT PROPERTY.]

(a) If there is a surviving spouse, then, in addition to the homestead and family allowance, the surviving spouse is entitled from the estate to:

(1) property not exceeding $10,000 in value in excess of any security interests therein, in household furniture, furnishings, appliances, and personal effects, subject to an award of sentimental value property under section 525.152; and

(2) one automobile, if any, without regard to value.

(b) If there is no surviving spouse, the decedent's children are entitled jointly to the same property as provided in paragraph (a).

(c) If encumbered chattels are selected and the value in excess of security interests, plus that of other exempt property, is less than $10,000, or if there is not $10,000 worth of exempt property in the estate, the surviving spouse or children are entitled to other personal property of the estate, if any, to the extent necessary to make up the $10,000 value.

(d) Rights to exempt property and assets needed to make up a deficiency of exempt property have priority over all claims against the estate, but the right to any assets to make up a deficiency of exempt property abates as necessary to permit earlier payment of the family allowance.

(e) The rights granted by this section are in addition to any benefit or share passing to the surviving spouse or children by the decedent's will, unless otherwise provided by intestate succession or by way of elective share.

Sec. 34. [524.2-404] [FAMILY ALLOWANCE.]

(a) In addition to the right to the homestead and exempt property, the decedent's surviving spouse and minor children whom the decedent was obligated to support, and children who were in fact being supported by the decedent, shall be allowed a reasonable family allowance in money out of the estate for their maintenance as follows:

(1) for one year if the estate is inadequate to discharge allowed claims; or

(2) for 18 months if the estate is adequate to discharge allowed claims.

(b) The amount of the family allowance may be determined by the personal representative in an amount not to exceed $1,500 per month.

(c) The family allowance is payable to the surviving spouse, if living, otherwise to the children, their guardian or conservator, or persons having their care and custody.

(d) The family allowance is exempt from and has priority over all claims.

(e) The family allowance is not chargeable against any benefit or share passing to the surviving spouse or children by the will of the decedent unless otherwise provided, by intestate succession or by way of elective share. The death of any person entitled to family allowance does not terminate the right of that person to the allowance. (f) The personal representative or an interested person aggrieved by any determination, payment, proposed payment, or failure to act under this section may petition the court for appropriate relief, which may include a family allowance other than that which the personal representative determined or could have determined.

Sec. 35. [524.2-405] [SOURCE, DETERMINATION, AND DOCUMENTATION.]

(a) If the estate is otherwise sufficient, property specifically devised may not be used to satisfy rights to exempt property. Subject to this restriction, the surviving spouse, guardians or conservators of minor children, or children who are adults may select property of the estate as exempt property. The personal representative may make those selections if the surviving spouse, the children, or the guardians of the minor children are unable or fail to do so within a reasonable time or there is no guardian of a minor child.

(b) The personal representative may execute an instrument or deed of distribution to establish the ownership of property taken as exempt property.

(c) The personal representative or an interested person aggrieved by any selection, determination, payment, proposed payment, or failure to act under this section may petition the court for appropriate relief, which may include a selection or determination under this section other than that which the surviving spouse, guardians or conservators of minor children, children who are adults, or the personal representative selected, could have selected, determined, or could have determined.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-502, is amended to read:

524.2-502 [EXECUTION; WITNESSED WILLS.]

Except as provided for writings within section 524.2-513 and wills within section 524.2-506, every will shall be in writing signed by the testator or in the testator's name by some other person in the testator's presence and by the testator's direction, and shall be signed by at least two persons each of whom witnessed either the signing or the testator's acknowledgment of the signature or of the will. Except as provided in sections 524.2-506 and 524.2-513, a will must be:

(1) in writing;

(2) signed by the testator or in the testator's name by some other individual in the testator's conscious presence and by the testator's direction; and

(3) signed by at least two individuals, each of whom signed within a reasonable time after he or she witnessed either the signing of the will as described in clause (2) or the testator's acknowledgment of that signature or acknowledgment of the will.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-504, is amended to read:

524.2-504 [SELF-PROVED WILL.]

(c) A signature affixed to a self-proving affidavit attached to a will is considered a signature affixed to the will, if necessary to prove the will's due execution.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-505, is amended to read:

524.2-505 [WHO MAY WITNESS.]

(a) Any person An individual generally competent to be a witness may act as a witness to a will.

(b) A will is not invalid because the will is signed The signing of a will by an interested witness does not invalidate the will or any provision of it.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-507, is amended to read:

524.2-507 [REVOCATION BY WRITING OR BY ACT.]

(a) A will or any part thereof is revoked:

(1), by a subsequent will which revokes the prior will or part expressly or by inconsistency; or

(2) by being burned, torn, canceled, obliterated, or destroyed, with the intent and for the purpose of revoking it by the testator or by another person in the testator's presence and by the testator's direction. by executing a subsequent will that revokes the previous will or part expressly or by inconsistency; or

(2) by performing a revocatory act on the will, if the testator performed the act with the intent and for the purpose of revoking the will or part or if another individual performed the act in the testator's conscious presence and by the testator's direction. For purposes of this clause, "revocatory act on the will" includes burning, tearing, canceling, obliterating, or destroying the will or any part of it. A burning, tearing, or canceling may be a "revocatory act on the will," whether or not the burn, tear, or cancellation touched any of the words on the will.

(b) If a subsequent will does not expressly revoke a previous will, the execution of the subsequent will wholly revokes the previous will by inconsistency if the testator intended the subsequent will to replace rather than supplement the previous will.

(c) The testator is presumed to have intended a subsequent will to replace rather than supplement a previous will if the subsequent will makes a complete disposition of the testator's estate. If this presumption arises and is not rebutted by clear and convincing evidence, the previous will is revoked; only the subsequent will is operative on the testator's death.

(d) The testator is presumed to have intended a subsequent will to supplement rather than replace a previous will if the subsequent will does not make a complete disposition of the testator's estate. If this presumption arises and is not rebutted by clear and convincing evidence, the subsequent will revokes the previous will only to the extent the subsequent will is inconsistent with the previous will; each will is fully operative on the testator's death to the extent they are not inconsistent.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-508, is amended to read:

524.2-508 [REVOCATION BY DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE; NO REVOCATION BY OTHER CHANGES OF CIRCUMSTANCES.]

If after executing a will the testator's marriage is dissolved or annulled, the dissolution or annulment revokes any disposition or appointment of property made by the will to the former spouse, any provision conferring a general or special power of appointment on the former spouse, and any nomination of the former spouse as executor, trustee, conservator, or guardian, unless the will expressly provides otherwise. Property prevented from passing to a former spouse because of revocation by dissolution of marriage or annulment passes as if the former spouse failed to survive the decedent, and other provisions conferring some power or office on the former spouse are interpreted as if the spouse failed to survive the decedent. If provisions are revoked solely by this section, they are revived by testator's remarriage to the former spouse. For purposes of this chapter and chapter 525, dissolution of marriage includes divorce. A decree of separation which does not terminate the status of husband and wife is not a dissolution of marriage for purposes of this section. No change of circumstances other than as described in this section revokes a will.

