Which motion did not prevail.

Mr. Milton moved that the following statement be inserted in the Journal. Which motion prevailed.

STATEMENT BY SENATOR JOHN MILTON

I asked my colleagues in the Senate to excuse me from voting on H. F. No. 479, a resolution memorializing Congress to initiate a constitutional amendment affirming the value of human life.

I am opposed to abortion, the termination of pregnancy and a denial of the right to life. My view of this has not changed since 1965.

Nevertheless, great efforts are being made to have these resolutions passed by our State Legislatures and some proponents seem willing to employ any tactic to ensure passage, even risking that abortions may be sanctioned without proper medical care unless the entire legislative package can be secured. This, in my judgment, is a distorted concern for life.

My refusal to vote is a protest against this kind of insensitivity and against the attempt to measure my humanity and concern for life by the flick of an electronic button.

Let those who are genuinely concerned for all living things manifest this in all of their words and actions, not just in their support for H. F. No. 479.

John Milton

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Mr. Coleman moved that the rules of the Senate be so far suspended, that a Memorial Service for deceased Senators be made a Special Order of business for Monday, April 30, 1973 at 12:30 p.m. Which motion prevailed.

A MEMORIAL PRAYER

Senate of the State of Minnesota

April 30, 1973

Our Lord and our God. It is fitting that on this day we pause in the midst of our busy schedules to remember those former members of the Minnesota State Senate who since the last session have been taken by death. We bring before your throne of grace these men who were not only servants of the state but servants of God and of man as well:

The Honorable Daniel S. Feidt

The Honorable A. C. Gooding

The Honorable James Keller

The Honorable Henry McKnight

The Honorable Harold S. Nelson

The Honorable John Simonson

The Honorable Alfred Solstad

The Honorable Arne Wanvick

We thank you, O God, for their many years of service in this body and for their dedication toward the never ending task of improving the welfare of persons in this state and in this nation. We pray that the constructive things which they accomplished will remain alive in the people they touched and that their contributions will inspire each of us to higher ideals and better citizenship and will stimulate us to strive to make this state a state where justice will indeed roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream. We further thank you, O God, for the privilege of having known and worked with these men. Our lives were enriched by their presence and by the goodness and truth which flowed from their beings. We remember with gratitude their loyalty and friendship and we would but ask that as individuals and as a body we might inspire such loyalty and radiate such friendship. O Lord, we pray that you would be with their loved ones and may they be strengthened by the memory of their good works and by the love which they shared. May the families of these men accept our thanks for sharing with us these men who were so near and dear to them. And may they be comforted by the knowledge that the Lord has extended his hand to these, his servants and has said to them "Come now, come and be with me for you have fought the good fight, you have finished the race, you have kept the faith."

And, in lasting tribute to these departed, may we who remain in the race, continue to fight the good fight, may we continue to keep the faith so that the Lord may look down upon us this day and every day and say, "Well done, well done my good and faithful servants."

Mr. Coleman moved that the memorial prayer be printed in the Journal and that the Secretary of the Senate transmit a formal copy of this memorial prayer to the widows of the deceased Senators or their next of kin. Which motion prevailed.

RECESS

Mr. Coleman moved that the Senate do now recess until 4:00 o'clock p.m. Which motion prevailed.

The hour of 4:00 o'clock p.m. having arrived, the President called the Senate to order.

MEMBERS EXCUSED

Messrs. Kleinbaum, Pillsbury and Keefe, J. were excused from the balance of today's session. Mr. Patton was excused from the Session of today, beginning at 5:15 o'clock p.m.

(b) A person who is an habitual user of narcotic drugs;

(c) A person who is under the influence of a combination of any two or more of the elements named in subsections (a) and (b) hereof;

(d) A person whose blood contains 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol.

When a police officer has reason to believe from the manner in which a driver is driving, operating, or actually controlling, or has driven, operated, or actually controlled, a vehicle that such driver may be violating this subdivision he may require the driver to provide a sample of his breath for an immediate preliminary screening test or analysis before an arrest is made, using a device approved by the commissioner for this purpose. The results of such a preliminary screening test or analysis shall be used only for the purpose of guiding the officer in deciding whether an arrest should be made, and shall not be used as evidence in any court action.

The driver of any motor vehicle shall furnish such a sample of his breath when required to do so. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 169.123, shall apply to any driver who refuses to furnish a sample of his breath; provided that the license or permit of a driver shall not be revoked pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 169.123, Subdivision 4, for refusal to provide a sample of his breath for preliminary screening purposes, if he submits to a blood, breath or urine test to determine the alcoholic content of his blood pursuant to section 169.123, subdivision 2. Another test may be required of the driver following the screening test pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, which shall be admissible evidence in accordance therewith.

Nothing in this subdivision authorizing such preliminary screening test or analysis shall be construed as changing, limiting, or otherwise modifying the procedures, safeguards, and other provisions of sections 169.121 to 169.123 or ordinances in conformity therewith.

The provisions of this subdivision apply, but are not limited in application, to any person who drives, operates, or who is in actual physical control of any vehicle in the manner prohibited by this subdivision upon the ice of any lake, stream, or river, including but not limited to the ice of any boundary water."