Except as provided in sections 524.2-802 and 524.2-803, a change of circumstances does not revoke a will or any part of it.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-509, is amended to read:

524.2-509 [REVIVAL OF REVOKED WILL.]

(a) If a second will which, had it remained effective at death; would have revoked the first will in whole or in part, is thereafter revoked by acts under section 524.2 507, the first will is revoked in whole or in part unless it is evident from the circumstances of the revocation of the second will or from testator's contemporary or subsequent declarations that the testator intended the first will to take effect as executed.

(b) If a second will which, had it remained effective at death, would have revoked the first will in whole or in part, is thereafter revoked by a third will, the first will is revoked in whole or in part, except to the extent it appears from the terms of the third will that the testator intended the first will to take effect.

(a) If a subsequent will that wholly revoked a previous will is thereafter revoked by a revocatory act under section 524.2-507, paragraph (a), clause (2), the previous will remains revoked unless it is revived. The previous will is revived if it is evident from the circumstances of the revocation of the subsequent will or from the testator's contemporary or subsequent declarations that the testator intended the previous will to take effect as executed.

(b) If a subsequent will that partly revoked a previous will is thereafter revoked by a revocatory act under section 524.2-507, paragraph (a), clause (2), a revoked part of the previous will is revived unless it is evident from the circumstances of the revocation of the subsequent will or from the testator's contemporary or subsequent declarations that the testator did not intend the revoked part to take effect as executed.

(c) If a subsequent will that revoked a previous will in whole or in part is thereafter revoked by another later will, the previous will remains revoked in whole or in part, unless it or its revoked part is revived. The previous will or its revoked part is revived to the extent it appears from the terms of the later will that the testator intended the previous will to take effect.

Sec. 42. [524.2-511] [TESTAMENTARY ADDITIONS TO TRUSTS.]

(a) A will may validly devise property to the trustee of a trust established or to be established (i) during the testator's lifetime by the testator, by the testator and some other person, or by some other person, including a funded or unfunded life insurance trust, although the settlor has reserved any or all rights of ownership of the insurance contracts, or (ii) at the testator's death by the testator's devise to the trustee, if, in either case, the trust is identified in the testator's will and its terms are set forth in a written instrument, other than a will, executed before, concurrently with, or after the execution of the testator's will or in another individual's will if that other individual has predeceased the testator, regardless of the existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust. The devise is not invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the will or the testator's death.

(b) Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, property devised to a trust described in paragraph (a) is not held under a testamentary trust of the testator, but it becomes a part of the trust to which it is devised, and must be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the governing instrument setting forth the terms of the trust, including any amendments thereto made before or after the testator's death.

(c) Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, a revocation or termination of the trust before the testator's death causes the devise to lapse.

(d) This section does not invalidate a devise made by a will executed before February 21, 1963.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-512, is amended to read:

524.2-512 [EVENTS OF INDEPENDENT SIGNIFICANCE.]

A will may dispose of property by reference to acts and events which that have significance apart from their effect upon the dispositions made by the will, whether they occur before or after the execution of the will or before or after the testator's death. The execution or revocation of a another individual's will of another person is such an event.

Sec. 44. [524.2-514] [CONTRACTS CONCERNING SUCCESSION.]

A contract to make a will or devise, or not to revoke a will or devise, or to die intestate, if executed after January 1, 1976, may be established only by (i) provisions of a will stating material provisions of the contract, (ii) an express reference in a will to a contract and extrinsic evidence proving the terms of the contract, or (iii) a writing signed by the decedent evidencing the contract. The execution of a joint will or mutual wills does not create a presumption of a contract not to revoke the will or wills.

Sec. 45. [524.2-515] [DEPOSIT OF WILL WITH COURT IN TESTATOR'S LIFETIME.]

A will may be deposited by the testator or the testator's agent with any court for safekeeping, under rules of the court. The will must be sealed and kept confidential. During the testator's lifetime, a deposited will must be delivered only to the testator or to a person authorized in writing signed by the testator to receive the will. A conservator or guardian may be allowed to examine a deposited will of a protected testator under procedures designed to maintain the confidential character of the document to the extent possible, and to ensure that it will be resealed and kept on deposit after the examination. Upon being informed of the testator's death, the court may deliver the will to the appropriate court.

Sec. 46. [524.2-516] [DUTY OF CUSTODIAN OF WILL; LIABILITY.]

After the death of a testator and on request of an interested person, a person having custody of a will of the testator shall deliver it with reasonable promptness to an appropriate court. A person who willfully fails to deliver a will is liable to any person aggrieved for any damages that may be sustained by the failure. A person who willfully refuses or fails to deliver a will after being ordered by the court in a proceeding brought for the purpose of compelling delivery is subject to penalty for contempt of court.

Sec. 47. [524.2-517] [PENALTY CLAUSE FOR CONTEST.]

A provision in a will purporting to penalize an interested person for contesting the will or instituting other proceedings relating to the estate is unenforceable if probable cause exists for instituting proceedings.

RULES OF CONSTRUCTION APPLICABLE ONLY TO WILLS

Sec. 48. [524.2-601] [SCOPE.]

In the absence of a finding of a contrary intention, the rules of construction in this part control the construction of a will.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-602, is amended to read:

524.2-602 [CHOICE OF LAW AS TO MEANING AND EFFECT OF WILLS WILL MAY PASS ALL PROPERTY AND AFTER-ACQUIRED PROPERTY.]

The meaning and legal effect of a disposition in a will shall be determined by the local law of a particular state selected by the testator in the testator's instrument unless the application of that law is contrary to the public policy of this state otherwise applicable to the disposition. A will may provide for the passage of all property the testator owns at death and all property acquired by the estate after the testator's death.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-603, is amended to read:

524.2-603 [RULES OF CONSTRUCTION AND INTENTION ANTILAPSE; DECEASED DEVISEE; CLASS GIFTS.]

The intention of a testator as expressed in the testator's will controls the legal effect of the testator's dispositions. The rules of construction expressed in the succeeding sections of this part apply unless a contrary intention is indicated by the will.

(a) [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(1) "Alternative devise" means a devise that is expressly created by the will and, under the terms of the will, can take effect instead of another devise on the happening of one or more events, including survival of the testator or failure to survive the testator, whether an event is expressed in condition-precedent, condition-subsequent, or any other form. A residuary clause constitutes an alternative devise with respect to a nonresiduary devise only if the will specifically provides that, upon lapse or failure, the nonresiduary devise, or nonresiduary devises in general, pass under the residuary clause.

(2) "Class member" includes an individual who fails to survive the testator but who would have taken under a devise in the form of a class gift had he or she survived the testator.

(3) "Devise" includes an alternative devise, a devise in the form of a class gift, and an exercise of a power of appointment.

(4) "Devisee" includes (i) a class member if the devise is in the form of a class gift, (ii) an individual or class member who was deceased at the time the testator executed his or her will as well as an individual or class member who was then living but who failed to survive the testator, and (iii) an appointee under a power of appointment exercised by the testator's will.

74TH DAY]

(5) "Surviving devisee" or "surviving descendant" means a devisee or a descendant who neither predeceased the testator nor is deemed to have predeceased the testator under section 524.2-702.

(6) "Testator" includes the donee of a power of appointment if the power is exercised in the testator's will.

(b) [SUBSTITUTE GIFT.] If a devisee fails to survive the testator and is a grandparent or a descendant of a grandparent of either the testator or the donor of a power of appointment exercised by the testator's will, the following apply:

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (4), if the devise is not in the form of a class gift and the deceased devisee leaves surviving descendants, a substitute gift is created in the devisee's surviving descendants. They take by representation the property to which the devisee would have been entitled had the devisee survived the testator.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (4), if the devise is in the form of a class gift, other than a devise to "issue," "descendants," "heirs of the body," "heirs," "next of kin," "relatives," or "family," or a class described by language of similar import, a substitute gift is created in the surviving descendants of any deceased devisee. The property to which the devisees would have been entitled had all of them survived the testator passes to the surviving devisees and the surviving descendants of the deceased devisees. Each surviving devisee takes the share to which he or she would have been entitled had the deceased devisees survived the testator. Each deceased devisee's surviving descendants who are substituted for the deceased devisee take by representation the share to which the deceased devisee would have been entitled had the deceased devisee survived the testator. For the purposes of this paragraph, "deceased devisee" means a class member who failed to survive the testator and left one or more surviving descendants.

(3) For the purpose of section 524.2-601, words of survivorship, such as in a devise to an individual "if he survives me," or in a devise to "my children who survive me," are a sufficient indication of an intent contrary to the application of this section.

(4) If the will creates an alternative devise with respect to a devise for which a substitute gift is created by clause (1) or (2), the substitute gift is superseded by the alternative devise only if an expressly designated devisee of the alternative devise is entitled to take under the will.

(c) [MORE THAN ONE SUBSTITUTE GIFT; WHICH ONE TAKES.] If, under paragraph (b), substitute gifts are created and not superseded with respect to more than one devise and the devises are alternative devises, one to the other, the determination of which of the substitute gifts takes effect is resolved as follows:

(1) Except as provided in clause (2), the devised property passes under the primary substitute gift.

(2) If there is a younger-generation devise, the devised property passes under the younger-generation substitute gift and not under the primary substitute gift.

(3) In this paragraph:

(i) "Primary devise" means the devise that would have taken effect had all the deceased devisees of the alternative devises who left surviving descendants survived the testator.

(ii) "Primary substitute gift" means the substitute gift created with respect to the primary devise.

(iii) "Younger-generation devise" means a devise that (A) is to a descendant of a devisee of the primary devise, (B) is an alternative devise with respect to the primary devise, (C) is a devise for which a substitute gift is created, and (D) would have taken effect had all the deceased devisees who left surviving descendants survived the testator except the deceased devisee or devisees of the primary devise.

(iv) "Younger-generation substitute gift" means the substitute gift created with respect to the younger-generation devise.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-604, is amended to read:

524.2-604 [CONSTRUCTION THAT WILL PASSES ALL PROPERTY; AFTER ACQUIRED PROPERTY FAILURE OF TESTAMENTARY PROVISION.]

A will is construed to pass all property which the testator owns at death including property acquired after the execution of the will.

(a) Except as provided in section 524.2-603, a devise, other than a residuary devise, that fails for any reason becomes a part of the residue.

(b) Except as provided in section 524.2-603, if the residue is devised to two or more persons, the share of a residuary devisee that fails for any reason passes to the other residuary devisee, or to other residuary devisees in proportion to the interest of each in the remaining part of the residue.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-605, is amended to read:

524.2-605 [ANTILAPSE; DECEASED DEVISEE; CLASS CIFTS INCREASE IN SECURITIES; ACCESSIONS.]

If a devisee who is a grandparent or a lineal descendant of a grandparent of the testator is dead at the time of execution of the will, or fails to survive the testator, the issue of the deceased devisee who survive the testator take in place of the deceased devisee and if they are all of the same degree of kinship to the devisee they take equally, but if of unequal degree then those of more remote degree take by representation. One who is a grandparent or a lineal descendant of a grandparent of the testator and who would have been a devisee under a class gift on surviving the testator is treated as a devisee for purposes of this section whether death occurred before or after the execution of the will.

(a) If a testator executes a will that devises securities and the testator then owned securities that meet the description in the will, the devise includes additional securities owned by the testator at death to the extent the additional securities were acquired by the testator after the will was executed as a result of the testator's ownership of the described securities and are securities of any of the following types:

(1) securities of the same organization acquired by reason of action initiated by the organization or any successor, related, or acquiring organization, excluding any acquired by exercise of purchase options;

(2) securities of another organization acquired as a result of a merger, consolidation, reorganization, or other distribution by the organization or any successor, related, or acquiring organization; or

(3) securities of the same organization acquired as a result of a plan of reinvestment.

(b) Distributions in cash before death with respect to a described security are not part of the devise.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-606, is amended to read:

524.2-606 [FAILURE OF TESTAMENTARY PROVISION NONADEMPTION OF SPECIFIC DEVISES; UNPAID PROCEEDS OF SALE, CONDEMNATION, OR INSURANCE; SALE BY CONSERVATOR OR GUARDIAN.]

(a) Except as provided in section 524.2 605 if a devise other than a residuary devise fails for any reason, it becomes a part of the residue.

(b) Except as provided in section 524.2 605 if the residue is devised to two or more persons and the share of one of the residuary devisees fails for any reason, that share passes to the other residuary devisee, or to other residuary devises in proportion to their interests in the residue. A specific devisee has a right to the specifically devised property in the testator's estate at death and:

(1) any balance of the purchase price, together with any security agreement, owing from a purchaser to the testator at death by reason of sale of the property;

(2) any amount of a condemnation award for the taking of the property unpaid at death;

(3) any proceeds unpaid at death on fire or casualty insurance on or other recovery for injury to the property; and

(4) property owned by the testator at death and acquired as a result of foreclosure, or obtained in lieu of foreclosure, of the security interest for a specifically devised obligation.

(b) If specifically devised property is sold or mortgaged by a conservator or guardian, or if a condemnation award, insurance proceeds, or recovery for injury to the property are paid to a conservator or guardian, the specific devisee has the right to a general pecuniary devise equal to the net sale price, the amount of the unpaid loan, the condemnation award, the insurance proceeds, or the recovery.

74TH DAY]

(c) The right of a specific devisee under paragraph (b) is reduced by any right the devisee has under paragraph (a).

(d) For the purposes of the references in paragraph (b) to a conservator or guardian, paragraph (b) does not apply if after the sale, mortgage, condemnation, casualty, or recovery, it was adjudicated that the testator's incapacity ceased and the testator survived the adjudication by one year.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-607, is amended to read:

524.2-607 [CHANCE IN SECURITIES; ACCESSIONS; NONADEMPTION NONEXONERATION.]

(a) If the testator intended a specific devise of certain sceunitics rather than the equivalent value thereof, the specific devisee is entitled only to:

(1) as much of the devised securities as is a part of the estate at time of the testator's death;

(2) any additional or other securities of the same entity owned by the testator by reason of action initiated by the entity excluding any acquired by exercise of purchase options;

(3) securities of another entity owned by the testator as a result of a merger, consolidation, reorganization or other similar action initiated by the entity; and

(4) any additional securities of the entity owned by the testator as a result of a plan of reinvestment if it is a regulated investment company.

(b) Distributions prior to death with respect to a specifically devised security not provided for in subsection (a) are not part of the specific devise.

A specific devise passes subject to any mortgage or security interest existing at the date of death, without right of exoneration, regardless of a general directive in the will to pay debts.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-608, is amended to read:

524.2-608 [NONADEMPTION OF SPECIFIC DEVISES IN CERTAIN CASES; SALE BY CONSERVATOR OR CUARDIAN; UNPAID PROCEEDS OF SALE, CONDEMNATION OR INSURANCE EXERCISE OF POWER OF APPOINTMENT.]

(a) If specifically devised property is sold by a conservator or guardian, or if a condemnation award or insurance proceeds are paid to a conservator or guardian as a result of condemnation, fire, or casualty, the specific devisee has the right to a general pecuniary devise equal to the net sale price, the condemnation award, or the insurance proceeds. This subsection does not apply if subsequent to the sale, condemnation, or casualty, it is adjudicated that the disability of the testator has ceased and the testator survives the adjudication by one year. The right of the specific devisee under this subsection is reduced by any right possessed under subsection (b).

(b) Any specific devisee has the right to the remaining specifically devised property and

(1) any balance of the purchase price together with any security interest owing from a purchaser to the testator at death by reason of sale of the property;

(2) any amount of a condemnation award for the taking of the property unpaid at death;

(3) any proceeds unpaid at death on fire or casualty insurance on the property; and

(4) property owned by testator at death as a result of forcelosure, or obtained in lieu of forcelosure, of the security for a specifically devised obligation.

A general residuary clause in a will, or a will making general disposition of all of the testator's property, does not exercise a power of appointment held by the testator unless the testator's will manifests an intention to include property subject to the power.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-609, is amended to read:

524.2-609 [NONEXONERATION ADEMPTION BY SATISFACTION.]

A specific devise passes subject to any security interest existing at the date of death, without right of exoneration, regardless of a general directive in the will to pay debts.

(a) Property a testator gave in his or her lifetime to a person is treated as a satisfaction of a devise in whole or in part, only if (i) the will provides for deduction of the gift, (ii) the testator declared in a contemporaneous writing that the gift is in satisfaction of the devise or that its value is to be deducted from the value of the devise, or (iii) the devisee acknowledged in writing that the gift is in satisfaction of the devise or that its value of the devise or that its value of the devise.

(b) For purposes of partial satisfaction, property given during lifetime is valued as of the time the devisee came into possession or enjoyment of the property or at the testator's death, whichever occurs first.

(c) If the devisee fails to survive the testator, the gift is treated as a full or partial satisfaction of the devise, as appropriate, in applying sections 524.2-603 and 524.2-604, unless the testator's contemporaneous writing provides otherwise.

Part 7

CONTRACTUAL ARRANGEMENTS RELATING TO DEATH

RULES OF CONSTRUCTION APPLICABLE TO WILLS

AND OTHER GOVERNING INSTRUMENTS

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 524.2-701, is amended to read:

524.2-701 [CONTRACTS CONCERNING SUCCESSION SCOPE.]

A contract to make a will or devise, or not to revoke a will or devise, or to die intestate, if executed after January 1, 1976, can be established only by (1) provisions of a will stating material provisions of the contract; (2) an express reference in a will to a contract and extrinsic evidence proving the terms of the contract; or (3) a writing signed by the decedent evidencing the contract. The execution of a joint will or mutual wills does not create a presumption of a contract not to revoke the will or wills.

In the absence of a finding of a contrary intention, the rules of construction in this part control the construction of a governing instrument. The rules of construction in this part apply to a governing instrument of any type, except as the application of a particular section is limited by its terms to a specific type or types of provision or governing instrument.

Sec. 58. [524.2-703] [CHOICE OF LAW AS TO MEANING AND EFFECT OF GOVERNING INSTRUMENT.]

The meaning and legal effect of a governing instrument is determined by the local law of the state selected in the governing instrument, unless the application of that law is contrary to the provisions relating to the elective share described in part 2, the provisions relating to exempt property and allowances described in part 4, or any other public policy of this state otherwise applicable to the disposition.

Sec. 59. [524.2-704] [POWER OF APPOINTMENT; MEANING OF SPECIFIC REFERENCE REQUIREMENT.]

If a governing instrument creating a power of appointment expressly requires that the power be exercised by a reference, an express reference, or a specific reference, to the power or its source, it is presumed that the donor's intention, in requiring that the donee exercise the power by making reference to the particular power or to the creating instrument, was to prevent an inadvertent exercise of the power and an attempt to exercise the power by a donee who had knowledge of and intended to exercise the power is effective.

Sec. 60. [524.2-705] [CLASS GIFTS CONSTRUED TO ACCORD WITH INTESTATE SUCCESSION.]

Adopted individuals and individuals born out of wedlock, and their respective descendants if appropriate to the class, are included in class gifts and other terms of relationship in accordance with the rules for intestate succession. Terms of relationship that do not differentiate relationships by blood from those by affinity, such as "uncles," "aunts," "nieces," or "nephews," are presumed to exclude relatives by affinity. Terms of relationship that do not differentiate relationships by affinity. Terms of relationship that do not differentiate relationships by affinity. Terms of relationship that do not differentiate relationships by affinity. Terms of relationship that do not differentiate relationships by the half blood from those by the whole blood, such as "brothers," "sisters," "nieces," or "nephews," are presumed to include both types of relationships.

Sec. 61. [524.2-708] [CLASS GIFTS TO "DESCENDANTS," "ISSUE," OR "HEIRS OF THE BODY"; FORM OF DISTRIBUTION IF NONE SPECIFIED.]

If a class gift in favor of "descendants," "issue," or "heirs of the body" does not specify the manner in which the property is to be distributed among the class members, the property is distributed among the class members who are living when the interest is to take effect in possession or enjoyment, in such shares as they would receive, under the applicable law of intestate succession, if the designated ancestor had then died intestate owning the subject matter of the class gift.

Sec. 62. [524.2-709] [REPRESENTATION; PER STIRPES; PER CAPITA AT EACH GENERATION.]

(a) [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(1) "Deceased child" or "deceased descendant" means a child or a descendant who either predeceased the distribution date or is deemed to have predeceased the distribution date under section 524.2-702.

(2) "Distribution date," with respect to an interest, means the time when the interest is to take effect in possession or enjoyment. The distribution date need not occur at the beginning or end of a calendar day, but can occur at a time during the course of a day.

(3) "Surviving ancestor," "surviving child," or "surviving descendant" means an ancestor, a child, or a descendant who neither predeceased the distribution date nor is deemed to have predeceased the distribution date under section 524.2-702.

(b) [REPRESENTATION; PER STIRPES.] If an applicable statute or governing instrument calls for property to be distributed by "representation" or "per stirpes," the property is divided into as many equal shares as there are (i) surviving children of the designated ancestor and (ii) deceased children who left surviving descendants. Each surviving child, if any, is allocated one share. The share of each deceased child with surviving descendants is divided in the same manner, with subdivision repeating at each succeeding generation until the property is fully allocated among surviving descendants.

(c) [PER CAPITA AT EACH GENERATION.] If a governing instrument calls for property to be distributed "per capita at each generation," the property is divided into as many equal shares as there are (i) surviving descendants in the generation nearest to the designated ancestor which contains one or more surviving descendants and (ii) deceased descendants in the same generation who left surviving descendants, if any. Each surviving descendant in the nearest generation is allocated one share. The remaining shares, if any, are combined and then divided in the same manner among the surviving descendants of the deceased descendants as if the surviving descendants who were allocated a share and their surviving descendants had predeceased the distribution date.

(d) [DECEASED DESCENDANT WITH NO SURVIVING DESCENDANT DISREGARDED.] For the purposes of paragraphs (b) and (c), an individual who is deceased and left no surviving descendant is disregarded, and an individual who leaves a surviving ancestor who is a descendant of the designated ancestor is not entitled to a share.

"(i) Notwithstanding anything in this subdivision to the contrary, a project to construct a new mixed municipal solid waste transfer station that has an enforceable long-term commitment to serve an existing resource recovery facility may receive grant assistance up to 75 percent of the capital cost of the project if addition of the transfer station will increase substantially the geographical area served by the resource recovery facility and the ability of the resource recovery facility to operate more efficiently on a regional basis and the facility meets the criteria in paragraph (c), the second clause (2). Subd. 4. [PILOT PROJECTS.] By April 15, 1992, manufacturers whose rechargeable batteries or products powered by rechargeable batteries are sold in this state shall implement pilot projects for the collection and proper management of all rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by nonremovable rechargeable batteries. Manufacturers may act as a group or through a representative organization. The pilot projects must run for a minimum of 18 months and be designed to collect sufficient statewide data for the design and implementation of permanent collection and management programs that may be reasonably expected to collect at least 90 percent of waste rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by rechargeable batteries that are generated in the state.

By December 1, 1991, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall submit plans for the projects to the legislative commission. At least every six months during the pilot projects the manufacturers shall submit progress reports to the commission. The commission shall review the plans and progress reports.

By November 1, 1993, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall report to the legislative commission the final results of the projects and plans for implementation of permanent programs. The commission shall review the final results and plans.

By October 1, 1994 and by October 1, 1995, each manufacturer or a representative organization shall submit to the commission additional reports that detail progress made toward implementing permanent management programs. The October 1, 1995, report must include a description of the programs implemented under subdivision 5. These progress reports must include the estimated amount of rechargeable batteries subject to this section sold in the state by each manufacturer and the amount of batteries each collected during the previous year. A representative organization may report amounts in aggregate for all the members of the group.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.9157, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COLLECTION AND MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS.] By April 15, 1994 September 20, 1995, the manufacturers or their representative organization shall implement permanent programs, based on the results of the pilot projects required in subdivision 4, that may be reasonably expected to collect 90 percent of the waste rechargeable batteries and the participating manufacturers' products powered by rechargeable batteries that are generated in the state. The batteries and products collected must be recycled or otherwise managed or disposed of properly.

In every odd-numbered year after 1995, each manufacturer or a representative organization shall provide information to the commission that specifies at least the estimated amount of rechargeable batteries subject to this section sold in the state by each manufacturer and the amount of batteries each collected during the previous two years. A representative organization may report the amounts in aggregate for all the members of the group."

Before any fee is reduced, the verification procedures of section 473.843, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), must be followed and submitted to the appropriate county, except that for facilities operating outside of the metropolitan area the commissioner shall prescribe procedures for verifying the required 85 percent volume reduction.

(b) A facility permitted for the disposal of construction debris is exempt from 25 percent of a fee imposed under subdivision 1 if the facility has implemented a recycling program approved by the county and 25 percent if the facility contains a liner and leachate collection system approved by the agency.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 115A.921, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MIXED MUNICIPAL SOLID WASTE.] A city or town may impose a fee, not to exceed $1 per cubic yard of waste, or its equivalent, on operators of facilities for the disposal of mixed municipal solid waste located within the city or town. The revenue from the fees must be credited to the city or town general fund. Revenue produced by 25 cents of the fee must be used only for purposes of landfill abatement or for purposes of mitigating and compensating for the local risks, costs, and other adverse effects of facilities. Revenue produced by the balance of the fee may be used for any general fund purpose.

Waste residue from recycling facilities at which recyclable materials are separated or processed for the purpose of recycling, or from energy and resource recovery facilities at which solid waste is processed for the purpose of extracting, reducing, converting to energy, or otherwise separating and preparing solid waste for reuse shall be exempt from the fee imposed by a city or town under this section if there is at least an 85 percent volume reduction in the solid waste processed. Until July 1, 1997, this section does not apply to electrodeposition primer coating or primer coating used on aircraft, porcelain enamel coatings, medical devices, hexavalent chromium in the form of chromine acid when processed at a temperature of at least 750 degrees Fahrenheit, or ink used for computer identification markings.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, "intentionally introduce" means to deliberately use a metal listed in paragraph (a) as an element during manufacture or distribution of an item listed in paragraph (a). Intentional introduction does not include the incidental presence of any of the prohibited elements.

(c) The total concentration level of all metals listed in paragraph (a) may not exceed 100 parts per million by weight.

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY EXEMPTION.] (a) An item listed in subdivision 1 is exempt from this section until July 1, 1997, if the manufacturer of the item submits to the commissioner a written request for an exemption by September 1, 1994. The request must include at least:

(1) an explanation of why compliance is not technically feasible at the time of the request;

(2) how the manufacturer will comply by July 1, 1997; and

(3) the name, address, and telephone number of a person the commissioner can contact for further information.

(b) A person who uses an item listed in subdivision 1, into which one of the listed metals has been intentionally introduced, may submit, on behalf of the manufacturer, a request for temporary exemption as provided in paragraph (a). The request must include:

(1) an explanation of why the person must continue to use the item and a discussion of potential alternatives;

(2) an explanation of why it is not technically feasible at the time of the request to formulate or manufacture the item without intentionally introducing a listed metal;

(3) that the person will stop using the item by July 1, 1997, if it still contains an intentionally introduced listed metal; and

(4) the name, address, and telephone number of a person the commissioner can contact for further information.

(c) A person who submits a request for temporary exemption under paragraph (b) may submit a request for a temporary exemption after September 1, 1994, for an item that the person will use as an alternative to the item for which the request was originally made as long as the new item has a total concentration level of all the listed metals that is significantly less than in the original item. An exemption under this paragraph expires July 1, 1997, and the person who requests it must submit the progress description required in paragraph (e).

(d) By October 1, 1994, and annually thereafter if requests are received under paragraph (c), the commissioner shall submit to the legislative commission on waste management a list of manufacturers and persons that have requested an exemption under this subdivision and the items for which exemptions were sought, along with copies of the requests.

(e) By July 1, 1996, each manufacturer on the list shall submit to the commissioner a description of the progress the manufacturer has made toward compliance with subdivision 1, and the date compliance has been achieved or the date on or before July 1, 1997, by which the manufacturer anticipates achieving compliance. By July 1, 1996, each person who has requested an exemption under paragraph (b) or (c) shall submit to the commissioner:

(1) a description of progress made to eliminate the listed metal or metals from the item or progress made by the person to find a replacement item that does not contain an intentionally introduced listed metal; and

(2) the date or anticipated date the item is or will be free of intentionally introduced metals or the date the person has stopped or will stop using the item.

By October 1, 1996, the commissioner shall submit to the legislative commission a summary of the progress made by the manufacturers and other persons and any recommendations for appropriate legislative or other action to ensure that products are not distributed in the state after July 1, 1997, that violate subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION; ENFORCEMENT.] (a) This section does not apply to art supplies.

(b) This section may be enforced under sections 115.071 and 116.072. The attorney general or the commissioner of the agency shall coordinate enforcement of this section with the director of the office."

Subd. 5. [ROLE OF PRIVATE SECTOR; COUNTY OVERSIGHT.] A county may include in its solid waste management master plan and in its plan for county land disposal abatement a determination that the private sector will achieve, either in part or in whole, the goals and requirements of sections 473.149 and 473.803, as long as the county:

(1) retains active oversight over the efforts of the private sector and monitors performance to ensure compliance with the law and the goals and standards of the council and the county as expressed in the metropolitan solid waste management plan and the county master plan;

(2) continues to meet its responsibilities under the law for ensuring proper waste management, including, at a minimum, enforcing waste management law, providing waste education, promoting waste reduction, and providing its residents the opportunity to recycle waste materials; and

(3) continues to provide all required reports on the county's progress in meeting the waste management goals and standards of this chapter and chapter 115A.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.811, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ORDINANCES; SOLID WASTE COLLECTION AND TRANSPORTATION.] (a) Each metropolitan county may adopt ordinances governing the collection of solid waste. A county may adopt, but may not be required to adopt, an ordinance that requires the separation from mixed municipal waste, by generators before collection, of materials that can readily be separated for use or reuse as substitutes for raw materials or for transformation into a usable soil amendment.

(b) Each local unit of government within the metropolitan area shall adopt an ordinance governing the collection of solid waste within its boundaries. If the county within which it is located has adopted a collection ordinance, the local unit shall adopt either the county ordinance by reference or a more strict ordinance. If the county within which it is located has adopted a separation ordinance, the ordinance applies in all local units within the county that have failed to meet the local abatement performance standards, as stated in the most recent annual county report.

(c) Ordinances of counties and local government units may establish reasonable conditions respecting but shall not prevent the transportation of solid waste by a licensed collector through and between counties and local units, except as required for the enforcement of any designation of a facility by a county under chapter 115A or for enforcement of the prohibition on disposal of unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste under sections 473.848 and 473.849.

(d) A licensed collector or a metropolitan county or local government unit may request review by the council of an ordinance adopted under this subdivision. The council shall approve or disapprove the ordinance within 60 days of the submission of a request for review. The ordinance shall remain in effect unless it is disapproved.

(e) Ordinances of counties and local units of government:

(1) shall provide for the enforcement of any designation of facilities by the counties under chapter  $115A_{2}$

(2) may require waste collectors and transporters to deliver unprocessed mixed municipal waste generated in the county to processing facilities; and

(3) may prohibit waste collectors and transporters from delivering unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste generated in the county to disposal facilities for final disposal.

(f) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit limits the authority of the local government unit to regulate and license collectors of solid waste or to require review or approval by the council for ordinances regulating collection.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 473.811, subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [ORDINANCES; SOLID WASTE FACILITIES.] Each metropolitan county shall by ordinance establish and from time to time revise rules, regulations, and standards for solid waste facilities within the county, relating to location, sanitary operation, periodic inspection and monitoring, maintenance, termination and abandonment, and other pertinent matters. The county ordinance may require facilities accepting mixed municipal solid waste for disposal to install scales. The county ordinance may prohibit disposal facilities from accepting unprocessed mixed municipal solid waste for final disposal. The county ordinance shall require permits or licenses for solid waste facilities and shall require that such facilities be registered with a county office.

Sec. 35. [473.812] [RECORDS; INSPECTION.]

For the purpose of enforcing section 473.811 or ordinances adopted under that section, a county has the responsibilities and authorities for record inspection under section 115A.882, regardless of whether the county has adopted a designation ordinance under sections 115A.80 to 115A.893."

(1) 35 percent for waste collected from generators for whom a waste collector or local government unit provides collection and management of recyclables separately from collection and management of mixed municipal solid waste; or

(2) 20 percent for waste collected from generators for whom a waste collector or local government unit provides collection of recyclables combined with mixed municipal solid waste.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a), a mixed municipal solid waste generator is provided separate collection and management of recyclables if the generator has the opportunity to separately recycle as described in section 115A.552 and the waste collector that serves the generator does not override the opportunity to separately recycle by collecting recyclables combined with mixed municipal solid waste for separate or combined management of the recyclables after collection.

"Number two qualified plan" means a plan described in section 62E.06, subdivision 2.

(b) If the court finds that dependent health or dental insurance is not available to the obligor or obligee on a group basis or through an employer or union, or that the group insurer is not accessible to the obligee, the court may require the obligor (1) to obtain other dependent health or dental insurance, (2) to be liable for reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, or (3) to pay no less than $50 per month to be applied to the medical and dental expenses of the children or to the cost of health insurance dependent coverage.

(c) If the court finds that the available dependent health or dental insurance does not pay all the reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, including any existing or anticipated extraordinary medical expenses, and the court finds that the obligor has the financial ability to contribute to the payment of these medical or dental expenses, the court shall require the obligor to be liable for all or a portion of the medical or dental expenses of the child not covered by the required health or dental plan. Medical and dental expenses include, but are not limited to, necessary orthodontia and eye care, including prescription lenses.

(d) If the obligor is employed by a self-insured employer subject only to the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) of 1974, and the insurance benefit plan meets the above requirements, the court shall order the obligor to enroll the dependents within 30 days of the court order effective date or be liable for all medical and dental expenses occurring while coverage is not in effect. If enrollment in the ERISA plan is precluded by exclusionary clauses, the court shall order the obligor to obtain other coverage or make payments as provided in paragraph (b) or (c).

(e) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties and approved by the court, if the court finds that the obligee is not receiving public assistance for the child and has the financial ability to contribute to the cost of medical and dental expenses for the child, including the cost of insurance, the court shall order the obligee and obligor to each assume a portion of these expenses based on their proportionate share of their total net income as defined in section 518.54, subdivision 6.

(f) Payments ordered under this section are subject to section 518.611. An obligee who fails to apply payments received to the medical expenses of the dependents may be found in contempt of this order.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 518.551, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [NOTICE TO PUBLIC AUTHORITY; GUIDELINES.] (a) The petitioner shall notify the public authority of all proceedings for dissolution, legal separation, determination of parentage or for the custody of a child, if either party is receiving aid to families with dependent children or applies for it subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding. The notice must contain the full names of the parties to the proceeding, their social security account numbers, and their birth dates. After receipt of the notice, the court shall set child support as provided in this subdivision. The court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's support, without regard to marital misconduct. The court shall approve a child support stipulation of the parties if each party is represented by independent counsel, unless the stipulation does not meet the conditions of paragraph (i). In other cases the court shall determine and order child support in a specific dollar amount in accordance with the guidelines and the other factors set forth in paragraph (b) and any departure therefrom. The court may also order the obligor to pay child support in the form of a percentage share of the obligor's net bonuses, commissions, or other forms of compensation, in addition to, or if the obligor receives no base pay, in lieu of, an order for a specific dollar amount.

(b) The court shall derive a specific dollar amount for child support by multiplying the obligor's net income by the percentage indicated by the following guidelines:

Guidelines for support for an obligor with a monthly income in excess of the income limit currently in effect under paragraph (k) shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income equal to the limit in effect.

*(ii)

Net Income defined as:

Currently Being Paid.

Federal Income Tax

State Income Tax

"Net income" does not include:

(1) the income of the obligor's spouse, but does include in-kind payments received by the obligor in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business if the payments reduce the obligor's living expenses; or

(2) compensation received by a party for employment in excess of a 40-hour work week, provided that:

(i) support is nonetheless ordered in an amount at least equal to the guidelines amount based on income not excluded under this clause; and

(ii) the party demonstrates, and the court finds, that:

(A) the excess employment began after the filing of the petition for dissolution;

(B) the excess employment reflects an increase in the work schedule or hours worked over that of the two years immediately preceding the filing of the petition;

(C) the excess employment is voluntary and not a condition of employment;

(D) the excess employment is in the nature of additional, part-time or overtime employment compensable by the hour or fraction of an hour; and

(E) the party's compensation structure has not been changed for the purpose of affecting a support or maintenance obligation.

(c) The court shall review the work-related and education-related child care costs of paid by the custodial parent and shall allocate the costs to each parent in proportion to each parent's income after the transfer of child support and spousal maintenance, unless the allocation would be substantially unfair to either parent. The cost of child care for purposes of this section is determined by subtracting the amount of any federal and state income tax credits available to a parent from the actual cost paid for child care. For purposes of this paragraph, "child care" has the meaning given it in section 256H.01. "Child care costs" is the amount remaining after the calculations required in clauses (1) and (2).

(1) From the amount which the custodial parent paid for child care, deduct any federal, state, or county child care subsidy received by the custodial parent, to determine net child care costs.

(2) From the net child care costs, deduct the approximate value of state and federal tax credits available to the custodial parent.

For purposes of this paragraph, the approximate value of state and federal tax credits is determined as follows: For custodial parents with incomes of less than $12,000, the approximate value of state and federal tax credits equals the lesser of (i) 30 percent of the net child care costs paid by the custodial parent; or (ii) $720 for the child care costs incurred on behalf of one child or $1,440 for the child care costs incurred on behalf of two or more children.

For custodial parents with incomes of at least $12,000 but less than $20,000, the approximate value of state and federal tax credits equals the lesser of (i) 20 percent of the net child care costs paid by the custodial parent; or (ii) $1,080 for the child care costs incurred on behalf of one child or $2,160 for the child care costs incurred on behalf of two or more children.

For custodial parents with incomes of at least $20,000 but less than $25,000, the approximate value of state and federal tax credits equals the lesser of (i) 20 percent of the net child care costs paid by the custodial parent; or (ii) $720 for the child care costs incurred on behalf of one child or $1,440 for the child care costs incurred on behalf of two or more children.

For custodial parents with incomes of $25,000 or more, the approximate value of state and federal tax credits equals the lesser of (i) 20 percent of the net child care costs paid by the custodial parent; or (ii) $480 for the child care costs incurred on behalf of one child or $960 for the child care costs incurred on behalf of two or more children. The amount allocated for child care expenses costs is considered child support, but is not subject to a cost-of-living adjustment under section 518.641.

(e) (d) In addition to the child support guidelines, the court shall take into consideration the following factors in setting or modifying child support or in determining whether to deviate from the guidelines:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the parents, including real and personal property, but excluding income from excess employment of the obligor or obligee that meets the criteria of paragraph (b), clause (2)(ii);

(2) the financial needs and resources, physical and emotional condition, and educational needs of the child or children to be supported;

(3) the standards of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved, but recognizing that the parents now have separate households;

(4) which parent receives the income taxation dependency exemption and what financial benefit the parent receives from it;

(5) the parents' debts as provided in paragraph (d); and

(6) the obligor's receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87 or 256B.01 to 256B.40.

(d) (e) In establishing or modifying a support obligation, the court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:

(1) the right to support has not been assigned under section 256.74;

(2) the court determines that the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or parent or for the necessary generation of income. If the debt was incurred for the necessary generation of income, the court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to the continuing generation of income; and

(3) the party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid.

(e) (f) Any schedule prepared under paragraph (d), clause (3), shall contain a statement that the debt will be fully paid after the number of months shown in the schedule, barring emergencies beyond the party's control.

(f) (g) Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period.

(g) (h) If payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.

(h) (i) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

(i) (i) The guidelines in this subdivision are a rebuttable presumption and shall be used in all cases when establishing or modifying child support. If the court does not deviate from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings concerning the amount of the obligor's income used as the basis for the guidelines calculation and any other significant evidentiary factors affecting the determination of child support. If the court deviates from the guidelines, the court shall make written findings giving the amount of support calculated under the guidelines, the reasons for the deviation, and shall specifically address the criteria in paragraph (b) and how the deviation serves the best interest of the child. The provisions of this paragraph apply whether or not the parties are each represented by independent counsel and have entered into a written agreement. The court shall review stipulations presented to it for conformity to the guidelines and the court is not required to conduct a hearing, but the parties shall provide the documentation of earnings required under subdivision 5b.

(i) (k) If the child support payments are assigned to the public agency under section 256.74, the court may not deviate downward from the child support guidelines unless the court specifically finds that the failure to deviate downward would impose an extreme hardship on the obligor.

(k) (1) The dollar amount of the income limit for application of the guidelines must be adjusted on July 1 of every even-numbered year to reflect cost-of-living changes. The supreme court shall select the index for the adjustment from the indices listed in section 518.641. The state court administrator shall make the changes in the dollar amount required by this paragraph available to courts and the public on or before April 30 of the year in which the amount is to change."

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section:

(1) "Agricultural product processing facility" means land, buildings, structures, fixtures, and improvements located or to be located in Minnesota and used or operated primarily for the processing or production of marketable products from agriculture crops, including waste and residues from agriculture crops, but not including livestock or livestock products, poultry or poultry products, or wood or wood products.

(2) "Value-added agricultural product" means a product derived from agricultural crops, including waste and residues from agricultural crops, but not including livestock or livestock products, poultry or poultry products, or wood or wood products, which are processed by an agricultural product processing facility.

Subd. 3. [REVOLVING FUND.] There is established in the state treasury a value-added agricultural product revolving fund which is eligible to receive appropriations. All repayments of financial assistance granted under subdivision 2, including principal and interest, must be deposited into this fund. Interest earned on money in the fund accrues to the fund, and money in the fund is appropriated to the commissioner of agriculture for purposes of the value-added agricultural loan program, including costs incurred by the authority to establish and administer the program.

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBILITY.] To be eligible for this program a borrower must:

(1) be a resident of Minnesota or a domestic family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2,

(2) be a grower of the agricultural product which is to be processed by an agricultural product processing facility;

(3) demonstrate an ability to repay the loan; and

(4) meet any other requirements which the authority may impose by rule.

Subd. 5. [LOANS.] (a) The authority may participate in a stock loan with an eligible lender to a farmer who is eligible under subdivision 4. Participation is limited to 50 percent of the principal amount of the loan or $50,000, whichever is less. The interest rates and repayment terms of the authority's participation interest may differ from the interest rates and repayment terms of the lender's retained portion of the loan.

(b) No more than 80 percent of the purchase price of the stock may be financed under this program.

(c) Loans under this program may not be included in lifetime limitation calculated under section 41B.03, subdivision 1, clause (3).

(d) Security for stock loans must be the stock purchased, a personal note executed by the borrower, and whatever other security is required by the eligible lender or the authority.

(f) The authority may impose a reasonable nonrefundable application fee for each application for a stock loan. The authority may review the fee annually and make adjustments as necessary. The application fee is initially $50. Application fees received by the authority must be deposited in the value-added agricultural product revolving fund.

(g) Stock loans under this program will be made using money in the value-added agricultural product revolving fund established under subdivision 3.

(h) The authority may not grant stock loans in a cumulative amount exceeding $10,000,000 for the financing of stock purchases in any one cooperative.

Subd. 6. [RULES.] The authority may adopt rules necessary for the administration of the program established under subdivision 2, including rules which establish a minimum cost of any agricultural product processing facility for which financial assistance may be given to any farmer to help finance the purchase of stock in a cooperative.

Sec. 2. [RURAL FINANCE AUTHORITY PROGRAM PROMOTION.]

The commissioner of agriculture and the director of the rural finance authority shall initiate an effort to examine local lender participation in programs of the rural finance authority and expand participation in programs of the authority where possible. The effort must examine the reasons why lenders do not participate in programs of the authority. The effort must attempt to determine if current programs of the authority fail to meet the needs of lenders and the scale and types of farming practiced in areas with low participation.

Not later than March 1, 1995, the commissioner shall report to the legislature on the findings, conclusions, and recommendations of the investigation and promotion effort. The report must include suggestions for changes in rural finance authority programs to make the programs more attractive to lenders and farm operators in areas where lenders do not participate in rural finance authority programs. The report may recommend statutory changes to make rural finance authority programs more available to Minnesota farm operators.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION; RFA PROGRAM PROMOTION.]

$50,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture for the employment and expenses of additional staff to carry out the rural finance authority examination and promotion effort in section 2. This appropriation remains available until June 30, 1995.

"Subd. 20. [RETIREMENT INCENTIVES.] (a) A school board of a newly reorganized district may offer early retirement incentives to licensed and nonlicensed staff. The early retirement incentives that the board may offer are:

(1) the payment of employer pension plan contributions for a specified period of allowable service credit for district employees who have at least ten years of allowable service credit in the applicable pension plan under paragraph (b);

(2) an extended leave of absence for an eligible employee under section 125.60;

(3) severance payment incentives under paragraph (c);

(4) the employer payment of the premiums for continued health insurance coverage under paragraph (d).

These incentives may only be offered to employees who terminate active employment with the school district or who enter into an extended leave of absence as a result of the consolidation, whichever applies. The board may determine the staff to whom the incentives are offered. Unilateral implementation of this section by a school board is not an unfair labor practice under chapter 179A.

(b) An employee with at least ten years of allowable service credit in the applicable pension plan who is offered an early retirement incentive under paragraph (a), clause (1), may purchase up to five additional years of allowable service credit from the applicable pension plan. To do so, the former employee must pay the member contributions to the pension plan annually in a manner and in accord with a schedule specified by the executive director of the applicable fund. If the former employee makes the member contributions, the board shall make the applicable employer contribution. The salary used to determine these contributions is the salary of the person in the last year that the former employee was employed by the district. During the period of continuing member and employer contributions, the person is not considered to be an active member of the applicable pension plan, is not eligible for any active member disability or survivorship benefit coverage, and is not included in any post-employment termination benefit plan changes unless the applicable benefit legislation provides otherwise. Continued eligibility to purchase service credit under this paragraph expires if the person is subsequently employed during the service purchase period by a public employer with retirement coverage under a pension plan specified in section 356.30, subdivision 3.

(c) Severance payment incentives must conform with sections 465.72, 465.721, and 465.722.

(d) The board may offer a former employee with continued employer-paid health insurance coverage. Coverage may not extend beyond age 65 or the end of the first month in which the employee is eligible for employer-paid health insurance coverage from a new employer. For purposes of this subdivision, "employer-paid health insurance coverage" means medical, hospitalization, or health insurance coverage provided through an insurance company that is licensed to do business in the state and for which the employing unit pays more than one-half of the cost of the insurance premiums."

(b) Health risk limits shall be determined by two methods depending on their toxicological end point.

(c) For systemic toxicants that are not carcinogens, the adopted health risk limits shall be derived using United States Environmental Protection Agency risk assessment methods using a reference dose, a drinking water equivalent, an uncertainty factor, and a factor for relative source contamination, which in general will measure an estimate of daily exposure to the human population, including sensitive subgroups, that is unlikely to result in deleterious effects during long term exposure contribution factor.

(d) For toxicants that are known or probable carcinogens, the adopted health risk limits shall be derived from a quantitative estimate of the chemical's carcinogenic potency published by the United States Environmental Protection Agency's carcinogen assessment group Agency and determined by the commissioner to have undergone thorough scientific review.
